NEXT WEEK: WEEK 12, GAME 11
NOV. 25 VS. CLEVELAND

GAME NOTES

Kickoff: 1 p.m. Eastern.

Television: The game will air on CBS-TV. In the Bengals' home region, it will be carried by WKRC-TV (Ch. 12) in Cincinnati, WHIO-TV (Ch. 7) in Dayton and on WKYT-TV (Ch. 27) in Lexington. Broadcasters are Kevin Harlan (play-by-play), Rich Gannon (analyst) and Steve Tasker (sideline reporter).

Radio: The game will air on the Bengals Radio Network, led by Cincinnati flagship stations WLW-AM (700), WCKY-AM (ESPN 1530; all sports) and WEBN-FM (102.7). Broadcasters are Dan Hoard (play-by-play) and Dave Lapham (analyst).

Setting the scene: The Cincinnati Bengals this week travel to Baltimore to play the Ravens on Sunday at M&T Bank Stadium. On the line will be at least temporary control of the second spot in the AFC North Division and a leg up over a division rival in the pursuit of a playoff berth.

The 5-4 Bengals are licking their wounds from a disappointing 51-14 home loss to the New Orleans Saints last week. The Saints rolled for 509 net yards on Cincinnati, including 244 net yards rushing. New Orleans QB Drew Brees played a near perfect game, completing 22 of 25 passes for 265 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions for a 150.4 passer rating. The Saints, who scored on nine of their 10 possessions, improved to 8-1 with the win, their eighth straight.

The Bengals played without six prominent players who were inactive due to injuries. On offense, that list included three starters — WR A.J. Green (toe), TE Tyler Kroft (foot) and G Alex Redmond (hamstring). And on defense, it included starting LBs Vontaze Burfict (hip) and Nick Vigil (knee), as well as nickel CB Darqueze Dennard (sternoclavicular).

For the Bengals, it was the third straight game in which the team had given up more than 500 yards to an opponent. After the loss, head coach Marvin Lewis wasted little time in making changes to improve the defense's outlook for the remainder of the season.

On Monday, the team announced that defensive coordinator Teryl Austin had been relieved of his duties, and that Lewis will coordinate the defense moving forward.

"I appreciate the hard work that Coach Austin has put into our football team, but I felt it best to make a change at this point in time, and I wish him the best," Lewis said. "I will be coordinating the defense from here on out, and I am excited to do that. This football team has a real chance to get back to playing winning football so we can compete for the playoffs, and that is our sole focus."

Then on Tuesday, Lewis announced that Hue Jackson was joining the Bengals' coaching staff as special assistant to the head coach. Jackson had most recently been head coach of the Cleveland Browns. He coached the Browns from 2016 through Oct. 29 of this season.

Jackson, who is in his 18th season as an NFL coach, is a former assistant on Lewis' staff. He served with the Bengals as wide receivers coach from 2004-06, assistant special teams/assistant defensive backs coach in '12, special assistant to the head coach/running backs coach in '13 and offensive coordinator from '14-15. In addition to being head coach of Browns for most of the past three seasons, Jackson also was head coach of the Oakland Raiders in 2011.

"I have a great comfort level with Hue and his ability to assist me with the day-to-day responsibilities on defense, including analyzing our opponents and helping me on game days with the players and defensive coaches," Lewis said.

Said Jackson: "I'm pleased to have the opportunity to join the Bengals this season. There is a lot of talent on this team, and I look forward to doing my part to help it finish the season strong."

Lewis' decision to relieve Austin and take the reins of the Bengals' defense himself surprised some players.

"That was definitely a shocker," Dunlap said. "It shows the sense of urgency to try to get things fixed now. They felt like that was a move they needed to make — not that that (coaching) was the issue — but they are making a statement. If you weren't paying attention, you are now. Not that we aren't paying attention, but it wakes you up. We want to be a great defense. We've been a great defense for a long time, and they want to get back to that now, because we still have an opportunity to control (our fate). We're still right in the mix of everything, and if we fix it now, we can do what we want to do."

Coincidentally, this week's road trip takes Lewis, in his first game serving as coordinator of the Bengals' defense, to the city where he made himself a household name in the NFL, as defensive coordinator of the Ravens. His six seasons (1996-2001) at the helm of Baltimore's defense included a Super Bowl victory in '00, when his defense set the NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game season (165). The 2000 Ravens always are included in discussions about the best NFL defensive units of all time.

The 4-5 Ravens, who have lost three straight, are coming off their bye. Cincinnati has won eight of the last 10 meetings between the two teams, including a 34-23 victory in Game 2 at Paul Brown Stadium, and Bengals players know that another win over the Ravens this weekend could quickly right the team's proverbial ship.

"That's the funny part about it," said LB Vincent Rey. "It feels like things have been going haywire, but we're going to Baltimore — a team that we handled at our house (earlier this season), and a team that we beat (in the season finale) last year. Right when it feels like the sky is falling, if we go to Baltimore and take care of business, then we're right in the middle of the fight (again). Coaches are going to be on our tails (this week), and rightly so. Every man needs to point his finger at himself, because each person had stock in the loss (to the Saints). Everyone had a share in it."

"It's November, and you become who you are in November. Once Thanksgiving comes, that's who you are. And Thanksgiving is coming. We're going to find out who we are. Thankfully, we've got guys like Nick Vigil, Vontaze Burfict, Darqueze Dennard and Tyler Kroft all coming back (soon). We've got a lot of these (injured) guys coming back, and they're going to help us. The rest of us, (in the meantime), we're still going to be in the jerseys. We've got to go out and make plays, get off blocks, hit guys and make plays — just fight, fight, fight. There's no cavalry coming, as some people say. They're not coming. Yeah, we've got some guys coming back (soon), but we're the guys out there (now), and we're going to have to go make plays."

The series: Overall, Cincinnati leads its series with Baltimore, 23-22.

Here are some series notes:

- When Cincinnati took the series lead in Game 2 earlier this season, it was the first time the Bengals had led the series since after the first of two meetings of 1998, when they were up 3-2.
- The Bengals have won eight of the last 10 meetings between the two teams.
- It hasn't been an easy series for the visiting team. The Ravens lead 14-8 in Baltimore, and the Bengals lead 15-8 in Cincinnati.
- Since 2010, 12 of the teams' 17 meetings have been one-score decisions, by eight or fewer points.

Complete Bengals-Ravens series results are on page 184 of the 2018 Bengals Media Guide.

Team bests from the series:

Bengals — MOST POINTS: 42, in a 42-29 win in 2005 at Paul Brown Stadium. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 17, in a 34-17 win at Paul Brown Stadium in the 2013 regular-season finale. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 7 (three times), most recently in a 17-7 win in 2009 at Paul Brown Stadium.

Ravens — MOST POINTS: 44, in a 44-13 win at M&T Bank Stadium in 2012. LARGEST VICTORY MARGIN: 37, in a 37-0 win at Baltimore in 2000. FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED: 0 (four times), most recently on Sept. 10 in the Ravens' 20-0 win in the 2017 season-opener at Cincinnati.

The last meetings: A summary of the last Bengals-Ravens meetings — on Sept. 13 at Paul Brown Stadium — is on page 14.

Turnover margin key vs. Ravens: In 23 Bengals-Ravens games during Marvin Lewis' tenure with the Bengals (2003-present) in which the turnover differential has not been even, the team who wins the turnover battle has posted a 21-2 record. Putting it another way, the Bengals are 11-0 against the Ravens with a plus turnover differential, and 2-10 with a minus. Looking at it from Baltimore's view, the Ravens are 10-2 with a plus and 0-11 with a minus.

Cincinnati leads 6-2 in Lewis' tenure in games against Baltimore in which the turnover margin was even. Earlier this season, the Bengals beat the Ravens while posting a plus-three margin. Last season, the Ravens won the first meeting with a plus-four turnover margin, while the Bengals won the second meeting with an even differential.

Overall, Lewis owns an 19-12 record against Baltimore.

Dalton-to-Boyd produces $550k to charity: In last year's season finale at Baltimore, Bengals QB Andy Dalton and WR Tyler Boyd produced one of the most dramatic and memorable plays in team history. With 49 seconds remaining in the game, Dalton connected with Boyd for a 49-yard TD pass on fourth-and-12, erasing a three-point deficit and putting the Bengals ahead to stay, 31-27.

The thrilling play simultaneously sealed a Bengals win, eliminated Baltimore from playoff contention, and gave the Buffalo Bills their first postseason berth since 1999. Video of jubilant Bills players watching the play in the locker room after their game in Miami was viewed nationally, and Dalton and Boyd were the talk of the town in Buffalo.

Almost immediately, joyous Bills fans took to the internet to show their appreciation, and they spoke loudest with their wallets. Over the days following the game, the Andy and Jordan Foundation website — AndyDalton.org — was flooded with donations. According to Dalton, the final tally included more than 17,000 donors and over $450,000.

"What happened with Buffalo has been able to shed a lot of light on what we do and what our foundation helps," Dalton told reporters this week. "If I go anywhere and there's somebody from Buffalo, they're going to make sure to come up and tell me that they're a Bills fan, or that they're from Buffalo or have a certain tie there."

Bills fans also heaped appreciation on Boyd. The third-year WR estimates that more than $100,000 was donated to his cause of choice, the Western Pennsylvania Youth Athletic Association, a youth sports league in his hometown of Clairton, Pa.

"That's priceless to me," Boyd said. "It's more than the money. What matters to me is affecting people's lives. Inspiring people. That's what I loved growing up — seeing people inspire me in ways to make me want to do something like that in the future. Doing good for the community."

Bengals career records watch: Here is a look at potential upcoming movement in the Bengals' career records book (regular season) this season:

- QB Andy Dalton has 185 passing touchdowns, two shy of QB Boomer Esiason (187) for second place all-time. QB Ken Anderson (197) is the Bengals' all-time leader.

- WR A.J. Green has 63 career receiving TDs, tied with WR Carl Pickens (63) for second place all-time. WR Chad Johnson (66) is the Bengals' all-time leader.

- Green also has 63 career total TDs, one shy of Pickens and RB James Brooks (64) for third place all-time. FB Pete Johnson (70) is the Bengals' all-time leader.

- DE Carlos Dunlap has 71.5 career sacks, 12 short of DE Eddie Edwards* (83.5) for the Bengals' all-time lead.

- DT Geno Atkins has 67 career sacks, 4.5 short of Dunlap (71.5) for second place all-time. Edwards* (83.5) is the Bengals' all-time leader. Atkins passed LB Reggie Williams (62.5) for third place all-time in Game 2 vs. Baltimore.

- P Kevin Huber has 734 career punts, 12 shy of P Lee Johnson (746) for the Bengals' all-time lead. Huber passed P Pat McInally (700) for second place all-time in Game 2 vs. Baltimore.

NOTE: The NFL has counted sacks as official statistics since 1982. However, the Bengals have sack statistics compiled since 1976 and recognize those sacks recorded from '76-81 in its records. Thus, please note that, because the NFL has sacks statistics for all teams only since 1982, the Bengals' sack statistics for players whose careers included seasons prior to '82 will not be included in league information.

Bengals records vs. Ravens: In the first Bengals-Ravens game, Nov. 3, 1996 at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium, head coach Bruce Coslet's Bengals overcame what still stands today as the largest deficit (18 points) to win a road game in franchise history. Coach Ted Marchibroda's Ravens led 21-3 at halftime, but Cincinnati rallied for a 24-21 win on a 39-yard Doug Pelfrey field goal at the final gun.

The Bengals' second-biggest comeback in a road win also was at Baltimore. On Dec. 5, 2004 at M&T Bank Stadium, Cincinnati rallied from a 20-3 deficit to win 27-26. Also:

- Shayne Graham kicked a Bengals-record seven field goals — for all of Cincinnati's scoring — in a 21-7 win at Baltimore in 2007. Graham did not have a missed attempt. The NFL record for field goals in a game is eight, set by Rob Bironas of Tennessee in 2007, and Graham is one of seven players sharing second place with seven.

- In the 2014 season opener at Baltimore, Bengals K Mike Nugent tied the NFL record for field goals in a half (five). His five in the first half gave the Bengals a 15-0 lead toward an eventual 23-16 win.

- WR A.J. Green's 227 receiving yards at Baltimore in 2015 stands as second most in a game in team history, behind only Chad Johnson's 260 vs. San Diego in 2006.

- In 2008 against the Ravens in Cincinnati, P Kyle Larson punted 11 times, which is tied with three other instances for most in a game in team history. Larson's 480 yards punting that day also stand as the third-most for a single game in Bengals history.

- The Bengals record for kickoff return yardage in a game (228 yards) was set at Baltimore by Brandon Bennett in 2002. Bennett had a 94-yarder for a TD.

Individually vs. Ravens: Bengals QB Andy Dalton has 14 career games against Baltimore, with an 8-6 record. Dalton has completed 296 of 519 attempts (57.0 percent) for 3575 yards (255.4 yards per game), 19 TDs and 17 INTs for a 76.9 passer rating.

Statistically, Dalton's best game against the Ravens was in the Bengals' 2015 comeback win at Baltimore when he passed for a career-high 383 yards and a 122.3 rating. Most recently, against the Ravens in Game 2 this season at Paul Brown Stadium, Dalton led the Bengals to a 34-23 win, completing 24 of 42 passes for 265 yards, four TDs and no INTs (107.7 rating).

Here is a look at offensive statistics for other current Bengals against Baltimore (ordered by total games played):

- WR A.J. Green: 11 games; 53 receptions (4.8 per game) for 886 yards (80.5 per game and 16.7 per catch), with nine TDs.

- HB Giovani Bernard: Nine games; 99 rushes for 377 yards (3.8), with one TD; 36 receptions for 270 yards (7.5) with one TD.

- TE Tyler Eifert (Reserve/Injured): Seven games; 18 receptions for 238 yards (13.2), with two TDs.

- TE Tyler Kroft: Six games; nine receptions for 69 yards (7.6) and two TDs.

- WR Tyler Boyd: Five games; 19 receptions for 294 yards (15.5) and two TD, with one rush for 15 yards.

- WR Alex Erickson: Five games; one reception for seven yards.

- TE C.J. Uzomah: Four games; seven catches for 65 yards (9.3) and one TD.

- HB Joe Mixon: Three games; 47 rushes for 189 yards (4.0); five receptions for 19 yards (3.8).

- WR Cody Core: Three games; four receptions for 82 yards (20.5).

- WR John Ross: One game; one catch for eight yards.

Bengals' O excels in red zone: The Bengals' offense this season has scored TDs on 21 of its 27 trips to the red zone, good for a 76.9 percent rate that ranks second in the NFL behind Pittsburgh (22 of 28; 78.6). Cincinnati also ranks seventh in total scoring percentage in the red zone, coming away with points on 92.6 percent of their trips inside the 20-yard line (28 possessions, 26 scores).

The Bengals scored a TD on their only trip to the red zone last week vs. New Orleans. They have scored TDs on nine of their last 10 trips to the red zone, dating back to Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh.

Entering their Week 5 matchup with Miami, Cincinnati had come away with points on an NFL-best 34 consecutive trips to the red zone (25 TDs, nine FGs) dating back to Game 9 of 2017. But an INT on their first red-zone trip vs. Miami ended the streak, which was the longest by a Bengals team since 2005-06 (40 straight).

Orange will continue to be designated as the Bengals' alternate jersey, and the team will again use the color rush uniforms (white jersey, white pants) that debuted in 2016. Cincinnati does not have a throwback uniform.

THE HEAD COACHES

Marvin Lewis in 2018 extends his Bengals-record head coaching tenure to 16 seasons, twice that of Paul Brown (1968-75) and Sam Wyche ('84-91), who are tied for second with eight seasons each.

Lewis has 130 career victories, the most in Bengals history by a margin of 66 over Wyche (64). His record is 130-116-3 in the regular season and 130-123-3 including postseason.

The Bengals' 65-45-2 record over the last seven regular seasons (2011-17) gave the team a .589 winning percentage for that span, ranked sixth in the NFL.

Lewis has led his teams to the postseason seven times, including a five-year run from 2011-15. The total number of playoff trips and the five-year streak of consecutive appearances are Bengals records, and the Bengals were one of only four NFL teams to reach the playoffs every year from 2011-15.

Lewis in 2018 ranks second among NFL head coaches in longest current tenure with one team, trailing only Bill Belichick, who is in his 19th straight season with New England. In the category of most seasons as head coach with one or more teams, Lewis ranks third among active coaches, behind Belichick (24th season in '18) and Andy Reid (20).

Lewis has developed an impressive "coaching tree" during his Bengals tenure. Five of his former assistants have become NFL head coaches, and four of those are leading teams in 2018. The list, including their teams and head coaching tenures, includes former Bengals offensive coordinators Jay Gruden (Washington, 2014-18) and Hue Jackson (Cleveland, '16-18), former defensive coordinators Leslie Frazier (Minnesota, '10-13) and Mike Zimmer (Minnesota, '14-18), and former defensive backs coach Vance Joseph (Denver, '17-18).

Lewis was the consensus choice for NFL Coach of the Year in 2009, when the Bengals won the AFC North Division while sweeping all six division games. The Bengals also were AFC North champions under Lewis in 2005, '13 and '15.

Named the ninth head coach in Bengals history on Jan. 14, 2003, Lewis started quickly. His '03 club finished 8-8, six games better than the '02 club, good for the biggest improvement in the NFL.

Lewis came to the Bengals with credentials as a record-setting NFL defensive coordinator, having played a huge role in a championship season. His six seasons (1996-2001) as Baltimore Ravens coordinator included a Super Bowl victory in '00, when his defense set the NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game campaign (165). That team clipped 22 points off the previous mark. The 2000 Ravens are always an entry in discussions regarding the best NFL defensive units of all time.

In 2002, the season before he joined the Bengals, Lewis led the Washington Redskins to a No. 5 NFL defensive ranking, serving as assistant head coach as well as defensive coordinator.

He had his first NFL assignment from 1992-95, as linebackers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. He aided the development of four Pro Bowl players — Kevin Greene, Chad Brown, Levon Kirkland and Greg Lloyd. Greene has since been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Lewis began his coaching career as linebackers coach at his alma mater Idaho State from 1981-84. ISU's team (also nicknamed the Bengals) finished 12-1 in Lewis' first season there and won the NCAA Division 1-AA championship.

Lewis played LB at Idaho State, earning All-Big Sky Conference honors for three consecutive years (1978-80). He also saw action at quarterback and free safety during his college career. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981, and earned his master's in athletic administration in '82. He was inducted into Idaho State's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Born Sept. 23, 1958, Lewis attended Fort Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa. (near Pittsburgh), where he was an all-conference quarterback and safety. He also earned high school letters in wrestling and baseball. He and his wife, Peggy, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Marcus. Marcus Lewis joined the Bengals' coaching staff for 2014 and remains on the staff for '18.

John Harbaugh enters his 11th season at the helm in Baltimore. He has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in six of his 10 full seasons (2008-2012 and 2014), and in '12, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. His career record as head coach is 108-76.

Under Harbaugh, the Ravens have secured an appearance in three AFC Championship games (2008, '11 and '12). Baltimore is one of only eight teams with at least six playoff berths in the past 10 seasons. The list includes New England (eight), Green Bay (eight), Pittsburgh (seven), Atlanta (six), Baltimore (six), Cincinnati (six), Indianapolis (six) and Seattle (six). Additionally, under Harbaugh, the Ravens' 10 playoff wins since 2008 rank as the NFL's second most behind New England, which has 13.

In 2017, the Ravens compiled a 9-7 record, falling one game short of the playoffs (lost on a tiebreaker with Buffalo). In their most recent playoff year of 2014, the Ravens posted a 10-6 record en route to capturing a 30-17 victory at Pittsburgh in the Wild Card round. In 2012 the Ravens seized the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Baltimore topped the Colts in the Wild Card round and followed that by earning a Divisional Round victory over top-seeded Denver before advancing to Super Bowl XLVII with a win in the AFC Championship Game at New England. In the Super Bowl in New Orleans, the Ravens bested the San Francisco 49ers by a final of 34-31.

In his initial season with the team (2008), Harbaugh led Baltimore to an 11-5 record and a berth in the AFC Championship Game. Baltimore set an NFL record that season for most total wins (13) by a team with both a rookie head coach and a rookie starting quarterback (Joe Flacco). He spent his first 10 NFL seasons (1998-2007) with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was the team's secondary coach in 2007, after nine seasons as its special teams coordinator. He was voted the 2001 NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his coaching peers.

Harbaugh played defensive back at Miami (Ohio) University from 1980-83, earning his degree in political science. He coached collegiately at Western Michigan (1984-86), Pittsburgh ('87), Morehead State ('88), Cincinnati ('89-96), and Indiana ('97).

Born in Perrysburg, Ohio on Sept. 23, 1962, Harbaugh and his wife, Ingrid, have a daughter, Alison. He is the son of longtime college coach Jack. His brother, Jim, the current University of Michigan head coach, played for the Ravens in 1998. John's brother-in-law, Tom Crean, who is the University of Georgia's head basketball coach, is married to the brothers' sister, Joani.

Lewis vs. Ravens: Lewis leads, 19-12.

Lewis vs. Harbaugh: Lewis leads, 12-9.

Harbaugh vs. Bengals: Bengals lead, 12-9.

BENGALS NOTES

25 points does the trick: Since 2011, the rookie season of both QB Andy Dalton and WR A.J. Green, the Bengals own a 45-1-2 record (.958) when scoring 25 or more points. Only Miami has a better winning percentage, at .969 (31-1-0), when topping the 25-point mark over that span.

The Bengals are 5-0 when scoring 25 or more in 2018, after hitting the mark in wins over Indianapolis (34-23), Baltimore (34-23), Atlanta (37-36), Miami (27-17) and Tampa Bay (37-34).

Here are the top five teams in the NFL since 2011, in terms of winning percentage, when hitting the 25-point plateau.

TEAM	WINS	LOSSES	TIES	WINNING PCT.
Miami Dolphins	31	1	0	.969
Cincinnati Bengals	45	1	2	.958
Arizona Cardinals	35	3	0	.921
New England Patriots	77	7	0	.917
Denver Broncos	51	6	0	.895

Rookie defenders make their mark: Bengals rookies Sam Hubbard and Jessie Bates have made a strong impact in their first season. Both have seen large roles on Cincinnati's defense and produced valuable results.

Both Bates, a safety, and Hubbard, a defensive end, have scored touchdowns this season, marking just the third time in Bengals history that multiple rookies have scored defensive TDs.

Bates, the Bengals' second-round selection in April's draft, found the end zone in Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, when he intercepted a Jameis Winston pass and returned it 21 yards for a TD. It was the first pick-six by a Bengals rookie since Nov. 19, 2006 (S Ethan Kilmer).

Hubbard, a third-round selection in April's draft, scored when he recovered a Ryan Tannehill fumble in Game 5 vs. Miami. The score came with 2:37 left to play and helped seal a 27-17 Bengals win.

Entering Week 11, Bates has a team-high 71 tackles, and his three INTs are tied with fellow safety Shawn Williams for the team lead. Hubbard has 21 tackles, including two sacks, to go with his fumble recovery.

Boyd grabs the spotlight: Ever since Cincinnati drafted star WR A.J. Green with the fourth overall pick in the 2011 draft, the team has put a major emphasis on surrounding its superstar with a reliable and productive supporting group of pass-catchers. Over the years, that cast has included the likes WRs Marvin Jones, Mohamed Sanu and Brandon LaFell, along with TEs Jermaine

Gresham and Tyler Eifert.

Never, though, has someone from that supporting cast been as productive as Bengals third-year WR Tyler Boyd this season. Through nine games, Boyd has 52 catches for 685 yards and five TDs. The closest any other supporting cast member has been to Boyd's numbers through nine games was Mohamed Sanu in 2014, who had 41 catches for 648 receiving yards. It should be noted that Sanu served as the No. 1 WR for much of the first nine games in 2014, as Green missed three full contests and was limited to just five snaps in a fourth, Jones missed the entire season, and Eifert played only eight snaps in the season-opener before suffering a season-ending injury.

With a toe injury sidelining Green for Game 9 vs. New Orleans (and perhaps longer), Boyd has been thrust even further into the spotlight. The third-year pro is on pace for 92 catches and 1217 yards this season and could challenge the 100-catch mark, which has been reached only twice in team history — WR Carl Pickens in 1996 (100) and WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh in 2007 (team-record 112).

Crunch-time Carlos' plays of the week: Where would the Bengals be this season without DE Carlos Dunlap? It's a question worth asking, because the ninth-year pro has played a central role in the biggest moments of Cincinnati's season. Dunlap, who has seven sacks so far this season, has made critical plays in the second halves all year for the Bengals. Here's a roundup of Dunlap's big plays in key moments so far this season.

- In Game 1 at Indianapolis, with the Bengals trailing by six points late in the third quarter, Dunlap sacked Andrew Luck for an eight-yard loss. The play pushed the Colts back to the Bengals' 37-yard line and set up a 55-yard FG attempt by K Adam Vinateri, which fell short. Cincinnati's offense would take advantage of the short field on the ensuing possession, when a Joe Mixon TD put the Bengals ahead for good.

- In Game 2 vs. Baltimore, with the Ravens driving in the third quarter and trying to cut into Cincinnati's 11-point lead, Dunlap raced around a blocker and hit the arm of Ravens QB Joe Flacco as he was releasing a deep pass. The hit caused the ball to fall well short of the intended receiver and into the arms of Bengals S Shawn Williams for an INT.

- In the fourth quarter of Game 3 at Carolina, Dunlap had batted a pass on third down to force a Panthers punt, a strip-sack of Cam Newton (Panthers recovered) and a tackle for a loss. All three plays came with the Bengals trailing by seven points and attempting to mount a comeback.

- In Game 4 at Atlanta, Dunlap sacked Matt Ryan on third-and-goal from the six-yard line in the third quarter. The sack forced a Falcons FG and allowed Cincinnati to maintain a one-point lead. Atlanta had considerable momentum at the time, after blocking a Bengals punt and recovering at Cincinnati's eight-yard line. The four saved points proved critical in the end, as Cincinnati went on to earn a narrow 37-36 win.

• In Game 5 vs. Miami, with Cincinnati clinging to a three-point lead late in the fourth quarter, Dunlap fought through a holding penalty (called on Dolphins OT Ja'Wuan James) and hit the arm of QB Ryan Tannehill, forcing a fumble that ended up in the hands of DE Sam Hubbard, who raced 19 yards for a TD that put the Bengals ahead 27-17 with 2:37 left to play. On the ensuing Dolphins possession, Dunlap again raced around James, causing Tannehill to scramble away from his pressure and force an errant throw downfield, which Bengals S Jessie Bates intercepted to help seal a Cincinnati win.

• While he didn't have a singular game-changing play in Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, Dunlap did help the Bengals to a win by posting two sacks, a four-yard TFL on a running play and an additional QB hit.

Dunlap's, Atkins' dominance = team success: Bengals DE Carlos Dunlap and DT Geno Atkins entered the NFL together in 2010 as draft picks of the Bengals, and in the nine seasons since they've established themselves among the top pass-rushing duos in the league. Most importantly though, the record shows that when Dunlap and Atkins are at their most dominant, it usually spells success for Cincinnati.

The Bengals are 10-6 (.625) when Dunlap records more than one sack, and 7-4 (.636) when Atkins records more than one sack. There have been two instances in which both have had more than one sack in the same game (Bengals are 1-1 in those contests), which means Cincinnati is a combined 16-9 (.640) when getting more than one sack from either player.

The Bengals are 7-1 since the beginning of the 2015 season when Dunlap records more than one sack, with the only outlier coming in a 20-17 overtime loss at Denver in 2015. Dunlap had a career-best three sacks in that Denver game and finished 2015 with a career-best 13.5, second-most in Bengals history. Dunlap has one multi-sack game this season, which came in a win vs. Tampa Bay in Game 8 (two sacks).

Since the beginning of 2015, the Bengals are 5-2 when Atkins records more than one sack. The only outliers during that span were losses vs. Houston and at Minnesota in 2017. Atkins has two multi-sack games this season — two sacks in both Game 2 vs. Baltimore and Game 5 vs. Miami — and the Bengals are 2-0 in those contests.

Dunlap and Atkins signed contract extensions before the 2018 season that will keep them in Cincinnati through the '21 and '22 seasons, respectively. Dunlap (71.5 career sacks) currently stands second on the Bengals' all-time sack list, and Atkins (67) is third. The Bengals' leader in career sacks is DE Eddie Edwards, with 83.5.

Dunlap, Atkins neck-and-neck in career sacks: Just 4.5 sacks separate Bengals DE Carlos Dunlap (71.5 career sacks) and DT Geno Atkins (67), who rank second and third, respectively, on Cincinnati's all-time sack list behind all-time leader Eddie Edwards (83.5). And after signing contract extensions on Aug. 28 that keep them in Cincinnati for the foreseeable future — Dunlap through 2021, Atkins through '22 — the race is on to see who catches Edwards first.

Atkins, who missed nearly half of the 2013 season with a torn ACL, has almost double the number of sacks of the next-closest interior defensive lineman in Bengals history (Tim Krumrie, 34.5). Atkins has six sacks through eight games this season, putting him on pace to challenge his career-high of 12.5, set in 2012. Atkins has finished in at least a share of the NFL lead for sacks by an interior lineman five times in his eight NFL seasons, including in each of the last three seasons.

Dunlap, who turns 30 after the 2018 season, has averaged 8.1 sacks over his first eight seasons, while Edwards averaged just under seven over 12 seasons. The two-time Pro Bowler (2015 and '16) is already close to topping that average this season, with seven sacks in the Bengals' first nine games. He also is on pace to challenge his career-high of 13.5 sacks, set in 2015, which were the second-most in Bengals history. Besides his 71.5 sacks, Dunlap's career totals include 18 FFs, eight FRs, 53 PDs, four blocked FGs and three TDs.

*NOTE: The NFL has counted sacks as official statistics since 1982. However, the Bengals have sack statistics compiled since 1976 and recognize those sacks recorded from '76-81 in its records. Thus, please note that, because the NFL has sacks statistics for all teams only since 1982, the Bengals' sack statistics for players whose careers included seasons prior to '82 will not be included in league information.

Dunlap's PD frenzy: Through the Bengals' first nine games, Bengals DE Carlos Dunlap has five passes defended, tied for third on the team.

The ninth-year defensive lineman could still challenge his 2016 total of 15 PDs, which led all Bengals defenders and all other NFL defensive linemen. It was the first time since Cincinnati began recording defensive stats in 1976 that a Bengals defensive lineman had ever led the team in PDs.

To paint a clearer picture of just how effective Dunlap has been at batting passes, here's a list of non-defensive backs in the NFL with the most passes defended since the start of the 2016 season.

PLAYER	POS	TEAM	PDs SINCE 2016
Carlos Dunlap	DE	Cincinnati.....	27

Geno aims for another crown: Ten weeks into the NFL season, Bengals DT Geno Atkins again finds himself atop NFL interior defensive linemen in sacks. Atkins and San Francisco DT DeForest Buckner, who each have 6.0 sacks, share the top spot, with New Orleans' Sheldon Rankins and Seattle's Jarran Reed one behind at 5.0.

Atkins has finished in at least a tie for the most sacks by NFL interior defensive lineman in each of the last three seasons, and five times in his eight total NFL seasons. He claimed the honor outright in 2012 (12.5 sacks), '16 (nine) and '17 (nine), while sharing it in '11 (7.5) and '15 (11).

It should also be noted that L.A. Rams DE Aaron Donald, who many consider a DT, leads all players this season with 12.5 sacks. Donald, though, is listed by Elias Sports Bureau at DE, due to his normal alignment on the outside of the defensive line in the Rams' 3-4 defensive scheme.

Atkins has been selected to the Pro Bowl six times in his eight previous seasons. Those six selections are the most by any Bengals defensive lineman in team history — no other DL has had more than two — and tied with CB Lemar Parrish for the most by a Bengals defensive player (six). He currently stands at 67 career sacks, the most by a Bengals interior lineman and third overall.

Geno on HOF pace: Bengals DT Geno Atkins, who this year is playing his ninth NFL season, currently stands at 67 career sacks, third in team history and the most ever by a Bengals interior defensive lineman.

But a closer look reveals that Atkins is on a Hall-of-Fame pace. Only three DTs in NFL history had more sacks through their first eight seasons than Atkins' 61 entering 2018 — John Randle (85.5), Warren Sapp (72) and La'Roi Glover (61.5). Randle and Sapp are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

It should also be noted that Atkins missed nearly half of the 2013 season, due to a torn ACL.

Here's a look at the sack totals of notable Hall-of-Fame DTs through their ninth seasons, as well as where they stood at the end of their careers. (NOTE: This list includes only DTs whose careers started after 1982, when the NFL began counting sacks as official statistics.)

*NOTE: Atkins is playing his ninth season in 2018.

Only A.J.: Cincinnati's A.J. Green was selected in 2017 to his seventh Pro Bowl in seven seasons, making him the only NFL receiver since the 1970 merger to start his career with seven consecutive Pro Bowl nominations. He is also the only Bengal at any position to make the Pro Bowl in each of his first seven seasons. Only one other Bengal, WR Isaac Curtis, made it for as many as his first four seasons (1973-76).

In total Pro Bowl selections, Green's seven selections move him ahead of WR Chad Johnson and CB Lemar Parrish (each with six) for second-most in Bengals history, behind Hall of Fame OT Anthony Munoz, who had 11.

Although he was selected last year, Green opted not to play in the Pro Bowl due to an injury. He also opted not to play in 2016, due to a hamstring injury that cut his season short after 10 games.

Green and some gold jackets: Bengals WR A.J. Green has 10 career games of at least 150 receiving yards and one TD, making him one of only six receivers to ever reach as many games through their first eight NFL seasons. Green in 2018 is playing his eighth season.

Here's a look at the list of players with 10 or more games of 150-plus receiving yards and a TD through their first eight seasons.

PLAYER	TEAM	NO. OF GAMES
Lance Alworth	San Diego Chargers	16
Jerry Rice	San Francisco 49ers	14
Calvin Johnson	Detroit Lions	12
Torry Holt	St. Louis Rams	11
A.J. Green	Cincinnati Bengals	10
Randy Moss	Minnesota Vikings	10

A.J. finds paydirt: Bengals WR A.J. Green has 63 receiving TDs since entering the NFL in 2011, which ranks sixth in the NFL over that span. Green is one of only six players with at least 60 receiving TDs since 2011. This season, Green has six receiving TDs, thanks in large part to a three-TD performance in Game 2 vs. Baltimore.

Green entered 2018 with 57 receiving TDs, good for an 8.1 per-year average. It should also be noted that Green missed the final six games of 2016, due to a hamstring injury. This season, Green suffered a toe injury in Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, and he's been held out of action since.

Here's a look at the NFL's leaders in receiving TDs since 2011.

PLAYER	TEAM	RECEIVING TDs
Antonio Brown	Pittsburgh	69
Dez Bryant	Dallas	67
Rob Gronkowski	New England	67
Jordy Nelson	Green Bay/Oakland	66
Jimmy Graham	New Orleans/Seattle/Green Bay	66
A.J. Green	Cincinnati	63

Dalton aims to go eight-for-3000: A season passing total of 3000 yards is not in itself a stupendous NFL feat — three passers have already reached it this season, and 22 hit the mark in 2017. But hitting 3000 in the first seven seasons of an NFL career still is an event worth noting. Bengals QB Andy Dalton achieved just that last season, when in Game 16 vs. Detroit he broke the 3000-yard barrier for the seventh time in seven seasons (ended the season with 3320 yards). Incidentally, Panthers QB Cam Newton, who was selected first overall in the same draft the Bengals took Dalton at No. 35, also achieved the feat in the same week (Newton totaled 3302 yards).

Dalton and Newton now join cinch NFL Hall-of-Famer Peyton Manning as the only QBs in NFL history to go seven-for-3000. Manning reeled off 13 straight 3000-yarders before missing the 2011 season due to injury.

Dalton's 2255 passing yards through nine games this season put him on pace for 4008 through 16 games. Dalton's career high for passing yards in a season came in 2013, when he passed for a Bengals-record 4293 yards.

Andy and A.J. stretch the field: Since entering the NFL together in 2011, QB Andy Dalton and WR A.J. Green have connected on more passes of 50 yards or longer (21) than any other QB-WR tandem in the league.

Dalton and Green have yet to connect on a pass longer than 50 yards so far this season, after having three such plays in 2017.

The two have started 107 of a possible 121 regular-season games together over their eight seasons.

Here's a look at QB-WR duos with the most pass plays of 50 or more yards since 2011 (regular season only).

QB	WR	TEAM	NO. OF 50+ PASS PLAYS
Andy Dalton	A.J. Green	Cincinnati	21
Aaron Rodgers	Jordy Nelson	Green Bay	19
Matthew Stafford	Calvin Johnson	Detroit	15
Matt Ryan	Julio Jones	Atlanta	15
Eli Manning	Odell Beckham	N.Y. Giants	13

Dalton chasing Kenny in TDs: Although he has been held out of the end zone since 2016, QB Andy Dalton still stands at 19 total TDs for his career, just one short of the franchise record for touchdowns by a QB, held at 20 by Ken Anderson. Dalton is playing his eighth season in 2018, while Anderson played 16 Bengals seasons (1971-86).

All of Anderson's 20 TDs were rushing scores. Dalton has 18 rushing TDs, and he has 19 total by virtue of being the only Bengals QB ever to catch a touchdown pass. He scored on an 18-yard gadget connection from WR Mohamed Sanu vs. Tennessee in 2014.

The next-most TDs by a Bengals QB is 10, by Jeff Blake.

Dalton and Jack Thompson share the Bengals season record for touchdowns by a QB, at five. Dalton had five in 2014, tying the record first set by Thompson in 1979.

'Crazy Legs' Andy: QB Andy Dalton's 18 career rushing TDs not only puts him in rare company in team history, he's also among the best when compared to his current NFL peers. In the category of rushing TDs by a QB, only Carolina's Cam Newton, whose 58 rushing TDs are beyond similarity, ranks higher than Dalton since 2011. Dalton and Newton both entered the NFL in '11.

Russell Wilson (16), Tyrod Taylor (16) and Dak Prescott (15) round out the top five.

'Ice-Water' Andy: Bengals QB Andy Dalton has led four game-winning drives for the Bengals in 2018. His career total of 24 game-winning drives is most in Bengals history, ahead of the 22 logged by former QB Boomer Esiason (1984-92, '97).

A game-winning drive is defined as a drive that results in an offensive score in the fourth quarter or overtime that is responsible for putting the team ahead to stay (PATs included).

With four game-winning drives so far this year, Dalton needs two more by Game 16 to set a new team record for most in a season. The current record of five was set by former QB Jeff Blake in 1996, and then tied by former QB Carson Palmer in '09.

Since 2011, the year the Bengals drafted him, Dalton has the second most game-winning drives in the league, trailing only Detroit Lions QB Matthew Stafford, who has 30 in the same eight-season span.

Here's a look at the NFL quarterbacks with the most game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime since 2011.

QUARTERBACK	TEAM	GAME-WINNING DRIVES SINCE 2011
Matthew Stafford	Detroit	30
Andy Dalton	Cincinnati	24
Matt Ryan	Atlanta	22
Drew Brees	New Orleans	22
Eli Manning	N.Y. Giants	22
Russell Wilson	Seattle	20

An Andy roundup: Other records and notable accomplishments in QB Andy Dalton's career include:

- He is one of only three QBs in the Super Bowl era to lead a team to the postseason in each of his first five campaigns. Dalton did that from 2011-15, while Baltimore's Joe Flacco did it from '08-12 and Seattle's Russell Wilson did it from '12-16.
- Dalton has posted 46 career games with a passer rating of 100 or more, and the Bengals are 39-7 (.848) in those contests.
- Dalton's .585 winning percentage (68-48-2) is the best of any Bengals QB with 10 or more starts.
- Dalton holds club season records for passing yards (4293) and TD passes (33), both set in 2013.
- He is the only Bengals passer to throw for 300-plus yards in four consecutive games (2013).
- He opened his career with 77 consecutive regular-season starts, a Bengals record for quarterbacks at any point during a career. The previous mark had been 61, posted by Boomer Esiason from 1985-89. Dalton's streak ranks tied for fourth in NFL history for the start of a career by a QB, trailing only Peyton Manning of Indianapolis (208), Joe Flacco of Baltimore (122) and Russell Wilson of Seattle (104 and counting). Dalton is tied with Miami QB Ryan Tannehill, whose streak of 77 ended in 2016 due to an injury.

Bengals draft picks stick in NFL: There are currently 53 players on NFL rosters who entered the NFL as draft picks of the Bengals, the most of any NFL team (info as of Nov. 13). Bengals brass has long maintained the team's commitment to a 'draft-and-develop' strategy with its personnel, an approach that becomes clear with one glance at the team's roster.

Of the 53 players on the Bengals' active roster, 44 entered the NFL with Cincinnati, and of those players, only DE Michael Johnson and TE Matt Lengel have played elsewhere. Johnson, a 2009 third-round pick of the Bengals spent 2014 with Tampa Bay before rejoining Cincinnati as a free agent in '15. Lengel, a 2015 college free agent signee of the Bengals, spent time with New England and Cleveland the last two years before re-joining Cincinnati prior to Week 6 this season.

Thirty-five current Bengals originated as draft picks of Cincinnati, including seven first-round picks, seven second-rounders, seven third-rounders (including Johnson), five fourth-rounders, four fifth-rounders, three sixth-rounders and two seventh-rounders. There are also nine players (including Lengel) who entered the NFL as college free agent signees of Cincinnati.

It should also be noted that all eight of the players on the Bengals' Reserve/Injured list entered the NFL with Cincinnati (six draft picks, two CFAs).

Here's a look at the teams with the most draft picks currently on an active NFL roster.

TEAM	DRAFT PICKS ON NFL ROSTERS
Cincinnati Bengals	53
Baltimore Ravens	47
San Francisco 49ers	47
Seattle Seahawks	44
Green Bay Packers	42
New England Patriots	42

Marvin's youth movement 2.0: At an average age of 25.38 years old, the Bengals' roster on opening week this season was the youngest in the 16-year tenure of head coach Marvin Lewis, narrowly edging out last year's roster (25.45). Cincinnati also ranked as the second-youngest team in the NFL behind Cleveland (25.19), and came in well below the league average of 26.06. (Opening-week roster information, released each year by the NFL, is considered the baseline for comparing year-to-year roster information.)

The average age dipped this year thanks to seven picks from April's draft making the roster and the departures of veterans like CB Adam Jones, WR Brandon LaFell and S George Iloka. The Bengals' opening-week roster in 2017 ranked as the third-youngest in the NFL, behind Cleveland (24.17) and the L.A. Rams (25.11). Prior to 2017, Lewis' next-youngest opening-day rosters were in 2004 (25.7) and '11 (25.74).

Also on opening day, 35 of Cincinnati's 53 players were 25 years old or younger, compared to just 23 players in Week 1 last year. This year's total marks the most players 25 or younger ever on a Bengals opening-day roster, edging out the 1993 squad (34).

But perhaps the most telling sign of the youth movement is this — QB Andy Dalton and WR A.J. Green, who just a few short years ago were the faces of Cincinnati's young offensive core, are currently the oldest players on the Bengals' offense (both 30 years old).

A comeback for the record book: In Game 5 vs. Miami, Cincinnati erased a 17-point second-half deficit by scoring 27 unanswered points, including 24 in the fourth quarter, in a thrilling 27-17 come-from-behind victory. It was just the eighth time in Bengals history that the team rallied from a deficit of 17 or more points to win.

Here is a look at those eight instances:

DATE	BENGALS' OPPONENT	DEFICIT	FINAL SCORE
9-6-81	Seattle Seahawks	21	W, 27-21
12-24-95	Minnesota Vikings	21	W, 27-24
11-3-96	at Baltimore Ravens	18	W, 24-21
8-31-97	Arizona Cardinals	18	W, 24-21
12-24-94	Philadelphia Eagles	17	W, 33-30
12-5-04	at Baltimore Ravens	17	W, 27-26
10-11-15	Seattle Seahawks	17	W, 27-24
10-7-18	Miami Dolphins	17	W, 27-17

The comeback also marked just the fourth time in Bengals history, and the first time since 2004, that Cincinnati scored at least 24 points in the fourth quarter. Here is a look at those four instances, which all were Cincinnati wins:

DATE	BENGALS' OPPONENT	4TH-QTR. POINTS	FINAL SCORE
12-17-72	at Houston Oilers	28	W, 61-17
12-17-78	Cleveland Browns	24	W, 48-16
12-5-04	at Baltimore Ravens	24	W, 27-26
10-7-18	Miami Dolphins	24	W, 27-17

Three Big 12 DPOYs now in stripes: The Bengals this season have three players on their roster who earned at least a share of the Big 12 Conference's Defensive Player of the Year Award in each of the last three seasons.

In 2017, LB Malik Jefferson of Texas — now a Bengals rookie — shared the award with Ogbornia Okoronkwo of Oklahoma. Jefferson racked up a team-leading 110 tackles on the season, including 10 for losses and four sacks, and posted double-digit tackles in six of his team's 12 games.

In 2016, DE Jordan Willis of Kansas State — now in his second Bengals season — won the award outright, after recording 52 tackles, including 17.5 for losses and 11.5 sacks (led Big 12 and tied school record). Willis logged at least a shared sack in eight of 13 games in his senior season of 2016, and he left KSU tied for seventh in Big 12 history in career sacks (26). As a rookie last season, Willis saw time as a rotational player (played 31 percent of defensive snaps), and totaled 25 tackles, with one sack, and a blocked punt on special teams. This season, he has 11 tackles, including one for a loss, four QB hits, a pass defended and a fumble recovery.

In 2015, DT Andrew Billings of Baylor — now in his third season with the Bengals — shared the award with Emmanuel Ogbah of Oklahoma State. Billings totaled 40 tackles that season, including 14 for losses and 5.5 sacks. Billings missed his entire rookie season for the Bengals in 2016 due to a knee injury, before totaling 13 tackles as a rotational player in '17 (played 29 percent of defensive snaps). This season, Billings is serving as the team's No. 1 NT and has 15 tackles, including a sack, and five QB hits.

It should also be noted that the 2014 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, P.J. Dawson of Texas Christian, was a '15 Bengals draftee and was with the team through the '16 season.

Other former Bengals to win the award include CB Terence Newman of Kansas State (2002) and S Roy Williams of Oklahoma (2001). Newman was with the Bengals from 2012-14, and Williams was with the team from '09-10.

15 carries for Gio does the trick: Bengals HB Giovani Bernard missed Games 5-8 this season due to a knee injury, before returning to action in Game 9 vs. New Orleans. He totaled just two rushes (for six yards) and three catches (for 30 yards) vs. the Saints, but his work load is expected to increase as he works his way back into the regular rotation.

The Bengals are 10-1-1 in games in which Bernard has at least 15 rushing attempts. Cincinnati is 1-0 this season when Bernard rushes 15 times, with a win in Game 4 at Atlanta (15 rushes for 69 yards).

In the 12 games in which Bernard has reached 15 carries, he has averaged 78.4 yards, scored seven rushing TDs and topped 100 yards three times.

Gio sets sights on Brooks: HB Giovani Bernard in 2018 has re-started his long pursuit of the all-time Bengals leads in both receptions and receiving yards by a running back. With 246 receptions, Bernard stands 51 short of James Brooks' record of 297. And with 2168 receiving yards, Bernard is 844 short of Brooks' record of 3012. Brooks played eight seasons with the Bengals (1984-91), while 2018 is Bernard's sixth.

Last season, Bernard returned to action to play in every game, less than a year after suffering a torn ACL in his left knee (Nov. 20, 2016 vs. Buffalo). He led the Bengals in yards per carry, at 4.4 (minimum five carries), while also adding 847 scrimmage yards and four total TDs (two receiving, two rushing). This season, Bernard got off to a fast start before being sidelined in Games 5-8 due to an injury to his right knee. He returned to action in Game 9 vs. New Orleans, and is expected to continue to work his way back into the regular rotation.

Bernard averaged 1147 yards from scrimmage over his first three seasons (2013-15), before finishing with 673 scrimmage yards in his injury-shortened '16 campaign (10 games).

In his five games played this season, Bernard has 16 catches for 108 yards.

Some very good rushing numbers: HB Joe Mixon rushed for 123 yards on 21 carries (5.9 average) in Cincinnati's Game 8 win over Tampa Bay, marking the first time this season a Bengals rusher has topped 100 yards. That brings Bengals' record to an impressive 47-7-1 (.864) under Marvin Lewis when a rusher reaches 100 yards.

What's more, the Bengals' record under Lewis when a rusher hits the 25-carry plateau is 39-2 (951). Reaching 30 rushes as a team usually spells success under Lewis as well. The Bengals have not yet had a rusher hit 25 carries this year.

"It's not always the rushing yardage total that's most important," Lewis has said. "When you're running the ball a lot, it's a sign that even though the yardage will vary, you're controlling the ball, controlling the clock, and keeping your defense off the field. As it shows for us, that is going to be a winning combo.

"We love seeing a guy get 100 yards, but sometimes he can break one big gain and then get to 100 even though you may not be running as consistently well and controlling the game like you do when you get high-carry numbers."

Four Bengals hail from Queen City: The Bengals in the 2018 season have four players — LB Preston Brown, DE Sam Hubbard, P Kevin Huber and DT Adolphus Washington — who grew up in Greater Cincinnati.

Brown, who grew up in College Hill and attended Northwest High School, is in his first year with the Bengals, after spending his first four NFL seasons with the Buffalo Bills. His 504 tackles from 2014-17 were a league-best, and his 144 tackles in '17 led all defenders. After signing with Cincinnati as an unrestricted free agent in March, Brown called the opportunity "living out a dream."

"When I started looking around (in free agency), I knew there might be a spot here," Brown said. "And the Bengals definitely jumped to the top of my list when I found out they had interest in me as well."

Hubbard, a Moeller High School alum, is in his rookie season, after a standout career at Ohio State. The Bengals selected Hubbard in the third round (77th overall) of April's draft, and the rookie has already worked his way into the defensive line rotation. Hubbard this season has two sacks and a fumble recovery for a TD that helped seal a win vs. Miami.

"It's insane," Hubbard said of being drafted by his hometown Bengals. "Seeing that 513 area code pop up on my phone on draft day was just incredible. To get an opportunity to represent the city of Cincinnati one more time, and to do it for the pro team in this city, is a dream come true. I watched every game the Bengals played. I was there when Carson Palmer got hurt in the playoff (in the 2005 season). I've just always been a big fan."

Huber, an Anderson Township native and alum of McNicholas High School and the University of Cincinnati, was a fifth-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2009. He has played in all but two games over his 10-year career in Cincinnati, and he currently stands as the Bengals' career leader in both gross (45.1) and net (39.8) punting average.

"It's already been an amazing nine years," he said of his time in Cincinnati. Huber and his wife, Mindi, have been active in the local community throughout his Bengals career. The couple started their own charity, The Foundation for Underserved Rescues, which "provides resources and support to underserved Cincinnati-area animal rescues."

Washington, a graduate of Taft High School, was signed off of the Cowboys' practice squad on Sept. 26. Washington was originally drafted in the third round of the 2016 draft by the Buffalo Bills, where he played in 31 games (21 starts) and totaled 56 tackles and 3.5 sacks before being waived on Sept. 11.

"Everybody has a dream of going to the NFL, and also the dream of playing for their hometown team," Washington said after signing. "Right now, I'm just living out that dream."

The Huber roundup: Already a considerable presence in the Bengals' record book, P Kevin Huber has taken over first place in one Bengals career punting category this year, and he's poised to take over the lead in one more by season's end.

In Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh, Huber passed P Lee Johnson (32,196) for most career punting yards in Bengals history. Huber is now up to 33,120 career punting yards.

The 10th-year pro also currently stands at 734 career punts, 12 short of Johnson (746) for the Bengals' all-time lead. Huber passed Pat McInally (700) for second place in team history in Game 2. McInally played 10 Bengals seasons (1976-85), while Johnson played 11 (1988-98).

A Bengals fifth-round selection in the 2009 draft, Huber has particularly excelled throughout his career at pinning opponents inside the 20-yard line. In 2016, just his eighth season, Huber passed Johnson (186) for most inside-20 punts in team history. He's now up to 256 career inside-20 punts.

Huber also owns the franchise's all-time best ratio of inside-20 kicks to touchbacks (4.3-to-1, with 256 inside-20s and 60 touchbacks).

Huber's other top accomplishments with the Bengals include:

- He is the franchise leader in career gross average (45.12) and net average (39.76).
- He holds the top four Bengals season averages in gross and the top five Bengals season averages in net. His gross record is 46.84, and his net record is 42.10 — both were set in 2014.
- He shares the team record for longest punt (75 yards) with Kyle Larson.
- His 33 inside-20 punts in 2012 is a single-season franchise record.
- His six inside-20 punts on Sept. 14, 2017 vs. Houston are tied with Lee Johnson (Nov. 2, 1997) for the most in a game in Bengals history.

Huber was an initial-ballot Pro Bowl selection in 2014 and also was named first-team All-Pro by The Sporting News that year.

Huber's touchback streak ties team mark: Bengals P Kevin Huber's streak of consecutive punts without a touchback came to an end at 56 in Game 7 at Kansas City, when his third punt of the game bounced into the end zone. It was his first touchback since Game 10 of 2017. Huber's streak tied P Pat McInally for the longest in team history, and it was also the longest active streak in the NFL at the time it was snapped.

Over his span of 56 punts without a touchback, Huber pinned opponents inside the 20-yard line 22 times.

A stat that matters: During the full term of head coach Marvin Lewis (2003-present), a plus-differential in turnovers is linked to a big plus in wins. And the reverse has gone for a minus.

The Bengals are 79-19-1 in regular season under Lewis with a plus (.803 winning percentage), but they are only 19-71-2 with a minus (.217).

"It makes a huge difference," Lewis says. "You see it game after game. You have to possess the football to win. If you possess the football, good things happen. If you turn the ball over to opponents, you have a much harder day."

The Bengals' experience with turnovers under Lewis is backed up by league numbers. Since the start of the 2003 season, Lewis' first as head coach, here are the records of teams with varying turnover differentials.

(NOTE: Minus differentials are not included because they are the exact reverse of the plus figure for the same numbers.)

DIFFERENTIAL	W-L-T	PCT.
Plus 1	973-450-5	.683
Plus 2	774-160	.829
Plus 3	436-42-1	.911
Plus 4	228-6	.974
Plus 5	101-3-1	.967

Plus teams so far in 2018 are 90-22-2 (.798 winning percentage).

And when it's even? The Bengals are 32-26 under head coach Marvin Lewis in games when the turnover differential has been even, for a winning percentage of .552. The Bengals have won 15 of their last 25 with an even differential (.600), dating back to 2012. Cincinnati, however, is just 1-2 this season with an even differential.

Turnover tables are turned: During the tenure of head coach Marvin Lewis (2003-present), the Bengals rank tied for ninth in the NFL in turnover differential, at plus-44.

Prior to Lewis' tenure, the Bengals had posted a minus turnover differential for five straight years (1998-2002).

Since 2003, NFL teams with just a plus-one differential have won 68.3 percent of those games. At plus-two, the percentage has been 82.9. Teams with any plus have won at a 79.1 percent clip.

Here are the top nine teams in differential since 2003:

TEAM	TAKEAWAYS	GIVEAWAYS	DIFFERENTIAL
New England Patriots	457	286	+171
Seattle Seahawks	423	353	+70
Kansas City Chiefs	413	343	+70
Carolina Panthers	454	392	+62
Green Bay Packers	419	360	+59
Indianapolis Colts	397	342	+55
Atlanta Falcons	402	353	+49
Baltimore Ravens	437	391	+46
Cincinnati Bengals	429	385	+44

Since 2003, the Bengals rank sixth in takeaways (429) and ninth in points off turnovers (1309).

Bengal bites: Marvin Lewis' winningest month has been September (30-24-0, .556), followed closely by November (33-27-1, .549). His teams are also above .500 in December/January (38-33-0, .535 [regular season]). Lewis' only losing month has been October (29-32-2, .476) ... In Game 5 vs. Miami, DEs Michael Johnson (INT return) and Sam Hubbard (fumble return) both scored TDs in the fourth quarter, helping the Bengals to a 27-17 win. It was the first time in Bengals history that two defensive linemen scored TDs in the same game. It was also the first time two defensive linemen scored TDs in the same quarter since Dec. 10, 1989, when Minnesota's Keith Millard and Tim Newton both scored in a Vikings win vs. Atlanta. ... The attendance of 91,653 on Oct. 9, 2016, at Dallas was the largest ever for a Bengals regular-season game, topping a house of 87,786 for a 2004 visit to FedEx Field in Washington. The largest crowd for any Bengals game remains 92,045, for a 1990 season playoff game against the Los Angeles Raiders at the L.A. Coliseum ... The tallest Bengal is DE Michael Johnson, who is 6-7 ... There is a tie for shortest Bengals player between K Randy Bullock and HB Giovanni Bernard, who are both 5-9 ... There is a tie for the heaviest Bengals player between OT Cordy Glenn and DT Josh Tupou, who are both 345 pounds ... There is a tie for lightest Bengals player between WR John Ross and CB Darius Phillips, who are both 190 pounds ... The oldest Bengal is LS Clark Harris, who is 34 (born July 10, 1984) ... The youngest Bengal is HB Mark Walton, who is 21 (March 29, 1997).

BENGALS QUOTES

Offensive coordinator Bill Lazor, on WR Tyler Boyd:

"The guy's a smart football player, a playmaker with great physical abilities. We aren't surprised anymore when we see him catch passes for first downs (on third downs and fourth downs) because we see it happen frequently. He knows he can help win games, and he plays every play the same way. ... We talk all the time about 'play speed.' Guys have different 40 times, but the key is, when the ball is snapped, how fast a player plays. He can play with really great play speed and still be under control — he can change direction and not lose a lot of speed."

QB Andy Dalton, on WR Tyler Boyd getting open during scrambles:

"He does a great job with reacting once I'm out of the pocket. I think for him at that point, it ends up being backyard football — just go get open. He does a great job of that. He understands the game really well, and he understands what we are trying to do, so it's natural for him, and it shows on those plays."

WR Tyler Boyd, on connecting with QB Andy Dalton on scrambles:

"We always work on the scramble drill. When I see him (Dalton) rolling out, I have to find an open space on the field. Andy does a great job escaping the pocket and finding open targets."

WR A.J. Green, on WR Tyler Boyd:

"That guy works his butt off every day. He's confident, and he's got great hands. He's a dog out there. You can't cover him one-on-one with the way he can separate in the seam."

Dalton, on WR A.J. Green:

"If he's not in there, he's watching the other guys, and if he sees something he thinks he can give them help with, he'll do it. It's his personality. He's not going to be outspoken or looking to get noticed doing it. He has the guys' respect. Not only is he the best player on this team, but he's also one of the best players in the NFL."

Former Bengals WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh, on WR John Ross (Houshmandzadeh and Ross worked together in the 2018 offseason):

"The quarterback says, 'Set, hut!' and he's gone. He's not just fast. He's quick. He's got good lateral quickness. And he's got some size. He's bigger than you think. He's 5-11 and 190 (pounds). He's short, but he's not small. He's got some thickness to him."

Bengals RBs coach Kyle Caskey, on HB Joe Mixon:

"He's a very disciplined runner right now, and a very disciplined student. He's grown up. As a rookie (last year), he really didn't know what he was getting himself into at times. Now, he has been through it. He has a different mindset now than he had then. He really has taken ownership of where he's at on the team at this point."

Lazor, on HB Giovanni Bernard:

"To me the guy is a warrior. Coming off the knee surgery two years ago and what he did last year, I just think he's a warrior. He really is physically unique being able to do what he does with his stature — to play the way he plays. He finishes runs, he doesn't run out of bounds, and he doesn't go down easily. I have great respect for him."

Lazor, on the ability of G/C Trey Hopkins to play both guard and center:

"He's obviously helped us have success before as a guard. I think it's a great credit to him that, since he came in (at center in Game 2), we have had no communication problems and no snap problems. One of the first things the center has to do before he has to worry about blocking the nose guard is get the calls right and get the snap right, and he has done that. That's a great credit to him. We have a lot of faith in Trey. He's helped us play winning football before."

G Bobby Hart, on his and G Alex Redmond's opportunities in Cincinnati:

"No one wanted us, man. Shoot, he was undrafted, and I went in the seventh round and got kicked out of New York. We tell each other that before every game. Nobody wanted us. Each snap we get is a blessing. Now we get to prove that we belong."

Head coach Marvin Lewis, on DE Sam Hubbard:

"He has been way ahead of the curve. We're excited about that. He's really complementing and adding to our football team right now. He's mature beyond his years, and he's a part of our rotation in the defensive line group. I see a bright future for him. That's what we were looking for when we picked him."

DE Carlos Dunlap, on the Bengals' defensive line:

"We want to lead the league in sacks, whatever number it takes. We definitely have the depth. This is one of the few times we've had this many guys that can get after it. I remember back in 2012, the young guys were coming in as the pass rushers. Now they're the starters and we have young guys again coming in to rush — guys like Jordan Willis and Sam Hubbard. They're really good additions to the rotation. This is one of the best D-lines I've been a part of, pass-rushing wise."

Baltimore Ravens QB Joe Flacco, on DT Geno Atkins, DE Carlos Dunlap and the Bengals' defensive line:

"Their front seven is really good. Geno Atkins is arguably the best at his position. Carlos Dunlap is a monster — he deflects balls, he gets to the quarterback and pins his ears back. They don't rely on pressure by blitzing a lot. They rely on those guys to get to the passer."

DT Geno Atkins, on being an older leader on the defensive line:

"I embrace them. I used to be one of those young guys coming in and having veterans like Domata Peko, Robert Geathers and Tank Johnson to help me along the way. Now it's come full circle. Now I am doing the same thing by helping them. If I make them better, it's going to help the team in the long run. If everybody gets better, the team wins."

Atkins, after signing a contract extension in August:

"They are the team that drafted me. I love this city and the organization. It's something to have a legacy here. I think it's important to finish where I started. We have unfinished business here. Carlos (Dunlap, who also signed an extension) and I want to bring a Super Bowl to Cincinnati."

Atkins, on the relation between age and career length in today's NFL:

"I don't really consider age honestly, with today's sports science, advancements in how to take care of your body, and all of the knowledge that goes into what we do now with modalities. The training staff helps to try to keep us fresh for game day with their cold tubs, hot tubs, NormaTec (compression) and (electrical) stimulation. I think age isn't even a factor any more. Guys now can continue their career — barring any injuries — until their mid-30s."

S Jessie Bates, on his development on defense:

"Confidence in getting in there and getting your feet wet has been huge. You get comfortable, not only with the coaches, but with the players on the field you are playing with. I'm a younger guy, so I have to communicate with older guys for them to feel comfortable that I know my stuff, so we can play fast as a defense."

Lewis, on nickel DB Darqueze Dennard:

"Darqueze had a really strong season last year (in 2017), and he has continued to grow. More importantly, he has been our quarterback on defense. He (performs) a great deal of verbal communication between the corners and safeties. It's pretty cool to see him grow in that way."

"At one point early last season, he thought playing that spot (nickel DB) was a downgrade. I said, 'No, no, no. That's the most important guy. That's the guy that's setting things in place and making a lot of decisions. He works with the corners, linebackers and the safeties.' When I told him it was the position that was always the most valuable spot wherever I have coached, he embraced it."

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: With a 68-48-2 regular-season record as a starter, eighth-year pro Andy Dalton owns the top winning percentage (.585) of any Bengals QB with 10 or more starts (next-best is Virgil Carter, who was 12-10, for a .545 percentage). Dalton has posted a QB rating over 100 in four out of eight games this season, with all four coming in Bengals wins. Most recently in Game 8, a win over Tampa Bay at Paul Brown Stadium, Dalton completed 21 of 34 passes for 280 yards and two touchdowns for a rating of 107.5. For the season he is 197 of 312 for 2255 yards, 18 TDs and 10 INTs (90.7 rating). In Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh, Dalton passed Boomer Esiason's mark of 27,149 passing yards for second all-time in franchise history. Dalton (27,789) now only trails Ken Anderson (32,838) for the all-time lead. In Game 4 at Atlanta, Dalton passed for 337 yards, his 24th career 300-yard game, which passed Boomer Esiason for most in Bengals history. Dalton is the Bengals' all-time leader in career passer rating (88.9), and is second in career completions (2414) and completion percentage (62.24). Dalton's 185 career TD passes against 103 INTs works out to a ratio of 1.80-1, the best in Bengals history ahead of second-place Carson Palmer at 1.54-to-1 (154-100). Dalton has posted 46 career games with a passer rating at 100 or above, and the Bengals' record in those contests is 39-7 (.847). Dalton led Cincinnati to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons (2011-15), joining Baltimore's Joe Flacco as the only QBs to do that in the Super Bowl era (Seattle's Russell Wilson has since joined that list, from '12-16). Dalton this season is backed up by Jeff Driskel, a third-year player who has spent the last two seasons with the Bengals. Driskel made his NFL debut in Game 7 at Kansas City, entering the game late in the fourth quarter and passing four-of-four for 39 yards. In Game 9 vs. New Orleans, Driskel entered the game in the first quarter at quarterback with Dalton split out as a WR. On the play Driskel ran for a gain of eight yards. He also saw extended action in the fourth quarter, completing 2 of 3 passes for 45 yards. He scored his first career NFL touchdown on a 27-yard run. He finished with two rushes for 35 yards in the game.

Running backs: Second-year HB Joe Mixon, a 2017 second-round pick out of Oklahoma, is Cincinnati's No. 1 HB for '18. Mixon this season has 709 yards from scrimmage on 137 touches — 116-for-570 and four TDs rushing, 21-for-139 and a TD receiving. In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, Mixon had a career-best 123 rushing yards on 21 carries (5.9), with two rushing TDs. It was his first career multi-TD game and second-career game of rushing over the 100 yard mark (November 2017 vs. Cleveland, 114 yards). Mixon missed Games 3 and 4 due to knee injury, and then returned in Game 5 vs. Miami and totaled 115 yards from scrimmage, including 22 carries for 93 yards and three catches for 22 yards and a TD. His 18-yard TD reception was the first receiving TD of his career and came at a crucial moment early in the fourth quarter, cutting the Dolphins' lead to just seven points and sparking a Bengals comeback. Giovani Bernard has rushed 36 times for 161 yards (4.5) and three TDs this season, along with 16 catches for 108 yards (6.8). A knee injury sidelined Bernard for Games 5-8 and he returned to action in Game 9 vs. New Orleans. In his return, he rushed two times for six yards and caught three passes for 30 yards. Bernard shouldered a heavier load in Games 3-4, in the absence of Mixon. In Game 3 at Carolina, Bernard started in place of the injured Mixon and rushed 12 times for 61 yards and a TD. He also added five catches for 25 yards. In Game 4 at Atlanta, he had 96 total yards (69 rushing, 27 receiving) and had two rushing TDs. It was the third time in his career he has rushed for two TDs in a game, and the first time since 2014 vs. Tennessee. New to the Bengals' RBs room this year is rookie fourth-round pick Mark Walton of the University of Miami (Fla.). This season, Walton has 13 rushes for 24 yards, and five receptions for 41 yards. Walton, who was touted by NFL scouts for his athleticism and versatility, played three seasons for the Hurricanes, and in 30 career games compiled 2630 total yards (2006 rushing, 624 receiving) with 28 TDs (26 rushing, two receiving). As a sophomore in 2016, his only full season as starter, he rushed for the seventh-most yards (1117) and third-most rushing TDs (14) in school history.

Wide receivers: A.J. Green, who turned 30 in July, is playing his eighth season and leads a young Bengals receiving corps. Green this season has caught 45 passes (second on team) for 687 yards (leads team) and six TDs (leads team). He is tied (with teammate Tyler Boyd) for third in the AFC in catches of over 20 yards, with 12, only trailing Houston's DeAndre Hopkins and Kansas City's Tyreek Hill. His four TDs in the first two games were the most ever by a Bengals WR through the first two games of a season. Green was sidelined for Game 9 vs. New Orleans with a toe injury. His status for his week's game at Baltimore is unknown. In Game 2 vs. Baltimore, Green totaled five catches for 69 yards and three TDs, all of which came in the first half. In Game 4 at Atlanta, Green caught a game-winning 13-yard TD pass with seven seconds remaining to give the Bengals a 37-36 win. He finished the game with four catches for 78 yards and a TD. In Game 5 vs. Miami, Green recorded his first 100-yard receiving game of the season, catching 6 passes for 112 yards. His 100-yard performance was at the time the 32nd of his career, topping Bengals legend Chad Johnson (31) for most in team history. In Game 7 at Kansas City, Green caught seven passes for 117 yards. In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, he hauled in five passes for 76 yards and a TD. On the game-winning drive, he caught passes of 23 yards and 11 with under 34 seconds remaining to set up the game-winning field goal. Green stands second in Bengals history in career receptions (601) and receiving yards (8900); Chad Johnson, who played 10 Bengals seasons, is first in both categories (751 and 10,783). Green's 10 career games with at least 150 yards and one TD are the most among active players. He has 33 career 100-yard receiving games and the Bengals record is 22-10-1 overall in those games. Third-year pro Tyler Boyd, who will turn 24 in November, suddenly finds himself as a veteran in Cincinnati's receiving corps this season. This season Boyd leads the team in catches (52), is second on the team in receiving yards (685) and has four TDs. In Game 9 vs. New Orleans, he caught three passes for 65 yards including a 36-yarder. Boyd now has 12 catches of over 20 yards which is tied for third in the AFC with teammate A.J. Green, only trailing Houston's DeAndre Hopkins and Kansas City's Tyreek Hill. In Game 2 vs. Baltimore, Boyd recorded six catches for 91 yards and a TD. In Game 3 at Carolina, he posted a then career high in receiving yards (132) on six catches, and he added a 27-yard TD reception. It was Boyd's first game of 100 or more receiving yards. In Game 4 at Atlanta, Boyd recorded a career-high 11 receptions for 100 yards. It was his first career game of 10 or more receptions. Boyd played a significant role on the Bengals' game-winning TD drive at Atlanta, with four total catches, including a third-down conversion and two fourth-down conversions that kept the drive alive. In Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh, Boyd caught seven passes for 62 yards and two touchdowns — the first multi-TD game of his career. In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, Boyd set a new career high in receiving yards (138) on nine catches and one TD. Boyd has also caught at least one pass in all 35 of his games played. Second-year pro John Ross began the season with heavy anticipation surrounding him, and when healthy, he's delivered with nine catches for 118 yards and three TDs. Ross, suffered a groin injury in Game 4 at Atlanta that caused him to miss Games 5-6. He was active for Game 7 at Kansas City but re-aggravated his injury and left the game (no statistics) forcing him to miss Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay. Ross' first career catch came in Game 1 at Indianapolis, and it went for a three-yard TD. In Game 4 at Atlanta, he caught a 39 yard TD, the longest catch of his career, and finished the game with two catches for 52 yards and a TD. He returned to the lineup in Game 9 vs. New Orleans and caught two passes for 39 yards and a TD — 2-yarder in the first quarter. Ross, the Bengals' first-round pick (ninth overall) in the 2017 draft, gained notoriety in the pre-draft process when at the 2017 NFL Combine he ran a blistering 4.22-second 40-yard dash, considered to be the fastest in the history of the combine's marquee event. Another second-year WR is Josh Malone. Malone has one catch for 12 yards this season, in limited offensive action. Malone was sidelined with a hamstring injury Game 9 vs. New Orleans. Last season, Malone saw action in 11 games (seven starts), with six catches for 63 yards and a TD. The Bengals' jack of all trades is Alex Erickson, a 2016 college free agent signee who currently ranks fourth in the NFL in KOR average, at 26.8 yards per return. He has served as the team's No. 1 PR and KOR since his rookie season. Erickson has seen increased action on offense early this season, due to injuries in the receiving corps, and he's also served as an emergency HB due to injuries to the Bengals' running backs. For the season, Erickson has eight catches for 44 yards, and one rush for eight yards. In Game 6 vs Pittsburgh, he had kickoff returns of 47 and 51 yards (season long). On Sept. 8, Erickson signed a two-year contract extension that lasts through the 2020 season. Cody Core, a third-year player out of the University of Mississippi is considered a key player on special teams, but has also seen action on offense early this season due to injuries. He has five catches for 47 yards on the season. Core was inactive for Games 1-2 due to a back injury. Rookie Auden Tate, a seventh-round Bengals draft pick, was signed from the practice squad on Nov. 5. He made his NFL debut Game 9 vs. New Orleans and in limited action was targeted one time (recording no statistics). Tate made the active roster out of training camp but was inactive for Games 1-6 before joining the practice squad prior to Game 7. At 6-5, 228 pounds, Tate is a big-bodied, sure-handed receiver known for his proficiency in the red zone — 15 of his 16 career TD catches at Florida State came from the 20-yard line or closer.

Tight ends: The Bengals have leaned heavily upon fourth-year pro C.J. Uzomah, after losing Tyler Eifert, Tyler Kroft and Mason Schreck to injuries. Eifert suffered a serious ankle injury in Game 4 at Atlanta that landed him on Reserve/Injured. Kroft, who had four catches 36 yards this season after a breakout year in 2017, suffered a foot injury in Game 5 vs. Miami that has caused him to miss Games 6-9. He's expected to miss more time, although Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis did say at his Oct. 15 news conference that Kroft could still return this season. Schreck, a 2017 seventh-round pick, figured to see an increased role this year but suffered a season-ending knee injury in Game 7 at Kansas City. Uzomah has been a bright spot for the Bengals in the midst of all the injuries to the TEs. Uzomah has caught 20 passes for 207 yards and two TDs this season. His best performance came in Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh, with six catches for 54 yards. On Oct. 10, the team signed Matt Lengel off of Houston's practice squad to add depth to the injury-riddled group. Lengel entered the NFL as a college free agent signee of the Bengals in 2015, and spent '15 and half of '16 on Cincinnati's practice squad before signing with the New England Patriots. He played in nine games for New England in 2016, including three in the playoffs, and helped the Patriots to a Super Bowl Championship. Lengel made his Bengals debut in Game 6 vs Pittsburgh. Lengel recorded his first catch as a Bengal in Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay for a gain of four yards. Rookie Jordan Franks, a CFA from the University of Central Florida, was signed off the practice squad on Oct. 23. In his NFL debut, Franks caught his first career pass on his only play from scrimmage, gaining 32 yards and setting up the Bengals' first TD of the game in the first quarter.

Offensive linemen: In March, the Bengals acquired OT Cordy Glenn in a trade with Buffalo, helping secure the LOT position with a proven and reliable veteran. The 6-6, 345-pound Glenn is in his seventh NFL season in 2018 and has played in 87 career games (86 starts). Glenn played collegiately at Georgia, where in his first three seasons he played alongside Bengals veteran LG Clint Boling. Boling, an eighth-year player in 2018, is the longest consecutively tenured lineman on the roster. Last season, Boling was one of only two Bengals to play all 962 offensive snaps. However, his consecutive snap streak of 1,448 came to an end in Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay when he left the contest with back spasms. Boling, though, did return to starting action at LG in Game 9 vs. New Orleans. The Bengals used their first-round selection (21st overall) in April's draft on Ohio State's Billy Price, who is the team's No. 1 center this season. Price suffered a foot injury in Game 2 at Baltimore, causing him to miss Games 3-8. He returned to the lineup at C in Game 9 vs. New Orleans. Last year at Ohio State, in his first-ever season playing center, Price earned unanimous All-American honors and was named the Rimington Trophy winner as college football's top center. Price was a four-year starter for the Buckeyes — his first three seasons were at G — and his 55 career starts set a school record. A two-time captain at OSU, Price was noted by scouts for his leadership, intelligence and powerful blocking. Listed as the No. 1 RG is Alex Redmond. Close observers will also notice a much slimmer Redmond in 2018, as the G dropped significant weight over the offseason. Redmond is listed at 310 pounds, after being listed at 330 last season. Redmond had started and played in 100 percent of the offenses snaps before missing Game 9 vs. New Orleans with a hamstring injury. OT Bobby Hart, the Bengals' No. 1 ROT, joined the Bengals over the offseason after spending his first four seasons with the New York Giants. Hart has played in 42 career games (30 starts). Adding depth to the line is third-year pro Trey Hopkins. Hopkins was thrust into action at C in Game 2 vs. Baltimore, after Price left with a foot injury, and filled in for Price as the starting C in Games 3-8. In Game 9 vs. New Orleans, Hopkins started at RG in place of the injured Redmond. Hopkins has been praised by coaches for his versatility, and has lined up at all five OL positions in practice. OT Cedric Ogbuehi, the Bengals' first-round draft selection out of Texas A&M in 2015, adds valuable depth to the line. Ogbuehi has played in 33 career games (25 starts). OT Jake Fisher, a second-round Bengals draft choice in 2015, adds more depth at OT. He has entered as a "big" TE in goal line situations. He had a 31-yard catch in 2015 vs. San Diego in the extra-TE spot, the longest in history by a Bengals OL and longest by an NFL OL since 1988. Providing depth at G is third-year pro Christian Westerman. Westerman saw his first extended action on the offensive line this season in Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, filling in at LG for the injured Boling.

Defensive linemen: Ninth-year DT Geno Atkins has six sacks this season (second on the team), which is tied for first among NFL interior defensive linemen. Atkins has finished in at least a tie for the NFL lead in sacks by an interior defensive lineman in five of his eight previous seasons — he claimed it outright in 2012, '16 and '17, and he shared it in '11 and '15. In Game 2 vs. Baltimore had two sacks of Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco. In Game 5 vs. Miami, Atkins had two sacks of Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill. For his career, Atkins has had nine games of two sacks, two of which have come this season. In 2017, Atkins was voted to his sixth Pro Bowl in eight campaigns, the most ever by a Bengals defensive lineman and tied with CB Lemar Parrish for the most by a Cincinnati defender. With 67 career sacks, Atkins stands 4.5 sacks shy of teammate Carlos Dunlap (71.5) for second place in team history. Atkins passed LB Reggie Williams (62.5) for third place in Game 2 vs. Baltimore, when he had two sacks. DE Eddie Edwards is the franchise's all-time leader with 83.5. Dunlap has a team-high seven sacks so far this season, and his five PDs rank tied for third on the team. Dunlap has made headlines this season with a number of game-changing plays. In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, Dunlap recorded two sacks of Buccaneers quarterback Jameis Winston. It was his 10th career game of having two or more sacks, and the Bengals are 7-3 in those games. In Game 1 at Indianapolis, his sack of Andrew Luck proved critical, as it pushed the Colts' FG attempt back to 55 yards, and K Adam Vinatieri's kick fell just feet short. In Game 2 vs. Baltimore, he hit QB Joe Flacco's arm as he attempted a pass, altering the flight of the ball and forcing an INT. In Game 3 at Carolina, he strip-sacked Cam Newton in the fourth quarter as Cincinnati attempted to rally, however Carolina recovered. In Game 5 vs. Miami, Dunlap strip-sacked Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill late in the fourth quarter, resulting in a fumble recovery return for a TD to put the Bengals ahead 10 points with 2:37 remaining. For his career, Dunlap has 18 FFs, eight FRs, 53 PDs, four blocked FGs and three TDs. Third-year pro Andrew Billings is listed as the No. 1 NT alongside Atkins. Billings has 15 tackles, one sack and five QB hits so far this season. In Game 7 at Kansas City, Billings sacked Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes to force a third-and-long. A fourth-round Bengals draft selection in 2016, Billings missed his entire rookie season with a knee injury (meniscus tear) suffered early in training camp. He returned last season to play in 15 games (seven starts), in a rotational role at NT. At RDE is veteran Michael Johnson, a 10th-year pro who has played nine Bengals seasons. Johnson suffered a knee injury early in Game 2 at Baltimore and missed Game 3 at Carolina, but he returned to action in Game 4. In Game 5 vs. Miami, Johnson intercepted deflected pass by Ryan Tannehill and raced 22 yards for a TD that helped spark a Bengals comeback win. It was Johnson's first career TD. Johnson has played in 140 of a possible 142 games (including postseason) during his Bengals tenure. Johnson has 15 tackles and 0.5 sacks on the season. Second-year DE Jordan Willis has played in all nine games this season, with a start at RDE in Game 3 in place of the injured Johnson. For the season, Willis has 11 tackles and four quarterback hits. DE Sam Hubbard, a Cincinnati native who was a former standout at Moeller High School and Ohio State was selected by the Bengals in the third round (77th overall) of April's draft. Hubbard has 21 tackles, two sacks and a FR on the season. In Game 2 vs. Baltimore, he logged his first career sack, made a TFL and was a regular contributor on defense. In Game 5 vs. Miami, Hubbard made the play of the game, when he recovered a Ryan Tannehill fumble (forced by Dunlap) and returned it 19 yards for a TD. The score put Cincinnati ahead by 10 points with 2:37 remaining, effectively sealing a Bengals win. In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, he sacked Bucs' quarterback Jameis Winston on a third-and-14 to force a punt. Hubbard has also served as a lead-blocker for the Bengals in goal line situations, and helped HB Joe Mixon to a one-yard TD in Game 1 at Indianapolis. In 40 career games at OSU, Hubbard totaled 116 tackles, including 29.5 for losses and 17 sacks. DT Josh Tupou, a 2017 CFA out of Colorado provides depth at NT. At 345 pounds, Tupou is the heaviest Bengal on the roster and a prototypical run-stuffer. The Bengals signed DT Adolphus Washington on Sept. 26, after placing DT Ryan Glasgow on Reserve/Injured (knee). Washington, a Cincinnati native (Taft High School) and former Ohio State standout, was a third-round pick of Buffalo in 2016. In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, he recorded his first sack as a Bengal, sacking Jameis Winston for a loss of eight.

Linebackers: New to the Bengals' LB room this season is MLB Preston Brown, a Cincinnati native (Northwest High School) who the Bengals signed in March as a UFA. Brown got his Bengals career off to a fast start in Game 1 at Indianapolis, when he snagged an INT at the Cincinnati seven-yard line on the Colts' first offensive possession. An ankle injury suffered in the Colts game kept Brown out of Games 2-3, but he returned to action in Game 4. Game 2 vs. Baltimore was his first career missed game due to injury. For the season, Brown has 42 tackles, with two INTs and four PDs. Brown spent his first four seasons in Buffalo, where he played in all 64 possible games (62 starts) and accumulated an NFL-best 504 tackles between 2014-17. Brown led the NFL in tackles last season, with 144. At WLB, Vontaze Burfict made his 2018 debut in Game 5 vs. Miami, after missing the first four games due to a suspension. Burfict has 17 tackles in three games this season. Burfict left Game 7 at Kansas City with a hip injury and has missed Games 8 and 9. His status for this week's game is unknown. SLB Nick Vigil is third on the Bengals in tackles (51) despite missing the last three games. Vigil left Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh with a knee injury, and is expected to miss several weeks. Jordan Evans, a sixth-round Bengals draft selection in 2017 who filled in for Burfict at WLB in Games 1-4, has 43 tackles and 1.5 sacks on the season. In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, Evans recorded his first career INT when he picked off Jameis Winston. Second-year LB Hardy Nickerson, a 2017 CFA signee of the Bengals, has been an important contributor to the defense and has 24 tackles so far this season. Veteran Vincent Rey, a 2010 college free agent signee out of Duke and the longest-tenured LB on the roster, has five tackles in limited time on defense this season. Rey did make his first start of the season in Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, filling in for the injured Burfict. Rey led the team in tackles (84) last season, the third time he has done so in his eight Bengals seasons. Rey has the ability to play all three LB spots, and is considered a veteran leader on the defense. Rey holds the distinction as the only player in Bengals history to log three sacks and one INT in a game (Nov. 10, 2013 at Baltimore). Rookie Malik Jefferson of Texas, a third-round pick in April's draft, adds depth to the LB corps in his first NFL season. Noted by scouts for his speed and athleticism, Jefferson played three seasons at Texas and last year was named the Big 12 Co-Defensive Player of the Year after totaling 110 tackles, including 10 for losses and four sacks. Jefferson has played in seven games this season, and has four special teams tackles.

Defensive backs: Third-year pro William Jackson is in his first season as Cincinnati's full-time starter at RCB. So far this season, Jackson has 23 tackles and eight passes defended (second on the team). Jackson turned heads last season in his first action as a pro, after missing his entire rookie season with a pectoral injury. Last year he had a 75-yard pick-six of Aaron Rodgers in Game 3 at Green Bay. Manning the LCB spot is veteran Dre Kirkpatrick, who is in his fourth season as a full-time starter. So far this season, Kirkpatrick has 30 tackles, and his nine PDs rank tied for eighth in the NFL. Kirkpatrick has 10 career INTs, including two returned for TDs, in 89 career games. CB Darqueze Dennard, considered the team's primary nickel CB, missed Game 7-9 with a shoulder injury and his status for this week's game is uncertain. Prior to the injury, Dennard had made three starts at nickel DB. He has 28 tackles with two passes defended this season. At SS, veteran Shawn Williams is in his third season as starter. On the season, Williams has 55 tackles (second on team), a sack, forced fumble and three INTs (tied for first in AFC). In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, Williams picked off quarterback Jameis Winston and also had two PDs. In Game 2 vs. Baltimore, Williams recorded an INT and forced a key fumble on Ravens QB Joe Flacco late in the fourth quarter, thwarting a Ravens comeback effort and helping seal a Bengals win. Williams left Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh with a concussion but returned for Game 7 at Kansas City to lead the team in tackles with 13. Rookie S Jessie Bates, the Bengals' second-round draft pick, has taken over as the No. 1 FS this season. Through nine games, Bates leads the Bengals in tackles (71) and is tied for first in the AFC in INTs (three). In Game 9 vs. New Orleans, he had a team-high 11 tackles. In Game 2 vs. Baltimore, Bates recorded his first career INT, when on the first drive he picked off Ravens QB Joe Flacco and returned it 21 yards to help set up a Bengals TD. In Game 5 vs. Miami, Bates' interception of Dolphins QB Ryan Tannehill late in the fourth quarter helped seal a 27-17 Bengals win. In Game 8 vs. Tampa Bay, the rookie intercepted Jameis Winston and returned it 21-yards for a TD. The pick-6 gave the Bengals an 18-point lead late in the third quarter. In three seasons at Wake Forest, Bates totaled 179 tackles, including nine for losses, with six INTs, nine pass breakups and two FFs. Third-year pro Clayton Fejedelem was the hero of Game 1 at Indianapolis, when he forced a fumble on Colts TE Jack Doyle, recovered it and returned it 83 yards for a game-sealing

TD. The play came with 24 seconds left in the game, as the Colts were driving for a possible game-winning TD. In Game 9 vs. New Orleans, he made his first start of the season as a nickel DB. For the season, Fejedelem has 20 tackles, to go with his FF and FR for a TD. Adding depth to the Bengals' CB rotation is rookie fifth-round pick Darius Phillips. Phillips has seen his playing time on defense increase in Games 6-9, due to injuries in the secondary. He has 11 tackles on the season. Phillips finished his career at Western Michigan as one of the top defensive/special teams playmakers in college football history, with an FBS-record 12 total returns for TDs — five KOR, one PR, five INT, one FR. Phillips' five career pick-sixes in college tied for the most in FBS history. S Brandon Wilson, a sixth-round Bengals draft pick out of Houston in 2017, has developed into a key contributor on special teams and has three ST tackles so far this season. Providing depth at CB is second-year pro Tony McRae (CB), who spent 2016 and '17 between the Bengals' practice squad and roster. McRae has one pass defended on defense, and leads the special teams in tackles (five). Before Game 7 at Kansas City, KeiVarae Russell was promoted to the active roster from the practice squad. The third-year player out of Notre Dame played briefly on defense and special teams in his season debut. He has two tackles this season.

Special teams: Seventh-year pro Randy Bullock is nine-for-11 on FGs (one miss came on a block) this season, and 28-for-29 on PATs. Bullock owns an 83.0 career percentage on FGs (110 of 133) and 96.0 percentage on PATs (156 of 163). Last season, Bullock made a career-best 90 percent of his FGs (18 for 20). Bullock also made 93.9 percent of his PATs (31 of 33), his best percentage for a season since the PAT distance was moved to 33 yards in 2015. Veteran long-snapper Clark Harris in 2017 became the first-ever Bengals LS to earn a Pro Bowl nod. Harris has been a paragon of reliability since taking over as Cincinnati's LS in 2009, with no unplayable snaps in 1370 attempts as a Bengal (731 punts and 639 placekicks). On Nov 5, Harris signed a two-year contract extension with the Bengals. During a Pro Bowl practice last season, Harris set a new Guinness World Record for longest recorded snap at 36 yards, eight inches, breaking the previous record of 34 yards by Jase Whitner of Perrysburg, Ohio in 2017. P Kevin Huber, the longest consecutively tenured Bengal on the roster, is in his 10th season as a pro. Huber, a Cincinnati native (Archbishop McNicholas High School) and University of Cincinnati alum, originally joined the Bengals in 2009 as a fifth-round draft choice. In Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh, his punt of 62-yards in the first quarter made him the all-time leader in punt yards in franchise history, passing Lee Johnson' mark of 32,196. Huber is now up to 33,120 career punting yards. Huber is also the Bengals' career leader in both gross (45.12) and net (39.76) punting average, as well as total inside-20s (256). Huber also shares the franchise record for longest punt, at 75 yards. Huber has served as the holder on placekicks his entire career. Listed as the No. 1 PR and KOR is third-year WR Alex Erickson. Through eight games in 2018, Erickson is averaging 26.8 yards on KORs (fourth in NFL), with a season long of 51 in Game 6 vs. Pittsburgh. Listed as Erickson's backup at both positions is rookie CB Darius Phillips, who in college at Western Michigan had five career KORs for TDs and one PR for a TD. S Clayton Fejedelem, considered a leader of the Bengals coverage units on kickoffs and punts, has three special teams' tackles so far this season. Fejedelem led the team in 2017 with 16 ST tackles. CB Tony McRae currently leads the Bengals with five ST tackles this season.

2018 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Indianapolis Colts 23 Sunday, Sept. 9, 2018 at Lucas Oil Stadium

The Bengals captured their first win in Indianapolis since 1997, thanks to 24 unanswered points in the second half that were punctuated by an 83-yard scoop-and-score by reserve S Clayton Fejedelem with 24 seconds left, as the Colts were attempting to drive for a game-winning TD. Fejedelem had been thrust into extended action after starting SS Shawn Williams was ejected for a personal foul penalty in the first half. The defense gave up 319 passing yards and two TDs to Colts QB Andrew Luck, who made his first start since the 2016 season. Big plays on defense by the Bengals were key. In addition to Fejedelem's FR, LB Preston Brown had an INT at the Cincinnati seven-yard line on the Colts' first drive, and DE Carlos Dunlap sacked Luck at the end of the third quarter to push a Colts FG attempt back to 55 yards (Colts K Adam Vinatieri's attempt fell short). On offense, QB Andy Dalton posted a 109.7 passer rating, his highest in 10 games while HB Joe Mixon had 149 yards from scrimmage (95 rushing, 54 receiving) and a TD.

Sunday, Sept. 23, 2018 at Bank of America Stadium

The Bengals were minus-four in turnovers and surrendered 230 net rushing yards to the Panthers, including 184 to RB Christian McCaffrey. Panthers QB Cam Newton accounted for all four Carolina TDs (two rushing, two passing), despite being held to just 150 yards through the air. In addition, during the game itself, WR A.J. Green (pelvis) and DT Ryan Glasgow (knee) both left in the second half with injuries. Andy Dalton passed for 352 yards and two TDs, but three of his four INTs resulted in 17 Panthers points. WR Tyler Boyd led Cincinnati with a career-high 132 receiving yards and a TD, while TE Tyler Eifert, who battled injuries much of the last two seasons, recorded his most receptions (six) and receiving yards (74) in a game in nearly two years. The Bengals fell to 2-1 but kept a share of the lead in the AFC North, while the Panthers improved to 2-1.

WEEK 5, GAME 5

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Miami Dolphins 17 Sunday, Oct. 7, 2018 at Paul Brown Stadium

Cincinnati rallied from a 17-0 deficit, scoring 27 unanswered points, including 24 in the fourth quarter. It was just the eighth time in Bengals history that the team rallied from a deficit of 17 or more points to win. It also was just the fourth time in team history that the Bengals scored 24 or more points in a fourth quarter (all wins). Bengals QB Andy Dalton led a nine-play, 67-yard drive that resulted in a 20-yard FG and a 20-17 lead with 3:30 left. It was his 23rd career game-winning drive, which set a new franchise mark. The Bengals' defense was stout overall. Miami gained just 297 yards, converted only four of 13 third downs (30.8 percent), scored just 10 points and never ran a play from scrimmage in the red zone. The Bengals' defensive line harassed Dolphins QB Ryan Tannehill repeatedly and was responsible for 14 of the team's 24 fourth-quarter points. DE Michael Johnson returned a Tannehill INT 22 yards for a TD with 11:43 left to tie the game 17-17. Then, after the Bengals took 20-17 lead, DE Sam Hubbard recovered a Tannehill fumble and returned it 19 yards for a TD with 2:37 left to put the game out of reach. It was the first time in Bengals history that two Bengals defensive linemen scored a TD in the same game, and the first time that two defensive linemen scored in the same quarter of an NFL game since Dec. 10, 1989. WR A.J. Green had 112 yards receiving on six catches. It was his 32nd career game with 100 or more yards receiving, setting a new mark for most in team history. The Bengals improved to 4-1, while the Dolphins fell to 3-2.

WEEK 6, GAME 6

Pittsburgh Steelers 28, Cincinnati Bengals 21 Sunday, Oct. 14, 2018 at Paul Brown Stadium

QB Andy Dalton led the Bengals on a nine-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in a go-ahead TD by HB Joe Mixon with 1:18 to play, but Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger countered with a seven-play, 77-yard drive of his own in the waning moments, capped by a 31-yard TD by WR Antonio Brown that gave Pittsburgh its sixth straight win in Cincinnati. The Bengals' defense was hit hard by injuries during the game, as S Shawn Williams (concussion), CB Darqueze Dennard (shoulder) and LB Nick Vigil (knee) all left the contest and did not return, while several other defenders missed time. The Steelers took advantage, totaling 481 yards behind a 100-yard rusher in RB James Conner and two 100-yard receivers in Brown and WR JuJu Smith-Schuster. The Bengals' offense, which was without C Billy Price (foot), TE Tyler Kroft (foot), WR John Ross (groin) and HB Giovanni Bernard (knee), was led by Dalton (92.3 passer rating) and Pittsburgh native Tyler Boyd, who recorded the first two-TD game of his career. The contest also marked the first time in 98 Bengals-Steelers meetings (including postseason) that neither team committed a turnover. Late in the game, Dalton moved into second place on the Bengals' all-time passing yardage list, ahead of QB Boomer Esiason (27,149), and P Kevin Huber took over the Bengals' career lead in punting yards, ahead of P Lee Johnson (32,196). The Bengals fell to 4-2, while the Steelers improved to 3-2-1.

WEEK 7, GAME 7

Kansas City Chiefs 45, Cincinnati Bengals 10

Sunday night, Oct. 21, 2018 at Arrowhead Stadium

Few doubted that defeating the Chiefs at Arrowhead would be challenging, particularly with respect to holding Kansas City's offense in check, and that definitely proved to be the case in the contest, which was flexed from 1 p.m. into the Sunday night primetime spot. The Chiefs rolled for 551 yards of offense against the Bengals, the most by a Cincinnati opponent since Cleveland totaled 554 in a 51-45 Browns win at Cleveland Browns Stadium in Game 2 of the 2007 season. QB Patrick Mahomes completed 28 of 39 passes for 358 yards, four TDs and one INT for a 123.7 passer rating for the Chiefs, who totaled 33 first downs and did not punt in the game. The Chiefs also had 198 yards rushing, including 45 by Mahomes. Cincinnati's offense was unable to sustain drives against Kansas City. The Bengals totaled just 239 yards — their lowest output of the season — and had just one drive longer than 50 yards. The 35-point losing margin was Cincinnati's largest since the team lost 37-0 to the N.Y. Jets at The Meadowlands in the 2009 season finale, and the Chiefs' 45 points were the most scored against the Bengals since the Buffalo Bills won 49-31 at Paul Brown Stadium in Game 10 of the 2010 season. The Bengals fell to 4-3, while the Chiefs improved to 5-1.

Sunday, Oct. 28, 2018 at Paul Brown Stadium

Bengals QB Andy Dalton led an eight-play, 50-yard drive in the final minute that ended with a FG on the game's final play for the win. Cincinnati had leads of 21-0, 27-9 and 34-16 in the first three quarters before Tampa Bay benched QB Jameis Winston after his fourth INT, a pick-six to Bengals S Jessie Bates. Backup QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, a former Bengal, replaced Winston and led the Bucs to 18 unanswered points to tie the game 34-34 with 1:05 left before the Bengals' final march. Dalton completed 21 of 34 passes for 280 yards, two TDs and a 107.5 passer rating, while HB Joe Mixon rushed for 123 yards and two TDs on 21 carries. WEEK 10, GAME 9

New Orleans Saints 51, Cincinnati Bengals 14
Sunday, Nov. 11, 2018 at Paul Brown Stadium

New Orleans rolled for 509 net yards, including 244 net yards rushing, in the disappointing home loss for Cincinnati. Saints QB Drew Brees played a near perfect game, completing 22 of 25 passes for 265 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions for a 150.4 passer rating, and the Saints scored on their first nine possessions. The Bengals played without five starters who were inactive due to injuries, including WR A.J. Green (toe). It was the third straight game in which the Bengals had given up more than 500 yards, an NFL first. The Bengals fell to 5-4, while the Saints improved to 8-1 with the win, their eighth straight.
