Setting the scene: The Bengals look to get back in the win column when they face the Miami Dolphins on Sunday at Hard Rock Stadium.

Cincinnati is coming off a home loss to Baltimore in Week 15 which moved the Bengals to 4-10 on the season. As they turn the page to this week's matchup in Miami, head coach Zac Taylor has stated that his goal remains to finish out the schedule with his team trending in a positive direction.

"We want to finish the season on a really strong note," said Taylor. "That's important to me. That should be important to everybody. We're in this business to win football games. We haven't won enough football games, and it's very important we go out and win, starting this week. Forget about the last two — going down to Miami and putting our best foot forward."

One area of improvement throughout the season which Taylor pointed to is consistency on defense. Cincinnati has seven takeaways over its past three games, and in its most recent contest against Baltimore, both DE Myles Murphy and rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. posted multiple sacks for the first time in their careers.

"There was a lot of great moments from the defense (against Baltimore)," said Taylor. "Getting off the field on third down, getting pressure on Lamar (Jackson), the four sacks, creating a turnover after we turned the ball over. There are some things that they're improving on that we're going to continue to build off. I think that's tangible. That's showing up. Anybody who is watching the game can see that improvement being made, and there are a lot of young players that are participating in that — second- and third-year players that are showing growth through the season."

While the Bengals' offense was stifled by the Ravens in Week 15, some of Cincinnati's top contributors still have either career milestones or season high statistical marks within reach over the final three games. Notably, sixth-year QB Joe Burrow will play in his 75th career regular-season game on Sunday, and he has a chance to rank within the top five in NFL history in completions, passing yards and TD passes among all players through their first 75 contests.

Helping Burrow achieve those feats will be All-Pro WR Ja'Marr Chase, who ranks third in the league in receptions (101) and fourth in receiving yards (1147) this season. Chase's production continues to rival some of the best to ever line up at his position, as he recently joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss as the only players in NFL history with at least 6500 receiving yards and 50 receiving TDs in their first five career seasons. In the Bengals' backfield, third-year HB Chase Brown has come on strong over the past two months, and heads into the final stretch of the season needing 234 yards from scrimmage to match his career-high of 1350 recorded last year.

Miami enters with a 6-8 record this season, and is coming off a road loss at Pittsburgh on Monday Night Football in Week 15. The Dolphins have won each of their last three home contests.

The series: Miami has been the second-toughest opponent the Bengals have encountered in their 58-year history, based on series winning percentage. The Dolphins hold an 18-8 edge, including 1-0 in postseason, for a .692 success rate. Their overall winning percentage against the Bengals trails only the San Francisco 49ers (13-5, .722).

The two squads are even over the past 10 games, with the series tied 5-5 in that span, dating back to 2004. However, Miami previously had won nine straight meetings from 1978-2000. The Dolphins also lead 9-2 overall in games played in Miami.

The one playoff game in series history was an AFC Divisional contest in 1973 at the Orange Bowl, won 34-16 by the Dolphins.

Bengals-Dolphins results are on page 215 of the Bengals 2025 media guide.

Uniform watch: Cincinnati will wear white jerseys, white pants (black stripes) and black socks this week at Miami. It is the Bengals' most frequently used combination since they redesigned their uniforms prior to the 2021 season, as they have worn it 20 times previously (regular season and postseason), and compiled a 12-8 record in those games. Cincinnati has sported this look in three previous games this season, most recently in Week 14 at Buffalo.

The Bengals' redesign in 2021 marked the team's first significant change in uniform since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants feature four options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, white with black stripes, and orange with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new white helmet with its iconic black stripes. When paired with white jerseys and white pants (with black stripes), a new uniform combination was created and was branded as the "White Bengal." The team has worn the white helmet six times and collected a 5-1 record in those games. The helmet's most recent appearance came in Week 7 of this season, when Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh at home on Thursday Night Football.

Here are the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

* — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms (CR) that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023 and thereafter, the Bengals were permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.

^ — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or throwback and/or color rush uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes the team's orange jersey. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

+ — The Bengals added orange pants with black stripes to their uniform lineup in 2024.

A factoid about the '19 Miami mini marathon:

Historically speaking, the full marathon of NFL regular-season games always has been a total of 75 minutes of clock time, which is four 15-minute quarters, combined with a full 15-minute overtime period. In most cases, when a game reached the end of the overtime period, that contest would end in a tie, unless of course the game was decided on the final play of OT as time expired.

The Bengals have participated in just three full 75-minute regular-season games in team history, and all three were ties — in 2008 vs. Philadelphia, in '14 vs. Carolina and in '16 vs. Washington in London.

However, the NFL shortened overtime from a 15-minute period to a 10-minute period in 2017. Thus, nowadays, the maximum regular-season game time possible is a 70-minute contest — a mini marathon, you could say.

Cincinnati has logged three 70-minute games since overtime was shortened in 2017. One of those contests was a tie — a 23-23 deadlock with the Eagles in Game 3 of 2020 at Philadelphia. However, the Bengals also have two instances of a now-maximum 70-minute game that did not result in a tie, and one of those occurred against the Dolphins. Those games were a 38-35 loss to the Dolphins in Game 15 of 2019 at Miami, and a 23-20 loss to Pittsburgh in the '22 season opener. Both games ended with the opposing kicker booting a FG as OT expired. Those games are two of only 18 contests in NFL history to have been won/lost as overtime expired (and 11 of those 18 have occurred since 2017).

The longest ever Bengals game not to end in a tie occurred on Oct. 4, 2009 at Cleveland when K Shayne Graham kicked a 31-yard FG to beat the Browns 23-20 with :04 remaining in the 15-minute OT period.

A rare one ... : The Bengals-Dolphins meeting on Halloween night in 2013, a 22-20 Miami home victory, was the most recent of only three NFL overtime games ever to be decided by a safety. That's three out of a possible 690 OT games (through Week 15), less than one half of one percent (0.435 percent, or one out of every 230 OT games). The Dolphins notched the win when DE Cameron Wake sacked QB Andy Dalton, and the tackle was ruled in a very close call to have taken place in the end zone.

... and a long one: Miami's Mercury Morris made one of the two longest-ever plays against Cincinnati on Sept. 14, 1969 at Miami, when he returned a kickoff 105 yards for a TD. That play stood alone as the longest until Nov. 4, 2012, when Denver's Trindon Holliday had a 105-yard KOR at Paul Brown Stadium.

Morris' 105-yard return stands as the only Dolphins team or individual entry in Cincinnati's record book.

Individually vs. Dolphins: Here are cumulative regular-season offensive statistics for current Cincinnati players in Bengals games against the Dolphins (ordered by total games played):

- WR Tee Higgins: Two games; 12 receptions for 180 yards (15.0-yard average) and one TD.
- HB Samaje Perine: Two games; Four rushes for seven yards (1.8).
- QB Joe Burrow: One game; 20-of-31 passing for 287 yards, two TDs and no INTs (115.9 passer rating).
- WR Ja'Marr Chase: One game; Four receptions for 81 yards (20.3).
- TE Drew Sample: One game; Seven receptions for 49 yards (7.0).

THE HEAD COACHES

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2025 season is his seventh in the position.

In 2024, he guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season at 9-8, which was highlighted by five straight victories to close out the schedule. He orchestrated one of the NFL's most dynamic offenses, serving as play-caller for a unit that led the league in passing yards per game (272.9), ranked sixth in points per game (27.8) and ninth in total yards (365.5).

In 2023, Taylor led the Bengals to a 9-8 record despite a few key players missing time due to injuries, including QB Joe Burrow, who suffered a season-ending injury in Week 11. Taylor worked with backup QB Jake Browning over the final seven weeks and guided Cincinnati to a 4-3 mark to close out the slate.

The 2022 season saw Taylor lead the Bengals to their second straight AFC North Division title and a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship Game. He became the 13th head coach in NFL history to win five of his first six career postseason games. The Bengals posted impressive numbers on both sides of the ball under Taylor, as the offense ranked in the top 10 leaguewide in passing (fifth, 265.0), scoring (seventh, 26.1) and total yards (eighth, 360.5), and the defense held opponents to a league-low 59.8 completion percentage.

In 2021, Taylor guided Cincinnati to its first division crown in six years and then three postseason victories to win the AFC Championship and advance to Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, in his first full season in Taylor's system, led the league in completion percentage (70.4) and was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year. Chase, the team's first-round draft pick, posted the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455, since surpassed) en route to winning Offensive Rookie of the Year. Defensively, Cincinnati showed marked improvement from 2020 to '21, jumping from 29th in rushing yards allowed to fifth (102.5). In the postseason, Taylor led the Bengals to their first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition Burrow, the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft, to the pros, despite the absence of an in-person offseason program due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Defensively, Taylor oversaw seven new starters who helped Cincinnati hold opposing passers to the sixth-lowest completion percentage in the NFL (62.8). In 2019, his first season as head coach, Taylor led the Bengals to second-half turnarounds on both sides of the ball. Offensively, the team's per-game rushing average jumped from 70.6 yards from the first half of the season (59.5) to the second half (130.1). Defensively, Cincinnati notched 11 more sacks in the second half of the season compared to the first, and allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game.

Taylor came to the Bengals after two seasons (2017-18) with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in '17 and quarterbacks coach in '18. He had a one-year stint at the University of Cincinnati in 2016, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville. He broke into NFL coaching in 2012 as assistant QBs coach for the Miami Dolphins. He was elevated to QBs coach from 2013-15, and spent the final five games of the '15 season as interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller after the team made coaching staff changes.

Taylor's began coaching at Texas A&M University as an offensive graduate assistant and TEs coach under head coach Mike Sherman from 2008-11. The Aggies played in three bowl games during his College Station tenure.

Taylor played in college at Wake Forest (2002-03) before transferring to Butler County Community College in Kansas ('04) and then playing his final two seasons ('05-06) at the University of Nebraska. He had a decorated career with the Cornhuskers, setting numerous school records and passing for 5850 yards and 45 TDs. As a senior in 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 3197 total yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017.

Taylor joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp and never saw NFL action. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play).

His father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at the University of Oklahoma, playing under Sooners head coach Barry Switzer from 1976-79. Sherwood Taylor later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State University. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall University and currently is the pass game coordinator for the Chicago Bears.

Taylor was born in Norman, Okla., on May 10, 1983. After attending Norman High School, he earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman.

Mike McDaniel was named the 11th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on Feb. 7, 2022.

The 2025 season is McDaniel's 19th in the NFL and fourth as a head coach. He led the Dolphins to the postseason in both 2022 and '23, becoming just the third coach in Dolphins history to make the playoffs his first two seasons. Under him, Dolphins players have earned 11 Pro Bowl selections.

In 2024, McDaniel's offense set a franchise record in team receptions (413), while quarterback Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL in completion percentage (72.9) and red zone passer rating (120.2). His completion percentage was the best mark in franchise history and third best in NFL history. Defensively, Miami ranked fourth in total defense (314.4 yards per game), the best mark by the franchise since 2010 and its first top five finish since '06. The 2023 Dolphins led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time in 30 years. The team also led the league in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and fewest quarterback hits allowed (59). In 2022, the Dolphins offense ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1995.

McDaniel spent five seasons (2017-21) in San Francisco as run game specialist ('17), run game coordinator ('18-20) and offensive coordinator ('21). The 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game twice in that span and won it in 2019. In 2021, the 49ers finished seventh in the NFL in total offense (375.7) and had four players earned Pro Bowl selections.

McDaniel also went to the Super Bowl in 2016 as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons, where he served in that role from '15-16. He also was WRs coach for the Cleveland Browns (2014), WRs coach ('13) and offensive assistant ('11-12) for Washington, RBs coach for the United Football League's Sacramento team ('09-10) and offensive assistant with the Houston Texans ('06-08). He began his coaching career as an intern with the Denver Broncos (2005).

BENGALS NOTES

Burrow's 2025 journey: QB Joe Burrow has started the Bengals' past three games, after spending the previous nine contests on the Reserve/Injured list due to a toe injury. Since re-entering the lineup in Week 13 at Baltimore, Burrow has thrown for 770 yards and six TDs while averaging 6.1 yards per pass attempt.

Burrow opened the season by playing in his 70th career regular-season game in Week 1 at Cleveland. He finished with 14 completions on 23 attempts for 113 yards, with a one-yard TD pass to TE Noah Fant. Burrow's 1762 career completions at the end of the Browns game were the most by any QB in NFL history through their first 70 games, while his 141 TD passes ranked as the third-most and his 19,114 passing yards ranked fifth.

Burrow suffered the toe injury in the second quarter of Week 2 against Jacksonville, after opening the game with 76 passing yards and a TD. He was placed on Reserve/Injured on Sept. 16 and underwent surgery on Sept. 19.

In his return on Thanksgiving, Burrow threw a season-high 46 passing attempts, with 24 completions that went for 261 yards and two TDs. Both of his scoring passes came in the third quarter, as he connected on a 14-yarder to TE Tanner Hudson and a 29-yarder to WR Andrei Iosivas.

Burrow followed up his performance at Baltimore with season highs in completions (25), passing yards (284) and TDs (four) in Week 14 vs. Buffalo. It marked his eighth career game with four or more TD passes, and his first since Week 10 of last season at Baltimore.

Through five starts in 2025, Burrow is 95 of 157 for 959 yards and eight TDs with four INTs.

No. 9 approaching 20K: QB Joe Burrow enters Week 16 with 19,960 career passing yards in 74 regular-season games played. Should he pass for 40 yards against Miami in what will be his 75th contest, he would become the fifth-fastest player in NFL history to reach 20,000. The only QBs to achieve that feat in fewer games are Kansas City's Patrick Mahomes (67 games), former Detroit QB Matthew Stafford (71), Pro Football Hall of Famer Dan Marino (74) and former Indianapolis QB Andrew Luck (74).

Burrow owns the three highest single-season passing yardage marks in Bengals history. Last season, he led the NFL and set a team record with 4918 passing yards, which included seven 300-yard games (also the most in Cincinnati history). He previously had 4611 passing yards in 2021 (sixth-most in NFL that year) and 4475 in '22 (fifth-most). He is the first QB to pass for 4000 or more yards in three different seasons during his Bengals career, with Carson Palmer (2006-07) and Andy Dalton ('13, '16) both reaching that mark twice.

Burrow was the fourth-fastest QB in NFL history to reach 15,000 career passing yards (56 games), and tied for the third-fastest to reach 10,000 (36 games). His career yardage total at the end of the 2024 campaign was 19,001, the sixth-most in a player's first five seasons in league history.

Joe's career TD tally: QB Joe Burrow heads into Week 16 with 148 career TD passes in 74 regular-season games played. With two more on Sunday, he would be the third-fastest QB in NFL history to reach 150. The only QBs to pass for 150 TDs in fewer than 75 games are Pro Football Hall of Famer Dan Marino (62 games) and Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (63).

Burrow threw a season-high four TD passes in Week 14 at Buffalo. It marked his 27th career game with at least three scoring passes, which surpassed Dallas QB Dak Prescott (26) for the third-most such games in a player's first six career seasons in NFL history. Marino (37 games) and Mahomes (36) are the only QBs with more three-TD games in their first six years in the league.

Burrow finished the 2024 campaign with 140 career TD passes, which are the third-most in a player's first five seasons in NFL history behind Marino (168) and Mahomes (151). Burrow has the three highest single-season passing TD totals in Bengals history, with an NFL-leading 43 in 2024, 35 in '22 and 34 in '21.

Burrow on the mark: QB Joe Burrow threw his 1500th career passing attempt in the 2022 regular-season finale, which qualified him for the NFL's completion percentage record. With a current career percentage of 68.16, he is the league's all-time leader in the category.

Burrow's 70.552 completion percentage in the 2024 season ranked fourth in the NFL (minimum 14 attempts per team's games in season). It also set a Bengals single-season record, narrowly edging out QB Ken Anderson's completion rate of 70.550 in 1982. Burrow completed at least 70 percent of his passes in 11 games in 2024, including each of the final six — the longest such streak in his career.

In Week 14 of this season at Buffalo, Burrow surpassed 1800 career completions in what was his 73rd regular-season game. He tied Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes and L.A. Chargers QB Justin Herbert as the fastest players in NFL history to reach 1800 completions (in terms of games played).

Burrow recorded his 2500th career passing attempt in Week 17 of last season against Denver. His 1710 completions at the time he reached that mark are the most in NFL history through a QB's first 2500 throws. By the end of the 2024 campaign, he had 26 career games with a completion percentage of 70 or higher on at least 30 attempts. That is the most such games in a player's first five seasons in NFL history, with the next closest being Mahomes and Miami QB Tua Tagovailoa (21 games each).

Burrow ranked in the top five leaguewide in completion percentage in three of his first five seasons. After leading the NFL in 2021 with a 70.4 percentage, he followed up with the second-highest clip in '22 (68.3).

Here is a look at the NFL's all-time leaders in career completion percentage (minimum 1500 passing attempts):

PLAYER	TEAM(S)	YEARS	COMP. %
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati .....	2020-25	68.16
Tua Tagovailoa	Miami.....	2020-25	68.03
Drew Brees	San Diego/New Orleans .....	2001-20	67.69
Jimmy Garoppolo	New England/San Francisco/ Las Vegas/L.A. Rams .....	2014-24	67.36
Kyler Murray	Arizona.....	2019-25	67.12

Burrow's 2024 highlights: QB Joe Burrow, who completed his fifth pro season in 2024, put together perhaps the best individual campaign by a QB in Bengals history.

Burrow in 2024 led the NFL in passing attempts (652), completions (460), passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43), while ranking third in passer rating (108.5) and fourth in completion percentage (70.6; minimum 14 attempts per team's games). Each of those figures also set a Bengals single-season record.

Burrow became the first Cincinnati QB to lead the league in completions, passing yards and TD passes in the same season. Since 2000, there have been five instances of a QB finishing a season as the outright leader in all three categories — St. Louis Rams QB Kurt Warner in '01, New Orleans QB Drew Brees in '11, Denver QB Peyton Manning in '13, Tampa Bay QB Tom Brady in '21 and Burrow in '24.

Burrow also became the fourth QB in NFL history to pass for at least 4500 yards and 40 TDs while throwing 10 or fewer INTs, joining Manning (2004 and '13), Brady ('07) and Green Bay QB Aaron Rodgers ('11).

Burrow's level of play last season was highlighted by a streak of eight consecutive games (Weeks 9-17) with at least 250 passing yards and three TD passes. That marked the longest such streak in NFL history, surpassing Brady's six straight games during his 2007 MVP campaign.

Chase through 75: WR Ja'Marr Chase played in his 75th career regular-season game in Week 15 vs. Baltimore. Among all players in NFL history through their first 75 games played, he ranks second in receptions (486), fourth in receiving yards (6572) and 10th in receiving TDs (51).

During the Week 15 contest, Chase joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss as the only two players in NFL history with at least 6500 receiving yards and 50 receiving TDs in their first five career seasons. He also logged his 11th career game with at least 10 receptions and 125 receiving yards, which surpassed former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas (10) for the most such games by a player in his first five seasons.

Chase has 25 career games with 100 or more receiving yards, which are the third-most in Bengals history and third-most in NFL history by a player under the age of 26. Six of his 100-yard receiving games have come this year, tying WR A.J. Green (2013) for the most such games in a season in team history.

Ja'Marr is "Always open": After leading the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 receptions in 2024, WR Ja'Marr Chase finds himself near the top of the league once again this year, as his team-leading 101 catches rank third among all players. The last player to finish as the league leader in receptions in consecutive seasons was former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas in 2018 and '19.

Including Chase, there have been 16 instances in NFL history in which a player totaled 100 or more receptions in three consecutive seasons. Chase kicked off his career with 81 catches in the 2021 season, which set a Bengals rookie record and still ranks in the top 20 among all rookies in NFL history. He followed that up with a team-leading 87 catches in just 12 games played in 2022, then hit triple digits for the first time when he had 100 receptions in '23 (12th in NFL).

Chase has five games this season with at least 10 catches, including a stretch of three straight contests from Weeks 6-8. He brought in 10 receptions in Week 6 at Green Bay, followed up with a Bengals-record 16 in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, then logged 12 in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. He became the first player in team history to register double-digit catches in three consecutive games.

In the Week 7 win over the Steelers, Chase broke his own previous Bengals single-game record of 15 receptions, which he amassed in Week 5 of the 2023 campaign at Arizona. He now owns the four highest single-game reception totals in team history, which also includes a 14-catch effort in Week 2 of this season against Jacksonville.

Chase's four career games with 14 or more receptions are tied with former Pittsburgh/New England/Tampa Bay WR Antonio Brown for the second-most such games in NFL history. Current L.A. Chargers WR Keenan Allen holds the league record with six such games in his career.

Here are the most receptions in games in Bengals history (regular season):

Climbing toward 500: WR Ja'Marr Chase enters this week with 496 career receptions in 75 regular-season games played. With four more on Sunday, he would be the second-fastest player in NFL history to reach 500 catches, behind only former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas (69 games).

Chase also is 11 receptions shy of tying former WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh (507) for the fifth-most in Bengals history. Earlier this season, he surpassed Ring of Honor member Isaac Curtis (416) and former WR Cris Collinsworth (417) on the team's all-time list. In Week 2 against Jacksonville, Chase tied for the fifth-fastest player in league history to reach 400 career receptions (64 games).

Chase's 496 career receptions are tied for the third-most in a player's first five seasons in NFL history, and he is in striking distance to climb that list during Cincinnati's final three games. The only players with more catches in their first five years are Detroit WR Amon-Ra St. Brown (524 — currently in fifth season) and Thomas (510).

In his 2024 "Triple Crown" season, Chase led the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 catches. He became the first player in team history to lead the league in receptions, and surpassed Houshmandzadeh's previous team mark of 112 in the 2007 campaign.

Here are the Bengals' all-time leaders in career receptions (regular season):

PLAYER	YEARS WITH BENGALS	RECEPTIONS
Chad Johnson	2001-10 .....	751

Chasing history: WR Ja'Marr Chase surpassed 1000 receiving yards this season during the Bengals' Week 14 contest at Buffalo. He became the fifth player in NFL history to reach the 1000-yard receiving mark in each of his first five career seasons, joining former Minnesota WR Randy Moss, former Cincinnati WR A.J. Green, current Tampa Bay WR Mike Evans and current Vikings WR Justin Jefferson.

Chase's 1147 receiving yards rank fourth in the NFL this season. He has improved his career receiving yardage total to 6572, which ranks as the fourth-most in a player's first five seasons in league history. Only Jefferson (7432), former St. Louis Rams WR Torry Holt (6784) and Moss (6743) had more in their first five years. Chase in Week 13 surpassed Pro Football Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (6364).

In the Bengals' Week 7 win against Pittsburgh this season, Chase surpassed 6000 career receiving yards in what was his 69th regular-season game. He became the fifth-fastest player in league history to reach that milestone, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (62 games), Jefferson (62), former Atlanta WR Julio Jones (64) and former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. (67).

Chase, who currently ranks sixth in Bengals history in receiving yards, is 126 shy of tying former WR Cris Collinsworth (6698) for fifth. So far this season, Chase has surpassed former WRs T.J. Houshmandzadeh (5782), Damay Scott (5975), Tyler Boyd (6000) and Eddie Brown (6134) on Cincinnati's all-time list.

The Bengals' first-round draft pick (No. 5 overall) in 2021, Chase holds a career average of 87.6 receiving yards per game (75 regular-season games). That is the third-highest mark in NFL history, trailing only L.A. Rams WR Puka Nacua (93.7) and Jefferson (90.8).

Uno finds the end zone: WR Ja'Marr Chase's highlight-reel TD catch in the fourth quarter of Week 6 at Green Bay was the 50th receiving TD of his career. Playing in his 68th regular-season game, he became the seventh-fastest player in NFL history and the fourth-fastest in the Super Bowl era (1966-present) to reach that milestone. He improved his career tally to 51 with an eight-yard scoring catch in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh.

The only players in the Super Bowl era to record 50 receiving TDs in fewer games than Chase are Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss (59 games), former New England TE Rob Gronkowski (59) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (61).

Chase's 51 TD catches are the second-most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021, behind current L.A. Rams WR Davante Adams (55). In 2024, Chase led the league with 17 TDs, which tied the Bengals single-season record originally set by WR Carl Pickens in 1995. He became the first player in team history to lead the NFL in receiving TDs. He had a league-high five games with multiple TD catches last season.

Chase has five receiving TDs this season. With two more, he would become the first player in league history with at least 80 receptions, 1000 receiving yards and seven receiving TDs in each of his first five seasons. He caught two scoring passes from QB Jake Browning in Week 5 vs. Detroit, which marked his 12th career game with multiple TDs.

Brown does it all: HB Chase Brown leads the Bengals with 780 rushing yards on 185 carries this season while also contributing 336 receiving yards on 58 catches, good for 1116 yards from scrimmage. It is his second consecutive year with over 1000 scrimmage yards, following a career-high total of 1350 in the 2024 campaign.

Brown's performance this season has been highlighted by a streak of six straight games with at least 100 yards from scrimmage, which began in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh and lasted through Week 13 at Baltimore. It marked the longest such streak in Bengals history, and was the second-longest in the NFL this season behind a seven-game stretch by San Francisco RB Christian McCaffrey (Weeks 1-7). Brown totaled 687 scrimmage yards during his streak, the seventh-most among all running backs from Weeks 7-13, while his 502 rushing yards in that span ranked eighth.

Brown kicked off the streak with 100 scrimmage yards in the Week 7 home victory over the Steelers, which was spearheaded by a season-high 108 rushing yards on just 11 attempts. His 9.8 yards per carry in that contest were a career high and the 10th-most by any NFL player in a game this season (minimum 10 rushes). He followed that up with 105 scrimmage yards in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets, 112 in Week 9 vs. Chicago and 127 in Week 11 at Pittsburgh. His stat line against the Bears included a season-high 75 receiving yards on eight receptions.

Brown registered a season-best 130 scrimmage yards in Week 12 vs. New England to tie for the longest streak in team history, then pushed it to a record sixth straight game with 113 yards in the Week 13 victory at Baltimore.

Here is a look at the most consecutive games with at least 100 yards from scrimmage in Bengals history:

Turner shuts it down: CB DJ Turner II leads the NFL with 17 PDs this season. It is the most PDs by a Bengals player since the 2009 campaign, when CB Leon Hall had 24 and CB Johnathan Joseph had 20. Hall also is the last Cincinnati player to finish a season as the league leader in PDs, with 24 in 2008.

Turner additionally has recorded his first two career INTs this season, with the first coming late in the fourth quarter of Week 1 at Cleveland to help the Bengals protect a one-point lead. His second pick occurred in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, when he wrestled the ball away from WR DK Metcalf in Cincinnati territory just before halftime.

In Week 6 at Green Bay, Turner notched a career-best five PDs. He became the first Bengals player with five PDs in a game since Joseph had five on Nov. 8, 2009, in a win over Baltimore. Turner also is one of five players in the NFL this season to record five PDs in a game. No player in the league had that many PDs in any contest last season.

Turner also has contributed to two other takeaways for Cincinnati this season, as he recovered a fumble late in Week 13 at Baltimore to help seal a Bengals win, then the following week at Buffalo he logged his first career forced fumble which was recovered in the Bengals' end zone.

A 2023 second-round draft pick of the Bengals, Turner totaled 15 PDs through his first two seasons, with seven in his '23 rookie campaign followed by eight in '24. He missed the final six games of last season due to a collarbone injury, but has returned to play in all 14 contests with 13 starts this year.

Here is a look at the NFL leaders in PDs this season:

PLAYER	TEAM	PASSES DEFENSED
DJ Turner II	Cincinnati Bengals.....	17
Tyson Campbell	Jacksonville Jaguars/Cleveland Browns .....	16
Keisean Nixon	Green Bay Packers .....	16

Charlie's 98-yard dash: WR Charlie Jones got the Bengals' Week 9 contest against Chicago underway with a 98-yard return for a TD on the game's opening kickoff. It marked his second career TD on a KOR, following a 100-yard return on the opening kickoff in Week 7 of the 2024 season at Cleveland.

Here are some notable facts on the play:

- It was the 14th TD on a KOR in Bengals history.
- It was the third time in team history (and first in a home game) that the Bengals returned the game's opening kickoff for a TD. The other instances were Jones' 2024 runback against the Browns, and former S Brandon Wilson's 92-yarder on Oct. 13, 2019 at Baltimore.
- It tied for the sixth-longest KOR in team history, alongside a 98-yard TD return by former HB Stanford Jennings on Nov. 13, 1988 at Kansas City.
- Jones became the third player in team history with multiple KORs for a TD in his Bengals career, joining Wilson and former S/CB Tremaine Mack, who both also had two.
- Jones became the first player in team history with multiple KORs of 98 or more yards.

• Jones also had an 81-yard punt return TD in Week 2 of the 2023 season vs. Baltimore. He joined former CB Lemar Parrish as the only players in Bengals history with three or more returns for TDs. Parrish had four TDs on PRs and one on a KOR.

• Jones' return against the Bears was the longest KOR in the NFL this season at the time, and now is tied for the third-longest behind Seattle WR Rashid Shaheed's 100-yarder in Week 14 and N.Y. Jets RB Kene Nwangwu's 99-yarder in Week 10.

• According to the NFL's Next Gen Stats service, which tracks players' speeds using GPS, Jones' top speed on the return was 21.78 mph, making him the ninth-fastest ball carrier in the league this season.

McPherson sets team record: K Evan McPherson became the first Bengals kicker to enter the 60-yard FG club when he booted a franchise-record 63-yarder as the first half ended in Week 12 vs. New England. He surpassed the previous team mark of 59 yards, which he originally set in the 2022 season opener against Pittsburgh, and which was later tied by K Cade York in Week 16 of last season against Cleveland.

McPherson opened the scoring against the Patriots with a 54-yard FG in the first quarter. He became the fourth kicker in NFL history with FGs from at least 50 yards and at least 60 yards in the same game. With a 52-yarder four days later in the Thanksgiving win at Baltimore, he now has 28 career FGs from a distance of 50 or more yards, which are the most in a career in Bengals history and tied for the sixth-most in the NFL since he entered the league as a fifth-round draft pick of Cincinnati in 2021.

Overall for his career, McPherson has made 117 of 141 FG attempts, good for the third-highest percentage in team history (83.0). He has made each of his last 20 attempts from inside of 50 yards, dating back to Week 13 of last season. That is the second-longest such streak of his career, behind a stretch of 24 consecutive made FGs inside of 50 from Week 18 of the 2022 season through Week 2 of '24.

McPherson logged his 100th career made FG in Week 6 of this season at Green Bay. Playing in his 67th regular-season game, he became the fifth-fastest kicker in Bengals history to reach that milestone.

Referred to by fans as "Money Mac," McPherson also is a perfect 19-for-19 on FG attempts in the postseason and is Cincinnati's all-time leader in postseason scoring (69 points). He has seven career game-winning "walk-off" FGs (including postseason), with the two most memorable coming in the 2021 AFC Divisional Playoff at Tennessee (52 yards) and the following week in the AFC Championship at Kansas City (31 yards).

McPherson now owns six of the eight longest made kicks in Bengals history. His 63-yarder in Week 12 against New England was the fourth-longest made FG in the NFL this season.

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Nov. 23, 2025	vs. New England Patriots .....	63
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers.....	59

Money Mac goes 6-6 on Thanksgiving: K Evan McPherson went a perfect six-for-six on FG attempts in the Bengals' Week 13 win at Baltimore on Thanksgiving night. His six made FGs were a career high and tied for the second-most in a game in Bengals history, matching former K Doug Pelfrey's total on Nov. 6, 1994 at Seattle. Cincinnati's single-game record for made FGs is seven, by former K Shayne Graham on Nov. 11, 2007 at Baltimore.

Adding in his two PATs, McPherson accounted for 20 points on the night, the second-most in a game by a Bengals kicker behind Graham's 21 in that 2007 road win over the Ravens. McPherson knocked through FGs from 31, 42, 24, 33, 52 and 41 yards, with four of those coming in the first half to help give the Bengals a 12-7 lead at the break.

The effort earned McPherson his fourth career AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award. His 20 points scored are the most by any NFL kicker in a game this season, while his six made FGs are tied with Seattle K Jason Myers (Week 15) for the most.

McPherson's previous career high for FGs in a game was four, which he recorded on four occasions, most recently in Week 7 of this season against Pittsburgh.

Here is a look at the most made FGs in a game in Bengals history:

Rehkwow's ranks: P Ryan Rehkwow has punted 54 times for 2770 yards this season, with 19 punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He leads the NFL in gross punting average (51.29 yards per punt; minimum 40 punts), while his 42.3 net punting average is tied for 10th league-wide.

Rehkwow has delivered 14 punts this season which have traveled a gross distance of at least 60 yards. He has improved his career inside-20 punt total to 44, which ranks as the fifth-most by a Bengal since the statistic began being tracked in 1976.

As a rookie in 2024, Rehkwow set Bengals single-season records for gross punting average (49.11 yards) and net average (42.92 yards). Both figures surpassed former P Kevin Huber's previous records set in the 2020 season. Rehkwow also had 25 inside-20 punts last year compared to five touchbacks.

After signing with the Bengals as a free agent on the third day of training camp in 2024, Rehkwow made his NFL debut in Week 1 of last season against New England. That day, he punted four times for 258 yards, setting an NFL single-game record with 64.5 gross yards per attempt (minimum four punts). The previous league record belonged to Las Vegas P AJ Cole, who had a 63.6-yard average in Week 9 of the 2023 campaign. Rehkwow's performance in the 2024 opener also included the longest punt in Bengals history, an 80-yarder kicked from his own 20-yard line to the Patriots' end zone.

Rehkwow finished his 2024 rookie season ranking sixth in the NFL in net punting average and ninth in gross average.

Taylor nets 50th win: Cincinnati's Week 13 win at Baltimore marked the 50th regular-season victory in Zac Taylor's head coaching career. Taylor, who became head coach of the Bengals on Feb. 4, 2019, is the fourth head coach in team history to amass 50 regular-season wins, joining Paul Brown, Sam Wyche and Marvin Lewis.

Taylor's first victory as a head coach came in Week 13 of the 2019 season, when he led Cincinnati to a 22-6 result over the N.Y. Jets. He steered the Bengals to a combined 40 regular-season wins from 2021-24, the second-most over a four-year period in team history behind 43 wins from '12-15. With a winning record in each season from 2021-24, he joined Lewis ('11-15) as the only Bengals coaches to guide their team to a mark above .500 in at least four straight years.

Of Taylor's 50 regular-season wins, 27 were in games played at home and 23 were on the road. He additionally led the Bengals to five postseason wins following the 2021 and '22 seasons, with three of those coming on the road.

The Jungle can jam ... : The Bengals had an announced attendance figure of 65,000 or more in 30 consecutive regular-season home games from Week 1 of the 2022 campaign through Week 12 of this season. Karras named Club Winner for WPMOY: The Bengals announced C Ted Karras as the team's Club Winner for the 2025 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered the league's most prestigious honor, the award recognizes players who excel on the field and demonstrate a commitment to making a positive impact beyond the game.

Karras, who previously was the Bengals' nominee in 2023, has served as a consistent figure in the Cincinnati community during his four seasons with the team. In October 2024, he helped officially launch The Cincy Hat Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing education and infrastructure to adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in the area. His long-lasting commitment to supporting adults with IDD first became widely publicized in 2022, when he began selling his fan-favorite Cincy Hat to benefit Village of Merici, a living community and service provider based in his hometown of Indianapolis.

To date, over 100,000 Cincy Hats have been sold, generating over $3.3 million in revenue. This past year, The Cincy Hat Foundation collaborated with over 150 businesses, nonprofits and schools, which has helped turn a once viral fashion trend into an enduring fundraising mechanism for local initiatives. The momentum of the foundation has allowed Karras to explore opportunities for affordable housing infrastructure in the Cincinnati region, with the first development scheduled to get underway in the spring of 2026 in nearby Madisonville, Ohio.

Three players in Bengals history have been named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year — QB Ken Anderson in 1975, LB Reggie Williams in '86 and OT Anthony Munoz in '91.

Lapham, Parrish enter Bengals Ring of Honor: A pair of Bengals legends in former OT Dave Lapham and CB Lemar Parrish were inducted into the team's Ring of Honor at halftime of Cincinnati's Week 8 game against the N.Y. Jets. They became the 11th and 12th members of the Bengals Ring of Honor, which was established in 2021 in recognition of former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition.

Lapham, who is in his 50th season with the Bengals in 2025, is one of the team's most popular and beloved historical figures. He was a versatile offensive linemen who donned the stripes from 1974-83, lining up at all five O-line positions during his 140-game career. He served as the team's starting left guard in 1981, when the Bengals advanced to Super Bowl XVI. After his playing career, Lapham moved into the team's radio broadcast booth, where he has worked ever since. Often known as "Mr. Bengal," he has been the team's radio analyst since 1986.

Parrish, known by fans as "Leapin' Lamar," is remembered as one of the most athletically gifted and exciting players in team history. He remains the franchise's highest scoring defensive player, with TD returns on four INTs, four punts, three fumble recoveries and one kickoff. His 18.8-yard punt return average in 1974 still is the best mark by any player in a season since the '70 NFL/AFL merger. He tallied 25 INTs as a member of the Bengals, the fifth-most in team history, and his six Pro Bowl selections are the second-most by a Cincinnati defensive player.

Ring of Honor inductees have been voted in each offseason since 2021 by Bengals Season Ticket Members. Lapham and Parrish joined previous inductees QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, HB Corey Dillon, QB Boomer Esiason, WR Chad Johnson, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Munoz and CB Ken Riley.

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Sixth-year QB Joe Burrow has started the past three games after spending the previous nine contests on the Reserve/Injured list due to a toe injury sustained in Week 2. In his return to action in Week 13 at Baltimore, he completed 24 of 46 passes for 261 yards and two TDs with no INTs, then followed up with season highs in completions (25), passing yards (284) and TD passes (four) in Week 14 at Buffalo. His season totals through five starts include 95 completions on 157 attempts for 959 yards and eight TDs with four picks. The No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft, Burrow has earned two Pro Bowl selections ('22 and '24) and has twice been named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year ('21 and '24). Known primarily for his passing accuracy, he is the NFL's all-time leader in career completion percentage (68.2; minimum 1500 attempts). In 2024, he led the league and set Bengals single-season records in passing attempts (652), completions (460), passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43). Eighteenth-year veteran Joe Flacco started six games for Cincinnati this season (Weeks 6-12) after being acquired in a trade with Cleveland on Oct. 7. In his six Bengals starts, Flacco completed 61.6 percent of his passes (154 of 250) for 1636 yards and 13 TDs with four INTs. At 40 years of age (born Jan. 16, 1985), he is the oldest QB to start a game in Bengals history. He began the season starting the Browns' first four games. He originally was a first-round draft pick of Baltimore in 2008 and spent his first 11 seasons with the Ravens, before stints with Denver ('19), the N.Y. Jets ('20-22), Cleveland ('23 and '25) and Indianapolis ('24). He won Super Bowl MVP honors after helping lead Baltimore to a title in the 2012 campaign, and in '23 he was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year after helping steer the Browns to a playoff berth. QB Jake Browning started three games for Cincinnati this season prior to Flacco's acquisition. He stepped into action following Burrow's injury in Week 2 against Jacksonville, and in that game passed for 241 yards and scored the game-winning TD on a QB sneak with 18 seconds remaining. Browning's totals on the season include 81 completions on 125 attempts (64.8 percent) for 771 yards and six TDs with eight INTs. He had a previous stint as the Bengals' starter in 2023, as he started the final seven games of that regular season and piloted the team to a 4-3 record. He spent his first four pro seasons on the practice squads of the Bengals ('21-22) and Minnesota Vikings ('19-20).

Running backs: HB Chase Brown is in his third pro season and first as Cincinnati's primary running back. A dynamic all-around threat, he recently reached 1000 yards from scrimmage for a second straight year, as he has 780 rushing yards on 185 carries along with 336 receiving yards on 58 receptions. He recorded at least 100 scrimmage yards in six consecutive games from Weeks 7-13, which marked the longest such streak in Bengals history and is the second-longest streak by any NFL player this season. Brown took over as the team's starting HB midway through the 2024 season, and in Weeks 9-17 of last year he ranked fourth in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (116.3). His twin brother, Sydney Brown, was his teammate at the University of Illinois and currently plays safety for the Philadelphia Eagles. The Bengals welcomed back a familiar face during the offseason when they signed ninth-year HB Samaje Perine. Perine previously had a four-year stint with Cincinnati (2019-22), before spending the '23 season with Denver and '24 with Kansas City. Listed at 5-11, 240 pounds, he is a physical back who contributes both as a pass blocker on third down and as a rotational ball-carrier. This season, Perine has 310 rushing yards and 53 receiving yards, and in Week 7 he surpassed 2000 career rushing yards. His season-high 94 rushing yards in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets were the fifth-most in any game of his career, and the most since Week 13 of the 2022 campaign. A sixth-round draft pick of the Bengals this year, HB Tahj Brooks has played in 13 games as a rookie, missing the Week 13 matchup at Baltimore due to a concussion. He has totaled nine rushing attempts for 28 yards along with nine KORs for 217 yards (24.1-average). He had a record-setting collegiate career at Texas Tech, where he set school records for rushing attempts (879), rushing yards (4557) and 100-yard rushing games (23). He earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2023 and second-team accolades in '24, and in both years he was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award (nation's top running back).

Wide receivers: Cincinnati's 2021 first-round draft choice Ja'Marr Chase has been selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons and broken several Bengals single-season records early in his pro career. He played in his 75th career regular-season game in Week 15 vs. Baltimore, and among all players in NFL history through their first 75 contests, Chase ranks second in receptions (496), fourth in receiving yards (6572) and 10th in receiving TDs (51). He joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss as the only players in league history with at least 6500 receiving yards and 50 TD catches in their first five seasons. Chase recently eclipsed 100 catches for a third straight year, and he became the fifth player ever to reach the 1000-yard receiving mark in each of his first five seasons. In 2024, was the youngest player in the Super Bowl era (24 years old) to win the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led the league in catches (127), yards (1708) and TDs (17). He signed a four-year contract extension with the Bengals on March 18 of this year, the same day that his running mate Tee Higgins re-signed on a four-year deal. Higgins has missed two games recently due to injury, but still is tied for fourth in the NFL with nine receiving TDs this season. He had a career-long streak of four consecutive games with at least one TD catch from Weeks 7-11. In Week 9, he eclipsed 5000 career receiving yards in his 79th regular-season game, becoming the fifth-fastest player in Bengals history to reach that milestone. Since entering the NFL as a second-round pick of Cincinnati in 2020, Higgins is tied for ninth in the league in receiving TDs (43) and ranks 16th in receiving yards (5262). Andre Iosivas is in his third NFL season and continues to build on a promising sophomore campaign. He ranks third on the team with 363 receiving yards on 26 catches, after posting 36 receptions for 479 yards and six TDs in 2024. He has carved out a niche for getting open in the low red zone, as 11 of his 12 career TD catches have come on plays inside the opponent's 10-yard line. In Week 13 at Baltimore, he caught a career-long 29-yard TD pass from Burrow to extend Cincinnati's lead in the third quarter. He was a two-sport athlete at Princeton, as in addition to his All-Ivy League football resume, he earned All-America honors as a heptathlete for the Tigers' track and field program. Mitch Tinsley earned a roster spot coming out of this past training camp and preseason, and through 14 regular-season games played he has eight receptions for 116 yards and two TDs. His first career reception was a 13-yard one-handed TD grab in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville, and he found the end zone again on a 17-yard scoring pass from Flacco in Week 12 vs. New England. Tinsley joined the Bengals on a Reserve/Future contract in February, and turned heads in the team's second preseason game at Washington when he had two highlight-reel TDs. He originally was a college free agent signee of the Commanders in 2023 and played in two games as a rookie, then spent the '24 season on their practice squad. Tinsley finished his college career at Penn State in 2022, after previous stops at Hutchinson Community College in Kansas ('18-19) and Western Kentucky University ('20-21). Third-year receiver Charlie Jones has served as the Bengals' primary return specialist since being selected in the fourth round of the 2023 draft, but he also has contributed eight career receptions for 69 yards. He saw action in the first eight games of 2024, before suffering a groin injury that kept him out of the final nine contests. In 2022, his final collegiate season which he spent at Purdue University, Jones led the FBS in receptions (110), ranked second in receiving yards (1361) and fifth in receiving TDs (12).

Tight ends: A 2019 second-round draft pick of the Bengals, Drew Sample has played in 92 career regular-season games with 61 starts and earned a reputation as a reliable blocking TE. He took over the top spot on the depth chart in the second half of the 2023 season and has started in 34 of his last 40 appearances. In addition to his blocking responsibilities, he has 109 career receptions for 780 yards and five TDs. He missed most of the 2022 campaign due to a knee injury, but returned at the start of the '23 season and has suited up for each of Cincinnati's last 45 games. Now in his seventh season, Sample is the Bengals' longest-tenured player. Eight-year veteran Mike Gesicki made his return in Week 12 vs. New England, after spending the previous four games on the Reserve/Injured list with a pectoral injury. He enjoyed his top statistical performance of the season in Week 14 at Buffalo, when he caught six passes for 86 yards and his first TD of the year. His season totals include 21 receptions for 212 yards in 10 games played. A 2024 free agent signee, Gesicki logged 65 catches for 665 yards and two TDs in his debut Bengals campaign, with his receptions total marking the second-most ever in a season by a Cincinnati TE (Dan Ross, 71 in 1981). He entered the NFL as a second-round pick of Miami in 2018, and spent his first five seasons ('18-22) with the Dolphins before playing for the Patriots in '23. Noah Fant signed with the Bengals as a free agent in late July of this year and quickly built a rapport with Cincinnati's quarterbacks. He has 33 catches for 283 yards and three TDs in 12 games played, with his most recent scoring grab coming in Week 9 vs. Chicago. A former first-round pick of Denver in 2019 (No. 20 overall), Fant spent three seasons with the Broncos ('19-21) and three with Seattle ('22-24). He has played in 108 career games with 89 starts, and his career totals include 333 receptions for 3588 yards and 18 TDs. After being held off the stat sheet through the first five games of this season, sixth-year TE Tanner Hudson scored a TD on his first catch of the year, a two-yarder from Flacco in Week 6 at Green Bay. He now has 16 receptions for 133 yards and two TDs over his last seven games, including a one-handed 14-yard TD grab in Week 13 at Baltimore. He enjoyed his best statistical seasons in 2023 and '24 with Cincinnati, as he posted career highs in catches (39) and yards (352) in '23, then followed up with 19 for 154 in '24. Hudson joined the Bengals' practice squad late in 2022, after spending time with Tampa Bay ('18-20), San Francisco ('19) and the N.Y. Giants ('22). He won Super Bowl LV with the Buccaneers (2020 season), seeing action in each of their four postseason games. Cam Grandy began his 2024 rookie season on the Bengals' practice squad, then signed to the active roster midway through the year and went on to play in eight games with six starts. He has six catches for 34 yards in his career, and this season has seen action in three contests with one start. Grandy was an All-American at the FCS level with Illinois State University.

Offensive linemen: Four-time Pro Bowler Orlando Brown Jr. has started all 41 games he has played in for Cincinnati at LOT. Brown signed with the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2023, after spending his first three NFL seasons ('18-20) with Baltimore and then two ('21-22) with Kansas City. He made his first 33 career starts at ROT for the Ravens before transitioning midway through the 2020 campaign to LOT, where he has lined up for each of his last 84 regular-season games played. He has played all 905 offensive snaps through Cincinnati's first 14 games this season. His father, the late Orlando Brown Sr., played nine NFL seasons (1994-99, 2003-05), spending time with Cleveland and Baltimore. The nucleus of the O-line is C Ted Karras, who is in his fourth season with the Bengals and 10th in the NFL in 2025. Karras has been voted a team captain in each of his four years with Cincinnati, as he became a vocal leader in the locker room almost instantaneously after signing with the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2022. On field, he has started 67 consecutive games at center for the Bengals, lining up for 99.6 percent of the team's offensive snaps in that span (4419 of 4438). Off the field, he has twice been named the team's Club Winner for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023 and '25), in recognition of his charitable efforts through his fan-favorite "Cincy Hat." Karras spent five of his first six pro seasons with New England, where he won a pair of Super Bowls in 2016 and '18. The starting ROT is second-year pro Amarius Mims, who was Cincinnati's first-round draft choice in 2024 (No. 18 overall). Mims began his rookie season in a reserve role, but has started 27 of his last 28 games played. He came to the Bengals following three seasons (2021-23) at the University of Georgia, where he played in 29 career games and was part of back-to-back national championship teams ('21-22). Listed at 6-8, 350 pounds, he is tied with Brown as both the tallest and heaviest player on the Bengals' roster. Fellow rookie Dylan Fairchild was taken in the third round of this year's draft and started at LG in each of the first five games of the season, before missing the Week 6 contest at Green Bay due to a knee injury. He then was active/DNP in Week 7, and returned to the starting lineup in Week 8. In 2024, his final season at the University of Georgia, he earned second-team All-America honors while blocking for a Bulldogs offense that ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in net passing yards per game (281.0). In addition to being a football standout at West Forsyth High School in Cumming, Ga., Fairchild was a two-time Georgia state champion wrestler in the Class 7A heavyweight division. G Dalton Risner signed with the Bengals as a free agent in late August and has served as a versatile asset on the interior of the O-line. He has played in 11 games with eight starts, lining up for substantial amounts of snaps at both guard positions. Risner originally was a second-round draft pick of Denver in 2019 and spent his first four pro seasons ('19-22) with the Broncos, before playing for Minnesota from '23-24. He has played in 98 career regular-season games with 89 starts — 75 at LG and 14 at RG. Rookie Jalen Rivers has seen action in 13 games with seven starts at RG this season, lining up for 457 offensive snaps. A fifth-round pick of the Bengals in April, he boasted a proven ability to play at both tackle and guard spots during his college career at the University of Miami (Fla.). He was the Hurricanes' starting LOT his final two seasons, and picked up second-team All-ACC honors in 2023 followed by honorable mention all-conference in '24. He suited up for 38 total games with 29 starts over five seasons (2020-24) at Miami. C Lucas Patrick, who started this year's opener at RG, was sidelined for six games due to a calf injury sustained at Cleveland. He was returned to the active roster from the Reserve/Injured list in Week 7, then made his return to game action in Week 8. Patrick joined the Bengals in this year's free agency period, after spending previous seasons with Green Bay (2016-21), Chicago ('22-23) and New Orleans ('24). He has played in 111 career regular-season games, and his 65 total starts have included 28 at center, 19 at LG and 18 at RG. A veteran with valuable position versatility is OT Cody Ford, whose nine starts for the Bengals in 2024 included five at LOT, two at LG, one at ROT and one as a tackle-eligible third TE. Ford entered the league as a second-round draft pick of Buffalo in 2019 and spent his first three seasons with the Bills, before being traded to Arizona during training camp in '22. He signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent in 2023 and saw action in all 17 contests during his debut season with the Bengals. He filled in for an injured Mims to play 20 offensive snaps in Week 15 vs. Baltimore, and has charted 40 offensive snaps along with 55 special teams snaps through 14 games this season. Ford was college teammates with Brown Jr. at the University of Oklahoma from 2015-17.

Defensive linemen: Fifth-year DE Joseph Ossai leads the team with five sacks this season. He recorded his first career multi-sack game in Week 13 at Baltimore, including a strip-sack that was recovered by Cincinnati deep in Ravens territory. He now has 10 sacks over his last 21 games played, dating back to Week 11 of the 2024 campaign. Originally a third-round pick of the Bengals in 2021, Ossai missed his entire rookie year due to a knee injury, but has since been out of the lineup for just three games in the past three-plus seasons. He was born in Nigeria (Keti Ijanikin, Lagos), and moved to the United States at age 10 — the same year he saw his first football game. Anchoring the D-line is eighth-year DT B.J. Hill, who was acquired by Cincinnati in a trade with the N.Y. Giants prior to the start of the 2021 season. After seeing action primarily as a reserve DT in his first Bengals season, Hill has started each of his last 68 games played, including six postseason contests. A productive pass rusher from the interior of the D-line, he has totaled 19 sacks as a Bengal, with his most recent coming in Week 14 at Buffalo. He leads the team's D-line with 54 tackles this season, which includes three sacks and four TFLs. Among the notable free agent acquisitions this year for the Bengals was DT T.J. Slaton Jr., who joined the Bengals after spending his first four pro seasons (2021-24) with Green Bay. Originally a fifth-round pick of the Packers in 2021, he has played in 82 regular-season games with 50 starts, including a current streak of 49 starts which began late in '22. He got in the sack column for the first time as a Bengal in Week 14 at Buffalo, as he brought down QB Josh Allen for a two-yard loss in the third quarter. He has 40 total tackles on the year, highlighted by a season-best eight stops in Week 5 vs. Detroit. DE Myles Murphy, Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2023, has strung together several strong performances in the back half of the season, including his first career multi-sack game in Week 15 vs. Baltimore. He has totaled 21 tackles with three sacks over the past six games, which included a career-high seven stops in Week 11 at Pittsburgh. He missed the early part of the 2024 season due to an injury, but has played in 27 consecutive games since returning to the lineup. In 44 career games, he has 76 tackles with eight TFLs and 7.5 sacks. Murphy amassed 17.5 career sacks at Clemson University, where he earned first-team All-ACC honors in his final season in 2022. DT Kris Jenkins Jr., the Bengals' second-round pick in 2024, has played in 29 games with 13 starts to begin his career. He contributed three sacks as a rookie, then got in the sack column for the first time this season in Week 3 at Minnesota. He has 67 total tackles in his young career, with 10 coming over the past four games. In his final season at the University of Michigan in 2023, Jenkins earned second-team All-America honors and helped lead the Wolverines to a national title. His father, Kris Jenkins Sr., was a four-time Pro Bowler during his 10-year playing career (2001-10) as a DT for Carolina and the N.Y. Jets. Fifth-year DE Cam Sample made his return to the field at the start of this season after missing the entire 2024 campaign due to an Achilles injury. A 2021 Bengals fourth-round pick, Sample has played in 58 career games as a rotational lineman and has 77 tackles with five sacks. He has suited up for 11 games this season and has nine tackles with one TFL. He has been inactive for three contests this year, two of which were due to an oblique injury. Second-year DE Cedric Johnson, a sixth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2024, spent the first eight games of this season on the Reserve/Injured list due to a calf injury, then made his season debut in Week 9 and has played in the past six contests. In addition to his six tackles on the year, he recorded his first two FRs in the first half of the Week 13 win at Baltimore. He saw action in nine games as a rookie last season and logged six tackles with one sack. DT McKinnley Jackson, a third-round pick of the Bengals in 2024, has seen action in six games this season and totaled five tackles. He played in 13 contests as a rookie last year and contributed 15 tackles, two TFLs, one sack and one FF, earning an increased role in the back half of the season. He was a two-time team captain at Texas A&M, where he played in 40 career games. The Bengals acquired DT Jordan Jefferson on waivers from San Francisco prior to Week 5 of this season. Originally a fourth-round draft pick of Jacksonville in 2024, he saw limited action for the Jaguars (2024) and 49ers ('25) before arriving in Cincinnati. He made his Bengals debut in Week 9 vs. Chicago, then has been active/DNP for Weeks 11-14 and not active for Week 15. Jefferson finished his college career at Louisiana State in 2023, following four seasons ('19-22) at West Virginia University. Third-year DE Isaiah Foskey signed to the active roster off the practice squad in mid-November and has lined up for 42 special teams snaps through five games played. Foskey joined the practice squad in early September, after spending his first two NFL seasons in 2023 and '24 with New Orleans. He originally was a second-round draft choice of the Saints in 2023 and played in 27 games in his first two years as a rotational pass rusher and special teams contributor. In his final season at Notre Dame (2022), he played under current Bengals defensive coordinator and then-Fighting Irish defensive coordinator Al Golden.

Linebackers: Rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. was selected by the Bengals in the second round of this year's draft and has started 11 of his first 14 career games. His 94 tackles this season lead Cincinnati's LBs and rank second among all NFL rookies. He also has two INTs, which came in Week 4 at Denver and Week 13 at Baltimore, and posted his first two career sacks in the Bengals' most recent game against the Ravens. He has totaled 10 or more tackles in three games, led by a career-best 12 stops in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. Knight shot up draft boards following a breakout 2024 campaign at the University of South Carolina, where he ranked second on the team with 82 tackles in his lone season with the Gamecocks. He spent his first four college seasons (2019-22) at Georgia Tech, then played at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in '23. He was a four-year starter at QB in high school, then transitioned to LB early in his college career. Fellow rookie Barrett Carter has started the past nine games, and his 89 tackles on the season rank third among all rookies. He posted a career-high 16 tackles in Week 12 vs. New England, which tied for the fourth-most in a game by a Bengals player since at least 1994. Cincinnati's fourth-round draft pick this past April, Carter put together a decorated final season at Clemson in 2024, as he was a team captain, first-team All-ACC pick, third-team All-American and a finalist for the Butkus Award (nation's top LB). Eighth-year LB Oren Burks signed with the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent in March, after helping Philadelphia win Super Bowl LIX the previous month. He was a key performer for the Eagles during their playoff run, as he recorded 24 tackles, three TFLs, one sack and two FFs (one defensive, one on kickoff coverage) in four postseason games. He entered the NFL as a third-round pick of Green Bay in 2018 and spent his first four pro seasons with the Packers ('18-21), before playing for San Francisco from '22-23. He has played in all 14 games with seven starts for Cincinnati this season and has 32 total tackles, one PD, one FF and one FR. He had his first takeaway as a member of the Bengals in Week 14 at Buffalo, recovering a fumble in the Cincinnati end zone late in the third quarter. LB Joe Giles-Harris signed with the Bengals as a free agent in April, after spending one week on the team's practice squad last season. He has seen action in 29 games in his pro career, totaling 20 defensive tackles and 22 special teams stops. He originally was a college free agent signee of the Jaguars in 2019, and had previous stints with Jacksonville (2019-20, '24), Buffalo ('21-22) and New England ('23-24). He made his 2025 season debut in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets and has played in seven games this season, recording 12 special teams tackles. LB Shaka Heyward returned to play in Week 15 vs. Baltimore, after spending the previous five games on Reserve/Injured due to a fibula injury. He has 10 special teams tackles in nine games played this season. A 2023 college free agent signee out of Duke University, Heyward spent his entire rookie campaign and part of the '24 season on Cincinnati's practice squad, before moving to the active roster in the back-half of last year.

Cornerbacks: CB DJ Turner II is enjoying a breakout campaign in his third pro season, as he currently leads the league with a career-high 17 PDs. He recorded five of those in Week 6 at Green Bay, becoming the first Bengals player with five PDs in a game since CB Johnathan Joseph in 2009. After missing the final six games of last season due to a collarbone injury, Turner opened this year with his first career INT to help seal the Week 1 win at Cleveland late in the fourth quarter. He then collected his second pick of the year in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh. He originally was a second-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2023 and has played in 42 career games with 31 starts. He ran the fastest time in the 40-yard dash at the 2023 NFL Combine (4.26 seconds). A teammate of Turner's at the University of Michigan was Dax Hill, who spent his first two Bengals seasons at safety before making the transition to CB ahead of the '24 campaign. Hill missed the final 12 games of the 2024 campaign due to a knee injury, but returned to full participation this past training camp and has started all 14 contests in '25. He leads the team's CBs with 76 tackles this season, while also recording seven PDs and an INT. Cincinnati's first-round draft choice in 2022, he contributed primarily on special teams as a rookie before starting all 17 games at safety in '23. Fifth-year CB Jalen Davis signed to the active roster prior to Week 14, after spending the first 13 weeks of the season on Cincinnati's practice squad. He has played in four games this year, including two as a practice squad elevation, and has logged nine tackles, one sack and one FF. His forced fumble came late in the fourth quarter of Week 13 at Baltimore and was recovered by the Bengals, helping punctuate a dominant defensive effort. Davis spent time with Miami (2018) and Arizona ('19), before joining the Bengals midway through the '20 season. He has had stints on the team's practice squad and active roster over the past five years, but saw action in 43 regular-season contests from 2021-23. Overall in his career, he has played in 61 games and registered 32 defensive tackles along with four special teams stops. CB Josh Newton, who the Bengals selected in the fifth round of the 2024 draft, played in 29 consecutive games to begin his career, before he was active/DNP in Cincinnati's Week 14 game at Buffalo. Newton stepped into the starting lineup for the final six games last season following Turner's injury, and in that stretch he recorded five PDs and his first career INT. He has 11 tackles, two PDs and four ST stops through 13 games (two starts) in 2025. He spent his final two collegiate seasons (2022-23) at Texas Christian University, where he started all 27 games he played in. CB DJ Ivey made his return to action midway through the 2024 season, after recovering from a knee injury sustained late in the '23 campaign. A 2023 seventh-round draft pick of the Bengals out of the University of Miami (Fla.), he has carved out a role on special teams and has nine career ST tackles in addition to six defensive stops. Ivey sealed Cincinnati's win over Pittsburgh in Week 7 of this season, as he knocked down a Steelers Hail Mary attempt as time expired.

Safeties: Geno Stone has started all 31 games he has played in for the Bengals since joining the team as an unrestricted free agent in the 2024 offseason. He led Cincinnati with four INTs last year (tied for 10th in NFL), and has two picks through 14 contests this season. He notched his second career pick-six in Week 12 vs. New England, when he intercepted QB Drake Maye's pass and returned it 32 yards for a score. He also posted a career-high 13 tackles against the Patriots. Stone spent his first four pro seasons (2020-23) with Baltimore, and emerged as a premier ball-hawking safety in '23 when his career-high seven INTs led the AFC. His 13 total INTs since the start of the 2023 campaign are tied for the second-most in the NFL. In addition to his two INTs this season, he has a career-high 97 tackles, four TFLs, two sacks and three PDs. Stone's fellow starting safety, Jordan Battle, leads the team this season in tackles (102) and INTs (four). His first two picks came in the first two games of the season, as he became the first Bengals player to start a year with INTs in back-to-back games since former CB Ashley Ambrose in 1996. A third-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, Battle has played in 48 career games (27 starts) and has 224 total tackles along with six INTs. He was a team captain and third-team All-American in his final season at the University of Alabama (2022). Fourth-year pro Tycen Anderson is a special teams ace and rotational safety. He has led the Bengals in special teams tackles in each of the past two years, and his team-high 16 ST stops this season are tied for 10th-most in the NFL. He missed his entire rookie regular season in 2022 due to a knee injury, but recovered in time for the start of the following training camp and had two INTs in the '23 preseason opener. He was the recipient of the team's 2024 Ed Block Courage Award, in recognition of his dedication and work ethic during his injury rehab process. PJ Jules cracked the 53-man roster for the first time this year, after spending his entire rookie season in 2024 on the Bengals' practice squad. A 2024 college free agent signee, he was a consensus first-team FCS All-American and first-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference choice at Southern Illinois University in 2023. He has 14 special teams tackles and two defensive tackles through 13 regular-season games in 2025, after leading Cincinnati with 10 solo stops this past preseason. Second-year S Daijahn Anthony made his season debut in Week 13 at Baltimore, after spending the first 12 games on the Reserve/Injured list due to a hamstring injury. He has lined up for 32 special teams snaps through his first three games back in the lineup. As a rookie last season, Anthony played in 13 games and contributed primarily on special teams. He was a 2024 seventh-round pick, after a five-year college career in which he worked his way from Division II Shepherd University ('19-20) to Liberty University ('21-22) to the University of Mississippi ('23).

Special teams: A fifth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2021, K Evan McPherson owns the third-highest career FG percentage in team history (83.0). He is 23-for-26 on FG attempts and a perfect 31-for-31 on PATs this season. In Week 12 vs. New England, he kicked a franchise-record 63-yard FG as the first half ended, and became the fourth kicker in NFL history with FGs from distances of at least 50 yards and at least 60 yards in a single game. He now has 28 career FGs from 50 or more yards, the most in Bengals history and tied for the sixth-most in the NFL since the start of his 2021 rookie season. McPherson followed up his franchise record with a career-high six made FGs in Week 13 at Baltimore, which earned him his fourth career AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award. He has been operating at full health this season, after missing the final five games of 2024 due to a groin injury. Second-year P Ryan Rehkow is tied for the NFL lead in gross punting average this season (51.3 yards per punt; minimum 40 punts) and ranks eighth leaguewide in net average (42.3). He has 19 punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line compared to 11 touchbacks. As a rookie in 2024, he set Bengals single-season punting records for both gross (49.11) and net (42.92) average, helping him earn a spot on the Pro Football Writers of American All-Rookie Team. In his career debut on Sept. 8, 2024 against New England, Rehkow set an NFL single-game record with 64.5 yards per punt (minimum four punts). Rookie William Wagner earned the role as the Bengals' long snapper coming out of this past training camp, and through his first 14 career games he has recorded 111 snaps without an unplayable delivery. He spent six seasons (2019-24) at the University of Michigan, where he saw action in 53 total games. In 2024, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors while being named a finalist for the Mannelly Award (nation's top LS). WR Charlie Jones serves as Cincinnati's primary kickoff and punt returner. In Week 9 vs. Chicago, he ran back the opening kickoff 98 yards for a TD and finished the day with a career-best 179 yards on four KORs. It marked his third career TD on a return, as he previously found the end zone on an 81-yard PR in Week 2 of 2023 vs. Baltimore, and had a 100-yard KOR in Week 7 of '24 at Cleveland. He is one of two players in Bengals history with a TD via both kickoff and punt return, alongside former CB Lemar Parrish. Jones has 47 KORs for 1284 yards (27.3 average) in his career, while also contributing 50 PRs for 462 yards (9.2). Also in the mix to return kickoffs is HB Samaje Perine, who has 17 KORs this season for 430 yards (25.3), including a season-long 38-yarder in Week 9 vs. Chicago. While playing for Kansas City last season, he had five KORs for 163 yards (32.6). Rookie HB Tahj Brooks has contributed nine KORs for 217 yards this season, highlighted by a 31-yarder against the Bears that set up a Bengals TD drive. WR Mitch Tinsley had his first career punt return in Week 13 at Baltimore, a 10-yarder which led to a Cincinnati scoring drive.

THE LAST BENGALS-DOLPHINS MEETINGS

2020 SEASON

WEEK 13, GAME 12

Miami Dolphins 19, Cincinnati Bengals 7 Sunday, Dec. 6, 2020 at Hard Rock Stadium

The host Dolphins and visiting Bengals played an eventful and chippy game that featured 14 combined penalties and five ejections. Cincinnati controlled much of the first half and held a 7-6 advantage at halftime, behind a 72-yard TD pass from QB Brandon Allen to WR Tyler Boyd. But Boyd left the game late in the second quarter due to an ejection for fighting, and Cincinnati's offense never recovered. After Boyd's exit, the Bengals totaled just 25 yards and were held scoreless. Meanwhile, the Dolphins took advantage of a thin Bengals secondary and in the third quarter alone posted 181 total yards, 10 points and an 11:27-3:33 edge in time of possession. The two teams got into a fight during the fourth quarter after Dolphins players and coaches left their bench area to confront Bengals players and coaches following a kick-catch interference penalty on Bengals WR Mike Thomas. The fight resulted in three more ejections, including Cincinnati's Shawn Williams. Miami rode its strong second-half performance to a 19-7 win. The Dolphins improved to 8-4, while the Bengals fell to 2-9-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Miami Dolphins 15 Thursday night, Sept. 29, 2022 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals found the end zone on their opening drive for a second straight game, as HB Joe Mixon put Cincinnati ahead 7-0 with a five-yard rushing TD less than five minutes into the first quarter. Miami moved the ball early, but was held to a pair of FGs before the Bengals struck again late in the second period, when QB Joe Burrow hit WR Tee Higgins for a 59-yard TD to extend the lead, 14-6. The Dolphins answered with a TD on a shovel pass from QB Teddy Bridgewater to RB Chase Edmonds with nine seconds left in the first half. Another Jason Sanders FG in the third quarter gave Miami its first lead, but the Bengals responded with two fourth-quarter kicks from Evan McPherson, including a 57-yarder. Bridgewater drove the Dolphins into Cincinnati territory with under four minutes left, but S Vonn Bell ended their chances of a go-ahead TD with his second INT of the game. The Bengals capitalized on the turnover, as Burrow connected with WR Ja'Marr Chase for a 36-yard completion to set up first-and-goal, and three plays later TE Hayden Hurst caught his first TD of the season to cement the win. Cincinnati improved to 2-2, while the Dolphins fell to 3-1.

2025 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 17, Cleveland Browns 16 Sunday, Sept. 7, 2025 at Huntington Bank Field

The Bengals' defense recorded two takeaways in the second half and held Cleveland scoreless on its final six possessions to lead the way in a season-opening victory. Cincinnati's offense was limited to 141 net yards, the second-fewest in a win in team history, but it scored a TD on two of its first three drives to build a 14-10 halftime lead. The Browns pulled ahead with a TD in the third quarter but missed the PAT attempt, and a 35-yard FG by Bengals K Evan McPherson later in the period regained the lead for Cincinnati. Cleveland drove inside the red zone with under five minutes remaining in regulation, but K Andre Szmyt's try for a 36-yard go-ahead FG sailed wide right. The Browns forced a quick Bengals punt and once again were driving for the win, before CB DJ Turner II came up with his first career INT on a ball that ricocheted off a Cleveland WR. P Ryan Rehkow then delivered a punt that was downed at the Browns' one-yard line, securing the win for Cincinnati.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Cincinnati Bengals 31, Jacksonville Jaguars 27 Sunday, Sept. 14, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

Backup QB Jake Browning scored the go-ahead TD on a one-yard sneak with 18 seconds left to lead the Bengals to a win in their home opener. Browning, who entered the game in the second quarter after starter Joe Burrow suffered a toe injury, rallied from throwing three INTs to lead Cincinnati on a game-winning drive that started at its own eight-yard line. Defensively, the Bengals intercepted Jaguars QB Trevor Lawrence twice, including a pick by CB Dax Hill in the end zone which kept points off the board in the first quarter. Browning threw a pair of TD passes in the second half, including a 13-yarder to WR Mitch Tinsley for his first career reception. WR Ja'Marr Chase carried the load offensively with 14 catches for 165 yards and a first-quarter TD. Cincinnati improved to 2-0, while Jacksonville fell to 1-1.

WEEK 3, GAME 3*Minnesota Vikings 48, Cincinnati Bengals 10
Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025 at U.S. Bank Stadium

Cincinnati committed five turnovers, including four in the first half, on the way to the 38-point defeat. Two of the first-half turnovers resulted in TD returns by Vikings CB Isaiah Rodgers, who had an 87-yard pick-six and a 66-yard fumble recovery return. The Bengals were driving inside Minnesota territory with a chance to cut into a 14-point deficit ahead of halftime, but they committed three fumbles over the final two minutes which the Vikings converted into 17 points. The final play of the first half was a 62-yard FG by K Will Reichard, which marked the longest FG by an opponent in Bengals history. Bengals QB Jake Browning was picked off twice and held to 140 passing yards while being sacked three times. Cincinnati fell to 2-1, while Minnesota improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4*Denver Broncos 28, Cincinnati Bengals 3
Monday night, Sept. 29, 2025 at Empower Field at Mile High

Denver scored 28 unanswered points and totaled 512 yards of net offense to defeat the Bengals in a nationally televised contest. Cincinnati took an early lead on a short FG from K Evan McPherson which capped off a 12-play, 62-yard opening drive, but the offense was forced to punt on every remaining possession and recorded just 97 yards the rest of the way. Cincinnati came up with a stop on fourth down near its own goal line late in the second quarter, as rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. picked off Broncos QB Bo Nix in the end zone for his first career INT. But Denver regained possession shortly after and put together a quick scoring drive at the end of the half to build its lead. Though the Bengals' defense kept the Broncos off the board through most of the second half, Nix punctuated the night with his second TD pass late in the fourth quarter. Cincinnati fell to 2-2, while Denver improved to 2-2.

WEEK 5, GAME 5*Detroit Lions 37, Cincinnati Bengals 24
Sunday, Oct. 5, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals scored a TD on three straight possessions in the fourth quarter to cut into their deficit, but the comeback effort came up short in a home loss. Detroit built a 28-3 advantage thanks in large part to three INTs off Bengals QB Jake Browning, as each pick set up the Lions' offense inside Cincinnati territory. While the Bengals' defense sacked Lions QB Jared Goff four times and forced the high-powered Detroit attack to punt on five occasions, Goff battled through to complete 82.6 percent of his passes with three going for TDs. In the fourth quarter, Browning hit WR Ja'Marr Chase for two TDs, including a 64-yarder, and later found WR Tee Higgins in the end zone to make it an 11-point game. But a scramble for possession on the ensuing onside kick ultimately was won by the Lions, and a last gasp for the Bengals with under two minutes left was shut down with a safety. Cincinnati fell to 2-3, while Detroit improved to 4-1.

WEEK 6, GAME 6*Green Bay Packers 27, Cincinnati Bengals 18
Sunday, Oct. 12, 2025 at Lambeau Field

Cincinnati pulled to within six points late in the fourth quarter, but a Packers third-down conversion followed by a FG sealed the Bengals' road loss. QB Joe Flacco, who was acquired in a trade just five days earlier, passed for 219 yards and two TDs in his first Bengals start. Both scoring plays came on fourth down, with the second going to WR Ja'Marr Chase for his 50th career TD catch. After the Packers' opening drive ended in a red zone INT by Bengals S Geno Stone, they controlled the time of possession throughout the first half and built a 10-0 lead by halftime. Cincinnati responded at the start of the third quarter with a 17-play drive which ended with Flacco finding TE Tanner Hudson for a TD on fourth-and-goal. The Packers answered with two straight TD drives to make it 24-10, before the Chase score followed by a successful two-point conversion closed the gap. The Bengals had one final chance to get the ball back to their offense, but Green Bay converted on third-and-eight and drained more clock before kicking a FG to put the game out of reach. Cincinnati fell to 2-4, while Green Bay improved to 3-1-1.

WEEK 7, GAME 7*Cincinnati Bengals 33, Pittsburgh Steelers 31
Thursday night, Oct. 16, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

In a high-scoring, nationally televised matchup which saw the two offenses combine for 866 net yards, the Bengals put together a late drive to set up K Evan McPherson's 36-yard game-winning FG on Thursday Night Football. It marked the third regular-season game in NFL history between two starting QBs over 40 years old, as Joe Flacco, 40, passed for 342 yards and three TDs for the Bengals while Aaron Rodgers, 41, had 249 yards and four passing TDs for the Steelers. Flacco leaned heavily on WR Ja'Marr Chase, who finished with a Bengals-record 16 receptions for 161 yards and a TD. The Steelers took the lead with 2:21 remaining when Rodgers found TE Pat Freiermuth for a 68-yard TD, but Flacco engineered a quick drive down the field and connected on a 28-yard pass to WR Tee Higgins to get inside McPherson's range. Cincinnati picked off Rodgers twice in the second quarter and scored 17 points late in the period to pull ahead at halftime. The Bengals' offense also was aided by a strong rushing attack, led by HB Chase Brown's 9.8 yards per carry. Cincinnati improved to 3-4, while Pittsburgh fell to 4-2.

WEEK 11, GAME 10*Pittsburgh Steelers 34, Cincinnati Bengals 12
Sunday, Nov. 16, 2025 at Acrisure Stadium

The Steelers scored two defensive TDs in the second half to pull away in a divisional win over Cincinnati. After the two teams exchanged TDs on their opening offensive possession, together they proceeded to punt on each of the game's next six drives before a Steelers FG late in the first half gave them a 10-6 lead at the break. The Bengals drove inside Pittsburgh territory while trailing by four late in the third quarter, but S.Kyle Dugger intercepted a pass by QB Joe Flacco and returned it 73 yards for a pick-six. Bengals K.Evan McPherson's second FG of the afternoon closed the gap to one possession again, but Steelers backup QB Mason Rudolph answered by leading a six-minute TD drive, and another Pittsburgh defensive score on a fumble recovery return broke the game open. Bengals HB Chase Brown totaled 127 yards from scrimmage in the loss. Cincinnati fell to 3-7, while Pittsburgh improved to 6-4.

WEEK 12, GAME 11*New England 26, Cincinnati Bengals 20
Sunday, Nov. 23, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals drove inside the Patriots' 30-yard line while trailing by six points late in the fourth quarter, but New England's defense forced three straight incompletions to stave off the comeback effort. Cincinnati went up 10-0 in the second quarter on S Geno Stone's 32-yard pick-six, before the Patriots took the lead in a span of four snaps as TE Hunter Henry's TD was followed by CB Marcus Jones returning an INT of his own for a score. Bengals K McPherson cut into the deficit as the first half ended by drilling a team-record 63-yard FG. Cincinnati's defense opened the second half with a goal line stand, holding the Patriots out of the end zone on four plays from the one-yard line, but New England put together three consecutive FG drives to stay in front. Bengals HB Chase Brown rushed for 107 yards and logged his fifth straight game with 100 or more yards from scrimmage. Cincinnati fell to 3-8, while New England improved to 10-2.

WEEK 13, GAME 12*Cincinnati Bengals 32, Baltimore Ravens 14
Thursday night, Nov. 27, 2025 at M&T Bank Stadium

The Bengals' defense forced five turnovers in a nationally televised road win on Thanksgiving. QB Joe Burrow, who made his return after missing nine games due to a toe injury, had two TD passes in the second half and finished with 261 yards. Cincinnati's offense was held to just one TD on six red zone opportunities, but K Evan McPherson made a career-high six FGs to help keep the Bengals in front. Baltimore had a chance to cut into a 12-point deficit early in the fourth quarter, before rookie LB Demetrius Knight intercepted a deflected pass deep in Bengals territory and returned it 39 yards to set up another FG drive. DE Joseph Ossai sacked Ravens QB Lamar Jackson twice in the first half, and HB Chase Brown had over 100 yards from scrimmage for a Bengals-record sixth straight game. Cincinnati improved to 4-8, while Baltimore fell to 6-6.

WEEK 14, GAME 13*Buffalo Bills 39, Cincinnati Bengals 34
Sunday, Dec. 7, 2025 at Highmark Stadium

The Bills flipped the game with two INTs in the fourth quarter, including a 63-yard pick-six, to come from behind and defeat the Bengals at a snowy Highmark Stadium. QB Joe Burrow led Cincinnati's offense to TDs on each of its first three drives to build a 21-11 halftime lead. Buffalo had a chance to take the lead late in the third quarter, before Bengals CB DJ Turner II forced a fumble near the goal line and LB Oren Burks recovered the ball in the end zone. The Bengals led by three and had the ball in Bills territory midway through the fourth quarter, when CB Christian Benford picked off Burrow's pass and returned it for a TD to put Buffalo ahead for the first time. Cincinnati's defense had a final chance to get the ball back to Burrow late in the fourth, but Bills QB Josh Allen scrambled for a first down on third-and-15 to close it out. Cincinnati fell to 4-9, while Buffalo improved to 9-4.

WEEK 15, GAME 14*Baltimore Ravens 24, Cincinnati Bengals 0
Sunday, Dec. 14, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

Baltimore's defense intercepted QB Joe Burrow twice, including an 84-yard pick-six in the fourth quarter, as Cincinnati was eliminated from postseason contention in a shutout home loss. The Bengals' offense drove inside of the Ravens' 35-yard line on five occasions, but each time was turned away as Baltimore forced a pair of turnovers on downs in addition to the two INTs. Cincinnati's defense made several plays early in the game to keep the Bengals within striking distance, including four sacks and an INT, but Ravens RB Derrick Henry averaged 9.1 yards per carry (nine for 100) to keep his offense on track. Bengals WR Ja'Marr Chase caught 10 passes for 132 yards in his 75th career regular-season game played, and reached 100 receptions for the season. Cincinnati fell to 4-10, while Baltimore improved to 7-7.
