TITANS TRAVEL TO FACE DIVISION-LEADING JAGUARS

Tennessee Titans (1-9) at Jacksonville Jaguars (7-3)

Sunday, Nov. 29, 2026 • 1 p.m. EST/12 p.m. CST • EverBank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla. • TV: FOX/WZTV-17

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-9) face the AFC South-leading Jaguars (7-3) this week in Jacksonville. Kickoff at EverBank Stadium (capacity 67,838) is set for 1 p.m. EST/noon CST on Sunday, Nov. 29. The start time was recently moved from its originally-scheduled late-afternoon slot.

This is the second Titans-Jaguars meeting in a span of three weeks. On Nov. 16, the Jaguars visited Nissan Stadium and won 40-23, increasing their winning streak in the series to five games. The Titans hold a 35-29 all-time advantage over their longest-standing division rival.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

The contest will be regionally televised on FOX, including Nashville affiliate WZTV FOX 17, and streamed on FOX One in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Kenny Albert, analyst Jonathan Vilma and reporter Megan Olivi.

Additionally, fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with play-by-play announcer Taylor Zarzour, analyst Ramon Foster, executive producer Rhett Bryan, gameday host Will Boling and sideline reporter Brad Hopkins.

Additionally, Sports USA will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Josh Appel and analyst Mike White will have the call.

LAST WEEK AT DALLAS

This week marks Tennessee's second consecutive road contest. At Dallas last week, they fell by a final score of 51-30.

Quarterback Cam Ward finished with 248 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 21-of-30 passing (70.0 percent), plus an additional rushing touchdown. His 117.1 passer rating was the second best of his career in a game with at least 20 attempts. In his past three games, Ward is 75-of-109 (69.8 percent) for 783 yards with six touchdowns, one interception and a 103.9 passer rating.

Ward's two touchdown passes included a 59-yarder to rookie Carnell Tate – the fourth-overall pick's second career touchdown reception. Despite missing a pair of games prior to the trip to Dallas, Tate ranks second in the NFL among rookies with 471 receiving yards and fifth among rookies with 36 receptions.

Running back Tony Pollard contributed 110 rushing yards on 21 carries for a 5.2-yard average. It was his third 100-yard rushing performance in the past four contests. In that span, beginning with the game against Cleveland in Week 7, Pollard's 501 scrimmage yards are the fifth most in the NFL among running backs.

THE JAGUARS

The Jaguars visited the New York Giants last week and lost 23-18. Nevertheless, they hold a three-game lead in the AFC South over the second-place Houston Texans (4-6) with seven games remaining in the regular season.

In his sixth NFL campaign, Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence has completed 22 touchdown passes with seven interceptions. The 2021 first-overall draft pick ranks fifth in the NFL with a 105.1 passer rating in 2026.

Head coach Liam Coen is in his second year in Jacksonville. In 2025, his team went 13-4 to secure an AFC South title. He became the NFL's first rookie head coach to win 13-plus games after inheriting a team that won four or fewer games the season before he was hired.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

TITANS OFFENSE

- The Titans have gone five consecutive games scoring 23 or more points, giving them their longest such stretch since a nine-game streak in 2021.
- After gaining 322 yards, 440 yards, 327 yards and 346 yards in their past four games, respectively, the Titans can post five consecutive games with 320-plus yards for the first time since a seven-game streak in 2021 (Weeks 2-8).
- The Titans offense can register its fifth consecutive game with 100-plus rushing yards. The last time the team accomplished that was six consecutive games in 2022.

WR/KR CHIMERE DIKE

- Enters the week with 3,894 career all-purpose yards in 27 career games, needing 106 more all-purpose yards to reach 4,000. If he does so this week, he will join four other NFL players who have debuted since 1960 and reached 4,000 all-purpose yards within their first 28 career games: Gale Sayers (25 games from 1965-66), Mark Herron (27 games from 1973-74), Danny Amendola (27 games from 2009-10) and James Brooks (28 games from 1981-83).
- With 2,700 career kickoff return yards, he needs 139 more to pass Marc Mariani (2,838) for the fifth most in franchise history.

LB ANTHONY HILL JR.

- With 88 tackles entering the game, he needs six more to eclipse cornerback Alterraun Verner's 93 tackles in 2010 for the most by a Titans rookie since the beginning of the 2000 season (GSIS tackle statistics).

DE JACOB MARTIN

- Martin, who leads the Titans with a career-best 7.5 sacks in 2026, can register his seventh game in 2026 with at least a half sack.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Can record his 17th career 100-yard rushing game.
- A 100-yard rushing game this week would give him his fourth such performance of 2026, which would set a career high.
- Needs 126 scrimmage yards (874 entering the game) to reach 1,000 scrimmage yards for a sixth consecutive season. Among all NFL running backs, only Derrick Henry (eight consecutive seasons through 2025) and Josh Jacobs (seven consecutive seasons through 2025) could either match or exceed Pollard's active streak in 2026.
- A 101-yard rushing performance would make him the 10th player to reach 3,000 career rushing yards with the franchise. He has 2,899 rushing yards with the Titans entering the game.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Scheduled to appear in his 100th career NFL regular season game.

K JOEY SLYE

- Has three field goals in each of the past two games. Another such performance this week would give him the team's first three-game streak of games with three or more field goals since Ryan Succop accomplished the feat twice in 2017.

WR CARNELL TATE

- With 36 receptions for 471 receiving yards entering the week, Tate can join Bill Groman as the only players in franchise history to have at least 40 receptions and 500 receiving yards in the team's first 11 games of their rookie season. Groman began his career with 58 receptions for 1,149 yards in the first 11 games of 1960.

QB CAM WARD

- Has completed two touchdown passes in each of the past three games.
- For the first time in his career, he can register a passer rating of 90.0 or greater for a fourth consecutive game.
- Can become the first Titans/Oilers quarterback since Ken Stabler (Weeks 2-4, 1980) to have at least 20 pass attempts and a 70.0 completion percentage in three consecutive games.
- In the past three contests, his passing totals include 109 attempts, 75 completions, 783 yards, six touchdowns and one interception, amounting to a 103.9 passer rating. He rushed for 83 yards and a touchdown on 12 carries in the same span.

SERIES HISTORY

The Jaguars are the Titans' longest-standing division rival. The clubs have met at least twice each year since Jacksonville began play as an expansion franchise in 1995. For the first seven seasons of the rivalry they played in the AFC Central, and since 2002 they have been members of the AFC South.

The teams have met a total of 64 times, with the Titans holding a 35-29 advantage. The Titans won five consecutive matchups from 2019 to 2021. Since then, however, the Jaguars have taken eight of the last nine in the series, including sweeps in 2024 and 2025.

In the first matchup of 2026 (Nov. 15), the Jaguars visited Nissan Stadium and handed the Titans a 40-23 defeat. Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence passed for 352 yards and three touchdowns, while Jaguars wide receiver Parker Washington caught seven passes for 152 yards and a score.

At EverBank Stadium to conclude the 2025 regular season (Jan. 4), Titans rookie quarterback Cam Ward was injured on a touchdown run to conclude the offense's first possession, and he did not return. The Jaguars then scored 41 unanswered points to win 41-7.

The last win by the Titans against the Jaguars was in the 2023 season finale (Jan. 7, 2024) at EverBank Stadium. The Titans grabbed a 28-20 victory to deprive the Jaguars of a playoff berth and an AFC South title.

In the 2022 finale, played at EverBank Stadium on Jan. 7, 2023, the Titans and Jaguars played to decide the AFC South title. The Jaguars scored the game-winning touchdown with less than three minutes remaining on the clock on a 37-yard fumble return by linebacker Josh Hines-Allen, ending Tennessee's season and propelling Jacksonville to the postseason.

The Titans and Jaguars have met five times on Thursday Night Football. The last occasion was Sept. 19, 2019. The Jaguars won 20-7, taking a 3-2 lead in the Thursday night series. Jaguars then-rookie quarterback Gardner Minshew earned his first career victory as a starter in the contest.

On Thursday night, Dec. 6, 2018, Titans running back Derrick Henry rushed for a then-franchise-record 238 yards and four touchdowns on 17 carries, lifting the Titans to a 30-9 win over the Jaguars. On one of his scores, Henry matched Tony Dorsett to become only the second running back in NFL history to record a 99-yard rushing attempt.

The stakes of the rivalry were never higher than in 1999, when the Titans and Jaguars met three times, including the AFC Championship Game in Jacksonville. Steve McNair rushed for two touchdowns and Derrick Mason returned a safety kick 80 yards for a touchdown as the Titans earned their first Super Bowl berth with a 33-14 win. Tennessee went on to Super Bowl XXXIV and eventually fell at the hands of the St. Louis Rams, 23-16.

The Jaguars played their first game in franchise history against the then-Houston Oilers on Sept. 3, 1995. In Jacksonville, the Oilers won the game by a 10-3 final score.

MOST RECENT MATCHUPS

2024 Week 14 • Dec. 8, 2024 • JAGUARS 10 at Titans 6

The Jaguars score 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter after the Titans keep them off the scoreboard through three quarters ... Jaguars running back Tank Bigsby scores the game-winning touchdown on an eight-yard run with 6:46 on the clock in the fourth quarter ... Jaguars quarterback Mac Jones passes for 220 yards in the comeback, overcoming interceptions by Titans cornerback Chidobe Awuzie and linebacker Otis Reese IV ... In the second quarter, quarterback Will Levis and the Titans are stymied on fourth down at Jacksonville's two-yard line ... The Titans are stopped two more times on fourth down in the game's final two minutes.

2024 Week 17 • Dec. 29, 2024 • Titans 13 at JAGUARS 20

On a rainy afternoon, the Titans fall behind 13-0 in the first half ... Jaguars quarterback Mac Jones completes two touchdowns passes, including an 11-yarder to rookie Brian Thomas Jr. in the fourth quarter that provides the final margin ... Thomas' touchdown caps a 16-play drive that uses more than nine minutes of clock time ... A two-minute drive led by Titans quarterback Mason Rudolph stalls at Jacksonville's 26-yard line ... Thomas accounts for 91 yards on seven catches ... The Titans rush for 159 yards, including 95 yards on 20 carries by Tyjae Spears ... Rudolph's only interception of the game leads to a Jaguars touchdown in the second quarter.

2025 Week 13 • Nov. 30, 2025 • JAGUARS 25 at Titans 3

The Jaguars defense limits the Titans scoring to a 28-yard field goal by Joey Slye to cap the Titans' first possession ... Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence passes for 229 yards and two touchdowns ... In the second quarter, the Jaguars recover a fumble on special teams and reach the end zone three plays later, and in the third quarter, a roughing the punter penalty extends an eventual Jaguars touchdown drive ... The Jaguars defense records three sacks while limiting the Titans to 11 first downs and a pair of third-down conversions on 12 attempts ... A total of 23 penalties are enforced—13 by the Jaguars and 10 by the Titans.

2025 Week 18 • Jan. 4, 2026 • Titans 7 at JAGUARS 41

In the 2025 season finale, the Titans score a touchdown on their opening drive on a seven-yard run by rookie quarterback Cam Ward ... The Jaguars score 41 unanswered points, including 24 in the second quarter ... With the win, the Jaguars clinch the AFC South title ... On his touchdown run, Ward injures his shoulder and exits the game, leading to Brandon Allen finishing the contest ... Jacksonville's Trevor Lawrence passes for 255 yards and three touchdowns ... Leading 14-7, Jaguars safety Antonio Johnson intercepts a pass by Allen and returns the ball 58 yards for a touchdown.

2026 Week 10 • Nov. 15, 2026 • JAGUARS 40 at Titans 23

The Jaguars never trail, but the Titans make it a one-score game at 30-23 midway through the fourth quarter before Jacksonville scores the final 10 points ... Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence passes for 352 yards and three touchdowns, including seven completions to Parker Washington for 152 yards and a touchdown ... Washington's first-half numbers include six catches for 148 yards and a score ... The teams combine for seven field goals, including three of 50-plus yards by Tennessee's Joey Slye ... Cam Ward passes for 231 yards with touchdowns to Tony Pollard and Daniel Bellinger ... Ward is intercepted by Travis Hunter in the first quarter on the ensuing drive after linebacker Cedric Gray picks off a pass by Lawrence.

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES VS. JAGUARS

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- On 11/15/26 against Jacksonville, Ayomanor established a new career high and led the offense with 79 receiving yards on five receptions including a career-long 50-yard reception.

RB MICHAEL CARTER

- On 12/26/21 against Jacksonville, Carter rushed 16 times for a career-best 118 rushing yards. Became the second youngest player in Jets history with a 100-yard rushing game.

DL JOHN FRANKLIN-MYERS

- On 12/21/25 against Jacksonville, Franklin-Myers notched three tackles and tied a career-high with two sacks with the Broncos. Dropped Trevor Lawrence for a two-yard sack in the opening stanza. Halted a Jaguars' drive by sacking Lawrence on third-and-10 in the fourth quarter.

TE KYLEN GRANSON

- On 10/15/23 at Jacksonville, Granson hauled in a then career-long 45-yard reception for the Colts. The catch was part of a three-reception, 67-yard performance.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- On 11/15/26 against Jacksonville, Gray led the defense with nine tackles and tallied his first career interception when he picked off a Trevor Lawrence pass that was tipped by Solomon Thomas. Became the first Titans player with a minimum of nine tackles, one interception, two passes defensed and one tackle for loss since safety Kevin Byard against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020.

CB JAYLON JONES

- On 10/6/24 at Jacksonville, Jones compiled six tackles, two passes defensed and his first career forced fumble as a member of the Colts.

DE TRUMAN JONES

- On 1/4/26 at Jacksonville, Jones saw action as a reserve at outside linebacker and tallied a career-best five tackles to go along with a stop for loss, a pass defensed and a team-high three quarterback pressures. Halted the Jaguars' opening drive by deflecting a Trevor Lawrence pass intended for Brian Thomas Jr. on third-and-28 in the first quarter.

RB TONY POLLARD

- On 12/14/22 at Jacksonville, Pollard led the Cowboys with 19 carries for 75 yards and caught four passes for 31 yards - his seventh game with 100 scrimmage yards.
- On 12/8/24 against Jacksonville, Pollard led the Titans with 102 rushing yards on 21 attempts and added 22 yards on a pair of receptions. It was his 10th 100-yard rushing game and his third of the 2024 season.
- On 11/15/26 against Jacksonville, Pollard led the team with a career-high eight catches for 66 yards including his first receiving touchdown in a Titans uniform on a 32-yard catch-and-run in the third quarter. It was the sixth receiving touchdown of his career and his first since the 2022 season. Scored his sixth total touchdown since Tennessee's Week 7 game against Cleveland. He joined Derrick Henry as the team's only players since the beginning of 2010 with six touchdowns over a span of three games. Also tallied nine rushes for 33 yards.

CB MICAH ROBINSON

- On 1/4/26 at Jacksonville, Robinson made his first career NFL start at cornerback and tallied seven tackles, including a stop for loss and a team-best two passes defensed. Halted a Jaguars' drive by breaking up a pass intended for Parker Washington on third-and-17 in the third quarter.

K JOEY SLYE

- On 11/15/26 against Jacksonville, Slye made good on all three field goal attempts (53, 54, 50) and both extra point tries. Registered his first career game with at least three field goals of 50-plus yards. His three field goals of 50-plus yards tied the franchise's single-game record. Tied for the team lead with two special teams stops. Recorded his first career forced fumble, jarring the ball loose from Jaguars kickoff returner Josh Cameron in the third quarter (recovered by the Jaguars). He became the first kicker to force a fumble since Stephen Hauschka did so in 2017 as a member of the Buffalo Bills.

QB CAM WARD

- On 11/15/26 against Jacksonville, Ward completed 28 of 39 passes for 231 yards with two touchdowns and an interception for a 93.0 passer rating. Led the team with 39 rushing yards on three carries. Set up the Titans first touchdown with a 50-yard strike to Ayomanor down to the Jaguars' four-yard line in the second stanza. Set up a Titans' field goal late in the third quarter with a career-long 26-yard scramble off right end.

S KEVIN WINSTON JR.

- On 11/30/25 against Jacksonville, Winston started at safety and registered eight tackles, including his first career sack and a quarterback pressure. His 18 total tackles from Week 12 to Week 13 were the most by a Titans rookie safety over any two-game span since the beginning of the 2000 season. Dropped Trevor Lawrence for a 10-yard sack early in the first quarter.

Liam Coen was named head coach of the Jaguars on Jan. 24, 2025. Coen joined Jacksonville after spending the 2024 season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as offensive coordinator.

During his first season as a head coach, Coen led the Jaguars to a 13-4 record, the second most regular season wins in franchise history. After a four-win campaign in 2024, Jacksonville's 13-4 record was the first of its kind with a rookie head coach following a season with four or fewer wins. Under Coen, the AFC South champion Jaguars set several franchise records, including points scored (474), touchdowns scored (55), points per game (27.9) and first downs (356). Defensively, Jacksonville led the NFL in run defense (85.6 ypg) and ranked second in takeaways with 31.

With Tampa Bay, Coen's offense set Buccaneers franchise records for completion percentage (71.5 percent), passer rating (106.8), yards per rush (5.3), rushing yards (2,536) and third-down conversion rate (50.9 percent).

Under Coen, quarterback Baker Mayfield set career highs in passer rating (106.8), passing yards (4,500) and passing touchdowns (41). Offensive lineman Tristan Wirfs earned Pro Bowl and first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors and wide receiver Mike Evans recorded his NFL-record-tying 11th consecutive 1,000-receiving seasons.

Before Tampa Bay, Coen served as offensive coordinator at the University of Kentucky in 2023 and 2021. In between the two stints with Kentucky, he served in his first NFL offensive coordinator role with the Los Angeles Rams in 2022. This came after three seasons on the Rams' offensive staff from 2018 (assistant wide receivers coach) to 2020 (assistant quarterbacks coach). As assistant wide receivers coach with the Rams, he helped Robert Woods and Brandin Cooks to 1,200-plus-yard receiving seasons in 2018 and Cooper Kupp to his first 1,000-yard campaign in 2019.

Before Los Angeles, Coen spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the University of Maine from 2016-17. Prior to Maine, Coen coached quarterbacks at the University of Massachusetts (2014-15), where he also served as passing game coordinator, Brown University (2010, 12-13) and the University of Rhode Island (2011), where he was also passing game coordinator.

As a collegiate player, Coen played quarterback at the University of Massachusetts. He holds program records with 830 completions, 1,302 attempts, 63.7 completion percentage, 11,031 passing yards, 8.5 yards per attempts, 50 passing touchdowns and a 150.7 passer rating.

Coen is a native of Wakefield, R.I.

Jacksonville Jaguars	7	9	7	17	— 40
Tennessee Titans	3	7	6	7	— 23

In Week 10 of the 2026 season, the Titans hosted division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and fell by a score of 40-23. The Jaguars opened the game with a 10-play, 60-yard touchdown drive to take an early 7-0 lead. The Titans answered with a 53-yard field goal from K Joey Slye to make it 7-3 with 7:03 left in the first quarter. The two teams traded interceptions after that. LB Cedric Gray intercepted QB Trevor Lawrence on a tipped pass by DT Solomon Thomas and returned it 25 yards to the 50-yard line. However, a few plays later Jaguars CB Travis Hunter intercepted QB Cam Ward on a throw across the middle. Jacksonville turned the interception into three points on a 46-yard field goal from Cam Little to make it 10-3 at the start of the second quarter. The Jaguars extended their lead to 13-3 with another Little field goal, this one from 48 yards out with 7:54 left in the second. On the Titans next possession, Ward connected with WR Elic Ayomanor for a 50-yard completion down to the Jaguars' four-yard line before finding TE Daniel Bellinger for a two-yard touchdown pass to make it 13-10 with 5:06 left in the second quarter. The Jaguars led 16-10 at the half on Little's third field goal of the day. The Titans opened the second half with a 54-yard field goal from Slye to cut the lead to 16-13 with 12:35 left in the third quarter. A pair of controversial officiating decisions led to Jacksonville's next touchdown. First, officials called DL John Franklin-Myers for roughing the passer on Lawrence, who had just thrown an incompletion on third down. It gave the Jaguars a first down, and later in the drive, Lawrence threw a touchdown pass to TE Brenton Strange on a fourth-down play that head coach Robert Saleh argued was an offensive pass interference penalty because of a pick play. No penalty was called and the Jaguars took a 23-13 lead with 6:28 left in the third quarter. On the ensuing drive, the Titans cut the lead to 23-16 with Slye's third field goal of the day, this one from 50 yards out marking the first time in Slye's career he had made three field goals of 50-plus yards in a game. But the Jaguars stretched their lead to 30-16 on a 25-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to WR Josh Cameron that capped an 11-play, 65-yard drive that took 7:29 off the clock. The Titans answered back quickly, scoring on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Ward to Pollard just over a minute later to make it 30-23 with 8:21 left in the game. Another field goal by Little, this one from 40 yards, made it 33-23 with 4:31 left. The Titans offense was stuffed on a fourth-and-one on the next drive and the Jaguars took over at the Tennessee 28-yard line. RB Bhayshui Tuten scored on a six-yard touchdown run with 1:10 left to account for the final score and drop the Titans to 1-8 on the year.

Tennessee Titans	3	6	14	7	—	30
Dallas Cowboys	13	14	14	10	—	51

In Week 11 of the 2026 season, the Titans traveled to Dallas to take on the Cowboys and fell by a score of 51-30. The Cowboys scored a touchdown on their first six possessions and put up 480 yards of offense as the Titans offense was unable to keep up. The Cowboys took an early 6-0 lead on a 14-play, 73-yard opening drive that took 6:37 off the clock. The Titans responded with a 38-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 6-3 with 4:56 left in the quarter. The Cowboys next touchdown came on a 22-yard run by WR KaVontae Turpin that capped a six-play, 74-yard drive and made it 13-3 heading into the second quarter. The Titans offense was forced to punt on their next possession before the Cowboys extended their lead with an eight-yard touchdown pass from QB Dak Prescott to WR CeeDee Lamb to make it 20-3. The Titans got another field goal from Slye, this one from 48 yards, to make it 20-6 at the 10:34 mark of the second quarter. But the Cowboys then stretched their lead to 27-6 on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Prescott to WR George Pickens. Another Slye field goal, this one from 28 yards, made it 27-9 at the half. The Titans began the second half with a four-play, 71-yard touchdown drive. QB Cam Ward completed a 16-yard pass to WR Chim Dike and a 15-yard pass to WR Calvin Ridley before WR Carnell Tate drew a 38-yard defensive pass interference penalty in the end zone to bring the Titans to the Cowboys one-yard line. Ward scored on a sneak the next play to make it 27-16. with 13:08 left in the third. However, the Cowboys immediately responded with yet another touchdown to extend their lead to 34-16. The Titans then got the heads-up play from Tate, who scored on a 59-yard touchdown reception. Tate caught the ball and went to the ground, but he got up before he could be touched down by a Cowboys defender. Tate sprinted to the end zone for the score, making it 34-23 at the 7:19 mark of the third quarter. But Dallas drove the field on its next possession and scored another touchdown, this time on a two-yard run by Prescott to make it 41-23 with just over four minutes left in the third quarter. The Titans held the Cowboys to a field goal in the fourth quarter, as a 49-yarder by K Brandon Aubrey made it 44-23 with 11:33 left in the game. After a fumble by Ward was picked up by the Cowboys and returned deep into Tennessee territory, Prescott connected with TE Brvyn Spann-Ford to make it 51-23 over the Titans. Ward connected with Ridley for a 12-yard touchdown pass with 31 seconds left to account for the final 51-30 score.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The announced attendance at AT&T Stadium was 92,367, setting a franchise record for any game in Titans/Oilers history. The previous record for the Titans organization was an announced attendance of 90,616, also against the Cowboys at AT&T Stadium on Oct. 10, 2010.
- The Titans scored 30 points, reaching the mark for the second time in a three-game span (36 at Cincinnati on Nov. 1).
- Over a span of six weeks (Week 6-11), dating back to their game at Indianapolis on Oct. 18, the Titans' average of 27.8 points per contest ranked eighth in the NFL through the early afternoon games of Nov. 11.
- The Titans logged their fifth consecutive game with 23 or more points, giving them their longest such stretch since a nine-game streak in 2021.
- For the fourth consecutive game and for the sixth time in 2026, the Titans offense scored on its opening drive. At Dallas, the offense marched 45 yards on nine plays and scored on a 38-yard field goal by Joey Slye.
- The Titans offense totaled a season-high 24 first downs, including 11 passing first downs and a season-best 11 rushing first downs, plus a pair of first downs on penalties.
- The offense produced 346 total net yards, the unit's second-best total of 2026 through 10 games.
- The Titans posted their fourth consecutive game with 320-plus yards, marking their longest such streak since a seven-game streak in 2021 (Weeks 2-8).
- The offense logged its fourth consecutive game with 100-plus rushing yards (126). Their most recent such streak was during Weeks 14-17 in 2025.
- The Titans were two-for-two on fourth down attempts, the second consecutive game with two fourth-down conversions.
- The offense scored on six of its nine possessions. In the first half, the unit had three field goals in four drives, and in the second half, it produced three touchdowns in five drives.

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- Finished with three receptions for 27 yards. It was his fourth consecutive game with at least three receptions, the first such streak of his career.
- Recorded a 12-yard reception for a first down in the second quarter.

RB MICHAEL CARTER

- Recorded four carries for nine yards, a two-yard catch and a 26-yard kickoff return for a total of 37 all-purpose yards.

RB JULIUS CHESTNUT

- Recorded a 21-yard kickoff return.

LS MORGAN COX

- Extended his active streak to 100 consecutive NFL games played.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- Led the team with six receptions for 69 yards.
- Recorded a 22-yard reception from Cam Ward on Tennessee's first offensive play.
- Recorded a 25-yard kickoff return in the second quarter and finished six kickoff returns for 127 yards in the contest.
- Increased his career total to 2,700 kickoff return yards, surpassing Mel Gray (2,592) for the sixth-most in franchise history.
- Added one rush for four yards.
- Combined for 200 all-purpose yards, the second-most league-wide in Week 11 through the early slate of Sunday games. At the conclusion of the game, he ranked second in the NFL with 1,467 all-purpose yards in 2026 (1,112 kick return yards, 209 receiving, 137 punt return, nine rushing).

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- Finished second on the defense with eight tackles.

TE GUNNAR HELM

- Finished with two catches for 14 yards.
- Recorded a reception for a gain of nine yards in the second quarter.

LB ANTHONY HILL JR.

- Totaled six tackles to give him his ninth performance of his rookie season with at least five tackles.
- Increased his season total to a team-best 88 tackles.

LB DORIAN MAUSI

- Set a career high and led the Titans with three special teams tackles.

P THOMAS MORSTEAD

- Averaged 50.0 yards on two punts (43.5 net average) with one punt placed inside the 20.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Finished with 110 rushing yards on 21 carries (5.2-yard average).
- Recorded his 16th career 100-yard rushing performance and his third such performance of the season, tying his career-high in a single campaign.
- It was also Pollard's third 100-yard rushing performance in the past four games. His 389 rushing yards since Week 7 ranked sixth in the NFL through the early afternoon games of Nov. 22.
- Produced his fourth consecutive game with at least 99 scrimmage yards.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Notched a 15-yard reception for a first down in the third quarter.
- Added receptions of 21 yards, nine yards and 11 yards on consecutive plays on a fourth-quarter drive.
- Caught his first touchdown of the season on a 12-yard pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter.
- Finished with a season-high five receptions for 68 yards and a touchdown.

K JOEY SLYE

- Made all three of his field goal attempts, connecting on distances of 38, 48 and 28 yards. He also made all three extra points.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

- The performance gave Slye an active streak of 15 consecutive made field goals, tying for the fourth-best active streak in the NFL at the conclusion of the game.
- Logged his second consecutive performance with three field goals.
- Improved his season totals to 18-of-19 on field goals and 17-of-17 on extra points for a total of 71 points with seven games remaining.
- Logged his 28th career game with at least three field goals.

WR CARNELL TATE

- Caught his second career touchdown, a 59-yard reception from Cam Ward in the third quarter. It was the longest play of Tate's rookie season and the fourth-longest receiving score to date by an NFL rookie in 2026. It was also the longest reception by a Titans rookie since A.J. Brown's 91-yard touchdown catch at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019.
- Finished with 58 receiving yards on two receptions.
- Forced a 38-yard pass interference penalty in the third quarter that led to a touchdown on the next play.
- Ranked second among all NFL rookies with 471 receiving yards through the early afternoon games of Nov. 22.

QB CAM WARD

- Scored Tennessee's first touchdown in the third quarter on a one-yard run for his third rushing touchdown in 2026, a new career-high.
- Finished with 248 passing yards on 21-of-30 passing (70.0 percent) with two touchdowns. He added a rushing touchdown.
- His 117.1 passer rating ranked second for his career in games with at least 20 passing attempts.
- Completed a 59-yard touchdown pass to Carnell Tate in the third quarter, a career-long for both players and the longest touchdown completion for Tennessee since Chig Okonkwo took a Will Levis pass 70 yards for a score at Houston on Nov. 24, 2024.
- Accounted for his third touchdown of the game on a 12-yard pass to Calvin Ridley in the fourth quarter, marking his third consecutive game with two touchdown passes, a career first.
- He became the first Titans quarterback to record three consecutive games with at least 230 passing yards and two passing touchdowns since Marcus Mariota did so in six straight games in 2016. He became the first Titans quarterback since at least 2000 to accomplish the feat while completing at least 65 percent of his passes in each contest.
- Over a three-game span, Ward completed 75 of 109 pass attempts (69.8 percent) for 783 yards, six touchdowns, one interception and a 103.9 passer rating. His six passing touchdowns and 65.0 completion percentage tied for seventh in the NFL during that span (through the early afternoon games of Nov. 22).
- For the first time in his career, he registered a passer rating of 90.0 or greater in three consecutive contests.
- Accounted for three total touchdowns (two passing and one rushing) for the first time in his career.

CB JOSHUA WILLIAMS

- Established a career high and led the team with 11 tackles. His previous high was nine tackles against Buffalo on Oct. 16, 2022.

HEAD COACH ROBERT SALEH

All right, just go through these DNFs. Tony (Adams) woke up not feeling well, held him out. (Terrell) Burgess got a knee, (Cor'Dale) Flott had a stinger and then Dan Moore had a knee that will all get evaluated.

On what has to change after three consecutive games where the defense has allowed more than 40 points.
There's a lot of things that need to change. Obviously, it's disgusting football, it's embarrassing football. And obviously that starts with me.

On finding solutions when neither the pass rush nor blitzing is working. How do you call a game where nothing works?
That's why I get paid. I've got to figure it out.

On what he wants the guys to be feeling right now?
I want, hopefully they feel pissed. Feeling something.

On his frustration after the team has had some progress in recent weeks and then obviously a step back today?
It's frustrating. Took a step back today, obviously. Felt like we came in here today, felt like it was going to be a game. I felt like it was going to be a - it's a high-octane offense - I felt like it'd be a high-scoring football game but not that high-scoring, obviously, but felt comfortable about being able to get some stops, being in the game. Felt comfortable about our offense going, putting up points, and felt like our offense did a nice job moving the ball. We had to settle for a couple of field goals early. Missed an opportunity at the end of the half to get a touchdown. But overall, just mistakes got in our way offensively that kept us from being able to put up more points. But at the end of the day it didn't matter. Defensively it just wasn't good enough.

You had talked about simplifying things going into this week. Is that something you applied? And then if so, was there a point where you considered just going back to what you were doing?
No, we had our game plan. We did some things to try to make some adjustments here and there but it didn't matter. Dak had an outstanding football game. Him and his receivers did a really nice job.

Why couldn't your offense match a little bit early, keep you in touch, so to speak, in order for you to have the kind of game you envisioned?
It came down to situational football. When you get to third down, you get in the red zone. We had some opportunities to try to extend drives to give ourselves an opportunity. End of half, 28 seconds left. I think it was first-and-10 from the 12. Feel good about getting three shots at the end zone. Cam needs to either ditch it or make sure he gets out of bounds so we're not having to kill time. It's an O-zone situation. So just some missed opportunities early and then obviously the turnover inside the red zone to try to pull it back to two scores.

On what can realistically be done to fix the defense this late in the season? It comes down to execution and winning your one-on-ones when your one-on-ones are presented. It's frustrating in all aspects of what's going on on defense. Clearly, obviously, it's not good enough.

On the roles of execution, a thin lineup (not having key pieces) and scheme in the defensive struggles?
I don't know. I'm never going to sit there and blame one thing over the other. There's no excuse. Everyone plays Cover 2, everyone plays Cover 3, everyone plays quarters, everyone plays six, everyone pressures. Everyone on defense around the league plays the same stuff. But whether it's being called properly, I'm always going to look inward, being opportune moments, whether it's execution, it doesn't matter. We've got to play better.

On which area of the defense most urgently needs improvement. Is there one area to look at?
It comes down, when I go back and watch this tape, I have a feeling I'm going to know exactly what it is. The NFL is a game of one-on-ones and when you get a one-on-one, you've got to win your opportunities and today they won their opportunities and we didn't.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Why not?
I don't know. I'll have to watch the tape.

On if this is the most frustrating football experience he's had?
It's up there. We experienced it a little bit in '21, trying to figure out how to get our 11 guys to play great football. But we'll finish strong. We'll get better. We'll find a...I mean, we have to. It's, you know, to complement what's going on in the other two phases where I feel like we've been getting a lot better. Defensively, we're stuck in mud.

What did you take from that previous experience that you feel like you could apply to this?
I feel like we've already tried to, we're trying to do that. Felt like we finished strong back then and it's one week. Again, just try to build off of trying to find the positives. At the end of the day, there's things that, you know, we talk about fixing things, they got to get fixed. And it comes, like I said, it starts with me. But when we get opportunities to fix things and we get opportunities in the game to be able to execute, we've got to be able to execute. But we have no choice but to get better. I mean, shit, it can't get any worse.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

On why there was a difference offensively between the first half and second half
I just think we need to stay on track, which we did majority part of the game, but I think it came down to us not executing in the red zone at a high level. I think that's why we're able to fall short today. It's a lot of stuff to clean up, but I think the good thing about it is that we're capable of putting up as many points as we want. We just have to continue to stay true to the basics of football and play from our end.

On if by falling behind early it makes it hopeless to catch up
It does. But it's always a four quarter game. If we would've scored, if I not had a fumble, it would've been a 14 point game. If the defense gets to the stop, now it's a one possession game. So, there's always time on the clock with us. The biggest thing is that we just have to play good football for all four quarters.

On what the mindset of the offense is knowing that the defense is struggling
Control what we can control. Continue to back the defense up, continue to bring them life by scoring the football. And at the end of the day, I mean, it's a team sport. We didn't have our best game today. We got stalled out of the red zone a couple of times. We had a turnover. So in the end, we all have to help each other out.

On the Carnell Tate touchdown
That's a smart play by him to play till they tap you down. I think it was very good of him noticing why I wanted to throw the ball, fit in that little window and for him to throttle. He's getting way better. I think for him that's a great play by him he did everything.

On the throw across his body for a Calvin Ridley touchdown
Well, I mean fourth down, all bets are off. I can do anything in the world I want to with the football. It doesn't matter. It's four down. But I think that's the part where I'm continuing to grow is knowing when I can do that. When it gets to the first, second and some third down situations, I shouldn't be doing that a lot. But I mean with that, that was just at least scramble drill by red, the O-line holding up as much time as they could to give me time to break a couple tackles and at the end of the day Rid made a hell of a catch.

On why he has success on those types of plays
I mean, you just got to be a gunslinger at the end of the day. It's only a select few people who can do it at a high level. It's all about the arc of the face on the ball. It's all about watching the scramble drill with the receivers so they know when to do it. I think our receiving corps has a very good field of when to sit, when to run across the middle of the field. It's something that we won't make a living on, but when we do get a chance to make a supposed play like that, we have to hit.

On what he would have done if he had the scenario before halftime to do over again
I would say I think I might have had Gunnar [Helm] on the back of the end zone. I'm not too sure about it. I got to look at the tape, but we got to find a way to get seven right there versus an offense like theirs you can't settle for field goals, but it's good for us to double dip to get three and then go out there and get seven the next drive coming out.

On his assessment of the sacks today and how many were under his control and could have been prevented
I would say at least half of them. I have to get the ball out. I think it was times where if I get sacked once or twice, I don't need to let it affect how I move in the pocket. And that's something I got to continue to grow in. And I think the O-line did a good job blocking them. It's not an easy job to block those guys. And so us going down, not having Pete out there, not having the true starting five, I think those guys that we had out there did an unbelievable job and keep me up.

On the real progress over the past several weeks not translating into wins, and when he thinks the team will start seeing the light at the end of the tunnel
I think if we just keep doing what we're doing, continue to motivate each other, continue to have a good mindset, the wins will come. I think we're at a point where we have to play complimentary football every down. I think right now for us as a team, we can't overcome a lot of things, but if we play good football the whole game, we can overcome a lot. So I think the biggest thing for us is continue to take it day by day, continue to preach process over results. I think eventually the wins will come.

On whether this is the kind of game that causes one to spiral
I think how I keep guys encouraged is, you know, show up. I mean, look at what you do for a living. You go out there on Sundays, you play football in front of 50-60,000 people. I mean, you're 1% of the world. So, if you don't have the mindset, you don't have the self-motivation to show up and do what you need to do to be a pro, that says everything. And I know Coach Saleh, he's going to continue to lean on the guys who want to be here, who don't want to go nowhere. And as far as us as players, we'll continue to pour into everyone who wants to be a part of the change.

On whether Dallas scoring on every possession put pressure on the offense to go and get seven
No pressure. Score the ball. I think the more that we put upon ourselves that we can't control outside factors like that, I think it's just going to continue to not have us in the right mindset. So, we can't control what they do offensively. All we do is control and control. I think the more that we do that, the more success that we have.

On whether he is trying to keep the play alive too long
Yeah, I think right there I just need to take the flat. In real time didn't feel like what we needed, but I think that's where part of my growth where I got to continue to get up. Every play is a new play. You got to continue to go through the progression. But I feel like if I had two hands on the ball, I break out of it and who knows what happens.

On why he is convinced that this staff is the right one to lead this team
Because they're just great people. They're great motivators and great coaches, offensively, defensively. And I think what our staff don't get credit for is the situation that we're all in. I mean, they don't have a perfect situation. They come into a team last year that was three and fourteen. They're trying to turn things around. That's not going to happen overnight. And so, the staff, they're strong-minded. They show up each and every day before the sun comes up and they want to see us be great. So, I'm glad that I have the opportunity to go out there and earn that respect from them and my teammates each and every Sunday. And at the end of the day, it's all upon the players to do our part and try to win games.

2026 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- FAREWELL SEASON: With the opening of the new Nissan Stadium set for 2027, this season will mark the farewell season at the current Nissan Stadium. The Titans will open the campaign with a home game against the New York Jets in Week 1, and the team will close out its final regular season in the current building in Week 17 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Titans have already played more games at Nissan Stadium than any other venue in the franchise's history entering 2026. Including regular season and postseason games, the team has appeared 224 times at Nissan Stadium (119-105), one more than the 223 total contests at the Astrodome (116-105-2) from 1968 to 1996.
- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against four playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Houston, Jacksonville, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and road contests at Houston and Jacksonville. Four of those games are against 2025 division winners: Jaguars twice (AFC South), Pittsburgh (AFC North) and Philadelphia (NFC East). This is the third consecutive year in which the Titans will have six games against reigning playoff clubs.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup at Houston, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick in this year's draft. The team is slated to face seven of the top-11 players selected in this years' draft, including Fernando Mendoza (first overall – Las Vegas), David Bailey (second overall – N.Y. Jets), Arvell Reese (fifth overall – N.Y. Giants), Sonny Styles (seventh overall – Washington), Spencer Fano (ninth overall – Cleveland), Francis Mauigoa (10th overall – N.Y. Giants) and Caleb Downs (11th overall – Dallas). Tate, Reese, Styles and Downs were teammates at Ohio State University.
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Robert Saleh was one of 10 NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face five of the others: New York Giants' John Harbaugh, Baltimore's Jesse Minter, Cleveland's Todd Monken, Las Vegas' Klint Kubiak and Pittsburgh's Mike McCarthy. It is the first time since 2022 the Titans will face five-or-more head coaches in their first season with their team.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2025 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2025, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New York Jets, and they visit the AFC West's fourth-place Las Vegas Raiders and the NFC North's fourth-place Detroit Lions. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .476 (137-151-1) based upon their opponents' combined 2025 record, the eighth lowest out of 32 NFL teams.
- OFFENSIVE LEADERS: The revamped Titans defense under head coach Robert Saleh will face two of the top-five offenses from last season in the Dallas Cowboys (second – 391.9 yards per game) and Detroit Lions (fifth – 373.2).
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups in 2026, including every home game and their two trips to Texas against the Cowboys and the Texans. They will double their trips to the Eastern time zone from three in 2025 to six in 2026 (at N.Y. Giants, Baltimore, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Jacksonville and Detroit). Outside of a preseason visit to San Francisco, the farthest Tennessee will fly is to Las Vegas, their second trip to Nevada in two seasons after never playing there before 2025. The Titans will not play in the Mountain time zone.

WEEK-BY-WEEK SCHEDULE NOTES

- WEEK 5 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The Titans and Texans rivalry enters its 25th season. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last nine years. The Titans will look to take the lead in the series as it currently sits tied at 24 wins apiece. Head coach DeMeco Ryans and quarterback C.J. Stroud enter their fourth year together. The Texans have reached the playoffs the previous three seasons but have fallen short in the divisional round each year.
- WEEK 6 (A) & WEEK 15 (H) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' six-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Titans' defensive coordinator, Gus Bradley, spent three seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator from 2022-24, including two years under current Colts head coach Shane Steichen. The two coaches spent four years together (2017-20) with the Chargers as Steichen climbed the ranks from offensive quality control to quarterbacks coach to offensive coordinator while Bradley served as defensive coordinator.
- WEEK 10 (H) & WEEK 12 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The Titans and Jaguars will play two games in a three-week span, as the Jaguars defend their divisional crown. In 2025, the Jaguars went 13-4 to win the AFC South for the first time since 2022. The Titans, who lead the series 35-28 including the postseason, look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept the past two seasons. Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley served as head coach of the Jaguars from 2013-16. During that time, Titans head coach Robert Saleh was the linebackers coach.
- WEEK 13 vs. WASHINGTON COMMANDERS: The Titans will face the Commanders in Week 13. In 2024, the teams also met in Week 13 in the nation's capital. The Titans lead the all-time series, 8-7, and have won two of the last three meetings. Washington coach Dan Quinn succeeded Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley as defensive coordinator of the Seahawks in 2013 after Bradley was hired to be the head coach of the Jaguars. Head coach Robert Saleh served as quality control coach under both Bradley and Quinn in Seattle from 2011-13, ending the 2013 season with a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII.
- WEEK 14 at DETROIT LIONS: For the second time since 2024, the Titans will make the trip to Detroit to take on the Lions, and they look to win their seventh game against Detroit in eight matchups. The Titans currently hold a 10-4 lead in the all-time series. Head coach Robert Saleh is a native of Dearborn, Mich., a suburb of Detroit. This will be his first time visiting Detroit as a head coach. Since the Lions hired Dan Campbell as head coach in 2022, their 45 regular season wins are the fourth-most in the NFL.
- WEEK 16 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: For the second consecutive year, the Titans will travel to Las Vegas to take on the Raiders. This year, the contest could feature the top overall pick from the last two drafts in Titans quarterback Cam Ward and Raiders quarterback Fernando Mendoza, who the Raiders took first overall in 2026. The Titans, who trail in the series 22-31, look to regain momentum after dropping last year's contest in their first ever trip to Allegiant Stadium. Former Titans interim coach Mike McCoy currently serves as the assistant head coach of the Raiders, while former offensive coordinator Nick Holz is the offensive pass game coordinator.
- WEEK 17 vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS: In the final regular season game at the current Nissan Stadium, the Titans will face off against the Steelers, who are led by new head coach Mike McCarthy. It will be Pittsburgh's first visit to Nissan Stadium since 2020. McCarthy takes over the reins in Pittsburgh following former head coach Mike Tomlin's resignation following 19 seasons at the helm. The Titans look to snap a five-game losing streak against the Steelers dating back to 2014. In franchise history, the Titans/Oilers have played the Steelers more than any other opponent.

Week 6 • Oct. 18, 2026 • TITANS 26 at Colts 20 • 1-5

After trailing 13-0 at halftime, the Titans record their first win of 2026, scoring 20 points in the fourth quarter ... The Titans sack Daniel Jones six times, force three turnovers and score a touchdown after a blocked punt ... Julius Chestnut is credited with the blocked punt in the fourth quarter, and Oluwafemi Oladejo returns in 14 yards for the score to give Tennessee its first lead at 20-13 ... Cam Ward and Carnell Tate connect for an eight-yard touchdown, and Joey Slye adds four field goals ... Jeffery Simmons and Jermaine Johnson II each notch two sacks, and Simmons adds a forced fumble and recovery.

Week 7 • Oct. 25, 2026 • BROWNS 27 at Titans 24 • 1-6

Andre Szmyt's 32-yard field goal as time expires lifts the Browns after Tennessee ties the game with 58 seconds remaining on Tony Pollard's one-yard touchdown run and subsequent extra point ... Pollard scores three touchdowns and rushes for 129 yards, with his first two scores helping the Titans take a 14-0 lead in the first quarter .. The Browns come back using 491 yards of offense, as Deshaun Watson passes for 308 yards ... The Browns defense shifts momentum in the second quarter with a goal-line stand after another would-be touchdown run by Pollard is reversed by replay ... Cleveland's Quinshon Judkins rushes for a pair of scores, and Watson rushes for another.

Week 8 • Nov. 1, 2026 • Titans 36 at BENGALS 43 (OT) • 1-7

Bengals quarterback Joe Burrow runs for a nine-yard touchdown in overtime, and the Titans offense is stopped on the ensuing drive to end the game ... Burrow passes for 462 yards and five touchdowns but is intercepted three times by Titans safety Amani Hooker ... Cam Ward records his first career 300-yard passing game (304), while Tony Pollard rushes for 117 yards and two scores ... In a game that features seven lead changes, the Titans jump out to a 13-0 lead in the first quarter and lead 36-29 with less than four minutes remaining in regulation before the Bengals score the final 14 points.

Week 10 • Nov. 15, 2026 • JAGUARS 40 at Titans 23 • 1-8

Jim Wyatt: New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi Shares His Vision to Build a Winner

The OTP: 2025 New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee after 16 years with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping to build the franchise into a perennial contender and three-time Super Bowl winner. During his final four seasons in Kansas City, Borgonzi served as Assistant General Manager.

Tasked with building a foundation for sustained success in Tennessee, Borgonzi directed a significant overhaul of the Titans roster from the time he arrived through the end of his second offseason on the job. Entering training camp in 2026, only 17 of the 91 players on the team (as of July 15) were with the club before he was named GM.

The additions included an eight-man class from the 2026 NFL Draft. Borgonzi took wide receiver Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick, and on the same night, he traded back into the first round to draft defensive end Keldric Faulk at No. 31. It marked only the second time in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) that the team had multiple first-rounders. The class also included linebacker Anthony Hill Jr. in the second round and five more players on Day 3: guard Fernando Carmona Jr. (Round 5), running back Nick Singleton (5), defensive tackle Jackie Marshall (6), center Pat Coogan (6) and tight end Jaren Kanak (7).

The 2026 draft followed an active period of signings and trades, when the Titans targeted several key veterans to raise the talent level and provide leadership. From the day the NFL's unrestricted free agent signing period began to the start of the draft, a total of 21 free agents joined the Titans. The haul included wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson (formerly of the New York Giants), tight end Daniel Bellinger (Giants), punter Tommy Townsend (Houston Texans), defensive lineman John Franklin-Myers (Denver Broncos) and cornerbacks Alontae Taylor (New Orleans Saints) and Cor'Dale Flott (Giants). Two additional veterans—defensive end Jermaine Johnson II (New York Jets) and defensive tackle Solomon Thomas (Dallas Cowboys)—were acquired in trades.

Borgonzi capped the 2026 offseason by awarding defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons with a multi-year contract extension, securing the four-time Pro Bowler's tenure in Tennessee for the foreseeable future.

The Titans' first Borgonzi-led draft in 2025 featured nine selections, including quarterback Cam Ward with the first-overall selection. All nine of the draftees appeared in at least six games as rookies, and six members of the group started at least five games. The Titans draft class accumulated 64 combined starts in 2025, which ranked second in the NFL (75 by Cleveland) and was the largest total for the franchise in the Titans era.

Ward, who was voted a team captain as a rookie, started all 17 games, and his 3,169 passing yards eclipsed Marcus Mariota's previous franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015). With 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 323-of-540 passing, Ward's 1.3 percent interception rate was the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks, breaking Ryan Tannehill's franchise mark of 1.5 percent in 2020.

Another draft pick, fourth-round wide receiver Chimere Dike, was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner and added first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. Dike led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which ranked third all-time for the franchise and first all-time among all NFL rookies. His 17.3-yard punt return average broke Billy "White Shoes" Johnson's franchise record (15.4) that stood since 1977, and he also posted a franchise-best 1,588 kickoff return yards.

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a five-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

In his final eight seasons in Kansas City (2017-24), Borgonzi worked under Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach. As the Assistant General Manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as Assistant General Manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and Townsend (2022).

In 2024, the Chiefs captured their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant General Manager, Borgonzi served as Director of Football Operations (2018-20), Director of Player Personnel (2017), Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16), Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14), Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) and Manager of Football Operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's College Scouting Administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

TITANS HEAD COACH ROBERT SALEH

The OTP: Robert Saleh Talks Titans Training Camp, Cam Ward and Building the Standard

Inside Robert Saleh's First Day as Titans Head Coach

Video: Robert Saleh's Introductory Press Conference

The Tennessee Titans hired Robert Saleh as the 22nd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 22, 2026.

Saleh arrives in Tennessee with 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience: six seasons with the Houston Texans (2005-10), three with the Seattle Seahawks (2011-13), three with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16), five total seasons over two stints with the San Francisco 49ers (2017-20, 2025), and four campaigns as the head coach of the New York Jets (2021-24). During his time in the NFL, he has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense on five occasions.

In 2025, Saleh returned to the San Francisco 49ers for his second stint as defensive coordinator under head coach Kyle Shanahan. With the roster decimated by injuries, including season-ending injuries to All-Pro defensive lineman Nick Bosa and All-Pro linebacker Fred Warner, the 49ers went 12-5 during the regular season and progressed to the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

As the head coach of the Jets, Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (cornerback Sauce Gardner, defensive lineman Quinnen Williams and returner Braxton Berrios) and/or Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, Williams and linebacker Jermaine Johnson II). The Jets defense finished in the top 10 in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons, including first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7), and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL.

The 2023 Jets featured a pair of first-team Associated Press All-Pros in Gardner and linebacker Quincy Williams, as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quinnen Williams. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter, tying for the second-most such victories in the NFL. Defensively, the Jets finished in a tie for first place in opponent yards per play (4.6) and ranked second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total defense (292.3) and tied for eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points or less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL. Meanwhile, the Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1 percent of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year running back Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two first-team AP All-Pro selections (Gardner and Quinnen Williams), a second-team All-Pro (linebacker C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (special teamer Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley and Quinnen Williams). He also oversaw the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in wide receiver Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defensed (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL in 2022. The club boasted a defense that tied for first in opponent yards per play (4.8) and finished third in passing defense (189.4), fourth in scoring defense (316) and fourth in total defense (311.1).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie quarterback Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie running back Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie wide receiver Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards). The Jets were just the second team since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh logged four seasons (2017-20) in his first stint as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

In 2020, despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 49ers defense held top-five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9, fourth), third-down defense (35.5 percent, fourth), total defense (314.4, fifth) and opponent yards per play (5.0, tied for fifth). The unit also ranked tied for sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by Warner, who earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with a sack, two interceptions, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to a second-place finish in total defense – 281.8 yards allowed per game – which was the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco placed first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (153.7 by the Jets). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing defense since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51). San Francisco also ranked seventh in

QUOTES ON ROBERT SALEH

CONTROLLING OWNER AMY ADAMS STRUNK:
"We're delighted to welcome Robert and his family to the Titans, and firmly believe he is the right person for our team and community. We immediately connected with his competitive spirit and detailed approach to developing our players and team. Also, Robert's recommendations from across the league were overwhelmingly positive and were only reinforced during our time together. I want to thank Mike Borgonzi for his leadership during this process and acknowledge the work done by the search committee. They dedicated so much time and effort and I am thrilled with the results – and most importantly – I believe Titans fans will be, too. Congratulations to Robert and his family, and welcome to Nashville."

GENERAL MANAGER MIKE BORGONZI:
"On behalf of the entire Titans organization and Nashville community, I am thrilled to welcome Robert Saleh as our head coach. Robert embodies the fundamental values of what we believe a Titan should look like and represent. He's smart, tough, dependable, and values working with people. His innate ability to lead and respond to adversity is what makes him the right person to lead our football program back to one whose identity embodies sustainable success. We understand the urgency to win, and believe this is a step in that direction with a coach best equipped to accomplish our goals. The work has just begun, but I'm grateful for this partnership and excited to build this together."

opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Bosa, a rookie in 2019, played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed. He was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News and PFWA, as well as the NFL's Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (nine), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four or more players with at least 6.5 sacks in 2019. Rookie linebacker Dre Greenlaw was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by cornerback Richard Sherman, who registered three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and was named second-team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37 sacks, the most by the team in a single season at the time since 2013 (38). The defense ranked among the top dozen teams in the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09, seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5, 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42, 11th) and net passing yards per game allowed (233.3, 11th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017. The 2018 San Francisco defense was anchored by Buckner, who led the team with a career-high 12 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 2012 (19.5 by Aldon Smith). Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies.

In 2017, Saleh spearheaded a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards-per-play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016 to 2017 behind Cleveland (0.76) and the Jets (0.72). The defense also held its opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers' streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640) and tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the club in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, linebacker Telvin Smith Sr. registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles from 2014 through 2016 were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, which was the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the squad and ranked fifth in the NFL with 133 tackles, according to GSIS statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped into the starting lineup in 2014 and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seahawks. During that period, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of K.J. Wright, Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh totaled six seasons with the Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). While there, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to each rank among the league's top 10 tacklers.

Saleh's coaching career began with three seasons in the collegiate ranks. He launched his career at Michigan State University as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2003). He then spent one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University before a brief stint at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach (2005).

A native of Dearborn, Mich., Saleh attended Northern Michigan University, where he was a four-year starter at tight end.

He and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: sons Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and daughters Mila and Ella.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

TITANS QUARTERBACKS

No.	Name	Ht	Wt	Exp	College
10	Trubisky, Mitchell	6-3	222	10	North Carolina
1	Ward, Cam	6-2	219	2	Miami (Fla.)

#1 • QB CAM WARD

6-2, 219, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Miami (Fla.)

Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

As a rookie, Ward was voted a team captain prior to the season. He started all 17 games, and his final statistics included 323 completions, 3,169 yards, 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 540 attempts with a passer rating of 80.2. He broke Marcus Mariota's franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for passing yards in a season. He also rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 39 attempts.

With 17 starts, he set a franchise record for starts by a rookie quarterback and joined Ryan Tannehill (2021) as the only Titans quarterbacks with 17 starts in a season since the NFL schedule went to 17 games in 2021. Previously during the 16-game schedule era from 1978 to 2020, six Titans/Oilers quarterbacks combined for 10 total seasons with 16 starts: Warren Moon (three), Steve McNair (three), Dan Pastorini, Ken Stabler, Matt Hasselbeck and Tannehill.

Ward's 540 attempts in 2025 were not only more than any other rookie in the organization's history, but also more than every quarterback in franchise annals in a season other than Warren Moon, who had 655 attempts in 1991 and 584 attempts in 1990.

On 540 attempts, Ward threw only seven interceptions. His 1.3 interception percentage stands as the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks. He broke Ryan Tannehill's franchise record of 1.5 percent in 2020. Over the final nine games of the season, Ward threw only one interception. His 1.3 percent interception rate also tied for the third-best mark in the NFL among qualifiers in 2025 behind Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr. (1.1) and Chicago's Caleb Williams (1.2).

Prior to entering the NFL, Ward played for three different schools over five college seasons: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at quarterback, joining Marcus Mariota (2015-16) as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to start Week 1 in each of their first two NFL seasons. He finished with 140 yards on 19-of-32 passing and added four rushes for 21 yards. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Elic Ayomanor for an 11-yard touchdown.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), completed 13 of 20 passes for 183 yards and a 94.4 passer rating. His passer rating was the third best of his 19-game career in a contest with at least 20 attempts. He added two rushing touchdowns, finishing with seven rushing yards on four attempts. He scored the Titans' first touchdown of the contest with a one-yard run on fourth-and-goal in the first quarter and then capped a 12-play, 69-yard drive with his second rushing touchdown of the contest on a one-yard carry in the third quarter. It was his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and gave him four career rushing scores. Ward became the first Titans quarterback with multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since Ryan Tannehill had a pair at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021. His four passes of 25-plus yards in the game matched a career high (Ayomanor for 28 and 41 yards, Tyjae Spears for 27 yards, and Calvin Ridley for 25 yards). He increased his streak to six consecutive games without an interception, including the final four games of 2025, while also increasing his streak to 173 consecutive passes without an interception, second in the franchise record books behind only Marcus Mariota's 205 consecutive passes without an interception from 2018 to 2019. Over an 11-game span, including the final nine games of 2025, his totals included one interception, 11 touchdown passes and four rushing touchdowns.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), finished the game with 181 yards on 23-of-36 passing, with a four-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson. On a fourth-quarter scoring drive, completed all eight pass attempts for 54 yards and a touchdown. In the second half, he completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 141 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Ward's 16 completions in the second half tied for the second-most in any half in his career. Prior to his interception—his first since Dec. 7, 2025 at Cleveland—he attempted 208 consecutive passes without an interception to break the franchise record, previously set by Marcus Mariota, who had 205 consecutive pass attempts without an interception from 2018 to 2019.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), completed 20-of-31 passes (64.5 completion percentage) for a season-high 222 yards with a touchdown and an interception. In the first quarter, he led a 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, throwing for 34 yards on the drive before Tony Pollard plunged in for a three-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter, he led a second 70-yard scoring drive, including a 33-yard connection with Carnell Tate to convert fourth-and-11 and a career-long 22-yard scramble. The drive was capped off by a three-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson and a pass to Gunnar Helm in the end zone for a two-point conversion. It was his ninth consecutive game with either a passing or rushing touchdown.

- Against Houston (10/11), completed 23-of-36 passes for 170 yards.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), completed 11-of-22 passes for 102 yards and an eight-yard touchdown to Carnell Tate in the third quarter. He engineered his second career game-winning drive, leading the offense on a seven-play, 52-yard drive in the fourth quarter that resulted in a 49-yard field goal to put Tennessee ahead for good. During the drive, he completed a six-yard pass to Wan'Dale Robinson to convert a third-and-five.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), finished with 181 yards on 20-of-31 passing and led the offense on touchdown drives of 65, 24 and 63 yards. In the fourth quarter, he engineered an 11-play, 63-yard touchdown drive that included a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor on fourth-and-eight and an 18-yard connection with Carnell Tate on third-and-12. He took one sack (zero yards) against Cleveland, marking his fourth game of the season taking one or fewer sacks.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), passed for a career-best 304 yards, completing 26 of 40 passes (65.0 percent) with two touchdowns. He became the first Titans quarterback with 300 passing yards, two touchdown passes and no interceptions since Ryan Fitzpatrick at Oakland on Nov. 24, 2013. Adding seven rushes for a career-high 41 yards, he joined Lamar Jackson as the only quarterbacks to pass for 300 yards and rush for 40 yards in a game in 2026. He became the first Titans quarterback with such a performance since Marcus Mariota on Sept. 30, 2018 against Philadelphia. Ward completed five passes of at least 20 yards, his most in any game since entering the league in 2025. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Chimere Dike and Wan'Dale Robinson for go-ahead touchdown passes of 11 and 15 yards, respectively. It was the second time in his career he had multiple passing touchdowns in a quarter and his first two-touchdown passing fourth quarter. In the third quarter, he ran in a two-point conversion attempt and connected with Gunnar Helm for another two-point conversion in the fourth quarter. He set career highs for the first half with 21 pass attempts, 14 completions and 166 passing yards – the second most yards he had in any half of his career, trailing only a 209-yard passing performance in the second half at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), finished with 231 yards on 28-of-39 passing with two touchdowns and an interception. It was his second consecutive game with at least 200 yards and two passing scores, the second such streak of his career (Weeks 16-17 of 2025). His 93.0 passer rating ranked fifth in his career in games with at least 20 pass attempts. In the second quarter, he connected with Elic Ayomanor for a career-long 50-yard completion to set up a touchdown. In the second quarter, he tossed a two-yard touchdown pass to Daniel Bellinger. Additionally, he led the team with 39 rushing yards, including a career-long 26-yard run in the third quarter. In a two-game span he produced the highest (41 at Cincinnati on Nov. 1) and second-highest (39 against Jacksonville) single-game rushing yardage totals of his career.
- At Dallas (11/22), finished with 248 yards and two touchdowns on 21-of-30 passing (70.0 percent) and added a rushing touchdown, accounting for three total touchdowns for the first time in his career. His 117.1 passer rating ranked second for his career in games with at least 20 passing attempts. In the third quarter, he scored Tennessee's first touchdown on a one-yard run for his third rushing touchdown in 2026, a new career-high. He completed a career-long 59-yard touchdown pass to Carnell Tate in the third quarter, the longest touchdown completion for Tennessee since Chig Okonkwo took a Will Levis pass 70 yards for a score at Houston on Nov. 24, 2024. He accounted for his third touchdown of the game on a 12-yard pass to Calvin Ridley in the fourth quarter, marking his third consecutive game with two touchdown passes, a career first. He became the first Titans quarterback to record three consecutive games with at least 230 passing yards and two passing touchdowns since Marcus Mariota did so in six straight games in 2016, and he was the first since at least 2000 to accomplish the feat while completing at least 65 percent of his passes in each contest. Over a three-game span, Ward completed 75 of 109 pass attempts (69.8 percent) for 783 yards, six touchdowns, one interception and a 103.9 passer rating. For the first time in his career, he registered a passer rating of 90.0 or greater in three consecutive contests.

ROOKIE QBs, FRANCHISE HISTORY

First-overall draft pick Cam Ward was the 13th rookie starting quarterback in the history of the Titans/Oilers franchise. He became the first rookie quarterback in franchise annals to start at least 14 games, surpassing Vince Young's previous mark of 13 starts as a rookie in 2006. Additionally, Ward passed Marcus Mariota (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for the most passing yards in franchise history by a rookie.

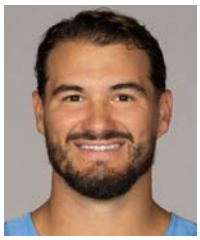
#10 • QB MITCHELL TRUBISKY

6-3, 222, 10th Year/1st with Titans, North Carolina



Mitchell Trubisky is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Trubisky totaled nine NFL seasons with the Chicago Bears (2017-20), Buffalo Bills (2021, 2024-25) and Pittsburgh Steelers (2022-23). During that span, he appeared in 82 regular season games with 57 starts and completed 1,244 of 1,933 passes for 13,028 yards with 78 touchdowns and an 86.9 passer rating.

In his second stint in Buffalo from 2024 to 2025, he served as a backup to Josh Allen, appearing in 13 total games. In his final season with the Bills, his numbers included 25-of-35 passing for 313 yards and four touchdowns with no interceptions.

Trubisky was selected by the Bears with the second-overall pick of the 2017 NFL Draft. Over the next four seasons, he appeared in 51 games with 50 starts.

In 2018, he recorded his first of two consecutive 3,000-yard passing seasons and was named to his first career Pro Bowl after completing 289 of 434 passes for 3,223 yards with 24 touchdowns and 12 interceptions. The Bears went 12-4 in the regular season to win the NFC North.

As a rookie in 2017, he started 12 games set the then-franchise rookie records for completions (196) and passing yards (2,193), finished second in attempts (330), and tied for third in touchdown passes (seven).

The Mentor, Ohio, native played in 34 games with 13 starts in three seasons at the University of North Carolina. He finished his Tarheels career ranked fifth in passing touchdowns (41), sixth in passing yards (4,762) and seventh in total offense (5,201).

#20 • RB TONY POLLARD

6-0, 209, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Memphis

Running back Tony Pollard is in his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2026. The Memphis native was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

In 2025, Pollard was voted a team captain for the first time in his career. He led the Titans in rushing for the second consecutive season with 242 carries for a career-high 1,082 yards and five touchdowns. It was the second consecutive season in which he set a career high in rushing (1,079 yards in 2024).

Pollard became the fourth player in Titans/Oilers history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons with the club, joining Earl Campbell (1978-81), Eddie George (1996-00) and Chris Johnson (2008-13). With his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, including his final two campaigns in Dallas, he joined Derrick Henry as the NFL's only running backs to rush for 1,000 yards every season from 2022 to 2025.

Pollard's durability continued through seven NFL campaigns, during which time he never missed more than two games in a season. He started all 17 games in 2025, marking the second time in his career (2023) that he started every week. Over a three-season span (2023-25), Pollard missed only one total game (2024).

During his first year with the Titans, Pollard ranked third in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL with a then-career-best 1,079 rushing yards on a career-high 260 carries. Both numbers led the team, as did his five rushing touchdowns. With an additional 238 yards on 41 receptions, he produced a team-high 1,317 scrimmage yards—the second-best total of his career.

Prior to joining the Titans, Pollard spent five seasons (2019-23) with the Dallas Cowboys, who selected him in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. With an additional 176 receptions for 1,319 yards and five receiving touchdowns, he reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in each of his final three years in Dallas while also returning 63 kickoffs for 1,500 yards, including one return for a score.

In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), rushed seven times for 35 yards.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), led the team with 64 rushing yards on 14 attempts, including a 13-yard run to convert a third-and-one in the second quarter and a season-long 18-yard run in the fourth quarter.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), led the team with 17 carries for 74 rushing yards and added four receptions for 22 yards. It was his 13th game with at least 90 yards from scrimmage since joining the Titans in 2024, and his 32nd career game with at least 90 scrimmage yards.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), rushed for 48 yards on 16 carries. In the first quarter, he scored his first touchdown on the season on a three-yard run. He recorded seven carries on the 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, rushing for 23 yards. During the game he reached the 6,000-yard rushing mark for his career (6,003). Additionally, he surpassed LenDale White (2,349) for 12th place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list.

➢ Against Houston (10/11), logged 14 rush attempts for 52 yards, including a 14-yard rush in the first quarter.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/18), logged a season-high 76 rushing yards on 19 attempts.

➢ Against Cleveland (10/25), matched a personal best with three scores on the ground and set a season high with 129 rushing yards on 25 carries. He scored on the Titans' first two possessions in the first quarter on runs of 36 and 10 yards. To open the game, he carried the ball five times for 60 yards on a 65-yard drive, and his 36-yard touchdown was the eighth-longest rushing touchdown of his career. His 87 first-quarter rushing yards tied a career-best (87 at Cleveland on Dec. 7, 2025). His 10-yard touchdown run later in the first quarter marked his sixth career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and his first career game with multiple rushing scores in the same quarter. In the first half, he rushed 16 times for 92 yards, with a 5.8-yard average, making him the first player in 2026 to average 5.8 rushing yards in a half where they carried the ball at least 16 times. Pollard's third rushing score, a one-yard run to help tie the game at 24-24 late in the fourth quarter, tied his high for a single game originally set on Oct. 30, 2022 as a member of the Dallas Cowboys. Pollard logged his first 100-yard performance of the 2026 season and the 14th such game of his career. He added three receptions for 26 yards to finish with 155 yards from scrimmage, his third-most scrimmage yards since entering the league in 2019. He became the first Titans player to rush for three touchdowns in a game since Derrick Henry against Buffalo on Oct. 18, 2021, and he also joined Henry (Sept. 13 at Indianapolis) as the NFL's first players in 2026 with at least 125 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns in a game. Henry was also the last Titans player to accomplish the feat prior to Pollard when he did so against Buffalo on Oct. 18, 2021.

➢ At Cincinnati (11/1), finished with 117 rushing yards on 21 carries (5.6-yard average), marking his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game and the 16th such performance of his career. He ran in a 40-yard touchdown in the first quarter to increase the Titans' lead in Cincinnati, giving him the seventh-longest rushing touchdown of his career. At the time it was the ninth-longest rushing score in the NFL in 2026 and the second-longest offensive play by a Titan in 2026, trailing only Elic Ayomanor's 41-yard reception against Philadelphia in Week 2. It marked the first time in his career with back-to-back games with touchdown runs of 20-plus yards. In the third quarter, he scored on a one-yard run.

➢ Against Jacksonville (11/15), led the team with eight receptions for 66 yards, both highs since joining Tennessee. His eight receptions established a career high. He also finished with nine attempts on the ground for 33 yards to give him a total of 99 scrimmage yards in the contest. He logged his first receiving touchdown in a Titans uniform and his first since 2022 on a 32-yard catch-and-run in the third quarter. He scored his sixth total touchdown in three games to join Derrick Henry as the team's only players since the beginning of 2010 with six touchdowns over a span of three games. Pollard also increased his total to 2,789 rushing yards since joining the Titans in 2024, moving into the Titans/Oilers top 10 during the contest by surpassing Chris Brown (2,757) for 11th place and Ronnie Coleman (2,769) for 10th place.

➢ At Dallas (11/22), finished with 110 rushing yards on 21 carries (5.2-yard average), recording his 16th career 100-yard rushing performance and his third such performance of the season, tying his career-high in a single campaign. It was also Pollard's third 100-yard rushing performance in the past four games and his fourth consecutive game with at least 99 scrimmage yards.

RUSHING & SCRIMMAGE YARDS, 2021-26

Since the start of the 2021 season, Tony Pollard has been one of the NFL's most productive running backs, ranking in the top 10 in rushing yards during that time.

In 2021, Pollard totaled 719 yards on the ground as a member of the Dallas Cowboys, followed by 1,007 yards in 2022 and 1,005 yards in 2023. He arrived in Tennessee in 2024 and set a then-career high with 1,079 rushing yards before breaking that mark with 1,082 rushing yards in 2025.

Most rushing yards from 2021 to 2026:

	Player	Current Team	Rushing Yards

#2 • RB TYJAE SPEARS

5-11, 200, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Tulane

Running back Tyjae Spears is in his fourth NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (81st overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

In 2025, he appeared in 13 games with one start and totaled 72 rushing attempts for 283 yards and two touchdowns. He added 45 receptions for 264 yards for a total of 547 scrimmage yards. It was his third consecutive season with at least 500 scrimmage yards to begin his career.

In 2024, Spears appeared in 12 games with one start. His totals included 312 yards and four touchdowns on 84 rushing attempts, and he added 30 receptions for 224 yards and a touchdown.

As a rookie, Spears did not miss a game and registered one start. He carried the ball 100 times for 453 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 52 receptions for 385 yards and one score. His 838 scrimmage yards ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

Spears spent four years at Tulane (2019-22) prior to entering the NFL. He appeared in 33 games with 20 starts at running back for the Green Wave, totaling 2,910 yards and 31 touchdowns on 427 carries with an additional 48 receptions for 564 yards and three scores. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.8), tied for second in 100-yard rushing games (15), tied for third in rushing touchdowns (31), fourth in rushing yards per game (85.6) and sixth in rushing yards (2,910) and total touchdowns (34). His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), finished with 24 yards from scrimmage on three carries (12 yards) and two receptions (12 yards).
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), produced a team-high 70 yards from scrimmage (41 rushing, 29 receiving), including a 27-yard run in the fourth quarter, which was the second-longest rush of his career, and a 27-yard reception in the second quarter to help set up a Titans field goal. He reached the 2,000-yard plateau for career scrimmage yards (2,015).
- Against Houston (10/11), led the team with a career-high nine receptions for 28 yards. His nine receptions ranked fourth among running backs in a single game in 2026 through Oct. 11. It was the most receptions by a Titans running back since Dion Lewis matched the feat on Oct. 20, 2018 against Philadelphia. Spears, Lewis and Chris Johnson (twice in 2009) are the only Titans running backs to record nine receptions in a game since the beginning of the 1999 season.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), returned to action for the first time since Oct. 18 and finished with four carries for 28 yards.
- Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 21.

SCRIMMAGE YARDS, 2023 DRAFT CLASS

In his first three NFL seasons, Titans running back Tyjae Spears totaled 1,921 scrimmage yards, including 1,048 rushing yards and 873 receiving yards. Through 2025, Spears' career scrimmage yards total ranked sixth among the 19 running backs selected in the 2023 NFL Draft.

Most career scrimmage yards through 2025 by running backs drafted in 2023:

	Player	Team	Round (Overall)	Rush Yards	Rec Yards	Scrim Yards

#82 • TE DANIEL BELLINGER

6-6, 255, 5th Year/1st with Titans, San Diego State

Tight end Daniel Bellinger is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Bellinger was originally selected by the New York Giants in the fourth round (112th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. He spent his first four seasons with the club and totaled 88 receptions for 934 yards and four touchdowns over 62 games played.

In Bellinger's final season in New York, he appeared in 16 games with 10 starts and recorded 19 receptions for 286 yards with two touchdowns. His 15.1-yard receiving average was the best of his career through four seasons.

In 2024, he played in all 17 games for the second consecutive season and totaled eight starts. He tallied 14 receptions for 125 yards.

As a rookie in 2022, he caught 30 passes for 268 yards and two touchdowns as part of a playoff club. He started both postseason contests, contributing 21 yards and a touchdown on three receptions.

The Las Vegas, Nev., native attended San Diego State University, where he played in 43 games with 32 starts over four seasons (2018-21). His career totals included 68 receptions for 771 yards with five touchdowns.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at tight end in his Titans debut and finished with one reception for seven yards.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), recorded his first touchdown in a Titans uniform on a two-yard reception from Cam Ward in the second quarter. It was his sixth career touchdown reception.

#84 • TE GUNNAR HELM

6-5, 241, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Texas

Tight end Gunnar Helm was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (120th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he appeared in the first 16 games of the season with 10 starts before missing the finale due to injury. He amassed 44 catches for 357 yards and two touchdowns during the campaign, tallying at least one reception in every game he played. Among franchise rookie tight ends, he had the most receptions in team history and ranked second in receiving yards behind Chig Okonkwo's 450 receiving yards in 2022. Among members of the 2025 rookie tight end class, Helm tied for fifth in receptions and placed sixth in receiving yards.

During his career at the University of Texas, Helm participated in 54 games with 26 starts from 2021 to 2024. He recorded 79 receptions for 1,022 yards and nine touchdowns in his college career.

As a senior in 2024, he started all 16 games and recorded a career-high and team-leading 60 receptions for 786 yards and seven touchdowns. His play earned him second-team All-SEC honors, and he was a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award, presented to the nation's most outstanding tight end. Helm helped the Longhorns advance to the semifinals of the College Football Playoff.

As a junior in 2023, he appeared in 14 games with six starts, totaling 14 receptions for 192 yards and two touchdowns. He was voted honorable mention All-Big 12 and also named Academic All-Big 12 second team.

He is a native of Englewood, Colo.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), finished with four receptions for 28 yards.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at tight end and recorded two receptions for 13 yards.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/17), finished with two receptions for 14 yards.
- At Baltimore (10/4), recorded one reception for five yards. Late in the fourth quarter, he added a reception for the first two-point conversion of his career. He extended his streak to 20 consecutive games with at least one reception to begin his NFL career.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), notched three receptions for 24 yards, including a season-long 14-yard catch in the fourth quarter to move the chains.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), set a career high with a team-leading 76 receiving yards on five receptions. He recorded his two longest receptions of the season with a 25-yard catch on third-and-three in the fourth quarter and a 24-yard reception in the first quarter. For Helm's career, those receptions were only topped in yardage by his 34-yard touchdown reception on Dec. 15, 2025 at San Francisco. He converted a two-point try on a reception from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter. It was Helm's second two-point conversion of the 2026 season, and he became the first player in the NFL with multiple two-point conversions made in 2026.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), finished with four receptions for 23 yards in his 25th career game.
- At Dallas (11/22), finished with two catches for 14 yards.

#5 • WR ELIC AYOMANOR

6-2, 206, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Stanford

Wide receiver Elic Ayomanor was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (136th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Ayomanor contributed 41 receptions for 515 yards and four touchdowns. He ranked fifth on the team in receptions, second in receiving yards, and tied for first in touchdown catches. Among all rookie NFL wide receivers, Ayomanor, who was the 19th wide receiver drafted in 2025, ranked ninth in receiving yards and tied for 11th in touchdown receptions. He became the sixth rookie in Titans/Oilers history to reach 40 receptions, 500 receiving yards and four receiving touchdowns, joining Bill Groman (1960), Charlie Hennigan (1960), Jerry LeVias (1969), Kendall Wright (2012) and A.J. Brown (2019).

Ayomanor attended Stanford from 2022 to 2024. He saw action in his final two seasons there, appearing in 24 games with 23 starts. He led the Cardinal in receptions and receiving yards in both campaigns, totaling 125 receptions for 1,844 yards and 12 touchdowns in that span.

In 2024, he started all 12 games and was named second team All-ACC from the coaches after leading all Stanford receivers with 63 receptions for 831 yards. He recorded six receiving touchdowns, tied for the most by a Cardinal wideout, and he was the Cardinal's leading receiver in seven of the 12 games. In the ACC, he finished seventh in receptions and tied for ninth in receiving touchdowns. He was honors with the team's Tommy Vardell Award, given to an academic junior or senior who best epitomizes excellence in both academics and athletics, as well as Stanford's Deswarte-Eller Award, presented to the team's most outstanding sophomore player.

As a redshirt freshman in 2023, he appeared in all 12 games, making starts at wide receiver in the final 11 games. He paced the Stanford offense with 62 receptions for 1,013 yards and six touchdowns and was named the team's Irving S. Zeimer Award recipient, given to the team's offensive most valuable player. He ranked seventh in the Pac-12 in receiving yards and yards per catch (16.3), while ranking fifth in yards per game (84.4).

In a game at Colorado (Oct. 13), he amassed career highs with 13 catches for 294 yards and three receiving scores, setting the Stanford program record for receiving yards in a game.

A native of Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, he spent his initial year of high school in Canada before one year at The Peddie School (Hightstown, N.J.) and two years at Deerfield (Mass.) Academy.

2026 Game Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), hauled in an 11-yard strike from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter for his fifth career touchdown catch.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at wide receiver and led the team with 69 receiving yards on two receptions, including a 28-yard reception in the second quarter and a career-long 41-yard reception in the fourth quarter. It was his first career game with two receptions of over 25 yards.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), logged a catch from Cam Ward for 11 yards and a first down in the fourth quarter.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), notched a reception for 22 yards. He also drew a 39-yard pass interference penalty during a scoring drive in the third quarter.

➢ Against Houston (10/11), hauled a 17-yard catch in the fourth quarter.

➢ Against Cleveland (10/25), totaled 44 yards on three receptions, including a 26-yard catch to convert a fourth-and-eight during a game-tying touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

➢ At Cincinnati (11/1), finished with three receptions for 34 yards, including a 23-yard reception in the first quarter to convert a third-and-five.

➢ Against Jacksonville (11/15), established a new career high and led the offense with 79 receiving yards. His five receptions also set a career high. In the second quarter, he recorded the longest reception of his career on a 50-yard catch, giving him the team's two longest offensive plays of 2026 to date, after previously recording a 41-yard reception against Philadelphia in Week 2. His 16.1 yards per reception on the season led the team through nine games.

➢ At Dallas (11/22), finished with three receptions for 27 yards. It was his fourth consecutive game with at least three receptions, the first such streak of his career.

RECEIVING AVG, 2025 DRAFT CLASS

Among members of the 2025 draft class, Titans wide receiver Elic Ayomanor has been among the leaders in receiving average.

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Florida

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which included 1,588 kickoff return yards, 398 punt return yards, 423 receiving yards and 18 rushing yards.

He was named to the Pro Bowl as the AFC's starting returner, becoming the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

Dike also earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. He was the franchise's fourth rookie since the merger to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors, joining Campbell (1978), Kearse (1999) and tackle Jack Conklin (2016).

Dike's 2,427 all-purpose yards in 2025 ranked third in franchise history for a single season behind Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000 and Johnson's 2,509 yards in 2009. The number established the all-time NFL rookie record for all-purpose yards and was the highest in a season by any NFL player since 2011, when Darren Sproles set the NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards.

Dike returned 23 punts for 398 yards and two touchdowns. His 17.3-yard average tied for the NFL lead with New England's Marcus Jones while also breaking the franchise single-season record, which was held for 48 years by Billy "White Shoes" Johnson. Dike averaged nearly two yards per return more than Johnson's mark of 15.4 yards in 1977 (35 for 539 yards).

Dike also returned 62 kickoffs for a franchise-record 1,588 yards, averaging 25.6 yards per attempt. He ranked second in the NFL in kickoff return yards in 2025 behind Dallas' KaVontae Turpin (1,814). His 1,588 kickoff return yards put him in third place in NFL history among rookies, trailing only the Raiders' Chris Carr (1,752 in 2005) and Arizona's Josh Scobey (1,684 in 2003).

With a punt return average of 17.3 yards and a kickoff return average of 25.6 yards, Dike became the NFL's first player since Detroit's Jack Christiansen in 1952 (21.5 punt return average and 25.6 kickoff return average) to qualify with an average 17.0-plus yards per punt return and 25.0-plus yards per kickoff return in a season.

On offense, Dike's rookie contributions included finishing second on the squad with 48 receptions, ranking third with 423 receiving yards, and tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches. His six total touchdowns led the Titans.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), recorded one reception for seven yards and also returned three kickoffs for 62 yards.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), returned four punts for 38 yards and two kickoffs for 54 yards, and he hauled in one reception for three yards.
- At Baltimore (10/4), opened the game with a 40-yard kickoff return and then recorded a 15-yard reception on the first play from scrimmage.
- Against Houston (10/11), notched a season-high three receptions for 28 yards and added a season-high 147 kickoff return yards on six returns.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), returned a fourth-quarter punt 58 yards to set up the Titans' first touchdown of the contest. It was the third-longest punt return of his career and the third-longest punt return in the NFL this season to date. He added five kick returns for 118 yards.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), averaged 30.5 yards on two kickoff returns and added a 14-yard punt return.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), finished with a season-best 71 receiving yards on five receptions. He recorded his first touchdown reception of the season on an 11-yard pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter to take the lead. He also had a 28-yard reception in the third quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), recorded two receptions for 16 yards, a five-yard rushing attempt and six kickoff returns for 156 yards with a long return of 33 yards.
- At Dallas (11/22), led the team with six receptions for 69 yards, including a 22-yard reception on Tennessee's first offensive play. He finished six kickoff returns for 127 yards in the contest, increasing his career total to 2,700 kickoff return yards to surpass Mel Gray (2,592) for the sixth-most in franchise history. He added one rush for four yards to give him 200 all-purpose yards.

#0 • WR CALVIN RIDLEY

6-1, 190, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Alabama

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his eighth NFL season and his third season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

Ridley was named a team captain for the first time in his career in 2025. However, his campaign came to a premature end due to injury. He appeared in seven of the first 10 games of the season before landing on injured reserve for the team's final seven contests. His season totals included 17 receptions for 303 yards (17.8 avg.).

During his first season in Tennessee, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) accumulated at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards with an average of at least 15.0 yards per catch. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17. He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at wide receiver and finished with two receptions for 35 yards. He recorded a 25-yard gain on his first reception of the season in the third quarter.
- At Baltimore (10/4), recorded a 13-yard reception for a first down.
- Against Houston (10/11), recorded a 23-yard reception on the game's first play from scrimmage. He finished with two catches for 33 yards.
- At Dallas (11/22), finished with a season-high five receptions for 68 yards, including his first touchdown of the season on a 12-yard pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter. He notched a 15-yard reception for a first down in the third quarter and added receptions of 21 yards, nine yards and 11 yards on consecutive plays during the drive that concluded with his touchdown.

RECEIVING AVERAGE SINCE 2024

During his first three seasons in Tennessee, Calvin Ridley ranks among the league leaders in receiving average. From 2024 to 2025, his two-year totals included 1,320 yards on 81 receptions for an average of 16.3 yards per catch.

In 2024, Ridley caught 64 passes for 1,017 yards, resulting in a career-best 15.9-yard receiving average. His average ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) averaged at least 15.0 yards per catch while also tallying at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards.

In 2025, Ridley's participation was limited due to injuries. However, he averaged 17.8 yards per catch, hauling in 17 passes for 303 yards.

#4 • WR WAN'DALE ROBINSON

5-8, 185, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Kentucky

Wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson is in his fifth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, he played in 54 NFL contests over four seasons with the New York Giants, who selected him in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 268 catches for 2,465 yards with nine touchdowns. Among all players in Giants history, only Odell Beckham Jr. (313) had more receptions in his first four NFL seasons than Robinson did.

In his final season in New York, Robinson saw action in 16 games. He finished the year with a team-high 92 catches and single-season career highs in receiving yards (1,014) and receiving touchdowns (four). His 92 receptions gave him the NFL's ninth-highest total in 2025. The number ranked sixth in franchise history, and Robinson joined Beckham as the only players in franchise history with 90 or more catches in multiple seasons. Robinson was one of five NFL players to record 90-plus receptions in 2024 and 2025. Additionally, Robinson tied for ninth in the NFL with 11 receptions of 25-plus yards and tied for ninth with 25 receptions on third down.

In 2024, he saw action in all 17 games for the first time in his career with seven starts. His career-best 93 receptions ranked him 13th in the NFL, and he led the league with 34 third-down receptions.

A native of Frankfort, Ky., Robinson played in 31 games with 24 starts in three collegiate seasons (two at Nebraska and one at Kentucky). He caught 195 passes for 2,248 yards with 10 receiving touchdowns in his career.

As a junior at Kentucky in 2021, he was named second-team All-SEC after playing in all 13 games and setting career highs with a then school-record 104 receptions, 1,334 yards and seven touchdowns.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), made his Titans debut and led the team with five receptions for 38 yards. He moved past the 2,500 career receiving yards mark (2,503).
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), caught a nine-yard pass.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), led the team in his return trip to New York with seven receptions for 57 yards and a touchdown, all highs for his debut season as a Titan through three contests. He registered his first touchdown as a Titan on a four-yard reception from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter. Three of Robinson's receptions resulted in first downs.
- At Baltimore (10/4), totaled three receptions for 19 yards, including a three-yard touchdown pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter. He logged his second consecutive game with a touchdown reception, the first time in his career he scored in two straight outings.
- Against Houston (10/11), led the team with 53 receiving yards on six receptions, including a 17-yard reception in the third quarter. It was his 23rd career game with six or more receptions.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), finished with 22 receiving yards on three catches, including a six-yard reception on a crucial third-and-five in the fourth quarter. Tennessee took a 23-20 lead four plays later.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), had four receptions to extend his streak to 49 consecutive games with at least one reception.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), led the team with six receptions for 56 yards and a touchdown. He opened the contest with a 16-yard reception on the first play from scrimmage. He helped the Titans take the lead in the fourth quarter with a 15-yard score, his third touchdown reception in his first season as a Titan. During the contest, he reached 300 career receptions (303).
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), caught three passes for 10 yards to extend his streak to 51 consecutive games with at least one reception.
- Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 17.

RECEPTIONS FROM SLOT, 2024-26

Since the start of the 2024 season, Titans wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson is at the top of the leaderboard in receptions out of the slot by a wide receiver.

From 2024 through 2025, Robinson totaled a league-high 113 catches from the slot, and he was one of only five NFL receivers to top 1,000 yards on catches from the slot in that period, joining Jaxon Smith-Njigba, Amon-Ra St. Brown, Josh Downs and Ladd McConkey. Among players at all positions, only Arizona Cardinals tight end Trey McBride (115) had more receptions from the slot than Robinson from 2024 to 2025.

Most receptions from the slot among NFL wide receivers, 2024-26:

	Wide Receiver	Receptions	Receiving Yards
1.	Wan'Dale Robinson	137	1,293
2.	Josh Downs	125	1,449

#14 • WR CARNELL TATE

6-2, 192, Rookie, Ohio State

Wide receiver Carnell Tate was selected by the Titans with the fourth overall pick in the 2026 NFL Draft.

The No. 4 pick was the highest selection used by the Titans franchise to draft a wide receiver in the common draft era (1967-present). The previous high pick for a Titans/Oilers wideout was fifth overall for Corey Davis in 2017. Tate became the first player picked in the first round by the Titans out of Ohio State since running back Eddie George in 1996 (14th overall).

Tate joined an extensive list of recent Ohio State wide receivers selected high in the draft. He extended the school's streak to five consecutive seasons (six total players) with a wide receiver drafted in the first round, joining Garrett Wilson (10th by New York Jets in 2022), Chris Olave (11th by New Orleans in 2022), Jaxon Smith-Njigba (20th by Seattle in 2023), Marvin Harrison Jr. (fourth by Arizona in 2024) and Emeka Egbuka (19th by Tampa Bay in 2025).

During his three-year career at Ohio State (2023-25), Tate saw action in 39 games with 27 starts. He finished his career with 121 receptions for 1,872 yards and 14 touchdowns. Over the course of his career, he had at least one reception in 37 of the 39 games in which he played.

In 2025, he started 11 games and totaled 51 receptions for 875 yards (17.2 avg.) and nine touchdowns. He took home second-team Associated Press All-American and first-team Academic All-American honors.

He is a native of Chicago, Ill.

2026 Game Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at wide receiver in his NFL debut and tied for the team lead with 38 receiving yards on four catches. He recorded his first professional reception on a 12-yard pass from Cam Ward in the first quarter.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at wide receiver and led the team with three receptions for 27 yards.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), established season-bests with a team-leading 58 yards on six receptions. He connected with Cam Ward for a 20-yard completion in the third quarter to earn Tennessee a fresh set of downs and also recorded a 13-yard reception in the fourth quarter.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), led the team with nine receptions for 145 yards, averaging 16.1 yards per reception. Tate became the first Titans player to eclipse 100 yards in a game since Calvin Ridley at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025, and he was the first Titans rookie to hit the century mark since Treylon Burks at Green Bay on Nov. 22, 2025. His 145 receiving yards were the most by an NFL rookie in 2026 through Oct. 4, the most by any Titans player since A.J. Brown had 145 yards against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021, and the most by a Titans rookie since Brown had 153 at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. Tate became the first Titans rookie with nine or more receptions in a game since Kendall Wright (nine) at Minnesota on Oct. 7, 2012. He also became the franchise's only rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to notch at least three receptions in each of the team's first four games of the season. His pair of 33-yard catches and a 22-yard catch were the three longest receptions of his rookie season through four games. He totaled 74 yards on five receptions in the first half and 71 yards on four receptions in the second half.

➢ Against Houston (10/11), recorded one catch for six yards.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/18), finished with six receptions for 70 yards and his first career touchdown. He helped the Titans tie the score at 13-13 with an eight-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter. Additionally, he was credited with three of the Titans' four longest offensive gains, including a 19-yard reception on third-and-10 in the third quarter, along with an 18-yard catch and a 14-yard catch, each resulting in a new set of downs. It was his third game of the season with at least six receptions and 50 receiving yards. He became the first Titans receiver with three such games in a season since DeAndre Hopkins in 2023 and the first Titans rookie receiver to accomplish the feat since Kendall Wright in 2012.

➢ Against Cleveland (10/25), finished with five receptions for 69 yards to lead the team and record his fourth game with at least four receptions and 50 receiving yards in 2026, the most such games by a rookie receiver for the team during its Titans era (1999-present) other than A.J. Brown (six games in 2019). He accounted for three first down receptions, including conversions of third-and-12 (18-yard reception), second-and-12 (15 yards) and second-and-nine (17 yards). He converted a crucial third-and-12 late in the fourth quarter with an 18-yard reception to get the Titans offense to the Cleveland one-yard line. Tate (413 yards) joined Bill Groman (553 in 1960) and Ernest Givins (485 in 1986) as the only players in franchise history with 400 receiving yards in the team's first seven games of their rookie season.

➢ On Nov. 5, he was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for October. In Weeks 4-8, he led all NFL rookies with 290 receiving yards and 13 receptions for first downs. During that span, his 13.8-yard receiving average led all rookies (12 receptions min.) while his 21 receptions tied for third.

➢ At Dallas (11/22), caught his second career touchdown, a 59-yarder in the third quarter. It was the the fourth-longest receiving score to date by an NFL rookie in 2026 and was also the longest reception by a Titans rookie since A.J. Brown's 91-yard touchdown catch at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. He finished with 58 receiving yards on two receptions and also forced a 38-yard pass interference penalty in the third quarter that led to a touchdown on the next play.

#66 • G FERNANDO CARMONA JR.

6-5, 316, Rookie, Arkansas

Fernando Carmona Jr. was drafted by the Titans in the fifth round (142nd overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft.

Prior to reaching the NFL, Carmona totaled five seasons in college football, starting 49 of 50 games. He spent three seasons (2021-23) at San Jose State before going to Arkansas for his final two years (2024-25). He totaled 37 starts at left tackle before making the transition to left guard for the final 12 games of his college career.

He finished his college career with 49 consecutive starts.

As a senior at Arkansas in 2025, he made the transition to left guard and started all 12 games. He helped pave the way for six games with 500-plus yards of total offense and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

He is a native of Las Vegas, Nev.

#55 • T JC LATHAM

6-6, 342, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Alabama

JC Latham is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Latham moved to right tackle, where he started 13 games. He was in the lineup every game for the final 12 contests after missing four of the first five weeks due to injury.

With 30 starts in his first two NFL seasons, Latham joined Jack Conklin (32 from 2016-17), Chance Warmack (32 from 2013-14), Michael Roos (32 from 2005-06) and Peter Skoronski (31 from 2023-24) as the franchise's only offensive linemen in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to accomplish the feat. He did so all before his 23rd birthday (Feb. 8, 2026). Among NFL offensive linemen under 23 at the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham had the most career starts.

As a rookie, Latham notched 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack

Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

STARTS BEFORE 24TH BIRTHDAY

Titans tackle JC Latham has accumulated more starts before his 24th birthday than almost every other player in franchise history. He does not celebrate his 24th birthday until Feb. 8, 2027.

As a rookie in 2024, the first-round pick started every game at left tackle. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday, he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005. Among all NFL players in 2024, Latham was the only one under age 22 to log 17 starts.

Then, in 2025, Latham moved to right tackle and registered 13 starts. By increasing his total to 30 games played and 30 starts, he ranked fifth in franchise history in total games before a player's 23rd birthday and second in total starts before a player's 23rd birthday. Only Starks (31) had more starts for the organization before turning 23.

Most games started in franchise history (1960 to 2026) before a player's 24th birthday:

	Player	Position	Season(s)	Starts
1.	Jurrell Casey	DT	2011-13	42
2.	JC Latham	T	2024-26	40
3.	George Webster	LB	1967-69	39
4.	Bob Talamini	OL	1960-62	37
5.	Randy Starks	DT	2004-07	35
6.	Marcus Mariota	QB	2015-17	33
	Chance Warmack	G	2013-15	33
	Rich Michael	T	1960-62	33
9.	Jack Conklin	T	2016-17	32
	Tank Williams	S	2002-03	32

At the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham led all active NFL offensive linemen under the age of 23 in career starts. Additionally, since 1980, only nine other NFL offensive linemen started more games than Latham before their 23rd birthday.

Most starts by an offensive linemen before his 23rd birthday from 1980 to 2025:

	Player	Team	Seasons	Starts
1.	Tyron Smith	Dallas Cowboys	2011-13	44
2.	Penei Sewell	Detroit Lions	2021-23	38
3.	Anthony Davis	San Francisco 49ers	2010-12	37
4.	Anton Harrison	Jacksonville Jaguars	2023-24	33

	Korey Stringer	Minnesota Vikings	1995-96	30

#75 • T DAN MOORE JR.

6-5, 315, 6th Year/2nd with Titans, Texas A&M

Dan Moore Jr. is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans on March 13, 2025.

During his first season in Tennessee, Moore started 16 games at left tackle. It was the fifth time in five NFL seasons he logged 16 or more starts at left tackle. His 82 total starts from 2021 through 2025 ranked third in the NFL among offensive tackles, trailing only Atlanta's Jake Matthews (85) and Detroit's Penei Sewell (83).

Prior to joining the Titans, Moore spent the previous four seasons (2021-24) with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He started 66 total games—all at left tackle—protecting the blind side for all but two contests during his time in the Steel City. During that span, Moore ranked third in the NFL in offensive snaps (4,109) played by tackles, trailing only Penei Sewell (4,328) and Jawaan Taylor (4,135).

In each of Moore's four seasons with the Steelers, running back Najee Harris surpassed 1,000 rushing yards. In 2023, the Steelers offensive line allowed only 36 sacks, which ranked ninth in the NFL.

Moore was drafted by the Steelers in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft after attending Texas A&M University. The Beaumont, Texas, native appeared in 44 games with 37 starts for the Aggies, including starts at left tackle in each of the final 36 games of his collegiate career.

#51 • C AUSTIN SCHLOTTMANN

6-6, 310, 8th Year/1st with Titans, Texas Christian

Austin Schlottmann is in his eighth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

During his first seven NFL seasons, Schlottmann (pronounced SHLOAT-man), appeared in 85 games with 18 starts, registering starts at both center and right guard. After being signed by the Denver Broncos as a rookie free agent in 2018 and remaining in Denver through 2021, he also spent time with the Minnesota Vikings (2022-23) and the New York Giants (2024-25).

In 2025, Schlottmann established a career high with 17 games played and matched a career high with four starts—all at center.

The Brenham, Texas, native attended Texas Christian University (2014-17), where he appeared in 51 games with 29 starts over four seasons. As a senior in 2017, he was an honorable mention All-Big-12 Conference selection after starting all 14 games (eight at center; six at right guard).

#77 • G PETER SKORONSKI

6-4, 330, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Northwestern

Peter Skoronski is in his fourth NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft, and in August 2026, he received a multi-year contract extension from the team.

During his first three seasons, Skoronski started 48 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 47 games through the end of the 2025 campaign. In 2024 and 2025, he did not miss an offensive snap.

Through 2025, Skoronski's 48 starts were the most for the team in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) by a player before his 25th birthday (July 31, 2026). His streak of 47 consecutive starts at the conclusion of 2025 made up the team's longest active streak.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame. Bob Skoronski Jr., Peter's father, was an All-Ivy League football player at Yale.

He attended Maine South High School in Park Ridge, Ill.

He then registered 17 starts for the first time in his career and never came off the field when the Titans were on defense, participating in 100 percent of the defensive snaps (1,009). He led the team with career highs of three interceptions and 11 passes defensed, and his season statistics also included 81 tackles (tied for second on the team), one sack, eight quarterback pressures and four tackles for loss (tied career high).

Within the NFL in 2025, Barton and Jacksonville's Foye Oluokun tied for the lead among linebackers in passes defensed (11). Barton and Chicago cornerback Nahshon Wright were the only NFL players during the season to record at least 80 tackles, 10 passes defensed, multiple defensive takeaways and a defensive touchdown.

After Barton was selected in the third round (88th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks, he spent four seasons in Seattle, followed by one season each in Washington (2023) and Denver (2024). During the first six years of his career, he recorded 43 starts in 95 games played. His statistics during that time included 419 tackles, 3.5 sacks, 31 quarterback pressures, 10 tackles for loss, five interceptions, 14 passes defensed, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In 2024, Barton played in all 17 games with 14 starts at linebacker for the Broncos, who finished the season in the playoffs. He recorded 104 tackles, two tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, five passes defensed, two interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. After returning a fumble 52 yards for a touchdown at New Orleans in Week 7, he was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week.

From 2019 through 2021, Barton tallied 34 special teams tackles as a member of the Seahawks. The total tied for the fifth most in the NFL during that period and included 16 special teams tackles in 2020, when he ranked second in the NFL and first in the NFC.

The Cottonwood Heights, Utah, native played four seasons at the University of Utah (2015-18), where he played in 50 games with 23 starts. As a senior, he was an honorable mention All-Pac 12 linebacker after leading the team with 116 tackles and adding four sacks and an interception.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), posted three tackles in the season opener.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), totaled five tackles and a pass defensed.
- At Baltimore (10/4), tied for the team lead with eight total tackles.
- Against Houston (10/11), tied for third on the squad with six tackles. He added a team-high four quarterback pressures to tie his career high.

INTERCEPTIONS BY LINEBACKERS

Linebacker Cody Barton has eight interceptions since the beginning of the 2022 season, including a career-high three interceptions with the Titans in 2025. He ranks among the NFL leaders at the linebacker position over the past four campaigns.

Most interceptions by linebackers from 2022 to 2025:

	Player	2025 Team	Interceptions
1.	Tremaine Edmunds	Chicago Bears	10

#33 • LB CEDRIC GRAY

6-2, 240, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, North Carolina

Linebacker Cedric Gray is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Gray played and started in 16 games. He led the Titans and ranked fifth in the NFL with 160 total tackles on defense. No NFL player in his first or second NFL campaign in 2025 had more tackles than Gray. Additionally, Gray tied Stephen Tulloch (2010) for the Titans' second-highest single-season tackle total since 2000, trailing only Azeez Al-Shaair's 163 tackles in 2023 (GSIS tackle statistics).

As a rookie in 2024, spent the first seven games on injured reserve before being activated on Oct. 28, 2024. He appeared in the final seven games of the season and totaled 14 tackles on defense while ranking third on the team with eight tackles on special teams. His eight special teams tackles tied for the seventh-best total among rookies in 2024, and over the final seven weeks of the season, he led the rookie class and tied for second overall in the NFL (Oren Burks, Jeremy Reaves) behind only Pittsburgh's Miles Killebrew (nine).

In four seasons at the University of North Carolina, he played in 51 games with 37 starts and recorded 369 tackles, 30 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, five interceptions, 13 passes defensed, six forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. He was a two-time first team All-ACC selection and a 2023 Butkus Award semifinalist.

As a senior in 2023, he played and started in 12 games and posted a team-best 121 tackles in addition to five sacks, 11 stops for loss, seven quarterback pressures, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, an interception and four passes defensed. He was named first-team All-ACC by the league and the Associated Press. He recorded five double-digit tackle games and ranked second in the ACC with 121 tackles.

Gray is a native of Charlotte, N.C.

2026 Notes:

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), saw his first action of the season and totaled four tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), logged his first start of the season and totaled six tackles. He added a stop on special teams.
- At Baltimore (10/4), his four tackles included a tackle for loss, and he added a stop on special teams.
- Against Houston (10/11), tied for third on the squad with six tackles, including a half sack. In the first quarter, he was credited with his first half sack of 2026 when he and John Franklin-Myers forced C.J. Stroud out of bounds for no gain. The play gave him 1.5 career sacks.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), posted five tackles at linebacker and added a pair of stops on special teams.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), contributed four tackles on defense and added a special teams tackle.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), started and led the defense with nine tackles to go along with an interception, two passes defensed and one tackle for loss. In the first quarter, he notched his first career interception, picking off a Trevor Lawrence pass that was initially tipped by Solomon Thomas. Gray was credited with 25 yards on the return. He became the first Titans player with a minimum of nine tackles, one interception, two passes defensed and one tackle for loss in a game since safety Kevin Byard against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020. It was his 12th career game with nine or more total tackles.
- At Dallas (11/22), finished second on the defense with eight tackles.

2025 NFL TACKLE LEADERS

In his second NFL season, linebacker Cedric Gray ranked fifth in the NFL with 160 total tackles on defense. He led all players among those in their first or second season in the NFL.

Gray's total included 95 solo tackles. He tied Devin White for the second most in the league behind only Jordyn Brooks' 99 solo tackles.

Most total tackles on defense in 2025:

TEAM SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS, 2000–25

Using NFL GSIS tackle statistics dating back to 2000, Cedric Gray's 160 tackles in 2025 tied for the second-highest total for the team. Gray tied Stephen Tulloch, who had 160 tackles in 2010, and trailed only Azeez Al-Shaair, whose 163 tackles in 2023 tops the list.

Tackle statistics compiled by Titans coaches were published in the team's record books for many of those seasons and differed from press box/GSIS totals.

Most total tackles in a season for the Titans/Oilers, 2000–25*:

	Player	Season	Pos	Games	Total	Solo	Asst
1.	Azeez Al-Shaair	2023	LB	17	163	84	79

#53 • LB ANTHONY HILL JR.

6-2, 238, Rookie, Texas

Anthony Hill Jr. was selected by the Titans in the second round (60th overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft.

Prior to entering the NFL, Hill played three seasons (2023-25) at the University of Texas. He saw action in 40 games with 32 starts over three seasons (2023-25) with the Longhorns and finished his career with 249 tackles, 31.5 tackles for loss, 17 sacks, eight forced fumbles and three interceptions.

As a junior in 2025, he started 10 games and recorded 69 tackles, seven tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. He was named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press, AFCA and FWAA. He also was a finalist for the Butkus Award and a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, and he was selected to the coaches' All-SEC second team.

As a sophomore in 2024, Hill started all 16 games and led the team with 113 tackles and 16.5 tackles for loss en route to being named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press, AFCA, Sporting News and Walter Camp.

He is a native of Denton, Texas.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started in his NFL debut and led the defense with 16 total tackles and two passes defensed. He became the first NFL rookie with 16 tackles and two passes defensed in a game since at least 2000; the first NFL player with 16 tackles and two passes defensed in a Week 1 game since at least 2000; and the first NFL player with 16 tackles and two passes defensed in a game since Dec. 10, 2023, when Chicago Bears safety Jaquan Brisker had 17 stops and two passes defensed against Detroit. Hill's two passes defensed also made him the first Titans rookie to have two or more passes defensed in his first game action since Adoree' Jackson had two against the Las Vegas Raiders on Sept. 10, 2017. In the first half, he totaled 11 tackles and two passes defensed, becoming the first NFL player to have at least 10 tackles and two passes defensed in any first half since Dec. 24, 2006, when Colts cornerback Marlin Jackson had 12 tackles and two passes defensed in the first half against Houston. His 11 tackles in the first half were the most by a Titans rookie in his debut first half since at least 2000 (according to Tru Media). On the first play of the game from scrimmage, which also was his first career play, he was credited with a tackle of running back Breece Hall. Later in the first quarter, he tallied his first career pass defensed on a pass intended for tight end Mason Taylor. In the second quarter, he added a pass defensed on third down on a pass intended for running back Braelon Allen, resulting in the Jets settling for a field goal.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), led the team in tackles for the second consecutive week, accumulating 10 tackles against the Eagles. In the first two weeks of the season, he totaled an NFL-high 26 tackles, which also tied him with Keith Bulluck (2006) for the most total tackles (26) by a Titans player through the first two games of a season since the beginning of 2000 (GSIS press box statistics). Since the beginning of 2000, the only NFL rookie with more tackles in the first two games of a season was Indianapolis Colts linebacker Shaquille Leonard with 28 in 2018.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), finished second on the defense with eight tackles.

➢ On Oct. 1, he was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for September, becoming the sixth rookie in franchise history to garner a Rookie of the Month honor and the first since 2019. Over his first three contests, he logged three starts and led the NFL with 34 tackles, while also adding two passes defensed. Hill's 34 tackles gave him the second-highest total by a Titans player through the first three games of a season since 2000, topped only by LB Akeem Ayers, who claimed the mark with 37 tackles through three games in 2012 (GSIS statistics). Since 2000, the only NFL rookie with more tackles through his team's first three games than Hill was Colts linebacker Shaquille Leonard, who had 41 stops through three games as a rookie in 2018.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), tied for the team lead with eight total tackles to become the first Titans player since linebacker Wesley Woodyard in 2017 to begin a season with four consecutive eight-tackle performances (GSIS statistics). He totaled 42 tackles through the first four games of his career.

➢ Against Houston (10/11), tallied five tackles.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/18), finished third on the defense with nine tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added a pass defensed and three quarterback pressures. In the third quarter, his first career tackle for loss went for a five-yard loss. He logged his sixth consecutive game with at least five tackles to begin his career.

➢ Against Cleveland (10/25), finished second on the defense with 12 tackles and added a forced fumble. In the first quarter, he helped force a turnover with his first career forced fumble, jarring the ball from Harold Fannin Jr. (recovered by safety Tony Adams). He logged his seventh consecutive game with at least five tackles to begin his career.

➢ At Cincinnati (11/1), led the defense with 14 tackles, marking his second career game with at least 14 tackles (16 against the N.Y. Jets in Week 1), and he added three quarterback pressures. He logged his eighth consecutive game with at least five tackles to begin his career, joining Arvell Reese (N.Y. Giants) as the NFL's first rookies to post five tackles in each of his team's first eight games since Jacksonville's Devin Lloyd and Green Bay's Quay Walker did so as rookies in 2022. Hill joined Azeez Al-Shaair as the only Titans defenders since 2000 with 80 or more tackles through the team's first eight games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics).

➢ At Dallas (11/22), totaled six tackles to give him his ninth performance of his rookie season with at least five tackles.

#18 • CB COR'DALE FLOTT

6-2, 175, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Louisiana State

Cornerback Cor'Dale Flott is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

After being selected in the third round (81st overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft by the New York Giants, Flott spent the next four seasons with the team. In 53 games with the Giants, he logged 37 starts and totaled 152 tackles, three interceptions, three forced fumbles and 25 passes defensed.

In his final season in New York, Flott started a career-best 14 games at cornerback and contributed 38 tackles, an interception, a career-high 11 passes defensed, three stops for loss and a forced fumble.

A native of Saraland, Ala., Flott attended Louisiana State University, where he played in 35 games with 21 starts, seeing action at outside cornerback, nickel back and safety. His college totals included 99 tackles, 5.5 stops for loss, 12 passes defensed, an interception and two forced fumbles. As a junior in 2021, he played in 11 games with 10 starts and finished the season with 41 tackles, an interception and four passes defensed.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started in his Titans debut and recorded three tackles.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), notched his first interception of the season and the fourth interception of his career, picking off a Daniel Jones pass in the third quarter. He added three tackles.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), posted four tackles and an interception. In the first quarter, he picked off a Deshaun Watson pass in Browns territory, leading to a Titans touchdown. It marked Flott's first career two-game streak with an interception and increased his career total to five interceptions since entering the NFL in 2022. He became the first Titans defender with an interception in back-to-back games since linebacker David Long Jr. in 2022 (Weeks 5 and 7).
- At Cincinnati (11/1), registered five tackles and a pass defensed.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), posted six tackles and a pass defensed.

#26 • CB MARCUS HARRIS

5-11, 188, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, California

Cornerback Marcus Harris is in his second NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the sixth round (183rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Harris participated in 14 games as a rookie with five starts. He was one of 12 rookie cornerbacks to start at least five games in 2025. His totals included 25 tackles, five passes defensed, one tackle for loss, one forced fumble and three special teams tackles before finishing the campaign on injured reserve for the final two contests.

Over five seasons at Oregon State (2019-20), Idaho (2021-23) and California (2024), he appeared in 53 total games. In five combined seasons, he tallied 200 tackles, 11.5 stops for loss, eight interceptions and 42 passes defensed.

The Portland, Ore., native finished his college career in 2024 at California, where he recorded two interceptions and seven passes defensed.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started and tied his career high with seven tackles.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), posted six tackles, one tackle for loss and an interception. He was the first Titans defensive back to reach those numbers in a game since safety Amani Hooker against Indianapolis on Oct. 13, 2024. He recorded the first interception of his career on a Jalen Hurts pass in the fourth quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), totaled six tackles and tied for the team lead with a career-high two tackles for loss.
- At Baltimore (10/4), totaled four tackles and a half sack. In the first quarter, he registered the first half sack of his career, combining with Jacob Martin to bring down Lamar Jackson for an eight-yard loss on third down.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), posted four tackles and one pass defensed.

#24 • CB ALONTAE TAYLOR

6-1, 199, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Tennessee

Cornerback Alontae Taylor is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

In signing with the Titans, Taylor returned to his home state. He attended Coffee County High School in Manchester, Tenn., and then went on to spend four seasons at the University of Tennessee.

Taylor was selected by the New Orleans Saints in the second round (49th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. He spent his first four NFL seasons in New Orleans, playing in 64 games with 53 starts. His Saints totals included 292 tackles, four interceptions, seven sacks, 21 stops for loss, three forced fumbles and 52 passes defensed. His 52 pass breakups from 2022 to 2025 ranked fourth in the NFL.

In 2025, Taylor notched his third consecutive season with 17 games played and started a career-best 16 games. His totals included 83 tackles, two interceptions, two sacks, 11 passes defensed and seven stops for loss.

In 2024, he posted a career-best 89 tackles, four sacks, seven stops for a loss, 16 passes defensed and two forced fumbles. His 16 passes defensed led the Saints and tied for fifth in the NFL. Against Carolina in the Sept. 8 season opener, he became the first Saints defensive back to ever record three sacks in a game.

At the University of Tennessee, Taylor became the first Vols true freshman to start a season opener in the secondary since 2013. Over the course of his college career (2018-21), he played in 45 games with 31 starts at cornerback and collected 162 tackles, four interceptions, one interception return for a touchdown, a fumble recovery for a touchdown, 17 passes defensed and a blocked punt.

2026 Notes:
➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started in his Titans debut and notched six tackles.
➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), totaled five tackles, including a team-high two tackles for loss.
➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), totaled four tackles, including a sack. He registered his first sack of the season on the final play of the first quarter. The play gave him eight career sacks, more than any other NFL cornerback since Taylor entered in the NFL in 2022 (through Sept. 27).
➢ At Baltimore (10/4), totaled six tackles. In the fourth quarter, he was credited with a tackle for loss after combining with Jermaine Johnson II to bring down Derrick Henry for a loss of one yard on third-and-two.
➢ At Cincinnati (11/1), posted five tackles, one tackle for loss and a forced fumble. In the fourth quarter, he was credited with a forced fumble against running back Chase Brown. The ball was recovered by the Titans, leading to a touchdown on the ensuing possession. He added five quarterback pressures, the most by any Titans defensive back in a game since the beginning of the 2016 campaign (NGS quarterback pressures).
➢ Against Jacksonville (11/15), tied for third on the team with seven tackles.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 17th Year/6th with Titans, Tennessee

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 17th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2025, Cox was voted a team captain for the third consecutive season and handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fifth consecutive season. With 85 consecutive games played in his first five seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2025 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 13th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

Cox also appeared in his 250th career game (regular season) in the 2025 season finale, becoming the 64th all-time NFL player to do so. He ranked ninth among all active NFL players, and his total also gave him the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

Cox worked with new battery mates in 2025 in punter Johnny Hekker and kicker Joey Slye. Hekker averaged 46.8 gross yards per punt to tie for 11th place in franchise history and 40.3 net yards per punt, which tied for ninth place in team annals. Slye delivered on 28 of 35 field goals, including four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards). Also in 2025, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the third consecutive year.

In 2024, Cox's consistency helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt.

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He garnered more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

MOST GAMES BY ACTIVE NFL PLAYERS

The Titans have two players in the NFL's top 10 list for most career games by active players. Punter Thomas Morstead ranks third, and long snapper Morgan Cox ranks sixth on the list. Morstead is first among punters, while Cox is third among all long snappers.

Most career games by active NFL players:

	Player	Pos	Current Team	Career Games
1.	Calais Campbell	DE	Baltimore Ravens	289
2.	J.J. Jansen	LS	Carolina Panthers	287
3.	Thomas Morstead	P	Tennessee Titans	275

#13 • P THOMAS MORSTEAD

6-4, 225, 18th Year/1st with Titans, Southern Methodist

Punter Thomas Morstead is in his 18th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was added to the Titans practice squad on Oct. 28 and promoted to the 53-man roster on Nov. 14.

Prior to joining the Titans in 2026, he spent time on the Indianapolis Colts practice squad.

Morstead entered the NFL in 2009 as a fifth-round draft pick by the New Orleans Saints out of Southern Methodist. He spent 12 seasons in New Orleans (2009-20), where he became the franchise's all-time leader in punts (692), gross punting average (46.5) and net punting average (41.6).

After leaving the Saints, he spent time with the New York Jets (2021, 2023-24), Atlanta Falcons (2021), Miami Dolphins (2022) and San Francisco 49ers (2025).

In 2025, he saw action in all 17 games for the 49ers. He punted 44 times for a 43.6-yard average with 22 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. Appeared in both postseason contests and tallied four punts with two placed inside the 20-yard line.

During his time with the Saints, Morstead was named to the Pro Bowl and earned second-team All-Pro honors in 2012. In 2009, he helped the Saints cap the season with a win in Super Bowl XLIV over the Indianapolis Colts.

At Southern Methodist, he handled both punting and placekicking duties. As a punter, he averaged 43.4 yards on 166 career attempts, including 59 downed inside the 20. He also finished his career ranked fifth in SMU history with 217 points, including school-record streak of 78-straight extra points.

He is a native of Houston, Texas.

2026 Notes:

- At Cincinnati (11/1), averaged 44.7 yards on three punts (134 total yards) with a long punt of 48 yards in his Titans debut.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), averaged 46.0 yards (41.0 net yards) on two punts, placing one at the Jacksonville 17-yard line in the second quarter.
- At Dallas (11/22), averaged 50.0 yards on two punts (43.5 net average) with one punt placed inside the 20.

#6 • K JOEY SLYE

5-11, 228, 8th Year/2nd with Titans, Virginia Tech

Kicker Joey Slye is in his eighth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 24, 2025.

During the 2025 season, Slye made 28 field goals on 35 attempts and added 26 extra points on 27 attempts for a total of 110 points. It was the fourth time in his career that he went over the 100-point mark. His totals included a team-record nine field goals of at least 50 yards, breaking Stephen Gostkowski's record of seven such field goals in 2020. In only one season, Slye booted four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards).

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Slye totaled six seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2019-20), Houston Texans (2022), San Francisco 49ers (2022), Washington Commanders (2022-23) and New England Patriots (2024). The Virginia Tech product has also spent time with the N.Y. Giants and Jacksonville Jaguars.

In 2024, Slye played in all 17 games for the Patriots and connected on 26 of 33 field goal attempts and 25 of 26 extra point attempts for a total of 103 points. At San Francisco on Sept. 29, 2024, he set a Patriots record and established his career long with a 63-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter. It tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NFL history.

In his final season in Washington (2023), Slye saw action in all 17 games and handled all kickoffs, field goals and extra points for the Commanders. He connected on 19 of 24 field goals and 32 of 35 extra points for 89 points. Also had 64 touchbacks on 69 kickoffs.

The North Stafford, Va., native attended Virginia Tech (2014-17), where he played four seasons and made 78 of 108 field goal attempts (72.2 percent) and 169 of 172 extra point attempts (98.3 percent).

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), connected on a 42-yard field goal in the first quarter to give Tennessee its first points of the contest.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), made a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half and added a 33-yarder in the fourth quarter. He was also good on both extra point attempts.
- At Baltimore (10/4), made a 33-yard field goal and his only extra point attempt.
- Against Houston (10/11), made a 30-yard field goal to conclude the opening drive of the game.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), made all four field goal attempts and both extra point attempts. He connected on field goals from 29, 56, 49 and 44 yards, logging his ninth career game with at least four field goals. His 56-yard field goal in the third quarter tied for the fifth-longest field goal in franchise history and tied for Slye's seventh-longest career field goal.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), made a 29-yard field goal in the fourth quarter and also made all three of his extra point attempts. After punter Tommy Townsend was injured in the first half, Slye notched his first career punt in the third quarter for 42 yards with no return.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), connected on field goals of 46 yards and 29 yards in the first quarter and also made both of his extra point attempts.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), connected on all three field goals and both extra point attempts. He made a 53-yard field goal in the first quarter and added field goals from 54 and 50 yards in the third stanza. It was his first career game with at least three field goals of 50-plus yards and his sixth career game with at least two field goals of 50-plus yards. His three field goals of 50-plus yards tied the franchise's single-game record, previously accomplished by Stephen Gostkowski (Sept. 27, 2020 at Minnesota) and Nick Folk (Sept. 30, 2024 at Miami; Nov. 24, 2024 at Houston). Slye became the first NFL kicker in 2026 with three field goals of 50-plus yards in a game. Additionally, he recorded his first career forced fumble, jarring the ball loose from Jaguars kickoff returner Josh Cameron in the third quarter (recovered by the Jaguars). He became the first kicker to force a fumble since Stephen Hauschka did so in 2017 as a member of the Buffalo Bills. Slye also tied his career high and tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles.
- At Dallas (11/22), made all three of his field goal attempts, connecting on distances of 38, 48 and 28 yards. He also made all three extra points. The performance gave Slye an active streak of 15 consecutive made field goals. He logged his second consecutive performance with three field goals and his 28th career game with at least three field goals.

FIELD GOALS OF 50+ YARDS

In 2025, Joey Slye kicked a career-high and team-record nine field goals of at least 50 yards, breaking Stephen Gostkowski's record of seven such field goals in 2020. In only one season, Slye booted four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards).

Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to service level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. If less than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" or "G" lot. If more than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the elevator down to Level 1. Proceed through the lower concourse and exit through the security checkpoint at the loading dock.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING, MEDIA WILL CALL AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.

Jim Wyatt: Titans Unveil New Uniforms, Logo, to Represent the Next Chapter of Franchise History

On March 12, 2026, the Tennessee Titans revealed new logos and uniforms, marking an exciting moment for the organization that honors the team's deep roots and celebrates its home in Nashville and the state of Tennessee.

More than just a new look, the uniform and logo embody the spirit of the organization – its rich history dating back to 1960, heritage, and home. The design was inspired by the voices and passion of Titans fans, players, alumni, and neighbors.

"We are incredibly proud to unveil this new look for the Tennessee Titans," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "Our uniforms and logo represent the strength of our history, the passion of our fans, and the bold future we're building together. Today is about honoring over 65 years of our organization while confidently stepping into the next chapter, and I couldn't be more excited for our players, our city, and our fans to wear this identity with pride."

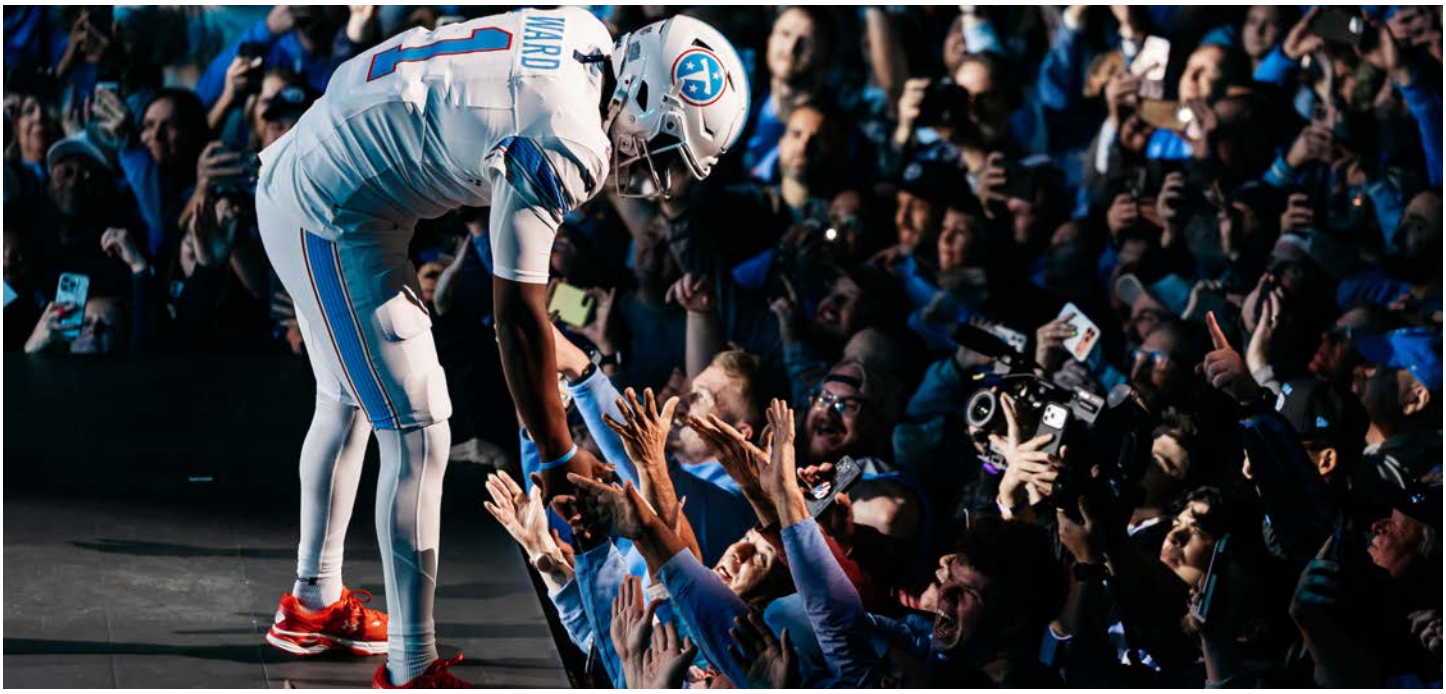
The team's new primary logo, The Shield, remains true to the Titans identity, featuring strong colors of Titans blue, white, and red, and the team's familiar tri-stars. A secondary mark, The Football, gives a cultural nod to city and state and offers fans a fresh way to show their Titans pride. The letters "T" and "N" are blended in a vertical arrangement commemorating both the state's postal abbreviation and the city of Nashville, TN. An array of other marks, including a handcrafted script wordmark, also adorn the team's new logo slick.

The team uniform features some of the organization's most iconic aspects of its heritage and brings them into its present and future.

- At home in Nashville, the Titans primary jerseys will don the distinctive Titans blue, with "TITANS" emblazoned across the chest. The chest font draws inspiration from traditional woodblock printmaking – a tribute to the city's creative spirit – while the numbers echo classic collegiate design.
- On the road, white jerseys will carry the "TENNESSEE" name, ensuring the team represents the state everywhere they play.
- The Tennessee Tri-Star can be found in navy in the tab at the back of the uniform and on the side panel underneath the arm.
- Inside every jersey, a simple "WE" tag is stitched, a rallying cry for the team that emphasizes a "we over me" mentality.
- The iconic stripe of the team's past was infused with Nashville's deep roots in music and is now the 6-String Stripe, represented on the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

Jerseys and new team merchandise is now available online at shop.tennesseetitans.com and at the Titans Team Store in Nissan Stadium. More gear will be arriving later this spring and summer. For more information on events and merchandise, visit tennesseetitans.com/brand.

"From the beginning, we approached this process with tremendous care and pride, knowing how much the Titans identity means to our fans and to the state of Tennessee," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "Every element of these uniforms was thoughtfully considered — from the Titans blue and Tri-Star to the new 6-String Stripe that celebrates Nashville's deep musical roots. We wanted to honor the history that defines this franchise while creating something that reflects who we are today and where we're going. The result is a uniform that represents our team, our city, and our state with authenticity and pride."



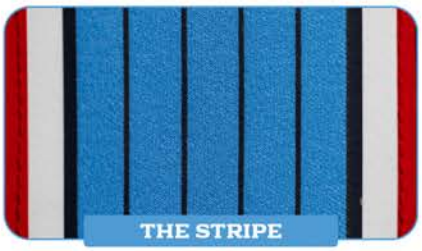
TITANS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND UNIFORMS

THE HELMET

Our primary logo, "The Shield" adorns the side of the helmet, while the 6-String Stripe runs down the center. The helmet's clean, white shell is paired with an all-white face mask.

THE CHEST PLATES

The Titans primary wordmark, stitched prominently across the center of the chest, announces our name in a bold, serif font inspired by Tennessee woodblock type and classic athletics. Rendered in a sans-serif typeface, our away jersey proudly represents our home state everywhere we play.



THE STRIPE

The "6-String Stripe" infuses the iconic stripe from our past with Nashville's deep roots in music. This stripe is featured prominently along the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

THE NAMEPLATE

The nameplate uses a roster font that is an extension of the woodblock-inspired wordmark.

THE NUMBERS

Inspired by collegiate-style block numbers, our classic jersey numbers stand out in white on our primary home jersey and in Titans blue while we're away, both accented with red outlines.

THE ACCENTS

Navy continues in the 6-String Stripe, the collar tab, the Tri-Star vents at the side panels, the Nike Swoosh, and the 3D helmet bumpers.

THE TAB

The collar tab features the Tennessee Tri-Star, proudly honoring the three Grand Divisions of our home state. Inside the collar tab is the word, "WE," representing the team's "We Over Me" mentality.
