

RONALD CURRY

QUARTERBACKS

FIRST-AND-10

RONALD CURRY was named the Bills quarterbacks coach on February 7, 2024. Curry joined the Bills after spending eight seasons coaching in different offensive capacities on the Saints staff. In addition to more than a decade in the coaching ranks, Curry brought seven years of playing experience to the Bills coaching staff.

COACHING SHOUTOUTS

2024-Present: (Buffalo Bills)

- In his first season coaching the Bills QBs, Josh Allen was named NFL MVP and became the first quarterback in team history to earn the honor. Allen's season led the Bills to an AFC-best 30.9 points per game and the Bills became the first team in NFL history to score 30+ rushing and 30+ receiving touchdowns.

2016-23: (New Orleans Saints)

- In 2023, helped Derek Carr tally the most passing yards (3,878) by a Saints QB since Drew Brees in 2018.
- In 2022, under Curry's collaboration with offensive coordinator Pete Carmichael and the offensive staff, the Saints improved from 32nd in the NFL to 16th in net passing yards per game. Following the conclusion of the 2022 Saints season, served as the offensive coordinator for the Reese's Senior Bowl's National team, where Curry tutored the all-star game's MVP, Fresno State quarterback Jake Haener
- In Curry's first season coaching quarterbacks in 2021, Jameis Winston posted a 5-2 record as a starter and ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in touchdown passes (14), touchdown percentage (8.7) and passer rating (102.8) through the first eight weeks of the season before suffering a season-ending injury.
- In 2019, helped Michael Thomas shatter the NFL's receptions record and club receiving yardage records as he posted 149 receptions for 1,725 yards and nine touchdowns as he was selected Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year. Thomas was selected as an AP first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter for the second consecutive season.

2016-23: (New Orleans Saints - continued)

- In his first season as the primary wide receivers coach in 2018, helped Thomas record an NFL-best 125 catches for 1,405 yards and nine touchdowns.
- Coached alongside Bills offensive coordinator Joe Brady during the 2017 and 2018 seasons in New Orleans, winning the NFC South in both seasons and reaching the NFC conference championship in 2018.

2013-15: (San Francisco 49ers)

- Served as wide receivers coach in 2015 and as an offensive assistant working with the wideouts from 2013-14. In 2015, Anquan Boldin recorded at least 65 receptions for the fourth consecutive season and Torrey Smith led the league in yards per catch (20.1). From 2013-14, Boldin became the first player in 49ers history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two seasons with the team and the first 49ers receiver to eclipse the mark in back-to-back seasons since Terrell Owens from 2002-03.

2010-12: (Mooresville Christian Academy)

- Spent three years at Mooresville Christian Academy in Mooresville, N.C., as the athletic director and head football coach.
