He calls his father, Victor, and mother, Zelda, his biggest influences in life and credits his love for football to his father introducing him to the game at a young age.

His mother is the original athlete in the family as she is still the school record holder in both the 100 and 200-meter hurdles at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, CA. Victor was a two-time Baseline League 300-meter hurdle champion while in high school at Rancho Cucamonga High School.
