NOTABLE STORYLINES AND GAME INFORMATION

- The Cleveland Browns (7-9) close out the 2021 season when they host the Cincinnati Bengals (10-6) for their final game. The Browns won the first outing between the two teams, 41-16, in Week 9 and have an opportunity to sweep Cincinnati in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1993-94. Cincinnati leads the all-time series 51-45, but the Browns have won six of the last seven games between the two teams.

- During Sunday's game, the Browns will help amplify the league's commitment to Inspire Change social justice efforts by highlighting their history. Pro Football Hall of Famers Marion Motley and Bill Willis will be honored at the game. The pair were signed to the Browns in 1946 and helped break the color barrier and reintegrate professional football. Motley's grandson, Tony Motley, and Bill Willis' sons, Bill Jr. and Clem, will serve as our VIP guests and be recognized as Dawg Pound Captains.

- The Browns have five 2022 Pro Bowl selections (G Joel Bitonio, DE Myles Garrett, RB Nick Chubb, G Wyatt Teller and CB Denzel Ward), the team's most since 2013 when the club had six. Bitonio led the voting among all guards and is the first Browns guard to be named to four consecutive Pro Bowls since Pro Football Hall of Famer Gene Hickerson made six straight from 1966-71. With Bitonio and Teller both making the Pro Bowl, it marks the fifth time in Browns history that two guards made the Pro Bowl and first since 1967 when Hickerson and John Wooten were selected.

- RB Nick Chubb is third in the NFL with 1,201 rushing yards, while adding nine total touchdowns. Chubb joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Jim Brown (seven times) and Leroy Kelly (twice) as the only Browns to rush for more than 1,200 yards in multiple seasons. This season, Chubb is leading all NFL players (min. 150 attempts) with a 5.48 rushing average.

- DE Myles Garrett is tied for third in the NFL with a Brown single-season record 15 sacks. Garrett has reached double digit sacks totals in each of the past four seasons.

- Last week, Browns TEs David Njoku and Harrison Bryant recorded touchdown catches. Njoku's 15 career touchdowns are the third-most by Browns tight end all-time. Bryant is the first Browns TE to record a touchdown in three consecutive games since Gary Barnidge posted one in four straight games in 2015. On the season, the Browns TE group has totaled 92 receptions for 1,033 yards with 10 touchdowns. Njoku leads the team with four receiving scores, while Bryant and Austin Hooper each have three. The Browns are the only NFL team to have at least three touchdowns by three different tight ends this season.

His total is fourth since 2014 in the first 100 starts of a player's career, behind Julio Jones (668), DeAndre Hopkins (627) and Antonio Brown (589).

After throwing a touchdown pass in Week 4 and rushing for a touchdown in Week 17 last year, he became the first Brown with a rushing, receiving and passing touchdown in a season since Eric Metcalf in 1989 (10th time in franchise history).

Finished his seventh NFL season with 636 career receptions, the second most by a player in his first seven years in history. He also became just the fourth player in NFL history to reach 630 career receptions in his first seven seasons and the first player since he was drafted in 2014 to hit the mark.

TWO AT A TIME

Since Week 2 of his rookie season in 2014 until Week 2 this year, Landry caught at least two passes in 111 consecutive games. His streak was the best in the NFL since 2014 and was the second longest that's active.

Landry reached 7,000 career receiving yards last year, just the 30th player to reach the mark in his first seven seasons in NFL history and became the seventh player since he was drafted in 2014 to reach the milestone.

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history on January 13, 2020. He spent the previous 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator.

In his first season with the Browns, Stefanski led the team to their first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. He notched the most wins (11) by a first-year Browns head coach since Hall of Famer Paul Brown had 12 in the team's inaugural season in 1946. Stefanski's winning percentage (.688) was the best since Blanton Collier (.714) in 1963 and the third-best overall in franchise history. Stefanski's 11 regular season wins were the most by a first-year head coach in 2020 and marked just the 11th time since 1970 a first-year coach has won 11 or more games. Stefanski was named the NFL Coach of the Year and joined Forrest Gregg (1976) as the second coach in franchise history to earn the honor.

Stefanski's first season was unlike any other in NFL history as he and the club had to navigate the new realities and protocols presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. During his first offseason program, he and the staff had to install a new offensive and defensive system entirely virtual. Stefanski and his coaching staff didn't meet most of the players in-person until training camp, which was completely revamped to adhere to the league's protocols. During the second half of the season, the Browns dealt with numerous stops and starts to their schedule, including complete closures of the team facility, because of positive COVID-19 tests.

Despite the new norms, Stefanski who serves as the team's play-caller, helped the Browns offense to some of its best numbers in generations. Cleveland's 408 points were its second-most in franchise history, while the club also finished with its second-best total in scrimmage touchdowns (48) and tied for the second-most first downs (355). The Browns finished third in the league in rushing with an average of 148.4 yards per game (the team's best since 1978).

Stefanski helped several Browns earn individual honors as DE Myles Garrett and RT Jack Conklin were named first-team All-Pros by the Associated Press, while G Joel Bitonio and G Wyatt Teller each earned second team honors. Garrett, Bitonio and RB Nick Chubb were selected to the Pro Bowl.

He didn't just bring the team together on the field, he also brought them together in the community. As protests for social justice erupted all across the country during the summer of 2020, Stefanski carved out meeting time to allow the players time to discuss how they felt in the moment. They were also given time off during the funeral of George Floyd, whose controversial death spurred the movement. Stefanski then empowered them to "get in the arena" and use their platform to make a difference however they saw fit.

Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and remained with the organization under three different head coaches. After serving as assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, Stefanski spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the tight ends and one season (2016) as running backs coach. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games before being named the team's offensive coordinator in 2019.

In 2019, the Vikings posted a 10-6 record and earned their first road playoff win since January 9, 2005, after defeating the Saints, 26-20, in New Orleans. Three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl as RB Dalvin Cook and FB C.J. Ham were each named to their first career Pro Bowl with Cook voted a starter. QB Kirk Cousins was also named to the Pro Bowl.

In his first full year under Stefanski, Cousins set a single-season career high for passer rating with a 107.4 mark, fourth best in the NFL in 2019. Cousins also finished with a career-low six interceptions, while adding 26 touchdowns and a 69.1 completion percentage, fourth in the NFL in 2019. He set a Vikings record for completions in a season with 425 and finished with the second-most passing yards (4,298) and passer rating (107.4) in Vikings history.

With 1,135 rushing yards, Cook became the eighth player in Vikings history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season and the first since Adrian Peterson in 2015. Despite missing the final two games of the season, Cook finished fourth in the NFL with 13 rushing touchdowns and seventh in scrimmage yards with 1,654.

WR Stefon Diggs set a career high with 1,130 receiving yards, giving him back-to-back 1,000-receiving yard seasons for the first time in his career. Diggs finished fourth in the NFL with an average of 17.9 yards per reception in 2019.

Stefanski was elevated from quarterbacks coach to interim offensive coordinator in Week 15 of the 2018 season and promptly guided the unit to two of its best showings of the season. In his first game calling plays, Minnesota scored a season-high 41 points and recorded 418 yards of offense en route to a 41-17 victory over the Dolphins.

As quarterbacks coach in 2017, the Vikings were forced to go to their backup, Case Keenum, early in the season after starter Sam Bradford went down with an injury. Keenum, who had completed 58 percent of his passes previously owned a 9-15 career record as a starter, went on to complete nearly 68 percent of his throws with 22 touchdowns and seven interceptions while leading the Vikings to a record of 11-3.

In his lone season coaching the running backs in 2016, the Vikings battled injuries along the offensive line and to RB Adrian Peterson that caused the runner to miss 13 games. The running game leaned on veterans Jerick McKinnon and Matt Asiata as the duo combined for 941 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

As tight ends coach, Stefanski helped develop Pro Bowl TE Kyle Rudolph. In 2015, his unit helped clear the way for Adrian Peterson to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,485 yards.

Stefanski was elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offense seasons in Vikings history. Veteran QB Brett Favre signed with the team in mid-August and finished the season with 4,202 passing yards and 33 touchdowns. The Vikings finished the season 12-4 and won the NFC North.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski first worked with Childress during Eagles training camp in 2005 as part of the team's operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, as assistant director of football operations, coordinating all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations.

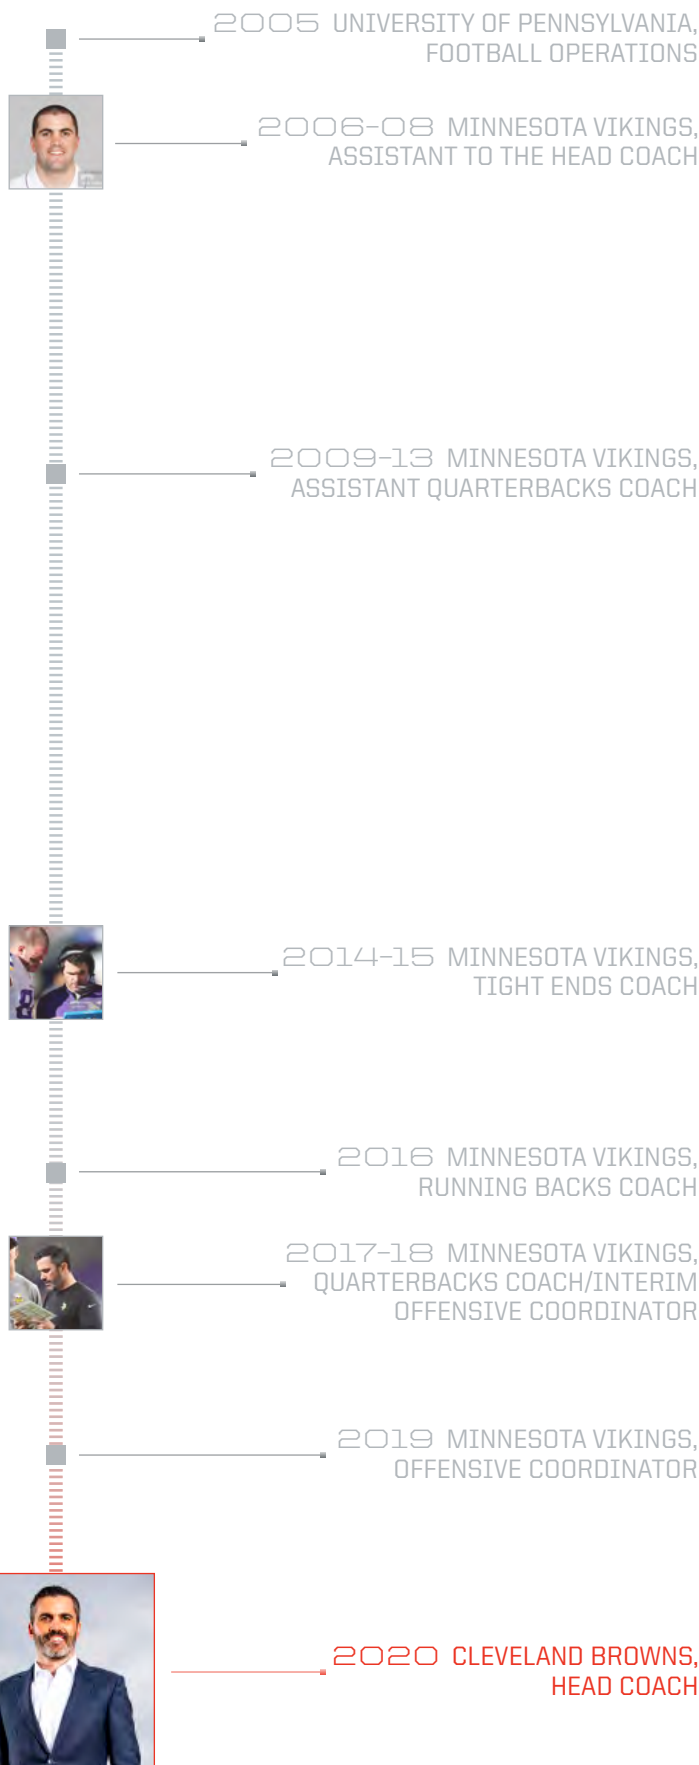

A team captain as a senior in 2003, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won three Ivy League titles (2000, 2002 and 2003), and went 10-0 in 2003 to become the first undefeated Penn team in a decade. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy League play.

Stefanski earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia.

The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a basketball standout at Penn and works in the front office of the Detroit Pistons. He has previously held executive positions with the NBA's New Jersey Nets, Philadelphia 76ers, Toronto Raptors and Memphis Grizzlies.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, have a daughter and two sons.
