ARIZONA TO MEET PURDUE IN 2017 FOSTER FARMS BOWL AT LEVI'S® STADIUM

Tickets and hospitality packages for the 16th Annual Foster Farms Bowl available now at LevisStadium.com

SANTA CLARA, Calif. – The pairing is set for the annual Foster Farms Bowl at Levi's Stadium as Arizona Wildcats (7-5, 5-4 Pac-12) and Purdue Boilermakers (6-6, 4-5 Big Ten) will represent the Pac-12 and Big Ten Conferences, respectively. This matchup marks the first-time Purdue and Arizona will compete in the Bay Area's annual bowl game, while the Boilermakers are 2-0 all-time against the Wildcats in the regular season.

The Foster Farms Bowl will be held at 5:30 p.m. PT on Wednesday, December 27th, in front of a national television audience on the FOX broadcast network. The game will also be simulcast in Spanish on FOX Deportes. Tickets and event details are now available through Ticketmaster at LevisStadium.com.

"Arizona and Purdue bring a pair of high-octane offenses and budding star players to compete in front of a primetime national audience at Levi's Stadium," said Ryan Oppelt, Director of the Foster Farms Bowl. "We're pleased to be able to showcase another terrific Pac-12 vs. Big Ten post-season bowl matchup to our fans and partners later this month."

Media looking to request credentials to cover the game must apply online at SportsSystems.com/FosterFarmsBowl/.

Purdue, bowl eligible for the first time in four years, enters the Foster Farms Bowl with a 9-8 bowl game record. The Boilermakers and first-year head coach Jeff Brohm, a former San Francisco 49ers quarterback, last played in a bowl in 2013 when they lost to Oklahoma State in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. The Wildcats, under head coach Rich Rodriguez, are 9-10-1 overall in the postseason with their last bowl appearance resulting in a 45-37 victory over Nevada in the 2015 New Mexico Bowl. Rodriguez and Arizona previously played at Levi's Stadium in the 2014 Pac-12 Football Championship Game.

Foster Farms became the naming-rights partner for the Bay Area's annual college bowl game in 2014. Since its inception in 2002, the bowl game has become an annual fixture in the Bay Area's sporting landscape. It was previously held at AT&T Park before moving to Levi's Stadium in 2014.

As in previous years, a day of community service by the players and coaches of the participating teams will be a featured component of their visit to the Bay Area. This year Arizona and Purdue players will serve meals to those in need at GLIDE and St. Anthony's in San Francisco on Christmas Day.

About Foster Farms

Since 1939, West Coast families have depended on Foster Farms for premium quality, locally grown poultry products. Family-owned and operated, the company continues its legacy of excellence and commitment to quality that was established by its founders, Max and Verda Foster. Based in California's Central Valley, Foster Farms operates ranches throughout California and works with more than 32 family farms in the Pacific Northwest. In the West Coast, Foster Farms is the leading producer of fresh and frozen poultry, including organic and antibiotic-free poultry.

Food safety is Foster Farms' highest priority and the company reminds consumers to always follow safe handling and storage guidelines for the preparation of fresh poultry products. All fresh poultry should be cooked to an internal temperature of 165 degrees Fahrenheit as measured by a meat thermometer. Visit www.fosterfarms.com to learn more.

About Levi's® Stadium

Named Sports Facility of the Year for 2015 by Sports Business Journal, Levi's Stadium is home to the San Francisco 49ers and serves as the world's most technologically advanced and sustainable sports and entertainment venue. The $1.2 billion venue consists of 1.85 million square feet and 68,500 seats, including 174 luxury suites and 9,000 club seats, and was designed by HNTB and built by Turner/Devcon for the Santa Clara Stadium Authority. It is a multi-purpose facility with flexibility that has allowed it to host a wide range of events – including international soccer, college football, ice hockey, motorsports, concerts and various civic events – since opening in 2014. The venue is also expandable for major events such as WrestleMania 31, Super Bowl 50 and the 2019 College Football Playoff National Championship Game. Levi's Stadium is owned by the Santa Clara Stadium Authority, a public joint powers authority established to provide for development and operation of Levi's Stadium to ensure the stadium serves the goals of the City of Santa Clara.
