WEEKLY NEWS RELEASE — NOV. 3, 2026

CINCINNATI BENGALS (5-2) VS. ATLANTA FALCONS (3-5)

WEEK 9, GAME 8
SUNDAY, NOV. 8
AT BERNABEU STADIUM (MADRID, SPAIN)

NEXT WEEK: WEEK 10, GAME 9
SUNDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL, NOV. 15 VS. PITTSBURGH

GAME INFORMATION

Kickoff: 9:30 a.m. Eastern.

Television: The game will air on NFL Network. In the Bengals' home region, it will be carried by WLWT-TV (Ch. 5) in Cincinnati. Broadcasters are Bob Wischusen (play-by-play), Louis Riddick (analyst) and Molly McGrath (sideline reporter).

Radio: The game will air on the Bengals Radio Network, led by Cincinnati flagship radio stations WLW-AM (700), WCKY-AM (1530) and WEBN-FM (102.7). Broadcasters are Dan Hoard (play-by-play), Dave Lapham (analyst) and Tony Pike (analyst).

In addition, the game will air nationally on Westwood One Radio. Broadcasters are Oliver Wilson (play-by-play) and Christian Scotland-Williamson (analyst).

Setting the scene: The Bengals travel to Madrid, Spain, this week to take on the Atlanta Falcons at Bernabeu Stadium as part of the NFL's International Games.

Cincinnati will play a game abroad for the third time in team history, as it previously traveled to London, England in the 2016 and '19 seasons. The Bengals are coming off three straight victories which have vaulted them to a 5-2 record and second place in the AFC North Division. The team's high-powered offense has scored over 30 points in all three games, with the most recent output being a season-best 43 in an overtime win against Tennessee in Week 8.

While the three consecutive winning results have featured notable performances from Cincinnati's offense, defense and special teams unit, the team still is in search of a complete, complementary effort put forth over 60 minutes of play. The game against the Titans included four turnovers offensively and a season-high 36 points allowed defensively. The Bengals also found themselves in a 13-0 hole for the second straight week, before once again rallying to take the lead. But as the players and coaching staff express a shared commitment to maintaining a high level through the entirety of this Sunday's game, head coach Zac Taylor has not lost sight of how difficult it is to earn a victory in the NFL.

"I want a complete game, I want to start the first quarter faster. Those are all things we're going to continue to talk about," said head coach Zac Taylor, "But there is something to finding a way to win. The last two years, some of these games have gone the other direction. For our guys, particularly late in the fourth quarter and in overtime, to step up and seal the game, I'm not going to dismiss that."

The victory over Tennessee was spearheaded by several impressive stat lines on offense, beginning with seventh-year QB Joe Burrow. The Pro Bowler registered season highs in completion percentage (79.2), passing yards (462) and TD passes (five), then finished off his day with a nine-yard rushing score in overtime that proved to be the game-winner. He became just the second QB in NFL history with at least 450 passing yards, five passing TDs and a rushing TD in a game, joining Pro Football Hall of Famer Norm Van Brocklin in 1951. Burrow's top receiving targets each enjoyed a productive outing, as WR Ja'Marr Chase caught 11 passes for 141 yards and a TD while WR Tee Higgins had 10 catches for 155 yards and two scores. TE Mike Gesicki also had a receiving TD for the fifth straight game, marking the longest streak by a tight end in Bengals history.

Cincinnati's offensive performance against the Titans served as a continuation of what it has showcased throughout the season. The Bengals lead the NFL in net passing yards per game (288.4) and third-down conversion rate (52.9), while ranking second in points per game (29.4), sixth in first downs per game (22.1) and seventh in total yards per game (368.7).

Defensively, the Bengals' offseason additions had another strong showing in the Week 8 win. DE Boye Mafe, a free agent signee in March, improved his team-leading sack total to 5.5 this season when he dropped Titans QB Cam Ward in the third quarter and forced a fumble. The loose ball was recovered by DT Dexter Lawrence II, who also came through with a crucial sack late in the fourth quarter to help send the game to OT. A trade acquisition of the Bengals just ahead of the NFL Draft in April, Lawrence already has five sacks and eight TFLs early in his Cincinnati tenure.

As the Bengals' top playmakers try to lead the path to a fourth win in a row, they do so while navigating the unusual circumstances presented by an international trip. Cincinnati's schedule for the week includes a transatlantic flight on Tuesday, and practices in Madrid on Thursday and Friday. Taylor has expressed that he wants his players to spend time embracing the experience in a foreign country, but also reiterated the primary objective as the season nears its halfway point.

"We're trying to get to 6-2," said Taylor. "This is one of the weeks I showed them where we stand in the league. You're 5-2, and you're right there. This game is critical. Forget about how close the last one was. We've got to go win this game and put ourselves in a position to do all of those things we talked about at the beginning of the season. Shame on us if something on this trip derails that mindset and that focus. Everyone is a professional — they know how to go on the trip and enjoy themselves in the right way, but to put themselves in the best position possible to go win on Sunday."

The Bengals face an Atlanta team which has lost three of its last four to move to 3-5 on the season. The Falcons are coming off a 16-0 loss at Tampa in Week 8.

The series: The Bengals lead 10-5 overall, including 6-2 as the home team and 4-3 as the road team. This week's game will be the first to be played between the clubs at a neutral site.

Cincinnati has won the past three meetings — at Cincinnati in 2014, at Atlanta in '18, and at Cincinnati in '22.

Complete Bengals-Falcons series results are on page 222 of the 2026 Bengals Media Guide.

Team bests from the series:

Bengals — MOST POINTS: 41, in a 41-31 victory at Cinergy Field in 1996. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 30, in a 37-7 win at Riverfront Stadium in 1978. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 7, in the 37-7 win in '78.

Falcons — MOST POINTS: 39, in a 39-32 win at the Georgia Dome in 2010. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 27, in a 30-3 Falcons win at the Georgia Dome in 2002. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 3, in the 30-3 win in '02.

The last meetings: Summaries of the two most recent Bengals-Falcons meetings — in 2018 at Atlanta and in '22 at Cincinnati — are on page 13 of this news release.

International Bengals: Sunday's matchup against Atlanta will mark the third game in Bengals history played outside of the United States. Cincinnati's two previous international games both were played in London at Wembley Stadium, as the team faced Washington in Week 8 of the 2016 season and the L.A. Rams in Week 8 of the '19 campaign. Both of those contests counted as home games for the Bengals, while this week will be their first international trip that officially counts as a road game.

The Bengals become the 23rd NFL team to play three or more international games in their history. Jacksonville has played the most games abroad with 16, while Miami's seven international contests are second-most.

Madrid hosted its first NFL game in Week 11 last season, when Miami defeated Washington in overtime. This week's Madrid game is one of nine international games to be played in 2026 across four continents, seven countries and eight stadiums.

Brown brothers reunion: Sunday's game features the second regular-season matchup between twin brothers Chase and Sydney Brown. Chase, a fourth-year HB for the Bengals, and Sydney, a fourth-year defensive back who is in his first season with Atlanta, were born March 21, 2000, in London, Ontario (Canada).

The Brown brothers relocated from Canada to Florida for their junior and senior years of high school, which they spent at Saint Stephen's Episcopal School in Bradenton (south of Tampa). Chase then attended Western Michigan University for his true freshman season in 2018, before transferring to join Sydney at the University of Illinois. They were teammates at Illinois from 2019-22 and both compiled decorated careers for the Fighting Illini. Chase rushed for over 1000 yards in each of his final two seasons, and in 2022 was an AP second-team All-American. Sydney was a team captain who led the Big Ten Conference in INTs (six; third in the nation) and earned first-team all-conference honors in 2022.

Sydney was selected by Philadelphia in the third round (66th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft, 97 picks before Chase heard his name called by Cincinnati in the fifth round (163rd). Sydney spent his first three pro seasons with the Eagles, highlighted by a Super Bowl victory following the 2024 campaign. He then was traded to Atlanta this past offseason and has played in all eight games with four starts for the Falcons this year.

Chase has played in 52 career games for the Bengals, and has served as the team's starting HB since midway through the 2024 season. He leads the Bengals this season with 340 rushing yards.

The first matchup between the Brown brothers came in Week 8 of the 2024 season, when Sydney and the Eagles defeated Chase and the Bengals at Paycor Stadium.

Bengals career records watch: As the Bengals continue the 2026 season, here is a look at potential upcoming movement on the team's career records lists (regular season):

● QB Joe Burrow has 177 career TD passes, which are the fourth-most in team history and 10 shy of QB Boomer Esiason (187) for third-most. QBs Andy Dalton (204) and Ken Anderson (197) hold the top two spots on the team's career list.

● Burrow has 3073 career passing attempts, the fifth-most in team history and 144 shy of Palmer (3217) for fourth. Anderson (4475), Dalton (4449) and Esiason (3564) hold the top three spots.

● Burrow in Week 8 vs. Tennessee had 462 passing yards, moving his career passing yardage total to 22,925. He surpassed QB Carson Palmer (22,694) for fourth-most in team history. Anderson (32,838), Dalton (31,594) and Esiason (27,149) hold the top three spots.

● Burrow has completed 2116 career passes, and in Week 4 surpassed both Esiason (2015) and Palmer (2024) to move into third on the team's all-time list. Dalton (2757) and Anderson (2654) hold the top two spots.

● WR Ja'Marr Chase has 60 career receiving TDs, the fourth-most in team history and three shy of WR Carl Pickens (63) for third. WRs Chad Johnson (66) and A.J. Green (65) hold the top two spots.

● Chase has 27 career games with 100 or more receiving yards, the third-most in team history and four shy of Johnson (31) for second. Green (33) holds the team record for most such games.

● Chase has 563 career receptions, and in Week 3 surpassed Pickens (530) for third-most in team history. Johnson (751) and Green (649) hold the top two spots.

● Chase has 7329 career receiving yards, and in Week 5 surpassed WR Isaac Curtis (7101) for third-most in team history. Johnson (10,783) and Green (9430) hold the top two spots. Chase also surpassed Pickens (6887) for fourth in Week 2 of this season.

● WR Tee Higgins has 49 career receiving TDs, the sixth-most in team history and four shy of Curtis (53) for fifth.

● K Evan McPherson has accounted for 615 career points, the fifth-most in team history and 45 shy of fourth-most, which is held by K Doug Pelfrey (660).

● McPherson has made 129 career FGs, the fifth-most in team history and 24 shy of Pelfrey (153) for fourth. McPherson in Week 1 surpassed K Horst Muhlmann (120) for fifth.

● McPherson has 228 career made PATs, the fourth-most in team history and 19 shy of K Mike Nugent (247) for third. Kickers Jim Breech (476) and Shayne Graham (248) hold the top two spots.

Records vs. Falcons: The 15 games of the series have produced no Bengals individual or team records, nor any Bengals-opponent records by Falcons players.

The closest individual accomplishments on the Bengals side have been 481 passing yards by QB Joe Burrow at Atlanta in 2022, and an 86.96 completion percentage (20-23) by QB Turk Schonert at Cincinnati in 1984. The 481 passing yards rank third in team history, and the 86.96 completion percentage ranks fourth.

The closest team mark for the Bengals was a total of 459 net team passing yards in the 2022 game, which ranks third.

Individually vs. Falcons: Here are cumulative regular-season offensive statistics for current Cincinnati players in Bengals games against the Falcons:

● QB Joe Burrow: One game; 34-of-42 passing for 481 yards, three TDs and zero INTs (138.2 passer rating); Three rushes for 20 yards (6.7-yard average) and one TD.

● WR Ja'Marr Chase: One game; Eight receptions for 130 yards (16.3) and two TDs.

● WR Tee Higgins: One game; Five receptions for 93 yards (18.6).

● HB Samaje Perine: One game; One rush for zero yards; Two receptions for eight yards (4.0).

Uniform watch: Cincinnati will wear white jerseys, orange pants (black stripes) and white socks this week against Atlanta. The Bengals have worn this combination five previous times since the orange pants were introduced in 2024, compiling a 1-4 record in those games. They last featured this look in Week 15 of the 2025 season against Baltimore.

The Bengals redesigned their uniforms in 2021, which marked the team's first significant change since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants feature four options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, white with black stripes, and orange with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new white helmet with its iconic black stripes. When paired with white jerseys and white pants (with black stripes), a new uniform combination was created and was branded as the "White Bengal." The team has worn the white helmet six times and collected a 5-1 record in those games. The Bengals will don the white helmet twice this season, in Week 10 against Pittsburgh on Sunday Night Football and in Week 17 against Baltimore on Thursday Night Football (both home games).

Here is a look at the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

 — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms (CR) that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023 and thereafter, the Bengals were permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.*

^ — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or throwback and/or color rush uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes the team's orange jersey. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

+ — The Bengals added orange pants with black stripes to their uniform lineup in 2024.

THE HEAD COACHES

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2026 season is his eighth in the position.

In 2025, Taylor once again orchestrated an offense which ranked near the top of the NFL in several metrics, including sixth in net passing yards per game (235.6), fifth in third-down efficiency (43.4 percent) and second in red zone TD percentage (66.7). After QB Joe Burrow sustained a toe injury early in the year that ultimately caused him to miss nine games, the team acquired QB Joe Flacco in a trade with Cleveland, and Taylor helped the 18th-year veteran quickly assimilate in his system. Over his six starts for the Bengals, Flacco ranked second leaguewide in completions (154) and fifth in passing yards (1636). With Burrow behind center for the final six weeks of the regular season, Taylor guided Cincinnati to top-10 league rankings in scoring (sixth; 27.7 points) and total yards (fourth; 369.7). Taylor also again helped WR Ja'Marr Chase compile an All-Pro season in 2025, as the fifth-year standout finished third in the NFL in receptions (125) and fourth in receiving yards (1412). Chase's running mate, sixth-year WR Tee Higgins, tied for second in the league with a career-high 11 receiving TDs. Taylor additionally continued to expand third-year HB Chase Brown's role in the offense, as he posted his first career 1000-yard rushing season and had a career-high 69 catches for 437 yards. The 2025 campaign also saw Taylor work with first-year defensive coordinator Al Golden as Cincinnati improved in nearly every statistical metric in the second half of the season compared to the first. Following the team's Week 10 bye, the Bengals tied for fifth in the NFL in takeaways (12) and tied for seventh in sacks (22).

In 2024, Taylor guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season with a record of 9-8. After falling to 4-8 in early December, he led Cincinnati to five straight wins to vault back into the AFC playoff picture. He oversaw one of the NFL's most dynamic offenses, serving as play-caller for a unit that led the league in passing yards (272.9) and ranked sixth in scoring (27.8). Burrow set numerous single-season Bengals records and led all NFL QBs in passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43), while Chase became the youngest player in the Super Bowl era to win the receiving "Triple Crown," as he paced the league in catches (127), receiving yards (1708) and TD catches (17). The individual performances earned Burrow his second career Pro Bowl nod and the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year award, while Chase was named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

In 2023, Taylor led Cincinnati to a 9-8 mark despite a few key players missing time due to injuries. In 2021 and '22, he led the Bengals to back-to-back AFC North titles, marking the first time in team history Cincinnati won its division in consecutive years.

The 2021 division title was the Bengals' first in six years. The team went on to win three postseason games and claim the AFC Championship (Cincinnati's first since 1988) and a berth in Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, playing in his first full season in Taylor's system, was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year after leading the league in completion percentage (70.4), while Chase took home Offensive Rookie of the Year honors after posting the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455, since surpassed).

In 2022, the Bengals made a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship. After entering November with a 4-4 record, Taylor helped Cincinnati tie team regular-season records for consecutive wins (eight) and total wins (12) to earn the No. 3 seed in the AFC playoffs. Offensively, the Bengals ranked fifth in the NFL in passing (265.0) and seventh in scoring (26.1), while defensively Cincinnati held opposing passers to a league-low 59.8 completion percentage. After the 2022 postseason, Taylor's postseason record improved to 5-2.

In the postseason, Taylor guided Cincinnati to its first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2017 and quarterbacks coach in '18. He broke into NFL coaching with Miami as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2012, then was elevated to quarterbacks coach for the Dolphins from 2013-15.

Taylor had two stints in the college coaching ranks, serving on staff at Texas A&M (2008-11) and Cincinnati (2016). At UC, he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Taylor played QB at Wake Forest (2002-03), Butler County (Kan.) C.C. (2004) and Nebraska (2005-06). In 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year and led the Cornhuskers to an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017. He joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp. He then spent the 2007 season with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League (did not play).

Taylor was born on May 10, 1983, in Norman, Okla. He graduated from Nebraska in 2006 with a degree in communication studies. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman. Taylor's father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at Oklahoma (1976-79), then later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played QB at Marshall and currently is the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears.

Kevin Stefanski was named the 20th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history on Jan. 17, 2026. He took over the club after spending the previous six seasons (2020-25) as the head coach for the Cleveland Browns.

A two-time AP Coach of the Year, Stefanski became the 16th coach to win the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Award multiple times since its inception in 1957, winning the honors in 2023 and '20. In his six seasons as head coach in Cleveland, Stefanski has led the team to two postseason appearances and two 11-win seasons, leading the Browns to the playoffs for the first time since 2002 and their first playoff win since 1994 with an 11-5 record in '20, their best since '94. He joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Paul Brown (1951 and '53) as the only coaches in team history to record multiple seasons with at least 11 regular season wins. In 2023, the Browns made the playoffs and finished 11-6.

During his tenure in Cleveland, Stefanski's teams consistently were one of the league's best rushing units with three top-six finishes in average rush yards per game. During the Browns 78-year history, the team has surpassed 6000 scrimmage yards in a single season just seven times but reached the mark in four seasons under him. Under Stefanski, the Browns were fifth in the NFL with an average of 130.5 rushing yards per game.

Defensively, the Browns are third in the NFL with an average of 322.3 yards allowed per game under Stefanski, including just 204.1 passing yards allowed, the second-fewest since 2020.

Prior to his time in Cleveland, Stefanski spent 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, rising from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator during that span. He joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and remained with the organization under three different head coaches. After serving as assistant QBs coach from 2009-13, he spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the TEs and one season (2016) as RBs coach. From 2017-18, he coached the QBs and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games before being named the team's offensive coordinator in 2019.

Stefanski played defensive back at Pennsylvania (2000-04) and earned a bachelor's degree in communications. He was born and raised in Philadelphia, Pa.

Taylor vs. Falcons: Taylor leads, 1-0.

Taylor vs. Stefanski: Stefanski leads, 7-5.

Stefanski vs. Bengals: Stefanski leads, 7-5.

BENGALS NOTES

2026 Bengals captains: The Bengals this season have seven captains who were elected via a players-only vote. Wearing the captains' patch are three offensive players, three defensive players and one special teamer.

The offensive captains are seventh-year QB Joe Burrow, sixth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase and 11th-year C Ted Karras. Burrow (2020-present) and Karras ('22-present) both have been captains every season they have played for the Bengals. This marks the sixth captaincy overall for Karras, who also wore the patch for the Miami Dolphins in 2020. Chase holds the role for the second straight season, after being recognized for the first time in his career in 2025.

The defensive captains are fifth-year S Bryan Cook, eighth-year DT Dexter Lawrence II and fourth-year CB DJ Turner II. Cook and Turner are serving as captains for the first time in their respective careers, while Lawrence wears the patch for a fifth time after being voted a captain in each of the past four seasons while with the N.Y. Giants.

Sixth-year K Evan McPherson was voted a captain on special teams for the second time in his career. He previously served as a captain in the 2024 season.

Bengals, Titans combine for offensive explosion: Cincinnati's 43-36 overtime win over Tennessee in Week 8 registered as one of the NFL's top offensive games this season in several metrics. The 79 combined points scored were the second-most in any contest across the league, behind a 96-point game between Chicago and Carolina in Week 1. The Bengals and Titans also totaled 950 net yards, with a season-high 510 by Cincinnati and 440 by Tennessee. That ranked as the second-most in the NFL this year, behind a combined 1030 yards by the Bears and Panthers in their season opener.

Cincinnati's 29 total first downs in Week 8 were a season high and tied for the fourth-most by any team in a game this year. It also marked the most by the Bengals in a game since Week 17 of the 2024 season against Denver, when they had 34. Combined with the Titans' 23 first downs, the 52 total first downs tied for the fifth-most in an NFL game this season.

The Bengals' 435 net passing yards against Tennessee were the most in an NFL game this season and the seventh-most in a game in team history.

A second-half swing for the ages: In Week 7 at Baltimore, the Bengals stormed back from a 13-0 halftime deficit with 35 unanswered points in the second half to earn a divisional road win. The dramatic swing in the game produced some unique statistical marks that have not occurred — both in Bengals and in NFL history — in over 40 years. Here are some notable facts on the comeback victory:

- The Bengals' 35 points tied for the second-most in a second half in team history, trailing only a 45-point outburst in the second half of a 61-17 win at the Houston Oilers on Dec. 17, 1972. The last time Cincinnati scored 35 points in a second half was on Oct. 29, 1989 against Tampa Bay.
- The Bengals scored 35 points in the second half while holding their opponent to zero points for the second time in team history. The previous instance was on Dec. 21, 1986, when Cincinnati outscored the Jets 35-0 in the second half of a 52-21 win. The last NFL team to accomplish this feat was Denver against the San Diego Chargers on Oct. 15, 2012.
- The Bengals became the third team in NFL history to win a game by 20 or more points after trailing by at least 13 points at halftime. The previous two instances were Chicago against Philadelphia on Nov. 30, 1941, and the N.Y. Giants against the Baltimore Colts on Nov. 19, 1950.
- Cincinnati became the 10th team in NFL history to score at least 35 points in the second half after being shut out in the first half. The last team to accomplish this feat was Minnesota against Indianapolis on Dec. 17, 2022.
- The Bengals scored a TD on each of their first five offensive possessions of a second half for the second time in team history, with the previous instance being the previously-reference 1989 game against Tampa Bay. The last NFL team to accomplish this feat was Green Bay at Dallas on Dec. 15, 2013.

● The 35 points marked the most by any team in the second half of a game since Miami also scored 35 against Denver on Sept. 24, 2023.

Burrow throws 175th TD: QB Joe Burrow threw his 175th career TD pass when he connected with WR Tee Higgins for a 17-yard score in the third quarter of Week 8 against Tennessee. Playing in his 84th regular-season game, he became the third-fastest QB in NFL history to reach 175 passing TDs, trailing only Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (72 games) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Dan Marino (76).

Burrow finished the win over the Titans with five scoring passes, improving his career total to 177. That already ranks as the eighth-most in a player's first seven seasons in NFL history, and is four shy of tying former Atlanta QB Matt Ryan (181) for seventh-most. Burrow also ranks fourth in Bengals history in TD passes, and is 10 away from matching former QB Boomer Esiason (187) for third on the team's all-time list.

Burrow's performance against Tennessee marked his 33rd career game with at least three TD passes. That surpassed Hall of Famer Peyton Manning (32) for the third-most such games in a player's first seven seasons in league history. Only Marino (42) and Mahomes (38) had more games with three TD passes in their first seven years.

Here is a look at the fastest QBs in NFL history, in terms of games played, to reach 175 TD passes (regular season):

PLAYER	TEAM	GAMES TO 175 TDs
Patrick Mahomes	Kansas City Chiefs	72
Dan Marino	Miami Dolphins	76
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati Bengals	84
Aaron Rodgers	Green Bay Packers	87
Brett Favre	Green Bay Packers	94

Joe's 2026 TD tally: QB Joe Burrow leads the NFL with 20 TD passes in seven games played this season. That total is bolstered by his last three games, as he passed for four TDs in Week 5 at Miami, four in Week 7 at Baltimore and five in Week 8 vs. Tennessee.

Burrow's 13 combined TD passes over his last three games are the most in a three-game stretch in Bengals history. He also set the previous team mark with 12 TDs over a three-game span from Weeks 9-11 of the 2024 campaign. Prior to Burrow's current run, the last NFL QB with 13 scoring passes over three games was L.A. Rams QB Matthew Stafford in Weeks 7-10 of the 2025 season.

Burrow's five TD passes in the win over the Titans were the most by any NFL QB in a game this season. It also tied his career high, which he initially set in Week 5 of the 2024 season against Baltimore and then matched in Week 9 of that year versus Las Vegas. He is the only QB in the league to pass for five TDs in three games since the start of the 2024 campaign.

Each of Burrow's four TD passes in the Week 7 victory over the Ravens came in the second half, helping him earn his ninth career AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor. He became the first QB with four scoring passes in the second half of a game since Houston's C.J. Stroud in Week 9 of the 2023 season. It also is tied for the most TD passes in the second half of a game in Bengals history, alongside his own total in Week 15 of 2022 at Tampa Bay and former QB Andy Dalton in Week 16 of '19.

In addition to his four TD passes, Burrow has completed over 70 percent of his passing attempts while registering a passer rating of at least 115 in each of the last three games. He is the first QB in NFL history with at least four TD passes and a completion percentage of 70 or higher in three consecutive contests. He also is the fourth QB ever to log at least four scoring passes and a rating of 115 in three straight games, joining Pro Football Hall of Famer Peyton Manning (2004 with Indianapolis), Russell Wilson ('20 with Seattle) and Stafford ('25 with the Rams).

Burrow owns the three highest single-season passing TD totals in Bengals history, with 43 in 2024 (led NFL), 35 in '22 (tied for second) and 34 in '21 (eighth).

On the mark: QB Joe Burrow, now in his seventh pro season, holds the NFL record for career completion percentage at 68.86 percent (minimum 1500 passing attempts). He has completed 2116 of 3073 passes for 22,925 yards (7.5 yards per attempt), with 177 TDs and 57 INTs.

In Week 8 vs. Tennessee, Burrow completed 79.2 percent of his passing attempts (38 of 48), marking his 40th career game with a completion percentage of 70 or higher. That is the most such games by a player in his first seven seasons in NFL history, with Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (2017-23), Baltimore QB Lamar Jackson ('18-24) and Miami/Atlanta QB Tua Tagovailoa ('20-26) tied for second with 38 games each in their first seven years.

Burrow currently leads the NFL this season with a completion percentage of 73.0 (minimum 14 attempts per team's games). He has completed over 70 percent of his passes in six of Cincinnati's seven games. His 79.2 completion percentage against the Titans in Week 8 was the highest by any QB with at least 40 attempts in a game in 2026.

Burrow has ranked in the top five in the NFL in completion percentage three times in his career. He led the league in 2021 with a 70.4 percent rate, ranked second in '22 (68.3) and fourth in '24 (70.6). His official clip of 70.552 percent in 2024 set a Bengals single-season record, narrowly edging out QB Ken Anderson's completion rate of 70.550 in 1982.

Here is a look at the all-time leaders in career completion percentage (min. 1500 attempts):

PLAYER	TEAM(S)	YEARS	COMP. %
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati	2020-26	68.86
Brock Purdy	San Francisco	2022-26	68.09
Tua Tagovailoa	Miami/Atlanta	2020-26	68.03
Drew Brees	San Diego/New Orleans	2001-20	67.69
Jimmy Garoppolo	New England/San Francisco/ Las Vegas/L.A. Rams	2014-25	67.36

Burrow through 3K attempts: QB Joe Burrow threw his 3000th career passing attempt during the Bengals' Week 7 win at Baltimore. His 2057 completions at the time he hit that mark are the most in NFL history in a player's first 3000 attempts, well ahead of the next closest total of 2008 by former Arizona QB Kyler Murray.

Burrow currently has 2116 career completions, which are the third-most in Bengals history and sixth-most since he entered the NFL in 2020. In Week 4 of this season, he surpassed both Boomer Esiason (2015) and Carson Palmer (2024) on the team's all-time list.

Even with Cincinnati having a Week 6 bye, Burrow ranks third in the NFL this season with 195 completions. He is the only QB in the league to complete at least 35 passes in multiple games, as he had a season-high 39 completions in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville (tied for second-most in his career) and 38 in Week 8 vs. Tennessee (fourth-most in career).

Burrow has finished in the top five leaguewide in completions twice in his career, ranking fifth in 2022 (414 completions) and first in '24 (460). His 460 completions in 2024 set a Bengals single-season record and were the sixth-most in a season in NFL history.

Here is a look at the QBs with the most completions in their first 3000 passing attempts in NFL history:

PLAYER	TEAM	COMPLETIONS THROUGH 3K ATTEMPTS
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati Bengals	2057
Kyler Murray	Arizona Cardinals	2008
Kirk Cousins	Washington	2006
Dak Prescott	Dallas Cowboys	1997
Justin Herbert	L.A. Chargers	1996

Burrow racks up the yardage: QB Joe Burrow has the two highest single-game passing yardage totals in the NFL this season, with 462 in Week 8 vs. Tennessee and 428 in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville. His total against the Titans marked the third-most passing yards in any game of his career, behind a Bengals-record 525 yards in Week 16 of the 2021 season against Baltimore, and 481 in Week 7 of the '22 campaign against Atlanta.

Burrow now has nine career games with at least 400 passing yards, which are the most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2020. He also has eight games with at least 400 passing yards and three TD passes, the third-most in a player's first seven seasons in league history behind Pro Football Hall of Famer Dan Marino and Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes, who each had nine such games.

Burrow's 2115 passing yards this season rank fourth in the NFL. He has finished in the top five in the league in that category twice in his career, ranking fifth in the 2022 season (4475) and first in '24 (4918). His 2024 total set a Cincinnati single-season record and ranked 22nd in NFL history.

Among his peers: QB Joe Burrow has ranked near the top of the league in virtually every passing category since entering the NFL as the No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 draft. Here is a look at where he stands among all QBs since the start of his rookie campaign:

- Second in completion percentage (68.86; minimum 900 passing attempts)
- Fourth in passer rating (102.0; min. 900 att.)
- Fifth in TD passes (177)
- Sixth in completions (2116)
- Sixth in passing yards (22,925)

Joe to Ja'Marr: QB Joe Burrow and WR Ja'Marr Chase, who helped steer Louisiana State to a national title in 2019 before becoming teammates on the Bengals in '21, now are in their sixth NFL season together. They have connected for 54 TDs at the pro level, including six this season.

Burrow, who is 29 years old, and Chase, who is 26, are one of four duos in NFL history to reach 50 TD passes by a QB and receiver both under the age of 30. They joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dan Marino and Mark Clayton (65 TDs with Miami), John Hadl and Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (53 TDs with San Diego Chargers) and Daunte Culpepper and HOF Randy Moss (53 TDs with Minnesota).

Burrow and Chase's 54 TDs also are the most by any QB-WR duo since the start of the 2021 season, seven ahead of Detroit QB Jared Goff and WR Amon-Ra St. Brown (47). Per the NFL's Next Gen Stats service, 22 of Burrow's TD throws to Chase have been deep passes (20 or more air yards), the most by any duo since 2021.

Chasing history: WR Ja'Marr Chase enjoyed his top statistical performance of the 2026 campaign in Week 8 vs. Tennessee, registering season highs in receptions (11) and receiving yards (141), with a 30-yard TD catch in the second quarter. It marked his 12th career game with at least 10 catches, 100 receiving yards and a receiving TD, which surpassed former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas (11) for the most such games in a player's first six seasons in NFL history.

Chase's scoring reception in the win over the Titans also was the 60th of his career. Playing in his 85th regular-season game, he became the fourth-fastest player in NFL history to reach that mark, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famers Jerry Rice (69 games) and Randy Moss (78), and former New England TE Rob Gronkowski (71).

Chase reached 7000 career receiving yards in Week 3 of this season at Pittsburgh, in what was his 81st regular-season game played. He became the fourth-fastest player ever to hit that milestone, behind Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (72 games), Atlanta WR Julio Jones (72) and Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (73). Chase's current career total of 7329 receiving yards is the second-most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021, trailing only Jefferson (7415).

Since being selected No. 5 overall by the Bengals in the 2021 draft, Chase also leads the league in TD catches and is second in receptions (563). He has climbed Cincinnati's all-time receiving charts in quick fashion, as he already ranks third in franchise history in receptions, third in receiving yards, third in 100-yard receiving games (27) and fourth in receiving TDs.

Chase holds a current average of 86.2 receiving yards per game (7329 in 85 games), the third-highest mark in NFL history behind L.A. Rams WR Puka Nacua (95.1) and Jefferson (88.2).

Chase's production from 2021-25 rivaled some of the NFL's all-time greats in the early stages of their respective careers. He is the only player in league history with at least 500 receptions for 50 receiving TDs in his first five seasons, and he is one of five players ever to begin his career with five straight 1000-yard seasons. The players who accomplished that feat before Chase were Hall of Famer Randy Moss, former Cincinnati WR A.J. Green, former Tampa Bay WR Mike Evans and Jefferson.

Chase was voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his first five seasons, joining Green as the only players to accomplish that feat in their Bengals career. He is one of six players in team history with five or more Pro Bowl selections overall, alongside OT Anthony Munoz (11 Pro Bowls), DT Geno Atkins (eight), Green (seven), Johnson (six) and CB Lemar Parrish (six).

In the 2024 campaign, Chase became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era — and the youngest — to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led the NFL in receptions (127; Bengals single-season record), yards (1708; Bengals record) and TDs (17; tied Bengals record). He was voted a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in both the 2024 and '25 seasons, becoming the fourth Bengals offensive player to receive multiple All-Pro honors in his career. The other players to do so have all been inducted into the team's Ring of Honor — OT Anthony Munoz (nine All-Pro selections), OT Willie Anderson (three) and WR Chad Johnson (two).

Always open: After leading the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 receptions in 2024, WR Ja'Marr Chase followed up with 125 catches in '25, which ranked third in the league and second in team history. He became the third player in NFL history with at least 125 receptions in consecutive seasons, joining former Pittsburgh WR Antonio Brown (2014-15) and former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas ('18-19).

Chase is coming off a season-high 11 receptions in Cincinnati's Week 8 win over Tennessee. It marked his 17th career game with at least 10 catches, which are the most such games in the NFL since the start of his 2021 rookie season. The next closest player in that span is Dallas WR CeeDee Lamb, who has 13 games with double-digit receptions. Chase's 17 games also are the most in a career in Bengals history, with former WR A.J. Green's 10 such performances ranking second.

Chase totaled 10 or more catches five times during the 2025 season, including a stretch of three straight contests from Weeks 6-8. He became the first player in Bengals history to register double-digit catches in three consecutive games.

Chase set a Bengals single-game record with 16 catches in Week 7 of last season against Pittsburgh, breaking his own previous team record of 15 receptions (Week 5 of 2023 at Arizona). He now owns the four highest single-game reception totals in team history.

Chase's four career games with 14 or more catches are tied with Brown for the second-most in NFL history. Former L.A. Chargers/Chicago and current Indianapolis WR Keenan Allen holds the record with six such career games.

1+5=6: WR Ja'Marr Chase leads the NFL with 31 receiving TDs since the start of the 2024 season, as he had a Bengals-record 17 in the '24 campaign (led NFL), eight in '25 and six so far in '26. Not far behind him in that category is teammate Tee Higgins, whose 25 total TD catches in that span are tied for fourth leaguewide. Higgins caught 10 scoring passes in 2024 (tied for sixth in NFL), then set a career high with 11 last season (tied for second). He has four this season, including two in the team's most recent win over Tennessee in Week 8.

Higgins' two TD catches against the Titans were joined by a 30-yard scoring reception from Chase. It marked the 15th game since the start of the 2021 season in which both players had a receiving TD, which are the most such games by any NFL duo in that span and the most by any duo in Bengals history. The next closest Cincinnati tandem is former WR A.J. Green and TE Jermaine Gresham, who had a TD catch in the same game on 10 occasions.

Chase's 60 career receiving TDs lead the NFL since the start of his 2021 rookie campaign. It also is the fourth-most TD catches in Bengals history, and just six shy of WR Chad Johnson's team record of 66.

Higgins is the third player in Bengals history with double-digit receiving TDs in consecutive seasons, joining former WRs Carl Pickens (1994-96) and A.J. Green (2012-13). He currently has 49 career TD catches, which are the sixth-most in team history and tied for the fifth-most in the NFL since he entered the league as a second-round draft pick of Cincinnati in 2020.

With a receiving TD this week against Atlanta, in what will be his 93rd career regular-season game, Higgins would become the fourth-fastest player in Bengals history to record 50 scoring catches. The only Cincinnati players to reach that mark in fewer games are Chase (68 games), Pickens (80) and Green (89).

Here are the league leaders in receiving TDs since 2024:

PLAYER	TEAM	RECEIVING TDs SINCE '24
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals	31
Amon-Ra St. Brown	Detroit Lions	28
Davante Adams	Las Vegas/N.Y. Jets/L.A. Rams	26
Tee Higgins	Cincinnati Bengals	25
Jaxon Smith-Njigba	Seattle Seahawks	25

Chase and Higgins' monster day: In Week 8 vs. Tennessee, Ja'Marr Chase and Tee Higgins became the seventh WR duo in NFL history to each post at least 10 receptions, 140 receiving yards and a receiving TD in the same game. Chase finished with 11 grabs for 141 yards and a score, while Higgins had 10 catches for 155 yards and two TDs.

The previous duos to accomplish that feat were Denver's Ed McCaffrey and Rod Smith (Nov. 19, 2000), Cincinnati's T.J. Houshmandzadeh and Chad Johnson (Dec. 5, '04), Arizona's Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald (Nov. 16, '08), Houston's Andre Johnson and Kevin Walter (Sept. 19, '10), the N.Y. Giants' Victor Cruz and Hakeem Nicks (Sept. 12, '12), and Miami's Tyreek Hill and Jaylen Waddle (Sept. 18, '22).

The Week 8 win over the Titans also marked the fourth time Chase and Higgins each had 100 or more receiving yards in the same game. The previous instances were Week 16 of the 2021 season against Baltimore, Week 17 of '24 vs. Denver and Week 9 of '25 vs. Chicago.

Terrific Tee: WR Tee Higgins ranks second in the NFL this season in receiving yards (726) and receiving yards per game (103.7), while also tying for ninth in receptions (43) and tying for 13th in receiving TDs (four). He and Seattle All-Pro WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba (123.1) are the only players in the league averaging 100 or more receiving yards per contest.

Higgins is the NFL's only player with 140 or more receiving yards in three games this season. He posted a season-high 157 yards on 11 receptions in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, had 148 on six grabs in Week 7 at Baltimore and then followed up with 155 on 10 catches in Week 8 vs. Tennessee. His 303 combined receiving yards over the past two weeks are the most in any two-game span of his career.

Over the past two games, Higgins has eclipsed 6000 career receiving yards and surpassed former WRs Darnay Scott (5975), Tyler Boyd (6000) and Eddie Brown (6134) on the Bengals' all-time receiving yardage list. His current total of 6167 receiving yards ranks seventh in team history, and is 531 shy of tying former WR Cris Collinsworth (6698) for sixth. It also ranks 14th among all NFL players since he entered the league in 2020.

Higgins has reached the 1000-yard receiving milestone in two seasons in his career, accomplishing the feat in 2021 and '22. He also had over 900 yards in two other seasons, registering 908 in his 2020 rookie campaign and 911 in just 12 games played in '24. He has 18 career 100-yard receiving games.

Five straight for Gesicki: TE Mike Gesicki has a receiving TD in each of his past five games dating back to Week 3 at Pittsburgh. It is the fifth-longest streak of consecutive games with a TD catch in Bengals history, and the longest such streak by a tight end.

The only players in team history to record a scoring reception in more consecutive games are former WRs Carl Pickens (10 straight games from 1994-95 and seven games later in '95), A.J. Green (nine games in 2012) and T.J. Houshmandzadeh (eight games in '07).

Gesicki's current run also is the longest active streak in the NFL, regardless of position. The only TEs with longer streaks over the past 10 seasons (2017-26) are Kansas City's Travis Kelce (six games from '20-21) and Baltimore's Mark Andrews (six games in '24).

Adding in his TD catch in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay, Gesicki has six scoring receptions this season, which already matches his career high set in 2020 while playing for Miami. He is the third TE in NFL history with a TD reception in six of his team's first seven games of a season, joining Pro Football Hall of Famer Antonio Gates (2010 with the San Diego Chargers) and Julius Thomas ('13 with Denver).

Gesicki's six receiving TDs on the season lead all tight ends and are tied for second in the NFL.

Defense on sack spree: The Bengals are tied for fourth in the NFL with 23 sacks this season. Cincinnati has logged at least four sacks in four of its seven games, with the most recent such performance coming in Week 7 at Baltimore.

Ten players have gotten in the sack column, with a trio of offseason additions leading the way — DE Boye Mafe has a team-high 5.5 sacks, while DT Dexter Lawrence has notched five and DT Jonathan Allen has three. Mafe has registered at least a sack in each of the past four games, including a strip-sack in Week 8 vs. Tennessee that led to a Lawrence recovery and set up a Bengals TD on the following snap.

A pair of third-year players, DT Kris Jenkins Jr. and DE Cedric Johnson, both have posted two sacks so far in 2026. Johnson, who entered the season with three total sacks in 18 career games, had his first multi-sack game in the Week 2 victory at Houston. Rookie DE Cashius Howell (Reserve/Injured) was the latest to join the party, as he recorded his first career sack in the third quarter of Week 7 against the Ravens.

Though the new-look Bengals defensive line has contributed to an overall improved pass rush, Cincinnati has been among the NFL leaders in sacks dating back to last November. Since Week 13 of the 2025 season (Thanksgiving week), the Bengals have totaled 43 sacks, which are the second-most by any team behind only Minnesota (47). Of the 13 games the Bengals have played in that time frame, they have recorded three or more sacks in 10 of them.

2026 veteran defensive additions: Highlighting the Bengals' offseason acquisitions were four defensive veterans who already are playing significant roles for the team in 2026. Three signed with Cincinnati as unrestricted free agents and one — DT Dexter Lawrence II — was acquired via trade. Here is a closer look at those additions, ordered by the date of their signing:

- S Bryan Cook: A Cincinnati native who played his final two collegiate seasons (2020-21) at the University of Cincinnati, Cook signed with his hometown Bengals on March 12, the first full day of free agency. He was a member of two Super Bowl-winning Chiefs teams in 2022 and '23, and is coming off career highs in tackles (82) and passes defensed (six) in the '25 campaign. Cook opened his Bengals tenure with a forced fumble and fumble recovery against Tampa Bay. He missed the Week 4 contest against Jacksonville due to an ankle injury, but has registered 19 tackles in his three games since returning, including a season-best nine stops with a half-sack in Week 7 at Baltimore.
- DE Boye Mafe: Mafe won a Super Bowl title with Seattle in February, then signed with Cincinnati just over a month later on March 12. A second-round draft pick of the Seahawks in 2022, he racked up 20 sacks over his first four NFL seasons. In 2023, he recorded a sack in seven straight games, the longest streak in Seahawks history. He leads the Bengals with 5.5 sacks this season (tied for ninth in NFL), with two being strip-sacks that led to Cincinnati recoveries.
- DT Jonathan Allen: Allen signed with the Bengals for his 10th NFL season on March 13, providing Cincinnati with a proven interior defensive lineman. He spent his first eight years (2017-24) with Washington, before playing for Minnesota in '25. A two-time Pro Bowler (2021-22 seasons), he has 48.5 career sacks, the fifth-most by any NFL defensive tackle since he entered the league. He has three sacks for the Bengals this season, and in Week 5 at Miami he forced and recovered a fumble inside the Cincinnati red zone to help seal the win in the fourth quarter.
- DT Dexter Lawrence II: Perhaps one of the most notable transactions of the NFL offseason occurred on April 19, when less than a week ahead of the draft, the Bengals sent the 10th overall selection to the N.Y. Giants in exchange for Lawrence. A three-time Pro Bowler and two-time second-team All-Pro (Associated Press), Lawrence established himself as one of the game's top interior defensive linemen over his seven seasons with New York. He has 48 career TFLs and 35.5 sacks while regularly drawing double-teams from opposing offensive lines. He has five sacks already this season, including a key third-down sack late in regulation in Week 8 vs. Tennessee. His eight TFLs on the year are tied for sixth in the NFL and rank third among all defensive tackles.

Turner shuts it down: After a breakout 2025 season in which he tied for third in the NFL with 18 passes defensed, Bengals CB DJ Turner II has followed up with five PDs so far in '26, which are tied for the team lead alongside CB Dax Hill. Turner's 23 PDs since the start of last season are tied for the third-most by any player in the league, and trail only Denver CB Riley Moss (26) and Philadelphia CB Quinyon Mitchell (25).

Turner's 18 PDs in 2025 were the most by a Bengals player in a season since 2009, when CB Leon Hall recorded 24 and CB Johnathan Joseph had 20. Turner's top statistical effort last season came in Week 6 at Green Bay, when he posted a career-high five PDs. He became the first Cincinnati player with five in a game since Joseph also logged five on Nov. 8, 2009 against Baltimore.

Turner also registered his first two career INTs and forced two fumbles during the 2025 season. He was the only player in the NFL last year with at least 15 PDs, two INTs and two FFs.

Turner added two more FFs in Week 8 of this season against Tennessee, with the first one leading to a recovery by Bengals CB Josh Newton in Cincinnati territory.

A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, Turner earned a full-time starting CB role midway through the '24 campaign. He suffered a season-ending collarbone injury in Week 11 of 2024, but since returning at the start of the '25 season, he has appeared in 24 straight games with 23 consecutive starts.

Here is a look at the NFL leaders in passes defensed since the start of the 2025 season (regular season):

PLAYER	TEAM	PASSES DEFENSED SINCE 2025
Riley Moss	Denver Broncos	26
Quinyon Mitchell	Philadelphia Eagles	25
Kamari Lassiter	Houston Texans	23
Kool-Aid McKinstry	New Orleans Saints	23
DJ Turner II	Cincinnati Bengals	23

A record streak: K Evan McPherson has converted each of his last 22 FG attempts dating back to Week 11 of the 2025 season. It is the longest streak of consecutive FGs without a miss in Bengals history, surpassing 21 in a row by former K Shayne Graham in the 2007 campaign.

McPherson last missed a FG in the fourth quarter of the Bengals' Week 9 game against Chicago on Nov. 2, 2025. His current run also is the longest active streak in the NFL.

Of McPherson's 22 FGs, nine have come from a distance of 50 or more yards, which are tied for the third-most such kicks in the NFL since the streak began. Perhaps his best single-game performance during this stretch came in Cincinnati's win at Baltimore on Thanksgiving night, when he went six-for-six on FG attempts. The six FGs were a career high for McPherson, tied for the second-most in a game in Bengals history and tied for the most by any kicker in 2025. He was recognized with his fourth career AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor.

McPherson then collected his fifth weekly award following Cincinnati's win over Tampa Bay to open this season, when he knocked through each of his four FG attempts including a pair from beyond 55 yards. He went on to convert each of his eight FGs during the Bengals' three games played in September, earning AFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for the second time in his career (also won in December 2021).

McPherson additionally has made each of his last 26 attempts from inside of 50 yards, a streak that dates to Week 13 of the 2024 campaign.

Here is a look at the most consecutive made FGs in Bengals history (regular season):

PLAYER	YEAR(S)	CONSECUTIVE FGs
Evan McPherson	2026	22
Shayne Graham	2007	21
Shayne Graham	2005-06	17
Mike Nugent	2014	15
Evan McPherson	2021	15

Money Mac from deep: Of Evan McPherson's perfect 10-for-10 start on FG attempts to begin this season, five have been from a distance of 50 or more yards, which are tied for the fourth-most such kicks in the NFL.

McPherson opened the season with FGs from 58 and 55 yards in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay. He became the first kicker in Bengals history to make multiple FGs from at least 55 yards in a game. He then followed up with kicks from 57 and 51 yards in Week 2 at Houston, and most recently made a 50-yard attempt in Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

McPherson's 58-yarder against the Buccaneers tied for the fourth-longest made FG in Bengals history. He owns nine of the 11 longest made kicks in team history, including a team-record 63-yarder in Week 12 of the 2025 season against New England.

McPherson now has 34 career made FGs from 50 or more yards, which are more than four times the amount of the next closest total by a Bengals kicker (three former Cincinnati kickers have eight such FGs). It also is tied for the fifth-most 50-yard FGs in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021.

Overall for his career, McPherson has made 129 of 153 FGs, good for the third-highest percentage in team history (84.31). During the Week 1 victory over Tampa Bay, he surpassed former K Horst Muhlmann (120) for fifth on the Bengals' all-time FG list.

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Nov. 23, 2025	vs. New England Patriots	63
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	59
Cade York	Dec. 22, 2024	vs. Cleveland Browns	59
Evan McPherson	Dec. 19, 2021	at Denver Broncos	58
Evan McPherson	Sept. 13, 2026	vs. Tampa Bay Buccaneers	58

Rehkow's ranks: Third-year P Ryan Rehkow holds the Bengals' career records for both gross punting average (49.06 yards; minimum 100 punts) and net punting average (42.53; min. 100). Both marks also rank near the top of the NFL, with his gross average ranking third among all punters and his net average ranking ninth since the start of the 2024 season.

Rehkow earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career following his performance in Week 7 of this season against Baltimore. He punted four times for 184 yards (46.0 average), with each attempt downed inside the Ravens' 20-yard line and three downed inside the 10. It marked his seventh career game with four inside-20 punts, which are tied with former Houston/current Tennessee P Tommy Townsend for the most such games by any punter since the start of the 2024 campaign.

Rehkow is the only NFL punter this season with at least 20 punts, zero touchbacks, 10 inside-20 punts and a net average of 40 yards per punt. His 13 inside-20 punts on the year rank ninth in the NFL and have increased his career total to 66, which are fifth-most among all Bengals punters since the statistic began being tracked in 1976.

Rehkow's gross average of 50.5 yards per punt during the 2025 season ranked second leaguewide and set a Bengals single-season record, surpassing his own team mark of 49.1 in his '24 rookie year. He averaged 50 or more yards per punt in 11 games last season.

Rehkow opened his career with a historic debut in Week 1 of the 2024 season, as his 64.5 yards per punt against New England set an NFL single-game record which still stands. Highlighting his performance that day was a team-record 80-yard punt. He finished his rookie campaign with a net punting average of 42.9 yards, good for a Bengals single-season record and sixth in the NFL that year. Following that season, he was recognized on the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.

The Jungle can jam: Each of the 19 highest attended home games in Bengals history, in terms of announced attendance figure, have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year. Three of those games have been this season, as Cincinnati's Week 1 contest against Tampa Bay was played in front of an announced crowd of 66,625 (fourth-largest in team history), while Week 4 vs. Jacksonville had an announced figure of 66,492 (eighth) and Week 8 vs. Tennessee was announced at 66,209 (18th).

The Bengals had an announced crowd of 65,000 or more in 30 consecutive regular-season home games from Week 1 of the 2022 campaign through Week 12 of '25. That was the longest such streak in team history, surpassing a span of 24 straight games from 2005-07. The largest home attendance figure in team history is 67,260, which came in Week 4 of the 2022 season when the Bengals defeated Miami on Thursday Night Football. That figure also marked the largest announced crowd for a sporting event in Cincinnati history.

Here is a look at the five largest announced home crowds in Bengals history (all are at Paycor Stadium):

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT	ATTENDANCE
Sept. 29, 2022	Miami	W, 27-15	67,260
Oct. 27, 2024	Philadelphia	L, 17-37	67,239
Nov. 5, 2023	Buffalo	W, 24-18	66,965
Sept. 13, 2026	Tampa Bay	W, 33-27	66,625
Oct. 16, 2025	Pittsburgh	W, 33-31	66,569

Trumpy, Brooks enter Bengals Ring of Honor: A pair of Bengals legends in former TE Bob Trumpy and HB James Brooks were inducted into the team's Ring of Honor at halftime of Cincinnati's Week 8 game against Tennessee. They became the 13th and 14th members of the Bengals Ring of Honor, which was established in 2021 to recognize former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition.

Trumpy, who entered the NFL as a 12th-round pick of the Bengals in their inaugural 1968 season, spent his entire 10-year playing career ('68-77) with Cincinnati. He scored the team's first-ever receiving TD on Sept. 15, 1968, and went on to play in 128 games with 120 starts. Among all tight ends in team history, he has the most receiving yards (4600), receiving TDs (35), yards per reception (15.4) and Pro Bowl selections (four). The honor came posthumously for Trumpy, who passed away on Nov. 2, 2025.

Brooks played eight seasons (1984-91) in Cincinnati and was one of the most versatile and complete running backs to don the Bengals jersey. He remains the franchise's career record holder for average yards per carry (4.8), while ranking second in team history in rushing yards (6447) and tied for fifth in rushing TDs (37). He also had 3012 receiving yards, which contributed to a total of 9459 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-most ever by a Bengal. He holds three of the team's top 10 scrimmage yardage totals in a season, highlighted by a franchise-record 1773 yards in 1986.

Ring of Honor inductees have been voted in each offseason since 2021 by Bengals Season Ticket Members. Trumpy and Brooks joined previous inductees QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, HB Corey Dillon, QB Boomer Esiason, WR Chad Johnson, OT Dave Lapham, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Munoz, CB Lemar Parrish and CB Ken Riley.

Bengal bites: The average age of the Bengals' active roster is 27.1 years ... The Bengals have netted 27 AFC Player of the Week honors (Offensive, Defensive or Special Teams) since the start of the 2021 season, which are the third-most by any NFL team in that span, regardless of conference ... The longest-tenured player on the Bengals' active roster is TE Drew Sample, who is in his eighth season with the team ... The oldest player on the roster is QB Joe Flacco, who is 41 (born Jan. 16, 1985) ... The youngest player on the roster is C Connor Lew, who is 21 (born Aug. 30, 2005) ... There is a tie for the tallest player on the roster between OTs Orlando Brown Jr. and Amarius Mims, who both are listed at 6-8 ... The shortest player on the roster is HB Tahj Brooks, who is listed at 5-9 ... Brown, Mims and DT Dexter Lawrence II are tied for the heaviest player on the roster at 350 pounds ... K Evan McPherson and CB DJ Turner II are tied for the lightest player on the roster at 185 pounds.

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Seventh-year QB Joe Burrow currently leads the NFL this season in completion percentage (73.0) and TD passes (20), while ranking second in passer rating (111.5), third in completions (195) and fourth in passing yards (2115). He has surpassed several career milestones this season, most recently recording his 175th TD pass in Week 8 vs. Tennessee. He also had season highs in passing yards (462) and TD passes (five) against the Titans, and scored a rushing TD in overtime that proved to be the game-winner. That performance came on the heels of him winning AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his showing in Week 7 at Baltimore, when he posted a season-best 143.3 passer rating and threw four scoring passes with no INTs. The No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft, Burrow is the NFL's all-time leader in career completion percentage (68.86; minimum 1500 attempts), and in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville he tied Kansas City's Patrick Mahomes as the fastest QBs ever to reach 2000 completions (81 games). He missed nine games in 2025 due to a toe injury, but returned to action in late November and has since started 12 straight contests. A three-time Pro Bowler and two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, he ranks in the top five in Bengals history in passer rating (first), 300-yard games (first), completions (third), TD passes (fourth), passing yards (fourth) and passing attempts (fifth). Nineteenth-year veteran Joe Flacco re-signed with Cincinnati this offseason after starting six games during Burrow's injury absence in 2025. He was acquired by the Bengals in a trade with Cleveland last October, and made his first Bengals start just five days later. Over the span of his six starts, he ranked second in the NFL in completions, tied for third in TD passes and ranked fifth in passing yards. Now 41 years old (born Jan. 16, 1985), he is the oldest player on the Bengals' roster and the oldest QB to start a game in team history. Flacco spent his first 11 seasons with Baltimore, highlighted by a Super Bowl victory following the 2012 season, and has also seen game action for Denver (2019), the N.Y. Jets ('20-22), Cleveland ('23 and '25), and Indianapolis ('24). He ranks in the top 25 in NFL history in career passing yards (14th; 48,176) and TD passes (22nd; 272). Flacco took his first snaps of the 2026 regular season in Week 7 at Baltimore, entering the game late in the fourth quarter when Cincinnati had the victory in hand.

Running backs: Fourth-year HB Chase Brown leads the Bengals with 340 rushing yards on 94 carries this season, while also adding 189 receiving yards on 36 catches. He had a career-high 11 receptions for 71 yards in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville. Brown enjoyed a breakout 2025 campaign in which he set career highs in rushing attempts (232), rushing yards (1019), receptions (69) and receiving yards (437). He was one of five players in the NFL last season with at least 1000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards, and his catch total marked the most ever in a season by a Bengals running back. A native of London, Ontario, his 1456 yards from scrimmage were the most in a season by a Canadian-born player in NFL history, and were highlighted by a Bengals-record streak of six straight games with 100 or more scrimmage yards from Weeks 7-13. Complementing Brown in the run game is 10th-year veteran Samaje Perine, who scored his first rushing TD of the season in Week 7 at Baltimore. The previous game in Week 5 at Miami, he recorded season highs in carries (14) and yards (68), while finding the end zone on a six-yard TD catch. Perine is currently in his second Bengals stint, after previously playing for the team from 2019-22 and then spending '23 with Kansas City and '24 with Denver. Since returning to Cincinnati in 2025, he has played in 21 games and served as a versatile contributor in rushing, receiving, pass protection and special teams. Originally a fourth-round pick of Washington in 2017, he has suited up for 132 games in his career and logged 2440 rushing yards, 1670 receiving yards and 702 yards on kickoff returns. Tahj Brooks, a sixth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2025, registered his first three carries of this season for six yards late in the Week 7 win at Baltimore. Brooks played in 16 contests as a rookie last season, logging 45 yards on 16 rushing attempts along with 10 KORs for 258 yards. At Texas Tech University, he set school career records for rushing attempts (879), rushing yards (4557) and 100-yard rushing games (23). He earned All-Big 12 honors and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award (nation's top RB) in each of his final two seasons.

Wide receivers: Sixth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase has been selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first five seasons and already ranks third in Bengals history in receptions (563), third in receiving yards (7329) and fourth in receiving TDs (60). Cincinnati's first-round draft choice (No. 5 overall) in 2021, he is one of five players in NFL history to begin his career with five consecutive 1000-yard receiving seasons. He also is one of just three players in league history to record at least 125 catches in consecutive seasons, doing so in 2024 and '25, and in both years he was recognized as a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. In 2024, he became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," leading the NFL in catches, receiving yards and receiving TDs, and he then followed up in '25 by ranking third leaguewide in receptions (125) and fourth in yards (1412). He has six scoring receptions this season, tied for second in the NFL, while also posting 492 yards on 43 catches. He is coming off season highs in receptions (11) and yards (141) in Week 8 vs. Tennessee. Chase is one-half of arguably the top receiving duo in the NFL alongside seventh-year pro Tee Higgins. Higgins currently ranks second in the NFL with 726 receiving yards on 43 catches this season. He has gone for over 140 yards three times already, with a season-best 157 in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, 148 in Week 7 at Baltimore and 155 in Week 8 vs. Tennessee. Since entering the NFL as a second-round pick of the Bengals in 2020, he is tied for fifth leaguewide in TD catches (49) and ranks 14th in receiving yards (6167). He brought in a career-high 11 receiving TDs in 2025 (tied for second in NFL) after scoring 10 in '24, and in doing so became the third player in Bengals history with double-digit TD catches in consecutive seasons. His other totals in 2025 were 59 receptions for 846 yards, helping him earn his first career Pro Bowl nod. One of the top stories out of training camp was Dohnte Meyers, who made the team's initial 53-man active roster after originally signing a Reserve/Future contract in January. A slot receiver listed at 5-11, 186 pounds, he led Cincinnati in receptions (11) and receiving yards (121) during the preseason. In Week 8 against Tennessee, Meyers caught three passes for 34 yards, including a 15-yard diving catch during a game-tying TD drive late in the fourth quarter. Meyers had his best individual stat line of the regular season in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, contributing seven catches for 82 yards with five of his grabs resulting in a first down. He spent the past two seasons with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League, where he had 89 receptions for 1405 yards and nine TDs in 19 games played. He enjoyed a breakout 2025 season in which he averaged 16.2 yards per catch (65 for 1056 yards) and helped the Roughriders win the Grey Cup. He began his college career in 2018-19 at Presbyterian College (FCS) in Clinton, S.C., then spent the '21-22 seasons in Cleveland, Miss. at Delta State University (NCAA Division II). Cincinnati used one of its two fourth-round draft choices this past April to select Colbie Young out of the University of Georgia. Young has seen action in five games with one start this season, totaling two catches for nine yards. He missed two contests due to a knee injury, then made his return in Week 7 at Baltimore. A 6-4, 218-pound athlete, he had a five-year college career that saw him go from Lackawanna College (junior college; 2021), to the University of Miami (Fla.; '22-23) to Georgia ('24-25). In four seasons at the Division I level, he had 116 catches for 1437 yards and 13 TDs. Mitch Tinsley caught three passes for 49 yards in his season debut in Week 4 against the Jaguars, after being signed by the Bengals off Houston's practice squad just five days prior (Sept. 29). He currently is in his second stint with Cincinnati, as he earned a spot on the active roster coming out of training camp last year and had eight catches for 116 yards and two TDs in 2025. He originally joined the team on a Reserve/Future contract in February 2025, after spending his first two pro seasons with the Washington Commanders. He was with the Bengals through this year's preseason, then was waived on final cuts and spent the first three weeks of the regular season on the Texans' practice squad.

Tight ends: A second-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2019, Drew Sample has played in 102 career games with 67 starts and served as a key blocking TE in Cincinnati's offense. He missed most of the 2022 season with a knee injury, but has since suited up for 58 consecutive games with 42 starts since the start of the '23 campaign. In addition to his blocking responsibilities, he has contributed 122 career catches for 884 yards and six TDs. His most recent scoring catch came in Week 7 at Baltimore, a 16-yarder late in the fourth quarter to help the Bengals seal a road win. Mike Gesicki's six receiving TDs this season are the most by any TE in the NFL and are tied for second among all players. He already has matched his career high set in 2020, when he played for Miami. He has a scoring catch in each of the last five games, marking the longest such streak in his career and the longest streak by a TE in Bengals history. A 2024 Bengals free agent acquisition, Gesicki has played in 37 games for Cincinnati and serves as an athletic pass catcher who often lines up as a slot receiver. In his first season with the Bengals, he recorded the second-most receptions by a TE in team history (65), totaling 665 yards. Originally a second-round pick by Miami in 2018, he spent his first five seasons with the Dolphins before playing for New England in 2023. He posted four catches for 76 yards and a TD in Week 8 vs. Tennessee, and in the process surpassed 6000 career receiving yards. Rookie Jack Endries scored his first career TD on his first reception in the Week 8 contest against the Titans, taking in a one-yard pass from Burrow just before halftime. A seventh-round pick in this year's draft, Endries has seen action in four games for Cincinnati, primarily lining up on special teams. He was a productive pass-catching TE during his collegiate career at the University of California (2023-24) and the University of Texas ('25). In 39 games (all starts) at the college level, he had 124 receptions for 1376 yards and seven TDs, with 33 for 346 and three scores coming with the Longhorns last season. He was named honorable mention All-ACC in 2024, when he led California in catches (65) and receiving yards (623) while playing with former Golden Bears QB and the No. 1 overall pick in the '26 draft, Fernando Mendoza. Cam Grandy re-joined the Bengals in late October after spending the first six games of the regular season on Minnesota's practice squad. A college free agent signee of Cincinnati in 2024, he played in 13 games with seven starts over his first two seasons with the team, recording seven catches for 35 yards while contributing as a run-blocking TE. He earned FCS All-America honors in 2023 at Illinois State, where he led all Missouri Valley Conference tight ends with 612 receiving yards on 63 catches.

Offensive line: The nucleus of the Bengals' offensive line is center Ted Karras, who is in his 11th NFL season and fifth with Cincinnati. A 2022 free agent acquisition, he has been voted a team captain in each of his four Bengals seasons and started 77 straight games, including postseason. Off the field, he is involved in numerous charitable efforts in the Cincinnati area and has twice been named the team's Club Winner for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023 and '25). Karras spent five of his first six pro seasons with New England, where he was a member of two Super Bowl-winning teams (2016 and '18). He also had a one-year stint with Miami in 2020. Four-time Pro Bowler Orlando Brown Jr. has started at LOT in all 52 games he has played in for the Bengals since signing with the team as a free agent in the 2023 offseason. He spent his first three NFL seasons (2018-20) with Baltimore, then played for Kansas City for two seasons and helped the Chiefs win Super Bowl LVII in the '22 campaign. He lined up for all 1110 offensive snaps for Cincinnati last season, anchoring a pass protection unit that contributed to the Bengals ranking sixth in the NFL in net passing yards per game (235.6). His father, the late Orlando Brown Sr., played nine NFL seasons (1994-99, 2003-05), spending time with Cleveland and Baltimore. Lining up at ROT is Amarius Mims, who has emerged as one of the top pass protectors in the NFL this season. According to the NFL's Next Gen Stats service, Mims took 58 pass blocking snaps in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, which were the most without allowing a single pressure in the past seven seasons by any NFL offensive tackle. Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2024 (No. 18 overall), he has started at ROT in 37 of 39 career games played and committed just one holding penalty (called during his rookie season). Prior to the NFL, he spent three seasons (2021-23) at the University of Georgia, where he was part of back-to-back national championship-winning teams in '21-22. Dalton Risner has started at RG in each of his last 11 games played, including the first seven contests of this season. He signed with the Bengals as a free agent following training camp in 2025 and played in 14 games with 11 starts (nine at RG, two at LG) last year. An eighth-year veteran in 2026, he previously played for Denver ('19-22) and Minnesota ('23-24), and has logged 108 games of regular-season experience with 99 starts. Dylan Fairchild has started at LG in all 22 games he has played in for Cincinnati since entering the league as a third-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2025. His 961 offensive snaps played as a rookie last season were fifth-most on the team. Fairchild started 24 collegiate games across four seasons (2021-24) at the University of Georgia, where he finished off his career with second-team All-America honors in '24. He also has an impressive background in wrestling, as he compiled a 67-0 career record at West Forsyth High School in Cumming, Ga., and won two Georgia state titles in the Class 7A heavyweight division. Javon Foster started at ROT in the team's second preseason game this year against Chicago, then lined up at LOT in the preseason finale at Philadelphia. He spent the 2025 season on Cincinnati's practice squad, after seeing action in four games for Jacksonville as a rookie in '24. Foster entered the league as a fourth-round pick of the Jaguars, following a five-year career (2019-23) at the University of Missouri. He played in 49 contests with 38 starts for the Tigers, highlighted by a 2023 season in which he earned first-team All-SEC and third-team All-America honors. Lining up at offensive tackle opposite Foster in those two preseason contests was Jalen Rivers, a fifth-round pick of the Bengals in 2025. Currently listed as a backup at LG, Rivers played in 16 games with seven starts at RG as a rookie last season. He started at LOT in each of his final 21 games played at the University of Miami (Fla.), where he collected second-team All-ACC honors in 2023 and honorable mention in '24. He was the Bengals' nominee for the Salute to Service Award last season, as his father, mother and stepfather all served in the U.S. Navy. G Jacob Bayer spent the final eight games of last season on Cincinnati's practice squad, after going through the offseason and training camp with Buffalo. He signed with the Bills as a college free agent in May 2025, following a collegiate career that included two seasons at Lamar University in Beaumont, Texas, and two at Arkansas State University. He was a first-team All-Sun Belt Conference performer in 2023, then followed up with second-team status in '24. Bayer lined up for 168 offensive snaps for the Bengals this preseason, the second-most among the team's O-linemen. The starting center for the Bengals' final two preseason games was rookie Connor Lew, who Cincinnati selected in the fourth round of this year's draft. The youngest player on the Bengals' active roster (turned 21 on Aug. 30), Lew started 25 out of 31 games played over a three-year career (2023-25) at Auburn University. That included a streak of 19 consecutive starts that was halted by the knee injury which occurred midway through last season. He was a Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team pick in 2023, when he was credited with zero sacks allowed on 228 pass block snaps, according to Pro Football Focus. Cincinnati acquired OT Myles Hinton on waivers from Philadelphia in late August. Listed at 6-6, 342 pounds, Hinton was a sixth-round draft pick of the Eagles in 2025 and spent his entire rookie campaign on the Reserve/Injured list due to a back injury. He played his first three collegiate seasons (2020-22) at Stanford University, then spent the '23-24 seasons at the University of Michigan.

Defensive line: Perhaps the headline addition of the offseason for Cincinnati was DT Dexter Lawrence II, who the Bengals acquired in a trade with the N.Y. Giants less than a week before the NFL Draft. An eighth-year veteran, Lawrence has played in 116 career regular-season contests with 109 starts, been voted to the Pro Bowl three times and been named to the AP All-Pro Second Team on two occasions (2022 and '23). He has 35.5 career sacks, the 10th-most by any DT since he entered the league as a first-round pick of the Giants in 2019. He has been productive early in his Bengals tenure, with five sacks and eight TFLs through the first seven games of this season. In Week 8 vs. Tennessee, he recovered a fumble to set up a Bengals TD drive in the third quarter, then had a sack on third down late in the fourth which ended a potential game-winning drive for the Titans. His eight TFLs on the year are tied for sixth in the NFL and rank third among defensive tackles. Lining up next to Lawrence on the interior of the Bengals' defensive line is two-time Pro Bowler Jonathan Allen. Allen, a former first-round draft pick of Washington in 2017, signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent this March. He spent his first eight NFL seasons with the Commanders, then played for Minnesota in 2025. His career stats include 71 TFLs and 48.5 sacks, the fifth-most among all DTs since he entered the NFL. He has posted three sacks through the first seven games of this season, with the most recent being a strip-sack in the fourth quarter of Week 5 at Miami which he also recovered to help secure the win. Offseason addition Boye Mafe leads the Bengals with 5.5 sacks, including 4.5 over the past four games. His most recent splash play was a strip-sack that led to a recovery by Lawrence in Week 8 vs. Tennessee. An athletic edge rusher, Mafe signed with Cincinnati in March after helping Seattle win Super Bowl LX a month prior. He entered the NFL as a second-round pick of the Seahawks in 2022, and over his first four seasons he played in 68 of a possible 72 games, including postseason. He made an impact in his Bengals debut in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay, recovering a fumble in the first half and then forcing a fumble on a strip-sack in the fourth quarter. He now is up to 25.5 sacks in his career, which includes a Seahawks franchise-record streak of seven consecutive games with a sack in 2023. One of Lawrence's former Giants teammates, DT B.J. Hill, came over to Cincinnati via trade shortly before the 2021 season. Hill has played in 86 regular-season games and seven postseason contests for the Bengals. He has 27.5 career sacks, with four recorded in the 2025 season. He also has a knack for batting down passes at the line of scrimmage with 17 career PDs. Hill missed three games earlier this season due to an Achilles injury, but returned to action in Week 5 at Miami and has recorded 13 tackles over the past three contests. He had three assisted tackles and his first PD of the season in Week 8 vs. Tennessee. Cincinnati's other starting DE is fourth-year pro Myles Murphy, who so far this season has 14 tackles, 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble. Murphy is building off his top statistical campaign in 2025, when he posted career highs in total tackles (52), TFLs (six), sacks (team-leading 5.5) and PDs (three). He started just one game over his first 38 career appearances, then has made the start in each of the Bengals' last 16 contests dating to Week 9 of last season. He logged a season-high six tackles in Week 8 against Tennessee. DT T.J. Slaton Jr. started all 17 games in his first Bengals season in 2025, netting 52 tackles, four TFLs and three sacks. Originally a fifth-round draft choice of Green Bay in 2021, he spent his first four seasons with the Packers. Slaton has 11 stops, a QB hit and a FR so far in 2026, with his recovery setting up a Bengals FG drive in the season opener vs. Tampa Bay. He had a pair of tackles the following week at Houston, including a stop on third-and-short to force a Texans FG attempt. He logged a season-best three solo tackles in Week 5 at Miami. Second-year DE Shemar Stewart made his 2026 debut in the Week 2 win at Houston and registered a sack late in the fourth quarter. He has appeared in four games this season, recording three tackles with the sack. Cincinnati's first-round pick in 2025, he missed most of this year's training camp due to a lower-body injury sustained in the team's first practice, but returned to participation in early September. Stewart played in eight games with five starts as a rookie last season, contributing 11 tackles with two TFLs and a sack. A product of Texas A&M, he was noted during his draft process for standout physical traits, and was one of two players in the 2025 class to produce a perfect 10.0 on the Relative Athletic Score (grades players' measurements compared to peer group). Third-year DE Cedric Johnson is an emerging contributor along the Bengals' defensive line, posting four sacks over his last nine games dating back to late last season. He had his first career multi-sack game in Week 2 at Houston, taking down QB C.J. Stroud twice in the fourth quarter for a combined loss of 24 yards. Johnson began the 2025 season on the Reserve/Injured list due to a calf injury, but has played in 15 straight contests since returning to action last October. A sixth-round Bengals draft pick in 2024, he now has seen action in 25 career games, totaling 23 tackles with five sacks and two fumble recoveries. DT Kris Jenkins Jr., the Bengals' second-round draft choice in 2024, has two sacks this season while serving as a rotational interior D-lineman. He has played in 36 career games with 13 starts for Cincinnati, netting 75 tackles, seven TFLs and 6.5 sacks. Jenkins capped off his collegiate career at the University of Michigan with second-team All-America honors while helping the Wolverines win the national championship in 2023. His father, Kris Jenkins Sr., played 10 NFL seasons (2001-10) as a DT with Carolina and the N.Y. Jets, earning four Pro Bowl selections. Rookie DT Landon Robinson, a seventh-round pick of the Bengals, earned a spot on the 53-man roster after leading the team with 2.5 sacks during the preseason. In 2025, his final season at the United States Naval Academy, he had 6.5 sacks, was named the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year and was a first-team All-American. He grew up in Fairlawn, Ohio, and attended Copley High School in Copley, Ohio, before finishing out his high school career at the Naval Academy Preparatory School in Newport, R.I.

Linebackers: Cincinnati's second-round draft choice in 2025, Demetrius Knight Jr. ranks second on the Bengals with 55 tackles this season. He also has been involved in two takeaways, with a fumble recovery which he returned 27 yards for his first career TD in the season opener vs. Tampa Bay, and an INT in Week 7 at Baltimore that set up a fourth-quarter scoring drive. In Week 8 against Tennessee, Knight teamed up with DT Dexter Lawrence II to bring down RB Tony Pollard in the end zone for a safety, giving Cincinnati a 23-21 lead. Knight has started at LB in 21 of 24 career games played, and last season ranked second on the team and second among all NFL rookies with 106 tackles. He has recorded 10 or more tackles four times, including a career-high-tying 12 stops in Week 2 of this season at Houston. He spent his final collegiate season at the University of South Carolina in 2024, after a year ('23) at North Carolina-Charlotte and four seasons ('19-22) at Georgia Tech. Knight's fellow starting LB Barrett Carter leads the team with 58 stops this season. Carter also crossed the century mark in tackles as a rookie last year, recording 102 (third among all rookies). He was selected by the Bengals in the fourth round of the 2025 draft after a four-year career at Clemson University that saw him earn two All-ACC honors. In addition to his tackle totals, he has 1.5 sacks, three PDs and one FF this season. He has 39 tackles over his past four games, with three TFLs in that span. Oren Burks has played primarily on special teams this season, recording seven ST tackles and six defensive tackles through seven games. A ninth-year veteran, he signed with the Bengals as a free agent in 2025 after spending time with Green Bay ('18-21), San Francisco ('22-23) and Philadelphia ('24). He emerged as one of the Eagles' top defensive performers during their run to a Super Bowl LIX title. Burks saw action in all 17 games with nine starts in his debut Bengals season last year, contributing 34 tackles defensively and 14 on special teams. Joe Giles-Harris was signed off the practice squad to the active roster ahead of the Bengals' Week 3 game at Pittsburgh. He has played in all seven games this season (first two as practice squad elevation), and is tied with Burks for the team lead with seven special teams tackles. He also paced the Bengals in that category in 2025, recording 20 ST tackles in just 10 games played. Originally a college free agent signee of the Jaguars in 2019, Giles-Harris played his first two pro seasons ('19-20) with Jacksonville, then spent time with Buffalo from '21-22 and New England from '23-24. The most recent addition to the linebacker room is Jack Kiser, who Cincinnati acquired on waivers from Jacksonville on Oct. 12. A fourth-round draft pick of the Jaguars in 2025, Kiser played in 14 games in his rookie season and totaled 10 defensive tackles along with four special teams stops. He did not see action for Jacksonville early this season prior to being waived. He spent six seasons (2019-24) at the University of Notre Dame, where he played in a school-record 70 career games including the final three years ('22-24) under current Bengals and then-Fighting Irish defensive coordinator Al Golden. He has played in the Bengals' past two games, recording two tackles on defense and two on special teams.

Defensive backs: Fourth-year CB DJ Turner II was voted a team captain for the first time in his career this season, after emerging as one of the NFL's top boundary CBs in 2025. He tied for third in the league with a career-high 18 PDs last season, while adding his first two career INTs and two FFs. A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, he missed the final six contests of the '24 season due to a collarbone injury, but has since suited up for the past 24 consecutive games. He is tied for second on the team with five PDs this season while adding 17 tackles. He forced two fumbles in Week 8 vs. Tennessee, the first of which led to a Bengals recovery when the Titans were driving in Cincinnati territory. Turner was a two-time All-Big Ten honoree at the University of Michigan and clocked the fastest 40-yard dash time by any player at the 2023 NFL Combine (4.26 seconds). A Cincinnati native who spent his final two collegiate seasons (2020-21) at the University of Cincinnati, Bryan Cook returned to the Queen City as an unrestricted free agent signee of the Bengals in March. He spent his first four NFL seasons with Kansas City, where he was a member of the Chiefs' back-to-back Super Bowl winning teams in the 2022 and '23 campaigns. He earned a starting safety role for the Chiefs entering the 2023 season and has started each of his last 55 games played, including his first five games with the Bengals. Cook has 31 tackles, a half-sack, a FF and a FR this season, with both his forced fumble and recovery coming in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay. He missed the Week 4 contest due to an ankle injury, but has 19 tackles in three games played since returning, including a season-high nine stops in Week 7 at Baltimore. He attended nearby Mount Healthy High School, then began his college career at Howard University before transferring to Cincinnati. S Jordan Battle is tied for second in the NFL with three INTs this season, and also is tied for the second-most by any player with seven since the start of the 2025 campaign. He had his first career multi-INT game in Week 5 of this season at Miami, picking off QB Malik Willis on consecutive Dolphins possessions. He tied his career high with 12 tackles in Week 8 vs. Tennessee and added two PDs. A third-round pick of the Bengals in 2023, Battle has been a full-time starting safety since the late stages of the '24 season. Last season, he led Cincinnati in tackles (112) and INTs (four), both of which were career highs. CB Dax Hill is tied with Turner for second on the team with five PDs this season. A former teammate of Turner's at the University of Michigan, Hill was Cincinnati's first-round pick in the 2022 draft and lined up at safety for his first 32 career games, before transitioning to CB ahead of the 2024 season. He primarily has been an outside corner, but moved to nickel CB recently after Jalen Davis was placed on the Reserve/Injured list. He has three INTs and 29 PDs over his four-plus pro seasons, with a career-high 11 PDs in 2025. His brother, Justice Hill, currently plays RB for the Baltimore Ravens. DJ Ivey has seen a substantial increase in his defensive role over the past four games and totaled 12 tackles along with three PDs in that span. That stretch includes his first career start in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, a pair of PDs in Week 5 at Miami, and a career-high six tackles (four solos) in Week 7 at Baltimore. Ivey has primarily been a core special teamer for the Bengals since entering the league in 2023 as a seventh-round draft pick of Cincinnati. He has 14 career special teams tackles and a fumble recovery on punt coverage, while also registering 26 defensive stops. Ivey played in 58 games during his college career at the University of Miami (Fla.), then earned a roster spot coming out of his rookie training camp with Cincinnati. Tacario Davis, Cincinnati's third-round pick in this year's draft, has lined up for 71 defensive snaps and 60 special teams snaps through his first seven career games. He recorded a career-high four tackles and a PD in Week 3 at Pittsburgh. A rangy CB with a 6-4 frame, Davis had a strong preseason with 11 tackles, two PDs and an INT. He spent his final college season in 2025 at the University of Washington, where he started seven games but missed time throughout the year due to injuries. He played the previous three years at Arizona State University, where in 2023 he led the Pac-12 Conference with 15 PBUs. He was recognized as an all-league performer in three different conferences during his college career, as he was named honorable mention

All-Pac-12 in 2023, second-team All-Big 12 in '24 and honorable mention All-Big Ten in '25. PJ Jules made his first career start in Week 4 against the Jaguars, seeing action on 40 snaps at safety and recording a career-high four tackles. He has five special teams tackles this season, after tying for second on the team in that category with 16 in 2025. He spent his entire rookie season in 2024 on Cincinnati's practice squad, following a final collegiate season in '23 at Southern Illinois University in which he logged 111 tackles and earned consensus first-team FCS All-America honors. Josh Newton, a fifth-round pick of the Bengals in 2024, has seen increased playing time in the secondary over the past two games. He had his first career fumble recovery in Week 8 vs. Tennessee, and broke up a pass on third down early in the game to force a Titans FG attempt. Newton has played in 35 games with eight starts in his young career, netting 42 tackles, 11 PDs, an INT and a FR. He finished his collegiate career at Texas Christian University (2022-23), after three seasons ('19-21) at the University of Louisiana-Monroe. The Bengals signed third-year S Russ Yeast off the practice squad to the active roster on Oct. 20. Yeast had been elevated from the practice squad for two contests this season, recording three defensive tackles and two stops on special teams. Originally a seventh-round draft pick of the L.A. Rams in 2022, he played in 32 games with 10 starts over his first two seasons in Los Angeles. He then spent time with the Rams, Carolina and Houston in 2024, before joining the Bengals' practice squad ahead of the 2025 campaign. He has five career PDs, all coming in 2023 with the Rams. S Kyle Dugger, a free agent acquisition this offseason, has played in four games so far in 2026, but has missed time periodically due to a quadriceps injury. A second-round draft choice of New England in 2020, he spent his first five-plus seasons with the Patriots, then was traded to Pittsburgh last October and started nine games for the Steelers. He has 11 INTs with three pick-sixes, including one against the Bengals in Week 11 of last season. Dugger had contributed mainly on special teams early this season, then saw his first extended action on defense in Week 3 against the Steelers and recorded eight tackles along with a PD.

Special Teams: Seventh-year K Evan McPherson ranks in the top five in Bengals history in FG percentage (84.3; third), PATs (228; fourth), made FGs (129; fifth) and points scored (615; fifth). He has made 34 FGs from a distance of 50 or more yards, which is a team record and tied for the fifth-most among all NFL kickers since he entered the league as a fifth-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2021. He owns nine of the 11 longest made kicks in team history, including a record 63-yarder in Week 12 of last season. McPherson was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for September after converting each of his eight FGs and eight PATs over Cincinnati's first three games. He now is 10-for-10 on FGs this season, with five from at least 50 yards. In Week 5 at Miami, he made his 22nd consecutive FG attempt, surpassing former K Shayne Graham (21 in 2007) for the longest streak in Bengals history. McPherson's streak dates to Week 11 of last season. Ryan Rehkow has been Cincinnati's punter and holder on placekicks since joining the team as a free agent in the 2024 offseason. Now in his third season, he maintains the Bengals' career records for gross punting average (49.1 yards; minimum 100 punts) and net punting average (42.5; min. 100). He has 66 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line, the fifth-most by a Bengal since the stat began being tracked in 1976, and tied for fourth-most in the NFL since the start of the 2024 campaign. Rehkow has 13 inside-20 punts with zero touchbacks this season. He was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the first time in his career following Week 7 at Baltimore, when three of his four punts were downed inside the Ravens' 10-yard line. Last season, he ranked second in the NFL and broke his own Bengals single-season record with 50.5 yards per punt. William Wagner has recorded 193 long snaps without an unplayable delivery since joining the team as a college free agent in the 2025 offseason. In 2024 at the University of Michigan, he was a finalist for the Patrick Mannelly Award, given to the top long snapper in college football. WR Dohnte Meyers has returned 25 kickoffs for 660 yards this season (26.4 average), including a season-long 81-yarder on the opening kick of Week 5 at Miami that set up a Bengals TD. He also has 11 punt returns for 103 yards (9.4), highlighted by a career-long 31-yarder in the Week 7 win at Baltimore which set up a third-quarter scoring drive. Over his two seasons (2024-25) with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL, Meyers logged 11 KORs for 319 yards (29.0) along with nine PRs for 94 yards (10.4). Also in the mix to return kickoffs is veteran HB Samaje Perine, who has 27 career KORs for 702 yards (26.2), including a career-high 17 for 430 last season with Cincinnati. His first KOR of this season came in Week 3 at Pittsburgh, a 26-yarder that set up a Bengals TD drive in the first quarter. Second-year HB Tahj Brooks has 15 career KORs for 380 yards (25.7), including five for 122 yards this season. He had a 27-yard run-back on his lone KOR of Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

THE LAST BENGALS-FALCONS MEETINGS

2018 SEASON

WEEK 4, GAME 4

Cincinnati Bengals 37, Atlanta Falcons 36

Sunday, Sept. 30, 2018 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium

The Bengals won in their first-ever visit to Mercedes-Benz Stadium. QB Andy Dalton led a dramatic 16-play, 75-yard drive in the game's final four minutes that ended with a 13-yard TD pass to WR A.J. Green with seven seconds left. Dalton completed seven of 12 passes for 65 yards and twice scrambled for another 13 yards rushing on the drive, which included one third-down conversion and two fourth-down conversions. For the game, Dalton completed 29 of 41 passes for 337 yards, three TDs and one INT (109.5 rating). WR Tyler Boyd had 100 yards receiving on a season-high 11 catches, including four that converted third downs and two on the final drive that converted fourth downs. It was the Bengals' first win in Atlanta since 1987. Cincinnati went to 3-1, and the Falcons to 1-3.

2022 SEASON

WEEK 7, GAME 7

Cincinnati Bengals 35, Atlanta Falcons 17

Sunday, Oct. 23, 2022 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals opened the game with four straight TD drives and recorded 537 net yards of offense in a dominant home win. QB Joe Burrow completed 34 of 42 passes for 481 yards and four total TDs (three passing, one rushing). He started the day with a 60-yard TD pass to WR Tyler Boyd on the game's fourth play from scrimmage. Boyd caught eight passes for 155 receiving yards (118 in the first half), while WR Ja'Marr Chase added eight receptions for 130 yards and two TDs. Chase's TDs both came in the second quarter, and both on receptions of over 30 yards. The Falcons scored 17 points in the final five minutes of the first half to cut their deficit to 11 points, 28-17, but the Bengals' defense forced Atlanta to punt on each of its four second-half possessions, and Burrow led a game-ending drive that took the last 8:44 off the clock to secure the win. The Bengals' defense extended to seven the number of consecutive games in which Cincinnati had not allowed a second-half touchdown, just the third such streak since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger. The Bengals improved to 4-3, while Atlanta fell to 3-4.

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 33, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 27
Sunday, Sept. 13, 2026 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals' defense had four takeaways which were converted into 24 points in a season-opening win. All of the takeaways were fumble recoveries, including three on consecutive Buccaneers drives in the first half. LB Demetrius Knight Jr. scored on a 27-yard fumble return for a TD. The Bengals built a 17-point lead in the third quarter before a Tampa Bay FG and 38-yard pick-six by LB Josiah Trotter made it a one-possession game. K Evan McPherson made all of his four FG attempts, including a pair in the fourth quarter to regain a double-digit advantage. The Buccaneers pulled to within one score again with 3:19 left, but the Cincinnati offense responded with an eight-play, 59-yard drive to drain the remaining clock. Bengals defensive veteran free agent acquisitions made an impact, as Jonathan Allen and Boye Mafe both had a sack, while S Bryan Cook had a FF and FR.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Cincinnati Bengals 20, Houston Texans 6
Sunday, Sept. 20, 2026 at Reliant Stadium

WR Ja'Marr Chase had two TD catches and Cincinnati's defense held Houston to just six points in a road win. The Texans elected to go for it on fourth-and-inches inside the red zone midway through the second quarter, but DT Dexter Lawrence II broke through the line and tackled RB David Montgomery for a loss to force a turnover on downs. The Bengals' offense responded with an 81-yard drive capped by a 32-yard TD pass from Burrow to Chase, who came down with an acrobatic catch near the front pylon. Burrow found Chase for another TD in the third quarter to increase the lead to 17-3. K Evan McPherson knocked through a pair of FGs from beyond 50 yards, while defensively the Bengals kept the Texans to 60 total rushing yards. Cincinnati recorded four sacks, with two coming from DE Cedric Johnson. The Bengals improved to 2-0, while Houston fell to 0-2.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

Pittsburgh Steelers 30, Cincinnati Bengals 27
Sunday, Sept. 27, 2026 at Acrisure Stadium

The Bengals were driving inside Steelers territory while trailing by three in the game's final minute, but a fumble by QB Joe Burrow was recovered by Pittsburgh DE Sebastian Joseph-Day to seal Cincinnati's road loss. The two offenses combined for 763 net yards and traded scores throughout the afternoon, with Burrow and Steelers QB Aaron Rodgers each throwing three TD passes. Burrow connected with TE Mike Gesicki for a TD on a fourth-down play to put the Bengals ahead early in the fourth quarter. The Cincinnati defense forced a punt on the ensuing Steelers drive, but it was muffed deep in Bengals territory and Pittsburgh capitalized on the turnover with a tying FG. Another Steelers FG gave them the lead later in the period, set up by a 47-yard gain by TE Darnell Washington. Bengals WRs Ja'Marr Chase and Tee Higgins each had a TD catch and went for over 90 yards, while Steelers RB Jaylen Warren churned out 127 yards on 17 carries (7.5 average). Cincinnati fell to 2-1, while Pittsburgh improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

Jacksonville Jaguars 22, Cincinnati Bengals 17
Sunday, Oct. 4, 2026 at Paycor Stadium

Jacksonville RB Chris Rodriguez Jr. scored a 25-yard rushing TD to extend the Jaguars' lead to 22-10 with 6:35 left in regulation. The Bengals answered with a 71-yard drive ending in a TD sneak by QB Joe Burrow, then forced the Jaguars to punt on the ensuing possession to get the ball back with a chance to win. The Bengals drove to Jacksonville's 21-yard line in the final minute while trailing by five points, but the Jaguars stopped HB Chase Brown a half-yard short on fourth down to stave off a late comeback. Burrow passed for 428 yards, but he threw two INTs in Jaguars territory. With WR Ja'Marr Chase out for most of the game due to injury, WR Tee Higgins served as Burrow's primary target and finished with 11 catches for 157 yards. The two teams were called for a combined 24 penalties, including three which nullified TDs. Cincinnati fell to 2-2, while Jacksonville improved to 3-1.

WEEK 5, GAME 5

Cincinnati Bengals 31, Miami Dolphins 24

Sunday, Oct. 11, 2026 at Hard Rock Stadium

Bengals QB Joe Burrow threw four TD passes to four different receivers to lead the Bengals to a road victory. Cincinnati's 21-7 halftime lead was jumpstarted by an 81-yard return by WR Dohnte Meyers on the game's opening kickoff which set up an early Bengals TD. S Jordan Battle picked off Miami QB Malik Willis twice on consecutive Dolphins possessions, with his second INT leading to a TD by TE Tanner Hudson before the break. The Dolphins drove to inside Cincinnati's one-yard line in the third quarter, but the Bengals' defense created two straight negative plays and forced Miami to settle for a FG. Cincinnati extended its lead to 18 points, culminating in a highlight-reel 45-yard TD grab by WR Ja'Marr Chase. Late in the fourth, K Evan McPherson set a Bengals record with his 22nd consecutive made FG. The Dolphins eventually cut the deficit to 31-24 in the final minute, but the ensuing onside kick went out of bounds to seal the result. The kickoff temperature of 90 degrees marked the hottest game in October in the history of Hard Rock Stadium. Cincinnati improved to 3-2, while Miami fell to 0-5.

WEEK 7, GAME 6

Cincinnati Bengals 35, Baltimore Ravens 13

Sunday, Oct. 25, 2026 at M&T Bank Stadium

The Bengals scored 35 unanswered points in the second half to run away with a road divisional win. Baltimore built a 13-0 halftime lead fueled by 215 passing yards from QB Tyler Huntley, but Cincinnati came out of the break with TDs on five straight possessions to take command. QB Joe Burrow completed 16 of his 18 passing attempts in the second half for 249 yards and four TDs, each of which went to a different receiver. WR Tee Higgins caught six passes for a game-high 148 yards, with a 13-yard scoring reception that led to the Bengals taking their first lead of the day in the third quarter. After WR Ja'Marr Chase caught a TD in the fourth quarter to put Cincinnati ahead by two scores, LB Demetrius Knight Jr. picked off Huntley in Ravens territory which set up another scoring drive. The Bengals sacked Huntley four times, one which was the first of DE Cashius Howell's NFL career. P Ryan Rehkow had each of his four punts downed inside Baltimore's 12-yard line, giving the Bengals an advantage in field position throughout the afternoon. Cincinnati improved to 4-2, while Baltimore fell to 4-3.

WEEK 8, GAME 7

Cincinnati Bengals 43, Tennessee Titans 36

Sunday, Nov. 1, 2026 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals scored a TD on their opening possession of overtime and then forced a fourth-down incompletion on the following drive to hold off Tennessee in a high-scoring affair. QB Joe Burrow was picked off three times by Titans S Amani Hooker, but he battled through the turnovers and passed for 462 yards and five TDs. WR Tee Higgins had 10 catches for 155 receiving yards and two TDs, including a score late in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 36. Tennessee's offense crossed midfield in the final minute of regulation, but Bengals DT Dexter Lawrence sacked QB Cam Ward on third down to end the potential game-winning drive. In overtime, Burrow completed four straight passes and then ran for a nine-yard TD to put Cincinnati back in front. WR Ja'Marr Chase added 141 yards and a TD on 11 receptions. The two teams combined for 950 net yards and 52 first downs. Cincinnati improved to 5-2, while Tennessee fell to 1-7.
