WEEKLY NEWS RELEASE SEPT. 29, 2026

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-1) AT CINCINNATI BENGALS (2-1)

WEEK 4, GAME 4
SUNDAY, OCT. 4
AT PAYCOR STADIUM

NEXT GAME: WEEK 5, GAME 5
OCT. 11 AT MIAMI

GAME INFORMATION

Kickoff: 1 p.m. Eastern.

Television: The game will air on CBS-TV. In the Bengals' home region, it will be carried by WKRC-TV (Ch. 12) in Cincinnati, WHIO-TV (Ch. 7) in Dayton and WKYT-TV (Ch. 27) in Lexington. Broadcasters are Tom McCarthy (play-by-play), Robert Turbin (analyst) and Tiffany Blackmon (sideline reporter).

Radio: The game will air on the Bengals Radio Network, led by Cincinnati flagship radio stations WLW-AM (700), WCKY-AM (1530) and WEBN-FM (102.7). Broadcasters are Dan Hoard (play-by-play), Dave Lapham (analyst) and Tony Pike (analyst).

Setting the scene: The Bengals look to bounce back from their first loss of the season when they host the Jacksonville Jaguars at Paycor Stadium on Sunday.

Cincinnati moved to 2-1 following a 30-27 road loss at Pittsburgh in Week 3. After the teams traded leads throughout the second half, the Bengals took over possession ahead of the two-minute warning trailing by three. QB Joe Burrow led the offense across midfield as the clock ticked under a minute remaining, but a strip-sack and recovery by the Steelers ended the Bengals' late comeback effort.

"It's disappointing," said head coach Zac Taylor after the loss. "We wanted to be 3-0. We put in a good week's work and had our opportunities. I think anytime you lose a game like that, when you had your opportunities — some games, you just go get your butt kicked and there's not much to say about it. This one, we had our chances. Pittsburgh took advantage of theirs and we didn't take advantage of ours."

Prior to the late-game turnover, Cincinnati's offense had put together perhaps its best performance of the young season. Burrow registered season highs in completions (28), completion percentage (75.7), passing yards (282), TD passes (three) and passer rating (123.9). His Pro Bowl duo at wide receiver, Ja'Marr Chase and Tee Higgins, each finished with over 90 receiving yards and a TD catch. The offensive line did not yield a sack until the game-ending fumble, and opened holes for a Bengals rushing attack that averaged 4.6 yards per carry.

The retooled Cincinnati defense will aim for a showing more indicative of its first two weeks, when it allowed just two total TDs and held opponents out of the end zone on six of eight red zone appearances. After giving up 411 total yards to the Steelers, including 138 on the ground, the Bengals' defensive leaders projected confidence that their level of play will rise to meet a talented Jaguars offense.

"I know who we are," said DT Dexter Lawrence II, who recorded his first two sacks as a member of the Bengals in Week 3. "I know the men we have in here. I have no doubt that we're going to come to practice next week, be locked in, eliminate mistakes and correct the ones we made."

Lawrence is the nucleus of an offseason defensive overhaul for Cincinnati, with free agent signees such as DT Jonathan Allen, DE Boye Mafe and S Bryan Cook all showing flashes through their first three games in Bengals stripes. The team ranks in the top 10 in the NFL in sacks (10; tied for fourth), takeaways (five; tied for eighth), and rushing yards allowed (95.7 per game; ninth).

Heading into another AFC matchup against a team with playoff aspirations, Taylor expressed that he looks forward to seeing how his team responds from its first taste of adversity in 2026.

"We had good momentum after two games," he said. "We lost a tough one on the road. It hurts, because you feel like you had every opportunity to win it and we didn't do it. Now, we go home and see what we're made of next week."

Taylor, Burrow and the Bengals' offense get set to face a Jacksonville defense that has allowed a league-low 12.0 points per game through the first three weeks. The Jaguars are coming off a dominant 35-6 victory over New England in which they forced three turnovers and kept the Patriots out of the end zone. Cincinnati and Jacksonville met at Paycor Stadium in Week 2 of last season, a highlight-filled contest in which the Bengals scored in the final minute to come away with a 31-27 win.

The series: The series is tied 13-13 overall, but the Bengals have won four meetings in a row and eight of the last 10. The Bengals lead 9-5 overall in games played in Cincinnati.

The Bengals won the most recent meeting, 31-27 last season on Sept. 14 at Paycor Stadium.

The Bengals and Jaguars were rivals in the AFC Central Division from 1995 through 2001, playing twice each season. This week's game is their 13th meeting since the 2002 realignment that put Cincinnati in the AFC North and Jacksonville in the AFC South. The Bengals hold an 8-4 series edge since the realignment.

Team bests from the series:

Uniform watch: Cincinnati will wear black jerseys, black pants (orange stripes) and orange socks this week against Jacksonville. The Bengals have worn this combination seven previous times since their uniform redesign in 2021, compiling a 5-2 record in those contests. They last featured this look in Week 17 of last season against Arizona.

The Bengals' redesign in 2021 marked the team's first significant change in uniform since '04. There are three different color options for the current jerseys — black, white and orange. The pants feature four options — black with orange stripes, white with orange stripes, white with black stripes, and orange with black stripes. Options for sock color include black, white and orange.

In 2022, with the league's approval for the use of alternate helmets, Cincinnati introduced a new white helmet with its iconic black stripes. When paired with white jerseys and white pants (with black stripes), a new uniform combination was created and was branded as the "White Bengal." The team has worn the white helmet six times and collected a 5-1 record in those games. The Bengals announced they will don the white helmet twice this season, in Week 10 against Pittsburgh on Sunday Night Football and in Week 17 against Baltimore on Thursday Night Football (both home games).

Here are the Bengals' records in every possible uniform combination (regular season and postseason only) since the team redesigned the uniform in 2021:

 — The league permitted teams to create alternate helmets for the 2022 season. However, teams were required to wear those alternate helmets only with alternate, throwback or color rush uniforms (CR) that season. The Bengals donned their new alternate white helmet in 2022 with their color rush jersey, which at the time had not been worn since '20, prior to the '21 primary uniform redesign. In 2023 and thereafter, the Bengals were permitted to wear their alternate white helmet with their primary white jersey.*

^ — NFL rules allow teams to wear designated alternate and/or throwback and/or color rush uniforms for a combined total of three regular-season games. The Bengals' designated alternate uniform includes the team's orange jersey. The Bengals do not have a throwback uniform.

+ — The Bengals added orange pants with black stripes to their uniform lineup in 2024.

Bengals career records watch: As the Bengals continue the 2026 season, here is a look at potential upcoming movement on the team's career records lists (regular season):

● QB Joe Burrow has 2909 career passing attempts, which are the fifth-most in team history and 308 shy of QB Carson Palmer (3217) for fourth-most. QBs Ken Anderson (4475), Andy Dalton (4449) and Boomer Esiason (3564) hold the top three spots on the team's career list.

● Burrow has completed 1994 career passes, the fifth-most in team history and 21 shy of Esiason (2015) for fourth. Dalton (2757), Anderson (2654) and Palmer (2024) hold the top three spots.

● Burrow has 21,553 career passing yards, the fifth-most in team history and 1141 shy of Palmer (22,694) for fourth. Anderson (32,838), Dalton (31,594) and Esiason (27,149) hold the top three spots.

● Burrow has 163 career TD passes, fourth-most in team history and 24 shy of Esiason (187) for third. Dalton (204) and Anderson (197) hold the top two spots.

● Burrow has 28 career games with 300 or more passing yards, which are tied with Dalton for the team's all-time record.

● WR Ja'Marr Chase in Week 3 at Pittsburgh had nine receptions, improving his career receptions total to 538. That surpassed WR Carl Pickens (530) for third-most in team history. WRs Chad Johnson (751) and A.J. Green (649) hold the top two spots.

● Chase has 7022 career receiving yards, the fourth-most in team history and 79 shy of WR Isaac Curtis (7101) for third. Johnson (10,783) and Green (9430) hold the top two spots. Chase in Week 2 surpassed Pickens (6887) for fourth.

● Chase has 57 career receiving TDs, the fourth-most in team history and six shy of Pickens (63) for third. Johnson (66) and Green (65) are the top two.

● Chase has 26 career games with 100 or more receiving yards, the third-most in team history and five shy of Johnson (31) for second. Green (33) has the team record for most such games.

● WR Tee Higgins has 46 career receiving TDs, the sixth-most in team history and seven shy of Curtis (53) for fifth.

● K Evan McPherson has accounted for 593 career points, the fifth-most in team history and 67 shy of fourth-most, which is held by K Doug Pelfrey (660).

● McPherson has made 127 career FGs, the fifth-most in team history and 26 shy of Pelfrey (153) for fourth. McPherson in Week 1 surpassed K Horst Muhlmann (120) for fifth.

● McPherson has 212 career made PATs, the fourth-most in team history and 35 shy of K Mike Nugent (247) for third. Kickers Jim Breech (476) and Shayne Graham (248) hold the top two spots.

Records vs. Jaguars: The following individual and team regular-season Bengals and Jaguars entries are logged in Cincinnati's team record book:

● The mark for most receptions the Bengals have given up in a single game to a single receiver was set on Jan. 2, 2000 in Jacksonville, when Jimmy Smith hauled in 14 catches for 165 yards (since tied).

● On Dec. 9, 2001 at Paul Brown Stadium, the Bengals tied the club record with eight sacks, all against Jacksonville's Mark Brunell. Cincinnati's only other eight-sack game was at Pittsburgh on Oct. 16, 1994.

Individually vs. Jaguars: Here are career regular-season offensive statistics for current Bengals players in Cincinnati games against Jacksonville (ordered by total games played):

● TE Drew Sample: Five games; Six receptions for 68 yards (11.3).

● QB Joe Burrow: Three games; 63-of-75 passing (84.0 percent) for 724 yards, four TDs and one INT (119.1 rating); Seven rushes for 15 yards (2.1).

● WR Ja'Marr Chase: Three games; 31 receptions for 391 yards (12.6) and two TDs; 1-of-1 passing for minus-seven yards.

● WR Tee Higgins: Three games; 10 receptions for 169 yards (16.9) and one TD; one rush for 13 yards.

● HB Chase Brown: Two games; 25 rushes for 108 yards (4.3); Two receptions for 18 yards (9.0).

● TE Tanner Hudson: Two games; Four receptions for 35 yards (8.8).

● WR Andrei Iosivas (Reserve/Injured): Two games; One reception for 12 yards.

THE HEAD COACHES

Zac Taylor was named the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019. The 2026 season is his eighth in the position.

In 2025, Taylor once again orchestrated an offense which ranked near the top of the NFL in several metrics, including sixth in net passing yards per game (235.6), fifth in third-down efficiency (43.4 percent) and second in red zone TD percentage (66.7). After QB Joe Burrow sustained a toe injury early in the year that ultimately caused him to miss nine games, the team acquired QB Joe Flacco in a trade with Cleveland, and Taylor helped the 18th-year veteran quickly assimilate in his system. Over his six starts for the Bengals, Flacco ranked second leaguewide in completions (154) and fifth in passing yards (1636). With Burrow behind center for the final six weeks of the regular season, Taylor guided Cincinnati to top-10 league rankings in scoring (sixth; 27.7 points) and total yards (fourth; 369.7). Taylor also again helped WR Ja'Marr Chase compile an All-Pro season in 2025, as the fifth-year standout finished third in the NFL in receptions (125) and fourth in receiving yards (1412). Chase's running mate, sixth-year WR Tee Higgins, tied for second in the league with a career-high 11 receiving TDs. Taylor additionally continued to expand third-year HB Chase Brown's role in the offense, as he posted his first career 1000-yard rushing season and had a career-high 69 catches for 437 yards. The 2025 campaign also saw Taylor work with first-year defensive coordinator Al Golden as Cincinnati improved in nearly every statistical metric in the second half of the season compared to the first. Following the team's Week 10 bye, the Bengals tied for fifth in the NFL in takeaways (12) and tied for seventh in sacks (22).

In 2024, Taylor guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season with a record of 9-8. After falling to 4-8 in early December, he led Cincinnati to five straight wins to vault back into the AFC playoff picture. He oversaw one of the NFL's most dynamic offenses, serving as play-caller for a unit that led the league in passing yards (272.9) and ranked sixth in scoring (27.8). Burrow set numerous single-season Bengals records and led all NFL QBs in passing yards (4918) and TD passes (43), while Chase became the youngest player in the Super Bowl era to win the receiving "Triple Crown," as he paced the league in catches (127), receiving yards (1708) and TD catches (17). The individual performances earned Burrow his second career Pro Bowl nod and the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year award, while Chase was named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

In 2023, Taylor led Cincinnati to a 9-8 mark despite a few key players missing time due to injuries. In 2021 and '22, he led the Bengals to back-to-back AFC North titles, marking the first time in team history Cincinnati won its division in consecutive years.

The 2021 division title was the Bengals' first in six years. The team went on to win three postseason games and claim the AFC Championship (Cincinnati's first since 1988) and a berth in Super Bowl LVI. Burrow, playing in his first full season in Taylor's system, was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year after leading the league in completion percentage (70.4), while Chase took home Offensive Rookie of the Year honors after posting the most receiving yards by a rookie in the Super Bowl era (1455, since surpassed).

In 2022, the Bengals made a repeat appearance in the AFC Championship. After entering November with a 4-4 record, Taylor helped Cincinnati tie team regular-season records for consecutive wins (eight) and total wins (12) to earn the No. 3 seed in the AFC playoffs. Offensively, the Bengals ranked fifth in the NFL in passing (265.0) and seventh in scoring (26.1), while defensively Cincinnati held opposing passers to a league-low 59.8 completion percentage. After the 2022 postseason, Taylor's postseason record improved to 5-2.

In the postseason, Taylor guided Cincinnati to its first playoff win in 31 years, a home Wild Card victory over Las Vegas, before the team went on the road to defeat the AFC's top two seeds, Tennessee and Kansas City.

Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2017 and quarterbacks coach in '18. He broke into NFL coaching with Miami as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2012, then was elevated to quarterbacks coach for the Dolphins from 2013-15.

Taylor had two stints in the college coaching ranks, serving on staff at Texas A&M (2008-11) and Cincinnati (2016). At UC, he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Taylor played QB at Wake Forest (2002-03), Butler County (Kan.) C.C. (2004) and Nebraska (2005-06). In 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year and led the Cornhuskers to an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017. He joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp. He then spent the 2007 season with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League (did not play).

Taylor was born on May 10, 1983, in Norman, Okla. He graduated from Nebraska in 2006 with a degree in communication studies. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman. Taylor's father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at Oklahoma (1976-79), then later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State. Taylor's younger brother, Press, played QB at Marshall and currently is the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears.

Liam Coen was named the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars on Jan. 24, 2025 and is in his second season in Jacksonville.

Coen's Jaguars went 13-4 in his first campaign — the most wins by an AFC South team since 2009 — and secured the fifth division title in franchise history. The Jaguars were one of just four teams to rank among the NFL's top 10 in both points scored (sixth, franchise-record 27.9 per game) and points allowed (eighth, 19.8). Jacksonville also finished fourth in the NFL in point differential (plus-138).

Under Coen, the Jaguars' offense set several franchise records, including points scored (474), touchdowns scored (55), points per game (27.9) and first downs (356). Defensively, Jacksonville in 2025 led the NFL in run defense (85.6 yards per game) and ranked second in takeaways with 31. The Jaguars' plus-13 turnover margin was third in the NFL. Jacksonville also became the only team in NFL history to have 30-plus takeaways one year after having fewer than 10 the season prior (31 in 2025; eight in '24).

Coen and the Jaguars finished with five wins against opponents that qualified for the 2025 NFL Playoffs, the second most such wins in the league. Jacksonville's six road victories in 2025 tied for second most in franchise history and tied for fourth in the NFL. Following the season, he was recognized as a finalist for Coach of the Year.

Coen arrived in Jacksonville after spending one season as the offensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2024). In his lone season in Tampa Bay, Coen led the NFL's only offense that finished in the top five in yards per game (399.6), scoring (29.5), passing yards per game (250.4) and rushing yards per game (149.2). Under Coen's direction, the Buccaneers became the first team in NFL history to complete 70 percent of their passes and average over 5.0 yards per carry throughout an entire season, in addition to becoming just the second team in league history with 40-plus passing TDs and 5.0-plus yards per rush in a single season.

Coen took 15 years of coaching experience to Jacksonville, including five years in the NFL. Before his stint with Tampa Bay, Coen served as the offensive coordinator and QBs coach at the University of Kentucky for the 2023 and '21 seasons, during which he put forth two of the highest-scoring single seasons in school history. The 2021 Wildcats team amassed 56 total TDs, while the '23 Wildcats team scored 50 total TDs.

Prior to his most recent stint with the Wildcats, Coen was the Rams' offensive coordinator in 2022 after spending time as the club's assistant QBs coach ('20) and assistant WRs coach ('18-19). Coen contributed to an offense that ranked among league leaders across those seasons in passing yards per game (248.1; sixth), third-down conversion rate (41.9 percent; eighth), and rushing TDs (77; fourth).

Prior to his time with the Rams, Coen spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the University of Maine (2016-17). He went to the University of Maine from the University of Massachusetts (2014-15), where he had served as the QBs coach and passing game coordinator. Coen also spent three years as the QBs coach at Brown University (2010, '12-13) and one year as the QBs coach and passing game coordinator at the University of Rhode Island ('11).

Prior to his coaching career, Coen played QB at the University of Massachusetts (2005-08), where he holds program records for completions (830), attempts (1302), completion percentage (63.7 percent), passing yards (11,031), yards per attempt (8.5), passing TDs (50) and passer rating (150.7). He graduated in 2008 with a degree in communications.

Coen was born Nov. 8, 1985. A native of Wakefield, R.I., Coen and his wife Ashley have two sons, Jackson and Callahan.

Taylor vs. Jaguars: The Bengals lead, 5-1.

Taylor vs. Coen: Taylor leads, 1-0.

Coen vs. Bengals: The Bengals lead, 1-0.

BENGALS NOTES

2026 coaching staff: Head coach Zac Taylor retained nearly the entire coaching staff from the 2025 season, with several assistant coaches on both sides of the ball receiving title changes. The lone addition to the staff during the offseason was Davis Koetter, who was hired as assistant wide receivers coach in February. Koetter spent the 2025 campaign as assistant quarterbacks coach at the University of South Carolina, following two years ('23-24) on staff at the University of Texas.

Four coaches received updated titles during the offseason, including James Casey, who now has the additional title of run game coordinator in addition to his existing role as tight ends coach. Jordan Salkin now serves as assistant QBs coach, after being in the role of assistant WRs coach in 2025. Ronnie Regula was promoted to assistant linebackers coach after previously serving as defensive assistant, while Mike Moon was promoted to assistant defensive line coach after also previously serving as defensive assistant.

Here is a look at the Bengals' entire 2026 coaching staff:

HEAD COACH:

- Zac Taylor

- Diamond Simmons (assistant strength and conditioning)
- Garrett Swanson (assistant strength and conditioning)
- Troy Walters (wide receivers)

OPERATIONS:

- Doug Rosfeld (chief of coaching staff)

2026 Bengals captains: The Bengals this season are led by seven captains who were elected via a players-only vote. Wearing the captains' patch are three offensive players, three defensive players and one special teams representative.

The offensive captains are seventh-year QB Joe Burrow, sixth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase and 11th-year C Ted Karras. Burrow (2020-present) and Karras ('22-present) both have been captains every season they have played for the Bengals. This marks the sixth captaincy overall for Karras, who also wore the patch for the Miami Dolphins in 2020. Chase receives the role for the second straight season, after being recognized for the first time in his career in 2025.

The defensive captains are fifth-year S Bryan Cook, eighth-year DT Dexter Lawrence II and fourth-year CB DJ Turner II. Cook and Turner are serving as captains for the first time in their respective careers, while Lawrence holds the role for a fifth time after being voted a captain in each of the past four seasons while with the N.Y. Giants.

Sixth-year K Evan McPherson was voted a captain on special teams for the second time in his career. He previously served as a captain in the 2024 season.

2026 schedule notes: In addition to their six games against teams in the AFC North Division, the Bengals are slated to face all teams in the AFC South and NFC South in 2026.

Cincinnati also will play two games — on the road against Miami (Week 5) and at home against Kansas City (Week 14) — that were determined by divisional standings in the 2025 season. As third-place finishers in the AFC North, the Bengals are matched up against the third-place teams from the AFC East (Dolphins) and AFC West (Chiefs).

In 2021, the NFL added a 17th game to the regular-season schedule, and for Cincinnati in '26 that will be a road contest against Washington on Monday Night Football in Week 11. The additional game each year features an interconference matchup and is based on the prior season's standings on a rotating four-year cycle. These contests match a first-place team from one division with a first-place team in an opposite-conference division that the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second, third and fourth-place finishers in each division are matched the same way. The home conference for this game alternates each season, with the NFC hosting the game in 2026. The Bengals have won this matchup in each of the past three seasons.

For the second time in team history, Cincinnati is scheduled to face all three Florida-based teams in the same season, and each matchup will take place before mid-October. The Bengals defeated Tampa Bay in their Week 1 opener, will take on Jacksonville this week at Paycor Stadium, then travel to Miami in Week 5. The only other instance in team history in which all three Florida teams were on the schedule was 1995 — the Jaguars' inaugural season.

The Bengals' bye week in 2026 falls in Week 6, which marks the team's earliest bye since 2017 (also Week 6).

Here are Cincinnati's opponents in 2026, ordered by the date of the game:

HOME: Tampa Bay, Jacksonville, Tennessee, Pittsburgh, New Orleans, Kansas City, Baltimore, Cleveland.

AWAY: Houston, Pittsburgh, Miami, Baltimore, Atlanta (Madrid), Washington, Cleveland, Carolina, Indianapolis.

Bengals travel to Madrid in Week 9: The Bengals will go abroad for the third time in team history when they take on the Atlanta Falcons in Madrid, Spain as part of the NFL's 2026 International Games. The game, which officially counts as a road contest for Cincinnati, will be played on Sunday, Nov. 8 (Week 9) at Bernabéu Stadium, the home of historic soccer club Real Madrid.

The Bengals' two previous international games both were played in London at Wembley Stadium, as they faced Washington in the 2016 season and the L.A. Rams in '19. Both of those contests counted as home games for Cincinnati.

Madrid hosted its first NFL game in Week 11 of last season, when Miami defeated Washington in overtime. This year's Madrid game is one of nine international games to be played in 2026 across four continents, seven countries and eight stadiums.

Burrow nears 2K: QB Joe Burrow enters this week with 1994 career completions in 80 regular-season games played. With six completions against Jacksonville, in what will be his 81st game, he would tie Kansas City's Patrick Mahomes as the fastest QBs in NFL history to reach 2000.

Burrow's completion total to this point is the most in league history through a player's first 80 games, nine more than Mahomes in his first 80 contests (1985). Burrow previously was the second-fastest QB ever to reach 1500 completions (61 games), trailing only L.A. Chargers QB Justin Herbert (57). He also tied for the second-fastest to reach 1000 completions (41 games).

Looking beyond the 2000-completion milestone, Burrow also has a chance to catch a pair of Bengals former QBs on the franchise's all-time chart. He is 21 completions shy of tying Boomer Esiason (2015) for the fourth-most in team history, and 30 away from Carson Palmer (2024) for third.

On the mark: QB Joe Burrow, now in his seventh pro season, holds the NFL record for career completion percentage at 68.55 percent (minimum 1500 passing attempts). He has completed 1994 of 2909 passes for 21,553 yards (7.4 yards per attempt), with 163 TDs and 52 INTs.

Over his first six seasons (2020-25), Burrow compiled 28 games with a completion percentage of 70 or higher on at least 30 attempts. That marked the most such games in a player's first six years in NFL history, with the next closest being Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (25 games). He has since increased that total to 30 games early in the 2026 season, going 25 of 35 (71.4 percent) in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay, and 28 of 37 (75.7) in Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

Burrow started off last week's game against the Steelers by connecting on each of his first 14 passing attempts. It marked the second-most passes without an incompletion to begin a game in his career, behind 15 completions out of the gate in Week 9 of the 2024 season against Las Vegas. It also was the most consecutive completions to start a game by any NFL QB since Week 9 of 2025, when Seattle QB Sam Darnold completed his first 17 passes and San Francisco QB Mac Jones hit his first 14.

Burrow has ranked in the top five in the NFL in completion percentage in three of his first six seasons, as he led the league in 2021 with a 70.4 percentage, ranked second in '22 (68.3) and fourth in '24 (70.6). His official clip of 70.552 percent in 2024 set a Bengals single-season record, narrowly edging out QB Ken Anderson's completion rate of 70.550 in 1982.

Here is a look at the all-time leaders in career completion percentage (min. 1500 attempts):

PLAYER	TEAM(S)	YEARS	COMP. %
Joe Burrow	Cincinnati	2020-26	68.55
Tua Tagovailoa	Miami	2020-25	68.03
Drew Brees	San Diego/New Orleans	2001-20	67.69
Jimmy Garoppolo	New England/San Francisco/ Las Vegas/L.A. Rams	2014-25	67.36
Kyler Murray	Arizona/Minnesota	2019-26	66.96

Burrow among his peers: QB Joe Burrow has ranked near the top of the league in virtually every passing category since entering the NFL as the No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 draft. Here is a look at where he stands among all QBs since the start of his rookie campaign:

- Second in completion percentage (68.55; minimum 900 passing attempts)
- Third in passer rating (101.3; min. 900 att.)
- Sixth in completions (1994)
- Seventh in passing yards (21,553)
- Seventh in TD passes (163)

Joe hits career milestones in '25: QB Joe Burrow returned from a toe injury in late November of 2025 and started each of the Bengals' final six contests. During that stretch, he led the NFL in completions (152), was tied for second in TD passes (15), ranked third in passing yards (1620), fifth in completion percentage (68.2) and fifth in passer rating (102.2). Perhaps the most memorable performance over that span came in Week 16 at Miami, when he played in his 75th career regular-season game and reached a pair of passing milestones.

Early in the first quarter of the Dolphins game, Burrow eclipsed 20,000 career passing yards when he connected on a 35-yard pass to WR Tee Higgins. His 75 games needed to reach that mark were the fifth-fewest in NFL history, trailing only Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes (67 games), former Detroit QB Matthew Stafford (71), former Miami QB Dan Marino (74) and former Indianapolis QB Andrew Luck (74). In the third quarter of the win over Miami, Burrow threw his 150th career TD pass when he hit HB Chase Brown for a nine-yard score. He became the third-fastest QB in league history to reach 150 passing TDs, trailing Marino (62 games) and Mahomes (63).

Burrow finished the Dolphins game with 25 completions on 32 attempts (78.1 percent) for 309 yards and four TDs with no INTs. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the eighth time in his career, and his passer rating of 146.5 was the second-highest he has ever posted.

Burrow's career completions total following the Miami contest was 1868, the most in NFL history by a player through their first 75 games.

Joe to Ja'Marr: QB Joe Burrow and WR Ja'Marr Chase, who helped steer Louisiana State to a national title in 2019 before becoming teammates on the Bengals in '21, now are in their sixth NFL season together. They have connected for 51 TDs at the pro level, including three this season.

Burrow, who is 29 years old, and Chase, who is 26, are one of four duos in NFL history to reach 50 TD passes by a QB and receiver both under the age of 30. They joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dan Marino and Mark Clayton (65 TDs with Miami), John Hadl and Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (53 TDs with San Diego Chargers) and Daunte Culpepper and HOF Randy Moss (53 TDs with Minnesota).

Burrow and Chase's 51 TDs also are the most by any QB-WR duo since the start of the 2021 season, four ahead of Detroit QB Jared Goff and WR Amon-Ra St. Brown (47). Per the NFL's Next Gen Stats service, 20 of Burrow's TD throws to Chase have been deep passes (20 or more air yards), the most by any duo since 2021.

Chasing history: With 98 receiving yards in Week 3 at Pittsburgh, WR Ja'Marr Chase improved his career receiving yardage total to 7022. Playing in his 81st regular-season game, he became the fourth-fastest player in NFL history to reach 7000 receiving yards, trailing Pro Football Hall of Famer Lance Alworth (72 games), former Atlanta WR Julio Jones (72) and Minnesota WR Justin Jefferson (73).

Chase also finished with nine catches against the Steelers, boosting his career receptions total to 538. He surpassed former WR Carl Pickens (530) for the third-most catches in Bengals history, and now trails only Chad Johnson (751) and A.J. Green (649) on the franchise's all-time list.

Since the start of his 2021 rookie season, Chase is tied for the most TD catches in the NFL (57), while ranking second both in receptions and receiving yards. He averages 86.7 receiving yards per game in his career (7022 yards in 81 games), the third-highest mark in league history behind L.A. Rams WR Puka Nacua (94.8) and Jefferson (89.3).

Chase's production from 2021-25 rivaled some of the NFL's all-time greats in the early stages of their respective careers. He is the only player in league history with at least 500 receptions for 50 receiving TDs in his first five seasons, and he is one of five players ever to begin his career with five straight 1000-yard seasons. The players who accomplished that feat before Chase were Hall of Famer Randy Moss, former Cincinnati WR A.J. Green, former Tampa Bay WR Mike Evans and Jefferson.

Chase was voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his first five seasons, joining Green as the only players to accomplish that feat in their Bengals career. He is one of six players in team history with five or more Pro Bowl selections overall, alongside OT Anthony Munoz (11 Pro Bowls), DT Geno Atkins (eight), Green (seven), Johnson (six) and CB Lemar Parrish (six).

In the 2024 campaign, Chase became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era — and the youngest — to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," as he led the NFL in receptions (127; Bengals single-season record), yards (1708; Bengals record) and TDs (17; tied Bengals record). He was voted a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in both the 2024 and '25 seasons, becoming the fourth Bengals offensive player to receive multiple All-Pro honors in his career. The other players to do so have all been inducted into the team's Ring of Honor — OT Anthony Munoz (nine All-Pro selections), OT Willie Anderson (three) and WR Chad Johnson (two).

Always open: After leading the NFL with a Bengals-record 127 receptions in 2024, WR Ja'Marr Chase followed up with 125 catches in '25, which ranked third in the league and second in team history. He became the third player in NFL history with at least 125 receptions in consecutive seasons, joining former Pittsburgh WR Antonio Brown (2014-15) and former New Orleans WR Michael Thomas ('18-19).

Chase totaled 10 or more catches five times during the 2025 season, including a stretch of three straight contests from Weeks 6-8. He brought in 10 receptions in Week 6 at Green Bay, had a Bengals-record 16 in Week 7 vs. Pittsburgh just four days later, then logged 12 in Week 8 vs. the N.Y. Jets. He became the first player in team history to register double-digit catches in three consecutive games.

Chase's 16 catches against the Steelers broke his own previous Bengals single-game record of 15 receptions, which he amassed in Week 5 of the 2023 season at Arizona. He now owns the four highest single-game reception totals in team history.

Chase's four career games with 14 or more catches are tied with Brown for the second-most in NFL history. Former L.A. Chargers/Chicago and current Indianapolis WR Keenan Allen holds the record with six such career games.

1+5=6: WR Ja'Marr Chase is tied for the NFL lead with 28 receiving TDs since the start of the 2024 season, with a Bengals-record 17 in the '24 campaign (led NFL), eight in '25 and three so far in '26. Not far behind him in that category is teammate Tee Higgins, whose 22 total TD catches in that span are tied for fourth leaguewide. Higgins caught 10 scoring passes in 2024 (tied for sixth in NFL), then set a career high with 11 last season (tied for second).

Chase and Higgins each caught a TD pass from QB Joe Burrow in Cincinnati's Week 3 contest at Pittsburgh. It marked the 13th time since the start of the 2021 season in which both players had a receiving TD in the same game. That is the most such games by any NFL duo in that span. It also extended their franchise record, with the next closest Bengals tandem being former WR A.J. Green and former TE Jermaine Gresham (10 games).

Chase and Higgins' 46 combined TD grabs from 2024-25 marked the most by any duo over a span of two seasons since 2013-14, when Denver WR Demaryius Thomas and TE Julius Thomas teamed up for 49.

Chase's 57 career receiving TDs are tied with current L.A. Rams WR Davante Adams for the most in the NFL since the start of his 2021 rookie season. It also is the fourth-most TD catches in Bengals history, and just nine shy of WR Chad Johnson's team record of 66.

Higgins is the third player in Bengals history with double-digit receiving TDs in consecutive seasons, joining former WRs Carl Pickens (1994-96) and A.J. Green (2012-13). He currently has 46 career TD catches, which are the sixth-most in team history and the 10th-most in the NFL since he entered the league as a second-round draft pick of Cincinnati in 2020.

Here are the league leaders in receiving TDs since 2024:

PLAYER	TEAM	RECEIVING TDs SINCE '24
Ja'Marr Chase	Cincinnati Bengals	28
Amon-Ra St. Brown	Detroit Lions	28
Davante Adams	Las Vegas/N.Y. Jets/L.A. Rams	24
Tee Higgins	Cincinnati Bengals	22
Jaxon Smith-Njigba	Seattle Seahawks	22

Brown does it all: Fourth-year HB Chase Brown took over the role as the Bengals' primary ball carrier midway through the 2024 season, and over the past two-plus years he has emerged as one of the NFL's most versatile threats. In 2025, he totaled 232 rushing attempts and 69 receptions for 1456 yards from scrimmage, the ninth-most among all running backs.

Brown in 2025 eclipsed the 1000-yard rushing mark for the first time in his career (1019), and set a career high with 437 receiving yards. He was one of five players leaguewide with at least 1000 yards on the ground and 400 through the air, alongside Miami RB De'Von Achane, Detroit RB Jahmyr Gibbs, San Francisco RB Christian McCaffrey and Atlanta RB Bijan Robinson. Brown's 69 catches also were the most ever in a season by a Bengals player listed as an RB/HB/FB, surpassing Joe Mixon's 60 receptions in 2022.

Brown totaled 100 or more yards from scrimmage in eight games in 2025, highlighted by a streak of six consecutive games from Weeks 7-13. That marked the longest such streak in Bengals history, and tied for the second-longest in the NFL in 2025 behind a seven-game stretch by McCaffrey (Weeks 1-7).

Brown additionally tied his career high with 11 total TDs in 2025 (six rushing, five receiving), matching his total from the '24 campaign. He became the first Bengals running back with double-digit TDs in consecutive seasons since HB Rudi Johnson (2004-06).

Brown's 1456 scrimmage yards also marked the most in a season by a Canadian-born player in NFL history. A native of London, Ontario, he was a fifth-round draft choice of the Bengals out of the University of Illinois in 2023.

Through three games in 2026, Brown has 49 carries for 197 yards and a TD to go along with 10 catches for 32 yards. He churned out a season-high 80 rushing yards on 20 attempts in Week 2 against a Texans defense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game last season (93.7). He followed that up with 4.7 yards per carry (61 on 13) in Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

Defense on sack spree: The Bengals have recorded 10 sacks through the first three weeks of this season, tied for fourth in the NFL. Cincinnati logged four sacks in its season-opening win over Tampa Bay, four in its Week 2 victory at Houston and two the following game at Pittsburgh.

Eight players have gotten in the sack column, including DT Dexter Lawrence II, who notched his first two sacks as a member of the Bengals in the fourth quarter against the Steelers. DT Jonathan Allen posted a sack in each of the first two games, while DE Cedric Johnson had his first career multi-sack game against Houston. DE Boye Mafe, DE Shemar Stewart and DT Kris Jenkins Jr. each have been credited with a full sack, while DE Myles Murphy and LB Barrett Carter split a sack against the Buccaneers.

Though the new-look Bengals defensive line has contributed to an overall improved pass rush, Cincinnati has been among the NFL leaders in sacks dating back to last November. Since Week 13 of the 2025 season (Thanksgiving week), the Bengals have totaled 30 sacks, which are the second-most by any team behind only Minnesota (36). Of the nine games the Bengals have played in that time frame, they recorded three or more sacks in seven of them.

The current run marks the Bengals' most sacks over a nine-game stretch since Weeks 8-16 of the 2011 campaign, when they also had 30.

2026 veteran defensive additions: Highlighting the Bengals' offseason acquisitions were five defensive veterans who already are playing significant roles for the team in 2026. Four signed with Cincinnati as unrestricted free agents and one — DT Dexter Lawrence II — was acquired via trade. Here is a closer look at those additions, ordered by the date of their signing:

● S Bryan Cook: A Cincinnati native who played his final two collegiate seasons (2020-21) at the University of Cincinnati, Cook signed with his hometown Bengals on March 12, the first full day of free agency. He was a member of two Super Bowl-winning Chiefs teams in 2022 and '23, and is coming off career highs in tackles (82) and passes defensed (six) in the '25 campaign. Cook opened his Bengals tenure with a forced fumble and fumble recovery against Tampa Bay.

● DE Boye Mafe: Mafe won a Super Bowl title with Seattle in February, then signed with Cincinnati just over a month later on March 12. A second-round draft pick of the Seahawks in 2022, he racked up 20 sacks over his first four NFL seasons. In 2023, he recorded a sack in seven straight games, the longest streak in Seahawks history. He had a strip-sack and a FR in his Bengals debut vs. Tampa Bay.

● DT Jonathan Allen: Allen signed with the Bengals for his 10th NFL season on March 13, providing Cincinnati with a proven interior defensive lineman. He spent his first eight years (2017-24) with Washington, before playing for Minnesota in '25. A two-time Pro Bowler (2021-22 seasons), he has 47.5 career sacks, the fifth-most by any NFL defensive tackle since he entered the league. He posted a sack in each of his first two games with the Bengals, dropping Tampa Bay QB Baker Mayfield for a loss of nine yards and Houston QB C.J. Stroud for a loss of eight yards.

● S Kyle Dugger: After spending the final nine games of the 2025 season with Pittsburgh, Dugger moved across the division by signing with Cincinnati on April 2. He played for New England from 2020 through October '25, spending most of that time as a starting safety for the Patriots, before being acquired by the Steelers in a trade. He has 11 career INTs, including a pick-six against the Bengals while playing for Pittsburgh in Week 11 of last season. He saw his first extended defensive action with Cincinnati in the team's most recent game against the Steelers, contributing eight tackles and a PD.

● DT Dexter Lawrence II: Perhaps one of the most notable transactions of the NFL offseason occurred on April 19, when less than a week ahead of the draft, the Bengals sent the 10th overall selection to the N.Y. Giants in exchange for Lawrence. A three-time Pro Bowler and two-time second-team All-Pro (Associated Press), Lawrence established himself as one of the game's top interior defensive linemen over his seven seasons with New York. He has 44 career TFLs and 32.5 sacks while regularly drawing double-teams from opposing offensive lines. He already has four TFLs this season (tied for seventh in NFL), including his first two sacks as a Bengal in Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

Turner shuts it down: CB DJ Turner II broke out in the 2025 season with 18 PDs, which marked a career high and tied for third-most in the NFL. It also was the most PDs by a Bengals player since the 2009 campaign, when CB Leon Hall had 24 and CB Johnathan Joseph had 20.

Turner's top statistical performance of 2025 came in Week 6 at Green Bay, when he logged a career-best five PDs. He became the first Cincinnati player with at least five PDs in a game since Joseph also had five on Nov. 8, 2009 against Baltimore.

Turner also registered his first two career INTs and forced two fumbles during the 2025 season. He was the only player in the NFL with at least 15 PDs, two INTs and two FFs.

A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, Turner started a combined 18 games over his first two seasons, then worked his way into the starting lineup for 16 contests in '25. He has three PDs so far this season, including a pair in the Week 2 victory at Houston.

Defense improves following '25 bye: The Bengals' defense improved in nearly every statistical metric over the final eight weeks of the 2025 regular season (Weeks 11-18) compared to the first nine. Following the team's bye in Week 10, Cincinnati allowed an average of 9.3 fewer points per game, 97.1 fewer total yards, 41.1 fewer rushing yards and 85.7 fewer passing yards.

The Bengals also recorded 12 takeaways over their final eight games, tied for the fifth-most in the NFL in that span. The surge included a streak of five consecutive games (Weeks 12-16) in which Cincinnati forced at least one turnover. Highlighting that run was a season-high five takeaways in the team's victory at Baltimore on Thanksgiving, which marked the seventh-most by the Bengals in a game since 2000.

Cincinnati additionally tied for seventh in the NFL in team sacks (22) over the final eight weeks. Leading the charge was DE Myles Murphy, who notched four of his career-best 5.5 sacks during the back-half of the season.

Of the final eight opposing offenses faced by the Bengals in 2025, six were held to 20 or fewer points. The defense has extended that run to eight of its last 11 opponents, as Tampa Bay's offense was kept to 20 points in the 2026 season opener and Houston was limited to six points the following week.

McPherson's streak nears record: K Evan McPherson has converted each of his last 20 FG attempts dating back to Week 11 of the 2025 season. It is the second-longest streak of consecutive FGs without a miss in Bengals history (regular season), trailing 21 straight made FGs by former K Shayne Graham in 2007.

McPherson last missed a FG in the fourth quarter of the Bengals' Week 9 game against Chicago on Nov. 2, 2025. His current run also is tied for the second-longest active streak in the NFL, alongside Cleveland K Andre Szmyt. They trail only Minnesota K Will Reichard, who has made his last 26 attempts.

Of McPherson's 20 FGs, nine have been from a distance of 50 or more yards, which are the most such kicks in the NFL since the streak began. Perhaps his best single-game performance during this stretch came in Cincinnati's win at Baltimore on Thanksgiving night, when he went six-for-six on FG attempts. The six FGs were a career high for McPherson, tied for the second-most in a game in Bengals history and tied for the most by any kicker in 2025. He was recognized with his fourth career AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor.

McPherson then collected his fifth weekly award following Cincinnati's win over Tampa Bay to open this season, when he knocked through each of his four FG attempts including a pair from beyond 55 yards. He has made 24 consecutive attempts from inside of 50 yards, a streak that dates to Week 13 of the 2024 season.

McPherson's previous longest streak of made FGs was 15, which he compiled from Weeks 6-14 of the 2021 campaign.

Money Mac from deep: Of Evan McPherson's perfect eight-for-eight start on FG attempts to begin this season, a league-leading five have been from a distance of 50 or more yards. No other kicker has more than three such FGs.

McPherson opened his season with FGs from 58 and 55 yards in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay. He became the first kicker in Bengals history to make multiple FGs from at least 55 yards in a game. He then followed up with kicks from 57 and 51 yards in Week 2 at Houston, and most recently made a 50-yard attempt in Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

McPherson's 58-yarder against he Buccaneers tied for the fourth-longest made FG in Bengals history. He owns nine of the 11 longest made kicks in team history, including a team-record 63-yarder in Week 12 of the 2025 season against New England.

McPherson now has 34 career made FGs from 50 or more yards, which are more than four times the amount of the next closest total by a Bengals kicker (three former Cincinnati kickers have eight such FGs). It also is the fifth-most 50-yard FGs in the NFL since he entered the league in 2021.

Overall for his career, McPherson has made 127 of 151 FGs, good for the third-highest percentage in team history (84.11). During the Week 1 victory over Tampa Bay, he surpassed former K Horst Muhlmann (120) for fifth on the Bengals' all-time FG list.

Here is a look at the longest made FGs in Bengals history:

PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	FG DISTANCE
Evan McPherson	Nov. 23, 2025	vs. New England Patriots	63
Evan McPherson	Sept. 11, 2022	vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	59
Cade York	Dec. 22, 2024	vs. Cleveland Browns	59
Evan McPherson	Dec. 19, 2021	at Denver Broncos	58
Evan McPherson	Sept. 13, 2026	vs. Tampa Bay Buccaneers	58

Rehkow's ranks: Third-year P Ryan Rehkow holds the Bengals' career records for both gross punting average (49.36 yards; minimum 100 punts) and net punting average (42.58; min. 100). Both marks also rank near the top of the NFL, with his gross average ranking third among all punters and his net average ranking seventh since the start of the 2024 season.

Rehkow's gross average of 50.5 yards per punt in 2025 ranked second leaguewide and set a Bengals single-season record, surpassing his own team mark of 49.1 in his '24 rookie season. He averaged 50 or more yards per punt in 11 games last season.

Rehkow opened his career with a historic debut in Week 1 of the 2024 season, as his 64.5 yards per punt against New England set an NFL single-game record which still stands. Highlighting his performance that day was a team-record 80-yard punt. He finished his rookie campaign with a net punting average of 42.9 yards, good for a Bengals single-season record and sixth in the NFL that year. Following that season, he was recognized on the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.

Rehkow also has 59 career punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line, the fifth-most by a Bengal since the statistic began being tracked in 1976 and the fifth-most in the NFL since his 2024 debut. He tied his single-game career high with four inside-20 punts in Cincinnati's Week 2 win at Houston.

Trumpy, Brooks to enter ROH: The Bengals announced in July that former TE Bob Trumpy and HB James Brooks will be inducted into the team's Ring of Honor at halftime of the Week 8 game against Tennessee. They will become the 13th and 14th members of the Ring of Honor, which was established in 2021 to recognize former players, coaches and individuals who have played a significant role in the franchise's storied history and tradition.

Trumpy, who entered the NFL as a 12th-round pick of the Bengals in their inaugural 1968 season, spent his entire 10-year playing career ('68-77) with Cincinnati. He scored the team's first-ever receiving TD on Sept. 15, 1968, and went on to play in 128 games with 120 starts. Among all tight ends in team history, he has the most receiving yards (4600), receiving TDs (35), yards per reception (15.4) and Pro Bowl selections (four).

Brooks played eight seasons (1984-91) in Cincinnati and was one of the most versatile and complete running backs to don the Bengals jersey. He remains the franchise's career record holder for average yards per carry (4.8), while ranking second in team history in rushing yards (6447) and tied for fifth in rushing TDs (37). He also had 3012 receiving yards which contributed to a total of 9459 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-most ever by a Bengal. He holds three of the team's top 10 scrimmage yardage totals in a season, highlighted by a franchise-record 1773 yards in 1986.

Trumpy and Brooks will join the 12 current Ring of Honor inductees, which include QB Ken Anderson, OT Willie Anderson, team founder/head coach Paul Brown, WR Isaac Curtis, HB Corey Dillon, QB Boomer Esiason, WR Chad Johnson, OT Dave Lapham, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Munoz, CB Lemar Parrish and CB Ken Riley. Inductees are voted in each offseason by Bengals Season Ticket Members, then are officially enshrined in the ring during halftime of a Bengals home game that year.

The Jungle can jam: The announced attendance figure for the Bengals' Week 1 contest against Tampa Bay was 66,625, which marked the fourth-largest announced crowd for a home game in team history. Each of the 17 highest attended games played in Cincinnati, in terms of announced attendance figure, have occurred since the start of the 2022 calendar year.

The Bengals had an announced crowd of 65,000 or more in 30 consecutive regular-season home games from Week 1 of the 2022 campaign through Week 12 of '25. That was the longest such streak in team history, surpassing a span of 24 straight games from 2005-07. The largest home attendance figure in team history is 67,260, which came in Week 4 of the 2022 season when the Bengals defeated Miami on Thursday Night Football. That figure also marked the largest announced crowd for a sporting event in Cincinnati history.

Here are the five largest announced home crowds in Bengals history:

DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT	ATTENDANCE
Sept. 29, 2022	Miami	W, 27-15	67,260
Oct. 27, 2024	Philadelphia	L, 17-37	67,239
Nov. 5, 2023	Buffalo	W, 24-18	66,965
Sept. 13, 2026	Tampa Bay	W, 33-27	66,625
Oct. 16, 2025	Pittsburgh	W, 33-31	66,569

Bengal bites: The average age of the Bengals' active roster is 27.1 years ... The Bengals have netted 25 AFC Player of the Week honors (Offensive, Defensive or Special Teams) since the start of the 2021 season, the third-most by any NFL team in that span, regardless of conference ... The longest-tenured player on the Bengals' active roster is TE Drew Sample, who is in his eighth season with the team ... The oldest player on the roster is QB Joe Flacco, who is 41 (born Jan. 16, 1985) ... The youngest player on the roster is C Connor Lew, who is 21 (born Aug. 30, 2005) ... There is a tie for the tallest player on the roster between OTs Orlando Brown Jr. and Amarius Mims, who both are listed at 6-8 ... There also is a tie for shortest player on the roster between HB Tahj Brooks and WR Ke'Shawn Williams, who both are listed at 5-9 ... Brown, Mims and DT Dexter Lawrence II are tied for the heaviest player on the roster at 350 pounds ... McPherson and CB DJ Turner II are tied for the lightest player on the roster at 185 pounds.

POSITION BY POSITION

Quarterbacks: Starting QB Joe Burrow is in his seventh NFL season and already has placed himself among the top QBs both in Bengals history and the modern NFL era. He holds the highest career completion percentage in league history (68.5; minimum 1500 passing attempts), and late last season he became the third-fastest player ever to reach 150 TD passes as well as the fifth-fastest to 20,000 passing yards (both accomplished in his 75th regular-season game played). He missed nine games in the 2025 campaign due to a toe injury, but returned in late November and started each of the final six contests. A three-time Pro Bowler and two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, he ranks in the top five in Bengals history in passing attempts (fifth), completions (fifth), passing yards (fifth), TD passes (fourth), passer rating (first) and 300-yard games (T-first). Through the first three games of this season, Burrow has completed 70.9 percent of his passes (73 of 103) for 743 yards and six TDs with an INT. 19th-year veteran Joe Flacco re-signed with Cincinnati in March after starting six games during Burrow's injury absence in 2025. He was acquired by the Bengals in a trade with Cleveland last October, and made his first Bengals start just five days later. Over the span of his six starts, he ranked second in the NFL in completions, tied for third in TD passes and ranked fifth in passing yards. Now 41 years old (born Jan. 16, 1985), he is the oldest player on the Bengals' roster and the oldest QB to start a game in team history. Flacco spent his first 11 seasons with Baltimore, highlighted by a Super Bowl victory following the 2012 season, and has also seen game action for Denver (2019), the N.Y. Jets ('20-22), Cleveland ('23 and '25), and Indianapolis ('24). He ranks in the top 25 in NFL history in career passing yards (14th; 48.176) and TD passes (22nd; 272).

Running backs: Fourth-year HB Chase Brown leads the Bengals with 197 rushing yards on 49 carries through the first three games of this season, while also adding 32 receiving yards on 10 catches. He enjoyed a breakout 2025 campaign in which he set career highs in rushing attempts (232), rushing yards (1019), receptions (69) and receiving yards (437). He was one of five players in the NFL last season with at least 1000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards, and his catch total marked the most ever in a season by a Bengals running back. A native of London, Ontario, his 1456 yards from scrimmage were the most in a season by a Canadian-born player in NFL history, and were highlighted by a Bengals-record streak of six straight games with 100 or more scrimmage yards from Weeks 7-13. Listed second on the depth chart is 10th-year veteran Samaje Perine, who is in his second Bengals stint. Perine played for the team from 2019-22, then spent '23 with Denver and '24 with Kansas City before returning to Cincinnati in '25. A physical and versatile back, he has 568 career rushing attempts, 201 receptions and 26 kickoff returns for a total of 4670 all-purpose yards. He contributed 382 rushing yards last season, his most since the 2022 campaign. Perine has five catches for 51 yards this season, with three of those receptions going for a first down. Tahj Brooks, a sixth-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2025, saw action in 16 contests as a rookie last season. He had 16 carries for 45 yards and one catch for nine yards offensively, while also returning 10 kickoffs for 258 yards. Brooks compiled a record-setting collegiate career at Texas Tech University, where he set school career marks for rushing attempts (879), rushing yards (4557) and 100-yard rushing games (23). He was a first-team All-Big 12 Conference choice in 2023 then followed up with second-team honors in '24, and in both of those seasons was named a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award (nation's top running back).

Wide receivers: Sixth-year WR Ja'Marr Chase has been selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first five seasons and already ranks third in Bengals history in receptions (538), fourth in receiving yards (7022) and fourth in receiving TDs (57). Cincinnati's first-round draft choice (No. 5 overall) in 2021, he is one of five players in NFL history to begin his career with five consecutive 1000-yard receiving seasons. He also is one of just three players in league history to record at least 125 catches in consecutive seasons, doing so in 2024 and '25, and in both years he was recognized as a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. In 2024, he became the sixth player in the Super Bowl era to claim the receiving "Triple Crown," leading the NFL in catches, receiving yards and receiving TDs, and he then followed up in '25 by ranking third leaguewide in receptions (125) and fourth in yards (1412). He also set a Bengals single-season record with seven 100-yard receiving games last year. Chase leads all AFC receivers with three TD catches this season, while also totaling 185 yards on 18 receptions. Chase is one-half of arguably the top receiving duo in the NFL alongside seventh-year pro Tee Higgins, who has 244 receiving yards in 2026, the most through the first three games of a season in his career. Higgins led Cincinnati with 95 yards on five receptions in Week 2 at Houston, then followed up with 90 yards and a highlight-reel TD on six catches at Pittsburgh. Since entering the NFL as a second-round pick of the Bengals in 2020, Higgins ranks 10th in the league in TD catches (46) and 16th in receiving yards (5685). He brought in a career-high 11 receiving TDs in 2025 (tied for second in NFL) after scoring 10 in '24, and in doing so became the third player in Bengals history with double-digit TD catches in consecutive seasons. His other totals in 2025 were 59 receptions for 846 yards, helping him earn his first career Pro Bowl nod. Cincinnati used one of its two fourth-round draft choices this past April to select Colbie Young out of the University of Georgia. Young, a 6-4, 218-pound athlete, had a five-year college career that saw him go from Lackawanna College (junior college; 2021), to the University of Miami (Fla.; '22-23) to Georgia ('24-25). In four seasons at the Division I level, he had 116 catches for 1437 yards and 13 TDs. He missed time last season due to a leg injury, but in eight games played he caught 26 passes for 358 yards and one score. Young has two grabs for nine yards through the first three games of his NFL career, but sustained a knee injury at Pittsburgh which Zac Taylor confirmed will hold him out of action for Week 4. One of the top stories out of training camp was Dohnte Meyers, who made the team's initial 53-man active roster after originally signing a Reserve/Future contract in January. A slot receiver listed at 5-11, 186 pounds, he led Cincinnati in receptions (11) and receiving yards (121) during the preseason. Meyers has four catches for 47 yards so far in the regular season, with a career-best three receptions for 29 yards in Week 3 against the Steelers. He spent the past two seasons with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League, where he had 89 receptions for 1405 yards and nine TDs, while also logging 11 KORs and nine PRs in 19 games played. He enjoyed a breakout 2025 season in which he averaged 16.2 yards per catch (65 for 1056 yards) and helped the Roughriders win the Grey Cup. He began his college career in 2018-19 at Presbyterian College (FCS) in Clinton, S.C., then spent the '21-22 seasons in Cleveland, Miss. at Delta State University (NCAA Division II). The Bengals signed Mitch Tinsley off Houston's practice squad on Tuesday, bringing back a familiar face to the receiving corps. Tinsley earned a spot on Cincinnati's active roster coming out of training camp in 2025, and went on to contribute eight catches for 116 yards and two TDs last season. He originally joined the team on a Reserve/Future contract in February 2025, after spending his first two pro seasons with the Washington Commanders. He caught three passes for 52 yards for the Bengals this past preseason, then was waived on final cuts and spent the first three weeks of the regular season on the Texans' practice squad.

Tight ends: A second-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2019, Drew Sample has played in 98 career games with 65 starts and serves as a key blocking TE in Cincinnati's offense. After missing most of the 2022 season with a knee injury, he has suited up for 54 consecutive games with 40 starts since the start of the '23 campaign. In addition to his blocking responsibilities, he has contributed 119 career catches for 855 yards and five TDs. Mike Gesicki ranks third on the team with 115 receiving yards on eight catches with two TDs this season. He caught a 25-yard TD pass from Burrow on a fourth-down play to give Cincinnati the lead in Week 3 at Pittsburgh. A 2024 Bengals free agent signee, he has played in 33 games for Cincinnati and serves as an athletic pass catcher who often lines up as a slot receiver. In 2024, he had the second-most receptions in a season by a TE in team history (65) for 665 yards. Originally a second-round pick of Miami in 2018, Gesicki spent his first five seasons with the Dolphins, then played for New England in '23. Erick All Jr., a 2024 fourth-round pick of the Bengals, saw his first game action in nearly two years in the team's preseason contest against Chicago on Aug. 22. A native of Fairfield, Ohio (north of Cincinnati), All showed promise as a versatile TE in his rookie season before a knee injury kept him out for the second half of that year and all of the '25 campaign. His statistical totals as a rookie included 20 receptions for 158 yards. He has lined up for 57 offensive snaps through the first three contests of the 2026 regular season and has two catches for five yards. All spent four college seasons (2019-22) at the University of Michigan and one ('23) at the University of Iowa. Tanner Hudson was signed off the team's practice squad to the active roster on Tuesday, after being elevated from the practice squad for two of the first three games. He has played in 40 games for Cincinnati since initially moving to the team's active roster in 2023. A dependable pass catching option, he has 80 catches for 691 yards and four TDs during his Bengals tenure, including 19 for 168 and two scores in the 2025 campaign. He also has spent time with Tampa Bay (2019-20), San Francisco ('21) and the N.Y. Giants ('22), before signing to the Bengals' practice squad late in the '22 season. Rookie Jack Endries, a seventh-round pick in this year's draft, made his NFL debut in Week 2 at Houston. He was a productive pass-catching TE during his collegiate career at the University of California (2023-24) and the University of Texas ('25). In 39 games (all starts) at the college level, he had 124 receptions for 1376 yards and seven TDs, with 33 for 346 and three scores coming with the Longhorns last season. He was named honorable mention All-ACC in 2024, when he led California in catches (65) and receiving yards (623) as the primary pass-catcher for former Golden Bears QB and the No. 1 overall pick in the '26 draft, Fernando Mendoza.

Offensive line: The nucleus of the Bengals' offensive line is center Ted Karras, who is in his 11th NFL season and fifth with Cincinnati. A 2022 free agent acquisition, he has been voted a team captain in each of his four Bengals seasons and started 73 straight games, including postseason. Off the field, he is involved in numerous charitable efforts in the Cincinnati area and has twice been named the team's Club Winner for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023 and '25). Karras spent five of his first six pro seasons with New England, where he was a member of two Super Bowl-winning teams (2016 and '18). He also had a one-year stint with Miami in 2020. Four-time Pro Bowler Orlando Brown Jr. has started at LOT in all 48 games he has played in for the Bengals since signing with the team as a free agent in the 2023 offseason. He spent his first three NFL seasons (2018-20) with Baltimore, then played for Kansas City for two seasons and helped the Chiefs win Super Bowl LVII in the '22 campaign. He lined up for all 1110 offensive snaps for Cincinnati last season, anchoring a pass protection unit that contributed to the Bengals ranking sixth in the NFL in net passing yards per game (235.6). His father, the late Orlando Brown Sr., played nine NFL seasons (1994-99, 2003-05), spending time with Cleveland and Baltimore. Lining up at ROT is Amarius Mims, who has emerged as one of the top pass protectors in the NFL through the first three weeks of this season. Mims is widely credited with allowing zero pressures on 113 pass blocking snaps, primarily lining up against the likes of Tampa Bay OLB Rueben Bain Jr., Houston DEs Will Anderson Jr. and Danielle Hunter, and Pittsburgh LB T.J. Watt. Cincinnati's first-round draft pick in 2024 (No. 18 overall), he has started at ROT in 33 of 35 career games played and committed just one holding penalty (called during his rookie season). Prior to the NFL, he spent three seasons (2021-23) at the University of Georgia, where he was part of back-to-back national championship-winning teams in '21-22. Dalton Risner has started at RG in each of his last seven games played, including the first three contests of this season. He signed with the Bengals as a free agent following training camp in 2025 and played in 14 games with 11 starts (nine at RG, two at LG) last year. An eighth-year veteran in 2026, he previously played for Denver ('19-22) and Minnesota ('23-24), and has logged 104 games of regular-season experience. Dylan Fairchild has started at LG in all 18 games he has played in for Cincinnati, since entering the league as a first-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2025. His 961 offensive snaps played as a rookie last season were fifth-most on the team. Fairchild started 24 collegiate games across four seasons (2021-24) at the University of Georgia, where he finished off his career with second-team All-America honors in '24. He also has an impressive background in wrestling, as he compiled a 67-0 career record at West Forsyth High School in Cumming, Ga., and won two Georgia state titles in the Class 7A heavyweight division. Javon Foster started at ROT in the team's second preseason game this year against Chicago, then lined up at LOT in the preseason finale at Philadelphia. He spent the 2025 season on Cincinnati's practice squad, after seeing action in four games for Jacksonville as a rookie in '24. Foster entered the league as a fourth-round pick of the Jaguars, following a five-year career (2019-23) at the University of Missouri. He played in 49 contests with 38 starts for the Tigers, highlighted by a 2023 season in which he earned first-team All-SEC and third-team All-America honors. Lining up at offensive tackle opposite Foster in those two preseason contests was Jalen Rivers, a fifth-round pick of the Bengals in 2025. Currently listed as a backup at LG, Rivers played in 16 games with seven starts at RG as a rookie last season. He started at LOT in each of his final 21 games played at the University of Miami (Fla.), where he collected second-team All-ACC honors in 2023 and honorable mention in '24. He was the Bengals' nominee for the Salute to Service Award last season, as his father, mother and stepfather all served in the U.S. Navy. C Jacob Bayer spent the final eight games of last season on Cincinnati's practice squad, after going through the offseason and training camp with Buffalo. He signed with the Bills as a college free agent in May 2025, following a collegiate career that included two seasons at Lamar University in Beaumont, Texas, and two at Arkansas State University. He was a first-team All-Sun Belt Conference performer in 2023, then followed up with second-team status in '24. Bayer lined up for 168 offensive snaps for the Bengals this preseason, the second-most among the team's O-linemen. The starting center for the Bengals' final two preseason games was rookie Connor Lew, who Cincinnati selected in the fourth round of this year's draft. The youngest player on the Bengals' active roster (turned 21 on Aug. 30), Lew started 25 out of 31 games played over a three-year career (2023-25) at Auburn University. That included a streak of 19 consecutive starts that was halted by the knee injury which occurred midway through last season. He was a Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team pick in 2023, when he was credited with zero sacks allowed on 228 pass block snaps, according to Pro Football Focus. Lew lettered in wrestling in addition to football at Kennesaw Mountain High School (Ga.), where he also maintained a 4.0 grade point average through all four years. The most recent addition to the line is OT Myles Hinton, who Cincinnati acquired on waivers from Philadelphia on Aug. 31. Listed at 6-6, 342 pounds, Hinton was a sixth-round draft pick of the Eagles in 2025 and spent his entire rookie campaign on the Reserve/Injured list due to a back injury. He played his first three collegiate seasons (2020-22) at Stanford University, then spent the '23-24 seasons at the University of Michigan. He was an honorable mention All-Big Ten choice for the Wolverines in 2024.

Defensive line: Perhaps the headline addition of the offseason for Cincinnati was DT Dexter Lawrence II, who the Bengals acquired in a trade with the N.Y. Giants less than a week before the NFL Draft. An eighth-year veteran, Lawrence has played in 112 career regular-season contests with 105 starts, been voted to the Pro Bowl three times and been named to the AP All-Pro Second Team on two occasions (2022 and '23). He has 32.5 career sacks, the 10th-most by any DT since he entered the league as a first-round pick of the Giants in 2019. He registered his first two sacks as a Bengal in Week 3 at Pittsburgh, taking down QB Aaron Rodgers twice in the fourth quarter for a combined loss of 19 yards. Lawrence has four TFLs so far this season, tied for the team lead with fellow offseason addition Jonathan Allen. A two-time Pro Bowl DT who was a first-round draft pick of Washington in 2017, Allen signed with the Bengals as a free agent this March. He spent his first eight pro seasons with the Commanders, before playing for Minnesota in 2025. His career stats include 71 TFLs and 47.5 sacks, the fifth-most among DTs since he entered the NFL. Allen posted a sack in each of the first two games this season, then was credited with two QB hits at Pittsburgh. One of Lawrence's former Giants teammates, DT B.J. Hill, came over to Cincinnati via trade shortly before the 2021 season. Hill has played in 82 regular-season games and seven postseason contests for the Bengals. He has 27.5 sacks in his career, with four recorded in 2025. He also has a knack for batting down passes at the line of scrimmage, with 16 career PDs. Hill has been inactive for the past two games due to an Achilles injury. Another key offseason acquisition for the Bengals was fifth-year DE Boye Mafe, who signed with Cincinnati in March after helping Seattle win Super Bowl LX a month prior. Mafe made an impact in his Cincinnati regular-season debut against Tampa Bay, recovering a fumble in the first half and then strip-sacking Buccaneers QB Baker Mayfield in the fourth quarter (led to Bengals recovery). A second-round pick of the Seahawks in 2022, he played in 68 of a possible 72 games during his Seahawks tenure, including postseason. He had a career-best nine sacks in the 2023 campaign, which led the Seahawks that year and included a franchise-record seven consecutive games with at least one sack. He totaled five tackles in three postseason contests during Seattle's run earlier this calendar year. DE Myles Murphy is in his fourth NFL season and looks to build on his top statistical campaign in 2025. The Bengals' first-round pick in 2023 emerged last season with career highs in total tackles (52), TFLs (six), sacks (team-leading 5.5) and PDs (three). His productivity increased particularly in the second half of the year, as over the final nine games he recorded 37 tackles, four sacks and his first career fumble recovery. Murphy has three tackles, a half-sack and a forced fumble through the first three games of this season, with his FF leading to a Bengals recovery returned for a TD in Week 1 against the Buccaneers. DT T.J. Slaton Jr. started all 17 games in his first Bengals season in 2025, netting 52 tackles, four TFLs and three sacks. Originally a fifth-round draft choice of Green Bay in 2021, he spent his first four seasons with the Packers. Slaton has five stops and a FR so far in 2026, with his recovery setting up a Bengals FG drive in the season opener vs. Tampa Bay. He had a pair of tackles the following week at Houston, including a stop on third-and-short to force a Texans FG attempt. Second-year DE Shemar Stewart made his 2026 debut in the Week 2 win at Houston and registered a sack late in the fourth quarter. Cincinnati's first-round pick in 2025, he missed most of this year's training camp due to a lower-body injury sustained in the team's first practice, but he returned to participation in early September. Stewart played in eight games with five starts as a rookie last season, contributing 11 tackles with two TFLs and a sack. A product of Texas A&M, he was noted during his draft process for standout physical traits, and was one of two players in the 2025 class to produce a perfect 10.0 on the Relative Athletic Score (grades players' measurements compared to peer group). Stewart's former teammate at Texas A&M, DE Cashius Howell, was selected by the Bengals in the second round of this year's draft. He is coming off a breakout year with the Aggies in 2025, as he racked up 11.5 sacks, was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year and earned first-team All-America along with first-team All-SEC honors. Howell spent his final two collegiate seasons at Texas A&M, after playing his first three years at Bowling Green State University in northwest Ohio. Regarded for his athleticism and quickness off the edge, he clocked a 40-yard dash time of 4.59 seconds and recorded a vertical jump of 32.5 inches at this year's NFL Combine. Howell has lined up for 91 defensive snaps through the first three games of this season, recording three tackles and three QB hits. Third-year DE Cedric Johnson is an emerging contributor along the Bengals' defensive line, posting four sacks over his last five games dating back to late last season. He had his first career multi-sack game in Week 2 at Houston, taking down QB C.J. Stroud twice in the fourth quarter for a combined loss of 24 yards. Johnson began the 2025 season on the Reserve/Injured list due to a calf injury, but has played in 12 straight contests since returning to action last October. A sixth-round Bengals draft pick in 2024, he now has seen action in 21 career games, totaling 21 tackles with five sacks and two fumble recoveries. DT Kris Jenkins Jr., the Bengals' second-round draft choice in 2024, has played in 32 games with 13 starts in his career, contributing 70 tackles, six TFLs, 5.5 sacks and a PD. He had a sack in this season's opening win over Tampa Bay, and has lined up for 54 defensive snaps across the first three games. He capped off his collegiate career at the University of Michigan with second-team All-America honors while helping the Wolverines win the national championship in 2023. His father, Kris Jenkins Sr., played 10 NFL seasons (2001-10) as a DT with Carolina and the N.Y. Jets, earning four Pro Bowl selections. Rookie DT Landon Robinson, a seventh-round pick of the Bengals, earned a spot on the 53-man roster after leading the team with 2.5 sacks during the preseason. He compiled a decorated career at the United States Naval Academy, highlighted by first-team All-America (AP) honors last season. He also was named first-team All-American Athletic Conference in each of the past two years, and in '25 was the AAC Defensive Player of the Year. In 38 games played over three seasons at Navy, he logged 153 tackles, 18.5 TFLs, 14.5 sacks, two FFs, one FR and one blocked kick. He grew up in Fairlawn, Ohio, and attended Copley High School in Copley, Ohio.

Linebackers: Cincinnati's second-round draft choice in 2025, Demetrius Knight Jr. has been a starting LB for the Bengals since early in his rookie season. His 106 total tackles last season ranked second on the team and second among all NFL rookies. He currently leads Cincinnati and is tied for seventh in the NFL with 28 tackles through the first three games of this season, including a career-high-tying 12 in Week 2 at Houston. He also scored his first career TD on a 27-yard fumble return in the opener against Tampa Bay. Knight spent his first four college seasons at Georgia Tech, then played one year at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and finished off his career at the University of South Carolina in '24. Knight's fellow starting LB is Barrett Carter, who registered 102 tackles in his own rookie campaign in 2025 (third among NFL rookies). Carter was picked by the Bengals in the fourth round of the 2025 draft after a four-year career at Clemson University that saw him earn two All-ACC honors. Over the course of his four collegiate seasons (2021-24), he was the nation's only player with at least 30 TFLs, 20 pass breakups and three INTs. Carter has 19 tackles, a half-sack, a PD and a FF so far this season. Oren Burks has played primarily on special teams this season, recording two ST tackles through three games. A ninth-year veteran, he signed with the Bengals as a free agent in 2025 after spending time with Green Bay ('18-21), San Francisco ('22-23) and Philadelphia ('24). He emerged as one of the Eagles' top defensive performers during their run to a Super Bowl LIX title. Burks saw action in all 17 games with nine starts in his debut Bengals season last year, contributing 34 tackles defensively and 14 on special teams. Swayze Bozeman, who Cincinnati acquired on waivers from the N.Y. Giants in May, impressed the Bengals' coaching staff with 11 tackles (two TFLs) and a PD during the preseason. He entered the league as a college free agent signee of Kansas City in 2024 and saw action in six total contests as a rookie for the Chiefs, including three postseason games. He then played in six games for the N.Y. Giants in 2025. Bozeman has played 53 special teams snaps through the first three games of this season. Joe Giles-Harris was signed off the practice squad to the Bengals' active roster last week. He has played in all three games this season (elevated from practice squad for first two contests), and recorded three special teams tackles. He led the team with 20 ST tackles in just 10 games played in the 2025 campaign, after joining Cincinnati as a free agent last offseason. Originally a college free agent signee of the Jaguars in 2019, he played his first two pro seasons ('19-20) with Jacksonville, then spent time with Buffalo from '21-22 and New England from '23-24.

Defensive backs: Fourth-year CB DJ Turner II was voted a team captain for the first time in his career this season, after emerging as one of the NFL's top boundary CBs in 2025. He tied for third in the league with a career-high 18 PDs last season, while adding his first two career INTs and two FFs. A second-round draft pick of the Bengals in 2023, he missed the final six contests of the '24 season due to a collarbone injury, but has since suited up for the past 20 consecutive games. Turner has nine tackles and three PDs so far this season, with a five-tackle, two-PD stat line in the Week 2 win at Houston. He was a two-time All-Big Ten honoree at the University of Michigan and clocked the fastest 40-yard dash time by any player at the 2023 NFL Combine (4.26 seconds). A Cincinnati native who spent his final two collegiate seasons (2020-21) at the University of Cincinnati, Bryan Cook returned to the Queen City as an unrestricted free agent signee of the Bengals in March. He spent his first four NFL seasons with Kansas City, where he was a member of the Chiefs' back-to-back Super Bowl winning teams in the 2022 and '23 campaigns. He earned a starting safety role for the Chiefs entering the 2023 season and has started each of his last 52 games played, including his first three games with the Bengals. Cook has 12 tackles, a FF and a FR this season, with both his forced fumble and recovery coming in Week 1 vs. Tampa Bay. He attended nearby Mount Healthy High School, then began his college career at Howard University before transferring to Cincinnati. Jordan Battle, a 2023 Bengals third-round pick, is in his fourth pro season and has been a full-time starting safety since the late stages of the '24 campaign. He led Cincinnati with 112 tackles and four INTs last season, both of which marked a career high. He has seven career picks, with his first of the 2025 season coming in Week 3 at Pittsburgh which set up a Cincinnati TD drive. Battle also has 18 tackles and two PDs on the season. CB Dax Hill leads the Bengals and is tied for fourth in the NFL this season with five PDs. He posted a career-best four PDs in the Week 2 win at Houston, and also has totaled 21 tackles through the first three games. Hill has lined up at CB for his last 25 appearances after transitioning from safety in the 2024 offseason. He missed most of the '24 campaign due to a knee injury, but returned to start all 17 contests in '25 and tied his career high with 11 PDs. The Bengals' first-round draft choice in 2022 out of Michigan, he lined up at safety for his first 32 career games. His brother, Justice Hill, currently plays RB for the Baltimore Ravens. DJ Ivey has contributed as a core special teamer and reserve CB over his three-plus seasons with the Bengals. A seventh-round pick in 2023, he has seen action in 39 games and logged 14 defensive tackles along with 13 tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams. He played in 58 contests during his college career at the University of Miami (Fla.), then earned a roster spot coming out of his rookie training camp with Cincinnati. Ivey notched two ST tackles in the Week 2 win at Houston. The Bengals added another veteran presence to the safeties room this offseason when they signed seventh-year pro Kyle Dugger during free agency. Originally a second-round draft choice of New England in 2020, Dugger spent his first five-plus seasons with the Patriots, then was traded to Pittsburgh last October and started nine games for the Steelers. In 93 regular-season games played (78 starts), he has 462 tackles and 30 special teams stops. He also has 11 INTs with three pick-sixes, including one against the Bengals in Week 11 of last season. Dugger has contributed primarily on special teams through the first three games of this season, but saw his first extended action on defense in Week 3 at Pittsburgh, recording eight tackles and a PD on 41 snaps played. Tacario Davis, Cincinnati's third-round pick in this year's draft, has lined up for 43 defensive snaps and 27 special teams snaps through his first three career regular-season games. He recorded a career-high four tackles and a PD in Week 3 against the Steelers. A rangy CB with a 6-4 frame, Davis had a strong preseason with 11 tackles, a TFL, two PDs and an INT over the final two games. He spent his final college season in 2025 at the University of Washington, where he started seven games but missed time throughout the year due to injuries. He played the previous three years at Arizona State University, where in 2023 he led the Pac-12 Conference with 15 PBUs. He was recognized as an all-league performer in three different conferences during his college career, as he was named honorable mention All-Pac-12 in 2023, second-team All-Big 12 in '24 and honorable mention All-Big Ten in '25. PJ Jules tied for second on the Bengals with 16 special teams tackles in 2025, after spending his entire '24 rookie season on Cincinnati's practice squad. He joined the team as a college free agent signee following a five-year college career at Southern Illinois University. He capped off his time with the Salukis by recording 111 tackles and earning consensus first-team FCS All-America honors in 2023. Jules posted 10 defensive tackles during this year's preseason, and has played 68 special teams snaps through the first three weeks of the regular season. Josh Newton, a fifth-round pick of the Bengals in 2024, has played in 31 games with eight starts over his first two pro seasons. He logged 29 tackles, seven PDs and an INT as a rookie, then followed up with 11 stops and three PDs in 2025. He finished his collegiate career at Texas Christian University (2022-23), after three seasons ('19-21) at the University of Louisiana-Monroe.

Special Teams: Seventh-year K Evan McPherson ranks in the top five in Bengals history in FG percentage (84.1; third), PATs (212; fourth), made FGs (127; fifth) and points scored (593; fifth). He has made 34 FGs from a distance of 50 or more yards, which is a team record and the fifth-most among all NFL kickers since he entered the league as a fifth-round draft choice of the Bengals in 2021. He owns nine of the 11 longest made kicks in team history, including a record 63-yarder in Week 12 of last season. He earned his fifth career AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor for his performance in this year's season opener against Tampa Bay, when he hit each of his four FG attempts and three PATs. He followed up with a pair of FGs in Week 2 at Houston, converting from 51 and 57 yards, then continued his perfect start to the season by going two-for-two on FGs in Week 3 at Pittsburgh. McPherson has made his last 20 FG attempts dating back to Week 11 of last season, which is the second-longest streak in team history behind Shayne Graham's 21 consecutive made FGs in 2007. Ryan Rehkow has been Cincinnati's punter and holder on placekicks since joining the team as a free agent in the 2024 offseason. Now in his third season, he maintains the Bengals' career records for gross punting average (49.4 yards; minimum 100 punts) and net punting average (42.6; min. 100). He has 59 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line, the fifth-most by a Bengal since the stat began being tracked in 1976 and fifth-most in the NFL since the start of the 2024 campaign. Rehkow has six inside-20 punts to start this season, with four in Week 2 at Houston and a pair the following game at Pittsburgh. Last season, he ranked second in the NFL and broke his own Bengals single-season record with 50.5 yards per punt. William Wagner has recorded 164 long snaps without an unplayable delivery since joining the team as a college free agent in the 2025 offseason. In 2024 at the University of Michigan, he was a finalist for the Patrick Mannelly Award, given to the top long snapper in college football. WR Ke'Shawn Williams stepped into the primary returning role for Cincinnati late last season, after being acquired on waivers from Pittsburgh in December. He contributed nine PRs for 95 yards and 13 KORs for 334 yards. He had a career-long 43-yard PR in Week 17 vs. Arizona which set up a Bengals TD drive. He played in eight games for the Steelers in the first half of his 2025 rookie campaign, logging 11 PRs for 112 yards (10.2) and 18 KORs for 425 yards (23.6). Williams returned five kickoffs for 131 yards (26.2 average), including a long of 34 yards, in Week 3 against Pittsburgh. WR Dohnte Meyers returned four kickoffs for 93 yards in his NFL debut against Tampa Bay, then added three punt returns for 19 yards and three kickoff returns for 90 yards, including a 40-yard long, in Week 2 at Houston. In his two seasons (2024-25) with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL, he logged 11 KORs for 319 yards (29.0) along with nine PRs for 94 yards (10.4). Meyers also had two KORs for 54 yards and three PRs for 45 yards in the preseason for the Bengals. Also in the mix to return kickoffs is veteran HB Samaje Perine, who has 26 career KORs for 680 yards (26.2), including a career-high 17 for 430 last season with Cincinnati. His first KOR of this season came in Week 3 at Pittsburgh, a 26-yarder that set up a Bengals TD drive in the first quarter. Second-year HB Tahj Brooks has 13 career KORs for 334 yards (25.7), including three for 76 yards this season. He had a 27-yard run-back on his lone KOR of Week 3 at Pittsburgh.

THE LAST BENGALS-JAGUARS MEETINGS

2023 SEASON

WEEK 13, GAME 12

Cincinnati Bengals 34, Jacksonville Jaguars 31 (OT)

Monday night, Dec. 4, 2023 at EverBank Stadium

In a nationally televised thriller which included five ties and six lead changes, the Bengals won when K Evan McPherson converted a game-winning 48-yard FG with 3:17 left in overtime. In his second career start, QB Jake Browning completed 32 of 37 passes (86.5 percent) for 354 yards and one TD, highlighted by four completions in the extra period to move Cincinnati into FG range. The Bengals answered a pair of Jaguars TDs in the first half with two rushing scores from HB Joe Mixon, then grabbed their first lead early in the third quarter when Browning found WR Ja'Marr Chase down the left sideline for a 76-yard TD. Chase had 11 catches for 149 yards, while Mixon had 117 scrimmage yards (68 rushing, 49 receiving). Cincinnati improved to 6-6, while Jacksonville fell to 8-4.

2025 SEASON

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Cincinnati Bengals 31, Jacksonville Jaguars 27

Sunday, Sept. 14, 2025 at Paycor Stadium

Backup QB Jake Browning scored the go-ahead TD on a one-yard sneak with 18 seconds left to lead the Bengals to a win in their home opener. Browning, who entered the game in the second quarter after starter Joe Burrow suffered a toe injury, rallied from throwing three INTs to lead Cincinnati on a game-winning drive that started at its own eight-yard line. Defensively, the Bengals intercepted Jaguars QB Trevor Lawrence twice, including a pick by CB Dax Hill in the end zone which kept points off the board in the first quarter. Browning threw a pair of TD passes in the second half, including a 13-yarder to WR Mitch Tinsley for his first career reception. WR Ja'Marr Chase carried the load offensively with 14 catches for 165 yards and a first-quarter TD. Cincinnati improved to 2-0, while Jacksonville fell to 1-1.

WEEK 1, GAME 1

Cincinnati Bengals 33, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 27
Sunday, Sept. 13, 2026 at Paycor Stadium

The Bengals' defense had four takeaways which were converted into 24 points in a season-opening win. All of the takeaways were fumble recoveries, including three on consecutive Buccaneers drives in the first half. LB Demetrius Knight Jr. scored on a 27-yard fumble return for a TD. The Bengals built a 17-point lead in the third quarter before a Tampa Bay FG and 38-yard pick-six by LB Josiah Trotter made it a one-possession game. K Evan McPherson made all of his four FG attempts, including a pair in the fourth quarter to regain a double-digit advantage. The Buccaneers pulled to within one score again with 3:19 left, but the Cincinnati offense responded with an eight-play, 59-yard drive to drain the remaining clock. Bengals defensive veteran free agent acquisitions made an impact, as Jonathan Allen and Boye Mafe both had a sack, while S Bryan Cook had a FF and FR.

WEEK 2, GAME 2

Cincinnati Bengals 20, Houston Texans 6
Sunday, Sept. 20, 2026 at Reliant Stadium

WR Ja'Marr Chase had two TD catches and Cincinnati's defense held Houston to just six points in a road win. The Texans elected to go for it on fourth-and-inches inside the red zone midway through the second quarter, but DT Dexter Lawrence II broke through the line and tackled RB David Montgomery for a loss to force a turnover on downs. The Bengals' offense responded with an 81-yard drive capped by a 32-yard TD pass from Burrow to Chase, who came down with an acrobatic catch near the front pylon. Burrow found Chase for another TD in the third quarter to increase the lead to 17-3. K Evan McPherson knocked through a pair of FGs from beyond 50 yards, while defensively the Bengals kept the Texans to 60 total rushing yards. Cincinnati recorded four sacks, with two coming from DE Cedric Johnson. The Bengals improved to 2-0, while Houston fell to 0-2.

WEEK 3, GAME 3

Pittsburgh Steelers 30, Cincinnati Bengals 27

Sunday, Sept. 27, 2026 at Acrisure Stadium

The Bengals were driving inside Steelers territory while trailing by three in the game's final minute, but a fumble by QB Joe Burrow was recovered by Pittsburgh DE Sebastian Joseph-Day to seal Cincinnati's road loss. The two offenses combined for 763 net yards and traded scores throughout the afternoon, with Burrow and Steelers QB Aaron Rodgers each throwing three TD passes. Burrow connected with TE Mike Gesicki for a TD on a fourth-down play to put the Bengals ahead early in the fourth quarter. The Cincinnati defense forced a punt on the ensuing Steelers drive, but it was muffed deep in Bengals territory and Pittsburgh capitalized on the turnover with a tying FG. Another Steelers FG gave them the lead later in the period, set up by a 47-yard gain by TE Darnell Washington. Bengals WRs Ja'Marr Chase and Tee Higgins each had a TD catch and went for over 90 yards, while Steelers RB Jaylen Warren churned out 127 yards on 17 carries (7.5 average). Cincinnati fell to 2-1, while Pittsburgh improved to 2-1.
