

ARIZONA CARDINALS NOTE CARDS

- 5 Runs of 20+ yards for QB Joshua Dobbs, an NFL high among QBs. Dobbs is the fourth Cardinal since at least 2000 to have 5+ runs of 20+ yards through the first seven games of a season (RB Chris Johnson - 6 in 2015, RB James Conner - 5 in 2023, RB David Johnson - 5 in 2016). Dobbs joins QB Kyle Murray (7 in 2019 and 2020) as the only Arizona QBs in the last 24 seasons to have 5+ runs of 20+ yards in a season.
- 7 Meetings between the Cardinals and Ravens ahead of Sunday's contest. Arizona has only faced two of the other 31 current NFL franchises fewer times (Texans - 5, Jaguars - 6).
- 2 Forced fumbles - both recovered by AZ - for S Joey Blount on punt coverage in the last two games. He is the only player in the NFL this season with multiple forced fumbles on special teams. Blount is also the first Cardinals player in at least 20 years to have a forced fumble on special teams in back-to-back games.
- 75 Yards from scrimmage (58 rushing, 17 receiving) for RB Emari Demercado last week at Seattle. He became just the fourth Cardinals undrafted rookie (WR Trent Sherfield - 2018, RB William Powell - 2012, RB Damien Anderson - 2002) in the last 35 seasons to register 75+ scrimmage yards in a single game.

WEEK 8

VS

CARDINALS

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2023

WITH A WIN...

- The Cardinals would earn their third all-time win vs. the Ravens and improve to 2-0 vs. Baltimore at State Farm Stadium.
- Arizona would improve to 7-3 against the AFC North at State Farm Stadium and have an 11-8 regular season record when facing the division since 2006.

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH...

WR MARQUISE BROWN

- With a TD reception, Brown would have a TD catch in his first game against his former team.
- With a TD catch, Brown would have six TD receptions in 10 games played at State Farm Stadium since joining the Cardinals last season.
- With a TD reception, Brown would have a TD catch in all four home games this season. Dating back to 1970, he would become just the fifth different Cardinals player to have a TD reception in at least four straight home games: Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin (5 straight), Fitzgerald, John Brown and Terry Metcalf (4 straight).

WR MICHAEL WILSON

- With a TD reception, Wilson would join John Brown (4), Larry Fitzgerald (3) and Anquan Boldin (3) as the only Cardinals rookies in the last 43 seasons to have 3+ TD catches through the first eight games of a season.
- With two TD receptions, Wilson would join Fitzgerald and Boldin as the only rookies in franchise history to have multiple games with two TD catches.

WR RONDALE MOORE

- With a rushing TD, Moore (1) would become the first Cardinals WR with multiple rushing TDs in a season since WR Bobby Joe Conrad (2) in 1959.
- With three rushing yards, Moore (207) would pass Anquan Boldin (209) for the third-most rushing yards by a WR in franchise history (Bobby Joe Conrad - 441, Vai Sikahema - 215). He would also move into second place with nine rushing yards on Sunday.

K MATT PRATER

- With one point, Prater would reach 1,722 points in his career and break a tie with David Akers (1,721) for 17th place on the NFL's all-time list for career points.
- With one field goal, Prater would reach 387 field goals in his career and break a tie with Akers (386) for 15th place on the NFL's all-time list for career field goals.
- With a field goal of 50+ yards, Prater (38 games) would tie K Neil Rackers (16 in 100 games) for the most field goals of 50+ yards in franchise history.

CB GARRETT WILLIAMS

- With an INT, Williams would join Aeneas Williams (1991) as the only Cardinals players since at least 1970 with an INT in each of his first two career games.

LB DENNIS GARDECK

- With a sack, Gardeck would establish a franchise record for sacks by a player who entered the league as a rookie free agent. He is currently tied with LB Ronald McKinnon (12.0) for the franchise mark.

RB EMARI DEMERCADO

- With a rushing TD, Demercado would become the only undrafted rookie in franchise history with multiple rushing TDs in a season (excluding strike replacement players). Demercado would also become the only undrafted rookie in the NFL with multiple rushing TDs this season.
- With 75+ scrimmage yards, Demercado would become the only Cardinals undrafted rookie in the last 35 years to have 75+ scrimmage yards in consecutive games.

FAMILAR FOE FOR HOLLYWOOD

Sunday's matchup with the Ravens will mark WR Marquise Brown's first time facing his former team. In Brown's three seasons (2019-21) with Baltimore, he ranked second on the team in receptions (195), receiving yards (2,361) and receiving TDs (21) trailing only his former college teammate, TE Mark Andrews.

Since joining the Cardinals in a draft-day trade in 2022, Brown leads the team in receptions (99), receiving yards (1,092) and receiving TDs (six) despite missing five games last season due to injury. Brown will look to haul in his 100th catch as a Cardinal on Sunday against his former team.

Sunday will mark Brown's 19th time facing an AFC North opponent. In his previous 18 games, he totaled 72 receptions for 861 yards and 10 TDs.

Brown's career numbers vs. the AFC North:

Team	Games	Catches	Yards	TDs
Cincinnati	6	29	383	6
Cleveland	6	25	271	1
Pittsburgh	6	18	207	3

WILLIAMS RECEIVES WARM WELCOME

CB Garrett Williams started his NFL career on a high note last Sunday in Seattle. The rookie corner spent the first six games of the season sidelined with a knee injury. It was worth the wait as Williams intercepted Seahawks QB Geno Smith near the AZ goal line in a pivotal fourth quarter play in his NFL debut.

Williams became the first Cardinals player since Hall of Fame CB Aeneas Williams (1991) to have an INT in his first career game and just the fifth to do so since at least 1970 (LB Peter Noga - 1987, DB Bob Harris - 1983, DB Benny Perrin - 1982).

With an INT on Sunday, Williams would become the first Cardinals player with multiple INTs in his rookie season since S Tyrann Mathieu in 2013.

CARDS D MAKING STOPS FOR LOSS

The Cardinals pass rush continued to get home last Sunday in Seattle, sacking Seahawks QB Geno Smith twice for a loss of 16 yards.

The defense had five tackles for loss on the day in addition to the two sacks. It marked the sixth time this season that the unit has had 5+ TFLs in a game.

In the last 22 seasons, the Cardinals defense has only produced more games with 5+ TFLs through the first seven games of a season twice (2015 and 2018). Only one other team has had 5+ TFLs in 6+ games this season (Buffalo - six games).

Arizona's 38 TFLs this season are tied for the fourth most in the NFL trailing only Indianapolis (48), Buffalo (47) and Washington (39). The Cardinals are currently on pace for 92 TFLs in 2023.
