WEEKLY NEWS RELEASE

OCT. 28, 2025

CHICAGO BEARS (4-3) AT CINCINNATI BENGALS (3-5)

WEEK 9, GAME 9
 SUNDAY, NOV. 2
 AT PAYCOR STADIUM

UP NEXT:
 BENGALS BYE WEEK

GAME INFORMATION

Kickoff: 1 p.m. Eastern.

Television: The game will air on CBS-TV. In the Bengals' home region, it will be carried by WKRC-TV (Ch. 12) in Cincinnati, WHIO-TV (Ch. 7) in Dayton and WKYT-TV (Ch. 27) in Lexington. Broadcasters are Spero Dedes (play-by-play), Adam Archuleta (analyst) and Aditi Kinkhabwala (sideline reporter).

Radio: The game will air on the Bengals Radio Network, led by Cincinnati flagship radio stations WLW-AM (700), WCKY-AM (1530) and WEBN-FM (102.7). Broadcasters are Dan Hoard (play-by-play) and Dave Lapham (analyst).

Setting the scene: Cincinnati wraps up a three-game home stand when it takes on the Chicago Bears at Paycor Stadium on Sunday.

The Bengals are coming off a 39-38 loss to the N.Y. Jets in Week 8 which moved them to 3-5 on the season. Cincinnati built a lead of at least 14 points on three separate occasions, but the Jets scored 23 points in the fourth quarter to storm back and wrestle away the victory. While the Bengals' offensive effort provided several positive highlights, including 181 net rushing yards as well as yet another strong performance by WR Ja'Marr Chase, the outcome of the game offered little solace for head coach Zac Taylor and his team.

"We never got a chance to break that game open like we felt like we were capable of," said Taylor. "Two opportunities there at the end of the game to close it out on offense, and defensively to get guys on the ground. Tackling wasn't good enough. We're not going to look at anything and say anything was good enough after that loss. (It was) humbling, and we're going to have to really dig deep to bounce back next week."

Cincinnati created its early leads thanks in large part to an explosive rushing attack steered by the halfback duo of Samaje Perine, who posted a season-high 94 yards on nine carries, and Chase Brown, who ran 12 times for 73 yards. After ranking near the bottom of the NFL in several rushing metrics through the first six weeks of this season, the Bengals have totaled 323 net rushing yards over their past two games, the third-most leaguewide in that stretch.

The Bengals also continue to receive an offensive spark from veteran QB Joe Flacco, who was acquired in a trade on Oct. 7 and has started the past three games. The 18th-year pro has passed for 784 yards and seven TDs with zero INTs in his young Cincinnati stint, and the Bengals have scored 30 or more points in consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 8-9 of last season.

Flacco already has created a productive connection with Chase, as the All-Pro receiver has totaled 38 receptions over three games with his new QB. That ties former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas (2018) for the most catches over a three-game span in NFL history. Chase currently leads the league in receptions (70), while ranking second in receiving yards (720) and tied for eighth in receiving TDs (five). His receiving running mate, Tee Higgins, has caught a Flacco TD pass in each of the past two games, including a 44-yarder against the Jets.

Chicago saw its four-game winning streak come to an end in a Week 8 loss at Baltimore. The Bears are 4-3 overall this season and 2-2 in road contests. They rank 10th leaguewide both in rushing offense (124.6 yards per game) and passing offense (225.6), and their plus-10 differential in takeaways leads all teams.

The series: Though they are relatively close geographical neighbors, the Bengals and Bears have played infrequently. The series history is an even affair, with the two teams currently tied at 6-6, though Chicago has won three straight.

Home-field advantage has not been a factor in the Cincinnati-Chicago series. The Bears currently hold a 3-2 edge in games played in Cincinnati, while the Bengals lead 4-3 in games played in Chicago.

Outside of the relatively new franchise Carolina, the total of 12 meetings is tied for the fewest number of all-time games between the Bengals and any opponent. The only other long-established NFL teams that the Bengals have played just 12 times are the N.Y. Giants (the Bengals lead the series 7-5) and Washington (the Commanders lead 6-5-1).

A complete recap of the Bengals-Bears series appears on page 214 of the 2025 Bengals Media Guide.

Team bests from the series:

Bengals — MOST POINTS: 45, in a 45-10 win at Paul Brown Stadium in 2009. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 35, in the 45-10 win in '09. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 3, in a 13-3 win at Chicago in 1972, the first game of the series.

Bears — MOST POINTS: 44, in a 44-7 victory at Cincinnati in 1986. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 37, in the 44-7 win in '86. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 0, in a 24-0 win at Cincinnati in 2001.

Bengals career records watch: As Cincinnati continues the 2025 season, here is a look at potential upcoming movement on the Bengals' career records lists (regular season):

- WR Ja'Marr Chase has 465 career receptions, the sixth-most in team history and 42 shy of tying T.J. Houshmandzadeh (507) for fifth. WRs Chad Johnson (751), A.J. Green (649), Carl Pickens (530) and Tyler Boyd (513) hold the top four spots on the team's career list. Chase in Week 4 at Denver surpassed WR Isaac Curtis (416) for seventh place and WR Cris Collinsworth (417) for sixth.

- Chase has 6145 career receiving yards, the sixth-most in team history and 553 shy of fifth-most, which is held by Collinsworth (6698). Johnson (10,783), Green (9430), Curtis (7101) and Pickens (6887) hold the top four spots. Chase in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets surpassed WR Eddie Brown (6134) for sixth.

- Chase has 51 career receiving TDs, the fifth-most in team history and two shy of Curtis (53) for fourth. Johnson (66), Green (65) and Pickens (63) hold the top three spots.

- Chase has 22 career games with 100 or more receiving yards, the third-most in team history and nine shy of Johnson (31) for second. Green (33) holds the team record. Chase in Week 5 vs. Detroit surpassed Curtis (20) for third.

- DE Trey Hendrickson has 61.0 sacks as a member of the Bengals, the fifth-most in team history and 1.5 shy of LB Reggie Williams (62.5) for fourth. DE/DT Eddie Edwards (83.5), DE Carlos Dunlap (82.5) and DT Geno Atkins (75.5) hold the top three spots. Hendrickson in Week 5 vs. Detroit surpassed DE Ross Browner (59.0) for fifth.

- K Evan McPherson has accounted for 497 career points, the sixth-most in team history and 52 shy of fifth-most, which is held by K Horst Muhlmann (549).

- McPherson has 105 career made FGs, the sixth-most in team history and 15 shy of Muhlmann (120) for fifth.

- McPherson has 182 career made PATs, the sixth-most in team history and seven shy of Muhlmann (189) for fifth.

- McPherson has a career FG percentage of 82.0 (105 made/128 att.), the third-highest mark in team history (minimum 75 attempts). Kickers Shayne Graham (86.8 percent; 177/202) and Randy Bullock (84.9; 90/106) hold the top two spots.

- P Ryan Rehkow has 36 career punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line, the sixth-most by a Bengal since the stat began being tracked in 1976. He is one inside-20 punt shy of P Nick Harris (37) for fifth-most.

Uniform watch: Cincinnati will wear black jerseys, black pants (orange stripes) and orange socks this week against Chicago. The Bengals have worn this combination five previous times since their uniform redesign in 2021, and have collected a 4-1 record in those games. Cincinnati last featured this combination in a road win at Carolina in Week 4 of last season.

The Bengals' redesign in 2021 marked the team's first significant change in uniform since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants feature four options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, white with black stripes, and orange with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new white helmet with its iconic black stripes. When paired with white jerseys and white pants (with black stripes), a new uniform combination was created and was branded as the "White Bengal." The team has worn the white helmet six times and collected a 5-1 record in those games. The helmet's most recent appearance came in Week 7 of this season, when Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh at home on Thursday Night Football.

Here are the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

* — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms (CR) that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023 and thereafter, the Bengals were permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.

^ — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or throwback and/or color rush uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes the team's orange jersey. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

+ — The Bengals added orange pants with black stripes to their uniform lineup in 2024.

Records vs. Bears: The following individual and team regular-season Bengals and Bears entries are logged in Cincinnati's team record book:

- On Dec. 14, 1980 at Soldier Field, CB Louis Breeden became the third Bengal to register the team record of three interceptions in a game. The record now has been set eight times, by six players.
- On Sept. 25, 2005 at Soldier Field, Bears QB Kyle Orton threw five INTs against the Bengals, tied for the most by an opposing QB. That dubious record has been reached four times. The other QBs were Oakland's Daryle Lamonica (1969), Minnesota's Daunte Culpepper (2005) and Green Bay's Brett Favre ('05).

Individually vs. Bears: Here are regular-season offensive statistics for current Bengals in Cincinnati games against the Bears (ordered by total games played):

- QB Joe Burrow (Reserve/Injured): One game; 19-of-30 passing for 207 yards (6.9-yards per attempt), two TDs and three INTs (66.2 passer rating).
- WR Ja'Marr Chase: One game; Two receptions for 54 yards (27.0-yard average) and one TD.
- WR Tee Higgins: One game; Six catches for 60 yards (10.0) and one TD.

THE HEAD COACHES

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2025 season is his seventh in the position.

In 2024, he guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season at 9-8, which was highlighted by five straight victories to close out the schedule. He orchestrated one of the NFL's most dynamic offenses, serving as play-caller for a unit that led the league in passing yards per game (272.9), ranked sixth in points per game (27.8) and ninth in total yards (365.5).

In 2023, Taylor led the Bengals to a 9-8 record despite a few key players missing time due to injuries, including QB Joe Burrow, who suffered a season-ending injury in Week 11. Taylor worked with backup QB Jake Browning over the final seven weeks and guided Cincinnati to a 4-3 mark to close out the slate.

The 2022 season saw Taylor lead the Bengals to their second straight AFC North Division title and a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship Game. He became the 13th head coach in NFL history to win five of his first six career postseason games. The Bengals posted impressive numbers on both sides of the ball under Taylor, as the offense ranked in the top 10 leaguewide in passing (fifth, 265.0), scoring (seventh, 26.1) and total yards (eighth, 360.5), and the defense held opponents to a league-low 59.8 completion percentage.

In 2021, Taylor guided Cincinnati to its first division crown in six years and then three postseason victories to win the AFC Championship and advance to Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, in his first full season in Taylor's system, led the league in completion percentage (70.4) and was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year. Chase, the team's first-round draft pick, posted the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455, since surpassed) en route to winning Offensive Rookie of the Year. Defensively, Cincinnati showed marked improvement from 2020 to '21, jumping from 29th in rushing yards allowed to fifth (102.5). In the postseason, Taylor led the Bengals to their first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition Burrow, the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft, to the pros, despite the absence of an in-person offseason program due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Defensively, Taylor oversaw seven new starters who helped Cincinnati hold opposing passers to the sixth-lowest completion percentage in the NFL (62.8). In 2019, his first season as head coach, Taylor led the Bengals to second-half turnarounds on both sides of the ball. Offensively, the team's per-game rushing average jumped from 70.6 yards from the first half of the season (59.5) to the second half (130.1). Defensively, Cincinnati notched 11 more sacks in the second half of the season compared to the first, and allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game.

Taylor came to the Bengals after two seasons (2017-18) with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in '17 and quarterbacks coach in '18. He had a one-year stint at the University of Cincinnati in 2016, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville. He broke into NFL coaching in 2012 as assistant QBs coach for the Miami Dolphins. He was elevated to QBs coach from 2013-15, and spent the final five games of the '15 season as interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller after the team made coaching staff changes.

Taylor's began coaching at Texas A&M University as an offensive graduate

The Jungle is jammin': The Bengals have had announced attendance figures of 65,000 or more in 28 consecutive regular-season home games dating back to Week 1 of the 2022 campaign. That is the longest streak in team history, surpassing a previous span of 24 straight from 2005-07.

Each of the 15 highest attended home games in team history, in terms of announced attendance figure, have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year. Cincinnati's win over Pittsburgh in Week 7 of this season was played in front of an announced crowd of 66,569, the fourth-largest figure on the list. A majority of those fans were dressed in white apparel to accentuate the fourth annual "White Bengal" game at Paycor Stadium on Thursday Night Football.

The largest home attendance figure in team history is 67,260, which came in Week 4 of the 2022 season when the Bengals defeated Miami on Thursday Night Football. That figure also marked the largest crowd for a sporting event in Cincinnati history.

Here are the largest announced home crowds in Bengals franchise history:

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT	ATTENDANCE
Sept. 29, 2022	Miami	W, 27-15	67,260
Oct. 27, 2024	Philadelphia	L, 17-37	67,239
Nov. 5, 2023	Buffalo	W, 24-18	66,965
Oct. 16, 2025	Pittsburgh	W, 33-31	66,569

assistant and TE's coach under head coach Mike Sherman from 2008-11. The Aggies played in three bowl games during his College Station tenure.

Taylor played in college at Wake Forest (2002-03) before transferring to Butler County Community College in Kansas ('04) and then playing his final two seasons ('05-06) at the University of Nebraska. He had a decorated career with the Cornhuskers, setting numerous school records and passing for 5850 yards and 45 TDs. As a senior in 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 3197 total yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017.

Taylor joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp and never saw NFL action. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play).

His father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at the University of Oklahoma, playing under Sooners head coach Barry Switzer from 1976-79. Sherwood Taylor later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State University. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall University and currently is the pass game coordinator for the Chicago Bears.

Taylor was born in Norman, Okla., on May 10, 1983. After attending Norman High School, he earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman.

Ben Johnson was named head coach of the Chicago Bears on Jan. 21, 2025. He is the 18th full-time head coach in the franchise's 106-year history, arriving in Chicago after leading one of the NFL's most prolific offenses with the Detroit Lions.

Johnson was offensive coordinator in Detroit (2022-24), where his '24 unit averaged a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game, helping the Lions average a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulate 68 total offensive touchdowns — the most by any team in the NFL. In each of his three seasons coordinating Detroit's offense, Johnson's group has finished in the top-five in the league in total offense each year, including a No. 2 ranking in 2024. Over his last two seasons (2023-24), no unit in the NFL averaged more points per game (30.1) or net yards per game (402.2) than Johnson's Lions offense.

Before being elevated to offensive coordinator, Johnson spent two years as the Lions tight ends coach (2020-21) following one season as an offensive quality control coach ('19).

Prior to his tenure with Detroit, Johnson served seven seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins, working under three different head coaches. Over his seven years in Miami, Johnson worked in the capacities of offensive assistant (2012), assistant quarterbacks coach ('13-15), tight ends coach ('15), assistant wide receivers coach ('16-17) and wide receivers coach ('18).

Johnson spent three years at Boston College, first as a graduate assistant (2009-10) and then coaching the tight ends ('11). He was a walk-on QB at the University of North Carolina, earning degrees in mathematics and computer science. He spent one year as a software developer in his home state of North Carolina, before going into coaching. He has no pro playing experience.

Born on May 11, 1986, in Charleston, S.C., Johnson and his wife, Jessica, have three children – Emory, Kennedy and Halle.

Taylor vs. Bears: The Bears lead 1-0.

Taylor vs. Johnson: No previous meetings.

Johnson vs. Bengals: No previous meetings.

BENGALS NOTES

Flacco through three starts: QB Joe Flacco, who Cincinnati acquired in a trade with Cleveland on Oct. 7, has started the past three games for the Bengals. He has completed 81 of 126 passes (64.3 percent) for 784 yards and seven TDs with zero INTs, good for a passer rating of 100.1.

Flacco is just the second QB in NFL history to pass for at least 750 yards and seven TDs while not throwing an INT in his first three games with a team. The only previous QB to do so was Case Keenum with Houston in 2013.

Flacco's first start for Cincinnati came in Week 6 at Green Bay, just five days after joining the team. He finished the game with 219 passing yards, but the bulk of his production came in the second half, when he threw for 179 yards and two TDs. Both of his scoring passes came on fourth-down plays, including a 19-yarder to WR Ja'Marr Chase on fourth-and-five late in the fourth quarter.

Flacco then faced a short week of preparation for the Week 7 contest against Pittsburgh on Thursday Night Football. The 18th-year veteran shined under the Paycor Stadium lights, as he recorded season highs in attempts (47), passing yards (342) and TD passes (three), while matching his season high with 31 completions. After the Steelers took the lead with 2:21 left in regulation, Flacco engineered an eight-play, 52-yard drive to set up the game-winning FG. He completed each of his three passing attempts on the drive for 61 yards, with the final pass being a 28-yard connection with WR Tee Higgins to get inside comfortable FG range.

With his effort against the Steelers, Flacco became the fourth QB in NFL history with at least 300 passing yards, three TD passes and zero INTs in a game after turning 40 years old. He joined Tom Brady (12 such games), Drew Brees (two) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Brett Favre (two).

Flacco faced one of his former teams in the N.Y. Jets in Week 8, and tacked on 223 more passing yards with two TDs. His 44-yard scoring pass to WR Tee Higgins in the second quarter marked his longest completion since Week 17 of last season, when he completed a 49-yarder while playing for Indianapolis.

The wrap on Flacco: At 40 years old (born Jan. 16, 1985), QB Joe Flacco is the oldest QB to start a game in Bengals history. He currently is in his 18th season and has played in 203 career regular-season games with 198 starts.

Flacco ranks in the top 25 in NFL history in career passing yards (14th; 47,296) and TD passes (21st; 266). He moved into 14th place on the league's all-time passing yardage list in the Bengals' Week 7 win over Pittsburgh, surpassing QBs Russell Wilson (46,921) and Fran Tarkenton (47,003).

Flacco originally was a first-round draft pick of Baltimore in 2008 and spent 11 seasons ('08-18) as the Ravens' starting QB. He then had stints with Denver (2019), the N.Y. Jets ('20-22), Cleveland ('23 and '25) and Indianapolis ('24).

Flacco also has played and started 16 postseason games, highlighted by a four-game run to help the Ravens win Super Bowl XLVII in the 2012 campaign. He won Super Bowl MVP honors after throwing three TD passes and posting a 124.2 passer rating in Baltimore's win over San Francisco.

In his first stint with Cleveland in 2023, Flacco stepped in as the Browns' starting QB for five games late in the year and helped lead them to a 4-1 record, which propelled them to a playoff berth. He averaged 323.2 passing yards and over two TDs per game in that stretch, and was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year.

Flacco had started the Browns' first four games of this season, including the Week 1 contest against Cincinnati, and passed for 815 yards and two TDs with six INTs. He then was Active/DNP in Cleveland's fifth game as rookie Dillon Gabriel made his NFL debut.

Flacco's TD pass to HB Chase Brown in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets marked the 70th player he has thrown at least one scoring pass to. That tied former QB Vinny Testaverde for the fourth-most such players in NFL history.

Burrow's early 2025 totals: Sixth-year QB Joe Burrow started the first two games of the 2025 season before sustaining a toe injury in the second quarter of Week 2 vs. Jacksonville. He was placed on the Reserve/Injured list on Sept. 16, and underwent surgery on Sept. 19. In his five-plus quarters of action, Burrow completed 21 of 36 passes for 189 yards and two TDs with no INTs.

Burrow played in his 70th career game in the season opener at Cleveland and went 14 of 23 for 113 yards, with a one-yard TD pass to TE Noah Fant to give Cincinnati the lead in the second quarter. Burrow's 1762 career completions at the end of the Browns game were the most by any QB in NFL history through their first 70 games, while his 141 TD passes ranked as the third-most and his 19,114 passing yards ranked fifth.

Burrow had completed seven of his 13 passing attempts for 76 yards against the Jaguars prior to his injury. He connected with WR Ja'Marr Chase for a four-yard TD on third-and-goal late in the opening quarter.

No stopping Uno: WR Ja'Marr Chase has recorded 10 or more receptions in each of his last three games, with 10 in Week 6 at Green Bay, a Bengals-record 16 in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, and 12 in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. His 38 total catches in that stretch are tied for the most in NFL history over a span of three games. The only other player to amass 38 receptions over a three-game period was former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas in Weeks 1-3 of the 2018 season.

Should Chase reach double-digits in receptions this week against Chicago, he would join former Detroit WR Calvin Johnson (Weeks 13-16 of 2012) as the only players in NFL history with 10 or more catches in four straight games. Chase has four career games with 14 or more receptions, tied with former Pittsburgh/New England/Tampa Bay WR Antonio Brown for the second-most such games in league history. Current L.A. Chargers WR Keenan Allen holds the league record with six such games in his career.

In the Week 7 win over the Steelers, Chase broke his own previous Bengals single-game record of 15 receptions, which he logged in Week 5 of the 2023 season at Arizona. He now owns the four highest single-game reception totals in team history.

After leading the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 receptions last season, Chase once again is pacing the league with 70 catches in 2025. The last player to finish as the league leader in receptions in consecutive seasons was Michael Thomas in 2018 and '19.

Here are the most receptions in a game in Bengals history (regular season):

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	RECEPTIONS
Ja'Marr Chase	Oct. 16, 2025	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	16
Ja'Marr Chase	Oct. 8, 2023	at Arizona Cardinals	15
Ja'Marr Chase	Dec. 9, 2024	at Dallas Cowboys	14
Ja'Marr Chase	Sept. 14, 2025	vs. Jacksonville Jaguars	14
Carl Pickens	Oct. 11, 1998	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	13

Ja'Marr climbs the ranks: WR Ja'Marr Chase's league-leading 70 receptions this season have boosted his career catch total to 465, which ranks sixth in Bengals history and is 42 shy of tying former WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh (507) for fifth.

Chase recently surpassed Bengals Ring of Honor member Isaac Curtis (416) and former WR Cris Collinsworth (417) on the team's all-time receptions list. In the Week 2 win over Jacksonville, he logged his 400th career reception in what was his 64th regular-season game. That tied Atlanta WR Julio Jones and former Miami WR Jarvis Landry for the fifth-fewest games in NFL history to reach 400 career catches.

Chase kicked off his career with 81 receptions in the 2021 season, which set a Bengals rookie record and still ranks in the top 20 among all rookies in NFL history. He followed that up with a team-leading 87 catches in just 12 games played in 2022, then hit triple digits for the first time when he had 100 receptions in '23 (12th in NFL).

In his 2024 "Triple Crown" season, Chase led the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 catches. He became the first player in team history to lead the league in receptions, and surpassed Houshmandzadeh's previous team mark of 112 in the 2007 campaign.

Here are the Bengals' all-time leaders in career receptions (regular season):

PLAYER	YEARS WITH BENGALS	RECEPTIONS
Chad Johnson	2001-10	751
A.J. Green	2011-20	649
Carl Pickens	1992-99	530
Tyler Boyd	2016-23	513
T.J. Houshmandzadeh	2001-08	507
Ja'Marr Chase	2021-present	465

Chase leads the pack: WR Ja'Marr Chase's highlight-reel TD catch in the fourth quarter of Week 6 at Green Bay was the 50th receiving TD of his career. Playing in his 68th regular-season game, he became the seventh-fastest player in NFL history and the fourth-fastest in the Super Bowl era (1966-present) to reach that milestone. He found the end zone again on an eight-yard scoring catch in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, moving his career tally to 51.

The only players in the Super Bowl era to record 50 receiving TDs in fewer games than Chase are Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss (59 games), former New England TE Rob Gronkowski (59) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (61).

Chase's 51 TD catches are the most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021. In 2024, he led the league with 17 TDs, which tied the Bengals single-season record originally set by WR Carl Pickens in 1995. Chase became the first player in team history to lead the NFL in receiving TDs. He had a league-high five games with multiple TD catches last season, including a career-high-tying three scores in Week 10 at Baltimore on Thursday Night Football.

Chase's five receiving TDs this season are tied for eighth-most in the NFL. He caught two scoring passes from Jake Browning in Week 5 vs. Detroit, which marked his 12th career game with multiple TDs.

Here is a look at the players with the most receiving TDs since the start of the 2021 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	RECEIVING TDs SINCE '21
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals	51
Davante Adams	Green Bay/Las Vegas/N.Y. Jets/L.A. Rams	47
Mike Evans	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	45
Amon-Ra St. Brown	Detroit Lions	40
Tyreek Hill	Kansas City Chiefs/Miami Dolphins	36
DK Metcalf	Seattle Seahawks/Pittsburgh Steelers	36

Chasing history: WR Ja'Marr Chase surpassed 6000 career receiving yards during the Bengals' Week 7 win over Pittsburgh. Playing in his 69th career regular-season game, he became the fifth-fastest player in NFL history to reach that milestone. The only players to hit the 6K yard mark in fewer games are Pro Football Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (62), Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (62), former Atlanta WR Julio Jones (64) and former N.Y. Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. (67).

Chase is one of three players in NFL history with at least 6000 receiving yards and 50 receiving TDs in his first five seasons, alongside Hall of Famers Randy Moss and Jerry Rice. The win over the Steelers also marked Chase's seventh career game with at least 10 catches and 150 receiving yards, which surpassed Jefferson for the most such games in a player's first five seasons in league history.

Chase's current career receiving yardage total is at 6145, which ranks sixth in team history and is 553 shy of tying former WR Cris Collinsworth (6698) for fifth. So far this season, Chase has surpassed former WRs T.J. Houshmandzadeh (5782), Darnay Scott (5975), Tyler Boyd (6000) and Eddie Brown (6134) on Cincinnati's all-time list.

Chase wrapped up his fourth pro season in 2024, and among all players in NFL history through their first four years, he ranks third in receiving yards (5425), third in receiving TDs (46) and fourth in receptions (395). He is the only player in league history with at least 80 receptions, 1000 receiving yards and seven receiving TDs in each of his first four career seasons. He also is one of six players to begin his career with four consecutive 1000-yard receiving seasons, and the second Bengals player to do so following WR A.J. Green (2011-14).

The Bengals' first-round draft pick (No. 5 overall) in 2021, Chase holds a career average of 87.8 receiving yards per game (70 regular-season games). That is the third-highest mark in NFL history, trailing only Jefferson (95.6) and L.A. Rams WR Puka Nacua (90.9). The players behind Chase in that category include Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson (fourth; 86.1), WR Antonio Brown (fifth; 84.2) and WR Julio Jones (sixth; 82.5).

On the Chase: WR Ja'Marr Chase's 64-yard TD catch in Week 5 vs. Detroit was his 13th career receiving score from 60 or more yards. That is the most such TDs in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021, and the most in NFL history by a player under the age of 26.

Chase additionally has the NFL's most TD receptions of 50/+ yards (14) and 40/+ yards (19) since 2021. In his 2021 rookie campaign, six of his 13 receiving TDs came from at least 40 yards out. He had three scoring catches of 60 or more yards in 2023, then followed up with a league-leading four of at least 60 yards in '24. Two of those occurred in the same game last year, as he scored TDs of 67 and 70 yards in Week 10 at Baltimore on Thursday Night Football.

Here is a look at the players with the most TD catches of 60 or more yards since the start of the 2021 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	TD CATCHES OF 60/+ YARDS SINCE '21
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals	13
Tyreek Hill	Kansas City Chiefs/Miami Dolphins	7
Cooper Kupp	L.A. Rams/Seattle Seahawks	4
DK Metcalf	Seattle Seahawks/Pittsburgh Steelers	4

Uno reigns as Triple Crown winner: WR Ja'Marr Chase finished the 2024 season as the NFL leader in receptions (127), receiving yards (1708) and receiving TDs (17), earning him the prestigious receiving "Triple Crown." He became just the sixth Triple Crown winner in the Super Bowl era (1966-present), and the first since L.A. Rams WR Cooper Kupp in 2021.

Chase's receptions total and receiving yardage each set a Bengals single-season record, while his 17 receiving TDs tied WR Carl Pickens' team record set in 1995. Chase had 100 or more receiving yards in five games in 2024, tying for the second-most such games in a season in team history behind WR A.J. Green's six games in '13.

Chase also became the fifth player in NFL history to log at least 100 catches, 1500 receiving yards and 15 receiving TDs in a season, joining Kupp ('21), former Minnesota WR Randy Moss ('03), former Indianapolis WR Marvin Harrison ('01) and former San Francisco WR Jerry Rice (1995).

Following the regular season, Chase was voted a unanimous first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. It marked his second career All-Pro selection, as he received second-team honors in his 2021 rookie campaign. He became the first Bengals offensive player to earn first-team accolades since OT/G Andrew Whitworth in 2015.

Chase signed a contract extension with the Bengals in March of this year that keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2029 season.

PLAYER	TEAM	SEASON	REC.-YDS.-TDs
Lance Alworth	San Diego Chargers	1966	73-1383-13
Jerry Rice	San Francisco 49ers	1990	100-1502-13
Sterling Sharpe	Green Bay Packers	1992	108-1461-13
Steve Smith Sr.	Carolina Panthers	2005	103-1563-12
Cooper Kupp	L.A. Rams	2021	145-1947-16
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals	2024	127-1708-17

Tee time: WR Tee Higgins has at least one receiving TD in each of his last eight home games, dating back to Week 5 of the 2024 season. That is the longest such streak in the NFL, and includes 11 total TD catches over those eight home contests.

Higgins' most recent scoring grab was a 44-yarder in Week 8 against the N.Y. Jets, which marked his longest reception since his 80-yard TD in Week 16 of the 2023 season at Pittsburgh. It also was the third-longest TD catch of his career.

In the Week 7 win over the Steelers, Higgins posted season highs in receptions (six) and yards (96). He scored a 29-yard TD in the second quarter to give the Bengals their first lead of the night, then set up the game-winning FG late in the fourth with a 28-yard grab.

Since entering the NFL as a second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2020, Higgins ranks 14th in the league in receiving TDs (38) and 16th in receiving yards (4955). He recorded over 900 receiving yards in four of his first five seasons, including back-to-back 1000-yard campaigns in 2021 and '22. He also has played in seven postseason games for Cincinnati and has 457 receiving yards and three TDs.

Higgins enters Week 9 needing 35 receiving yards to reach 5000 in his career. Should he accomplish that on Sunday in what will be his 79th regular-season game, he would be the fifth-fastest player in Bengals history to hit the 5K milestone.

In 2024, Higgins finished second on the Bengals in receptions (73), receiving yards (911) and receiving TDs (10). His 10 TD catches were a career high and tied for sixth in the NFL. He was inactive for five games last year due to injuries, but in the last nine weeks of the season, he tied for the league lead in receiving TDs (seven) and ranked 17th in receiving yards (570). He also reached a pair of career milestones in 2024, eclipsing 300 receptions and 4000 receiving yards.

Higgins re-signed with the Bengals in March on a four-year deal which keeps him in Cincinnati through the 2028 season.

Brown does it all: HB Chase Brown has recorded 100 or more yards from scrimmage in each of the Bengals' past two games, as he logged 100 in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh then followed up with a season-high 105 in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets.

Brown's effort in the win over the Steelers included a season-best 108 rushing yards on 11 attempts. His 9.8 yards per carry marked the sixth-highest average by any NFL player in a game this season (minimum 10 rushes). He reeled off his two longest runs of the season in the second quarter, with a 37-yarder and 27-yarder both coming on the first play of Cincinnati TD drives. The 37-yard dash was the second-longest run of Brown's career, just shy of his 40-yard scamper in Week 13 of last season which also came against Pittsburgh.

In addition to his 105 scrimmage yards against the Jets (73 rushing, 32 receiving), Brown scored both a rushing and receiving TD in the same game for the second time in his career. His first such performance was Week 15 of last season at Tennessee.

Brown took over the starting HB role for Cincinnati midway through his second pro season in 2024, and emerged as a key piece of the offense down the stretch. From Weeks 9-17 of last season, when he started each game, Brown ranked fifth in the NFL in yards from scrimmage (930), fourth in scrimmage yards per game (116.3), seventh in rushing attempts (151) and ninth in rushing yards (631). He was one of just two NFL players in that span with at least 600 rushing yards and 250 receiving yards, alongside Detroit RB Jahmyr Gibbs.

Brown finished the 2024 campaign ranking in the top 20 leaguewide in rushing attempts (229; 16th), rushing yards (990; 17th), rushing TDs (seven; T-19th), yards from scrimmage (1350; 17th) and TDs from scrimmage (11; T-17th). His top single-game statistical performance came in Week 9 vs. Las Vegas, when he posted his first career 100-yard rushing day (120), and added career highs in carries (27) and scrimmage yards (157). He totaled at least 90 scrimmage yards in eight straight games from Weeks 9-17, becoming the first Bengals player to do so since former FB Boobie Clark also had an eight-game streak in 1973.

Hendrickson cracks top five: With a team-leading four sacks through seven games played this season, DE Trey Hendrickson has improved his sack total as a member of the Bengals to 61.0. That surpasses former DE Ross Browner (59.0) for fifth-most in Bengals history, and is 1.5 shy of former LB Reggie Williams (62.5) for fourth. Hendrickson signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent in the 2021 offseason.

Hendrickson, who has been voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons with the Bengals (2021-24), opened his Cincinnati tenure with 14.0 sacks in the '21 campaign, which led the team and ranked fifth in the NFL. He followed up with a team-high eight sacks in 2022.

Hendrickson posted 17.5 sacks in both the 2023 and '24 seasons, which are tied for the second-most in a season in Bengals history behind former DE Coy Bacon's 22.0 in 1976 (the NFL began tracking sacks in '82, but the Bengals track the stat back to '76 and recognize Bacon as the record-holder). He became the first Cincinnati player with double-digit sacks in consecutive seasons since former DE/DT Eddie Edwards in 1980-81. Hendrickson also is just the fifth player in NFL history to post 17 or more sacks in back-to-back seasons.

Here are the players with the most sacks in Bengals history (since 1976):

PLAYER	YEARS PLAYED	SACKS
Eddie Edwards	1977-88.....	83.5
Carlos Dunlap	2010-20.....	82.5
Geno Atkins	2010-20.....	75.5
Reggie Williams	1976-89.....	62.5
Trey Hendrickson	2021-25.....	61.0

Trey's torrid pace: Since the start of the 2023 season, DE Trey Hendrickson leads the NFL with 39.0 total sacks. He was the only player with at least 15 sacks in both the 2023 and '24 campaign.

Hendrickson joined the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent during the 2021 offseason, and in his four-plus years in Cincinnati he has totaled 61.0 sacks. That ranks as the third-most in the NFL in that span, trailing only Cleveland DE Myles Garrett (70.0 sacks) and Pittsburgh OLB T.J. Watt (62.5). He also has 13 games with multiple sacks (two or more) since the start of the 2021 season, the third-most leaguewide behind Watt and former Dallas/current Green Bay DE Micah Parsons (16 games each).

Hendrickson's most recent such performance came in Week 5 vs. Detroit, when he logged two sacks including a strip-sack which was recovered by Cincinnati in the first quarter.

Hendrickson's strip-sack against the Lions was his 12th forced fumble since 2021, which is tied for the third-most in the NFL in that span.

Originally a third-round draft pick of New Orleans in 2017, Hendrickson spent his first four pro seasons ('17-20) with the Saints, but started just three games over his first three years and totaled 6.5 sacks. He then broke out with 13.5 sacks in 2020, which tied for second in the NFL that season.

Here are the NFL players with the most sacks since 2023:

PLAYER	TEAM	SACKS SINCE 2023
Trey Hendrickson	Cincinnati Bengals.....	39.0
Myles Garrett	Cleveland Browns.....	38.0
T.J. Watt	Pittsburgh Steelers.....	34.5
Danielle Hunter	Minnesota Vikings/Houston Texans.....	32.5
Micah Parsons	Dallas Cowboys/Green Bay Packers.....	32.5

Trey reigns as sack champion: DE Trey Hendrickson in 2024 became the first Bengals player to lead the NFL in sacks since it became an officially tracked statistic in 1982. His 17.5 sacks last season were 3.5 more than the second-highest total of 14.0 by Cleveland DE Myles Garrett.

Hendrickson compiled five games with multiple sacks in 2024, highlighted by a career-best four sacks in Week 9 against Las Vegas. He earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for that performance, then received the award again following Week 18 at Pittsburgh when he logged 3.5 sacks.

Hendrickson's performance in 2024 landed him his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl selection. He also was voted a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, and finished second in voting for AP Defensive Player of the Year.

On Aug. 25, the Bengals and Hendrickson agreed to a revised contract for the 2025 season.

Here is a look at the NFL sack leaders during the 2024 regular season:

PLAYER	TEAM	SACKS
Trey Hendrickson	Cincinnati Bengals.....	17.5
Myles Garrett	Cleveland Browns.....	14.0
Nik Bonitto	Denver Broncos.....	13.5
Kyle Van Noy	Baltimore Ravens.....	12.5
(Three players tied)	—.....	12.0

Turner shuts it down: CB DJ Turner II's 13 PDs this season lead the NFL and already mark a career high for the third-year pro. His previous high was eight PDs in the 2024 campaign.

Turner also has recorded his first two career INTs this season, with the first coming late in the fourth quarter of Week 1 at Cleveland to help the Bengals protect a one-point lead. His second pick occurred just before halftime of the Week 7 contest vs. Pittsburgh, when he wrestled the ball away from WR DK Metcalf along the sideline in Cincinnati territory.

In Week 6 at Green Bay, Turner notched a career-best five PDs. He became the first Bengals player with five PDs in a game since CB Johnathan Joseph had five on Nov. 8, 2009, in a win over Baltimore. Turner also is one of three players in the NFL this season to record five PDs in a game, alongside Green Bay CB Keisean Nixon in Week 2 and Philadelphia CB Quinyon Mitchell in Week 4. No player in the league had that many PDs in a single game last season.

Turner has played in all eight games with seven starts this year, after missing the final six contests of the 2024 season due to a collarbone injury.

Here is a look at the NFL leaders in PDs this season:

PLAYER	TEAM	PASSES DEFENSED
DJ Turner II	Cincinnati Bengals.....	13
Keisean Nixon	Green Bay Packers.....	11
Tyson Campbell	Jacksonville Jaguars/Cleveland Browns.....	10
(six players tied)	—.....	9

Geno racks up the picks: S Geno Stone's INT to end the Packers' opening drive in Week 6 was his 12th pick since the start of the 2023 season, which ties for the second-most in the NFL in that span.

After seeing the field as a rotational defensive back and special teams contributor for Baltimore through his first three pro seasons (2020-22), Stone broke out in '23 with seven INTs, which led all AFC players and ranked second in the NFL. He then signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent in the 2024 offseason, and in his debut year in stripes he tied for the team lead with four picks. Three of those came in three consecutive games from Weeks 14-16, as he became the first Bengals player with an INT in three straight contests since S Reggie Nelson (five straight) in 2015.

In addition to his first INT of the 2025 campaign at Green Bay, Stone has 51 tackles with two TFLs and a sack this season. He has started at safety in all 25 games he has played in for the Bengals.

Here is a brief look at the players with the most INTs since the start of the 2023 season:

PLAYER	TEAM	INTs SINCE '23
Kerby Joseph	Detroit Lions	16
Geno Stone	Baltimore Ravens/Cincinnati Bengals	12
Xavier McKinney	N.Y. Giants/Green Bay Packers	12
Derek Stingley Jr.	Houston Texans	12
Jessie Bates III	Atlanta Falcons	10
DaRon Bland	Dallas Cowboys	10

Money Mac from deep: Of K Evan McPherson's 105 career made FGs, 25 have been from a distance of 50 or more yards. That marks the most such FGs in a career in Bengals history, and is tied for the eighth-most in the NFL since McPherson entered the league as a fifth-round pick of Cincinnati in 2021.

McPherson has made one kick from at least 50 yards this season, on an exact 50-yarder in Week 5 vs. Detroit. The following week at Green Bay, he lined up to attempt an NFL-record 67-yard FG as the first half clock was expiring. He initially made the kick, but the Packers negated the try by calling a timeout. His ensuing attempt flew short of the uprights.

McPherson did notch a career milestone in the Green Bay contest, as he made his 100th career FG on a 45-yarder in the fourth quarter. Playing in his 67th career regular-season game, he became the fifth-fastest kicker in Bengals history to reach the century mark, behind only Doug Pelfrey (59 games), Shayne Graham (62), Mike Nugent (62) and Horst Muhlmann (65).

Overall for his career, McPherson has made 105 of 128 FG attempts, good for the third-highest percentage in team history (82.0). Referred to by fans as "Money Mac," he is a perfect 19-for-19 on FG attempts in the postseason and is Cincinnati's all-time leader in postseason scoring (69 points). He has seven career game-winning "walk-off" FGs (including postseason), with the two most memorable coming in the 2021 AFC Divisional Playoff at Tennessee (52 yards) and the following week in the AFC Championship at Kansas City (31 yards).

McPherson owns five of the seven longest made kicks in Bengals history, led by a career-long 59-yarder that he booted in the 2022 season opener against Pittsburgh. His season long in 2024 was a 56-yarder in Week 4 at Carolina, which at the time tied for the fifth-longest in team history (now tied for sixth).

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	59
Cade York	Dec. 22, 2024	vs. Cleveland Browns	59
Evan McPherson	Dec. 19, 2021	at Denver Broncos	58
Randy Bullock	Dec. 22, 2019	at Miami Dolphins	57
Evan McPherson	Sept. 29, 2022	vs. Miami Dolphins	57

Rehkwow's ranks: P Ryan Rehkwow has punted 37 times for 1953 yards this season, with 11 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line. He ranks first in the NFL in gross punting average (52.8 per punt), 10th in net average (42.5) and tied for eighth in inside-20 punts.

As a rookie in 2024, Rehkwow set Bengals single-season records for gross punting average (49.11 yards) and net average (42.92 yards). Both figures surpassed former P Kevin Huber's previous records set in the 2020 season. Rehkwow also had 25 inside-20 punts last year compared to five touchbacks.

After signing with the Bengals as a free agent on the third day of training camp in 2024, Rehkwow made his NFL debut in Week 1 of last season against New England. That day, he punted four times for 258 yards, setting an NFL single-game record with 64.5 gross yards per attempt (minimum four punts). The previous league record belonged to Las Vegas P AJ Cole, who had a 63.60-yard average in Week 9 of the 2023 campaign. Rehkwow's performance in the 2024 opener also included the longest punt in Bengals history, an 80-yarder kicked from his own 20-yard line to the Patriots' end zone.

Rehkwow finished his 2024 rookie season ranking sixth in the NFL in net punting average and ninth in gross average.

In Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, Rehkwow saw one of his three punts downed inside the Steelers' 20-yard line. He improved his career total inside-20 punts to 36, which is one shy of former P Nick Harris (37) for the fifth-most by a Bengal since the stat began being tracked in 1976.

Four Bengals listed on "Top 100": For the 15th consecutive season, current NFL players voted to determine the top 100 players in the league, with the final list revealed throughout July and August on social media and NFL Network.

Cincinnati is represented by four players on the 2025 list — WR Ja'Marr Chase (No. 4), QB Joe Burrow (No. 6), DE Trey Hendrickson (No. 14) and WR Tee Higgins (No. 77). It marked the first appearance on the list in Higgins' career, the fourth overall for Burrow and Chase, and the fifth for Hendrickson.

Chase's ranking at No. 4 is the highest by a Bengals player since the "Top 100" debuted in 2011. The previous highest ranking was No. 6, which was Burrow's position on the 2023 list. Hendrickson's spot at No. 14 is his personal highest, substantially ahead of his previous best ranking of No. 77 (2021 list).

This marks the third time in the history of the "Top 100" in which four or more Bengals players were featured. Cincinnati had a record seven players on the 2016 list, then landed four on the '22 edition.

Lapham, Parrish enter Bengals Ring of Honor: A pair of Bengals legends in former OT Dave Lapham and CB Lemar Parrish were inducted into the team's Ring of Honor at halftime of Cincinnati's Week 8 game against the N.Y. Jets. They became the 11th and 12th members of the Bengals Ring of Honor, which was established in 2021 in recognition of former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition.

Lapham, who is in his 50th season with the Bengals in 2025, is one of the team's most popular and beloved historical figures. He was a versatile offensive linemen who donned the stripes from 1974-83, lining up at all five O-line positions during his 140-game career. He served as the team's starting left guard in 1981, when the Bengals advanced to Super Bowl XVI. After his playing career, Lapham moved into the team's radio broadcast booth, where he has worked ever since. Often known as "Mr. Bengal," he has been the team's radio analyst since 1986.

Parrish, known by fans as "Leapin' Lamar," is remembered as one of the most athletically gifted and exciting players in team history. He remains the franchise's highest scoring defensive player, with TD returns on four INTs, four punts, three fumble recoveries and one kickoff. His 18.8-yard punt return average in 1974 still is the best mark by any player in a season since the '70 NFL/AFL merger. He tallied 25 INTs as a member of the Bengals, the fifth-most in team history, and his six Pro Bowl selections are the second-most by a Cincinnati defensive player.

Ring of Honor inductees have been voted in each offseason since 2021 by Bengals Season Ticket Members. Lapham and Parrish joined previous inductees QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, HB Corey Dillon, QB Boomer Esiason, WR Chad Johnson, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Munoz and CB Ken Riley.

Bengal bites: The average age of the Bengals' active roster is 26.9 years ... Cincinnati's win over Jacksonville in Week 2 of this season was the 250th home victory in team history (regular season and postseason) ... The Bengals have netted 22 AFC Player of the Week honors (Offensive, Defensive or Special Teams) since the start of the 2021 season, the third-most weekly awards by any NFL team in that span, regardless of conference ... The longest-tenured player on the active roster is TE Drew Sample, who is in his seventh season with the Bengals in 2025 ... The oldest player on the active roster is QB Joe Flacco, who is 40 (born Jan. 16, 1985) ... The youngest player on the active roster is DE Shemar Stewart, who is 21 (born Nov. 12, 2003) ... There is a tie for tallest player on the active roster between OT Orlando Brown Jr. and OT Amarius Mims, who both are listed at 6-8 ... The shortest player on the active roster is HB Tahj Brooks, who is listed at 5-9 ... Brown and Mims also are tied for the heaviest player on the active roster, both listed at 350 pounds ... There is a tie for lightest player on the active roster between K Evan McPherson and CB DJ Turner II, who both are listed at 185 pounds.

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Eighteenth-year veteran Joe Flacco has started the past three games for the Bengals after being acquired in a trade with Cleveland on Oct. 7. In his three Cincinnati starts, he has completed 64.3 percent of his passes (81 of 126) for 784 yards and seven TDs with no turnovers. With a season-best 342 yards in the Bengals' Week 7 win over Pittsburgh, he moved into 14th place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list, and his current total stands at 47,296. At 40 years of age (born Jan. 16, 1985), he is the oldest QB to start a game in Bengals history. He began the season starting the Browns' first four games, and in that stretch he passed for 815 yards and a two-to-six TD-INT ratio. He originally was a first-round draft pick of Baltimore in 2008 and spent his first 11 seasons with the Ravens, before stints with Denver ('19), the N.Y. Jets ('20-'22), Cleveland ('23 and '25) and Indianapolis ('24). He won Super Bowl MVP honors after helping lead Baltimore to a title in the 2012 campaign, and in '23 he was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year after helping steer the Browns to a playoff berth. Backup QB Jake Browning started three games for Cincinnati this season prior to Flacco's acquisition. He stepped into action following Joe Burrow's injury in Week 2 against Jacksonville, and in that game he passed for 241 yards and scored the game-winning TD on a QB sneak with 18 seconds remaining. Browning's totals on the season include 80 completions on 124 attempts (64.5 percent) for 757 yards and six TDs with eight INTs. He had a previous stint as the Bengals' starter in 2023, as he started the final seven games of that regular season and piloted the team to a 4-3 record. In that stretch, he ranked second in the NFL in passing yards (1868), while completing 71.5 percent of his attempts and throwing 11 TDs. He then spent the entire 2024 campaign as Cincinnati's second-string QB. He spent his first four pro seasons on the practice squads of the Bengals ('21-'22) and Minnesota Vikings ('19-'20).

Running backs: HB Chase Brown is in his third pro season and first as Cincinnati's full-time primary running back. A dynamic all-around threat, he has 509 yards from scrimmage this season (383 rushing, 126 receiving), highlighted by consecutive 100-yard outings in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh and Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. He averaged a career-best 9.8 yards per carry in the win over the Steelers and crossed the century mark in rushing for the second time in his career (108 yards). His 105 scrimmage yards the following week against the Jets also included the second time in his career in which he scored a rushing TD and receiving TD in the same game. Brown took over as the team's starting HB midway through the 2024 season, and in Weeks 9-17 he ranked fifth in the NFL in scrimmage yards (930). He finished last year with 990 rushing yards and seven rushing TDs on 229 carries, along with 54 receptions for 360 yards and four TDs. His twin brother, Sydney Brown, was his teammate at the University of Illinois and currently plays safety for the Philadelphia Eagles. The Bengals welcomed back a familiar face during the offseason when they signed ninth-year HB Samaje Perine. Perine previously had a four-year stint with Cincinnati (2019-'22), before spending the '23 season with Denver and '24 with Kansas City. Listed at 5-11, 240 pounds, he is a physical back who contributes both as a pass blocker on third down and as a rotational ball-carrier. So far in 2025, Perine has 193 rushing yards and 31 receiving yards, and for his career is one of 14 active players with at least 2000 yards rushing and 1500 yards receiving. His season-high 94 rushing yards in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets were the fifth-most in any game of his career, and the most since Week 13 of the 2022 campaign. Some of his top moments with the Bengals came during the team's postseason runs following the 2021 and '22 campaigns, including a 41-yard receiving TD in the '21 AFC Championship win at Kansas City. Rookie HB Tahj Brooks was selected by the Bengals in the sixth round of this year's draft, after compiling a record-setting career at Texas Tech University. Brooks finished his time in Lubbock with the most rushing attempts (879), rushing yards (4557) and 100-yard rushing games (23) in program history. He earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2023 and second-team accolades in '24, and in both years he was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award (nation's top running back). He has seen action primarily on special teams through his first eight NFL games, but has five carries for 17 yards offensively.

Wide Receivers: Cincinnati's 2021 first-round draft choice Ja'Marr Chase has been selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons and has broken several Bengals single-season records early in his pro career. In 2024, he became the youngest player (24 years old) in the Super Bowl era to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led the league in receptions (127), receiving yards (1708) and receiving TDs (17). His receptions total and receiving yardage each set a Cincinnati single-season record, while his TDs tied the franchise mark held by WR Carl Pickens (1995). He is vying for the NFL title in all three categories again in 2025, as he currently leads all players in receptions (70), while ranking second in yards (720) and tied for eighth in TDs (five). In Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, he broke his own Bengals single-game record with 16 receptions for 161 yards and a TD. During that game, he joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Jerry Rice and Randy Moss as the only players in league history with over 6000 receiving yards and 50 TDs in their first five seasons. He has 38 total receptions over Cincinnati's past three games, tied with former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas (2018) for the most catches in a three-game span in NFL history. Chase signed a four-year contract extension on March 18, the same day that his running mate Tee Higgins re-signed with Cincinnati on a four-year deal. Since entering the league as a second-round pick of the Bengals in 2020, Higgins ranks 14th in the NFL in TD catches (38) and 16th in receiving yards (4955). He recorded at least 900 yards in four of his first five pro seasons, including consecutive 1000-yard campaigns in 2021 and '22. He had a career-best 10 receiving TDs last season (tied for sixth in NFL), and has found the end zone four times this year. He also has at least one receiving TD in each of his last eight games played at home, the longest such current streak in the NFL. Through the first eight games of 2025, Higgins ranks tied for second on the team behind Chase in receptions (25) and second in receiving yards (360). Andrei Iosivas is in his third NFL season and continues to build on a promising sophomore campaign. He brought in 36 catches for 479 yards and six TDs in 2024, following 116 yards and four TDs as a rookie in '23. He has carved out a niche for getting open in the low red zone, as each of his 10 career TD catches have come on plays inside the opponent's 10-yard line. Iosivas has 11 catches for 170 yards this season, including a career-high 82 yards in Week 5 vs. Detroit. He was a two-sport athlete at Princeton, as in addition to his All-Ivy League football resume, he earned All-America honors as a heptathlete for the Tigers' track and field program. Fellow third-year receiver Charlie Jones has served as the Bengals' primary punt returner since being selected in the fourth round of the 2023 draft, but he also has contributed eight career receptions for 69 yards. He saw action in the first eight games of 2024, before suffering a groin injury that kept him out of the final nine contests. In 2022, his final collegiate season which he spent at Purdue University, Jones led the FBS in receptions (110), ranked second in receiving yards (1361) and fifth in receiving TDs (12). Among the top offensive performers throughout this past training camp and preseason was WR Mitch Tinsley, who earned a spot on the 53-man roster after signing a Reserve/Future contract with Cincinnati in February. Originally a college free agent signee of Washington in 2023, Tinsley played in two games as a rookie for the Commanders (no statistics), then spent the '24 season on their practice squad. He faced his former team in the Bengals' second preseason game at Washington and posted five catches for 73 yards and two highlight-reel TDs. He made the highlight tapes once again with his first career reception in Week 2 vs. Jacksonville, a one-handed TD grab on a 13-yard pass from Browning. He finished his college career at Penn State in 2022, after previous stops at Hutchinson Community College in Kansas ('18-'19) and Western Kentucky University ('20-'21). Second-year WR Jermaine Burton possesses the ability to stretch defensive coverages, as two of his four catches as a rookie last season went for over 40 yards. He also contributed in the kickoff return game following Jones' injury last year. Burton began his collegiate career at the University of Georgia (2020-'21), then transferred to the University of Alabama for his final two seasons ('22-'23) before being selected by the Bengals in the third round of the '24 NFL Draft. In 2023, his final year with the Crimson Tide, he led the SEC and ranked sixth nationally in yards per reception (20.5).

Tight ends: A 2019 second-round draft pick of the Bengals, Drew Sample has played in 86 career regular-season games with 56 starts and earned a reputation as a reliable blocking TE. He took over the top spot on the depth chart in the second half of the 2023 season and has started in 29 of his last 34 appearances. In addition to his blocking responsibilities, he has 105 career receptions for 754 yards and five TDs. He missed most of the 2022 campaign due to a knee injury, but returned at the start of the '23 season and has suited up for each of Cincinnati's last 40 games. Now in his seventh season, Sample is the Bengals' longest-tenured player. Noah Fant signed with the Bengals as a free agent in late July this year, and already has built a rapport with Cincinnati's quarterbacks. He has 23 catches for 192 yards and two TDs in six games played, with his latest scoring grab coming on a five-yard pass from Flacco in the fourth quarter of Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh. A former first-round pick of Denver in 2019 (No. 20 overall), he spent three seasons with the Broncos ('19-'21) and three with Seattle ('22-'24). He has played in 101 career games with 85 starts, and his career totals include 323 receptions for 3497 yards and 17 TDs. After being held off the stat sheet through the first five games of this season, sixth-year TE Tanner Hudson scored a TD on his first catch of the year, a two-yarder from Flacco in Week 6 at Green Bay. He now has five receptions for 19 yards this season. Hudson is a reserve TE who enjoyed his best career statistical seasons in 2023 and '24 with Cincinnati. After totaling 15 receptions for 199 yards over his first four seasons on an active roster (2019-'22), he posted career highs in catches (39) and yards (352) for Cincinnati in '23, then followed up with 19 for 154 in '24. Hudson joined the Bengals' practice squad late in 2022, after spending time with Tampa Bay ('18-'20), San Francisco ('19) and the N.Y. Giants ('22). He won Super Bowl LV with the Buccaneers (2020 season), seeing action in each of their four postseason games. Cam Grandy began his 2024 rookie season on the Bengals' practice squad, then signed to the active roster midway through the year and went on to play in eight games with six starts. He has six catches for 34 yards in his career. Grandy was an All-American at the FCS level with Illinois State University.

Offensive linemen: Headlining the Bengals' offensive line room is four-time Pro Bowler Orlando Brown Jr., who has started all 35 games he has played in for Cincinnati at LOT. Brown signed with the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2023, after spending his first three NFL seasons ('18-20) with Baltimore and then two ('21-22) with Kansas City. He made his first 33 career starts at ROT for the Ravens before transitioning midway through the 2020 campaign to LOT, where he has lined up for each of his last 78 regular-season games played. He has played all 487 offensive snaps through Cincinnati's first eight games this season. His father, the late Orlando Brown Sr., played nine NFL seasons (1994-99, 2003-05), spending time with Cleveland and Baltimore. The nucleus of the O-line is C Ted Karras, who is in his fourth season with the Bengals and 10th in the NFL in 2025. Karras has been voted a team captain in each of his four years with Cincinnati, as he became a vocal leader in the locker room almost instantaneously after signing with the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2022. On field, he has started 61 consecutive games at center for the Bengals, lining up for 99.5 percent of the team's offensive snaps in that span (4001 of 4020). Off the field, he was the team's 2023 nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, honored for his charitable work with the Indianapolis-based Village of Merici through his fan-favorite "Cincy Hat." Karras spent five of his first six pro seasons with New England, where he won a pair of Super Bowls in 2016 and '18. The starting ROT is second-year pro Amarius Mims, who was Cincinnati's first-round draft choice in 2024 (No. 18 overall). Mims began his rookie season in a reserve role but has started 21 of his last 22 games played. He came to the Bengals following three seasons (2021-23) at the University of Georgia, where he played in 29 career games and was part of back-to-back national championship teams ('21-22). Listed at 6-8, 350 pounds, he is tied with Brown as both the tallest and heaviest player on the Bengals' roster. Rookie Jalen Rivers has started the past five games at RG, lining up for all 310 Bengals offensive snaps in that stretch. A fifth-round pick of the Bengals in April, he boasted a proven ability to play at both tackle and guard spots during his college career at the University of Miami (Fla.). He was the Hurricanes' starting LOT his final two seasons, and picked up second-team All-ACC honors in 2023 followed by honorable mention all-conference in '24. He suited up for 38 total games with 29 starts over five seasons (2020-24) at Miami. Fellow rookie Dylan Fairchild was taken in the third round of this year's draft and started at LG in each of the first five games of the season, before missing the Week 6 contest at Green Bay due to a knee injury. He then was active/DNP in Week 7, and returned to the starting lineup in Week 8. In 2024, his final season at the University of Georgia, he earned second-team All-America honors while blocking for a Bulldogs offense that ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in net passing yards per game (281.0). In addition to being a football standout at West Forsyth High School in Cumming, Ga., Fairchild was a two-time Georgia state champion wrestler in the Class 7A heavyweight division. G Dalton Risner signed with the Bengals as a free agent in late August, and quickly was thrust into action as he entered the season opener at Cleveland in the first half following starter Lucas Patrick's injury. Since then, he's been a versatile asset in the interior offensive line, appearing in six games with four starts and playing substantial snaps at both guard positions. Risner was a second-round draft pick of Denver in 2019 and spent his first four pro seasons ('19-22) with the Broncos, before playing for Minnesota from '23-24. He has played in 93 career regular-season games with 85 starts — 75 at LG and 10 at RG. Lucas Patrick, who started this year's opener at RG, was sidelined for six games due to a calf injury sustained at Cleveland. He was returned to the active roster from the Reserve/Injured list in Week 7, then made his return to game action in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. Patrick joined the Bengals in this year's free agency period, after spending previous seasons with Green Bay (2016-21), Chicago ('22-23) and New Orleans ('24). He has played in 109 career regular-season games, and his 65 total starts have included 28 at center, 19 at LG and 18 at RG. A veteran with valuable position versatility is OT Cody Ford, whose nine starts for the Bengals in 2024 included five at LOT, two at LG, one at ROT and one as a tackle-eligible third TE. Ford entered the league as a second-round draft pick of Buffalo in 2019 and spent his first three seasons with the Bills, before being traded to Arizona during training camp in '22. He signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent in 2023 and saw action in all 17 contests during his debut season with the Bengals. He has played 19 offensive snaps and 32 special teams snaps through eight games this season. Ford was college teammates with Brown at the University of Oklahoma from 2015-17. C Matt Lee is in his second pro season with the Bengals, after seeing action in all 17 games in 2024 as a reserve O-lineman and special teams contributor. He has played in five contests this season, lining up for 16 special teams snaps. Lee was a seventh-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2024, following a five-year college career (2019-23) that saw him go from the University of Central Florida ('19-22) to Miami (Fla.) for his final season. He garnered second-team All-ACC honors in his lone season at Miami.

Defensive linemen: The Bengals' defensive line room is headlined by DE Trey Hendrickson, a ninth-year pass rusher who has been voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons with Cincinnati (2021-24). He recorded 17.5 sacks in each of the past two seasons, with last year's total leading the NFL. He was a first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press in 2024 and finished second in voting for AP Defensive Player of the Year. Since joining the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent in the 2021 offseason, he ranks third in the NFL in sacks (61.0) and tied for third in forced fumbles (12). He entered the NFL as a third-round pick of New Orleans in 2017 and spent his first four seasons ('17-20) with the Saints. Hendrickson has a team-leading four sacks in seven games played this season. He missed the Week 7 contest and exited the Week 8 game early due to a hip injury. Anchoring the D-line is eighth-year DT B.J. Hill, who was acquired by Cincinnati in a trade with the N.Y. Giants prior to the start of the 2021 season. After seeing action primarily as a reserve DT in his first Bengals season, Hill has started each of his last 62 games played, including six postseason contests. A productive pass rusher from the interior of the D-line, he has totaled 17 sacks as a Bengal while also batting down/tipping 13 passes. He leads the team's defensive line with 32 tackles this season, including two TFLs and a sack. In Week 1 at Cleveland, he posted a season-high in tackles (seven), including a takedown of Browns QB Joe Flacco. Among the notable free agent acquisitions this year for the Bengals was DT T.J. Slaton Jr., who joined the Bengals after spending his first four pro seasons (2021-24) with Green Bay. Originally a fifth-round pick of the Packers in 2021, he has played in 76 regular-season games and totaled 160 tackles, seven TFLs, two sacks and four PDs. He made his first career start in the 2022 season finale and has started each of his last 44 games played. Slaton has logged 27 tackles through his first eight games with Cincinnati, including a season-high eight in Week 5 vs. Detroit, the second-most in a game in his career. The Bengals added noteworthy athleticism to the D-line room when they selected DE Shemar Stewart in the first round of this year's draft (No. 17 overall) out of Texas A&M University. Touted in the scouting process for his physical traits, Stewart was one of two players in the 2025 draft class to produce a perfect 10.0 on the Relative Athletic Score, which grades a player's measurements compared to their peer group. He played in 37 games with 19 starts across three seasons (2022-24) with the Aggies, and finished his career with third-team All-SEC honors last year. He has played in three games this season and posted three tackles. Stewart missed four contests earlier in the year due to an ankle injury, then returned to action in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh. DE Joseph Ossai has two sacks through the first eight games of this season, including a nine-yard takedown of Lions QB Jared Goff in Week 5. He now has seven sacks over his last 15 games played dating back to Week 11 of the 2024 campaign. Originally a third-round pick of the Bengals in 2021, he missed his entire rookie year due to a knee injury, but has since been out of the lineup for just three games in the past three-plus seasons. He has 11.5 sacks and 11 TFLs in 55 career games (seven starts). Ossai was born in Nigeria (Keti Ijanikin, Lagos), and moved to the United States at age 10 — the same year he saw his first football game. DE Myles Murphy, Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2023, has 1.5 sacks this season, including his first full sack of the year in Week 5 vs. Detroit. Murphy missed the early part of the 2024 season due to a knee injury, but returned to the lineup last October and has since played in 22 straight contests. In 38 career games, he has 55 tackles with five TFLs and 4.5 sacks. Murphy was a first-team All-ACC pick in his final season at Clemson University, where he amassed 17.5 career sacks in 38 games for the Tigers. Cincinnati added veteran depth when it signed free agent DT Mike Pennel off the practice squad to the active roster on Sept. 9. Pennel joined the practice squad the previous week, after serving as a key member of Kansas City's defense in 2023 and '24. An 11th-year player, he spent his first three pro seasons (2014-16) with Green Bay, before playing for the N.Y. Jets ('17-18), a first stint with the Chiefs ('19-20), Atlanta ('21) and Chicago ('22). He has suited up for 146 career regular-season games with 25 starts, and has 246 total tackles with 15 TFLs and five sacks. He has 15 tackles on 133 defensive snaps played through eight games with the Bengals. Second-year DT Kris Jenkins Jr. got in the sack column for the first time this season in Week 3 at Minnesota, notching 1.5 in the first half of that contest. A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2024, Jenkins played in 15 games with nine starts as a rookie last year. He logged 31 tackles with three sacks last season, and has recorded 22 stops (13 solos) and two TFLs through eight games played. In his final season at the University of Michigan in 2023, he earned second-team All-America honors and helped lead the Wolverines to a national title. His father, Kris Jenkins Sr., was a four-time Pro Bowler during his 10-year playing career (2001-10) as a DT for Carolina and the N.Y. Jets. Members of Cincinnati's defensive coaching staff expressed their excitement for the return of fifth-year DE Cam Sample, who missed the entire 2024 campaign due to an Achilles injury sustained during training camp. A 2021 Bengals fourth-round pick, Sample has played in 54 career games as a rotational lineman and has 76 tackles with five sacks. He made his return to game action in the preseason opener at Philadelphia, then made his first regular-season appearance since the Achilles injury in Week 1 at Cleveland. He has played in seven games this season and has posted seven tackles, including a TFL. He was inactive for the Week 8 contest due to a knee injury. DT McKinley Jackson, a third-round pick of the Bengals in 2024, played in 13 games as a rookie last season after beginning the year on Reserve/Injured due to a knee injury. He contributed 15 tackles, two TFLs, one sack and one FF, earning an increased role in the back half of the season. He was a two-time team captain at Texas A&M, where he played in 40 career games. He made his season debut in Week 5 vs. Detroit and has been inactive for the other seven games this season. The Bengals acquired DT Jordan Jefferson on waivers from San Francisco prior to Week 5. Originally a fourth-round draft pick of Jacksonville in 2024, Jefferson has recorded 12 tackles with one sack in nine career games with the Jaguars (2024) and 49ers ('25). He finished his college career at Louisiana State in 2023, following four seasons ('19-22) at West Virginia University. He has been inactive for two games this season and was active/DNP in two contests.

Linebackers: Rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. has started seven of his first eight career games, after being selected by the Bengals in the second round of this year's draft. He currently leads both the Bengals and all NFL rookies in total tackles (62), while also charting three PDs and an INT. His first career pick came in Week 4 at Denver, when he intercepted QB Bo Nix in the Cincinnati end zone. He is coming off a career-best 12 tackles in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. Knight shot up draft boards following a breakout season at the University of South Carolina in 2024, in which he played in 13 games and ranked second on the Gamecocks with 82 tackles. He spent his first four college seasons (2019-22) at Georgia Tech, then played at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in '23. He was a four-year starter at QB in high school, then transitioned to LB early in his college career. Fellow rookie Barrett Carter is coming off his third career start in Week 8 against the N.Y. Jets. Cincinnati's fourth-round draft pick this past April, Carter has seen action in all eight games this season and has recorded 44 tackles, which ranks tied for sixth among all NFL rookies. He posted a career-high 12 tackles in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh. In his final season at Clemson last year, he was a team captain, first-team All-ACC pick, third-team All-American and a finalist for the Butkus Award (nation's top LB). Logan Wilson returned to the field to start this season after missing the final six games of the 2024 campaign due to a knee injury. A 2020 third-round pick by Cincinnati, Wilson has topped 100 tackles in each of the past three seasons (2022-24), and his 11 career INTs are the most by any linebacker in the NFL since he entered the league. He also is one of three NFL players with at least 10 INTs, five sacks and five FFs since 2020, alongside Minnesota's Harrison Smith and Baltimore's CB Marlon Humphrey. Wilson's injury last season ended a streak of 39 straight starts. He has 44 tackles, four PDs and a FR through eight games this season. Eighth-year LB Oren Burks signed with the Bengals as an unrestricted free agent in March, after helping Philadelphia win Super Bowl LIX the previous month. He was a key performer for the Eagles during their postseason run, as he recorded 24 tackles, three TFLs, one sack and two FFs (one defensive, one on kickoff coverage) in four games. He entered the NFL as a third-round pick of Green Bay in 2018 and spent his first four pro seasons with the Packers ('18-21), before playing for San Francisco from '22-23. He has played in all eight games with three starts for the Bengals this season and has 13 total tackles with one TFL and one FF. Shaka Heyward spent the entire 2023 campaign and most of '24 on Cincinnati's practice squad, before playing in six games for the Bengals in the back half of last season. A 2023 college free agent signee out of Duke University, he has carved out a role on special teams, notching 10 ST stops through eight games this season, which ranks second on the team. Heyward also ranked second on the team this past preseason with 14 defensive tackles.

Cornerbacks: Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2022, Dax Hill spent his first two seasons at safety before making the transition to CB ahead of the '24 campaign. He started the first five games of last season at CB, then suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 5. He returned to full participation this past training camp and has started all eight games this season. He leads the team's CBs with 48 tackles (32 solos), including a TFL, while also recording two PDs and an INT. A natural athlete who lined up at several positions in the secondary during his career at the University of Michigan (2019-21), Hill primarily contributed on special teams throughout his 2022 rookie season before starting all 17 contests at safety in '23. CB DJ Turner II is enjoying a breakout campaign in his third pro season, as he currently leads the NFL with a career-high 13 PDs. Five of those were recorded in Week 6 at Green Bay, as he became the first

Bengals player with five PDs in a game since CB Johnathan Joseph in 2009. After missing the final six games of last season due to a collarbone injury, Turner opened this year with his first career INT to help seal the Week 1 win at Cleveland late in the fourth quarter. He hauled in his second pick of the year in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh, as he wrestled the ball away from WR DK Metcalf in the final minute of the first half. Turner originally was a second-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2023 and has played in 36 career games with 25 starts. He was a teammate of Hill's at Michigan, and ran the fastest time in the 40-yard dash at the 2023 NFL Combine (4.26 seconds). CB Josh Newton looks to continue building his status as a core member of the defense in his second pro season. A fifth-round pick in 2024, he earned a roster spot out of his rookie training camp and played in all 17 games last season. He was thrust into the starting lineup following Turner's shoulder injury and started the final six contests, and that stretch included his first career INT in Week 15 at Tennessee. He has played in all eight games with two starts in 2025, and has contributed nine tackles (seven solos). Newton spent his final two collegiate seasons (2022-23) at Texas Christian University, where he started all 27 games he played in. Cincinnati's second-round draft choice in 2022 was Cam Taylor-Britt, who has played in 45 regular-season games with 40 starts in his career. He had a career-high 16 PDs in 2024, which led the Bengals and tied for fifth-most in the NFL, along with three INTs. He broke out during the 2023 campaign with four picks (tied for seventh in NFL) and 11 PDs in just 12 games played. Taylor-Britt has posted 15 tackles, including a TFL, and four PDs in six games played this season. The Bengals acquired Marco Wilson on waivers from New England last November, adding depth and experience to the CB room. Wilson spent the majority of his first three pro seasons (2021-23) with Arizona, before being waived by the Cardinals and signed by the Patriots in December of '23. He has played in 63 career regular-season games with 37 starts, and his career totals include 20 PDs and three INTs. He played in each of Cincinnati's final six games last season, and made his 2025 debut in Week 3 at Minnesota. He has recorded two tackles in three games played this season. DJ Ivey made his return midway through the 2024 season, after recovering from a knee injury sustained late in the '23 campaign. A 2023 seventh-round draft pick of the Bengals, he carved out a role on special teams and showed flashes on defense prior to the injury. He played in 11 games last season and has seen action in all eight contests this year. He has four special teams tackles this season, and sealed the Week 7 win over Pittsburgh when he knocked down a Hail Mary attempt as time expired.

Safeties: Geno Stone has started all 25 games he has played in for the Bengals since joining the team as an unrestricted free agent in the 2024 offseason. He led Cincinnati with four INTs last year (tied for 10th in NFL), which included a stretch of three straight games with a pick from Weeks 14-16. He recorded his first pick of this season in Week 6 at Green Bay, as he ended the Packers' opening drive by intercepting QB Jordan Love inside the red zone. Stone spent his first four pro seasons (2020-23) with Baltimore, and emerged as a premier ball-hawking safety in '23 when his career-high seven INTs led the AFC. His 12 total INTs since the start of the 2023 campaign are tied for the second-most league-wide. He has 51 tackles (32 solos) through eight games this year. His fellow starting safety, Jordan Battle, leads the team with three INTs. His first two INTs came in the first two games of the season, as he became the first Bengals player to start a year with picks in back-to-back games since former CB Ashley Ambrose in 1996. Battle also leads Cincinnati's defensive backs with 58 tackles this season, highlighted by a career-best 12 stops in the opener at Cleveland. A third-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, he has played in 42 career games (21 starts), and has 180 tackles along with five picks. He was a team captain and third-team All-American in his final season at the University of Alabama (2022). Fourth-year pro Tycen Anderson is a special teams ace and rotational safety. He has led the Bengals in special teams tackles in each of the past two seasons, with eight in 2023 followed by 11 in '24, and his team-leading 11 ST stops this season are tied for fourth-most in the NFL. He missed his entire rookie regular season in 2022 due to a knee injury, but recovered in time for the start of the following training camp and had two INTs in the '23 preseason opener. He was the recipient of the team's 2024 Ed Block Courage Award, in recognition of his dedication and work ethic during his injury rehab process. PJ Jules cracked the 53-man roster for the first time this year, after spending his entire rookie season in 2024 on the Bengals' practice squad. A 2024 college free agent signee, he was a consensus first-team FCS All-American and first-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference choice at Southern Illinois University in 2023. Jules led the Bengals with 10 solo tackles this past preseason. He has eight special teams tackles and two defensive stops through eight regular-season games.

Special Teams: A fifth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2021, K Evan McPherson owns the third-highest career FG percentage in team history (82.0). He is 11-for-13 on FG attempts this season and recently tied his single-game career high with four FGs on four attempts in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh. His final kick against the Steelers was a 36-yard game-winner with seven seconds left. He has 25 career made FGs from 50 or more yards, the most in Bengals history and tied for the eighth-most in the NFL since the start of his 2021 rookie season. McPherson has been at full health through the first eight games of 2025, after missing the final five contests of last season due to a groin injury. Second-year P Ryan Rehkow compiled a record-setting rookie season in 2024 that saw him set Bengals single-season marks for gross punting average (49.11 yards per punt) and net average (42.92). His net average ranked sixth among all NFL punters last year, while his gross ranked ninth (both led all rookies). He was named to the 2024 Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team. In his career debut in the 2024 opener against New England, he set an NFL single-game record with 64.5 gross yards per punt (four punts for 258 yards). This season, he leads the NFL in gross average (52.8 yards) and is tied for eighth in punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line (11). Rookie William Wagner earned the role as the Bengals' long snapper coming out of this past training camp, and through his first eight career games he has recorded 69 snaps without an unplayable delivery. He spent six seasons (2019-24) at the University of Michigan, where he saw action in 53 total games. In 2024, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors while being named a finalist for the Mannely Award (nation's top LS). WR Charlie Jones serves as Cincinnati's primary kickoff and punt returner. He is one of two players in team history to score a TD on both (CB Lemar Parrish), as he found the end zone on an 81-yard PR in Week 2 of the 2023 season vs. Baltimore, and also had a 100-yard KOR on the opening kickoff in Week 7 of '24 at Cleveland. He took over KOR duties for the first time in 2024, and finished the year with five returns for 200 yards. He also has 42 career PRs for 409 yards (9.73 average). Jones has 23 KORs for 537 yards and six PRs for 78 yards through eight games this season. Also in the mix to return kickoffs and punts is second-year WR Jermaine Burton, who took over KOR responsibilities late last season following an injury to Jones. Burton had 13 KORs for 378 yards in 2024 (29.1 average), including two 38-yarders. He logged four KORs for 84 yards this past preseason, as well as two PRs for 35 yards. HB Samaje Perine has returned 13 kickoffs this season for 318 yards (24.5). While playing for Kansas City last season, he had five KORs for 163 yards (32.6).

THE LAST BENGALS-BEARS MEETINGS

2017 SEASON WEEK 14, GAME 13

Chicago Bears 33, Cincinnati Bengals 7 Sunday, Dec. 10, 2017 at Paul Brown Stadium

Cincinnati started the game with six starters declared inactive due to injuries, including five on defense. After an early TD and missed PAT by the Bears, the Bengals took a 7-6 lead with just over two minutes left in the first quarter when QB Andy Dalton connected with WR Brandon LaFell for a 14-yard TD pass, but that advantage was short-lived. The Bears regained the lead on a 34-yard FG by former Bengals K Mike Nugent just over two minutes into the second quarter, and then put the Bengals in their rearview mirror. As the game progressed, Chicago took advantage of Cincinnati's depleted defense. The Bears scored 27 unanswered points after the first period, and the Bengals were unable to counter against the expanding deficit. Chicago outgained Cincinnati by 248 yards (482-234) and, aside from the score, held clear advantages in several key stat categories, including first downs (29-14), net yards rushing (232-70), takeaways (2-0) and time of possession (38:09-21:51). The loss left the Bengals with having to win their last three games to avoid a losing season and snapped a 22-game stretch of Bengals opponents failing to score 30 or more points. Dalton's career-long stretch of 193 straight passes without an INT ended in the third quarter. The Bengals fell to 5-8; the Bears improved to 4-9.

Chicago Bears 20, Cincinnati Bengals 17 Sunday, Sept. 19, 2021 at Soldier Field

The visiting Bengals allowed the fewest total yards (206) by a Cincinnati defense in seven years, but the offense struggled to protect the football and find the scoreboard. Bengals QB Joe Burrow threw three INTs — including a pick-six — on consecutive attempts in the fourth quarter, helping the Bears to a comfortable 17-point margin late. But Burrow connected with rookie WR Ja'Marr Chase for a 42-yard score with 4:39 remaining, and then an INT by Bengals LB Logan Wilson on the ensuing possession set up a seven-yard TD from Burrow to WR Tee Higgins on the next play to cut the margin to just three. Burrow was the first NFL player in 20 years with INTs on three consecutive plays and TD passes on two consecutive plays in the same game (Steelers QB Kordell Stewart on Dec. 30, 2001 at Cincinnati). The Bengals' comeback bid fell short though, as Bears rookie QB Justin Fields, who was filling in for injured starter Andy Dalton, led Chicago to two first downs as the Bears ran out the clock and hung on for a 20-17 win. Cincinnati dropped to 1-1, while Chicago improved to 1-1.

2025 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 17, Cleveland Browns 16 Sunday, Sept. 7, 2025 at Huntington Bank Field

The Bengals' defense recorded two takeaways in the second half and held Cleveland scoreless on its final six possessions to lead the way in a season-opening victory. Cincinnati's offense was limited to 141 net yards, the second-fewest in a win in team history, but it scored a TD on two of its first three drives to build a 14-10 halftime lead. The Browns pulled ahead with a TD in the third quarter but missed the PAT attempt, and a 35-yard FG by Bengals K Evan McPherson later in the period regained the lead for Cincinnati. Cleveland drove inside the red zone with under five minutes remaining in regulation, but K Andre Szmyt's try for a 36-yard go-ahead FG sailed wide right. The Browns forced a quick Bengals punt and once again were driving for the win, before CB DJ Turner II came up with his first career INT on a ball that ricocheted off a Cleveland WR. P Ryan Rehkow then delivered a punt that was downed at the Browns' one-yard line, securing the win for Cincinnati.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Cincinnati Bengals 31, Jacksonville Jaguars 27 Sunday, Sept. 14, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

Backup QB Jake Browning scored the go-ahead TD on a one-yard sneak with 18 seconds left to lead the Bengals to a win in their home opener. Browning, who entered the game in the second quarter after starter Joe Burrow suffered a toe injury, rallied from throwing three INTs to lead Cincinnati on a game-winning drive that started at its own eight-yard line. Defensively, the Bengals intercepted Jaguars QB Trevor Lawrence twice, including a pick by CB Dax Hill in the end zone which kept points off the board in the first quarter. Browning threw a pair of TD passes in the second half, including a 13-yarder to WR Mitch Tinsley for his first career reception. WR Ja'Marr Chase carried the load offensively with 14 catches for 165 yards and a first-quarter TD. Cincinnati improved to 2-0, while Jacksonville fell to 1-1.

WEEK 3, GAME 3Minnesota Vikings 48, Cincinnati Bengals 10
Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025 at U.S. Bank Stadium

Cincinnati committed five turnovers, including four in the first half, on the way to the 38-point defeat. Two of the first-half turnovers resulted in TD returns by Vikings CB Isaiah Rodgers, who had an 87-yard pick-six and a 66-yard fumble recovery return. The Bengals were driving inside Minnesota territory with a chance to cut into a 14-point deficit ahead of halftime, but they committed three fumbles over the final two minutes which the Vikings converted into 17 points. The final play of the first half was a 62-yard FG by K Will Reichard, which marked the longest FG by an opponent in Bengals history. Bengals QB Jake Browning was picked off twice and held to 140 passing yards while being sacked three times. Cincinnati fell to 2-1, while Minnesota improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4Denver Broncos 28, Cincinnati Bengals 3
Monday night, Sept. 29, 2025 at Empower Field at Mile High

Denver scored 28 unanswered points and totaled 512 yards of net offense to defeat the Bengals in a nationally televised contest. Cincinnati took an early lead on a short FG from K Evan McPherson which capped off a 12-play, 62-yard opening drive, but the offense was forced to punt on every remaining possession and recorded just 97 yards the rest of the way. Cincinnati came up with a stop on fourth down near its own goal line late in the second quarter, as rookie LB Demetrius Knight Jr. picked off Broncos QB Bo Nix in the end zone for his first career INT. But Denver regained possession shortly after and put together a quick scoring drive at the end of the half to build its lead. Though the Bengals' defense kept the Broncos off the board through most of the second half, Nix punctuated the night with his second TD pass late in the fourth quarter. Cincinnati fell to 2-2, while Denver improved to 2-2.

WEEK 5, GAME 5Detroit Lions 37, Cincinnati Bengals 24
Sunday, Oct. 5, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals scored a TD on three straight possessions in the fourth quarter to cut into their deficit, but the comeback effort came up short in a home loss. Detroit built a 28-3 advantage thanks in large part to three INTs off Bengals QB Jake Browning, as each pick set up the Lions' offense inside Cincinnati territory. While the Bengals' defense sacked Lions QB Jared Goff four times and forced the high-powered Detroit attack to punt on five occasions, Goff battled through to complete 82.6 percent of his passes with three going for TDs. In the fourth quarter, Browning hit WR Ja'Marr Chase for two TDs, including a 64-yarder, and later found WR Tee Higgins in the end zone to make it an 11-point game. But a scramble for possession on the ensuing onside kick ultimately was won by the Lions, and a last gasp for the Bengals with under two minutes left was shut down with a safety. Cincinnati fell to 2-3, while Detroit improved to 4-1.

WEEK 6, GAME 6Green Bay Packers 27, Cincinnati Bengals 18
Sunday, Oct. 12, 2025 at Lambeau Field

Cincinnati pulled to within six points late in the fourth quarter, but a Packers third-down conversion followed by a FG sealed the Bengals' road loss. QB Joe Flacco, who was acquired in a trade just five days earlier, passed for 219 yards and two TDs in his first Bengals start. Both scoring plays came on fourth down, with the second going to WR Ja'Marr Chase for his 50th career TD catch. After the Packers' opening drive ended in a red zone INT by Bengals S Geno Stone, they controlled the time of possession throughout the first half and built a 10-0 lead by halftime. Cincinnati responded at the start of the third quarter with a 17-play drive which ended with Flacco finding TE Tanner Hudson for a TD on fourth-and-goal. The Packers answered with two straight TD drives to make it 24-10, before the Chase score followed by a successful two-point conversion closed the gap. The Bengals had one final chance to get the ball back to their offense, but Green Bay converted on third-and-eight and drained more clock before kicking a FG to put the game out of reach. Cincinnati fell to 2-4, while Green Bay improved to 3-1-1.

WEEK 7, GAME 7Cincinnati Bengals 33, Pittsburgh Steelers 31
Thursday night, Oct. 16, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

In a high-scoring, nationally televised matchup which saw the two offenses combine for 866 net yards, the Bengals put together a late drive to set up K Evan McPherson's 36-yard game-winning FG on Thursday Night Football. It marked the third regular-season game in NFL history between two starting QBs over 40 years old, as Joe Flacco, 40, passed for 342 yards and three TDs for the Bengals while Aaron Rodgers, 41, had 249 yards and four passing TDs for the Steelers. Flacco leaned heavily on WR Ja'Marr Chase, who finished with a Bengals-record 16 receptions for 161 yards and a TD. The Steelers took the lead with 2:21 remaining when Rodgers found TE Pat Freiermuth for a 68-yard TD, but Flacco engineered a quick drive down the field and connected on a 28-yard pass to WR Tee Higgins to get inside McPherson's range. Cincinnati picked off Rodgers twice in the second quarter and scored 17 points late in the period to pull ahead at halftime. The Bengals' offense also was aided by a strong rushing attack, led by HB Chase Brown's 9.8 yards per carry. Cincinnati improved to 3-4, while Pittsburgh fell to 4-2.

WEEK 8, GAME 8N.Y. Jets 39, Cincinnati Bengals 38
Sunday, Oct. 26, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

The Jets scored 23 points in the fourth quarter to storm back from a 15-point deficit and earn their first win of the season over the Bengals. Cincinnati built leads of at least 14 points on three separate occasions, including a 38-24 advantage with 10 minutes left following HB Chase Brown's second TD of the afternoon. New York's offense totaled 502 net yards, including 254 rushing, and held the Bengals' defense without a sack or takeaway. RB Breece Hall rushed for two TDs in the fourth quarter to pull New York back to within a score, and then he threw a TD pass to TE Mason Taylor to give the Jets their first lead in the final two minutes. The Bengals' rushing attack helped them race out in front over the first three quarters, as Brown logged 73 yards on the ground while HB Samaje Perine contributed a season-high 94. WR Ja'Marr Chase had double-digit receptions for a third straight game, finishing with 12 catches for 91 yards. Cincinnati fell to 3-5, while the Jets improved to 1-7.
