WEEKLY NEWS RELEASE

NOV. 25, 2025

CINCINNATI BENGALS (3-8) AT BALTIMORE RAVENS (6-5)

WEEK 13, GAME 12
 THANKSGIVING DAY, NOV. 27
 AT M&T BANK STADIUM

UP NEXT: WEEK 14, GAME 13
 DEC. 7 AT BUFFALO

GAME INFORMATION

Kickoff: 8:20 p.m. Eastern.

Television: The game will air nationally on NBC-TV. In the Bengals' home region, it will be carried by WLWT-TV (Ch. 5) in Cincinnati, WDTN-TV (Ch. 2) in Dayton and on WLEX-TV (Ch. 18) in Lexington. Broadcasters are Mike Tirico (play-by-play), Jason Garrett (analyst), Melissa Stark (sideline reporter) and Terry McAuley (rules analyst).

Radio: The game will air on the Bengals Radio Network, led by Cincinnati flagship radio stations WLW-AM (700), WCKY-AM (1530) and WEBN-FM (102.7). Broadcasters are Dan Hoard (play-by-play) and Dave Lapham (analyst).

In addition, the game will air nationally on Westwood One Radio. Broadcasters are John Sadak (play-by-play) and Mike Mayock (analyst).

Setting the scene: The Bengals play on Thanksgiving for the second time in team history when they face the Baltimore Ravens on Thursday night at M&T Bank Stadium.

Cincinnati enters the matchup at 3-8 this season and is coming off a 26-20 home loss against New England in Week 12. After falling behind by 10 points late in the fourth quarter, the Bengals quickly scored and then held the Patriots to a FG, giving the offense an opportunity to potentially win the game with a TD. QB Joe Flacco, who has started the past six games for Cincinnati since being acquired in a trade in early October, drove the offense inside the New England 30-yard line, but his desperation throw on a fourth-down play fell incomplete to end the comeback effort.

As the Bengals turn their attention to a road game on a short week against an AFC North Division rival, head coach Zac Taylor has repeatedly commended his team's approach in practices and meetings. Cincinnati is fighting to end a four-game losing skid, and according to Taylor, the players have not allowed the disappointing results to become routine.

"We don't appreciate losing," said Taylor. "It's not fulfilling. It's sick. Our guys, they keep showing up. They keep doing a great job during the course of the week, keep practicing their tails off. They're doing everything they can on the field. We just came up short. You saw guys that have played all year, you saw guys that came in there and got their first opportunities, you saw guys that came in on a one-play notice, and guys just kept fighting. We thought we were going to win the game, and we came up short. It's a sickening feeling. You can't question the fight for one second, and at some point it's going to pay off for us."

Among the top storylines entering Thursday night's game is the status of QB Joe Burrow. The sixth-year pro started the first two games of this season, before a toe injury sustained in Week 2 forced him to spend the past nine contests on the Reserve/Injured list. He returned to practice two weeks ago and took first-team reps late last week, and Taylor indicated on Monday that he anticipates Burrow will play against the Ravens.

Should Burrow make his return, he would take over an offense that has performed among the league's top units in several categories during his injury. From Flacco's first start in Week 6 through the team's most recent game in Week 12, Cincinnati ranks third in the NFL in net passing yards per game (264.3), sixth in total yards per game (372.5) and sixth in points per game (27.2). The offense has featured some of its top playmakers stepping up in Burrow's absence, led by All-Pro WR Ja'Marr Chase, whose 79 receptions and 861 receiving yards this season both rank in the top five among all pass catchers.

Another key performer in recent weeks is third-year HB Chase Brown, who enters Thursday night having recorded 100 or more scrimmage yards in each of the past five games — the longest active streak in the league. Flacco also has been operating behind an offensive line which has allowed just nine sacks since Week 6, tied for the fourth-fewest in the NFL in that span.

Defensively, the Bengals have shown improvement in several key areas over the past two games, yielding 20 points to Pittsburgh's offense in Week 11 and 19 points to New England's in Week 12. That unit's effort against New England was highlighted by a goal line stand in which the Bengals held the Patriots out of the end zone on four separate plays from their own one-yard line in the third quarter.

"We've got a lot of young players out there," said Taylor on the defensive personnel. "Every game, they're gaining more experience, more confidence and more cohesion, and understanding what we're asking them to do. I've certainly seen that, especially in these last two weeks. You've seen a big step up for a lot of players."

Cincinnati's first appearance on Thanksgiving Day came in the 2010 season, when the Bengals fell 26-10 in a road contest against the N.Y. Jets. The opportunity to even their all-time Thanksgiving record this week comes against a Baltimore team that has won five straight games, after beginning the season with a 1-5 mark. The Ravens boast the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing offense this year, averaging 138.0 yards on the ground per game, while defensively they have not given up 20 or more points since Week 5.

The series: The Ravens currently hold a six-game advantage in regular season, 32-26, while the Bengals hold a 1-0 lead in postseason. Baltimore currently has a four-game win streak over Cincinnati, recording sweeps in the last two seasons.

Throughout the series, it has not been easy for the visiting team. The Ravens lead 20-9 in Baltimore, and the Bengals lead 18-12 in Cincinnati (including postseason).

Complete Bengals-Ravens series results are on page 214 of the 2025 Bengals Media Guide.

Bengals on Thursday: The Bengals have played 20 times previously on Thursday night, posting an 11-9 record. Cincinnati has an 8-2 record in Thursday night games at home, and a 3-7 mark on the road.

This week's game marks the second time the Bengals have played on Thursday night on Thanksgiving. The first was in 2010 at the N.Y. Jets.

The Bengals and Ravens have met four times on Thursday night previously, and they are tied 2-2 in those matchups. This game also marks the third consecutive season the teams have met on Thursday night, with all three contests being played at Baltimore.

Overall at night: In regular season, the Bengals are 31-58 at night, including 4-17 on Sunday night, 15-28 on Monday night, 11-9 on Thursday night, 0-1 on Friday night and 1-3 on Saturday night.

Bengals career records watch: As Cincinnati continues the 2025 season, here is a look at potential upcoming movement on the Bengals' career records lists (regular season):

- QB Joe Burrow has completed 1769 career passes, the fifth-most in team history and 246 shy of tying QB Boomer Esiason (2015) for fourth-most. QBs Andy Dalton (2757), Ken Anderson (2654) and Carson Palmer (2024) hold the top three spots.

- Burrow has 142 career TD passes, the fifth-most in team history and 12 shy of Palmer (154) for fourth. Dalton (204), Anderson (197) and Esiason (187) hold the top three spots.

- Burrow has 26 career games with 300 or more passing yards, the second-most in team history and two shy of Dalton (28) for the team record.

- WR Ja'Marr Chase has 474 career receptions, the sixth-most in team history and 33 shy of WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh (507) for fifth. WRs Chad Johnson (751), A.J. Green (649), Carl Pickens (530) and Tyler Boyd (513) hold the top four spots on the team's career list. Chase in Week 4 at Denver surpassed WR Isaac Curtis (416) for seventh place and WR Cris Collinsworth (417) for sixth.

- Chase has 6286 career receiving yards, the sixth-most in team history and 412 shy of fifth-most, which is held by Collinsworth (6698). Johnson (10,783), Green (9430), Curtis (7101) and Pickens (6887) hold the top four spots. Chase in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets surpassed WR Eddie Brown (6134) for sixth.

- Chase has 51 career receiving TDs, the fifth-most in team history and two shy of Curtis (53) for fourth. Johnson (66), Green (65) and Pickens (63) hold the top three spots.

- Chase has 23 career games with 100 or more receiving yards, the third-most in team history and eight shy of Johnson (31) for second. Green (33) holds the team record. Chase in Week 5 vs. Detroit surpassed Curtis (20) for third.

- DE Trey Hendrickson has 61.0 sacks as a member of the Bengals, the fifth-most in team history and 1.5 shy of LB Reggie Williams (62.5) for fourth. DE/DT Eddie Edwards (83.5), DE Carlos Dunlap (82.5) and DT Geno Atkins (75.5) hold the top three spots. Hendrickson in Week 5 vs. Detroit surpassed DE Ross Browner (59.0) for fifth.

- K Evan McPherson has accounted for 521 career points, the sixth-most in team history and 28 shy of fifth-most, which is held by K Horst Muhlmann (549).

- McPherson has 111 career made FGs, the sixth-most in team history and nine shy of Muhlmann (120) for fifth.

- McPherson has 188 career made PATs, the sixth-most in team history and one shy of Muhlmann (189) for fifth.

- McPherson has a career FG percentage of 82.2 (111 made/135 att.), the third-highest mark in team history (minimum 75 attempts). Kickers Shayne Graham (86.8 percent; 177/202) and Randy Bullock (84.9; 90/106) hold the top two spots.

- P Ryan Rehkow has 41 career punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line, the fifth-most by a Bengals player since the stat began being tracked in 1976. Rehkow in Week 11 at Pittsburgh surpassed P Nick Harris (37) for fifth.

Uniform watch: Cincinnati will wear white jerseys, white pants (black stripes) and black socks on Thursday night at Baltimore. It is the Bengals' most frequently used combination since they redesigned their uniforms prior to the 2021 season, as they have worn it 18 times previously (regular season and postseason), and compiled an 11-7 record in those games. Most notably, this combination was featured in each of the team's four road playoff games following the 2021 and '22 campaigns. Cincinnati last wore this combination in a road win at Cleveland in Week 1 of this season.

The Bengals' redesign in 2021 marked the team's first significant change in uniform since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants feature four options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, white with black stripes, and orange with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new white helmet with its iconic black stripes. When paired with white jerseys and white pants (with black stripes), a new uniform combination was created and was branded as the "White Bengal." The team has worn the white helmet six times and collected a 5-1 record in those games. The helmet's most recent appearance came in Week 7 of this season, when Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh at home on Thursday Night Football.

Here are the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

* — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms (CR) that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023 and thereafter, the Bengals were permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.

^ — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or throwback and/or color rush uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes the team's orange jersey. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

+ — The Bengals added orange pants with black stripes to their uniform lineup in 2024.

Records vs. Ravens: The following individual and team regular-season Bengals and Ravens entries are logged in Cincinnati's team record book:

- In the first-ever Bengals-Ravens game on Nov. 3, 1996 at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium, head coach Bruce Coslet's Bengals overcame what still stands today as the largest deficit (18 points) to win a regular-season road game in franchise history. The Ravens led 21-3 at halftime in that contest, but Cincinnati rallied for a 24-21 win on a 34-yard Doug Pelfrey field goal at the final gun. Not until the 2021 season's AFC Championship did the Bengals finally match that road feat (overcoming a 21-3 deficit at Kansas City to earn a berth in Super Bowl LVI).

The Bengals' second-biggest regular-season comeback in a road win also was set at Baltimore. On Dec. 5, 2004 at M&T Bank Stadium, Cincinnati rallied from a 20-3 deficit to win 27-26. The Bengals matched that 17-point deficit road comeback on Dec. 18, 2022 when they came back from being down 17-0 to win 34-23 at Tampa Bay.

Also:

- On Nov. 22, 1998 in Cincinnati, Ravens RB Priest Holmes rushed for 227 yards, the most ever recorded against the Bengals in a game.

- On Sept. 23, 2001 in Cincinnati, Ravens QB Elvis Grbac attempted 63 passes, the most ever against the Bengals in a game.

- The Bengals record for kickoff return yardage in a game (228 yards) was set at Baltimore by HB Brandon Bennett on Nov. 10, 2002. Bennett had a 94-yarder for a TD.

- Also on Nov. 10, 2002, Ravens CB Lamont Brightfurlow recorded the longest punt return ever against Cincinnati, a 95-yarder for a TD.

- K Shayne Graham kicked a Bengals individual record seven field goals — for all of Cincinnati's scoring — in a 21-7 win at Baltimore on Nov. 11, 2007. Graham did not have a missed attempt. The seven total field goals also stands as the team record. The NFL record for field goals in a game is eight, set by Rob Bironas of Tennessee in 2007, and Graham is one of nine players sharing second place with seven.

- On Nov. 30, 2008 against the Ravens in Cincinnati, P Kyle Larson punted 11 times, which is tied with three other instances for most in a game in team history. Larson's 480 yards punting that day also stand as the third-most for a single game in Bengals history.

- In the 2014 season opener at Baltimore, Bengals K Mike Nugent tied the NFL record for field goals in a half (five; still tied). His five in the first half gave the Bengals a 15-0 lead toward an eventual 23-16 win.

- On Jan. 3, 2021, the Ravens set an opponents' record for most net rushing yards against the Bengals in a single game with 404. That total shattered the previous mark of 313, which had stood since 1969.

- On Dec. 26, 2021, Bengals QB Joe Burrow set a team record for most passing yards in a game with 525, which still is the fourth-highest single-game total in NFL history (more info in following item). The team's 498 net passing yards in the game also still stands as a team record.

Burrow's big day in '21 vs. Ravens: QB Joe Burrow had one of the top individual performances by a QB in NFL history on Dec. 26, 2021 vs. Baltimore, when he passed for a Bengals-record 525 yards and four TDs while completing 80.4 percent of his attempts (37 of 46). His passing yardage total still ranks as the fourth-highest in a single game in league history, and he became the first Cincinnati QB ever to post a completion percentage of 80 or higher while throwing at least 40 times.

Burrow's 525 yards and four TD passes came on the heels of a 416-yard, three-TD stat line in Week 7 of the 2021 season at Baltimore. That made him the only QB ever to pass for 400 yards and three TDs more than once in an entire career against the Ravens. He also became the first QB in NFL history to top 400 passing yards against the same opponent twice in one regular season, and his 941 combined passing yards vs. Baltimore set a record for the most-ever against one opponent in one regular season. The previous record was 874 passing yards, shared by former San Francisco QB Joe Montana against Atlanta in 1990 and former Miami QB Dan Marino against the N.Y. Jets in '88.

In the Dec. 26 matchup, Burrow became just the eighth QB since 2000 to have three completions of at least 52 yards in a game (there now have been nine QBs to hit that mark). On the receiving end of those passes were WR Tyler Boyd (68-yard TD), WR Tee Higgins (52) and HB Joe Mixon (52), who became the first trio of Bengals to catch passes of 50-plus yards in a single game since Nov. 17, 1968 at Miami.

Here are the NFL's single-game passing yardage leaders (regular season):

PLAYER	TEAM	YEAR	OPPONENT	YARDS
Norm Van Brocklin	L.A. Rams	1951	N.Y. Yanks	554
Warren Moon	Houston Oilers	1990	Kansas City	527
Matt Schaub	Houston Texans	2012	Jacksonville	527
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati Bengals	2021	Baltimore	525

Individually vs. Ravens: Here are cumulative regular-season offensive statistics for current Cincinnati players in Bengals games against the Ravens (ordered by total games played):

- TE Drew Sample: 10 games; 10 receptions for 67 yards (6.7-yard average).
- QB Joe Burrow (Reserve/Injured list): Nine games; 230-of-344 passing for 2699 yards, 21 TDs and five INTs (104.8 passer rating); 18 rushes for 56 yards (3.1) and one TD.
- WR Ja'Marr Chase: Eight games; 58 receptions for 962 yards (16.6) and eight TDs; One rush for zero yards.
- WR Tee Higgins: Eight games; 41 catches for 497 yards (12.1) and six TDs.
- HB Chase Brown: Three games; 26 rushes for 90 yards (3.5) and one TD;

12 receptions for 60 yards (5.0) and one TD.

- WR Andrei Iosivas: Three games; Three receptions for 68 yards (22.7).
- WR Jermaine Burton: Two games; One reception for 11 yards.
- TE Mike Gesicki: Two games; Six receptions for 61 yards (10.2).
- TE Tanner Hudson: Two games; 10 receptions for 91 yards (9.1) and one TD; One rush for one yard.
- TE Erick All Jr. (Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform): One game; Two catches for 10 yards (5.0).
- QB Jake Browning: One game; 8-of-14 passing for 68 yards and one TD; Four rushes for 40 yards (10.0).
- TE Cam Grandy: One game; One reception for zero yards.

THE HEAD COACHES

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2025 season is his seventh in the position.

In 2024, he guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season at 9-8, which was highlighted by five straight victories to close out the schedule. He orchestrated one of the NFL's most dynamic offenses, serving as play-caller for a unit that led the league in passing yards per game (272.9), ranked sixth in points per game (27.8) and ninth in total yards (365.5).

In 2023, Taylor led the Bengals to a 9-8 record despite a few key players missing time due to injuries, including QB Joe Burrow, who suffered a season-ending injury in Week 11. Taylor worked with backup QB Jake Browning over the final seven weeks and guided Cincinnati to a 4-3 mark to close out the slate.

The 2022 season saw Taylor lead the Bengals to their second straight AFC North Division title and a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship Game. He became the 13th head coach in NFL history to win five of his first six career postseason games. The Bengals posted impressive numbers on both sides of the ball under Taylor, as the offense ranked in the top 10 leaguewide in passing (fifth, 265.0), scoring (seventh, 26.1) and total yards (eighth, 360.5), and the defense held opponents to a league-low 59.8 completion percentage.

In 2021, Taylor guided Cincinnati to its first division crown in six years and then three postseason victories to win the AFC Championship and advance to Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, in his first full season in Taylor's system, led the league in completion percentage (70.4) and was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year. Chase, the team's first-round draft pick, posted the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455, since surpassed) en route to winning Offensive Rookie of the Year. Defensively, Cincinnati showed marked improvement from 2020 to '21, jumping from 29th in rushing yards allowed to fifth (102.5). In the postseason, Taylor led the Bengals to their first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition Burrow, the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft, to the pros, despite the absence of an in-person offseason program due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Defensively, Taylor oversaw seven new starters who helped Cincinnati hold opposing passers to the sixth-lowest completion percentage in the NFL (62.8). In 2019, his first season as head coach, Taylor led the Bengals to second-half turnarounds on both sides of the ball. Offensively, the team's per-game rushing average jumped from 70.6 yards from the first half of the season (59.5) to the second half (130.1). Defensively, Cincinnati notched 11 more sacks in the second half of the season compared to the first, and allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game.

Taylor came to the Bengals after two seasons (2017-18) with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in '17 and quarterbacks coach in '18. He had a one-year stint at the University of Cincinnati in 2016, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville. He broke into NFL coaching in 2012 as assistant QBs coach for the Miami Dolphins. He was elevated to QBs coach from 2013-15, and spent the final five games of the '15 season as interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller after the team made coaching staff changes.

Taylor's began coaching at Texas A&M University as an offensive graduate assistant and TEs coach under head coach Mike Sherman from 2008-11. The Aggies played in three bowl games during his College Station tenure.

Taylor played in college at Wake Forest (2002-03) before transferring to Butler County Community College in Kansas ('04) and then playing his final two seasons ('05-06) at the University of Nebraska. He had a decorated career with the Cornhuskers, setting numerous school records and passing for 5850 yards and 45 TDs. As a senior in 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 3197 total yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017.

Taylor joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp and never saw NFL action. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play).

His father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at the University of Oklahoma, playing under Sooners head coach Barry Switzer from 1976-79. Sherwood Taylor later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State University. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall University and currently is the pass game coordinator for the Chicago Bears.

Taylor was born in Norman, Okla., on May 10, 1983. After attending Norman High School, he earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman.

John Harbaugh is in his 18th season at the helm in Baltimore. He has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in 12 of his 17 full seasons (2008-12, '14, '18-20, '22-24), and in '12, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl championship.

Under Harbaugh's guidance, Baltimore is one of four teams with at least 12 playoff berths in the past 17 seasons, joining Green Bay (13), Kansas City (12) and New England (12). Harbaugh has also led the Ravens to playoff berths in six of the past seven seasons (2018-20, '22-24), producing the league's second-most regular-season victories during that span (78).

Entering 2025, Harbaugh was tied with Mike McCarthy for the 12th-most total victories (185, including playoffs) by a head coach in NFL history. Additionally, his 13 playoff wins tied Mike Holmgren for the seventh most all time, while his .623 regular season winning percentage stood eighth best.

Finishing 12-5 in 2024, the AFC North Champion Ravens produced the NFL's best offense (424.9 yards per game), becoming the first unit in NFL history to post at least 4000 passing yards and 3000 rushing yards in a single season. A league-high nine of Baltimore's regular season wins in 2024 came against teams that finished with a winning record.

In 2019, Harbaugh became the first Ravens coach to win Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, leading the team to the AFC's No. 1 playoff seed and a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore also won a franchise-record 12 straight games to close out the regular season.

In 2012, the Ravens seized the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Baltimore topped the Colts in the Wild Card round and followed that by earning a Divisional Round victory over top-seeded Denver before advancing to Super Bowl XLVII with a win in the AFC Championship Game at New England. In the Super Bowl in New Orleans, the Ravens bested the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31.

In his initial season with the team (2008), Harbaugh led Baltimore to an 11-5 record and a berth in the AFC Championship Game. Baltimore set an NFL record that season for most total wins (13) by a team with both a rookie head coach and a rookie starting quarterback (Joe Flacco).

Harbaugh spent his first 10 NFL seasons (1998-2007) with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was the team's secondary coach in 2007, after nine seasons as its special teams coordinator. In 2001, he was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers.

Harbaugh played defensive back at Miami (Ohio) from 1980-83, earning a degree in political science. He has no pro playing experience. He coached collegiately at Western Michigan (1984-86), Pittsburgh ('87), Morehead State ('88), Cincinnati ('89-96), and Indiana ('97).

Harbaugh was born in Perrysburg, Ohio on Sept. 23, 1962. He and his wife Ingrid have a daughter, Alison. He is the son of longtime college coach Jack. His brother, Jim, is head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, and played for the Ravens in 1998. John's sister, Joani, is married to Tom Crean, a longtime college head basketball coach, most recently for the University of Georgia from 2018-22.

Taylor vs. Ravens: The Ravens lead the series overall, 9-4 (the series includes one postseason game).

Taylor vs. Harbaugh: Harbaugh leads the series overall, 9-4 (the series includes one postseason game).

Harbaugh vs. Bengals: Harbaugh leads overall, 19-16 (the series includes one postseason game).

BENGALS NOTES

Burrow's 2024 highlights: Head coach Zac Taylor told reporters on Monday that he anticipates QB Joe Burrow will play this week at Baltimore, which would mark the Pro Bowl signal caller's first game action since suffering a toe injury in Week 2 against Jacksonville. At the time of his injury, Burrow was coming off a 2024 season that arguably was the best individual campaign by a QB in Bengals history.

In his fifth pro season in 2024, Burrow led the NFL in passing attempts (652), completions (460), passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43), while ranking third in passer rating (108.5) and fourth in completion percentage (70.6; minimum 14 attempts per team's games). Each of those figures also set a Bengals single-season record.

Burrow became the first Cincinnati QB to lead the league in completions, passing yards and TD passes in the same season. Since 2000, there have been five instances of a QB finishing a season as the outright leader in all three categories — St. Louis Rams QB Kurt Warner in '01, New Orleans QB Drew Brees in '11, Denver QB Peyton Manning in '13, Tampa Bay QB Tom Brady in '21 and Burrow in '24.

Burrow also became the fourth QB in NFL history to pass for at least 4500 yards and 40 TDs while throwing 10 or fewer INTs, joining Manning (2004 and '13), Brady ('07) and Green Bay QB Aaron Rodgers ('11).

Burrow's level of play last season was highlighted by a streak of eight consecutive games (Weeks 9-17) with at least 250 passing yards and three TD passes. That marked the longest such streak in NFL history, surpassing Brady's six straight games during his 2007 MVP campaign.

Joe's early 2025 totals: QB Joe Burrow started the first two games of this season before sustaining a toe injury in the second quarter of Week 2 vs. Jacksonville. He was placed on the Reserve/Injured list on Sept. 16, and underwent surgery on Sept. 19. In his five-plus quarters of action, Burrow completed 21 of 36 passes for 189 yards and two TDs with no INTs.

Burrow played in his 70th career game in the season opener at Cleveland and went 14 of 23 for 113 yards, with a one-yard TD pass to TE Noah Fant to give Cincinnati the lead in the second quarter. Burrow's 1762 career completions at the end of the Browns game were the most by any QB in NFL history through their first 70 games, while his 141 TD passes ranked as the third-most and his 19,114 passing yards ranked fifth.

Burrow had completed seven of his 13 passing attempts for 76 yards against the Jaguars prior to his injury. He connected with WR Ja'Marr Chase for a four-yard TD on third-and-goal late in the opening quarter.

Burrow hits yardage milestones: QB Joe Burrow led the NFL and set a Bengals single-season record with 4918 passing yards in 2024. He passed for at least 300 yards in seven games, the most by any QB during the 2024 campaign and most in a season in team history.

Burrow now owns the three highest single-season passing yardage marks in Bengals history, as in addition to his 2024 total, he had 4611 in '21 (sixth-most in NFL that year) and 4475 in '22 (fifth in NFL). He is the first Cincinnati QB to pass for 4000 or more yards in three different seasons during his Bengals career. Carson Palmer (2006-07) and Andy Dalton ('13, '16) each did it twice.

Burrow eclipsed 15,000 career passing yards during Week 4 of the 2024 season at Carolina. Playing in his 56th regular-season game, he tied for the fourth-fastest player in NFL history to reach that milestone. He finished the 2024 campaign with 19,001 career passing yards, the sixth-most within a player's first five seasons in league history.

Burrow on the mark: QB Joe Burrow threw his 1500th career passing attempt in the 2022 regular-season finale, which qualified him for the NFL's completion percentage record. With a current career percentage of 68.49, he is the all-time leader in the category.

Burrow's 70.52 completion percentage in the 2024 season ranked fourth leaguewide (minimum 14 attempts per team's games in season). It also set a Bengals single-season record, narrowly edging out QB Ken Anderson's completion rate of 70.550 in 1982. Burrow completed at least 70 percent of his passes in 11 games in 2024, including each of the final six — the longest such streak in his career.

In Week 17 of last season against Denver, Burrow surpassed 2500 career passing attempts. His 1710 completions at the time he reached that mark are the most in NFL history through a QB's first 2500 throws. By the end of the 2024 campaign, Burrow had 26 career game with a completion percentage of 70 or higher on at least 30 attempts. That marked the most such games in a player's first five seasons in NFL history, with the next closest being Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes and Miami QB Tua Tagovailoa (21 games each).

In three of Burrow's five full seasons, he finished the year ranking in the top five leaguewide in completion percentage. After leading the NFL in 2021 with a 70.4 percentage, he followed up with the second-highest clip in '22 (68.3).

Here is a look at the NFL's all-time leaders in career completion percentage (minimum 1500 passing attempts):

PLAYER	TEAM(S)	YEARS	COMP. %
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati	2020-25	68.49
Tua Tagovailoa	Miami.....	2020-25	68.11
Drew Brees	San Diego/New Orleans	2001-20	67.69
Jimmy Garoppolo	New England/San Francisco/ Las Vegas/L.A. Rams	2014-24	67.36
Kyler Murray	Arizona.....	2019-25	67.12

Flacco's six starts: QB Joe Flacco, who Cincinnati acquired in a trade with Cleveland on Oct. 7, has started the past six games for the Bengals. He has completed 154 of 150 passes (61.6 percent) for 1636 yards and 13 TDs with four INTs, good for a passer rating of 91.4.

From his first Bengals start in Week 6 through his most recent outing in Week 12, Flacco ranks second in the NFL in completions, tied for third in TD passes and fifth in passing yards. With his production from Weeks 6-11, he became the second QB in NFL history to record at least 125 completions, 1400 passing yards and 12 TD passes in his first five games with a team, joining Drew Bledsoe with Buffalo in 2002.

Flacco's highlights during his starting stint included a Week 7 home win over Pittsburgh on Thursday Night Football in which he passed for 342 yards and three TDs. After the Steelers took the lead with 2:21 left in regulation, Flacco engineered an eight-play, 52-yard drive to set up the game-winning FG. He completed each of his three passing attempts on the drive for 61 yards, with the final pass being a 28-yard connection with WR Tee Higgins to get inside comfortable FG range.

With his stat line in the Week 7 victory, Flacco became the fourth QB in NFL history with at least 300 passing yards, three TD passes and zero INTs in a game after turning 40 years old. He joined Tom Brady (12 such games), Drew Brees (two) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Brett Favre (two).

In Week 9 vs. Chicago, Flacco threw for a career-high 470 yards and four TDs. It marked the first time in his 18-year career that he crossed the 400-yard passing threshold, and it was the most passing yards in a game by a QB over 40 years old in NFL history. Two of his scoring passes came in the final two minutes of the fourth quarter to help Cincinnati turn a 14-point deficit into a one-point lead.

The wrap on Flacco: In Week 11, QB Joe Flacco became the 17th QB in NFL history to start 200 regular-season games in his career. At 40 years of age (born Jan. 16, 1985), he is the oldest QB to start a game in Bengals history.

Now in his 18th NFL season, Flacco ranks in the top 25 in league history in career passing yards (14th; 48,148) and TD passes (21st; 272). He moved into 14th place on the league's all-time passing yardage list in the Bengals' Week 7 win over Pittsburgh, surpassing QBs Russell Wilson (46,921) and Fran Tarkenton (47,003).

Flacco originally was a first-round draft pick of Baltimore in 2008 and spent 11 seasons ('08-18) as the Ravens' starting QB. He then had stints with Denver (2019), the N.Y. Jets ('20-22), Cleveland ('23 and '25) and Indianapolis ('24).

Flacco also has played and started 16 postseason games, highlighted by a four-game run to help the Ravens win Super Bowl XLVII in the 2012 campaign. He won Super Bowl MVP honors after throwing three TD passes and posting a 124.2 passer rating in Baltimore's win over San Francisco.

In his first stint with Cleveland in 2023, Flacco stepped in as the Browns' starting QB for five games late in the year and helped lead them to a 4-1 record, which propelled them to a playoff berth. He averaged 323.2 passing yards and over two TDs per game in that stretch, and was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year.

Flacco had started the Browns' first four games of this season, including the Week 1 contest against Cincinnati, and passed for 815 yards and two TDs with six INTs. He then was Active/DNP in Cleveland's fifth game as rookie Dillon Gabriel made his NFL debut.

Ja'Marr is "Always open": After leading the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 receptions in 2024, WR Ja'Marr Chase is near the top of the league once again this year, as his team-leading 79 catches rank fifth among all players. The last player to finish as the league leader in receptions in consecutive seasons was former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas in 2018 and '19.

Chase has totaled 10 or more catches in a game four times this season, including a stretch of three straight contests from Weeks 6-8. He brought in 10 receptions in Week 6 at Green Bay, followed up with a Bengals-record 16 in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, then logged 12 in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. He became the first player in team history to register double-digit catches in three consecutive games.

In the Week 7 win over the Steelers, Chase broke his own previous Bengals single-game record of 15 receptions, which he amassed in Week 5 of the 2023 campaign at Arizona. He now owns the four highest single-game reception totals in team history, which also includes a 14-catch effort in Week 2 of this season against Jacksonville.

Chase's four career games with 14 or more receptions are tied with former Pittsburgh/New England/Tampa Bay WR Antonio Brown for the second-most such games in NFL history. Current L.A. Chargers WR Keenan Allen holds the league record with six such games in his career.

Here are the most receptions in games in Bengals history (regular season):

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	RECEPTIONS
Ja'Marr Chase	Oct. 16, 2025	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	16
Ja'Marr Chase	Oct. 8, 2023	at Arizona Cardinals.....	15
Ja'Marr Chase	Dec. 9, 2024	at Dallas Cowboys	14
Ja'Marr Chase	Sept. 14, 2025	vs. Jacksonville Jaguars	14
Carl Pickens	Oct. 11, 1998	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers.....	13

Climbing the ranks: WR Ja'Marr Chase's 79 receptions this season have boosted his career catch total to 474, which ranks sixth in Bengals history and is 33 shy of tying former WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh (507) for fifth.

Chase recently surpassed Bengals Ring of Honor member Isaac Curtis (416) and former WR Cris Collinsworth (417) on the team's all-time receptions list. In the Week 2 win over Jacksonville, he logged his 400th career reception in what was his 64th regular-season game. That tied former Atlanta WR Julio Jones and former Miami WR Jarvis Landry for the fifth-fewest games in NFL history to reach 400 career catches.

Chase kicked off his career with 81 receptions in the 2021 season, which set a Bengals rookie record and still ranks in the top 20 among all rookies in NFL history. He followed that up with a team-leading 87 catches in just 12 games played in 2022, then hit triple digits for the first time when he had 100 receptions in '23 (12th in NFL).

In his 2024 "Triple Crown" season, Chase led the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 catches. He became the first player in team history to lead the league in receptions, and surpassed Houshmandzadeh's previous team mark of 112 in the 2007 campaign.

Here are the Bengals' all-time leaders in career receptions (regular season):

PLAYER	YEARS WITH BENGALS	RECEPTIONS
Chad Johnson	2001-10	751
A.J. Green	2011-20	649
Carl Pickens	1992-99	530
Tyler Boyd	2016-23	513
T.J. Houshmandzadeh	2001-08	507
Ja'Marr Chase	2021-present	474

Uno finds the end zone: WR Ja'Marr Chase's highlight-reel TD catch in the fourth quarter of Week 6 at Green Bay was the 50th receiving TD of his career. Playing in his 68th regular-season game, he became the seventh-fastest player in NFL history and the fourth-fastest in the Super Bowl era (1966-present) to reach that milestone. He found the end zone again on an eight-yard scoring catch in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, moving his career tally to 51.

The only players in the Super Bowl era to record 50 receiving TDs in fewer games than Chase are Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss (59 games), former New England TE Rob Gronkowski (59) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (61).

Chase's 51 TD catches are the second-most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021, behind current L.A. Rams WR Davante Adams (53). In 2024, Chase led the league with 17 TDs, which tied the Bengals single-season record originally set by WR Carl Pickens in 1995. He became the first player in team history to lead the NFL in receiving TDs. He had a league-high five games with multiple TD catches last season, including a career-high-tying three scores in Week 10 at Baltimore on Thursday Night Football.

Chase's five receiving TDs this season are tied for 15th in the NFL. He caught two scoring passes from Jake Browning in Week 5 vs. Detroit, which marked his 12th career game with multiple TDs.

Chasing history: WR Ja'Marr Chase's 861 receiving yards this season rank fifth in the NFL. With 139 more, he would become the fifth player in NFL history to reach the 1000-yard receiving mark in each of his first five career seasons, joining former Minnesota WR Randy Moss, former Cincinnati WR A.J. Green, current Tampa Bay WR Mike Evans and current Vikings WR Justin Jefferson.

In the Bengals' Week 7 win against Pittsburgh this season, Chase surpassed 6000 career receiving yards in what was his 69th career regular-season game. He became the fifth-fastest player in league history to reach that milestone, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (62 games), Jefferson (62), former Atlanta WR Julio Jones (64) and former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. (67).

Chase is one of three players in NFL history with at least 6000 receiving yards and 50 receiving TDs in his first five seasons, alongside Moss and fellow Hall of Famer Jerry Rice. The Week 7 victory over the Steelers also marked Chase's seventh career game with at least 10 catches and 150 receiving yards, which surpassed Jefferson for the most such games in a player's first five seasons in league history.

Chase's current career receiving yardage total is at 6286, which ranks sixth in team history and is 412 shy of tying former WR Cris Collinsworth (6698) for fifth. So far this season, Chase has surpassed former WRs T.J. Houshmandzadeh (5782), Damay Scott (5975), Tyler Boyd (6000) and Eddie Brown (6134) on Cincinnati's all-time list.

Chase wrapped up his fourth pro season in 2024, and among all players in NFL history through their first four years, he ranks third in receiving yards (5425), third in receiving TDs (46) and fourth in receptions (395). He is the only player in league history with at least 80 receptions, 1000 receiving yards and seven receiving TDs in each of his first four career seasons.

The Bengals' first-round draft pick (No. 5 overall) in 2021, Chase holds a career average of 87.3 receiving yards per game (72 regular-season games). That is the third-highest mark in NFL history, trailing only Jefferson (93.5) and L.A. Rams WR Puka Nacua (90.1).

Chase shines against Ravens in '24: In his two games versus Baltimore during the 2024 season, WR Ja'Marr Chase totaled 21 receptions for 457 yards and five TDs. His 457 combined receiving yards are the most in NFL history by one player against a single opponent in a season, surpassing former Raiders WR Art Powell's 428 yards vs. the Houston Oilers in 1963.

Chase's first matchup against the Ravens last season came in Week 5, when he caught 10 passes for 193 yards and two TDs. He hauled in a 41-yard TD on a deep pass from QB Joe Burrow late in the first half to give the Bengals their first lead of the game, then in the fourth quarter he took a screen pass 70 yards to the end zone for his second score.

Chase then managed to eclipse his Week 5 performance when he faced Baltimore in Week 10 on Thursday Night Football. He posted 11 receptions for 264 yards and three TDs, which included scoring catches of 67 and 70 yards in the second half. His 264 receiving yards were the most by any NFL player in a game last season, and were the second-most ever in a game played on a Thursday behind Cleveland Rams WR Jim Benton's 303 yards on Thursday, Nov. 22, 1945.

Combining his Week 10 effort last season with a Bengals-record 266 receiving yards and three TDs in Week 17 of the 2021 campaign against Kansas City, Chase became the first player in NFL history with multiple games of at least 250 receiving yards and three TD catches in his career. He also became the first player ever with 260 or more receiving yards in multiple games.

Tee time: WR Tee Higgins, who will miss Thursday night's game at Baltimore due to a concussion, saw his streak of consecutive games with a receiving TD end at four contests in Week 12 vs. New England. The streak, which lasted from Weeks 7-11, was the longest of his career. He previously had a TD in three straight games played on two separate occasions last season, as he found the end zone in Weeks 7, 11 and 13, then again in Weeks 15-17.

Higgins also held a streak of nine straight games played at home with at least one receiving score, which began in Week 5 of the 2024 campaign and went through Week 9 of this season. He became the third player since the 1970 NFL/AFL merger with a TD catch in nine consecutive home games played, joining former Minnesota WR Cris Carter, who had a record 10-game streak spanning from the 2000-01 seasons, and former San Francisco WR Jerry Rice, who compiled a nine-game streak during the 1989-90 campaigns.

Higgins' seven receiving TDs this season lead the Bengals and are tied for fourth-most in the NFL. It is three shy of his career-high 10 TDs last season, which tied for sixth leaguewide. His 17 total TD catches since the start of the 2024 campaign rank fourth among all players in that span, trailing only his teammate Ja'Marr Chase (22), Detroit WR Amon-Ra St. Brown (21) and current L.A. Rams WR Davante Adams (17).

In addition to his scoring tally, Higgins ranks second on the Bengals this season in receiving yards (575) and third in receptions (40). He surpassed 5000 career receiving yards in Week 9 vs. Chicago, and playing in his 79th regular-season game, he became the fifth-fastest player in team history to reach that milestone.

Since entering the NFL as a second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2020, Higgins ranks 12th in the league in receiving TDs (41) and 16th in receiving yards (5170). He also has played in seven postseason games for Cincinnati and has 457 receiving yards and three TDs.

Brown does it all: HB Chase Brown is coming off a season-high 130 yards from scrimmage in Week 12 vs. New England, as he logged 107 rushing yards on 19 carries and 23 receiving yards on two catches. He now has 100 or more scrimmage yards in each of the past five games, which is the longest active streak in the NFL.

Since Week 7, Brown ranks seventh in the league in rushing yards (424), seventh in scrimmage yards per game (114.8) and tied for seventh in total scrimmage yards (574). He began his streak with 100 yards from scrimmage in the Week 7 home win over Pittsburgh, which featured a season-high 108 rushing yards on just 11 carries. His 9.8 yards per carry were a single-game career high and currently is the eighth-highest rushing average by any NFL player this season (minimum 10 carries). He reeled off his longest run of the season in the second quarter of that game, a 37-yarder to kickstart a Bengals TD drive.

Brown followed up his performance against the Steelers with 105 scrimmage yards in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets, 112 in Week 9 against Chicago and 127 in Week 11 at Pittsburgh. In addition to his yardage totals against the Jets, he scored both a rushing and receiving TD in the same game for the second time in his career. His stat line against the Bears was highlighted by a season-best 75 receiving yards, which also went in as the second-most in a game in his career.

Brown's five consecutive games with at least 100 scrimmage yards match the longest streak of his career, as he previously had a five-game stretch from Weeks 11-16 of last season. Prior to his 2024 streak, the last Bengals running back with at least 100 scrimmage yards in five straight contests was HB BenJarvus Green-Ellis in Weeks 11-15 of the 2012 campaign. Should Brown reach the century mark this week at Baltimore, he would become the first player in Bengals history to record at least 100 scrimmage yards in six consecutive games.

From Weeks 9-17 of last season, when Brown started each game and emerged as a prominent contributor in the Bengals' offense, he ranked fourth in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (116.3). He was one of two players in that span with at least 600 rushing yards and 250 receiving yards, alongside Detroit RB Jahmyr Gibbs. He also became the first Bengals player to record at least 90 scrimmage yards in eight straight games since former FB Boobie Clark in 1973.

Hendrickson cracks top five: With a team-leading four sacks through seven games played this season, DE Trey Hendrickson has improved his sack total as a member of the Bengals to 61.0. He surpassed former DE Ross Browner (59.0) for fifth-most in Bengals history, and now is 1.5 shy of former LB Reggie Williams (62.5) for fourth. Hendrickson signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent in the 2021 offseason.

Hendrickson, who has been voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons with the Bengals (2021-24), opened his Cincinnati tenure with 14.0

sacks in the '21 campaign, which led the team and ranked fifth in the NFL. He followed up with a team-high eight sacks in 2022.

Hendrickson posted 17.5 sacks in both the 2023 and '24 seasons, which are tied for the second-most in a season in Bengals history behind former DE Coy Bacon's 22.0 in 1976 (the NFL began tracking sacks in '82, but the Bengals track the stat back to '76 and recognize Bacon as the record-holder). He became the first Cincinnati player with double-digit sacks in consecutive seasons since former DE/DT Eddie Edwards in 1980-81. Hendrickson also is just the fifth player in NFL history to post 17 or more sacks in back-to-back seasons.

In 2024, Hendrickson became the first Bengals player to lead the league in sacks since it became an officially tracked statistic in 1982. He was named to the Associated Press All-Pro First Team for the first time in his career, and he finished second in voting for AP Defensive Player of the Year.

Hendrickson's 61.0 sacks since he joined the Bengals in 2021 are the fourth-most in the NFL behind Cleveland DE Myles Garrett (78.0), Pittsburgh OLB T.J. Watt (65.5) and former Dallas/current Green Bay DE Micah Parsons (62.5). He also has 12 forced fumbles in that span, tied for the fourth-most leaguewide.

Here are the players with the most sacks in Bengals history (since 1976):

PLAYER	YEARS PLAYED	SACKS
Eddie Edwards	1977-88.....	83.5
Carlos Dunlap	2010-20.....	82.5
Geno Atkins	2010-20.....	75.5
Reggie Williams	1976-89.....	62.5
Trey Hendrickson	2021-25.....	61.0

Turner shuts it down: CB DJ Turner II's 15 PDs this season lead the NFL and already mark a career high for the third-year pro. His previous high was eight PDs in the 2024 campaign.

Turner also has recorded his first two career INTs this season, with the first coming late in the fourth quarter of Week 1 at Cleveland to help the Bengals protect a one-point lead. His second pick occurred in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, when he wrestled the ball away from WR DK Metcalf in Cincinnati territory just before halftime.

In Week 6 at Green Bay, Turner notched a career-best five PDs. He became the first Bengals player with five PDs in a game since CB Johnathan Joseph had five on Nov. 8, 2009, in a win over Baltimore. Turner also is one of four players in the NFL this season to record five PDs in a game, alongside Green Bay CB Keisean Nixon in Week 2, Philadelphia CB Quinyon Mitchell in Week 4 and L.A. Rams CB Emmanuel Forbes Jr. in Week 12. No player in the league had that many PDs in a single game last season.

Turner has played in all 11 games with 10 starts this year, after missing the final six contests of the 2024 season due to a collarbone injury.

Here is a look at the NFL leaders in PDs this season:

PLAYER	TEAM	PASSES DEFENSED
DJ Turner II	Cincinnati Bengals	15
Keisean Nixon	Green Bay Packers.....	14
Tyson Campbell	Jacksonville Jaguars/Cleveland Browns	13
Emmanuel Forbes Jr.	L.A. Rams	13
Quinyon Mitchell	Philadelphia Eagles	13

Charlie's 98-yard dash: WR Charlie Jones got the Bengals' Week 9 contest against Chicago underway with a 98-yard return for a TD on the game's opening kickoff. It marked his second career TD on a KOR, following a 100-yard return on the opening kickoff in Week 7 of the 2024 season at Cleveland. Here are some notable facts on the play:

- It was the 14th TD on a KOR in Bengals history.
- It was the third time in team history (and first in a home game) that the Bengals returned the game's opening kickoff for a TD. The other instances were Jones' 2024 runback against the Browns, and former S Brandon Wilson's 92-yarder on Oct. 13, 2019 at Baltimore.
- It tied for the sixth-longest KOR in team history, alongside a 98-yard TD return by former HB Stanford Jennings on Nov. 13, 1988 at Kansas City.
- Jones became the third player in team history with multiple KORs for a TD in his Bengals career, joining Wilson and former S/CB Tremaine Mack, who both also had two.
- Jones became the first player in team history with multiple KORs of 98 or more yards.
- Jones also had an 81-yard punt return TD in Week 2 of the 2023 season vs. Baltimore. He joined former CB Lemar Parrish as the only players in Bengals history with three or more returns for TDs. Parrish had four TDs on PRs and one on a KOR.

- Jones' return against the Bears was the longest KOR in the NFL this season at the time, and now is tied for the second-longest behind N.Y. Jets RB Kene Nwangwu's 99-yarder in Week 10.
- According to the NFL's Next Gen Stats service, which tracks players' speeds using GPS, Jones' top speed on the return was 21.78 mph, making him the 10th-fastest ball carrier in the league this season.

McPherson sets team record: K Evan McPherson became the first Bengals kicker to enter the 60-yard FG club when he booted a franchise-record 63-yarder as the first half ended in Week 12 vs. New England. He surpassed the previous team mark of 59 yards, which he originally set in the 2022 season opener against Pittsburgh, and which was later tied by K Cade York in Week 16 of last season against Cleveland.

McPherson opened the scoring against the Patriots with a 54-yard FG in the first quarter. He became the fourth kicker in NFL history with FGs from at least 50 yards and at least 60 yards in the same game. He now has 27 career FGs from a distance of 50 or more yards, which are the most in a career in Bengals history and tied for the sixth-most in the NFL since he entered the league as a fifth-round draft pick of Cincinnati in 2021.

Overall for his career, McPherson has made 111 of 135 FG attempts, good for the third-highest percentage in team history (82.2). He has made each of his last 15 attempts from inside of 50 yards, including a 43- and 48-yarder in windy conditions in Week 11 at Pittsburgh. He logged his 100th career made FG on a 45-yarder in Week 6 at Green Bay, and playing in his 67th regular-season game, he became the fifth-fastest kicker in Bengals history to reach that milestone.

Referred to by fans as "Money Mac," McPherson also is a perfect 19-for-19 on FG attempts in the postseason and is Cincinnati's all-time leader in postseason scoring (69 points). He has seven career game-winning "walk-off" FGs (including postseason), with the two most memorable coming in the 2021 AFC Divisional Playoff at Tennessee (52 yards) and the following week in the AFC Championship at Kansas City (31 yards).

McPherson now owns six of the eight longest made kicks in Bengals history. The Week 12 contest against New England marked the fourth game in his career in which he converted two or more FG attempts from at least 50 yards. His 63-yarder was the fourth-longest made FG in the NFL this season.

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Nov. 23, 2025	vs. New England Patriots	63
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	59
Cade York	Dec. 22, 2024	vs. Cleveland Browns	59
Evan McPherson	Dec. 19, 2021	at Denver Broncos	58
Randy Bullock	Dec. 22, 2019	at Miami Dolphins	57
Evan McPherson	Sept. 29, 2022	vs. Miami Dolphins	57

Rehkwow's ranks: P Ryan Rehkwow has punted 46 times for 2404 yards this season, with 16 punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He leads the NFL in gross punting average (52.3 yards per punt), while ranking tied for sixth in net average (42.8) and tied for 13th in inside-20 punts.

In Week 12 against New England, Rehkwow tied his season high with three inside-20 punts, and coincidentally, all three were downed right at the Patriots' 10. He also had a 60-yard punt that rolled into the New England end zone for a touchback, marking his 13th punt this season that traveled a gross distance of at least 60 yards.

Rehkwow now has 41 inside-20 punts in his career. In Week 11 at Pittsburgh, he surpassed former P Nick Harris (37) for the fifth-most inside-20 punts by a Bengal since the statistic began being tracked in 1976.

As a rookie in 2024, Rehkwow set Bengals single-season records for gross punting average (49.11 yards) and net average (42.92 yards). Both figures surpassed former P Kevin Huber's previous records set in the 2020 season. Rehkwow also had 25 inside-20 punts last year compared to five touchbacks.

After signing with the Bengals as a free agent on the third day of training camp in 2024, Rehkwow made his NFL debut in Week 1 of last season against New England. That day, he punted four times for 258 yards, setting an NFL single-game record with 64.5 gross yards per attempt (minimum four punts). The previous league record belonged to Las Vegas P AJ Cole, who had a 63.60-yard average in Week 9 of the 2023 campaign. Rehkwow's performance in the 2024 opener also included the longest punt in Bengals history, an 80-yarder kicked from his own 20-yard line to the Patriots' end zone.

Rehkwow finished his 2024 rookie season ranking sixth in the NFL in net punting average and ninth in gross average.

Four Bengals listed on "Top 100": For the 15th consecutive season, current NFL players voted to determine the top 100 players in the league, with the final list revealed throughout July and August on social media and NFL Network.

Cincinnati is represented by four players on the 2025 list — WR Ja'Marr Chase (No. 4), QB Joe Burrow (No. 6), DE Trey Hendrickson (No. 14) and WR Tee Higgins (No. 77). It marked the first appearance on the list in Higgins' career, the fourth overall for Burrow and Chase, and the fifth for Hendrickson.

Chase's ranking at No. 4 is the highest by a Bengals player since the "Top 100" debuted in 2011. The previous highest ranking was No. 6, which was Burrow's position on the 2023 list. Hendrickson's spot at No. 14 is his personal highest, substantially ahead of his previous best ranking of No. 77 (2021 list).

This marks the third time in the history of the "Top 100" in which four or more Bengals players were featured. Cincinnati had a record seven players on the 2016 list, then landed four on the '22 edition.

The Jungle is jammin': The Bengals have had announced attendance figures of 65,000 or more in 30 consecutive regular-season home games dating back to Week 1 of the 2022 campaign. That is the longest streak in team history, surpassing a previous span of 24 straight from 2005-07.

Each of the 15 highest attended home games in team history, in terms of announced attendance figure, have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year. Cincinnati's win over Pittsburgh in Week 7 of this season was played in front of an announced crowd of 66,569, the fourth-largest figure on the list. Most of those fans were dressed in white apparel to accentuate the fourth annual "White Bengal" game at Paycor Stadium on Thursday Night Football.

The largest home attendance figure in team history is 67,260, which came in Week 4 of the 2022 season when the Bengals defeated Miami on Thursday Night Football. That figure also marked the largest crowd for a sporting event in Cincinnati history.

Here are the largest announced home crowds in Bengals franchise history:

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT	ATTENDANCE
Sept. 29, 2022	Miami	W, 27-15	67,260
Oct. 27, 2024	Philadelphia	L, 17-37	67,239
Nov. 5, 2023	Buffalo	W, 24-18	66,965
Oct. 16, 2025	Pittsburgh	W, 33-31	66,569
Dec. 28, 2024	Denver	W, 30-24 (OT)	66,546

Lapham, Parrish enter Bengals Ring of Honor: A pair of Bengals legends in former OT Dave Lapham and CB Lemar Parrish were inducted into the team's Ring of Honor at halftime of Cincinnati's Week 8 game against the N.Y. Jets. They became the 11th and 12th members of the Bengals Ring of Honor, which was established in 2021 in recognition of former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition.

Lapham, who is in his 50th season with the Bengals in 2025, is one of the team's most popular and beloved historical figures. He was a versatile offensive linemen who donned the stripes from 1974-83, lining up at all five O-line positions during his 140-game career. He served as the team's starting left guard in 1981, when the Bengals advanced to Super Bowl XVI. After his playing career, Lapham moved into the team's radio broadcast booth, where he has worked ever since. Often known as "Mr. Bengal," he has been the team's radio analyst since 1986.

Parrish, known by fans as "Leapin' Lamar," is remembered as one of the most athletically gifted and exciting players in team history. He remains the franchise's highest scoring defensive player, with TD returns on four INTs, four punts, three fumble recoveries and one kickoff. His 18.8-yard punt return average in 1974 still is the best mark by any player in a season since the '70 NFL/AFL merger. He tallied 25 INTs as a member of the Bengals, the fifth-most in team history, and his six Pro Bowl selections are the second-most by a Cincinnati defensive player.

Ring of Honor inductees have been voted in each offseason since 2021 by Bengals Season Ticket Members. Lapham and Parrish joined previous inductees QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, HB Corey Dillon, QB Boomer Esiason, WR Chad Johnson, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Munoz and CB Ken Riley.

Bengal bites: The average age of the Bengals' active roster is 26.9 years ... Cincinnati's win over Jacksonville in Week 2 of this season was the 250th home victory in team history (regular season and postseason combined) ... The Bengals have netted 22 AFC Player of the Week honors (Offensive, Defensive or Special Teams) since the start of the 2021 season, tied for the third-most weekly awards by any NFL team in that span, regardless of conference ... The longest-tenured player on the active roster is TE Drew Sample, who is in his seventh season with the Bengals in 2025 ... The oldest player on the active roster is QB Joe Flacco, who is 40 (born Jan. 16, 1985) ...

The youngest player on the active roster is DE Shemar Stewart, who is 22 (born Nov. 12, 2003) ... There is a tie for tallest player on the active roster between OT Orlando Brown Jr. and OT Amarius Mims, who both are listed at 6-8 ... The shortest player on the active roster is HB Tahj Brooks, who is listed at 5-9 ... Brown and Mims also are tied for the heaviest player on the active roster, at 350 pounds each ... There is a tie for lightest player on the active roster between K Evan McPherson and CB DJ Turner II, who both are listed at 185 pounds.

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Head coach Zac Taylor said on Monday that he anticipates sixth-year QB Joe Burrow will make his return to game action on Thursday night against Baltimore. Burrow started the first two games of this season, before suffering a toe injury in Week 2 against Jacksonville that caused him to spend the past nine contests on the Reserve/Injured list. Among all QBs in NFL history through their first five seasons, Burrow ranks fourth in completions (1748), sixth in passing yards (19,001) and third in TD passes (140). The No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft, he has earned two Pro Bowl selections ('22 and '24) and has twice been named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year ('21 and '24). Known primarily for his passing accuracy, he is the NFL's all-time leader in career completion percentage (68.5; minimum 1500 attempts). In 2024, he led the league and set Bengals single-season records in passing attempts (652), completions (460), passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43). His totals through five-plus quarters of action early this season included 21 completions on 36 attempts for 189 yards and two TDs with no INTs. Eighteenth-year veteran Joe Flacco has started the past six games for Cincinnati after being acquired in a trade with Cleveland on Oct. 7. In his six Bengals starts, Flacco completed 61.6 percent of his passes (154 of 250) for 1636 yards and 13 TDs with four INTs. From his first start with the team through his most recent outing in Week 12, he ranked second in the NFL in completions, tied for third in TD passes and fifth in passing yards. At 40 years of age (born Jan. 16, 1985), he is the oldest QB to start a game in Bengals history. He began the season starting the Browns' first four games. He originally was a first-round draft pick of Baltimore in 2008 and spent his first 11 seasons with the Ravens, before stints with Denver ('19), the N.Y. Jets ('20-22), Cleveland ('23 and '25) and Indianapolis ('24). He won Super Bowl MVP honors after helping lead Baltimore to a title in the 2012 campaign, and in '23 he was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year after helping steer the Browns to a playoff berth. QB Jake Browning started three games for Cincinnati this season prior to Flacco's acquisition. He stepped into action following Burrow's injury in Week 2 against Jacksonville, and in that game he passed for 241 yards and scored the game-winning TD on a QB sneak with 18 seconds remaining. Browning's totals on the season include 81 completions on 125 attempts (64.8 percent) for 771 yards and six TDs with eight INTs. He had a previous stint as the Bengals' starter in 2023, as he started the final seven games of that regular season and piloted the team to a 4-3 record. He then spent the entire 2024 campaign as Cincinnati's second-string QB. He spent his first four pro seasons on the practice squads of the Bengals ('21-22) and Minnesota Vikings ('19-20).

Running backs: HB Chase Brown is in his third pro season and first as Cincinnati's full-time primary running back. A dynamic all-around threat, he has totaled 100 or more yards from scrimmage in each of the last five games, the longest active streak in the NFL and tied for the longest streak in his career (Weeks 11-16 in 2024). Since the streak began in Week 7, he ranks seventh leaguewide in rushing yards (424), seventh in scrimmage yards per game (114.8) and tied for seventh in total scrimmage yards (574). He is coming off a season-high 130 scrimmage yards in Week 12 vs. New England (107 rushing, 23 receiving). Brown took over as the team's starting HB midway through the 2024 season, and in Weeks 9-17 of last year he ranked fourth in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (116.3). He finished last season with 990 rushing yards and seven rushing TDs on 229 carries, along with 54 receptions for 360 yards and four TDs. His twin brother, Sydney Brown, was his teammate at the University of Illinois and currently plays safety for the Philadelphia Eagles. The Bengals welcomed back a familiar face during the offseason when they signed ninth-year HB Samaje Perine. Perine previously had a four-year stint with Cincinnati (2019-22), before spending the '23 season with Denver and '24 with Kansas City. Listed at 5-11, 240 pounds, he is a physical back who contributes both as a pass blocker on third down and as a rotational ball-carrier. So far in 2025, Perine has 198 rushing yards and 30 receiving yards, and in Week 7 he surpassed 2000 career rushing yards. His season-high 94 rushing yards in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets were the fifth-most in any game of his career, and the most since Week 13 of the 2022 campaign. Perine has missed the past two contests due to an ankle injury. Taylor said on Monday that rookie HB Tahj Brooks will miss the Thanksgiving game due to a concussion he sustained in Week 12 vs. New England. A sixth-round draft pick of the Bengals this year, Brooks has played in all 11 games to this point and totaled nine rushing attempts for 28 yards while contributing primarily on special teams. He had a record-setting collegiate career at Texas Tech, where he set school records for rushing attempts (879), rushing yards (4557) and 100-yard rushing games (23). He earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2023 and second-team accolades in '24, and in both years he was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award (nation's top running back).

Wide receivers: Cincinnati's 2021 first-round draft choice Ja'Marr Chase has been selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons and has broken several Bengals single-season records early in his pro career. In 2024, he became the youngest player (24 years old) in the Super Bowl era to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led the league in receptions (127), receiving yards (1708) and receiving TDs (17). His receptions total and receiving yardage each set a Cincinnati single-season record, while his TDs tied the franchise mark held by WR Carl Pickens (1995). This season, he ranks fourth in the NFL in receptions (79), fifth in receiving yards (861) and tied for 15th in receiving TDs (five) in 10 games played. He also has reached a pair of career milestones this year, surpassing 6000 career receiving yards and 50 receiving TDs. Chase signed a four-year contract extension on March 18, the same day that his running mate Tee Higgins re-signed with Cincinnati on a four-year deal. Higgins leads the Bengals with seven receiving TDs this season while ranking second in receiving yards (575) and third in receptions (40). Since entering the league as a second-round pick of the Bengals in 2020, he ranks 12th in the NFL in TD catches (41) and 16th in receiving yards (5170). Taylor told reporters on Monday that Higgins will miss the Thanksgiving matchup against Baltimore due to a concussion he sustained in Week 12 vs. New England. Andre Iosivas is in his third NFL season and continues to build on a promising sophomore campaign. He ranks third on the team with 317 receiving yards on 23 catches this season, after posting 36 receptions for 479 yards and six TDs in 2024. He has carved out a niche for getting open in the low red zone, as each of his 11 career TD catches have come on plays inside the opponent's 10-yard line. Iosivas has 12 receptions for 147 yards since Week 9, which both are the most in a three-game stretch in his career. He was a two-sport athlete at Princeton, as in addition to his All-Ivy League football resume, he earned All-America honors as a heptathlete for the Tigers' track and field program. Mitch Tinsley earned a roster spot coming out of this past training camp and preseason, and in Week 12 against New England he grabbed his second TD catch of the year on a 17-yard pass from Flacco in the fourth quarter. Tinsley joined the Bengals on a Reserve/Future contract in February, and turned heads in the team's second preseason game when he had five catches for 73 yards and two highlight-reel TDs at Washington. He originally was a college free agent signee of the Commanders in 2023 and played in two games as a rookie, then spent the '24 season on their practice squad. He has totaled five receptions for 78 yards through 10 games this season, with his first career reception resulting in a 13-yard TD in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville. Tinsley finished his college career at Penn State in 2022, after previous stops at Hutchinson Community College in Kansas ('18-19) and Western Kentucky University ('20-21). Third-year receiver Charlie Jones has served as the Bengals' primary punt returner since being selected in the fourth round of the 2023 draft, but he also has contributed eight career receptions for 69 yards. He saw action in the first eight games of 2024, before suffering a groin injury that kept him out of the final nine contests. In 2022, his final collegiate season which he spent at Purdue University, Jones led the FBS in receptions (110), ranked second in receiving yards (1361) and fifth in receiving TDs (12). Second-year WR Jermaine Burton possesses the ability to stretch defensive coverages, as two of his four catches as a rookie last season went for over 40 yards. He also contributed in the kickoff return game following Jones' injury last year. Burton began his collegiate career at the University of Georgia (2020-21), then transferred to the University of Alabama for his final two seasons ('22-23) before being selected by the Bengals in the third round of the '24 NFL Draft. In 2023, his final year with the Crimson Tide, he led the SEC and ranked sixth nationally in yards per reception (20.5).

Tight ends: A 2019 second-round draft pick of the Bengals, Drew Sample has played in 89 career regular-season games with 59 starts and earned a reputation as a reliable blocking TE. He took over the top spot on the depth chart in the second half of the 2023 season and has started in 32 of his last 37 appearances. In addition to his blocking responsibilities, he has 106 career receptions for 754 yards and five TDs. He missed most of the 2022 campaign due to a knee injury, but returned at the start of the '23 season and has suited up for each of Cincinnati's last 42 games. Now in his seventh season, Sample is the Bengals' longest-tenured player. Eight-year veteran Mike Gesicki made his return in Week 12 vs. New England, after spending the previous four games on the Reserve/Injured list with a pectoral injury. He has 12 receptions for 96 yards in seven games played this year, after posting 65 catches for 665 yards and two TDs in his debut Bengals season in 2024. His catch total last year was the second-most in a season by a Bengals TE (Dan Ross, 71 in 1981), while his yardage was the most by a Cincinnati TE since 2012 (Jermaine Gresham, 737). Gesicki entered the NFL as a second-round pick of Miami in 2018, and spent his first five seasons ('18-22) with the Dolphins before playing for the Patriots in '23. Noah Fant signed with the Bengals as a free agent in late July of this year and quickly built a rapport with Cincinnati's quarterbacks. He has 31 catches for 265 yards and three TDs in 10 games played, with his latest scoring grab coming on a 23-yard pass from Flacco in Week 9 vs. Chicago. A former first-round pick of Denver in 2019 (No. 20 overall), Fant spent three seasons with the Broncos ('19-21) and three with Seattle ('22-24). He has played in 105 career games with 88 starts, and his career totals include 331 receptions for 3570 yards and 18 TDs. After being held off the stat sheet through the first five games of this season, sixth-year TE Tanner Hudson scored a TD on his first catch of the year, a two-yarder from Flacco in Week 6 at Green Bay. He now has 11 receptions for 92 yards over his last five games, including a season-high 42 yards in Week 9 vs. Chicago. He enjoyed his best statistical seasons in 2023 and '24 with Cincinnati, as he posted career highs in catches (39) and yards (352) in '23, then followed up with 19 for 154 in '24. Hudson joined the Bengals' practice squad late in 2022, after spending time with Tampa Bay ('18-20), San Francisco ('19) and the N.Y. Giants ('22). He won Super Bowl LV with the Buccaneers (2020 season), seeing action in each of their four postseason games. Cam Grandy began his 2024 rookie season on the Bengals' practice squad, then signed to the active roster midway through the year and went on to play in eight games with six starts. He has six catches for 34 yards in his career, and this season has seen action in three contests with one start. Grandy was an All-American at the FCS level with Illinois State University.

Offensive linemen: Headlining the Bengals' offensive line room is four-time Pro Bowler Orlando Brown Jr., who has started all 38 games he has played in for Cincinnati at LG. Brown signed with the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2023, after spending his first three NFL seasons ('18-20) with Baltimore and then two ('21-22) with Kansas City. He made his first 33 career starts at ROT for the Ravens before transitioning midway through the 2020 campaign to LG, where he has lined up for each of his last 81 regular-season games played. He has played all 686 offensive snaps through Cincinnati's first 11 games this season. His father, the late Orlando Brown Sr., played nine NFL seasons (1994-99, 2003-05), spending time with Cleveland and Baltimore. The nucleus of the O-line is C Ted Karras, who is in his fourth season with the Bengals and 10th in the NFL in 2025. Karras has been voted a team captain in each of his four years with Cincinnati, as he became a vocal leader in the locker room almost instantaneously after signing with the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2022. On field, he has started 64 consecutive games at center for the Bengals, lining up for 99.5 percent of the team's offensive snaps in that span (4200 of 4219). Off the field, he was the team's 2023 nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, honored for his charitable work with the Indianapolis-based Village of Merici through his fan-favorite "Cincy Hat." Karras spent five of his first six pro seasons with New England, where he won a pair of Super Bowls in 2016 and '18. The starting ROT is second-year pro Amarius Mims, who was Cincinnati's first-round draft choice in 2024 (No. 18 overall). Mims began his rookie season in a reserve role, but has started 24 of his last 25 games played. He came to the Bengals following three seasons (2021-23) at the University of Georgia, where he played in 29 career games and was part of back-to-back national championship teams ('21-22). Listed at 6-8, 350 pounds, he is tied with Brown as both the tallest and heaviest player on the Bengals' roster. Rookie Jalen Rivers has seen action in all 11 games with seven starts at RG this season, lining up for 457 offensive snaps so far. A fifth-round pick of the Bengals in April, he boasted a proven ability to play at both tackle and guard spots during his college career at the University of Miami (Fla.). He was the Hurricanes' starting LG his final two seasons, and picked up second-team All-ACC honors in 2023 followed by honorable mention all-conference in '24. He suited up for 38 total games with 29 starts over five seasons (2020-24) at Miami. Fellow rookie Dylan Fairchild was taken in the third round of this year's draft and started at LG in each of the first five games of the season, before missing the Week 6 contest at Green Bay due to a knee injury. He then was active/DNP in Week 7, and returned to the starting lineup in Week 8. In 2024, his final season at the University of Georgia, he earned second-team All-America honors while blocking for a Bulldogs offense that ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in net passing yards per game (281.0). In addition to being a football standout at West Forsyth High School in Cumming, Ga., Fairchild was a two-time Georgia state champion wrestler in the Class 7A heavyweight division. G/C Lucas Patrick, who started this year's opener at RG, was sidelined for six games due to a calf injury sustained at Cleveland. He was returned to the active roster from the Reserve/Injured list in Week 7, then made his return to game action in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. Patrick joined the Bengals in this year's free agency period, after spending previous seasons with Green Bay (2016-21), Chicago ('22-23) and New Orleans ('24). He has played in 110 career regular-season games, and his 65 total starts have included 28 at center, 19 at LG and 18 at RG. G Dalton Risner signed with the Bengals as a free agent in late August, and quickly was thrust into action as he entered the season opener at Cleveland in the first half following Patrick's injury. Since then, he's been a versatile asset in the interior offensive line, appearing in eight games with five starts and playing substantial snaps at both guard positions. Risner was a second-round draft pick of Denver in 2019 and spent his first four pro seasons ('19-22) with the Broncos, before playing for Minnesota from '23-24. He has played in 95 career regular-season games with 86 starts — 75 at LG and 11 at RG. A veteran with valuable position versatility is OT Cody Ford, whose nine starts for the Bengals in 2024 included five at LG, two at LG, one at ROT and one as a tackle-eligible third TE. Ford entered the league as a second-round draft pick of Buffalo in 2019 and spent his first three seasons with the Bills, before being traded to Arizona during training camp in '22. He signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent in 2023 and saw action in all 17 contests during his debut season with the Bengals. He has played 20 offensive snaps and 46 special teams snaps through 11 games this season. Ford was college teammates with Brown Jr. at the University of Oklahoma from 2015-17.

Defensive linemen: Ninth-year DE Trey Hendrickson has been voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons with Cincinnati (2021-24) since joining the team as an unrestricted free agent in '21. He recorded 17.5 sacks in each of the past two seasons, with last year's total leading the NFL. He was a first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press in 2024 and finished second in voting for AP Defensive Player of the Year. Since joining the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent in the 2021 offseason, he ranks fourth in the NFL in sacks (61.0) and tied for fourth in forced fumbles (12). He entered the NFL as a third-round pick of New Orleans in 2017 and spent his first four seasons ('17-20) with the Saints. Hendrickson has a team-leading four sacks in seven games played this season. He has been inactive for four contests and left the Week 8 game early due to a hip injury. Anchoring the D-line is eighth-year DT B.J. Hill, who was acquired by Cincinnati in a trade with the N.Y. Giants prior to the start of the 2021 season. After seeing action primarily as a reserve DT in his first Bengals season, Hill has started each of his last 65 games played, including six postseason contests. A productive pass rusher from the interior of the D-line, he has totaled 18 sacks as a Bengal while also batting down/tipping 13 passes. He leads the team's defensive line with 41 tackles this season, including two sacks and three TFLs. He notched his second sack of the season in Week 9 vs. Chicago, bringing down QB Caleb Williams for a seven-yard loss. Among the notable free agent acquisitions this year for the Bengals was DT T.J. Slaton Jr., who joined the Bengals after spending his first four pro seasons (2021-24) with Green Bay. Originally a fifth-round pick of the Packers in 2021, he has played in 79 regular-season games and totaled 168 tackles, seven TFLs, two sacks and four PDs. He made his first career start in the 2022 season finale and has started each of his last 46 games played. Slaton has 35 tackles through his first 11 games with Cincinnati, including a season-high eight in Week 5 vs. Detroit which also marked the second-most in a game in his career. DE Myles Murphy, Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2023, recently had perhaps the best performance of his young career in Week 11 at Pittsburgh, as he notched a career-high seven tackles and sacked QB Aaron Rodgers for an 11-yard loss. He now is up to 31 tackles and 2.5 sacks through 11 games played this season, with 16 stops coming over the past three contests. Murphy missed the early part of the 2024 season due to a knee injury, but returned to the lineup last October and has since played in 24 straight contests. In 41 career games, he has 71 tackles with six TFLs and 5.5 sacks. Murphy was a first-team All-ACC pick in his final season at Clemson University, where he amassed 17.5 career sacks in 38 games for the Tigers. DE Joseph Ossai has three sacks through the first 11 games of this season, including a nine-yard takedown of Lions QB Jared Goff in Week 5. He now has eight sacks over his last 18 games played dating back to Week 11 of the 2024 campaign. Originally a third-round pick of the Bengals in 2021, he missed his entire rookie year due to a knee injury, but has since been out of the lineup for just three games in the past three-plus seasons. He has 12.5 sacks and 13 TFLs in 58 career games (nine starts). Ossai was born in Nigeria (Keti Ijanikin, Lagos), and moved to the United States at age 10 — the same year he saw his first football game. Second-year DT Kris Jenkins Jr. got in the sack column for the first time this season in Week 3 at Minnesota, notching 1.5 in the first half of that contest. A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2024, Jenkins played in 15 games with nine starts as a rookie last year. He logged 31 tackles with three sacks last season, and has recorded 30 stops (15 solos) and two TFLs through 11 games played this year. In his final season at the University of Michigan in 2023, he earned second-team All-America honors and helped lead the Wolverines to a national title. His father, Kris Jenkins Sr., was a four-time Pro Bowler during his 10-year playing career (2001-10) as a DT for Carolina and the N.Y. Jets. Fifth-year DE Cam Sample made his return to the field at the start of this season after missing the entire 2024 campaign due to an Achilles injury. A 2021 Bengals fourth-round pick, Sample has played in 56 career games as a rotational lineman and has 77 tackles with five sacks. He has played in nine games this season and has nine tackles with one TFL. He has been inactive for two contests this season, including the Week 12 game against New England due to an oblique injury. DE Cedric Johnson, a sixth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2024, spent the first eight games of this season on the Reserve/Injured list due to a calf injury, then made his season debut in Week 9 vs. Chicago. He has logged six tackles through three games played. As a rookie last season, he appeared in nine games and logged six tackles with one sack. DT McKinnley Jackson, a third-round pick of the Bengals in 2024, has seen action in three games this season after playing in 13 contests as a rookie last year. He contributed 15 tackles, two TFLs, one sack and one FF in his rookie campaign, earning an increased role in the back half of the season. He was a two-time team captain at Texas A&M, where he played in 40 career games. The Bengals acquired DT Jordan Jefferson on waivers from San Francisco prior to Week 5. Originally a fourth-round draft pick of Jacksonville in 2024, he saw limited action for the Jaguars (2024) and 49ers ('25) before arriving in Cincinnati. Jefferson made his Bengals debut in Week 9 vs. Chicago, then was active/DNP for the last two contests. Jefferson finished his college career at Louisiana State in 2023, following four seasons ('19-22) at West Virginia University. Third-year DE Isaiah Foskey signed to the active roster off the practice squad last week and played five special teams snaps against New England. Foskey joined the practice squad in early September, after spending his first two NFL seasons in 2023 and '24 with New Orleans. He originally was a second-round draft choice of the Saints in 2023 and played in 27 games in his first two years as a rotational pass rusher and special teams contributor. In his final season at Notre Dame (2022), he played under current Bengals defensive coordinator and then-Fighting Irish defensive coordinator Al Golden.

Linebackers: Rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. was selected by the Bengals in the second round of this year's draft and has started nine of his first 11 career games. His 78 tackles rank second among all NFL rookies this season and lead Cincinnati's LBs. He also has five PDs and an INT, with his first career pick coming on Monday Night Football in Week 4 at Denver. He has registered 10 or more tackles in three games this season, led a career-best 12 stops in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. Knight shot up draft boards following a breakout season at the University of South Carolina in 2024, in which he played in 13 games and ranked second on the Gamecocks with 82 tackles. He spent his first four college seasons (2019-22) at Georgia Tech, then played at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in '23. He was a four-year starter at QB in high school, then transitioned to LB early in his college career. Fellow rookie Barrett Carter has seen action in all 11 games and started each of the last six contests. He has 74 tackles on the year, the fourth-most among all rookies, and has reached double-digits in four games. He is coming off a career-high 16 tackles in Week 12 against New England, which tied for the fourth-most stops in a game by a Bengals player since at least 1994. Cincinnati's fourth-round draft pick this past April, Carter put together a decorated final season at Clemson University in 2024, as he was a team captain, first-team All-ACC pick, third-team All-American and a finalist for the Butkus Award (nation's top LB). Eighth-year LB Oren Burks signed with the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent in March, after helping Philadelphia win Super Bowl LIX the previous month. He was a key performer for the Eagles during their postseason run, as he recorded 24 tackles, three TFLs, one sack and two FFs (one defensive, one on kickoff coverage) in four games. He entered the NFL as a third-round pick of Green Bay in 2018 and spent his first four pro seasons with the Packers ('18-21), before playing for San Francisco from '22-23. He has played in all 11 games with five starts for the Bengals this season and has 28 total tackles with one TFL, one PD and one FF. He posted a season-high eight tackles in Week 11 at Pittsburgh. LB Joe Giles-Harris signed with the Bengals as a free agent in April, after spending one week on the team's practice last season. In his NFL career, he has seen action in 26 games, totaling 20 tackles, one sack, one PD and 17 special teams stops. Giles-Harris was originally a college free agent signee of the Jaguars in 2019, and had stints with Jacksonville (2019-20, '24), Buffalo ('21-22) and New England ('23-24). He made his 2025 season debut in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets and has seen action in four games this season, recording seven special teams tackles. Fourth-year LB Brian Asamoah II was signed to the active roster on Nov. 10, after joining the Bengals' practice squad on Oct. 30. He has played in the last three games for Cincinnati, lining up for 51 special teams snaps. He spent his first three pro seasons (2022-24) with Minnesota, where he totaled 20 defensive tackles, two FFs and one FR in 46 games played, then was on Las Vegas' practice squad to begin this season.

Cornerbacks: Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2022, Dax Hill spent his first two seasons at safety before making the transition to CB ahead of the '24 campaign. He started the first five games of last season at CB, then suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 5. He returned to full participation this past training camp and has started all 11 games this season. He leads the team's CBs with 65 tackles (42 solos), including two TFLs, while also recording four PDs and an INT. A natural athlete who lined up at several positions in the secondary during his career at the University of Michigan (2019-21), Hill primarily contributed on special teams throughout his 2022 rookie season before starting all 17 contests at safety in '23. CB DJ Turner II is enjoying a breakout campaign in his third pro season, as he currently leads the league with a career-high 15 PDs. Five of those were recorded in Week 6 at Green Bay, as he became the first Bengals player with five PDs in a game since CB Johnathan Joseph in 2009. After missing the final six games of last season due to a collarbone injury, Turner opened this year with his first career INT to help seal the Week 1 win at Cleveland late in the fourth quarter. He then collected his second pick of the year in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh. Turner originally was a second-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2023 and has played in 39 career games with 28 starts. He was a teammate of Hill's at Michigan, and ran the fastest time in the 40-yard dash at the 2023 NFL Combine (4.26 seconds). CB Josh Newton, who the Bengals selected in the fifth round of the 2024 draft, earned a roster spot out of his rookie training camp and has played in 28 consecutive games to begin his career. He was thrust into the starting lineup last season following Turner's shoulder injury and started the final six contests, and that stretch included his first career INT in Week 15 at Tennessee. He has started two contests this season and has 11 total tackles (nine solos), along with a PD. Newton spent his final two collegiate seasons (2022-23) at Texas Christian University, where he started all 27 games he played in. DJ Ivey made his return to action midway through the 2024 season, after recovering from a knee injury sustained late in the '23 campaign. A 2023 seventh-round draft pick of the Bengals, he carved out a role on special teams and showed flashes on defense prior to the injury. He played in 11 games last season and has seen action in all 11 contests this year. He has five special teams tackles along with one defensive stop on the season, and sealed the Week 7 win over Pittsburgh when he knocked down a Hail Mary attempt as time expired. The Bengals acquired Marco Wilson on waivers from New England last November, adding depth and experience to the CB room. Wilson spent the majority of his first three pro seasons (2021-23) with Arizona, before being waived by the Cardinals and signed by the Patriots in December of '23. He has played in 64 career regular-season games with 37 starts, and his career totals include 20 PDs and three INTs. He played in each of Cincinnati's final six games last season, and made his 2025 debut in Week 3 at Minnesota. He has two defensive tackles and a special teams stop in four contests this season, but left the Week 12 game against New England with a hamstring injury.

Safeties: Geno Stone has started all 28 games he has played in for the Bengals since joining the team as an unrestricted free agent in the 2024 offseason. He led Cincinnati with four INTs last year (tied for 10th in NFL), which included a stretch of three straight games with a pick from Weeks 14-16. He recorded his first pick of this season in Week 6 at Green Bay, as he ended the Packers' opening drive by intercepting QB Jordan Love inside the red zone. He is coming off his second career pick-six in Week 12 vs. New England, as he returned an INT 32 yards to the end zone in the second quarter. He also posted a career-high 13 tackles against the Patriots. Stone spent his first four pro seasons (2020-23) with Baltimore, and emerged as a premier ball-hawking safety in '23 when his career-high seven INTs led the AFC. His 13 total INTs since the start of the 2023 campaign are tied for the second-most in the NFL. His 80 tackles this season lead the Bengals. Stone's fellow starting safety, Jordan Battle, leads the team with three INTs. His first two INTs came in the first two games of the season, as he became the first Bengals player to start a year with picks in back-to-back games since former CB Ashley Ambrose in 1996. Battle has posted 78 tackles this season, highlighted by a career-best 12 stops in the opener at Cleveland. A third-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, he has played in 45 career games (24 starts) and has 200 tackles along with five picks. He was a team captain and third-team All-American in his final season at the University of Alabama (2022). Fourth-year pro Tycen Anderson is a special teams ace and rotational safety. He has led the Bengals in special teams tackles in each of the past two seasons, with eight in 2023 followed by 11 in '24, and his team-leading 15 ST stops this season are tied for fourth-most in the NFL. He missed his entire rookie regular season in 2022 due to a knee injury, but recovered in time for the start of the following training camp and had two INTs in the '23 preseason opener. He was the recipient of the team's 2024 Ed Block Courage Award, in recognition of his dedication and work ethic during his injury rehab process. PJ Jules cracked the 53-man roster for the first time this year, after spending his entire rookie season in 2024 on the Bengals' practice squad. A 2024 college free agent signee, he was a consensus first-team FCS All-American and first-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference choice at Southern Illinois University in 2023. Jules led the Bengals with 10 solo tackles this past preseason. He has 12 special teams tackles and two defensive stops, including a TFL, through 11 regular-season games played.

Special teams: A fifth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2021, K Evan McPherson owns the third-highest career FG percentage in team history (82.2). He is 17-for-20 on FG attempts and a perfect 25-for-25 on PATs this season. In Week 12 vs. New England, he kicked a franchise-record 63-yard FG as the first half ended, and became the fourth kicker in NFL history with FGs from distances of at least 50 yards and at least 60 yards in a single game. He now has 27 career FGs from 50 or more yards, the most in Bengals history and tied for the sixth-most in the NFL since the start of his 2021 rookie season. McPherson has been operating at full health through the first 11 games of 2025, after missing the final five contests of last season due to a groin injury. Second-year P Ryan Rehkow compiled a record-setting rookie season in 2024 that saw him set Bengals single-season marks for gross punting average (49.11 yards per punt) and net average (42.92). His net average ranked sixth among all NFL punters last year, while his gross ranked ninth (both led all rookies). He was named to the 2024 Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team. In his career debut in the 2024 opener against New England, he set an NFL single-game record with 64.5 gross yards per punt (four punts for 258 yards). This season, he leads the NFL in gross average (52.3 yards) and is tied for sixth in net average (42.8). Rookie William Wagner earned the role as the Bengals' long snapper coming out of this past training camp, and through his first 11 career games he has recorded 91 snaps without an unplayable delivery. He spent six seasons (2019-24) at the University of Michigan, where he saw action in 53 total games. In 2024, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors while being named a finalist for the Mannelly Award (nation's top LS). WR Charlie Jones serves as Cincinnati's primary kickoff and punt returner. In Week 9 vs. Chicago, he ran back the opening kickoff 98 yards for a TD and finished the day with a career-best 179 yards on four KORs. It marked his third career TD on a return, as he previously found the end zone on an 81-yard PR in Week 2 of 2023 vs. Baltimore, and had a 100-yard KOR in Week 7 of '24 at Cleveland. He is one of two players in Bengals history with a TD via both kickoff and punt return, alongside former CB Lemar Parrish. Jones has 41 KORs for 1126 yards (27.5 average) in his career, while also contributing 48 PRs for 455 yards (9.48). Also in the mix to return kickoffs and punts is second-year WR Jermaine Burton, who took over KORs late last season following an injury to Jones. Burton had 13 KORs for 378 yards in 2024 (29.1 average), including two 38-yarders. He logged four KORs for 84 yards this past preseason, as well as two PRs for 35 yards. HB Samaje Perine has returned 15 kickoffs this season for 381 yards (25.4), including a season-long 38-yarder in Week 9 vs. Chicago. While playing for Kansas City last season, he had five KORs for 163 yards (32.6).

THE LAST BENGALS-RAVENS MEETINGS

2024 SEASON WEEK 5, GAME 5

Baltimore Ravens 41, Cincinnati Bengals 38 (OT) Sunday, Oct. 6, 2024 at Paycor Stadium

A missed Bengals FG in OT was followed by a 52-yard run by Ravens RB Derrick Henry that set up the game-winning kick. The Bengals built a 10-point lead in the fourth quarter when WR Ja'Marr Chase took a short screen pass from QB Joe Burrow 70 yards for his second TD of the afternoon. Burrow passed for 392 yards, five TDs and a 137.0 rating, but an late INT by CB Marlon Humphrey led to game-tying FG drive. The Bengals were set up for a potential game-winning FG with 4:31 left in OT, but a mishandled snap led to the attempt sailing wide left. Cincinnati fell to 1-4, while Baltimore improved to 3-2.

2024 SEASON WEEK 10, GAME 10

Baltimore Ravens 35, Cincinnati Bengals 34 Thursday night, Nov. 7, 2024 at M&T Bank Stadium

The Bengals attempted a two-point conversion to potentially take the lead with 38 seconds remaining, but QB Joe Burrow's pass fell incomplete as Cincinnati came up just short on Thursday Night Football. Burrow finished with 56 passing attempts and threw for 428 yards and four TDs, with 264 yards and three scores going to WR Ja'Marr Chase. Chase's first TD was a 67-yarder early in the third quarter that increased the Bengals' lead to 21-7. Cincinnati was driving with the two-score lead later in the third, before a fumble forced and recovered by Baltimore sparked 21 straight points for the Ravens. Burrow and Chase connected on a 70-yard TD midway through the fourth to tie it, but Ravens QB Lamar Jackson's fourth TD pass of the night with 1:49 left proved to be the difference. Cincinnati fell to 4-6, while Baltimore improved to 7-3.

2025 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 17, Cleveland Browns 16 Sunday, Sept. 7, 2025 at Huntington Bank Field

The Bengals' defense recorded two takeaways in the second half and held Cleveland scoreless on its final six possessions to lead the way in a season-opening victory. Cincinnati's offense was limited to 141 net yards, the second-fewest in a win in team history, but it scored a TD on two of its first three drives to build a 14-10 halftime lead. The Browns pulled ahead with a TD in the third quarter but missed the PAT attempt, and a 35-yard FG by Bengals K Evan McPherson later in the period regained the lead for Cincinnati. Cleveland drove inside the red zone with under five minutes remaining in regulation, but K Andre Szmyt's try for a 36-yard go-ahead FG sailed wide right. The Browns forced a quick Bengals punt and once again were driving for the win, before CB DJ Turner II came up with his first career INT on a ball that ricocheted off a Cleveland WR. P Ryan Rehkow then delivered a punt that was downed at the Browns' one-yard line, securing the win for Cincinnati.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Cincinnati Bengals 31, Jacksonville Jaguars 27 Sunday, Sept. 14, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

Backup QB Jake Browning scored the go-ahead TD on a one-yard sneak with 18 seconds left to lead the Bengals to a win in their home opener. Browning, who entered the game in the second quarter after starter Joe Burrow suffered a toe injury, rallied from throwing three INTs to lead Cincinnati on a game-winning drive that started at its own eight-yard line. Defensively, the Bengals intercepted Jaguars QB Trevor Lawrence twice, including a pick by CB Dax Hill in the end zone which kept points off the board in the first quarter. Browning threw a pair of TD passes in the second half, including a 13-yarder to WR Mitch Tinsley for his first career reception. WR Ja'Marr Chase carried the load offensively with 14 catches for 165 yards and a first-quarter TD. Cincinnati improved to 2-0, while Jacksonville fell to 1-1.

WEEK 3, GAME 3Minnesota Vikings 48, Cincinnati Bengals 10
Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025 at U.S. Bank Stadium

Cincinnati committed five turnovers, including four in the first half, on the way to the 38-point defeat. Two of the first-half turnovers resulted in TD returns by Vikings CB Isaiah Rodgers, who had an 87-yard pick-six and a 66-yard fumble recovery return. The Bengals were driving inside Minnesota territory with a chance to cut into a 14-point deficit ahead of halftime, but they committed three fumbles over the final two minutes which the Vikings converted into 17 points. The final play of the first half was a 62-yard FG by K Will Reichard, which marked the longest FG by an opponent in Bengals history. Bengals QB Jake Browning was picked off twice and held to 140 passing yards while being sacked three times. Cincinnati fell to 2-1, while Minnesota improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4Denver Broncos 28, Cincinnati Bengals 3
Monday night, Sept. 29, 2025 at Empower Field at Mile High

Denver scored 28 unanswered points and totaled 512 yards of net offense to defeat the Bengals in a nationally televised contest. Cincinnati took an early lead on a short FG from K Evan McPherson which capped off a 12-play, 62-yard opening drive, but the offense was forced to punt on every remaining possession and recorded just 97 yards the rest of the way. Cincinnati came up with a stop on fourth down near its own goal line late in the second quarter, as rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. picked off Broncos QB Bo Nix in the end zone for his first career INT. But Denver regained possession shortly after and put together a quick scoring drive at the end of the half to build its lead. Though the Bengals' defense kept the Broncos off the board through most of the second half, Nix punctuated the night with his second TD pass late in the fourth quarter. Cincinnati fell to 2-2, while Denver improved to 2-2.

WEEK 5, GAME 5Detroit Lions 37, Cincinnati Bengals 24
Sunday, Oct. 5, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals scored a TD on three straight possessions in the fourth quarter to cut into their deficit, but the comeback effort came up short in a home loss. Detroit built a 28-3 advantage thanks in large part to three INTs off Bengals QB Jake Browning, as each pick set up the Lions' offense inside Cincinnati territory. While the Bengals' defense sacked Lions QB Jared Goff four times and forced the high-powered Detroit attack to punt on five occasions, Goff battled through to complete 82.6 percent of his passes with three going for TDs. In the fourth quarter, Browning hit WR Ja'Marr Chase for two TDs, including a 64-yarder, and later found WR Tee Higgins in the end zone to make it an 11-point game. But a scramble for possession on the ensuing onside kick ultimately was won by the Lions, and a last gasp for the Bengals with under two minutes left was shut down with a safety. Cincinnati fell to 2-3, while Detroit improved to 4-1.

WEEK 6, GAME 6Green Bay Packers 27, Cincinnati Bengals 18
Sunday, Oct. 12, 2025 at Lambeau Field

Cincinnati pulled to within six points late in the fourth quarter, but a Packers third-down conversion followed by a FG sealed the Bengals' road loss. QB Joe Flacco, who was acquired in a trade just five days earlier, passed for 219 yards and two TDs in his first Bengals start. Both scoring plays came on fourth down, with the second going to WR Ja'Marr Chase for his 50th career TD catch. After the Packers' opening drive ended in a red zone INT by Bengals S Geno Stone, they controlled the time of possession throughout the first half and built a 10-0 lead by halftime. Cincinnati responded at the start of the third quarter with a 17-play drive which ended with Flacco finding TE Tanner Hudson for a TD on fourth-and-goal. The Packers answered with two straight TD drives to make it 24-10, before the Chase score followed by a successful two-point conversion closed the gap. The Bengals had one final chance to get the ball back to their offense, but Green Bay converted on third-and-eight and drained more clock before kicking a FG to put the game out of reach. Cincinnati fell to 2-4, while Green Bay improved to 3-1-1.

WEEK 7, GAME 7Cincinnati Bengals 33, Pittsburgh Steelers 31
Thursday night, Oct. 16, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

In a high-scoring, nationally televised matchup which saw the two offenses combine for 866 net yards, the Bengals put together a late drive to set up K Evan McPherson's 36-yard game-winning FG on Thursday Night Football. It marked the third regular-season game in NFL history between two starting QBs over 40 years old, as Joe Flacco, 40, passed for 342 yards and three TDs for the Bengals while Aaron Rodgers, 41, had 249 yards and four passing TDs for the Steelers. Flacco leaned heavily on WR Ja'Marr Chase, who finished with a Bengals-record 16 receptions for 161 yards and a TD. The Steelers took the lead with 2:21 remaining when Rodgers found TE Pat Freiermuth for a 68-yard TD, but Flacco engineered a quick drive down the field and connected on a 28-yard pass to WR Tee Higgins to get inside McPherson's range. Cincinnati picked off Rodgers twice in the second quarter and scored 17 points late in the period to pull ahead at halftime. The Bengals' offense also was aided by a strong rushing attack, led by HB Chase Brown's 9.8 yards per carry. Cincinnati improved to 3-4, while Pittsburgh fell to 4-2.

WEEK 8, GAME 8N.Y. Jets 39, Cincinnati Bengals 38
Sunday, Oct. 26, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

The Jets scored 23 points in the fourth quarter to storm back from a 15-point deficit and earn their first win of the season over the Bengals. Cincinnati built leads of at least 14 points on three separate occasions, including a 38-24 advantage with 10 minutes left following HB Chase Brown's second TD of the afternoon. New York's offense totaled 502 net yards, including 254 rushing, and held the Bengals' defense without a sack or takeaway. RB Breece Hall rushed for two TDs in the fourth quarter to pull New York back to within a score, and then he threw a TD pass to TE Mason Taylor to give the Jets their first lead in the final two minutes. The Bengals' rushing attack helped them race out in front over the first three quarters, as Brown logged 73 yards on the ground while HB Samaje Perine contributed a season-high 94. WR Ja'Marr Chase had double-digit receptions for a third straight game, finishing with 12 catches for 91 yards. Cincinnati fell to 3-5, while the Jets improved to 1-7.

WEEK 11, GAME 10Pittsburgh Steelers 34, Cincinnati Bengals 12
Sunday, Nov. 16, 2025 at Acrisure Stadium

The Steelers scored two defensive TDs in the second half to pull away in a divisional win over Cincinnati. After the two teams exchanged TDs on their opening offensive possession, together they proceeded to punt on each of the game's next six drives before a Steelers FG late in the first half gave them a 10-6 lead at the break. The Bengals drove inside Pittsburgh territory while trailing by four late in the third quarter, but S Kyle Dugger intercepted a pass by QB Joe Flacco and returned it 73 yards for a pick-six. Bengals K Evan McPherson's second FG of the afternoon closed the gap to one possession again, but Steelers backup QB Mason Rudolph answered by leading a six-minute TD drive, and another Pittsburgh defensive score on a fumble return broke the game open. Bengals HB Chase Brown totaled 127 yards from scrimmage in the loss. Cincinnati fell to 3-7, while Pittsburgh improved to 6-4.

WEEK 12, GAME 11

New England 26, Cincinnati Bengals 20
Sunday, Nov. 23, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals drove inside the Patriots' 30-yard line while trailing by six points late in the fourth quarter, but New England's defense forced three straight incompletions to stave off the comeback effort. Cincinnati went up 10-0 in the second quarter on S Geno Stone's 32-yard pick-six, before the Patriots took the lead in a span of four snaps as TE Hunter Henry's TD was followed by CB Marcus Jones returning an INT of his own for a score. Bengals K McPherson cut into the deficit as the first half ended by drilling a team-record 63-yard FG. Cincinnati's defense opened the second half with a goal line stand, holding the Patriots out of the end zone on four plays from the one-yard line, but New England put together three consecutive FG drives to stay in front. Bengals HB Chase Brown rushed for 107 yards and logged his fifth straight game with 100 or more yards from scrimmage. Cincinnati fell to 3-8, while New England improved to 10-2.
