SATURDAY, DEC. 23
AT ACRISURE STADIUM

NEXT WEEK: WEEK 17, GAME 16
DEC. 31 AT KANSAS CITY

GAME INFORMATION

Kickoff: 4:30 p.m. Eastern.

Television: The game will air nationally on NBC-TV. In the Bengals' home region, it will be carried by WLWT-TV (Ch. 5) in Cincinnati, WDTN-TV (Ch. 7) in Dayton and on WLEX-TV (Ch. 2) in Lexington. Broadcasters are Noah Eagle (play-by-play), Todd Blackledge (analyst) and Kathryn Tappen (sideline reporter).

Radio: The game will air on the Bengals Radio Network, led by Cincinnati flagship stations WLW-AM (700), WCKY-AM (1530) and WEBN-FM (102.7). Broadcasters are Dan Hoard (play-by-play) and Dave Lapham (analyst).

The game also will air nationally on Westwood One Radio. Broadcasters are Mike Watts (play-by-play) and Mike Mayock (analyst).

Setting the scene: The Bengals face a pivotal game in the AFC playoff race when they travel to Pittsburgh to take on the Steelers on Saturday. Cincinnati has won three in a row to improve to 8-6 and enters Week 16 as the No. 6 seed in the conference standings.

The Bengals are coming off a thrilling 27-24 overtime win against Minnesota in Week 15 that saw Cincinnati erase a 14-point deficit going into the fourth quarter. Facing a Vikings defense that hadn't allowed a TD in its previous 11 quarters of play, the Bengals found the end zone on three straight drives, including WR Tee Higgins' highlight-reel TD catch which tied the game with 39 seconds remaining. In overtime, Cincinnati's defense stuffed Minnesota on consecutive short-yardage plays in Bengals territory, culminating with a stop on fourth-and-inches to give the ball back to QB Jake Browning. Browning then connected with WR Tyler Boyd for a 44-yard gain on third down that set up K Evan McPherson's 29-yard game-winning FG.

"It took everybody," said head coach Zac Taylor after the victory. "Players, coaches, crowd — it took everybody. We found a way to regain the momentum in the fourth quarter. That was as hard-fought a game as I've ever been a part of in my entire life. Our guys found a way at the end."

The comeback marked the fifth time in team history (first since 2018) that the Bengals won a game when trailing by 14 or more points in the final quarter. Browning finished 29 of 42 for 324 yards, with 243 coming after halftime. Making his fourth consecutive start and facing a Vikings team he spent his first two NFL seasons with from 2019-20, Browning was able to overcome a third-quarter INT and lead Cincinnati to another OT victory.

"I feel like I need a beer, but I'm right off of a cramping incident, so I'm probably going to pass on that," Browning said. "That was a roller coaster. Obviously, the overtime was similar to (Week 13 at) Jacksonville, but in Jacksonville we were always kind of right even with them. This one, we got down and hadn't played great in the first half. Then, I threw the pick in the second half, and we rallied from there. There were some big-time plays being made."

Browning, whose 76.0 completion percentage since Week 12 is the second highest by any NFL QB in their first four starts since 1950, completed a pass to 11 different receivers throughout the game. Complementing the passing attack was HB Joe Mixon, who grinded out 4.7 yards per carry and fought through contact to score a game-tying TD on fourth-and-goal earlier in the fourth quarter. Defensively, Cincinnati came away with two INTs in the first half on Vikings drives that reached the red zone, including DT B.J. Hill's second pick in the past two weeks.

The Bengals did not exit the game unscathed, however, as two key contributors suffered injuries that forced them to miss the remainder of the afternoon. DT DJ Reader sustained a knee injury on the second defensive snap of the game, and Zac Taylor confirmed to reporters the following day that the team's starting nose tackle and team captain will not return to action this season. Taylor also said that WR Ja'Marr Chase, who injured his shoulder late in the fourth quarter, is "day-to-day" heading into this Saturday's game at Pittsburgh. Additionally, CB DJ Ivey suffered a knee injury and will be out for the rest of the season.

Cincinnati now turns its attention to the Steelers, who sit just behind the Bengals in the AFC North Division standings at 7-7. Pittsburgh won the first meeting between the two teams in Week 12, a 16-10 result at Paycor Stadium that saw the Steelers defense total four sacks while allowing just 222 offensive net yards by Cincinnati. But Taylor remains confident in his team's ability to perform at its best as the season progresses, and the Bengals enter Saturday looking to win their 10th straight game in the month of December dating back to Week 15 of the 2021 campaign.

"We've talked a lot about how we have to be our strongest in December and January," Taylor said. "Reflecting back over the last couple of years, everything we do — offseason, training camp, regular season — is geared toward being at our best now. These last three weeks, we've been pretty dang good. We just have to keep that moving, and we've got a big one next week."

The series: The Steelers lead 69-39 overall (including 2-0 in postseason) and 36-17 in Pittsburgh. The two postseason games both were Steelers wins in Wild Card round contests at Paycor Stadium (formerly named Paul Brown Stadium), after the 2005 and '15 seasons.

The Bengals have played more games against the Steelers (108) than any other foe. Cleveland is second in that category at 100, and Tennessee (formerly Houston Oilers) is third at 79.

A complete recap of the Bengals-Steelers series appears on page 210 of the 2023 Bengals Media Guide.

Team bests from the series:

Bengals — MOST POINTS: 42, in a 42-7 win at Riverfront Stadium in 1988. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 35, from the 1988 home win. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 3, in a 27-3 win at Riverfront in 1990.

Uniform watch: The Bengals are slated to wear white jerseys, black pants (orange stripes) and white socks this week at Pittsburgh. Cincinnati is 6-3 overall when wearing that combination, which was last featured in the team's 31-17 win at San Francisco in Week 8. It is the Bengals' second most frequently worn combination (nine games), behind white jerseys, white pants (black stripes) and black socks (13 games).

Cincinnati unveiled new uniforms in 2021, marking the team's first significant uniform redesign since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants also feature three different options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, and white with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate jerseys and/or color rush (CR) uniforms and/or throwback uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new helmet branded as the "White Bengal," featuring a white base coat and the team's iconic black stripes. The Bengals have worn the helmet four times — twice last season and twice this season — and have collected a 4-0 record. The "White Bengal" look made its most recent appearance in Week 13 at Jacksonville, when Cincinnati earned a 34-31 overtime win on Monday Night Football.

Here is a look at all of the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

* — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or color rush (CR) and/or throwback uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games.

The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes an orange jersey with one of the team's primary pants. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

^ — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023, the Bengals are permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.

Bengals career records watch: As Cincinnati continues the 2023 campaign, here is a look at potential upcoming movement on the Bengals' career records lists (regular season):

- HB Joe Mixon has 6193 career rushing yards, 254 shy of HB James Brooks (6447) for second place all-time. HB Corey Dillon (8061) is the team's career record holder. Mixon in Week 6 surpassed HB Rudi Johnson (5742) for third place.
- Mixon in Week 15 vs. Minnesota scored his 48th career rushing TD, tying Rudi Johnson for second place all-time. FB Pete Johnson (64) is the team's career record holder. Mixon in Week 13 surpassed Dillon (45) for third place on the team's career list.
- Mixon has 1525 career rushing attempts, 340 shy of Dillon (1865) for the team record. Mixon in Week 10 surpassed Rudi Johnson (1441) for second place.
- Mixon has 14 games with 100 or more rushing yards, one shy of HB Cedric Benson for fourth place all-time. Dillon (28), Rudi Johnson (19) and Brooks (17) hold the top three spots on the team's career list.
- WR Tyler Boyd has 505 career receptions, two shy of WR T.J.

Houshmandzadeh (507) for fourth place all-time. Boyd in 2022 surpassed WR Cris Collinsworth (417) for fifth place.

- K Evan McPherson has an 83.3 career FG percentage (75 made/90 att.), the third highest mark in team history. K Shayne Graham (86.8 percent; 177/202) and Randy Bullock (84.9 percent; 90/106) hold the top two spots.

- McPherson has converted 75.0 percent of his career FG attempts from 50 or more yards (21 made/28 att.), the best mark in team history (minimum 10 attempts). Bullock (50 percent; 7/14) ranks second on the team's career list.

Bengals season records watch: Here is a look at potential upcoming movement on the Bengals' single-season records lists (regular season):

- WR Ja'Marr Chase has 93 receptions, four shy of WRs A.J. Green (97 in 2012) and Chad Johnson (97 in '05) for fifth most in team history. WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh holds the single-season team record for receptions with 112 in 2007.

- Chase has 1156 receiving yards, 213 shy of Johnson (1369 in 2006) for fifth most in team history. Chase holds the single-season team record for receiving yards with 1455 in 2021.

- Chase has five games with 100 or more receiving yards, tied for the second most in team history and one shy of Green (six in 2013) for the single-season team record.

- DE Trey Hendrickson had 1.5 sacks in Week 15 vs. Minnesota, bringing his season total to 15.0. That surpassed his previous career high of 14.0 in 2022, and also stands as the second most in team history. DE Coy Bacon holds the single-season team record for sacks with 22.0 in 1976 (sacks became an official NFL statistic in '82, however the Bengals tracked the stat back to '76 and thus recognize Bacon as the record-holder).

- K Evan McPherson has 23 made FGs, five shy of three players with 28 (most recently McPherson in '21) for fourth most in team history. K Mike Nugent holds the single-season team record for made FGs with 33 in 2011.

Records vs. Steelers: The following individual and team regular-season Bengals and Steelers entries are logged in Cincinnati's team record book:

- On Oct. 28, 1973 at Pittsburgh, Steelers S Mike Wagner became the first opponent to record three INTs in a game against the Bengals. Four players since have tied.

- On Nov. 10, 1974 at Cincinnati, QB Ken Anderson set the Bengals' game record for completion percentage (90.91), hitting 20 of 22 against the Steelers.

- On Nov. 29, 1992 at Cincinnati, the Steelers tied the record for most sacks against the Bengals in a game with 10, then tied the mark again on Oct. 13, 1996 at Pittsburgh. The record originally was set by Denver on Oct. 19, 1969 at Cincinnati.

- On Oct. 16, 1994 at Cincinnati, the Bengals set a team record with eight sacks, all on QB Neil O'Donnell. That mark was tied on Dec. 9, 2001 vs. Jacksonville.

- On Oct. 15, 2000 at Pittsburgh, Steelers P Josh Miller tied for the most punts ever against the Bengals with 12.

- On Dec. 30, 2001 at Cincinnati, Jon Kitna had a Bengals-record 68 pass attempts in an overtime win over the Steelers. The 68 attempts also set a team record, which still stands.

- On Dec. 4, 2017 at Cincinnati, the Bengals set the dubious record of most penalty yardage incurred during a game at 173. That number shattered the previous mark of 134.

- On Sept. 26, 2021 at Pittsburgh, Steelers RB Najee Harris tied the mark for most receptions ever against the Bengals in a game with 14.

- On Sept. 11, 2022 at Cincinnati, Bengals K Evan McPherson kicked a 59-yard field goal vs. Pittsburgh, the longest field goal in team history.

Individually vs. Steelers: Here is a look at the offensive stats for current Bengals players against Pittsburgh (ordered by total games played):

- WR Tyler Boyd: 13 games; 46 receptions for 490 yards (10.7-yard average) and five TDs.

- HB Joe Mixon: 11 games; 159 carries for 765 yards (4.8) and three TDs; 30 receptions for 202 yards (6.7).

- TE Drew Sample: Seven games; Four catches for 26 yards (6.5) and a TD.
- QB Joe Burrow (Reserve/Injured list): Five games; 112-of-174 passing (64.4 percent) for 1268 yards, 11 TDs and eight INTs (88.0 rating); 16 rushes for 67 yards (4.2) and one TD.

- WR Tee Higgins: Five games; 27 catches for 435 yards (16.1) and two TDs.

- HB Trayveon Williams: Five games; Nine carries for 37 yards (4.1).

- WR Ja'Marr Chase: Four games; 21 receptions for 314 yards (15.0) and three TDs.

- TE Mitchell Wilcox: Four games; One reception for one yard.

- HB Chris Evans: Three games; Five rushes for 23 yards (4.6); Three receptions for 31 yards (10.3).

- WR Trenton Irwin: Three games; Four receptions for 67 yards (16.8) and one TD.

- QB Jake Browning: One game; 19-of-26 passing for 227 yards, one TD and one INT (96.2 rating); Three rushes for nine yards (3.0).

- TE Tanner Hudson: One game; Four receptions for 18 yards (4.5).

- WR Andrei Iosivas: One game; One reception for 16 yards.

- TE Irv Smith Jr.: One game; Two receptions for eight yards (4.0).

THE HEAD COACHES

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2023 season is his fifth in the position.

In 2022, Taylor led Cincinnati to a second consecutive AFC North Division title and a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship. The Bengals tied a team record for regular-season wins (12) and consecutive wins (eight), and with a pair of playoff victories in January, Taylor became one of just 13 head coaches in NFL history with five wins in their first six career postseason games. He once again oversaw a dynamic offense that ranked in the top 10 leaguewide in scoring (seventh, 26.1 points per game), total yards (eighth, 360.5), and passing yards (fifth, 265.0).

The Bengals also boasted a versatile defense that held opposing passers to a league-low 58.9 completion percentage while also ranking sixth in points allowed (20.1 per game) and seventh in rushing yards allowed (106.6).

In 2021, Taylor guided the Bengals to their first division championship since '15, before winning three postseason games to claim the AFC crown and a berth in Super Bowl LVI. QB Joe Burrow, playing in his first full season in Taylor's system, was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year after leading the league in completion percentage (70.4), while first-round draft pick WR Ja'Marr Chase totaled the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455) en route to Offensive Rookie of the Year honors.

In the postseason, Taylor led the Bengals to their first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

In 2020, Taylor helped the Bengals navigate the league's COVID-19 pandemic protocols which included no in-person offseason program. Still, he guided a rookie Burrow to notable production that included the most ever completions by a QB through their first 10 games (264) and the fifth-most passing yards (2688).

In 2019, his first season as head coach, Taylor led Cincinnati to second-half turnarounds on both offense and defense. Offensively, the Bengals' per-game rushing average jumped 70.6 yards from the first half of the season (59.5) to the second (130.1), while they allowed 10 fewer sacks (29 to 19). Defensively, Cincinnati notched 11 more sacks in the second half of the season compared to the first, and allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game.

Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons (2017-18) with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in '17 and quarterbacks coach in '18. In 2018, he helped guide QB Jared Goff to career highs in every major passing category as the Rams won the NFC West and advanced to Super Bowl LIII.

Taylor had a one-year stint at the University of Cincinnati in 2016, serving as offensive coordinator and QBs coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Taylor broke into NFL coaching in 2012 as assistant quarterbacks coach for the Miami Dolphins. He was elevated to quarterbacks coach from 2013-15, and spent the final five games of '15 as interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller.

Taylor's coaching career began at Texas A&M University, where he served as offensive graduate assistant and tight ends coach under head coach Mike Sherman from 2008-11. The Aggies played in three bowl games during Taylor's time in College Station.

As a player, Taylor began his college career at Wake Forest (2002-03) before transferring to Butler County Community College in Kansas ('04) and then playing his final two seasons ('05-06) at the University of Nebraska. He set numerous program records, totaling 5850 passing yards and 45 TDs. He was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year as a senior in 2006 after passing for 3197 yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017.

Taylor joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp and never saw NFL action. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play).

His father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at the University of Oklahoma, playing under Sooners head coach Barry Switzer from 1976-79. Sherwood Taylor later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State University. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall University and currently is the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Taylor was born in Norman, Okla., on May 10, 1983. After attending Norman High School, he earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman.

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Steelers history when he replaced Bill Cowher on Jan. 22, 2007. He became at the time the youngest coach (36 years, 323 days) in NFL history to win a Super Bowl when the Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 27-23, in Super Bowl XLIII on Feb. 1, 2009 (Sean McVay is now the youngest at 36 years, 10 days).

Tomlin reached the playoffs four times in his first five seasons and he is the only coach in Steelers history to win division titles each of his first two seasons. In his 16 years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to seven AFC North titles, most recently in 2020, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs 10 times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). From 2007-22, he led Pittsburgh to a 163-93-2 regular-season record — the best start for a head coach in franchise history.

Tomlin secured his 16th straight non-losing season with the Steelers in 2022, a streak dating back to his first season as the team's head coach in 2007. Tomlin is the only head coach in NFL history to begin a head-coaching tenure with at least 15 consecutive non-losing seasons.

In 2020, Tomlin's club won its seventh AFC North title. No other head coach has won the AFC North more than four times. In 2008, Tomlin directed the Steelers to a 12-4 record, winning his second-consecutive AFC North title. That season culminated with a Super Bowl triumph, making Tomlin one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. In his first season, Tomlin guided the Steelers to a 10-6 record and their first AFC North title since 2004.

Tomlin was the Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator in 2006 after spending the previous five seasons (2001-05) as defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Tomlin coached one of the top defensive backfields in the NFL for the Buccaneers, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four interceptions, returning two for touchdowns to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-2000) before going to Tampa Bay. Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at Memphis. Tomlin began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his college career with 101 receptions for 2046 yards and a school-record 20 touchdown receptions. He was named a first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994 after establishing a school record with a 20.2-yards-per catch average. He graduated in 1994 with a degree in sociology. He has no pro playing experience.

Tomlin was born in Hampton, Va., on March 15, 1972. He and his wife, Kiya, have two sons, Dino and Mason, and a daughter, Harlyn Quinn.

Taylor vs. Steelers: The Steelers lead, 5-4.

Taylor vs. Tomlin: Tomlin leads, 5-4.

Tomlin vs. Bengals: Tomlin leads 25-9 (that record includes a Wild Card Playoff victory after the 2015 season).

BENGALS NOTES

December Bengals: The Bengals have won nine consecutive games played in the month of December dating back to Week 15 of the 2021 season, marking the longest such active streak in the NFL. Buffalo holds the second longest streak with eight straight December wins.

Cincinnati's current streak is also the longest in team history, with the next closest being six consecutive victories from Dec. 8, 1996 through Dec. 21, 1997. After dropping a home contest to San Francisco in Week 14 of 2021, the Bengals won their final two games in December to put themselves in position for an AFC North Division title, which they clinched the following week on Jan. 2, 2022 against Kansas City. In 2022, Cincinnati went unbeaten in December for the sixth time in team history (first since 1997) to boost its record from 7-4 to 11-4, en route to a second consecutive division crown.

Leads lead to Bengals wins: Much of the Bengals' success over the past two-plus seasons has been built on their ability to close out games after jumping in front early. Since the start of the 2021 campaign, Cincinnati has the third best record in the NFL when scoring first (20-3), the second best record when leading at halftime (20-2), and the fourth best record when leading at any point in a game (30-8). This season, the Bengals are 4-1 when ahead at the half and 6-0 when leading after three quarters.

Among the many factors contributing to the Bengals' knack for cementing wins is the defensive play coming out of halftime. Since 2021, Cincinnati has allowed just 47 TDs (tied for second fewest leaguewide) and 458 total points (sixth fewest) in the second half/overtime. The Bengals' four-game win streak from Weeks 5-9 this season was highlighted by the defense recording eight takeaways in the second half of play (five INTs, three FRs), while also forcing four turnovers on downs. In Week 14 against Indianapolis, the Bengals came up with two second-half takeaways — an INT and a FR on a muffed punt — while outscoring the Colts 20-0.

Bengals find edge in turnover battle: Cincinnati this season has been among the league's best at both forcing turnovers defensively and taking care of the ball offensively. The Bengals have collected 23 takeaways (tied for sixth in NFL) while committing just 12 giveaways (tied for fewest), resulting in a turnover differential of plus-11 that ranks second leaguewide.

Cincinnati has won the turnover battle in nine of its 14 games this season, collecting a 7-2 record in those contests. The Bengals' offense has lost just two fumbles, the fewest in the NFL.

Eighteen of Cincinnati's 23 takeaways have come over the past 10 games. Twelve different Bengals have contributed to that season total of 23 with either an INT or a fumble recovery.

Cincinnati's 15 INTs this season are tied for third leaguewide and are the team's most since the 2016 campaign (17). The Bengals recorded at least one pick in seven straight games from Weeks 3-10, the longest such streak by Cincinnati since Weeks 2-8 of the 2020 season (also seven games). The Week 15 win over Minnesota marked the 11th straight game (including postseason) that the Bengals won when the defense had multiple INTs.

Offense opens strong: The Bengals have scored 65 first-quarter points since Week 5, the fourth most in the NFL in that span, while their eight first-quarter TDs during that timeframe are tied for third most leaguewide.

Cincinnati came away with points on its opening offensive possession in seven consecutive games from Weeks 4-11. During that stretch, the Bengals scored an opening-drive TD in five straight games from Weeks 5-10 — the longest such streak in team history and the longest in the NFL since Atlanta went six straight (Weeks 12-17) during the 2016 season. The TD streak was ended in Week 11 at Baltimore, when a drive that reached the Ravens' 31-yard line resulted in a 50-yard FG from K Evan McPherson.

During the streak, the Bengals followed up with a TD on their second possession in three consecutive games from Weeks 6-9. It marked the first time Cincinnati opened three straight contests with back-to-back TD drives since Games 13-15 of the 1985 season. The most recent team to accomplish that feat was Green Bay, which did it in four straight (Weeks 14-17) in the 2020 season.

The Bengals have scored first in seven games this season, most recently in Week 15 vs. Minnesota when they marched 59 yards on 11 plays on the game's opening drive to set up an Evan McPherson FG. QB Jake Browning completed five of six passes during the drive, three of which went for over 10 yards. The previous week against Indianapolis, a four-play, 92-yard TD drive in the first quarter was followed by an 11-play, 61-yard drive early in the second as Cincinnati grabbed a 14-0 lead.

Jake is on the money: Since taking over the starting QB role ahead of Week 12, Jake Browning has produced at a historically efficient rate. He has completed 98 of 129 passes (76.0 percent) from Weeks 12-15, marking the second highest completion percentage by any NFL QB in his first four career starts since 1950. Browning also has passed for 1180 yards in that span, making him the first QB since 1950 with 1000 or more passing yards and a completion percentage of 75 or above in his first four starts.

Browning connected on over 70 percent of his passing attempts in each of his first three starts, beginning in his starting debut in Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh. He went 19 of 26 (73.1) against the Steelers for 227 yards, with an 11-yard TD pass to TE Drew Sample that put the Bengals ahead in the second quarter.

Browning then posted the fifth highest completion percentage in a game in Bengals history (minimum 20 attempts) in Week 13 at Jacksonville, as he completed 32 of 37 passes (86.5) for 354 yards and a TD with zero INTs. He had a 125.9 passer rating in the second half/overtime, when he went 15 of 18 for 176 yards to lead the Bengals to a road win on Monday Night Football.

In Week 14 against Indianapolis, Browning finished 18 of 24 (75.0) for 275 yards and two TDs. His final passer rating of 122.7 was the highest of his young career, and he completed five passes that went for 25 or more yards.

Browning's most recent appearance in Week 15 vs. Minnesota saw him complete 69 percent of his passes (29 of 42) for 324 yards and two TDs with an INT. He completed at least one pass to 11 different receivers, marking the fifth time in Bengals history — and the first since Nov. 4, 2007 at Buffalo — that 11 players recorded a catch in a game. Both of Browning's TD passes came in the fourth quarter, when he went 12 of 16 for 140 yards to lead the Bengals back from a 14-point deficit at the start of the period.

Here is a look at the NFL QBs with the highest completion percentage through their first four career starts since 1950:

PLAYER	TEAM	YEAR	COMP. % (COMP./ATT.)
Chad Pennington	N.Y. Jets	2002	76.86 (93/121)
Jake Browning	Cincinnati	2023	75.97 (98/129)
Kurt Warner	St. Louis Rams	1999	72.57 (82/113)
Taysom Hill	New Orleans	2018	71.93 (82/114)
P.J. Walker	Carolina	2020-22	71.29 (72/101)

Browning in the clutch: Jake Browning has emerged as one of the NFL's top performers in the fourth quarter of play since taking over the Bengals' starting QB role. In Weeks 12-15, Browning leads the league in fourth-quarter completion percentage (76.5; minimum 25 attempts), while ranking fifth in completions (26), seventh in passing yards (267), fifth in yards per attempt (7.9) and third in passer rating (118.1). He has thrown two TD passes with zero INTs in the final period.

Both of Browning's fourth-quarter TD passes came in Week 15 vs. Minnesota as he helped Cincinnati overcome a 14-point deficit. With the Bengals trailing 17-3 on the opening play of the quarter, Browning lofted a 13-yard TD pass over WR Tee Higgins' left shoulder in the end zone to make it a one-score game. During the game-tying drive that ended with a Joe Mixon rushing TD minutes later, Browning completed four of six passes, highlighted by a 24-yarder to WR Ja'Marr Chase that converted a third-and-21.

Browning and the offense again trailed by seven when they took over possession with 3:48 remaining. He proceeded to go seven of nine for 72 yards, capped off by a 21-yard TD pass to Higgins that knotted the score with 39 seconds left in regulation.

Browning has continued his clutch play in two overtime appearances, helping the Bengals come away with key wins in Week 13 at Jacksonville and last week against the Vikings. He completed four of five passes in the extra period vs. the Jaguars, none bigger than an 11-yard completion to Higgins on third-and-10 that put the Bengals in Jacksonville territory. His lone completion of overtime against Minnesota came on a third-and-nine, when he scrambled right and found WR Tyler Boyd downfield for a 44-yard gain that set up the game-winning FG.

Here are the QBs with the highest passer rating in the fourth quarter since Week 12 (minimum 25 attempts):

PLAYER	TEAM	4TH QUARTER RATING
Derek Carr	New Orleans Saints	131.9
Matthew Stafford	L.A. Rams	127.6
Jake Browning	Cincinnati Bengals	118.1
Baker Mayfield	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	117.0
Joe Flacco	Cleveland Browns	105.5

Browning shines on MNF: QB Jake Browning was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance in the Bengals' 34-31 overtime win at Jacksonville on Monday Night Football in Week 13. Making just his second career start, Browning completed 32 of 37 passes (86.5 percent) for 354 yards and one TD with zero INTs.

Browning's 86.5 completion percentage was the fifth highest in a game in Bengals history, and the highest in league history by a player in either of his first two starts (minimum 20 attempts). He became the 10th player in the Super Bowl era (1966-present) to pass for 350 or more yards with a completion percentage of 85 or higher. Browning's 354 passing yards marked the second most by a Bengals QB within his first two career starts behind Jeff Blake, who threw for 387 yards in his second start — an overtime win at Seattle on Nov. 6, 1994.

During the Bengals' game-winning drive in overtime, Browning went four of five for 36 yards to march Cincinnati into FG range. That included a 17-yarder through traffic to WR Ja'Marr Chase, and an 11-yarder to WR Tee Higgins on third-and-10 that kept the drive moving.

In the third quarter, Browning hit Chase down the left sideline for a 76-yard TD that gave the Bengals their first lead. It marked the team's longest play from scrimmage this season, and was one of four completions Browning had for over 20 yards.

Browning on third down completed nine of 11 passes for a passer rating of 149.1. He additionally ran for 22 yards on two carries, including a one-yard QB sneak into the end zone that tied the game 28-28 in the fourth quarter.

Here is a look at the five highest completion percentages in a single game in Bengals history (minimum 20 attempts):

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	COMP. % (COMP./ATT.)
Ken Anderson	Nov. 10, 1974	Pittsburgh	90.91 (20/22)
Joe Burrow	Oct. 29, 2023	at San Francisco	87.50 (28/32)
Ken Anderson	Jan. 2, 1983	at Houston Oilers	87.10 (27/31)
Turk Schonert	Nov. 25, 1984	Atlanta	86.96 (20/23)
Jake Browning	Dec. 4, 2023	at Jacksonville	86.48 (32/37)

The Browning rundown: QB Jake Browning has started the Bengals' past four games after it was announced that QB Joe Burrow would miss the remainder of the season due to a wrist injury. His starting debut in Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh marked his first start in a non-preseason game at any level since his senior season at the University of Washington in 2018, and marked just his third appearance in a regular-season NFL game. Browning made his NFL debut in Week 1 of this season at Cleveland, playing four snaps late in the fourth quarter in relief of Burrow, then saw extended action in Week 11 at Baltimore after Burrow exited in the second quarter.

Browning originally entered the league as a college free agent signee of Minnesota in 2019. He spent two seasons (2019-20) on the Vikings' practice squad, then was on the Bengals' practice squad for the past two years. He made the 53-man roster coming out of training camp for the first time in 2023, and spent the first 10 games of the season as Cincinnati's second-string QB before taking over the starting role.

Browning has played in six preseason games (two starts) for the Bengals over the past two years, completing 74 of 109 passes (67.9 percent) for 729 yards and two TDs with two INTs. Facing the Ravens' fourth-ranked passing defense in Week 11, Browning came in and went eight of 14 for 68 yards and one TD with no picks.

Browning was a four-year starter (2015-18) at Washington, where he helped steer the Huskies to a 39-14 record and set program records for career passing attempts (1483), completions (958), passing yards (12,296) and TD passes (94). As a sophomore in 2016, he finished sixth in Heisman Trophy voting while leading Washington to a Pac-12 title and a berth in the College Football Playoff. He also set California prep records in several categories while at Folsom High School, including career passing yards (16,775) and TD passes (229). Browning was teammates with Bengals OT Jonah Williams at Folsom.

Burrow's season highlights: QB Joe Burrow's fourth pro season came to an end in Week 11, as he suffered a right wrist injury at Baltimore that will hold him out of action until 2024.

Burrow finished his season with 244 completions on 365 pass attempts (66.8 percent) for 2309 yards and 15 TDs with six INTs, good for a passer rating of 91.0. After recovering from a calf injury that caused him to miss over a month of training camp, Burrow started the regular-season opener and went on to crack the top five for career completions, TD passes and 300-yard passing games in team history.

The 2022 Pro Bowler was at his best from Weeks 5-10 of this season, when he led the NFL in completion percentage (74.1), ranked second in completions (146), second in passer rating (107.0), third in TD passes (12) and fourth in passing yards (1480). He had three games with 300 or more passing yards in that stretch, led off by a 317-yard, three-TD performance in Week 5 against the Cardinals at Arizona. Burrow then threw for 348 yards on Sunday Night Football in Week 9 against the Buffalo Bills, and the following week had 347 vs. Houston.

In Week 8 at San Francisco, Burrow completed 28 of 32 passes for 283 yards and three TDs with no INTs to lead the Bengals to a crucial road win. His career-high 87.5 completion percentage was the second highest in a game in team history, trailing only QB Ken Anderson's 90.9 percent (20 of 22) on Nov. 10, 1974. Burrow closed out the first half against the 49ers by completing 19 consecutive passing attempts, marking the most consecutive completions in a game by any NFL passer this season and the second most in team history (Anderson, 20 on Jan. 2, 1983). Burrow's efforts at Levi's Stadium were rewarded with his sixth career AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor.

Burrow also rushed for 85 yards from Weeks 5-11, after totaling three rushing yards in the opening four games as he continued to work his way back to full health. He eclipsed some notable career marks in 2023 and did so in near-record timing, as he became the fifth fastest player in NFL history to reach 13,000 passing yards (48 games) and tied for the sixth fastest to 90 TD passes (49 games). Burrow additionally has a career completion percentage of 68.0, the highest in NFL history (minimum 1500 pass attempts).

Prior to the start of the regular season, Burrow signed a five-year contract extension that made him the highest-paid player in NFL history, based on average annual value. The extension keeps Burrow in Cincinnati through the 2029 season.

Chasing history: WR Ja'Marr Chase surpassed 1000 receiving yards this season with a 149-yard effort in Week 13 at Jacksonville. He became the eighth player in NFL history to reach the 1000-yard receiving milestone in each of his first three career seasons, and the second player in Bengals history to do so (A.J. Green, 2011-13). Chase also notched his 29th career receiving TD in Week 13 to tie Green for the most in team history in a player's first three seasons.

Through 43 career games, Chase has amassed 261 receptions for 3657 yards. His 85.05 receiving yards per game is the third highest average in league history among all players with at least 200 catches. A first-round pick of the Bengals in 2021 (fifth overall), Chase earned Pro Bowl selections in each of his first two seasons.

Chase finished the Week 13 contest against the Jaguars with a game-high 11 catches for 149 yards and one TD. It marked his sixth career game (third this season) with at least 10 receptions, at least 100 receiving yards and at least one receiving TD, the most such games in league history within a player's first three seasons.

Chase reached a pair of career milestones earlier this season, beginning with his 200th reception in Week 5 at Arizona. Playing in just his 34th career game, Chase tied as the fourth fastest player in league history to net 200 catches. Only former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. (30 games), New Orleans WR Michael Thomas (32) and former Miami WR Jarvis Landry (33) reached the mark in fewer games.

In Week 6 vs. Seattle, Chase surpassed 3000 receiving yards in his 35th career game, tying as the fifth fastest player ever to reach that mark. Beckham (30 games), former Houston Oilers WR Charlie Hennigan (31), Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (33) and former San Diego Chargers WR Lance Alworth (34) are the only players to net 3000 receiving yards in fewer total games.

Chase this season ranks seventh in the NFL in receptions (93), seventh in receiving yards (1156) and tied for eighth in receiving TDs (seven). He netted a combined 50 receptions from Games 3-7, the most in a five-game stretch in Bengals history which included three stat lines of 10 or more catches.

Here is a look at the players with the most receiving yards per game in NFL history (minimum 200 receptions)

PLAYER	TEAM	REC. YDS PER GAME
Justin Jefferson	Minnesota Vikings.....	96.91
Calvin Johnson	Detroit Lions.....	86.07
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals.....	85.05
Julio Jones	Atlanta/Tennessee/Tampa Bay/Philadelphia.....	84.23
Antonio Brown	Pittsburgh/New England/Tampa Bay.....	84.18

On the Chase: In the third quarter of Week 13 at Jacksonville, WR Ja'Marr Chase caught a pass from QB Jake Browning down the left sideline and broke away from Jaguars defensive backs for a 76-yard TD. It marked Chase's 15th career reception of 40 or more yards (fourth this season), the third most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021. It also was the Bengals' longest TD from scrimmage since an 82-yarder by Chase in Week 7 of the 2021 season at Baltimore.

Chase finished the Jaguars game with a team-high 149 receiving yards, marking the fifth time this season and 14th time in his career that he went over the century mark. With three games remaining in the regular season, Chase is 299 receiving yards shy of his career-high 1455 set in 2021. That total set both a Bengals single-season record and an NFL rookie record.

Here is a look at the WRs with the most receptions of 40 or more yards since the start of the 2021 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	CATCHES OF 40/+ YARDS SINCE '21
Tyreek Hill	Kansas City Chiefs/Miami Dolphins.....	19
Deebo Samuel	San Francisco 49ers.....	16
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals.....	15
Mike Evans	Tampa Bay Buccaneers.....	14
Davante Adams	Green Bay Packers/Las Vegas Raiders.....	13
Justin Jefferson	Minnesota Vikings.....	13
Cooper Kupp	L.A. Rams.....	13

Ja'Marr's record day: WR Ja'Marr Chase earned his third career AFC Offensive Player of the Week award for his performance in Week 5 at Arizona, in which he hauled in a Bengals single-game record 15 receptions for 192 yards and three TDs. His receptions total surpassed the previous team mark of 13, set by WR Carl Pickens on Oct. 11, 1998 against Pittsburgh.

Chase became the fifth player in NFL history to register at least 15 catches, 150 receiving yards and three receiving TDs in a game. At 23 years old, he also became the fourth player in NFL history under the age of 24 to record 15 receptions in a single game. Combining his performance at Arizona with a stat line of 11 catches for a Bengals-record 266 yards and three TDs in Week 17 of the 2021 campaign vs. Kansas City, Chase is the first player in league history with multiple games of at least 10 receptions, 150 receiving yards and three receiving TDs in his first three career seasons.

Chase's second TD at Arizona came early in the third quarter, when he got behind the Cardinals' secondary and caught a deep ball from QB Joe Burrow for a 63-yard score. It marked Chase's seventh career TD of 50 or more yards, and at the time was Cincinnati's longest TD from scrimmage since Chase scored a 72-yarder in the 2021 win over the Chiefs (since surpassed by Chase TDs of 64 and 76 yards this season).

Since he entered the NFL in 2021, Chase is one of four players with three or more receiving TDs in multiple games, alongside Buffalo WR Stefon Diggs, Tampa Bay WR Mike Evans and Kansas City TE Travis Kelce.

Here is a look at each player in NFL history to record at least 15 receptions, 150 receiving yards and three receiving TDs in a single game:

PLAYER	TEAM	DATE	REC.-YDS.-TDs
Steve Largent	Seattle Seahawks	Oct. 18, 1987.....	15-261-3
Jerry Rice	San Francisco 49ers	Nov. 20, 1994.....	16-165-3
Jimmy Smith	Jacksonville Jaguars	Sept. 10, 2000.....	15-291-3
Tyler Lockett	Seattle Seahawks	Oct. 25, 2020.....	15-200-3
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals	Oct. 8, 2023.....	15-192-3

Chase, Boyd pose deep threats: WR Ja'Marr Chase's 76-yard TD in Week 13 at Jacksonville was his ninth career scoring catch of 50 or more yards, the most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021. It also tied former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. for the second most such TDs in NFL history by a player under the age of 24. Only Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss (11) has more.

Chase has three TDs of 50-plus yards this season. The first of which came in Week 5 at Arizona, when QB Joe Burrow found Chase streaking behind the Cardinals' secondary for a 63-yard TD in the third quarter. Then in Week 10 vs. Houston, Chase broke free downfield on a scramble play and hauled in a pass from Burrow for a 64-yard score.

WR Tyler Boyd, meanwhile, has four TD catches of 50 or more yards since 2021, tied for the third most in the NFL behind Chase and former Kansas City/current Miami WR Tyreek Hill (seven). Two of those receptions occurred during the 2022 campaign — a 56-yard TD in Week 3 at the N.Y. Jets and a 60-yarder in Week 7 vs. Atlanta.

Here is a look at the players with the most TD catches of 50 or more yards since the start of the 2021 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	TD CATCHES OF 50/+ YARDS SINCE '21
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals	9
Tyreek Hill	Kansas City Chiefs/Miami Dolphins	7
Tyler Boyd	Cincinnati Bengals	4
Cooper Kupp	L.A. Rams	4
Deebo Samuel	San Francisco 49ers	4

Boyd reaches 500 catches: With five catches in Week 13 at Jacksonville, WR Tyler Boyd became the fifth player in Bengals history to surpass 500 career receptions. An eighth-year veteran who is the longest tenured player on the Bengals active roster, Boyd's 505 career catches rank as the 17th most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2016.

Boyd, who was a second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2016, has played in 117 regular-season games (76 starts) and seven postseason contests (six starts). After totaling 76 catches for a combined 828 yards over his first two seasons, he broke out in 2018 with a team-leading 76 grabs for 1028 yards. He followed up in 2019 with career highs in receptions (90) and yards (1046), becoming the sixth player in team history to eclipse 1000 receiving yards in back-to-back years.

Boyd this season ranks second on the Bengals in receptions (59) and receiving yards (575). He hauled in a season-best eight catches for 117 yards in Week 10 against Houston, including a 64-yarder late in the fourth quarter that set up a game-tying FG. In overtime of Week 15 vs. Minnesota, Boyd caught a pass from QB Jake Browning on third-and-nine and turned it into a 44-yard gain that put Cincinnati in position for the game-winning FG.

Tee gets two vs. Vikings: WR Tee Higgins in Week 15 caught four passes for 61 yards and two TDs to help Cincinnati erase a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter against Minnesota. His first TD came on the opening play of the quarter, when he caught an over-the-shoulder pass from QB Jake Browning to bring the Bengals within seven points. He then scored the game-tying TD with under a minute remaining in regulation, when he positioned himself in front of a Vikings defensive back to secure the catch before acrobatically reaching the ball across the goal line with one hand.

It marked Higgins' fourth career game with two receiving TDs, and his second this season (Week 2 vs. Baltimore). He has missed four games this season, including three straight from Weeks 10-12 due to a hamstring injury, but has been in the lineup for each of the past three contests. Higgins enjoyed his best statistical game of 2023 in Week 9 vs. Buffalo, when he caught eight passes for a season-high 110 yards. In his first game back from the previously referenced hamstring ailment, Higgins caught three passes for 36 yards in Week 13 at Jacksonville, including an 11-yard reception on third-and-10 in overtime that helped set up a game-winning FG.

Higgins has developed into one of the NFL's premier pass catchers since being drafted by the Bengals in the second round in 2020. He has 3525 career receiving yards, with back-to-back 1000-yard campaigns in 2021 and '22. He is one of five players in Bengals history with multiple 1K receiving seasons within the first three years of his career, alongside WRs Cris Collinsworth (1981, '83), Chad Johnson (2002-03), A.J. Green ('11-13) and Ja'Marr Chase ('21-22). Higgins' career yardage total at the end of 2022 (3028) marked the second most ever by a Bengals player through their first three seasons, trailing only Green (3833).

Higgins has continued to produce during his brief but impressive postseason career. He ranks second in Bengals postseason history in receptions (31) and receiving yards (457), trailing Chase in both categories, while his three TD catches are tied with Chase and former TE Dan Ross for the team's postseason record. With two TDs in Super Bowl LVI vs. the L.A. Rams, he also joined Ross as the only players in team history with multiple TDs in a postseason game.

Mixon moving up: HB Joe Mixon has been climbing two of the Bengals' career records charts during his seventh pro season in 2023. Mixon began the year with the fifth most rushing yards in team history, and through 14 games he has shot up to third on the all-time list. He surpassed FB Pete Johnson (5421) in Week 1 at Cleveland, then in Week 6 vs. Seattle overtook HB Rudi Johnson (5742). HB Corey Dillon (8061) and HB James Brooks (6447) hold the top two spots in the Bengals' record book.

Mixon's 6193 career rushing yards are the fifth most in the NFL since he entered the league as a second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2017. He has logged over 1000 rushing yards in three of his five full seasons (missed 10 games in 2020 due to injury), including including the '21 campaign in which he posted career highs in rushing yards (1205; third in NFL) and rushing TDs (13, fourth) while earning his first Pro Bowl selection. Mixon has rushed for at least 60 yards in seven games this season, including three of the past five.

Mixon also has tied Rudi Johnson for the second most rushing TDs in team history (48), after beginning the season ranked fourth in the category. Seven of Mixon's eight rushing TDs this season have come over the past eight games, including four in the past three contests to help spur a Cincinnati winning streak. Mixon has 28 TDs on the ground since the start of the 2021 season, the fourth most in the NFL in that span.

Also a dangerous pass catcher out of the backfield, Mixon in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis surpassed 40 receptions and 300 receiving yards for the third straight season. He has topped 100 yards from scrimmage in four games this year, including back-to-back efforts in Week 13 at Jacksonville (117 yards) and Week 14 against the Colts (125). Mixon in 2022 set career highs in catches (60) and receiving yards (441).

Here is a look at Cincinnati's all-time leaders in rushing yards:

PLAYER	SEASONS PLAYED	RUSHING YARDS
Corey Dillon	1997-2003	8061
James Brooks	1984-91	6447
Joe Mixon	2017-present	6193
Rudi Johnson	2001-07	5742
Pete Johnson	1977-83	5421

And here is a look at Cincinnati's all-time leaders in rushing TDs:

PLAYER	SEASONS PLAYED	RUSHING TDs
Pete Johnson	1977-83	64
Rudi Johnson	2001-07	48
Joe Mixon	2017-present	48
Corey Dillon	1997-2003	45
Larry Kinnebrew	1983-87	37
James Brooks	1984-91	37

First-quarter defense among league's best: Though defensive coordinator Lou Anarumo is regarded as one of the best in the NFL when it comes to in-game adjustments, his Bengals defense has also been consistently prepared from the opening kickoff. Since the start of the 2022 season, Cincinnati in the first quarter of play has allowed the fourth fewest TDs (10) and fourth fewest total points (107) leaguewide.

Baltimore's TD on its opening drive of Week 2 marked the first TD allowed by Cincinnati in a first quarter since Week 6 of the 2022 season. The Bengals' 14-game streak without giving up a first-quarter TD was the longest in the NFL since Buffalo went 16 straight from Week 14 of the 2020 season through Week 10 of the '21 campaign.

Defense tightens after the break: As referenced previously, Cincinnati's defense has proven itself among the league's elite units coming out of halftime. The Bengals have given up 47 total TDs in the second half/overtime since the start of the 2021 regular season, tied for the second fewest in the NFL, while their 9.7 average points allowed in the second half/OT in that span are the eighth fewest leaguewide.

Of the Bengals' 23 takeaways this season, 14 have come in the second half (tied for fifth most in NFL). In Week 14 against Indianapolis, DT B.J. Hill tracked a tipped pass near the line of scrimmage and came down with an INT in the fourth quarter to help seal a Bengals win. In Week 10, CB Cam Taylor-Britt picked off Texans QB C.J. Stroud with 3:41 remaining and returned it to the Houston four-yard line, sparking a late surge that saw the Bengals score 10 points in less than two minutes of play to tie the game.

The previous week against Buffalo, LB Germaine Pratt forced a fumble at the Cincinnati 11-yard line that was recovered by S Nick Scott, preserving a 21-10 Bengals lead early in the fourth quarter.

Trey's torrid pace: DE Trey Hendrickson recorded 1.5 sacks in Week 15 vs. Minnesota to improve his season total to 15, surpassing his previous career high of 14 in 2021. Hendrickson's 15 sacks are tied for third most in the NFL this season and are the second most in a season in team history behind DE Coy Bacon's 22 in 1976 (sacks became an official NFL statistic in '82, however the Bengals tracked the stat back to '76 and thus recognize Bacon as the record-holder).

Hendrickson has logged at least one full sack in each of the past five games, marking his longest streak of consecutive games with a sack since Weeks 5-14 of the 2021 campaign (nine straight). He had two sacks in Week 14 vs.

Indianapolis, with the second coming in the fourth quarter when he got to Colts QB Garner Minshew II on fourth down to give possession back to Cincinnati. Hendrickson now has 50.5 sacks since the start of the 2020 season, tied for the third most in the league in that span.

Originally a third-round draft pick of New Orleans in 2017, Hendrickson spent his first four seasons with the Saints before signing with the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent in '21. In 2020, his final year in New Orleans, he posted 13.5 sacks that tied for second in the NFL. He has earned a Pro Bowl selection in both of his seasons with Cincinnati, as his 14 sacks in 2021 were followed by a team-leading eight in '22.

Hendrickson's production was rewarded on July 27, when he signed a one-year contract extension that keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2025 season.

Here are the NFL sack leaders since the start of the 2020 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	SACKS SINCE 2020
T.J. Watt	Pittsburgh	59.0
Myles Garrett	Cleveland.....	57.0
Trey Hendrickson	New Orleans/Cincinnati	50.5
Haason Reddick	Arizona/Carolina/Philadelphia	50.5
Nick Bosa	San Francisco.....	44.5

And here is a look at the Bengals players with the highest sack totals in a single season:

PLAYER	SEASON	SACKS
Coy Bacon	1976.....	22.0
Trey Hendrickson	2023.....	15.0
Trey Hendrickson	2021.....	14.0
Carlos Dunlap	2015.....	13.5
Eddie Edwards	1983.....	13.0

Hubbard a Day 2 draft steal: DE Sam Hubbard logged his fifth sack of the season in Week 13 when he took down Jaguars QB Trevor Lawrence for a loss of seven yards late in the second quarter. It boosted Hubbard's career sack total to 35.5, the third most among all players from the 2018 rookie class (draft picks and college free agents).

Hubbard this season has 50 total tackles, the most among Cincinnati's defensive linemen. Four of his sacks came in Games 3-7, his most in a five-game stretch since the 2021 season (Games 7-11). He also recovered a fumble midway through the fourth quarter in Week 5 at Arizona, setting up a Bengals FG drive that increased their lead.

Players' listed positions vary by media outlet (e.g. whether they're classified as a LB or DE), but according to NFL.com's draft record, Hubbard was the 13th defensive lineman selected in 2018 — five DEs and seven DTs came off the board before him. According to NFL.com, there were a total of 40 defensive linemen (20 DEs, 20 DTs) selected in the 2018 draft, along with 32 LBs and one player with his position listed as "edge."

Hubbard has been the Bengals' starting LDE since 2019, and during the '21 regular season his 7.5 sacks were second on the team. While his 2022 campaign will be remembered primarily for his 98-yard fumble return for a TD in the Wild Card Playoff vs. Baltimore, Hubbard during the regular season tallied 60 total tackles — his fourth straight year with at least 60 — including a team-leading 11 TFLs and 6.5 sacks. He also recorded three PDs and a forced fumble.

Hubbard additionally has four career postseason sacks, tied with former DE Jason Buck for the most in Bengals history. He signed a contract extension with the Bengals in July 2021 that keeps him in Cincinnati through the '25 season.

Here's a look at the career sack leaders from the rookie class of 2018:

PLAYER/POSITION	TEAM	PICK (ROUND)	SACKS
Harold Landry III/EDGE	Tennessee	No. 41 (2nd)	39.5
Bradley Chubb/DE	Denver/Miami.....	No. 5 (1st)	38.0
Sam Hubbard/DE	Cincinnati	No. 77 (3rd)	35.5
Josh Sweat/DE	Philadelphia	No. 130 (4th)	35.0
Marcus Davenport/DE	New Orleans/Minnesota	No. 14 (1st)	23.5

Wilson leads LBs in INTs ... : Fourth-year pro Logan Wilson has led the Bengals in tackles in each of the past two seasons, but perhaps his most notable contributions have come when dropping into coverage. A former defensive back at the University of Wyoming, Wilson has 10 career INTs, the most by any NFL LB since he entered the league in 2020.

Three of Wilson's picks have occurred this season, beginning in Week 3 vs.

the L.A. Rams when he intercepted QB Matthew Stafford twice to help lead Cincinnati to a Monday Night Football victory. The second INT came at the Bengals' 30-yard line when the Rams were driving to potentially take the lead in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter of Week 8 at San Francisco, Wilson stepped in front of a pass thrown by QB Brock Purdy and returned it 16 yards to set up a Bengals TD on the following play.

Wilson had two picks as a rookie in 2020, then followed up with four in '21 — the most by a Bengals LB in a single season since Odell Thurman (five) in '05.

Also a sure tackler, Wilson posted a career-high 123 stops in 2022 that marked the most by a Cincinnati player since LB Vontaze Burfict in his 2013 Pro Bowl campaign. Wilson again paces the Bengals in that category with 114 tackles (71 solos) through 14 games in 2023. He additionally had a career-best 2.5 sacks in the 2022 season, all coming in a three-game stretch from Weeks 14-16. Since the start of the 2020 season, Wilson is one of six NFL players with at least 300 tackles, five sacks, five INTs and five FFs.

Wilson additionally wears the "green dot" as the player that relays defensive play calls. He signed a contract extension in early August that keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2027 season.

Here is a look at the LBs with the most INTs since the start of the 2020 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	INTERCEPTIONS
Logan Wilson	Cincinnati Bengals	10
Fred Warner	San Francisco 49ers.....	7
Tremaine Edmunds	Buffalo Bills/Chicago Bears	6
Matt Milano	Buffalo Bills	6
Foye Oluokun	Atlanta Falcons/Jacksonville Jaguars.....	6
Roquan Smith	Chicago Bears/Baltimore Ravens.....	6

... and Pratt racks up takeaways: Wilson's fellow starting LB, fifth-year pro Germaine Pratt, has had a similar knack for coming up with turnovers at crucial points in the game. In the fourth quarter of Week 9 vs. Buffalo, Pratt forced a fumble from TE Dalton Kincaid at the Cincinnati 11-yard line that was recovered by S Nick Scott, ending a Bills scoring threat that would have made it a one-possession game.

It marked the fourth turnover Pratt has contributed to this season, with three of those coming in a four-game span from Weeks 5-9. He logged his first INT of the year in Week 5 at Arizona, picking off QB Josh Dobbs midway through the fourth quarter to help seal a win, but his biggest play of that game came earlier in the third quarter when he tackled Dobbs for a loss on fourth-and-one at the Bengals' 16-yard line when Cincinnati led 24-20. Then in Week 8 at San Francisco, the 49ers had a chance to tie the game in the third quarter with a first-and-goal from the Cincinnati eight, before Pratt tipped a Brock Purdy pass and came down with the INT.

Since the start of the 2021 season, Pratt is one of nine NFL players with at least five FFs and five INTs. He and Logan Wilson are two of the four linebackers in that category. Pratt surpassed 100 tackles for the first time in his career this season, and through 14 games ranks second on the Bengals with 111 total stops (60 solos). He has recorded 10 or more tackles in six games in 2023, including each of the past three. Pratt's 34 total tackles since Week 13 are the second most in the NFL behind Tennessee's Azeem Al-Shaair (35).

Pratt's lone FF last season occurred in Week 13 vs. Kansas City, when he stripped the ball from TE Travis Kelce early in the fourth quarter and recovered it to set up a go-ahead Bengals TD drive.

Pratt inked a contract extension in March and will remain a Bengal through the 2025 season.

Nothing easy in the air: Since the start of the 2022 season, Cincinnati has held opposing passers to the fifth lowest completion percentage in the NFL (62.2) and the eighth lowest passer rating (84.6). The Bengals have given up just 35 TD passes in that span of 30 regular-season games, tied for the fifth fewest leaguewide, while their 28 INTs are tied for the sixth most.

In 47 regular-season games since the start of the 2021 regular season, the Bengals have yielded 300 net passing yards on just seven occasions. San Francisco in Week 8 reached 300 net passing yards, becoming Cincinnati's first opponent to do so since Tampa Bay in Week 16 of the 2022 campaign. In both instances, the Bengals led by over 10 points late in the fourth quarter when the opposing QB surpassed 300 yards. In Week 13 at Jacksonville, the Jaguars had 288 net passing yards in regulation, then recorded 17 more in overtime to break 300.

Money Mac from deep: In the fourth quarter of Week 13 at Jacksonville, K Evan McPherson drilled a 54-yard FG to give the Bengals a late 31-28 lead. It marked McPherson's 21st career made FG from 50 or more yards, extending his record for the most in NFL history by a player in his first three seasons.

McPherson's 21 FGs from 50-plus yards also are the most by any NFL kicker since he entered the league in 2021. He has seven such FGs this season (tied for fourth leaguewide), including two in the Week 3 win over the L.A. Rams (distances of 53 and 54 yards), as well as a season-long 56-yarder in the Week 8 victory at San Francisco. The kick against the 49ers was the fifth longest made FG in Bengals history, with McPherson also boasting three of the four longest. He knocked through a Bengals-record 59-yarder in the 2022 season opener vs. Pittsburgh, breaking his own previous record of 58 that he hit in Week 15 of the '21 campaign at Denver. Then in Week 4 of 2022 against Miami, he converted a 57-yarder, tying Randy Bullock for the third longest.

McPherson is already the team's career leader in 50-yard FGs. It took him just 14 games into his rookie season to reach the top of Cincinnati's career chart in that category, breaking the previous record of eight. Referred to by fans as "Money Mac," McPherson made an NFL-best nine FGs of 50 or more yards during the 2021 regular season and fell just one shy of tying the NFL record for most 50-yarders. His nine such FGs were more than double the previous team record for a single season (four, by K Horst Muhlmann in 1970). He followed that up by going a perfect five of five on attempts of 50-plus yards in 2022.

McPherson followed up his 54-yarder at Jacksonville with a 48-yarder in overtime that secured a win for the Bengals. He had another game-winner in overtime of the Week 15 contest against Minnesota, which marked his seventh career "walk-off" FG. The first five such FGs occurred during his 2021 rookie campaign, including two of the most memorable kicks in team history in postseason play — a 52-yarder in the Divisional Playoff at Tennessee, and a 31-yarder in the AFC Championship at Kansas City that punched Cincinnati's ticket to Super Bowl LVI.

In seven postseason games, McPherson is a perfect 19-for-19 on FG attempts, marking the most made postseason FGs in league history by a player in his first two career seasons, and the second most in consecutive fashion to begin a postseason career (Robbie Gould, 29).

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	59
Evan McPherson	Dec. 19, 2021	at Denver Broncos	58
Randy Bullock	Dec. 22, 2019	at Miami Dolphins	57
Evan McPherson	Sept. 29, 2022	vs. Miami Dolphins	57
Evan McPherson	Oct. 29, 2023	at San Francisco 49ers	56

2023 draft class overview: Cincinnati's eight-player draft class in April featured four players on defense, three on offense and one on special teams. The group played in a combined 356 collegiate games.

Here's a closer look at the Bengals' 2023 draft class:

● DE Myles Murphy, Clemson (Round 1, Pick 28): Murphy logged his third sack of his rookie season in Week 15 vs. Minnesota, taking down QB Nick Mullens for a loss of six yards in the second quarter. Murphy has seen action in all 14 games and has 17 tackles, with 12 coming over the past six contests. At 6-5, 270 pounds, he possesses an athletic frame and showcased his edge rushing ability with 17.5 career sacks in 38 games at Clemson. He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a junior in 2022.

● CB DJ Turner II, Michigan (Round 2, Pick 60): Turner ran the fastest 40-yard dash at this year's NFL Combine, clocking a time of 4.26 seconds. He has played in all 14 games this season, starting each of the past 10 while earning an increased role in the secondary. Turner has five PDs and a FR, but also has showcased his physicality with 36 total tackles, including 23 over the past four weeks. He earned a pair of All-Big Ten accolades (honorable mention in 2021, second team in '22) while playing at the University of Michigan.

● S Jordan Battle, Alabama (Round 3, Pick 95): Battle has started each of the past four games while emerging as a key member of the Bengals' secondary. He has 39 tackles over the last five contests, after totaling 11 in the first nine. He notched his first career sack while adding a PD in Week 13 at Jacksonville. Battle was twice named a third-team All-American at Alabama, where he started at safety from 2020-22. Three of his six career INTs in college were returned for a TD.

● WR Charlie Jones, Purdue (Round 4, Pick 131): Jones opened the season as the Bengals' primary punt returner and solidified that role with an 81-yard punt return TD in Week 2 vs. Baltimore. He suffered a thumb injury in Week

3 vs. the L.A. Rams and spent the next six games on the Reserve/Injured list, before returning to the active roster ahead of the Week 11 contest at Baltimore. Jones was a second-team All-American in his lone season at Purdue in 2022, as he led the FBS in receptions (110), while ranking second in receiving yards (1361) and fifth in receiving TDs (12).

● HB Chase Brown, Illinois (Round 5, Pick 163): Brown has seen extended action over the past three games, with 24 carries in that span compared to two in his previous six appearances. He totaled 105 yards from scrimmage in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis, highlighted by his first career TD on a screen pass that he took 54 yards to the end zone. Brown spent four games (Weeks 8-11) on the Reserve/Injured list due to a hamstring injury. He posted 1000 rushing yards in each of his final two seasons at Illinois, earning second-team All-America honors in 2022.

● WR Andrei Iosivas, Princeton (Round 6, Pick 206): Iosivas is the Bengals' seventh all-time draft pick out of an Ivy League program, and the first since LB Reggie Williams (Dartmouth) and QB Bob Bateman (Brown) in 1976. He had a receiving TD in back-to-back games, with the first of his career coming in Week 6 vs. Seattle followed by another in Week 8 at San Francisco. Iosivas led the team in receptions (12) and receiving yards (129) during the preseason, and also has found a role on special teams.

● P Brad Robbins, Michigan (Round 6, Pick 217): Robbins earned the Bengals' punting job out of training camp, and through 14 regular-season contests has punted 63 times with a 44.0-yard gross average. Five of his 16 punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line have come over the past four games. Robbins finished his career at Michigan with the second highest punting average (43.0 yards) in program history, and was a three-time All-Big Ten selection.

● CB DJ Ivey, Miami (Fla.) (Round 7, Pick 246): Ivey suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 15 vs. Minnesota, after seeing an increased role both defensively and on special teams in recent weeks. He had his best performance in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis, logging a solo tackle and a PD on defense along with a fumble recovery on punt coverage. Ivey showcased his athleticism during preseason with a team-leading three PDs. He totaled six PDs over a five-year career (2018-22) at Miami.

Coaching continuity under Taylor:

Head coach Zac Taylor returned virtually the entire coaching staff for the 2023 season, including defensive coordinator Lou Anarumo, offensive coordinator Brian Callahan and assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Darrin Simmons.

Anarumo, Callahan and Simmons have all been on staff since Taylor was hired in February 2019. The Bengals are the only team in the NFL with the same head coach and same coordinators in place for each season since 2021. Simmons, now in his 21st season with the team, is the longest-tenured coach on the Bengals' staff. He has led Cincinnati's special teams units each year since 2003.

Here is a look at the Bengals' 2023 coaching staff:

HEAD COACH:

- Zac Taylor

ASSISTANT COACHES:

- Lou Anarumo (defensive coordinator)
- Colt Anderson (assistant special teams)
- James Bettcher (linebackers)
- Joey Boese (strength and conditioning)
- Charles Burks (secondary/cornerbacks)
- Brian Callahan (offensive coordinator)
- James Casey (tight ends)
- Louie Cioffi (defensive quality control)
- Mark Duffner (senior defensive assistant)
- Derek Frazier (assistant offensive line)
- Justin Hill (running backs)
- Marion Hobby (defensive line)
- Todd Hunt (assistant strength and conditioning)
- Freddie Knighten (offensive assistant)
- Jordan Kovacs (assistant linebackers)
- Brad Kragthorpe (assistant quarterbacks)
- Robert Livingston (secondary/safeties)
- Dan Pitcher (quarterbacks)
- Frank Pollack (offensive line/run game coordinator)
- Darrin Simmons (assistant head coach/special teams coordinator)
- Garrett Swanson (assistant strength and conditioning)
- Troy Walters (wide receivers)

STAFF:

- Doug Rosfeld (chief of coaching staff)

The Jungle is jammin': The five highest-attended home games (and nine of the top 10) in Bengals history have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year. The Bengals beat Miami on Thursday Night Football in Week 4 of the 2022 season in front of a paid attendance of 67,260 at Paycor Stadium, marking the largest crowd for a sporting event in Cincinnati history. That figure surpassed the previous mark of 66,277 set in the 2021 Wild Card Playoff win over Las Vegas on Jan. 15.

Cincinnati's Sunday Night Football win over Buffalo in Week 9 had an attendance figure of 66,965, which now stands as the second largest in team history. The Bengals' following game in Week 10 vs. Houston (66,526) ranks as the third largest, while the 2022 Wild Card Playoff victory over Baltimore (66,399) is fourth largest and a win over Seattle in Week 6 of this season (66,385) ranks fifth. The team's Week 15 win over Minnesota marked the sixth largest crowd for a Cincinnati home game with a figure of 66,376.

Beginning in Week 1 of the 2022 campaign against Pittsburgh, the Bengals have welcomed an attendance of 65,000 in 15 consecutive regular-season games. The Paycor Stadium crowds have coincided with a recent string of home success for the Bengals, as they have won 15 of their last 19 played at the venue dating back to Week 16 of the 2021 regular season (includes postseason). The last time Cincinnati topped the current stretch was when it won 15 of 18 home contests from Week 10 of the 2012 season through Week 9 of the '14 campaign.

Here is a look at the largest home crowds in Bengals franchise history:

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT	ATTENDANCE
Sept. 29, 2022	Miami	W, 27-15.....	67,260
Nov. 5, 2023	Buffalo	W, 24-18.....	66,965
Nov. 12, 2023	Houston	L, 27-30.....	66,526
Jan. 15, 2023*	Baltimore	W, 24-17.....	66,399
Oct. 15, 2023	Seattle	W, 17-13.....	66,385

* — Asterisk denotes a Wild Card Playoff.

Back-to-back division champs: The Bengals captured the AFC North Division title in 2022 for the second consecutive season, marking the first time in franchise history that Cincinnati won a division in back-to-back years. The 2022 division title was the team's 11th all-time.

While some databases list the Bengals as repeat division winners in 1981 and '82, the '82 postseason featured a special 16-team format (dubbed the "Super Bowl Tournament") that was implemented by the NFL, as the regular season was reduced to nine games due to a players' strike. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based on their regular-season records, so despite the Bengals boasting the top record in the AFC Central, they went in as the conference's No. 3 seed and were not recognized as division champions.

Ken Riley enters Hall of Fame: Bengals legend Ken Riley, the most productive CB in team history, was officially inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 5. He joined OT Anthony Munoz as former Bengals players immortalized in Canton, Ohio.

The honor came posthumously for Riley, who passed away in 2020 at the age of 72. Riley's wife, Barbara, received the gold jacket on his behalf and revealed the bust with his son, Ken Riley II, who spoke at the enshrinement.

"Dad is just getting inducted today, but his whole life he was a Hall of Famer on and off the field," Ken Riley II said.

Riley spent 15 seasons (1969-83) with the Bengals, playing in 207 games. His 65 career INTs constitute the most dominant lead in any major statistical category of the team's record book, nearly doubling the second-place total of 33. At the time of Riley's retirement, that total of 65 INTs was the fourth-most in NFL history, and it still stands tied for fifth-most. He was a member of five Bengals teams that reached the postseason, including the 1981 squad, which he helped lead to Super Bowl XVI.

Following his retirement, Riley spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the Green Bay Packers before taking over as head coach at his alma mater, Florida A&M University. He led the Rattlers' football program from 1986-93, then served as the school's athletic director from '94-2004. Riley was inducted into the FAMU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1982, the Black College Football Hall of Fame in 2015, and the Bengals Ring of Honor in '21.

Riley's family received his Hall of Fame Ring of Excellence during a halftime ceremony in the Bengals' Week 9 contest against Buffalo on Sunday Night Football.

Esiason, Johnson join Bengals Ring of Honor: The Bengals welcomed two new members to the team's Ring of Honor with the induction of former QB Boomer Esiason and WR Chad Johnson. Remembered by fans for their on-field contributions as well as their charismatic personalities, Esiason and Johnson became the seventh and eighth members of the Ring of Honor during a ceremony at halftime of the team's Week 3 game against the L.A. Rams on Monday Night Football.

Esiason played for the Bengals from 1984-92 before returning for a final season in '97, and is regarded as one of the greatest locker-room leaders in team history. He earned three Pro Bowl nods (1986, '88-89), and ranks third in Bengals history in both career passing yards (27,149) and TD passes (187). Esiason in 1988 was named NFL MVP while leading the league with a 97.4 passer rating, before steering the Bengals to an AFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XXIII.

Johnson, who was officially known as Chad Ochocinco from 2008-11, emerged as one of the NFL's best receivers during his 10 seasons with the Bengals ('01-10). He was selected to six Pro Bowls (2003-07, '09), and remains the team's all-time leader in receptions (751), receiving yards (10,783) and receiving TDs (66).

Bengals president Mike Brown on the 2023 inductees: "Boomer and Chad were both exceptional players. If you look at the statistics, Boomer has a long list of quarterback firsts here. And Chad was a superb athlete who was probably the quickest receiver we have had here. They could have moments when they just carried the team by themselves. Both players are very deserving of this honor."

Esiason and Johnson joined QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, OT Anthony Munoz and CB Ken Riley in the Ring of Honor.

Established in 2021, the Bengals Ring of Honor recognizes former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition. Inductees are voted in each offseason by Bengals Season Ticket Members.

Bengal bites: The Bengals' victory over Buffalo in Week 9 was the 400th win in team history (390 regular season, 10 postseason); the team now stands at 403 all-time wins ... Since 2011, the Bengals own a 72-7-2 record in the regular season when scoring 25 or more points ... The average age of the Bengals' active roster is 26.4 years ... The longest-tenured player on the active roster is WR Tyler Boyd, who is in his eighth season with the team after joining the Bengals as a second-round draft pick in 2016 ... The oldest player on the roster is QB AJ McCarron, who is 30 (born Sept. 13, 1990) ... The youngest player on the roster is DE Myles Murphy, who is 21 (born Jan. 3, 2002) ... The lightest player on the roster is CB DJ Turner II, who is listed at 180 pounds ... The heaviest player on the roster is OT Orlando Brown Jr., who is listed at 345 pounds ... Brown is also the tallest player on the roster, listed at 6-8 ... The shortest player on the roster is HB Trayveon Williams, who is listed at 5-8.

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Jake Browning took over the Bengals' starting QB role following Pro Bowler Joe Burrow's season-ending injury sustained in Week 11. He has started each of the past four games and posted the second highest completion percentage by any NFL QB through their first four starts since 1950 (76.0). Browning's top performance thus far came in Week 13 at Jacksonville, when he went 32 of 37 for the fifth highest completion percentage in a game in team history (86.5), with 354 yards and a TD to lead Cincinnati to victory on Monday Night Football. His performance earned him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, and he became just the 10th player in the Super Bowl era (since 1966) to pass for at least 350 yards while completing 85 percent or more of his attempts. Browning followed up his outing in Jacksonville with another strong stat line in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis, as he completed 18 of 24 passes for 275 yards and two TDs for a passer rating of 122.7, while also adding a rushing TD for the second straight game. He led the Bengals to another OT win in Week 15 against the Vikings, going 29 of 42 for 324 yards and two TDs and one INT. He had 243 passing yards after halftime, and both of his TD tosses were to WR Tee Higgins in the fourth quarter to help Cincinnati overcome a 14-point deficit. Browning's first substantial action came in Week 11 at Baltimore, when he entered the game in the second quarter following Burrow's injury and passed for 68 yards and his first career TD. He spent the first 10 games of this season as Cincinnati's second-string QB behind Burrow, after earning a spot on the 53-man roster coming out of training camp for the first time in his career. Browning originally was a college free agent signee of Minnesota in 2019, and was on the Vikings' practice squad for the '19 and '20 seasons. He then joined the Bengals prior to the 2021 campaign and spent the past two years on Cincinnati's practice squad. He has played in six preseason games for the Bengals, including three (two starts) in 2023. He made his NFL debut in Week 1 at Cleveland, entering late in the fourth quarter in relief of Burrow. Browning was a four-year starter (2015-18) at the University of Washington, where he led the Huskies to the College Football Playoff in '16 and finished his career with numerous school records. Backing Browning up is ninth-year veteran AJ McCarron, who is in his second Bengals stint after being signed to the practice squad on Sept. 23. He was elevated to the active roster for the Week 12 contest against Pittsburgh, then on Dec. 4 was signed to the active roster off the practice squad. McCarron saw his first action of the season in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis when he played five snaps while Browning was being treated for muscle cramps. He came into the NFL as a fifth-round draft pick of Cincinnati in 2014 and missed his rookie campaign due to a shoulder injury, but went on to play in 11 games over the next three seasons. That included three starts in 2015, when he helped the Bengals secure the AFC North Division title and started a Wild Card Playoff vs. Pittsburgh. McCarron also saw regular-season action with the Oakland Raiders (2018) and the Houston Texans ('19-20). He helped lead the University of Alabama to back-to-back national titles as a starter in 2011 and '12.

Running backs: Leading the Bengals running back room is seventh-year pro Joe Mixon, who ranks third in team history in career rushing yards (6193) and tied for second in rushing TDs (48). Mixon has surpassed the 1000-yard mark in three of his five full seasons (played just six games in 2020), and in 2022 he asserted himself as a reliable pass catching option with career highs in receptions (60) and receiving yards (441). Voted a team captain for the third straight year, Mixon has 815 rushing yards on 211 carries through 14 games. He has scored a TD in seven of the last eight games, including two rushing TDs in Week 13 at Jacksonville. He has topped 100 yards from scrimmage four times this season. Mixon totaled 47 rushing yards on 10 carries in Week 15 against Minnesota, and tied the game in the fourth quarter with a hard-earned one-yard TD on fourth down. The score marked Mixon's 48th career rushing TD, tying Rudi Johnson for the second most in team history. Mixon's 6193 career rushing yards are fifth most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2017. Next on the running backs depth chart is rookie Chase Brown, who has seen an increased workload since returning from the Reserve/Injured list (hamstring) prior to Week 12. Brown provides the offense with a big-play potential and quickly showed that in his first extended action in Week 13 at Jacksonville, when he had a 31-yard burst that marked the team's longest run of the season. Also a capable pass catcher, Brown had three grabs for 80 yards in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis, including his first career TD on a screen pass that he took 54 yards to the end zone. Brown's top speed on the play was 22.05 mph, which according to the NFL's Next Gen Stats service is the second fastest speed by any ball carrier in the league this season. He finished the Colts game with 105 yards from scrimmage, then went for 51 more the following week against Minnesota (23 rushing, 28 receiving). Up next in the running backs room is fifth-year pro Trayveon Williams, who also is Cincinnati's primary kickoff returner. Williams has 48 games of NFL experience, and this season has rushed for 69 yards on 13 carries. He contributed a key block on a third-down play in overtime of Week 15 vs. Minnesota, providing time for QB Jake Browning to escape the pocket and find WR Tyler Boyd for a 44-yard gain. Third-year pro Chris Evans rounds out the position group. Evans had 17 carries for 77 yards his rookie season, but none in 2022. Both of his carries this season came in the opener at Cleveland. Evans has seen action in eight games, and has been inactive for the past four.

Wide receivers: The Bengals' wide receiver room is highlighted by one of the most explosive pass-catching trios in the NFL, with the senior member being eighth-year pro Tyler Boyd. Boyd is regarded as a premier slot receiver that poses a challenge for nickel CBs with his size (6-2, 203) and route-running ability. He ranks fifth in team history in career receptions (505) for 5908 yards and 31 TDs, and posted consecutive seasons of 1000-plus receiving yards in 2018-19. Boyd's two TD catches this season came in consecutive games vs. Seattle and at San Francisco, and each capped off the Bengals' opening offensive drive. He had a season-high eight receptions for 117 yards in Week 10 vs. Houston, including a 64-yard catch and run that set the Bengals up for a game-tying FG late in the fourth quarter. In Week 15 vs. Minnesota, Boyd reeled in a 44-yard catch during the overtime period that set up Cincinnati's game-winning FG. His four TD catches of 50 or more yards since the start of the 2021 season are tied for the most in the league, and leading that category with nine such TDs is teammate and third-year pro Ja'Marr Chase. Chase was the team's first-round draft pick in 2021 and paced the Bengals in receptions, receiving yards and receiving TDs in each of his first two seasons, earning Pro Bowl honors both years. He ranks in the top-eight leaguewide in each of those categories through 14 games this season. Chase has netted 100 or more receiving yards in five games, beginning in Week 3 vs. the L.A. Rams when his 141 yards on 12 catches helped lead Cincinnati to its first win. In Week 5 at Arizona, he hauled in a Bengals single-game record 15 catches for 192 yards and three TDs, including a 63-yard TD early in the third quarter. Chase in Week 6 vs. Seattle surpassed 3000 career receiving yards, doing so in the fifth-fewest games (35) in NFL history. He had another double-digit catch game in Week 8 at San Francisco, finishing with 10 receptions for 100 yards including a 17-yard TD in the fourth quarter. Chase had a 64-yard TD as part of a 124-yard receiving day in Week 10 against Houston, and in Week 13 at Jacksonville he put up 149 yards to surpass 1000 on the season. His 76-yard TD in the third quarter of the Jaguars game marked the Bengals' longest play from scrimmage since 2021 (also a Chase TD). His 93 catches this season are a career high, surpassing his previous best of 87 in 2022. Chase exited the Week 15 game against Minnesota with a right shoulder injury at the end of the fourth quarter, and did not return for overtime. Another Cincinnati receiver with a proven history of big plays is fourth-year pro Tee Higgins. Higgins, a second-round pick in 2020, has posted over 1000 receiving yards in each of the past two seasons, becoming one of five players in team history to do so within his first three years. At 6-4, he possesses elite athleticism and the ability to high-point the ball when contested by defensive backs. Higgins' top statistical performance so far this season came in Week 9 vs. Buffalo, when he caught eight passes for a season-high 110 yards. He missed four games due to injuries, including three straight in Weeks 10-12 with a hamstring ailment, but has returned to action and is averaging 18.8 yards per catch over the past three contests. He had two TDs in Week 15 vs. Minnesota, both coming in the fourth quarter to help Cincinnati climb back from a 14-point deficit. The second was a highlight-reel moment with under a minute remaining in which Higgins caught a pass near the goal line and acrobatically reached the ball across with one arm. Fellow fourth-year pro Trenton Irwin is a dependable option that can play at multiple WR spots, and has started four of his 13 games played this season. He ranks sixth on the team with 241 receiving yards, including a 32-yard TD catch to cap off the Bengals' opening drive of Week 10 against Houston. He had an increased role with Higgins out of the lineup for Week 5 at Arizona, and delivered a career-high eight catches for 60 yards. Irwin spent parts of his first three seasons on Cincinnati's practice squad and saw limited game action, but then found a role in 2022 when he played in nine contests with two starts. Despite not making his season debut until Week 8 at Cleveland, Irwin managed to record 15 catches for 231 yards and four TDs. His best performance came on Christmas Eve at New England, when he caught three passes for 45 yards and two TDs, all in the first half. Two rookies comprise the rest of the WR room, including the team's fourth-round draft choice Charlie Jones. Jones is listed behind Boyd as the team's backup slot WR, and also serves as the team's primary punt returner. He was a second-team All-American last season at Purdue, when he led the FBS in receptions (110), while ranking second in receiving yards (1361) and fifth in receiving TDs (12). He recorded his first career catch in Week 3 vs. L.A. Rams and had two catches for 10 yards in Week 15 vs. Minnesota. Jones missed Weeks 4-10 while on Reserve/Injured with a thumb injury but returned to action in Week 11 at Baltimore. Rounding out the WR room is rookie sixth-round pick Andrei Iosivas. The former Princeton standout both in football and track and field had a TD catch in back-to-back games (Week 6 vs. Seattle and Week 8 at San Francisco). Both scores came on QB scrambles, with Iosivas working himself free for Burrow to find in the end zone. Iosivas led Cincinnati in catches (12) and receiving yards (129) during preseason, helping him earn a roster spot. He missed the Week 11 contest at Baltimore due to a knee injury, but returned the following game against Pittsburgh and had a 16-yard catch to convert a third down. His lone catch in Week 15 vs. Minnesota was a five-yarder to convert a third down during the Bengals' game-tying TD drive late in the fourth quarter.

Tight ends: First on the depth chart is 2019 second-round pick Drew Sample, who since being drafted by the Bengals has established himself as a consistent blocking TE. Sample missed most of the 2022 season with a knee injury sustained in Week 2 at Dallas, but has played in all 14 games this season, making six starts. He has 72 career receptions for 555 yards and three TDs. Sample recorded three catches for 30 yards and a TD in Week 9 vs. Buffalo, his first score since the 2020 season. In Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh, he caught an 11-yard TD to give the Bengals a lead in the second quarter. He had a streak of 39 consecutive games played (including postseason) prior to the 2022 knee injury and has also been a core contributor on special teams for Cincinnati. Second on the depth chart is Irv Smith Jr., a fifth-year player who was one of Cincinnati's key free agent acquisitions this offseason, from Minnesota. Originally a second-round draft pick of the Vikings in 2019, Smith has played in 49 career games with 21 starts and totaled 109 catches for 973 yards and 10 TDs. He missed the entire 2021 campaign due to a knee injury and was limited to eight regular-season games in '22 due to an ankle injury, but has played in 12 contests this year with the Bengals. Smith missed Weeks 3-4 due to a hamstring injury, then returned to the lineup in Week 5 at Arizona. He scored his first TD as a Bengal on Cincinnati's opening drive in Week 9 vs. Buffalo. The Bengals in July resigned Mitchell Wilcox, who spent his first three career seasons with Cincinnati. He had his first two receptions of the season for 10 yards in Week 3 against the L.A. Rams. Wilcox has played in all 14 games this season and has started in Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh and Week 14 vs. Indianapolis. The University of South Florida product has 28 career catches for 205 yards and a TD in 45 games. Tanner Hudson has emerged as a pass catching threat for the Bengals with 230 receiving yards over the past seven games. He joined the Bengals' practice squad late in the 2022 season after spending time with Tampa Bay ('19-20), San Francisco ('21) and the N.Y. Giants ('22). Hudson played in 11 regular-season and all four postseason contests for the Buccaneers team that won Super Bowl LV. He spent the first seven games of 2023 on Cincinnati's practice squad, and after being a standard elevation for two games earlier this season, he was signed to the active roster on Nov. 1. He made an immediate impact, starting in Week 9 vs. Buffalo and recording four catches for 45 yards. In Week 10 vs. Houston, he posted a career-high six receptions for 33 yards, including five for 28 on the Bengals' opening TD drive. He added four catches for 49 yards in Week 11 at Baltimore, and followed that up with a combined eight catches for 53 yards over the next two games. Hudson scored his first career TD in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis on an 11-yard reception that gave the Bengals the lead. He posted a team-high five catches for 49 yards in Week 15 vs. Minnesota, with four of his catches resulting in a first down.

Offensive linemen: The Bengals have invested heavily in revamping the offensive line over the past two offseasons, signing four marquee free agents to bolster that unit. The most recent such addition is OT Orlando Brown Jr., who signed with Cincinnati in March after spending his first three seasons in Baltimore (2018-20) and the past two in Kansas City ('21-22). A Pro Bowl selection in each of the past four years, Brown took over as the Bengals' starting LOT. He was a crucial piece of offensive lines that blocked for Ravens QB Lamar Jackson (2019) and Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes ('22) in their MVP seasons. Brown made his first 32 career starts at ROT, then transitioned to LOT midway through the 2020 season and has started his past 57 games at that spot. He has started all 14 contests for the Bengals, though he exited Week 6 vs. Seattle with a groin injury late in the third quarter. The nucleus of Cincinnati's O-line is C Ted Karras, who signed as a free agent in 2022 and almost instantaneously became a vocal leader in the locker room. Currently serving as a team captain for the second straight season, Karras has experience at all three interior OL positions but quickly cemented himself as the Bengals' starting center and played 99.4 percent of offensive snaps in 2022. He spent five of his first six pro seasons with New England, with the only outlier coming in 2020 with Miami. Karras was a member of Patriots Super Bowl winning teams in 2016 and '18, before earning the starting center role in '19. Through 14 games, Karras has played 100 percent of offensive snaps. He was named the team's nominee for the 2023 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award, in recognition of his work with Indianapolis-based Village of Merici and his charitable efforts through the fan-favorite "Cincy Hat." Joining Karras in the 2022 free agency class was RG Alex Cappa, who spent his first four seasons with Tampa Bay. Cappa was perhaps the Bengals' most consistent performer on the line through most of the 2022 season, starting the first 16 games before suffering a left ankle injury in the regular-season finale that kept him out of all three playoff contests. He was the Bucs' starting RG from 2019-21 and was a member of the Super Bowl LV-winning team, though he did not play in the final three postseason games due to an injury sustained in the Wild Card Playoff. Cappa missed his first action of the season (four snaps) in Week 15 vs. Minnesota when he left the game for one offensive series in the second quarter. Second-year pro Cordell Volson is building off an impressive rookie season in which he was the team's only player to line up for every single offensive snap in the regular season and postseason (1311 total). Volson originally was a fourth-round draft pick out of North Dakota State University, where he played four different positions along the O-line during his career. He played in a school-record 65 games at NDSU, helping the Bison win four FCS national championships while earning three FCS All-America honors. Through 14 games, Volson has played 100 percent of offensive snaps. Jonah Williams, the Bengals' first-round pick in 2019, is the team's starting ROT this year after lining up at LOT for his first three full seasons (missed '19 campaign due to shoulder injury). He has started all 56 regular-season games and all five postseason games he has played in. Williams carried a streak of 37 consecutive starts before suffering a left knee injury in the 2022 Wild Card Playoff vs. Baltimore that ended his season. He spent the majority of the offseason rehabbing, including all of the team's mandatory minicamp, but was a full participant in training camp and has played 100 percent of offensive snaps in the regular season. G Max Scharping is in his fifth pro season and serves as both a backup right guard and center for Cincinnati. Scharping was acquired by the Bengals on waivers prior to the start of the 2022 season and played in 14 regular-season contests before being thrust into the starting RG spot for all three postseason games following Cappa's injury. He spent his first three pro seasons with Houston, splitting time between RG and LG in 48 games played (33 starts). Another notable free agent addition this offseason was G Cody Ford, a fifth-year veteran who originally was a second-round pick of Buffalo in 2019. Ford spent his first three pro seasons with the Bills before playing for Arizona in 2022. He has played in 63 career games with 33 starts — 15 at ROT, nine at RG, eight at LG and one as a third tight end. Ford saw action on 17 offensive snaps in Week 6 vs. Seattle, filling in at LOT in relief of Brown. He made his first start of the season as a third TE in Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh. In Week 13 at Jacksonville, Ford entered the contest as a sixth offensive lineman for three snaps. He did the same for six snaps against Indianapolis in Week 14. In Week 15 vs. Minnesota, Ford played six snaps while filling in for Cappa at RG and as a third TE. Ford previously lined up alongside Brown for two seasons (2016-17) at the University of Oklahoma. OT D'Ante Smith was inactive for all but one game for Cincinnati during the 2022 regular season, but played in all three postseason contests as a reserve lineman. He was originally a fourth-round pick in 2021 and battled injuries as a rookie, seeing action in just two regular-season games. Smith returned in time for the postseason run, playing in both the AFC Championship and Super Bowl LVI. Third-year pro Jackson Carman played in all 17 regular-season games as a rookie in 2021 but saw action in just three contests last season. With the O-line affected by injuries heading into the Divisional Playoff at Buffalo in January, Carman was called upon to start at LOT and played perhaps the best game of his young career, as he helped limit the Bills to one sack and paved the way for Cincinnati's 172 net rushing yards. A native of Fairfield, Ohio (Greater Cincinnati area), Carman played three collegiate seasons at Clemson before the Bengals drafted him in the second round in 2021. C Trey Hill has served primarily as a special teams contributor the last two seasons, but started three games (two at C, one at RG) in his 2021 rookie campaign. A sixth-round draft pick, Hill has played in all seven of Cincinnati's postseason games the past two years.

Defensive linemen: Cincinnati native and Archbishop Moeller High School graduate Sam Hubbard is in his sixth Bengals season (fifth as a full-time starter). A third-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2018, Hubbard has 35.5 career sacks, the third most among all players from his rookie class. Four of those sacks came in a five-game span (Games 3-7), beginning in Week 3 when he took down Rams QB Matthew Stafford for an eight-yard loss in the fourth quarter. Hubbard was dominant in Week 6 vs. Seattle, recording six tackles (four solos) and five QB hits, including a sack of QB Geno Smith on fourth-and-goal to preserve Cincinnati's lead late in the fourth quarter. He helped preserve a halftime tie when he dropped QB Trevor Lawrence for a seven-yard loss right before the break in Week 13 at Jacksonville. Hubbard also is considered among the best DEs in the NFL against the run and led the Bengals with 11 TFLs in 2022. He made one of the most memorable plays in recent team history during the fourth quarter of the Wild Card Playoff vs. Baltimore, returning a fumble 98 yards for what proved to be the game-winning TD. It was his second career fumble returned for a score (regular and postseason). Hubbard missed games 9-10 due to an ankle injury, but made four tackles including a TFL in his return to action vs. Pittsburgh in Week 12. On the other side of the line is DE Trey Hendrickson, whose career-high 15 sacks this season are tied for third in the NFL and are the second most in a season in team history. Hendrickson joined the team as a free agent in 2021 and has earned Pro Bowl selections in each of his two Bengals seasons. His first year in stripes, Hendrickson posted a then career-high 14 sacks, the fifth most in the league. He followed that up with a team-leading eight sacks in 2022. The Florida Atlantic University product has at least one sack in 10 games this season, including a season-best 2.5 in Week 5 at Arizona. He helped cement the Week 8 win over San Francisco with a strip sack of QB Brock Purdy that resulted in a Bengals recovery. Hendrickson notched two sacks, one on the first play of the game and one on fourth down in the fourth quarter, in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis. He also recorded a PD that led to a Bengals INT in the fourth quarter. In Week 15 vs. Minnesota, Hendrickson totaled 1.5 sacks, including dropping QB Nick Mullens for a seven-yard loss on the Vikings' final drive of regulation to help force overtime. Hendrickson's 50.5 sacks since the start of the 2020 season are the fourth most in the NFL in that span. On July 27, he signed a one-year contract extension that keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2025 season. DT B.J. Hill is in his third season with the Bengals and has become a major contributor on the D-line. Hill was acquired in a trade with the N.Y. Giants shortly before the 2021 regular season and has played in 46 games (32 starts) for Cincinnati. Hill started all 16 contests in 2022, posting a career-high 68 tackles with three sacks, one FF, three FR and four PDs. He has added four more sacks this season, highlighted by a takedown of Rams QB Matthew Stafford in Week 3 that forced a punt in the fourth quarter. He also recovered the fumble forced by Hendrickson in the fourth quarter in Week 8 at San Francisco. He has recorded an INT in each of the past two games, beginning with his first career regular-season pick in the fourth quarter of Week 14 vs. Indianapolis. The following week against Minnesota, Hill intercepted an attempted pass while bringing QB Nick Mullens to the ground to end a Vikings scoring threat. DE Joseph Ossai is in his third season as a pro, but 2022 was his first healthy year as he missed his entire rookie campaign due to a knee injury. The athletic pass rusher showcased his potential last season with 3.5 sacks as a reserve DE. He then posted six tackles in postseason play, including five with a TFL in the AFC Championship at Kansas City. Ossai saw action in all three preseason games and had an INT on the opening drive at Atlanta, but suffered an ankle injury the following week at Washington that caused him to miss the first two regular-season contests. He made his season debut in Week 3 and has seen action on 144 defensive snaps in 11 games, and was an active DNP in Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh. He tallied his first sack of the season in Week 13 at Jacksonville, taking down QB C.J. Beathard on the Jaguars' final drive of regulation to help force a FG attempt. Second-year DT Zach Carter had a strong 2022 rookie campaign in which he played in all 16 regular-season games with nine starts. Carter, a 2022 third-round pick out of the University of Florida, contributed to the run defense while totaling 23 tackles, a half-sack and a PD. He appeared in all three postseason games, starting the Wild Card round and AFC Championship as a second DT. Carter has 16 tackles, a FF and a PD through 14 games this season, and made his first start in Week 8 at San Francisco. He forced a fumble to end a Steelers red zone possession in Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh and started in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis. Third-year pro Cam Sample logged his first sack of the season in Week 6 vs. Seattle, bringing down QB Geno Smith on the final play of the first half. Sample has played in 44 career regular-season games and serves as a rotational DE. He started in Week 10 vs. Houston and Week 11 at Baltimore in place of Hubbard, making five tackles against the Texans and three against the Ravens. He recorded a half sack against Indianapolis in Week 14. A product of Tulane University, he posted 25 tackles with two sacks in 2022, and then flashed in the AFC Championship with a sack of Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes along with another TFL. Sixth-year DT Josh Tupou has been a reliable DT against the run since joining the Bengals as a college free agent in 2017. The 6-3, 340-pound veteran has appeared in 62 games (22 starts) for the Bengals, and has logged 81 total tackles, including a pair of sacks in 2022. Tupou saw his most extended playing time of the season in Week 15 vs. Minnesota while filling in for injured starter DJ Reader, who since has been placed on the Reserve/Injured list (knee). The Bengals selected DE Myles Murphy out of Clemson University in the first round (28th overall) of this year's draft, looking to bolster their pass rushing production. Murphy totaled 17.5 sacks in 38 games at Clemson, earning second-team All-ACC honors last season. He brings premier size and athleticism to the D-Line room at 6-5, 270 pounds. Murphy recorded his first career tackle and sack on a second-quarter takedown of QB Ryan Tannehill in Week 4 at Tennessee, and sacked QB Kenny Pickett for a two-yard loss in Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh. He recorded four tackles, including a sack, in Week 15 vs. Minnesota. The Bengals acquired DT Jay Tufele on waivers from Jacksonville prior to the 2022 season opener and it proved to be a valuable move, as he started two games (Weeks 8-9) while Reader was recovering from a knee injury. Tufele finished with 16 total tackles in seven regular-season games. He has appeared in seven regular-season games this season, registering five total tackles.

Linebackers: Among Cincinnati's most promising young defenders is fourth-year pro Logan Wilson, who wears the "green dot" as the defense's communicator. Wilson led the Bengals in tackles the past two regular seasons, with his career-high 123 stops in 2022 marking the most by a Bengals player since Vontaze Burfict (171) in '13. Wilson has a team-high 114 total tackles through 14 games (all starts) this season. He also has shown a high proficiency when dropping into coverage, as his 10 career INTs are the most by an NFL LB since he entered the league in 2020. Three of those picks have come this season, including two in Week 3 vs. the L.A. Rams and another in Week 8 at San Francisco. He and DE Trey Hendrickson split a sack in Week 10 vs. Houston, with Wilson forcing a fumble on the play that ended a Texans drive in Cincinnati territory. Wilson was inked to a four-year contract extension on Aug. 5 that keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2027 season. Ranking second on the team in tackles this season with 111 is Germaine Pratt. Pratt, a fifth-round Bengals pick in 2019 who is in his fifth pro season, has started 68 of 76 regular-season games played. He tied for the team lead with 11 tackles (seven solos) in Week 1 at Cleveland, with a sack and FF, and followed that up with nine stops in Week 2 vs. Baltimore. In Week 5 at Arizona, Pratt led the team with 10 tackles, including a key stop on a Cardinals fourth-and-one in the third quarter, then in the fourth quarter picked off QB Joshua Dobbs to help seal the win. Pratt added another INT in Week 8 at San Francisco, tipping a pass by QB Brock Purdy and coming down with it to end a potential game-tying drive that reached Cincinnati's eight-yard line. Pratt forced a fumble in the fourth quarter of Week 9 vs. Buffalo (recovered by S Nick Scott) that ended a Bills scoring threat. In Week 13 at Jacksonville, Pratt logged a team-high 12 combined tackles, tied for the most by a Bengals player this season. He tied for the team lead with 10 tackles and recorded a half sack in Week 14 vs. Indianapolis, and led the team with 12 tackles and registered a half sack in Week 15 vs. Minnesota. A 2020 seventh-round draft choice of the Bengals, Markus Bailey has grown into a key reserve role in the LB room as well as a valuable contributor on special teams. Bailey has played in 57 regular-season games (four starts), and has 52 total defensive tackles as well as 19 special teams tackles. He provided a crucial block during Sam Hubbard's 98-yard fumble recovery return for a TD in the Wild Card Playoff vs. Baltimore this past January. Akeem Davis-Gaither played in the first three games this season before suffering a knee injury that has caused him to be inactive for four contests. He returned to game action in Week 9 vs. Buffalo. He logged a career-best 37 tackles in 16 games (one start) in 2022, with 13 of those stops coming in a notable Week 3 performance at the N.Y. Jets. Davis-Gaither also played in all three postseason games, recording his first career INT in the Wild Card Playoff against Baltimore. Joe Bachie spent the first six games of 2022 on the Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform list while recovering from a left knee injury, but returned to the active roster and saw action in 10 regular-season games and all three postseason contests. He resumed his role as a core special teams player, totaling seven ST tackles in 168 snaps. Bachie has seen action mostly on special teams so far in 2023. The Bengals acquired LB Devin Harper on waivers from Dallas on Sept. 29. Harper originally was a sixth-round pick of the Cowboys in 2022 and played in six games for them, including their first three contests of this season. He made his Bengals debut in Week 5 at Arizona and has played in four contests this year for Cincinnati.

Defensive backs: Nickel CB Mike Hilton, a free agency acquisition of the Bengals in 2021, is widely considered one of the top slot corners in the NFL. Though listed at 5-9, 184 pounds, Hilton is a sure tackler and excellent blitzer. He was voted to serve as a team captain this season for the first time in his career, and has started 11 of 14 games played. Hilton came down with his first INT of the season in Week 6 vs. Seattle, picking off QB Geno Smith in the third quarter to end a Seahawks drive that reached the red zone. He recovered a fumble in the second quarter of Week 10 vs. Houston, ending a Texans drive that reached the Cincinnati 31-yard line. His eight solo tackles, including two TFLs, led the team in Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh. He recorded another red zone takeaway when he intercepted QB Nick Mullens at the Cincinnati one-yard line and returned it 16 yards in the second quarter of Week 15 vs. Minnesota. Hilton has notably made several game-altering plays in the postseason over the past two years, including an INT in the 2021 Divisional Playoff at Tennessee and a sack in the fourth quarter of the '22 Wild Card Playoff vs. Baltimore. Chidobe Awuzie arrived in Cincinnati in 2021 alongside Hilton and quickly established himself as the team's No. 1 boundary corner. Awuzie has started 34 of 39 games he has played in for the Bengals (including postseason). His 2022 season was cut short by a knee injury suffered in Week 8 at Cleveland, and he spent the following nine-plus months rehabbing before being cleared to practice on July 25 of this year. Awuzie's first game back came on the same field where he sustained the injury, as he played 43 defensive snaps in Week 1 at Cleveland and recorded a FR in the first quarter. Awuzie missed the Week 5 contest at Arizona due to a back injury, but returned to game action in Week 6 vs. Seattle. He has started the past three contests in the absence of CB Cam Taylor-Britt (Reserve/Injured list), and in Week 13 at Jacksonville tallied eight tackles and a PD. He notched five tackles and two PDs against Indianapolis in Week 14. Cincinnati used its 2023 second-round selection on DJ Turner II, a speedy boundary corner out of the University of Michigan. Turner ran the fastest 40-yard dash at this year's NFL Combine, clocking a time of 4.26 seconds. He recorded three INTs and 20 PDs in four seasons (2019-22) at Michigan and was named second-team All-Big Ten last season. He made his NFL debut in the regular-season opener at Cleveland and had his first career PD in the fourth quarter of Week 3 vs. the L.A. Rams. Turner has started each of the past 10 games, totaling 43 tackles (35 solos) and five PDs in that stretch. In Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh, he broke up a would-be touchdown reception before recovering a fumble on the very next play to end a Steelers drive in the red zone. Jalen Davis serves as a reserve slot CB behind Hilton, but secondary/cornerbacks coach Charles Burks has expressed his opinion that Davis could start for many NFL teams. He has played in 55 career games (including postseason), carving out a role on special teams in addition to his CB duties. He notched his first PD of the season in Week 3 against the Rams. At safety, second-year pro Dax Hill has stepped up as a consistent performer in his first season in a starting role. Hill was the Bengals' first-round draft choice in 2022 and played in 15 games with two starts as a rookie, but this season has started all 14 contests and ranks third on the team with 92 tackles. He also has five TFLs, 1.5 sacks, two INTs and 11 PDs. Hill's first career INT came in Week 1 at Cleveland, when he picked off QB Deshaun Watson and returned it 20 yards. He had a team-high eight stops, including his first sack, in Week 3 against the L.A. Rams, and then grabbed his second INT the following week at Tennessee. Cincinnati took Jordan Battle in the third round of this April's draft, adding depth and championship pedigree to the safeties room. Battle was a third-team All-American in each of the past two seasons while at the University of Alabama, and helped the Crimson Tide win the College Football Playoff National Championship in 2020. He has played in all 14 games this season, starting each of the past four while he has earned an increased load of defensive snaps. Of his 50 tackles on the year, 39 have come over the past five games. He led the Bengals in tackles in Week 11 at Baltimore with 11 (10 solos). Battle logged his first career sack in Week 13 at Jacksonville, which came on third down to force a FG attempt late in the fourth quarter. Fifth-year veteran Nick Scott was among Cincinnati's notable acquisitions during the 2023 free agency period and holds 78 games of NFL experience (27 starts). He spent his first four seasons with the L.A. Rams, starting out as a special teams contributor before gradually increasing his role defensively and eventually becoming the team's starting safety in 2022. Scott is known for his physical play and sure tackling abilities, but also has four INTs and nine PDs. He started each of the Rams' four postseason contests on their run to a Super Bowl LVI title. Scott made his Bengals debut in Week 1 at Cleveland, tying for the team lead with 11 total tackles. He also led Cincinnati in tackles with 10 (nine solos) in Week 4 at Tennessee. Scott recovered a fumble in the red zone (forced by LB Germaine Pratt) in the fourth quarter of Week 9 vs. Buffalo.

Special teams: Rookie Brad Robbins earned the Bengals' punting role following a strong display in training camp and preseason. A native of Westerville, Ohio (north of Columbus), he is averaging 44.02 gross yards per punt with 16 downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line through 14 regular-season contests. Robbins punted five times with an average of 51.4 yards in Week 4 at Tennessee, including a career-long 62-yard boot. In Week 9 vs. Buffalo, he landed each of his three punts inside the Bills' 20-yard line. He recorded two more inside-20 punts in Week 10 vs. Houston, and finished with a 51.8-yard average on five total punts. Robbins was selected by the Bengals in the sixth round of April's draft after a five-year playing career at the University of Michigan that saw him post the second highest career punting average (43.0 yards per attempt) in program history. He additionally handles holding duties on placekicks for the Bengals. Third-year K Evan McPherson has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's top kickers from long range, as his 21 FGs from 50 or more yards are the most in the league since the start of the 2021 campaign. The former fifth-round Bengals draft pick has kicked four of the five longest made FGs in Bengals history, including each of the two longest — a 59-yarder in the 2022 season opener vs. Pittsburgh, and a 58-yarder in Week 15 of the '21 season at Denver. McPherson is also 19 for 19 on FG attempts in the postseason, the second most consecutive FGs without a miss to begin a postseason career in NFL history. McPherson's 83.3 career FG percentage ranks third in Bengals history. He drilled four of his five FG attempts, with hits from 53 and 54 yards, in Week 3 against the L.A. Rams, and connected on a season-long 56-yard attempt at San Francisco in Week 8. He converted one of his two attempts from 50 or more yards in Week 11 at Baltimore, hitting a 50 yarder. In Week 13 at Jacksonville, McPherson converted two of his three attempts, including a 54-yarder to give the Bengals the lead late in the fourth quarter and a 48-yard game-winner in overtime. He hit another "walk-off" FG in Week 15 vs. Minnesota, the seventh of his career, on a 29-yarder in OT. The Bengals' long-snapper is second-year pro Cal Adomitis, who took over the role in Week 2 of the 2022 season following a season-ending injury to veteran Clark Harris. In 32 career games (including postseason), Adomitis has delivered 269 snaps without an unplayable attempt. He originally joined the Bengals as a college free agent in 2022 after a five-year career ('17-21) at the University of Pittsburgh. Listed as the first-string punt returner and second-string kickoff returner is rookie WR Charlie Jones, who in 2021 was named Big Ten Return Specialist of the Year while at the University of Iowa. Jones returned 25 kickoffs for 635 yards (25.4) and one TD that season for the Hawkeyes, while also returning 37 punts for 285 yards. In Week 2 against Baltimore, Jones scored his first career TD on an 81-yard punt return, the Bengals' first punt return TD since 2012 (CB Adam Jones). Jones missed Weeks 4-10 while on Reserve/Injured with a thumb injury but returned to action in Week 11 at Baltimore and returned three punts for 24 yards. WR Trenton Irwin is listed as the second-string punt returner. Irwin has returned 10 punts for 98 yards, including four for 68 with two going for over 20 yards in Week 5 at Arizona. HB Trayveon Williams has been the team's primary KOR. Williams this season has returned 12 kickoffs for 290 yards, including a 41-yard run back in the first quarter of Week 8 at San Francisco that set up a Bengals TD drive. He followed that with three KORs for 61 yards in Week 9 vs. Buffalo. In Week 12 vs. Pittsburgh, he had a career-long 46-yard KOR in the second quarter that set up the Bengals at their own 47-yard line and led to a TD four plays later. Williams took over the role in the second half of last season and had 16 KORs for 356 yards (22.3) over the final eight regular-season games.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cleveland Browns 24, Cincinnati Bengals 3 Sunday, Sept. 10, 2023 at Cleveland Browns Stadium

Hindered by wet and rainy conditions, the Bengals were limited to three points and 142 offensive net yards in a season-opening loss to their in-state rival. The Cincinnati defense kept the game within reach, forcing two turnovers and holding the Browns to 13 points through three quarters, but Cleveland's strong rushing attack eventually broke through and finished the day with 206 yards, led by 106 from RB Nick Chubb. Browns QB Deshaun Watson found the end zone on a 13-yard run just before halftime to give the Browns a 10-0 lead at the break, but the Bengals responded with a 42-yard FG from K Evan McPherson early in the third quarter to cut the deficit to seven. A promising drive on Cincinnati's next offensive possession resulted in a missed FG attempt, and the offense did not reach Browns territory the rest of the way as Cleveland held the upper hand in the battle of field position. The Bengals went for it on fourth-and-four from their own 31-yard line with just over 10 minutes remaining in an attempt to jumpstart the offense, but QB Joe Burrow was dropped for a 13-yard sack and the Browns scored three plays later to seal the final outcome. The game was the 100th "Battle of Ohio" between the two teams.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Baltimore Ravens 27, Cincinnati Bengals 24 Sunday, Sept. 17, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

Cincinnati faced two 10-point deficits in the second half and each time was able to cut it to three, but ultimately the Bengals never took the lead in a home-opener loss. Baltimore was efficient offensively, totaling 415 net yards — including 178 rushing — and scoring a TD on three of its four red zone trips. Cincinnati's offense had just three possessions in the first half and was limited to a FG, but an 81-yard punt return for a TD by rookie WR Charlie Jones in the second quarter helped keep the team within striking distance. QB Joe Burrow connected with WR Tee Higgins for a TD late in the third quarter to reduce Baltimore's lead to three points at 20-17, but the Ravens answered with a 12-play, 85-yard TD drive to regain the two-score advantage. Another Burrow-to-Higgins TD with 3:28 left closed the gap again, but the Ravens converted a pair of third downs on the ensuing possession to end the game. Cincinnati fell to 0-2, while Baltimore improved to 2-0.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

Cincinnati Bengals 19, L.A. Rams 16
Monday night, Sept. 25, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals' defense recorded six sacks and two INTs to steer Cincinnati to its first win of the season on Monday Night Football. Neither offense established a rhythm in the first half, combining for seven punts in the opening two quarters, but each side put together a pair of FG drives for a 6-6 tie at halftime. The Bengals then struck with a 10-play, 75-yard march on their first possession of the third quarter that ended with a 14-yard TD run by HB Joe Mixon. WR Ja'Marr Chase contributed 33 of his 141 receiving yards on that go-ahead scoring drive, and his team-leading 12 catches on the night helped spark the offense. Cincinnati's defense continued to pressure Rams QB Matthew Stafford, and LB Logan Wilson's second INT of the game not only ended a L.A. scoring threat, but it led to another Bengals FG which extended the lead to 16-9 late in the third quarter. Five different Bengals tallied a sack — DE Trey Hendrickson recorded two in the second half — and the Rams' offense converted just one of 11 third-down attempts. Cincinnati improved to 1-2, while the Rams fell to 1-2.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

Tennessee Titans 27, Cincinnati Bengals 3
Sunday, Oct. 1, 2023 at Nissan Stadium

The Bengals opened the game with an 11-play, 72-yard FG drive, but it proved to be their most successful possession as the Titans held them to just 139 net yards the rest of the way. Tennessee used a balanced offensive attack and totaled 400 net yards (227 passing, 173 rushing) to wear down the Cincinnati defense. The score was tied 3-3 at the midway point of the second quarter, before the Titans erupted for three TDs in the final 6:31 to take a commanding 24-3 halftime lead. RB Derrick Henry led the charge for Tennessee with 122 yards on 22 carries (5.5-yard average), including a 29-yard TD run that saw him break three tackles before reaching the end zone. The Titans repeatedly blitzed QB Joe Burrow, sacking him three times while holding the Bengals to two of nine on third down. Cincinnati fell to 1-3, while Tennessee improved to 2-2.

WEEK 5, GAME 5

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Arizona Cardinals 20
Sunday, Oct. 8, 2023 at State Farm Stadium

Bengals WR Ja'Marr Chase posted a team-record 15 receptions for 192 yards and three TDs, while the Cincinnati defense forced three turnovers in a road victory. Chase's first TD capped an 11-play opening drive to give the Bengals an early lead, but Arizona answered with two TDs in the second quarter to pull ahead 14-10. The Cardinals then stopped HB Joe Mixon at the one-yard line on fourth-and-goal late in the first half, but two plays later CB Cam Taylor-Britt intercepted a Joshua Dobbs pass and returned it 11 yards to the end zone, putting Cincinnati back in front. Less than two minutes into the second half, QB Joe Burrow launched a deep ball that hit Chase in stride for a 63-yard TD to extend the Bengals' lead. Arizona responded with a TD and had a chance to reclaim the lead later in the third quarter, but LB Germaine Pratt stopped Dobbs on a rush on fourth down at the Bengals' 16-yard line. Cincinnati's offense took over and drove 83 yards in 15 plays, punctuated by Chase's third TD, to take command midway through the fourth quarter. The Bengals improved to 2-3, while Arizona fell to 1-4.

WEEK 6, GAME 6

Cincinnati Bengals 17, Seattle Seahawks 13
Sunday, Oct. 15, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

Cincinnati stopped Seattle on fourth down near its own goal line twice within the final minutes to secure the home win. Seattle snapped the ball at the Bengals' six-yard line on fourth down just ahead of the two-minute warning, but DE Sam Hubbard got to QB Geno Smith for a sack that gave possession back to Cincinnati. The Seahawks then quickly forced a punt and worked their way back inside the 10 with under a minute remaining, before pressure by Bengals DT B.J. Hill on fourth down forced the Seahawks' final pass to fall incomplete. The Bengals had grabbed an early lead with TD passes on their first two drives. QB Joe Burrow started the game completing 17 of 19 passes, which included a stretch of 15 straight completions, but Cincinnati's offense stalled as the game progressed, totaling just five first downs on its final eight possessions. The defense, however, held Seattle to just three points on four red zone opportunities in the second half, getting INTs from CBs Mike Hilton and Cam Taylor-Britt along the way. The Bengals improved to 3-3, while Seattle fell to 3-2.

WEEK 8, GAME 7

Cincinnati Bengals 31, San Francisco 49ers 17
Sunday, Oct. 29, 2023 at Levi's Stadium

QB Joe Burrow completed 87.5 percent of his passes (28 of 32) for 283 yards and three TDs, while LBs Germaine Pratt and Logan Wilson each had an INT in the second half to lead Cincinnati to a road victory. The Bengals' offense found the end zone on its opening two drives to grab an early 14-7 lead, and Burrow closed out the first half with a career-best 19 consecutive completions. San Francisco had a chance to tie the game on a first-and-goal late in the third quarter, before Pratt tipped a pass by QB Brock Purdy and picked it off to end the scoring threat. The 49ers forced a punt less than two minutes later, but Wilson intercepted Purdy's next pass and returned it inside the red zone to give the offense a short field. Burrow cashed in on the following play with a 17-yard TD pass to WR Ja'Marr Chase, who finished with a game-high 10 catches for 100 yards. The 49ers inched closer with a TD on their next drive, but the Bengals responded with a 10-play, 78-yard march capped by a rushing TD from HB Joe Mixon to regain the two-score advantage and seal the win. Cincinnati improved to 4-3, while San Francisco fell to 5-3.

WEEK 9, GAME 8

Cincinnati Bengals 24, Buffalo Bills 18
Sunday night, Nov. 5, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

QB Joe Burrow passed for 348 yards and two first-half TDs to lead Cincinnati to a prime-time home victory over Buffalo. The Bengals found the end zone on their opening possession for a fourth straight game, with TE Irv Smith Jr.'s first TD of the season giving Cincinnati an early 7-0 advantage. After the Bills quickly answered with their own score to tie it up, the Bengals again marched down the field and HB Joe Mixon's TD regained a lead that they never gave up. Buffalo trailed 21-10 early in the fourth quarter and was driving at the Cincinnati 22-yard line with a chance to close its deficit, but LB Germaine Pratt forced a fumble that was recovered by S Nick Scott for the Bengals' second takeaway of the game. Cincinnati made use of the turnover with a FG drive that included two completions to WR Tee Higgins, who finished with eight catches for a game-high 110 yards. The Bills cut it to a one-possession game with a TD with 3:32 left, but the Bengals used the rest of the time on the clock as Mixon converted a third-and-three following Buffalo's final timeout. Cincinnati improved to 5-3, while Buffalo fell to 5-4.

WEEK 10, GAME 9

Houston Texans 30, Cincinnati Bengals 27
Sunday, Nov. 12, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals trailed by 10 with under four minutes remaining before storming back to tie the game 27-27, but Houston marched 55 yards on six plays in the final 1:33 to set up a game-winning FG as time expired. After QB Joe Burrow's second INT of the fourth quarter, CB Cam Taylor-Britt got the ball back for the Bengals with his own pick that led to a Cincinnati TD three plays later. The Bengals forced a quick punt, and on the following possession Burrow hit WR Tyler Boyd for a 64-yard gain to set up the tying FG. Houston's final drive finished off a day that featured 544 offensive net yards, including 356 passing from QB C.J. Stroud and 150 rushing from RB Devin Singletary. After an opening-drive TD gave the Bengals an early lead, the offense was forced to punt on its next five possessions while the Texans scored 20 straight points. An Evan McPherson FG followed by a 64-yard TD catch by WR Ja'Marr Chase closed the deficit to 20-17 late in the third quarter, but Houston quickly answered with a TD on its next drive to regain a two-possession advantage. Cincinnati fell to 5-4, while Houston improved to 5-4.

WEEK 11, GAME 10

Baltimore Ravens 34, Cincinnati Bengals 20
Thursday night, Nov. 16, 2023 at M&T Bank Stadium

The Bengals held a narrow lead early in the second quarter in a highly anticipated Thursday Night Football showdown at Baltimore, but a wrist injury forced QB Joe Burrow to miss the remainder of the game and the Ravens went on to secure a 34-20 divisional win. Burrow left the contest after throwing a TD pass to HB Joe Mixon that put Cincinnati ahead 10-7, and Baltimore capitalized on his absence with two TD drives before halftime to build a double-digit advantage. The balanced Ravens offense totaled 405 net yards — with 248 coming through the air and 157 on the ground — and had seven plays of 20 or more yards. Backup QB Jake Browning was effective in relief of Burrow, leading a 10-play FG drive to open the second half that closed Cincinnati's deficit to 21-13. The Bengals also posted a season-best 136 rushing yards to help keep the game within reach through three quarters, but Baltimore managed to create separation with 13 straight points while forcing a punt on three consecutive Bengals possessions. Cincinnati fell to 5-5, while Baltimore improved to 8-3.

WEEK 12, GAME 11

Pittsburgh Steelers 16, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Sunday, Nov. 26, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

QB Jake Browning passed for 227 yards and a TD in his first career start, but the Bengals were held to three points in the second half of a 16-10 home loss. Pittsburgh's offense totaled 421 net yards and scored on each of its final three possessions to build a two-score lead, after being limited to a FG until the late stages of the third quarter. Cincinnati pulled ahead 7-3 in the second quarter when HB Trayveon Williams' 46-yard kickoff return set up strong field position for Browning, who finished off the ensuing drive with a TD pass to TE Drew Sample. The Bengals opened the second half by marching into the red zone, but an INT by Steelers S Trenton Thompson led to a 14-play, 79-yard TD drive that put Pittsburgh back in front. The Bengals were forced to punt twice in the fourth quarter while the Steelers expanded their lead, before Cincinnati kicked a FG ahead of the two-minute warning to close its gap to six. With no timeouts remaining, the Bengals attempted an onside kick, but a Steelers recovery allowed Pittsburgh to kneel out the remaining clock. Cincinnati fell to 5-6, while Pittsburgh improved to 7-4.

WEEK 13, GAME 12

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Jacksonville Jaguars 31 (OT) Monday night, Dec. 4, 2023 at EverBank Stadium

In a nationally televised thriller which included five ties and six lead changes, the Bengals won when K Evan McPherson converted a game-winning 48-yard FG with 3:17 left in overtime. In his second career start, QB Jake Browning completed 32 of 37 passes (86.5 percent) for 354 yards and one TD, highlighted by four completions in the extra period to move Cincinnati into FG range. The Bengals answered a pair of Jaguars TDs in the first half with two rushing scores from HB Joe Mixon, then grabbed their first lead early in the third quarter when Browning found WR Ja'Marr Chase down the left sideline for a 76-yard TD. Chase had 11 catches for 149 yards, while Mixon had 117 scrimmage yards (68 rushing, 49 receiving). Cincinnati improved to 6-6, while Jacksonville fell to 8-4.

WEEK 14, GAME 13

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Indianapolis Colts 14
Sunday, Dec. 10, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals outscored the Colts 20-0 in the second half to turn a tie game at halftime into a dominant home win. Cincinnati jumped in front 14-0 early in the second quarter, as HB Chase Brown's first career TD on a 54-yard screen pass was followed by a methodical 11-play scoring drive on the Bengals' next possession. Indianapolis flipped the momentum in its own favor with two TDs that came just 25 seconds apart, the second of which was a pick-six by LB Ronnie Harrison Jr. that led to a game-tying two-point conversion. Cincinnati responded with a pair of TDs in the third quarter, including TE Tanner Hudson also grabbing his first career TD catch on the opening drive of the half. QB Jake Browning extended the lead with a one-yard sneak for his third total TD of the afternoon, and an INT by DT B.J. Hill in the fourth quarter allowed Cincinnati to work the remaining clock. The Bengals defensively yielded just 46 rushing yards and sacked Colts QB Gardner Minshew II three times, including two by DE Trey Hendrickson. Cincinnati improved to 7-6, while Indianapolis fell to 7-6.

WEEK 15, GAME 14

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Minnesota Vikings 24 (OT)
Saturday, Dec. 16, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals trailed 17-3 entering the fourth quarter before scoring a TD on three straight drives to send the game to overtime, where K Evan McPherson drilled a game-winning FG to lift Cincinnati to victory in a nationally televised game. Two of the Bengals' fourth-quarter TDs were caught by WR Tee Higgins, including a game-tying score in the final minute of regulation when he hauled in a deep pass near the goal line and extended his arm over the pylon while being tackled backwards out of bounds. In the extra period, the Vikings needed less than a yard on third and fourth down from the Bengals' 42-yard line, but Cincinnati's defense stonewalled them for no gain twice to regain possession. Browning then connected with WR Tyler Boyd for a 44-yard catch on third-and-nine to put the Bengals in position for McPherson's game-winner. Browning completed a pass to 11 different receivers and finished to complete 29 of 42 attempts for 324 yards, with 243 of those yards coming after halftime. Cincinnati improved to 8-6, while Minnesota fell to 7-7.
