GAME NOTES

San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears Sunday, December 23, 2018

Milk & Cookies For Saint Nick

- QB Nick Mullens completed 22 of 38 atts. for 241 yds. today. With 241 passing yds., he has become the first 49ers quarterback to register 220-or-more passing yds. in seven-consecutive games since QB Jeff Garcia accomplished the feat in Weeks 5-11 of the 2000 season.
- Mullens has now thrown for 1,995 yds. in his first 7 career games, the 3rd-most in the NFL since 1970.

Most Passing Yards In First 7 Career Games, Since 1970
Rank	Name	Atts.	Comps.	Yds.	TDs	INTs	QB Rating

4.	DL DeForest Buckner	2018	12.0
5.	DE Bryant Young	2000	9.5

- Buckner also recovered a Bears fumble, marking the 3rd FR of his career and the first since 11/13/16 at Arz.

Here Comes Santa Cash

- DL Cassius Marsh brought down Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky twice on the day, increasing his single-season career high to 5.5 sacks.
- Marsh now has two career games with 2.0-or-more sacks [2.5 sacks vs. Oak. (11/1/18)].

All I Want For Christmas Is The Ball

- Late in the 4th qtr. DB Tarvarius Moore registered his first career FF, punching the ball out from Bears WR Allen Robinson II. The loose ball was picked up by DB Greg Mabin, which was his first career FR.

Gould, Frankincense & Myrrh

- K Robbie Gould connected on all 3 FGAs on the day. He has now connected on 22 consecutive FGAs, which is the 3rd-longest streak in franchise history.

Head Coach Kyle Shanahan
Press Conference – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

Opening comments:

“Alright, with the injuries [TE Garrett] Celek had a concussion and he was out the second quarter, I think. [WR Dante] Pettis, knee, out. [RB Matt] Breida, the ankle went out. Didn’t return. [CB] K’Waun [Williams], knee, didn’t return and [WR Marquise] Goodwin had an Achilles there at the end.”

Is there any indication with Dante how serious that knee injury is?

“Yeah, I was told they believe MCL. They didn’t say ACL, so that was good news so far.”

Looking at that last play, what do you make of it? Did you want Nick to tuck it there?

“From where I was, it looked like he could get. I know Nick, he told me at the end that he probably thought he could of. He played a helluva game, so it’s unfortunate it came down to that fourth down. I wish we would have stayed on the field.”

Do you chalk that up to inexperience?

“No, I mean, we’ve got guys who are aggressive. You make a lot of plays being aggressive, sometimes that doesn’t always work. It looked like he took an aggressive play. I don’t know what he saw on it. I know it (the pass) went out of bounds and sailed, so you would obviously say definitely run it. But, he made a number of aggressive plays in that game and some worked out and some didn’t.”

You said Goodwin had an Achilles?

“Yes.”

Is it serious?

“I don’t believe so. Yeah, I don’t believe so.”

On the previous drive, on the interception, it looked like the pass was a little in front. It looked like Marquise was anticipating a hit. What did you see?

“Pretty much like that. You’re looking at Kittle, the backer was on him. Then you go right next to ‘Quise is number two. He got rerouted off the line. Slowed him down a hair. Had him a little bit behind the play, but he definitely went by the MIKE linebacker, the ball was just a hair in front of him. Definitely can make it an easier catch, and ‘Quise could make a tough catch there too. It was an unfortunate turnover.”

How do you look at this overall? Do you look at it like you went toe-to-toe with a playoff team or do you look at it, can you not think like that with a loss?

“That’s a real good team. I was happy and proud with how hard our guys fought in all three phases. They are a playoff team definitely, but every week in the NFL teams are hard to beat. So, I don’t really look at it that way. I was really hoping we could finish this year with a winning record at home. I think that would have been really good for the fans and just everyone out here. We ended up finishing 4-4 at home, so that was the real disappointing thing for us today.”

You were able to get some takeaways today and often times they were going after the ball after plays get stripped. Is that finally coming through?

“It was huge. It looked like it today. I feel like we’ve been going for the ball all year. It looked like we were getting better at it today. I know we got our hands on two. The ball was bouncing around a lot. A number of ones came but they were down on. I think that gave us a chance to win this game. (I thought) if we were close to winning the turnover battle, and I think if we would have, we would have had an even had a much better chance to win. Our last turnover in the redzone was tough to recover from.”

That and the tipped balls were mostly a result of because the throws were so quick?

“No, a couple of them were, but it’s because they have a very good front. They have very good edge rushers. Probably the best in the league. Probably the best inside rushers too in the league. There’s a lot of push regardless. You can see that on film every week. You can see it today and I think they got us on our first two third downs and that was just tough.”

What was your view of the late hit on Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky and then the fallout from all that?

“I saw the holding when they left. Didn’t see the late hit until I saw it on the screen. Definitely looked like a good call. But, then I didn’t see any of the melee after it.”

Did they give you an explanation on what triggered CB Richard Sherman getting thrown out?

“No, they just told me the players that were ejected and then the one player they told us with us, Sherm. So, I go, ‘Did he throw a punch?’ and the ref who told me wasn’t on that side. He told me he wasn’t sure. If you get ejected, it’s probably because you threw a punch. So, I assume so.”

You shared a handshake with Sherman coming off the field. Can you just say what that conversation was like?

“They told me first, so I just told him the news before. I just told him I appreciated how he battled today and he’s just going to go watch this fourth quarter in the locker room. So hopefully we can finish the right way for him.”

What does it do for a young secondary having Sherm out there, not just playing well as he has, but being kind of in the middle of the melee and leading by example and a bunch of different ways I guess?

“I don’t know what happened over there. Sherm was very clear to me he was trying to get his brother’s back and I love for guys to do that as much as they can. It’s definitely better when they do as much as they can and they don’t get ejected. But, they had two get ejected and we had one, so that was better. I respect the heck out of Sherm and I didn’t really see what happened.”

Your best chance at a touchdown was probably the incompleto to Kittle in the endzone and I’m wondering if you saw it well enough to--?

“Yes, I did. They were early. I thought they were too on the one to [WR Kendrick] Bourne down the sideline about four plays before that.”

You mean the flag that they picked up?

“Yep. We converted that third down on the next play, so I got over it faster.”

They took the ball and held it 7-and-a-half minutes and drove right down the field, 10, 9, passes for Trubisky. Just couldn’t stop them?

“From what I saw, I’d have to see more. Their completion percentage was high. They don’t throw many risky passes, it’s a lot of bubbles and just quick check downs underneath. When people aren’t there they are usually scrambling, or getting sacks. That happens a lot. I was very happy with our defense today. They did a good job keeping those guys out of the end zone. The one big drive that they had the touchdown on, there were a couple of penalties that we need to get better at, which I think gave them some big plays. But, I was happy with our defense today.”

I know you're not concerned necessarily with the run-pass distribution, but passing the ball 38 times, you're never down by more than one score. Was that just a function of Breida's injury and the fact that the run game wasn't as effective?

"It was more a function of what we're going against. You would love to just run it every play, especially verse that pass rush and everything, but the only thing that they do better than stopping the pass is stopping the run. It's tough. You try to balance it out. Eventually you get a gut in what they are doing schematically, some of the fronts that they are doing. Definitely thought throwing the ball there, when we decided, I'm sure you could see, gave us the best chance to win the game."

Why do you think the defense has been playing so much better in recent weeks?

"I think we've had a lot more continuity the last month and guys have stayed healthier. We've been a little bit more consistent with the guys who have been out there. We've been playing with the same two inside linebackers, the same safeties, for the most part, the corners. I know we've had some change here with [CB] Akhello [Witherspoon] going out. [DB Tarvarius Moore] T-Moore got some good opportunities. They've played well. They've gotten better as it's gone and it was nice to get some turnovers today."

You said you liked the way that Nick played. What specifically impressed you?

"Going against that defense is a very big challenge and it's as good of a pass rush as I've seen and that tied with the sound coverages and scheme. That's a challenge. He did a good job today, especially throwing it 38 times, protecting the ball fairly well. I know we'd like to have that one back, but definitely wasn't a bad decision. Just a hair off Quise's hand. He hung in there. Everyone misses a couple, but he also made a couple that weren't there. A couple off schedule plays that were very impressive. I thought Nick, under the circumstances, played very well."

How do you think T Mike McGlinchey did keeping up with Bears LB Khalil Mack?

"Did a good job. Challenge, but did a good job."

49ers QB Nick Mullens
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

Can you just take us through the last play, what you saw and what are you going through?

"Yeah, it was fourth-and-four. I mean, I've just got to handle the situation better. I should have ran. I didn't run. In the heat of battle, a lot of things are happening fast, split-second decisions. Saw [WR Marquise Goodwin] 'Quise down the field. Tried to give him a chance, instead of making the simple play. I didn't make the simple play."

You said it was fourth-and-four. You should have known that before the snap. Did you lose track of the--?

"No, no. I definitely knew it was fourth down. But, in the heat of the battle, you're just trying to make the big play. It wasn't a smart decision."

Nick, when you say that, at what point after did you realize 'I should've just taken the first down?'

"The second I threw it. If you look at the film or whatever, I mean I stood there for 30 seconds just understanding what I've just did, and how big of a mistake it was."

What exactly stopped you from running? Were you just trying to make the big play?

"Yeah, just trying to make a play at that point. You see Marquise down the field, I just wanted to give him a chance for a big play."

How long do these linger with you, when you have a play like this? I can't imagine it's happened very often.

"Yeah, no. I think the biggest thing is you know that you had opportunities to win the game. You had opportunities to step up, make the big play and we didn't do that today. I think that's a thing that hurts worse in these types of losses, is there were things there. There were opportunities there. We didn't take advantage of those opportunities. We feel like we definitely could have."

One of those opportunities, the interception there in the red zone. What did you see there?

"We had an out route, a shallow route. I thought 'Quise outran the backer. I just left it too far out in front of him. Just an execution error that can't happen at a crucial point in the game."

You seemed really animated and upset on the sideline there. Were you upset with the throw that you made? What was the frustration?

"Yeah, yeah. I feel like it's just a stupid turnover. It's not 'Quise's fault. I didn't feel like it was my fault. The way the ball tipped, it went into the guy's hands. It's a frustrating turnover. It's definitely a preventable one. Just can't let those things happen. We're moving the ball, got a lot of momentum. Really, just going to look to take the lead in the late fourth quarter. Moments of truth, you want to execute. You want to go out there, you feel like there's a certain time to take control of the game. Just one inaccurate throw and it changes the course of the game."

When you talked Wednesday, you talked and said you were pretty excited about the game plan and the plan of attack against this defense. What was it that you guys had planned that had you so excited?

"I think just the opportunities that we had. We knew they were a good defense. But, I feel like if we just stayed balanced, went out and executed and did our jobs, we felt like we had a great chance in this ball game. It ended up being the exact type of game we thought. We knew it was going to be a dogfight. We knew it was going to be tough. But, we knew we'd also have opportunities. So, it was exactly what we wanted. We just didn't take advantage and finish."

You moved the ball at times. But, we didn't see the big plays from the offense that we had seen the previous couple weeks. What does that defense do to limit big plays?

"Yeah, I mean that's why they're so good. They do, they limit big plays. They have great corners. They have a great front seven. Their safeties are pretty good, too. They have very talented players and a great scheme. The way they were switching up personnel and things like that was another challenge. The game within the game, the guys they have on the field, what plays are against good against those personnel's. They were playing like a blanket out there, I guess you could say. We knew we weren't going to get too many home-run balls I guess you could say. They were keeping everything in front. You have to be very disciplined as an offense when you play a defense like that. I thought at times we were, and at times we weren't. Just came up short."

You obviously weren't on the field, but what goes through your mind when you see CB Richard Sherman run into the fracas and have his teammates back like that?

"Yeah, it's awesome. You definitely don't want penalties. But, the fact that he's fighting for our team, standing up, that's what we take pride in. We know the brotherhood we have here. We know the bond that we have, no matter who's out on the field. That's why I'm almost most proud of the team this year. Look at the things we've gone through. We have a great group of guys. It's a pretty darn good football team we just played and look how we fought. There's no moral victories. But, we know the type of people that we have in the room. That's what matters."

The final play of the game when you make the wrong decision in that situation, is that the kind of play that you replay in your mind over and over again, or do you let it go and move on?

“No, I’ve been replaying it this whole time we’ve been talking. Like, since I walked off the field. I know exactly what I did. I know exactly what I should’ve done. I know exactly how that game could’ve ended up if we would’ve just made the plays we were supposed to make.”

What did head coach Kyle Shanahan say to you after that? Did he give you words of advice?

“Not much yet. We’ll go back and watch the tape. I’ll understand, like I already do, that it was a mistake. Just got to learn from it and handle the situation better.”

You said coming in you wanted to be balanced. You took 38 pass attempts. Is that what you were expecting?

“Every game has a different flow. I don’t have a number pre-game of what I expect to throw. It’s kind of how the game shook up.”

49ers WR Kendrick Bourne
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

You came up short in today’s game. You made a couple of great catches. How do you summarize how this offense did while losing San Francisco 49ers RB Matt Breida and San Francisco 49ers WR Dante Pettis?

“Overall I thought we played hard. We played with a lot of effort. I felt we left plays out there. I felt there were plays I could have executed better. Overall, I thought we played good, except the plays we needed to make, we didn’t make. We have to get that resolved, when you have those results.”

How would you describe how the defense played today? They gave you that final turnover to at least give you guys a chance.

“They just played hard. You see all the balls coming out. We like to see that kind of stuff. Eventually it happened on the last play when we needed it to happen. Just seeing the ball coming out just motivates the guys to keep going after it. [San Francisco 49ers DB Tarvarius Moore] T. Mo, Kudos to him for keep fighting and chasing [Chicago Bears WR Allen Robinson II] the dude down. The dude could have easily gone down. T. Mo, he didn’t give up. He practices like that. For him to get the ball out, it made our defense satisfied for all those other turnover chances we didn’t get. We got two fumbles though. That was cool.”

The record says one thing about this team but it feels like you guys have gotten better and become more confident as the season has gone on. What has contributed to that?

“Just practice. Everything has been going good in practice. We have been stacking these practices up. Two back-to-back wins. That has been boosting us a little bit. I wish we go this one today. Just everybody believing still. We know who we are going to be in a few years, or what we can get to. It is just about believing. Like you said, the record doesn’t really matter. Our jobs are on the line. If you are coming out here to get stuff done, make plays and help this team, then we don’t really need you.”

49ers DL DeForest Buckner
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

Do you feel that there is a momentum about where this team is?

“Yes with the confidence going into these games for everybody. I am just proud of all of these guys. The fight that they have from start to finish, it doesn’t matter, it’s said we don’t have anything to fight for, but we play for each other. It doesn’t matter what the record is, everyone goes out there and gives it their all.”

The Chicago Bears are obviously a playoff team and a good playoff team. Do you feel that you went toe-to-toe with them?

“Yes, for sure. It is unfortunate on how it ended up where we had a shot. We didn’t finish the way we wanted to, but we definitely gave them a run for their money.”

Does this tell you a little about what might happen next season, when you have everybody back?

“Yes. It is definitely exciting seeing the guys fight like this towards the end of the season and going into next year for sure. We are going to have a lot of momentum.”

49ers S Marcell Harris
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

Were you trying to hold up from sliding into Chicago Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky?

“Definitely. I wasn’t going out for him. I knew what comes with penalties, and I wasn’t trying to give my team a big penalty in that moment of the game. Obviously you can see what happened. I felt like I laid up on him.”

Something happened today that hasn’t happened since October 28th with you getting a turnover. Talk about this defense evolving and going after the rock.

“That’s what we do. All gas and no brakes. Sometimes the ball is not in our favor, but today one of the biggest things was getting turnovers. We went for the ball, ripping it out and trying to get picks. We had a lot of balls that were actually on the ground and a lot of balls that were on our hands that we could have changed the game on, but obviously we came out and did a great job as a defense.”

How do you think you guys responded despite the fact that all the talk was about the Chicago Bears defense?

“When you look at it, I don’t see a drop-off from our defense to theirs. We have great players in our room and great players in our organization on our defensive side and offensive side. The things that we did today with the defensive line to the linebackers to the DB’s, I think we played a great game.”

49ers TE George Kittle
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

Firstly, going up against this defense, did they do anything different on you that you hadn’t seen before?

“They did a really good job of using two edge guys to try to jam me every single route. If I wasn’t standing up, or if I was, they still tried to get hands on, which definitely messed with the timing of the play. Kind of gets in the way. They just did a really good job of not letting me get off the ball clean. That just messes up plays.”

What did you see on that play in the back of the end zone, the would-be touchdown from QB Nick Mullens?

“Which one?”

It looked like you were tackled a little early.

“I got to make a play on the ball. Nick gave me a chance. The defender is right there, but it’s the NFL. You’re supposed to make plays.”

The high ball, was that above your hands?

“Yeah, I probably could’ve jumped a little bit higher. Just bad timing. But, another ball that I feel like I should’ve gone up and got, but didn’t.”

Right now, this team is building for next year. Do you like the momentum carrying over and things like that?

“Yes, I feel like this team, we’ve got a lot of good building blocks. We’ve got a lot of guys in the right places. You see a group of guys out there that, we don’t care that the Bears are a playoff team, that we’re 4-10 coming into the game. We’re going to do everything we can to win every single game we play in. You’ve got to love that, 12, 13-year vet in [T] Joe Staley out there, playing his butt off every single game. You’ve got rookies out there. You’ve got second-year guys. Everyone is just playing as hard as they possibly can. We’re missing a lot of guys, and there’s a lot of guys stepping up. You’ve just got to respect it.”

49ers DL Cassius Marsh
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

What did you see from San Francisco 49ers DL Solomon Thomas playing on the inside a little more?

“Solomon is great. He’s got a ton of potential. I think he’s taking strides forward every game. The kid can do a lot. I know it hasn’t shown on the stat sheet, but I believe in Solomon. I think he has a ton of upside. He was the third overall pick for a reason. I think he had a great game today.”

He had the two holding calls against him last game and that kind of stuff doesn’t show up on the stat sheet. How do you see him keeping his mind right because I’m sure stats are part of what motivates you.

“It’s tough. I went through some stuff like that when I was a rookie. I was playing on a defensive line that was stacked with great rushers. The numbers weren’t always there, but the plays were there. You just have to take everything with a grain of salt and try to make sure that every play that you’re out there you’re winning and getting better each game. I think that Solly has done that. We’ll watch the film today, but Solly is getting better and better. I think he’ll be a great player in this league one day.”

Is this one of those things where you have to keep your own stats in your head as opposed to what’s on paper?

“Paper stats mean something, but there are guys in the league right now who are great pass rushers that might not have the numbers, but they have a lot of hits, they have a lot of hurries, have caused havoc, are causing the quarterback to get rid of the ball and throw picks. All that stuff you don’t see on the stat sheet, and the media doesn’t recognize it most of the time. That’s just the way of the league sometimes. Sometimes the sacks come to you and sometimes they don’t.”

What do you attribute this defenses uptick the last few weeks to?

"I think communication. Some young guys are coming along and doing their job much better. Everybody's just trusting the man next to them. Everybody is just getting better. That's all it's about every season is just game-by-game trying to get better as a defense and trying to get better as a team. I would definitely attribute it to some of our young DBs coming in and stepping up. [San Francisco 49ers S] Marcell Harris, [San Francisco 49ers DB] D.J. Reed Jr. and all of those guys have been big time."

49ers DB Tarvarius Moore
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

Were you surprised that Chicago Bears WR Allen Robinson II didn't go down after he had crossed the first down?

"I was very surprised. So, I knew he didn't see me behind him, so I went and tried to secure the tackle and punch it out, and everything else was history and it worked out for us."

Is that something you guys have been emphasizing lately, getting more takeaways?

"Definitely, one of our six points of emphasis every week is to get the ball. Something we haven't done a lot this year. We are just progressing and training and trying to make it a culture of getting the ball out on defense."

How would you evaluate the defense's performance as a whole today? Do you feel you made more strides forward?

"I feel like we definitely made more strides. We got the ball a lot more today, which is something we have been practicing hard on. We had some busts that kind of cost us. Overall we had a good day. We could have definitely done a lot better."

What do you think has been the key for this defense clicking over the last couple of weeks?

"Just chemistry. Just coming together, creating a bond and getting closer with each other. I definitely think those are the things that have helped us out getting better in the defense."

49ers CB Richard Sherman
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

What did you see on the interception by CB K'Waun Williams that was called back on the penalty on LB Fred Warner?

"Honestly, we were all covering. So, I couldn't see. I saw K'Waun had good coverage. We covered them up pretty good. I didn't see where the hold happened because I was guarding my mine. So, I have to go see the film. But, it was unfortunate. We were playing really good football. That would've been a huge play in the game. Unfortunately, we didn't get it. We gave them a lot of plays on that drive. I think today, defensively, we played incredibly stout. We gave up a few plays here and there where they made plays, and you've got to give them credit. I think for the most part, we contained them. I don't think they ran the ball very well. I think we limited the explosives. We gave them a few on scramble drills. But, that's what [Chicago Bears QB Mitchell] Trubisky does. He gets around just like [Seattle Seahawks QB] Russell [Wilson] does. He gets to open spots and finds guys. But overall, I think we played on of our best games. We lost and they scored 14 points. We had a few turnovers, thank goodness. We were getting the ball, and we would've got it a few more times. But, I was proud of our effort."

Head coach Kyle Shanahan was just saying that he was impressed with what you guys did today. But, over the last few weeks as a defense, as you've come together, from your perspective, why do you think that is?

"I promise you, it's just guys playing sound. [S] Marcell Harris coming in there, when you don't know too much, then you just know enough to be lined up, get in your spots and do what you're coached to do. Sometimes, over time, you feel like, 'Hey man, I know where I'm supposed to be but I can help this guy. I can help this guy.' I think we've gotten to the point where guys are playing comfortable, they know their assignments and they're sticking to them. The D-Line is playing out of their mind. [DL] Cassius Marsh had two sacks today. [DL DeForest Buckner] DeFo had his 12th. They pressured him a lot more than that. I think guys are playing in spots where they're more comfortable. I think [DL Solomon Thomas] Solly's playing a spot where he's more comfortable and causing a lot more disruption. [DL] Arik Armstead is causing a lot of disruption. In the back end, guys are just stepping up. Marcell Harris deserves a ton of credit. I think he's going to be in the mix to be a starting player next year. I don't call the depth chart, but it appears to me that he's playing good football. These aren't like scrub teams. These are playoff teams. This team was 10-4 and we had a chance to win this ball game. We played Denver when they were in the playoff chase. We played Seattle, they're fighting for a playoff spot. These games, it wasn't like these guys were laying down. These guys are playing good football. So, I'm proud of them. K'Waun played one of his best games that I've ever seen him play. Unfortunately, he went down late. [DB] Tarvarius [Moore], obviously, played really well and gave up the catch at the end. But, made up for it by punching the ball out. Very heady play for a young kid. Fred has been all over the place the whole time, honestly, the whole season."

Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Denver Broncos

Can you talk about this team's fight and going toe-to-toe with the Chicago Bears?

"I am never happy about losing. I am happy about there is no quit in this locker room. It is very easy when you are not competing for a playoff spot, or anything, for guys in the locker room to be like just mail it in and look forward to the offseason. I think everybody feels what we are building here is going to be special. I think a lot of guys believe in what we are doing in the front office. We love coming into work every single day. We are really going to give our best effort and going down the stretch. I think we surprised the Seahawks that way last week, and I think they thought we were going to be whatever. I think that we did that same thing today. A lot of guys after the game came up to me and said, 'You guys made that hard for us.' Obviously, we wanted to come up with a couple more big plays and thought we were going to come away with a victory in the end. It was similar to last year's game, having the ball and having to get a score down, but that is kind of the way it goes."

What do you see from the young guys?

"There is a ton of guys that at the beginning of the year weren't expected to have a feature role on this football team. I think that it is awesome the development going forward for those guys with good game experience and also play at a high level. We knew that it was going to be this kind of game with the pass and run. They have superstars all over that defense. The way that our defense played was really amazing with the turnovers until the last drive of the game. We were running the ball pretty well. I think it is one of the developments where you get right out there and get into NFL football, and you don't have to sit back and watch."

What does that tell you about next year? Do you really think this is going to come together next season?

"I really do. I know that is easy to say right now because that is what our hope is. It is our hope until we produce on the football field. When I just look around this locker room, I see a lot of guys that are talented, and guys that got injured this year and the people that are coming back next year. Our whole offensive line will be coming back, hopefully. We have to see what we are going to do with [San Francisco 49ers OL Mike] Person but hopefully our line comes back and we have another year of development on the roster, so I am excited about the future."

What did you think about going up against Chicago Bears LB Khalil Mack?

"He is the real deal. We knew the challenge. He is super strong. He has a lot of moves. I was pretty happy with the way that I played today. It's a battle anytime you go up against a guy like that. It is not one of those things where you are like, he is not going to sniff the quarterback. He is not going to get pressure. That is the goal, obviously, but he is one of the best in the world at what he does. He is really good."

Chicago Bears Head Coach Matt Nagy
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

Opening comments:

"In regards to the game, I thought that any way you get a victory, you always take them. It was a great job by our guys. When you play on the road in this league, they're never easy. Our guys found a way to win. We always talk about whether it's being calloused or hitting some adversity throughout the game. Really in all three phases, we saw that today. In the end, we get a third down conversion, they make a good play, get a fumble and our defense steps up and finishes the game. That's who we've been all year long. I respect that with the players. The coaches did a great job of prepping guys all week and I give a lot of credit to Coach Shanahan and their staff. What they've done with their players is awesome. I think that we just have a lot of respect for them."

What are your first impressions of what QB Mitchell Trubisky did?

"I know he threw a lot of completions. Any time you throw a lot of completions in this game, you give yourself a chance to win because you stay ahead of the sticks and you don't get into third-and-long situations. He did that. I don't know his exact numbers but, in the game, it felt like he had a bunch of completions in a row. When you do that in this league, good things happen. He made some big time throws there at the end of the game, third-and-five and third-and-four or five to [Chicago Bears WR Allen Robinson II] A Rob. He's now taking that next step and I love to see it."

The second time in two games that your defense didn't allow a touchdown. What were your impressions of their performance?

"Well, I like that. Let's keep that going. It's a defense that, with [Chicago Bears DB] Eddie [Jackson] being out, the next guy steps up. I thought [DB Deon] Bush did a good job today. Everybody just rallies around each other. I appreciate that about who they are and how they do that. It's just nice to be able to let teams score field goals and not touchdowns. You always want that."

What stood out about the way you guys were able to defend TE George Kittle today?

"We did a good job of batting down balls. I think the number one thing that we had to do going into this game was to make sure that we wrapped up after any catches, yards after contact. Yards after catch were big. They've been good at that all year long. I think Kittle is number one in the league right now at any position in that, and our guys, for the most part, did a really good job of shutting that down."

On the play that led to the skirmish, what was your initial reaction on the hit itself?

“These guys are out there flying around 100 miles per hour. Mitch went down similar to the Vikings game. This one was a little bit different, but the guys are flying around. I really believe that none of it was intentional. Guys were just playing hard and guys want to defend each other. You always want to defend your quarterback and those guys are going to want to defend their teammates. It’s a bunch of big grown men going at it, so you just want to be able to let that shut down and then move on to the next play.”

What did you say to your guys that got ejected?

“What do I say to them? I have no idea what they did. I’ll have to see it to be able to talk to them about that. But, they know what they did and so we’ll sit down and watch it and make sure they understand why and get better from it.”

The guys said that they’re kind of keeping their heads down like little kids about to get in trouble around you right now. Is that necessary?

“No, not at all. They shouldn’t be that way, because they just got a win and they earned it. They fought hard for it. I look over, A Rob fumbles that ball and you go back and watch the tape and I saw it live. You have guys on offense that are going over there, he’s lying on the ground crushed and they’re picking him up. That’s just who we are and that speaks to what this team is all about. Then the defense comes out and does what they’re supposed to do and what they do. So, I love that about our guys.”

These games are so meaningful to playoff seedings. Next week, the Vikings have to win to get in and you could get a first-round bye. Is that going to help when the playoffs get here? Does it mean a lot in the end?

“Absolutely. You understand that when you’re in the position that we’re in right now, anything can happen to these other teams. So, you can’t just say, ‘This team’s going to win,’ or ‘This team’s going to lose.’ Anything can happen. So, what you can control is winning your game as much as possible. If you don’t do that and then the other team has a chance to lose and they lose and you didn’t go about it the right way, now you just let that slip. So, we need to go about this thing next week just like we have every other game. If you don’t do that, it changes how you approach your week mentally. How you approach it pregame. So, that’s not what we’re going to do.”

Giving players tomorrow off just to give them a little bit of a rest?

“They earned that. We’re at a point right now where, I think as a staff, coming up into this next couple of days is just important with the holidays to get some family time and to give your body and mind a little bit of rest, which is good. I believe in that. Then, come back ready to go and we’ll get it back up on Wednesday with practice. We might stay a little longer, not much. But, I just thought that it’s a little bit of a reward for them and they earned it.”

Did Kansas City Chiefs head coach Andy Reid ever rest guys week 17? Is it nice, the fact that you’re staying for something still?

“Yeah and if we were in a position where you can’t move at all seed-wise and you were just locked in, then I think that’s something that you have to discuss. But, we’re not in that position. So, we have to play to win and I kind of like that. I don’t mind that at all, and I think that our guys kind of like it. It just kind of keeps you going if you were fortunate enough to make it to the playoffs. It keeps you going in that rhythm.”

On Mitch’s first fumble, what was your coaching point there in terms of him staying out of that situation where he makes a hasty decision?

“For him, I think it was second-and-two when that happened and he pulled it and decided to go for the run. There’s some times in this offense where we have different options and choices. We put a lot on his plate. So, there’s going to be times, for all of the good decisions that he made today, that’s going to be the one that comes up that's not. But, for the most part, he shouldn't have thrown it, but that's okay. He learns from that. So, I have to be able to coach him and tell him the 'why' part. He's the first one to know that when he comes to the sideline. That's a part of some of the RPO stuff that we do. Just like I told you guys with some of the trick plays that we talk about, there's going to be some times where if you're going to go ahead and say, 'We're either going to run it or throw within the same play,' there's going to be some times where you don't make 100% great decisions. But, we have to be able to accept that. Then when he makes great decisions – and he made a bunch of those today in the same exact play – those don't get talked about. It's only the ones when that happens. I understand that, he understands that. But, let's go back, watch tape, see why and fix it."

As far as options within plays, those two late third down conversions to Allen, did he have options there to maybe run it? Just take us through that.

"Let's put it this way, he did everything that we asked 100% and even better in those situations."

If Allen doesn't fumble though, you guys would have run 7:45 off of the clock. What is your impression of that finishing drive?

"I think that's awesome. Again, as an offense in the first half, it was a little choppy. We've had those halves before. The beauty of our guys, our players on offense, is that they're resilient in the way that they stay positive. They get into halftime, they figure out the 'why' part. Then, we go out and we go right down the field, whether it's running or throwing, and we score a touchdown. To end the game, when you're in a four-minute mode, it's so hard to get first downs. A lot of times, it's about the players and not so much the plays. I thought that our guys did that today, collectively. It wasn't just one person. Of course, I can do a better job that last play, the fumble. So, there's a timeout and there's a huddle. I need to be able to make sure that I tell all of the players in there that once you get the first down, get down. So, that's totally me in that situation with A Rob."

You've talked about the "next play mentality" with Mitch. Second quarter, he throws the end zone pick that gets wiped out and comes back two plays later and throws a touchdown pass. How important is that for his development?

"That's great growth. That's a good job by bringing that point up, the fact that he's doing that. It's neat to be able to see him go from a play, where that happens, where there is an interception or a fumble or there's a poor read that no one sees, but then he comes back and throws a strike. That's a part of who he's going to be. That's a part of who he's going to be in this offense. He's just going to continue to use that and, in the end, hopefully years down the road, it just lessens in regard to the negative stuff."

Were you surprised by how much fight the 49ers had today and how physical that game was?

"No, not at all. I know who they are. I know their coaches. I know how they teach. I think that they are all fighters. They've had some unfortunate luck with injuries this year and that's tough. That's hard. But, that's who Kyle is, he doesn't care who he has. Talk about the next man up mentality, that's what they are, so they gave us a battle and it was not easy at all."

What do you respect the most about this group's ability to grind out games like this?

"In the fact that it's been a bunch of different ways this year with how we've done it. Whether we've had a nice little lead and teams have come back. Whether we've been down and we've had to come back. Whether it's been back and forth high scoring, whether it's been low scoring and it's field position. I only think that that's going to help us when we get into the playoffs, being in a bunch of different situations. You use those. I go back to Green Bay in Week One when we had that situation in the third and fourth quarter, especially in the fourth in all three phases. So, they used that last week, Green Bay, to help them. That's what I love about sports and life and where we're at right now as a team. We have a bunch of leaders that really go out and let their play lead the whole team."

Chicago Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

How did you guys find a rhythm in the second half to start building completions and getting things going?

“That’s exactly it. It was just finding rhythm in the offense, taking what the defense was giving us. It came down to we had to dink and dunk a little bit just to move the ball down the field. They’re bailing out, playing zones. They wanted to take away the deep ball and the explosive plays and they did a good job of that. So, we knew they were a tough defense and we just had to spread them out, dink and dunk. Take what they gave us. Create a rhythm first and second down, stay out of third down and get the run game going a little bit. So, we did a good job adjusting. We just like to come out faster, especially on the road. We want to come out fast and then finish them off. So, I think we did some good things and made some good adjustments.”

That final drive before WR Allen Robinson II fumbled, you guys were about to milk 7:45 off of the clock. What was your takeaway just from putting the hammer down on that last drive?

“We definitely want to stay on the field and end the game on offense and take that pressure off of our defense at the end. But they did a great job just finishing it off for us. Then we came down with a couple of knees to end it but just completion mentality. Each play within itself and know what you have to get and take care of the football. So, we did a good job maneuvering a couple of first downs there and we just did what we had to do. I thought the O-Line did a great job creating holes for the run game and giving me time to make decisions back there. When they were zoning us off, it was just finding the holes and when they manned us a couple of times at the end, just beating their matchups. We did what we had to do and it was good to milk that time, but we want to finish it.”

Your teammates were pretty vocal about calling the late hit ‘dirty football.’ They didn’t like it. I can’t imagine it surprised you at all then that they had your back like that?

“No, it didn’t surprise me. I saw exactly what I knew, my teammates had my back all the way, which was awesome to see. They have to have my back and be smart as a team because we can’t afford to lose two guys like that. But, we’re brothers out there. We’re a family and we’re going to protect one another. It was nice to see they had my back and I hope they know I always have theirs, as well. So, we just have to play smart football and go from there. But, it was cool to see those guys jump in. We just have to be smart about it because we need everyone.”

On the extended play where they got the interception negated for the defensive hold, what were you thinking on that throw? What did you see?

“Yeah, really lucky it got negated. I was scrambling around, doing too much. I probably could have just run and gotten out of bounds, looking back on it. But the ball just didn’t come out the way I wanted it to. I wanted to go right over that guy. But, it was just lucky that it got negated. Sometimes that happens when you scramble around, you risk a hold on both sides of the ball. But, it didn’t go where I wanted it to go. I was trying to put it up over top of them and it just came out of my hand wrong. So, lucky it got taken away. It’s just one play, so you put that play behind you and go to the next one. We ended up scoring on that drive, which is huge for us. But, when I scramble like that, I just have to be smart with the football. If I’m scrambling around, two hands on the football, taking care of it and then when I throw it, make sure it’s us or nobody.”

You talked a couple of times about not wanting to make all world plays, not trying to do too much. Does a play like that help you reset mentally in a way?

“For sure. I think because I did it earlier that drive. I felt like I could do it again. But, it definitely brought me back to reality. Just stay within the offense. Do my job and sometimes I’m going to have to make plays like I did to [RB Taquan Mizzell Sr.] Smoke on the sidelines. Sometimes it just gets away from you, so you have to continue to play within this offense and that's all I have to do. So, I did hit the reset button a little bit and then we just went down and scored. You just have to play with that fine line of being smart and being risky. Making plays for the offense. I felt like the play earlier did jump start our offense a little bit, but then doing it again, you're just playing with that fine line. So, you just have to continue to be smart and take care of the ball."

Then three plays later, you threw the touchdown pass. How important is that "next play mentality?"

"Yeah, next play mentality, all the way. It was like, 'Take a deep breath, you've got new life. Now go finish it and be smart about it.' So, that's what I wanted to do. It was a great play call by coach. Great execution all around. When all 11 guys are playing as one, we're a tough offense to stop. But, we can't stop ourselves from turnovers, penalties, anything like that. We just need to stay within rhythm and the next play mentality all the way, absolutely."

On that touchdown pass, it looked like the ball was out before WR Anthony Miller came out?

"Absolutely. It's just the little sprint out, timing route. He's selling the fade and then comes back and stops on a dime which [Chicago Bears WR] Anthony [Miller] – he changes direction about as good as anybody. So, it was just tough for the DB to cover and he ran a heck of a route. I just put it in a spot where only he could catch it and I feel like that play takes pressure off of the O-Line, because we're rolling out. Moving the pocket is always good, especially when they have a really tough D-Line up front. They did a really good job all day protecting me, giving me time. Like I said, I just felt like it was everyone doing their job, execution, and put the ball in the spot. He made a great catch, great route, and that's how you score points."

How important is this win knowing that you guys have one more to go to help set up the playoffs?

"For sure. You never want to take a single game for granted. Even though we have the playoffs locked up already, we want to finish strong and that's our mindset. Inside the locker room, just continue to take every game and every opportunity to go out there and play together and take care of business. So, we have one more left. We just want to finish strong and we know it's hard to win on the road in the NFL. No matter who we're playing. We have a lot of respect for the team we played today. They did a great job but we just have to have that mindset. It doesn't matter where we're at, what week it is, when we're playing. When we step on the football field, the Bears are trying to win and we're going to play our tails off."

How did your trust in WR Allen Robinson II effect some of your decision making today, dealing with single coverage on most of the outside?

"Especially at the end, you're thinking playmakers not plays. When you have the match up you want and you have a guy like Allen on the outside, who you have that trust in, you just let them work a little bit and put the ball in a spot where only he can go grab it. So, he separates and makes great plays for this offense. I have a lot of trust in a lot of guys in this offense and that was just the matchup that we were liking, him on their DBs. We just have to continue to go to that and that trust is just going to help us as far as we go."

You've won games in a bunch of different ways. How do you draw confidence from that during a game like this today?

"It's all about overcoming adversity and next play mentality. You never know how the game is going to shake down. Anybody can beat anybody in the NFL on any given week. So, you really have to attack every play. You go out there not take anything for granted and just stay calm within each moment. The fans were awesome today on the road for us. They traveled really well, so it got really loud for them

[San Francisco], but coming on the road, it also gets loud. You have the silent count that factors in and all of that kind of stuff. So, you just try to take the crowd out of it and get your fans into it. But, you just can't let those momentum swings get out of hand. That's why starting faster and finishing drives and taking care of the football can really take the other team and the crowd out of it. You never know how every single game is going to shake down. I think the experiences we've been through have just made us a stronger, smarter team, and, more importantly, have united us as a family. So, the things we've been through and the experiences in each game, you take that and you carry it with you. Then you're just drawing on experience. When you get into that situation again, you're like, 'Okay, we've been here before, just stick to what we do and trust in each other. Everyone out here go do their jobs.' Then, nobody freaks out. Everyone is calm, cool. We go out there and do our jobs and we're just playing football."

The first half fumble, what did you see on that that caused you to throw it out there?

"Just one of those plays, trying to do too much. I got the read option and then it turned into a triple option with the ability to throw it. Best case scenario, I liked to have that guy in front of me and then also for me, the defense did a good job scraping. That's good technique by them. The D-End squeezes, which gives me a pull read, but then the backer scrapes and they do that at the end there. But, the second time, I was just able to make them miss. Just being smart with the football. So, I should have just pulled it and gotten it right away. Take what they give us. Good play by them, good call by them. Then we just have to have other plays off of that play to make the defense play. Sometimes they get you and you have to be smart with the football and that was one of those situations where I could have made a better situation after I pulled it."

The defense doesn't allow a touchdown again and is able to let your two touchdowns hold up. What have you come to expect from that group to compliment what you guys do offensively?

"They're incredible. They're going to show up every single game and that's the mentality that we want this whole team to have. It doesn't matter who we're playing, where we're at. You have to make the other team earn it every single snap. For us on offense, we have to do our part as well because we're a family and we want to take care of those guys, take a lot of pressure off of them and score a lot of points, so they don't have to play all world every single week. But, that's the standard that they hold themselves to. We just want to heighten that standard on offense as well. If you come to expect things and the standard is higher, then you have a different way of doing things and that's how you get that culture shift within the locker room. You just have higher expectations and it's not like, 'Oh, there's pressure on offense, there's pressure on defense.' We're just out here playing together. So, for offense, we want to create that rhythm, score more points. But, what we expect out of the defense is they're going to come ready to play every single week and we're going to have their backs. We just have to continue to find ways to win football games. But, it's awesome to see what they do every single week. We know if we take care of the football, put some points up, they're going to play amazing games like that and pitch no touchdown games."

How did the RPO game help you in the third quarter, get in that rhythm?

"We figured that we would have to dink and dunk a little bit, spread them out. They were playing more zone shell than we expected, than they have shown all year. That's fine, we just have to make that adjustment and make them tackle in space. If they're fitting those guys down in the box, then we get it out on the outside and hurt them with the RPO game. So, it's all about making quick decisions, being smart with the football and good ball placement to let those playmakers run in open space. So, I think it's something that helps us and is going to help keep defenses honest going forward if we just show everything that we have every single play."

How comfortable are you with Chicago Bears head coach Matt Nagy and the way you work together in those kinds of situations?

“Very comfortable. The more we can communicate throughout the game and just be on the same page, especially when we’re making adjustments. They showed something we didn’t expect, so we just came over to the sidelines, talked about what I like, what he likes and go from there. Make an adjustment and then roll. For me, it’s all about playing fast, getting the calls in, getting to the line of scrimmage and doing my job within this offense, and making sure I’m doing exactly what coach wants and expects.”

Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

Some of your thoughts about the win?

“It was a different game. We did a great job holding them out of the end zone, but we felt like we left some plays out there. We didn’t take the ball as much as we wanted to, but we were able to get one.”

As you guys were getting backed up, what’s the collective sense of your defense’s ability to make a play and stand up?

“Because we’ve been in this situation so many times and have come up big, it’s almost expected of us. Like when we had to go back on the field to help win it for our team. Everyone was poised and no one was shaking. We expected great things to come out of it and we’re glad we stood up for our team.”

What does that say about your defense to be able to do that at the most opportune times when you need something?

“It says a lot. It says we’re tough, resilient and that we don’t quit. These are real games, but they’re also practice reps. We know there’s going to be a time in the playoffs or later in the year when we need to go out there on defense, and it’s great that we’ve been there before and it’s not foreign to us.”

San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

This game didn’t seem like the prettiest at times?

“We got it done. That’s all that matters. I don’t care if it’s by one point or a half-point.”

To come out with a win, to still be alive for that second seed, what does this mean for you guys going into the last week?

“It’s big. We’re taking it one game at a time. Right now, we’re focusing on next week and after that, we’ll get to it.”

Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

It seemed like you were doing pretty good going up the middle.

“They were playing pretty far off. They weren’t loading the box. We had a lot of matchups that we liked, so we decided to run down the middle and give them a good push.”

When you can get in a rhythm like that, what’s that like for you as a ball carrier?

“It’s definitely great. I get a feeling of what the defense is going to be doing, and it just wears down and keeps their offense off the field.”

How did you see your touchdown run unfold?

"[The coaches] had been telling us that they were going to be hitting out a little bit wider, but they overflowed and I saw the cutback. Our line did a good job."

What did you learn about the guys today? Obviously, it wasn't the prettiest of wins and you guys seemed to come out a little flat.

"It definitely was a trap game. I'm definitely proud of us for fighting through and winning this game."

You're headed to the playoffs. How does that feel?

"It's a great feeling. The last time, it didn't go so well, but this time I'm looking forward to getting there and doing our thing."

It wasn't always pretty out there today, but you found a way to win. How were you able to do that?

"You have to make these ones count. Going on the road, we had to show up big. We just showed up on the road."

You guys could possibly go to the Super Bowl. How are you guys approaching the rest of the season?

"We're just preparing for another week and getting ready for Minnesota."

Bears WR Allen Robinson II
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

To start off the game, you had that big catch and an injury at the same time. What happened? Was there doubt that you would return?

"I just got a little banged up. I hit the ground, and then I'm not sure what happened. I hurt my ribs or something. I just got the wind knocked out of me. I never had any doubt that I would return."

Chicago Bears WR Taylor Gabriel said that he told you that this was one of your best games from his perspective. Did you feel that? Did you feel that you were kind of getting into that role?

"Yeah, just to be able to continue to move the ball for my team was great. I had a couple of third-down catches. Whenever you can get the chains moving, that's big. You have to understand that we have a lot of playmakers on this team, so guys take pride in that. We take pride in making those plays to keep drives moving. You want to make those big plays to move the chains, to score points, and to create some stretch plays."

Did you guys ever realize that Chicago Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky had completed 11 passes in a row at one point?

"I didn't even realize it. I knew he was rolling. Again, from an offensive standpoint, I think this was one of our best games. Points-wise, it may not have shown, but I think we got into a flow where, for us, some games we have a kind of lull for a little bit and not create big plays. I think we were able to create some momentum for us when we needed to today. For Mitch to complete those 11-straight passes, I think that's pretty big, especially with how the defense was playing. It was a bend, but don't break defense."

Bears LB Danny Trevathan
Postgame Quotes – December 23, 2018
San Francisco 49ers vs. Chicago Bears

What's a game like this for you guys when the offense is not able to put up a ton of points? They're able to get some stuff done, but a lot is dependent on you.

"It can be tough. It can be tough for our offense. We know how it is. On defense, you've got to go on to the next thing. We've got take care of our responsibilities. We don't care what's going on. We've got our brothers' back. We don't care what the world is saying is going on. People make mistakes. We've just got to have their back and try and get it back in their hands."

You guys have won so many games in so many different ways. What does that speak to where this team is right now?

"Growth. We're growing, we're still growing and we're also peaking. It was a great game for us to get it going. The last two games have been huge for us to make a push. We never know what's going on. We've just got to take care of our game while it's in front of us, with the next game being the most important. We came out here and executed, and came out of here with a win."

After the fumble in the fourth quarter, what was the collective mindset of the defense?

"We were ready to go. We were ready to go and we know what type of player [Chicago Bears WR Allen Robinson II] is and he rarely makes mistakes like that. He's a tremendous player and a great guy, and he's our brother. We've got his back, so whatever goes on, we've got him."

What was your plan today with San Francisco 49ers TE George Kittle to contain him?

"It was basically just to try and get hands on him. I didn't have too much coverage responsibility with him. I think [Chicago Bears LB] Roquan [Smith] handled it very well. He's got good hands on him. It was tough. That guy has been playing well, and I think Ro's been playing well. I feel like he went out there, executed his coverage and responsibility, and it worked out well for him in his favor."

As someone who's got all this playoff experience, with winning a Super Bowl, the fact that all these games are so meaningful in the end with no one resting starters, is that going to help this team going into the playoffs?

"Absolutely. We're gaining that experience and we're playing together at the same time. Especially in games like this where it's against a team that is fighting for something. They had their backs against the wall and they came out swinging. They had won two in a row, and for us, it was game for us to take a step back, take a look at ourselves, take a deep breath and know that we have confidence in who we are, and then go out there and execute our plays."
