Tennessee Titans (12-5) vs. Cincinnati Bengals (11-7)

Saturday, Jan. 22, 2022 • 3:30 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans host the AFC North champion Cincinnati Bengals this week in a divisional playoff game. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. CST on Saturday, Jan. 22.

The Titans enter the postseason as the top seed in the AFC field after finishing 12-5 in the regular season and taking their second consecutive AFC South crown. They tied the Kansas City Chiefs for the conference's best record but secured the tiebreaker due to their head-to-head victory over the Chiefs on Oct. 24. With the No. 1 seed, the Titans earned the AFC's only first-round bye in the playoffs.

This week marks the second all-time postseason meeting between the Titans and Bengals franchises. In 1991, the Bengals defeated the Oilers 41-14 in a wild card contest in Cincinnati.

TITANS ENTER PLAYOFFS FRESH AFTER FIRST-ROUND BYE

The Titans clinched their division title and their third consecutive playoff appearance under head coach Mike Vrabel with a Week 17 victory over the Miami Dolphins, celebrating the franchise's first back-to-back division championships since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962. Vrabel joined Jack Pardee and Jerry Glanville as the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons as head coach.

The Titans have made the playoffs in four of the six seasons since Jon Robinson was hired as general manager in 2016. In that time, the Titans and Kansas City Chiefs share the distinction of being the NFL's only franchise's with six consecutive winning records.

In Week 18, the Titans traveled to Houston needing a victory to claim the AFC's No. 1 seed and allow them a week off as the six other AFC playoff qualifiers battled in wild card games. With four touchdown passes from quarterback Ryan Tannehill, the Titans withstood a second-half surge by the Texans and held on for a 28-25 victory. It marks the franchise's third time in the Super Bowl era and the first time since 2008 it entered the postseason with the No. 1 seed.

Since becoming a starter for the Titans in 2019, Tannehill's regular-season record is 30-13. He is the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in three consecutive seasons. During the 2021 regular season, he passed for 3,734 yards and 21 touchdowns, and he added seven rushing touchdowns. Tannehill and Moon are the only players to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards for the franchise.

For the third consecutive season, Tannehill's top target was wide receiver A.J. Brown, who totaled 63 receptions for 869 yards and five touchdowns. With 2,995 career receiving yards, Brown has more than any player in franchise history through his first three NFL seasons other than Charlie Hennigan (3,336 from 1960-62).

Titans running back Derrick Henry has not played since he was placed on injured reserve following the team's Oct. 31 contest at Indianapolis. On Jan. 5, he was designated for return, opening a 21-day window in which he can practice and ultimately return to the active roster if the team so chooses. Prior to his injury, the two-time NFL rushing champion rushed for 937 yards and 10 touchdowns on 219 carries, leading the league in each category through eight weeks. Even without Henry for much of the season, the Titans finished fifth in rushing offense in 2021 with an average of 141.4 yards per game. D'Onta Foreman led the team in rushing during Henry's absence, totaling 566 rushing yards.

The Titans defense capped the regular season ranked 12th overall (329.8 per game) and second in rushing defense (84.6). They were sixth on third down (36.7 percent) and sixth in scoring defense (20.8). Safety Kevin Byard led the team in tackles (88) and interceptions (five), while outside linebacker Harold Landry III set a career high and paced the defense with 12 sacks. Landry, along with defensive linemen Denico Autry (nine sacks) and Jeffery Simmons (8.5), helped make the Titans the only NFL team in 2021 with three players totaling at least eight sacks each.

THE BENGALS

While the Titans rested with a bye last weekend, the Bengals hosted the Las Vegas Raiders on Saturday in the wild card round. Second-year quarterback Joe Burrow threw a pair of touchdown passes, and Evan McPherson booted four field goals to help the Bengals to a 26-19 victory. It was Cincinnati's first playoff win since January 1991.

Led by third-year head coach Zac Taylor, the Bengals finished the regular season with a 10-7 record to claim their first AFC North division title since 2015. They went into the playoffs as the fourth seed in the AFC.

In 2021, Burrow set single-season Bengals passing records with 4,611 yards and 34 touchdowns, and his 108.3 passer rating ranked second in the NFL. The Heisman Trophy winner from Louisiana State University was the first-overall draft pick in 2020.

Burrow's top target, rookie wide receiver Ja'Marr Chase, ranked fourth in the NFL with 1,455 receiving yards, the most by a rookie in the Super Bowl era.

SERIES HISTORY

In the 62-year history of the organization, only one other NFL team—the Pittsburgh Steelers—has faced the Titans/Oilers more frequently than the Cincinnati Bengals. There have been 76 all-time meetings with the Bengals, while the Steelers have squared off 80 times against the Titans/Oilers.

The Bengals began play in 1968 as an expansion franchise in the American Football League and that season played the then-Oilers for the first time, a 27-17 Houston win at Cincinnati's Nippert Stadium.

In 1970, Riverfront Stadium (later named Cinergy Field) opened, where the Bengals would call home until Paul Brown Stadium opened in 2000. The start of the 1970 season also marked the beginning of the newly-formed AFC Central Division, giving new life to the Bengals and Oilers rivalry. The two teams met at least twice per season each year from 1970–2001, until realignment split up the division in 2002. The Titans moved to the AFC South, while the Bengals were placed in the AFC North.

During their time as division rivals, the Oilers and Bengals met only once in the playoffs. In 1990, the Wild Card Oilers traveled to face the AFC Central Champion Bengals and were defeated 41-14.

They have played nine times since moving to different divisions, with the Bengals holding a 5-4 edge. Most recently, the Bengals hosted the Titans on Nov. 1, 2020. Despite 441 yards of offense by the Titans, including 218 rushing yards, they fell to the Bengals by a final score of 31-20. Bengals rookie quarterback Joe Burrow passed for 249 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The last time the Titans hosted the Bengals was Nov. 12, 2017. Marcus Mariota's seven-yard touchdown pass to running back DeMarco Murray with 36 remaining in the fourth quarter provided the Titans a 24-20 win.

The Titans have won the majority of their games with the Bengals since moving to Tennessee. They are 12-7 in that time period (1997–present), including a seven-game winning streak from 1998-01. The streak included five consecutive road victories for the Titans, three of which occurred at Paul Brown Stadium.

On Sept. 12, 1999, the Bengals helped the Titans open their new home in the first regular season game at Nissan Stadium. The Titans won dramatically 36-35 on a last-second field goal by Al Del Greco.

TITANS-BENGALS: THE LAST MEETING

2020 Week 8: Titans 20, Bengals 31
Sunday, Nov. 1, 2020 • 1:00 p.m. ET • Paul Brown Stadium

In Week 8 of the 2020 season the Titans traveled to Cincinnati to face the Bengals and fell by a score of 31-20.

Cincinnati got on the board on their opening possession and never relinquished the lead. Bengals QB Joe Burrow constructed a 12-play, 57-yard drive that saw two first down receptions by Bengals WR Tee Higgins and culminated in a 33-yard field goal by Bengals K Randy Bullock. Cincinnati took a 3-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Tennessee drove down the field into Bengals territory with aid by a 24-yard reception by WR Corey Davis. However, K Stephen Gostkowski's 53-yard attempt hit the upright as the score remained 3-0.

In the second quarter, Cincinnati extended the lead with a nine-play, 57-yard scoring drive. Bengals WR Tyler Boyd contributed a 13-yard catch before Bengals RB Samaje Perine scored on a one-yard touchdown run for a 10-0 lead. However, Tennessee responded on the ensuing possession with a scoring drive of their own that featured eight consecutive run plays. RB Derrick Henry carried the ball six times for 43 yards, and RB D'Onta Foreman added two carries for 14 yards, before Henry found the end zone on a three-yard touchdown run. The Titans cut the lead, 10-7.

The Bengals put together a 73-yard scoring drive on their ensuing possession. Higgins contributed two first-down receptions which allowed Bengals HB Giovani Bernard to score on a 12-yard touchdown as Cincinnati took a 17-7 lead into halftime.

In the fourth quarter, Burrow found Boyd in the end zone for a seven-yard touchdown to extend Cincinnati's lead to 24-7. On the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee put together a 75-yard scoring drive. With two first-down rushes contributed by Henry, a first-down catch by Davis, and another first-down carry added by RB Jeremy McNichols, Tannehill was then able to connect with WR A.J. Brown for a nine-yard touchdown, 24-14 Bengals.

Cincinnati responded with another touchdown on their following drive. Perine contributed a 16-yard run and Boyd caught an 18-yard reception before Burrow threw a six-yard touchdown strike to Bernard. The Bengals widened the lead, 31-14.

Trailing by 17, Tennessee replied on their ensuing possession with a touchdown score to inch closer to Cincinnati. TE Anthony Firkser caught two passes for 36 yards, and Davis added two receptions for 22 yards, before Tannehill connected with Davis for a 12-yard touchdown. The point after conversion attempt was unsuccessful, 31-20. Ultimately Tennessee could not construct a comeback and fell on the road to Cincinnati.

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Cincinnati Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019.

During the 2021 regular season, Taylor led the Bengals to a 10-7 record and their first AFC North title since 2015.

Taylor's record through 2020 was 6-25-1, having each of his first two campaigns severely hampered by injuries to key players.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition quarterback Joe Burrow, the No. 1 overall pick in the draft, to the pro level despite the absence of an in-person offseason program due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Taylor helped Burrow to one of the most productive starts to a career by a quarterback in NFL history, before a knee injury ended the rookie's season after 10 games.

In 2019, his first season as head coach, Taylor headed off a wave of early season injuries to lead Cincinnati to second-half turnarounds on both offense and defense. Offensively, the Bengals' per-game rushing average jumped 70.6 yards from the first half of the season (59.5) to the second (130.1), while their per-attempt average jumped 1.26 yards (3.17 to 4.43) and they allowed 10 fewer sacks (29 to 19).

Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons (2017-18) with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2017 and quarterbacks coach the following year. In 2018, he helped guide Rams quarterback Jared Goff to career highs in every major passing category. Los Angeles won the NFC West with a 13-3 regular-season record and advanced to Super Bowl LIII against the New England Patriots.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Taylor had a one-year stint in the college ranks, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville at the University of Cincinnati.

Taylor broke into NFL coaching in 2012 with the Miami Dolphins as assistant quarterbacks coach. He was elevated to quarterbacks coach from 2013-15, and spent the final five games of '15 as the Dolphins' interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller, after the team made coaching staff changes.

During his time in Miami, Taylor was instrumental in the development of QB Ryan Tannehill, the team's first-round draft pick in 2012. Tannehill's 15,460 passing yards in his first four seasons were the third-most among all quarterbacks in NFL history in their first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino.

Taylor's coaching career began at Texas A&M University, where he served as offensive graduate assistant and tight ends coach under head coach Mike Sherman from 2008-11. The Aggies shared the Big 12 South Championship in 2010 and played in three bowl games during Taylor's time in College Station.

A native of Norman, Okla., Taylor began his college career at Wake Forest (2002-03), before transferring to Butler County Community College in Kansas ('04) and then playing his final two seasons ('05-06) at the University of Nebraska. A decorated career with the Cornhuskers included numerous school records and passing for a combined 5,850 yards and 45 touchdowns. In his senior season of 2006, Taylor was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.

LAST WEEK VS. THE TEXANS

Week 18: Titans 28, Texans 25

Sunday, Jan. 9, 2022 • 12:00 p.m. CT • NRG Stadium

In Week 18 of the 2021 season, the Titans traveled to Houston to face the Texans and won by a score of 28-25. In doing so, Tennessee finished the season with a 12-5 record to clinch the No. 1 seed in the AFC playoffs, providing homefield advantage and a first-round bye. QB Ryan Tannehill threw four touchdowns as the offense totaled 405 yards, including 124 rushing yards and 281 net passing yards.

The Titans jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions and never relinquishing the lead. On the first scoring possession, Tannehill completed a 19-yard pass to WR Julio Jones, a 17-yard toss to TE Anthony Firkser, and a 15-yard ball to RB D'Onta Foreman. Ultimately, Tannehill connected with Firkser for a five-yard touchdown pass, capping a 94-yard drive with a 7-0 lead. After forcing Houston to punt, the Tennessee offense took possession at their own 15-yard line. WR A.J. Brown caught three passes for 52 yards and one touchdown on the drive, as his 14-yard strike from Tannehill doubled Tennessee's lead, 14-0. Next, the Titans defense forced a three-and-out to get the ball back under a minute remaining in the half. A pass interference call on Houston gave Tennessee a first down at the Houston four-yard line, and Tannehill quickly found WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown. The Titans took a 21-0 lead into halftime.

Houston got on the board in the third quarter with two scoring drives on consecutive possessions. First, a 72-yard drive was ushered along by a 20-yard pass from Texans QB Davis Mills to Texans RB Rex Burkhead, before Mills connected with Texans WR Chris Moore for a 28-yard touchdown on a flea-flicker, 21-7 Titans. On their next possession with Houston facing a first down at the Tennessee 15-yard line, DT Jeffery Simmons sacked Mills for a loss of nine. The Texans couldn't overcome the down and distance deficit and were forced to settle for a 31-yard field goal, 21-10 Titans.

In the fourth quarter, Houston tacked on another score to pull within three points of the Titans. Texans WR Danny Amendola caught a 37-yard pass and Texans WR Nico Collins added a 30-yard reception to move the sticks, before Mills connected with Amendola for a seven-yard touchdown. Houston elected to go for two, and the conversion attempt was successful as Mills connected with Amendola for an extra two points, 21-18 Titans.

However, the Titans responded on the ensuing possession with a 75-yard scoring drive that saw Tannehill acrobatically evade a third-down sack to complete a 36-yard pass to Westbrook-Ikhine and then toss a 24-yard completion to Firkser on third down. Ultimately, Tannehill threw his fourth touchdown pass of the day, as a three-yard score to Jones put the Titans ahead, 28-18.

Houston added an additional touchdown on a 26-yard pass from Mills to Amendola to make it 28-25, but Tennessee was able to control the clock for the remainder of the fourth quarter, as the Titans preserved a 28-25 road win and locked up the AFC's No. 1 seed.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, JAN. 9, 2022

(on the performance of quarterback Ryan Tannehill)

That was a hell of a job by Ryan (Tannehill). That's what I just told the team. Came up with some huge plays. I thought he was in command most of the day executing and stuff. We tried to hit some throws down the field. Unfortunately, we weren't able to, but just his ability to keep some plays live in the pocket I thought were really cool. We took care of the football. All credit goes the players and Ryan (Tannehill) obviously. Nick Westbrook-Ikhine coming up with a huge play when we were leaking oil, just the way that they understand the situation there at the end to be able to finish the game in four minutes.

(on the performance of wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine)

He does everything for us. I do production meetings before the game, and early in the season and it's like, 'Who is this guy with the last name,' and it's like, we get to see him every day. The type of teammate that he is, his value, he's very versatile, plays a lot of positions, knows a lot of positions. If you've ever been out there in a huddle, those calls come in and its different personnel groups and different formations, and he's able to line up, play special teams for us, and we need to find a lot of players like Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine).

(on what the team did to get the win today)

I thought we got off to a great start. We traded some punts and then we kind of got on a roll. Played complementary. Got a penalty down the field. Scored. But give them credit. Timmy Kelly (Tim Kelly) did a great job in the second half. Davis (Mills) did unbelievable. He was throwing seeds. (Danny) Amendola found the fountain of youth and we were struggling defensively. Give them a lot of credit and give us credit for battling back.

(on the play where Ryan Tannehill avoided a sack and threw a completion to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine)

Well, his toughness. I think he does have some play strength. We've seen him run with the football. We put it on the ground I guess, and we were able to recover it, but I think his toughness continues to show up, and that's what you have to have in this league to play quarterback.

(on his and the team's belief in Ryan Tannehill)

That's all earned. That's all earned. It's not like talked about. It's viewed. He's earned their respect, their trust, and the confidence.

(on the importance of earning the number one seed)

Well, the first thing is going to be to get healthy, to use that time to get healthy. We started dropping there late in the game, and then try to improve. We were really doing a lot of good things defensively, and this will be good. This will be a good week and be able to coach them hard and they'll respond to that.

(on the performance of wide receiver Julio Jones)

I think the ability for him to be out there and put some days of practice together and Ryan (Tannehill) to start to build some trust in throwing the football there. I thought he played really well for us. I saw him trying to block, trying to finish, so it was great.

(on how Julio Jones responded to playing a full game after missing time)

Well, again, it's just a few minutes after the game, so I think we'll be able to identify that as we move on. No, I mean, they don't give you a hat or t-shirt for anything like that, but we understand that we're in the elite eight. We've moved on to the second round of the playoffs without having to play a playoff game and we have to take advantage of the time. We have to be great as coaches, great on our training staff, our physical therapy, strength and conditioning. Allow these guys to get some time off but also heal and get to work.

(on what the team will need to do to build on the passing game production)

Probably a lot of the same things. It starts with protection. Clean pockets, but also identifying man or zone and spacing and the things that we have going. We weren't perfect, but I think it was a huge step in the right direction.

(on fans saying he should be Coach of the Year)

Well, I mean, I think Ron Rivera says it best, 'Focus on things that are important and not that are interesting.' That's probably interesting, and important is trying to get this team ready and find 48 guys each week that believe in the same things we do and that help us win. So, I do want to mention the fans. I thought that's where we were going, just appreciate them coming down here. Wish we could have given them a better third quarter, but it was great to come out of that tunnel early this morning and see people there and be excited.

(on if running back Derrick Henry will be activated)

We'll see where Derrick is at when we get back to Nashville.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on the play where he evaded a sack and threw a completion to wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine)

Yeah, they played Tampa. Thought I was going to have a shot to A.J. (Brown) sitting in the middle. He ended up beating the guy with speed, so the guy was couple yards behind him, didn't like the look of it. Tried to come back to Firk (Anthony Firkser). 51 did a good job of widening back to him and had to pull it back down as I was getting wrapped up. Then just twisted away, got away from it, and saw Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) waving his arms doing the Billy Whiteshoes over there on the sideline, so was able to find him and get him the ball.

(on what his teammates said in response to that play)

Yeah, a lot of, 'How the heck did you do that?' Just kept playing. The guy, felt the guy kind of wrapping me up, but I felt a little bit of space, a little bit of air, it wasn't a strong hold, so just kept fighting and twisted out of there and was able to make a play.

(on how the team can build on the consistency of the passing game today)

Yeah, just keep working. Obviously did some good things. Still a lot of things we need to clean up, but excited about the way our guys came and competed. Wasn't always pretty. Got off to a hot start, things got ugly there for a second, but we just kept fighting and guys made plays when we needed them.

So proud of the way we kept fighting and hopefully we can build on the good things we did the next couple weeks as we move forward.

(on how he has seen Nick Westbrook-Ikhine grow into the role he has)

Yeah, it's been a lot of fun to watch Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine). I have so much respect for him and the way he works. We move him around everywhere. He plays wide receiver position consecutively, within the drive he'll play all three, and people don't realize what kind of mental gymnastics that puts you through, on where you are and what you're listening for, and just the flexibility that gives us as an offense. He's kind of a utility guy for us, does a little bit of everything. He blocks his tail off. Any long run just about that you see, you see Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) down the field finishing and blocking. And then obviously he's made huge plays for us in the pass game consistently throughout this year. I love playing with Nick and have a ton of respect for him.

(on the connection between he and wide receiver Julio Jones on the touchdown pass)

Yeah, we had him in the back of the end zone there. They end up basically clouding the boundary there and had to work to the backside progression on that. Saw Julio (Jones) in the back. He was in a good spot and was able to kind of put it on him before the safety was playing back to him. He made a strong catch through contact there, so it was a huge play when we needed it really badly.

(on how much a play like that to Julio Jones helps work on the mutual trust)

Oh, it's huge. We're steadily working at it, and to make a huge play in a critical moment in a situation where we really needed it, and to be able to make it through the contact, it wasn't just a simple, easy catch. He was in the perfect spot and was able to make it through tough contact and reel it in. It was a huge play for us.

(on if he had the mentality in the second half of not letting the opportunity evade them)

Yeah, no doubt. You know, obviously they came flying back with a head full of steam. We went through a little bit of a lull there and got through that last touchdown drive and told the guys we need to make a play and we need our best right now. So that was my mindset, we need our best football. We need to be able to be great right now in this critical moment. We were able to make those plays.

(on his name not being mentioned when media discusses top quarterbacks and if that bothers him)

You're constantly fighting for the respect of your teammates, which I believe I have, and then your opponents. You know, at the end of the day, I play to win games. It would be nice to get recognized, but I'm not worried about it. I'm worried about finding ways to win games, lead my team, be great in big moments, critical moments, and win football games.

(on if clinching the number one seed puts the team in good position)

Yeah, that's what it's all about. We took care of business and put ourselves in a good position. That's all it is, is a good position. We have to go out and play our best football here in the coming weeks. That's what great teams do. That's what the team that ultimately wins the whole thing will do, is play their best football and win games in January into February.

(on if he expected the team to be 12-5 and the number one seed while going through all the adversity this season)

I'm proud of our guys. Starts at the top with Coach Vrabel and the way he leads us. We had so many guys step up this year in critical moments in big games, really too many guys to name. Some guys aren't even here anymore, but they played big for us in moments and helped us win games. We just kept fighting. This team is full of fighters. Adversity doesn't faze us. Maybe go through a lull in a game or in a quarter, but going to keep fighting and stick together and believe in each other and keep fighting, that no matter what is going on, as long as there is time on the clock and we're within striking distance, we're going to keep fighting and try to find a way to win the football game.

(on the contributions from the tight end room)

Yeah, they've come up huge for us. Obviously tough to see MyCole (Pruitt) go down last week, but that whole room has been big for us as the second half of the season has gone on. Kind of found a groove. Firk (Anthony Firkser) obviously played big for us today. On third down we were able to get him out into the concept a little bit and he got open and made huge plays for us. Geoff (Geoff Swaim) has been consistent for us the whole year in the blocking game, taking advantage of his opportunities in the passing game when he gets them, but he does such a good job for us as we move him around in all different positions and gives us an advantage there on the edge.

(on taking advantage of having a first-round Bye)

Yeah, you mentioned the first part, it's rest and recover. Get physically right. Obviously saw guys get banged up out there today, so the time to get as close to 100 percent as you can possibly get at this point in the year is going to be huge. Mentally just start prepping. See who we're going to have an opportunity to play in a couple weeks and start mentally prepping. I'm sure we'll take a look at both teams this week and try to get a jump start on it, and then whoever it ends up being, be ready with a great plan going into the second week.

WIDE RECEIVER A.J. BROWN

(on the performance of quarterback Ryan Tannehill)

(Ryan Tannehill) did a good job. Especially on the one where he broke the tackle. That was a one-two play. He got away from the defender and threw the ball down the field to Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine). That was a huge play I think to score. We scored that drive and changed the momentum.

(on if there is momentum in the passing game that can carry over)

I think so. I truly believe we just do what we're told, you know? We run the ball, we block whenever we throw the ball, and we do what we do. We just try to do our job when our number is called. It was mixture of both, a little more on the passing side today in the first half, and we showed.

(on how good it was to get wide receiver Julio Jones involved today)

Man, it's good just to have him out there doing what he does. Just like I said, just him being out there, you've got to account for him. I'm glad to see him get in the end zone. He was excited.

(on the play where Ryan Tannehill avoided a sack and threw a completion to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine)

For sure. I saw it. I thought the play was over. I saw the dude jump on his back. I immediately stopped because I'm like, 'Man, it's a sack.' But somehow, he came out and saw Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine), and it was a great play.

(on if he said anything to Ryan Tannehill after that drive concluded)

Oh, I didn't say anything to him, but it was a great play though. Everybody was saying something, though.

(on what that play says about Ryan Tannehill)

I think -- I ain't going to say I think, I know. Ryan (Tannehill) has been showing that all year. He's been getting hit, and he's been staying in the pocket delivering balls. That was just one play. He's been showing toughness all year.

(on how important it was for the team to get the number one seed)

It definitely gives us an advantage, home field advantage, a lot of momentum, but we've still got to come out and play ball. Clean up a couple drives in the second half, clean that up, and just do what we do. So, I'm excited. I know we're excited. But at the end of the day, we know we've got to be clean because playoff ball is different. It's a new season.

(on what the team can do to benefit from the Bye aside from getting rest)

Watch a lot of film, study and take advantage of each and every day. And everybody get treatment, you know. Just like I said, just take advantage of the day, just being a pro.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first five seasons on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 records followed by an 11-5 mark in 2020. It was the first time the organization produced at least five consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans, Seattle Seahawks and Kansas City Chiefs were the only NFL teams without a losing season from 2016 to 2020.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

In 2020, Robinson and the Titans clinched the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They did so while navigating the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.

Robinson has overseen a nearly complete overhaul of the roster during his tenure. In six drafts as general manager from 2016 to 2021, he selected 48 total players, and 23 of those players were still with the organization through the 2021 offseason. The only members of the roster who predated Robinson at that time were punter Brett Kern and tackle Taylor Lewan. During that same time period (through June 2021), he engineered 26 trades and made 12 waiver claims.

2021: After the NFL's new league year began in March, the Titans struck several deals with veterans in the initial days of free agency. The incoming players included Pittsburgh Steelers outside linebackers Bud Dupree and Ola Adeniyi, New Orleans Saints cornerback Jackrabbit Jenkins, Indianapolis Colts defensive lineman Denico Autry, New York Jets safety Matthias Farley, Browns tackle Kendall Lamm and Baltimore Ravens long snapper Morgan Cox.

The Titans also re-signed several of their own free agents: tight ends Anthony Firkser and Geoff Swaim and inside linebacker Jayon Brown.

During the 2021 NFL Draft, Robinson led the selection of eight total players, beginning with Virginia Tech cornerback Caleb Farley with the 22nd overall selection in the first round. In the second round, the Titans chose North Dakota State tackle Dillon Radunz, followed by Georgia linebacker Monty Rice and Washington defensive back Elijah Molden in Round 3.

Perhaps the most notable transaction of the organization's 2021 offseason was the trade for wide receiver Julio Jones on June 9. Robinson dealt draft picks in 2022 (second round) and 2023 (fourth round) to the Atlanta Falcons in exchange for Jones and a 2023 sixth-rounder. Through 2020, Jones' average of 95.5 receiver yards per game ranked first in NFL history, and he is Atlanta's all-time career leader in receptions (848), receiving yards (12,896) and 100-yard receiving games (58).

2020: Early in 2020, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, who would go on to start all 16 games at right tackle.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. He finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists with 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third) and 33 touchdown passes (tied for second).

Robinson acquired Tannehill for the Titans in a 2019 trade with the Miami Dolphins, and in the quarterback's first two seasons with the team, he led the Titans to two playoff appearances. From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the end of 2020, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Tannehill's 2020 successes followed a 2019 season in which he led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned the 2019 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

After securing his multi-year extension, Henry produced one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a running back. He led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,027 rushing yards, which was only the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in league annals, and also paced the league with 17 rushing touchdowns. He was recognized with the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year Award.

Henry, a second-round pick by Robinson in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2020, during which time he also led the NFL with 5,370 total rushing yards. In 2019, he won his first of two consecutive NFL rushing crowns with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks, including Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton in the second round (61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans in the third round (93rd overall).

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles, including Tannehill and former Rams guard Rodger Saffold. Robinson also worked to re-sign safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

In his first two seasons, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 122 catches for 2,126 yards and 19 touchdowns. He became the 11th NFL player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons and the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17). From 1970 through 2020, Brown and Randy Moss were the only players to post at least 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 after totaling 70 receptions for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns.

As a rookie, Brown ranked first among rookies in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his three seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 41 games (36 starts) and totaled nine interceptions. In early August 2018, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 42 games over his three seasons with the club.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 32 games from 2019 to 2020, and in 2019 he led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 47 games (35 starts) in his first three seasons, and his 19.0 sacks from 2018–2020 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He ranked second in the NFL from 2017–2020 with 18 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

WINNINGEST GMs IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced six consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first six years on the job, including a 12-5 mark during the 2021 regular season. Prior to 2021, the club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with postseason berths following the 2017 and 2019 campaigns. Then, in 2020, the Titans finished the regular season 11-5 and won the team's first division championship since 2008.

Robinson has the most winning seasons of any general manager in franchise history. His career win total ranks behind only Floyd Reese (111, including playoffs), and his four playoff seasons, including 2021, are tied with Reese for second place. Only Mike Holovak (five) oversaw more postseason qualifiers.

SIX CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

With a winning record secured during the 2021 regular season, the Titans recorded their sixth season with a winning record in six seasons since Jon Robinson was hired as general manager.

In the "Titans era" (1999–present), the team never before had as many as three consecutive winning campaigns.

With this year's record, plus their 2020 finish of 11-5 and their 9-7 marks every season from 2016 through 2019, the Titans have built the second-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL.

Most current consecutive winning seasons (through 2021):

Team	Total	Seasons
1. Kansas City Chiefs	9	2013–2021
2. Tennessee Titans	6	2016–2021
3. Los Angeles Rams	5	2017–2021

TO THE PLAYOFFS IN YEAR 2

In January 2016, Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk hired general manager Jon Robinson, who helped turn the Titans into a playoff team by his second season.

Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Titans/Oilers general managers in the playoffs within their first two full seasons:

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In 2020, the Titans made their second consecutive playoff appearance under Vrabel, who finished his third season with the organization with 31 total wins and a .596 winning percentage (31-21), including the regular season and postseason. His win total and winning percentage each tied Jack Pardee (31-21 from 1990 to 1992) for the best in franchise history over a head coach's first three seasons.

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Tennessee offense continued its ascent into the NFL's upper echelon. The Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Derrick Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first three seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2020, their .935 winning percentage (29-2) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.974). In the same time period, the Titans had a .643 winning percentage in three-point games (9-5), good for fifth in the league. The Titans and Saints were the only clubs to win at least three overtime contests in the regular season from 2018 to 2020, and neither suffered a loss.

The Titans were called for 267 penalties from 2018 through 2020, which was the second-fewest total in the NFL. Only the New England Patriots (249) fared better.

Also from 2018 to 2020, the Titans were a top-10 team in scoring defense. They allowed opponents to score 22.4 points per game during that time period, the eighth-lowest average in the NFL.

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

NISSAN STADIUM

NISSAN

STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

2022 OPPONENTS

The Titans' opponents for 2022 are set under the NFL's 17-game scheduling formula.

As always, the Titans have home and road games against each of the AFC South rival Houston Texans, Indianapolis Colts and Jacksonville Jaguars.

Based upon the NFL's schedule rotation, the Titans will face every team from the AFC West in 2022. They will host the Denver Broncos and Las Vegas Raiders and travel to meet the Kansas City Chiefs and Los Angeles Chargers.

Additionally, the Titans will square off against the NFC East. They will have dates at Nissan Stadium against the Dallas Cowboys and New York Giants and road games versus the Philadelphia Eagles and Washington Football Team.

Every team plays two intraconference games that are determined by order of finish within its division. By winning the AFC South, they will square off in a 2022 home matchup with the AFC North's equivalent finisher, the first-place Cincinnati Bengals. As a result, the Titans will go on the road to meet the AFC East's 2021 champion, the Buffalo Bills.

Similarly, the NFL's new 17-game format unveiled for the first time in 2021 features interconference matchups based on the previous year's divisional standings. The AFC will be the road conference for the 17th game in 2022 after hosting in 2021. As a result, the Titans will travel for a date with the champions of the NFC North, the Green Bay Packers.

The complete league schedule with dates and times is typically released by the NFL in April or May.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 10th NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2021.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth).

Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

From 2019 to 2020, Tannehill built an 18-8 record as a starter in the regular season and led the Titans to two playoff appearances, including an appearance in the 2019 AFC championship game. He was the team's first quarterback since Steve McNair in 2002 and 2003 to start playoff games in back-to-back seasons.

From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the 2020 campaign, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Among qualifiers, Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Rodgers (2011-12).

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his sixth NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 2020 after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was honored with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

He became the 11th player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons, the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17) and the only player in Titans/Oilers history other than Bill Groman (1960-61) to accomplish the feat. From 1970 through 2020, Brown and Randy Moss were the only players to post at least 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons.

Brown was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 2020 after leading the team with 70 receptions, 1,075 receiving yards and 11 touchdown catches in 14 games (12 starts). He tied for fifth place in the NFL in touchdown receptions and joined Drew Bennett (11 in 2004) as the only players in the team's "Titans era" (since 1999) with 10 or more touchdown receptions in a season. He added a touchdown on a kickoff return.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 52 catches for 1,051 yards and eight touchdowns. He added a 49-yard rushing touchdown. Wide receiver Julio Jones is in his 11th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2021. He was acquired in a June 2021 trade in which the Titans sent a 2022 second-round draft pick and a conditional 2023 fourth-rounder to the Atlanta Falcons in exchange for Jones and a 2023 sixth-round pick.

The seven-time Pro Bowler and two-time first-team All-Pro selection arrived in Tennessee with 848 career receptions for 12,896 yards and 60 touchdowns in 135 games (134 starts). He set Falcons franchise receiving records in both catches and yards, while his touchdowns ranked second all-time.

Through the 2020 campaign, Jones averaged 95.5 receiving yards per game, ranking first in NFL history. Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson established the previous record of 86.1 receiving yards per game.

Jones' 12,896 career receiving yards through 2020 put him 20th in league annals, while his 58 career 100-yard receiving games put him fourth all-time behind Hall of Famers Jerry Rice (76), Randy Moss (64) and Marvin Harrison (59). Among all players in NFL history with at least 848 career catches, only Moss' 15.6-yard average ranked higher than Jones' average of 15.2 yards per reception through 2020.

His final numbers ranked second all-time in receiving yards for a season and tied for second all-time in receptions for a season in NFL history.

A native of Foley, Ala., Jones established himself as one of the premier wide receivers in college football in three seasons at the University of Alabama. After 40 collegiate games, his 179 receptions ranked second all-time at Alabama, while his 2,653 receiving yards ranked second in school history and his 15 touchdowns tied for fourth in Crimson Tide annals. As a junior (2010), he garnered second-team All-American honors and was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection after leading the Tide and setting school records with 78 receptions and 1,133 receiving yards to go along with seven touchdown catches.

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his third NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defensed in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defensed and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

He passed Craig Hentrich (861 punts) in 2020 as the organization's all-time leading punter and finished the season with 876 punts in a Titans uniform. He also concluded 2020 as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (355). Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2020, Kern appeared in 13 games, missing three contests on injured reserve. He punted 37 times for a 45.8 gross average and a 41.5-yard net average with 22 punts placed inside the 20. Since the 1991 season, Kern's 59.5 percent of punts placed inside the 20 in 2020 was the best of any player with at least 30 punts in a season.

When Kern was placed on injured reserve during the 2020 season, it ended his consecutive games played streak ended at 199 games, including his career with the Titans and Denver Broncos. At the time, he owned the fourth-longest active consecutive games played streak in the NFL. His streak with the Titans ended at 177 consecutive games played, finishing as the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews' 232 consecutive games from 1987 to 2001.

With 183 career games with the Titans through 2020, Kern ranked fourth in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194). Kern's total was the most for any player during the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999).

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).
