LAST WEEK AT INDIANAPOLIS

The Titans traveled to Indianapolis last week and earned their first win of the season, defeating the Colts 26-20 after erasing a 13-0 halftime deficit. They totaled 20 points in the fourth quarter.

The scoring included an eight-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Cam Ward to Carnell Tate, as Tate notched his first career score. The rookie wide receiver totaled six catches for 70 yards to lead the offense.

On the other side of the ball, defensive linemen Jeffery Simmons and Jermaine Johnson II each recorded a pair of sacks, contributing to the team's six total sacks. Simmons added a forced fumble and fumble recovery, while safety Amani Hooker and cornerback Cor'Dale Flott notched interceptions.

The special teams unit authored a turning point with less than 11 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter and the score tied 13-13. With James Williams Sr. providing a key push, Julius Chestnut was credited with a block of Rigoberto Sanchez's punt attempt. Oluwafemi Oladejo picked up the loose ball and raced 14 yards for a touchdown. Additionally on special teams, Joey Slye connected on four field goals in the second half, including a 56-yarder.

THE BROWNS

Todd Monken was hired as Cleveland's head coach in January 2026. He arrived with 26 seasons of collegiate coaching experience and eight years in the NFL. From 2023 to 2025, he was the offensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens.

Quarterback Deshaun Watson is in his fifth year in Cleveland after being traded from the Houston Texans in 2022. He has started every game this season, passing for 1,174 yards and seven touchdowns with four interceptions.

The Browns hosted the Ravens last week, and Andre Szmyt made a 37-yard field goal as time expired, lifting the Browns to a 13-10 win. Cleveland is one of three 4-2 teams in the AFC North and currently holds the tiebreaker for first place.

- With 344 receiving yards entering the week, he needs 56 more to join Bill Groman (553 in 1960) and Ernest Givins (485 in 1986) as the only players in franchise history with 400 receiving yards in the team's first seven games of their rookie season.

QB CAM WARD

SERIES HISTORY

This week's game marks the 71st installment of the Titans-Browns series. In the previous 70 outings, the Browns own a 37-33 advantage, including separate nine- and six-game winning streaks by the Browns. However, the Titans have taken 11 out of the last 18 battles since 1999.

The two clubs faced off less than a year ago at Huntington Bank Field. The matchup featured a pair of rookie quarterbacks in Tennessee's Cam Ward and Cleveland's Shedeur Sanders. After the Titans took a 31-17 lead, Sanders helped the Browns mount a late fourth-quarter comeback that was thwarted by a pair of missed two-point conversions. The Titans won 31-29.

In the most recent clash at Nissan Stadium, played on Dec. 6, 2020, the Titans outscored the Browns 28-3 in the second half, but it still was not enough to overcome Cleveland's 38-7 halftime lead. The Browns won by a final score of 41-35. Ryan Tannehill passed for 389 yards and three touchdowns in the loss.

The two franchises met for the first time in 1970, when as a part of the AFL-NFL merger, the Browns moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central, where they would compete with the Oilers/Titans as divisional foes for 32 seasons. The series was interrupted after the 1995 season as a result of the former Browns moving to Baltimore to transition as the Ravens.

A new team was granted to Cleveland to begin play once again in 1999. The new version of the Browns kept the old team's name, records and logos and was once again a member of the AFC Central until divisional realignment in 2002 sent them to the AFC North and the Titans to the AFC South.

The clubs have played one playoff game, a 24-23 Wild Card win by the Oilers in 1988. Allen Pinkett scored two touchdowns within a 15-second span of the second quarter, and Warren Moon rallied the Oilers with 10 fourth-quarter points for the win, capped by Tony Zendejas's 49-yard, game-winning field goal with 1 minute and 54 seconds to play in the fourth quarter.

The Titans' nine-game losing streak against the Browns from 1970-74 is tied (Oakland, 1966-73) for the second-longest losing streak against another opponent in franchise history.

On Oct. 5, 2014, the Browns recorded a historic comeback against the Titans at Nissan Stadium, erasing a 25-point deficit to win 29-28. It was the largest road comeback in NFL history.

TITANS-BROWNS: THE LAST MEETING

2025 Week 14: Titans 31, Browns 29
Sunday Dec. 7, 2025 • 1:00 p.m. EST • Huntington Bank Field

In Week 14 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to Cleveland and took home a 31-29 victory.

The Titans got off to a fast start, scoring their first opening drive touchdown of the year. WR Chimere Dike opened the game with a 41-yard kickoff return. QB Cam Ward converted two third downs, the first to RB Tyjae Spears for a 24-yard gain and the next to TE Chig Okonkwo for nine yards to keep the drive alive. Ward then found WR Elic Ayomanor on a 14-yard touchdown pass to give the Titans an early 7-0 lead.

After a three-and-out stop by the Titans defense, Tennessee was on the verge of extending its lead, but Ward was intercepted by LB Devin Bush at the Cleveland 18-yard line, and after a 44-yard return, the Browns cashed that in for a 38-yard field goal by K Andre Szmyt to make it 7-3 with 1:42 left in the first quarter.

The Titans responded immediately with an explosive 65-yard touchdown run by RB Tony Pollard, which made it 14-3. Pollard finished the day with a career-best 161 rushing yards Barely two minutes later, the Browns cut the lead to 14-10 on a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Shedeur Sanders to TE David Njoku. It came after a 58-yard completion from Sanders to RB Quinshon Judkins.

Later in the second quarter, the Browns took their first lead of the game on a 60-yard touchdown pass from Sanders to WR Jerry Jeudy with 2:47 left in the first half.

Both teams punted multiple times in the third quarter before S Xavier Woods intercepted a Sanders pass and returned it 35 yards to the Cleveland 38-yard line with 1:41 left in the quarter.

Two plays later, Pollard busted loose again, this time on a 32-yard touchdown run to give the Titans a 21-17 lead with 51 seconds left in the third quarter.

Later in the fourth quarter after a Titans punt, CB Marcus Harris forced a fumble from RB Dylan Sampson and LB Cedric Gray scooped it up and returned it to the Cleveland eight-yard line. Ward found Dike in the end zone three plays later to give the Titans a 28-17 lead.

The Browns were forced to punt on their next offensive possession and LB James Williams Sr. blocked the punt - the first Titans blocked punt since their 2012 season. S Mike Brown recovered at the Browns 36-yard line.

The Titans cashed that in for a 41-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 31-17 with 6:17 remaining in the game.

The Browns cut the lead to 31-23 on a seven-yard scramble by Sanders which capped a five-play, 66-yard drive. However their two-point conversion failed to make it 31-23.

After a three-and-out by the Titans offense, the Browns went 80 yards on seven plays and scored on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Sanders to TE Harold Fannin to make it 31-29. But once again, the Titans defense stopped the two-point conversion attempt.

Dike recovered the onside kick and the Titans took home their first victory since October to improve to 2-11 on the season.

Indianapolis Colts	0	13	0	7	—	20

In Week 6 of the 2026 NFL season, the Titans traveled to Indianapolis and outscored the Colts 26-7 in the second half to capture the franchise's 500 all-time win, including the regular season and postseason, their first win of the 2026 season and their first win over the Colts since 2022. The game featured three takeaways, six sacks and a blocked punt by the Titans. An interception by S Amani Hooker at the Tennessee six-yard line stopped a long Colts drive to keep the game scoreless at the end of the first quarter after two consecutive punts by the Titans. However, the Colts drove 70 yards and scored on a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Daniel Jones to tight end Mo Alie-Cox to make it 7-0 early in the second quarter. After a three-and-out by the Titans offense, the Colts extended their lead to 10-3 on a 23-yard field goal by K Spencer Shrader that capped a 13-play, 75-yard drive. QB Cam Ward was intercepted on the first play of the Titans next offensive possession and the Colts cashed that in for another Shrader field goal, this one from 47 yards out to go into the half with a 13-0 lead. DT Jeffery Simmons jumpstarted the Titans in the second half when he forced and recovered a Jonathan Taylor fumble on the first play from scrimmage to give the Titans the ball at the Indianapolis 33-yard line. The Titans capitalized with a 29-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 13-3 with 13:30 left in the third quarter. Tennessee then created their third turnover on defense when CB Cor'Dale Flott intercepted Jones at Tennessee's 11-yard line, ending a scoring threat from the Colts. Slye's second field goal of the game, this one from 56 yards, made it 13-6 with 3:21 left in the third quarter. Simmons then registered a seven-yard sack of Jones on third down forcing a Colts punt which WR Chimere Dike returned 58 yards to set the Titans up at the Colts 23-yard line. Ward then found WR Carnell Tate in the end zone for Tate's first career touchdown reception to tie the game at 13-13 with 13:00 left. The Titans defense came up with another stop to force a punt. RB Julius Chestnut and LB James Williams Sr. blocked the punt and DE Oluwafemi Oladejo scooped up the loose ball and returned it in 14 yards for a touchdeown which gave the Titans a 20-13 lead with 10:14 left in the game. The Colts responded with an eight-play, 72-yard drive capped off with a four-yard touchdown run by Taylor to tie the game at 20-20. The Titans then drove to the Colts' 31-yard line before Slye kicked a 49-yard field goal to give the Titans a 23-20 lead with 2:03 left. Titans defense got the stop on the following Colts possession and another Slye field goal made it 26-20 with 47 seconds left. The Titans then got a game-sealing stop at the end to win it.

HEAD COACH ROBERT SALEH

Alright, real quick just injuries. We came out healthy. There were a couple of guys that got dinged up.

How big was the complementary football that you guys got in the second half?
It was awesome. The takeaway to start the second half, to get it going. The blocked punt, getting another takeaway. I thought, just overall, all three phases. Offense finishing with points–taking the takeaways and finishing with points. Special teams doing an outstanding job. Joey (Slye) I thought was outstanding. Whatever it took.

Obviously, you talked about being close on blocked punts a couple of times this season. How much did that play come together the way you envisioned? How much did you need something like that to throw you over the top?
It was big. We've been so close. Tru (Truman Jones) obviously he came close earlier. Got the running into the kicker, which I almost blew a gasket on, but special teams made up for it. It was good. They'd been working at it. They'd been close, and to get one to change the game was pretty cool.

How does it feel to win? Is it relief, or how would you describe that feeling?
Winning in this league is relief. We'll enjoy it for about 24 hours, but we've got to get back to work.

Anthony Hill Jr. had that tackle for loss, I believe, at second-and-15. It seemed like it sparked the defense and everybody.
Yeah, I felt like the defense came out in the second half, to be honest with you, hair on fire. Like I said, the takeaway to start. Answered every bell we could. One bad drive, obviously, after we took the block punt, which I put on me. Could have been better on my play calls. But overall, I thought defensively–I want to give a special shout to Jeff Simmons, who I thought was outstanding in the locker room at halftime. It may have gone unnoticed, but for me, just watching him and observing the team. He's a man's man and I appreciate him.

How about his Jeff Simmons' play?
That goes without saying. He's the best defensive tackle in ball period.

What can you describe, or tell us, about Jeff Simmons' leadership in the halftime locker room?
I'll let them talk about it. I don't know if anyone even noticed anything. I just thought he was outstanding.

When did you feel the momentum flipped where there was a belief on the sidelines that you were going to win this game?
I thought the first play of the second half where we got the takeaway. Yeah, the first play of the second half. I really do think we came out of the locker room believing that we were going to get a stop, offense was going to go score. And it happened that way, and defense answered the bell a couple of times. We got a couple of takeaways, and it was just good in all three phases.

Can you talk about what went into the decision to start Josh Williams and scratch Alontae Taylor today?
Just a coach's decision. I'll leave it at that, guys.

What can one win do? Eleven straight AFC South losses before that. What can one win do as a pivot point, conceivably?
We'll see, right? I know this group. It was a hard week. A gut check week, in my opinion. I thought our guys did a really nice job answering the bell. When you're making progress and Houston just punched us straight in the mouth, and for us to come back. I mean, it did not feel good this week. There was a lot of really good discussions this week, and real discussions. And I thought our guys answered the bell completely. So, what does it do? It gives us a little bit of joy for the next 12 hours, but at the end of the day, we've got to stack on these days, continue to build on the things that we did well, fix the things that we didn't, and try to do our best on Sunday against Cleveland.

You know Cam Ward well. You have arranged meetings with him once a week. What can this win do for him?
It can do anything. Like I said, the biggest thing is relief. We need to stack these days. We need to continue to build on all this stuff. I thout Cam (Ward) did a lot of good things. Again, there are things that he could have done better. I would love to sit here and say, 'Gosh, we're going to go on a big run.' But what it guarantees us is an opportunity to get to work tomorrow. That's all it does. There was a lot of really, really cool things that we did today, and I want to make sure we capture those. But no different than losses. We still got to look at all three phases. We still got to look at the good, the bad. We still got to find ways to get better from the tape. We can't ignore all the things that could have gone haywire today, which there are a lot of things, just because we won. So, again, I'm extremely happy, more relief than happy, but to get that first one out of the way. A really cool moment for the group to get this win, and like I said, hopefully it strings together a few more.

What led to more pressure? You guys were able to put on a lot more pressure today. What allowed you to do that?
Our D-Line. There were some obvious passing situations that we talked about. When you get a chance to pin your ears back, I think I said it earlier in the week, I'll judge the D-Line when we get our chance to pin our ears back, and I thought we had some opportunities. I thought they answered the bell completely. A couple of pressures, I thought our players executed perfectly. Coverage was good. But when you get a chance to pin your ears back, and you know that it's pass, I like our group. I think we have a chance to win a one-on-one anytime we can.

On the personal foul penalty there after the celebration on the punt block, was that just inadvertent?
Yeah, somebody bumped into the ref. I'm not going to say who, but I'm sure it'll be on camera.

How much better is it to work on mistakes coming after a win?

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

It's dangerous because you can kind of gloss over it, but I've always been a big firm believer that you've got to treat both imposters the same. When you lose, it doesn't mean you're harder on the bad things, and when you win, it doesn't mean you're easier on the bad things. You've got to attack it. You've got to tell the truth. So, tomorrow is about telling the truth. Watching the tape, and trying to find a way to get better so we can continue building in the direction that we are. Is the conversation a lot easier with less sensitivity? Yes, that's just natural human behavior. The challenge for every individual is to take all the things that we need to improve on personally to make sure that we get it fixed.

Offense, still not a very smooth operation. Do you think the win does anything to add to how that group feels?
I thought one of the big challenges this week was making plays. Right? Just make a play. Somebody make a big one-on-one catch. Somebody break a tackle. Somebody do something spectacular. When you watch games every week, you see the spectacular. These NFL players are some of the most gifted athletes in the world, in my opinion. I thought (Carnell) Tate was outstanding today. I thought Wan'Dale Robinson made some freaking cool plays. I thought our (running) backs ran hard. I think Cam (Ward) made a couple of really cool plays in the pocket, finding a way to get the ball to an open receiver. But everyone took turns making plays. Special teams made plays. Defense made plays. To win in this league, you've got to make plays. As an individual, when you're in a one-on-one situation. I thought offensively, we did a few of those things. So, was it perfect? No. Did we take a step in the right direction, where we were making plays? I do think that. I think this, honestly, was the first week where I could look at our group and say, 'You know what? We made some freaking plays today.' The challenge is to stack those up and find some rhythm. Like you said, let's master the easy ones while mixing in some plays and see if we can get this ball rolling.

Your first win as the head coach of this franchise. Did anybody recognize that in the locker room today?
I'm sure they all did, but like I've always said, it's not about me. I'm happy for Ms. Amy (Adams Strunk). I apologize to her that it took a little longer than we all wanted. The players, these kids put in so much work, and it's hard. This league is hard. And we've been close on a few occasions. To knock this one out for them, and their mental well-being, I'm much more excited for them than I am myself.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

First division win. How does that feel?
Feels good. All three phases played good enough to win the game. A lot of stuff to clean up, but feels good.

How much did you feel like you guys were able to clean up from the first half to the second?
I think we were just able to be more efficient. Whether it's–not stat wise, but we're able to do what we executed during training camp at a high level, whether it's running game, the quick passing game, but there's still also a lot of stuff that we've got to clean up. But at the end of the day, a win is a win.

How big was Carnell Tate for you all today?
Really big. He's a great contested ball catcher, like you've seen today. He's good at scramble drill, but the biggest thing about him, he doesn't show no emotion. Each and every drive, no matter what happens, he comes back, he wants the football and he's trying to make plays for the team.

When did you feel like the game was turning, and how did you like the way you guys kind of attacked that opportunity?
I think going into the second half, we didn't play how we wanted to offensively. We still–second half, still got a lot of things to clean up offensively, but the mindset just didn't change in the locker room. It was a two-possession game coming out. Defense, they gave us a great turnover. We were able to capitalize with the field goal. We really needed seven, though. At the end of the day, I think all three phases complement each other at the right time.

You guys gave Robert Saleh the game ball. What did you say to him and why was that important for you to do that?
Proud of him. I mean, Coach (Robert) Saleh, he's the same person each and every day he comes in the building. And for him to get his first win in the fashion that we did, it's awesome because it's what made a team a team. Trying to make that a little streak going into next week, playing a tough opponent next week, and continue to rally behind Coach Saleh.

He said it himself, a win doesn't disguise some of the other things that maybe look wrong. How much better is it to clean things up in a win? And how much do you guys need to continue to improve?
Got to improve each and every day. There's still a lot of stuff we have to clean up offensively, but it's a lot of plays that we want back for sure. But the end of the day, we'll take an ugly win over a loss each and every week. But I think that's the good side about it is that we get an opportunity to try to win again next week and get another opportunity to try to play our best ball.

How big of a relief is it to finally get a win after the 0-5 start?
It's great. It's great for the whole building. The whole entire organization, everyone punches in that code and they come to work each and every day just like all of us. So, we did this for the entire organization. We've got to continue to go off this momentum, try to get a win next week.

You have those weekly meetings with Robert Saleh. What's the gist or the message that he's given you to help carry you through those five losses?
To continue to be a better quarterback. It's also stuff that he knows I can't control. It's also stuff that I can control, to help the offense do better. But him giving me insight in the long run, the things of how much better I've gotten week-to-week, and how much better I can get over last year, this year, into the future.

You said there's a lot of things to clean up, but how much can getting a win inside the division and on the road be a stepping stone to better things for this team?
It's a huge stepping stone. Our goal is to own the (AFC) South. We didn't do it last week, but we got a chance to do it this week. We did. So, the mindset never changed for us. But at the end of the day, it's always no matter you win or lose, a lot of stuff to clean up. We're looking to clean it up and trying to play our best game next week.

Can you talk through the touchdown to Carnell Tate and how that panned out, and maybe the interception?
The touchdown was a great play call from Coach Dabs (Brian Daboll). He's wide open in the back of the end zone. Carnell (Tate) did a great job of getting both feet down. Then the interception, I just think we just got to be better. For myself, whether it's making a smart decision, but as a whole for the receiving core, those guys have to continue to get the route, get their landmarks at the right time. Because a lot of it is timing, but at the end of the day, I have to be better with the football.

How big was Jeffery Simmons' presence today as the veteran guy, and just having him out there in terms of flipping the momentum in the second half?

Great. There's a reason why he's the highest paid player out there. So, he's the foundation of the front on the D-Line. He showed why today. He had some incredible plays out there, and he's the reason why we were able to get a win today.

You guys are on different sides of the ball and everything, but just in terms of things he says, how much of what he does resonates with you?
It resonates with the whole team because at the end of the day, we have to attack each and every play. Every play is different, but you have to play those six seconds hard. You got to come back to the huddle for another six seconds. So, each play is a new play. You got to have the mindset whether it's a good or a bad play, to flush it, and you got to be better next play.

Robert Saleh said that Jeffery Simmons' demeanor in the locker room at halftime was something he felt like was the key to turning things around. Did you notice what his demeanor was, and how was he?
Just talking to the defense, make sure that they continue to get their job that they did all day, and then that rubs off on us because they continue to help us out like they have been doing the whole season. So, always put confidence in us and knowing that we got to be able to get them out at the end of the day.

No one's going to be satisfied with one win. What things do you need to say to guys about staying on it and continuing to attack things, and do you think that's what the mindset is going to be?
We know there's a lot of plays that we want back. At the end of the day, we're happy for the this whole new program, this whole new team to get their first win together. So we'll enjoy this for the next couple hours, and then as we get to the building tomorrow, it's time to reset and try to get a win next week.

How big was the blocked punt?
I think that was the reason why we won the game. The special teams showed up today. Chim (Chimere Dike), he had a great game. I think if we continue to play complementary football, we'll be able to win some more games.

SAFETY AMANI HOOKER

11 straight losses in the division. How does this feel?
I didn't know that stat. Knowing that stat, it feels pretty incredible. We just want to come out here and win and that's what we did.

What was different this week?
We just had a great week of preparation, a great week of just getting ready for what they're going to do as an offense. We had a hell of a presnap communication and we kind of knew what they were doing.

On the emotion of the game
Just excitement, man. I missed a week, saw my guys out there, and I was just excited to be back out there playing.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE JEFFERY SIMMONS

Robert Saleh was telling us that you had the right demeanor at halftime and it kind of rubbed off on the rest of the team it felt like. What did you say? What'd you do?
Just stay in the moment, man. Sometimes you come into halftime panicking–not everybody, but in these types of games like this, just stay in the moment. Somebody got to continue to make a play. We were still in the game. I think for me, like when I always come into the season, especially the last couple years of my career, we come in with so many high expectations, and it's all about the moment. And each and every time when I step on the field, especially in like that last drive, is how can I be in that moment, be present and just dominate? And I think when you can get guys to take it play-by-play, stay in that moment, be in the moment, everything takes care of itself. God's just doing his job. We talked about it, (Robert) Saleh talked about it, we've been talking about it all week. Everyone do your job. Somebody got to make a play. Win your one-on-ones. And today, we did it. We did that. We dominated the line of scrimmage. I feel like there was a couple runs here and there that we want back, but we dominated. We dominated the line of scrimmage. We got what, I think like five sacks up front? That's where you can control the game. You dictate how the game goes. So, it was a tremendous all three phases. Shout out to the guys on special teams too. To have that type of field advantage to win the field position battle–when you got guys like Juice (Julius Chestnut) running down on kickoff and he makes a big tackle like that, that gives us energy. So, it was a team effort and that's the type of things we need as a team to continue to stack wins.

I think it was actually maybe six sacks and then also three turnovers. It was almost kind of like a feeding frenzy, a little bit of blood in the water type deal where you guys were feeling it.
I mean, just go back to what I said, everyone is just being in the moment, everyone being present, and everyone doing their job. When you do your job and you're not chasing, you're not trying to chase plays and make things up, the ball will find you. And just like plays, you're doing what you need to do, you're where you're supposed to be, you're in the defense, you're doing your job, plays are going to find you. And I think that's exactly what happened today. I think it wasn't nothing spectacular that we were doing. Just guys doing their jobs. So, that's something we've been talking about. It's not like–yes, we've been talking about turnovers. We've been talking about how we can win the turnover margin. How can we get the ball? And today was a great start. Guys where they're supposed to be and eventually just attacking the football.
Did you address the whole defense or the whole team at halftime?
When I talk, especially at halftime, I talk to the whole team. When I walk into the locker room, I'm talking to everybody. I want the coaches, I want everybody to hear me. It's not that I'm trying–there's no sense of it being a secret. It's not a secret of what I'm saying because we're in this together. Nothing else really matters. When I come in at halftime, no matter if it's 21–0, I'm going to have the same mindset that we could go out there and finish the game. Now, like I said, it wasn't–like even when I brought it up, I was like, it's enough talking. We said enough, coach said enough. Let's go out there and finish the football game. Let's go out there and win the football game.

Is the feeling one of relief after a game like this?
I mean I'm in here with you guys so apparently it's a relief. Normally, I'm at my locker. So to be at the podium, I guess shoutout to Puff (Jared Puffer) and them, they finally got me in here. But no, man, it's a relief. The energy in the locker room and I've been saying it, it's going to eventually break. That dam is going to eventually break. And you've got to get one before you get two. And that's something we've been talking about, just get one. Get one. That energy in that locker room, that excitement, the feeling that we got—this is a big win. This is a division win. Who knows what happens from here on out. But our job is to continue to take it day-by-day. Day-by-day, play-by-play, game-by-game and we going to keep trying to stack these wins. Like I said, it takes one and we finally got one.

On the game ball in his locker
No that wasn't a game ball. We actually gave the game ball to (Robert) Saleh for his first win today. Shoutout to Coach. Much deserved, he's been harping, he's been preaching, shoutout to him. But that's actually the ball when I stripped Jonathan Taylor and I recovered it. So that was that ball.

Talk us through that play.
Yeah, coming out of the half it's—they of course showed that run a couple of times in the first half. I felt the block. You can actually see on that play, where the center, I'm in three-technique and what they were trying to do, which we'll see it again of course, so what they're doing, as a three, they're trying to widen the three. By doing that, they're bumping me with the center. The center is coming all the way out and chasing me just to bump so Jonathan Taylor keep winding back. And as he did that, I felt it and being able to just throw back off it was like right there. The ball was right there. And we've been talking about it in our room, we have to get the ball out. We have to try to create those types of plays. I mean, guy who do it each and every week from the Eagles, Jalen Carter. It's like, bro, I've been praying for one of them and I finally got one today. It wasn't a punch out, it was a rake as I got on the back side because I'm coming across and I was able to get the ball out. And it's crazy because I actually lost the ball. At first, I'm like scrambling, I knew it came out. But I saw one of their lineman try to punch at the ball and try to grab it. That's when I'm like, 'You're not taking it from me.' It was great. It was a great start for the team. Coming out of the half, that's a big play. That's what I'm here for. I expect to make these types of plays. The team expects me to make these types of plays and now we need more.

On if he had been feeling anger or more passion at halftime when he addressed the team
Anger? No. It's halftime. I have no reason to be mad or angry. Everything I do is passion. Some words I may say after the game, if we lose, it's never attack. Everything I do, I do with passion. I love this game. I play my heart out each and every time I step on that field. It will never come off as anger. I feel like, and that goes back to, being a leader. When you're being a leader, when you say things that guys feel like attacked, guys don't follow you. So what can I say to motivate my guys, influence my guys? One thing we talked about, literally this week, is what can you do to influence your teammate. I never try to come into the locker room to try to attack my teammates. I'm always trying to get the best out of my teammates because it takes all of us to go win a football game. It's always going to be, I'm more on the passion side.

On the punt recovery for a touchdown
Shoutout to Fem (Oluwafemi Oladejo). I told him as he was doing his interview, that smile on his face was extra big today. Shoutout to James (Williams) first off. James apparently got his hand on the ball. He was able to block that. Each and every week, I'm sitting in the front of the room and Saleh always points out Femi. It's crazy he always points out Femi doing everything he can on special teams. He won't even be in sometimes, and Saleh showed one time when he wasn't in and he was in the back just walking through his footwork on punt, on kicking. And it's things in that nature to where when you're doing the right thing and you're preparing the right way, good things happen and a good thing happened with Femi today. To be able to always be that guy, going 100 miles per hour on special teams and look the ball just found him. He was right there by the ball when James blocked it and end up getting a touchdown today. That was big and shoutout to Femi.

On Oluwafemi Oladejo's progress as a play
One thing about him, and I think it's a lot to do with him and (Aaron) Whitecotton. Whitecotton, I'm not going to say he be on Femi extra hard than anybody else, but he's been challenging the hell out of Femi. Femi never backs down from it. Femi attacks each and every day. You can tell he wants to get better. He continues to grow as a player. When he's out there, you can just see it. From chasing the ball from back side when running away from, and he chases him down, making plays backside on the runs like that. His growth, you can see it. He is willing and wanting to grow as a player. He has took a big step, in my opinion, from last year to this year. He's healthy and that's the number one thing I want to say this year, too. I can only see him getting better in this league.

What does a win like this where you come back from behind mean to you?
That's one thing I continue to say. We continue to talk about the past, we continue to talk about the first five games, it doesn't matter. This is a new team. Today, guys realized we can win football games and when you win a football game, it takes care of so much. I've been saying it for the past five weeks, that winning takes care of a lot of things. That's confidence, the connections in the locker room, guys are going to get even closer now. Now we can we can actually win football games. We know what it takes now. Like I said, it comes down to, when you're talking about the game of football, who is going to make that play? Who is going to win their one-on-ones to eventually make that play. Guys like Carnell (Tate), he got his first touchdown today. You're telling me he's not going to be ready to go next week again? That's confidence building. It's a big boost for us here going forward.

GUARD PETER SKORONSKI

You guys came out in the second half and scored 26 points. What was behind the resurgence?
Yeah, I mean obviously credit to the defense and special teams, the plays they made to put us in position. Just felt a little more calmer from our end at least. Obviously not very explosive and we got to be better there, but at least just doing our job, getting into the drives a little bit, and finishing. We want more touchdowns than field goals, just a little more level-headed from us. And obviously, credit to the defense and special teams for making the plays they did.

What could this do for some of the young guys, learning how to win in this league?
Yeah, I think it shows – if the people in this locker room haven't learned how hard winning is, I think you haven't been paying attention. It's hard, and we had to fight with this one for sure. You can win in a lot of different ways. We won with a lot of big plays from our special teams and our defense. Credit to them on that. I think for our young guys, just learning how hard it is to get it done, but now they've seen it and felt it, I think that's a big thing.

What was different today? You guys obviously did not play perfect and had a lot of bumps in the road.
You know what, when we came into the locker room at halftime, we played about as bad of a half as we could offensively. 13-0. And for the first time in a while, it didn't feel like the 'here we go again.' No one really blinked. At all, and I was honestly just like–honestly, I came in here and felt like I thought we might feel like that, and no one did at all. So, credit to them. Everyone was like, alright, next play, let's move on. And I think everyone did a really good job with that. And obviously, credit to the big plays made on the other two sides of the ball. No one really blinked at all, and everyone just stayed in the boat a little bit and executed.

WIDE RECEIVER CARNELL TATE

What was clicking for you guys today? It seemed like you and Cam Ward were on the same page, especially in the second half.
He just trusted me to go out there and make a play. He trusted the receiver room. We know we go as the receivers do so when the receivers had to come up big today and that's what we did. Everyone made plays today.

You said you never lost this much in your life. How much of a relief is it finally getting a win?
It feels good. I mean, we've just got to go out there and stack from this one to the next one.

What kind of things can you build on from today?
We could build on a lot. First importantly, we won as a team. So as long as we keep winning as a team.

Talk through the touchdown. What'd you see? How does that play compare to how you run it at practice?
I just had a corner route. The corner didn't cover me, so it was wide open.

2026 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- FAREWELL SEASON: With the opening of the new Nissan Stadium set for 2027, this season will mark the farewell season at the current Nissan Stadium. The Titans will open the campaign with a home game against the New York Jets in Week 1, and the team will close out its final regular season in the current building in Week 17 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Titans have already played more games at Nissan Stadium than any other venue in the franchise's history entering 2026. Including regular season and postseason games, the team has appeared 224 times at Nissan Stadium (119-105), one more than the 223 total contests at the Astrodome (116-105-2) from 1968 to 1996.
- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against four playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Houston, Jacksonville, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and road contests at Houston and Jacksonville. Four of those games are against 2025 division winners: Jaguars twice (AFC South), Pittsburgh (AFC North) and Philadelphia (NFC East). This is the third consecutive year in which the Titans will have six games against reigning playoff clubs.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup at Houston, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick in this year's draft. The team is slated to face seven of the top-11 players selected in this years' draft, including Fernando Mendoza (first overall – Las Vegas), David Bailey (second overall – N.Y. Jets), Arvell Reese (fifth overall – N.Y. Giants), Sonny Styles (seventh overall – Washington), Spencer Fano (ninth overall – Cleveland), Francis Mauigoa (10th overall – N.Y. Giants) and Caleb Downs (11th overall – Dallas). Tate, Reese, Styles and Downs were teammates at Ohio State University.
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Robert Saleh was one of 10 NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face five of the others: New York Giants' John Harbaugh, Baltimore's Jesse Minter, Cleveland's Todd Monken, Las Vegas' Klint Kubiak and Pittsburgh's Mike McCarthy. It is the first time since 2022 the Titans will face five-or-more head coaches in their first season with their team.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2025 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2025, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New York Jets, and they visit the AFC West's fourth-place Las Vegas Raiders and the NFC North's fourth-place Detroit Lions. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .476 (137-151-1) based upon their opponents' combined 2025 record, the eighth lowest out of 32 NFL teams.
- OFFENSIVE LEADERS: The revamped Titans defense under head coach Robert Saleh will face two of the top-five offenses from last season in the Dallas Cowboys (second – 391.9 yards per game) and Detroit Lions (fifth – 373.2).
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups in 2026, including every home game and their two trips to Texas against the Cowboys and the Texans. They will double their trips to the Eastern time zone from three in 2025 to six in 2026 (at N.Y. Giants, Baltimore, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Jacksonville and Detroit). Outside of a preseason visit to San Francisco, the farthest Tennessee will fly is to Las Vegas, their second trip to Nevada in two seasons after never playing there before 2025. The Titans will not play in the Mountain time zone.

WEEK-BY-WEEK SCHEDULE NOTES

- WEEK 5 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The Titans and Texans rivalry enters its 25th season. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last nine years. The Titans will look to take the lead in the series as it currently sits tied at 24 wins apiece. Head coach DeMeco Ryans and quarterback C.J. Stroud enter their fourth year together. The Texans have reached the playoffs the previous three seasons but have fallen short in the divisional round each year.
- WEEK 6 (A) & WEEK 15 (H) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' six-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Titans' defensive coordinator, Gus Bradley, spent three seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator from 2022-24, including two years under current Colts head coach Shane Steichen. The two coaches spent four years together (2017-20) with the Chargers as Steichen climbed the ranks from offensive quality control to quarterbacks coach to offensive coordinator while Bradley served as defensive coordinator.
- WEEK 8 at CINCINNATI BENGALS: The Titans lead the all-time series against the Bengals, 41-38-1. From 2021 to 2024, the Bengals visited Nissan Stadium every year and claimed three out of the four matchups, including the 2021 divisional playoff game. This will be the first time the Titans travel to Cincinnati since 2020. The Bengals are led by seventh-year quarterback Joe Burrow and eight-year head coach Zac Taylor.
- WEEK 9 (BYE): This season marks the first time since 2014 the Titans have had a Week 9 bye. It comes one week earlier than the Week 10 bye the Titans had in 2025.
- WEEK 10 (H) & WEEK 12 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The Titans and Jaguars will play two games in a three-week span, as the Jaguars defend their divisional crown. In 2025, the Jaguars went 13-4 to win the AFC South for the first time since 2022. The Titans, who lead the series 34-28 including the postseason, look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept the past two seasons. Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley served as head coach of the Jaguars from 2013-16. During that time, Titans head coach Robert Saleh was the linebackers coach.
- WEEK 11 at DALLAS COWBOYS: In Week 11, the Titans and Cowboys will meet for the 17th time as the Titans travel to AT&T Stadium for the first time since a 28-14 Monday Night Football victory in November 2018. Tennessee has won both of its regular season games at the site, which opened in 2009. Of the 14 new additions to the Titans coaching staff in 2026, three (Dave Borgonzi, Tanzel Smart and Aaron Whitecotton) coached for Dallas in 2025. Special teams coordinator John "Bones" Fassel joined the Titans in 2024 after five years with the Cowboys. The Titans also acquired defensive lineman Solomon Thomas in a trade with Dallas in March.
- WEEK 13 vs. WASHINGTON COMMANDERS: The Titans will face the Commanders in Week 13. In 2024, the teams also met in Week 13 in the nation's capital. The Titans lead the all-time series, 8-7, and have won two of the last three meetings. Washington coach Dan Quinn succeeded Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley as defensive coordinator of the Seahawks in 2013 after Bradley was hired to be the head coach of the Jaguars. Head coach Robert Saleh served as quality control coach under both Bradley and Quinn in Seattle from 2011-13, ending the 2013 season with a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII.
- WEEK 14 at DETROIT LIONS: For the second time since 2024, the Titans will make the trip to Detroit to take on the Lions, and they look to win their seventh game against Detroit in eight matchups. The Titans currently hold a 10-4 lead in the all-time series. Head coach Robert Saleh is a native of Dearborn, Mich., a suburb of Detroit. This will be his first time visiting Detroit as a head coach. Since the Lions hired Dan Campbell as head coach in 2022, their 45 regular season wins are the fourth-most in the NFL.
- WEEK 16 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: For the second consecutive year, the Titans will travel to Las Vegas to take on the Raiders. This year, the contest could feature the top overall pick from the last two drafts in Titans quarterback Cam Ward and Raiders quarterback Fernando Mendoza, who the Raiders took first overall in 2026. The Titans, who trail in the series 22-31, look to regain momentum after dropping last year's contest in their first ever trip to Allegiant Stadium. Former Titans interim coach Mike McCoy currently serves as the assistant head coach of the Raiders, while former offensive coordinator Nick Holz is the offensive pass game coordinator.
- WEEK 17 vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS: In the final regular season game at the current Nissan Stadium, the Titans will face off against the Steelers, who are led by new head coach Mike McCarthy. It will be Pittsburgh's first visit to Nissan Stadium since 2020. McCarthy takes over the reins in Pittsburgh following former head coach Mike Tomlin's resignation following 19 seasons at the helm. The Titans look to snap a five-game losing streak against the Steelers dating back to 2014. In franchise history, the Titans/Oilers have played the Steelers more than any other opponent.

Jim Wyatt: New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi Shares His Vision to Build a Winner

The OTP: 2025 New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee after 16 years with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping to build the franchise into a perennial contender and three-time Super Bowl winner. During his final four seasons in Kansas City, Borgonzi served as Assistant General Manager.

Tasked with building a foundation for sustained success in Tennessee, Borgonzi directed a significant overhaul of the Titans roster from the time he arrived through the end of his second offseason on the job. Entering training camp in 2026, only 17 of the 91 players on the team (as of July 15) were with the club before he was named GM.

The additions included an eight-man class from the 2026 NFL Draft. Borgonzi took wide receiver Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick, and on the same night, he traded back into the first round to draft defensive end Keldric Faulk at No. 31. It marked only the second time in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) that the team had multiple first-rounders. The class also included linebacker Anthony Hill Jr. in the second round and five more players on Day 3: guard Fernando Carmona Jr. (Round 5), running back Nick Singleton (5), defensive tackle Jackie Marshall (6), center Pat Coogan (6) and tight end Jaren Kanak (7).

The 2026 draft followed an active period of signings and trades, when the Titans targeted several key veterans to raise the talent level and provide leadership. From the day the NFL's unrestricted free agent signing period began to the start of the draft, a total of 21 free agents joined the Titans. The haul included wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson (formerly of the New York Giants), tight end Daniel Bellinger (Giants), punter Tommy Townsend (Houston Texans), defensive lineman John Franklin-Myers (Denver Broncos) and cornerbacks Alontae Taylor (New Orleans Saints) and Cor'Dale Flott (Giants). Two additional veterans—defensive end Jermaine Johnson II (New York Jets) and defensive tackle Solomon Thomas (Dallas Cowboys)—were acquired in trades.

Borgonzi capped the 2026 offseason by awarding defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons with a multi-year contract extension, securing the four-time Pro Bowler's tenure in Tennessee for the foreseeable future.

The Titans' first Borgonzi-led draft in 2025 featured nine selections, including quarterback Cam Ward with the first-overall selection. All nine of the draftees appeared in at least six games as rookies, and six members of the group started at least five games. The Titans draft class accumulated 64 combined starts in 2025, which ranked second in the NFL (75 by Cleveland) and was the largest total for the franchise in the Titans era.

Ward, who was voted a team captain as a rookie, started all 17 games, and his 3,169 passing yards eclipsed Marcus Mariota's previous franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015). With 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 323-of-540 passing, Ward's 1.3 percent interception rate was the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks, breaking Ryan Tannehill's franchise mark of 1.5 percent in 2020.

Another draft pick, fourth-round wide receiver Chimere Dike, was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner and added first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. Dike led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which ranked third all-time for the franchise and first all-time among all NFL rookies. His 17.3-yard punt return average broke Billy "White Shoes" Johnson's franchise record (15.4) that stood since 1977, and he also posted a franchise-best 1,588 kickoff return yards.

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a five-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

In his final eight seasons in Kansas City (2017-24), Borgonzi worked under Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach. As the Assistant General Manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as Assistant General Manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and Townsend (2022).

In 2024, the Chiefs captured their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant General Manager, Borgonzi served as Director of Football Operations (2018-20), Director of Player Personnel (2017), Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16), Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14), Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) and Manager of Football Operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's College Scouting Administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

The Tennessee Titans hired Robert Saleh as the 22nd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 22, 2026.

Saleh arrives in Tennessee with 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience: six seasons with the Houston Texans (2005-10), three with the Seattle Seahawks (2011-13), three with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16), five total seasons over two stints with the San Francisco 49ers (2017-20, 2025), and four campaigns as the head coach of the New York Jets (2021-24). During his time in the NFL, he has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense on five occasions.

In 2025, Saleh returned to the San Francisco 49ers for his second stint as defensive coordinator under head coach Kyle Shanahan. With the roster decimated by injuries, including season-ending injuries to All-Pro defensive lineman Nick Bosa and All-Pro linebacker Fred Warner, the 49ers went 12-5 during the regular season and progressed to the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

As the head coach of the Jets, Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (cornerback Sauce Gardner, defensive lineman Quinnen Williams and returner Braxton Berrios) and/or Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, Williams and linebacker Jermaine Johnson II). The Jets defense finished in the top 10 in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons, including first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7), and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL.

The 2023 Jets featured a pair of first-team Associated Press All-Pros in Gardner and linebacker Quincy Williams, as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quinnen Williams. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter, tying for the second-most such victories in the NFL. Defensively, the Jets finished in a tie for first place in opponent yards per play (4.6) and ranked second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total defense (292.3) and tied for eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points or less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL. Meanwhile, the Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1 percent of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year running back Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two first-team AP All-Pro selections (Gardner and Quinnen Williams), a second-team All-Pro (linebacker C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (special teamer Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley and Quinnen Williams). He also oversaw the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in wide receiver Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defensed (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL in 2022. The club boasted a defense that tied for first in opponent yards per play (4.8) and finished third in passing defense (189.4), fourth in scoring defense (316) and fourth in total defense (311.1).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie quarterback Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie running back Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie wide receiver Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards). The Jets were just the second team since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh logged four seasons (2017-20) in his first stint as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

In 2020, despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 49ers defense held top-five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9, fourth), third-down defense (35.5 percent, fourth), total defense (314.4, fifth) and opponent yards per play (5.0, tied for fifth). The unit also ranked tied for sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by Warner, who earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with a sack, two interceptions, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to a second-place finish in total defense – 281.8 yards allowed per game – which was the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco placed first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (153.7 by the Jets). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing defense since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51). San Francisco also ranked seventh in

"We're delighted to welcome Robert and his family to the Titans, and firmly believe he is the right person for our team and community. We immediately connected with his competitive spirit and detailed approach to developing our players and team. Also, Robert's recommendations from across the league were overwhelmingly positive and were only reinforced during our time together. I want to thank Mike Borgonzi for his leadership during this process and acknowledge the work done by the search committee. They dedicated so much time and effort and I am thrilled with the results – and most importantly – I believe Titans fans will be, too. Congratulations to Robert and his family, and welcome to Nashville."

GENERAL MANAGER MIKE BORGONZI:
"On behalf of the entire Titans organization and Nashville community, I am thrilled to welcome Robert Saleh as our head coach. Robert embodies the fundamental values of what we believe a Titan should look like and represent. He's smart, tough, dependable, and values working with people. His innate ability to lead and respond to adversity is what makes him the right person to lead our football program back to one whose identity embodies sustainable success. We understand the urgency to win, and believe this is a step in that direction with a coach best equipped to accomplish our goals. The work has just begun, but I'm grateful for this partnership and excited to build this together."

opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Bosa, a rookie in 2019, played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed. He was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News and PFWA, as well as the NFL's Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (nine), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four or more players with at least 6.5 sacks in 2019. Rookie linebacker Dre Greenlaw was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by cornerback Richard Sherman, who registered three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and was named second-team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37 sacks, the most by the team in a single season at the time since 2013 (38). The defense ranked among the top dozen teams in the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09, seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5, 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42, 11th) and net passing yards per game allowed (233.3, 11th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017. The 2018 San Francisco defense was anchored by Buckner, who led the team with a career-high 12 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 2012 (19.5 by Aldon Smith). Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies.

In 2017, Saleh spearheaded a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards-per-play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016 to 2017 behind Cleveland (0.76) and the Jets (0.72). The defense also held its opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers' streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640) and tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the club in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, linebacker Telvin Smith Sr. registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles from 2014 through 2016 were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, which was the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the squad and ranked fifth in the NFL with 133 tackles, according to GSIS statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped into the starting lineup in 2014 and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seahawks. During that period, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of K.J. Wright, Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh totaled six seasons with the Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). While there, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to each rank among the league's top 10 tacklers.

Saleh's coaching career began with three seasons in the collegiate ranks. He launched his career at Michigan State University as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2003). He then spent one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University before a brief stint at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach (2005).

A native of Dearborn, Mich., Saleh attended Northern Michigan University, where he was a four-year starter at tight end.

He and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: sons Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and daughters Mila and Ella.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Click for complete bio

Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

As a rookie, Ward was voted a team captain prior to the season. He started all 17 games, and his final statistics included 323 completions, 3,169 yards, 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 540 attempts with a passer rating of 80.2. He broke Marcus Mariota's franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for passing yards in a season. He also rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 39 attempts.

With 17 starts, he set a franchise record for starts by a rookie quarterback and joined Ryan Tannehill (2021) as the only Titans quarterbacks with 17 starts in a season since the NFL schedule went to 17 games in 2021. Previously during the 16-game schedule era from 1978 to 2020, six Titans/Oilers quarterbacks combined for 10 total seasons with 16 starts: Warren Moon (three), Steve McNair (three), Dan Pastorini, Ken Stabler, Matt Hasselbeck and Tannehill.

Ward's 540 attempts in 2025 were not only more than any other rookie in the organization's history, but also more than every quarterback in franchise annals in a season other than Warren Moon, who had 655 attempts in 1991 and 584 attempts in 1990.

On 540 attempts, Ward threw only seven interceptions. His 1.3 interception percentage stands as the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks. He broke Ryan Tannehill's franchise record of 1.5 percent in 2020. Over the final nine games of the season, Ward threw only one interception. His 1.3 percent interception rate also tied for the third-best mark in the NFL among qualifiers in 2025 behind Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr. (1.1) and Chicago's Caleb Williams (1.2).

Prior to entering the NFL, Ward played for three different schools over five college seasons: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at quarterback, joining Marcus Mariota (2015-16) as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to start Week 1 in each of their first two NFL seasons. He finished with 140 yards on 19-of-32 passing and added four rushes for 21 yards. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Elic Ayomanor for an 11-yard touchdown.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), completed 13 of 20 passes for 183 yards and a 94.4 passer rating. His passer rating was the third best of his 19-game career in a contest with at least 20 attempts. He added two rushing touchdowns, finishing with seven rushing yards on four attempts. He scored the Titans' first touchdown of the contest with a one-yard run on fourth-and-goal in the first quarter and then capped a 12-play, 69-yard drive with his second rushing touchdown of the contest on a one-yard carry in the third quarter. It was his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and gave him four career rushing scores. Ward became the first Titans quarterback with multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since Ryan Tannehill had a pair at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021. His four passes of 25-plus yards in the game matched a career high (Ayomanor for 28 and 41 yards, Tyjae Spears for 27 yards, and Calvin Ridley for 25 yards). He increased his streak to six consecutive games without an interception, including the final four games of 2025, while also increasing his streak to 173 consecutive passes without an interception, second in the franchise record books behind only Marcus Mariota's 205 consecutive passes without an interception from 2018 to 2019. Over an 11-game span, including the final nine games of 2025, his totals included one interception, 11 touchdown passes and four rushing touchdowns.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), finished the game with 181 yards on 23-of-36 passing, with a four-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson. On a fourth-quarter scoring drive, completed all eight pass attempts for 54 yards and a touchdown. In the second half, he completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 141 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Ward's 16 completions in the second half tied for the second-most in any half in his career. Prior to his interception—his first since Dec. 7, 2025 at Cleveland—he attempted 208 consecutive passes without an interception to break the franchise record, previously set by Marcus Mariota, who had 205 consecutive pass attempts without an interception from 2018 to 2019.
- At Baltimore (10/4), completed 20-of-31 passes (64.5 completion percentage) for a season-high 222 yards with a touchdown and an interception. In the first quarter, he led a 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, throwing for 34 yards on the drive before Tony Pollard plunged in for a three-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter, he led a second 70-yard scoring drive, including a 33-yard connection with Carnell Tate to convert fourth-and-11 and a career-long 22-yard scramble. The drive was capped off by a three-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson and a pass to Gunnar Helm in the end zone for a two-point conversion. It was his ninth consecutive game with either a passing or rushing touchdown.

- Against Houston (10/11), completed 23-of-36 passes for 170 yards.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), completed 11-of-22 passes for 102 yards and an eight-yard touchdown to Carnell Tate in the third quarter. He engineered his second career game-winning drive, leading the offense on a seven-play, 52-yard drive in the fourth quarter that resulted in a 49-yard field goal to put Tennessee ahead for good. During the drive, he completed a six-yard pass to Wan'Dale Robinson to convert a third-and-five.

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which included 1,588 kickoff return yards, 398 punt return yards, 423 receiving yards and 18 rushing yards.

He was named to the Pro Bowl as the AFC's starting returner, becoming the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

Dike also earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. He was the franchise's fourth rookie since the merger to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors, joining Campbell (1978), Kearse (1999) and tackle Jack Conklin (2016).

Dike's 2,427 all-purpose yards in 2025 ranked third in franchise history for a single season behind Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000 and Johnson's 2,509 yards in 2009. The number established the all-time NFL rookie record for all-purpose yards and was the highest in a season by any NFL player since 2011, when Darren Sproles set the NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards.

Dike returned 23 punts for 398 yards and two touchdowns. His 17.3-yard average tied for the NFL lead with New England's Marcus Jones while also breaking the franchise single-season record, which was held for 48 years by Billy "White Shoes" Johnson. Dike averaged nearly two yards per return more than Johnson's mark of 15.4 yards in 1977 (35 for 539 yards).

Dike also returned 62 kickoffs for a franchise-record 1,588 yards, averaging 25.6 yards per attempt. He ranked second in the NFL in kickoff return yards in 2025 behind Dallas' KaVontae Turpin (1,814). His 1,588 kickoff return yards put him in third place in NFL history among rookies, trailing only the Raiders' Chris Carr (1,752 in 2005) and Arizona's Josh Scobey (1,684 in 2003).

With a punt return average of 17.3 yards and a kickoff return average of 25.6 yards, Dike became the NFL's first player since Detroit's Jack Christiansen in 1952 (21.5 punt return average and 25.6 kickoff return average) to qualify with an average 17.0-plus yards per punt return and 25.0-plus yards per kickoff return in a season.

On offense, Dike's rookie contributions included finishing second on the squad with 48 receptions, ranking third with 423 receiving yards, and tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches. His six total touchdowns led the Titans.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

JC Latham is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Latham moved to right tackle, where he started 13 games. He was in the lineup every game for the final 12 contests after missing four of the first five weeks due to injury.

With 30 starts in his first two NFL seasons, Latham joined Jack Conklin (32 from 2016-17), Chance Warmack (32 from 2013-14), Michael Roos (32 from 2005-06) and Peter Skoronski (31 from 2023-24) as the franchise's only offensive linemen in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to accomplish the feat. He did so all before his 23rd birthday (Feb. 8, 2026). Among NFL offensive linemen under 23 at the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham had the most career starts.

As a rookie, Latham notched 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

STARTS BEFORE 24TH BIRTHDAY

Titans tackle JC Latham has accumulated more starts before his 24th birthday than almost every other player in franchise history. He does not celebrate his 24th birthday until Feb. 8, 2027.

As a rookie in 2024, the first-round pick started every game at left tackle. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday, he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005. Among all NFL players in 2024, Latham was the only one under age 22 to log 17 starts.

Then, in 2025, Latham moved to right tackle and registered 13 starts. By increasing his total to 30 games played and 30 starts, he ranked fifth in franchise history in total games before a player's 23rd birthday and second in total starts before a player's 23rd birthday. Only Starks (31) had more starts for the organization before turning 23.

Most games started in franchise history (1960 to 2026) before a player's 24th birthday:

	Player	Position	Season(s)	Starts
1.	Jurrell Casey	DT	2011-13	42
2.	George Webster	LB	1967-69	39

	Rich Michael	T	1960-62	33
9.	Jack Conklin	T	2016-17	32
	Tank Williams	S	2002-03	32

At the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham led all active NFL offensive linemen under the age of 23 in career starts. Additionally, since 1980, only nine other NFL offensive linemen started more games than Latham before their 23rd birthday.

Most starts by an offensive linemen before his 23rd birthday from 1980 to 2025:

During his first three seasons, Skoronski started 48 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 47 games through the end of the 2025 campaign. In 2024 and 2025, he did not miss an offensive snap.

Through 2025, Skoronski's 48 starts were the most for the team in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) by a player before his 25th birthday (July 31, 2026). His streak of 47 consecutive starts at the conclusion of 2025 made up the team's longest active streak.

From 2019 through 2025, Simmons was second on the Titans defense in sacks behind only outside linebacker Harold Landry III (46). In franchise history, Simmons' 42.5 sacks were 12th overall and fifth in the organization's "Titans era" (1999 to present). Additionally, his total ranked sixth among all NFL interior defensive linemen.

With at least five sacks every season from 2021 to 2025, Simmons joined Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six), and Sean Jones (six) as the only players for the franchise to record five consecutive seasons with at least five sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2025, Simmons appeared in 15 games with 15 starts. He earned Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro honors after ranking first in the NFL among interior defensive linemen in solo tackles (39), tackles for loss (17), sacks (11.0), sack yards (79.0), quarterback pressures (60), pressure rate (14.5 percent) and forced fumbles (tied - three). His sacks, sack yards, tackles for loss and forced fumbles all set career highs, despite missing two games due to injury.

Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defensed in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 17th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2025, Cox was voted a team captain for the third consecutive season and handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fifth consecutive season. With 85 consecutive games played in his first five seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2025 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 13th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

Cox also appeared in his 250th career game (regular season) in the 2025 season finale, becoming the 64th all-time NFL player to do so. He ranked ninth among all active NFL players, and his total also gave him the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

Cox worked with new battery mates in 2025 in punter Johnny Hekker and kicker Joey Slye. Also in 2025, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the third consecutive year.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He garnered more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Jim Wyatt: Titans Unveil New Uniforms, Logo, to Represent the Next Chapter of Franchise History

On March 12, 2026, the Tennessee Titans revealed new logos and uniforms, marking an exciting moment for the organization that honors the team's deep roots and celebrates its home in Nashville and the state of Tennessee.

More than just a new look, the uniform and logo embody the spirit of the organization – its rich history dating back to 1960, heritage, and home. The design was inspired by the voices and passion of Titans fans, players, alumni, and neighbors.

"We are incredibly proud to unveil this new look for the Tennessee Titans," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "Our uniforms and logo represent the strength of our history, the passion of our fans, and the bold future we're building together. Today is about honoring over 65 years of our organization while confidently stepping into the next chapter, and I couldn't be more excited for our players, our city, and our fans to wear this identity with pride."

The team's new primary logo, The Shield, remains true to the Titans identity, featuring strong colors of Titans blue, white, and red, and the team's familiar tri-stars. A secondary mark, The Football, gives a cultural nod to city and state and offers fans a fresh way to show their Titans pride. The letters "T" and "N" are blended in a vertical arrangement commemorating both the state's postal abbreviation and the city of Nashville, TN. An array of other marks, including a handcrafted script wordmark, also adorn the team's new logo slick.

The team uniform features some of the organization's most iconic aspects of its heritage and brings them into its present and future.

- At home in Nashville, the Titans primary jerseys will don the distinctive Titans blue, with "TITANS" emblazoned across the chest. The chest font draws inspiration from traditional woodblock printmaking – a tribute to the city's creative spirit – while the numbers echo classic collegiate design.
- On the road, white jerseys will carry the "TENNESSEE" name, ensuring the team represents the state everywhere they play.
- The Tennessee Tri-Star can be found in navy in the tab at the back of the uniform and on the side panel underneath the arm.
- Inside every jersey, a simple "WE" tag is stitched, a rallying cry for the team that emphasizes a "we over me" mentality.
- The iconic stripe of the team's past was infused with Nashville's deep roots in music and is now the 6-String Stripe, represented on the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

Jerseys and new team merchandise is now available online at shop.tennesseetitans.com and at the Titans Team Store in Nissan Stadium. More gear will be arriving later this spring and summer. For more information on events and merchandise, visit tennesseetitans.com/brand.

"From the beginning, we approached this process with tremendous care and pride, knowing how much the Titans identity means to our fans and to the state of Tennessee," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "Every element of these uniforms was thoughtfully considered — from the Titans blue and Tri-Star to the new 6-String Stripe that celebrates Nashville's deep musical roots. We wanted to honor the history that defines this franchise while creating something that reflects who we are today and where we're going. The result is a uniform that represents our team, our city, and our state with authenticity and pride."

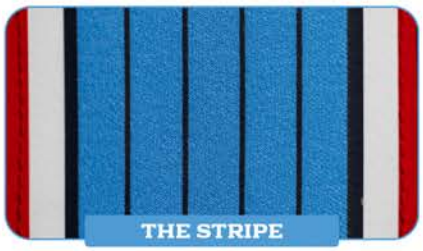
TITANS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND UNIFORMS

THE HELMET

Our primary logo, "The Shield" adorns the side of the helmet, while the 6-String Stripe runs down the center. The helmet's clean, white shell is paired with an all-white face mask.

THE CHEST PLATES

The Titans primary wordmark, stitched prominently across the center of the chest, announces our name in a bold, serif font inspired by Tennessee woodblock type and classic athletics. Rendered in a sans-serif typeface, our away jersey proudly represents our home state everywhere we play.



THE STRIPE

The "6-String Stripe" infuses the iconic stripe from our past with Nashville's deep roots in music. This stripe is featured prominently along the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

THE NAMEPLATE

The nameplate uses a roster font that is an extension of the woodblock-inspired wordmark.

THE NUMBERS

Inspired by collegiate-style block numbers, our classic jersey numbers stand out in white on our primary home jersey and in Titans blue while we're away, both accented with red outlines.

THE ACCENTS

Navy continues in the 6-String Stripe, the collar tab, the Tri-Star vents at the side panels, the Nike Swoosh, and the 3D helmet bumpers.

THE TAB

The collar tab features the Tennessee Tri-Star, proudly honoring the three Grand Divisions of our home state. Inside the collar tab is the word, "WE," representing the team's "We Over Me" mentality.
