WEEKLY NEWS RELEASE

OCT. 27, 2026

TENNESSEE TITANS (1-6) AT CINCINNATI BENGALS (4-2)

WEEK 8, GAME 7
 SUNDAY, NOV. 1
 AT PAYCOR STADIUM

NEXT WEEK: WEEK 9, GAME 8
 NOV. 8 VS. ATLANTA (AT MADRID, SPAIN)

GAME INFORMATION

Kickoff: 1 p.m. Eastern.

Television: The game will air on CBS-TV. In the Bengals' home region, it will be carried by WKRC-TV (Ch. 12) in Cincinnati, WHIO-TV (Ch. 7) in Dayton and WKYT-TV (Ch. 27) in Lexington. Broadcasters are Tom McCarthy (play-by-play), Robert Turbin (analyst) and Tiffany Blackmon (sideline reporter).

Radio: The game will air on the Bengals Radio Network, led by Cincinnati flagship radio stations WLW-AM (700), WCKY-AM (1530) and WEBN-FM (102.7). Broadcasters are Dan Hoard (play-by-play), Dave Lapham (analyst) and Tony Pike (analyst).

Setting the scene: The Bengals return home seeking their third straight win as they take on the Tennessee Titans on Sunday at Paycor Stadium.

Cincinnati is coming off a 35-13 victory at Baltimore in Week 7 to improve to 4-2 this season. The game produced one of the most dramatic second-half swings in team history, as the Bengals roared back from a 13-0 halftime deficit with 35 unanswered points over the final two quarters. Cincinnati's offense scored a TD on each of its first five possessions coming out of the break, highlighted by four scoring passes by QB Joe Burrow. Burrow's stat line in the second half included 16 completions on 18 attempts for 249 yards, good for a perfect 158.3 passer rating. He completed at least one pass to six different receivers in that stretch, but his top target was WR Tee Higgins, who registered each of his six catches for 148 yards and a TD after halftime.

Defensively, the Bengals' shutout performance in the second half was highlighted by three sacks, two turnovers on downs and an interception that set up another TD drive for the offense. The Ravens began the fourth quarter by electing to go for it on fourth down at the Cincinnati 12-yard line, but an incomplete pass ended what proved to be their final chance at halting the momentum.

"At halftime, we came in here and took a deep breath," said head coach Zac Taylor. "I thought guys really handled themselves well, and we came out and scored five straight touchdowns the second half. The defense got five straight stops and that's how you have to do it. That's how you go on the road and win. We had the turnover plus some fourth-down stops that count as more. I'm really proud of the way the guys responded, just took a deep breath, kept their composure, and went out there and put together as good of a second half performance as I've ever seen."

Cincinnati's 4-2 record is reflected in several team and individual metrics that rank near the top of the NFL. Offensively, the Bengals rank fourth leaguewide in points per game (27.2), tied for fifth in fewest sacks allowed (10) and are sixth in net passing yards per game (264.0). Burrow leads all QBs with a 71.7 completion percentage, while his 15 TD passes are tied for second. Higgins' team-leading 571 receiving yards are the eighth-most across the NFL, and both WR Ja'Marr Chase and TE Mike Gesicki are tied for third in receiving TDs with five apiece.

On the other side of the ball, Cincinnati's 21 sacks are tied for the league lead and are the most by the Bengals in the first six games of a season since 1995. Defensive coordinator Al Golden's unit also is giving up a TD on just 35 percent of its opponent's red zone appearances, the third-best rate in the NFL. Some of the top performers on the defense have been veteran newcomers who joined the team during the offseason, including DE Boye Mafe, who leads Cincinnati with 4.5 sacks, and DT Dexter Lawrence, whose seven TFLs are tied for second-most by any player at his position.

As the Bengals now aim to string together a third consecutive winning performance, Taylor harped on the ability to move past the emotions of a divisional win on the road. Cincinnati has a chance to improve to 5-2 for the first time since the 2021 season, and this week's matchup with the Titans kicks off a crucial stretch of five games in the month of November.

"I am confident that we built this team with players that understand that, and they don't need to be reminded of that," said Taylor following the victory at Baltimore. "They know this was a great win, but it's one win in 17 games. We've got to be able to move on to Tennessee and put together another great performance."

At halftime of Sunday's contest, former TE Bob Trumpy and HB James Brooks will be formally inducted into the Bengals Ring of Honor. Trumpy spent his entire 10-year playing career (1968-77) in Cincinnati, where he remains the team's all-time leader in nearly every receiving category by a tight end. Brooks is the franchise record holder for average yards per carry (4.8), while ranking second in Bengals history in rushing yards and fourth in scrimmage yards.

The series: The Bengals and Titans (formerly Oilers) have met 80 times (including postseason), making the Titans the third-most played foe in Bengals history. Cincinnati has played more games against only Pittsburgh (114) and Cleveland (105). The Bengals and Titans (previously the Houston/Tennessee Oilers) were rivals in the old AFC Central Division, playing twice per year in the regular season from 1970-2001.

The series is a relatively even affair, with Tennessee leading 41-38-1 overall (regular season and postseason). The Bengals, however, have won four of the last five meetings, and they have won eight of the 12 meetings since the two teams parted ways as division opponents with NFL realignment in 2002. Overall in the series, Cincinnati leads Tennessee 22-17 in games played in Cincinnati.

The Bengals have won both postseason meetings between the two teams, 41-14 in a Wild Card Playoff at Cincinnati after the 1990 NFL season, and 19-16 in a Divisional Playoff at Tennessee after the 2021 season.

Team bests from the series (regular season):

Bengals — MOST POINTS: 61 (twice), in wins of 61-17 at the Astrodome in 1972 and 61-7 at Riverfront Stadium in '89. The games are tied for the Bengals' all-time high score in any game. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 54, in the 61-7 '89 game (Bengals' largest winning margin in any game). FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 3, in a 13-3 victory at Cincinnati in 1984.

Titans — MOST POINTS: 48, in a 48-17 victory at the Astrodome in 1990. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 35 (twice), in wins of 41-6 at the Astrodome in 1988 and 38-3 at Riverfront Stadium in '93. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 3 (six times), most recently in a 27-3 win at Nissan Stadium in 2023.

The last meetings: Summaries of the two most recent Bengals-Titans meetings — in 2023 and '24 (both at Tennessee) — are on page 12 of this news release.

Trumpy, Brooks to enter Bengals Ring of Honor: A pair of Bengals legends in former TE Bob Trumpy and HB James Brooks will be inducted into the team's Ring of Honor at halftime on Sunday. They will become the 13th and 14th members of the Bengals Ring of Honor, which was established in 2021 to recognize former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition.

Trumpy, who entered the NFL as a 12th-round pick of the Bengals in their inaugural 1968 season, spent his entire 10-year playing career ('68-77) with Cincinnati. He scored the team's first-ever receiving TD on Sept. 15, 1968, and went on to play in 128 games with 120 starts. Among all tight ends in team history, he has the most receiving yards (4600), receiving TDs (35), yards per reception (15.4) and Pro Bowl selections (four). The honor comes posthumously for Trumpy, who passed away on Nov. 2, 2025.

"In my opinion, during his time, Bob was the best receiving tight end in the league," said Bengals President Mike Brown. "He was a top-level player. He had a long stride. He had good hands. Because the safeties couldn't stay with him, he became a productive downfield threat for us. He had something that drove him to be good, and he became a great player."

Brooks played eight seasons (1984-91) in Cincinnati and was one of the most versatile and complete running backs to don the Bengals jersey. He remains the franchise's career record holder for average yards per carry (4.8), while ranking second in team history in rushing yards (6447) and tied for fifth in rushing TDs (37). He also had 3012 receiving yards, which contributed to a total of 9459 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-most ever by a Bengal. He holds three of the team's top 10 scrimmage yardage totals in a season, highlighted by a franchise-record 1773 yards in 1986.

"James was one of the toughest players we ever had," said Brown. "He was a good runner, and not only was he a good catch out of the backfield, he knew how to get yards after he made the catch. And he was quick. Extremely hard to cover on the goal line. But the thing the numbers don't say that needs being said is he was an exceptional pass protector. It's good he's recognized. He deserves it."

Ring of Honor inductees have been voted in each offseason since 2021 by Bengals Season Ticket Members. Trumpy and Brooks will join a group of 12 current inductees which includes QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, HB Corey Dillon, QB Boomer Esiason, WR Chad Johnson, OT Dave Lapham, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Munoz, CB Lemar Parrish and CB Ken Riley.

Bengals career records watch: As the Bengals continue the 2026 season, here is a look at potential upcoming movement on the team's career records list (regular season):

- QB Joe Burrow has 22,463 career passing yards, which are the fifth-most in team history and 231 shy of QB Carson Palmer (22,694) for fourth-most. QBs Ken Anderson (32,838), Andy Dalton (31,594) and Boomer Esiason (27,149) hold the top three spots on the team's career list.
- Burrow has 172 career TD passes, fourth-most in team history and 15 shy of Esiason (187) for third. Dalton (204) and Anderson (197) are the top two spots.
- Burrow has 3025 career passing attempts, the fifth-most in team history and 192 shy of Palmer (3217) for fourth. Anderson (4475), Dalton (4449) and Esiason (3564) hold the top three spots.
- Burrow has completed 2078 career passes, and in Week 4 surpassed both Esiason (2015) and Palmer (2024) to move into third on the team's all-time list. Dalton (2757) and Anderson (2654) hold the top two spots.
- Burrow in Week 4 recorded his 29th career game with 300 or more passing yards, which broke a tie with Dalton for the team's all-time record.
- WR Ja'Marr Chase has 59 career receiving TDs, the fourth-most in team history and four shy of WR Carl Pickens (63) for third. WRs Chad Johnson (66) and A.J. Green (65) hold the top two spots.
- Chase has 26 career games with 100 or more receiving yards, the third-most in team history and five shy of Johnson (31) for second. Green (33) has the team record for most such games.
- Chase has 552 career receptions, and in Week 3 surpassed Pickens (530) for third-most in team history. Johnson (751) and Green (649) hold the top two spots.
- Chase has 7188 career receiving yards, and in Week 5 surpassed WR Isaac Curtis (7101) for third-most in team history. Johnson (10,783) and Green (9430) hold the top two spots. Chase also surpassed Pickens (6887) for fourth in Week 2 of this season.
- WR Tee Higgins has 47 career receiving TDs, the sixth-most in team history and six shy of Curtis (53) for fifth.
- K Evan McPherson has accounted for 610 career points, the fifth-most in team history and 50 shy of fourth-most, which is held by K Doug Pelfrey (660).
- McPherson has made 129 career FGs, the fifth-most in team history and 24 shy of Pelfrey (153) for fourth. McPherson in Week 1 surpassed K Horst Muhlmann (120) for fifth.

• McPherson has 223 career made PATs, the fourth-most in team history and 24 shy of K Mike Nugent (247) for third. Kickers Jim Breech (476) and Shayne Graham (248) hold the top two spots.

Records vs. Titans: In their long-standing series, both the Bengals and the Titans (formerly Oilers) have posted a number of record performances.

The Bengals' records include:

• The Bengals record for points in a game was set in a 61-17 win at Houston on Dec. 17, 1972, and Cincinnati tied it 17 years to the day later in a 61-7 win vs. Houston on Dec. 17, 1989. In the 1972 win, the Bengals also set the team record for most points in a half, posting 45 second-half points. In the 1989 win, the team also matched the team record for most TDs in a game with eight.

• Also in the Dec. 17, 1972 contest at Houston, CB Lemar Parrish became the first Bengal to record three interceptions in a game. That mark has been matched seven times since, including by S David Fulcher against the Oilers, on Dec. 17, 1989. In the '72 game, Parrish returned two of those INTs for TDs, which is the only instance in team history a Bengals defender has done so.

• The Bengals record for victory margin (54) was set in the 61-7 win over Houston in 1989.

• Cincinnati scored a team-record five rushing TDs vs. Houston on Nov. 6, 1983. The Bengals have tied that mark twice since, including vs. the Oilers on Oct. 23, 1988.

• The Bengals' team record for first downs (35) was set vs. Houston on Dec. 17, 1989. It was later matched in an overtime game vs. Washington (at London, England) on Oct. 30, 2016.

• The Bengals' individual record for rushing TDs (four) in a game has been set twice, with the first of those against the Titans. The mark was first established by HB Corey Dillon vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997. Then in 2022, the mark was tied by HB Joe Mixon vs. Carolina on Nov. 6.

For the Titans/Oilers:

• On Oct. 14, 1990 at Houston, Oilers QB Warren Moon became the first passer to throw five TD passes against the Bengals. That record still stands, though it has been matched five times since, including again by Moon on Oct. 11, 1992 in Cincinnati.

• Twice against the Bengals, Oilers WR Haywood Jeffires matched an opponents' individual record for most receiving TDs against the Bengals with three. Opposing players have recorded three receiving TDs a total of eight times, and Jeffires is the only one who has done it twice — in consecutive seasons — on Oct. 11, 1992, and on Nov. 14, 1993. Both instances occurred in games played in Cincinnati.

Individually vs. Titans: Here are cumulative regular-season offensive statistics for current Cincinnati players in Bengals games against the Titans (ordered by total games played; includes postseason):

• QB Joe Burrow: Five games; 122-of-178 passing for 1303 yards, six TDs and three INTs (93.9 rating); 17 rushes for 47 yards (2.8).

• WR Tee Higgins: Five games; 27 receptions for 395 yards (14.6) and two TDs; Two rushes for six yards (3.0).

• TE Drew Sample: Four games; Two receptions for 7 yards.

• WR Ja'Marr Chase: Three games; 21 receptions for 276 yards (13.1); One rush for two yards.

• HB Chase Brown: Two games; 25 rushes for 97 yards (3.9) and one TD; Four receptions for 13 yards (3.3) and one TD.

• TE Tanner Hudson (Reserve/Injured): Two games; Three receptions for 27 yards (9.0).

• WR Andrei Iosivas (Reserve/Injured): Two games; One reception for five yards.

• TE Mike Gesicki: One game; Three receptions for 37 yards (12.3).

Uniform watch: Cincinnati will wear black jerseys, white pants (orange stripes) and black socks this week against Tennessee. The Bengals have worn this combination six previous times since their uniform redesign in 2021, compiling a 4-2 record in those contests. They last featured this look in Week 18 of the 2023 season against Cleveland.

The Bengals' redesign in 2021 marked the team's first significant change in uniform since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants feature four options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, white with black stripes, and orange with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new white helmet with its iconic black stripes. When paired with white jerseys and white pants (with black stripes), a new uniform combination was created and was branded as the "White Bengal." The team has worn the white helmet six times and collected a 5-1 record in those games. The Bengals will don the white helmet twice this season, in Week 10 against Pittsburgh on Sunday Night Football and in Week 17 against Baltimore on Thursday Night Football (both home games).

Here are the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

* — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms (CR) that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023 and thereafter, the Bengals were permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.

^A — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or throwback and/or color rush uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes the team's orange jersey. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

+ — The Bengals added orange pants with black stripes to their uniform lineup in 2024.

Call it the 'Breezer Bowl': Though the game is not as well-known in Bengals lore as the famous "Freezer Bowl" AFC Championship Game of the 1981 season, the Titans' 2008 regular-season visit to Cincinnati perhaps should be remembered — with all due seriousness — as the "Breezer Bowl."

The wind speed at kickoff of the Titans' 24-7 win at Paul Brown Stadium (now named Paycor Stadium) on Sept. 14 was a somewhat notable 21 mph. However, it drastically increased very soon after the game started. The remnants of Hurricane Ike combined with another strong weather system to produce a powerful windstorm by the end of the first quarter. The final three quarters were played in sustained winds of just over 70 mph, which nearly qualified as a Category 1 hurricane (defined as sustained winds of 74-95 mph). The Bengals and Titans managed only 127 and 118 passing yards, respectively, while food wrappers, paper cups and even pizza boxes swirled around the field.

Though the game was played without incident or other weather conditions such as rain, the windstorm was extremely dangerous and damaging outside the stadium. Five persons were killed by falling trees during the storm, which caused significant widespread damage to trees, homes and power utilities across southeast Missouri, southern Illinois, southern Indiana, western/northern Kentucky and southwestern Ohio. The storm left more than a million people in the Greater Cincinnati area without power, some for more than a month. It was the costliest natural disaster in the history of Ohio, with total damage estimates of more than $1.5 billion in the Buckeye State alone.

THE HEAD COACHES

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2026 season is his eighth in the position.

In 2025, Taylor once again orchestrated an offense which ranked near the top of the NFL in several metrics, including sixth in net passing yards per game (235.6), fifth in third-down efficiency (43.4 percent) and second in red zone TD percentage (66.7). After QB Joe Burrow sustained a toe injury early in the year that ultimately caused him to miss nine games, the team acquired QB Joe Flacco in a trade with Cleveland, and Taylor helped the 18th-year veteran quickly assimilate in his system. Over his six starts for the Bengals, Flacco ranked second leaguewide in completions (154) and fifth in passing yards (1636). With Burrow behind center for the final six weeks of the regular season, Taylor guided Cincinnati to top-10 league rankings in scoring (sixth; 27.7 points) and total yards (fourth; 369.7). Taylor also again helped WR Ja'Marr Chase compile an All-Pro season in 2025, as the fifth-year standout finished third in the NFL in receptions (125) and fourth in receiving yards (1412). Chase's running mate, sixth-year WR Tee Higgins, tied for second in the league with a career-high 11 receiving TDs. Taylor additionally continued to expand third-year HB Chase Brown's role in the offense, as he posted his first career 1000-yard rushing season and had a career-high 69 catches for 437 yards. The 2025 campaign also saw Taylor work with first-year defensive coordinator Al Golden as Cincinnati improved in nearly every statistical metric in the second half of the season compared to the first. Following the team's Week 10 bye, the Bengals tied for fifth in the NFL in takeaways (12) and tied for seventh in sacks (22).

In 2024, Taylor guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season with a record of 9-8. After falling to 4-8 in early December, he led Cincinnati to five straight wins to vault back into the AFC playoff picture. He oversaw one of the NFL's most dynamic offenses, serving as play-caller for a unit that led the league in passing yards (272.9) and ranked sixth in scoring (27.8). Burrow set numerous single-season Bengals records and led all NFL QBs in passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43), while Chase became the youngest player in the Super Bowl era to win the receiving "Triple Crown," as he paced the league in catches (127), receiving yards (1708) and TD catches (17). The individual performances earned Burrow his second career Pro Bowl nod and the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year award, while Chase was named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

In 2023, Taylor led Cincinnati to a 9-8 mark despite a few key players missing time due to injuries. In 2021 and '22, he led the Bengals to back-to-back AFC North titles, marking the first time in team history Cincinnati won its division in consecutive years.

The 2021 division title was the Bengals' first in six years. The team went on to win three postseason games and claim the AFC Championship (Cincinnati's first since 1988) and a berth in Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, playing in his first full season in Taylor's system, was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year after leading the league in completion percentage (70.4), while Chase took home Offensive Rookie of the Year honors after posting the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455, since surpassed).

In 2022, the Bengals made a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship. After entering November with a 4-4 record, Taylor helped Cincinnati tie team regular-season records for consecutive wins (eight) and total wins (12) to earn the No. 3 seed in the AFC playoffs. Offensively, the Bengals ranked fifth in the NFL in passing (265.0) and seventh in scoring (26.1), while defensively Cincinnati held opposing passers to a league-low 59.8 completion percentage. After the 2022 postseason, Taylor's postseason record improved to 5-2.

In the postseason, Taylor guided Cincinnati to its first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2017 and quarterbacks coach in '18. He broke into NFL coaching with Miami as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2012, then was elevated to quarterbacks coach for the Dolphins from 2013-15.

Taylor had two stints in the college coaching ranks, serving on staff at Texas A&M (2008-11) and Cincinnati (2016). At UC, he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Taylor played QB at Wake Forest (2002-03), Butler County (Kan.) C.C. (2004) and Nebraska (2005-06). In 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year and led the Cornhuskers to an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017. He joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp. He then spent the 2007 season with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League (did not play).

Taylor was born on May 10, 1983, in Norman, Okla. He graduated from Nebraska in 2006 with a degree in communication studies. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman. Taylor's father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at Oklahoma (1976-79), then later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played QB at Marshall and currently is the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears.

Robert Saleh was named the 22nd head coach in Tennessee Titans history (formerly Houston Oilers) on Jan. 22, 2026. He also is in his 22nd year as an NFL coach, in addition to three years as a college coach.

During his time in the NFL, Saleh has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense five times.

Prior to joining the Titans, Saleh spent the 2025 campaign with the San Francisco 49ers in his second stint as defensive coordinator. As the head coach of the New York Jets from 2021-24, Saleh guided the Jets' defense to top-10 rankings in multiple categories over the '22 and '23 seasons. Over that two-year span, the Jets ranked first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7 yards per game) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh logged four seasons from 2017-20 in his first stint as defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers' defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6 yards per game) and opponent yards per play (5.1), and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the LBs coach of the Jaguars and three seasons ('11-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seattle Seahawks. He also totaled six seasons with the Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant ('06-08) and assistant linebackers coach ('09-10).

Saleh played TE at Northern Michigan (1997-2000). He has no pro playing experience. He coached collegiately at Michigan State (2002-03) and Central Michigan ('04).

Saleh was born in Dearborn, Mich. on Jan. 31, 1979. He and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children — sons Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and daughters Mila and Ella.

Taylor vs. Titans: Taylor leads, 4-1 (including AFC Divisional Playoff after 2021 season).

Taylor vs. Saleh: The series is tied, 1-1 (both meetings were while Saleh was head coach of the N.Y. Jets).

Saleh vs. Bengals: The series is tied, 1-1 (both meetings were while Saleh was head coach of the N.Y. Jets).

BENGALS NOTES

2026 Bengals captains: The Bengals this season have seven captains who were elected via a players-only vote. Wearing the captains' patch are three offensive players, three defensive players and one special teamer.

The offensive captains are seventh-year QB Joe Burrow, sixth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase and 11th-year C Ted Karras. Burrow (2020-present) and Karras ('22-present) both have been captains every season they have played for the Bengals. This marks the sixth captaincy overall for Karras, who also wore the patch for the Miami Dolphins in 2020. Chase holds the role for the second straight season, after being recognized for the first time in his career in 2025.

The defensive captains are fifth-year S Bryan Cook, eighth-year DT Dexter Lawrence II and fourth-year CB DJ Turner II. Cook and Turner are serving as captains for the first time in their respective careers, while Lawrence wears the patch for a fifth time after being voted a captain in each of the past four seasons while with the N.Y. Giants.

Sixth-year K Evan McPherson was voted a captain on special teams for the second time in his career. He previously served as a captain in the 2024 season.

Bengals travel to Madrid next week: The Bengals travel abroad for the third time in team history when they play the Atlanta Falcons in Madrid, Spain as part of the NFL's 2026 International Games. The game officially counts as a road contest for Cincinnati and will be played on Sunday, Nov. 8 (Week 9) at Bernabéu Stadium, the home of historic soccer club Real Madrid.

The Bengals' two previous international games both were played in London at Wembley Stadium, as they faced Washington in the 2016 season and the L.A. Rams in '19. Both of those contests counted as home games for Cincinnati.

Madrid hosted its first NFL game in Week 11 of last season, when Miami defeated Washington in overtime. This year's Madrid game is one of nine international games to be played in 2026 across four continents, seven countries and eight stadiums.

A second-half swing for the ages: In Week 7 at Baltimore, the Bengals stormed back from a 13-0 halftime deficit with 35 unanswered points in the second half to earn a divisional road win. The dramatic swing in the game produced several unique statistical marks that have not occurred — both in Bengals and in NFL history — in over 40 years. Here are some notable facts on the comeback victory:

- The Bengals' 35 points tied for the second-most in a second half in team history, trailing only a 45-point outburst in the second half of a 61-17 win at the Houston Oilers on Dec. 17, 1972. The last time Cincinnati scored 35 points in a second half was on Oct. 29, 1989 against Tampa Bay.
- The Bengals scored 35 points in the second half while holding their opponent to zero points for the second time in team history. The previous instance was on Dec. 21, 1986, when Cincinnati outscored the Jets 35-0 in the second half of a 52-21 win. The last NFL team to accomplish this feat was Denver against the San Diego Chargers on Oct. 15, 2012.
- The Bengals became the third team in NFL history to win a game by 20 or more points after trailing by at least 13 points at halftime. The previous two instances were Chicago against Philadelphia on Nov. 30, 1941, and the N.Y. Giants against the Baltimore Colts on Nov. 19, 1950.
- Cincinnati became the 10th team in NFL history to score at least 35 points in the second half after being shut out in the first half. The last team to accomplish this feat was Minnesota against Indianapolis on Dec. 17, 2022.
- The Bengals scored a TD on each of their first five offensive possessions of a second half for the second time in team history, with the previous instance being the previously-reference 1989 game against Tampa Bay. The last NFL team to accomplish this feat was Green Bay at Dallas on Dec. 15, 2013.
- The 35 points marked the most by any team in the second half of a game since Miami also scored 35 against Denver on Sept. 24, 2023.

Burrow through 3K attempts: QB Joe Burrow threw his 3000th career passing attempt during the Bengals' Week 7 win at Baltimore. His 2057 completions at the time he hit that mark are the most in NFL history in a player's first 3000 attempts, well ahead of the next closest total of 2008 by former Arizona QB Kyler Murray.

In Week 4 of this season against Jacksonville, Burrow recorded his 2000th completion in what was his 81st regular-season game, tying Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes as the fastest QBs in league history to reach that milestone. Burrow previously was the second-fastest QB ever to reach 1500 completions (61 games), and tied for the second-fastest to 1000 (41 games).

Even with Cincinnati having a bye in Week 6, Burrow ranks ninth in the NFL this season with 157 completions. He has finished in the top five leaguewide in that category twice in his career, ranking fifth in 2022 (414 completions) and first in '24 (460). His 460 completions in 2024 set a Bengals single-season record and were the sixth-most in a season in NFL history.

Burrow finished the win at Baltimore with 2078 career completions, which are the third-most in Bengals history behind former QBs Ken Anderson (2654) and Andy Dalton (2757). In Week 4 versus the Jaguars, he surpassed both Boomer Esiason (2015) and Carson Palmer (2024) on the team's all-time list.

Here is a look at the QBs with the most completions in their first 3000 passing attempts in NFL history:

PLAYER	TEAM	COMPLETIONS THROUGH 3K ATTEMPTS
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati Bengals	2057
Kyler Murray	Arizona Cardinals	2008
Kirk Cousins	Washington	2006
Dak Prescott	Dallas Cowboys	1997
Justin Herbert	L.A. Chargers	1996

On the mark: QB Joe Burrow, now in his seventh pro season, holds the NFL record for career completion percentage at 68.69 percent (minimum 1500 passing attempts). He has completed 2078 of 3025 passes for 22,463 yards (7.4 yards per attempt), with 172 TDs and 54 INTs.

In Week 7 at Baltimore, Burrow completed 73.3 percent of his passing attempts (22 of 30), marking his 39th career game with a completion percentage of 70 or higher. That is the most such games by a player in his first seven seasons in NFL history, surpassing Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (2017-23), Baltimore QB Lamar Jackson ('18-24) and Miami/Atlanta QB Tua Tagovailoa ('20-26), who each had 38 games in their first seven years.

Burrow has completed at least 70 percent of his attempts in five of the first six games this season, led by a season-high 75.7 percentage (28 of 37) in Week 3 at Pittsburgh. He started off that contest by connecting on each of his first 14 passing attempts, which marked the second-most passes without an incompleto to begin a game in his career, behind 15 completions out of the gate in Week 9 of the 2024 season against Las Vegas. It also was the most consecutive completions to start a game by any NFL QB since Week 9 of 2025, when Seattle QB Sam Darnold completed his first 17 passes and San Francisco QB Mac Jones hit his first 14.

Burrow currently leads the NFL this season with a completion percentage of 71.7 (minimum 14 attempts per team's games). He ranked in the top five leaguewide in that category in three of his first six seasons, as he led the NFL in 2021 with a 70.4 percentage, ranked second in '22 (68.3) and fourth in '24 (70.6). His official clip of 70.552 percent in 2024 set a Bengals single-season record, narrowly edging out QB Ken Anderson's completion rate of 70.550 in 1982.

Here is a look at the all-time leaders in career completion percentage (min. 1500 attempts):

PLAYER	TEAM(S)	YEARS	COMP. %
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati	2020-26	68.69
Brock Purdy	San Francisco	2022-26	68.09
Tua Tagovailoa	Miami/Atlanta	2020-26	68.03
Drew Brees	San Diego/New Orleans	2001-20	67.69
Jimmy Garoppolo	New England/San Francisco/ Las Vegas/L.A. Rams	2014-25	67.36

Joe's TD tally: QB Joe Burrow is tied for second in the NFL with 15 TD passes this season. He has thrown four TD passes in each of the past two games, marking the third time in his career in which he had four scoring passes in consecutive outings. No other QB has as many back-to-back games with at least four TDs since Burrow entered the NFL in 2020.

Burrow's previous instances of throwing four or more TDs in consecutive games were Weeks 16 and 17 of the 2021 season against Baltimore and Kansas City, respectively, and in Weeks 9 and 10 of the '24 campaign versus Las Vegas (five TDs) and at Baltimore.

Each of Burrow's four TD passes in the recent Week 7 victory over the Ravens came in the second half. It marked the second time in his career in which he threw four scoring passes in a single half, with the previous time being Week 15 of the 2022 season at Tampa Bay, when he helped Cincinnati overcome a 14-point halftime deficit. Prior to this past week, the last QB with four TD passes in the second half of a game was Houston's C.J. Stroud in Week 9 of the 2023 season.

Burrow's performance in Baltimore last week also marked his 32nd career game with at least three TD passes, which tied Pro Football Hall of Famer Peyton Manning for the third-most such games by a player in his first seven seasons in NFL history. Only Hall of Famer Dan Marino (42) and Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (38) compiled more such games in their first seven years in the league.

Burrow's career TD pass total of 172 ranks fourth in Bengals history. He is 15 passing TDs away from tying Ring of Honor member Boomer Esiason (187) for third on the team's all-time list. Andy Dalton's 204 TD passes are the team record, while Ken Anderson's 197 rank second.

Burrow enters Week 8 needing three TD passes to reach 175 in his career. If he hits the milestone this week in what will be his 84th regular-season game, he would become the third-fastest player in NFL history to do so, trailing only Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (72 games) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Dan Marino (76).

Among his peers: QB Joe Burrow has ranked near the top of the league in virtually every passing category since entering the NFL as the No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 draft. Here is a look at where he stands among all QBs since the start of his rookie campaign:

- Second in completion percentage (68.69; minimum 900 passing attempts)
- Third in passer rating (101.8; min. 900 att.)
- Sixth in completions (2078)
- Sixth in TD passes (172)
- Seventh in passing yards (22,463)

Joe to Ja'Marr: QB Joe Burrow and WR Ja'Marr Chase, who helped steer Louisiana State to a national title in 2019 before becoming teammates on the Bengals in '21, now are in their sixth NFL season together. They have connected for 53 TDs at the pro level, including five this season.

Burrow, who is 29 years old, and Chase, who is 26, are one of four duos in NFL history to reach 50 TD passes by a QB and receiver both under the age of 30. They joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dan Marino and Mark Clayton (65 TDs with Miami), John Hadl and Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (53 TDs with San Diego Chargers) and Daunte Culpepper and HOF Randy Moss (53 TDs with Minnesota).

Burrow and Chase's 53 TDs also are the most by any QB-WR duo since the start of the 2021 season, four ahead of Detroit QB Jared Goff and WR Amon-Ra St. Brown (47). Per the NFL's Next Gen Stats service, 21 of Burrow's TD throws to Chase have been deep passes (20 or more air yards), the most by any duo since 2021.

Chasing history: In Week 3 at Pittsburgh, WR Ja'Marr Chase surpassed 7000 career receiving yards in what was his 81st regular-season game played. He became the fourth-fastest player in NFL history to reach that mark, trailing Pro Football Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (72 games), former Atlanta WR Julio Jones (72) and Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (73).

Chase's current career total of 7188 receiving yards is the second-most by any player since he entered the NFL as a first-round pick of the Bengals (No. 5 overall) in 2021, behind only Jefferson (7382). Chase also ranks second leaguewide in receptions (552) and is tied for first in receiving TDs (59) since the start of his rookie campaign.

Chase holds a current average of 85.6 receiving yards per game (7188 in 84 games), the fourth-highest mark in NFL history behind L.A. Rams WR Puka Nacua (95.4), Jefferson (88.7) and former Detroit WR Calvin Johnson (86.1).

Chase also has climbed the Bengals' all-time receiving charts quickly, as he already ranks third in team history in receptions, third in 100-yard receiving games (26), third in receiving yards and fourth in TD catches. He recently surpassed former WR Carl Pickens (530) on the team's career receptions list, and moved ahead of former WR Isaac Curtis (7101) in receiving yards.

Chase's production from 2021-25 rivaled some of the NFL's all-time greats in the early stages of their respective careers. He is the only player in league history with at least 500 receptions for 50 receiving TDs in his first five seasons, and he is one of five players ever to begin his career with five straight 1000-yard seasons. The players who accomplished that feat before Chase were Hall of Famer Randy Moss, former Cincinnati WR A.J. Green, former Tampa Bay WR Mike Evans and Jefferson.

Chase was voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his first five seasons, joining Green as the only players to accomplish that feat in their Bengals career. He is one of six players in team history with five or more Pro Bowl selections overall, alongside OT Anthony Munoz (11 Pro Bowls), DT Geno Atkins (eight), Green (seven), Johnson (six) and CB Lemar Parrish (six).

In the 2024 campaign, Chase became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era — and the youngest — to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led the NFL in receptions (127; Bengals single-season record), yards (1708; Bengals record) and TDs (17; tied Bengals record). He was voted a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in both the 2024 and '25 seasons, becoming the fourth Bengals offensive player to receive multiple All-Pro honors in his career. The other players to do so have all been inducted into the team's Ring of Honor — OT Anthony Munoz (nine All-Pro selections), OT Willie Anderson (three) and WR Chad Johnson (two).

Always open: After leading the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 receptions in 2024, WR Ja'Marr Chase followed up with 125 catches in '25, which ranked third in the league and second in team history. He became the third player in NFL history with at least 125 receptions in consecutive seasons, joining former Pittsburgh WR Antonio Brown (2014-15) and former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas ('18-19).

Chase totaled 10 or more catches five times during the 2025 season, including a stretch of three straight contests from Weeks 6-8. He became the first player in team history to register double-digit catches in three consecutive games.

Chase set a Bengals single-game record with 16 catches in Week 7 of last season against Pittsburgh, breaking his own previous team record of 15 receptions (Week 5 of 2023 at Arizona). He now owns the four highest single-game reception totals in team history.

Chase's four career games with 14 or more catches are tied with Brown for the second-most in NFL history. Former L.A. Chargers/Chicago and current Indianapolis WR Keenan Allen holds the record with six such career games.

1+5=6: WR Ja'Marr Chase leads the NFL with 30 receiving TDs since the start of the 2024 season, as he had a Bengals-record 17 in the '24 campaign (led NFL), eight in '25 and five so far in '26. Not far behind him in that category is teammate Tee Higgins, whose 23 total TD catches in that span rank fifth leaguewide. Higgins caught 10 scoring passes in 2024 (tied for sixth in NFL), then set a career high with 11 last season (tied for second). He has two this season, with the most recent coming in the third quarter of Week 7 at Baltimore.

Higgins' 13-yard TD against the Ravens was followed by a two-yard scoring catch from Chase in the fourth quarter. It marked the 14th game since the start of the 2021 season in which both players had a receiving TD, which are the most such games by any NFL duo in that span and the most by any duo in Bengals history. The next closest Cincinnati tandem is former WR A.J. Green and TE Jermaine Gresham, who had a TD catch in the same game on 10 occasions.

Chase's 59 career receiving TDs are tied for the most in the NFL since the start of his 2021 rookie campaign, alongside current L.A. Rams WR Davante Adams. It also is the fourth-most TD catches in Bengals history, and just seven shy of WR Chad Johnson's team record of 66.

Higgins is the third player in Bengals history with double-digit receiving TDs in consecutive seasons, joining former WRs Carl Pickens (1994-96) and A.J. Green (2012-13). He currently has 47 career TD catches, which are the sixth-most in team history and tied for the ninth-most in the NFL since he entered the league as a second-round draft pick of Cincinnati in 2020.

Here are the league leaders in receiving TDs since 2024:

PLAYER	TEAM	RECEIVING TDs SINCE '24
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals.....	30
Amon-Ra St. Brown	Detroit Lions	28
Davante Adams	Las Vegas/N.Y. Jets/L.A. Rams	26
Jaxon Smith-Njigba	Seattle Seahawks.....	24
Tee Higgins	Cincinnati Bengals.....	23

Terrific Tee: WR Tee Higgins' 571 receiving yards this season rank eighth in the NFL and are the most through the first six games in any season of his career. He has crossed the century mark in yards twice already in 2026, with a season-best 157 yards on 11 catches in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, and 148 yards on six grabs in Week 7 at Baltimore.

During the win over the Ravens, Higgins eclipsed 6000 career receiving yards and surpassed former WRs Darnay Scott (5975) and Tyler Boyd (6000) on the Bengals' all-time receiving yardage list. His current total of 6012 receiving yards ranks eighth in team history, and is 122 shy of tying former WR Eddie Brown (6134) for seventh. It also ranks 14th among all NFL players since he entered the league in 2020.

Higgins has reached the 1000-yard receiving milestone in two seasons in his career, accomplishing the feat in 2021 and '22. He also had over 900 yards in two other seasons, registering 908 in his 2020 rookie campaign and 911 in just 12 games played in '24. He has 17 career 100-yard receiving games.

Higgins' 11 receptions in Week 4 against the Jaguars were the second-most in a game in his career, and tied for the eighth-most in a game by any player this season. He has 33 total catches this year, well on pace to surpass his career high of 74 receptions which he hit in both the 2021 and '22 seasons.

Defense on sack spree: The Bengals are tied for the NFL lead with 21 sacks this season. Cincinnati has logged at least four sacks in four of its games, including the most recent win at Baltimore in Week 7.

Ten players have gotten in the sack column, with a trio of offseason additions leading the way — DE Boye Mafe has a team-high 4.5 sacks, while DT Dexter Lawrence has notched four and DT Jonathan Allen has three. Mafe has registered at least a sack in each of the past three games, including 1.5 against the Ravens.

A pair of third-year players, DT Kris Jenkins Jr. and DE Cedric Johnson, both have posted two sacks so far in 2026. Johnson, who entered the season with three total sacks in 18 career games, had his first multi-sack game in the Week 2 victory at Houston. Rookie DE Cashius Howell was the latest to join the party, as he recorded his first career sack in the third quarter of Week 7.

Though the new-look Bengals defensive line has contributed to an overall improved pass rush, Cincinnati has been among the NFL leaders in sacks dating back to last November. Since Week 13 of the 2025 season (Thanksgiving week), the Bengals have totaled 41 sacks, which are the second-most by any team behind only Minnesota (43). Of the 12 games the Bengals have played in that time frame, they have recorded three or more sacks in 10 of them.

2026 veteran defensive additions: Highlighting the Bengals' offseason acquisitions were four defensive veterans who already are playing significant roles for the team in 2026. Three signed with Cincinnati as unrestricted free agents and one — DT Dexter Lawrence II — was acquired via trade. Here is a closer look at those additions, ordered by the date of their signing:

- S Bryan Cook: A Cincinnati native who played his final two collegiate seasons (2020-21) at the University of Cincinnati, Cook signed with his hometown Bengals on March 12, the first full day of free agency. He was a member of two Super Bowl-winning Chiefs teams in 2022 and '23, and is coming off career highs in tackles (82) and passes defended (six) in the '25 campaign. Cook opened his Bengals tenure with a forced fumble and fumble recovery against Tampa Bay. He missed the Week 4 contest against Jacksonville due to an ankle injury, but has registered 14 tackles in his two games since returning, including a season-best nine stops with a half-sack in Week 7 at Baltimore.
- DE Boye Mafe: Mafe won a Super Bowl title with Seattle in February, then signed with Cincinnati just over a month later on March 12. A second-round draft pick of the Seahawks in 2022, he racked up 20 sacks over his first four NFL seasons. In 2023, he recorded a sack in seven straight games, the longest streak in Seahawks history. He leads the Bengals with 4.5 sacks this season, including 1.5 in the most recent win over Baltimore. He also had a strip-sack and recovered a fumble in the season opener against Tampa Bay.
- DT Jonathan Allen: Allen signed with the Bengals for his 10th NFL season on March 13, providing Cincinnati with a proven interior defensive lineman. He spent his first eight years (2017-24) with Washington, before playing for Minnesota in '25. A two-time Pro Bowler (2021-22 seasons), he has 48.5 career sacks, the fifth-most by any NFL defensive tackle since he entered the league. He has three sacks for the Bengals this season, and in Week 5 at Miami he forced and recovered a fumble inside the Cincinnati red zone to help seal the win in the fourth quarter.
- DT Dexter Lawrence II: Perhaps one of the most notable transactions of the NFL offseason occurred on April 19, when less than a week ahead of the draft, the Bengals sent the 10th overall selection to the N.Y. Giants in exchange for Lawrence. A three-time Pro Bowler and two-time second-team All-Pro (Associated Press), Lawrence established himself as one of the game's top interior defensive linemen over his seven seasons with New York. He has 47 career TFLs and 34.5 sacks while regularly drawing double-teams from opposing offensive lines. He has four sacks already this season, and his seven TFLs are tied for the second-most among all NFL defensive tackles.

Turner shuts it down: After a breakout 2025 season in which he tied for third in the NFL with 18 passes defended, Bengals CB DJ Turner II has followed up with five PDs so far in '26, which are tied for the team lead alongside CB Dax Hill. Turner's 23 PDs since the start of last season are tied for the third-most by any player in the league, and trail only Philadelphia CB Quinyon Mitchell and Denver CB Riley Moss (25 each).

Turner's 18 PDs in 2025 were the most by a Bengals player in a season since 2009, when CB Leon Hall recorded 24 and CB Johnathan Joseph had 20. Turner's top statistical effort last season came in Week 6 at Green Bay, when he posted a career-high five PDs. He became the first Cincinnati player with five in a game since Joseph also logged five on Nov. 8, 2009 against Baltimore.

Turner also registered his first two career INTs and forced two fumbles during the 2025 season. He was the only player in the NFL last year with at least 15 PDs, two INTs and two FFs.

A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, Turner earned a full-time starting CB role midway through the '24 campaign. He suffered a season-ending collarbone injury in Week 11 of 2024, but since returning at the start of the '25 season, he has appeared in 23 straight games with 22 consecutive starts.

Here is a look at the NFL leaders in passes defended since the start of the 2025 season (regular season):

PLAYER	TEAM	PASSES DEFENSED SINCE 2025
Quinyon Mitchell	Philadelphia Eagles	25
Riley Moss	Denver Broncos	25
Kamari Lassiter	Houston Texans	23
Kool-Aid McKinstry	New Orleans Saints	23
DJ Turner II	Cincinnati Bengals	23

Rehkwow's ranks: Third-year P Ryan Rehkwow holds the Bengals' career records for both gross punting average (49.20 yards; minimum 100 punts) and net punting average (42.64; min. 100). Both marks also rank near the top of the NFL, with his gross average ranking third among all punters and his net average ranking eighth since the start of the 2024 season.

Rehkwow is coming off a Week 7 performance at Baltimore in which he punted four times for 184 yards (46.0 average), with each downed inside the Ravens' 20-yard line and three downed inside the 10. It marked his seventh career game with four inside-20 punts, which are tied with former Houston/current Tennessee P Tommy Townsend for the most such games by any punter since the start of the 2024 campaign.

Rehkwow now has 66 career punts downed inside the opponent's 20, the fifth-most by a Bengal since the statistic began being tracked in 1976 and the fourth-most in the NFL since 2024.

Rehkwow's gross average of 50.5 yards per punt during the 2025 season ranked second leaguewide and set a Bengals single-season record, surpassing his own team mark of 49.1 in his '24 rookie year. He averaged 50 or more yards per punt in 11 games last season.

Rehkwow opened his career with a historic debut in Week 1 of the 2024 season, as his 64.5 yards per punt against New England set an NFL single-game record which still stands. Highlighting his performance that day was a team-record 80-yard punt. He finished his rookie campaign with a net punting average of 42.9 yards, good for a Bengals single-season record and sixth in the NFL that year. Following that season, he was recognized on the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.

A record streak: K Evan McPherson has converted each of his last 22 FG attempts dating back to Week 11 of the 2025 season. It is the longest streak of consecutive FGs without a miss in Bengals history, surpassing 21 in a row by former K Shayne Graham in the 2007 campaign.

McPherson last missed a FG in the fourth quarter of the Bengals' Week 9 game against Chicago on Nov. 2, 2025. His current run also is the longest active streak in the NFL.

Of McPherson's 22 FGs, nine have come from a distance of 50 or more yards, which are tied for the second-most such kicks in the NFL since the streak began. Perhaps his best single-game performance during this stretch came in Cincinnati's win at Baltimore on Thanksgiving night, when he went six-for-six on FG attempts. The six FGs were a career high for McPherson, tied for the second-most in a game in Bengals history and tied for the most by any kicker in 2025. He was recognized with his fourth career AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor.

McPherson then collected his fifth weekly award following Cincinnati's win over Tampa Bay to open this season, when he knocked through each of his four FG attempts including a pair from beyond 55 yards. He went on to convert each of his eight FGs during the Bengals' three games played in September, earning AFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for the second time in his career (also won in December 2021).

McPherson additionally has made each of his last 26 attempts from inside of 50 yards, a streak that dates to Week 13 of the 2024 campaign.

Here is a look at the most consecutive made FGs in Bengals history (regular season):

PLAYER	YEAR(S)	CONSECUTIVE FGs
Evan McPherson	2026	22
Shayne Graham	2007	21
Shayne Graham	2005-06	17
Mike Nugent	2014	15
Evan McPherson	2021	15

Money Mac from deep: Of Evan McPherson's perfect 10-for-10 start on FG attempts to begin this season, five have been from a distance of 50 or more yards, which are tied for the fourth-most such kicks in the NFL.

McPherson opened the season with FGs from 58 and 55 yards in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay. He became the first kicker in Bengals history to make multiple FGs from at least 55 yards in a game. He then followed up with kicks from 57 and 51 yards in Week 2 at Houston, and most recently made a 50-yard attempt in Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

McPherson's 58-yarder against the Buccaneers tied for the fourth-longest made FG in Bengals history. He owns nine of the 11 longest made kicks in team history, including a team-record 63-yarder in Week 12 of the 2025 season against New England.

McPherson now has 34 career made FGs from 50 or more yards, which are more than four times the amount of the next closest total by a Bengals kicker (three former Cincinnati kickers have eight such FGs). It also is tied for the fifth-most 50-yard FGs in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021.

Overall for his career, McPherson has made 129 of 153 FGs, good for the third-highest percentage in team history (84.31). During the Week 1 victory over Tampa Bay, he surpassed former K Horst Muhlmann (120) for fifth on the Bengals' all-time FG list.

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Nov. 23, 2025	vs. New England Patriots	63
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	59
Cade York	Dec. 22, 2024	vs. Cleveland Browns	59
Evan McPherson	Dec. 19, 2021	at Denver Broncos	58
Evan McPherson	Sept. 13, 2026	vs. Tampa Bay Buccaneers	58

The Jungle can jam: Each of the highest 18 attended home games in Bengals history, in terms of announced attendance figure, have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year. Two of those games have been this season, as Cincinnati's Week 1 contest against Tampa Bay was played in front of an announced crowd of 66,625 (fourth-largest in team history), while the Week 4 game versus Jacksonville had an announced figure of 66,492 (eighth).

The Bengals had an announced crowd of 65,000 or more in 30 consecutive regular-season home games from Week 1 of the 2022 campaign through Week 12 of '25. That was the longest such streak in team history, surpassing a span of 24 straight games from 2005-07. The largest home attendance figure in team history is 67,260, which came in Week 4 of the 2022 season when the Bengals defeated Miami on Thursday Night Football. That figure also marked the largest announced crowd for a sporting event in Cincinnati history.

Here is a look at the five largest announced home crowds in Bengals history (all are at Paycor Stadium):

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT	ATTENDANCE
Sept. 29, 2022	Miami	W, 27-15	67,260
Oct. 27, 2024	Philadelphia	L, 17-37	67,239
Nov. 5, 2023	Buffalo	W, 24-18	66,965
Sept. 13, 2026	Tampa Bay	W, 33-27	66,625
Oct. 16, 2025	Pittsburgh	W, 33-31	66,569

Bengal bites: The average age of the Bengals' active roster is 27.1 years ... The Bengals have netted 25 AFC Player of the Week honors (Offensive, Defensive or Special Teams) since the start of the 2021 season, which are the third-most by any NFL team in that span, regardless of conference ... The longest-tenured player on the Bengals' active roster is TE Drew Sample, who is in his eighth season with the team ... The oldest player on the roster is QB Joe Flacco, who is 41 (born Jan. 16, 1985) ... The youngest player on the roster is C Connor Lew, who is 21 (born Aug. 30, 2005) ... There is a tie for the tallest player on the roster between OTs Orlando Brown Jr. and Amarius Mims, who both are listed at 6-8 ... The shortest player on the roster is HB Tahj Brooks, who is listed at 5-9 ... Brown, Mims and DT Dexter Lawrence II are tied for the heaviest player on the roster at 350 pounds ... K Evan McPherson and CB DJ Turner II are tied for the lightest player on the roster at 185 pounds.

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Seventh-year QB Joe Burrow currently leads the NFL this season in completion percentage (71.7), while ranking second in passer rating (110.4), tied for second in TD passes (15), ninth in completions (157) and 12th in passing yards (1653). His TD passes and passing yardage both are the most through the first six games of any season in his career. He has passed for four TDs with no INTs in each of the last two games, and is coming off a season-high 143.3 passer rating in the Week 7 comeback win at Baltimore. His season highs in attempts (54), completions (39) and passing yards (428) all came in Week 4 against Jacksonville. The No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft, Burrow is the league's all-time leader in career completion percentage (68.69; minimum 1500 attempts), and during the Jaguars game he tied Kansas City's Patrick Mahomes as the fastest QBs ever to reach 2000 completions (81 games). He missed nine games in 2025 due to a toe injury, but returned to action in late November and has since started 11 straight contests. A three-time Pro Bowler and two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, he ranks in the top five in Bengals history in passer rating (first), 300-yard games (first), completions (third), TD passes (fourth), passing attempts (fifth) and passing yards (fifth). Nineteenth-year veteran Joe Flacco re-signed with Cincinnati this offseason after starting six games during Burrow's injury absence in 2025. He was acquired by the Bengals in a trade with Cleveland last October, and made his first Bengals start just five days later. Over the span of his six starts, he ranked second in the NFL in completions, tied for third in TD passes and ranked fifth in passing yards. Now 41 years old (born Jan. 16, 1985), he is the oldest player on the Bengals' roster and the oldest QB to start a game in team history. Flacco spent his first 11 seasons with Baltimore, highlighted by a Super Bowl victory following the 2012 season, and has also seen game action for Denver (2019), the N.Y. Jets ('20-22), Cleveland ('23 and '25), and Indianapolis ('24). He ranks in the top 25 in NFL history in career passing yards (14th; 48,176) and TD passes (22nd; 272). Flacco took his first snaps of the 2026 regular season in Week 7 at Baltimore, entering the game late in the fourth quarter when Cincinnati had a victory in hand.

Running backs: Fourth-year HB Chase Brown leads the Bengals with 285 rushing yards on 82 carries this season, while also adding 143 receiving yards on 28 catches. He had a career-high 11 receptions for 71 yards in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville. Brown enjoyed a breakout 2025 campaign in which he set career highs in rushing attempts (232), rushing yards (1019), receptions (69) and receiving yards (437). He was one of five players in the NFL last season with at least 1000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards, and his catch total marked the most ever in a season by a Bengals running back. A native of London, Ontario, his 1456 yards from scrimmage were the most in a season by a Canadian-born player in NFL history, and were highlighted by a Bengals-record streak of six straight games with 100 or more scrimmage yards from Weeks 7-13. Complementing Brown in the run game is 10th-year veteran Samaje Perine, who scored his first rushing TD of the season in the fourth quarter of Week 7 at Baltimore. The previous game in Week 5 at Miami, he recorded season highs in carries (14) and yards (68), while finding the end zone on a six-yard TD catch.

Perine is currently in his second Bengals stint, after previously playing for the team from 2019-22 and then spending '23 with Kansas City and '24 with Denver. Since returning to Cincinnati in 2025, he has played in 21 games and served as a versatile contributor in rushing, receiving, pass protection and special teams. Originally a fourth-round pick of Washington in 2017, he has suited up for 131 games in his career and logged 2430 rushing yards, 1661 receiving yards and 680 yards on kickoff returns. Tahj Brooks, a sixth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2025, registered his first three carries of this season for six yards late in the Week 7 win at Baltimore. Brooks played in 16 contests as a rookie last season, logging 45 yards on 16 rushing attempts along with 10 KORs for 258 yards. At Texas Tech University, he set school career records for rushing attempts (879), rushing yards (4557) and 100-yard rushing games (23). He earned All-Big 12 honors and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award (nation's top RB) in each of his final two seasons.

Wide receivers: Sixth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase has been selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first five seasons and already ranks third in Bengals history in receptions (552), third in receiving yards (7188) and fourth in receiving TDs (59). Cincinnati's first-round draft choice (No. 5 overall) in 2021, he is one of five players in NFL history to begin his career with five consecutive 1000-yard receiving seasons. He also is one of just three players in league history to record at least 125 catches in consecutive seasons, doing so in 2024 and '25, and in both years he was recognized as a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. In 2024, he became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," leading the NFL in catches, receiving yards and receiving TDs, and he then followed up in '25 by ranking third leaguewide in receptions (125) and fourth in yards (1412). He is tied for fourth in the NFL and tied for the AFC lead in TD catches this season (five), with his most recent coming in the fourth quarter of Week 7 at Baltimore. He also ranks second on the Bengals with 32 receptions for 351 yards on the year. Chase is one-half of arguably the top receiving duo in the NFL alongside seventh-year pro Tee Higgins. Higgins currently ranks eighth in the NFL (second in AFC) with 571 yards on 33 grabs this season. He has gone for over 140 yards twice already, with a season-best 157 in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville and 148 in Week 7 at Baltimore. All of his production against the Ravens came in the second half, including his second TD of the season on a 13-yard scoring catch. Since entering the NFL as a second-round pick of the Bengals in 2020, he is tied for ninth leaguewide in TD catches (47) and ranks 14th in receiving yards (6012). He brought in a career-high 11 receiving TDs in 2025 (tied for second in NFL) after scoring 10 in '24, and in doing so became the third player in Bengals history with double-digit TD catches in consecutive seasons. His other totals in 2025 were 59 receptions for 846 yards, helping him earn his first career Pro Bowl nod. One of the top stories out of training camp was Dohnte Meyers, who made the team's initial 53-man active roster after originally signing a Reserve/Future contract in January. A slot receiver listed at 5-11, 186 pounds, he led Cincinnati in receptions (11) and receiving yards (121) during the preseason. Meyers had his best individual stat line of the regular season in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, contributing seven catches for 82 yards with five of his grabs resulting in a first down. He spent the past two seasons with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League, where he had 89 receptions for 1405 yards and nine TDs in 19 games played. He enjoyed a breakout 2025 season in which he averaged 16.2 yards per catch (65 for 1056 yards) and helped the Roughriders win the Grey Cup. He began his college career in 2018-19 at Presbyterian College (FCS) in Clinton, S.C., then spent the '21-22 seasons in Cleveland, Miss. at Delta State University (NCAA Division II). Cincinnati used one of its two fourth-round draft choices this past April to select Colbie Young out of the University of Georgia. Young has seen action in four games with one start this season, totaling two catches for nine yards. He missed two contests due to a knee injury, then made his return in Week 7 at Baltimore. A 6-4, 218-pound athlete, he had a five-year college career that saw him go from Lackawanna College (junior college; 2021), to the University of Miami (Fla.; '22-23) to Georgia ('24-25). In four seasons at the Division I level, he had 116 catches for 1437 yards and 13 TDs. Mitch Tinsley caught three passes for 49 yards in his season debut in Week 4 against the Jaguars, after being signed by the Bengals off Houston's practice squad just five days prior (Sept. 29). He currently is in his second stint with Cincinnati, as he earned a spot on the active roster coming out of training camp last year and had eight catches for 116 yards and two TDs in 2025. He originally joined the team on a Reserve/Future contract in February 2025, after spending his first two pro seasons with the Washington Commanders. He was with the Bengals through this year's preseason, then was waived on final cuts and spent the first three weeks of the regular season on the Texans' practice squad.

Tight ends: A second-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2019, Drew Sample has played in 101 career games with 66 starts and served as a key blocking TE in Cincinnati's offense. He missed most of the 2022 season with a knee injury, but has since suited up for 57 consecutive games with 41 starts since the start of the '23 campaign. In addition to his blocking responsibilities, he has contributed 122 career catches for 884 yards and six TDs. His most recent scoring catch came in Week 7 at Baltimore, a 16-yarder late in the fourth quarter to help the Bengals seal a road win. Mike Gesicki's five receiving TDs this season are tied for the AFC lead and tied for the most by any TE in the NFL. It already is tied for the second-most TD catches in any season of his career, one shy of his career high of six in the 2020 campaign. He has a scoring catch in each of the last four games, marking the longest such streak in his career and the longest streak by a tight end in Bengals history. A 2024 Bengals free agent acquisition, Gesicki has played in 36 games for Cincinnati and serves as an athletic pass catcher who often lines up as a slot receiver. In his first season with the Bengals, he recorded the second-most receptions by a TE in team history (65), totaling 665 yards. Originally a second-round pick by Miami in 2018, he spent his first five seasons with the Dolphins before playing for New England in 2023. He enters Week 8 two receiving yards shy of 4000 in his career. Erick All Jr., a 2024 fourth-round pick of the Bengals, caught three passes for 26 yards in Week 7 against the Ravens before excising in the second half with a knee injury. A native of Fairfield, Ohio (north of Cincinnati), All showed promise as a versatile TE in his rookie season before a knee injury kept him out for the second half of that year and all of the '25 campaign. His statistical totals as a rookie included 20 receptions for 158 yards. He has seen action in all five games this season with one start. All spent four college seasons (2019-22) at the University of Michigan and one ('23) at the University of Iowa. Rookie Jack Endries, a seventh-round pick in this year's draft, has played in three games this season, contributing primarily on special teams. He was a productive pass-catching TE during his collegiate career at the University of California (2023-24) and the University of Texas ('25). In 39 games (all starts) at the college level, he had 124 receptions for 1376 yards and seven TDs, with 33 for 346 and three scores coming with the Longhorns last season. He was named honorable mention All-ACC in 2024, when he led California in catches (65) and receiving yards (623) while playing with former Golden Bears QB and the No. 1 overall pick in the '26 draft, Fernando Mendoza.

Offensive line: The nucleus of the Bengals' offensive line is center Ted Karras, who is in his 11th NFL season and fifth with Cincinnati. A 2022 free agent acquisition, he has been voted a team captain in each of his four Bengals seasons and started 76 straight games, including postseason. Off the field, he is involved in numerous charitable efforts in the Cincinnati area and has twice been named the team's Club Winner for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023 and '25). Karras spent five of his first six pro seasons with New England, where he was a member of two Super Bowl-winning teams (2016 and '18). He also had a one-year stint with Miami in 2020. Four-time Pro Bowler Orlando Brown Jr. has started at LOT in all 51 games he has played in for the Bengals since signing with the team as a free agent in the 2023 offseason. He spent his first three NFL seasons (2018-20) with Baltimore, then played for Kansas City for two seasons and helped the Chiefs win Super Bowl LVII in the '22 campaign. He lined up for all 1110 offensive snaps for Cincinnati last season, anchoring a pass protection unit that contributed to the Bengals ranking sixth in the NFL in net passing yards per game (235.6). His father, the late Orlando Brown Sr., played nine NFL seasons (1994-99, 2003-05), spending time with Cleveland and Baltimore. Lining up at ROT is Amarius Mims, who has emerged as one of the top pass protectors in the NFL this season. According to the NFL's Next Gen Stats service, Mims took 58 pass blocking snaps in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, which were the most without allowing a single pressure in the past seven seasons by any NFL offensive tackle. Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2024 (No. 18 overall), he has started at ROT in 36 of 38 career games played and committed just one holding penalty (called during his rookie season). Prior to the NFL, he spent three seasons (2021-23) at the University of Georgia, where he was part of back-to-back national championship-winning teams in '21-22. Dalton Risner has started at RG in each of his last 10 games played, including the first six contests of this season. He signed with the Bengals as a free agent following training camp in 2025 and played in 14 games with 11 starts (nine at RG, two at LG) last year. An eighth-year veteran in 2026, he previously played for Denver ('19-22) and Minnesota ('23-24), and has logged 107 games of regular-season experience. Dylan Fairchild has started at LG in all 21 games he has played in for Cincinnati since entering the league as a third-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2025. His 961 offensive snaps played as a rookie last season were fifth-most on the team. Fairchild started 24 collegiate games across four seasons (2021-24) at the University of Georgia, where he finished off his career with second-team All-America honors in '24. He also has an impressive background in wrestling, as he compiled a 67-0 career record at West Forsyth High School in Cumming, Ga., and won two Georgia state titles in the Class 7A heavyweight division. Javon Foster started at ROT in the team's second preseason game this year against Chicago, then lined up at LOT in the preseason finale at Philadelphia. He spent the 2025 season on Cincinnati's practice squad, after seeing action in four games for Jacksonville as a rookie in '24. Foster entered the league as a fourth-round pick of the Jaguars, following a five-year career (2019-23) at the University of Missouri. He played in 49 contests with 38 starts for the Tigers, highlighted by a 2023 season in which he earned first-team All-SEC and third-team All-America honors. Lining up at offensive tackle opposite Foster in those two preseason contests was Jalen Rivers, a fifth-round pick of the Bengals in 2025. Currently listed as a backup at LG, Rivers played in 16 games with seven starts at RG as a rookie last season. He started at LOT in each of his final 21 games played at the University of Miami (Fla.), where he collected second-team All-ACC honors in 2023 and honorable mention in '24. He was the Bengals' nominee for the Salute to Service Award last season, as his father, mother and stepfather all served in the U.S. Navy. G Jacob Bayer spent the final eight games of last season on Cincinnati's practice squad, after going through the offseason and training camp with Buffalo. He signed with the Bills as a college free agent in May 2025, following a collegiate career that included two seasons at Lamar University in Beaumont, Texas, and two at Arkansas State University. He was a first-team All-Sun Belt Conference performer in 2023, then followed up with second-team status in '24. Bayer lined up for 168 offensive snaps for the Bengals this preseason, the second-most among the team's O-linemen. The starting center for the Bengals' final two preseason games was rookie Connor Lew, who Cincinnati selected in the fourth round of this year's draft. The youngest player on the Bengals' active roster (turned 21 on Aug. 30), Lew started 25 out of 31 games played over a three-year career (2023-25) at Auburn University. That included a streak of 19 consecutive starts that was halted by the knee injury which occurred midway through last season. He was a Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team pick in 2023, when he was credited with zero sacks allowed on 228 pass block snaps, according to Pro Football Focus. Cincinnati acquired OT Myles Hinton on waivers from Philadelphia in late August. Listed at 6-6, 342 pounds, Hinton was a sixth-round draft pick of the Eagles in 2025 and spent his entire rookie campaign on the Reserve/Injured list due to a back injury. He played his first three collegiate seasons (2020-22) at Stanford University, then spent the '23-24 seasons at the University of Michigan.

Defensive line: Perhaps the headline addition of the offseason for Cincinnati was DT Dexter Lawrence II, who the Bengals acquired in a trade with the N.Y. Giants less than a week before the NFL Draft. An eighth-year veteran, Lawrence has played in 115 career regular-season contests with 108 starts, been voted to the Pro Bowl three times and been named to the AP All-Pro Second Team on two occasions (2022 and '23). He has 34.5 career sacks, the 10th-most by any DT since he entered the league as a first-round pick of the Giants in 2019. He already has four sacks for the Bengals this season, with the most recent coming in the fourth quarter of Week 7 at Baltimore. His seven TFLs on the season lead Cincinnati and are tied for fourth in the NFL. Lining up next to Lawrence on the interior of the Bengals' defensive line is two-time Pro Bowler Jonathan Allen. Allen, a former first-round draft pick of Washington in 2017, signed with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent this March. He spent his first eight NFL seasons with the Commanders, then played for Minnesota in 2025. His career stats include 71 TFLs and 48.5 sacks, the fifth-most among all DTs since he entered the NFL. He has posted three sacks through the first six games of this season, with the most recent being a strip-sack in the fourth quarter of Week 5 at Miami which he also recovered to help secure the win. Offseason addition Boye Mafe leads the Bengals with 4.5 sacks, after registering 1.5 in the win at Baltimore. An athletic edge rusher, Mafe signed with Cincinnati in March after helping Seattle win Super Bowl LX a month prior. He entered the NFL as a second-round pick of the Seahawks in 2022, and over his first four seasons he played in 68 of a possible 72 games, including postseason. He made an impact in his Bengals debut in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay, recovering a fumble in the first half and then forcing a fumble on a strip-sack in the fourth quarter. He now is up to 24.5 sacks in his career, which includes a Seahawks franchise-record streak of seven consecutive games with a sack in 2023. One of Lawrence's former Giants teammates, DT B.J. Hill, came over to Cincinnati via trade shortly before the 2021 season. Hill has played in 85 regular-season games and seven postseason contests for the Bengals. He has 27.5 career sacks, with four recorded in the 2025 season. He also has a knack for batting down passes at the line of scrimmage with 16 career PDs. Hill missed three games earlier this season due to an Achilles injury, but returned to action in Week 5 at Miami and has recorded 10 tackles over the past two contests. Cincinnati's other starting DE is fourth-year pro Myles Murphy, who so far this season has eight tackles, 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble. Murphy is building off his top statistical campaign in 2025, when he posted career highs in total tackles (52), TFLs (six), sacks (team-leading 5.5) and PDs (three). He started just one game over his first 38 career appearances, then has made the start in each of the Bengals' last 15 contests dating to Week 9 of last season. He posted a season-high three tackles in the Week 7 victory at Baltimore. DT T.J. Slaton Jr. started all 17 games in his first Bengals season in 2025, netting 52 tackles, four TFLs and three sacks. Originally a fifth-round draft choice of Green Bay in 2021, he spent his first four seasons with the Packers. Slaton has 11 stops, a QB hit and a FR so far in 2026, with his recovery setting up a Bengals FG drive in the season opener vs. Tampa Bay. He had a pair of tackles the following week at Houston, including a stop on third-and-short to force a Texans FG attempt. He logged a season-best three solo tackles in Week 5 at Miami. Second-year DE Shemar Stewart made his 2026 debut in the Week 2 win at Houston and registered a sack late in the fourth quarter. He has appeared in three games this season, recording three tackles with the sack. Cincinnati's first-round pick in 2025, he missed most of this year's training camp due to a lower-body injury sustained in the team's first practice, but returned to participation in early September. Stewart played in eight games with five starts as a rookie last season, contributing 11 tackles with two TFLs and a sack. A product of Texas A&M, he was noted during his draft process for standout physical traits, and was one of two players in the 2025 class to produce a perfect 10.0 on the Relative Athletic Score (grades players' measurements compared to peer group). Stewart's former teammate at Texas A&M, DE Cashius Howell, is coming off his first career sack in Week 7 at Baltimore, as he got to QB Tyler Huntley for a loss of four yards to force a Ravens punt in the third quarter. The Bengals' second-round draft pick this past April, Howell had a breakout 2025 campaign with the Aggies in which he racked up 11.5 sacks, was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year and earned first-team All-America honors. He spent his final two collegiate seasons at Texas A&M, after playing his first three years at Bowling Green State University in northwest Ohio. Regarded for his athleticism and quickness off the edge, he clocked a 40-yard dash time of 4.59 seconds and recorded a vertical jump of 32.5 inches at this year's NFL Combine. Third-year DE Cedric Johnson is an emerging contributor along the Bengals' defensive line, posting four sacks over his last eight games dating back to late last season. He had his first career multi-sack game in Week 2 at Houston, taking down QB C.J. Stroud twice in the fourth quarter for a combined loss of 24 yards. Johnson began the 2025 season on the Reserve/Injured list due to a calf injury, but has played in 14 straight contests since returning to action last October. A sixth-round Bengals draft pick in 2024, he now has seen action in 24 career games, totaling 22 tackles with five sacks and two fumble recoveries. DT Kris Jenkins Jr., the Bengals' second-round draft choice in 2024, has two sacks this season while serving as a rotational interior D-lineman. He has played in 35 career games with 13 starts for Cincinnati, netting 74 tackles, seven TFLs and 6.5 sacks. Jenkins capped off his collegiate career at the University of Michigan with second-team All-America honors while helping the Wolverines win the national championship in 2023. His father, Kris Jenkins Sr., played 10 NFL seasons (2001-10) as a DT with Carolina and the N.Y. Jets, earning four Pro Bowl selections. Rookie DT Landon Robinson, a seventh-round pick of the Bengals, earned a spot on the 53-man roster after leading the team with 2.5 sacks during the preseason. In 2025, his final season at the United States Naval Academy, he had 6.5 sacks, was named the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year and was a first-team All-American. He grew up in Fairlawn, Ohio, and attended Copley High School in Copley, Ohio, before finishing out his high school career at the Naval Academy Preparatory School in Newport, R.I.

Linebackers: Cincinnati's second-round draft choice in 2025, Demetrius Knight Jr. is tied for the Bengals lead with 50 tackles this season. He also has been involved in two takeaways, with a fumble recovery which he returned 27 yards for his first career TD in the season opener vs. Tampa Bay, and an INT in Week 7 at Baltimore that set up a fourth-quarter scoring drive. Knight has started at LB in 20 of 23 career games played, and last season ranked second on the team and second among all NFL rookies with 106 tackles. He has recorded 10 or more tackles four times, including a career-high-tying 12 stops in Week 2 of this season at Houston. He spent his final collegiate season at the University of South Carolina in 2024, after a year ('23) at North Carolina-Charlotte and four seasons ('19-22) at Georgia Tech. Knight's 50 stops this season are tied with his fellow starting LB, Barrett Carter. Carter also crossed the century mark in tackles as a rookie last year, recording 102 (third among all rookies). He was selected by the Bengals in the fourth round of the 2025 draft after a four-year career at Clemson University that saw him earn two All-ACC honors. In addition to his tackle totals, he has 1.5 sacks, three PDs and one FF this season. He posted 11 tackles in consecutive games in Weeks 4 and 5, then followed up with nine more in the Week 7 win over the Ravens. Oren Burks has played primarily on special teams this season, recording four ST tackles and six defensive tackles through six games. A ninth-year veteran, he signed with the Bengals as a free agent in 2025 after spending time with Green Bay ('18-21), San Francisco ('22-23) and Philadelphia ('24). He emerged as one of the Eagles' top defensive performers during their run to a Super Bowl LIX title. Burks saw action in all 17 games with nine starts in his debut Bengals season last year, contributing 34 tackles defensively and 14 on special teams. Joe Giles-Harris was signed off the practice squad to the active roster ahead of the Bengals' Week 3 game at Pittsburgh. He has played in all six games this season (first two as practice squad elevation), and leads the team with seven special teams tackles. He also paced the Bengals in that category in 2025, recording 20 ST tackles in just 10 games played. Originally a college free agent signee of the Jaguars in 2019, Giles-Harris played his first two pro seasons ('19-20) with Jacksonville, then spent time with Buffalo from '21-22 and New England from '23-24. The most recent addition to the Bengals' roster is LB Jack Kiser, who Cincinnati acquired on waivers from Jacksonville on Oct. 12. A fourth-round draft pick of the Jaguars in 2025, Kiser played in 14 games in his rookie season and totaled 10 defensive tackles along with four special teams stops. He did not see action for Jacksonville early this season prior to being waived. He spent six seasons (2019-24) at the University of Notre Dame, where he played in a school-record 70 career games including the final three years ('22-24) under current Bengals and then-Fighting Irish defensive coordinator Al Golden. He made his Bengals debut in Week 7 at Baltimore, logging two defensive tackles along with a stop on special teams.

Defensive backs: Fourth-year CB DJ Turner II was voted a team captain for the first time in his career this season, after emerging as one of the NFL's top boundary CBs in 2025. He tied for third in the league with a career-high 18 PDs last season, while adding his first two career INTs and two FFs. A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, he missed the final six contests of the '24 season due to a collarbone injury, but has since suited up for the past 23 consecutive games. Turner is tied for the team lead with five PDs this season while adding 14 tackles. He was a two-time All-Big Ten honoree at the University of Michigan and clocked the fastest 40-yard dash time by any player at the 2023 NFL Combine (4.26 seconds). A Cincinnati native who spent his final two collegiate seasons (2020-21) at the University of Cincinnati, Bryan Cook returned to the Queen City as an unrestricted free agent signee of the Bengals in March. He spent his first four NFL seasons with Kansas City, where he was a member of the Chiefs' back-to-back Super Bowl winning teams in the 2022 and '23 campaigns. He earned a starting safety role for the Chiefs entering the 2023 season and has started each of his last 54 games played, including his first five games with the Bengals. Cook has 26 tackles, a half-sack, a FF and a FR this season, with both his forced fumble and recovery coming in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay. He missed the Week 4 contest due to an ankle injury, but has 14 tackles in two games played since returning, including a season-high nine stops in Week 7 at Baltimore. He attended nearby Mount Healthy High School, then began his college career at Howard University before transferring to Cincinnati. S Jordan Battle is tied for the NFL lead with three INTs this season, and also is tied for the most by any player with seven since the start of the 2025 campaign. He had his first career multi-INT game in Week 5 of this season at Miami, picking off QB Malik Willis on consecutive Dolphins possessions. He then followed up with seven tackles in Week 7 at Baltimore, which included a TFL on RB Derrick Henry for a four-yard loss. A third-round pick of the Bengals in 2023, Battle has been a full-time starting safety since the late stages of the '24 season. Last season, he led Cincinnati in tackles (112) and INTs (four), both of which were career highs. CB Dax Hill is tied with Turner for the team lead with five PDs this season. A former teammate of Turner's at the University of Michigan, Hill was Cincinnati's first-round pick in the 2022 draft and lined up at safety for his first 32 career games, before transitioning to CB ahead of the 2024 season. He primarily has been an outside corner, but moved to nickel CB recently after Jalen Davis was placed on the Reserve/Injured list. He has three INTs and 29 PDs over his four-plus pro seasons, with a career-high 11 PDs in 2025. His brother, Justice Hill, currently plays RB for the Baltimore Ravens. DJ Ivey has seen a substantial increase in his defensive role over the past three games and totaled 11 tackles along with three PDs in that span. That stretch includes his first career start in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, a pair of PDs in Week 5 at Miami, and a career-high six tackles (four solos) in Week 7 at Baltimore. Ivey has primarily been a core special teamer for the Bengals since entering the league in 2023 as a seventh-round draft pick of Cincinnati. He has 13 career special teams tackles and a fumble recovery on punt coverage, while also registering 25 defensive stops. Ivey played in 58 games during his college career at the University of Miami (Fla.), then earned a roster spot coming out of his rookie training camp with Cincinnati. Tacario Davis, Cincinnati's third-round pick in this year's draft, has lined up for 71 defensive snaps and 49 special teams snaps through his first six career games. He recorded a career-high four tackles and a PD in Week 3 at Pittsburgh. A rangy CB with a 6-4 frame, Davis had a strong preseason with 11 tackles, two PDs and an INT. He spent his final college season in 2025 at the University of Washington, where he started seven games but missed time throughout the year due to injuries. He played the previous three years at Arizona State University, where in 2023 he led the Pac-12 Conference with 15 PBUs. He was recognized as an all-league performer in three different conferences during his college career, as he was named honorable mention All-Pac-12 in 2023, second-team All-Big 12 in '24 and honorable mention All-Big Ten in '25. PJ Jules made his first career start in Week 4 against the Jaguars, seeing action on 40 snaps at safety and recording a career-high four tackles. He tied for second on the team with 16 special teams tackles in the 2025 campaign, after spending his entire rookie season in '24 on Cincinnati's practice squad. Jules originally signed with the Bengals as a college free agent out of Southern Illinois University. He capped off his time with the Salukis by recording 111 tackles and earning consensus first-team FCS All-America honors in 2023. Josh Newton, a fifth-round pick of the Bengals in 2024, has played in 34 games with eight starts over his first two-plus seasons. He logged 29 tackles, seven PDs and an INT as a rookie, then followed up with 11 stops and three PDs in 2025. Newton saw his first action of the 2026 regular season in Week 4 vs. Jacksonville, lining up for five special teams snaps. He notched his first tackle of the year in Week 7 at Baltimore. He finished his collegiate career at Texas Christian University (2022-23), after three seasons ('19-21) at the University of Louisiana-Monroe. The Bengals signed third-year S Russ Yeast off the practice squad to the active roster on Oct. 20. Yeast had been elevated from the practice squad for two contests this season, recording three defensive tackles and one stop on special teams. Originally a seventh-round draft pick of the L.A. Rams in 2022, he played in 32 games with 10 starts over his first two seasons in Los Angeles. He then spent time with the Rams, Carolina and Houston in 2024, before joining the Bengals' practice squad ahead of the 2025 campaign. He has five career PDs, all coming in 2023 with the Rams. S Kyle Dugger, a free agent acquisition this offseason, has played in four games so far in 2026, but has missed time periodically due to a quadriceps injury. A second-round draft choice of New England in 2020, he spent his first five-plus seasons with the Patriots, then was traded to Pittsburgh last October and started nine games for the Steelers. He has 11 INTs with three pick-sixes, including one against the Bengals in Week 11 of last season. Dugger had contributed mainly on special teams early this season, then saw his first extended action on defense in Week 3 against the Steelers and recorded eight tackles along with a PD.

Special Teams: Seventh-year K Evan McPherson ranks in the top five in Bengals history in FG percentage (84.3; third), PATs (223; fourth), made FGs (129; fifth) and points scored (610; fifth). He has made 34 FGs from a distance of 50 or more yards, which is a team record and tied for the fifth-most among all NFL kickers since he entered the league as a fifth-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2021. He owns nine of the 11 longest made kicks in team history, including a record 63-yarder in Week 12 of last season. McPherson was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for September after converting each of his eight FGs and eight PATs over Cincinnati's first three games. He now is 10-for-10 on FGs this season, with five from at least 50 yards. In Week 5 at Miami, he made his 22nd consecutive FG attempt, surpassing former K Shayne Graham (21 in 2007) for the longest streak in Bengals history. McPherson's streak dates to Week 11 of last season. Ryan Rehkow has been Cincinnati's punter and holder on placekicks since joining the team as a free agent in the 2024 offseason. Now in his third season, he maintains the Bengals' career records for gross punting average (49.2 yards; minimum 100 punts) and net punting average (42.6; min. 100). He has 66 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line, the fifth-most by a Bengal since the stat began being tracked in 1976, and the fourth-most in the NFL since the start of the 2024 campaign. Rehkow has 13 inside-20 punts to start this season, with four coming in the Week 2 win at Houston and in the Week 7 win against Baltimore. Last season, he ranked second in the NFL and broke his own Bengals single-season record with 50.5 yards per punt. William Wagner has recorded 186 long snaps without an unplayable delivery since joining the team as a college free agent in the 2025 offseason. In 2024 at the University of Michigan, he was a finalist for the Patrick Mannely Award, given to the top long snapper in college football. WR Dohnté Meyers has returned 20 kickoffs for 541 yards this season (27.1 average), including a season-long 81-yarder on the opening kick of Week 5 at Miami that set up a Bengals TD. He also has nine punt returns for 72 yards (8.0), highlighted by a career-long 31-yarder in the most recent win at Baltimore which set up a third-quarter scoring drive. Over his two seasons (2024-25) with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL, Meyers logged 11 KORs for 319 yards (29.0) along with nine PRs for 94 yards (10.4). Also in the mix to return kickoffs is veteran HB Samaje Perine, who has 26 career KORs for 680 yards (26.2), including a career-high 17 for 430 last season with Cincinnati. His first KOR of this season came in Week 3 at Pittsburgh, a 26-yarder that set up a Bengals TD drive in the first quarter. Second-year HB Tahj Brooks has 13 career KORs for 334 yards (25.7), including three for 76 yards this season. He had a 27-yard run-back on his lone KOR of Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

THE LAST BENGALS-TITANS MEETINGS

2023 SEASON WEEK 4, GAME 4

Tennessee Titans 27, Cincinnati Bengals 3 Sunday, Oct. 1, 2023 at Nissan Stadium

The Bengals opened the game with an 11-play, 72-yard FG drive, but it proved to be their most successful possession as the Titans held them to just 139 net yards the rest of the way. Tennessee used a balanced offensive attack and totaled 400 net yards (227 passing, 173 rushing) to wear down the Cincinnati defense. The score was tied 3-3 at the midway point of the second quarter, before the Titans erupted for three TDs in the final 6:31 to take a commanding 24-3 halftime lead. RB Derrick Henry led the charge for Tennessee with 122 yards on 22 carries (5.5-yard average), including a 29-yard TD run that saw him break three tackles before reaching the end zone. The Titans repeatedly blitzed QB Joe Burrow, sacking him three times while holding the Bengals to two of nine on third down. Cincinnati fell to 1-3, while Tennessee improved to 2-2.

2024 SEASON WEEK 15, GAME 14

Cincinnati Bengals 37, Tennessee Titans 27 Sunday, Dec. 15, 2024 at Nissan Stadium

Cincinnati and Tennessee combined for 10 turnovers, the most in an NFL game since 2007, but QB Joe Burrow battled through the chaos with three TD passes to help lead the Bengals to a road victory. Cincinnati's defense logged six takeaways, including a 39-yard pick-six by S Geno Stone that gave the Bengals a 31-14 lead in the third quarter. The Bengals trailed by seven halfway through the second period, before DE Trey Hendrickson forced a fumble that was recovered by Cincinnati, and his fellow starting DE Sam Hubbard caught a two-yard TD pass from Burrow on the ensuing possession to tie the score. The Bengals created separation going into halftime when an INT by CB Cam Taylor-Britt led to a TD drive, and on the Titans' next play from scrimmage CB Mike Hilton picked off another pass to set up a FG. Cincinnati improved to 6-8, while Tennessee fell to 3-11.

2026 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 33, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 27 Sunday, Sept. 13, 2026 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals' defense had four takeaways which were converted into 24 points in a season-opening win. All of the takeaways were fumble recoveries, including three on consecutive Buccaneers drives in the first half. LB Demetrius Knight Jr. scored on a 27-yard fumble return for a TD. The Bengals built a 17-point lead in the third quarter before a Tampa Bay FG and 38-yard pick-six by LB Josiah Trotter made it a one-possession game. K Evan McPherson made all of his four FG attempts, including a pair in the fourth quarter to regain a double-digit advantage. The Buccaneers pulled to within one score again with 3:19 left, but the Cincinnati offense responded with an eight-play, 59-yard drive to drain the remaining clock. Bengals defensive veteran free agent acquisitions made an impact, as Jonathan Allen and Boye Mafe both had a sack, while S Bryan Cook had a FF and FR.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Cincinnati Bengals 20, Houston Texans 6 Sunday, Sept. 20, 2026 at Reliant Stadium

WR Ja'Marr Chase had two TD catches and Cincinnati's defense held Houston to just six points in a road win. The Texans elected to go for it on fourth-and-inches inside the red zone midway through the second quarter, but DT Dexter Lawrence II broke through the line and tackled RB David Montgomery for a loss to force a turnover on downs. The Bengals' offense responded with an 81-yard drive capped by a 32-yard TD pass from Burrow to Chase, who came down with an acrobatic catch near the front pylon. Burrow found Chase for another TD in the third quarter to increase the lead to 17-3. K Evan McPherson knocked through a pair of FGs from beyond 50 yards, while defensively the Bengals kept the Texans to 60 total rushing yards. Cincinnati recorded four sacks, with two coming from DE Cedric Johnson. The Bengals improved to 2-0, while Houston fell to 0-2.

WEEK 3, GAME 3Pittsburgh Steelers 30, Cincinnati Bengals 27
Sunday, Sept. 27, 2026 at Acrisure Stadium

The Bengals were driving inside Steelers territory while trailing by three in the game's final minute, but a fumble by QB Joe Burrow was recovered by Pittsburgh DE Sebastian Joseph-Day to seal Cincinnati's road loss. The two offenses combined for 763 net yards and traded scores throughout the afternoon, with Burrow and Steelers QB Aaron Rodgers each throwing three TD passes. Burrow connected with TE Mike Gesicki for a TD on a fourth-down play to put the Bengals ahead early in the fourth quarter. The Cincinnati defense forced a punt on the ensuing Steelers drive, but it was muffed deep in Bengals territory and Pittsburgh capitalized on the turnover with a tying FG. Another Steelers FG gave them the lead later in the period, set up by a 47-yard gain by TE Darnell Washington. Bengals WRs Ja'Marr Chase and Tee Higgins each had a TD catch and went for over 90 yards, while Steelers RB Jaylen Warren churned out 127 yards on 17 carries (7.5 average). Cincinnati fell to 2-1, while Pittsburgh improved to 2-1.

WEEK 4, GAME 4Jacksonville Jaguars 22, Cincinnati Bengals 17
Sunday, Oct. 4, 2026 at Paycor Stadium

Jacksonville RB Chris Rodriguez Jr. scored a 25-yard rushing TD to extend the Jaguars' lead to 22-10 with 6:35 left in regulation. The Bengals answered with a 71-yard drive ending in a TD sneak by QB Joe Burrow, then forced the Jaguars to punt on the ensuing possession to get the ball back with a chance to win. The Bengals drove to Jacksonville's 21-yard line in the final minute while trailing by five points, but the Jaguars stopped HB Chase Brown a half-yard short on fourth down to stave off a late comeback. Burrow passed for 428 yards, but he threw two INTs in Jaguars territory. With WR Ja'Marr Chase out for most of the game due to injury, WR Tee Higgins served as Burrow's primary target and finished with 11 catches for 157 yards. The two teams were called for a combined 24 penalties, including three which nullified TDs. Cincinnati fell to 2-2, while Jacksonville improved to 3-1.

WEEK 5, GAME 5Cincinnati Bengals 31, Miami Dolphins 24
Sunday, Oct. 11, 2026 at Hard Rock Stadium

Bengals QB Joe Burrow threw four TD passes to four different receivers to lead the Bengals to a road victory. Cincinnati's 21-7 halftime lead was jumpstarted by an 81-yard return by WR Dohnte Meyers on the game's opening kickoff which set up an early Bengals TD. S Jordan Battle picked off Miami QB Malik Willis twice on consecutive Dolphins possessions, with his second INT leading to a TD by TE Tanner Hudson before the break. The Dolphins drove to inside Cincinnati's one-yard line in the third quarter, but the Bengals' defense created two straight negative plays and forced Miami to settle for a FG. Cincinnati extended its lead to 18 points, culminating in a highlight-reel 45-yard TD grab by WR Ja'Marr Chase. Late in the fourth, K Evan McPherson set a Bengals record with his 22nd consecutive made FG. The Dolphins eventually cut the deficit to 31-24 in the final minute, but the ensuing onside kick went out of bounds to seal the result. The kickoff temperature of 90 degrees marked the hottest game in October in the history of Hard Rock Stadium. Cincinnati improved to 3-2, while Miami fell to 0-5.

WEEK 7, GAME 6Cincinnati Bengals 35, Baltimore Ravens 13
Sunday, Oct. 25, 2026 at M&T Bank Stadium

The Bengals scored 35 unanswered points in the second half to run away with a road divisional win. Baltimore built a 13-0 halftime lead fueled by 215 passing yards from QB Tyler Huntley, but Cincinnati came out of the break with TDs on five straight possessions to take command. QB Joe Burrow completed 16 of his 18 passing attempts in the second half for 249 yards and four TDs, each of which went to a different receiver. WR Tee Higgins caught six passes for a game-high 148 yards, with a 13-yard scoring reception that led to the Bengals taking their first lead of the day in the third quarter. After WR Ja'Marr Chase caught a TD in the fourth quarter to put Cincinnati ahead by two scores, LB Demetrius Knight Jr. picked off Huntley in Ravens territory which set up another scoring drive. The Bengals sacked Huntley four times, one which was the first of DE Cashius Howell's NFL career. P Ryan Rehkow had each of his four punts downed inside Baltimore's 12-yard line, giving the Bengals an advantage in field position throughout the afternoon. Cincinnati improved to 4-2, while Baltimore fell to 4-3.
