IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD

A DREAM COME TRUE

Ja'Marcus Ingram had no scholarship offers coming out of high school in Dallas. He had to walk on to Utah State and pay his own way his first year of college.

After two years as a starter at Utah State and two years as a backup at Texas Tech, he finished his college career as a full-time starting cornerback last season at the University at Buffalo.

So when the Buffalo Bills offered him a contract after a two-day rookie minicamp tryout last month, Ingram said it was the culmination of a dream that he had kept alive against the odds over a long road.

"It's surreal; it's still kind of hard to wrap my mind around it," Ingram said after a recent Bills practice. "Right after the second rookie minicamp practice, it felt like I was about to go home because they huddled us up and said at 4 o'clock they would be transporting us to the airport. I was like, 'Dang, they're going to send us home. I'll be going back to Dallas.' But after the coaches huddled up, they walked over to me and whispered in my ear, 'Congratulations, we want to sign you.' It was a dream come true."
