BRONCOS COLLEGE FREE AGENT HISTORY

In 14 of the last 15 years, at least one rookie college free agent made the Broncos' active roster out of training camp for the first week of the regular season.

In 2018, linebacker Alexander Johnson and running back Phillip Lindsay made Denver's Week 1 roster to give the Broncos 22 such players since 1997.

Among Denver's key CFA signings is three-time Pro Bowl cornerback Chris Harris Jr., who was acquired by the team in 2011 from the University of Kansas (in the photo he's shown in the No. 38 jersey he wore during his first training camp).

1 Broncos 27, Seahawks 24

Sunday, Sept. 9, 2018 • 2:25 p.m. MDT • Broncos Stadium at Mile High • Denver

WEATHER: Sunny, 84º, Wind NE 5 mph • TIME: 3:06 • ATTENDANCE: 76,761

The Denver Broncos defeated the Seattle Seahawks 27-24 in their 2018 season opener to kick off the 35th year of the Pat Bowlen era.

Denver racked up 470 yards of total offense and sacked Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson six times to win for the 18th time in its last 19 home openers.

Outside linebacker Von Miller recorded his fifth career three-sack game while also tallying two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. The performance moved Miller into the Top 50 on the NFL's all-time career sacks list (86.5).

Quarterback Case Keenum led a balanced offensive attack that totaled seven explosive plays of 20+yards. Keenum completed 25-of-39 passes (64.1%) for 329 yards with three touchdowns and three interceptions in his Broncos starting debut.

Seattle took an early 7-0 lead on a 15-yard touchdown catch from rookie tight end Will Dissly, who finished his first NFL game with three catches for 105 yards.

The Broncos responded with a touchdown of their own less than three minutes later on a 29-yard pass from Keenum to running back Phillip Lindsay.

Following a 35-yard field goal from Seahawks kicker Sebastian Janikowski, Denver scored 10 consecutive points—highlighted by a 43-yard strike from Keenum to wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders—to take a 17-10 lead into halftime.

The Broncos had two takeaways in the third quarter, but Seattle capitalized on Keenum's third interception of the day and took a 24-20 lead in the opening seconds of the fourth with a 51-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to wide receiver Tyler Lockett.

The new-look Broncos offense answered the Seahawks' score with a seven-play, 75-yard drive that was capped off by a thread-the-needle, four-yard touchdown pass from Keenum to wide receiver Demaryius Thomas.

The Seahawks had two possessions to tie or reclaim the lead but Denver's defense held strong and ended the game with a time-expiring interception by cornerback Adam Jones.

Fueled in the ground game by a pair of rookies making their NFL debuts, the Broncos rushed for 146 yards on 32 carries (4.6 avg.). Lindsay—a college free agent—and third-round pick Royce Freeman each tallied 71 yards on 15 carries.

Sanders led all pass-catchers with 135 yards and a touchdown on 10 receptions, while Thomas pulled in six catches for 63 yards and a touchdown.

In addition to forcing three turnovers and tallying six sacks, Denver's defense held Seattle to just 64 yards rushing and 2-of-12 on third downs.

The win gave Pat Bowlen his 349th victory as owner to pass Al Davis for the fifth most wins among owners in NFL history.

2 Broncos 20, Raiders 19

Sunday, Sept. 16, 2018 • 2:25 p.m. MDT • Broncos Stadium at Mile High • Denver

WEATHER: Sunny, 92º, Wind S 4 mph • TIME: 3:07 • ATTENDANCE: 76,696

Quarterback Case Keenum orchestrated a fourth-quarter, game-winning drive for the second consecutive week as the Denver Broncos improved to 2-0 with a 20-19 victory over the Oakland Raiders at Broncos Stadium at Mile High.

The Broncos scored on their final four possessions of the game—highlighted by kicker Brandon McManus' 36-yard field goal with eight seconds remaining—after being shutout in the first half.

Denver opened the game with three consecutive three-and-outs and managed just 33 passing yards in the first half. The Broncos' defense held Oakland to 0-of-5 on third down in the opening half to help limit the damage and enter halftime trailing 12-0.

The Broncos rattled off an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to start the third quarter, but were quickly answered by a six-play touchdown drive by the Raiders.

Trailing 19-7 with less than three minutes remaining in the third quarter, McManus drilled a 39-yard field goal and the Broncos' defense followed it up with a crucial fourth-down stop in the opening minutes of the closing quarter.

Keenum, who completed 19-of-35 passes (54.3%) for 222 yards with one interception, scored on a 1-yard rushing touchdown on 4th-and-goal to cut Oakland's lead to 19-17.

Another big stop by the Denver defense set the offense back up with 1:58 remaining and no timeouts at its own 20-yard line.

On a 2nd-and-10 from the Oakland 44 with 18 seconds remaining, Keenum hit first-year wide receiver Tim Patrick for a 26-yard gain that set up McManus' game-winner.

Raiders quarterback Derek Carr completed 29-of-32 passes for 288 yards with his 90.6-percent completion percentage ranking as the highest in NFL history in a loss. Oakland wide receiver Amari Cooper was frequently targeted by Carr, finishing with 116 yards while pulling in all 10 of his targets.

Broncos outside linebacker Von Miller tallied Denver's only sack of the day and free safety Justin Simmons paced the defense with nine tackles.

Rookie running back Phillip Lindsay rushed for 107 yards on 14 carries and became the first undrafted rookie in NFL history with at least 100 scrimmage yards in each of his first two career games. Fellow rookie running back Royce Freeman scored his first career touchdown while carrying eight times for 28 yards.

Wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders led the Broncos for the second consecutive game with 96 yards on four receptions.

With the win, the Broncos opened with a 2-0 start for the sixth consecutive season. The victory also marked the 350th overall win under Owner Pat Bowlen, making Bowlen the fastest owner in pro football history to reach the milestone.

3 Ravens 27, Broncos 14

Sunday, Sept. 23, 2018 • 1 p.m. EDT • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

WEATHER: Light rain, 61º, Wind NNE 5 mph • TIME: 3:10 • ATTENDANCE: 70,156

The Denver Broncos lost 27-14 to the Baltimore Ravens in Denver's first road game of the 2018 campaign. The Broncos led the Ravens 14-7 late in the first quarter, but were outscored 20-0 during the last 50 minutes and fell to 2-1 on the season.

Quarterback Case Keenum completed 22-of-34 passes (64.7%) for 192 yards with an interception, as the Ravens' pass rush gave Denver trouble all afternoon long. Fueled by the strong play of linebacker Terrell Suggs, Baltimore recorded three sacks, nine quarterback hits and five tackles for loss.

Denver's defense opened the game with a decisive three-and-out stand, highlighted by the first career solo sack for rookie outside linebacker Bradley Chubb.

Inside linebacker Jospeh Jones blocked the subsequent punt and running back Royce Freeman—who finished the day with 53 yards on 13 carries—scored a six-yard touchdown on the Broncos' first offensive play.

The Ravens responded with a six-play touchdown drive of their own, capped by a 6-yard scoring run by running back Alex Collins.

The game looked to have the makings of an offensive shootout as Broncos wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders scored a 35-yard rushing touchdown off a reverse on Denver's next possession.

Keenum and the Broncos' offense would stagnate from that point, however, as their closing nine possessions of the game featured seven punts, an interception and a turnover on downs.

Baltimore took a 17-14 lead at the 8:26 mark of the second quarter on a nine-play, 52-yard drive.

The Broncos looked to have a spark when a field goal block by safety Justin Simmons was returned 58 yards for a touchdown by cornerback Chris Harris Jr., but a 'block in the back' penalty negated the score and Denver would end the possession with a punt.

The penalty was one of 13 committed by the Broncos, as they finished with 120 yards in penalty yardage. One of the penalties was a personal foul on rookie running back Phillip Lindsay, who was ejected in the second quarter after fighting for a loose football.

The Ravens extended their lead to 20-14 on a 52-yard field goal by kicker Justin Tucker as time expired in the first half. They further extended it with a touchdown at the 7:26 mark of the third quarter to make the score 27-14.

Denver's offense looked to make it a one-possession game in the fourth quarter, but two drives into the Ravens' red zone ended in an interception and a turnover on downs, respectively.

Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco completed 25-of-40 passes (62.5%) for 277 yards and one touchdown, while Ravens wideout John Brown led all pass-catchers with 86 yards on five grabs.

In the loss, Denver became just the third NFL team in the previous 20 years to block a punt, a field and an extra point attempt in the first three weeks of a season.

4 Chiefs 27, Broncos 23

Monday, Oct. 1, 2018 • 6:15 p.m. MDT • Broncos Stadium at Mile High • Denver

WEATHER: Cloudy, 65º, Wind N 5 mph • TIME: 3:04 • ATTENDANCE: 76,656

The Denver Broncos lost their first home game of the 2018 season with a 27-23 defeat to the Kansas City Chiefs on Monday Night Football.

Denver led 23-13 in the fourth quarter, but fell to 2-2 on the season following a pair of late-game scoring drives orchestrated by Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes.

The Broncos' ground game produced 159 yards on just 22 carries to represent the highest single-game rushing average (7.3) in seven seasons.

Denver quarterback Case Keenum completed 21-of-33 passes (63.6%) for 245 yards with one interception while spreading the ball around to eight different receivers.

Broncos kicker Brandon McManus—who finished the game 3-for-3 on field goal attempts—opened the scoring with a 42-yard make on Denver's first offensive drive of the game.

The Chiefs responded with a pair of scoring drives, including an 8-yard touchdown rush by Mahomes, to take a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter.

A 14-yard rushing score by rookie running back Royce Freeman evened the game at 10 apiece, and a 34-yard field goal from McManus as time expired in the first half gave Denver a 13-10 lead at the break.

Rookie running backs Phillip Lindsay and Freeman were both efficient out of the backfield, rushing for 69 and 67 yards, respectively, on a combined 6.8 yards-per-carry.

Lindsay found the end zone late in the third quarter to give Denver a 20-13 lead, and McManus' third field goal of the day increased the lead to 23-13 with 12:47 to play.

Mahomes then led the Chiefs on 75- and 60-yard touchdown drives—separated by a Broncos three-and-out—to take a 27-23 lead with 1:39 remaining. The Chief's final score—a 4-yard touchdown run by running back Kareem Hunt—came after Kansas City overcame a 2nd-and-30 situation earlier in the drive.

Denver took over at its own 25-yard line and threatened to re-take the lead following a 36-yard reception by tight end Jeff Heuerman that set the Broncos up at the Kansas City 28-yard line with 28 seconds remaining.

Denver's next four passes fell incomplete, ending the Broncos' comeback effort.

Mahomes became the first quarterback in Denver's previous 37 games to eclipse 300 passing yards as he finished with 304 yards and one passing touchdown while completing 28-of-45 attempts (62.2%).

Denver's pass rush frequently hurried Mahomes and totaled nine quarterback hits, but the second-year quarterback totaled 192 passing yards outside the pocket—the highest total in the NFL in 10 years.

5 Jets 34, Broncos 16

Sunday, Oct. 7, 2018 • 1 p.m. EDT • MetLife Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J.

WEATHER: Cloudy, 77º, Wind SW 7 mph • TIME: 3:09 • ATTENDANCE: 77,982

The Denver Broncos gave up 323 rushing yards on their way to their third consecutive loss in a 34-16 setback against the New York Jets.

The 323 rushing yards allowed marked the most given up by Denver's defense since 2010, as Jets running back Isaiah Crowell (15-219) posted the highest single-game rushing average in league history (min. 15 att.).

The Broncos defense got off to a promising start when defensive end Adam Gotsis forced and recovered a fumble on the Jets' second offensive play of the game.

Denver would capitalize quickly on the turnover as quarterback Case Keenum hit rookie wide receiver Courtland Sutton for an 8-yard touchdown. The play marked Keenum's 50th career touchdown pass and Sutton's first career touchdown reception.

On the day, Keenum completed 35-of-51 passes (68.6%) for 377 yards and two touchdowns with one interception. The performance set single-game career highs for Keenum in completions (35), passing yards (377) and passing first downs (19).

The Jets answered the Broncos' opening touchdown with a pair of long scores—a 77-yard run by Crowell and a 76-yard pass from quarterback Sam Darnold to wide receiver Robby Anderson—on back-to-back drives.

Broncos kicker Brandon McManus converted a 30-yard field goal—the 100th of his career—with 3:58 remaining in the first half to cut the Jets' lead to 14-10.

The Jets responded as Darnold's second touchdown pass to Anderson—from 35 yards out—on the ensuing drive gave New York a 21-10 lead heading into the half.

Crowell opened the third quarter with a 54-yard run to enter Broncos territory, but a third-down interception by defensive end Derek Wolfe gave Denver the ball back with the opportunity to make it a one-score game.

Keenum and the offense would punt after picking up just one first down on the drive, and the Jets would go on to score the game's next 13 points and open up a 34-10 lead with 5:10 remaining.

The Broncos made it a 34-16 game on a 42-yard touchdown pass from Keenum to wide receiver Demaryius Thomas with 3:18 on the clock, but the comeback effort would prove too-little-too-late as Keenum was intercepted in the end zone on the Broncos' final offensive series.

Thomas finished as Denver's leading receiver with five catches for 105 yards (21.0 avg.) with one touchdown, marking the 36th 100-yard receiving game of his career.

Denver lost despite finishing +1 in turnover margin (2 takeaways, 1 giveaway) to snap its 32-game win streak when winning the turnover battle. The loss also snapped the Broncos' three-game winning streak against the Jets.

6 Rams 23, Broncos 20

Sunday, Oct. 14, 2018 • 2:05 p.m. MDT • Broncos Stadium at Mile High • Denver

WEATHER: Mostly Cloudy, 25º, Wind NE 6 mph • TIME: 3:16 • ATTENDANCE: 76,109

The Denver Broncos scored 17 points in the final 17 minutes but their late comeback attempt fell short in a 23-20 loss to the unbeaten Los Angeles Rams at Broncos Stadium at Mile High.

Denver held the Rams' high-powered offense to a season-low 23 points, but again couldn't slow down the ground attack as the Broncos' defense gave up 270 rushing yards for the second consecutive week.

The Broncos' offense opened the game with a quick three-and-out and Los Angeles took a 3-0 lead following a 63-yard drive that was capped off by the first of three made field goals on the day by Rams kicker Cairo Santos.

Quarterback Case Keenum and the Broncos' offense moved the ball with moderate success in the opening half—gaining 168 yards and picking up nine first downs—but were unable to find the end zone and managed just three first-half points.

Keenum and wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders looked to have connected on a 44-yard touchdown pass in the closing seconds of the opening quarter, but the play was ruled down at the 1-yard line following an official review.

Sanders—who finished as the game's leading receiver with 115 yards and a touchdown on seven receptions—was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct after the play, moving the ball back from the 1-yard line to the 16-yard line. The Broncos were forced to settle for a 28-yard Brandon McManus field goal after the offense was unable to punch it into the end zone.

The Rams led 13-3 at halftime and struck first out of the break with a 1-yard touchdown rush by running back Todd Gurley II to open up a 20-3 lead at the 6:09 mark of the third quarter. Gurley would finish the game with 208 rushing yards on 28 carries (7.4 avg.) and two touchdowns.

Denver's lone takeaway—an interception by safety Darian Stewart at the Rams' 12-yard line—gave Denver life late in the third quarter.

After an offensive pass interference call, Keenum and Sanders connected on a 22-yard touchdown to pull within 10 points. A McManus field goal on the Broncos' next possession made it a 20-13 game midway through the fourth quarter.

The Rams responded with a 13-play, 72-yard drive that was capped off by Santos' field goal that extended the visitors' lead back to two possessions with 3:15 to play.

Wide receiver Demaryius Thomas pulled in a 1-yard touchdown pass from Keenum to make it 23-20 with 1:22 remaining, but the Broncos were unable to recover the onside kick and Los Angeles closed out the game in victory formation.

Despite the defense's struggles in the run game, the Broncos' pass rush got back on track with a five-sack outing—including three by rookie linebacker Bradley Chubb—against one of the league's premier offensive lines.

7 Broncos 45, Cardinals 10

Thursday, Oct. 18, 2018 • 5:20 p.m. MST • State Farm Stadium • Glendale, Ariz.

WEATHER: Clear, 82º, Wind N 6 mph • TIME: 3:04 • ATTENDANCE: 62,359

The Denver Broncos used five takeaways to snap a four-game losing streak and earn the second-largest road win in team history with a 45-10 victory over the Arizona Cardinals on Thursday Night Football.

The game marked the first five-takeaway outing for the Broncos' defense since its Super Bowl 50 win, and it was just the fourth time in team history Denver returned multiple interceptions for touchdowns in the same game.

Denver opened the scoring just 59 seconds into the game when inside linebacker Todd Davis intercepted Cardinals quarterback Josh Rosen and returned it 20 yards to the end zone.

On the Broncos' first offensive possession, a trick play saw wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders throw a 28-yard touchdown pass to fellow wide receiver Courtland Sutton.

With the play, Sanders became just the fifth wide receiver since the 1970 NFL merger to record a passing touchdown, rushing touchdown and receiving touchdown in the same season.

Arizona cut Denver's lead to 14-3 at the 5:18 mark of the first quarter, but Rosen threw his second pick-six of the game on the Cardinals' ensuing offensive possession—this one in the form of a 53-yard touchdown return by cornerback Chris Harris Jr.

Following a subsequent forced three-and-out by the Denver defense, quarterback Case Keenum threw a 64-yard touchdown pass to Sanders on the first play of the Denver drive and gave the Broncos a commanding 28-3 lead just nine seconds into the second quarter.

Keenum completed 14-of-21 passes (66.7%) for 161 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Sanders finished as the game's leading receiver with 102 yards and a touchdown on six receptions, becoming the first Bronco since John Elway (vs. Oakland, 9/7/86) to record a passing touchdown and receiving touchdown in the same game.

Denver capped off it's big first half with a 1-yard touchdown rush by rookie running back Royce Freeman and took a 35-3 lead into the break.

Keenum was intercepted on the first drive of the second half and Arizona capitalized with a 4-yard touchdown reception from wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald to cut Denver's lead 35-10.

Denver, however, would go on to score the game's final 10 points on a 28-yard touchdown run from running back Phillip Lindsay and a 41-yard field goal by kicker Brandon McManus.

In addition to intercepting three passes—the final of which came from cornerback Bradley Roby in the fourth quarter—Denver recorded six sacks and forced three fumbles, two of which were recovered by the defense.

Outside linebackers Von Miller and Bradley Chubb both recorded multiple sacks for the second consecutive game, as the pass-rush duo combined for four sacks, three forced fumbles and six quarterback hits.

8 Chiefs 30, Broncos 23

Sunday, Oct. 28, 2018 • 12 p.m. CDT • Arrowhead Stadium • Kansas City, Mo.

WEATHER: Clear, 56º, Wind NW 12 mph • TIME: 3:10 • ATTENDANCE: 77,103

The Denver Broncos rushed for 189 yards and outgained Kansas City 411-340 in total offense, but lost for the seventh consecutive time to the Chiefs in a 30-23 decision at Arrowhead Stadium.

The game marked the first loss in Broncos history in which they rushed for at least 180 yards and held their opponent to fewer than 50 yards on the ground. Denver had previously been 24-0 in such games.

The Broncos struck first with a 1-yard touchdown run by rookie running back Phillip Lindsay—who rushed for 95 yards on 18 carries (5.3 avg.) in his first career start—to cap off an 81-yard scoring drive at the 7:40 mark of the first quarter.

Denver had a chance to make it 10-0 on their next offensive possession, but kicker Brandon McManus missed his first field goal of the season on a 55-yarder that went wide right.

The Chiefs answered with a 24-yard field goal, followed by back-to-back touchdown drives, to take a 16-7 lead with 54 seconds remaining in the first half.

Looking to cut Kansas City's lead to just one possession before the break, an aggressive Broncos offense drove 75 yards in just 49 seconds. Wide receiver Tim Patrick hauled in a 24-yard pass from quarterback Case Keenum for the first touchdown of his career to pull Denver within 16-14 at the break.

Despite outgaining the Chiefs in rushing yards and total offense, the Broncos—flagged 10 times for 83 yards—were beset by momentum-killing penalties throughout the game. Lindsay alone had runs of 21 and 23 yards, as well as a 10-yard reception, negated by penalties.

Undeterred by Denver's late-half heroics, the Chiefs scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter—the third and fourth passing touchdowns of the day from Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes—and opened up a 30-14 lead heading into the final period.

The Broncos used another strong offensive drive to cut Kansas City's lead to 30-20 with a 4-yard touchdown reception by tight end Jeff Heuerman, but couldn't convert the 2-pt. conversion attempt to make it a one-score game.

McManus kicked a 36-yard field goal with 1:48 to make it 30-23, but Kansas City was able to recover the ensuing onside kick and eliminate Denver's chances for a game-tying drive.

Keenum completed 23-of-34 passes (67.6%) for 262 yards with a pair of touchdowns and one interception. His 97.9 passer rating marked his highest rating through eight starts as a Bronco.

Outside linebackers Von Miller and Bradley Chubb kept their three-game sack streaks alive as the duo combined to take down Mahomes midway through the fourth quarter.

Safety Dymonte Thomas recorded the first sack of his career and safety Justin Simmons intercepted his second pass of the season on a deep shot from Mahomes early in the fourth quarter.

9 Texans 19, Broncos 17

Sunday, Nov. 4, 2018 • 2:05 p.m. MST • Broncos Stadium at Mile High • Denver

WEATHER: Cloudy, 53º, Wind SW 3 mph • TIME: 3:05 • ATTENDANCE: 76,270

The Denver Broncos lost 19-17 to the Houston Texans at Broncos Stadium at Mile High as kicker Brandon McManus' potential game-winning 51-yard field goal sailed wide right as time expired.

Denver's defense played one of its most complete games of the season—allowing just 290 yards of total offense and limiting Houston's rushing attack to 3.0 yards per carry. The Broncos' pass rush was also strong on the day, with four Denver defenders picking up at least one sack.

After former wide receiver Demaryius Thomas was honored in a pregame tribute, the Texans offense promptly went down the field and opened the game with an eight-play, 75-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped with a 7-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Deshaun Watson to tight end Jordan Thomas.

Following a pair of three-and-outs from both teams, McManus connected on a 44-yard field goal to trim Houston's lead to 7-3 midway through the first quarter.

The game's only turnover came at the 12:24 mark of the second quarter when Broncos running back Devontae Booker fumbled at Denver's own 23-yard line. Houston capitalized three plays later with a 16-yard touchdown reception by wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins. The Texans' missed the ensuing extra point.

Broncos quarterback Case Keenum—who completed 26-of-42 passes (61.9%) for 290 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions—answered on Denver's next series. Keenum led a four-play, 82-yard scoring drive that ended with Booker's first rushing touchdown of the season, cutting Houston's lead to 13-10.

Houston would go on to capitalize on a field goal of their own as time expired at the half following Denver's failed 62-yard field goal attempt from McManus with 0:18 second remaining in the second quarter.

Denver would take its first lead of the game at the 6:03 mark of the third quarter on a 12-yard touchdown catch by tight end Jeff Heuerman on third down. Heuerman finished the contest single-game career highs in catches (10) and receiving yards (83)

The Broncos conceded the lead back to Houston on their following drive, as kicker Ka'i Fairbairn connected on a 37-yard field goal put Houston up 19-17.

Denver, who won on fourth-quarter comebacks in Weeks 1 and 2, took over possession at its own 14-yard line with 3:29 remaining in the game. A pair of fourth-down conversions on the drive set the Broncos up at Houston's 33-yard line with three seconds remaining, but McManus' field goal attempt didn't connect as Houston won its sixth consecutive game.

Outside linebackers Von Miller and Bradley Chubb each recorded sacks and extended their sack streaks to four games. Increasing his career sack total to 92.5, Miller moved into 43rd place on the league's all-time sack list.

10 Broncos 23, Chargers 22

Sunday, Nov. 18, 2018 • 1:05 p.m. PST • ROKiT Field at StubHub Center • Carson, Calif.

WEATHER: Clear, 69º, Wind W 4 mph • TIME: 3:10 • ATTENDANCE: 25,462

Kicker Brandon McManus connected on a 34-yard field goal as time expired to give the Denver Broncos a 23-22 victory over the Los Angeles Chargers at ROKiT Field at StubHub Center. The win snapped the Chargers' six-game winning streak and also ended Denver's seven-game road divisional losing streak.

Despite giving up a season-high 479 yards, the Broncos' defense held an explosive Chargers' offense to just 22 points and intercepted Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers twice.

Denver sacked Rivers three times—including the 100th career sack (including postseason) for linebacker Von Miller—as both Miller and rookie linebacker Bradley Chubb extended their sack streaks to five games apiece.

Denver's offense got off to another slow start, tallying just 21 yards of offense in a first quarter that saw the visitors fall behind 6-0.

Following what looked to be a third consecutive failed drive to open the game, punter Colby Wadman passed 12 yards to fullback Andy Janovich on a 4th-and-5 to successfully convert a fake punt and move the Broncos into Chargers territory. Rookie running back Philip Lindsay scored a 41-yard rushing touchdown on the following play to give Denver a 7-6 lead.

On the subsequent Los Angeles possession, cornerback Chris Harris Jr. intercepted Rivers to set the Broncos up at the Chargers' 46-yard line. Denver's offense came away empty, however, after failing to convert a 4th-and-1 inside the red zone.

The Chargers would go on to score two unanswered touchdowns—the latter of which featured a missed extra point by kicker Michael Badgley—as Los Angeles opened up a 19-7 lead with 9:56 remaining in the third quarter.

With the Chargers in the midst of another promising drive that would have likely ended any hopes of a Denver comeback, Miller sniffed out a screen, picking off Rivers on a 3rd-and-9 at Denver's 35-yard line. His 42-yard return set up a quick Denver touchdown.

Denver found the end zone again on Lindsay's second touchdown rush of the day to give the Broncos a 20-19 lead with 12:11 to play in the game.

On Badgley's third made field goal of the game, Los Angeles re-took the lead, 22-20, on its next possession.

Following an unsuccessful drive for the Denver offense, the defense came up with a pivotal, game-saving stop on 3rd-and-7 and set the offense back up with 1:51 remaining and no timeouts.

Quarterback Case Keenum—who passed for 205 yards and did not throw an interception for the second consecutive game—went 5-for-5 on the Broncos' final drive, including a 30-yard strike on 3rd-and-7 to rookie wide receiver Courtland Sutton with 20 seconds remaining.

Set up for a 34-yard kick with three seconds remaining, McManus drilled the fifth game-winning field goal of his career and helped the Broncos improve to 4-6 on the season.

11 Broncos 24, Steelers 17

Sunday, Nov. 25, 2018 • 2:25 p.m. MST • Broncos Stadium at Mile High • Denver

WEATHER: Mostly Sunny, 41º, Wind N 7 mph • TIME: 3:03 • ATTENDANCE: 76,536

The Denver Broncos became the first team since 2005 to beat consecutive opponents with six-game win streaks when they defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers 24-17 at Broncos Stadium at Mile High.

The win, which improved Denver to 5-6 on the season, was the 353rd of Owner Pat Bowlen's tenure, tying him with Art Modell for the fourth most all-time among modern-day owners.

In a game highlighted by momentum-shifting plays, including four takeaways by the Denver defense, safety Justin Simmons provided the first spark when he blocked Pittsburgh's 48-yard field goal attempt on its opening drive.

The Broncos capitalized with a field goal of their own as they took a 3-0 lead on a 41-yard make from kicker Brandon McManus.

With Pittsburgh primed to find the end zone on its second offensive possession, safety Will Parks met Steelers tight end Xavier Grimble at Denver's 1-yard line with a thunderous hit that forced a fumble and resulted in a touchback.

The Steelers would tie the game on their next possession, but Denver responded with a touchdown drive that was capped off by tight end Matt LaCosse's first career touchdown reception, a 10-yard strike from quarterback Case Keenum.

Denver looked to be taking the momentum into the halftime break by holding the Steelers to a field goal attempt after a strong goal-line stand, but Pittsburgh faked a kick and threw a touchdown pass to tie the game at 10 as the first-half clock expired.

Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlistberger connected with wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster on a 97-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter to give Pittsburgh its first lead of the game, 17-10.

With the Steelers driving yet again and looking to take a two-possession lead, cornerback Chris Harris Jr. picked off Roethlisberger on third down at midfield. The Broncos tied the game just two plays later on a 5-yard touchdown reception from wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders.

Denver's third takeaway came on the final play of the third quarter when cornerback Bradley Roby chased down Steelers running back James Conner and poked the ball free after a 23-yard rush.

Rookie running back Phillip Lindsay, who rushed for 110 yards and a touchdown—the first 100-yard rusher allowed by Pittsburgh during the season—scored on a 2-yard run on the Broncos' ensuing possession to give them a 24-17 lead.

The Steelers were set up with 1st-and-goal from Denver's 3-yard line with 1:57 left and a chance to tie to the game, but nose tackle Shelby Harris intercepted Roethlisberger's third-down pass in the end zone to book end the Broncos defense's big day.

Keenum passed for 197 yards and two touchdowns while playing turnover-free football for the third consecutive week.

Linebacker Von Miller, who recorded a half sack in the fourth quarter to extend his sack streak to six games, helped the Denver defense limit Pittsburgh to just 17 points off five drives that went deep into Denver territory.
