Setting the scene: The Bengals look to snap a two-game losing skid when they host the Detroit Lions at Paycor Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

Cincinnati is coming off a pair of road losses at Minnesota and Denver. The Week 4 setback against the Broncos on Monday Night Football was highlighted by 11 penalties committed by the Bengals, including six on the offensive side of the ball, which left QB Jake Browning and his unit little margin for error as they faced a stout Denver front.

"We never created momentum for ourselves," said head coach Zac Taylor. "We had some procedural penalties. I felt like when we did get some momentum, that put us into a first-and-15. Against a good defense, you just can't put yourself in a hole like that."

Defensively, the Bengals forced the lone turnover of the game late in the second quarter, as rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. picked off Broncos QB Bo Nix in the Cincinnati end zone to keep the deficit at 14-3. While the Broncos were able to extend their lead just before halftime, the Bengals bowed up in the second half and forced punts on three straight Denver possessions. However, the offense could never find a spark as it tried to mount a comeback, and was limited to just 159 net yards and nine first downs on the night.

As Cincinnati turns the page to its second home contest of the year, Taylor is preaching the importance of unity and continuous improvement as his team weathers an early storm.

"I've been here seven years, I've been in the league 13 years — there's never been a season where we didn't face adversity in some form," said Taylor. "Usually, it's a lot worse than 2-2, early-season adversity. You get a chance to watch games around the league. It feels like every team is going through something similar, with the exception of seven or eight. It's what teams are going to be able to stick together, find their identity, find a way to keep improving and build off the positive things we do. I've got the utmost confidence that the guys in that locker room are going to be able to do that."

The Bengals' matchup on Sunday comes against a Lions team that has boasted an average of 41.3 points during its current three-game winning streak. Detroit's 34.3 scoring average overall this season leads the NFL, and its past two wins have been against AFC North Division opponents in Baltimore (Week 3) and Cleveland (Week 4).

Sunday marks the third "Stripe the Jungle" game at Paycor Stadium, as fans are encouraged to wear orange or black apparel based on their seat location to create the iconic tapered Bengal tiger stripe pattern. Cincinnati has won the previous two contests which have featured this tradition, with a 24-18 victory over Buffalo in its debut in Week 9 of the 2023 campaign, and a 24-6 win over Cleveland in Week 16 of last season.

The series: Cincinnati owns a 10-3 series lead, and its .769 winning percentage against Detroit is its highest against any NFL foe. The Bengals have won 10 of the last 11 against the Lions, including seven straight.

Four of the last five Bengals wins over the Lions have been part of AFC North Division championship seasons for Cincinnati. In 2005, the Bengals won 41-17 at Detroit, clinching the AFC North title on Dec. 18. In 2009, the Bengals won 23-13 at home on Dec. 6. On Oct. 20, 2013, the Bengals won 27-24 at Detroit. And, in 2021, the Bengals won 34-11 on Oct. 17 at Detroit.

In games played at Cincinnati, the Bengals lead 4-2 and have won two consecutive. Detroit's most recent win at Cincinnati was a 19-13 victory on Nov. 22, 1992 at Riverfront Stadium.

The Jungle is jammin': The Bengals have welcomed an announced attendance figure of 65,000 or more in 25 consecutive regular-season home games dating back to Week 1 of the 2022 campaign. That marks the longest streak in team history, surpassing a previous span of 24 straight home contests from 2005-07.

Each of the 14 highest attended home games in team history, in terms of announced attendance figure, have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year. Two of those contests were played in the 2024 season, as Cincinnati welcomed an announced crowd of 67,239 for its "White Bengal" game in Week 8 vs. Philadelphia (second-largest in team history), then hosted an announced figure of 66,546 for the Week 17 overtime thriller against Denver (fourth-largest).

The largest home attendance figure in team history is 67,260, which came in Week 4 of the 2022 season when the Bengals defeated Miami on Thursday Night Football. That figure also marked the largest crowd for a sporting event in Cincinnati history.

Here are the largest announced home crowds in Bengals franchise history:

Uniform watch: Cincinnati will wear black jerseys, white pants (orange stripes) and orange socks this week against Detroit. The Bengals have worn this combination 11 times since their uniform redesign prior to the 2021 season, and have compiled a 7-4 record in those games. This also was the team's most frequent combination last season, as it was featured in four total contests in 2024 (three times at home, once on the road).

The 2021 redesign marked the Bengals' first significant change in uniform since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants feature four options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, white with black stripes, and orange with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new white helmet with its iconic black stripes. When paired with white jerseys and white pants (with black stripes), a new uniform combination was created and was branded as the "White Bengal." The team has worn the white helmet five times and collected a 4-1 record in those games. Cincinnati announced that it will wear the white helmet in Week 7 of this season against Pittsburgh on Thursday Night Football.

Here are the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

* — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms (CR) that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023 and thereafter, the Bengals were permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.

^ — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or throwback and/or color rush uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes the team's orange jersey. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

+ — The Bengals added orange pants with black stripes to their uniform lineup in 2024.

THE HEAD COACHES

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2025 season is his seventh in the position.

In 2024, he guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season at 9-8, which was highlighted by five straight victories to close out the schedule. He orchestrated one of the NFL's most dynamic offenses, serving as play-caller for a unit that led the league in passing yards per game (272.9), ranked sixth in points per game (27.8) and ninth in total yards (365.5).

In 2023, Taylor led the Bengals to a 9-8 record despite a few key players missing time due to injuries, including QB Joe Burrow, who suffered a season-ending injury in Week 11. Taylor worked with backup QB Jake Browning over the final seven weeks and guided Cincinnati to a 4-3 mark to close out the slate.

The 2022 season saw Taylor lead the Bengals to their second straight AFC North Division title and a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship Game. He became the 13th head coach in NFL history to win five of his first six career postseason games. The Bengals posted impressive numbers on both sides of the ball under Taylor, as the offense ranked in the top 10 leaguewide in passing (fifth, 265.0), scoring (seventh, 26.1) and total yards (eighth, 360.5), and the defense held opponents to a league-low 59.8 completion percentage.

In 2021, Taylor guided Cincinnati to its first division crown in six years and then three postseason victories to win the AFC Championship and advance to Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, in his first full season in Taylor's system, led the league in completion percentage (70.4) and was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year. Chase, the team's first-round draft pick, posted the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455, since surpassed) en route to winning Offensive Rookie of the Year. Defensively, Cincinnati showed marked improvement from 2020 to '21, jumping from 29th in rushing yards allowed to fifth (102.5). In the postseason, Taylor led the Bengals to their first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition Burrow, the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft, to the pros, despite the absence of an in-person offseason program due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Defensively, Taylor oversaw seven new starters who helped Cincinnati hold opposing passers to the sixth-lowest completion percentage in the NFL (62.8). In 2019, his first season as head coach, Taylor led the Bengals to second-half turnarounds on both sides of the ball. Offensively, the team's per-game rushing average jumped from 70.6 yards from the first half of the season (59.5) to the second half (130.1). Defensively, Cincinnati notched 11 more sacks in the second half of the season compared to the first, and allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game.

Taylor came to the Bengals after two seasons (2017-18) with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in '17 and quarterbacks coach in '18. He had a one-year stint at the University of Cincinnati in 2016, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville. He broke into NFL coaching in 2012 as assistant QBs coach for the Miami Dolphins. He was elevated to QBs coach from 2013-15, and spent the final five games of the '15 season as interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller after the team made coaching staff changes.

Taylor's began coaching at Texas A&M University as an offensive graduate assistant and TE's coach under head coach Mike Sherman from 2008-11. The Aggies played in three bowl games during his College Station tenure.

Taylor played in college at Wake Forest (2002-03) before transferring to Butler County Community College in Kansas ('04) and then playing his final two seasons ('05-06) at the University of Nebraska. He had a decorated career with the Cornhuskers, setting numerous school records and passing for 5850 yards and 45 TDs. As a senior in 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 3197 total yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017.

Taylor joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp and never saw NFL action. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play).

His father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at the University of Oklahoma, playing under Sooners head coach Barry Switzer from 1976-79. Sherwood Taylor later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State University. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall University and currently is the pass game coordinator for the Chicago Bears.

Taylor was born in Norman, Okla., on May 10, 1983. After attending Norman High School, he earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman.

Dan Campbell was named the Lions' 28th head coach on January 21, 2021. He is in his fifth season in Detroit after leading the club to a 15-win season and a top seed in the NFC in 2024, both firsts for the franchise.

Under Campbell, the Lions have secured back-to-back NFC North division titles after a 30-year drought and made an appearance in the NFC Championship for only the second time. In his first four seasons with Detroit, The Lions have ranked in the top 10 in almost every major offensive category while producing 12 Pro Bowlers and eight All-Pro's.

Campbell has 26 years of NFL experience, including 15 years as a coach and 11 as a player. He previously served as the assistant head coach/tight ends coach for the New Orleans Saints, a position he held since 2016. During the span of his five-year coaching tenure, the Saints captured four NFC South division titles, ranked first in the NFL in points scored (2,361), touchdowns (277), net yardage (31,147) and posted the third-most wins (56) in the League.

In 2015, Campbell became the Miami Dolphins' interim head coach, taking a 1-3 team to a final 5-7 record. Under Campbell, Miami improved eight spots in the NFL's rushing yards per game rankings and saw five Dolphins selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Campbell initially joined the Dolphins in 2010 as a coaching intern before overseeing the tight ends unit for five seasons ('11-15).

Campbell was born on April 13, 1976, in Clifton, Texas. He and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody, and a daughter, Piper. He earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural development from Texas A&M.

Taylor vs. Lions: Taylor leads, 1-0.

Taylor vs. Campbell: Taylor leads, 1-0.

Campbell vs. Bengals: The Bengals lead, 1-0.

2025 Bengals captains: The Bengals this season are led by seven captains who were decided through a players-only vote. The captains are composed of four offensive players and three defensive players.

The offensive captains are sixth-year QB Joe Burrow, eighth-year OT Orlando Brown Jr., 10th-year C Ted Karras and fifth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase. Burrow has been elected a captain in each of his six pro seasons since entering the league in 2020. Brown carries the honor for the second straight year, after being voted a captain last season for the first time in his career. Karras, who joined Cincinnati as a free agent in 2022, serves as a captain for the fourth straight season and fifth time overall, after also doing so with the Miami Dolphins in '20. Chase, a four-time Pro Bowler, earned a captaincy role for the first time.

The three defensive captains are ninth-year DE Trey Hendrickson, eighth-year DT B.J. Hill and sixth-year LB Logan Wilson. Each player was voted a captain for the first time in their respective career.

The Browning rundown: QB Jake Browning is slated to make his 10th career NFL start this week against Detroit. His first seven career starts came in Weeks 12-18 of the 2023 season, when he led Cincinnati to a 4-3 record to close out its schedule.

Browning has seen action in 15 total games in his career, and his stat line includes 225 completions on 327 passing attempts (68.8 percent) for 2442 yards and 15 TDs with 12 INTs, good for a passer rating of 90.5. He has thrown for over 300 yards three times, and recorded multiple TD passes in four contests.

Browning originally entered the league as a college free agent signee of Minnesota in 2019. He spent two seasons (2019-20) on the Vikings' practice squad, then was on the Bengals' practice squad for the entire '21 and '22 campaigns. He made the 53-man roster out of training camp for the first time in 2023, and spent the first 10 games of that season as Cincinnati's second-string QB before taking over the starting role. He saw limited action in three games last season, entering each contest late in the fourth quarter to take the final snaps.

Browning was a four-year starter (2015-18) at the University of Washington, where his 39 career wins were the most by a QB in the history of the Pac-12 Conference. He set program records for career passing attempts (1483), completions (958), passing yards (12,296) and TD passes (94). As a sophomore in 2016, he finished sixth in Heisman Trophy voting while leading Washington to a Pac-12 title and a berth in the College Football Playoff. Prior to his collegiate career, he set California prep records in several categories while at Folsom High School, including career passing yards (16,775) and TD passes (229).

Browning's 2023 highlights: During his previous run of extensive playing action in the 2023 season, QB Jake Browning completed 171 of 243 passes for 1936 yards and 12 TDs with seven INTs. Those totals included an attempt in the season opener at Cleveland, when he finished out the game late in the fourth quarter, and in Week 11 at Baltimore, when he entered in the second quarter and went eight of 14 for 68 yards and a TD.

In seven games as the Bengals' starting QB, Browning completed 71.5 percent of his passes (163 of 228) for 1868 yards and 11 TDs with seven INTs, good for a passer rating of 99.1. From Weeks 12-18 of the 2023 campaign, he ranked second in the NFL in passing yards, second in completion percentage, third in total completions and third in yards per attempt (8.2).

Browning's 1868 passing yards were the 13th-most by any NFL QB since 1950 in their first seven career starts. He also became just the third QB since 1950 to pass for at least 1500 yards and 10 TDs with a completion percentage of 70 or higher in his first seven starts, joining former St. Louis Rams QB Kurt Warner and former N.Y. Jets QB Chad Pennington.

Browning led the Bengals on a three-game winning streak from Weeks 13-15 of the 2023 season, with the offense averaging 31.7 points in that stretch. He earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in just his second career start, when he went 32 of 37 for 354 yards and a TD in Cincinnati's Week 13 overtime win at Jacksonville on Monday Night Football. His 86.5 completion percentage was the fifth-highest in a game in Bengals history, and the highest in NFL history by a player in either of his first two starts (minimum 20 attempts). The following week against Indianapolis, Browning posted career highs in passer rating (122.7) and yards per attempt (11.5). He closed out the streak with 324 passing yards in Week 15 vs. Minnesota, and 243 of those came after halftime as he led the Bengals to another overtime victory.

Burrow's early 2025 totals: Sixth-year QB Joe Burrow started the first two games of the 2025 season before sustaining a toe injury in the second quarter of Week 2 vs. Jacksonville. He was placed on the Reserve/Injured list on Sept. 16, and underwent surgery on Sept. 19. In his five-plus quarters of action, Burrow completed 21 of 36 passes for 189 yards and two TDs with no INTs.

Burrow played in his 70th career game in the season opener at Cleveland and went 14 of 23 for 113 yards, with a one-yard TD pass to TE Noah Fant to give Cincinnati the lead in the second quarter. Burrow's 1762 career completions at the end of the Browns game were the most by any QB in NFL history through their first 70 games, while his 141 TD passes ranked as the third-most and his 19,114 passing yards ranked fifth.

Burrow had completed seven of his 13 passing attempts for 76 yards against the Jaguars prior to his injury. He connected with WR Ja'Marr Chase for a four-yard TD on third-and-goal late in the opening quarter.

Chase climbs up the ranks: Fifth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase totaled five catches for 23 yards in Week 4 at Denver, moving his career receptions total to 421. He surpassed Bengals Ring of Honor member Isaac Curtis (416) for the seventh-most receptions in team history, and also moved in front of former WR Cris Collinsworth (417) for sixth on the franchise's all-time list.

In Week 2 against Jacksonville, Chase recorded his 400th career reception in what was his 64th regular-season game. That tied former Atlanta WR Julio Jones and former Miami WR Jarvis Landry for the fifth-fewest games in NFL history to reach 400 career catches. The only players to ever hit that milestone in fewer games are former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas (56 games), former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. (61), Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (62) and Detroit WR Amon-Ra St. Brown (63).

Chase kicked off his career with 81 receptions in the 2021 season, which set a Bengals rookie record and still ranks in the top 20 among all rookies in NFL history. He followed that up with a team-leading 87 catches in just 12 games played in 2022, then hit triple digits for the first time when he had 100 receptions in '23 (12th in NFL).

In his 2024 "Triple Crown" season, Chase led the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 catches. He became the first player in team history to lead the league in receptions, and surpassed former WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh's previous team mark of 112 in the 2007 campaign.

Chase also holds the top three single-game receptions totals in Bengals history, led by a career-high 15 grabs in Week 5 of the 2023 season at Arizona. His 14 catches in Week 14 of last season at Dallas went in as the second-most in a game by a Cincinnati player, and he matched that mark with 14 in Week 2 of this season against the Jaguars.

Chase now is 86 receptions shy of tying Houshmandzadeh (507) for the fifth-most in Bengals history. He also currently ranks 10th in team history in career receiving yards (5689), fifth in receiving TDs (47), and tied for third in 100-yard receiving games (20).

Here is a look at the Bengals' all-time leaders in career receptions (regular season):

PLAYER	YEARS WITH BENGALS	RECEPTIONS
Chad Johnson	2001-10	751
A.J. Green	2011-20	649
Carl Pickens	1992-99	530
Tyler Boyd	2016-23	513
T.J. Houshmandzadeh	2001-08	507
Ja'Marr Chase	2021-present	421

Chasing history: In the Bengals' Week 2 win over Jacksonville, WR Ja'Marr Chase logged his sixth career game with at least 10 receptions and 150 receiving yards. That already ties Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson for the most such games in a player's first five seasons in NFL history.

Chase also ranks historically high in several other categories among players in their first five seasons, despite him being just four games into his fifth year. His eight career games with at least 150 receiving yards and one receiving TD are tied with Pro Football Hall of Famer Jerry Rice for the second-most such games in a player's first five seasons, trailing only Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (12 games). Chase additionally is tied for the second-most games with 10 or more receptions (12), and tied for the second-most games with at least 10 catches and 100 receiving yards (11).

By the end of the 2024 campaign, Chase's career numbers placed him alongside some of the top receivers in league history through their first four seasons. His 46 receiving TDs from 2021-24 are the third-most ever in a player's first four seasons, behind only Pro Football Hall of Famers Randy Moss (53) and Rice (49). He also ranks third in receiving yards in a player's first four seasons (5425), behind Jefferson (5899) and Thomas (5512). His 395 receptions over his first four years rank fourth all-time, trailing Thomas (470), St. Brown (430) and former Miami WR Jarvis Landry (400).

Chase is the only player in NFL history with at least 80 receptions, 1000 receiving yards and seven receiving TDs in each of his first four career seasons. He also is one of six players in league history to begin his career with four consecutive 1000-yard receiving seasons, and the second Bengals player to do so following WR A.J. Green (2011-14).

The Bengals' first-round draft pick (No. 5 overall) in 2021, Chase holds a career average of 86.2 receiving yards per game (66 regular-season games). That is the second-highest mark in NFL history among all players with at least 3000 total receiving yards, trailing only Jefferson (95.8). The players behind Chase in that category include Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson (third; 86.1 receiving yards per game), WR Antonio Brown (fourth; 84.2) and WR Julio Jones (fifth; 82.5).

Ja'Marr reigns as Triple Crown winner: WR Ja'Marr Chase finished the 2024 season as the NFL leader in receptions (127), receiving yards (1708) and receiving TDs (17), earning him the prestigious receiving "Triple Crown." He became just the sixth Triple Crown winner in the Super Bowl era (1966-present), and the first since L.A. Rams WR Cooper Kupp in 2021.

Chase's receptions total and receiving yardage each set a Bengals single-season record, while his 17 receiving TDs tied WR Carl Pickens' team record set in 1995. Chase had 100 or more receiving yards in five games in 2024, tying for the second-most such games in a season in team history behind WR A.J. Green's six games in '13.

Chase also became the fifth player in NFL history to log at least 100 catches, 1500 receiving yards and 15 receiving TDs in a season, joining Kupp ('21), former Minnesota WR Randy Moss ('03), former Indianapolis WR Marvin Harrison ('01) and former San Francisco WR Jerry Rice (1995).

Following the regular season, Chase was voted a unanimous first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. It marked his second career All-Pro selection, as he received second-team honors in his 2021 rookie campaign. He became the first Bengals offensive player to earn first-team accolades since OT/G Andrew Whitworth in 2015.

Chase signed a contract extension with the Bengals in March of this year that keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2029 season.

Chase breaks own yardage record: WR Ja'Marr Chase's 1708 receiving yards in 2024 led the NFL and were the most in a season in Bengals history. He eclipsed his own previous team record of 1455 receiving yards set in his 2021 rookie season.

Chase became the second player in team history to lead the league in receiving yards, joining former WR Chad Johnson, who topped the NFL with 1369 yards in 2006.

Chase totaled 100 or more receiving yards in five games in 2024, tied with several players for the most such games in the NFL. It also tied for the most 100-yard receiving games in a season in Chase's career, alongside 2021 and '23.

On his game-winning TD late in the fourth quarter of Week 14 at Dallas, Chase surpassed 5000 career receiving yards. Playing in his 58th regular-season game, he tied former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas for the fifth-fastest player in NFL history to reach that milestone. The only players to get to 5000 receiving yards in fewer games are former San Diego Chargers WR Lance Alworth (52), Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (52), former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. (54), and former Atlanta WR Julio Jones (56).

Here is a look at the most receiving yards in a season in Bengals history:

PLAYER	SEASON	RECEIVING YARDS
Ja'Marr Chase	2024.....	1708
Ja'Marr Chase	2021.....	1455
Chad Johnson	2007.....	1440

Uno finds the end zone: WR Ja'Marr Chase's 17 receiving TDs in 2024 tied the Bengals single-season record, which was set by WR Carl Pickens in 1995. Chase became the first in team history to lead the NFL in TD catches.

Chase had an NFL-best five games with multiple receiving TDs in 2024, including a career-high-tying three scores in Week 10 at Baltimore. He previously caught three TD passes in Week 17 of the 2021 season vs. Kansas City and in Week 5 of 2023 at Arizona. He became the third player in team history to score three receiving TDs in at least three games during his Bengals career, joining Pickens (four games) and former WR Chad Johnson (three).

Chase scored his 40th receiving TD in Week 11 of 2024 against the L.A. Chargers, in what was his 56th game. He became the fastest player in Bengals history and the eighth-fastest in NFL history to reach that mark.

Here is a look at the most receiving TDs in a season in Bengals history:

PLAYER	SEASON	RECEIVING TDs
Carl Pickens	1995.....	17
Ja'Marr Chase	2024.....	17

Tee's top 2024 moments: WR Tee Higgins, who is in his sixth pro season in 2025, finished the '24 campaign ranking second on the Bengals in receptions (73), receiving yards (911) and receiving TDs (10). His 10 TD catches were a career high and tied for sixth in the NFL last season.

Higgins was inactive for five games in 2024 due to injuries, but in his 12 appearances (nine starts), he further established himself as one of the league's most productive receivers. He returned to the lineup after a three-game hiatus from Weeks 8-10, and over the last nine weeks of the regular season he tied for the NFL lead in receiving TDs (seven) and ranked 17th in receiving yards (570).

Higgins' most notable performance of 2024 came in Week 17 vs. Denver. With Cincinnati facing a must-win situation to keep its playoff hopes alive, Higgins logged a season-high 11 receptions for 131 yards and three TDs, including the game-winning TD catch with 1:07 remaining in overtime. It marked his first career game with three TD receptions, and his 14th career outing with 100 or more receiving yards.

Higgins reached a pair of career milestones in 2024, beginning in Week 7 at Cleveland when he eclipsed 4000 receiving yards. Playing in his 63rd regular-season game, he became the fifth-fastest player in Bengals history to hit that mark. He then recorded his 300th catch in Week 13 vs. Pittsburgh, tying former WR Tyler Boyd as the fourth-fastest player in team history to do so (65 games).

Since entering the NFL as a second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2020 (No. 33 overall), Higgins ranks in the top 20 leaguwide in receiving yards (18th; 4699) and receiving TDs (tied for 15th; 35). He has recorded over 900 receiving yards in four of his five pro seasons, including back-to-back 1000-yard campaigns in 2021 and '22.

Higgins re-signed with the Bengals in March on a four-year deal which keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2028 season. He has 10 catches for 136 yards and a TD through the first four games of 2025, with the scoring grab coming on a 42-yard pass from QB Jake Browning in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville.

Brown racks up scrimmage yards: Chase Brown took over the Bengals' starting HB role midway through his second pro season in 2024 and emerged as a key piece of the offense down the stretch. From Weeks 9-17, when he started at HB in each game, Brown ranked fifth in the NFL in yards from scrimmage (930), fourth in scrimmage yards per game (116.3), seventh in rushing attempts (151) and ninth in rushing yards (631).

Brown also was one of just two players from Weeks 9-17 with at least 600 rushing yards and 250 receiving yards, alongside Detroit RB Jahmyr Gibbs. He wrapped up his season by totaling at least 90 scrimmage yards in each of his final eight games played, making him the second player in team history to reach that total in eight straight contests. The only other Bengal to previously do so was FB Boobie Clark, who had an eight-game streak from Oct. 14-Dec. 2, 1973.

Brown's top statistical performance of last season came in the Week 9 win over Las Vegas, when he posted his first career 100-yard rushing day (120), and added career highs in carries (27) and scrimmage yards (157). He finished the 2024 campaign ranking in the top 20 leaguwide in rushing attempts (229; 16th), rushing yards (990; 17th), rushing TDs (seven; T-19th), yards from scrimmage (1350; 17th) and TDs from scrimmage (11; T-17th).

Brown has kicked off his third pro season in 2025 with 207 scrimmage yards (133 rushing, 74 receiving) through four games. He is coming off a season-high 71 yards from scrimmage (40 rushing, 31 receiving) in Week 4 at Denver.

Hendrickson cracks top five: DE Trey Hendrickson's sack in the closing seconds of Cincinnati's Week 2 victory over Jacksonville moved his total sack number to 59.0 since joining the Bengals in the 2021 offseason. He now is tied with former DE Ross Browner for the fifth-most sacks in team history.

Hendrickson logged 14.0 sacks in his Bengals debut in the 2021 season, when he led the team and ranked fifth in the NFL. He followed up with a team-high eight sacks in 2022, helping him earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod.

Hendrickson posted 17.5 sacks in both the 2023 and '24 seasons, which are tied for the second-most in a season in Bengals history behind former DE Coy Bacon's 22.0 in 1976 (the NFL began tracking sacks in '82, but the Bengals track the stat back to '76 and recognize Bacon as the record-holder). He became the first Cincinnati player with double-digit sacks in consecutive seasons since former DE/DT Eddie Edwards in 1980-81. Hendrickson also is just the fifth player in NFL history to post 17 or more sacks in back-to-back seasons.

Hendrickson had his first sack of 2025 in Week 1 at Cleveland, when he brought down QB Joe Flacco for a loss of six yards. He had a six-game streak with at least a half-sack dating back to Week 16 of last season. The streak came to an end when he was kept out of the sack column in Week 3 at Minnesota.

Here are the players with the most sacks in Bengals history (since 1976):

PLAYER	YEARS PLAYED	SACKS
Eddie Edwards	1977-88.....	83.5
Carlos Dunlap	2010-20.....	82.5
Geno Atkins	2010-20.....	75.5
Reggie Williams	1976-89.....	62.5
Ross Browner	1978-86.....	59.0
Trey Hendrickson	2021-25.....	59.0

Trey's torrid pace: Since the start of the 2023 season, DE Trey Hendrickson's league-leading 37.0 sacks are 3.5 more than any other player. He is the only NFL player with at least 15 sacks in both the 2023 and '24 campaign.

Hendrickson joined the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent during the 2021 offseason, and in his four-plus years in Cincinnati he has totaled 59.0 sacks. That ranks as the third-most in the NFL in that span, trailing only Cleveland DE Myles Garrett (64.0 sacks) and Pittsburgh OLB T.J. Watt (61.5). In addition to his sack totals, he has forced 11 fumbles since the start of the 2021 campaign, tied for the fourth-most leaguewide.

Originally a third-round draft pick of New Orleans in 2017, Hendrickson spent his first four pro seasons ('17-20) with the Saints, but started just three games over his first three years and totaled 6.5 sacks. He then broke out with 13.5 sacks in 2020, which tied for second in the NFL that season.

Here are the NFL players with the most sacks since 2023:

PLAYER	TEAM	SACKS SINCE 2023
Trey Hendrickson	Cincinnati Bengals.....	37.0
T.J. Watt	Pittsburgh Steelers.....	33.5
Danielle Hunter	Minnesota Vikings/Houston Texans.....	32.5
Myles Garrett	Cleveland Browns.....	32.0
Micah Parsons	Dallas Cowboys/Green Bay Packers.....	28.5

Trey reigns as sack champion: DE Trey Hendrickson in 2024 became the first Bengals player to lead the NFL in sacks since it became an officially tracked statistic in 1982. His 17.5 sacks last season were 3.5 more than the second-highest total of 14.0 by Cleveland DE Myles Garrett.

Hendrickson compiled five games with multiple sacks in 2024, highlighted by a career-best four sacks in Week 9 against Las Vegas. He earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for that performance, then received the award again following Week 18 at Pittsburgh when he logged 3.5 sacks.

Hendrickson's performance in 2024 landed him his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl selection. He also was voted a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, and finished second in voting for AP Defensive Player of the Year.

On Aug. 25, the Bengals and Hendrickson agreed to a revised contract for the 2025 season.

Here is a look at the NFL sack leaders during the 2024 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	SACKS
Trey Hendrickson	Cincinnati Bengals.....	17.5
Myles Garrett	Cleveland Browns.....	14.0
Nik Bonitto	Denver Broncos.....	13.5
Kyle Van Noy	Baltimore Ravens.....	12.5
(Three players tied)	—.....	12.0

Wilson leads LBs in INTs since '20: Sixth-year LB Logan Wilson has 11 career INTs (regular season), which are the most by any NFL linebacker since he came into the league as a third-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2020.

A former defensive back during his collegiate playing days at the University of Wyoming, Wilson opened his career with two picks in his 2020 rookie campaign, then followed up with four in '21. That 2021 total marked the most INTs in a season by a Bengals LB since Odell Thurman had five in '05. Wilson then followed up with one pick in 2022 and four more in '23.

Wilson's career INTs are the third-most ever by a Bengals LB, trailing only Reggie Williams (16) and Al Beauchamp (15). He also has posted 100 or more tackles in each of the past three seasons, including a career-high 135 stops in 2023 which ranked 15th in the NFL.

Wilson has 25 total tackles and three PDs through the first four games of the 2025 season. Since the start of the 2020 campaign, he is one of three NFL players with at least 10 INTs, five sacks and five FFs, alongside Minnesota S Harrison Smith and Baltimore CB Marlon Humphrey.

Battle goes back-to-back: S Jordan Battle recorded an interception in each of the Bengals' first two games this season, as he came down with a deflected pass in Week 1 at Cleveland and then secured another pick in similar fashion in Week 2 against Jacksonville. He became the first Bengals player with an INT in each of the team's first two games of a season since CB Ashley Ambrose in 1996.

Both of Battle's picks were inside the opponent's 40-yard line, setting up a pair of Cincinnati FG drives. Entering this season, he had two INTs in 34 career games. He began each of his first two years as a rotational safety for the Bengals, before taking on a starting role later in the year in both 2023 and '24. He now has started each of his last 10 contests dating back to Week 13 of the 2024 campaign.

Battle is one of 13 players in the NFL with multiple INTs this season. He also leads the Bengals with 32 tackles (15 solos), which are the sixth-most among NFL defensive backs.

Rookie Rehkow sets records: P Ryan Rehkow, who the Bengals acquired on the third day of training camp in 2024, punted 53 times for 2603 yards during his rookie campaign. His 49.11 total yards per punt and 42.92 net yards per punt each set a team single-season record, with both figures surpassing former P Kevin Huber's previous records set in the 2020 season.

Rehkow finished his rookie season ranking sixth in the NFL in net punting average and ninth in gross average. He had 25 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line compared to five touchbacks.

Rehkow began his career with four punts for 258 yards in his NFL debut against New England on Sept. 8, 2024. His gross average of 64.5 yards set an NFL single-game record (minimum four punts), surpassing the previous mark of 63.60 by Las Vegas P AJ Cole in Week 9 of the 2023 campaign. The previous Bengals (min. three punts) record belonged to Will Brice, who averaged 63.0 yards on Sept. 12, 1999 at Tennessee. Rehkow's performance that day also included the longest punt in Bengals history, an 80-yarder kicked from his own 20-yard line to the Patriots' end zone.

Through the first four games of the 2025 season, Rehkow has punted 23 times for 1213 yards, with seven downed inside the 20 compared to three touchbacks. His gross average of 52.7 yards per punt ranks second the NFL, while his seven inside-20 punts are tied for third.

Money Mac from deep: K Evan McPherson, who now is in his fifth pro season in 2025, has made 24 FGs from 50 or more yards in his career. That already is the most such FGs in a career in Bengals history, and is tied for the eighth-most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021.

McPherson kicked off his career with an NFL-best and Bengals-record nine FGs from at least 50 yards out in his 2021 rookie season. He followed up by going a perfect five-for-five on 50-yard attempts in 2022, then converted seven such kicks in '23. He drilled three FGs from 50-plus yards in 2024, before sustaining a groin injury in Week 13 that kept him out of the final five games.

Overall for his career, McPherson has made 98 of 119 FG attempts, good for the third-highest percentage in team history (82.4). Referred to by fans as "Money Mac," he is a perfect 19-for-19 on FG attempts in the postseason and is Cincinnati's all-time leader in postseason scoring (69 points). He has seven career game-winning "walk-off" FGs (including postseason), with the two most memorable coming in the 2021 AFC Divisional Playoff at Tennessee (52 yards) and the following week in the AFC Championship at Kansas City (31 yards).

McPherson owns five of the seven longest made kicks in Bengals history, led by a career-long 59-yarder that he booted in the 2022 season opener against Pittsburgh. His season long in 2024 was a 56-yarder in Week 4 at Carolina, which at the time tied for the fifth-longest in team history (now tied for sixth).

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	59
Cade York	Dec. 22, 2024	vs. Cleveland Browns	59
Evan McPherson	Dec. 19, 2021	at Denver Broncos	58
Randy Bullock	Dec. 22, 2019	at Miami Dolphins	57
Evan McPherson	Sept. 29, 2022	vs. Miami Dolphins	57

Four Bengals listed on "Top 100": For the 15th consecutive season, current NFL players voted to determine the top 100 players in the league, with the final list revealed throughout July and August on social media and NFL Network.

Cincinnati is represented by four players on the 2025 list — WR Ja'Marr Chase (No. 4), QB Joe Burrow (No. 6), DE Trey Hendrickson (No. 14) and WR Tee Higgins (No. 77). It marked the first appearance on the list in Higgins' career, the fourth overall for Burrow and Chase, and the fifth for Hendrickson.

Chase's ranking at No. 4 is the highest by a Bengals player since the "Top 100" debuted in 2011. The previous highest ranking was No. 6, which was Burrow's position on the 2023 list. Hendrickson's spot at No. 14 is his personal highest, substantially ahead of his previous best ranking of No. 77 (2021 list).

This marks the third time in the history of the "Top 100" in which four or more Bengals players were featured. Cincinnati had a record seven players on the 2016 list, then landed four on the '22 edition.

Lapham, Parrish to enter Bengals Ring of Honor:

The Bengals announced in July that former OT Dave Lapham and CB Lemar Parrish will be inducted into the team's Ring of Honor at halftime of the Week 8 game against the N.Y. Jets. They will become the 11th and 12th members of the Ring of Honor, which was established in 2021 in recognition of former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition.

Lapham, who enters his 50th season with the Bengals in 2025, is one of the team's most popular and beloved historical figures. He was a versatile offensive lineman who donned the stripes from 1974-83, lining up at all five O-line positions during his 140-game career. He served as the team's starting left guard in 1981, when the Bengals advanced to Super Bowl XVI. After his playing career, Lapham moved into the team's radio broadcast booth, where he has worked ever since. Often known as "Mr. Bengal," he has been the team's radio analyst since 1986.

Parrish, known by fans as "Leapin' Lamar," is remembered as one of the most athletically gifted and exciting players in team history. He remains the franchise's highest scoring defensive player, with TD returns on four INTs, four punts, three fumble recoveries and one kickoff. His 18.8-yard punt return average in 1974 still is the best mark by any player in a season since the '70

NFL/AFL merger. He tallied 25 INTs as a member of the Bengals, the fifth-most in team history, and his six Pro Bowl selections are the second-most by a Cincinnati defensive player.

Lapham and Parrish will join the 10 current Ring of Honor inductees, which include QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, HB Corey Dillon, QB Boomer Esiason, WR Chad Johnson, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Munoz and CB Ken Riley. Inductees are voted in each offseason by Bengals Season Ticket Members, then are officially enshrined in the ring during halftime of a Bengals home game that year.

Bengals record 250th home win: The Bengals' 31-27 win over Jacksonville in Week 2 marked the 250th all-time victory at home in team history. Cincinnati has won 243 regular-season and seven postseason games played in the Queen City.

The Bengals' first home victory came in their first ever regular-season home game, which was played on Sept. 6, 1968 against Denver at Nippert Stadium on the University of Cincinnati's campus. The team's first postseason win at home occurred following the 1981 season, when Cincinnati defeated Buffalo 28-21 at Riverfront Stadium in an AFC Divisional Playoff. The Bengals followed that up with one of the team's most noteworthy wins in the Queen City, a 27-7 victory over the San Diego Chargers in an AFC Championship contest that was dubbed the "Freezer Bowl," in recognition of the minus-59 degree wind chill at kickoff.

That win over San Diego punched the Bengals' ticket to Super Bowl XVI, their first ever appearance in the league's title contest. Cincinnati captured the AFC crown for a second time with a 21-10 win over Buffalo at Riverfront Stadium on Jan. 8, 1989, to advance to Super Bowl XXIII.

Other milestone home wins in Bengals history include the team's 100th victory at home — a 41-10 decision over Pittsburgh on Sept. 17, 1989 — and the 200th victory at home — a 24-10 result against Atlanta on Sept. 14, 2014.

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Jake Browning took over starting duties following Joe Burrow's Week 2 injury against Jacksonville and has completed 54 of 84 passes (64.3 percent) for 506 yards and three TDs with five INTs this season. He entered the Jaguars game in the second quarter and proceeded to throw for 241 yards and two TDs, before finishing off the afternoon with a game-winning TD on a one-yard sneak with 18 seconds remaining. In 2023, Browning stepped into the starting role for the Bengals' final seven games and helped steer the team to a 4-3 record. In that stretch as a starter, he completed 71.5 percent of his passing attempts for 1868 yards and 11 TDs. His passing yardage ranked second leaguewide over the final seven weeks of that regular season. Browning spent the entire 2024 campaign as Cincinnati's second-string QB, seeing limited action in three games. He spent his first four pro seasons on the practice squads of the Bengals ('21-22) and Minnesota Vikings ('19-20). Cincinnati signed QB Brett Rypien off the practice squad to the active roster prior to the Week 3 game at Minnesota, and he made his Bengals debut late in the fourth quarter of that contest. A sixth-year player out of Boise State University, Rypien originally was a college free agent signee of Denver in 2019. He has played in 11 career games with four starts (three for Denver from 2020-22, one for the L.A. Rams in '23), and has completed 98 of 168 passes for 950 yards and four TDs with nine INTs. He also spent time on Seattle's practice squad and the N.Y. Jets' active roster during the 2023 season, then spent the entire '24 campaign on Minnesota's practice squad.

Running backs: HB Chase Brown is in his third pro season and first as Cincinnati's full-time primary running back. Originally a fifth-round pick of the Bengals in 2023, he took over the starting HB role midway through the '24 campaign. From Weeks 9-17 of last season, he ranked fifth in the NFL in yards from scrimmage (930) and fourth in scrimmage yards per game (116.3). He finished last season with 990 rushing yards and seven rushing TDs on 229 carries, along with 54 receptions for 360 yards and four TDs. Through four games this season, Brown has 207 yards from scrimmage (133 rushing, 74 receiving), and he opened the scoring in Week 1 at Cleveland with a five-yard rushing TD. He posted 71 scrimmage yards (40 rushing, 31 receiving) in Week 4 at Denver. His twin brother, Sydney Brown, was his teammate at the University of Illinois and currently plays safety for the Philadelphia Eagles. The Bengals welcomed back a familiar face during the offseason when they signed ninth-year HB Samaje Perine. Perine previously had a four-year stint with Cincinnati (2019-22), before spending the '23 season with Denver and '24 with Kansas City. Listed at 5-11, 240 pounds, he is a physical back who contributes both as a pass blocker on third down and as a rotational ball-carrier. In 114 career regular-season games, he has 479 rushing attempts for 1947 yards and nine TDs. Some of his top moments with the Bengals came during the team's postseason runs following the 2021 and '22 campaigns, including a 41-yard receiving TD in the '21 AFC Championship win at Kansas City. Perine has been utilized primarily as a kickoff returner and extra pass blocker this season, but has logged five rushing attempts for 25 yards as he closes in on 2000 yards in his career. Rookie HB Tahj Brooks was selected by the Bengals in the sixth round of this year's draft, after compiling a record-setting career at Texas Tech University. Brooks finished his time in Lubbock with the most rushing attempts (879), rushing yards (4557) and 100-yard rushing games (23) in program history. He earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2023 and second-team accolades in '24, and in both years he was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award (nation's top running back). He has seen action primarily on special teams through his first four NFL games, but recorded his first five career carries for 17 yards in the second half of Week 3 at Minnesota.

Wide Receivers: Cincinnati's 2021 first-round draft choice Ja'Marr Chase has been selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons and has broken several Bengals single-season records early in his pro career. He is coming off a 2024 campaign in which he became the youngest player (24 years old) in the Super Bowl era to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led the league in receptions (127), receiving yards (1708) and receiving TDs (17). His receptions total and receiving yardage each set a Cincinnati single-season record, while his TDs tied the franchise mark held by WR Carl Pickens (1995). Though just four games into his fifth pro season, Chase already has six career games with at least 10 receptions and 150 receiving yards, which is tied with his former Louisiana State teammate and current Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson for the most such games in NFL history in a player's first five years. Chase's most recent such performance came in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville, when he caught 14 passes for 165 yards and a TD. He also recorded his 400th career reception in the win over the Jaguars, tying as the fifth-fastest player in league history to reach that mark (64 games). Through four games in 2025, Chase ranks sixth in the AFC with 264 receiving yards on a team-leading 26 receptions. He signed a four-year contract extension on March 18, the same day that his running mate Tee Higgins re-signed with Cincinnati on a four-year deal. A 2020 second-round pick of the Bengals, Higgins recorded at least 900 receiving yards in four of his first five seasons, including consecutive 1000-yard campaigns in '21 and '22. In just 12 games played in 2024, he ranked second on the team behind Chase in catches (73), receiving yards (911) and receiving TDs (10). His 10 scoring grabs were a career high and tied for sixth in the NFL last season. Now in his sixth pro season, he has 10 grabs for 136 yards through four games in 2025, including a 42-yard TD catch in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville. Listed at 6-4, he has earned a reputation for his extended catch radius and being able to high-point the ball over defensive backs. Andreï Iosivas is in his third NFL season and aims to build on a promising sophomore campaign. He brought in 36 catches for 479 yards and six TDs in 2024, following a rookie year in '23 that saw him net 116 yards and four TDs on 15 grabs. He has carved out a niche for getting open in the low red zone, as each of his 10 career TD catches have come on plays inside the opponent's 10-yard line. Iosivas was a two-sport athlete at Princeton, as in addition to his All-Ivy League football resume, he was an All-American heptathlete for the Tigers' track and field program. He has two catches for 34 yards so far in 2025, including a 22-yarder in Week 4 at Denver. Fellow third-year receiver Charlie Jones has served as the Bengals' primary kickoff and punt returner since being selected in the fourth round of the 2023 draft, but he also has contributed eight career receptions for 69 yards. He saw action in the first eight games of 2024, before suffering a groin injury that kept him out of the final nine contests. In 2022, his final collegiate season which he spent at Purdue University, Jones led the FBS in receptions (110), ranked second in receiving yards (1361) and fifth in receiving TDs (12). Among the top offensive performers throughout this past training camp and preseason was WR Mitch Tinsley, who earned a spot on the 53-man roster after signing a Reserve/Future contract with Cincinnati in February. Originally a college free agent signee of Washington in 2023, Tinsley played in two games as a rookie for the Commanders (no statistics), then spent the '24 season on their practice squad. He faced his former team in the Bengals' second preseason game at Washington and posted five catches for 73 yards and two highlight-reel TDs. He made the highlight tapes once again with his first career reception in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville, a one-handed TD grab on a 13-yard pass from Browning. He finished his college career at Penn State in 2022, after previous stops at Hutchinson Community College in Kansas ('18-19) and Western Kentucky University ('20-21). Second-year WR Jermaine Burton possesses the ability to stretch defensive coverages, as two of his four catches as a rookie last season went for over 40 yards. He also contributed in the kickoff return game following Jones' injury last year. Burton began his collegiate career at the University of Georgia (2020-21), then transferred to the University of Alabama for his final two seasons ('22-23) before being selected by the Bengals in the third round of the '24 NFL Draft. In 2023, his final year with the Crimson Tide, he led the SEC and ranked sixth nationally in yards per reception (20.5).

Tight ends: A 2019 second-round draft pick of the Bengals, Drew Sample has played in 82 career regular-season games with 53 starts and earned a reputation as a reliable blocking TE. He took over the top spot on the depth chart in the second half of the 2023 season and has started 26 of his last 30 appearances. In addition to his blocking responsibilities, he has 103 career receptions for 757 yards and five TDs. Sample's most recent score came on a four-yard pass from Browning in Week 3 at Minnesota. He missed most of the 2022 campaign due to a knee injury, but returned at the start of the '23 season and has suited up in each of Cincinnati's last 36 games. Now in his seventh season, Sample is the Bengals' longest-tenured player. Eighth-year veteran Mike Gesicki joined the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent during the 2024 offseason and provides the offense with an athletic pass-catching TE. In his first season in Cincinnati, he ranked third on the team in receptions (65) and receiving yards (665). His catch total was the second-most in a season by a Bengals TE (Dan Ross, 71 in 1981), while his yardage was the most by a Cincinnati TE since 2012 (Jermaine Gresham, 737). Gesicki entered the NFL as a second-round pick of Miami in 2018, and spent his first five seasons ('18-22) with the Dolphins before playing for New England in '23. He has caught a pass in each of the first four games this season, totaling six receptions for 46 yards. Noah Fant signed with the Bengals as a free agent in late July this year, and already has built a rapport with Cincinnati's quarterbacks. He has 12 catches for 80 yards and a TD in three games played, with the scoring grab coming on a one-yard pass from Burrow in the opener at Cleveland. Fant was inactive for the Week 4 contest at Denver due to a concussion. A former first-round pick of Denver in 2019 (No. 20 overall), he spent three seasons with the Broncos ('19-21), before being traded to Seattle, where he played the past three years ('22-24). He has suited up for 98 career regular-season games with 85 starts, and has 312 catches for 3385 yards and 16 TDs. Sixth-year pro Tanner Hudson is a reserve TE who has enjoyed his best career statistical seasons in 2023 and '24 with the Bengals. After totaling 15 receptions for 199 yards over his first four seasons on an active roster (2019-22), he posted career highs in catches (39) and yards (352) for Cincinnati in '23, then followed up with 19 for 154 in '24. Hudson joined the Bengals' practice squad late in 2022, after spending time with Tampa Bay ('18-20), San Francisco ('19) and the N.Y. Giants ('22). He won Super Bowl LV with the Buccaneers (2020 season), seeing action in each of their four games during that postseason. Cam Grandy began his 2024 rookie season on the Bengals' practice squad, then signed to the active roster midway through the year and went on to play in eight games with six starts. He has six catches for 34 yards in his career, including a six-yard grab in his first appearance of the 2025 campaign in Week 3 at Minnesota. Grandy was an All-American at the FCS level with Illinois State University, where in 2023 he led all Missouri Valley Conference tight ends with 612 receiving yards.

Offensive linemen: Headlining the Bengals' offensive line room is four-time Pro Bowler Orlando Brown Jr., who has started all 32 games he has played in for Cincinnati at LOT. Brown signed with the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2023, after spending his first three NFL seasons ('18-20) with Baltimore and then two ('21-22) with Kansas City. He made his first 32 career starts at ROT for the Ravens before transitioning midway through the 2020 campaign to LOT, where he has lined up for each of his last 74 regular-season games played. He has played all 225 offensive snaps through Cincinnati's first four games this season. His father, the late Orlando Brown Sr., played nine NFL seasons (1994-99, 2003-05), spending time with Cleveland and Baltimore. The nucleus of the O-line is C Ted Karras, who is in his fourth season with the Bengals and 10th in the NFL in 2025. Karras has been voted a team captain in each of his four years with Cincinnati, as he became a vocal leader in the locker room almost instantaneously after signing with the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2022. On field, he has started 57 consecutive games at center for the Bengals, lining up for 99.5 percent of the team's offensive snaps in that span (3739 of 3758). Off the field, he was the team's 2023 nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, honored for his charitable work with the Indianapolis-based Village of Merici through his fan-favorite "Cincy Hat." Karras spent five of his first six pro seasons with New England, where he won a pair of Super Bowls in 2016 and '18. The starting ROT is second-year pro Amarius Mims, who was Cincinnati's first-round draft choice in 2024 (No. 18 overall). Mims played in 15 games as a rookie with 13 starts at ROT, and impressed his teammates and coaches as the year progressed. He has started all four games this season and lined up for 219 of 225 offensive snaps. He came to the Bengals following three seasons (2021-23) at the University of Georgia, where he played in 29 career games and was part of back-to-back national championship teams ('21-22). Listed at 6-8, 350 pounds, he is tied with Orlando Brown Jr. as both the tallest and heaviest player on the Bengals' roster. A teammate of Mims' at Georgia was Dylan Fairchild, who was taken in the third round of this year's draft and has started at LG for the Bengals in each of the first four games of his rookie season. He started all 14 games for the Bulldogs in 2024 and earned both second-team All-America and second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors. In addition to being a football standout at West Forsyth High School in Cumming, Ga., he was a two-time Georgia state champion wrestler in the Class 7A heavyweight division. Rookie G Jalen Rivers is coming off his first career start in Week 4 at Denver, as he lined up for all 48 offensive snaps at RG. A fifth-round pick of the Bengals in April, Rivers boasted a proven ability to line up at both tackle and guard spots during his college career at the University of Miami (Fla.). He was the Hurricanes' starting LOT his final two seasons, and picked up second-team All-ACC honors in 2023 followed by honorable mention all-conference in '24. He suited up for 38 total games with 29 starts over five seasons (2020-24) at Miami. A veteran with valuable position versatility is OT Cody Ford, whose nine starts for the Bengals in 2024 included five at LOT, two at LG, one at ROT and one as a tackle-eligible third TE. Ford entered the league as a second-round draft pick of Buffalo in 2019 and spent his first three seasons with the Bills, before being traded to Arizona during training camp in '22. He signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent in 2023 and saw action in all 17 contests during his debut season with the Bengals. He has played 10 offensive snaps and 11 special teams snaps through four games this season. Ford was college teammates with Orlando Brown Jr. at the University of Oklahoma from 2015-17. G Dalton Risner signed with the Bengals as a free agent in late August and has played in three games with two starts at RG this season. He entered the Week 1 contest at Cleveland in the second quarter following starter Lucas Patrick's injury, and has since lined up for over 61 percent of offensive snaps (138 of 225). Risner spent his first four seasons ('19-22) with Denver before playing for Minnesota from '23-24. He has played in 90 career regular-season games with 83 starts — 73 at LG and 10 at RG. He originally was a second-round draft pick of the Broncos in 2019. C Matt Lee is in his second pro season with the Bengals, after seeing action in all 17 games for Cincinnati in 2024. He played 27 total offensive snaps and 86 special teams snaps last year, and made his first career start in Week 16 vs. Cleveland as a tackle-eligible third TE. He was inactive for the Week 1 contest at Cleveland, and has lined up for eight special teams snaps over the past three games. Lee was a seventh-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2024, following a five-year college career (2019-23) that saw him go from the University of Central Florida ('19-22) to Miami (Fla.) for his final season. He garnered second-team All-ACC honors in his lone season at Miami.

Defensive linemen: The Bengals' defensive line room is headlined by Trey Hendrickson, a ninth-year defensive end who has been voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons with Cincinnati (2021-24). He has posted 17.5 sacks in each of the past two seasons, with last year's total leading the NFL. He became the first Bengals player to lead the league in sacks since it became an officially tracked statistic in 1982. Hendrickson was a first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press in 2024 and finished second in voting for AP Defensive Player of the Year. Since joining the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent in the 2021 offseason, he ranks third in the NFL in sacks (59.0) and tied for fourth in forced fumbles (11). He entered the NFL as a third-round pick of New Orleans in 2017 and spent his first four seasons ('17-20) with the Saints. He kicked off this season with a sack in each of the first two games, including one in the closing seconds of Week 2 vs. Jacksonville to help secure the win. That play tied him with former DE Ross Browner for the fifth-most sacks in Bengals history. Anchoring the D-line is eighth-year DT B.J. Hill, who was acquired by Cincinnati in a trade with the N.Y. Giants prior to the start of the 2021 season. After seeing action primarily as a reserve DT in his first Bengals season, Hill has started each of his last 58 games played, including six postseason contests from 2021-22. A productive pass rusher from the interior of the D-line, he has totaled 17 sacks as a Bengal while also batting down/tipping 13 passes. He has 17 tackles, with two TFLs and a sack, through the first four games of this season. Among the notable free agent acquisitions this year for the Bengals was DT T.J. Slaton Jr., who joined the Bengals after spending his first four pro seasons (2021-24) with Green Bay. Originally a fifth-round pick of the Packers in 2021, he has played in 72 regular-season games and totaled 146 tackles, six TFLs, two sacks and four PDs. He made his first career start in the 2022 season finale and has started each of his last 40 games played. Slaton has logged 13 tackles through his first four starts with Cincinnati, including four in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville. DE Joseph Ossai tallied his first sack of the season in Week 3 at Minnesota, as he took down Vikings QB Carson Wentz for a five-yard loss. He now has six sacks over his last 10 games played dating back to Week 11 of the 2024 campaign. Originally a third-round pick of the Bengals in 2021, Ossai missed his entire rookie year due to a knee injury, but has since been out of the lineup for just three games in the past three-plus seasons. He has 10.5 sacks and eight TFLs in 51 career games (five starts). He was born in Nigeria (Keti Ijanikin, Lagos), and moved to the United States at age 10 — the same year he saw his first football game. DE Myles Murphy, Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2023, has played in 34 career games and recorded 49 tackles with four TFLs and 3.5 sacks. He missed the early part of the 2024 season due to a knee injury, but returned to the lineup in October of last year and has suited up for each of the Bengals' last 18 contests. He has nine tackles through four games this season, including a half-sack in Week 3 at Minnesota. Murphy was a first-team All-ACC pick in his final season at Clemson University, where he amassed 17.5 career sacks in 38 games for the Tigers. Cincinnati added veteran depth recently when it signed free agent DT Mike Pennel off the practice squad to the active roster on Sept. 9. Pennel joined the practice squad the previous week, after serving as a key member of Kansas City's defense in 2023 and '24. An 11th-year player, he spent his first three pro seasons (2014-16) with Green Bay, before playing for the N.Y. Jets ('17-18), a first stint with the Chiefs ('19-20), Atlanta ('21) and Chicago ('22). He has suited up for 142 career regular-season games with 25 starts, and has 241 total tackles with 15 TFLs and five sacks. He has 10 tackles on 85 defensive snaps played through four games with the Bengals. Second-year DT Kris Jenkins Jr. got in the sack column for the first time this season in Week 3 at Minnesota, notching 1.5 in the first half. A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2024, Jenkins played in 15 games with nine starts as a rookie last year, including starts in each of the final seven contests. He logged 31 tackles with three sacks last season, and has kicked off this year with 15 stops (seven solos). In his final season at the University of Michigan in 2023, he earned second-team All-America honors and helped lead the Wolverines to a national title. His father, Kris Jenkins Sr., was a four-time Pro Bowler during his 10-year playing career (2001-10) as a DT for Carolina and the N.Y. Jets. The Bengals added impressive athleticism to the D-line room when they selected DE Shemar Stewart in the first round of this year's draft (No. 17 overall) out of Texas A&M University. Noted in the scouting process for his physical traits, Stewart was one of two players in the 2025 draft class to produce a perfect 10.0 on the Relative Athletic Score, which grades a player's measurements compared to their peer group. He played in 37 games with 19 starts across three seasons (2022-24) with the Aggies, and totaled 65 tackles with 11 TFLs and 4.5 sacks. He earned third-team All-SEC honors last season, when he led Texas A&M with 39 pressures and seven QB hurries. He posted two tackles through his first two NFL games, but has been inactive for each of the past two contests due to an ankle injury. Members of Cincinnati's defensive coaching staff expressed their excitement for the return of fifth-year DE Cam Sample, who missed the entire 2024 campaign due to an Achilles injury sustained during training camp. A 2021 Bengals fourth-round pick, Sample has played in 51 career games as a rotational lineman and has 72 tackles with five sacks. He made his return to game action in the preseason opener at Philadelphia, and saw his first regular-season action since the Achilles injury in Week 1 at Cleveland. He has played in all four games this season and posted four tackles. DT McKinnley Jackson, a third-round pick of the Bengals in 2024, played in 13 games as a rookie last season after beginning the year on Reserve/Injured due to a knee injury. He contributed 15 tackles, two TFLs, one sack and one FF, earning an increased role in the back half of the season. He played in 40 career games at Texas A&M University, where he was voted a team captain in each of his final two years (2022-23). He has been inactive for all four games this season. Rookie DT Howard Cross III made the Bengals' 53-man roster after signing with the team as a college free agent in May. He has been inactive for three games this season, but made his NFL debut in Week 3 at Minnesota and recorded a tackle on nine defensive snaps played. Cross compiled a noteworthy career under current Bengals defensive coordinator Al Golden at Notre Dame, where he suited up in 65 games with 35 starts across six seasons (2019-24). He was named a second-team All American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) in 2024. His father, Howard Cross Jr., played 13 seasons as a TE with the N.Y. Giants (1989-2001).

Linebackers: Logan Wilson leads the Bengals' linebackers room in his sixth pro season, after missing the final six games of the 2024 campaign due to a knee injury. A 2020 third-round pick by Cincinnati, Wilson has played in 72 career regular-season games with 62 starts. He has topped 100 tackles in each of the past three seasons (2022-24), and his 11 career INTs are the most by any player at his position since he entered the league. He is one of three NFL players with at least 10 INTs, five sacks and five FFs since 2020, alongside Minnesota S Harrison Smith and Baltimore CB Marlon Humphrey. Wilson's injury last season ended a streak of 39 straight starts. He has 25 tackles and three PDs through four games this season. Starting alongside Wilson is rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr., who the Bengals took in the second round of April's draft. Knight leads the position group with 31 tackles through four games this season, the second-most on the team. He recorded his first career INT in Week 4 at Denver, picking off Broncos QB Bo Nix in Cincinnati's end zone late in the first half. He shot up draft boards after a breakout season at the University of South Carolina in 2024, in which he played in 13 games and ranked second on the Gamecocks with 82 tackles. He spent his first four college seasons (2019-22) at Georgia Tech, then played at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in '23. Knight was a four-year starter at QB in high school, then transitioned to LB early in his college career. Eighth-year LB Oren Burks signed with the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent in March, after helping Philadelphia win Super Bowl LIX the previous month. He was a key performer for the Eagles during their postseason run, as he recorded 24 tackles, three TFLs, one sack and two FFs (one defensive, one on kickoff coverage) in four games. He entered the NFL as a third-round pick of Green Bay in 2018 and spent his first four pro seasons with the Packers ('18-21), before playing for San Francisco from '22-23. He has been rotated in frequently through his first four games with the Bengals, seeing action on 101 total defensive snaps and recording eight tackles, one TFL and one FF. He made his first start as a Bengal in Week 4 at Denver. Rookie Barrett Carter was noted for his versatility and all-around value when the Bengals drafted him in the fourth round this April. He played in 52 games with 40 starts during a four-year career (2021-24) at Clemson University, and amassed 233 tackles, 31.5 TFLs, 12.5 sacks, 21 pass breakups, three INTs and two FFs. Over the span of his four collegiate seasons, he was the nation's only player with at least 30 TFLs, 20 PBUs and three picks. Last season, he was a team captain, first-team All-ACC, third-team All-American and a finalist for the Butkus Award (nation's top LB). He has eight tackles through his first four career games, including three stops in his NFL debut at Cleveland. Shaka Heyward spent the entire 2023 campaign and most of '24 on Cincinnati's practice squad, before playing in six games for the Bengals in the back half of last season. A 2023 college free agent signee out of Duke University, he has carved out a role on special teams and has a team-leading seven special teams tackles through four games this season. Heyward also ranked second on the team this past preseason with 14 total tackles.

Cornerbacks: A first-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2022, Dax Hill spent his first two pro seasons at safety before making the transition to CB ahead of the '24 campaign. He started the first five games of last season at CB before suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week 5. He underwent a full rehab and returned to full participation during training camp. Hill has started each of the first four contests this season, totaling 28 tackles, two PDs and one INT. His pick came in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville, when he came down with a pass to the Cincinnati end zone to help turn the momentum of the game. A natural athlete who lined up at several positions in the secondary during his career at the University of Michigan (2019-21), Hill primarily contributed on special teams throughout his 2022 rookie season before starting all 17 contests at S in '23. CB DJ Turner II made his regular-season return in Week 1 at Cleveland, after missing the final six games of the 2024 campaign due to a collarbone injury. He helped seal the win over the Browns with his first career INT, which came with under two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter and the Bengals protecting a one-point lead. His five PDs through the first four weeks of the regular season are tied for the fifth-most in the NFL. Prior to last season's injury, Turner was emerging as a consistent starting outside cornerback midway through his sophomore campaign. A second-round draft choice in 2023, he has played in 32 career games with 21 starts and has 88 tackles along with 20 PDs. He was a teammate of Hill's at Michigan, where he earned two All-Big Ten honors. Turner ran the fastest time in the 40-yard dash at the 2023 NFL Combine, clocking in at 4.26 seconds. CB Josh Newton looks to continue building his status as a core member of the defense in his second pro season. A fifth-round pick in 2024, he earned a roster spot coming out of his rookie training camp and went on to play in all 17 games. He was thrust into the starting lineup following Turner's shoulder injury and started the final six contests, and that stretch included his first career INT in Week 15 at Tennessee. He has posted seven tackles this season (six solos), and lined up for a team-high 54 defensive snaps in Week 3 at Minnesota. Newton spent his final two collegiate seasons (2022-23) at Texas Christian University, where he started all 27 games he played in. Cincinnati's second-round draft choice in 2022 was Cam Taylor-Britt, who has played in 42 regular-season games with 39 starts in his career. He had a career-high 16 PDs in 2024, which led the Bengals and tied for fifth-most in the NFL, along with three INTs. He broke out during the 2023 campaign with four picks (tied for seventh in NFL) and 11 PDs in just 12 games played. Taylor-Britt has posted five tackles and two PDs so far this season. The Bengals acquired CB Marco Wilson on waivers from New England last November, adding depth and experience following Turner's injury. Wilson spent the majority of his first three pro seasons (2021-23) with Arizona, before being waived by the Cardinals and signed by the Patriots in December of '23. He has played in 62 career regular-season games with 37 starts, and his career totals include 20 PDs and three INTs. He played in each of Cincinnati's final six games last season, and made his 2025 debut in Week 3 at Minnesota. DJ Ivey made his return midway through the 2024 season, after recovering from a knee injury sustained late in the '23 campaign. A 2023 seventh-round draft pick of the Bengals, he carved out a role on special teams and showed flashes on defense prior to the injury. In 11 games played last season, he recorded three solo tackles and two PDs defensively, while also contributing one tackle on special teams. Ivey has lined up for 57 special teams snaps and 11 defensive snaps through the first four games of this season.

Safeties: Geno Stone has started all 21 games he has played in for the Bengals since joining the team as an unrestricted free agent in the 2024 offseason. He led Cincinnati with four INTs last year (tied for 10th in NFL), which included a stretch of three straight games with a pick from Weeks 14-16. Stone spent his first four pro seasons (2020-23) with Baltimore, and emerged as a premier ball-hawking safety in '23 when his career-high seven INTs led the AFC. His 11 total INTs since the start of the 2023 campaign are tied for the third-most leaguewide. Stone also ranked third on the Bengals last season with 81 tackles. He has 28 tackles (15 solos) through four starts in 2025, including a season-high 10 stops in Week 4 at Denver. His fellow starting safety, Jordan Battle, recorded an INT in the first two games this season, becoming the first Bengals player to start a year with picks in back-to-back games since former CB Ashley Ambrose in 1996. He also leads Cincinnati with 32 tackles through four games, highlighted by a career-best 12 stops in the opener at Cleveland. A third-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, Battle has played in 38 career games (17 starts) and has four picks to go with 154 tackles. His starting roles in previous seasons came late in the year, as he started each of the final seven contests in his 2023 rookie campaign, then each of the final six in '24. He was a team captain and third-team All-American in his final season at the University of Alabama (2022). Fourth-year pro Tycen Anderson is a special teams ace and rotational safety. He has led the Bengals in special teams tackles in each of the past two seasons, with eight in 2023 followed by 11 in '24, and he already has five ST stops through the first four games of '25. He missed his entire rookie regular season in 2022 due to a knee injury, but recovered in time for the start of the following training camp and had two INTs in the '23 preseason opener. He was the recipient of the team's 2024 Ed Block Courage Award, in recognition of his dedication and work ethic during his injury rehab process. PJ Jules cracked the 53-man roster for the first time this year, after spending his entire rookie season in 2024 on the Bengals' practice squad. A 2024 college free agent signee, he was a consensus first-team FCS All-American and first-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference choice at Southern Illinois University in 2023. He wrapped up his tenure with the Salukis by totaling 111 tackles, 13 TFLs and 11 PBUs in 2023. Jules led the Bengals with 10 solo tackles this past preseason. He has seen action primarily on special teams through four games this season, but also contributed two tackles with a TFL in Week 3 at Minnesota.

Special Teams: A fifth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2021, K Evan McPherson owns the third-highest career FG percentage in team history (82.4). He has converted 98 of 119 FG attempts in the regular season, and is a perfect 19 of 19 in postseason play. He knocked through 16 of 22 tries in the 2024 campaign, before sustaining a groin injury in Week 13 vs. Pittsburgh that kept him out of the final five games. His 24 career made FGs from 50 or more yards already are the most in Bengals history, and are tied for the eighth-most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021. He has been named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week three times, and has seven career "walk-off" game-winning FGs as time expired (including postseason). McPherson has converted all four of his FG attempts and all seven of his PATs through the first four games of this season, with a long of 45 yards in Week 3 at Minnesota. Second-year P Ryan Rehkow is coming off a record-setting rookie campaign in 2024 that saw him set Bengals single-season marks for gross punting average (49.11 yards per punt) and net average (42.92). His net average ranked sixth among all NFL punters last season, while his gross ranked ninth (both led all rookies). Rehkow was named to the 2024 Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team. In his career debut in Week 1 of last season against New England, he set an NFL single-game record with 64.5 gross yards per punt (four punts for 258 yards). Rehkow began the 2025 season with six punts for 316 yards at Cleveland, capped off by a 49-yarder that was downed at the Browns' one-yard line to help seal the win late in the fourth quarter. In Week 4 at Denver, he punted eight times for 403 yards, including a 69-yard long, with three downed inside the 20. He originally joined the Bengals as a free agent early in training camp in 2024. Rookie William Wagner earned the role as the Bengals' long snapper coming out of this past training camp, after signing with the team as a college free agent in May. Wagner spent six seasons (2019-24) at the University of Michigan, where he saw action in 53 total games. In 2024, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors while being named a finalist for the Mannely Award (nation's top LS). He has delivered 34 snaps through his first four NFL games. WR Charlie Jones serves as Cincinnati's primary kickoff and punt returner. He is one of two players in team history to score a TD on both (CB Lemar Parrish), as he found the end zone on an 81-yard PR in Week 2 of the 2023 season vs. Baltimore, and also had a 100-yard KOR on the opening kickoff of Week 7 at Cleveland last year. He took over KOR duties for the first time in 2024, and finished the year with five returns for 200 yards. He also has 40 career PRs for 390 yards (9.8 average). Jones has recorded eight KORs for 179 yards and four PRs for 59 yards through four games this season. Also in the mix to return kickoffs and punts is second-year WR Jermaine Burton, who took over KOR responsibilities late last season following an injury to Jones. Burton had 13 KORs for 378 yards (29.1 average), including two 38-yarders. He logged four KORs for 84 yards this past preseason, as well as two PRs for 35 yards. HB Samaje Perine returned six kickoffs for 154 yards in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville, and he followed up with four KORs for 88 yards in Week 3 at Minnesota. While playing for Kansas City last season, he had five KORs for 163 yards (32.6 average).

THE LAST BENGALS-LIONS MEETINGS

2017 SEASON WEEK 16, GAME 15

Cincinnati Bengals 26, Detroit Lions 17 Sunday, Dec. 24, 2017 at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals played with a shuffled lineup due to injuries, particularly at OL and LB, and they lost more players as the game progressed. On offense, the Bengals were without both starting OTs (Cedric Ogbuehi and Andre Smith), and they lost HB Joe Mixon early in the first quarter. On defense, the Bengals began without starting LBs Nick Vigil and Kevin Minter, and they lost Vontaze Burfict in the second quarter. But the Bengals' backups played well. At OL, veterans Clint Boling and Eric Winston combined with Christian Westernman and Alex Redmond to block for 142 net rushing yards, the second-highest total of the season. Bernard had 116 rushing yards and a TD on 23 carries and seven catches for 52 yards. On defense, vet Vincent Rey combined with a trio of rookies in Jordan Evans, Hardy Nickerson and Brandon Bell to fill in. Rey had two tackles and an INT. The Bengals held advantages in first downs (28-15), net rushing yards (142-87) and time of possession (32:29-27:31). The Bengals improved to 6-9 and the Lions fell to 8-7.

2021 SEASON WEEK 6, GAME 6

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Detroit Lions 11 Sunday, Oct. 17, 2021 at Ford Field

The visiting Bengals cruised to a 23-point win, good for their largest margin of victory in four seasons. Rookie HB Chris Evans caught a 24-yard TD on Cincinnati's first offensive possession, but the offense struggled for much of the rest of the first half. Cincinnati's defense picked up the slack though, holding the Lions scoreless in the first two quarters while allowing just 51 total yards. Cincinnati led just 10-0 at halftime, but in the second half the offense came away with points on all four of its full possessions (three TDs and a FG). Cincinnati was effective through the air and on the ground. QB Joe Burrow tossed three TDs on the afternoon and posted a 115.7 passer rating, while HB Joe Mixon racked up 153 total yards, including a 40-yard receiving TD that featured a massive downfield block from rookie WR Ja'Marr Chase to lead him into the end zone. Cincinnati improved to 4-2, while Detroit fell to 0-6.

2025 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 17, Cleveland Browns 16 Sunday, Sept. 7, 2025 at Huntington Bank Field

The Bengals' defense recorded two takeaways in the second half and held Cleveland scoreless on its final six possessions to lead the way in a season-opening victory. Cincinnati's offense was limited to 141 net yards, the second-fewest in a win in team history, but it scored a TD on two of its first three drives to build a 14-10 halftime lead. The Browns pulled ahead with a TD in the third quarter but missed the PAT attempt, and a 35-yard FG by Bengals K Evan McPherson later in the period regained the lead for Cincinnati. Cleveland drove inside the red zone with under five minutes remaining in regulation, but K Andre Szmyt's try for a 36-yard go-ahead FG sailed wide right. The Browns forced a quick Bengals punt and once again were driving for the win, before CB DJ Turner II came up with his first career INT on a ball that ricocheted off a Cleveland WR. P Ryan Rehkow then delivered a punt that was downed at the Browns' one-yard line, securing the win for Cincinnati.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Cincinnati Bengals 31, Jacksonville Jaguars 27 Sunday, Sept. 14, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

Backup QB Jake Browning scored the go-ahead TD on a one-yard sneak with 18 seconds left to lead the Bengals to a win in their home opener. Browning, who entered the game in the second quarter after starter Joe Burrow suffered a toe injury, rallied from throwing three INTs to lead Cincinnati on a game-winning drive that started at its own eight-yard line. Defensively, the Bengals intercepted Jaguars QB Trevor Lawrence twice, including a pick by CB Dax Hill in the end zone which kept points off the board in the first quarter. Browning threw a pair of TD passes in the second half, including a 13-yarder to WR Mitch Tinsley for his first career reception. WR Ja'Marr Chase carried the load offensively with 14 catches for 165 yards and a first-quarter TD. Cincinnati improved to 2-0, while Jacksonville fell to 1-1.

WEEK 3, GAME 3Minnesota Vikings 48, Cincinnati Bengals 10
Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025 at U.S. Bank Stadium

Cincinnati committed five turnovers, including four in the first half, on the way to the 38-point defeat. Two of the first-half turnovers resulted in TD returns by Vikings CB Isaiah Rodgers, who had an 87-yard pick-six and a 66-yard fumble recovery return. The Bengals were driving inside Minnesota territory with a chance to cut into a 14-point deficit ahead of halftime, but they committed three fumbles over the final two minutes which the Vikings converted into 17 points. The final play of the first half was a 62-yard FG by K Will Reichard, which marked the longest FG by an opponent in Bengals history. Bengals QB Jake Browning was picked off twice and held to 140 passing yards while being sacked three times. Cincinnati fell to 2-1, while Minnesota improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4Denver Broncos 28, Cincinnati Bengals 3
Monday night, Sept. 29, 2025 at Empower Field at Mile High

Denver scored 28 unanswered points and totaled 512 yards of net offense to defeat the Bengals in a nationally televised contest. Cincinnati took an early lead on a short FG from K Evan McPherson which capped off a 12-play, 62-yard opening drive, but the offense was forced to punt on every remaining possession and recorded just 97 yards the rest of the way. Cincinnati came up with a stop on fourth down near its own goal line late in the second quarter, as rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. picked off Broncos QB Bo Nix in the end zone for his first career INT. But Denver regained possession shortly after and put together a quick scoring drive at the end of the half to build its lead. Though the Bengals' defense kept the Broncos off the board through most of the second half, Nix punctuated the night with his second TD pass late in the fourth quarter. Cincinnati fell to 2-2, while Denver improved to 2-2.
