LIONS HONOR CRUCIAL CATCH

As the Lions host the Bengals in Week 6, they celebrate a cause bigger than football with this year's annual Crucial Catch game. All throughout the month of October, NFL teams come together for the campaign that supports the American Cancer Society (ACS) to fight against the disease. This season, multiple Lions players have ties to the initiative.

The NFL's crucial catch efforts focus on early detection, and have provided 374,000 breast cancer screenings. Lions C Frank Ragnow, OLB Trey Flowers and LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin have all been affected by breast cancer in their families.

>> Frank Ragnow's mother, Marty, was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2015 and was able to make a quick recovery because of early detection. "She's been a fighter, she's been Wonder Woman, and it's just I love that woman and I'm so thankful for her," Ragnow said.

>> Trey Flowers' sister, Jazz, is a breast cancer survivor. Flowers has held breast cancer awareness events with the Sisters Network of Detroit in honor of her. Jazz will partake in this year's Crucial Catch ceremonies.

>> Jalen Reeves-Maybin lost his grandmother, Charlotte, to breast cancer. As he was incredibly close to her, throughout his playing career, he has worn a form of pink to honor her. "Everything I do, I dedicate to her," Reeves-Maybin said. "I wear pink every day. Every pair of shoes I have, I put pink shoelaces in them. I won't wear shoes without them, except on the field."

Lions CB Amani Oruwariye has directly felt the effects of cancer, losing his father, Alfred, to pancreatic cancer while he was a redshirt freshman at Penn State. He has a tattoo on his left arm that honors his father, depicting Alfred walking through the gates of Heaven.

Last year, Lions WR Trinity Benson surprised his mother, Debra, with his My Cause, My Cleats selection, donning the message “#DebraStrong” in honor of her fight with stage III colorectal cancer. His cleats supported the Fight CRC Foundation. Benson and his family watched Debra undergo chemotherapy and surgery, witnessing her unwavering strength throughout it all. “My mom is a fighter! Colon cancer is something I have been personally affected by and there is no better way to use my voice and my platform to bring awareness to an issue that can sometimes be caught in the shadows of some of the other cancers, Benson said.”

The NFL's CHANGE grants have provided 207,000 colorectal cancer screenings.

“If you don't fight cancer, you don't know Jack.” Lions T Matt Nelson honors this phrase every opportunity he can, celebrating the life of Jack, a child he befriended from his hometown of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, that suffered from a rare form of brain cancer. Today, he supports his family and his foundation I Know Jack that raises money and supplies for families fighting cancer. The foundation has also been his chosen My Cause, My Cleats charity throughout his playing career.

Although he was only three years old at the time of her diagnosis, Lions QB David Blough continues to honor his mother LuAnn Blough, who is a two-time oral cancer survivor. While at Purdue, Blough participated in events supporting The Purdue Center for Cancer Research. It was during this time he also befriended Tyler Trent, who he remembers to this day during his My Cause, My Cleats initiatives.

ROAD TO 25K

As the Lions are one point away from becoming the sixth franchise to reach 25,000 all-time points in Week 6, below is a look back on previous point milestones the team has reached.

1930: On Sept. 14, 1930, Chuck Bennett scored the then-Portsmouth Spartans' first-ever points, hauling in an 11-yard touchdown to beat the Newark Tornadoes 13-6.

1935: The Lions went on to amass 1,000 points through five years, reaching the 1K mark with a safety on Dec. 1, 1935 in a dominant 28-0 win over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

1K

5K

1954: Detroit reached 5,000 franchise points in a 14-10 win over the Cleveland Browns, as Dorne Dibble brought in the TD reception on Dec. 19, 1954.

1973: The 10,000th franchise point went to none other than Charlie Sanders, who recorded a 5-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter against the Baltimore Colts on Oct. 21, 1973.

10K

25K FRANCHISE POINTS

20K

2007: The Lions' 20,000th franchise point came in dramatic fashion, one that Head Coach Dan Campbell witnessed himself as part of the 2007 team. After QB Jon Kitna made an improbable return to the game after a hard hit, he set up Jason Hanson to connect on a 37-yard field goal in overtime against the Minnesota Vikings on Sept. 16, 2007. The field goal gave Detroit a 20-17 victory, alongside the 20,000 point landmark. At the conclusion of the 2007 season, the Lions were one of seven teams to reach the mark.

In Week 6 vs. the Cincinnati Bengals, the Lions will attempt to make history against an NFC North division rival. With one point, Detroit will become the sixth franchise to reach 25,000 all-time points. They would join the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, New York Giants, Los Angeles Rams and Philadelphia Eagles to reach the mark. The Lions are 4-1 in games they have reached a milestone in franchise points.

SWAGGY & SWIFTY

In Week 1, Lions RB Jamaal Williams posted eight receptions for 56 yards (7.0 avg.) and RB D'Andre Swift caught eight passes for 65 yards (8.1 avg.) and one touchdown.

This marks the first time in franchise history that two running backs each posted at least eight receptions for 50 receiving yards, and the NFL's first such occurrence since Pittsburgh did so on Sept. 30, 2019.

Williams and Swift have combined for 44 receptions and 353 receiving yards this season. As a position group, the Lions have one of the NFL's most productive pass-catching running back groups through Week 5.

MOST RECEPTIONS BY A TEAM'S RB POSITION GROUP, 2021 NFL SEASON

DYNAMIC DUO

Lions RBs Jamaal Williams and D'Andre Swift are the NFL's only running back tandem to have at least 175 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards each through Week 5. They are the first Lions duo to total these numbers through the first five games of a season since RBs Dexter Bussey and Billy Sims in 1980.

Detroit joins Cleveland as the only teams in the NFL to have two running backs each with at least 325 scrimmage yards and two touchdowns this season.

RBs WITH 325+ TOTAL YARDS & 2 TDs, 2021 NFL SEASON

BLUE DEBUT

In his first game as a Detroit Lion, QB Jared Goff had a historic performance, completing 38-of-57 passes (66.7%) for 338 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a 92.6 passer rating.

Goff set franchise records for the most completions and attempts in a player's debut for Detroit, his yardage ranked second best and he tied for the second-most touchdown passes.

Goff's 38 completions also marked the most completions by a quarterback in his debut with a team in NFL history and the most in a single game in franchise history.

Of Goff's 196 pass attempts this season, he's totaled 69 passing first downs (35.2%). His 69 passing first downs tie for the sixth-most in the NFL.

LEADER ON &amp; OFF THE FIELD

In Week 5, Lions QB Jared Goff was named the NFLPA's Community MVP after he hosted a food pantry at Ford Field that distributed more than 40,000 pounds of food and supplies to 500 families in need.

Goff has also donated the proceeds from his apparel line to youth initiatives in Detroit and plans to provide winter coats to those in need in the coming months.

The NFLPA will donate $10,000 to Goff's foundation or the foundation of his choice, and his honor makes him eligible for the Alan Page Community Award at the end of the season.

PACING HIMSELF

Through Week 5, Lions QB Jared Goff has completed 131-of-196 passes for a 66.8 completion percentage.

STEPPING UP & STANDING OUT

Lions rookie WR Amon-Ra St. Brown has had a very productive two-week span, totaling six receptions in Week 4 and adding seven catches in Week 5.

He is the first rookie wide receiver in franchise history to log at least six receptions in consecutive games.

His seven receptions in Week 5 tie for the fourth-most a Lions rookie wide receiver has had in a game since the merger, and the most since WR Titus Young had seven receptions at Chicago on Nov. 13, 2011.

His 19 receptions through five-career games played rank third in franchise history by a wide receiver, trailing only WRs Charles Rogers (2003; 22 receptions) and Roy Williams (2004; 20 receptions). His 178 receiving yards through five-career games ranks sixth among rookie wide receivers in Lions history.

SUN GOD

Lions rookie WR Amon-Ra St. Brown has totaled 19 receptions for 178 yards (9.4 avg.) this season. Despite being the 17th wide receiver selected in the 2021 NFL Draft, his production ranks among the best of all rookie wide receivers this season.

5	Buffalo	20	62	32.3

The Lions only allowed one third-down conversion in Weeks 3 and 4. This marked the first time in franchise history that the team has allowed only one third-down conversion in consecutive games.

THE BIG SHORT

While Detroit's 15 third-down conversions allowed are the second-fewest in the NFL, they have been particularly stout on third-and-short situations. When facing a third down between one-and-four yards, Detroit is the League's stingiest defense, only allowing a conversion success rate of 25.0%.

YOU'RE GROUNDED

The Lions have faced 148 rushes from opponents this season, only allowing 14 runs to break 10-or-more yards (9.5%). Detroit's efficiency in holding opponents to 10-plus yard rushes on only 9.5% of their carries ranks 10th in the NFL.

Detroit has totaled four run stuffs in consecutive games (Weeks 4-5), resulting in a combined 12 yards lost on those plays.

Of their 148 runs defended, Detroit has kept 99 of those runs to gains of four yards-or-fewer, including losses. That results in 66.9% of runs faced being contained to moderate gains at best.

FLYING TO THE LINE

Through Week 5, Detroit has defended 148 rushing attempts. Of those 148 rushes faced, the Lions have produced 22 tackles for loss or no gain (14.9%). This ties for the 10th-most run destructive plays.

Of those 22 rushes gaining no yards, nine have come from Detroit's secondary (40.9%). The nine tackles for loss or no gains on rushes by the Lions' secondary ties for the most in the NFL.

Of Fox's 77-career punts, he's placed 35 inside of the 20-yard line (45.5%). He's only allowed 28 of his punts to be returned, a rate of 36.4%.

Of his 3,799 gross punt yards, he's only allowed 186 return yards, netting 3,453 of those yards. That results in his net total being 91.0% of his gross total, meaning the majority of his punts don't yield return yardage.

Fox has also booted three punts of 67-or-more yards, the most by a punter in franchise history.

HANGING WITH JACK

In Week 4 at Chicago, Lions P Jack Fox punted three times for 166 yards (55.3 avg., 53.3 net). This marked the third time Fox has averaged at least 55.0 yards per punt when attempting at least three punts, a franchise record.

Removing any attempt qualifiers, Fox's three games with a gross punting average of 55.0-or-more ties for the most in Lions history.

Since the 2020 season, Fox has two of the NFL's four longest punts in terms of hangtime. In Week 9 of the 2020 season, he booted a punt that hung in the air for 5.43 seconds, the third-longest in that span, and followed that up with a 5.36 bomb the following week, tied for the fourth-best in that span.

JACK ATTACK

Lions P Jack Fox reached his 75th-career punt in Week 5 at Minnesota. Like he did through 50 punts, Fox owns the best gross and net averages through a player's first 75-career punts in NFL history.
