Dawkins will enter his eighth year as a Bill in 2024 after he was originally drafted by the Bills in the second round (63rd overall) in 2017. Dawkins is the only player the Bills have ever drafted out of Temple.

MAN OF THE YEAR X3

On December 6, the NFL announced this year's candidates for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award, the highest honor the league can bestow. The award is based on both community service and on-field performance.

Dawkins is the Bills' nominee for a third straight year. "It means consistency," Dawkins said Thursday. "I think that it means someone knows their true self and who they truly are. I think also it means that, to the core, that what's going on is not fake, for it to be the third time. It's always and will always be my biggest honor."

It's no surprise that Dawkins has been nominated for a third time. He's a force in the community, both in the consistency with which he's out there and the intentionality about forming real relationships. "I'm a real piece of this community now, and it's not for fake, like, this is really where I want to be," Dawkins said. "This is really where I'm at. Buffalo is where the Dawkins will be, and where eventually I will rest." (Buffalo News, Katherine Fitzgerald, December 6, 2024)
