ZAC TAYLOR HEAD COACH

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2024 season is his sixth in the position.

Through five seasons in Cincinnati, Taylor holds a regular-season record of 37-44-1 and a postseason record of 5-2. In 2023, he guided the Bengals to their third consecutive winning season at 9-8, despite a few key players missing time due to injuries. During a five-game stretch from Weeks 5-10 in which QB Joe Burrow was at full health, Taylor oversaw an offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in passing yards per game (275.6), seventh in scoring (26.6 points) and 11th in total yards (354.2). Following Burrow's season-ending injury in Week 11, Taylor worked with QB Jake Browning as he stepped into the starting role for the first time in his career. Over the final seven weeks of the season, Browning ranked second in the league in passing yards (1868) completion percentage (71.5), and Taylor led Cincinnati to a 4-3 mark to close out the schedule.

Taylor's offense in 2023 once again featured several playmakers, including Pro Bowl WR Ja'Marr Chase, who totaled 100 catches (tied for second most in team history) and became the eighth player ever to reach 1000 receiving yards in each of his first three seasons. In addition, HB Joe Mixon had his fourth career 1000-yard rushing season (1034; third under Taylor), while also topping 1200 yards from scrimmage for the third straight year.

Under Taylor in 2022, the Bengals rallied from a 4-4 start to tie a team record for regular-season wins (12) and consecutive wins (eight), earning their second straight AFC North Division title and the No. 3 seed in the AFC Playoffs. With a pair of postseason victories that brought Cincinnati to its second straight AFC Championship, Taylor became the 13th head coach in NFL history to win five of his first six career postseason games. He orchestrated a dynamic offense that ranked in the top 10 leaguewide during the regular season in scoring (seventh, 26.1 points per game), total yards (eighth, 360.5 per game), and passing yards (fifth, 265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection and was an MVP candidate, as he set single-season team records for completions (414) and TD passes (35), while Cincinnati boasted a pair of 1000-yard receivers in Chase (1046) and Tee Higgins (1029). The Bengals' offensive line featured four new starters, but rapidly improved as the year progressed and allowed no more than two sacks in each of the team's final eight games.

The Bengals also had one of the NFL's most complete defenses in 2022, holding opposing QBs to a league-low 58.9 completion percentage while also ranking sixth in points allowed (20.1 per game) and seventh in rushing yards allowed (106.6).

In 2021, Taylor led Cincinnati to its first AFC North championship since '15, before winning three postseason games to claim an AFC title and a berth in Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, playing his first full NFL season, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and set team records for passing yardage (4611) and passer rating (108.3) en route to being named the AP Comeback Player of the Year. Taylor also helped Chase put together one of the top rookie seasons in league history, as the team's first-round pick recorded the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455; since surpassed) and won AP Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. Defensively, Cincinnati showed marked improvement from 2020 to '21, jumping from 29th in rushing yards allowed to fifth (102.5).

In the postseason, Taylor led the Bengals to their first playoff win in 31 years in a Wild Card victory over Las Vegas. Cincinnati then went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City, to earn the franchise's first trip to the Super Bowl since the 1988 season.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition Burrow, the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft, to the pros, despite the absence of an in-person offseason program due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to his season-ending knee injury, Burrow had the most completions ever by an NFL QB through their first 10 career games (264). Defensively, Taylor oversaw seven new starters who helped Cincinnati hold opposing passers to the sixth lowest completion percentage in the NFL (62.8).

In 2019, his first season as head coach, Taylor headed off a wave of early season injuries to lead Cincinnati to second-half turnarounds on both sides of the ball. Offensively, the Bengals' per-game rushing average jumped 70.6 yards from the first half of the season (59.5) to the second (130.1), while they allowed 10 fewer sacks (29 to 19). Defensively, Cincinnati allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game in the second half of the season, and notched 11 more sacks.

Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons (2017-18) with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant WRs coach in '17 and quarterbacks coach in '18. In 2018, he helped QB Jared Goff rank fourth in the NFL in passing yards and eighth in passer rating, while the Rams' offense finished second leaguewide in total yards per game (421.1) and fifth in passing (281.7). Los Angeles won the NFC West with a 13-3 regular-season record and advanced to Super Bowl LIII.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Taylor had a one-year stint as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Cincinnati in 2016. He served under head coach Tommy Tuberville at UC.

Taylor broke into NFL coaching in 2012 with the Miami Dolphins as assistant quarterbacks coach. He was elevated to quarterbacks coach from 2013-15, and spent the final five games of '15 as the Dolphins' interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller, after the team made coaching staff changes. During his time in Miami, Taylor was instrumental in the development of QB Ryan Tannehill, the team's first-round draft pick in 2012.

Taylor's coaching career began at Texas A&M University, where he served as offensive graduate assistant and TEs coach under head coach Mike Sherman from 2008-11. The Aggies played in three bowl games during Taylor's time in College Station.

As a player, Taylor began his college career at Wake Forest (2002-03) before transferring to Butler County Community College in Kansas ('04) and then playing his final two seasons ('05-06) at the University of Nebraska. He had a decorated career with the Cornhuskers, setting numerous school records and passing for 5850 yards and 45 TDs. As a senior in 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 3197 total yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017.

Taylor joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp and never saw NFL action. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play).

His father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at the University of Oklahoma, playing under Sooners head coach Barry Switzer from 1976-79. Sherwood Taylor later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State University. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall University and currently is the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Taylor was born in Norman, Okla., on May 10, 1983. After attending Norman High School, he earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman.

LOU ANARUMO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Lou Anarumo is in his 13th season as an NFL coach, and sixth with Cincinnati, after joining the Bengals in 2019 as defensive coordinator.

In 2023, Anarumo's defense featured a veteran core up front along with a youth movement in the secondary. Several Bengals defenders enjoyed their top statistical season, led by Pro Bowl DE Trey Hendrickson, whose career-high 17.5 sacks tied for second in the NFL and ranked second in team single-season history. LB Logan Wilson paced the team in tackles for a third straight year, notching a career-best 135, while his four INTs tied second-year CB Cam Taylor-Britt for the team lead. Taylor-Britt highlighted Cincinnati's crop of young defensive backs which also included second-year S Dax Hill, rookie S Jordan Battle and rookie CB DJ Turner II. The quartet combined to start 48 games.

In 2022, Anarumo led a balanced defense that held opposing passers to a league-low 58.9 completion percentage, ranked sixth in points allowed per game (20.1) and seventh in rushing yards (106.6). Wilson (123 tackles) and Germaine Pratt (career-high 99) formed one of the top NFL's top LB duos, and Hendrickson posted a team-leading eight sacks to earn his second straight Pro Bowl nod. The Bengals opened the season by going seven straight games without giving up a TD after halftime, becoming the second NFL team since 1930 to do so.

Anarumo in 2021 oversaw the NFL's fifth-ranked rushing defense (102.5 yards allowed per game). He worked closely with Hendrickson, who in his first Bengals season tallied 14 sacks (fifth in NFL) and was selected to his first career Pro Bowl. During Cincinnati's postseason run to Super Bowl LVI, the defense led all playoff teams in INTs (eight), total tackles (155) and passes defensed (23), while allowing an average of 20.5 points over four games.

The Bengals' defense in 2020 featured seven new starters, and Anarumo helped steer the group through an offseason with no on-field work due to COVID-19. Cincinnati held opposing passers to a 62.8 completion percentage, sixth lowest in the NFL.

In 2019, Anarumo's first year in Cincinnati, the defense allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game in the second half of the season vs. the first eight games, while also recording 11 more sacks. The Bengals ranked fifth in the NFL in red zone defense, allowing TDs on just 49 percent of opponents' red zone trips.

Anarumo spent the 2018 season as DBs coach with the N.Y. Giants, where he helped the defense rank seventh in the NFL in INTs (16) and 10th in opponent passer rating (89.8). Prior to his time in New York, he coached DBs for the Miami Dolphins from 2012-17.

Anarumo entered 2015 as Miami's secondary coach, but served as interim defensive coordinator for the final 12 games after coaching staff changes were made in October. In 2014, the Dolphins allowed 222.3 passing yards per game, sixth fewest in the NFL. From 2012-13, Miami gave up just 35 TD passes, the second fewest leaguewide over that span.

Prior to Miami, Anarumo spent 23 seasons in the college coaching ranks. He served as DBs coach at Purdue University from 2004-11, after three years ('01-03) in the same role at Marshall University. The Thundering Herd ranked 10th nationally in passing defense in 2003 (177.4 yards allowed per game), and that season he also served as special teams coordinator.

Anarumo was assistant head coach at Harvard University from 1995-2000, working with the DBs and coordinating the special teams. From 1992-94, he was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy.

From 1990-91, Anarumo was a graduate assistant at Syracuse University. From January to June 1990, he was a part-time running backs coach at Wagner College. He served in that same role at the United States Merchant Marine Academy from September 1989 to January '90.

Born Aug. 18, 1966, Anarumo is a native of Staten Island, N.Y., and earned his bachelor's degree in special education from Wagner in 1990. He and his wife, Fran, have three children — Madison, Louis and Christopher. His last name is pronounced "ann-ah-ROO-mo."

Coaching history: 1989-90—Assistant coach (AC), U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. 1990—AC, Wagner. 1990-91—Graduate assistant coach, Syracuse. 1992-94—AC, U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. 1995-2000—AC, Harvard. 2001-03—AC, Marshall. 2004-11—AC, Purdue. 2012-17—AC, Miami Dolphins (interim defensive coordinator for final 12 games of '15). 2018—AC, N.Y. Giants. 2019-present—Defensive coordinator, Cincinnati Bengals.

JAMES BETTCHER LINEBACKERS

James Bettcher is in his third season with the Bengals in 2024, after joining the staff in '22 as linebackers coach.

In 2023, Bettcher once again worked with the talented LB duo of fourth-year pro Logan Wilson and fifth-year pro Germaine Pratt. Each player recorded a career high in tackles, as Wilson's team-leading 135 stops were the most by a Bengal since 2013 (Vontaze Burfict, 171), while Pratt topped the 100-tackle mark for the first time (118). The duo also combined to record 11 takeaways, tying for the most in the NFL by any LB tandem, highlighted by Wilson's four INTs that tied for the team lead.

Wilson and Pratt led the team in tackles in 2022 under Bettcher's guidance, as Wilson posted a then-career-high 123 stops and Pratt tallied 99. The pair helped Cincinnati rank sixth in the NFL in points allowed (20.1 per game) and seventh in rushing yards allowed (106.6).

Bettcher came to the Bengals from the San Francisco 49ers, where he spent the 2021 season as senior defensive assistant/running game specialist. That season, the 49ers ranked third leaguewide in total yards allowed (310.0 per game) and seventh in rushing yards allowed (103.5).

Bettcher spent the 2018-19 seasons as defensive coordinator with the N.Y. Giants. In 2019, he oversaw a Giants defense that ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per attempt (3.86). In 2018, while coaching alongside current Bengals defensive coordinator Lou Anarumo, who served as the Giants' DBs coach, Bettcher helped S Landon Collins and LB Olivier Vernon earn Pro Bowl selections.

Bettcher spent five seasons on the Arizona Cardinals' staff (2013-17), including the final three as defensive coordinator. Arizona ranked in the top six in the NFL in total defense in each year Bettcher held the DC title, while also ranking fourth in takeaways (82) and defensive TDs (11) in that span. The Cardinals were third in rushing yards allowed per play and sixth in third-down defense in 2017, and in '16 they led the league with 48 sacks. Bettcher guided six players to Pro Bowl selections and four to All-Pro honors as defensive coordinator, after spending his first two years in Arizona as outside linebackers coach.

Bettcher first entered the NFL in 2012 as special assistant to the head coach for the Indianapolis Colts. During that season, Bruce Arians stepped in as interim head coach for 12 games while Chuck Pagano received treatment for leukemia. With Bettcher's assistance, Arians led the team to a playoff berth and was named AP NFL Coach of the Year.

Before joining the Colts, Bettcher spent nine years in the college coaching ranks. He served as linebackers/special teams coach at the University of New Hampshire in 2011, after coaching defensive ends and special teams at Ball State University in '10.

Bettcher was a graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina from 2007-09, working primarily with the defense. He helped develop DL Robert Quinn, who went on to become a 2011 first-round NFL draft pick. Prior to UNC, Bettcher spent one season (2006) as a defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State University, working with the secondary and special teams units.

Bettcher began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of St. Francis (Ind.), where he served as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach from 2003-05. With Bettcher on staff, the Cougars earned three berths to the NAIA playoffs, including two national championship game appearances.

Bettcher was a two-time NAIA Coaches All-American as an offensive lineman during his playing career at St. Francis (1999-2002). In his senior season in 2002, he received the team's Silver Helmet Award for leadership, coachability and performance on the field. He also competed on the school's track and field team, earning five All-America honors. He was inducted into the St. Francis Hall of Fame in 2012.

JOEY BOESE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERFORMANCE/ HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Joey Boese is in his sixth season leading the Bengals' strength and conditioning program, and his first with the title of director of player performance.

Since arriving in Cincinnati in 2019, Boese and his staff have led the physical development of an influx of new and young Bengals players. In 2023, he helped QB Joe Burrow return to the field in time for the start of the regular season, after the Pro Bowler missed nearly a month of training camp due to a calf injury. Boese also aided in the return of G Alex Cappa and OT Jonah Williams, who each started all 17 games after suffering injuries that kept them out of playoff games the previous season.

In 2022, Boese worked with Burrow as he recovered from an emergency surgery to remove his appendix, which held him out of training camp for three weeks. Boese also was instrumental in WR Ja'Marr Chase and DT DJ Reader overcoming in-season injuries to help the Bengals claim their second straight AFC North Division title and advance to the AFC Championship.

Boese's program helped Cincinnati navigate a 21-game schedule in 2021 that included a postseason run to Super Bowl LVI. His staff was key in Burrow's rehabilitation, as the second-year QB set several single-season team records after missing the final six games of his rookie season in 2020 due to a knee injury. Burrow was named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year, becoming the second player in Bengals history to receive the honor.

Boese in 2020 navigated the restraints of the COVID-19 pandemic, which prohibited training at the team facility during the offseason. His staff adjusted and helped onboard a seven-player draft class and numerous free agent signees.

In 2019, his first season in Cincinnati, Boese's program contributed to a lateseason surge, as the Bengals averaged 70.6 more rushing yards per game in the second half of the season compared to the first, while defensively they yielded 84.1 fewer yards per game.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Boese spent three years (2016-18) as the head football strength and conditioning coach at the University of Illinois. In 2018, he worked with an Illini offense that ranked second in the Big Ten in rushing yards per game (244.2). He spent the previous four seasons (2012-15) as head S&C coach at Fresno State University, where he aided in the development of six NFL draft picks while helping the Bulldogs to back-to-back conference titles in '12-13.

Boese began his coaching career as assistant strength and conditioning coach at Texas A&M from 2008-11, where he worked alongside current Bengals head coach Zac Taylor and wide receivers coach Troy Walters. He additionally led the strength and conditioning program for Texas A&M's baseball team from 2009-11, helping the Aggies reach the '11 College World Series.

Boese was a two-year starter and three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection as a defensive back at the University of Wisconsin from 1998-2001. He helped the Badgers win back-to-back Rose Bowls (1998-99), followed by a Sun Bowl victory in 2000. He went on to play four seasons (2003-06) for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. After his playing career, he served as a defensive video intern at the University of Nebraska in 2007.

Boese was born in Chicago, III., and raised in Southern California. He earned a bachelor's degree in communication arts from Wisconsin in 2002, and finished his master's of science in health, physical education and recreation at Emporia State University in '08. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA).

Boese and his wife, Aimee, have three sons — Sam, Ben and Max. His last name is pronounced "bo-ZAY."

Charles Burks is in his sixth NFL season and his third in Cincinnati in 2024. He again serves as the Bengals' secondary/cornerbacks coach.

In 2023, Burks worked with a young cornerbacks group that included second-year player Cam Taylor-Britt and rookie DJ Turner II. Taylor-Britt emerged as the team's top boundary corner, as he tied for the team lead with four INTs (tied for seventh in NFL) and totaled 11 PDs. Turner saw limited snaps early in his rookie campaign, but under Burks' tutelage he went on to start 12 of the team's final 13 games and recorded seven PDs, the most by a Cincinnati rookie defensive back since S Jessie Bates III (seven) in 2018.

In 2022, Burks led a cornerbacks room that played a key role in the team holding opposing passers to a league-low 58.9 completion percentage. He helped in the adjustment to the pro game for Taylor-Britt, who missed the first six games of his rookie season due to an injury but went on to start the team's final nine regular-season games and all three postseason contests. Despite veteran CB Chidobe Awuzie suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week 8, Burks' unit was instrumental in the Bengals allowing just 17 TD passes (tied for third fewest in NFL).

Burks began his NFL coaching career in Miami in 2019, spending two seasons as a coaching assistant with a focus on the team's cornerbacks before being promoted to cornerbacks coach in 2021. In 2021, he helped CB Xavien Howard further establish himself as one of the game's top corners, as the sixth-year veteran tied for fourth in the NFL in INTs (five), while tying for sixth in PDs (16). Howard earned his third career Pro Bowl nod, and his second during Burks' Miami tenure.

In 2020, Howard had a Dolphins single-season record 10 INTs, which were also the most by an NFL player since 2007, to earn first-team All-Pro honors. With Burks on staff, Miami's defense led the NFL in takeaways (29) and third-down defense (31.2 percent).

Prior to his time with the Dolphins, Burks spent eight seasons in the collegiate ranks. He served as defensive coordinator at Southeastern Oklahoma State from 2014-18, overseeing a unit in '18 that led all of NCAA Division II in passing defense (118.7 yards allowed per game). That season, the Savage Storm also ranked in the top 10 nationally both in total defense (sixth; 251.2 yards allowed) and scoring defense (seventh; 15.4 points allowed).

In 2016, Burks coached CB Raheem Wilson, who led all Division II players with 24 PDs while recording five INTs to garner D-II All-America honors.

Burks coached at three schools in three seasons before Southeastern Oklahoma State, serving as secondary coach at Texas A&M-Commerce (2013), assistant secondary/cornerbacks coach at West Texas A&M (2012) and secondary coach at his alma mater, East Central University (2011).

A three-year letterman (2008-10) at East Central, located in Ada, Okla., Burks played cornerback for a Tigers team that won a Lone Star Conference North Division championship.

Burks was born in Grand Prairie, Texas. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a minor in sociology from East Central, where he also received a master's degree in sports administration.

JAMES CASEY TIGHT ENDS

James Casey is in his sixth season in Cincinnati, and sixth as an NFL coach. He joined the Bengals as tight ends coach prior to the 2019 season.

In 2023, Casey worked with a versatile tight ends room that saw four players start at least one game. Fourth-year pro Tanner Hudson, who began the year on the team's practice squad, emerged as a dependable pass-catching option in the second half of the season and led the position group in receptions (39) and receiving yards (352). Casey also helped Drew Sample return from a season-ending injury the previous year and start 10 games. Sample posted his most catches (22) and yards (163) since 2020, while continuing to serve as the team's top blocking tight end.

In 2022, Casey coached offseason free agent signee Hayden Hurst, who in his lone season with Cincinnati caught 52 passes — the most by a Bengals TE since 2015 — despite missing three games. Stepping into the starting lineup when Hurst was out was TE Mitchell Wilcox, who set career highs in receptions (17) and receiving yards (139).

In 2021, Casey helped TE C.J. Uzomah log career highs in catches (49), receiving yards (493) and receiving TDs (five), ranking in the top 10 among AFC tight ends in each category. Uzomah went on to net 146 receiving yards in the postseason as Cincinnati advanced to Super Bowl LVI.

In 2020, Casey oversaw Sample's transition into a more prominent role after Uzomah suffered a season-ending injury in Week 2. Sample totaled career highs in receptions (40) and receiving yards (349).

In 2019, Casey's first season in Cincinnati, the Bengals' tight ends accounted for a third of the team's receiving TDs (six of 18). The group also contributed to pass protection, helping Cincinnati allow 10 fewer sacks in the second half of the season compared to the first.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Casey spent three years (2016-18) on the University of Houston coaching staff. In 2018, he served as special teams coordinator/tight ends coach, and helped the Cougars' offense rank fourth nationally in scoring (46.4 points per game) and sixth in total offense (528.6 yards per game).

In 2017, Casey played a key role in the emergence of TE Romello Brooker, who entered the year with just nine career receptions but went on to net 29 catches for 364 yards and six TDs (led American Athletic Conference).

In 2016, Casey's first coaching season after a seven-year ('09-15) NFL playing career, he served as an offensive analyst at Houston and helped the Cougars rank 15th nationally in passing offense (310.9 yards per game). Houston also ranked 21st in scoring (38.0 points) and topped the 30-point park in 11 of 12 regular-season games.

A tight end/fullback during his playing career, Casey originally was a fifth-round draft pick of the Texans in 2009, and spent four seasons ('09-12) with Houston before later stints with the Philadelphia Eagles ('13-14) and Denver Broncos ('15).

Casey played collegiately at Rice University in Houston, where he had a record-setting career as a tight end in just two seasons (2007-08). He left the program with school records for receptions in a season, receiving yards in a season and receiving yards in a game. He earned Freshman All-America honors in 2007, and first-team All-Conference USA and Academic All-America recognition in 2008. He was named the 2008 recipient of Rice's James W. Glanville Award, presented to the player who has achieved excellence in athletics, academics and integrity.

Prior to his time at Rice, Casey was drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the seventh round of the 2003 MLB Draft. He spent three seasons with the White Sox organization as a pitcher, before enrolling at Rice and pursuing football.

Casey was born on Sept. 22, 1984, in Fort Worth, Texas, and was raised in nearby Azle, Texas. He attended Azle High School, where he was a standout quarterback on the football team and pitcher on the baseball team.

JUSTIN HILL RUNNING BACKS

Justin Hill is in his fourth Bengals season in 2024, after joining the staff in '21 as running backs coach.

In 2023, Hill helped HB Joe Mixon record his fourth career 1000-yard rushing season. Mixon finished with 1034 yards on the ground to go with 376 receiving yards, which made him one of three players in the NFL to net over 1200 yards from scrimmage in each season since 2021 — when Hill joined the Bengals' staff. Hill also helped develop fifth-round pick HB Chase Brown, who emerged as a key contributor in the latter half of his rookie campaign with 322 scrimmage yards over the team's final six games.

In 2022, Hill coached a running backs group that helped the Cincinnati offense rank eighth in the NFL in total offense (360.5 yards per game). Mixon posted 1255 scrimmage yards, including a career-high 441 receiving despite missing two games due to an injury. HB Semaje Perine started both contests in Mixon's absence and rushed for a combined 166 yards on 38 carries (4.4 average). Perine finished the regular season with 394 rushing yards, his most since 2017.

In 2021, his first season in Cincinnati, Hill helped Mixon enjoy a career year that resulted in his first Pro Bowl selection. Mixon ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards (1205) and rushing TDs (13) during the regular season, then ran for 262 yards in the postseason to help lead the Bengals to Super Bowl LVI.

Hill spent the previous six seasons (2015-20) as running backs coach at the University of Tulsa. During his tenure with the Golden Hurricane, the team's running backs totaled 50 100-yard rushing games and five 200-yard games. As a team, they topped 300 yards rushing in 13 games, while his running backs earned four all-conference honors.

In 2020, Hill was promoted before the season to run game coordinator, and then helped steer Tulsa's backfield through an injury to No. 1 RB Shamari Brooks. RBs Corey Taylor II and Deneric Prince stepped in and combined for 1076 rushing yards and eight TDs in just nine games.

In 2016, Two of Hill's proteges — RBs James Flanders and D'Angelo Brewer — each topped 1000 yards rushing, with Flanders' school-record 1629 yards leading the American Athletic Conference. Flanders and Brewer became the first duo in school history to combine for 3000 rushing yards, and helped the Golden Hurricane rank eighth nationally in rushing yards per game (261.7), while also setting a school record with eight 300-plus yard games.

In 2017, Tulsa ranked 14th nationally in rushing (247.3), and Brewer became the all-time rushing leader (3917) for both Tulsa and the AAC. After the season, Hill was one of 30 coaches nationwide selected by the American Football Coaches Association to participate in the AFCA's "30 Under 30" Coaches' Leadership Institute.

During his tenure at Tulsa, Hill guided four players — Flanders, Brewer, Brooks and Taylor — to 1000 career rushing yards. He also was at the helm for three of Tulsa's top five single-season rushing outputs.

Prior to his time at Tulsa, Hill spent three seasons (2012-14) at Baylor University, where he served as associate director of athletic performance for the football team. He spent 2011 as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa State.

Hill played collegiately at Rice University from 2007-10. He began his career as a running back, starting seven games and racking up a team-high 321 yards and three TDs as a true freshman. Due to injuries on Rice's defense the following year, Hill moved to the other side of the ball. He spent his final three seasons at linebacker, and totaled 97 tackles, six pass break-ups and three FFs. He was a team co-captain in 2010 and won the Jess Nealy Award, an honor given annually to the Owls' top linebacker.

Hill was born Sept. 9, 1988 in Mesquite, Texas. He graduated from Rice in 2011 with a degree in sociology, and then earned a master's degree in educational leadership and policy studies from Iowa State in 2015. He and his wife, Dana, have one daughter, Avery, and one son, Jordan.

MARION HOBBY

DEFENSIVE LINE

Marion Hobby is in his 10th season as an NFL coach and fourth with the Bengals. A part of three consecutive winning seasons in his first three years in Cincinnati, he again leads the defensive line unit in 2024.

In 2023, Hobby helped DE Trey Hendrickson enjoy a career year that resulted in his third straight Pro Bowl selection. Hendrickson posted a career-high 17.5 sacks, which tied for second in the NFL and ranked second in a single season in team history. Hendrickson recorded at least one full sack in seven consecutive games, tying for the longest streak in the league in 2023 and marking the second longest streak of his career.

In 2022, Hobby coached a defensive line that spearheaded the seventh-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (106.6 yards allowed per game), which helped Cincinnati win its second straight AFC North Division title. Hendrickson had a team-high eight sacks, while DE Sam Hubbard notched 6.5 and led the Bengals with 11 TFLs.

Hobby led a pass-rushing resurgence for the Bengals in his first season in 2021, as Cincinnati's 41 sacks (t-11th in NFL) more than doubled its total of 17 in '20. Hendrickson, an offseason free agent acquisition, recorded 14 sacks, the fifth most in the league, to collect his first career Pro Bowl nod. During the regular season, four players — Hendrickson, Hubbard (7.5 sacks), DT Larry Ogunjobi (7.0) and DT B.J. Hill (5.5) — matched or surpassed the 2020 team's individual high of 5.5. The line continued its dominant play in the postseason, recording 10 sacks over four games to help lead the Bengals to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI.

Hobby spent the 2019-20 seasons as defensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins. In 2020, the line helped Miami record 41 sacks, tied for 10th in the NFL. In 2019, Hobby helped develop rookie DT Christian Wilkins, the team's first-round pick who went on to lead all rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles.

Hobby served as DL coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2017-18, leading one of the top units in the NFL. In 2017, the Jags ranked second leaguewide in sacks (55), with four players recording at least eight. Under Hobby, DL Calais Campbell became the first player in Jaguars history to log double-digit sacks in consecutive seasons (14.5 in 2017, 10.5 in 18).

Hobby has had two separate stints on Clemson University's coaching staff. The second was from 2011-16, when he served as co-defensive coordinator/DEs coach. The Tigers earned two national championship game berths and a College Football Playoff National Championship in 2016 with Hobby on staff. He also helped develop several NFL D-linemen, including DT DJ Reader, who went on to spend four seasons (2020-23) with the Bengals.

In 2014, Clemson led the nation in total defense (260.8 yards per game) and TFLs (131). That year's line included future first-rounder Vic Beasley, who spent three seasons under Hobby and became Clemson's all-time sack leader (33).

Prior to joining Clemson, Hobby spent three seasons (2008-10) as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Duke University. In 2008, the Blue Devils held opponents to just 23.4 points per game, the program's best mark in 20 years. One of Duke's key contributors during that time was former Bengals LB Vincent Rey.

Hobby spent 2006-07 seasons as DEs coach for the New Orleans Saints. In 2006, he helped late Saints DE Will Smith net 10.5 sacks and a Pro Bowl nod.

Hobby's first stint at Clemson came in 2005, when he served as defensive line coach. Powered by the defensive line, Clemson ranked 11th in the nation in scoring defense (17.6 points per game).

Hobby has also held assistant coach positions at Mississippi (1999-2004), Tennessee (1998), Louisiana-Lafayette (1996-97) and Tennessee-Martin (1995).

Hobby was an All-SEC defensive end at the University of Tennessee before being selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the third round of the 1990 NFL draft. He played three seasons with the Vikings and Patriots (1990-92).

Born Nov. 7, 1966, Hobby was raised in Irondale, Ala. (outside Birmingham). He and his wife, Constance, have three daughters — Maria, Mariah and Camille.

Playing and coaching history: 1986-89—Played DE at Tennessee. 1990-92—Played DE with New England Patriots. 1995—Assistant coach (AC), Tennessee-Martin. 1996-97—AC, Louisiana-Lafayette. 1998—AC, University of Tennessee. 1999-2004—AC, University of Mississippi. 2005—AC, Clemson. 2006-07—AC, New Orleans Saints. 2008-09—AC, Duke. 2010—Defensive coordinator, Duke. 2011-16—Co-defensive coordinator, Clemson. 2017-18—AC, Jacksonville Jaguars. 2019-20—AC, Miami Dolphins. 2021-present—AC, Cincinnati Bengals.

BEN JACOBS

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

A former NFL linebacker who was in the league as recently as 2018, Ben Jacobs is in his first season on the Bengals' coaching staff and serves as special teams assistant. He spent the past four seasons (2020-23) as assistant special teams coach for the Washington Commanders.

During his tenure in Washington, Jacobs helped guide special teams units that ranked near the top of the league in several categories. In 2023, Washington averaged 25.0 yards per kickoff return, the seventh-best mark in the NFL. Leading the team's efforts in that department was RB Antonio Gibson, whose 826 total KOR yards from 2022-23 ranked seventh leaguewide in that span.

In 2022, the Commanders allowed just 6.4 yards per punt return, the fourthbest average in the NFL. Jacobs helped S Jeremy Reaves lead the team with a career-high 16 special teams tackles, which tied for second leaguewide and marked the most by a Washington player since 2012.

In 2021, Jacobs assisted in a midseason transition at kicker, as veteran Dustin Hopkins — who had converted 12 of 14 FG attempts through six games — was released and third-year pro Joey Slye took over the team's placekicking duties. Slye made all 12 of his FG attempts to close out the season, after joining Washington as a free agent in early November. Jacobs that year also helped Washington rank third in the NFL in average yards per kickoff return (25.1).

In 2020, Jacobs' first season with Washington, he helped the team win five of its final seven regular-season games to clinch an NFC East Division title. Washington allowed just 5.8 yards per punt return, the fifth-fewest in the NFL, and P Tress Way's 44.3 net yards per punt ranked fourth leaguewide.

Jacobs broke into coaching as assistant special teams coach for the Carolina Panthers in 2019. That followed an eight-year playing career in the NFL from 2011-18, in which he saw action in 73 games as a linebacker and special teams contributor.

Jacobs entered the NFL as a college free agent of the Cleveland Browns in 2011 and played in five games as a rookie, before spending the following two seasons on multiple practice squads. That included a brief stint on the Bengals' practice squad in November of 2012. He earned a spot on Carolina's active roster heading into the 2014 season, and went on to play the next five seasons ('14-18) for the Panthers.

Jacobs totaled 11 defensive tackles and 25 special teams tackles in his career. He led the Panthers in special teams stops in 2018 (six) and tied for the team lead in that category in '14 (five). Following the 2015 season, he played in each of Carolina's three postseason contests and helped the team win the NFC and advance to Super Bowl 50.

Jacobs played collegiately at Fresno State from 2007-10 (redshirted in '06), where he finished his career with the third-most tackles in school history (387). He was a first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection in both his junior and senior seasons, and led the Bulldogs in tackles in each of his final three seasons.

Jacobs was born April 17, 1988 in Farmington, Mo. He graduated from Fresno State in 2011.

Playing and coaching history: 2007-10—Played LB at Fresno State. 2011—Played LB with Cleveland Browns. 2014-18—Played LB with Carolina Panthers. 2019—Assistant coach (AC), Carolina Panthers. 2020-23—AC, Washington Commanders. 2024—AC Cincinnati Bengals.

FREDI KNIGHTEN ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS

Fredi Knighten is in his third season with the Bengals and first in the role of assistant quarterbacks coach. He joined the staff as an offensive assistant in 2022.

In 2023, Knighten worked with a Bengals offense that was without several key playmakers at different times due to injuries. However, with a healthy QB Joe Burrow behind center from Weeks 5-10, the team ranked fourth in the NFL in passing yards per game (275.6), seventh in scoring (26.6 points) and 11th in total yards (354.2). QB Jake Browning stepped into the starting role for the first time in his career after Burrow sustained a season-ending injury in Week 11, and went on to rank second in the league in passing yards (1868) and completion percentage (70.4) over the final seven weeks of the season. WR Ja'Marr Chase earned his third straight Pro Bowl selection with a career-high 100 catches for 1216 yards, and HB Joe Mixon topped 1000 rushing yards (1034) for the fourth time in his career.

In 2022, Knighten's first season in Cincinnati, the Bengals' offense ranked in the top 10 leaguewide in scoring (seventh, 26.1 points per game), total yards (eighth, 360.5), and passing yards (fifth, 265.0). Burrow set single-season team records for completions (414) and TD passes (35) en route to earning his first career Pro Bowl selection, while Chase (1046) and WR Tee Higgins (1029) each surpassed 1000 receiving yards for a second straight year.

Knighten joined the Bengals' staff after spending the 2021 campaign as an offensive analyst at Utah State University. He helped the Aggies set program records for passing yards (4248), TD passes (41), total 100-yard receiving games (13) and number of WRs with 10-plus TD catches (three). With Knighten on staff, Utah State finished the season ranked 15th nationally in passing offense (303.4 yards per game), 23rd in total offense (445.6 yards per game) and 33rd in scoring offense (32.6 points per game). The offense played a large role in the team tying the school record for wins (11) and claiming the program's first Mountain West Conference title.

At Utah State, Knighten worked with WR Deven Thompkins, who was named an AP third-team All-American and a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award. Thompkins ranked second in the NCAA and set a school record with 1,704 receiving yards on 102 receptions. He tied a Utah State record with nine total 100-yard receiving games, including six straight games with 100-plus yards.

Knighten spent two seasons (2019-20) at the University of Massachusetts, where he served as running backs coach for both years and also coached the quarterbacks in '20. During the 2020 season, none of the team's five RBs that fielded a handoff committed a fumble once over a combined 344 carries. The group rushed for a combined 1460 yards (4.2 per carry) and 11 TDs.

Prior to his time at UMass, Knighten served as a graduate assistant at Florida State for the 2018 season. He helped the Seminoles offense rank third in the ACC in passing yards per game (270.1), with QB Deondre Francois throwing for 2731 yards and 15 TDs. He was also a graduate assistant for two years (2016-17) at Maryland, helping the Terrapins rank in the top-20 nationally for fewest turnovers (14) in 2017. That season, WR DJ Moore set a school record with 80 receptions and led the Big Ten with 1033 receiving yards. Moore would become a first-round draft pick by the Carolina Panthers in 2018.

In 2016, Maryland's offense rushed for 2594 yards, marking the first time the program had 2500-plus yards on the ground since 2003. In the passing game, QB Perry Hills led the Big Ten in completion percentage (61.9).

Knighten enjoyed a decorated playing career as a dual-threat QB at Arkansas State (2012-15), ranking fourth in program history with 6986 total yards. He graduated with the second-most total yards in a single season (4056 in 2014) and was a two-time All-Sun Belt selection. Knighten was named MVP of the 2013 GoDaddy Bowl after recording 212 yards of total offense and leading the Red Wolves on a 55-yard game-winning drive in the final 1:25 of regulation.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Knighten earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from Arkansas State in 2016. He and his wife, Alexis, have a son, Malcolm.

Playing and coaching history: 2012-15—Played QB at Arkansas State. 2016-17—Graduate assistant coach, Maryland. 2018—Graduate assistant coach, Florida State. 2019-20—Assistant Coach (AC), Massachusetts. 2021—AC, Utah State. 2022-present—AC, Cincinnati Bengals.

JORDAN KOVACS

SECONDARY/SAFETIES

A former NFL safety who was in the league as recently as 2016, Jordan Kovacs now is in his sixth season as a Bengals and NFL coach. The 2024 season is his first in the role of secondary/safeties coach, after he spent the '22-23 seasons as assistant linebackers coach and '19-21 as defensive quality control coach with a focus on linebackers.

In 2023, Kovacs worked with a dynamic LB duo of Logan Wilson and Germaine Pratt, who each set career highs in tackles. Wilson's team-leading 135 stops were the most by a Bengals player since LB Vontaze Burfict

(171) in 2013, while Pratt topped the 100-tackle mark (118) for the first time in his career. Wilson also tied his career high for INTs with four, which tied for the Bengals lead and tied for seventh in the NFL.

Wilson and Pratt also paced the Bengals in tackles in 2022, with Wilson recording 123 and Pratt netting 99 — a career high for both players at the time. The pair played a key role in Cincinnati's defense ranking sixth in the NFL in points allowed (20.1 per game) and seventh in rushing yards allowed (106.6).

In 2021, Kovacs helped Wilson and Pratt assert themselves as core members of a Bengals defense that ranked fifth leaguewide in rushing yards allowed (102.5 per game). Wilson led the team with 98 tackles and had four INTs, which tied for the most by any LB. He followed up with a team-high 39 tackles in Cincinnati's postseason run to Super Bowl LVI. Pratt posted 88 tackles in the regular season and had a game-sealing INT late in the Wild Card Playoff win over Las Vegas.

In 2020, Kovacs helped guide a young LB group that featured three rookie draft picks. The talented room helped contribute to the Bengals holding opposing QBs to just a 62.8 completion percentage, sixth best in the NFL.

In 2019, his first season as an NFL coach, Kovacs and the staff keyed a substantial defensive turnaround, as Cincinnati allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game in the second half of the season compared to the first eight games.

Prior to joining the Bengals' staff, Kovacs spent two seasons (2017-18) working at his alma mater, the University of Michigan. In 2018, he served as a defensive graduate assistant with a focus on the defensive line, helping the Wolverines finish second in the nation in total defense (275.2 yards per game). He spent the 2017 season as a coaching intern at Michigan, working with the defense and special teams. The Wolverines led the nation in both passing defense and third-down conversion percentage allowed, and were the only team in the country to hold five opponents under 200 yards of total offense. No other Big Ten school had accomplished that feat in the previous 20 years.

Prior to his coaching career, Kovacs played safety for the Miami Dolphins for parts of three seasons (2013-15), after originally signing with the team as a college free agent in '13. He played in 28 career games for the Dolphins, totaling 10 tackles and a sack. He also spent time briefly on the Philadelphia Eagles' practice squad in 2014, and with the Kansas City Chiefs and L.A. Rams during the 2016 preseason.

Kovacs had a standout collegiate career as a safety at Michigan from 2009-12, after originally joining the program as a walk-on in '08. He was a four-year letter winner and four-year starter for the Wolverines, appearing in 50 total games with 46 starts. Kovacs became just the 15th player in school history to record 300 career tackles, and left the program ranked 12th in that category (331).

As a senior in 2012, Kovacs earned Michigan's Bo Schembechler Most Valuable Player Award, as well as second-team All-Big Ten honors. He was also a finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, presented annually to the top college football player who began their career as a walk-on. Kovacs was named All-Big Ten honorable mention in 2010 and '11, and was an Academic All-Big Ten selection in '11 and '12.

Kovacs was born June 12, 1990, in Curtice, Ohio, outside of Toledo. He graduated from Michigan in 2012 with a degree in kinesiology. He and his wife, Kat, have a son, Louis.

Playing and coaching history: 2009-12—Played S at Michigan. 2013-15—Played S with Miami Dolphins. 2017—Coaching intern, Michigan. 2018—Graduate assistant coach, Michigan. 2019-present—Assistant coach, Cincinnati Bengals.

BRAD KRAGTHORPE QUARTERBACKS

Brad Kragthorpe is in his sixth season on the Bengals' staff in 2024, and his first in the role of quarterbacks coach. He served as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2023, after spending two seasons ('21-22) as assistant wide receivers coach and two ('19-20) as an offensive assistant.

In 2023, Kragthorpe helped QB Jake Browning step into the starting role for the first time in his career after starter Joe Burrow suffered a season-ending injury in Game 10. Browning steered the Bengals to a 4-3 record as a starter, and in those seven weeks he ranked second in the NFL in passing yards (1868) and completion percentage (70.4), while passing for 11 TDs and netting a passer rating of 99.1. With a healthy Burrow from Games 5-9, the Bengals ranked fourth in the NFL in passing yards per game (275.6), seventh in scoring (26.6 points) and 11th in total yards (354.2).

In 2022, Kragthorpe worked with a dynamic receiving corps that featured Tyler Boyd, Ja'Marr Chase and Tee Higgins. Each player recorded over 700 receiving yards, making the Bengals one of two NFL teams with three WRs to reach that number. Chase, despite missing four games due to a hip injury, led the team in receptions (87), receiving yards (1046) and receiving TDs (nine) to earn his second straight Pro Bowl nod, while Higgins posted 74 catches for 1029 yards and seven TDs. Cincinnati's production at wide receiver helped drive an offense that ranked fifth in the NFL in passing yards per game (265.0).

In 2021, Kragthorpe worked with the team's first-round draft pick in Chase, who he previously coached at Louisiana State in 2018. Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting the most receiving yards by a first-year player in the Super Bowl era at the time (1455, since surpassed), while grabbing 13 receiving TDs. He and Higgins (1091 yards) became the first duo in NFL history to record 1000 receiving yards in the same season before the age of 23.

Serving as an offensive assistant in 2020, Kragthorpe helped QB Joe Burrow make the transition from college to the NFL after he was selected No. 1 overall in the draft. Prior to his season-ending knee injury in Game 10, Burrow's 264 completions were the most by an NFL QB through their first 10 career games, while his 2688 passing yards were fifth.

In 2019, Kragthorpe and the Cincinnati offensive staff helped key a turnaround in the second half of the season, as the Bengals averaged 70.6 more rushing yards over the final eight games (130.1) compared to the first eight (59.5). Their average rushing yards per attempt jumped 1.26 yards (3.17 to 4.43) over the same span, while they allowed 10 fewer sacks.

Kragthorpe spent the 2018 season as an offensive analyst at LSU, working with an offense that featured both Burrow and Chase. In his first season with the Tigers after transferring from Ohio State, Burrow started all 13 games and threw 16 TD passes to just five INTs (fewest by a starting QB in the SEC). He helped lead LSU to a 10-3 record and a victory in the Fiesta Bowl, where Chase had a game-high 93 receiving yards and a TD.

Prior to his time at LSU, Kragthorpe spent two seasons (2016-17) working with wide receivers at Utah State University as an offensive graduate assistant.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Kragthorpe was a college quarterback. He opened his collegiate career at Idaho State in 2011 (did not play), and then transferred to Louisiana State for his final three years of eligibility. After sitting out the 2012 season at LSU due to NCAA transfer rules, he played in 25 games from 2013-15 as a reserve QB and holder on placekicks. He was part of one of college football's signature plays in 2015 when, on a fake FG attempt against rival Florida, he threw a backward pass to K Trent Dominigue, who then raced 16 yards for what proved to be the game-winning score.

Kragthorpe was born March 2, 1992, in Flagstaff, Ariz. He attended Holland High School in Tulsa, Okla., where he was a standout in both football and baseball. His father, Steven Kragthorpe, was a college head coach at Tulsa (2003-06) and Louisville ('07-09). His grandfather, Dave Kragthorpe, was a college head coach at South Dakota State (1969), Idaho State ('80-82) and Oregon State ('85-90).

Playing and coaching history: 2011—Played QB at Idaho State. 2012-15—Played QB at Louisiana State. 2016-17—Graduate assistant coach, Utah State. 2018—Assistant coach (AC), Louisiana State. 2019-present—AC, Cincinnati Bengals.

DAN PITCHER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Dan Pitcher is in his ninth season on the Bengals' coaching staff and his first as offensive coordinator. He previously coached the team's QBs from 2020-23.

In 2023, Pitcher worked with Pro Bowl QB Joe Burrow as he returned to full health following a calf injury sustained in training camp. When Burrow was in top form from Games 5-9, the Bengals ranked fourth in the NFL in passing yards per game (275.6), seventh in scoring (26.6 points) and 11th in total yards (354.2). Pitcher then helped backup QB Jake Browning step into the starting role for the first time in his career following Burrow's season-ending wrist injury in Game 10. Browning led the team to a 4-3 record as a starter, and he became the third NFL QB since 1950 to pass for at least 1500 yards and 10 TDs with a completion percentage of 70 or higher in his first seven starts. Over the final seven weeks of the regular season, Browning ranked second leaguewide in passing yards (1868) and completion percentage (70.4).

In 2022, Pitcher worked with Burrow as he set single-season team records for completions (414) and TD passes (35), which both ranked top-five leaguewide. He also ranked sixth in the NFL in passer rating (100.8) and was a finalist for NFL MVP while leading Cincinnati to its second straight AFC North Division title.

In 2021, Burrow led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and set team records for passing yards (4611) and passer rating (108.3). After missing the final six games of his rookie campaign in 2020 due to injury, Burrow was named the AP Comeback Player of the Year. With Pitcher's guidance, he steered the Bengals to their first division crown since 2015, then passed for 1105 yards and five TDs in the postseason to lead Cincinnati to Super Bowl LVI.

In 2020, Pitcher helped transition Burrow, the No. 1 overall pick in the draft, to the pro level despite the absence of an in-person offseason program due to COVID-19. Prior to his season-ending knee injury in Game 10, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by a QB through their first 10 career starts, while his 2688 passing yards were fifth. Pitcher in 2020 helped three different Bengals starting QBs — Burrow, Brandon Allen and Ryan Finley — to wins, marking just the second time in team history that as many QBs have gotten into the win column (1984).

Pitcher served as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2019, and also was charged with leading the team's game clock management efforts. He spent the 2018 season as an offensive assistant with a focus on QBs, after serving as offensive assistant with a focus on WRs in '16-17.

In 2018, Pitcher helped guide QB Andy Dalton to 21 TD passes through 11 games before a thumb injury ended his season. The team then transitioned to QB Jeff Driskel, who tossed six TDs to just two INTs. In 2017, Pitcher worked with Pro Bowl WR A.J. Green, who recorded 1078 receiving yards.

In 2016, his first year in Cincinnati, Pitcher worked with rookie WR Tyler Boyd and veteran free agent acquisition Brandon LaFell, as the pair combined for 118 catches, 1465 yards and seven TDs.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Pitcher spent four seasons in player personnel roles with the Indianapolis Colts. He served as a pro scout from 2014-15, after working as a scouting assistant from '12-13.

With Pitcher on staff, the Colts compiled a 41-23 regular-season record (.641), with three playoff berths and two AFC South championships. Pitcher was responsible for advance scouting reports on opponents, evaluation of free agents and monitoring rosters.

Pitcher began his post-playing career in 2012, coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Cortland State (now known as SUNY Cortland), a part of New York's state university system. He spent 2009-11 as Cortland State's starting QB, and as a senior he was named a finalist for the prestigious Gagliardi Trophy, presented annually to the most outstanding Division III football player.

Pitcher was born in Cortland, N.Y. on Jan. 13, 1987. He graduated from Cortland State with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2010, and he earned a master's in sports management in '11. He and wife Marissa have a son, Oliver.

FRANK POLLACK

OFFENSIVE LINE/RUN GAME COORDINATOR

Frank Pollack is in his 18th season as an NFL coach, and his fifth overall in Cincinnati. He returned to the Bengals' staff as offensive line coach in 2021 — with the added distinction of run game coordinator — after previously serving in the same role in 2018.

In 2023, Pollack oversaw a cohesive O-line that featured the same five starters in all 17 games. He helped veteran OT Jonah Williams not only return from an injury that kept him out of the final two playoff contests the prior season, but also make the transition from left tackle to right tackle, a position he took over for the first time in his career. Manning the left tackle spot was Orlando Brown Jr., a marquee free agent acquisition who played 97.3 percent of the team's offensive snaps in his first Bengals season.

In 2022, the offensive line featured four offseason additions — free agents Alex Cappa (RG), La'el Collins (ROT) and Ted Karras (C), and fourth-round draft pick Cordell Volson (LG). The line showed improvement as the season progressed, allowing 17 fewer sacks in the second half of the season (14) compared to the first eight games (31), and holding each of its final eight opponents to two or fewer sacks. A late-season wave of injuries led to three reserve linemen making starts in the postseason, and with Pollack's guidance the unit stepped up in a Divisional Playoff win at Buffalo, as it blocked for an offense that totaled 172 rushing yards.

In 2021, the Bengals' offensive line used eight different starting lineups during the regular season, but still managed to pave the way for HB Joe Mixon's career-high 1205 rushing yards (third in NFL). It also protected QB Joe Burrow, who set single-season team records for passing yards (4611) and passer rating (108.3).

Pollack spent the previous two seasons (2019-20) as offensive line coach with the N.Y. Jets. In 2020, he helped guide the team's first-round pick, Mekhi Becton, to numerous all-rookie honors. In 2019, injuries caused the Jets to use 11 different starting O-linemen (second-most in NFL), but under Pollack's direction the unit still allowed 22 fewer sacks in the second half of the season compared to the first.

During his previous stop with the Bengals in 2018, Pollack helped four new players transition into starting roles. The O-line opened holes for Mixon's 1168 rushing yards.

Pollack spent 2013-17 coaching the offensive line in Dallas, where he developed one of the most dominant units in the NFL. During his tenure, OT Tyron Smith, C Travis Frederick and G Zack Martin each earned Pro Bowl selections from '15-17. In 2016, Dallas' O-line was named the NFL's Offensive Line of the Year, after helping RB Ezekiel Elliott rush for a league-leading 1631 yards. In 2015, Smith, Frederick and Martin each netted All-Pro honors, as the Cowboys ranked fifth in the NFL with 4.63 yards per carry.

Pollack served as Dallas' assistant offensive line coach in 2014, a season in which the Cowboys produced 4.63 yards per carry (third in NFL). In 2013, Pollack's first season in Dallas, the Cowboys ranked eighth in the NFL in yards per carry (4.48), while allowing the seventh-fewest sacks in the league (35).

Pollack spent the 2012 season as offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders. From 2007-11, he served as assistant O-line coach for the Houston Texans, helping the team rank second in the league with 153 rushing yards per game in '11.

Pollack began his coaching career at his alma mater, Northern Arizona, where he served as co-offensive line coach in 2005 and offensive line coach in 106

A sixth-round draft pick by San Francisco in 1990, Pollack played two seasons ('90-91) with the 49ers, before joining Denver for two years ('92-93). He returned to San Francisco for the final five seasons of his playing career (1994-98), helping the 49ers win Super Bowl XXIX.

Pollack played offensive tackle and guard at Northern Arizona from 1985-89. He graduated with a degree in advertising from NAU in 1990, and in 2010 he was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Pollack and his wife, Wendy, have three sons — Frankie, Carter and Wilson.

Playing and coaching history: 1985-89—Played OT/G at Northern Arizona. 1990-97—Played OT/G with San Francisco 49ers. 2005-06—Assistant coach (AC), Northern Arizona. 2007-11—AC, Houston Texans. 2012—AC, Oakland Raiders. 2013-17—AC, Dallas Cowboys. 2018—AC, Cincinnati Bengals. 2019-20—AC, N.Y. JUSTIN RASCATI

PASS GAME COORDINATOR

Justin Rascati is in his sixth season as an NFL coach, and first with Cincinnati. He joined the Bengals' staff in 2024 as pass game coordinator.

Rascati came to Cincinnati from the Minnesota Vikings, where he served as assistant offensive line coach from 2022-23. In 2023, Minnesota dealt with a wave of injuries that were headlined by four different QBs starting at least two games. Still, Rascati worked with an offensive line that helped the Vikings total 4359 net passing yards, the fifth most in the NFL. The line also paved the way for fifth-year RB Alexander Mattison (700) and second-year RB Ty Chandler (461) as they each recorded a career high in rushing yards.

In 2022, Rascati helped oversee an offensive line that pass protected for QB Kirk Cousins, who set a single-season team record for passing attempts (698) and ranked second in team history both in completions (424) and passing yards (4,547). The O-line also opened holes for RB Dalvin Cook's fourth consecutive 1000-yard rushing season. With Rascati on staff, the Vikings won 13 games — their most since 2017 — and clinched an NFC North Division title.

Prior to his stint in Minnesota, Rascati spent three seasons (2019-21) as an offensive quality control coach with the Denver Broncos. He spent his first two years primarily assisting Broncos offensive line coach Mike Munchak, then transitioned to work closely with the team's QBs in 2021. That season, he helped veteran QB Teddy Bridgewater post the second-highest passer rating of his career (94.9), with 3052 passing yards and 18 TDs.

In 2020, the Broncos' O-line featured five different starting lineups, but steadily improved as the year progressed and allowed the NFL's fourth-fewest sacks (19) over the final 14 weeks of the regular season. Rascati worked with OT Garett Bolles, who started 15 games and earned second-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career.

In 2019, Rascati's first season with the Vikings, he helped guide an offensive line that opened holes for RB Phillip Lindsay's 1011 rushing yards and seven rushing TDs.

Rascati made the jump to the NFL after seven years in the college coaching ranks. From 2017-18, he served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga, where he helped the Mocs to a three-win improvement from '17 to '18. He spent the 2016 season as offensive coordinator at Tennessee Tech University, after serving as WRs coach and passing game coordinator at the University of Tennessee-Martin from '14-15.

Rascati's first college coaching job came at Weber State University in Ogden, Utah, where he coached quarterbacks from 2012-13. He broke into coaching as offensive coordinator at Kentucky Country Day School in Louisville, Ky., from 2010-11.

As a player, Rascati began his college career at Louisville (2003) before transferring to James Madison University for his final three seasons ('04-06). He passed for 5912 yards and 51 TDs in his JMU career, and led the Dukes to a 13-2 record and the program's first FCS national championship in 2004. He went on to play two seasons in the AF2 (Arena Football League developmental league), spending the 2008 season with the Peoria Pirates in Peoria, Ill., and the '09 campaign with the Lexington Horsemen (later known as Kentucky Horsemen).

Rascati was born in Gainesville, Fla., on Feb. 8, 1984. He finished his prep career at Buchholz High School in Gainesville as the school's all-time leader in career passing yards (5033) and TD passes (45). He graduated from James Madison in 2007. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three sons — Rhett, Rhys and Riley.

Ronnie Regula is in his first season with the Bengals and first as an NFL coach, after spending the past nine years in the collegiate ranks. He serves as a defensive assistant, with a specific focus on the team's linebackers.

Regula came to Cincinnati from the University of Notre Dame, where he served as a senior defensive analyst from 2022-23 — working with the LBs in '22 and the secondary in '23. In 2023, he helped guide a Fighting Irish defense that ranked fifth nationally both in yards per game allowed (276.3) and total TDs allowed (23). Regula helped S Xavier Watts tie for the national lead in INTs

(seven) and win the Bronko Nagurski Trophy as the top defensive player in college football. He also worked with CB Cam Hart, whose three FFs tied for the most by any Division-I CB.

In 2022, Notre Dame ranked in the top 25 nationally in total yards allowed (22nd, 329.3 per game) and passing yards allowed (23rd, 198.0). DE Isaiah Foskey recorded 11 sacks (tied for sixth in NCAA), which resulted in a career total of 26.5 that set a Notre Dame record, while the Irish's 38 team sacks tied for 12th nationally. Regula also helped LBs JD Bertrand, Marist Liufau and Jack Kiser finish as the team's top-three tacklers.

Prior to Notre Dame, Regula served as an offensive quality control coach both at his alma mater, the University of Miami (Fla.), in 2021 and the University of Tennessee in '20. He worked with the Hurricanes' RBs and the Volunteers' TEs. With Regula on staff in 2021, Miami ranked 19th nationally in total yards (448.8 per game) and 23rd in scoring (34.1 points per game).

Regula spent three seasons (2017-19) on staff at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, including two as a graduate assistant ('17-18) and one as the Rebels' tight ends coach ('19). In 2019, he guided sophomore TE Noah Bean to career highs in receptions (22) and receiving yards (336), which each ranked third on the team. He spent the spring of 2019 as the tight ends/fullbacks coach at Lafayette College (FCS), before returning to UNLV. He had a specific focus on the defensive side of the ball in 2018, after joining the program as an offensive grad assistant in '17.

Regula transitioned into coaching following his playing career when he served as an offensive graduate assistant and quality control coach at Florida International University from 2015-16. He played collegiately at Miami from 2012-14, following one season in '10 at the College of Mount St. Joseph (now Mount St. Joseph University) in Delhi, Ohio (near Cincinnati). He was a two-year letter winner at FB and LS at Miami, and in 2014 was the recipient of the "305 Walk-On Award," given to the most improved walk-on player. After graduating, Regula served as a coaching intern at Miami.

Regula was born Nov. 29, 1991 in Miami, Fla. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports administration from Miami in 2015, and his master's degree in recreation and sports management from Florida International in '16. He and his wife, Sami, live in Cincinnati.

JORDAN SALKIN

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Jordan Salkin is in his first season with the Bengals, after joining the coaching staff as an offensive assistant in 2024. He previously served as an offensive analyst at the University of Oregon in 2023.

In 2023, Salkin helped scheme a Ducks offense that ranked near the top of the NCAA in every major category. The Ducks led the nation in total offensive TDs (82) and passing yards (346.9 per game), ranked second in total yards (531.4 per game), second in scoring (44.2 points per game), and third in third-down percentage (51 percent). QB Bo Nix set single-season program records and led the nation in both passing yards (4508) and TD passes (45), while WRs Tez Johnson and Troy Franklin each ranked in the top 25 in both receptions and receiving yards. Prior to Oregon, Salkin spent the 2022 season as a defensive analyst at the University of North Carolina.

Salkin's first NFL coaching experience came in 2021, when he served as a quality control coach for the Miami Dolphins. Working primarily on the offensive side of the ball, Salkin helped QB Tua Tagovailoa post the second-highest completion percentage in a season in team history (67.8, seventh in NFL), while WR Jaylen Waddle had the most receptions by a rookie in NFL history (104).

Salkin spent the 2020 season as quarterbacks coach at the University of New Mexico. Despite being limited to seven games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Lobos used four different starting QBs. Salkin helped QB Teveka Tuioti post a 133.5 passer rating in two starts, as he threw for four TDs against just one INT.

Prior to his stint at New Mexico, Salkin spent three seasons (2017-19) at the University of Texas, beginning as a graduate assistant before serving as an offensive quality control coach with a focus on quarterbacks in his final two years. In 2019, he helped QB Sam Ehlinger tie for the Big 12 Conference lead in TD passes (32), rank second in passer rating (151.8), and third and passing yards (3663). DARRIN SIMMONS ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

In his 22nd season with the team, Darrin Simmons is the longest-tenured coach on the Bengals' staff. He has led the special teams for his entire Bengals career. He has held the title of special teams coordinator since 2013, and the title of assistant head coach since '20.

In 2023, Simmons once again worked with K Evan McPherson, who in his third pro season further established himself as one of the NFL's most dynamic kickers. McPherson converted seven FG attempts from 50 or more yards, tied for the fifth most leaguewide, and went a perfect 19-for-19 on kicks inside of 50 yards.

Under Simmons, McPherson has 21 career FGs from 50-plus yards, the most in NFL history in a player's first three seasons.

Simmons' work with the special teams has re-written the Bengals' record book. He most notably coached P Kevin Huber, a former Pro Bowler who played in a team-record 216 career games from 2009-22 and set Bengals records in every major punting category. Snapping to Huber for a majority of his time in Cincinnati was LS Clark Harris, who finished his own Bengals career in 2022 with zero unplayable long snaps in 1880 attempts.

In 2022, Simmons oversaw a young special teams corps that featured second-year McPherson, rookie LS Cal Adomitis and first-year P Drue Chrisman. Adomitis took over long-snapping duties in Game 2, and had 146 attempts without an unplayable delivery. McPherson was a perfect five-for-five on FG attempts over 50 yards, and followed up by converting each of his five FG attempts in the postseason.

In 2021, Simmons guided McPherson to one of the top kicking seasons by a rookie in NFL history. McPherson went 28 of 33 on FG attempts, including nine from 50 or more yards — the most in an entire Bengals career, let alone a season. He then went 20-for-20 on placekicks in the postseason (14 FGs, six PATs), with two game-winning FGs to help send Cincinnati to Super Bowl LVI. Simmons in 2020 helped Huber post career highs in both gross (47.2 yards) and net (42.8) punting average.

Simmons' special teams units have also excelled in the return game. He has coached three of the Bengals' top four leaders in career punt return average and four of the team's top six leaders in career kickoff return average. In 2019, S Brandon Wilson led the NFL with a 31.25-yard KOR average. That year also saw Cincinnati rank third in the NFL in average starting field position (26.4-yard line). In 2018, the Bengals were fifth in KOR average (24.9 yards) and ninth in punt coverage (7.2 yards/return).

Simmons helped Harris earn a Pro Bowl nod in 2017, as the veteran recorded 143 snaps without an unplayable deliver. In 2016, Simmons guided Alex Erickson, a college free agent, to an AFC-leading 27.9 yards per kick return.

In 2015, Simmons helped HB Cedric Peerman make the Pro Bowl as a kick coverage and return-unit performer, as his 17 ST tackles tied for the highest by a Bengal since '08.

Huber's Pro Bowl season came in 2014, when he posted then-franchise records for gross (46.8) and net (42.1) average. Also in '14, Simmons helped CB Adam Jones lead the NFL in KOR average with a team-record mark of 31.26.

Simmons entered the NFL in 1998 with the Baltimore Ravens, serving as assistant special teams coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach. He then served in the same role with the Carolina Panthers from 1999-2002, before joining the Bengals in '03.

Simmons began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Kansas, his alma mater, in 1996. He punted for the Jayhawks from 1993-95, earning All-Big Eight and Academic All-America honors in '95. He graduated with a sports management degree in 1996.

Prior to Kansas, Simmons was a punter and QB at Dodge City (Kan.) Community College, where in 1992 he led the nation's junior colleges in punting and was a first-team JUCO All-American.

Born April 9, 1973, in Elkhart, Kan., Simmons graduated from Elkhart High School. He and his wife, Rhonda, have a daughter and two sons.

Playing and coaching history: 1991-92—Played QB and P at Dodge City (Kan.) Community College. 1993-95—Played P at Kansas. 1996—Graduate assistant coach, Kansas. 1997—Assistant coach (AC), University of Minnesota. 1998—AC, Baltimore Ravens. 1999-2002—AC, Carolina Panthers. 2003-12—AC, Cincinnati Bengals. 2013-19—Special teams coordinator, Bengals. 2020-present—Assistant head coach/special teams coordinator, Bengals.

DIAMOND SIMMONS

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Diamond Simmons is in his first season with the Bengals and first on an NFL coaching staff in 2024. He joined the staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Simmons came to Cincinnati from UCLA, where he spent the 2021-23 seasons as associate director of football strength and conditioning. During his tenure, he helped the Bruins develop a powerful rushing offense which led the Pac-12 Conference in rushing yards per game in 2022 and '23. Simmons worked with 12 UCLA players who earned a total of 16 All-Pac-12 selections over his three seasons with the program.

Prior to UCLA, Simmons spent one season (2020) as assistant football strength and conditioning coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. That year, he helped implement a strength training program that was limited due to the COVID-19 pandemic, as the Rebels played just six games.

Simmons spent the 2019 season as assistant athletics performance coach at the University of Missouri. He helped the Tigers shoot out to a 5-1 record, their best start through six games since 2013. Simmons worked with two players — LB Nick Bolton and TE Albert Okwuegbunam — who collected All-SEC honors.

Simmons in 2018 served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at Morehead State University in Morehead, Kentucky, where he worked with the Eagles' football, men's and women's basketball, track and field, cross country, men's golf, and rifle programs. He previously served as an intern for the football strength and conditioning staff at the University of Georgia during the spring of 2017.

Simmons was a four-year letter winner (2012-15) as a running back at the University of North Alabama. He played in 41 career games for the Lions and rushed for 1232 yards on 198 attempts with 15 TDs.

Simmons was born in Hanceville, Ala., on April 2, 1993. He graduated from North Alabama with a bachelor's degree in health, exercise and physical education in 2017, and earned a master's degree in health promotion from Concord University in 2024. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), and is a Level 1 Sports Performance Coach through USA Weightlifting (USAW).

Playing and coaching history: 2012-15—Played RB at University of North Alabama. 2018—Assistant coach (AC), Morehead State University. 2019—AC, Missouri. 2020—AC, Nevada-Las Vegas. 2021-23—AC, UCLA. 2024—AC, Cincinnati Bengals.

GARRETT SWANSON

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Garrett Swanson is in his sixth season with the Bengals in 2024, and again serves as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Since arriving in Cincinnati in 2019, Swanson and the strength and conditioning staff have led the physical development of an influx of new and young Bengals players. In 2023, he helped two of the team's offensive linemen — G Alex Cappa and OT Jonah Williams — start all 17 games after each missing time during the previous postseason due to injuries. Swanson also assisted in several notable starters returning to the field after sustaining in-season injuries, including WR Tee Higgins and CB Cam Taylor-Britt.

In 2022, Swanson helped QB Joe Burrow's return to form after he underwent an emergency surgery to remove his appendix on the first day of training camp. Burrow was back on the field three weeks later, and proceeded to set single-season team records for completions (414) and TD passes (35). Swanson additionally helped several notable starters, including WR Ja'Marr Chase (hip) and DT DJ Reader (knee), overcome in-season injuries to help the team claim its second straight AFC North Division title.

In 2021, Swanson worked with multiple key players who returned from injuries to help lead the Bengals to a division crown and a berth in Super Bowl LVI. Highlighting that crop was Burrow, who was named the AP NFL Comeback Player of the Year after missing the final six weeks of his rookie season with a knee injury. TE C.J. Uzomah, coming back from an Achilles injury suffered in Week 2 of the 2020 campaign, recorded career highs in receptions (49), receiving yards (493) and TDs (five).

The strength and conditioning staff's efforts during Swanson's time in Cincinnati were particularly evident in 2020, when the COVID-19 pandemic prohibited training at the team facility during the offseason. The staff adjusted and helped onboard a wave of new additions, including the team's seven-player draft class that went on to play 96 combined games as rookies.

In 2019, Swanson and the strength and conditioning staff helped Cincinnati to a late-season surge, with vast improvements on both offense and defense in the second half of the year. Offensively, the Bengals averaged 70.6 more rushing yards per game in the second half of the season (130.1) compared to the first (59.5), while allowing 10 fewer sacks. Defensively, Cincinnati totaled 11 more sacks the second half of the year, and gave up 84.1 fewer yards per game.

Swanson came to Cincinnati from the University of Illinois, where from 2017-18 he served as assistant strength coach under current Bengals strength and conditioning coach Joey Boese. In 2018, Swanson helped the Illini develop a powerful offense which ranked second in the Big Ten in rushing yards per game (244.2).

As a player, Swanson spent four seasons (2012-15) as a punter at Fresno State University. He finished his career with 201 punts for 8411 yards (41.8 average) and 58 downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He additionally served as the Bulldogs' kickoff specialist and holder on placekicks. He also was a four-time Mountain West All-Academic team selection.

Each of Swanson's four seasons at Fresno State came under the tutelage of Boese, who was the team's head strength and conditioning coach at the time. Swanson and Boese helped the Bulldogs to back-to-back conference titles in 2012 and '13, a first for the program since 1992-93.

In 2016, Swanson signed as a college free agent with the Arizona Cardinals. He played in three preseason games for Arizona and punted six times for 254 yards (42.3), with two inside-20s, before being released.

Swanson was born June 24, 1994, in Riverside, Calif. He attended Martin Luther King High School in Riverside, where he was a team captain and all-state performer as a punter, and was named team MVP as a senior. He also handled his team's placekicking duties, and converted a league-record 60-yard FG.

Swanson graduated from Fresno State with a degree in kinesiology-exercise science, and he also holds a master's degree in kinesiology from California Baptist University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Playing and coaching history: 2012-15—Played P at Fresno State. 2017-18—Assistant coach (AC), University of Illinois. 2019-present—AC, Cincinnati Bengals.

TROY WALTERS

WIDE RECEIVERS

Troy Walters is in his fifth season with the Bengals and fourth as wide receivers coach, after joining the staff as assistant WRs coach in 2020.

In 2023, Walters helped WR Ja'Marr Chase earn his third consecutive Pro Bowl nod, as the third-year pro totaled a career-high 100 receptions for 1216 yards and seven TDs. Chase's catch total tied for the second most in a single season in team history, and he became just the eighth player in NFL history to begin his career with three straight 1000-yard receiving campaigns.

In 2022, Walters oversaw a dynamic receiving corps featuring Chase, Tyler Boyd and Tee Higgins. Each player missed action due to injury but still managed to record at least 700 receiving yards, making the Bengals one of two NFL teams with three WRs to reach that mark. Chase's Pro Bowl campaign included team highs in receptions (87), receiving yards (1046) and receiving TDs (nine), while Higgins (1029) eclipsed the 1000-yard plateau for a second straight season.

In 2021, Boyd, Chase and Higgins combined for 3374 receiving yards, the most by any trio in the NFL. Chase, the team's first-round draft pick, posted a team-record 1455 receiving yards en route to being named AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. Higgins added 1091 yards, while Boyd notched 828. Chase then had 368 receiving yards in the Bengals' run to Super Bowl LVI, setting both a team postseason record and an NFL rookie postseason record.

Serving as assistant WRs coach for the Bengals in 2020, Walters helped guide a rookie Higgins to 67 catches for 908 yards and six TDs.

Prior to the Bengals, Walters spent two seasons (2018-19) as offensive coordinator at the University of Nebraska. The 2018 Cornhuskers averaged 456.2 yards per game, second-most in the Big Ten.

Walters served as offensive coordinator at the University of Central Florida from 2016-17. He inherited the FBS' 127th-ranked offense and 125th-ranked scoring offense from 2015, but by '17 had the Knights ranked fifth in yards per game (530.5) and first in scoring (48.2). In 2017, he helped guide UCF to a 13-0 record and was named a finalist for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Walters spent 2013-15 as receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Colorado. He coached Nelson Spruce, who left Colorado with 41 school records, as well as Paul Richardson, who collected all-conference honors and was a second-round draft pick of the Seattle Seahawks.

Serving as WRs coach at North Carolina State in 2012, Walters helped the Wolfpack rank 18th nationally in receiving yards per game. He had the same role at Texas A&M from 2010-11, working alongside current Bengals head coach Zac Taylor, who at the time was the Aggies' tight ends coach.

Walters broke into coaching at Indiana State University in 2009, where he served as offensive coordinator while also coaching quarterbacks and receivers.

A four-year standout as a WR at Stanford University (1996-99), Walters ended his collegiate career as the Pac-12's all-time leader in receiving yards (4047). He set Stanford career records for receptions (244) and 100-yard receiving games (19), as well as single-season records for catches (86 in 1997) and receiving yards (1456 in '99), and a single-game record for receiving yards (278 vs. UCLA in '99). In 1999, he won the Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the nation's top receiver.

Following Stanford, Walters was selected in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. He went on to also play for the Colts, Cardinals and Lions, and over eight NFL seasons totaled 98 catches for 1135 yards and nine TDs, as well as more than 3800 return yards.

Born Dec. 15, 1976, in Bloomington, Ind., Walters attended Consolidated High School in College Station, Texas. He holds two degrees from Stanford — a bachelor's in communications (1999) and a masters in sociology (2000). He and his wife, Josephine, have two sons, Tate and Wynn, and two daughters, Faith and Landri.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cleveland Browns 24, Cincinnati Bengals 3 Sunday, Sept. 10, 2023 at Cleveland Browns Stadium

Hindered by wet and rainy conditions, the Bengals were limited to three points and 142 offensive net yards in a season-opening loss to their in-state rival. The Cincinnati defense kept the game within reach, forcing two turnovers and holding the Browns to 13 points through three quarters, but Cleveland's strong rushing attack eventually broke through and finished the day with 206 yards, led by 106 from RB Nick Chubb. Browns QB Deshaun Watson found the end zone on a 13-yard run just before halftime to give the Browns a 10-0 lead at the break, but the Bengals responded with a 42-yard FG from K Evan McPherson early in the third quarter to cut the deficit to seven. A promising drive on Cincinnati's next offensive possession resulted in a missed FG attempt, and the offense did not reach Browns territory the rest of the way as Cleveland held the upper hand in the battle of field position. The Bengals went for it on fourth-and-four from their own 31-yard line with just over 10 minutes remaining in an attempt to jumpstart the offense, but OB Joe Burrow was dropped for a 13-yard sack and the Browns scored three plays later to seal the final outcome. The game was the 100th "Battle of Ohio" between the two teams.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Baltimore Ravens 27, Cincinnati Bengals 24 Sunday, Sept. 17, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

Cincinnati faced two 10-point deficits in the second half and each time was able to cut it to three, but ultimately the Bengals never took the lead in a home-opener loss. Baltimore was efficient offensively, totaling 415 net yards — including 178 rushing — and scoring a TD on three of its four red zone trips. Cincinnati's offense had just three possessions in the first half and was limited to a FG, but an 81-yard punt return for a TD by rookie WR Charlie Jones in the second quarter helped keep the team within striking distance. QB Joe Burrow connected with WR Tee Higgins for a TD late in the third quarter to reduce Baltimore's lead to three points at 20-17, but the Ravens answered with a 12-play, 85-yard TD drive to regain the two-score advantage. Another Burrow-to-Higgins TD with 3:28 left closed the gap again, but the Ravens converted a pair of third downs on the ensuing possession to end the game. Cincinnati fell to 0-2, while Baltimore improved to 2-0.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

Cincinnati Bengals 19, L.A. Rams 16 Monday night, Sept. 25, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals' defense recorded six sacks and two INTs to steer Cincinnati to its first win of the season on Monday Night Football. Neither offense established a rhythm in the first half, combining for seven punts in the opening two quarters, but each side put together a pair of FG drives for a 6-6 tie at halftime. The Bengals then struck with a 10-play, 75-yard march on their first possession of the third quarter that ended with a 14-yard TD run by HB Joe Mixon. WR Ja'Marr Chase contributed 33 of his 141 receiving yards on that go-ahead scoring drive, and his team-leading 12 catches on the night helped spark the offense. Cincinnati's defense continued to pressure Rams QB Matthew Stafford, and LB Logan Wilson's second INT of the game not only ended a L.A. scoring threat, but it led to another Bengals FG which extended the lead to 16-9 late in the third quarter. Five different Bengals tallied a sack — DE Trey Hendrickson recorded two in the second half — and the Rams' offense converted just one of 11 third-down attempts. Cincinnati improved to 1-2, while the Rams fell to 1-2.

WEEK 4, GAME 4

Tennessee Titans 27, Cincinnati Bengals 3 Sunday, Oct. 1, 2023 at Nissan Stadium

The Bengals opened the game with an 11-play, 72-yard FG drive, but it proved to be their most successful possession as the Titans held them to just 139 net yards the rest of the way. Tennessee used a balanced offensive attack and totaled 400 net yards (227 passing, 173 rushing) to wear down the Cincinnati defense. The score was tied 3-3 at the midway point of the second quarter, before the Titans erupted for three TDs in the final 6:31 to take a commanding 24-3 halftime lead. RB Derrick Henry led the charge for Tennessee with 122 yards on 22 carries (5.5-yard average), including a 29-yard TD run that saw him break three tackles before reaching the end zone. The Titans repeatedly biltzed QB Joe Burrow, sacking him three times while holding the Bengals to two of nine on third down. Cincinnati fell to 1-3. while Tennessee improved to 2-2.

WEEK 5, GAME 5

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Arizona Cardinals 20 Sunday, Oct. 8, 2023 at State Farm Stadium

Bengals WR Ja'Marr Chase posted a team-record 15 receptions for 192 yards and three TDs, while the Cincinnati defense forced three turnovers in a road victory. Chase's first TD capped an 11-play opening drive to give the Bengals an early lead, but Arizona answered with two TDs in the second quarter to pull ahead 14-10. The Cardinals then stopped HB Joe Mixon at the one-yard line on fourth-and-goal late in the first half, but two plays later CB Cam Taylor-Britt intercepted a Joshua Dobbs pass and returned it 11 yards to the end zone, putting Cincinnati back in front. Less than two minutes into the second half, QB Joe Burrow launched a deep ball that hit Chase in stride for a 63-yard TD to extend the Bengals' lead. Arizona responded with a TD and had a chance to reclaim the lead later in the third quarter, but LB Germaine Pratt stopped Dobbs on a rush on fourth down at the Bengals' 16-yard line. Cincinnati's offense took over and drove 83 yards in 15 plays, punctuated by Chase's third TD, to take command midway through the fourth quarter. The Bengals improved to 2-3, while Arizona fell to 1-4.

WEEK 6, GAME 6

Cincinnati Bengals 17, Seattle Seahawks 13 Sunday, Oct. 15, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

Cincinnati stopped Seattle on fourth down near its own goal line twice within the final minutes to secure the home win. Seattle snapped the ball at the Bengals' six-yard line on fourth down just ahead of the two-minute warning, but DE Sam Hubbard got to QB Geno Smith for a sack that gave possession back to Cincinnati. The Seahawks then quickly forced a punt and worked their way back inside the 10 with under a minute remaining, before pressure by Bengals DT B.J. Hill on fourth down forced the Seahawks' final pass to fall incomplete. The Bengals had grabbed an early lead with TD passes on their first two drives. QB Joe Burrow started the game completing 17 of 19 passes, which included a stretch of 15 straight completions, but Cincinnati's offense stalled as the game progressed, totaling just five first downs on its final eight possessions. The defense, however, held Seattle to just three points on four red zone opportunities in the second half, getting INTs from CBs Mike Hilton and Cam Taylor-Britt along the way. The Bengals improved to 3-3, while Seattle fell to 3-2.

WEEK 8, GAME 7

Cincinnati Bengals 31, San Francisco 49ers 17 Sunday, Oct. 29, 2023 at Levi's Stadium

QB Joe Burrow completed 87.5 percent of his passes (28 of 32) for 283 yards and three TDs, while LBs Germaine Pratt and Logan Wilson each had an INT in the second half to lead Cincinnati to a road victory. The Bengals' offense found the end zone on its opening two drives to grab an early 14-7 lead, and Burrow closed out the first half with a career-best 19 consecutive completions. San Francisco had a chance to tie the game on a first-and-goal late in the third quarter, before Pratt tipped a pass by QB Brock Purdy and picked it off to end the scoring threat. The 49ers forced a punt less than two minutes later, but Wilson intercepted Purdy's next pass and returned it inside the red zone to give the offense a short field. Burrow cashed in on the following play with a 17-yard TD pass to WR Ja'Marr Chase, who finished with a game-high 10 catches for 100 yards. The 49ers inched closer with a TD on their next drive, but the Bengals responded with a 10-play, 78-yard march capped by a rushing TD from HB Joe Mixon to regain the two-score advantage and seal the win. Cincinnati improved to 4-3, while San Francisco fell to 5-3.

WEEK 9, GAME 8

Cincinnati Bengals 24, Buffalo Bills 18 Sunday night, Nov. 5, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

QB Joe Burrow passed for 348 yards and two first-half TDs to lead Cincinnati to a prime-time home victory over Buffalo. The Bengals found the end zone on their opening possession for a fourth straight game, with TE Irv Smith Jr.'s first TD of the season giving Cincinnati an early 7-0 advantage. After the Bils quickly answered with their own score to tie it up, the Bengals again marched down the field and HB Joe Mixon's TD regained a lead that they never gave up. Buffalo trailed 21-10 early in the fourth quarter and was driving at the Cincinnati 22-yard line with a chance to close its deficit, but LB Germaine Pratt forced a fumble that was recovered by S Nick Scott for the Bengals' second takeaway of the game. Cincinnati made use of the turnover with a FG drive that included two completions to WR Tee Higgins, who finished with eight catches for a game-high 110 yards. The Bils cut it to a one-possession game with a TD with 3:32 left, but the Bengals used the rest of the time on the clock as Mixon converted a third-and-three following Buffalo's final timeout. Cincinnati improved to 5-3, while Buffalo fell to 5-4.

WEEK 10, GAME 9

Houston Texans 30, Cincinnati Bengals 27 Sunday, Nov. 12, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals trailed by 10 with under four minutes remaining before storming back to tie the game 27-27, but Houston marched 55 yards on six plays in the final 1:33 to set up a game-winning FG as time expired. After QB Joe Burrow's second INT of the fourth quarter, CB Cam Taylor-Britt got the ball back for the Bengals with his own pick that led to a Cincinnati TD three plays later. The Bengals forced a quick punt, and on the following possession Burrow hit WR Tyler Boyd for a 64-yard gain to set up the tying FG. Houston's final drive finished off a day that featured 544 offensive net yards, including 356 passing from QB C.J. Stroud and 150 rushing from RB Devin Singletary. After an opening-drive TD gave the Bengals an early lead, the offense was forced to punt on its next five possessions while the Texans scored 20 straight points. An Evan McPherson FG followed by a 64-yard TD catch by WR Ja'Marr Chase closed the deficit to 20-17 late in the third quarter, but Houston quickly answered with a TD on its next drive to regain a two-possession advantage. Cincinnati fell to 5-4, while Houston improved to 5-4.

WEEK 11, GAME 10

Baltimore Ravens 34, Cincinnati Bengals 20 Thursday night, Nov. 16, 2023 at M&T Bank Stadium

The Bengals held a narrow lead early in the second quarter in a highly anticipated Thursday Night Football showdown at Baltimore, but a wrist injury forced QB Joe Burrow to miss the remainder of the game and the Ravens went on to secure a 34-20 divisional win. Burrow left the contest after throwing a TD pass to HB Joe Mixon that put Cincinnati ahead 10-7, and Baltimore capitalized on his absence with two TD drives before halftime to build a double-digit advantage. The balanced Ravens offense totaled 405 net yards — with 248 coming through the air and 157 on the ground — and had seven plays of 20 or more yards. Backup QB Jake Browning was effective in relief of Burrow, leading a 10-play FG drive to open the second half that closed Cincinnati's deficit to 21-13. The Bengals also posted a season-best 136 rushing yards to help keep the game within reach through three quarters, but Baltimore managed to create separation with 13 straight points while forcing a punt on three consecutive Bengals possessions. Cincinnati fell to 5-5, while Baltimore improved to 8-3.

WEEK 12, GAME 11

Pittsburgh Steelers 16, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Sunday, Nov. 26, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

QB Jake Browning passed for 227 yards and a TD in his first career start, but the Bengals were held to three points in the second half of a 16-10 home loss. Pittsburgh's offense totaled 421 net yards and scored on each of its final three possessions to build a two-score lead, after being limited to a FG until the late stages of the third quarter. Cincinnati pulled ahead 7-3 in the second quarter when HB Trayveon Williams' 46-yard kickoff return set up strong field position for Browning, who finished off the ensuing drive with a TD pass to TE Drew Sample. The Bengals opened the second half by marching into the red zone, but an INT by Steelers S Trenton Thompson led to a 14-play, 79-yard TD drive that put Pittsburgh back in front. The Bengals were forced to punt twice in the fourth quarter while the Steelers expanded their lead, before Cincinnati kicked a FG ahead of the two-minute warning to close its gap to six. With no timeouts remaining, the Bengals attempted an onside kick, but a Steelers recovery allowed Pittsburgh to kneel out the remaining clock. Cincinnati fell to 5-6, while Pittsburgh improved to 7-4.

WEEK 14, GAME 13

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Indianapolis Colts 14 Sunday, Dec. 10, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals outscored the Colts 20-0 in the second half to turn a tie game at halftime into a dominant home win. Cincinnati jumped in front 14-0 early in the second quarter, as HB Chase Brown's first career TD on a 54-yard screen pass was followed by a methodical 11-play scoring drive on the Bengals' next possession. Indianapolis flipped the momentum in its own favor with two TDs that came just 25 seconds apart, the second of which was a pick-six by LB Ronnie Harrison Jr. that led to a game-tying two-point conversion. Cincinnati responded with a pair of TDs in the third quarter, including TE Tanner Hudson also grabbing his first career TD catch on the opening drive of the half. QB Jake Browning extended the lead with a one-yard sneak for his third total TD of the afternoon, and an INT by DT B.J. Hill in the fourth quarter allowed Cincinnati to work the remaining clock. The Bengals defensively yielded just 46 rushing yards and sacked Colts QB Gardner Minshew II three times, including two by DE Trey Hendrickson. Cincinnati improved to 7-6, while Indianapolis fell to 7-6.

WEEK 15, GAME 14

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Minnesota Vikings 24 (OT) Saturday, Dec. 16, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals trailed 17-3 entering the fourth quarter before scoring a TD on three straight drives to send the game to overtime, where K Evan McPherson drilled a game-winning FG to lift Cincinnati to victory in a nationally televised game. Two of the Bengals' fourth-quarter TDs were caught by WR Tee Higgins, including a game-tying score in the final minute of regulation when he hauled in a deep pass near the goal line and extended his arm over the pylon while being tackled backwards out of bounds. In the extra period, the Vikings needed less than a yard on third and fourth down from the Bengals' 42-yard line, but Cincinnati's defense stonewalled them for no gain twice to regain possession. Browning then connected with WR Tyler Boyd for a 44-yard catch on third-and-nine to put the Bengals in position for McPherson's game-winner. Browning completed a pass to 11 different receivers and finished to complete 29 of 42 attempts for 324 yards, with 243 of those yards coming after halftime. Cincinnati improved to 8-6, while Minnesota fell to 7-7.

WEEK 16, GAME 15

Pittsburgh Steelers 34, Cincinnati Bengals 11 Saturday, Dec. 23, 2023 at Acrisure Stadium

The Steelers jumped out to a 24-0 halftime lead and never looked back to snap Cincinnati's three-game winning streak in a nationally televised contest. The Bengals drove into the red zone twice in the first half but came away with zero points, as QB Jake Browning threw an ill-advised INT and the offense later was stopped on fourth-and-one at the Pittsburgh five-yard line. Browning finished with 335 passing yards, including an 80yard TD to WR Tee Higgins early in the third quarter, but was picked off three times. The Steelers totaled 397 offensive net yards, led by a 195-yard receiving game by WR George Pickens, who caught TD passes of 86 and 66 yards from QB Mason Rudolph. Pittsburgh found the end zone on three of its four first drives for a 24-0 halftime lead, as the Pickens 86-yard score on the Steelers' second play from scrimmage was followed in the second quarter by a pair of rushing TDs and a FG. Cincinnati fell to 8-7, while Pittsburgh improved to 8-7.

Kansas City 25, Cincinnati Bengals 17 Sunday, Dec. 31, 2023 at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium

The Bengals elected to go for it on fourth-and-one, but Mixon was stopped behind the line of scrimmage to end Cincinnati's hopes of making it a two-score game. Kansas City K Harrison Butker knocked through four second-half FGs, including three in the fourth quarter, to give the Chiefs a lead they would not relinquish. The Bengals reached midfield on their final drive, but Browning was sacked on consecutive plays before a desperation heave on fourth down fell incomplete. WEEK 18, GAME 17

Cincinnati Bengals 31, Cleveland Browns 14 Sunday, Jan. 7, 2024 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals built a 24-0 halftime lead and cruised to a dominant home win in the regular-season finale. Cincinnati's defense held the Browns, who rested numerous starters with their playoff seeding solidified, to just 244 net yards while grabbing two INTs off QB Jeff Driskel in the first half. Offensively, the Bengals recorded 183 rushing yards, led by a 111-yard effort from HB Joe Mixon, who surpassed 1000 for the season. QB Jake Browning threw three TD passes, the first going to Mixon and the other two to rookie WR Andrei Iosivas. Iosivas' second TD capped off a season-long 99-yard scoring drive for the Bengals which lasted 14 plays and more than eight minutes in the third quarter. WR Ja'Marr Chase totaled four catches to reach 100 on the year, and DE Trey Hendrickson had a half-sack to post a final tally of 17.5, the second most in team single-season history. Cincinnati closed the regular season at 9-8, while Cleveland fell to 11-6.

TEAM HISTORY

TEAM CHRONOLOGY

PRE-1966

Paul Brown had left the Cleveland Browns following the 1962 season, with an NFL coaching record of 115-49-6 and three league championships. He had also won four titles with the Browns in the All-America Football Conference, before they joined the NFL. But Brown was ousted from Cleveland by Art Modell, who had bought the Browns franchise in 1961. Despite Brown's founder's status with the Cleveland club, he had never been majority owner, and Modell showed Brown the door while telling the already legendary coach, "This can never be my team as long as you are here." It was a compliment, in a fashion, but it was a bitter blow to pro football's legendary innovator. Brown sought to return to the game, with operational control of a franchise, and in 1965 his son Mike completed a study on pro football expansion. The study recommended Cincinnati as a potential site. Later that year, Paul Brown met with Ohio Governor James Rhodes, who agreed to support a push for a second team in the state.

Faced with serious concerns from the Reds baseball team regarding Crosley Field, as well as with growing civic support to push for pro football, Cincinnati's city council approved the construction of a dual-purpose downtown riverfront stadium, with seating capacity of more than 50,000.

1967

Cincinnati was awarded an American Football League expansion franchise on May 24, and on Sept. 26, the league's ownership decision came down in favor of the group led by Paul Brown. The franchise was to begin play in 1968, but it acquired its first player late in '67, trading two draft picks to the Miami Dolphins for QB John Stofa. And what would the team's name be? A Cincinnati newspaper poll showed much sentiment among Queen City fans for the name "Buckeyes," but Brown nixed that idea. Brown said that the name "belonged to Ohio State," and he added that the Buckeyes weren't all that popular in Kentucky, Indiana and West Virginia, which he considered part of a regional fan base for his new team. Ownership instead chose the name "Bengals," with Brown making the announcement at an Oct. 26 news conference. The tiger theme was familiar to Brown, who had enjoyed great success with the Massillon (Ohio) High School Tigers early in his coaching career. Also, "Bengals" had been the name of a Cincinnati pro football franchise of the late 1930s and early '40s, and Brown had three members of that original Bengals team at his news conference. Brown cited a "precedence for reviving old team names," noting that the Baltimore Colts and Buffalo Bills carried the same names as previous unrelated pro teams in their towns. As for how the original 1930s team came to be known as Bengals, one school of thought associated the name with a hugely popular mid-'30s movie called "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer." The movie dealt not with tigers, but with the exploits of British soldiers in colonial India. That concept was clearly in Paul Brown's mind some 32 years after the movie's 1935 nomination for Best Picture, because Brown said at the news conference when announcing the new team name, "We mean the tigers, not the lancers." But whatever connection may have been made between the original team and the movie, it seems to have been more a case of coincidence than design. The original Bengals indisputably used tiger images in promoting the team. And Hal Pennington, who coached and managed the original team after his 1934 graduation from Xavier University as a multi-sport star, said in a '67 interview that he named the team to represent a tiger theme. Pennington said he was sitting in his mother's kitchen when he was struck by a product or advertisement — he couldn't remember exactly what — whose trademark included the name "Bengal" and a tiger-head image. "The (tiger) picture was so animated, it inspired me," Pennington recalled. "I just figured 'Bengals' would be a good name for the team."

The Bengals fielded their first team, with an agreement to play two seasons at Nippert Stadium, on the University of Cincinnati campus, during construction of the as-yet-unnamed downtown stadium. The Bengals were placed as the fifth team the AFL's Western Division, bringing league membership to 10. They were awarded 40 veteran players in the AFL allocation draft, but the draft was not generous to Cincinnati, allowing existing teams wide latitude to protect the best talent. Of the 40 selections, only 16 ever played for Cincinnati, and only three would play as many as four seasons. G Pat Matson of Oregon, obtained from the Denver Broncos, would play the most Bengals seasons (seven) of any of the expansion draft signees. In the college draft, the Bengals selected Tennessee center Bob Johnson as their first pick. Johnson would go on to play 12 Bengals seasons, with an AFL All-Star game selection. The Bengals played their first preseason game on Aug. 3 at Nippert, losing 38-14 to Kansas City before a crowd of 21,682. Jon Stofa was the starting QB against the Chiefs. In the regular season, the Bengals lost their opener at San Diego, with rookie Dewey Warren as starting QB, but Cincinnati won its next two, posting double-digit margins at home over Denver and Buffalo. The team would win only once more, however, finishing 3-11. Though Warren, a sixth-round draft choice from Tennessee, took the first regular-season snap at QB, Stofa and future Bengals head coach Sam Wyche also saw significant time at QB during the season. Regular-season home attendance averaged 25,766. Rookie RB Paul Robinson led the AFL in rushing with 1023 yards and was named AFL Rookie of the Year.

The team selected QB Greg Cook of the University of Cincinnati with its first draft pick (fifth overall), and Cook was an immediate sensation. He led the second-year club to a 3-0 start, including victories over AFL powerhouses Oakland and Kansas City. "If (Cook) stays with it, I've got myself another Otto Graham," Paul Brown said. But Cook suffered a shoulder injury in Cincinnati's Game 3 win over Kansas City, and though he returned to play later in the season, winning the AFL passing title and league Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, he never fully recovered from the injury. The Chillicothe, Ohio native would play in only one more game after '69, and likely more than any other Bengals player, he has inspired thoughts of "what might have been." Cook's average-yards-per-pass-attempt in '69 was 9.41, still a team record through 2023 and still the oldest surviving passing mark in the franchise record book. Although the team faltered after Cook's injury, finishing 4-9-1, Brown was named AFL Coach of the Year, and LB Bill Bergey, the team's second-round draft pick, was named AFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Local support for the Bengals grew steadily, and on Oct. 7, the club announced that the remainder of the home season at Nippert Stadium was sold out. On Nov. 9, the Bengals played the franchise's first game on an artificial surface, tying Houston 31-31 at the Astrodome. The club experienced a tragedy on the morning of Sept. 15, day of the season opener, when LB Frank Buncom of Southern California, a 29-yearold about to enter his eighth NFL season, was found dead at the team hotel, due to a blood clot that had reached a lung.

The year was a highly significant one for the Bengals, in both a football and a civic sense. On the football side, the Bengals moved into the NFL as part of the league's merger with the AFL. Paul Brown's quest in returning to pro football, following his ouster from Cleveland by Art Modell in 1962, had always been about re-joining the NFL. So when the Bengals began play in the AFL in 1968, it was key for Brown to know that the '70 NFL-AFL merger was already approved. There was much debate and controversy over exactly how the leagues would combine. The Bengals pushed strongly for a full merger, with the 26 clubs divided into two 13-team conferences. Other interests sought to keep the 16 NFL teams and 10 AFL teams in separate conferences of unequal size. But the fullmerger view prevailed, with the NFL's Baltimore Colts, Cleveland Browns and Pittsburgh Steelers agreeing to join the 10 AFL teams in the new American Football Conference (AFC). The remaining 13 NFL teams formed the National Conference. The Bengals were part of a four-team AFC Central Division, joined by Cleveland, Pittsburgh and the AFL Houston Oilers. Thus was born the twiceannual "Battle of Ohio" between the Bengals and Browns. The Bengals started horribly on the field, losing six of their first seven games, but they roared to life in winning their last seven and claimed the first AFC Central title at 8-6, by a game over Cleveland. The Bengals became, at that time, the youngest franchise (third year of existence) to reach the NFL playoffs. Baltimore squelched the Bengals 17-0 in the first round of the playoffs, but that Colts club would go on to win Super Bowl V, and Brown won the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. On the civic side, 1970 was the debut season for Cincinnati's dual-sport downtown stadium, which would be the Bengals' home through 1999. It was announced on Jan. 9 that the facility was officially named "Cincinnati Riverfront Stadium," but in popular usage the name soon became just "Riverfront Stadium." Though seating capacity for football varied, due to whether the Reds' home baseball season was still on, the new stadium roughly doubled the capacity of Nippert Stadium. The Bengals first played at Riverfront on Aug. 8, defeating Washington in a preseason game. The first regular-season game was on Sept. 20, a 31-21 win over Oakland, with QB and future Bengals head coach

Sam Wyche scoring the new facility's first regular-season football points, on a five-yard TD run in the first quarter. The club averaged 58,251 home attendance in the regular season. The baseball Reds had begun their tenure at Riverfront with a game vs. Atlanta on June 30.

The Bengals went 5-0-1 in preseason and opened the regular season with high hopes of defending their AFC Central Division title. They started off with a 37-14 rout of Philadelphia at home, but they lost the next seven and finished at 4-10. The puzzling outfit stumbled despite outgaining foes by more than 25 yards per game and posting a plus-16 turnover differential. Six of their losses came by four points or less. QB Sam Wyche, who would become Bengals head coach in 1984, was traded in May to Washington, and Virgil Carter was the starting QB for most of the season. But Carter missed some time with injuries, allowing for the debut of third-round draft pick Ken Anderson, who immediately attracted notice as a prospect of great promise. Anderson could not turn the '71 season around, but it was the start of a 16-year career (longest in Bengals history through 2023) that would end with him holding all the team's major passing records at that time. The first of Anderson's career 197 Bengals TD passes was a five-yarder to WR Eric Crabtree in the fourth quarter of a 20-17 loss on Oct. 3 at Green Bay. On Nov. 28, the Bengals posted the first shutout in franchise history, 31-0 at home over San Diego. Regular-season home attendance was strong in Riverfront Stadium's second year, as the average of 59,266 would not be topped until the 2003 season at Paul Brown Stadium. Cincinnati's Dave Lewis won his second consecutive NFL punting title, averaging 44.8 yards.

1972

The team rallied from the disappointment of 1971 to finish 8-6 for the second time in three seasons. It wasn't enough for a second playoff berth in three years, but Coach Paul Brown said at season's end that the Bengals had met his goal of becoming a "fully competitive" NFL franchise by Year Five. (The Bengals would back up those words by going 38-18 over the next four seasons.) Besides the drama of a playoff bid that ended with a loss to Cleveland in Game 13, the season's major storyline was the battle between veteran Virgil Carter and second-year Ken Anderson for the No. 1 QB spot. Anderson got Brown's nod in preseason, but Carter took the job back for Game 9 vs. Oakland, after Anderson had struggled in a 40-17 loss to Pittsburgh. Carter was injured in the Oakland game, however, and Anderson started Game 10, a 20-19 upset loss to a Baltimore team that had won only twice. Carter started in a Game 11 win at Chicago, but passed for only 120 yards with two INTs, and Anderson was reinstalled at No. 1 for a Game 12 win vs. the Giants. Anderson started the crucial Game 13 vs. Cleveland, but he was sidelined with an injury, and the Browns sealed a 27-24 win when Carter suffered an INT by LB Billy Andrews on a short pass to Cleveland's goal line with 0:36 to play. Anderson came back to start the play-for-pride season finale, directing a 61-17 romp at Houston, and Anderson would not again be seriously challenged until 1984, when at age 35 he was bothered by injuries and began to give way to Boomer Esiason. DT Mike Reid, Cincinnati's top pick from the 1970 draft, was the only Bengal named to the Pro Football Writers' first-team All-Pro squad, but rookie S Tommy Casanova also made a big impression and was voted by his teammates as the club's MVP. The 61 points scored at Houston still stands tied (through 2023) as a club record matched just once since, in a 61-7 win vs. the same Houston franchise in 1989.

The Bengals claimed their second AFC Central title in the division's four-year existence, winning their last six games after a 4-4 start and claiming the crown over 10-4 Pittsburgh via conference-record tiebreaker. The Bengals' rivalry with the Steelers heated up in '73, with Pittsburgh QB Terry Bradshaw saying, "I'd really rather beat Cincinnati than anybody." The Bengals and Steelers split their two season meetings. In postseason, the Bengals lost 34-16 at Miami, which would go on to win Super Bowl VIII. It marked the second time in two playoff appearances that the Bengals were eliminated by the team that would go on to win it all. Though the schedule at this time remained at just 14 games, the Bengals missed by just 15 total yards having two 1000-yard rushers. Veteran Essex Johnson had 997 yards, and bruising 12th-round draft choice Boobie Clark had 988. Clark was named AFC Rookie of the Year. Through 2023, only seven teams in NFL history have had two 1000-yard rushers in a season (Bengals not among them), and five of those instances came in 16-game seasons. The '73 offense was further improved by WR Isaac Curtis, a first-round draft pick who would go on to play 12 excellent seasons for Cincinnati. The NFL's rules on home television blackouts were changed for 1973, with blackouts lifted on games sold out 72 hours in advance, and the Sept. 24 game vs. Houston — a 24-10 Bengals victory — became the first Bengals home contest with live local TV. Paul Brown turned 65 on Sept. 7, but retirement was not on his mind. He would go on to serve through 1975 as head coach, and he would remain the Bengals' chief executive until his death in 1991 at age 82.

1974

A break-even (7-7) season for Cincinnati included the individual highlight of QB Ken Anderson winning the first of his four NFL passing titles. He posted a league-best 95.7 rating, with 213 completions in 328 attempts (64.9 percent) for 2667 yards, with 18 TDs and 10 INTs. In a Nov. 10 win vs. Pittsburgh, Anderson set a Bengals record (still standing through 2023) for completion percentage, ringing up a 90.9 by connecting on 20-of-22. Through 2023, that still is tied for ninth-best in NFL history (minimum 20 attempts). CB Lemar Parrish led the NFL in punt returns, with an 18.8-yard average that remains (through 2023) as the franchise record. The Bengals were 7-4 through 11 games, but were still a game and a half behind first-place Pittsburgh, and Cincinnati lost its last three contests. The Bengals swept the "Battle of Ohio" series vs. Cleveland for the first time, winning 33-7 at home in the season opener and 34-24 at Cleveland in Game 5. The campaign was preceded by a tumultuous offseason. Labor unrest roiled the league scene well into the preseason. The NFL Players Association called a strike, but not all players were on board, and most teams welcomed willing veterans into training camps. The Bengals were at the top in terms of veterans reporting to camp. Early preseason games were played with large numbers of rookies and other new personnel, however, and the Bengals offered fans refunds to those games. Most fans kept their tickets. The strike effort dwindled as preseason neared its end, and the regular season opened normally. Prior to preseason, the Bengals were in the thick of an NFL battle against player raids by the new World Football League, as they disputed the WFL Philadelphia franchise's signing of star LB Bill Bergey to a contract to begin in 1976, even though Bergey still was obligated to the Bengals through 1975. The Bengals lost that battle in court, but the decision wound up being moot. Bergey's offers from the unstable new league eventually fell through, and on July 10 of '74, Cincinnati traded Bergey to Philadelphia's NFL team, the Eagles, for first-round draft choices in 1976 and '77, plus a second-rounder in '77.

1975

In their final season with Paul Brown as head coach, the Bengals opened with six straight wins and went on to post an 11-3 record. Their .786 winning percentage stands through 2023 as the best in franchise history, and their plusdifferential in yards per game (81.2, on 361.4 offensively vs. 280.2 defensively) also stands through '23 as a franchise record. But two of Cincinnati's losses were to AFC Central Division rival Pittsburgh, and the Steelers took the division title at 12-2, setting up their drive to win Super Bowl X. The Bengals qualified as the AFC Wild Card team for the playoffs, but had to play on the road at Oakland, which also had finished 11-3, and the Raiders prevailed, 31-28, withstanding a Bengals rally from a 31-14 deficit. QB Ken Anderson won the second of his four NFL passing championships, with a 93.9 rating, and he was also named Dodge NFL Man of the Year, an award reflecting both athletic and civic achievement. Attempts to revive the injury-plagued career of iconic QB Greg Cook ended on July 9, when the Bengals allowed Kansas City to claim Cook on waivers. Cook played in preseason for the Chiefs but did not reach the regular season with the club. The Bengals opened preseason with the Hall of Fame game at Canton. Ohio, playing Washington on Aug. 2 on a day when the on-field temperature was estimated at 105, believed to be the hottest conditions ever (through 2023) for any Bengals game. Labor unrest forced the preseason to unfold under another strike threat, but it was averted just before the regular season began. The Bengals defense was strong despite the pre-training camp loss of Pro Bowl DT Mike Reid, who retired at age 26 to pursue a career in music. The last player still with the Bengals from the 1968 expansion draft, G Pat Matson, was traded to Green Bay on Sept. 10. Prior to the season, Paul Brown hired Kim Wood as the first strength coach in team history, citing a need for a thorough year-round conditioning program for players. Wood would serve in the job through 2002.

1976

On Jan. 1, Paul Brown announced his retirement as head coach, while remaining general manager and overall chief executive. Brown had coached 41 seasons at various levels of football, with a career including dominance at the high school level, a national championship at Ohio State, and an AAFC and NFL dynasty with the Cleveland Browns. Brown also led the expansion Bengals into the playoffs in their third season (1970), making them the "youngest franchise" in league history at that time to reach postseason. His overall coaching record was 342-126-15, for a winning percentage of .724. Brown named Bill "Tiger" Johnson, Bengals offensive line coach since the franchise's inception, as his successor as head coach. Johnson led the team to a 10-4 record, tied with Pittsburgh atop the AFC Central, but the Steelers won a tiebreaker (head-to-head sweep) for the division title, and the Bengals lost out to 11-3 New England for what was then a lone AFC Wild Card spot in the playoffs. The Bengals' .714 winning percentage is the highest (through 2022) of any Cincinnati team not to make the playoffs. The Bengals entered the regular-season finale tied with Pittsburgh at 9-4, but the Steelers clinched the playoff spot with a Saturday win against Houston. The Bengals were playing only for pride the following day when they swamped the N.Y. Jets 42-3 in what was to be the last Jets appearance by Hall of Fame QB Joe Namath. The Bengals acquired defensive end Coy Bacon in a March 31 trade with San Diego for WR Charlie Joiner, and Bacon contributed 22.0 sacks, still the team record through 2022, and by a margin of 8.0. The team had a total of 46 sacks, and its average of 3.29 per game still is the franchise record though 2022. Also still a record through 2022 is the 1976 club's average yield of only 15.0 points per game. CB Ken Riley led the AFC with nine INTs. In the first round of the draft, Cincinnati selected HB Archie Griffin, the two-time Heisman Trophy winner from Ohio State, and Griffin went on to play for the Bengals through 1983.

1977

Head coach Bill Johnson posted a second straight winning record (8-6), but the team missed the playoffs, one game behind AFC Central champion Pittsburgh. The Bengals logged a huge win in Game 15, beating Pittsburgh 17-10 in a Saturday afternoon contest at frigid Riverfront Stadium (temperatures hovering between five and 10 degrees). The game left the teams tied for the division lead, and the Bengals were assured of winning a season-end tiebreaker, based on better point differential in their 1-1 season split with the Steelers. But on the final weekend, Pittsburgh won 10-9 over San Diego, and the Bengals fell 21-16 at Houston. The Oilers tied the Bengals' 8-6 record and officially took second place in a tiebreaker, but Houston also missed the postseason. The Bengals rallied into contention after a 2-3 start that included a season-opening loss to underdog Cleveland, the first time the Bengals had lost in a season opener played at home, following six straight wins in that situation. On Nov. 13 at Minnesota, QB Ken Anderson and WR Billy Brooks teamed up for a 94-yard TD pass, which through 2022 still stands as the longest pass play in franchise history. Defensively, the 1977 Bengals set a team record which still stands through 2022 for average number of opponent fumble recoveries per game (1.64, on 23 total FRs). For the NFL, the 1977 season ended the league's 17year run (1961-77) of playing a 14-game regular-season schedule.

1978

The Bengals and the NFL played the first year with a 16-game schedule, and it was a long 16 for Cincinnati. QB Ken Anderson missed the first four games with a broken bone in his right hand, and Bill Johnson resigned as head coach following an 0-5 start. Among the first four games, Cincinnati's losing margins included one point (vs. Kansas City), three points (in overtime at Cleveland) and two points (vs. New Orleans). Johnson was replaced as head coach by Homer Rice, who had joined the staff for '78 as quarterbacks coach. The team dropped to a 1-12 mark before rallying to win the last three games. The Bengals closed the year with a 48-16 rout of Cleveland, a 32-point winning margin that stood until 2015 as Cincinnati's largest in the Battle of Ohio series. Prior to the season, CB Lemar Parrish and DE Coy Bacon were traded to Washington for the Redskins' first-round draft pick in 1979 (used to select RB Charles Alexander). Two Pro Bowlers, TE Bob Trumpy and S Tommy Casanova, retired prior to the season. On July 26, Paul Brown's eldest son, Robin, died of cancer at age 46, and Paul Brown had to cancel plans to be the presenter for Weeb Ewbank at Ewbank's Pro Football Hall of Fame induction. The Ben-Gals cheerleaders were in the news in '78. They attracted considerable new attention, going away from their "malt shop" look to a more revealing uniform, described at the time as "chic, smart and sexy, but not vulgar."

Fullback Pete Johnson powered his way to 15 TDs, a club record at the time (since surpassed). But the team finished 4-12 in its only full season under head coach Homer Rice, who was released the day after the Dec. 16 season finale. The team struggled despite a plus-15 mark in turnover differential (44 takeaways, 29 giveaways). On Dec. 28, Rice was replaced by former Cleveland Browns head coach Forrest Gregg, who resigned as head coach of the CFL Toronto Argonauts to take the job. During the season, controversy flared over the publication of "PB: The Paul Brown Story," an autobiography written by Brown in collaboration with sportswriter Jack Clary. The book included lengthy and explicit criticism of Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell, who had fired Brown as Cleveland head coach after the 1962 season. Modell made a formal complaint to the league office, charging Brown with violating league policy on public criticism of other teams' management. Brown eventually was fined $10,000 by Pete Rozelle, whose appointment as NFL Commissioner in 1960 had been spearheaded by Brown. After paying his fine, Brown told reporters, "I have sent (Rozelle) his check, but I stand by the book as written. His (Rozelle's) action is not based on any judgment on the facts I have presented." Prior to the season, on Jan. 17, the Bengals created the coaching staff's first full-time position in charge of special teams, hiring Frank Gansz. On Nov. 14, after an injury to C Blair Bush, C Bob Johnson was coaxed out of retirement and played the remainder of the season. Johnson was the team's original No. 1 draft pick in 1968, and when he hung up his cleats for good after the '79 season, it marked the final departure of the last player who had been on the inaugural '68 club. On Sept. 23 vs. Houston, Bengal Chris Bahr kicked a 55-yard FG, which would stand alone as longest in franchise history for 33 years.

Forrest Gregg managed only a 6-10 record in his first season as head coach, but he was laying the groundwork for a trip to the Super Bowl the following year. The first building block in that plan was the drafting of Southern California OT Anthony Munoz with the No. 3 overall selection. Munoz, who 18 years later would be a first-ballot Hall-of-Fame inductee, having played his entire career with Cincinnati, was enthusiastically endorsed by Gregg as Cincinnati's top choice. Gregg's deciding moment came when he was accidently knocked to the ground by an errant Munoz forearm while working Munoz out in a supposedly "light-contact" drill on a scouting trip. Gregg himself was a Hall of Fame OT, inducted in 1977. After drafting Munoz, the Bengals endured a high-profile and acrimonious contract negotiation with Munoz agent Mike Trope. But Munoz was signed just before training camp, hyped as "the NFL's first million-dollar offensive tackle," and he started all season at LOT. Gregg instituted notably tougher discipline policies on Bengals players and became the first Cincinnati head coach to insist players wear sport coats and ties on road trips. But on the field, QB Ken Anderson was injury-plagued and wound up splitting time with Jack Thompson on an offense whose 244 total points ranked last in the AFC. Gregg notched two of his wins against defending league champion Pittsburgh, but his club lost twice to eventual AFC Central champ Cleveland, which had fired him as head coach after the 1977 campaign.

The Bengals began the year with a dramatically redesigned uniform, highlighted by their now-signature striped helmets, and they ended the season in the Super Bowl, losing a heartbreaking 26-21 decision to San Francisco. The Bengals were favored in Super Bowl XVI at Pontiac, Mich., but they finished minus-three in turnover differential and fell short in trying to erase a 20-0 halftime deficit. Still, it was a foundational year for Bengals-mania in the Tri-State. Coach Forrest Gregg's second Bengals edition won the AFC Central Division title by four games, with a 12-4 record, and they won home playoff games over Buffalo and San Diego. Cincinnati's 27-7 "Freezer Bowl" AFC Championship win over the Chargers was played in conditions of minus-59 wind chill, still the lowest in NFL history through 2023 (the recorded temperature was minus-nine, still second lowest in league history). Attendance at the Freezer Bowl was 46,302, more than creditable considering the weather, and attendance at the game is such a point of pride among longtime fans, it's said jokingly that more than 10 times that number of 46,302 now claim to have been in the stands. QB Ken Anderson earned NFL Most Valuable Player honors with a league-best and career-high passer rating of 98.4. With 29 $T\bar{D}$ passes and just 10 INTs, Anderson posted a 2.9-to-1 ratio, best in franchise history until 2015. TE Dan Ross and rookie WR Cris Collinsworth had big receiving years. Ross' 71 receptions were a club record at the time (since surpassed). FB Pete Johnson rumbled for a then club-record 1077 rushing yards, with 12 TDs. Future Hall of Fame OT Anthony Munoz played his second season and earned his first of what would be a Bengals-record 11 Pro Bowl berths. Defensively, the front line trio of DEs Ross Browner and Eddie Edwards and DT Wilson Whitley were in the fourth of their five seasons starting together. An outstanding veteran LB corps of Jim LeClair, Reggie Williams, Glenn Cameron and Bo Harris finished 1-4 in tackles. CB Ken Riley, by far the franchise's all-time INT leader, was in the 13th of his 15-season Bengals career. For QB Anderson, getting to his eventual season accolades was no easy journey. The year began with Anderson trade rumors (nothing materialized), and Anderson went through preseason in an open competition with Jack Thompson, the franchise's No. 1 draft pick from 1979. Anderson became sure of the season-opening job only when Thompson became unavailable, due to an injury in the final preseason contest. Anderson fared poorly in the season opener vs. Seattle and was benched in favor of Turk Schonert. But although Schonert was a hero that day, leading a wild come-frombehind win, Anderson was re-installed by Gregg the following week and went on to his memorable season. Cincinnati swooned over rookie WR Collinsworth, who produced the franchise's first 1000-yard receiving season (1009) and displayed a magnetic personality that by year's end infected fans far beyond the Queen City. In December, Collinsworth became the first Bengals player featured on a Sports Illustrated cover. The offense had four Pro Bowlers (Anderson, Collinsworth, Johnson and Munoz), and the special teams had one (P Pat McInally), but the defense had none. Paul Brown was named NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News. Tickets for Super Bowl XVI were only \$40 face value. It was also an historic year for technology in the Bengals organization. On Sept. 25, it was confirmed to media that the club had bought and installed its first office-wide computer system, with "several terminals available for the ticket office and other business needs." As noted above, the new uniforms for 1981 featured tigerstriped helmets, and they made quite a splash. The design was chosen by Paul Brown, who said he wanted the helmet to be "instantly recognizable even from a distance." The bold look sparked debate among fans, and the Cincinnati Enquirer quoted a source from NFL Properties as saying "the design was not our first choice" among several presented to the Bengals. "But," the Enquirer source continued, "these helmets will definitely get recognized." Indeed, they have become iconic, still distinctive among NFL headgear even several decades later.

The Bengals finished a strike-shortened season at 7-2, tied for the secondbest record in the AFC. QB Ken Anderson was at the height of his Cincinnati prowess, winning his fourth NFL passing title (95.3 rating). Anderson still stands through 2023 as the only Bengal to win more than two major NFL season titles of any variety. Anderson's 70.55 completion percentage was an NFL season record at the time, and through '23 it still stands as eighth-best in league history. Anderson also set a Bengals season record for passing yards per game with 277.2 (since surpassed). Isaac Curtis and Cris Collinsworth were in their second year as a Cadillac duo at wide receiver, helping Anderson to his high marks. But a players' strike began after Week 2 and lasted 57 days, until Nov. 17. Games scheduled in Weeks 3-9 wound up being canceled, and Week 10 games were rescheduled for Jan. 2, a week after the regular season had been scheduled to end. They were the first NFL regular-season games not played in the calendar year of the season. The defending AFC champion Bengals split their first two games, and when play resumed after the strike, they established themselves as again one of the top clubs in the conference, winning four straight to stand at 5-1. Cincinnati was 6-1 in its seven post-strike games, the only loss being a memorable 50-34 Monday night shootout at San Diego. In that game, Anderson set a Bengals record for completions (40) which through 2023 still stands tied for most in a game for a Bengals passer, but the Chargers' 661 yards net offense still through 2023 stands as the most ever allowed by the Bengals, and Chargers WR Wes Chandler set a Cincinnati opponents' record (which still stands through 2023) with 260 receiving yards. Buoyed by the previous season's AFC championship and the strong regular-season finish, Bengals fans had high hopes of a second straight Super Bowl appearance as the playoffs began. But in one of the most stunning losses in Bengals history, Cincinnati opened an expanded playoff format by falling 44-17 to the underdog N.Y. Jets at Riverfront Stadium. The Jets' point total stands through 2023 as the most ever in the playoffs against the Bengals, and Freeman McNeil's total of 202 rushing yards also still stands through '23 as a Bengals opponent playoff record. Four Bengals went to the Pro Bowl — Anderson, WR Cris Collinsworth, OT Anthony Munoz and TE Dan Ross. The nine regular-season games played were the fewest in the NFL since 1934, the year before the league adopted standard number of games for all teams. Bengals players were among the first to vote as a team to end the strike, doing so Nov. 11 in a meeting at the club's Spinney Field practice facility.

It was a tumultuous year from start to finish as the Bengals posted a 7-9 record, dropping from the postseason picture after going 19-6 over the previous two regular seasons. In January, the new United States Football League announced that it would begin play in the spring of 1984, and the USFL roiled the '83 offseason by pursuing contracts with NFL players and coaches, including a number of Bengals. G Dave Lapham and TE Dan Ross signed "future contracts" with the new league for 1984, and they would indeed go there, but they played out their Bengals contracts for Cincinnati in '83. The biggest stunner to Cincinnati fans came June 27, when star WR Cris Collinsworth signed a future contract to begin in 1985 with the USFL Tampa Bay Bandits. But over an extended period of angst in Bengals Nation, extending into February 1985, Collinsworth and Bandits owner John Bassett never fully consummated their deal. Collinsworth wound up playing his full pro football career (through 1988) with the Bengals. In July, offensive coordinator Lindy Infante signed a future deal as head coach of the USFL Jacksonville Bulls, and rather than let him coach in Cincinnati under his '83 contract, the Bengals fired him for breach of contract. On June 2, once highly-touted QB Jack Thompson was traded to the Tampa Bay Bucs for a 1984 first-round draft choice. On July 26, Bengals DE Ross Browner and FB Pete Johnson were among the first four NFL players ever suspended by the NFL for illegal drug activity. They missed all of training camp and Games 1-4 of the regular season. The team lost six of its first seven games, and in Game 6, a Monday night Riverfront Stadium visit by Pittsburgh, Steelers DE Keith Gary inflicted a severe neck sprain on QB Ken Anderson, bringing him down with a visually sickening twist of the face mask. Though Gary would in the end be only fined by the NFL (not suspended), the play proved to be key in raising NFL awareness that QBs were often in vulnerable positions and needed more rules protection. "It's fortunate (the play) was on national television," said Paul Brown. "Maybe now it won't be repeated." Anderson missed the next three games. On Nov. 20 vs. Houston, an obscure rookie drafted in the 10th round made his first NFL start, as an injury replacement. The player was Tim Krumrie, who would take over as full-time starter the next season and become one of the best defensive linemen and most admired players in franchise history. The Bengals rallied to finish 6-3 over their last nine games, and coach Forrest Gregg was under contract through 1984. But on Dec. 24, Gregg resigned with the team's blessing to take the head coaching job in Green Bay, where he had played his way into the Hall of Fame as an offensive tackle. On Dec. 29, the Bengals replaced Gregg with Indiana University head coach Sam Wyche, a former Bengals QB who five years later would join Gregg as the only other Bengal coach to take the team to the Super Bowl at the time. Despite their disappointing season, the Bengals led the NFL in total defense under Gregg and coordinator Hank Bullough, allowing only 270.4 yards per game. The performance stands through 2023 as the club's only No. 1 defensive ranking.

Rookie head coach Sam Wyche took the Bengals on a wild ride that ended just short of a playoff berth. The team rose from an 0-5 start to finish 8-8, winning its last four. After routing Buffalo 52-21 in a 1 p.m. ET season finale, the Bengals needed the 11-4 L.A. Raiders to win at home over 8-7 Pittsburgh in a 4 p.m. game. That result would have produced a Bengals-Steelers tie for the AFC Central title, and the Bengals would have been declared champions via tiebreaker. But the Steelers dashed Cincinnati's hopes in a 13-7 win over the Raiders, as Wyche and a number of invited media members watched on television at the coach's home. Wyche juggled his quarterbacks all season, due to injuries and/or coaching decisions. Ken Anderson began and finished the year as No. 1, starting nine games, but rookie Boomer Esiason started four and veteran Turk Schonert started three. Esiason made the first of his eventual 123 Bengals starts on Oct. 7 vs. Houston, in a battle of 0-5 teams. Esiason didn't dazzle, passing for 159 yards with no TDs and two INTs, but the Bengals won 13-3, and Esiason would finish 3-1 in his four starts on the year. Prior to the season, it was a big year for Cincinnati in the trade department. The Bengals entered April holding the No. 1 overall pick in the draft, via their 1983 trade of QB Jack Thompson to Tampa Bay. But with the top prospect, Brigham Young QB Steve Young, having signed with the USFL Los Angeles Express, the Bengals traded the pick on April 5 to New England, gaining the Nos. 16 and 28 spots in round one. The Bengals selected DE Pete Koch of Maryland at No. 16 and G Brian Blados of North Carolina at No. 28. The Patriots used the No. 1 pick on Nebraska WR Irving Fryar. On May 29, the Bengals made arguably the best straight player-for-player trade in franchise history, sending FB Pete Johnson to San Diego for RB James Brooks. Johnson would prove to be on the downside of his career, while Brooks would have a stellar Bengals tenure through 1991. The year 1984 was, and remains through 2023, just the second time in club history for the Bengals to have three first-round draft picks (first year was 1977). With their first overall selection in '84, the Bengals chose LB Ricky Hunley of Arizona, but Hunley became (and remains through 2023) the only Bengals first-rounder never to sign with Cincinnati. Hunley's stalemated contract negotiations lasted into the autumn months, before he eventually was traded on Oct. 9 to Denver for three future selections, two of which brought Cincinnati productive WR Tim McGee (first round 1986) and Pro Bowl S David Fulcher (third round 1986).

The 7-9 Bengals scored 441 points in Sam Wyche's second season as head coach, a club record at the time (since surpassed). But their 437 points allowed also was a record at that point (also since surpassed). Rookie WR Eddie Brown, who had surprisingly been available with the No. 13 pick in the '85 draft, missed the first 18 days of training camp due to contract talks, but he wound up as Associated Press NFL Rookie of the Year after catching 53 passes for 942 yards and eight TDs. Bengals icon Ken Anderson opened the season as the starting QB, but the 15th-year vet was supplanted in Game 3 by second-year pro Boomer Esiason, who went on to pass for 27 TDs and just 12 INTs while posting a 93.2 passer rating. The team rebounded from an 0-3 start to stand 7-7 after a rousing 50-24 win over Dallas, and a playoff berth was clearly within range in an AFC Central Division race in which no team was able to dominate. But in Game 15, the Bengals lost 27-24 at Washington after leading 24-7, and their only hope for the playoffs entering the final weekend was via tiebreaker in a possible threeway deadlock with Pittsburgh and Cleveland. The day before their season finale at New England, they were eliminated — and Čleveland became division champion — when Pittsburgh lost a Saturday game to the N.Y. Giants. Prior to and during the season, the team had a number of high-profile personnel issues. Star WR Cris Collinsworth, who had stunned Cincinnati fans in 1983 by signing a "future contract" with the United States Football League's Tampa Bay Bandits, was to join the Bandits for their 1985 spring season. But after a soap-opera series of "will he go or will he stay?" events, Collinsworth re-signed with Cincinnati on Feb. 27. WR Isaac Curtis, a premier Bengal for 12 years, was released in July and shortly thereafter announced his retirement from pro football. DE Ross Browner went to Houston of the USFL in the spring, but he resigned with Cincinnati in late August. TE Dan Ross, another ex-Bengal who had gone to the USFL, was re-acquired by Cincinnati in late August but was traded to Seattle in October.

The 1986 team was the second Bengals club, and the last one through 2023, to win 10 or more games and not make the playoffs. They lost their chance for a division title when they were bombed 34-3 by eventual champ Cleveland in Game 15 at Riverfront Stadium, but they stayed alive for a Wild Card berth to the very end. After swamping the N.Y. Jets 52-21 on the season's final Sunday, they were set to qualify with a Miami win over visiting New England on Monday night. But as many Bengals players gathered to watch at a popular Cincinnati night spot, the Patriots won 34-27, taking the AFC East title by a game over the Jets and eliminating Cincinnati from postseason. The 10-6 Jets and 10-6 Chiefs took the Wild Card spots over the Bengals via tiebreaker, with better records against AFC foes. In his first full season as Bengals starting QB, Boomer Esiason passed for a then-club-record 3959 yards (since surpassed), and RB James Brooks posted a club record that still stands through 2023 for yards from scrimmage (1773, on 1087 rushing and 686 receiving). LB Reggie Williams won the prestigious NFL Man of the Year award, for his combined football and community efforts. In late July, the NFL completed successful defense of a multimillion-dollar antitrust suit filed by the United States Football League. The courts ruled technically in favor of the USFL, but awarded only a token $1 in damages. "(The suit) could have been catastrophic to the NFL," Bengals assistant GM Mike Brown told reporters. "We are glad to see it end in what we consider a complete victory." In '86, the NFL began the regular use of instant replay officiating and stepped up its drug-testing program, two measures that were supported by the Bengals. After a year of instant replay, however, the Bengals would join a minority of teams that unsuccessfully opposed its continuation.

The Bengals entered the season with big plans, after finishing 10-6 in 1986, but their aspirations were to be dashed. They started 1-1, but the loss was an exceedingly painful one, as Cincinnati lost to San Francisco despite having a lead and the ball with :06 to play. After that loss, the NFL players' union went on strike. Games scheduled for Week 3 were canceled, and the next three games were played primarily by replacement players. Cincinnati went 1-2 in the three "replacement games." The replacement-player strategy led to picketing by Bengals veterans outside the team's practice facility, but replacement ball was effective in breaking the strike. A total of 85 NFL veterans crossed picket lines to play in the first replacement games, and though the Bengals were a stronger union team than many, LB Reggie Williams was among the 85. The flow increased after the first replacement weekend, though the Bengals had only one additional defection from the strike ranks, DE Eddie Edwards. But veterans agreed leaguewide to return for Game 6 and beyond, without a settlement to their labor issues. The "real Bengals," however, could not get it back together again, posting a 2-8 record after their return, for a 4-11 overall team finish. The season ended with widespread speculation that fourth-year head coach Sam Wyche would be replaced, but Bengals general manager Paul Brown announced

Dec. 30 that the club would honor the final year of Wyche's five-year contract. Brown termed the 1987 season "an aberration" for which Wyche should not take the brunt of blame, and looking ahead to 1988, Brown told media, "We have a team with talent, and yours truly does not consider this to be a rebuilding year." Brown and Wyche, of course, were to be vindicated as the Bengals would go on on to win the 1988 AFC Championship. One bright spot from '87 was the first Pro Bowl berth for NT Tim Krumrie, the 10th-round '83 draft choice who had already earned status as a key player and fan favorite. Prior to the '87 campaign, Bengals Nation saw the end of an era, as QB Ken Anderson announced his retirement on June 2. The 1986 season had been Anderson's 16th as a Bengal, a term which still stands through 2023 as the longest in franchise history. Anderson had participated in the team's spring minicamp, but he changed his mind about a 17th season following a late May exam that showed reduced strength in his right (throwing) shoulder. "The doc told me, 'You're starting to wear out a little bit," Anderson said, "and there is life after football. I want to make sure that I can continue to play golf and otherwise enjoy that life."

Snubbed on the NFL's prime-time TV schedule after a 4-11 season, the Bengals staged one of the biggest turnarounds in NFL history, posting a 12-4 record. They clinched the AFC home field advantage for the playoffs, and they won games at Riverfront Stadium over Seattle and Buffalo before losing a dramatic Super Bowl XXIII by 20-16 to San Francisco at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. In the Super Bowl, the Bengals took a 16-13 lead on a 40-yard Jim Breech FG with 3:20 remaining, but the 49ers drove 92 yards in 11 plays to seize victory with 0:34 to play, on a 10-yard pass from Joe Montana to John Taylor. The Bengals suffered two dramatic player losses for the Super Bowl, as troubled FB Stanley Wilson missed the Sunday game due to a Saturday night drug relapse, and Pro Bowl NT Tim Krumrie suffered a broken leg early in the first quarter, with TV cameras catching the fracture in grim detail. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle called Super Bowl XXIII the most exciting to that point in history of the game, which had recently suffered from very lopsided results. (The five previous winners had an average victory margin of 27.6 points). Nine Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl, a club record that still stands through 2023. FB Ickey Woods did not make the Pro Bowl, but in his only full season of a career later derailed by injuries, he rushed for 1066 yards, as well as a club-record 15 rushing TDs which still stands through 2023. His "Ickey Shuffle" dance became an iconic TD celebration nationally and would bring him widespread notice for many years, despite the brevity of his playing career. Sam Wyche, whose continued status as head coach was questioned by many entering the season, was named NFL Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers Association. But the more prestigious coaching award, from Associated Press, went to Mike Ditka of Chicago, whose team lost 28-3 in the NFC Championship game. Cincinnati's two playoff wins were fraught with high-level controversy over Wyche's hurry-up "no huddle" offense. In the Divisional game, Seattle players transparently feigned injuries to buy time for situational defensive substitutions, and that flap, raised to a higher level by comments from Buffalo coach Marv Levy, led the NFL to ban the no-huddle for the AFC Championship game against the Bills. But the Bengals dispatched Buffalo 21-10 without their full bag of tricks, and the NFL later admitted its ban was a mistake. The Bengals were allowed to use the no-huddle in the Super Bowl. In developments prior to the season, the Ben-Gals cheerleading squad was reinstated after a year's absence — "We heard from the fans that they wanted them back," said assistant general manager Mike Brown and LB Reggie Williams on June 16 became the first (and still only through) 2023) Bengal to serve on Cincinnati City Council, appointed by the Charter Party to a seat from which Charterite Arn Bortz had retired. In January of '88, Williams had received the "Sportsman of the Year" award from Sports Illustrated, and he was presented the award by President Reagan in a ceremony at the White House.

The defending AFC champions showed the ability to be among the NFL's most powerful teams, winning games by scores of 41-10, 56-23, 42-7 and 61-7. But injuries and inconsistencies defined the season, and Cincinnati finished 8-8 and out of the playoffs despite outscoring foes by 404-285. The plus-119 point differential stands through 2023 as the biggest plus in NFL history by a team without a winning record. The Bengals had a chance to claim a Wild Card berth in the final game of the league's regular season, a Monday night (Christmas night) match in Minnesota. But the Vikings, needing a win to clinch the NFL Central title, prevailed by 29-21. The Bengals started 4-1 but lost four of their next five. Colorful and controversial head coach Sam Wyche helped keep fans' emotions high as he sparred throughout the season with division rivals Cleveland and Houston. Wyche took repeated issue with rowdy crowd behavior in Cleveland Stadium's "Dawg Pound," and when Bengals fans threw snowballs on the field during a Dec. 10 home game vs. Seattle, Wyche grabbed a public address microphone and scolded the crowd, saying "You don't live in Cleveland, you live in Cincinnati." The next week, in the highest-drama moment of Wyche's long feud with Houston coach Jerry Glanville, Wyche eschewed running out the clock in the final minute despite holding a 58-7 lead over the Oilers. He called for a FG and got a 61-7 conquest, then blasted Glanville as a "phony" in his postgame news conference. Prior to the season, iconic Bengals WR Cris Collinsworth was released in final cuts. On Sept. 17 vs. Pittsburgh, 1988 rookie sensation Ickey Woods suffered a knee injury that would play a big part in shortcircuiting his career. Woods would play only two more partial seasons (1990 and '91). On May 11, the long-troubled saga of Bengals FB Stanley Wilson ended when Wilson was permanently barred from the NFL by Commissioner Pete Rozelle. NFL fans had been shocked in March when Rozelle announced his impending retirement. Rozelle, noted often as the most successful sports commissioner in United States history, had been boosted into the job in 1960 as an unknown compromise candidate supported by the Bengals' Paul Brown. Rozelle was replaced by Paul Tagliabue on Oct. 26. The '89 draft stands through 2023 as the only one in which Cincinnati did not exercise a first-round choice. Slated originally to have the next-to-last selection in round one, the Bengals traded down with Atlanta and made RB Eric Ball their first selection, with the seventh pick of Round 2. LB Reggie Williams retired with the end of the season, his 14th as a Bengal. In November, Williams was elected to Cincinnati City Council, after having already served five months as an appointed replacement to fill a Charter Party vacancy.

The Bengals weathered a season with the only five-game road trip in franchise history, finishing 9-7 and claiming the AFC Central title out of a threeway tie with Houston and Pittsburgh. Cincinnati finished first based on best headto-head record against the other two teams (3-1). Houston earned a Wild Card berth, and Pittsburgh missed postseason, based on the Oilers topping the Steelers in the tiebreaker of record against all AFC opponents. The Bengals had no assurance of making the playoffs entering the season's final day, but they earned the division title by beating Cleveland in an afternoon game, combined with a Houston victory over Pittsburgh that night. The Bengals had stayed in the race in Week 15 by pounding Houston 40-20 at Riverfront Stadium, and they pounded the Oilers again at home in the Wild Card round of the playoffs, prevailing 41-14. Cincinnati was eliminated the next week in the Divisional round at Los Angeles, falling 20-10 to the Raiders. In the L.A. game, Raiders RB Bo Jackson, the dual-sport superstar, suffered a hip injury in the third quarter when tackled by Bengals LB Kevin Walker. Though the tackle looked routine and the injury was not initially considered serious, it proved to be a hip dislocation that ended Jackson's pro football career. He never would play in another NFL game, and in baseball, he would not again appear in as many as 100 games in a season. The Bengals had to play five straight regular-season games on the road because their scheduled Oct. 14 home game against Houston was moved to Houston, due to a stadium conflict with Reds postseason baseball play. The Reds in fact did not wind up playing at home on Oct. 14, but the schedule change had to be made in advance — on the basis of the baseball game being possible — because Riverfront Stadium's baseball/football conversion process was too cumbersome to allow a late decision. The Bengals schedule had called for two road games prior to Oct. 14 and two road games after Oct. 14. The Bengals finished 2-3 on the trip, and their scheduled Dec. 23 game at Houston was moved to Cincinnati. In the second of the five straight road games, a 34-31 overtime win against the L.A. Rams at Anaheim Stadium, Boomer Esiason passed for a team record 490 yards (since surpassed). Esiason passed for only 412 yards before the overtime period, however, leaving Ken Anderson's 447 in 1975 vs. Buffalo as the highest club total in regulation time at the time (since surpassed). Prior to the season, offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet left the Bengals to become head coach of the N.Y. Jets, and in the Sept. 9 regularseason opener, at Riverfront, the Bengals beat the Jets 25-20.

Paul Brown, the Bengals' founder and first head coach, and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died on Aug. 5 at age 82, at his Cincinnati home. The cause of his death was complications from pneumonia. His funeral was held Aug. 7 in his hometown of Massillon, Ohio. Among those in attendance were NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, former commissioner Pete Rozelle, numerous team owners and eight Hall of Famers. Pall bearers included former Bengals Ken Anderson, Reggie Williams and Dave Lapham. As directed by Brown during his final days, the current coaches and players remained at work in training camp at Wilmington, Ohio during the days after Brown's death. But head coach Sam Wyche, a private pilot, flew his own plane from Wilmington to Massillon during a short break in his camp schedule. At the funeral, Pete Rozelle said: "Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in the game of football has been affected by Paul Brown. His wealth of ideas changed the game." Brown's son Mike, a key figure in both bringing the Bengals to Cincinnati and in operating the club, took over as chief executive. The season, a major disappointment at 3-13, would be the eighth and final one for Wyche as Bengals coach. Following a Dec. 24 end-of-season meeting between Wyche and Mike Brown, the team announced that Wyche had unexpectedly resigned. Wyche interpreted events as his being fired, but there was no disagreement that his tenure had ended. On Dec. 27, the Bengals announced that WRs coach Dave Shula was promoted to replace Wyche. Shula, the son of legendary coach Don Shula, became at age 32 the second-youngest head coach in NFL history at the time. (Harland Svare took over the L.A. Rams in 1962 at age 31). Mike Brown and Wyche went on to maintain cordial relations, and a disagreement over compensation for Wyche from his 1992 contract was later settled amicably. Wyche would go on to join the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as head coach from 1992-95. Prior to the season, the NFL announced new guidelines for media locker room access, action that had been sparked in large part by Wyche repeatedly expressing concern over the propriety of having female reporters in the locker room. Though the NFL maintained full access for all reporters, teams were instructed to screen shower areas from view, provide robes or extra-large towels to all players, and provide separate post-game interview areas for head coaches and key players.

In the franchise's 25th anniversary season, the team started 2-0 under new head coach Dave Shula, with wins at Seattle and vs. the L.A. Raiders. And they seemed a lock to go 3-0 the next week against an 0-2 Green Bay team under rookie head coach Mike Holmgren, leading almost all the way. But a little-known Packers QB, Brett Favre, made the first splash of what would become one of the NFL's greatest careers. Favre directed a 21-point fourth quarter for a 24-23 win. A second-year pro at the time, playing in only his fourth game, Favre had come off the bench to replace injured starter Don Majkowski in the first quarter. Favre's two TD passes, including a 35-yarder with 0:13 to play, were the first two of a total that would rise to 508, which through 2023 still ranked No. 4 on the NFL's all-time list. The Green Bay game was the start of a five-game losing streak for Cincinnati, and the team finished 5-11. The year was marked by news involving many of the franchise's biggest names. All-Pro OT Anthony Munoz, with 11 Pro Bowl selections on his resume, was limited to eight games by injuries and announced his retirement prior to playing in the season finale. Another Bengals icon, QB Boomer Esiason, was benched in favor of '92 top draft pick David Klingler after the team fell to 4-7. Esiason asked to be traded as the season ended, and the club said it would try to accommodate him. Early '92 was the end of the line for Ickey Woods, Cincinnati's 1988 rookie RB sensation. Woods had seen some action in '90 and '91, after suffering a season-ending '89 left knee injury, but his '91 year included a significant right knee injury, and he was waived after failing to show well in the '92 spring minicamp. WR Eddie Brown, a standout performer from 1985-91, saw his NFL career essentially ended by a ruptured disc in his neck discovered early in training camp. Brown underwent surgery and missed the season. He gained free agency after the season, but found the market slow and wound up re-signing with the Bengals. He was released in final 1993 preseason cuts and did not play again in the NFL. Through 1991, Brown ranked third in Bengals history in receiving yards (6134) and held club records for receiving yards in a game (216) and a season (1273). Bright spots in '92 included WR Carl Pickens, named Associated Press NFL Rookie of the Year, and RB Harold Green, whose 1170 rushing yards were second-most in club history to that point. After the season finale, the Bengals hired team QB legend Ken Anderson as QBs coach. In the Game 3 loss at Green Bay, Bengals rookie Pickens turned in a 95-yard punt return for a TD, the longest punt return through 2023 in Bengals history.

The difficult road toward the eventual 2000 completion of Paul Brown Stadium began in earnest in November of '93. At that time, Bengals president Mike Brown, with support from NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, sounded the call that Riverfront Stadium had become economically obsolete in the changing world of pro football. Brown warned that absent real progress on improving the Bengals' stadium situation, the club might be forced to consider moving. The first step toward a solution came in December, when the club agreed to stay at least through 1998, in exchange for a deal to partially renovate Riverfront and amend the team's lease. It was also stated that civic leaders would explore construction of a new stadium by the "early 2000s." The Bengals played their first season since 1984 without QB Boomer Esiason, who was traded to the N.Y. Jets in March for a third-round 1993 draft pick. David Klingler, Cincinnati's first-round 1992 selection, had taken over at QB at the end of 1992. Klingler directed lateseason victories in '93 over the Rams and Falcons, but the bottom line was a 3-13 finish. Klingler had missed three games at midseason, due to back problems, but veteran backup Jay Schroeder had been unable to right the ship. Through 2023, the '93 season still stood as the most defense-dominated in Bengals history, with Cincinnati and its foes averaged total combined points of only 31.6 per game. Preseason cuts had seen the Bengals release longtime kicker Jim Breech in favor of rookie Doug Pelfrey of Kentucky, a Greater Cincinnati native (Fort Thomas, Ky.) who would play for the team through 1999. Breech through 2023 still is Cincinnati's all-time leading scorer (1151). Breech started his Bengals career in 1980, after one season with Oakland, and through 2023 he ranks fifth in NFL history in consecutive games played scoring at least one point (186). Changing public attitudes on smoking impacted Bengals fans in April, as Cincinnati City Council enacted a ban on smoking in seating areas at Riverfront Stadium, to take effect in 1994.

A shot of "Blake-mania" livened a 3-13 overall season. Due to injuries to QBs David Klingler and Donald Hollas, late-August waiver pickup Jeff Blake got a chance to start on Oct. 30 against Dallas, the two-time defending Super Bowl champions. Blake couldn't engineer the season's first win, but he threw for two TDs and had the Bengals up 20-17 until late in the third guarter of an eventual 23-20 loss. Blake went on to lead wins the next two weeks, at Seattle and vs. Houston. He remained the starter despite Klingler's return to health, and finished the year as a huge fan favorite, leading the NFL in pass completions of 50 or more yards (eight). In a nationally televised Oct. 2 Sunday night game at Riverfront, Miami's Don Shula and Cincinnati's Dave Shula became the first father and son to oppose one another as head coaches in North American major pro sports. The Dolphins won, 23-7. The Bengals closed the season with a unique comeback, beating Philadelphia 33-30 when Doug Pelfrey kicked two FGs in the last :03 of the fourth quarter. He connected from 22 yards at :03 to tie the score, then kicked a 54-yarder at :01, after the Bengals kickoff team recovered an Eagles muff at the Philadelphia 37. Though there is no official NFL record for multiple FGs in the waning seconds of a game, the Elias Sports Bureau confirms that from 1970 through 2023, no other player has kicked two in the last :03. On May 5, the Bengals signed Ohio State DT Dan Wilkinson, the first overall pick in the '94 draft. At the time, Wilkinson was the first player ever drafted No. 1 overall by the Bengals (later joined in 1995 by RB Ki-Jana Carter, in 2003 by QB Carson Palmer and 2020 by Joe Burrow). In December, fan favorite Tim Krumrie, a two-time Pro Bowler, announced his retirement, effective at season's end. Krumrie was honored by the team at the regular-season finale, and shortly after the season he was hired to the coaching staff. He served as a defensive assistant in 1995 and was promoted to defensive line coach in 1996. The two-point conversion was added to NFL rules prior to the '94 season, with the Bengals among 23 teams voting in favor, and in the first preseason game, when Cincinnati played against Tampa Bay and former head coach Sam Wyche, a Buccaneers two-point conversion was the deciding play in a 17-16 Tampa Bay win. Much debate and some controversy continued through the year as the Bengals and baseball's Reds negotiated with Cincinnati leaders about the need for a new stadium, or even two. As co-tenants with the Bengals at Riverfront, the Reds balked at parts of an agreement the Bengals had reached in 1993 for interim improvements at Riverfront, and in an attempt to resolve issues, a city/county Stadium Task Force was formed, led by Cincinnati mayor Roxanne Qualls and Hamilton County Commission president Guy Guckenberger. The Bengals meanwhile agreed to share the cost of major improvements to Spinney Field, the team's city-owned practice facility.

The Bengals were alive in the playoff race through Game 14, but were eliminated in a 26-10 loss at Cleveland in Game 15. The Dec. 17 Browns game was the last home game for Cleveland prior to the franchise's controversial move to Baltimore. The Bengals' 7-9 finish included a 2-0 start and wins in four of the last seven games, but Cincinnati lost six of seven in a midseason stretch, including a 26-23 home loss to Miami in "Shula Bowl II," as Bengals head coach

Dave Shula opposed his father, Don, for the second straight year. The Bengals closed the season by erasing a 21-point deficit in a 27-24 win vs. Minnesota, tying the largest comeback to win in club history. Jeff Blake held serve on the No. 1 QB job he had gained in 1994, keeping David Klingler in a backup role, and both Blake and WR Carl Pickens earned Pro Bowl berths. Pickens set a franchise single-season record for TDs (17, all receiving) which still stands through 2023 (and in receiving TDs only, no other Bengals player through '23 has had more than 13). The Bengals had retained Pickens for 1995 by matching a free agency offer he received from Arizona. The Bengals suffered a severe blow in preseason game three on Aug. 17 at Detroit, as RB Ki-Jana Carter of Penn State, the top overall pick in the '95 draft, was lost for the season to a severe knee injury. Carter, who had missed the first two preseason games with an ankle sprain, was lost at Detroit on his third Cincinnati carry. The Bengals had traded with Carolina to gain Carter as an offensive centerpiece, moving up in the first round for the first time in franchise history. Carter would come back to play seven NFL seasons, four of those for Cincinnati, but he never matched his college form at the pro level and closed with only 1144 career rushing yards. The year of 1995 was filled with issues regarding the Bengals' need for a new stadium. A lack of progress on the local front led club president Mike Brown to explore the possibility of a move to Baltimore, pressed by a deadline on Baltimore's end. But Brown repeatedly professed he had no desire to move the team unless forced to by an untenable local situation. On June 28, just minutes before a Bengals-set deadline, Cincinnati City Council voted 5-4 to approve a Hamilton County plan from Commissioner Bob Bedinghaus to raise the county sales tax by one percent to fund two new stadiums. In the end that proposal was scaled down to a one-half percent hike, funding stadiums and also providing homeowners with property tax relief. But after the County Commission voted to implement the tax, forces opposed to the increase successfully petitioned to make approval subject to a public referendum to be held in March of 1996. In October, Mike Brown announced that the Bengals for 1996 would move most of their front-office operation from Riverfront Stadium to the team's new practice facility building at Spinney Field.

Progress continued to be forged on the Bengals' efforts to secure their future in Cincinnati with a new stadium. The biggest step came on March 19, when Hamilton County voters approved by 61-to-39 percent a measure to fund new Bengals and Reds stadiums with a half-cent sales tax increase. The vote came after vigorous public debate, and the Cincinnati Post termed it a "landslide victory" for backers of the issue. On Sept. 10, the Bengals reached preliminary agreement with Hamilton County on a 30-year lease, for an as-yet unnamed and un-sited stadium. The Bengals pushed vigorously for a riverfront site, opposing proposals to build in the Broadway Commons area just northeast of downtown. Both public polls and experts' recommendations indicated a preference for a riverfront site, but the question remained undecided as the year ended. The new stadium's name also remained undecided, but early public response showed strong support for naming it after Bengals founder Paul Brown. On Sept. 9, Riverfront Stadium was re-named Cinergy Field, as the energy utility Cinergy reached a $6 million naming rights deal with Hamilton County to cover the stadium's remaining years of use. On the field, the team lost six of its first seven games, but Cincinnati's fortunes took a U-turn after offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet was promoted to head coach on Oct. 21, replacing the released Dave Shula. Coslet directed the team to a 7-2 finish, including a 5-0 mark at Cinergy Field. The Bengals stayed alive for the playoffs until the next-to-last week of the season, when despite defeating Houston they were eliminated due to results elsewhere. Coslet, signed only through '96 when he took over as head coach, was extended on Dec. 14 through 2000. A signature win for Coslet came Nov. 3 at Baltimore, when the Bengals rallied from a 21-3 deficit to win 24-21. At the time, the 18-point deficit was the largest ever overcome by the Bengals in a road win (since tied). WR Carl Pickens, who in 1995 had become the first Bengal to lead the AFC in receptions, led the conference again with 100, the first Bengal to hit the century mark. The defense had 34 INTs, a club record that stands through 2023. CB Ashley Ambrose, a veteran free agent in his first Bengals season, led the team with eight INTs and went to the Pro Bowl along with Pickens.

On Feb. 13, the Bengals and Hamilton County reached tentative agreement on a western riverfront site for a new football stadium. The Bengals yielded to County wishes for a site one block farther west than the club's preferred spot, supporting the goal of opening central riverfront space for development of other attractions and neighborhoods between a football and a baseball stadium

(though the baseball site had yet to be agreed upon.). A drawback for the development of the more western football site was that some of the needed land was not owned by the county, and that would lead to future delays, as well as higher costs than the Bengals' preferred site. On May 29, the 30-year Bengals lease was completed and signed. It was announced on May 29 that the facility would be named Paul Brown Stadium, with the Bengals agreeing to cover $5 million for the loss of potential corporate naming rights. On April 29, the Bengals received a favorable ruling in a tax case that had threatened the viability of the franchise. In United States Tax Court in Chicago, Judge John O. Colvin ruled that the heirs of the late Paul Brown were not liable for $40 million sought by the Internal Revenue Service, due to a dispute over Paul Brown's acquisition of team shares held formerly by John Sawyer. The Cincinnati Enquirer editorial page opined that the Bengals had been spared an unfair "ambush by the IRS." The football team opened training camp in a state-of-the-art new facility at Georgetown (Ky.) College, after 29 seasons of training at Wilmington (Ohio) College. On April 5, the Bengals had re-signed QB Boomer Esiason as a veteran No. 2 to back up Jeff Blake. Esiason had gone on to play for the Jets and Cardinals since playing for the Bengals from 1984-92. The team was struggling with a 2-7 record on Nov. 9 at Indianapolis when Blake was sidelined with a concussion, and the 36-year-old Esiason entered the game in the third quarter and led a comeback victory. The Bengals lost the next week at Pittsburgh with Blake as the starter, and Esiason was named starter for the final five games. The Bengals were 4-1 in his starts, and they scored 42 points in the start he lost. Esiason did not have enough pass attempts to qualify for a Bengals-record season passer rating, or for the NFL passing title, but he finished the season with a 106.9 rating. The team finished the season 7-9. It was the last Bengals hurrah for Esiason, who retired after the season to take a broadcasting job with ABC's Monday Night Football. The '97 season saw the debut of HB Corey Dillon, a second-round draft choice who stands through 2023 as the club's all-time leading rusher (8061 yards). On Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee at Cinergy Field, Dillon rushed for 246 yards and four TDs, breaking Jim Brown's 40-year-old NFL record of 237 yards for rushing yards in a game by a rookie (since surpassed). Dillon's Oilers performance also included tying Bengals records for most TDs and most points in a game with four and 24 respectively (both since surpassed).

On Jan. 24, Bengals OT Anthony Munoz (1980-92) was voted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Munoz was part of a five-member induction class, and he and Chicago Bears LB Mike Singletary became the 47th and 48th players among the then-194 members to be elected in their first year of eligibility. The official induction ceremony took place Aug. 1, at the Hall in Canton, Ohio. NFL labor events had led to Munoz gaining free agent status after announcing his retirement following the 1992 season, and he had signed with Tampa Bay (and his former Bengals head coach, Sam Wyche) as a free agent in '93. But Munoz gave up the comeback bid after suffering a shoulder injury in training camp, and because he was not with the Bucs in the regular season, he is recognized in the Hall as having played only for the Bengals. Plans for the Bengals' new stadium hit a serious snag in January of '98, due to a dispute between Hamilton County and the city over the county acquiring 12.5 acres of city land that it needed to build at its preferred western riverfront site. As the stalemate dragged on, the Bengals announced that if no agreement was reached by Jan. 31, the club would no longer be bound by the lease it had signed in spring of 1997. Tension continued to build until, at 1:15 a.m. on Feb. 1, City Council forged a past-the-11th-hour agreement to accept a county proposal. On April 25, officials from the county, city and the Bengals joined in a public groundbreaking for Paul Brown Stadium construction, with plans for the facility to be ready for the 2000 season. The news on the field was not so encouraging, as the team dipped to 3-13 in its second full season under head coach Bruce Coslet. QB Boomer Esiason, who had a sensational late-season return to the starting job in 1997, after four seasons playing elsewhere, announced prior to the season that he was retiring to join ABC's Monday Night Football as a broadcaster. The Bengals signed former Steeler Neil O'Donnell to compete with Jeff Blake for the starting QB job. O'Donnell won the job in training camp, but the team lost nine straight after beating Pittsburgh in Game 5. Blake started Games 14 and 15 before being injured, and the season ended with no clear starter in sight for 1999. HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1130 yards, becoming the first Bengal (and still through 2023 the only Bengal) to top 1000 rushing yards in each of his first two Cincinnati seasons. In the season opener vs. Tennessee, injury-plagued HB Ki-Jana Carter, top overall pick in the 1995 draft, suffered a season-ending wrist fracture. DT Dan Wilkinson, drafted No. 1 overall by the Bengals in 1994, saw a rather stormy Cincinnati career end prior to the season, when he was traded to Washington for first- and third-rounds picks in the '98 draft. The Bengals used the picks to obtain LB Brian Simmons (first round) and G Mike Goff (third round).

1999

For the first year since the idea's original proposal in 1993, plans for the Bengals' new stadium proceeded with only minor issues. The rise of the seating bowl of Paul Brown Stadium was watched by citizens throughout the year. However, past issues — particularly a delay in Hamilton County's acquisition of needed land from the city — put construction on a very tight schedule to meet the goal of an August, 2000, inaugural game. On the field in '99, veteran Jeff Blake and rookie first-round draft choice Akili Smith would end up sharing QB duties during a 4-12 season. Blake was benched after an 0-4 start, and Smith started and won his NFL debut, 18-17 on Oct. 10 at Cleveland. The game marked the renewal of the "Battle of Ohio" series, as the Browns returned to play as an expansion team. Cleveland had spent three years without NFL football after the Browns moved to Baltimore for the 1996 season. The Bengals did not win again until Game 12, however, and Smith suffered a season-ending ankle injury in Game 9 vs. Jacksonville. Blake engineered three straight wins in Games 12-14, but the team lost the final two. HB Corev Dillon rushed for 1200 yards and went to the Pro Bowl along with KOR Tremain Mack, whose 27.1-yard average set a new team record (since surpassed).

2000

The Paul Brown Stadium era began on Aug. 19, as the Bengals christened Cincinnati's new football showplace with a 24-20 preseason win over the Chicago Bears. WR Peter Warrick scored the first Bengals preseason points in PBS on a 14-yard end-around run in the first quarter. The stadium's Grand Opening regular-season game was played Sept. 10 vs. Cleveland, in front of a then-record Cincinnati sports crowd of 64,006 (since broken by many other Bengals games). The Browns won, 24-7. Rookie WR Ron Dugans scored the first Bengals regular-season points in PBS on a four-yard TD pass from Akili Smith. The '00 Bengals drew four other crowds which exceeded the pre-PBS record for a sports crowd in Cincinnati, but the Browns game stood as the new record at year's end (since surpassed). On Sept. 25, following an 0-3 start to the season, Bruce Coslet resigned as head coach and was replaced by assistant head coach/defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau, who was named interim head coach. The team finished 4-9 under LeBeau, including 4-6 in the final 10 games and a 2-2 mark in the final four. On Dec. 20, LeBeau signed a multi-year contract to begin in 2001. LeBeau's first victory, on Oct. 22 vs. Denver, featured a then NFL-record (since broken) of 278 rushing yards by Corey Dillon, who went on to set a Bengals record (since broken) of 1435 yards for the season, earning his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl. Against Denver, Dillon broke a 1977 record of 275 yards set by Chicago's Walter Payton. It was an all-or-nothing day for Dillon, as he was stopped on 10 of his 22 carries for one or fewer yards, but he had five runs of 30-plus, including TD runs of 65 and 41 yards. "It seemed like a high school game," Dillon said of his numbers. Dillon's 278 stood as the NFL record until Sept. 14, 2003, when Baltimore's Jamal Lewis had a 295-yard game vs. Cleveland, and Dillon's total now ranks fourth in league history (through 2023). The Denver game was Cincinnati's first regular-season win at Paul Brown Stadium. Akili Smith opened the year as starting QB, but the offense stalled, and he was replaced after a Nov. 5 loss at Dallas by veteran 2000 free agent signee Scott Mitchell. Prior to the season, the Bengals on June 1 released HB Ki-Jana Carter, their injury-plagued 1995 top draft pick. On July 20, Cincinnati released WR Carl Pickens. Pickens' departure had left Darnay Scott as the No. 1 wideout, but Scott suffered a broken leg in training camp and missed the entire season.

The Bengals got off to a 4-3 start in Dick LeBeau's first full season as head coach, but they did not win again until the final two games, finishing 6-10. The defense finished No. 9 in the NFL, but the offense ranked 23rd. The early season was played amidst the tragedy of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks in New York and Washington, D.C. All of the NFL's Week 2 games, scheduled for Sept. 16-17, were postponed until the first weekend in January, the weekend after the regular season had been scheduled to end. The Bengals resumed play on Sept. 23, moving to 2-0 with a win over Baltimore at Paul Brown Stadium, and by that time stadium security procedures had been strengthened, including a ban on "coolers, backpacks and oversize purses." Also, the Federal Aviation Administration moved to ban aircraft from operating within three miles of outdoor venues with events in progress. Free agent signee Jon Kitna took over as the starting QB, winning a training camp battle with Scott Mitchell and Akili Smith. The '01 season featured the Bengals' first visit to Pittsburgh's new Heinz Field, on Oct. 7.

On Oct. 28 at Detroit, a 31-27 Bengals win featured a 96-yard TD run by HB Corey Dillon, which stands through 2023 as the longest play from scrimmage in Bengals history. The '01 season was the first for flamboyant WR Chad Johnson, who through 2023 is Cincinnati's all-time leader in receptions (751), receiving yards (10,783) and receiving TDs (66). Johnson, a second-round draft pick from Oregon State, put up only modest rookie numbers, missing four games with a collarbone fracture, but he publicly pleaded with coaches and medical staff to let him come back sooner from the injury, and he promised, "I'm going to make a lot of noise here early."

The Bengals began the season in a new division, the AFC North, as the NFL realigned into eight four-team divisions. The Bengals were successful in efforts to keep longtime rivals Cleveland and Pittsburgh as division foes, and the Baltimore Ravens completed the four-team lineup. The Bengals entered the season after an encouraging 2001 finish. But despite some noteworthy individual performances, the team sunk to the worst record (2-14) in franchise history. The team was hit hard by injuries, losing the league's second-highest number of games by starters. The offense got off to a very slow start with free agent signee Gus Frerotte at QB. The offense perked up noticeably after the 2001 starter, Jon Kitna, returned to the No. 1 QB role. For the first time since 1989, Cincinnati had a 3000-yard passer (Kitna), a 1000-yard rusher (Corey Dillon) and a 1000-yard receiver (Chad Johnson). On Nov. 10 at Baltimore, Johnson had the first of his 31 games of 100 receiving yards, second-most in team history (seven catches, 110 yards). On Oct. 27 vs. Tennessee, Dillon raised his Bengals career rushing total to 6542 yards, passing James Brooks (6447) into the all-time franchise lead that he still holds through 2023 with 8061 yards. The Bengals set a then team record (since broken) for pass completions with 350. But the team was 0-7 before getting a win at expansion Houston. The defense was inconsistent, and with nine TDs allowed on special teams or by the offense, the Bengals as a team allowed the second-most points (456) in club history. On Dec. 30, it was announced that head coach Dick LeBeau would not be retained for 2003.

2003

The Bengals launched a new era on Jan. 14, when Marvin Lewis was hired as the ninth head coach in franchise history. "We've turned over a new leaf," said Bengals president Mike Brown. Lewis went on to coach a franchise-record 16 seasons with the Bengals and became the team's all-time leader in wins (131). At the time of his hiring, Lewis was the eighth African-American to be named an NFL head coach. Architect of the Baltimore Ravens' record-setting Super Bowl defense in 2000, Lewis received a broad mandate from Bengals ownership to implement his program, and the team finished 8-8, six games better than the 2-14 Bengals of 2002. Though the Bengals missed the playoffs — eliminated on the final weekend of the season — their six-game improvement was the biggest of any NFL team from '02 to '03. It was also the second-biggest one-year improvement in Bengals history. Lewis finished second to Bill Belichick, coach of the World Champion New England Patriots, in Associated Press voting for NFL Coach of the Year. The season included the four largest pro sports crowds in Cincinnati history (to that time), topped by 65,362 on Dec. 28 vs. Cleveland, and the highlight game was a 24-19 win on Nov. 16 over an unbeaten (9-0) Kansas City team. The Chiefs game started what would be a Bengals-record streak of 57 consecutive home sellouts in regular season and postseason. WR Chad Johnson, who led the AFC with 1355 receiving yards, signed a five-year contract extension in November. Prior to the season, the Bengals had the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft for the third time in team history, and the club chose Southern California QB Carson Palmer. Palmer was signed on April 24, just before the actual draft, as the Bengals took the option to execute an early signing. Palmer did not play as a rookie, as veteran Jon Kitna was the only NFL QB to play every offensive snap for his team, but Palmer would go on to set numerous Bengals passing records, beginning his playing career in 2004. QB Akili Smith, an unsuccessful first-round QB choice in 1999, was released on June 2. In an ironic twist for longtime Bengals followers, the club prior to the season hired Ricky Hunley as LBs coach. Hunley was a Bengals first-round draft choice as a player (LB) in 1984, but he never signed with Cincinnati, staging the longest holdout in team history before being traded to Denver on Oct. 9, 1984.

2004

In their second season under head coach Marvin Lewis, the Bengals continued their rebuilding process, posting a second straight 8-8 record. All eight regular-season games at Paul Brown Stadium were sellouts — the first sold-out regular season since 1992 at Riverfront Stadium — and the total regular-season attendance of 524,248 put the team over the half-million mark for the first time. The team's break-even finish was a creditable performance, given that injuries were severe (18 players were placed on season-ending medical reserve lists) and that second-year QB Carson Palmer was seeing his first NFL playing time. Palmer, the 2003 first overall NFL draft pick, had not played as a rookie while backing up Jon Kitna. Palmer started the first 13 games before missing the final three with a knee strain. HB Rudi Johnson rushed for a then club-record 1454 yards (a mark he broke the following season), and the team had four players named to the Pro Bowl, its highest total since 1990. The Pro Bowl quartet was Rudi Johnson, WR Chad Johnson, OT Willie Anderson and CB Tory James. K Shayne Graham set a then club record (since broken) with 122 points. Home games were played on a new, synthetic FieldTurf surface, on which installation was complete in early July. PBS had grass fields from 2000-03, but durability and maintenance issues dictated a switch. The team also made its first significant uniform change since 1981. The signature striped helmet was not changed, but the jersey design was modernized, black pants were added as a regular option to white pants, and a special-occasion orange jersey was added for up to two games per year. The team wore orange jerseys for the first time in franchise history in a 26-3 win vs. Dallas on Nov. 7. On Nov. 28, the Bengals played in what remains through 2023 as the second-highest scoring game in NFL history, a 58-48 home win over Cleveland (106 total points). The game stands through 2022 as the only one in which the Bengals have scored in double figures in all four quarters (14-13-14-17). Prior to the season, HB Corey Dillon, the club's all-time rushing yards leader, was traded to New England for a second-round 2005 draft choice (Bengals chose S Madieu Williams).

In head coach Marvin Lewis' third season, the Bengals returned to the playoffs, winning the AFC North Division title with an 11-5 record. But Cincinnati lost 31-17 to Pittsburgh in a Wild Card round playoff game, the first postseason game at Paul Brown Stadium, and QB Carson Palmer's postseason was regrettably short. Palmer, who posted a 101.1 regular-season passer rating, a Bengals record at the time (since broken), was lost to a serious knee injury on the club's second offensive snap in the playoff game, downed by former Bengal Kimo von Oelhoffen. On the play, Palmer had launched a 66-yard completion to WR Chris Henry. In the regular season, the team won its first four games, including an 88-29 point margin in the first three. The Bengals clinched the division title in Game 14, with a 41-17 victory at Detroit. A number of club individual single-season records were set, including two that still stand through 2023 — 1458 rushing yards by HB Rudi Johnson and 10 INTs by CB Deltha O'Neal. Five Bengals were voted to the Pro Bowl, the largest Cincinnati contingent since the 1989 team placed six. The five were Palmer, O'Neal, OT Willie Anderson, K Shayne Graham and WR Chad Johnson. The season's home crowds included the top four attendance figures in franchise history to that time (all since surpassed), headed by 66,104 for the Bengals-Steelers game on Oct. 23. Two notable Bengals "voices" passed away in '05. Phil Samp, the team's radio play-by-play man from 1968-90, died on March 10, and Tom Kinder Sr., the stadium public address announcer from 1968-2004, died on April 10.

For the first time since 1992, the Bengals sold out all games before the season began, and a waiting list was established for new season ticket buyers. The regular-season attendance mark was 527,870, for an average of 65,984, and both the total and the average stood as club records through 2020, prior to the NFL expanding the regular season to 17 games. Also prior to the season, it was also announced that head coach Marvin Lewis had signed a contract extension through 2010. Lewis completed his fourth season by joining Paul Brown as the only Bengals head coaches to go four straight seasons without a losing record, but though the team remained in contention until the final weekend, it missed the '06 playoffs with an 8-8 mark. The Bengals lost their last three games after standing 8-5. A win in either of the two final games could have secured a playoff berth, but Cincinnati lost 24-23 in Game 15 at Denver when an errant PAT snap foiled a chance to force overtime, and the Bengals lost the season finale in overtime vs. Pittsburgh, after record-setting K Shayne Graham missed a 39-yard FG try on the final play of regulation. QB Carson Palmer, sidelined with a major knee injury in the 2005 postseason, made good on his bid to play the full 2006 regular season, starting every game. He set a then club record (since broken) with 4035 passing yards, and he boldfaced his status as the cornerstone of the roster by winning the Most Valuable Player Award in the Pro Bowl on Feb. 10, 2007. He stands through 2023 as the only Bengal to win the award. The season was a particularly notable one for flamboyant WR Chad Johnson. In March, NFL owners voted to clamp down on player end-zone celebrations, an art that Johnson had been increasingly expanding in production value. In April, Johnson was signed to a contract extension through 2011. He was featured on a Sports Illustrated cover in October, and for the season he became the only Bengal (through 2023) to lead the NFL in receiving yards, with 1369. Johnson set a then Bengals single-game record (since broken) with 260 receiving yards on Nov. 12 vs. San Diego, and with 190 the next week at New Orleans, he set a then NFL record for receiving yards in consecutive games (450). Also in '06, Johnson became the first player to lead the AFC or NFC in receiving yards for a fourth consecutive season. In February, federal judge S. Arthur Spiegel dismissed a Hamilton County lawsuit against the Bengals regarding the Paul Brown Stadium lease, ending two years of legal disputes. In March, the Bengals and Buffalo Bills were the only NFL teams to vote against a new Collective Bargaining Agreement with the players, deeming it unsound, and as time would pass, numerous owners and analysts would in hindsight praise the Cincinnati-Buffalo stance. The 2006 agreement, in some views, ultimately led to the conditions that caused a lockout of players from March through July of 2011. The Bengals in '06 were among a number of teams responding to concerns about rowdy fan behavior at NFL games. The club installed and staffed a "Jerk Line" that fans could call during games to report problems. LB David Pollack, Cincinnati's top draft choice in 2005, suffered what would prove to be a careerending neck fracture in the home opener vs. Cleveland. Pollack was never paralyzed and made a full recovery, but after some consideration of a comeback, he ultimately decided against it and moved into a successful career as a sports broadcaster.

In a Harris Interactive survey released in February, Paul Brown Stadium was the only football stadium to make a list of "America's Favorite 150 Buildings and Structures." PBS ranked 101st on the list, whose range included all manner of major structures, including skyscrapers, museums, churches, hotels and even bridges. (The Empire State Building ranked first). Among all sports venues, only Wrigley Field (31) and the old Yankee Stadium (84) ranked higher than PBS. For the second straight season, the Bengals sold out all games before the season began. The team entered the season with high expectations, with its first two home games selected for ESPN Monday Night Football. But the season's first half ended with a disappointing 2-6 record, and a second-half rally lifted the club only to 7-9, the first losing season for head coach Marvin Lewis. WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh tied for the league receptions title (112), becoming the only Bengal ever to gain a share of the league lead, and setting a Bengals record which still stands through 2023. WR Chad Johnson broke his own team receiving yards record (since broken) with 1440, and K Shayne Graham set two records which still stand through 2023 — season field-goal percentage (91.2 on 31-of-34) and FGs in a game (seven). Graham was seven-for-seven on Nov. 11 at Baltimore, scoring all of Cincinnati's points in a 21-7 win. On Sept. 16 at Cleveland, QB Carson Palmer set a Bengals game record (still standing through 2023) with six TD passes, but the Bengals lost in a 51-45 shootout to the underdog Browns, starting a four-game losing streak that followed a season opening Monday night win vs. Baltimore. On Oct. 28 vs. Pittsburgh, the team established a then franchise record for single-game attendance, a figure of 66,188 — a mark which still stands through 2023 as the 10th highest figure on the Bengals' all-time single-game list.

With a club-record 23 players sent to the Reserve/Injured list, the Bengals struggled to a 4-11-1 finish. And that list of 23 did not include the biggest missing name, QB Carson Palmer, who stayed on the roster all season but played in only four games due to an elbow injury. Ryan Fitzpatrick replaced Palmer at QB. The team partly salvaged the season, going 4-3-1 in the campaign's second half, but that was after an 0-8 start. Though the offense was near record lows in many statistical categories, the defense was promising under new coordinator Mike Zimmer, rising to a No. 12 NFL yardage ranking, the team's best since 2001. For the third straight year, all home games were declared sold out before the season began. The Bengals' 13-13 tie on Nov. 16 vs. Philadelphia was the NFL's first deadlock since 2002, and some players on both teams would admit that they had been expecting the contest to continue when the 15-minute overtime ended scoreless, not realizing that NFL games still could end in ties. It was the first overtime tie in Bengals history. The Bengals had played one other tie previously, at Houston in 1969, but that game went just the regulation four quarters, as overtime was not yet in the rules. On Aug. 29, star WR Chad Johnson legally changed his name to Chad Ochocinco, a Spanish reference to his uniform number (85). But he was not permitted to have the new name on his jersey until 2009, after he had fulfilled contractual obligations regarding the purchase of existing licensed "Johnson" merchandise. In 2012, while with the Miami Dolphins, Ochocinco would change his name back to Johnson, and the league subsequently determined that in all future references in league material, the player would be known as Johnson, regardless of the year involved. The 2008 preseason ended with dramatic final cuts, as those released included three Bengals with six Pro Bowls among them — OT Willie Anderson, HB Rudi Johnson and CB Deltha O'Neal. On May 19, the Bengals waived talented but troubled LB Odell Thurman, who had been a rookie sensation in 2005. Thurman had not played in 2006 or '07, suspended by the NFL for various behavior issues, and on May 19 Bengals coach Marvin Lewis said the team "had not seen the right steps taken" by Thurman to justify another chance to play for Cincinnati. Thurman would not play again anywhere in the NFL.

Rebounding from the disappointment of injury-plagued 2008, the Bengals won their second division championship under coach Marvin Lewis, finishing with a 10-6 record. Their march to the AFC North title included a 6-0 mark in division games, marking the only time in franchise history (through 2023) for Cincinnati to sweep its division opponents. The Bengals were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, however, losing 24-14 to the visiting N.Y. Jets, who went on to reach the AFC Championship Game. The Bengals weathered tragedy en route to the title. On Oct. 8, Vikki Zimmer, wife for 27 years to Bengals defensive coordinator Mike Zimmer, died unexpectedly in Cincinnati. And on Dec. 17, WR Chris Henry died in North Carolina from injuries suffered in a Dec. 16 fall from a moving pickup truck. Henry was not with the team at the time, recuperating from a forearm fracture suffered Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore. The Bengals chartered a plane for the entire team to attend Henry's funeral in New Orleans on Dec. 22, and NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell also attended. On the field in '09, the Bengals were led by their defense, which continued rapid improvement under coordinator Zimmer. The Bengals finished fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (301.4 per game). The team suffered a stunning home loss to Denver in the season opener, on a wildly improbable late play, but Cincinnati rebounded to win its next four. The Bengals led Denver 7-6 with less than a minute left, but the Broncos won 12-7 on an 87-yard TD pass that was deflected by the Bengals defense to Denver's Brandon Stokley, who was not the intended receiver. The play stands through 2023 as the NFL's longest game-winning TD play from scrimmage in the final minute of the fourth quarter. On Oct. 4, Shayne Graham's 31-yard FG beat the Browns 23-20 in the longest Bengals game not to end in a tie. Graham's winning kick came with :04 remaining in overtime. On Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, Bengals HB Cedric Benson vaulted into the NFL rushing lead with a 189-yard game against Chicago, the team with which he had debuted unsuccessfully as a high first-round draft choice. The Bengals won 45-10 in a game nicknamed the "Benson Bowl," and NFL Network reported that Benson's rushing total was the most by a player against his former team in league history, with research going back to 1950. Long known for his mischievous on-field antics, WR Chad Johnson logged his last significant zany move as a Bengal on Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, when he playfully offered a dollar bill to the officiating crew as they were discussing a ruling. The NFL was not amused, and Johnson was fined $20,000. In Games 10-12, for the only time in franchise history (through 2023), the Bengals got 100-yard rushing games from three different players in a span of three games (Bernard Scott at Oakland, Larry Johnson vs. Cleveland and Cedric Benson vs. Detroit). It was the first such instance in the NFL since 1993. Benson set a Bengals individual record (still stands through 2023) for 100-yard rushing games in a season (six), and the club set a team record (still stands through '23) with eight individual 100-yard rushers.

Following a 2009 division championship, the team never jelled despite having veteran talent, including that of high-profile free agent WR Terrell Owens. After a 2-1 start, the Bengals tied a dubious team one-season record by losing 10 in a row. Wins in two of the last three games did little to ease the dissatisfaction. Head coach Marvin Lewis ended the season with an expired contract, but two days after the season finale, it was announced that Lewis had signed to return for a then franchise-record ninth season in 2011, a wise move given that the next five Bengals teams would make the playoffs. In '10, Owens and WR Chad Johnson combined for 139 receptions for 1814 yards and 13 TDs, and Cedric Benson rushed for 1111 yards while Carson Palmer passed for 3970.

But the team could not deliver in the clutch. Opponents scored eight TDs on returns (INTs, fumbles, kicks), and the Bengals were minus-eight in turnover differential. Injuries played a part, as the Bengals were forced to place 17 players on the Reserve/Injured list, and nine were veteran defensive players who would have started or seen significant action if healthy. The season was the last one in stripes for Chad Johnson, who completed the year with franchise career records (still standing through 2023) for receptions (751), receiving yards (10,783) and receiving TDs (66). The club logged a franchise-record 57th consecutive sellout (regular and postseason) for a Monday night game on Nov. 8 vs. Pittsburgh, but the streak ended when the Nov. 21 Buffalo game failed to sell out. The Bengals played five preseason games, their most since 1988, as the club was selected to open the NFL preseason against Dallas in the Pro Football Hall of Fame Game on Aug. 8 at Canton, Ohio. On Aug. 7, former Bengals assistant coach and head coach Dick LeBeau was inducted into the Hall of Fame. LeBeau, who spent 18 years on the Cincinnati coaching staff, also had a stellar playing career as a DB with the Detroit Lions, and after leaving Cincinnati he became a successful defensive coordinator with Pittsburgh.

Shortly after re-signing for a then Bengals-record ninth season as head coach, Marvin Lewis had a message for Bengals fans upset over the 2010 team's 4-12 record. "I will fix us," Lewis pledged, and the record would bear him out. Lewis led a young team — the AFC's youngest as of Week 1 — to a 9-7 record and a Wild Card playoff berth. Cincinnati lost at Houston in the Wild Card game. The young Bengals squad was not able to work with the coaching staff until late July, due to a player lockout over labor issues that had begun in March. The lockout ended just as training camps were due to open, with the announcement of a new NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement. But Cincinnati's players had staged numerous workouts on their own during the lockout, and two veteran leaders — DT Domata Peko and OT Andrew Whitworth — were accorded great credit for helping the team hang together in preparation for its surprise season. The Bengals defied widespread last-place predictions from preseason analysts by putting new offensive pieces together quickly. Working in the scheme of new offensive coordinator Jay Gruden, the club's top two draft picks — WR A.J. Green and QB Andy Dalton — became the first rookie QB-WR duo in NFL history to make the Pro Bowl. K Mike Nugent, from nearby Centerville, Ohio, set club single-season records (still standing through 2023) for points (132) and FGs (33). The defense, in its fourth season under coordinator Mike Zimmer, ranked seventh in the NFL. DT Geno Atkins, a fourth-round 2010 draft pick, began emerging as one of the best draft steals in franchise history, tying for the NFL lead in sacks (7.5) among interior linemen and earning his first Pro Bowl berth. Dalton's success at QB led to the Bengals trading holdout veteran QB Carson Palmer to Oakland on Oct. 18, and Cincinnati received Oakland's first-round 2012 draft choice and second-round '13 draft choice. The picks were used on CB Dre Kirkpatrick (2012) and HB Giovani Bernard (2013). On July 29, the Bengals traded talented but problematic Chad Johnson, their alltime leader in receptions (751) and receiving yards (10,783), to New England for a fifth-round and a sixth-round draft choice. Cincinnati used the picks to draft WRs Marvin Jones (2012) and Cobi Hamilton (2013). Johnson would make only 15 more NFL catches, released by New England in June of 2012 and released by Miami the following August. Lewis closed the year with 69 career victories. passing Sam Wyche (64) for most by a Bengals head coach. Through 2010, Lewis had been tied with Wyche and Paul Brown for most seasons as Bengals head coach (eight).

The Bengals brought training camp to downtown Cincinnati, holding camp at the club's home facility for the first time. The team had trained for 29 seasons at Wilmington (Ohio) College and for the next 15 at Georgetown (Ky.) College. Changes in the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement helped drive the change, as the Bengals joined a majority of NFL teams which had switched to their home bases. With the new CBA reducing the amount of time players could be on the practice field, it was thought that their increased non-field time could be much better used at Paul Brown Stadium, where medical and classroom facilities were far superior to any remote camp site. Plans for a second straight playoff season seemed to have gone awry when the team lost four straight after a 3-1 start, standing 3-5 at the season's halfway point. But the Bengals stormed back to go 7-1 in the second half and clinched a Wild Card postseason berth with a 10-6 record. The only loss in the final eight games came by one point, 20-19 to Dallas, on a Cowboys FG at the final gun. Of 131 NFL teams to post 3-5 starts between 1990-2012, the Bengals were one of only nine to reach the playoffs, and the 7-1 finish tied the 1981 Super Bowl team for the club's best second-half record (since broken) in a 16-game season. Cincinnati lost at Houston in the first round of the playoffs for the second straight year, but it was the first time for the Bengals to reach postseason two years in a row since 1981-82. The Bengals clinched their playoff berth with a 13-10 win at Pittsburgh in Game 15, at the same time eliminating the rival Steelers from contention. CB Leon Hall got the only Bengals TD against the Steelers, on a 17-yard INT return. The defense ranked sixth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (319.7 per game) and set a team-record (still stands through 2023) with 51 sacks (though the 1976 team, in a 14-game season, had a higher average of sacks per game). All-Pro DT Geno Atkins led the sack parade with 12.5, third-most in club history and most on the season by a margin of 4.5 among NFL interior linemen. WR A.J. Green scored at least one TD in nine straight games (Games 2-10) in one season, which no other Bengal has done before or since (through 2023). At the time, he became only the second NFL player in a 48-year span to have at least one receiving TD in nine straight games in a season, joining Hall of Famer Jerry Rice. P Kevin Huber posted averages of 46.6 gross and 42.0 net, club records (since broken) at the time. New technology lessened the need of the 2012 team for notebooks and attention to bulletin boards, as the Bengals became one of the first NFL clubs to issue players tablets, for easy distribution of schedules, video and other key information. Shortly after the season, Bengals RBs coach Jim Anderson announced his retirement. Anderson had joined the Bengals staff in 1984, and his 29 seasons stand through 2023 as a franchise record for most total seasons on the Cincinnati coaching staff. During his last six seasons, Anderson had the most consecutive years with his team of any position coach in the NFL.

Coach Marvin Lewis led the Bengals to their third straight playoff berth — a franchise first at the time. Cincinnati won its third AFC North Division title under Lewis, posting an 11-5 record and clinching the crown with a 42-14 rout of Minnesota in Game 15. The Bengals went 8-0 at home for the second time in club history (also 1988), and they were among only five NFL clubs to reach the postseason each year from 2011-13. They were in the postseason for the fourth time in five years, among only six teams to qualify four or more times in that span. For the third straight season, however, the playoffs ended all too soon for Cincinnati, as San Diego prevailed 27-10 in a first round game at Paul Brown Stadium. The 2013 team played three overtime games, most in a season in franchise history. They won the first OT contest, but lost in OT in consecutive weeks in Games 9 and 10. It was the first time in franchise history for the team to play two straight OT games. The consecutive losses dropped the team's record to 6-4, but Lewis' club closed the season with five wins in the last six games. QB Andy Dalton set franchise records (since broken) for passing yards (4293) and TD passes in a season (33), and he became at the time only the fifth QB in NFL history to pilot a playoff club in his first three seasons in the league. WR A.J. Green was named to the Pro Bowl for the third time in his three-year career, and he set club records (still standing through 2023) for most 100-yard receiving games in a season (six) and most consecutive 100-yard receiving games (five). Second-year WR Marvin Jones also posted a club mark (still stands) for most TD receptions in a game with four in Game 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. Jones accomplished his feat in the franchise's 700th regular-season game. Green (11) and Jones (10) became the first Bengals duo to each hit double figures in TD catches in a season. Marvin Lewis earned a "coaching-tree" after the season when, in an NFL rarity, each of his coordinators signed as NFL head coaches. Offensive coordinator Jay Gruden went to Washington, and defensive boss Mike Zimmer went to Minnesota. In the TV realm, the Bengals in 2013 agreed for the second time in five years to be featured during preseason on the all-access HBO series, "Hard Knocks." The club allowed virtually unfettered access to team activities to crews from NFL Films. Though many NFL clubs have shied from invitations to be a Hard Knocks team, the Bengals won the AFC North title for the second straight time after doing the show, as they also won after doing Hard Knocks in 2009.

Head coach Marvin Lewis led the Bengals to a 10-5-1 record and a Wild Card playoff berth, and to new heights in terms of consistent success for the franchise. Lewis had the team in postseason for the then-record fourth straight year, and the team established what was then a new club mark with a third straight season of double-digit wins (both marks since broken). The season ended when an injury-depleted team lost 26-10 at Indianapolis in a Wild Card playoff game, but the Bengals stood as one of only four NFL teams to have made the playoffs four straight years from 2011-14. Lewis' club record for head coaching victories was extended to 100 in the season's final win, a Monday night playoff clincher in Week 16 vs. Denver. The Bengals tied a franchise record with four regular-season games in prime time on national TV. WR A.J. Green was voted to a fourth straight Pro Bowl, joining WR Isaac Curtis as the only Bengals selected in each of their first four seasons, and CB Adam Jones became the first Bengal to win an NFL kickoff return title, averaging a franchise-record 31.26 yards. In the year's biggest off-field story, DT Devon Still touched hearts across the nation with his openness regarding his daughter Leah being diagnosed with cancer. The Bengals worked to have sales of Still's No. 75 jersey benefit pediatric cancer research, and nearly 15,000 jerseys were sold to buyers near and far. At the Nov. 6 home game vs. Cleveland, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center was presented with a check for $1.3 million. During training camp, the team signed QB Andy Dalton to a six-year contract extension, running through 2020. On April 17, the club continued its leading role in development of the Cincinnati downtown riverfront, announcing an agreement with Hamilton County that helped pave the way for General Electric to bring a major office facility to the emerging Banks neighborhood between Paul Brown Stadium and the Reds' Great American Ball Park. Fans at home games in 2014 enjoyed the benefits of the first state-of-the-art WiFi system throughout PBS.

The Bengals extended their franchise record for consecutive playoff seasons to five and stood as one of only four NFL teams to qualify for those specific five consecutive years. But it was one of the more bittersweet seasons in club history. The team started 8-0, setting a then-franchise record (since tied) for most consecutive wins within a regular season and tying the mark for most consecutive regular-season wins, regardless of seasons. The 12-4 finish tied Cincinnati records for most wins in a season and best winning percentage in a 16-game season. QB Andy Dalton was a huge key to it all, winning the AFC passing title with a Bengals-record (since broken) 106.3 rating. But Dalton suffered a thumb injury in Game 13 vs. Pittsburgh and missed the remainder of the campaign, including a dramatic 18-16 loss to Pittsburgh in the first round of the playoffs. Backup QB AJ McCarron, who went 2-1 as a starter in the last three regular season games, rallied the Bengals in the playoff game from a 15-0 deficit after three quarters to a 16-15 lead with 1:50 to play. But the Steelers came back for a winning FG after recovering a fumble by Bengals HB Jeremy Hill deep in Pittsburgh territory. The Bengals' 2015 accomplishments also included a No. 2 NFL finish in scoring defense (17.4), the highest in club history. The club's most singular game accomplishment came Oct. 11 vs. Seattle, when the Bengals overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit (24-7) to win 27-24 in overtime. The last time any NFL team had won a regular season or postseason game after trailing by 17 in the fourth quarter had been Week 15 of 2010, and Cincinnati's win ended a streak of 427 consecutive games in which teams trailing by 17-plus in the fourth quarter had lost. By the end of the postseason, the game stood as the only win for such a trailing team in the previous 536 instances.

For the first time in six seasons, the Bengals missed the playoffs, and their 6-9-1 record came with plenty of reason to think what else might have been. Cincinnati's last five losses came by a total of 16 points, and a general lack of production in the fourth quarter was highlighted by the team suffering from crucial missed place kicks as no Bengals team had suffered in recent years. Injuries also were a worse-than-usual factor, but head coach Marvin Lewis said simply, "Your record is what you earn. We have to do a better job in so many ways (in 2017)." The most notable injury was a hamstring strain that cost WR A.J. Green all but two snaps of the last seven games. Through nine games, Green's totals of 66 receptions and 964 yards had him on pace to set club season records in both categories by wide margins. DE Carlos Dunlap had a remarkable 15 passes defensed, leading the team by five in becoming the first DL to lead the team in the category, and Dunlap led all NFL defensive linemen by seven. DE Geno Atkins led all NFL interior linemen in sacks (nine), claiming at least a piece of that crown for the fourth time in his seven seasons. Green, Dunlap and Atkins were among five Bengals in the Pro Bowl, joined also by QB Andy Dalton and OT Andrew Whitworth. The Bengals took part for the first time in the NFL's International Series, playing Washington to a 27-all tie on Oct. 30 at London's Wembley Stadium. The Bengals officially were named the home team in the game, as the team played only seven games at Paul Brown Stadium, but it was the first regular-season game in franchise history played at a neutral site. The tie against Washington was notable because it was Cincinnati's third tie in nine seasons (2008-16). Only eight other NFL teams played even one tie in that span, with the remaining 23 playing none. A notable statistic for the season was rookie WR Alex Erickson, a college free agent signee from Wisconsin, leading the AFC with a 27.9-yard kickoff return average, second-highest in team history.

The Bengals in 2017 celebrated their 50th season by creating a commemorative 50th logo for team uniforms and apparel, introducing special signage throughout the stadium and the city, and honoring Bengals legends at halftime of each home game. On the field, the Bengals finished the season in third place of the AFC North Division at 7-9 and missed the playoffs for the second consecutive year. The offense failed to score a TD in the team's first two games, which included a 20-0 shutout at home in the opener vs. Baltimore and 13-9 loss to Houston on national TV on Thursday Night Football. Offensive coordinator Ken Zampese was fired on Sept. 15, and QBs coach Bill Lazor was named as his replacement. Despite the adjustment, the Bengals ended the season ranked last in the NFL in total offense, averaging just 280.5 yards per game. The team allowed 40 sacks and produced just a 3.6-yard average per rush. The Bengals' defense was on the field for 184 more plays than the offense (1146 to 962), the equivalent of nearly three extra games of action. That perhaps contributed to additional injuries to defensive players, as the Bengals relied heavily upon backups as the season progressed. The defense, which ranked No. 2 in the NFL through Week 6, fell to No. 18 by the end of the season. After a 33-7 loss vs. Chicago in Week 14 and a 34-7 loss at Minnesota in Week 15 dropped their record to 5-9, the Bengals rebounded to win their final two games of the season and knock both of their opponents — Detroit and Baltimore — out of playoff contention. The Bengals' win in the season finale came in dramatic fashion, as the team stunned the Ravens at Baltimore with a knockout TD in the final minute to eliminate the Ravens from the playoffs. QB Andy Dalton hit WR Tyler Boyd for a 49-yard score on fourth down with 44 seconds left to give the Bengals the win. The win helped elevate Buffalo to the playoffs for the first time since 1999, and Bills fans showed their appreciation of Dalton's lastminute heroics by donating heavily to his charity. Bills backers made a large number of $17 contributions ($1 for each of the 17 consecutive non-playoff seasons for the Bills), and in the end, more than $450,000 in donations were made to the Andy and Jordan Dalton Foundation. LB Carl Lawson led all NFL rookies in sacks (8.5) in 2017, and DT Geno Atkins led all NFL interior linemen in sacks (nine). Bengals co-founder Pete Brown, 74, died on Dec. 12. Brown, who was senior vice president of player personnel, had worked in the mid-1960s with his father, Paul, and brother, Mike, to bring pro football to Cincinnati. Two days after the season ended, Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis signed a two-year extension through 2019. Offensive line coach Paul Alexander, the secondlongest tenured assistant in Bengals history at 24 seasons, departed for the Dallas Cowboys after his contract was not renewed by Cincinnati.

The Bengals raced to a 4-1 start and stood 5-3 at the mid-way point of the season, but a 1-7 finish left them with a 6-10 final record and last-place finish in the AFC North. The season was marred by a wave of injuries that crippled the team. Of the 53 players on the roster for the regular-season opener at Indianapolis, 22 missed at least two games due to injury. Fourteen of those 22 players ended the season on Reserve/Injured, including starters QB Andy Dalton, WR A.J. Green, WR Tyler Boyd and TE Tyler Eifert, as well as other major contributors, including DE Carl Lawson and TE Tyler Kroft. Cincinnati's defense struggled from the outset, and through nine games was allowing a league-worst 454.6 net yards per game, which at the time was on pace to set an NFL record for yards allowed in a season. The Bengals fired first-year defensive coordinator Teryl Austin on Nov. 12, the day after a 51-14 home loss to New Orleans, and head coach Marvin Lewis assumed defensive coordinator duties for the season's final seven games. The Bengals' defense showed improvement under Lewis, but still finished last in the NFL at 413.6 net yards allowed per game. Second-year HB Joe Mixon rushed for 1168 yards and became the first Bengal ever to lead the AFC in rushing in a season (though RB Paul Robinson led the AFL in rushing in 1968). Boyd enjoyed a breakout season, and his 1028 receiving yards made him the first Bengal other than Green to hit the century mark in 10 seasons (Chad Johnson, 2009). On Oct. 7 vs. Miami, Green's 112 receiving yards gave him his 32nd 100-yard game, passing WR Chad Johnson (31) for most in team history. Rookie S Jessie Bates III totaled a team-best 111 tackles on defense, making him only the sixth Bengals rookie ever to lead the team in tackles. On Dec. 31, the day after the season finale, the Bengals and head coach Marvin Lewis mutually decided to part ways after 16 seasons. Lewis ended his career with a 131-122-3 regular season record (131-129-3 including postseason). His total of 131 career victories is the most in team history and at the time ranked tied for 24th in NFL history.

On Feb. 4, the Bengals hired L.A. Rams quarterbacks coach Zac Taylor as Cincinnati's 10th head coach. His first season was marked by injuries to key players and early-season team struggles which led to a franchise-worst 0-11 start. The Bengals finished the year at 2-14, which through 2023 matched the worst record in team history (the 2002 club also finished 2-14). Cincinnati's hopes for success took three significant hits before the end of the first preseason game. Rookie OT Jonah Williams, the Bengals' first-round pick who had been slated to start at LOT, was lost for the season in June OTAs due to a shoulder injury. Then on July 27, in the team's first training camp practice, which was held at Welcome Stadium in Dayton as part of the NFL's 100th season celebration, perennial All-Pro WR A.J. Green went down with an ankle injury that ended up costing him the entire season. Making matters worse, OT Cordy Glenn, who was to replace Williams at LOT, suffered a concussion in the preseason opener at Kansas City and did not return to game action until late November. After the team had progressed to an 0-8 start, Taylor announced during the team's bye week that he would be benching longtime starting QB Andy Dalton in favor of rookie Ryan Finley. The experiment turned out to be short-lived, as Cincinnati's offense managed just 33 points over the next three games (all losses). Dalton returned to the starting role on Dec. 1 vs. the N.Y. Jets and led the Bengals to their first win of the season. During that game, Dalton passed Ken Anderson for most career completions and TD passes in team history (Anderson had 2654 completions and 197 TD passes). Cincinnati secured the No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft with a Dec. 22 loss at Miami, but the game will perhaps be remembered most for the Bengals' dramatic 23-point fourth-quarter comeback that featured 16 points in the final 29 seconds to force OT. The game also included a 57-yard FG from K Randy Bullock, which still is tied through 2022 for third longest in team history. Though the season overall was marred by injuries and poor on-field performance, the Bengals did find a bright spot with S Brandon Wilson, who in his first year as full-time kickoff returner averaged an NFL-best 31.25 yards per return. Cincinnati wrapped up its season with a convincing 33-23 win over Cleveland at Paul Brown Stadium. After that contest, fans lined the stands surrounding the Bengals' tunnel and chanted Dalton's name as he exited the field from what was believed to be his final game with the team.

On March 13, the Bengals joined most other NFL teams by announcing that their facility would close the following week due to the COVID-19 pandemic and that employees would be working remotely. As the pandemic continued to spread throughout the country and states began widespread shutdowns of businesses deemed "non-essential," the NFL soon mandated that all teams' facilities — no matter their location — remain closed until further notice. As a result, the entire NFL offseason program — everything between voluntary workouts in April and mandatory minicamp in June — was conducted online, as sports leagues in the U.S. remained shut down until mid-summer. The 2020 NFL Draft was held virtually, and the Bengals selected Louisiana State QB and Athens, Ohio-native Joe Burrow with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL's first-ever virtual draft. A few days later, the Bengals released Andy Dalton, the team's starting QB the previous nine seasons (2011-19), signaling the official shift to Burrow, who arrived with much fan anticipation after having arguably the greatest season ever by a college QB (he set numerous SEC and NCAA records, won the Heisman Trophy by the largest margin in its 85-year history and led LSU to an undefeated season and national championship). The Bengals welcomed a limited number of employees back into the office on May 20, after a more than two-month closure of the facility. Numerous precautions were put into place and maintained for the rest of the year, such as the mandatory wearing of facemasks and the social distancing of workspaces. The NFL and NFLPA reached an agreement late in July regarding COVID-19 protocols for the season, and players began reporting to team facilities for pre-training camp physicals the last week of July. Full training camp practices didn't begin until mid-August, and the NFL and NFLPA eventually agreed to cancel all preseason games as a precaution. The league and the union also agreed to test for COVID-19 among players, coaches and select football staff each day at team facilities. Additionally, everyone in the testing protocol was required to wear an electronic tracker at all times while at team facilities, which would trace and identify all persons in close contact with any individual who tested positive. Some NFL states/cities permitted a limited number of fans to attend games, while others did not allow fans at all. The Bengals opened their season at home against the L.A. Chargers in the first and only NFL game ever held in Cincinnati without fans. The team did so to comply with an order from the State of Ohio to limit mass gatherings, however that order was later loosened, and the Bengals hosted between 6000 and 11,000 fans at their seven remaining home games. The Bengals struggled to a 4-11-1 record in 2020, though Burrow was among the team's bright spots as he got off to one of the most productive statistical starts to a career by a QB in league history. He had been on pace to smash several team and NFL rookie records, but in Game 10, Nov. 22 at Washington he suffered a torn ACL when an offensive lineman fell onto his left knee after a pass attempt. Cincinnati, which at the time had shown signs of a turnaround and was entering a stretch of games against several sub-.500 teams, turned to backup Brandon Allen and finished 2-4 over the final six contests. One of those two late wins, though, was considered among the biggest upsets of the season in the NFL, as third-string QB Ryan Finley filled in for the injured Allen on Monday Night Football and led a double-digit underdog Cincinnati to a 27-17 win over 11-2 Pittsburgh (the win snapped the Bengals' 11-game losing streak against the Steelers). The Bengals parted ways with a longtime veteran when it traded DE Carlos Dunlap to Seattle on Oct. 28. Dunlap had 82.5 career sacks at the time of the trade, just one shy of tying Eddie Edwards' team record (still stands through 2023) of 83.5. As the NFL season moved forward, many NFL teams faced COVID-19 positive tests, outbreaks and policy violations. Cincinnati, however, was among the few which emerged from the 2020 season relatively unscathed. The Bengals went without a single positive test from a player or coach through the first eight weeks of the regular season, and in total only nine players (including four on the practice squad or reserve lists) spent time on the team's Reserve/COVID-19 list at any point due to either a positive test or being deemed a close contact (missing only 15 combined games). Additionally, six Bengals assistant coaches missed a total of nine combined games. Most sports leagues on every level struggled with game cancellations due to the pandemic. In the NFL, numerous contests were postponed to Mondays, Tuesdays or even Wednesdays, while multiple teams lost their bye or were forced to re-arrange their schedule, but NFL guidelines proved effective as all 269 scheduled games (regular season and playoffs) ultimately were played. The Bengals were among the most fortunate teams, as all 16 of their regular-season games were played at their originally scheduled dates and times. For the NFL, the 2020 season marked the end of the league's 43-season run (which began in 1978) of playing a 16-game regularseason schedule.

On the strength of one of the NFL's most talented young rosters, third-year head coach Zac Taylor and the Bengals enjoyed one of the most successful runs in team history, cruising to a 10-7 record, AFC North title, AFC Championship and berth in Super Bowl LVI. It was the second consecutive season played under the shadow of the COVID-19 pandemic, which continued to circle and affect the entire globe. The league's pandemic protocols remained in effect throughout the entirety of the 2021 season, but were loosened for teams and fans who were fully vaccinated (see "COVID-19 creates unprecedented seasons in 2020 and '21" in Miscellaneous Facts and Figures section). On March 30, NFL owners formally voted to increase the number of regular-season games for each team from 16 to 17, the first expansion of the league's schedule since 1978. To make room for the extra games, the league removed one week of preseason, leaving three total preseason games for each team (not including the annual Hall of Fame Game). In April, the Bengals announced the formation of a Ring of Honor to display inside Paul Brown Stadium, with team founder Paul Brown and Pro Football Hall of Famer Anthony Munoz as the first two members, who were later joined by, as voted by season ticket holders, both QB Ken Anderson and CB Ken Riley. The ROH was unveiled to fans during a halftime ceremony of Game 4 vs. Jacksonville. The team also unveiled new team uniforms in April, updating the striping on the various color options of the jersey and pants while keeping the team's iconic helmet design intact. It was the first major uniform change since 2004, and the fourth significant uniform redesign in team history. With regard to the roster, the Bengals assembled a collection of new players who proved to be key in the team's run to the Super Bowl. While the team said goodbye to a number of notable veterans — including two of the most celebrated Bengals ever in DT Geno Atkins (released) and WR A.J. Green (signed with Arizona as a UFA) — it began the new league year actively involved in free agency, signing many significant new players, particularly on defense. That list included DE Trey Hendrickson and DT Larry Ogunjobi, as well as CBs Chidobe Awuzie, Eli Apple and Mike Hilton. In the draft, the team added first-round WR Ja'Marr Chase (fifth overall) and fifth-round K Evan McPherson, who both proved to be key additions that were fundamental to the team's successful season. And via trade, the Bengals also acquired DT B.J. Hill from the N.Y. Giants. Secondyear QB Joe Burrow posted team records (still stand through 2023) for passing yards (4611) and passer rating (108.3), as well as a then-team record (since broken) for passing TDs (34), en route to being named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year. His 525 passing yards on Dec. 26 set a new team record (still stands through 2023), breaking Boomer Esiason's longtime mark of 490, which was set 31 seasons earlier in 1990. Burrow's primary target was Chase, who had teamed with him in college to win a national championship at Louisiana State University in 2019. Chase put together arguably the top NFL rookie season ever by a WR en route to earning the Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. He caught 81 passes for 1455 yards and 13 TDs during the regular season. The receiving yards total established a new team record (since surpassed) and at the time was the most ever by an NFL rookie in the Super Bowl era, and his 1734 combined receiving yards in both the regular season and postseason at the time counted as the most ever by an NFL rookie. He set a new team record (still stands through 2022) for most receiving yards in a game with 266 on Jan. 2 vs. Kansas City. With the Bengals, Chase teamed with secondyear WR Tee Higgins (74 catches for 1091 yards and six TDs) and sixth-year slot WR Tyler Boyd (67 for 828 and five) to form one of the NFL's most productive receiving trios. Fifth-year HB Joe Mixon proved to be one of the NFL's top RBs, posting career-highs in rushing yardage (1205) and total TDs (16), while seventh-year TE C.J. Uzomah, the longest-tenured Bengal on offense, also had a career season with 49 catches for 493 yards and five TDs. Cincinnati's defense showed significant improvement thanks to the new faces and returning veterans. Hendrickson recorded what was the second-most sacks (14) in team history at the time, while bookend DE and Cincinnati native Sam Hubbard added another 7.5. At NT, DJ Reader returned after his first Bengals season was cut short by injury, and he helped Cincinnati's 2021 run defense improve 24 spots over the '20 squad. Oqunjobi and Hill rotated next to Reader and combined for 12.5 sacks. Second-year pro Logan Wilson made the leap from 2020 rotational player to one of the NFL's top young LBs, leading the team both total tackles (98) and interceptions (four). Wilson's four INTs also tied for the NFL lead among LBs, and counted as the most by a Bengals LB in 16 years. The secondary was led by a pair of team captains at S in Vonn Bell and Jessie Bates III, who combined for three key INTs and a sack during the Bengals' playoff run, while all three of Cincinnati's starting CBs were new to the team in 2021 — Apple, Awuzie and Hilton — and each had a pair of INTs. On special teams, the celebrity of the year was McPherson, a 22-year-old rookie whose leg strength and reliability under pressure turned him into an immediate fan favorite. McPherson's nine FGs of 50 or more yards during the regular season was at the time just one shy of tying the NFL single-season record of 10, and enough to set a new team career record (still stands through 2023). He also became the only kicker in team history to convert three FGs of 50 or more yards in a game, and he hit five gamewinning "walk-off" FGs as a rookie, including two in postseason. The Bengals recorded their first postseason victory since the 1990 season when they won a Wild Card Playoff vs. the Las Vegas Raiders. The team followed that win with road victories at the No. 1-seed Tennessee Titans and the No. 2-seed Kansas City Chiefs to win the AFC Championship and secure a berth in Super Bowl LVI. The Super Bowl was played against the L.A. Rams on their home field at SoFi Stadium in Inglewood, Calif., however Cincinnati was listed as the home team. The Bengals fell behind 13-3 early in the second guarter, but closed the gap to take a 17-13 lead on the first play of the second half with a 75-yard TD pass from Burrow to Higgins that counted as the longest play from scrimmage in Bengals postseason history. Cincinnati stretched its lead to seven, but L.A.'s defense stood strong. A TD by WR Cooper Kupp gave the Rams a three-point lead with 1:25 remaining, and the Bengals' attempt to tie or win ended on a fourth-and-one at midfield when Burrow threw an incomplete pass while being tackled. Shortly after the Super Bowl, the NFL and the NFLPA jointly announced that they had suspended all COVID-19 protocols going into the new 2022 league year.

The 2022 offseason included two major facilities announcements for the Bengals. In April, the Cincinnati Planning Commission approved the team's application to build a temporary indoor practice facility southwest of the team's practice fields on the north bank of the Ohio River. Later in October, the team began to regularly utilize the structure, which was named the IEL Indoor Facility (after Cincinnati-based international logistics company and team sponsor Integrity Express Logistics). Then, on Aug. 9, three days prior to the preseason opener, Paul Brown Stadium was re-named Paycor Stadium when the team and Cincinnati-based human capital management company Paycor announced an expanded partnership which included stadium naming rights. Once the regular season started, the defending AFC Champion Bengals put together a second consecutive noteworthy season which included a second straight AFC North Division title and a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship. Cincinnati finished the regular season 12-4, tying for the most wins in a season in team history. The team started the season with a 4-4 record heading into November, and then guickly evolved into one of the hottest teams in the NFL down the stretch. Cincinnati tied a franchise record with eight consecutive victories to close out the regular season, five of which came against teams that qualified for the playoffs the previous year. The Bengals, who during the win streak adopted the mantra "They Gotta Play US," claimed the AFC North crown prior to the regularseason finale. The team proceeded to extend its overall win streak to 10 after postseason wins vs. Baltimore in a Wild Card Playoff and at Buffalo in a Divisional Playoff. As they did after the 2021 season, the Bengals once again traveled to Kansas City to face the Chiefs in the AFC Championship, only this time they came up just short in a 23-20 loss to end the season. The 2022 Bengals offense again was headlined by Joe Burrow, who in his third pro season further established himself as one of the league's top QBs. Burrow passed for 35 TDs, eclipsing his own team record of 34 set just one year earlier, while also ranking fifth in the NFL in both completions (414, also a team record) and passing yards (4475). He was selected to the Pro Bowl, as was his top target, second-year WR Ja'Marr Chase. Chase led the Bengals in receptions (87), receiving yards (1046) and receiving TDs (nine) during the regular season, despite missing four games due to injury, and he joined former WR A.J. Green as the only players in team history with consecutive 1000-yard receiving seasons to begin their careers. WR Tee Higgins had his second consecutive 1000-yard season with 74 receptions for 1029 yards and seven TDs, while WR Tyler Boyd added another 58 catches for 762 yards and five TDs. HB Joe Mixon totaled 1255 yards from scrimmage (814 rushing and 441 receiving) and nine total TDs. In the team's Game 9 win vs. Carolina, Mixon had a historic performance, rushing for 153 yards on 22 attempts (7.0-yard average) with four TDs, while also catching four passes for 58 yards and a TD. His five total TDs and 30 total points each set Bengals single-game records, and his four rushing scores tied former HB Corey Dillon for the team's single-game mark. Mixon's total of 211 yards from scrimmage also was a personal career high. The performance made him just the sixth player in the Super Bowl era with at least 200 scrimmage yards and five total TDs in a game, and just the third player in the Super Bowl era with at least four rushing TDs and one receiving TD in a game. On defense in 2022, Cincinnati allowed just 20.1 points per game, the sixth-lowest average in the NFL, while it held opposing QBs to a league-low 58.9 completion percentage. The Bengals' defense boasted playmakers on all three levels, led by a line that spearheaded the NFL's seventh-ranked run defense (106.6). DE Trey Hendrickson had a team-leading eight sacks and three FFs to earn his second straight Pro Bowl nod. At LB, Logan Wilson and Germaine Pratt each set a career high in total tackles with 123 and 99, respectively, while also combining for 3.5 sacks and three INTs. The secondary featured a veteran safety duo in Jessie Bates III and Vonn Bell, who each had a career-best four INTs and started all 19 games through the regular and postseason. After starting CB Chidobe Awuzie suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 8, rookie CB Cam Taylor-Britt stepped in and quickly asserted himself as a foundational piece on the Bengals roster. Taylor-Britt had 55 tackles and six PDs in the regular season, then grabbed his first career INT to seal the team's Divisional Playoff win at Buffalo. Cincinnati's Week 17 home contest against Buffalo was initially postponed and later canceled after Bills S Damar Hamlin suffered cardiac arrest and collapsed on the field at Paycor Stadium early in the game. After receiving immediate emergency attention from the game's medical personnel, Hamlin was taken to a local hospital, where he stayed for one week before returning to a Buffalo medical facility to continue his recovery. Cincinnati's postseason began with a 24-17 home Wild Card Playoff win over Baltimore which produced one of the most notable and iconic defensive plays in Bengals history. With the score tied 17-17 early in the fourth quarter and Baltimore at the Cincinnati one-yard line, Ravens QB Tyler Huntley attempted to reach the ball over a pile of linemen, but LB Logan Wilson knocked it out of his hands and into the arms of DE Sam Hubbard, who returned it 98 yards for a touchdown in what ended up being the game-deciding TD. It was the longest fumble return for a TD in NFL postseason history, and the longest score of any kind in Bengals postseason history. In a snowy Divisional Playoff the following week at Buffalo, the Bengals jumped out to a 14-0 lead and dominated both sides of the line of scrimmage to cruise to a 27-10 victory. With the win, the Bengals became just the fourth team in NFL history to win both home and road playoff games in backto-back seasons. In the AFC Championship game, seeking its second consecutive Super Bowl appearance, Cincinnati erased deficits of 10 points in the first half and seven points in the second, but ultimately came up short in a back-and-forth contest. In the game's final seconds, with the scored tied 20-20, an unnecessary roughness penalty called on the Bengals put the Chiefs in range for a game-winning kick, and K Harrison Butker converted a 45-yard FG with three seconds left to win the conference title for eventual Super Bowl LVII champion Kansas City. In the season opener on Sept. 11 vs. Pittsburgh, K Evan McPherson set a new team record for longest FG in team history when he converted a 59-yarder. During a halftime ceremony at the team's Thursday Night Football home game against Miami on Sept. 29, the Bengals presented former OT Willie Anderson and former WR Isaac Curtis as the 2022 additions to the team's Ring of Honor, as voted by season ticket holders. The Miami game also served as the introduction of the team's new alternate white helmet, as well as the introduction of the first-ever White Bengal game — a "white-out" contest in which all the team's logos on the field were painted white, and in which fans throughout the stadium wore predominantly white-colored apparel. The Dolphins game was played in front of 67,260, establishing a new mark for the largest ever crowd to attend a sports event in Cincinnati. By the end of the 2022 season, Paycor Stadium had hosted over 65,000 fans in all eight home games during the regular season and postseason, with six of the attendance figures ranking among the top-10 in team history at the time.

On Feb. 9, during the NFL Honors awards show prior to Super Bowl LVII, former Bengals CB Ken Riley (1969-83) was named as part of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2023. The announcement came posthumously for Riley, who passed away on June 7, 2020. The induction ceremony took place on Aug. 5, with Riley's wife, Barbara, receiving the gold jacket on his behalf and his son, Ken Riley II, speaking during his enshrinement. In the team's record books, Riley's 65 career INTs still constitute the most dominant lead in any major category, nearly doubling the second-place total of 33. At the time of his retirement, that total of 65 INTs was the fourth most in NFL history, and it still stands tied for fifth most (through 2023). The Bengals entered the 2023 campaign with Super Bowl aspirations after capturing back-to-back AFC North Division titles and advancing to the AFC Championship in each of the previous two seasons, including en route to Super Bowl LVI after the '21 season. The team returned a talented young nucleus led by QB Joe Burrow, who signed a five-year contract extension on Sept. 9 — one day before the opener — and was presumed to be an MVP candidate in his fourth pro season. Also, the entire coaching staff from the previous season returned. However, the course of the promising season was altered by a pair of Burrow injuries, and the Bengals just missed the playoffs despite finishing with a 9-8 record. The first setback for Burrow came during the second practice of training camp, when he suffered a calf strain that held him out of action for just over a month. He returned to practice well in time to start the regular-season opener, but was slowed through the first month of the season. As Burrow's calf continued to improve, the team exhibited significant progress, winning four straight to advance the team's mark to 5-3. The streak kicked off with a win on on Oct. 8 at Arizona — a victory in which WR Ja'Marr Chase recorded a Bengals single-game record 15 receptions, along with 192 yards and three TDs. He became just the fifth player in league history to register at least 15 catches, at least 150 receiving yards and at least three TDs in a game. Beyond the Cardinals game, Chase was a featured focal point of Cincinnati's passing game throughout the season, as his team-leading 100 receptions tied for the second most ever by a Bengal, and his 1216 receiving yards made him just the eighth receiver in NFL history to reach the 1000-yard mark in each of his first three seasons. Though a home loss to Houston on Nov. 12 snapped the four-game winning streak, the Bengals carried a 5-4 record into a Thursday Night Football game at Baltimore which figured to be pivotal in the AFC North race. Burrow threw a TD pass to HB Joe Mixon in the second quarter which gave the Bengals a 10-7 lead, but he suffered a wrist injury on the scoring play and missed the remainder of the contest. The following day on Nov. 17, head coach Zac Taylor announced that Burrow required surgery for a torn wrist ligament and would be out for the remainder of the season. The team then turned its focus to backup QB Jake Browning, a first-year player who had spent the previous four seasons primarily on the practice squads of Minnesota and Cincinnati. In the first significant action of his career, Browning started the Bengals' final seven games and helped steer the team to a 4-3 record. That stretch was highlighted by a three-game winning streak in December which vaulted the Bengals from 5-6 to 8-6, firmly in the mix of the playoff race. Browning's performance during the streak was noteworthy, and it included AFC Offensive Player of the Week accolades for his game on Monday Night Football at Jacksonville on Dec. 4, when he completed 86.5 percent of his passes — the fifth highest percentage in team history — for 354 yards, to lead Cincinnati to an overtime victory. Over the final seven weeks of the season, Browning ranked second in the league in passing yards (1868) and completion percentage (71.5). He became just the third QB since 1950 to pass for at least 1500 yards and 10 TDs with a completion percentage of 70 or higher in his first seven career starts. Although the team finished the 2023 season with a winning record, Cincinnati dropped two of its final three games to finish fourth in a highly competitive AFC North Division and miss the postseason. In fact, the AFC North was the first division since the NFL West in 1935 in which each team finished the regular season with a winning record, and the Bengals became the first team in league history to win nine games and finish last in its division. While the Bengals' defense did not rank among the league's leading units, several Bengals defenders did enjoy statistical career years individually. DE Trey Hendrickson, who along with Chase earned his third straight Pro Bowl nod, posted a career-high 17.5 sacks, which tied for second in the NFL and ranked as second most in team history. In addition, second-year CB Cam Taylor-Britt emerged as a promising contributor with four INTs, which tied for the team lead with LB Logan Wilson, who also recorded a career-high 135 tackles. The Bengals inducted two new members into the team's Ring of Honor during a halftime ceremony at the Monday Night Football home game against the L.A. Rams on Sept. 25, as former QB Boomer Esiason and WR Chad Johnson were voted in by season ticket members. That contest also was the second annual White Bengal game. Then for a nationally televised game on Sunday Night Football vs. the Buffalo Bills on Nov. 5 — for the first time — the team invited fans to "Stripe The Jungle," with different sections of Paycor Stadium wearing predominantly orange apparel and other sections wearing predominantly black. The effect was an appearance that the bowl of the stadium was colored in massive Bengals stripes.

PLAYER HISTORY

To be eligible for the all-time roster, a player must have been in uniform for at least one regular-season or postseason game, or spent a minimum of four games on the roster (including inactive status) in any one season. A player who qualifies at any point under these guidelines also will be credited for seasons in which he was on a reserve list but did not play or dress for a game. Players who spend time on a reserve list but have never played or dressed for a game do not qualify for the all-time roster. The Practice Squad does not qualify.

This all-time uniform numbers list is organized in chronological order for each number.

chronological order for each number.

Generally, this list credits a player for having ownership of a uniform number for an entire season, even if he was with the team for only part of that season. However, game-by-game breakdowns within seasons are provided if (1) a player changed his uniform number during a season, or (2) more than one player was assigned the same number in the same season.

Numbers in parentheses behind players' names

Numbers in parentheses behind players' names denote other uniform numbers assigned to those players during their careers with the Bengals.

^{*} NOTE: Time of possession was not recorded until 1977.

^{} NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

^{} NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

NOTE: Time of possession became an official statistic in 1977. However, the game clock at Cincinnati's Oct. 23 game vs. Denver failed, thus no time of possession was documented for that contest. Without that information, it is impossible to determine the correct time of possession averages for both Cincinnati and Denver that season. The Bengals' averages listed above include only their remaining 13 games of '77, and thus are considered

NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

^{} NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

^{*} NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

^{} NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

^{*} NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

^{} NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

^{*} NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

Two-point conversions: (NA*).

^{} NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

^{} NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

^{*} NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

^{} NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

 $^{^{\}star}$ $\,$ NOTE: The two-point conversion was not instituted in the NFL until 1994.

^{} NOTE: It was not standard practice to separate the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — until 1988. Thus, the defensive statistics listed above include the combined totals of all three types. All defensive statistics above are press box statistics produced at the games.

* STATISTICS NOTES

- TDs noted in the TD-FR column were TDs scored on defense or special teams on recoveries of opponents' fumbles.
- The two-point conversion existed in the AFL when Cincinnati was an AFL team from 1968-69, but it was not instituted in the NFL until 1994. Thus, all Bengals PATs scored from 1970-1993 were worth one point, regardless of whether they were scored by kick, run or pass.

L OF FAME HISTO

ANTHONY MUNOZ CLASS OF 1998

The Bengals' Anthony Munoz, who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, was inducted on Aug. 1, 1998 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. It was the first year of Hall eligibility for Munoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. There currently are 378 Hall of Famers, and Munoz is one of only 93 players selected in their first year of eligibility.

Munoz was a consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, and the Bengals acquired him with the third overall pick in the 1980 draft, despite the fact some teams considered him damaged goods due to a previous knee surgery. The move turned out as one of the best draft gambles in franchise history, as Munoz went on to play 13 Bengals seasons (1980-92), including 11 ('81-91) in which he was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. At the time of his retirement (1992), that was the most selections of any player in NFL history. He also earned All-Pro honors (full NFL, not just the AFC) every season from 1981 through '91.

"Anthony's induction was very gratifying to our organization and to all of our fans," said Mike Brown, Bengals president. "It was particularly so because the selectors recognized Anthony as a truly special player and person who deserved election on his first try. During his playing days, no one in the NFL was better.

It's justifiable to consider him as the best offensive lineman ever, and he has conducted his personal and family life in a way that is a great credit to the Bengals and the NFL."

Munoz's off-field efforts earned him the NFL's prestigious Man of the Year Award in 1991. He played for the Bengals in their first two Super Bowl appearances, as a second-year player in Super Bowl XVI at Pontiac, Mich., and as a ninth-year vet in Super Bowl XXIII at Miami. And, he is just one of two offensive tackles to be names to both the NFL 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994 and the NFL 100th Anniversary All-Time Team in 2019 (along with former Green Bay Packers OT Forrest Gregg, who also served as Bengals head coach from '80-83).

Munoz's exceptional agility and athleticism is reflected by his entry line in the Bengals' all-time pass receiving statistics. He caught seven passes in his career, playing as a tackle-eligible, and four of those receptions were for

In six of his 13 Bengals seasons, Munoz earned at least one major award as NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year. One award citation, issued by NFL Alumni, reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Munoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer."

A native of Ontario, Calif., whose grandparents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico, Munoz is considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to enter the Hall.

Munoz was a member of the Bengals' inaugural Ring of Honor class in 2021, and in 2022 he was announced as the Hall of Fame's first Chief Football Relationship Officer.

Bengals legend Ken Riley, the most productive cornerback in team history, was inducted on Aug. 5, 2023 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The selection came posthumously for Riley, who passed away in 2020 at the age of 72. He entered as one of three senior members selected among his class.

Riley arrived at his first Bengals training camp in 1969 as an unheralded quarterback out of Florida A&M University. The sixth-round selection in the AFL/NFL Draft (135th overall) was asked by Bengals founder and then-head coach Paul Brown to participate in drills with the cornerbacks — a move which > went on to produce an unparalleled career in team history. Riley ultimately played in 207 career games over 15 seasons as a Bengal from 1969-83, and his 65 career interceptions still constitute the most dominant lead in any major category of the team's record book, nearly doubling the second-place total of 33. At the time of his retirement, that total of 65 INTs was the fourth most in NFL history, and it still stands tied for fifth most. His 207 games stood as the most in Bengals history until 2022.

> While Riley's stellar numbers carved out a resume which rivals the game's all-time greats, it was his teamfirst approach to the game which endeared him to Bengals teammates and fans, perhaps at the expense of being more widely recognized during his career.

"Ken Riley was a wonderful person," said Bengals

President Mike Brown, son of Paul Brown. "Everyone" respected him. Ken looked out for others. He was known as someone who would help. Had he still been alive, Ken would have delighted in being selected for the Hall of Fame. Now the extended Bengals family will have to be delighted for him. We miss him, and we celebrate him."

A natural athlete with a acute ability to anticipate throws toward his coverage, Riley was considered one of the top cornerbacks of his era whose mixture of talent and savviness was consistent throughout his career. He is one of only nine players in NFL history to record five or more interceptions in seven career seasons. Riley was a member of five Bengals teams which reached the postseason, including the 1981 squad, which he helped lead to Super Bowl XVI.

"He had the ball skills of an offensive skill player," said Daye Lapham, a teammate of Riley's and later the Bengals' radio analyst. "And that's what he was — a former QB. He was so smart and he was so solid, like when he picked off Joe Namath multiple times in Joe's career. But he talked about how great Namath was, not how great Kenny Riley was. That was him in a nutshell — a great human being and a great player."

Following his retirement, Riley spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the Green Bay Packers before taking over as head coach at Florida A&M. He led the Rattlers' football program from 1986-93, earning Mid-Eastern Athletic two Conference titles and two MEAC Coach of the Year honors during that span. He then served as Florida A&M's athletic director from 1994-2004. He was inducted into the FAMU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1982, the Black College Football Hall of Fame in 2015, and the Bengals' Ring of Honor in 2021.

OTHER PLAYER/COACH CONNECTIONS

OT Anthony Munoz and CB Ken Riley are the only players who performed primarily for the Bengals to gain entry to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Two other Hall members — WRs Charlie Joiner and Terrell Owens — are former Bengals, but both played the majority of their careers with other teams. Joiner, a Bengal from 1972-75, played most of his career at San Diego. He was inducted in 1996. Owens, a Bengal in 2010, also played for San Francisco, Philadelphia, Dallas and Buffalo. He was inducted in 2018.

Paul Brown, founder and first head coach of both the Bengals and the Cleveland Browns, is in the Hall, but he was inducted in 1967, prior to the Bengals' inaugural season.

Three other Hall of Famers also spent time as Bengals coaches. Bill Walsh, inducted in 1993 for his success as head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, was a Bengals assistant from 1968-75. Forrest Gregg, Bengals head coach from 1980-83, was inducted in '77, based on his playing career as an OT, primarily with Green Bay. And Dick LeBeau, a Bengals coach for 19 seasons, was inducted in 2010 for his feats as a Detroit Lions CB. LeBeau was Bengals head coach from 2000 (the last 13 games) through '02. He also was a Cincinnati assistant coach from 1980-91 and from '97 through 2000 (first three games).

More on P.B.: Paul Brown was not only the founder and first coach of both the Bengals and the Browns, he was one of the great innovators in pro football history.

"Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in football has been affected by Paul Brown," former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said in 1991. "His wealth of ideas changed the game."

Elected in 1967 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Brown also was founder and first coach of the Cleveland Browns, whom he guided to seven league championships in their first 12 seasons. He posted a .665 winning percentage over 25 years of pro coaching (222-112-9, including playoffs). Earlier in his career, he created an Ohio dynasty at Massillon High School and coached Ohio State University to a national championship (1942).

Brown pioneered coaching as a year-round profession, invented the draw play, introduced the use of face masks on helmets, initiated film study and classroom instruction of players, and was the first coach to call plays from the sidelines. He also broke the color barrier in modern American pro sports, as his Cleveland team featured black stars Marion Motley and Bill Willis in 1946, a year before Jackie Robinson's debut in Major League Baseball.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, and reared in Massillon, Ohio, Brown was Bengals coach and general manager from 1968-75. He stepped down as coach following an 11-3 season in 1975, and continued in the GM's role until his death at age 82 on Aug. 5, 1991.

P.B.'s HOF tree: Paul Brown was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, and numerous other individuals who played and/or coached under Brown went on to become Hall of Fame members themselves.

The most recent player added to the list of Brown's disciples in the Hall of Fame is a 2023 inductee — former Bengals CB Ken Riley. Riley was part of Brown's second Bengals draft class in 1969, a sixth-round pick out of Florida A&M who played his entire 15-year NFL career in Cincinnati. In the team's record book, Riley's 65 career INTs constitute the most dominant lead in a major career category, nearly doubling the second-place total of 33. At the time of Riley's retirement, that total of 65 INTs was the fourth most in NFL history, and it still stands tied for fifth most.

With regard to Bengals players in the Hall of Fame, Brown also was primarily responsible for drafting OT Anthony Munoz, considered by many to be the greatest offensive lineman in NFL history. Munoz, a 1998 inductee, played his entire 13-year pro career ('80-92) with the Bengals. Some analysts thought he was too risky a prospect for an early first-round draft selection because he had experienced knee injuries in college. But Brown, as Bengals general manager in 1980, selected Munoz No. 3 overall.

WR Charlie Joiner, who played for the Bengals under Brown from 1972-75, was elected to the Hall of Fame in the '96 class of inductees. In addition, 16 other players Brown coached for the Cleveland Browns are in the Hall of Fame. These players, and the years Brown coached them in Cleveland, are: DE Doug Atkins (1953-54), FB Jim Brown ('57-62), DE Willie Davis ('58-59), QB Len Dawson ('60-61), WR Len Ford ('50-57), C Frank Gatski ('46-56), QB Otto Graham ('46-55), T/PK Lou Groza ('46-59 and '61-62), G Gene Hickerson ('58-60 and '62), DT Henry Jordan ('57-58), WR Dante Lavelli ('46-56), T Mike McCormack ('54-62), RB/WR Bobby Mitchell ('58-61), FB/LB Marion Motley ('46-53), E Mac Speedie ('46-52) and G Bill Willis ('46-53).

The most recent coaching disciple of Brown's to be named to the Hall of Fame was former Bengals assistant coach and head coach Dick LeBeau, a 2010 inductee. LeBeau's assistant coaching tenure with the Bengals began in '80, when Brown was general manager. He was an assistant coach (DBs and defensive coordinator) with the Bengals from 1980-91 and '97-2000 (three games in '00), and he was the team's head coach from the fourth game of '00 through '02. LeBeau, who also spent many seasons as an assistant coach with Pittsburgh, is widely considered to be one of the best defensive coaches in league history. And though he did not play under Brown, LeBeau recorded 62 career INTs, which ranked third all-time at the time of his retirement as a player.

Other former assistant coaches under Paul Brown who are in the Hall of Fame are Weeb Ewbank and Bill Walsh. Also in the Hall of Fame is Forrest Gregg, hired by Brown as Bengals head coach in 1980.

The 1997 Hall of Fame class included Don Shula, the winningest head coach in NFL history with 328 wins. Shula also played defensive back in the NFL and spent his first two pro seasons in 1951 and '52 under Brown in Cleveland.

RING OF HONOR

ESTABLISHED 2021

The Cincinnati Bengals in 2021 established a Ring of Honor to recognize and pay tribute to former players, coaches and individuals who have played significant roles in the franchise's 56-year history.

The Bengals' Ring of Honor currently includes eight members over three classes. The members' names are permanently displayed on the East club suites facade inside Paycor Stadium.

New members are voted into the ring each offseason by Bengals

Season Ticket Members and are inducted during a halftime ceremony at a home game later that year. In addition to the unveiling of the names inside the stadium during that ceremony, each new inductee is gifted a Bengals ROH blazer lined with orange and black tiger stripes on the inside, which is stitched with the official ROH mark and embroidered with the year of induction. In addition, ROH members are invited to return to Paycor Stadium each year to attend subsequent induction ceremonies.

"This is a way to show our appreciation for individuals who have made a significant impact on our franchise," Bengals President Mike Brown said when the team announce the ROH in 2021. "We have great players and coaches to honor, and it will be fun to reminisce as we go about this process each year."

The Class of 2024 will be announced in July, then inducted during halftime of a primetime Monday Night Football game on Sept. 23 against Washington.

Here is a brief look at each of the previous classes, followed by bios of the current members:

INAUGURAL CLASS OF 2021

- Bengals founder and first head coach Paul Brown
- QB Ken Anderson
- OT Anthony Munoz
- CB Ken Riley

In April, the Bengals announced the formation of the Ring of Honor and named Pro Football Hall of Famers Brown and Munoz as its first two members. They were later joined by Anderson and Riley, as voted by Bengals Season Ticket Members. The ROH was unveiled to fans at halftime of Cincinnati's Game 4 victory vs. Jacksonville, a nationally televised Thursday Night Football contest. Riley since has been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame also.

CLASS OF 2022:

- OT Willie Anderson
- WR Isaac Curtis

Anderson and Curtis, who each were selected to four Pro Bowls during their Bengals careers, were inducted at halftime of Cincinnati's Game 4 win vs. Miami, which again was a Thursday Night Football contest. It also was the Bengals' first-ever "White Bengal" game.

CLASS OF 2023

- QB Boomer Esiason
- WR Chad Johnson

Esiason and Johnson were two of the most beloved personalities in team history, in addition to having two of the franchise's most prolific careers statistically. They were recognized at halftime of the Bengals' Game 3 win over the L.A. Rams on Monday Night Football, in what was the second annual "White Bengal" game.

KEN ANDERSON — CLASS OF 2021

QUARTERBACK (PLAYED 1971-86)

Ken Anderson recorded one of the most prolific stretches in Bengals history during his team-record 16-year playing career. He was a four-time Pro Bowler who led the NFL in passer rating on four occasions, and in 1981 he won league MVP honors while helping lead Cincinnati to its first Super Bowl appearance.

Anderson is the Bengals' all-time leader in passing yards (32,838), and he also ranks in the top five in team history for career completions (second, 2654), completion percentage (fourth, 59.31), touchdown passes (second, 197), passer rating (fifth, 81.9) and 300-yard passing games (tied for third, 19). He led the NFL in passing yards in back-to-back seasons in 1974 and '75, and he led the Bengals to eight winning seasons with four playoff appearances over his career. His 192 games played for Cincinnati are the fifth most in team history and the most by an offensive player.

During his 1981 MVP campaign, Anderson passed for 3754 yards and a then-team record 29 TDs against 10 INTs, posting a league-leading 98.4 passer rating. He then steered the Bengals to a pair of postseason wins, including the iconic "Freezer Bowl" in the AFC Championship at Riverfront Stadium, to earn a berth in Super Bowl XVI.

Anderson was the first Bengal ever to be named the NFL Man of the Year when he received the prestigious award in 1975. Following his playing career, he served as a color analyst for the Bengals' radio broadcasts from 1987-92, then in '93 he joined the Cincinnati coaching staff as quarterbacks coach. He spent 10 seasons on the team's staff, including five (1996-2000) as offensive coordinator.

WILLIE ANDERSON — CLASS OF 2022

OFFENSIVE TACKLE (PLAYED 1996-07)

Regarded as one of the best right offensive tackles of his era, Willie Anderson was selected to four Pro Bowls during his 12-year playing career in Cincinnati.

Anderson entered the league as a first-round draft pick of the Bengals in 1996 and went on to play in 181 games, which is tied for eighth most in team history. He helped the Bengals set club records for fewest sacks allowed twice, with just 21 in 2005 and only 17 in '07. He also blocked for HB Corey Dillon's two record-setting games — a NFL rookie record 246 rushing yards on Dec. 4, 1997 and an NFL record 278 rushing yards on Oct. 22, 2000 (both since broken).

Anderson faced numerous Hall of Fame pass rushers, earning respect and recognition from many opponents across the line of scrimmage. Some of his most notable matchups included Bruce Smith (who is still the NFL's all-time sack leader), Julius Peppers and Terrell Suggs. He once was dubbed by Michael Strahan as "right there as the best right tackle of his generation."

A finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame each of the past three years, Anderson's durability was as notable as his blocking skills. He played in all 16 regular-season games for the Bengals in 10 of his 12 seasons, including starting 116 consecutive contests from 1999-2007.

PAUL BROWN — CLASS OF 2021

TEAM FOUNDER / HEAD COACH 1968-75 / GENERAL MANAGER '68-90

Recognized as one of football's greatest innovators and widely considered among the greatest coaches in the history of the sport, Paul Brown founded the Bengals in 1967 and served as the team's first head coach and general manager from its inaugural season in 1968 through '75. Brown quickly helped build the expansion Bengals into a winning franchise, as Cincinnati earned its first playoff berth in just its third year of existence (1970), which at the time was the earliest a new team had ever reached postseason play.

Brown collected a 55-59-1 overall record as head coach of the Bengals and guided the team to three playoff appearances, before turning his attention solely to the role of general manager from 1976-90. He was the architect of Cincinnati's emergence as a Super Bowl contender in the 1980s, as the Bengals made a pair of appearances in the NFL's biggest game after the '81 and '88 seasons.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, and reared in Massillon, Brown achieved coaching success at every level in his home state. Brown also was founder and first coach (1946-62) of the Cleveland Browns, whom he guided to seven league championships in their first 12 seasons. Prior to his time with the Browns and Bengals, he created an Ohio dynasty at Massillon High School (national champion in 1935, '36, '39 and '40) and coached Ohio State University (NCAA national championship in 1942).

Overall, Brown had a .665 winning percentage in 25 years of pro coaching (222-112-9, including playoffs). He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967. As an innovator, Brown pioneered coaching as a year-round profession, invented the draw play, introduced the use of face masks on helmets, initiated film study and classroom instruction of players, and was the first coach to call plays from the sidelines. He also broke the color barrier in modern American pro sports, as his Cleveland team featured black stars Marion Motley and Bill Willis in 1946, a year before Jackie Robinson's debut in Major League Baseball.

Brown died on Aug. 5, 1991, at age 82.

"Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in football has been affected by Paul Brown," former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said in 1991 upon Brown's passing. "His wealth of ideas changed the game."

Brown's football legacy in Cincinnati has continued, as the Bengals' home venue was known as Paul Brown Stadium from 2000-22. His son Mike currently is the team's president, while his granddaughter Katie Blackburn is executive vice president, and his grandson Paul H. Brown is vice president of player personnel.

ISAAC CURTIS — CLASS OF 2022

WIDE RECEIVER (PLAYED 1973-84)

Known for his breakaway speed and pass catching ability, Isaac Curtis is the Bengals' all-time leader in average yards per reception (17.07).

A former running back and track star at the collegiate level, Curtis was selected by the Bengals in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft and spent his entire 12-year playing career in Cincinnati. His name still appears prominently in the team's record books, as his career marks include the team's third most career receiving yards (7101) and its fourth most receiving touchdowns (53). He was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons, kicked off by a rookie campaign in 1973 that saw him lead the AFC in receiving yardage (843).

Curtis played in 167 regular-season games, and his 20 career 100-yard receiving performances are the third most by a Bengal. He helped lead Cincinnati to the playoffs four times, including 1981 when the Bengals advanced to Super Bowl XVI.

In addition to his statistical accomplishments, Curtis also is widely known for a significant change to the NFL rulebook. His world-class speed was so difficult to defend that opposing players resorted to deliberately blocking and holding him downfield, which led to the NFL creating a rule which permitted defenders to block receivers only within five yards of the line of scrimmage.

BOOMER ESIASON — CLASS OF 2023

QUARTERBACK (PLAYED 1984-92, '97)

Boomer Esiason was a league MVP and a three-time Pro Bowler who remains near the top of every Bengals passing record list, but fans are just as likely to remember him for his noteworthy competitiveness and leadership skills.

Esiason came to Cincinnati as a second-round pick in 1984, and by the end of his total 10 seasons in stripes he set thenteam records for career passer rating (83.1) and 300-yard passing games (23), while trailing only Ken Anderson in completions (2015), completion percentage (56.5), passing yards (27,149) and touchdown passes (187). He won NFL MVP honors in 1988, when he posted a league-leading 97.4 passer rating during the regular season before leading Cincinnati to its second AFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XXIII.

Esiason was the pilot of head coach Sam Wyche's innovative no-huddle offense which took the league by storm in the mid-1980s. With the left-handed Esiason under center, the Bengals ranked in the top five in the NFL in total yards per game for four straight seasons (1986-89), including two as the league leader ('86 and '88).

Esiason was traded by the Bengals to the N.Y. Jets after the 1992 season and spent four years with the Jets ('93-95) and Arizona Cardinals ('96), but returned to Cincinnati for his final campaign in 1997.

CHAD JOHNSON — CLASS OF 2023

WIDE RECEIVER (PLAYED 2001-10)

Chad Johnson, known as Chad "Ochocinco" from 2008-11, was a record-setting receiver for the Bengals who also cemented a position as one of the most amusing and charismatic sports personalities of his era.

A 2001 second-round pick out of Oregon State, Johnson spent his rookie campaign as a backup, but earned a starting role the following year and produced the first of seven 1000-yard seasons, the most in team history. He led the AFC in receiving yards for four consecutive seasons from 2003-06. Johnson's career-high 97 receptions in '05 led the AFC, and his 1369 receiving yards in '06 led the NFL. He was voted to the Pro Bowl six times, including five straight years from '03-07, and he was named All-Pro by Associated Press in both '05 and '06.

Johnson remains Cincinnati's all-time leader in career receptions (751), receiving yards (10,783) and receiving TDs (66). His receiving yardage total as a Bengal ranked as the third most in the NFL from 2001-10, trailing only Terrell Owens and Torry Holt. Known for his precise route running and acceleration, Johnson had 12 career touchdowns of 50 or more yards.

On the field, Johnson's entertaining and eccentric TD celebrations, sideline stunts and mic'd-up snippets made him a magnetic national sports figure throughout his career. Off the field, his fun-loving personality intersected with the rise of social media and helped turn him into a Twitter pioneer and noteworthy celebrity among all pro sports athletes.

ANTHONY MUNOZ — CLASS OF 2021

OFFENSIVE TACKLE (PLAYED 1980-92)

A 1998 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee, Anthony Munoz is credited for helping define the art of playing offensive tackle in the modern NFL. His dominant 13-year career with the Bengals was highlighted by a team-record 11 Pro Bowl selections and 11 All-Pro nods.

A consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, Munoz was selected third overall by Cincinnati in the 1980 NFL Draft. At the time of his retirement in 1992, Munoz's 11 Pro Bowls were the most of any player in league history. He helped steer the Bengals to their first two Super Bowl appearances, as a second-year player in Super Bowl XVI, and as a ninth-year vet in Super Bowl XXIII. And, he is just one of two offensive tackles to be names to both the NFL 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994 and the NFL 100th Anniversary All-Time Team in 2019 (along with former Green Bay Packers OT Forrest Gregg, who also served as Bengals head coach from 1980-83).

Off the field, Munoz's charitable efforts were highly regarded, culminating in him receiving the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award in 1991. He currently serves as the Hall of Fame's Chief Football Relationship Officer. For the past 26 years, he has served as color analyst on the Bengals Preseason TV Network.

A native of Ontario, Calif., whose grandparents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico, Munoz is considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to become a Hall of Famer.

CORNERBACK (PLAYED 1969-83)

Ken Riley earned his spot in the Bengals Ring of Honor in 2021, then in '23 was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Both honors came posthumously for Riley, who passed away on June 7, 2020 at the age of 72. His celebrated career included 15 seasons with the Bengals, which rank as the second most in team history behind QB Ken Anderson.

Riley's 65 career interceptions were the fourth most in NFL history at the time of his retirement in 1983, and currently still stand as the fifth most. It marks perhaps the most dominant lead in any major category of the Bengals' record book, nearly doubling the second-place total of 33. Renowned for his ability to anticipate throws while in coverage, Riley recorded five or more interceptions in seven seasons — one of just nine NFL players ever to do so.

Riley helped lead the Bengals to the playoffs five times, and in 1981 he served as a key contributor in Cincinnati's run to Super Bowl XVI. He went into coaching following his retirement, spending two seasons as an assistant on the Green Bay Packers' staff before serving as head coach for eight years at his alma mater, Florida A&M University.

Members of Riley's family, including his wife, Barbara, and children, Ken II and Kim, represented the Bengals legend at the induction ceremony of the inaugural Ring of Honor class.

STADIUM HISTORY

PAYCOR STADIUM — 2000-PRESENT

(Was named Paul Brown Stadium from 2000-21; renamed Paycor Stadium in '22.)

Paycor Stadium, the home of the Bengals on the riverfront of downtown Cincinnati, hosts its 25th NFL season in 2024. The venue opened in 2000, and for its first 22 years was known as Paul Brown Stadium, named after the Pro Football Hall of Famer who founded the team and served as its first head coach. In August of 2022, the Bengals and Cincinnati-based human capital management company Paycor announced an expanded partnership which included stadium naming rights, renaming the venue Paycor Stadium.

Since its opening, the stadium has won numerous honors while helping keep Cincinnati in the national sports spotlight. Over the last 20 seasons (2004-23), Paycor Stadium has hosted 32 nationally televised Bengals games, and at least three nationally televised contests are scheduled for 2024 (including preseason; subject to flexible scheduling).

Dubbed "The Jungle" in reference to the team's mascot and its fanbase, Paycor Stadium has provided one of the NFL's top home-field advantages over the past two decades. From 2003-10, Cincinnati sold out a franchise-record 57 consecutive home games (regular season and postseason). And, as many of the team's records have been rewritten in recent seasons, so too have the stadium's attendance charts. Nine of the 10 highest-attended home games in Bengals history have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year, and eight of those nine contests have resulted in wins (see "All-time biggest crowds" in "Miscellaneous Facts and Figures" section).

Among the stadium's most notable features is its sleek design and its premier location. The design blends seamlessly with the city, open to views of downtown Cincinnati to the north and the Ohio River to the south. It serves as the westernmost structure of The Banks neighborhood, Cincinnati's modernized entertainment district which includes housing properties, shopping and dining destinations, a riverfront park and three sports venues.

National recognition for Paycor Stadium has come in various modes. The acclaim began well before the stadium's 2000 opening. In May of 1998, studies of its design led to it being among 15 winners from a field of more than 300 projects for an American Architecture Award.

Then, in 2007, it was the only football stadium to be included among Harris Interactive's list of "America's favorite 150 buildings and structures." Paycor Stadium ranked 101st on a list which included a wide range of all types of structures — skyscrapers, museums, churches, hotels, bridges and national memorials, plus many more. No other football stadium was voted among the top 150, and among all sports venues, only two historic baseball parks — Wrigley Field and Yankee Stadium — ranked higher than Paycor.

Also, in 2002, in an industry rarity, Paycor Stadium was singled out by both of the nation's premier architecture magazines, Architectural Record and Architecture. The two stories came on the heels of the American Institute of Architects (California Council) presenting the stadium with the Merit Award in 2001. It marked the first time an NFL stadium received the award from the prestigious AIA.

Though hailed for its outer design, Paycor Stadium also fulfills its primary goal of serving as a premier venue for watching football. Almost 70 percent of the seats are along the sidelines, positioned for the best possible sight lines to the action.

In addition, while most teams across the NFL operate out of a training facility separate from their home stadium, the Bengals utilize Paycor as the team's headquarters for the entire organization, including all business operations staff and football personnel. The players enjoy close proximity to all training and practice areas, including the Kettering Health Performance Center (located inside the stadium, it includes both a large weight room and large synthetic turf area for the team's strength and conditioning programs), the Kettering Health

Practice Fields (immediately west of the stadium, outdoor facilities feature three full-size grass fields which host the team's training camp and most in-season practices), and the Integrity Express Logistics Indoor Facility (located immediately to the southwest of the practice fields, IEL is an 80,000-square foot enclosed facility with a full-size synthetic turf football field for use during inclement weather).

Paycor Stadium includes 132 suites and 7600 club seats.

Additional facts and figures on Paycor Stadium:

SEATING CAPACITY: 65,656.

DIMENSIONS: Paycor Stadium's footprint covers approximately 22 acres, and the structure itself reaches a height of 157 feet.

PLAYING SURFACE: The stadium playing surface is a FieldTurf CORE synthetic turf system (installed in 2024).

RIVERFRONT STADIUM/CINERGY FIELD — 1970-99

(Was named Riverfront Stadium from 1970-95; renamed Cinergy Field in '96.)

Like the Bengals' current home of Paycor Stadium, Riverfront Stadium was located in downtown Cincinnati on the north bank of the Ohio River. Its site was about a quarter-mile east of the current stadium site. Riverfront Stadium was renamed Cinergy Field in 1996.

Housing both the Bengals and major league baseball's Cincinnati Reds, Riverfront/Cinergy was one of a few circular, dual-sport stadiums built in the 1960s and '70s. Seating capacity for Bengals games was 60,389 in the building's full football configuration and 56,759 during shared periods with baseball.

Riverfront hosted one of the most celebrated victories in Bengals history, the 1981 season AFC Championship known as the "Freezer Bowl." The Bengals defeated San Diego 27-7 on a day with the coldest wind chill (minus-59 degrees) and second-lowest temperature reading (minus-9) in NFL history. The Bengals won their second AFC title at Riverfront in 1988, defeating Buffalo 21-10.

The longest Bengals sellout streak at Riverfront was 43 games, from the 1988 season opener through the '92 home finale.

The Reds continued playing in Cinergy Field for three seasons (2000-02) after the Bengals left for their current facility, and Cinergy was imploded in December of '02 to make room for a new Reds stadium and other riverfront development.

NIPPERT STADIUM — 1968-69

The Bengals played their first two seasons in Nippert Stadium on the campus of the University of Cincinnati. When the Bengals played at Nippert, its seating capacity was listed as 31,301.

The Nippert Stadium

site began hosting UC games in 1902. It remains the home of the Bearcats today, and still stands as the third-oldest NCAA FBS stadium. Nippert has been expanded and upgraded many times over the years. Its current seating capacity is approximately 40,000, and its most recent major renovation took place from 2014 through early '15 (the Bearcats played their 2014 home games at Paycor Stadium — then named Paul Brown Stadium — but returned to Nippert in '15).

The stadium began in 1902 as Carson Field, named after Arch Carson, who played a significant role in starting football on the UC campus in 1885. In 1901, as physical director of the university, Carson guided the construction of the first field, which was later named for him (to this day, Nippert's playing surface still is called Carson Field). Fans watched from wooden bleachers constructed on the hillside adjacent to the field.

Construction began in 1916 on a permanent brick-and-mortar stadium, and the structure was completed in '24. The new stadium was named after Jimmy Nippert, a UC player who sustained a spike wound injury during the 1923 season finale and died a month later from blood poisoning. His grandfather, James N. Gamble of Procter & Gamble, provided the funds necessary to complete construction, and Nippert Stadium was dedicated the following November.

PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY IN CINCINNATI

Cincinnati was home to two other teams in the National Football League prior to the present-day Bengals.

One of the teams, known as the Cincinnati Celts, was a member of the NFL—then known as the American Professional Football Association—in the league's second season in 1921. That team finished with a 1-3-0 record in its only season.

In 1933, the NFL granted the city another franchise, this time called the Cincinnati Reds. They competed in the league for two seasons before folding. The Reds finished with a 3-6-1 record and fourth place in the league's Western Division in 1933. In 1934, they lost their first eight games before suspending operations. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks of the season.

It was a third team, however — one which was not a member of the NFL – that eventually proved to be the closest link to today's modern-era team.

In 1937, a team called the Cincinnati Bengals was formed as a member of the rival American Football League. It was that team's name which was later adopted by today's NFL franchise.

The 1937 Bengals finished with a 2-4-2 record in their first year, but the AFL folded after the season. The Bengals continued as an independent team in 1938, playing three NFL teams that year. They beat the Chicago Bears 17-13 and the Pittsburgh Pirates 38-0, and they tied the Chicago Cardinals 7-7.

In 1939, the Bengals joined a new AFL, finishing in second place with a 6-2 record. But again, the league folded after the season.

Once again in 1940, another new AFL emerged, and again the Bengals joined. They recorded 1-7-0 and 1-5-2 marks in 1940 and '41, respectively. That AFL suffered the fate of the two AFLs before it, folding after the 1941 season as the United States entered World War II. Only this time, the Bengals folded along with it.

Pro football returned to Cincinnati 26 years later in 1967, when Paul Brown headed an ownership group which landed an expansion franchise in the modernera American Football League. Brown, a Pro Football Hall of Famer who founded and coached the Cleveland Browns from 1946-62, picked the name Bengals for the new team "to give it a link with past professional football in Cincinnati." (For more information about the origin of the name "Bengals" for both the 1937-41 AFL teams and the current NFL team, please see the 1967 summary of the Team Chronology section.)

The Bengals began play in the AFL in 1968. The AFL merged with the NFL in 1970.

- FIRST REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY: On Sunday, Sept. 15, 1968, the Bengals won their home opener, defeating the Denver Broncos, 24-10. A crowd of 25,049 watched at Nippert Stadium.
- FIRST PLAYOFF GAME: On Saturday, Dec. 26, 1970, the Bengals lost to the Baltimore Colts, 17-0, at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore in an AFC Divisional Playoff. The Bengals reached the playoffs in just the franchise's third season by winning the AFC Central Division with an 8-6 regular-season record.
- FIRST PLAYOFF VICTORY: On Jan. 3, 1982, the Bengals beat the Buffalo Bills, 28-21, at Riverfront Stadium in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game. A week later, the Bengals won the AFC title to earn a trip to Super Bowl XVI.

In the beginning: The Bengals' inaugural season was 1968, when they played in the American Football League (which merged with the NFL in '70).

That first Bengals team had a seven-person coaching staff (in contrast to the 24-person staff heading into the 2024 season). Head coach Paul Brown was joined by Bill Johnson (offensive line coach), Rick Forzano (offensive backfield), Jack Donaldson (defensive line), Tom Bass (defensive backfield), Bill Walsh (offensive ends) and Frank Smouse (linebackers).

Munoz made Pro Bowl history: Former Bengals OT Anthony Munoz was selected to play in 11 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl games, the most by any Cincinnati player by a margin of three. Former DT Geno Atkins is second with eight, and former WR A.J. Green is third with seven.

When he retired after the 1992 season, Munoz's total of 11 selections was the most of any player in NFL history. Even today, he still is tied for 16th in most Pro Bowl selections all time. The leader is New England/Tampa Bay QB Tom Brady with 15, followed by four players with 14 each — Kansas City/Atlanta TE Tony Gonzalez, Indianapolis/Denver QB Peyton Manning, Houston Oilers/Tennessee OL Bruce Matthews and St. Louis Rams DT Merlin Olsen.

Hold that line: Over Games 5-12 of the 2009 season, the Bengals set a franchise record by holding eight straight opponents under the 100-yard mark in rushing. Prior to 2009, the franchise record for consecutive games in this category was six, and that spanned two seasons (1981-82). The previous record for one season was five straight games, set in 1983.

Sellout streaks: The Bengals sold out 57 consecutive home games (regular and postseason) from Nov. 16, 2003 through Nov. 8, 2010. That run at Paul Brown Stadium (now named Paycor Stadium) stands as the longest in club history, topping a 43-game streak at Riverfront Stadium between 1988 and '92.

Bengals in overtime: The Bengals are 21-19-4 in overtime games (regular-season and postseason), for a winning percentage of .523.

Overtime was put in place for regular-season games in 1974. The Bengals' first-ever OT game was 13-10 win over the Houston Oilers on Oct. 30, 1977 at Riverfront Stadium. The Bengals did not play an OT game in postseason until 2021, when they won the AFC Championship game at Kansas City, 27-24.

In 2013 and in '21, Cincinnati played three regular-season overtime games in the same seasons, the only such instances in franchise history. And in all other regular seasons in which overtime existed (since 1974), the Bengals played in two OT games just seven times ('90, '92, '95, '01, '08, '15 and '23).

Three full marathons and three minis: Historically speaking, the marathon of NFL regular-season games always was a total of 75 minutes of clock time, which included four 15-minute quarters, combined with a full 15-minute overtime period. In most cases, when a game reached the end of overtime, that contest would end in a tie, unless of course the game was decided on the final play of OT as time expired.

The Bengals participated in only three full 75-minute regular-season games in team history, and all three were ties — in 2008 vs. Philadelphia, in '14 vs. Carolina and in '16 vs. Washington in London.

However, the NFL shortened overtime from a 15-minute period to a 10-minute period in 2017. Thus, nowadays, the maximum regular-season game time possible is 70 minutes — a mini marathon, you could say.

Cincinnati has logged three 70-minute games since overtime was shortened in 2017. One of those contests was a tie — a 23-23 deadlock with the Eagles in Game 3 of 2020 at Philadelphia. But the Bengals also have two instances of a now-maximum 70-minute game that did not result in a tie, courtesy of a 38-35 loss to the Dolphins in Game 15 of 2019 at Miami, and a 23-20 loss to Pittsburgh in the '22 season opener. Both of those games ended with the opposing kicker booting a FG as OT expired. Those games are two of only 17 contests in NFL history to have been won/lost as overtime expired (and 10 of those 17 have occurred since 2017).

Bengals double-digit club: Entering 2023, 33 players shared the distinction of having played 10 or more campaigns for the Bengals:

The name game: The most common last name among players on the Bengals' all-time roster is Johnson. Twenty-seven (27) players named Johnson are listed (including Chad Johnson, who changed his last name to Ochocinco in 2008, then back to Johnson in '11 after his career ended).

The next two most common names are Smith (20) and Williams (19; not including Nick Luchey, who permanently changed his name from Williams in '02).

The Bengals' all-time roster has more last names start with the letter B than any other letter — a total of 118. The letter S is second with 112 names.

The only letter without a player on the team's all-time roster is X.

Coldest NFL games on record:

- Minus-13 degrees (-48 degrees wind chill) Dec. 31, 1967, Lambeau Field, Green Bay, Wis., NFL Championship Green Bay 21, Dallas 17
- Minus-9 degrees (-59 degrees wind chill) Jan. 10, 1982, Riverfront Stadium, Cincinnati, Ohio, AFC Championship Cincinnati 27, San Diego 7.
- Minus-6 degrees (-25 degree wind chill) Jan. 10, 2016, TČF Bank Stadium, Minneapolis, Minn., NFC Wild Card Seattle 10, Minnesota 9.

10 wins, no playoffs: The best Bengals team to miss out on postseason play was coach Bill Johnson's 1976 club, which went 10-4 but lost a tiebreaker to Pittsburgh for the AFC Central Division title.

Only one Wild Card team made the playoffs from each conference at that time, and it went to 11-3 New England, which lost out on the AFC East title on a tiebreaker

One other Bengals team — the 1986 club — won 10 games (10-6) and failed to make the playoffs.

Talent isn't everything: The 1989 Bengals were a talented team, but never put it all together on a weekly basis. They outscored opponents 404-285, but finished only 8-8.

Not since the 1950 Philadelphia Eagles had a break-even team outscored its foes by such a large point margin (7.4) per game.

Dunlap's PD frenzy: In the first 40 seasons in which Bengals defensive statistics were recorded (1976-2015), no defensive lineman ever led the team in passes defensed for a season. Really, no one was even close. But it happened in 2016, and it wasn't close.

DE Carlos Dunlap had five more PDs — 15 — than anyone else on the team in '16. And he had seven more PDs than any other NFL defensive lineman that year. The players ahead of Dunlap in the NFL were all cornerbacks, and the next-highest total by an NFL defensive lineman was eight. The next-highest total by a Bengals player in 2016 was 10, by CB Dre Kirkpatrick.

"Passes defensed" include interceptions as well as passes broken up. When a player makes an INT, he also is credited with a PD. What makes this stat even more noteworthy is the fact that Dunlap had no INTs in '16. And in the category of PDs without counting INTs, only four NFL players — all CBs — were ahead of Dunlap.

100 x 3 = team first: The Bengals' 27-10 win over Oakland on Dec. 10, 2006 at Paul Brown Stadium (now named Paycor Stadium) was the team's only game ever with a 100-yard rusher (Rudi Johnson, 117 yards) and two 100-yard receivers (T.J. Houshmandzadeh, 118; Chad Johnson, 101).

Get the point? Only three times in the Bengals' 55 seasons has a non-kicker led the team in scoring.

In 1979, FB Pete Johnson was the team's leading scorer with 90 points (15 TDs). FB Ickey Woods led the 1988 Bengals with 90 points (15 TDs). And in 2001, HB Corey Dillon scored a team-high 78 points (13 TDs).

A special explosion: The Bengals' record for most points scored in a game by special teams units is 31, in a 43-14 win at Buffalo on Nov. 8, 1970.

CB Lemar Parrish scored two special teams TDs — one on a 95-yard kickoff return, and another on an 83-yard return of a blocked FG attempt. K Horst Muhlmann added 15 points on five FGs, and four PATs by Muhlmann completed the special teams onslaught.

The offense scored only one TD, on a one-yard run by RB Jess Phillips. The defense scored a TD on an eight-yard fumble return by DE Royce Berry.

Perfection at home: The Bengals have gone undefeated (and untied) at home during the regular season four times in team history:

- 8-0 in the Super Bowl season of 1988
- 8-0 in the 2013 playoff season
- 7-0 in the 1973 playoff season
- 4-0 in the strike-shortened 1982 playoff campaign

Bengals QB MVPS: Two Bengals QBs, both during Super Bowl seasons, have been named by nationwide panels of media as winners of the Associated Press NFL Most Valuable Player Award.

Ken Anderson was the winner in 1981, leading the NFL with a 98.4 passer rating. He completed 300 of 479 passes (62.6 percent) for 3754 yards, with a then-club record 29 TD passes against 10 INTs.

Boomer Esiason was the 1988 winner, leading the league with a 97.4 rating and tying for the AFC lead in TDs with 28. He completed 223 of 388 passes (57.5 percent) for 3572 yards, with 14 INTs.

Both QBs led their teams to 12-4 records in the regular season.

This record holds the record: The oldest individual season record in Bengals history — and the only one still standing from Nippert Stadium — is QB Greg Cook's average of 9.41 yards per passing attempt in 1969.

Parrish hits paydirt: The only Bengals player ever to score two touchdowns in a game on returns and/or recoveries is Lemar Parrish — and he did it three times.

Parrish, a Bengals CB and kick returner from 1970-77, scored two TDs on Nov. 8, 1970 at Buffalo (95-yard kickoff return and 83-yard return of a blocked FG attempt); on Dec. 17, 1972 at Houston (25-yard INT return and 33-yard INT return); and on Oct. 6, 1974 vs. Washington (90-yard punt return and 47-yard fumble return).

Double whammy: Twice in Bengals history, two Cincinnati players have broken the 100-yard rushing mark in the same game.

On Oct. 29, 1972, in a 30-7 win vs. Houston, RB Doug Dressler gained 110 yards and HB Essex Johnson ran for 103 yards. On Dec. 7, 1986, in a 31-7 victory at New England, HB James Brooks rushed for 163 yards and FB Stanley Wilson gained 120 yards.

The longest shots: The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals' all-time roster was K-P Dave Green of Ohio University.

Green was the 418th selection in the 1972 draft, taken in the 17th round. He didn't make the roster in 1972, and had a brief stint (no games played) with Houston in '73 before being re-acquired by Cincinnati. Green played for the Bengals from 1974-75, scoring 70 points and averaging 40.1 yards on 134 punts. He was acquired by Tampa Bay in 1976, and continued playing in the NFL through '79.

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster in the same season of his selection was LB Larry Ely of Iowa. Ely was the 397th selection in 1970, a 16th-round pick. He played for Cincinnati in 1970 and '71.

Go long ... real long: The Bengals' record book lists two pass plays of 90 or more yards:

- QB Ken Anderson connected with WR Billy Brooks for a team-record 94-yarder for a touchdown on Nov. 13, 1977 at Minnesota.
- QB Virgil Carter connected with WR Speedy Thomas for a 90-yard TD strike on Sept. 19, 1971 vs. Philadelphia at Riverfront Stadium.

High-scoring affairs: The two highest-scoring games (combined point totals of both teams) in Bengals history have both come against the Cleveland Browns. Here are the five highest-scoring games in franchise history:

TC	OTAL POINTS	DATE AND OPPONENT	RESULT
1.	106	Nov. 28, 2004 vs. Cleveland	W, 58-48
2.	96	Sept. 16, 2007 at Cleveland	L, 45-51
3.	90	Nov. 12, 2006 vs. San Diego	L, 41-49
4.	86	Nov. 30, 1997 at Philadelphia	L, 42-44
5.	85	Sept. 22, 1985 vs. San Diego	L, 41-44

Riley reigns supreme: In the Bengals record book, the most dominant lead in a major career category belongs to CB Ken Riley. His 65 interceptions nearly double the total (33) of second-place CB Louis Breeden.

Bengals tap the Buckeye pipeline: Ohio State is by far the top supplier of college talent to Cincinnati, with 37 former Buckeyes having qualified for the Bengals' official all-time roster.

Notable former Buckeye-to-Bengal players include Pro Bowl FB Pete Johnson (1977-83), the No. 5 rusher in Bengals history, as well as RB Archie Griffin ('76-83), CB Ray Griffin ('78-84), DE Sam Hubbard (2018-present), OT Rufus Mayes ('70-78), K Mike Nugent (2010-16) and DT Dan Wilkinson ('94-97).

Alabama, Florida and Michigan are tied for the next highest number of Bengals alumni (22 each).

Record crowd: The official attendance figure of 92,944 for Cincinnati's 20-17 loss at Dallas on Sept. 18, 2022 at AT&T Stadium was the largest ever for a Bengals game.

The previous record for all Bengals games had been 92,045, recorded on Jan. 13, 1991 at Los Angeles Coliseum for the 1990 season Divisional Playoff game against the L.A. Raiders.

In regular season only, the previous record was 91,653 — also at AT&T

Stadium — in a Cowboys' 28-14 win on Oct. 9, 2016.

DL TDs to remember:

On Oct. 7, 2018, Bengals DEs Michael Johnson and Sam Hubbard both scored fourth-quarter TDs, leading Cincinnati to a comeback win over the Miami Dolphins at Paul Brown Stadium (now named Paycor Stadium).

Johnson struck first and knotted the game at 17 when he picked off a Ryan Tannehill pass and returned it 22 yards for a TD. Later in the quarter, Hubbard recovered a Tannehill fumble (forced by DE Carlos Dunlap) and returned it 19 yards for a score, putting the Bengals ahead by the final 27-17 margin.

It marked the first time in Bengals history, and just the second time since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger, that two defensive linemen scored TDs in the same quarter. The first such instance came on Dec. 10, 1989, when Minnesota's Keith Millard and Tim Newton both scored in a Vikings win vs. Atlanta.

Worst to first: Five times in their history, the Bengals have finished first in their division (in 1970, '81, '88, '90 and '21) after finishing in last place the season before.

1000-yard duos ... and two trios: Eighteen times in the Bengals' 55 years (1968-2023), the team has had both a 1000-yard rusher and a 1000-yard receiver in the same season.

And two times — in the 2006 and '21 seasons — the Bengals have had a 1000-yard rusher and two 1000-yard receivers.

No TDs? No problem: Five times in their history, the Bengals have won without scoring a touchdown:

- On Sept. 24, 1972, K Horst Muhlmann's five FGs (41, 32, 20, 32, 34) fueled a 15-10 victory over Pittsburgh at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field).
- On Oct. 21, 1984, K Jim Breech kicked four FGs (24, 23, 25, 33) for all the Bengals' points in a 12-9 victory over Cleveland at Riverfront.
- On Nov. 6, 1994, K Doug Pelfrey booted six FGs (36, 44, 36, 47, 28, 26) and LB-DE Alfred Williams scored on a safety as the Bengals posted a 20-17 overtime victory at Seattle.
- On Nov. 11, 2007, K Shayne Graham kicked a team-record seven FGs (34, 19, 22, 35, 35, 21, 33) for all of Cincinnati's points in a 21-7 win at Baltimore.
- On Sept. 19, 2010, K Mike Nugent kicked five FGs (36, 30, 46, 38, 25) for all the Bengals' points in a 15-10 win over Baltimore at Paul Brown Stadium (now named Paycor Stadium).

Doubling up: Twice in Bengals history, a Cincinnati player has managed 100-plus yards both rushing and receiving on the same day.

HB Essex Johnson was the first, rushing for 121 yards on 21 carries and getting 116 yards on two receptions on Sept. 30, 1973 at San Diego. He stood alone in the category until Dec. 7, 1986, when HB James Brooks burned the Patriots at New England for 163 yards on 18 rushes and 101 yards on six receptions. Cincinnati won both games.

Bengals opponents have managed double 100-yard performances twice, and Cincinnati lost both of those games.

On Nov. 23, 1975, Cleveland HB Greg Pruitt had 121 yards on 17 rushes and 106 yards on seven receptions in a 35-23 Browns win at Cleveland Stadium. On Sept. 22, 1985, San Diego RB Lionel James became the lone opponent to ever record dual 100s in Cincinnati in the Chargers' 44-41 win at Riverfront Stadium. James had 127 yards on 12 rushes and 118 yards on five catches.

Kirkpatrick's 2017 INT a historical oddity: In the first quarter of the Bengals' win at Denver on Nov. 19, 2017, with the Broncos facing a third-and-three at the Cincinnati four-yard line, CB Dre Kirkpatrick picked off a pass from QB Brock Osweiler in the end zone and sprinted down the field toward what would've been his third career pick-six.

However, with about 15 yards to go before reaching the end zone, Kirkpatrick fumbled the ball without any disruption by a Bronco. He did manage to recover his own fumble at the Denver one-yard line, but before the Bengals punched it into the end zone three plays later on a TD pass, the blooper had already spread around the internet like wildfire.

At the time, Kirkpatrick's 101-yard return, which he shared a laugh about after the game, was the longest INT return in NFL history to not result in a TD (it now is the second-longest; N.Y. Jets S Marcus Maye had a 104-yard INT in 2018 without scoring).

CBS-TV reported shortly after Kirkpatrick's play that the visibly fatigued cornerback became sick upon returning to the sideline, a victim of exhaustion and the Denver altitude (though he did not miss any game time).

After the game, Kirkpatrick was the target of good-natured ribbing by teammates and fans. And he was not above a little self-deprecation. As the team boarded its flight back to Cincinnati, Kirkpatrick posted a photo to one of his social media accounts of a gift someone had left on his seat — an oxygen tank, with a note attached that read, "Who Dey. Great game."

Call it the 'Breezer Bowl': Though the game is not as well-known in Bengals lore as the famous "Freezer Bowl" AFC Championship Game of the 1981 season, the Titans' 2008 regular-season visit to Cincinnati perhaps should be remembered — with all due seriousness — as the "Breezer Bowl."

The wind speed at kickoff of the Titans' 24-7 win at Paul Brown Stadium (now named Paycor Stadium) on Sept. 14, 2008 was a somewhat notable 21 mph. However, it drastically increased very soon after the game started. The remnants of Hurricane lke combined with another strong weather system to produce a powerful windstorm by the end of the first quarter. The final three quarters were played in sustained winds of just over 70 mph, which nearly qualified as a Category 1 hurricane (defined as sustained winds of 74-95 mph). The Bengals and Titans managed only 127 and 118 passing yards, respectively, while food wrappers, paper cups and even pizza boxes swirled around the field.

Though the game was played without incident or other weather conditions such as rain, the windstorm was extremely dangerous and damaging outside the stadium. Five persons were killed by falling trees during the storm, which caused significant widespread damage to trees, homes and power utilities across southeast Missouri, southern Illinois, southern Indiana, western/northern Kentucky and southwestern Ohio. The storm left more than a million people in the Greater Cincinnati area without power, some for more than a month. It was the costliest natural disaster in the history of Ohio, with total damage estimates of nearly $1.5 billion in the Buckeye State alone.

A rare runner: The only Bengals quarterback ever to rush for 100 yards in a game was Virgil Carter, who gained 110 on nine carries against Cleveland on Nov. 15, 1970 (it was Cincinnati's first-ever win over its Ohio rival).

Passing fancy: The Bengals' individual career record for most games passing for 300 or more yards is 28, held by QB Andy Dalton (2011-19).

Boomer Esiason (1984-92, '97) ranks second in 300-yard passing games with 23, followed by both Ken Anderson ('71-86) and Joe Burrow (2020-present) with 19 each.

The NFL and COVID-19 in 2020 and '21: The COVID-19 pandemic turned the world upside down in 2020, and with it came a complete overhaul of NFL operations.

It started in early March, when the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 to be a worldwide pandemic. The United States declared it a national emergency shortly thereafter, setting off a chain reaction of countless health-related operational changes announced by businesses and groups all over the country. Those announcements collectively affected nearly every aspect of daily life, including sports. The NBA paused its season on March 11, with the NHL and MLB following on March 12. Also on March 12, the NCAA canceled of its men's and women's basketball tournaments. Then on March 13, the Bengals joined most other NFL teams by announcing that their facility would close the following week (March 16-20) and that employees would be working remotely.

As the pandemic continued to spread throughout the country and states began widespread shutdowns of businesses deemed "non-essential," the NFL soon mandated that all teams' facilities, no matter their location, remain closed until further notice. As a result, the entire NFL offseason program — everything from April's voluntary workouts through June's mandatory minicamp — was canceled, as U.S. sports leagues remained shut down until mid-summer. Additionally, the 2020 NFL Draft, which had been scheduled to be held in Las Vegas, instead was held virtually, with prospects watching from their homes.

Following a league memo that permitted teams to re-open their facilities, the Bengals welcomed a limited number of employees back into the office on May 20, after a more than two-month closure of the facility. Numerous precautions were put into place and maintained for the rest of the year, such as the mandatory wearing of facemasks and the social distancing of workspaces. The NFL and NFLPA reached an agreement late in July regarding COVID-19 protocols for the season, and players began reporting to team facilities for pre-training camp physicals the last week of July. Full training camp practices didn't begin until mid-August, and the NFL and NFLPA eventually agreed to cancel all preseason games as a precaution. The league contracted with a medical company called BioReference Laboratories to test for COVID-19 among players, coaches and select football staff each day at team facilities. Additionally, everyone in the testing protocol was required to wear an electronic tracker at all times while at the facility, which would trace and identify all persons in close contact with any individual who tested positive.

Some NFL states/cities permitted a limited number of fans to attend games, while others did not allow fans at all. The Bengals opened their season at home against the L.A. Chargers in the first and only NFL game ever held in Cincinnati without fans. The team did so to comply with an order from the State of Ohio to limit mass gatherings, however that order was later loosened, and the Bengals hosted between 6000 and 11,000 fans at their seven remaining home games. In all, the Bengals played four games without fans — one at home, and three on the road. To compensate for the lack of crowd noise during games, the NFL permitted teams to pump in a pre-determined level of crowd noise via speakers.

Operations at Paul Brown Stadium (now named Paycor Stadium), home to both the Bengals' training facility and administrative offices, were entirely revamped due to the virus. In addition to the daily tests, contact tracing and mask-wearing, tested and non-tested employees were prohibited to have inperson contact with each other at work, and many of the coaches' daily meetings with players were held virtually. Also, media were not permitted inside at the facility (though they could watch outdoor practices from a safe distance, and games in the stadium from the press box), and all media interviews with players were held either by phone or online.

Between late July and early January, Bengals players, coaches and football staff each took up to approximately 170 daily tests. While many NFL teams faced COVID-19 positive tests, outbreaks and policy violations, Cincinnati was among the few which emerged from the 2020 season relatively unscathed. The Bengals went without a single positive test from a player or coach through Week 8 of the regular season, and in total only nine players (including four on practice squad or reserve lists) spent time on the Reserve/COVID-19 list at any point due to either a positive test or being deemed a close contact (missing only 15 combined games). Additionally, six assistant coaches missed only nine combined contests.

Most sports on every level struggled with game cancellations due to the pandemic. In the NFL, numerous contests were postponed to Mondays, Tuesdays or even Wednesdays, while multiple teams lost byes or were forced to rearrange schedules, but NFL guidelines proved effective as all 269 scheduled games (regular season and playoffs) ultimately were played. The Bengals were among the most fortunate teams, as all 16 of their regular-season games were played at their originally scheduled dates and times.

Vaccines for COVID-19 were developed rapidly and made available widely by March of 2021. By the time NFL training camps opened in July of 2021, most players and staff across the league had been fully vaccinated. The COVID protocols that had been in place for the 2020 season were relaxed in some ways for teams and fans who were fully vaccinated, but they were not eliminated for '21. Most stadiums returned to capacity crowds, with some venues still adhering to state and/or local regulations/restrictions. COVID-19 testing for players and staff still took place through most of the season, though less frequently than in 2020. Most fully vaccinated individuals received booster shots by the end of November, and the league had very few positive cases overall through early | *— Postseason (AFC Championship).

December, despite the rise of more transmissible viral variants. A significant mid-December surge in positive cases across the league resulted in postponing three games, but all 2021 games were played and playoffs occurred as planned.

Once the 2021 season was over — shortly after Super Bowl LVI — the NFL and the NFLPA jointly announced the suspension of all COVID-19 protocols going into the 2022 league year.

A rookie long distance leader: Bengals K Evan McPherson is the only kicker in team history to convert three FGs of 50 or more yards in a game.

McPherson booted FGs of 54, 53 and 51 on Nov. 21, 2021 at Las Vegas. That tied the then-NFL record for most 50/plus-yarders in a contest (since broken). For perspective, there were only a total of four instances prior to 2021 in which a Bengals kicker made as many as three 50/plus-yarders in a full season.

Then, four weeks later, McPherson — a rookie in 2021 — converted two FGs of 50 or more yards in a game when he hit a team-record 58-yarder, as well as a 53-yarder, on Dec. 19, 2021 at Denver. Former Bengals Chris Bahr and Doug Pelfrey were the only other kickers in team history to convert two FGs of 50 or more yards in a game. Bahr booted FGs of 55 and 52 yards vs. Houston on Sept. 23, 1979, while Pelfrey connected on attempts from 53 and 50 yards at Houston on Oct. 24, 1993.

As a rookie, McPherson converted nine FGs of 50 or more yards during the regular season, just one shy of the NFL record of 10. That more than doubled the previous single-season team record of four, set by K Horst Muhlmann in 1970.

McPherson's rookie total of nine FGs of 50 or more yards also was enough by itself to set a new team career record, surpassing the previous mark of eight, set by former K Doug Pelfrey (1993-99), and later tied by former K Mike Nugent (2010-16). Even more impressive is that (1) McPherson set that new career mark in just his first 14 games, and (2) the mark did not include postseason contests, in which he added an additional three FGs of 50 or more yards.

A second-half shutdown streak for the ages: The Bengals opened the 2022 season by going seven consecutive games without allowing a TD in the second half or overtime. They became just the second team since 1930 to not give up a TD after halftime through their first seven games in a season, joining the '34 Detroit Lions, whose run reached eight games.

Cincinnati also was just the sixth team since 1930 to hold opponents out of the end zone in the second half or OT for seven straight games at any point in a season, and the first to do so since the '97 Kansas City Chiefs, who hold the record for 10 straight games.

The 1973 Miami Dolphins (seven games) were the only other team to accomplish that feat since the '70 NFL/AFL merger.

Bengals' biggest comebacks: Here is a list of the 10 biggest comebacks in Bengals history which ended in wins (including postseason):

^{*} NOTE: It is not possible to accurately list all-time postseason possession averages because time of possession was not recorded until 1977. Postseason possession averages after 1977 are listed in the year-by-year breakdowns on the following pages.

^{} NOTE: The Bengals' and their opponents' two-point conversion totals listed here were recorded in 2005 and thereafter. Prior to that season, all of the Bengals' playoff appearances had occurred in years in which the two-point conversion did not exist. The two-point conversion, which existed in the AFL when the Bengals were members in 1968 and '69, was not instituted in the NFL until '94.

^{} NOTE: It is not possible to accurately list all-time postseason defensive statistics because the three types of defensive statistics — defense, special teams and miscellaneous — were combined through 1987, but separated in '88 and thereafter. Defensive statistics are, however, listed in each of the year-by-year breakdowns on the following pages. All defensive statistics on the following pages are press box statistics produced at the games.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Baltimore Colts 17, Cincinnati Bengals 0 Saturday, Dec. 26, 1970 at Memorial Stadium

In their first season in the NFL after two in the American Football League, the Bengals made a furious run to reach the playoffs, winning their last seven games after a 1-6 start and claiming the first AFC Central Division title. But the powerful Colts, who would go on to defeat Dallas in Super Bowl V, were too much for Cincinnati. Legendary Baltimore QB Johnny Unitas threw TD passes to WRs Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters, and the Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day, limiting Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 passing. Colts rookie RB Norm Bulaich rushed for 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, the Colts Kicker from the University of Cincinnati, kicked a 44-yard FG. O'Brien would wind up making the game-winning FG as time expired in Super Bowl V. Cincinnati's lone scoring attempt, a 50-yard FG try by K Horst Muhlmann, was blocked by LB Ray May

Oakland Raiders 31, Cincinnati Bengals 28 Sunday, Dec. 28, 1975 at Oakland Coliseum

The 1975 Bengals posted the best regular-season winning percentage in franchise history (.786), and they led the NFL in passing yards. But their 11-3 record earned them only a Wild Card spot behind 12-2 Pittsburgh in the AFC Central Division, and they drew a road game at 12-2 Oakland in the first playoff round. QB Ken Stabler, who went on to lead the Raiders to the AFC Championship game for the third straight year, passed for three TDs against Cincinnati. The Bengals closed a 31-14 fourth-quarter deficit to 31-28 with QB Ken Anderson's TD passes of 25 and 14 yards to WRs Charlie Joiner and Isaac Curtis, and Cincinnati had a chance to win after DT Ron Carpenter recovered a Raiders fumble on the Oakland 38 with 4:19 left. But a sack by future Hall-of-Fame LB Ted Hendricks helped the Raiders hold the Bengals without a first down, and after failing on a fourth-down try, the Bengals never regained possession. Stabler completed 17 of 23 attempts for 199 yards, three TDs and just one INT, while the Raiders totaled for 173 yards rushing. Anderson completed 17 of 27 passes for 201 yards, two TDs and no INTs, but was sacked five times.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 28, Buffalo Bills 21 Sunday, Jan. 3, 1982 at Riverfront Stadium

It took four tries, but the AFC Central Division Champion Bengals finally won a playoff game — their first-ever postseason home contest — when they held off a rallying Bills Wild Card team, taking the first step toward Super Bowl XVI. Cincinnati, which failed to produce a postseason win in its first three playoff appearances — in 1970, '73 and '75 — lost leads of 14-0 and 21-14 before eventually winning with what was a solid performance by the entire team. The offense didn't yield a turnover while the defense intercepted two Buffalo passes, and the special teams played soundly the entire game. OB Ken Anderson, who was the NFL's top-rated quarterback and its consensus MVP in the regular season, connected on a 16-yard TD pass to rookie WR Cris Collinsworth with 10:39 remaining in the fourth quarter to break a tie and take a 28-21 lead. The Bills were again poised to tie the game and set up an overtime period after driving 50 yards to the Bengals' 20 with just over three minutes left. But a costly delay-of-game penalty on fourth down led to giving the ball back to Cincinnati, and Buffalo was unable to mount another serious threat. Anderson completed 14 of 21 passes for 192 yards and directed a 305-yard attack, and TE Dan Ross recorded a game-high six receptions for 71 yards. The Bills held Bengals FB Pete Johnson, who had a career-high 1077 rushing yards in the regular season, to just 45 yards on 17 carries. But HB Charles Alexander — Johnson's blocker for the majority of the regular season — responded for Cincinnati with a season-high 72 yards, with two TD runs.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

"The Freezer Bowl" Cincinnati Bengals 27, San Diego Chargers 7 Sunday, Jan. 10, 1982 at Riverfront Stadium

This game not only brought the Bengals their first AFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XVI, it was played in conditions that made the 46,302 fans on hand feel like champions themselves. With a frigid temperature of minus-9 degrees, winds gusting from 20 to 35 miles per hour and an incredible wind-chill factor of minus-59, this famous game became known as the "Freezer Bowl." To this day, no NFL game has been played with a wind chill so cold. More than 13,000 ticket holders stayed home, but those who came saw the Bengals dominate their opponents from sunny San Diego. The Bengals first attacked them mentally, as every Cincinnati offensive and defensive lineman — along with FB Pete Johnson — took the psychological initiative to tough the cold and play in short sleeves. The teams were relatively even in yards gained with Cincinnati leading 318-301, but the Bengals won the turnover battle 4-0 with two INTs and two FRs. Chargers QB Dan Fouts struggled more in the arctic atmosphere than Bengals QB Ken Anderson, who completed 14 of 22 passes for 161 yards, two TDs and no INTs. Only one player suffered a weatherrelated injury in the game — Bengals DE Eddie Edwards with a frostbitten right ear.

SUPER BOWL XVI

San Francisco 49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21 Sunday, Jan. 24, 1982 at Pontiac Silverdome (Pontiac, Mich.)

Cincinnati outgained San Francisco by 81 yards (356-275), marking the first time in Super Bowl history the losing team led in scrimmage yardage. Bengals ÖB Ken Anderson set Super Bowl records (since surpassed) for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5), and his 300 passing yards nearly doubled the 157 by 49ers QB Joe Montana, the game's MVP. But Cincinnati suffered four turnovers to San Francisco's one, and three of those giveaways led to 17 first-half points for the 49ers, who led 20-0 at intermission. Leading 20-7, San Francisco staged a memorable goal-line stand late in the third quarter, stopping Cincinnati for no gain on three straight plays from the one-yard line. The Bengals still closed the gap to 20-14 with a four-yard TD pass from Anderson to TE Dan Ross with 10:06 left, but the 49ers added FGs of 40 and 23 yards by K Ray Wersching to pull away. Cincinnati crept to within 26-21 with 16 seconds left on a second Anderson-to-Ross TD pass, but San Francisco recovered the Bengals' ensuing onside kick to seal the victory. Wersching's four FGs tied a Super Bowl record (still tied) and Ross' 11 receptions set a Super Bowl record (since broken).

1982 SEASON

AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

N.Y. Jets 44, Cincinnati Bengals 17 Sunday, Jan. 9, 1983 at Riverfront Stadium

The defending AFC Champion Bengals lost an early 14-3 lead and were dismantled by the underdog Jets. The 7-2 Bengals were the AFC's No. 3 seed in 16-team "Super Bowl Tournament," organized for the strike-shortened regular season. RB Freeman McNeil led No. 6 seed New York, rushing for 202 yards and a TD against Cincinnati's No. 3-ranked rush defense. Cincinnati trailed only 23-17 after three periods, but suffered a particularly demoralizing fourth quarter, which included two INTs (one for a TD), a TD pass nullified by a false start penalty, a missed FG, a lost fumble and two rushing TDs allowed.

1988 SEASON

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 21, Seattle Seahawks 13 Saturday, Dec. 31, 1988 at Riverfront Stadium

Unbeaten at home in eight regular-season games, the AFC Central Division Champion Bengals ran their Riverfront Stadium mark to 9-0 by rushing for a season-high 254 yards. They scored all three of their TDs in the first half and withstood a 13-point Seattle fourth quarter. The Seahawks pulled to within 21-13 on QB Dave Krieg's one-yard sneak with 6:05 to play, but K Norm Johnson's missed PAT left the visitors štill two scores short, as the two-point conversion would not be added to NFL rules until 1994. The victory earned the Bengals their first trip to the AFC Championship game since the 1981 season. Bengals rookie FB Ickey Woods rushed for 126 yards on 23 carries, and his one-yard TD run midway through the second quarter gave Cincinnati a 21-0 halftime lead. A pair of three-yard TD runs in the first and second quarters by FB Stanley Wilson opened the Bengals' scoring. Wilson added 45 rushing yards on seven attempts, while HB James Brooks rushed for 72 yards on 13 attempts. Cincinnati's defense held Seattle to just 22 yards rushing the entire game and only 49 total net yards in the first half. The Bengals stayed on the ground to win, getting only seven completions from QB Boomer Esiason, the NFL's toprated guarterback and its consensus MVP in the regular season, and only one reception from WR Eddie Brown, who led the AFC in the regular season with 1273 receiving yards.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

Cincinnati Bengals 21, Buffalo Bills 10 Sunday, Jan. 8, 1989 at Riverfront Stadium

The week before the AFC Championship game was filled with controversy, as Bills head coach Marv Levy convinced the NFL office that Bengals head coach Sam Wyche's no-huddle offense was illegal. Cincinnati had developed and employed the no-huddle attack all season, but shortly before kickoff, the league informed the team that game officials would severely restrict its use. Wyche eventually would prevail in this rule book battle. Nevertheless, his offense, forced to abandon its no-huddle tactics for this contest, returned to basics and led the charge in beating Buffalo for a berth in Super Bowl XXIII. It was Cincinnati's third victory of the year over Buffalo, the Bengals having also downed the Bills in the preseason and regular season. Cincinnati won with a punishing rushing game, running the ball on 50 of 73 offensive plays and gaining 175 of its 249 total yards on the ground. Cincinnati's defense recorded a solid performance, holding the Bills to 181 total yards, including just 53 in the second half. Cincinnati made eight of 16 combined thirddown and fourth-down conversions while allowing the Bills a debilitating none of 11. Bengals rookie FB Ickey Woods had his second 100-yard rushing game of the postseason, gaining 102 on 29 carries. The Bengals advanced to the Super Bowl from what was, at the time, the worst previous-season finish (4-11) of any Super Bowl qualifier. Even to the present time, only the 1999 St. Louis Rams (4-12 in '98) have gone farther.

SUPER BOWL XXIII

San Francisco 49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16 Sunday, Jan. 22, 1989 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, Fla.)

NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle termed it the most exciting of the first 23 games in Super Bowl history, and the result regained some respect for the AFC, which had lost the last four contests by an average of more than 27 points. But the dominant emotion of the day still was heartbreak for head coach Sam Wyche's underdog Bengals, who took a 16-13 lead with 3:20 to play on Jim Breech's 40-yard FG before succumbing to a 92-yard, 11-play TD drive led by San Francisco QB Joe Montana. WR John Taylor's game-winning 10-yard TD catch from Montana came with just 34 seconds remaining. Never before had a Super Bowl been won on a TD so late in the game. Cincinnati played without FB Stanley Wilson, who was suspended for a substance abuse violation that occurred the night before the game. In addition, the Bengals played almost the entire contest without All-Pro NT Tim Krumrie, who suffered a severely broken leg early in the first quarter. The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, tied again at 6-6 late in the third quarter, and then swapped TDs in quick succession. A 93-yard kickoff return by Cincinnati HB Stanford Jennings was countered by a four-play San Francisco TD drive. The third of Breech's three FGs gave Cincinnati its third lead of the day before Montana's final heroics saved the day for the 49ers. San Francisco WR Jerry Rice tied a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions (still tied; originally set by Bengals TE Dan Ross in Super Bowl XVI) for 215 yards and one TD, earning the game's MVP award. Montana completed 23 of 36 passes for 357 yards, two TDs and no INTs. The victory made San Francisco the first NFC team to win three Super Bowls.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 41, Houston Oilers 14 Sunday, Jan. 6, 1991 at Riverfront Stadium

Having been involved in a feisty regular-season rivalry with Houston for several years, Cincinnati got the chance to tangle with the Oilers in the postseason and responded with the most lopsided playoff win in team history. The Bengals outgained the Oilers by 123 yards (349-226) and set team postseason records for points (still stands) and victory margin (still stands), using a well-balanced offensive attack. Cincinnati's rushing game outgained Houston 187-67, yet no Bengals rusher totaled more than 57 yards. Cincinnati's passing game added another 162 net yards, yet no Bengals receiver had more than two catches. Houston, however, failed to mount a serious threat the entire game. The Bengals led 34-0 before the Oilers scored their first point late in the third guarter. Ironically, it was the Oilers who helped put the Bengals in the playoffs the previous week. Houston beat Pittsburgh 34-14 in its Sunday night regular-season finale, allowing Cincinnati to win the AFC Central Division tiebreaker (the Bengals, Oilers and Steelers all had finished 9-7).

1990 SEASON

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

L.A. Raiders 20, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Sunday, Jan. 13, 1991 at Los Angeles Coliseum

Los Angeles QB Jay Schroeder, who would join the Bengals as a free agent in 1993, threw two TD passes to help the Raiders defeat Cincinnati and advance to the AFC Championship game. Cincinnati scored first on Jim Breech's 27-yard FG in the second quarter, but Schroeder hit WR Mervyn Fernandez with a 13-yard scoring strike to give Los Angeles a 7-3 halftime lead. The Raiders increased their lead to 10-3 on K Jeff Jaeger's 49-yard FG in the third quarter, and put the game away with 10 unanswered fourth-quarter points on a 41-yard Schroeder pass to TE Ethan Horton and a 25-yard Jaeger FG. The Raiders rushed for 235 yards, including 140 on 21 carries by RB Marcus Allen. DE Greg Townsend had three of the Raiders' four sacks. Raiders RB Bo Jackson, a popular two-sport professional athlete who also played Major League Baseball, rushed for 77 yards on six carries. This game, however, is best remembered by many as the contest that ended Jackson's NFL career. He suffered a hip injury on a tackle by Cincinnati LB Kevin Walker in the third quarter and, though the injury was not considered particularly severe at the time, Jackson never fully recovered to play in the NFL again.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Pittsburgh Steelers 31, Cincinnati Bengals 17 Sunday, Jan. 8, 2006 at Paul Brown Stadium

The atmosphere was super-charged at Paul Brown Stadium as the AFC North Champion Bengals made their first postseason appearance in 15 years. But Cincinnati was dealt a devastating blow on its second offensive play, as QB Carson Palmer was lost to a serious knee injury while completing his first NFL postseason pass — a club postseasonrecord 66 yards to WR Chris Henry. Backup QB Jon Kitna took over for Palmer and helped Cincinnati earn a 17-14 halftime lead, but Pittsburgh owned the second half. The Bengals' offense had just six first downs and 105 net yards in the final two periods and failed to score another point. The Steelers used a botched snap on a Bengals FG attempt and two INTs thrown by Kitna to control the second half and claim the first-ever postseason meeting between the divisional rivals. Pittsburgh, which finished second to the Bengals in the AFC North and entered the playoffs as No. 6-seeded Wild Card, went on to win Super Bowl XL.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

N.Y. Jets 24, Cincinnati Bengals 14 Saturday, Jan. 9, 2010 at Paul Brown Stadium

In a Wild Card Playoff that was relatively even in most statistical categories, the AFC North Champion Bengals were minus-two in turnover differential and could not hold an early lead against the visiting Jets. Cincinnati led 7-0 after the first quarter, on an 11-yard TD pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Laveranues Coles, but New York gained a 14-7 halftime lead with two scores in a span of less than six minutes in the second quarter. Possession for the go-ahead TD drive was gained by the Jets on an INT by Pro Bowl CB Darrelle Revis. The Bengals' second-half comeback efforts were crippled by missed FG attempts of 35 and 28 yards by K Shayne Graham. Bengals HB Cedric Benson scored on a 47-yard run in the fourth quarter, and his 169 rushing yards for the game set a Bengals postseason record. The Jets defeated the San Diego Chargers in their Divisional Playoff the following week to advance to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the Indianapolis Colts.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Houston Texans 31, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Saturday, Jan. 7, 2012 at Reliant Stadium

The visiting Bengals set the tone early with a one-yard Cedric Benson TD, a Mike Nugent FG and a strong defensive first half. But big plays would prove to be the difference in the game, and Houston had plenty. With 52 seconds left in the first half, Texans DE J.J. Watt intercepted an Andy Dalton pass and returned it 29 yards for a TD, stirring an alreadyraucous Reliant Stadium crowd. Trailing 17-10 entering the second half, the Bengals briefly kept the game close, but the Texans pulled ahead 24-10 when WR Andre Johnson scored on a 40-yard reception with 1:08 left in the third quarter. With 5:15 left in the contest, Texans RB Arian Foster, who had a game-high 152 rushing yards, ran 42 yards down the right sideline for a TD that completed the scoring. Bengals QB and Houston area native Andy Dalton passed 27-for-42 for 257 yards, but had three INTs. Houston advanced to the divisional round of the playoffs with the win, but lost to the Baltimore Ravens in that game,

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Houston Texans 19, Cincinnati Bengals 13 Sunday, Jan. 5, 2013 at Reliant Stadium

The Bengals were outgained 420-198 and had only 21:11 possession time, but they hung in against the favored Texans on the strength of a defensive TD and excellent defense in the red zone. Cincinnati had a first down at the Houston 35 with 3:40 to play, looking for a TD for the lead, but the offense could get no farther, and Houston ran out the clock after Cincinnati surrendered the ball on downs. The Bengals got their lone TD on a 21-yard Leon Hall INT return in the second quarter, a play that gave Cincinnati a 7-6 lead. The defense overall was in a bend-but-not-break mode, allowing four red-zone penetrations but forcing the Texans to settle for one TD and three FGs. Houston RB Arian Foster was the day's outstanding individual performer, rushing for 140 yards on 32 carries.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

San Diego Chargers 27, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Sunday, Jan. 5, 2014 at Paul Brown Stadium

The AFC North Division champion Bengals piled up a 439-318 yardage edge in their Wild Card playoff vs. San Diego, but the Chargers won with relative ease while posting a plus-four edge in turnover differential (four takeaways, no giveaways). The Bengals held a 10-7 halftime lead, but San Diego went ahead on an 80-yard TD drive on its first possession of the third quarter. The Chargers added a third-quarter FG after Bengals QB Andy Dalton lost a fumble, and the Chargers tacked on a fourth-quarter TD following an INT. The Bengals' lone TD came on a four-yard second-quarter pass from Dalton to TE Jermaine Gresham. WR Marvin Jones set a Bengals postseason record with 130 receiving yards, topping a former mark of 120 by Cris Collinsworth, and Dalton's 334 passing yards were second-most in Bengals postseason annals. The Chargers, a Wild Card playoff entry, advanced to a Divisional round game at New England.

2014 SEASON

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Indianapolis Colts 26, Cincinnati Bengals 10 Sunday, Jan. 4, 2015 at Lucas Oil Stadium

Significantly depleted in their receiving corps, the Bengals were no match for the AFC South champion Colts. Indianapolis QB Andrew Luck passed for 376 yards, re-setting a Bengals opponent playoff record previously held by QB Joe Montana from Super Bowl XXIII (357). The Colts totaled 482 yards to Cincinnati's 254. The Bengals moved the ball well on their first two possessions and were tied 7-7 late in the first quarter, after a 74-yard TD drive. At halftime, Cincinnati trailed by only 13-10, thanks to a 57-yard Mike Nugent FG near the end of the second quarter. The 57-yarder was a Bengals postseason record by 10 yards and topped by two yards the team regular-season record of 55 that Nugent shared with K Chris Bahr. But the Bengals managed only 98 net yards and no points in the second half, while the Colts struck for a Luck 36-yard TD pass and two FGs by K Adam Vinatieri. The Bengals played without their top two leaders in receptions — WR A.J. Green (concussion) and TE Jermaine Gresham (back strain).

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Pittsburgh Steelers 18, Cincinnati Bengals 16 Saturday, Jan. 9, 2016 at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals rallied from a 15-0 deficit to take a 16-15 lead with 1:50 to play, and Cincinnati had a first down at the Steelers' 26-yard line with 1:36 left. But Pittsburgh recovered a fumble by HB Jeremy Hill on the next Bengals play, and the Steelers drove for a game-winning 37-yard FG at the 0:14 mark, aided by two personal foul penalties against Cincinnati. The Bengals had rallied to take the lead with three fourth-quarter scores — a one-yard TD run by Hill, a 36-yard Mike Nugent FG and a 25-yard TD pass from QB AJ McCarron to WR A.J. Green. McCarron, as he had in the last three regular-season games, was subbing for injured No. 1 QB Andy Dalton. The Bengals had the home field after winning the AFC North Division with a 12-4 record, but the 10-6 Steelers earned a Wild Card berth and advanced to the Divisional playoff round with the win.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 26, Las Vegas Raiders 19 Saturday afternoon, Jan. 15, 2022 at Paul Brown Stadium

In front of the largest home crowd in team history, the Bengals snapped an eight-game playoff losing streak and 31-year drought without a postseason win. The Raiders scored an opening-drive FG, but Cincinnati countered with a 75-yard TD drive and never trailed again. The Bengals lost three key defensive linemen to injuries — DT Larry Ogunjobi (foot), DE Trey Hendrickson (concussion) and DT Mike Daniels (groin) — but the defense still managed to hold the Raiders to just one TD. Las Vegas had little trouble moving the ball — QB Děrek Carr passed for 310 ýards and RB Josh Jácobs averaged 6.4 yards per carry but the Raiders scored just one TD in five red-zone trips. Bengals QB Joe Burrow completed 70.4 percent of his passes, tossed two TDs and posted a 110.4 rating. Trailing by seven points late, Las Vegas staged a near comeback and drove to the Cincinnati nineyard line with 30 seconds left. But three plays later, on fourth-and-goal from the nine, Bengals LB Germaine Pratt intercepted a pass over the middle to seal a win.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 19, Tennessee Titans 16 Saturday afternoon, Jan. 22, 2022 at Nissan Stadium

Rookie K Evan McPherson booted a 52-yard FG as time expired to give Cincinnati its first-ever road playoff win and send the No. 4 seed Bengals to their first AFC Championship game in 33 years. The game began with an INT by S Jessie Bates on the first play from scrimmage — it was the first of three INTs thrown by Titans OB Ryan Tannehill. Cincinnati reached the end zone just once, but McPherson made all five of his placekicks (four FGs, one PAT) — including two 50-plus yard FGs — in below-freezing temperatures. The Bengals' offensive line struggled in pass protection, as Burrow was sacked nine times — the most takedowns of a winning QB in NFL postseason history. Titans star RB Derrick Henry, who was playing in his first game since Halloween (foot injury), averaged just 3.1 yards on 20 carries, and the Titans converted just one third down on the afternoon. With the game tied at 16 at the two-minute warning, Tennessee began a drive for a potential game-winning FG. But CB Eli Apple batted a Tannehill pass, and LB Logan Wilson intercepted it with 20 seconds remaining. Burrow quickly hit WR Ja'Marr Chase on a 19-yard pass to set up McPherson's game-winner.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Kansas City Chiefs 24 (OT) Sunday, Jan. 30, 2022 at Arrowhead Stadium

The Bengals earned their third AFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl LVI after staging a dramatic comeback road win over the two-time defending AFC Champion Chiefs. Kansas City started fast and raced to a 21-3 lead midway through the second quarter, after putting together TD drives of 84, 75 and 72 yards on their first three possessions. But Cincinnati answered when HB Samaje Perine took a screen pass 41 yards for a score to cut the lead to 21-10. With five seconds remaining before halftime, Kansas City had the ball on Cincinnati's one-yard line but opted to try for a TD instead of a FG. The play was stopped for a loss by Bengals CB Eli Apple, and time expired as Cincinnati escaped to the locker room down only 11 points. Cincinnati's offense came to life after the break and pulled ahead midway through the fourth quarter, while the defense adjusted and held Kansas City's high-powered offense to just three second-half points, which came on a game-tying FG at the end of regulation. Kansas City got the ball first in OT, but Bengals S Vonn Bell intercepted a deep pass from Chiefs All-Pro QB Patrick Mahomes. Bengals QB Joe Burrow then led Cincinnati to three first downs, and got into range for 22-year old rookie K Evan McPherson's second game-winning, walk-off FG in as many weeks.

SUPER BOWL LVI

L.A. Rams 23, Cincinnati Bengals 20 Sunday night, Feb. 13, 2022 at SoFi Stadium (Inglewood, Calif.)

Playing in their first Super Bowl in 33 years, the four-point underdog Bengals were technically the home team even though the game was held at the "visiting" Rams' home stadium. Cincinnati's first offensive possession stalled at midfield after a failed fourth-andstadium. Cincinnati's first offensive possession stalled at midfield after a failed fourth-andone conversion, and the Rams took advantage with a 50-yard TD drive to strike first.
Los Angeles stretched its lead to 13-3 early in the second quarter, but the Bengals closed to within 13-10 with a trick-play TD pass from HB Joe Mixon to WR Tee Higgins. Then, on the first play of the second half, Higgins caught a 75-yard TD pass from QB Joe Burrow to give Cincinnati its first lead. On the first play of the ensuing possession, an INT by Bengals CB Chidobe Awuzie set up Cincinnati at the Rams' 31-yard line, but the Bengals turned it into only a FG. Behind a strong pass rush, Los Angeles then held Cincinnati scoreless on its final five possessions. After a TD by WR Cooper Kupp gave Los Angeles at bree-point its final five possessions. After a TD by WR Cooper Kupp gave Los Angeles a three-point lead with 1:25 remaining, Cincinnati's attempt to tie or win ended on fourth-and-one at midfield when Burrow threw an incomplete pass while being tackled.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 24, Baltimore Ravens 17 Sunday night, Jan. 15, 2023 at Paycor Stadium

DE Sam Hubbard returned a Baltimore fumble 98 yards for a go-ahead TD early in the fourth quarter that proved to be the difference as Cincinnati hung on for a 24-17 Wild Card Playoff win. The Ravens had driven down to the Bengals' one-yard line looking to take the lead, but when QB Tyler Huntley tried to jump over a pile of linemen and reach the ball across the goal line, it was knocked out by LB Logan Wilson and fell into Hubbard's arms to create the game's biggest turning point. After a TD pass from QB Joe Burrow to WR Ja'Marr Chase in the second quarter gave Cincinnati a 9-0 lead, Baltimore responded with 10 unanswered points and went into halftime ahead. The Bengals got back in front with a 12-play, 88-yard drive in which Burrow completed all six of his passes and finished it off with a one-yard sneak into the end zone. Baltimore quickly struck again on a 41-yard TD pass to WR Demarcus Robinson, but that ended up being the final offensive points from either team as both defenses stepped up with key plays. Huntley drove the Ravens inside the Bengals' 30-yard line with under a minute left, but a desperation heave to the end zone as time expired fell incomplete, sealing the win and a trip to the AFC Divisional Playoff for

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

Kansas City Chiefs 23, Cincinnati Bengals 20 Sunday night, Jan. 29, 2023 at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium

Seeking its second consecutive Super Bowl appearance, Cincinnati erased deficits of 10 points in the first half and seven points in the second, but ultimately came up short in a back-and-forth game, as Chiefs K Harrison Butker converted a 45-yard FG with three seconds left to win the conference title for Kansas City. The Chiefs took a 13-3 lead late in the second quarter, but the Bengals tied it up with 10 straight points, which included a 27yard TD pass from QB Joe Burrow to WR Tee Higgins. With Kansas City leading 20-13 early in the fourth quarter, Cincinnati answered when HB Samaje Perine scored on a twoyard run, set up by a 35-yard pass from Burrow to WR Ja'Marr Chase on fourth-and-six from the Chiefs' 41. However, in the game's final seconds, an unnecessary roughness penalty called on the Bengals put Butker in range for the game-winning kick.
