TORREY, TORREY, HE'S OUR MAN

- Earlier this week, the 49ers announced WR Torrey Smith as the team's nominee for the 2016 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. Named after the late Hall of Fame running back of the Chicago Bears, the Walter Payton Man of the Year Award is given annually to the player who best exemplifies a commitment to philanthropy and community involvement. The 32 nominees will be pared down to three finalists which will be announced on January 22nd.
- The 49ers are looking for their representative to win back-to-back Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Awards, with former 49ers WR Anquan Boldin becoming the first player in franchise history to be named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year in 2015.
- In support of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award and Character Playbook, United Way Worldwide, the National Football League Foundation and Nationwide have committed to donating $50,000 towards each team-level winner for the charity of his choice in addition to receiving $50,000 in his name to fund Character Playbook in the San Francisco 49ers market. Smith will direct his nominee donation towards the Torrey Smith Family Fund.

WR Torrey Smith on his nomination...

"I'm very humbled to be recognized by my peers as the 49ers team nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. I strive to be the best man that I can be by setting a good example for my two boys as well as those who look up to me. I understand the responsibility that comes from being in this position and it is an honor to be associated with Walter Payton and his legacy."

- The Torrey Smith Family Fund was established to provide youth with the tools they need to identify, unleash, and reach their full potential.
