Terry Pegula is a self-made success story, rising from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry, and one of very few professional sports owners to operate franchises in multiple sports.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry realized a life-long dream on October 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Pro Football Hall of Famer Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and become the second owners in the storied history of the Buffalo Bills.

"Owning any professional team is about winning and the primary goal of our ownership will be to win the Super Bowl and bring the championships to the city of Buffalo, and myself and my family will dedicate ourselves to that," he said at his introductory press conference.

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

Raised in Carbondale, PA, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program with a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy. JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State.

On February 22, 2011, Terry and Kim purchased the NHL's Buffalo Sabres. They followed up their commitment to hockey by purchasing the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks. The Pegulas opened Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million dollar complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two hockey rinks, training facilities, four restaurants, a full-service Marriott Hotel and parking. The combination of KeyBank Center and Harborcenter have allowed Buffalo to be a center for hockey, hosting the 2016 NHL Draft, NHL Combine, 2018 World Junior Hockey Championships, and the 2019 NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition to overseeing the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his family's business operations in Boca Raton, Florida. Terry and Kim have five children between them: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew.

im Pegula is the President and CEO of Pegula Sports and Entertainment, and President of both the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres.

A native of Fairport, N.Y. She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

On October 8, 2014, Kim, along with her husband Terry, realized a long-time dream as they became only the second owners of the Buffalo Bills. Kim currently serves on the NFL's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee. In May of 2018, Kim became President, overseeing all of the franchise's business operations.

Kim got her start in sports in 2011 after she and Terry purchased the Buffalo Sabres. Kim serves on the NHL Board of Governors and assumed the role of President of the Sabres in May 2018, becoming the first female to hold the post of President for both an NHL and NFL team. Kim and Terry's sports ownership also extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits, the AHL Rochester Americans and the NWHL Buffalo Beauts.

After owning multiple professional sports in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities and sports teams. Since its inception, PSE has expanded its reach to include Harborcenter, a multipurpose facility anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks and a Marriott Hotel franchise; PicSix, a full service creative agency specializing in video, digital and marketing creative services for a variety of companies, a Hospitality division that operates multiple restaurants including (716) Food and Sport, a Tim Hortons Café & Bake Shop franchise, The Healthy Scratch cafe and the newest addition The Draft Room. PSE, through its managed entities, has been key to bringing new business opportunities to Buffalo including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine, 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships, 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament, as well as a wide variety of stadium and arena concerts and national and international tournament events at all levels.

Kim and the PSE entities have been honored with a number of awards including Business First's Most Influential People, four NYS Emmy Awards for sports content, Buffalo Best Place To Work, the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL, and numerous individual recognitions of PSE's staff.

Kim and Terry have also given back to encourage the growth of sports and the many intangible benefits they believe sports creates for individuals, fans and their community. In 2010, the Pegulas gave an unprecedented $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Terry's alma mater Penn State. The facility allowed for Penn State's hockey program to become a NCAA Division I team and was the final piece for the formation of the Big Ten Hockey Conference. Kim also gave back to her alma mater, Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex allowing Houghton College athletics to become a Division III program.

Kim currently splits her time between the Bills, Sabres and PSE offices as she leads all business operations.

Prandon Beane was named General Manager of the Buffalo Bills on May 9, 2017. He joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers - including two seasons as the team's assistant general manager (2015-16).

Beane, who became the 13th general manager in franchise history, helped the Bills gain their first playoff berth since 1999.

While making the playoffs in his first year in 2017, Beane also engineered several trades that resulted in the Bills selecting #7 (QB Josh Allen) and #16 overall (LB Tremaine Edmunds) in the 2018 draft while maintaining all of their 2019 draft capital.

In Carolina, Beane played a vital role in constructing the Panthers draft boards from 2012-17, evaluated professional and collegiate players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

Throughout Beane's time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships. In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager—holding the role for the final 10 games of the season. Carolina finished out the season with a 6-4 record under Beane's watch.

Beane also worked closely with current Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott in Carolina, where McDermott served as defensive coordinator from 2011-16.

-- BILLS OWNER TERRY PEGULA

"The most impressive thing I think that we accomplished is him and coach are joined at the hip and at the head." said Bills owner Terry Pegula. "They think alike. They're both very thorough people. They can make instantaneous decisions like a coach has to during the game but they also think stuff out to the point where you say, 'Wow these guys are very thorough.""

A cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998 and a native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department before moving on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with Carolina before being named the team's director of football operations in 2008.

on January 11, 2017, the Buffalo Bills named Sean McDermott the 20th head coach in franchise history. McDermott joined the Bills after spending six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers.

In his first year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to their first playoff berth since 1999 with a 9-7 record. He became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff berth in his first season at the helm, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998). The Bills finished 7th in the NFL in turnover differential (+9), 10th in the NFL in fewest penalties (98), and 7th in special teams statistics. The 2017 Bills also won six home games for the first time since 1999.

While in Carolina, McDermott developed a top-10 defense in four of his six seasons in charge. Over his six-year tenure, the Panthers defense ranked second in the NFL in sacks (261), third in turnovers forced (169), sixth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.3), ninth in yards per game (339.1) and 12th in points allowed per game (22.1). In his time in Carolina, McDermott helped the Panthers to three division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

In 2016, McDermott's defense put up impressive numbers in multiple categories. The Panthers finished second in the NFL in sacks (47), second in red zone defense (43.64%) and sixth in run defense (91.6).

In 2015, McDermott's defense helped lead the way for the Panthers' 15-1 regular season and run to Super Bowl 50. The Panthers ranked second in the NFL in yards allowed per play (4.9), sixth in scoring defense (19.3) and total defense (322.9). The defense led the league in interceptions (24), takeaways (39), points off turnovers (148) and turnover differential (+20) and tied a franchise record with four interception return touchdowns. Four of his defenders - LBs Thomas Davis and Luke Kuechly, CB Josh Norman and DT Kawann Short - were named to the Pro Bowl and earned All-Pro honors.

In 2013, McDermott was named The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year when his unit ranked second in total defense (301.3). The Panthers also led the league in sacks (60) while finishing second in scoring defense (15.1). The defense helped propel Carolina to a 12-4 record, an NFC South title and the team's first playoff appearance since 2008. In allowing the franchise's fewest points since 1996, the defense set a team record with an NFL-low 21 touchdowns allowed.

McDermott came to Carolina following 12 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He spent his last two seasons in Philadelphia as defensive coordinator, helping the Eagles to the playoffs in each of those seasons.

In 2010, McDermott led one of the league's youngest defenses to top 10 rankings in takeaways and sacks. In his first season overseeing the Eagles' defense in 2009, McDermott was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly after his unit ranked third in the NFL with 38 takeaways and 44 sacks.

McDermott coached the secondary and linebackers before becoming defensive coordinator, learning under the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles' legendary defensive coordinator.

In 2007, McDermott took over the linebackers after serving as the secondary/safeties coach from 2004-06. Pro Football Hall of Famer Brian Dawkins was a Pro Bowler all three seasons, and fellow safety Michael Lewis joined him in 2004.

McDermott worked as the team's assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and as the defensive assistant/quality control coach from 2001-02, assisting with linebackers. He joined the organization in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator before being promoted to assistant to the head coach in 1999.

An All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. He and his wife Jamie, have three children.

LORENZO ALEXANDER joined the Buffalo Bills in 2016 after spending time with the Washington Redskins, Arizona Cardinals, and Oakland Raiders. Following his collegiate career at the University of California, Alexander entered the league as an undrafted free agent with the Carolina Panthers in 2005.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A TRANSFORMER

Throughout his NFL career, Lorenzo Alexander has had to adapt. Alexander entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent 300-pound defensive lineman. At one point, he was asked to play offensive line. After stints in Carolina and Baltimore his first two years, he found a home in Washington in 2006 and made his name as a special teams standout.

His transformation to finding a regular defensive position was not complete until he lost nearly 70 pounds in 2009. Former Redskins linebacker London Fletcher served as Alexander's mentor during this stage in his career.

"In one offseason, he dropped a good 50 pounds or so," Fletcher recalled. "Losing that weight unleashed that athleticism that was hampered by all that extra weight. That helped him play better on the football field."

PERSONAL

Lorenzo and his wife, Manjanique, are parents to two daughters, Vanessa and Zoie, and two sons, Mason and Myles. Alexander graduated from the University of California with a degree in legal studies.

ACQUIRED 2018

Drafted by the Bills in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- In the fourth quarter of a Week 5 match-up against Tennessee with the Bills trailing 12-10, engineered his first career fourth quarter comeback. The game winning drive went 11 plays for 47 yards (4:43).
- Led the Bills to a 27-6 win in Minnesota in his first career road start. In the effort, became just the third rookie in NFL history to throw for a touchdown and run for 2+ scores in a first half.
- With the 7th pick, Allen is the highest quarterback taken in Bills' draft history and only the 4th ever taken in the first round.
- In 2016, led Wyoming to a Mountain Division co-championship and the school's first-ever appearance in the Mountain West Championship game.
- In his two seasons as Wyoming's starting quarterback, Allen accounted for 5,833 yards of total offense and was responsible for 57 touchdowns (passing-44, rushing-12 and receiving-1).

FIRST-AND-10

JOSH ALLEN arrives in Buffalo after spending three seasons at Wyoming (2015-17) and one year at Reedley College (2014). Allen was the seventh selection of the first round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A NO STAR RECRUIT

Despite racking up 5,269 yards and 59 touchdowns in his final two high school seasons at Firebaugh High School, Allen didn't receive a single offer from a Division I program due to only being 6-2 and 180 pounds at the time.

> "I didn't have any stars. I was a no star, no offer guy out of high school. I sent emails every day to almost every coach in the nation. 'Please, please just offer me.' All I was asking for was an opportunity," said Allen in a 2017 ESPN College Gameday feature.

Allen eventually opted to attend Reedley College, where he threw for 2,055 yards and 26 touchdowns while simultaneously hitting a growth spurt that boosted his height to 6-5 and weight to 215 pounds.

Allen finally got his opportunity after his time in junior college, accepting Wyoming's scholarship offer over an offer from Eastern Michigan.

PERSONAL

Wife

The son of Joel and LaVonne Allen. Josh is the second of four children (two sisters and one brother). He earned his degree from Wyoming with a major in communications. Allen resides in Orchard Park with his girlfriend, Brittany Williams.

PLAYING FOR THOSE WHO CAN'T

Allen played his high school ball at Firebaugh HS, a place where his family had deep ties. Allen's grandfather, Buzz Allen, donated the land the school was built upon.

Shortly after Buzz's passing during Josh's senior year, Firebaugh HS was set to square off with rival high school Dos Palos. Until that game, Firebaugh had never beaten Dos Palos. Josh led the Eagles to a W on his grandfather's birthday and post-game Josh called it a tribute to his late grandfather.

Allen set social media on fire in Week 3 when he hurdled Vikings LB Anthony Barr to pick up a key first down for the Bills. Allen's effort was recognized by SportsCenter as the number one play from Sunday. The play not only had fans going crazy, but impressed those inside the Bills locker room: "That's unbelievable. It got everybody juiced up to have a guy out there competing like that...the last thing I thought he was going to do is hurdle him. That was probably one of the most unbelievable plays I've ever see," said Bills S Jordan Poyer.

FIRST-AND-10

DEREK ANDERSON joins the Bills in 2018 after spending the last seven seasons with the Carolina Panthers, where he appeared in 25 games with four starts. Prior to the Panthers, Anderson played for the Arizona Cardinals in 2010 and spent 2005-09 as a member of the Cleveland Browns. Anderson originally entered the NFL as a sixth round draft selection (213th overall) by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2005 Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MENTOR TO MANY

Having not been the consistent starter for a team since 2010, Anderson has found different ways to make an impact on his team.

Having joined the Panthers in 2011, Anderson has worked with QB Cam Newton since he was drafted and helped him develop in to the league MVP in 2015.

Anderson told the Portland Tribune, "There are other things that are important to me as I get older, like helping the young guys through the week. I have a larger role than just preparing myself... I get so much pleasure out of watching Cam do something we talked about in the meetings during the week, watching him execute plays or see a blitz. It's great to have one of our young guys do something we worked on during blitz drill in practice. I guess I go into my teacher mode."

PERSONAL

Born June 15, 1983 in Portland, Oregon, Derek lives with his wife, Mallory, and their children, Amelia, Hank and Jacqueline. Anderson majored in liberal studies while at Oregon State.

DEEPER INSPIRATION

One week before the start of training camp in 2017, Kelvin's mother, Christine Benjamin, unexpectedly passed away.

"She was my everything," said Benjamin, who helped his mother retire early and moved her out of Belle Glade. "She sacrificed a lot for me."

LONG ROAD TO THE NFL

To find Benjamin playing in the NFL now is quite remarkable given that he began playing football as a sophomore in high school. "Man, I wasn't even thinking I was even going to college while I was in high school let alone play in the NFL," said Benjamin. "Then I was getting called to the principal's office after my first season of football to be looked at by college coaches. It was crazy. I still didn't believe [I was going to college] until my final year of high school."

PERSONAL

Is the son of the late Christine Benjamin. Has a daughter, Kelyiah, and a son, Kingsten. Has two English bulldogs, Mocha and Smokey.

BITS ON BENJAMIN

- · As a child, would often chase down rabbits in his hometown to help with his agility and speed.
- · Played football and competed in the high jump and long jump while at Glades Central HS.
- · Organized a family fun day called "Muck Madness" in his hometown of Belle Glade, otherwise known as Muck City. Benjamin aspires to help troubled kids as he continues his NFL career and do "anything I can to help brighten their day."

JESSIE'S BOY

Benjamin credits his high school coach, former NFL receiver Jessie Hester, for getting him to where he is today. "I didn't even know how to line up as a receiver when I started," said Benjamin. "He taught me everything, how to run routes, how to mentally prepare. He held me accountable. He saw something in me that I didn't see in myself."

Recalled Hester when they first met, "I said, 'Hey, how's basketball going.' He said he didn't play basketball; that he was coming out for football. I told him, 'I'll make you this promise. If you keep yourself out of trouble, make pretty good grades and come to school every day I can pretty much guarantee you're going to get a college scholarship."

ATHLETIC BLOODLINES

Russell Bodine is the first member of his family to make it to the NFL, but he is certainly not the only athlete in his family.

Russell's mother, Gail Bodine, may be one of the best athletes in the family, having been the first All-American field hockey player at Boston's Northeastern University for a team that won the ECACs. Brian Bodine, Russell's father, played tackle and guard at Trenton State.

His sister, Kaitlyn, played softball for Queens University in Charlotte, North Carolina, and was named Freshman of the Year in 2013 while recording a .413 batting average and a 3.06 ERA in 84.2 innings pitched.

Russell's uncle, Dave Zimmerman, was a center at Rutgers in the mid-1960s and his brother, Pete, also played nose tackle for the Scarlett Knights. Another one of Russell's uncles, Hank, played center at William and Mary.

PERSONAL

Russell recently got engaged to his now fiancé Catherine Wooten. The couple has two dogs named Deke and Quinn. At North Carolina, Bodine majored in communication studies.

IKE BOETTGER joins the Bills for his rookie season in 2018. A 2018 undrafted free agent, Boettger spent time on the Chiefs active roster and spent the 2018 training camp with the Bills. An Iowa native, Boettger was moved from tight end to an offensive lineman during his freshman year.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD' A SECOND CHANCE

Boettger saw a prosperous 2016 season, garnering praise from media and was rewarded with a spot on his team's leadership group, one of only seven juniors to do so. As the 2017 Hawkeyes season started, nothing but optimism was on the horizon.

Boettger started at right tackle in a 44-41 OT win at lowa State, the second game of the season, as the offense gained 497 yards. However, he was forced to leave in the second half due to injury and missed the remainder of the season with an Achilles tendon tear.

"That was the biggest obstacle I had to overcome. [The rehab] was longer than I expected, but it was ahead of schedule for [an] Achilles injury," Boettger said.

Knowing that the injury would end his career at lowa, Ike worked hard in order to prove himself to NFL teams. He impressed many at lowa's pro day, boasting a 3-cone time of 7.45 seconds, which would have tied for fifth among all offensive linemen at the NFL combine.

INSPIRING OTHERS

In 2014, Bush founded "Camp Ambushed", a free youth football clinic designed to give participants seven to 16 years of age hands-on training in football fundamentals from Bush and other NFL players in his hometown of Williston, SC.

"Some people call it giving back," Bush said. "I just call it inspiring others. In the town that I'm from, it's very small. I just want to come back and show them that whatever your dream is, it's something that you can achieve if you put your mind to it and show dedication."

LOCAL LEGEND

Bush's proudest accomplishment outside of the birth of his children is the fact that he is the only person in the history of his high school to have his jersey retired. After totaling more than 3,500 rushing yards, he became the first person in school history to make it to the NFL.

PERSONAL

Born May 12, 1987 in Williston, South Carolina, Rafael is the son of Gwendolyn Bush and James Young. Bush studied sports communications and graduated from South Carolina State. He lives with his wife, Tonya, and their daughters, Makayla and Jordyn, and son, Isaiah.

85 TE CHARLES CLAY

8TH YEAR

FEBRUARY 13, 1989 (AGE 29)

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

LITTLE ROCK CENTRAL HS

ACQUIRED 2015

Acquired by the Bills via restricted free agency on March 19, 2015.

SHOUTOUTS

· Clay is the only tight end in Bills history to record three consecutive 500+ yard receiving seasons. Clay recorded 51 catches for 528 yards in 2015 during his first season with the Bills, 57 catches for 552 yards in 2016 and 49 catches for 558 yards in 2017.

- In 2016, Clay racked up 57 catches. That total ranks as the second most by a Bills tight end in an individual season in team history. He trails only Pete Metzelaar's 68 catches in 1993.
- Clay accumulated 558 receiving yards in 2017, which ranked as the most by any of the Bills pass catching options.
- At home in 2015, snagged the game winning touchdown on a 40 yard reception against the Houston Texans. The catch came with 1:53 left in the fourth quarter and gave the Bills a 27-21 lead that was later extended to a 30-21 lead and a Bills W.
- Clay has a rushing touchdown to his name, as he took the ball 11 yards for a score in a game against the Colts in 2013.

FIRST-AND-10

CHARLES CLAY came to the Buffalo Bills in 2015 via the transition tag after playing four seasons (2011-14) with the Miami Dolphins. Clay was drafted by the Dolphins in the sixth round of the 2011 Draft out of the University of Tulsa, where he spent four years playing both running back and full back for the Golden Hurricanes.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

a pro's pro

Heading into an eighth NFL season, Clay looks for every edge he can get. As he profiled to Vic Carucci of the Buffalo News, Clay is now meticulous about his diet.

After a failed attempt at going vegan, Clay has adopted a diet based around plant-based foods, avoiding sugar and primarily chicken or fish for a protein source. Clay admits the focus on nutrition took longer than he'd like, but is now focused on making sure younger players realize the value.

"It took me awhile to realize how big of a role food played in the way your body feels and things like that...You get young guys who come in here, you try to tell them, 'Man, you shouldn't be eating that.' They're like, 'Yeah, whatever.' I had guys early on tell me that it was something that I had to kind of try to experiment with," Clay told the Buffalo News.

PERSONAL

Charles and his wife, Tenia, have a daughter named CharliRose. Charles is the son of Charles and Jerrilyn. His father, Charles, played football at Arkansas (1975-78). Charles attended Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., where he lettered as a tailback and safety.

GOING CAMPING

Charles makes it a point to head home annually to his alma mater Little Rock Central High School to hold "Charles Clay Youth Football ProCamp." His 2018 camp, which was held May 12, included more than 250 boys & girls in the Little Rock area. "Being able to interact with who come from the same area as me...it is a good time to go out there and teach kids things I have learned about football and about life," said Clay.

In an effort to find new ways to improve, one training method Charles has taken up is hot yoga. Hot yoga, also known as Bikram yoga, involves performing 90 minutes of yoga in a room kept between 90-108 degrees with the intention of helping stretch and tone muscles. In addition to hot yoga, Clay has even spent time working on his boxing skills in order to improve his hand speed which helps in both blocking and breaking free off of the line of scrimmage.

FIRST-AND-10

Now in his 2nd season in Buffalo, JASON CROOM was signed by the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2017 and finished his rookie campaign on the practice squad. A former wide receiver in college, Croom switched to tight end as a senior.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BLESSING IN DISGUISE

Croom had spent his entire career playing wide receiver until surgery to repair his patellar tendon in 2014 gave him an idea. During his rehabilitation, he started thinking about what it would be like to play tight end. So he approached his position coach and then head coach Butch Davis, who both supported him. He ended up becoming the Volunteers starting tight end in 2016 and is now in competition for a NFL roster spot. "It's a constant learning process," said Croom.

MEMORABLE MOMENT

First attended a NFL game with his grandfather on Thanksgiving day in 2005 when Atlanta visited Detroit. "I had just signed up for football that year and going to that game gave me a good picture of what I wanted to strive for in life," recalled Croom.

CARTOON CONNOISSEUR

During his spare time, Croom enjoys watching cartoons. His top three cartoons of all-time (in order): Bob's Burgers, Family Guy and SpongeBob SquarePants.

PERSONAL

The son of Karen Croom-Terry, an accountant, and Terrence Terry, Jr., a mechanic. Has a Basenji dog named Xena. Graduated with a degree in sociology and a minor in African studies. Lists bowling as one of his hobbies.

DAWKINS

2ND YEAR

APRIL 26, 1994 (AGE 24)

RAHWAY, NEW JERSEY

RAHWAY HIGH SCHOOL

ACQUIRED 2017

Drafted by the Bills in the second round (63rd overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- During his first season with the Bills, Dion appeared in all 16 games while starting 11. He appeared in 74% of all of the team's snaps during his rookie campaign.
- Starting the majority of the season for the Bills at left tackle, helped pave the way for RB LeSean McCoy to finish fourth in the NFL with 1,138 rushing yards. Behind Dawkins, McCoy tallied the sixth 1,000 yard season of his nine-year career.
- Started at left tackle in the Bills first playoff game since 1999.
- As a true freshman at Temple in 2013, Dion became one of just four freshman to start at left tackle for their school. Pittsburgh's Dorian Johnson, Virginia Tech's Jonathan McLaughlin and Ole Miss' Laremy Tunsil were the only other players to accomplish the feat.
- Was named 2016 First Team All-AAC (Phil Steele, AAC) during his final season with the Temple Owls.

FIRST-AND-10

DION DAWKINS finished his first season playing in all 16 games with the Bills after being drafted by the team in the second round out of Temple. While at Temple, Dawkins dressed for 44 career games, starting 41. Dawkins was named a First Team All-AAC selection after his senior year in 2016.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BIG MAN, BIG SWAG

Dawkins has set out to prove during his career that it is not just skill position players who can bring some personality to the game.

The self-proclaimed shnow man, Dawkins began frequently using the word shnow in prep school to help display his oversized personality.

"'Shnow' is just like you already know but it's just more swag for big guys because big guys have to do different things to get noticed," said Dawkins.

Dawkins path to this point has been a unique ride. Coming out of Hargrave Military Academy in 2012/13 Dawkins only had two FBS offers: from Temple and Cincinnati.

Despite the lack of interest, Dawkins college career culminated in him being the first Temple offensive lineman drafted since 2003 (G Dave Yovanovits, NYJ--7th round, 237th overall).

PERSONAL

Born April 26, 1994 in Rahway, New Jersey, Dion is the son of Eric and Lisa Dawkins. Dion graduated from Temple with a degree in criminal justice.

Dawkins headed to John R. Oshei Children's Hospital prior to the Bills Week 13 matchup and asked pediatric cancer patients to help design the cleats he would wear versus the Patriots. Dawkins cleats against the Patriots then displayed the artwork of the patients Dawkins visited.

"We'll definitely have a bigger chip on our shoulder playing, because we're not only playing for the Bills, but we'll be playing for all these kids here." Dawkins told the Associated Press.

PAYING TRIBUTE

Dawkins and Ryan Groy traveled to Washington, D.C. this offseason with 50 veterans to pay tribute to the men and women who have given the ultimate sacrifice while serving our country.

"I have family that is in the service," said Dawkins. "My sister's husband is in the service, all my uncles were and my grandfather was... (The vets) all were huge Bills fans. They wanted pictures just as much as we wanted pictures with them."

FIRST-AND-10

VLADIMIR DUCASSE arrived at the Bills after campaigns with the New York Jets, Minnesota Vikings, Chicago Bears and Baltimore Ravens over the course of his NFL career. Ducasse was originally drafted by the New York Jets in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FROM HAITI TO USA

When it comes to the sport of football, Vlad Ducasse had a late start. Born in Haiti, Vlad spent the first 14 years of his life in his home country. Then, his father, Delinois, sent Vlad and his brother MacArthur to Stamford, Connecticut, in order to pursue better educational opportunities.

Vlad began his football career at Stamford High School when other students encouraged him to try the sport due to his size.

"Once I got the helmet and pads on and started hitting people, I started to like it a lot," said Ducasse.

Once he began, he never looked back. Ducasse played on both the offensive and defensive lines and went on to earn a football scholarship to the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, later becoming a Division I-AA All-American.

PERSONAL

The son of Delinois and Bernadette Ducasse, Vladimir was born in Haiti. He is married to Tatiana Valdes and they have a son named Falsher. While at the University of Massachusetts,
Ducasse majored in African American studies.

A massive and cerebral linebacker raised in an athletic family, TREMAINE EDMUNDS was the Bills second of two first round draft picks in 2018. Buffalo traded up six spots in the first round to select Edmunds, who joined his brother, Terrell (27th pick by Pittsburgh), in becoming the first brothers in NFL history to be selected in the first round of the same draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Edmunds is no stranger to what it takes to play in the NFL. His father, Ferrell Edmunds, was a two-time Pro Bowl tight end with Miami and Seattle.

This oldest brother, Trey, is a practice squad RB for Pittsburgh and middle brother, Terrell, was drafted as a safety by Pittsburgh in 2018. The three brothers were teammates at Virginia Tech in 2016.

DON'T FORGET MOM

Tremaine is quick to point out the benefits of the track workouts he still does with his mother, Felecia, who was a standout hurdler at Southern Illinois. "Her work outs with me on the track are for real. Trust me, they are no joke." Tremaine also credits his grandmother, Mary Morris, and his godbrother and former youth football coach, Keith Lampkin, for their guidance.

SKETCHY HOBBY

One of his off-field interests is drawing. "In high school, I would sketch cartoon characters for fun and became pretty good at it. I ended up taking some art classes and enjoyed it. It's therapeutic."

PERSONAL

Studied communications at Virginia Tech. Growing up in a household with several foster children, he would one day like to support charitable causes in that realm.

Phillip Gaines has a special connection to the NFL's Salute to Service cause, as he grew up in a military home.

Gaines' parents are U.S. Air Force veterans and he was born on the Hanscom Air Base in Massachusetts. Growing up, he moved from base to base, living in Massachusetts, Italy and San Antonio.

"I thought the coolest thing about being around the military was getting to travel and see different places," Gaines said. "I was born on the East coast, moved to Italy, and then moved to Texas. I got to see a lot before some people got to move out their state."

While Gaines has described himself as someone who is chill and likes to lay low, his military upbringing allowed him to develop into a quiet leader and have confidence in his abilities.

BORN TO BE A BADGER

With Camp Randall Stadium, the home of the Wisconsin Badgers, being less than a 20 minute drive from Groy's hometown of Middleton, Wisconsin, it is no wonder that Groy was always destined to play his college ball for the Badgers.

However long before he was seen taking the field on Saturdays, a 12-yearold Groy was finding his way into games by selling soda pop and bottled water.

"I loved selling pop at the games," Groy told the Buffalo News. "I wanted to watch football, and I didn't have money to buy tickets. It was an awesome experience. I made a little money, and it built my love for UW football so much more."

Groy went on to leave his mark on the Badgers during his time at Wisconsin by appearing in a school record 54 games.

- Recorded a 56-yard field goal last season with the Bills, his longest since he made a 58-yard with the Seahawks in 2014.
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week during Week 3 and Week 4 of the 2017 season.
- Over the course of his career, Hauschka has accounted for 960 total kicking points.
- Was the first kicker in NFL history with consecutive games with multiple 53plus yard field goals.
- Holds the NFL record for most consecutive field goals made from 50 yards or further at 13.
- Made a career high five field goals in 2011 versus Baltimore while with the Seahawks.
- Has played in every game for each of the past seven seasons and won Super Bowl XLVIII with Seattle.

FIRST-AND-10

STEPHEN HAUSCHKA joined the Buffalo Bills after spending time with six NFL teams, most recently with the Seattle Seahawks. Hauschka entered the league when he signed as an undrafted free agent with the Minnesota Vikings in 2008. Before joining the league, Hauschka played his collegiate career at Middlebury College and North Carolina State University.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LATE TO THE GAME

Stephen Hauschka was 19-years old before he took his first snap on the football field. Hauschka joined the football team at Middlebury College his sophomore year after playing soccer and lacrosse earlier in his career. He set school records for field goals made in a season and a career.

He then transferred to North Carolina State for his final year of eligibility, where he led the ACC with an 88.9 field goal percentage. In 2008, he signed with the Minnesota Vikings as an undrafted free agent. He became the first NFL player produced by Middlebury since 1926. Since then, Hauschka has played for six different NFL teams, acquiring a Super Bowl win with the Seattle Seahawks during that time.

PERSONAL

Stephen Hauschka is married to his wife Lindsey, and the two of them are parents to son Jones. They have two dogs: a pug chihuahua and an Australian Shepard poodle mix. Hauschka graduated with a degree in neuroscience from Middlebury College, where he also played soccer and lacrosse.

A DIFFERENT CAREER

Stephen Hauschka's football career almost never materialized. After college, he had a choice to make: attend dental school or continue to pursue a career in football. Going into dentistry would have made sense, as his mother Barbara is a dentist. Though accepted into dental school, he chose the latter.

"I applied to dental school and I had to decide whether to try to keep playing football or go to dental school. I obviously chose football."

ACQUIRED 2017

Signed as a free agent by the Bills on March 18, 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- Posted three touchdown catches for the Bills in 2017.
- Set career highs with the Raiders in 2014 with 47 catches, 693 yards and four touchdowns.
- Grabbed a career-long, 77-yard touchdown pass from Derek Carr vs. San Diego in 2014.
- Caught a touchdown pass in his only career playoff game at Houston (1/7/17). It was a 8-yard catch from Connor Cook.
- Inducted into the Hillsdale College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2018.
- In his final season at Hillsdale in 2010, set single-season school records for receptions (104), and receiving yards (1,368), and caught 11 touchdown passes.

ANDRE HOLMES is in his second year in Buffalo and his 7th in the NFL after signing a three-year contract with the Bills in 2017. Holmes provides size and depth at the wide receiver position and on special teams. He entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Vikings from Division II Hillsdale College. After stints with Minnesota, Dallas and New England early in his career, Holmes finally made his mark in Oakland, playing four seasons with the Raiders (2013-16).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

UNLIKELY ROUTE

Holmes is an example of perserverance. He did not play much football in high school. Division II Hillsdale was the only school to offer him a scholarship. In the NFLPA Bowl game in 2011, he "didn't know how to get off press coverage and got destroyed. Going against Division I athletes was a new experience." It all worked out well.

SPECIAL MENTALITY

It is no accident Holmes is one of the most producive speical teamers on the team. "I take a lot of pride on playing special teams. That's how I got on the field early in my career. A special teams play starts every series. It sets the tone."

UNIQUE EYE TRAINING

Uses Senaptec Strobe goggles to "recalibrate" his eyes before each game.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Diana, have two sons, Micah and Kai. The son of Kevin and Mary Holmes. His father played 13 years of professional basketball in Europe. Has two brothers and two sisters. Earned a degree in physical education.

LATE BLOOMER

Holmes (pictured above with other inductees in the Hillsdale College Hall of Fame) started playing football as a 170 pounder in high school. "I have always felt I was behind the curve in sports growing up. Whether I was too slow, too skinny, or played at a small college, I always felt I had something to prove. And the fear of failure always motivated me."

He heeded the advice from his college offensive coordinator Barry Fagan. "There was a moment after my redshirt freshman year, where I had to fill out a form listing goals. I left the part about long-term goals empty and my coach said if I stay committed to the weight room and the classroom, anything is possible. And he was always on me. He was on me every part of practice. He worked me hard."

TURNING POINT

Barely played on his high school varsity team until his senior. In fact, he thought about giving up football altogether and play soccer. He continued to play as a senior and after a 0-4 start, he became very frustrated again playing wide receiver in an offense that was geared toward running.

"My father told me after that fourth game that I wasn't doing enough to help the team. And I thought, we are not throwing the ball. How can I be more helpful? My father talked about blocking better. And the next game, I took that advice to heart. My blocks sprung two long touchdown runs, I made two tackles on special teams and we won the game. That was a turning point for me and I ended up getting a college scholarship."

Acquired by the Bills via a trade with the Indianapolis Colts in 2013.

SHOUTOUTS

 Has played in 105 consecutive games, the third-longest streak among NFL defensive ends.

Since joining the Bills in 2013, Hughes leads all Buffalo pass rushers with 38.5 sacks. Hughes' sack total ranks seventh in team history.

- Hughes started his Bills career on a tear, piling up back-to-back double digit sacks seasons in 2013 and 2014. Hughes is one of just four pass rushers in franchise history to record consecutive double digit sack seasons, joining: Bruce Smith (1986-1990, 1992-1998), Aaron Schobel (2005-2006) and Mario Williams (2012-2014).
- Hughes tied with DE Shaq Lawson for the Bills 2017 sack lead with four.
- Hughes ranked second on the Bills in sacks in 2016 after racking up six quarterback takedowns.
- Hughes showed that his abilities aren't limited to the football field in 2017, as he won LeSean McCoy's Shades of Greatness home run derby fund raiser.

BILLS

JERRY HUGHES is entering his sixth season with the Bills in 2018. Acquired via trade by the Bills from the Indianapolis Colts in 2013, Hughes originally entered the NFL as a first round draft choice (31st overall) of the Colts out of TCU. A dynamic pass rusher, Hughes has registered a teamhigh 38.5 sacks since 2013.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

JERRY VS. GARY

Off the field, Hughes is a husband, father to a son and daughter, and a dog lover who owns a Husky and a German Shepard. However when Hughes crosses the white lines on gameday, his teammates will tell you an alter ego emerges that has been dubbed Gary.

"I focus on really keeping that alter ego, that inner Hulk, in, knowing when to unleash it and when to not. So that way you don't want to be hurtful toward the team late in games, fourth quarter, two-minute drives, things like that," Hughes told the Buffalo News in August.

The root of the alter ego emerged when Hughes switched from the offensive side of the ball to defense when he arrived at TCU. Hughes says he knew he had to find a different edge and mentality to approach the game with.

PERSONAL

Born August 13, 1988 in Sugar Land, Texas Jerry is the son of Jerry Sr. & Pam Hughes. Jerry is married to the former Meghan Robinson and has a son, J.R., and a daughter, Hayden. Jerry graduated from TCU with a major in communications.

A SPECIAL GUEST

Hughes surprised his wife Meghan during their wedding in 2015 by inviting Grammy Award winning R&B singersongwriter Anthony Hamilton to sing "Can't Let Go" for the couple's first dance.

Hughes posted the moment on Instagram. The video includes the couple's DJ failing to play the song on several attempts before Hamilton emerges with a live rendition.

IMAGINE FOR YOUTH FOUNDATION

Took an idea that began as part of a class project in college and started the IMagINe for Youth Foundation, an organization that collected sporting goods and donated them to local charities in Iowa. The foundation has continued on with its work in other states. "I believe sports are a gateway to learning how to be sucessful in life," said Hyde. [imagineforyouth.org]

ALWAYS COUNTED OUT

"I have always been overlooked." And it's something Hyde takes a lot of pride in and it fuels his desire to be the best. Recruited only by Iowa and MAC schools, he committed to Iowa on the last day of the signing period. "When I was a free agent, Buffalo was the only team that was interested. It all keeps me working. I'm never the one to look for pats on the back."

Growing up in a single family home, Hyde was mentored by a family friend, Ken Watson (pictured with Hyde above), who operated a farm in Tiffin, Ohio. Micah worked for Watson at that farm. "He taught me the value of the dollar and what hard work can do for you. I'd wake up early in the morning and do all sorts of jobs like bailing straw, moving boulders, and cutting down trees."

It would not be a stretch to drive by Hyde's house now and see him outside gardening, mulching, or planting. "I'm really meticulous about how everything looks outside. I take a great deal of pride in that. Honestly, being so detail-oriented correlates with how I try to live my life as a whole. I learned those skills and other life lessons from working on that farm."

CHRIS IVORY will be entering his ninth NFL season with the Bills in 2018. Ivory joins the Bills after spending the past two seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2016-17). Ivory has also spent time with the New York Jets (2013-15) and the New Orleans Saints (2010-2012). Ivory originally entered the NFL in 2010 as an undrafted free agent with the Saints out of Tiffin University (2009)/Washington State (2006-08).

BIG TIME DREAMS

During Chris Ivory's high school playing days, his childhood best friend Trent Williams and Ivory made a pact with each other that they would both make it to the NFL. Ivory and Williams achieved that dream and more, as they are each entering their ninth NFL seasons and have earned Pro Bowl honors along the way.

Despite their NFL success, Ivory and Williams have both made sure to remember their humble beginnings. The duo returns home annually to help host a summer football camp in Longview.

"It's about believing in yourself and just knowing that inside yourself that you have what it takes to get to the next level, but it also takes determination," Ivory said at the camp in 2015. "You've got to be determined, have that willpower and just be mentally tough to continue to push yourself."

PERSONAL

Married to Nikki Ivory and the couple has two children, Nevaeh (heaven spelled backwards) and Nyelle. They also have two dogs, Nina and Nalla.

A NEW FRIEND

During the 2016 offseason, Johnson formed a special relationship with Will Randleman, a young man who suffered a traumatic neck injury while playing youth football in the Bay Area.

> Initially, Johnson was expecting his visit with Randleman to be a somber one. However, he was greeted by something unexpected. "He was in such amazing spirits...I saw his passion and love for football. We connected over that." Johnson said.

Whenever Johnson visits Randleman, the two talk about the injury, but also go much deeper into their friendship. "We're friends now. It's amazing that we've opened up to each other. I've honestly learned so much from him," Johnson said. "His attitude has really made me cherish and value the opportunity that I have. I just want to help any way I can and let him know he's not fighting this alone."

FAMILY MOTIVATION

Taron Johnson has never needed to look very far to find the motivation he needed to push himself harder in his athletic pursuits.

Johnson's older sister, Treana, earned All-American honors at BYU and since she was three years older, Taron was always chasing after her accomplishments.

His family motivation goes deeper than just the athletic accomplishments of his sister. Taron uses the loss of his mother at the age of 9 as his main desire to make his family proud. Trina Johnson passed away from breast cancer in 2005.

"It was definitely a shock. It didn't seem real at the time...It was just very weird. It seemed like a dream."

"She's inspirational for sure. She introduced me to the game, and I'm thankful for it," Johnson said recently in an interview with WKBW. "I feel like I play for her."

PERSONAL

Taron (TARE-un) is the son of Baron Johnson. His mother, Trina, passed away from breast cancer in 2005. His sister, Treana, earned All-American honors at BYU as a track and field athlete. Studied Criminal Justice while at Weber State.

TAIWAN JONES came to Buffalo in 2017 after spending six seasons with the Oakland Raiders, where he was drafted in the fourth round (125th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft. Jones earned PFWA All-AFC honors in 2015 after leading the AFC in kick return yards.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

Taiwan Jones' biggest obstacle that he had to overcome on the way to success in the NFL wasn't a physical one, but a mental one.

Big-time schools had no difficulty identifying Taiwan as a special talent during his high school days, but a low grade-point average kept him from receiving an scholarship offers from a Division I school. It wasn't until halfway through his senior year of high school that he was diagnosed with the learning disorder dyslexia. This diagnosis allowed him the extra time he needed to get his grades to the level he needed to play at Eastern Washington. Jones' passion for learning continued in 2017 when he attended the NFL Business Academy at the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business.

PERSONAL

Jones has five brothers and one sister. In his spare time, he breeds pit bulls and has two of his own - Tytus and Kookie. He says that his family as a whole is the biggest influence on his career. In his free time, he also enjoys playing paintball and four-wheeling.

April 13, 2018 The Central Tigers Scoreboard was donated In Memory Of MR. LAWRENCE LAWSON Longtime Referee and Coach in the Central Recreation Department

GIVING BACK TO CENTRAL

Lawson credits the majority of his success in football to the formative years he spent in the Central Tigers youth football program. The Tigers are a town recreation program for 6-12 years old to play football and Shaq recently left his mark on the team. Citing an extremely rundown old scoreboard, Lawson donated a brand new one in memory of his late father, Lawrence Lawson, who was very involved in the program. The scoreboard is scheduled to be unveiled during the summer of 2018 and in use for the upcoming season.

FIRST-AND-10

STAR LOTULELEI signed with the Bills as an unrestriced free agent after playing five seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2013-17). The defensive tackle was drafted by the Panthers in the 1st round (14th overall) of the 2013 NFL draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A NEAR MISS

A first round draft pick in 2013 and one of the prize acquistions of the 2018 free agent class, it seems hard to believe that Lotulelei nearly never even played football past the high school level.

After graduating from Bingham High School, Lotulelei actually gave up football and took a job working from 9-to-5 at a furniture delivery company. Lotulelei quickly realized that lifestyle was one he wouldn't be satisfied with and enrolled at Snow Junior College.

While he was back on the gridiron, things did not really click for Lotulelei until he met his soon-to-be wife Angelina and the couple had their first daughter, Arilani. Lotulelei credits becoming a father to Arilani with helping him recognize what was important and committing to football.

PERSONAL

Lotulelei (lo-too-leh-lay) is the son of Star and Pesatina Lotulelei and is the oldest of ten children. His brother, Lowell, also played football for Utah. Star and his wife Fuiva have four children. While at Utah, Lotulelei majored in Sociology. He met his wife while at Snow, where she was a volleyball player.

FAMILY FIRST

Ray-Ray McCloud III lists his parents, Raymond McCloud Jr and Lisa McCloud, as his biggest inspirations in his life.

McCloud told the Clemson Athletics website, "My parents are my biggest inspirations. My dad played football at Arkansas, and he has always pushed me in sports and in life. My mom is my best friend. She's my ace, and I can talk to her about anything."

"I put him in flag football leagues with kids who were a year or two years older than him, and he was just doing things that make you say, 'wow,' and making it look easy, and then it became like a habit," Raymond Jr told the Bleacher Report.

McCloud's determination to make it to the NFL was partly because he wanted to reach the level that his dad didn't.

"I want to follow through on what my dad built," he told Clemson. "He's the main reason I developed a passion for the game."

PERSONAL

The son of Raymond Jr and Lisa McCloud. Ray-Ray is the oldest of five siblings, two brothers and two sisters. Majored in sociology at Clemson. His first name is Raymond, but goes by Ray-Ray.

FIRST-AND-10

CONOR MCDERMOTT was claimed off waivers by the Bills in 2017 after being drafted in the sixth round (211th overall) by the New England Patriots out of UCLA. McDermott earned second-team All-Pac 12 honors in back-to-back seasons with the Bruins (2015-16).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BASKETBALL LOVE

Growing up, McDermott was much more focused on making it to the NBA in comparison to the NFL. He didn't even send out highlight tapes of himself playing football in high school until after his senior season.

As a senior in high school, McDermott was named Mr. Basketball for Division II-AA in the state of Tennessee and was able to lead his school to a state championship in not only basketball, but football as well.

He averaged 15 points per game to go along with 8.5 rebounds while playing at a slim 235 pounds on his 6-8 frame. It wasn't until the UCLA coaches came calling that he made the full-time switch to football and started putting on the weight to get him to where he is today.

PERSONAL

Born October 19, 1992 in Nashville, Tennessee, Conor is the son of Kevin and Deborah McDermott. McDermott studied political science and graduated from UCLA.

MATT MILANO finished his first season with the Bills after being drafted by the team in the fifth round (163rd overall) out of Boston College. He finished the 2017 season with 43 tackles in 16 games including 5 starts, He also logged one interception and one fumble recovery.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MINIMALIST

Milano doesn't need much to do his job. He is a self-proclaimed minimalist and travelled to Buffalo for the 2018 off-season program with only one suitcase.

OVERCOMING THE

Milano grew up in a football hotbed in Florida and was a threestar recruit when he began to look at college. During his senior year, he was named Orlando Sentinel's Defensive Player of the Year and opted to take his talents to Boston College. The transition was not seamless however, and he only logged five tackles during his freshman season. Milano says that the transition from different levels of football is the biggest obstacle he has had to overcome

The jump from college to NFL was also a tough challenge for the linebacker, but Milano made the most of it, earning a starting role by the end of the season.

PERSONAL

Born July 28, 1994 in Orlando, Florida, Matt is the son of Mike and Janet Milano. Matt studied psychology and communications and graduated from Boston College.

Her memory has served as an inspiration for John whenever he faces any obstacles in his professional or personal life. He lists her obituary as his most prized possession.

> It was her memory that has pushed Miller to be as involved in the community as he possibly can. Whether it is in Buffalo or back home in Miami, Miller has used the John Miller Foundation to work with inner city chilren and run back-toschool drives.

This past year, Miller hosted his second annual football camp, put together a Thanksgiving meal giveaway at the Belle Center in Buffalo and a holiday shopping spree at Target for 10 kids from Child & Family Services.

Murphy credits his toughness to his childhood growing up in Arizona as the middle child of seven. Growing up in the rural community of Lehi, he did team roping with his dad, climbed rock formations with his friends and they had horses, steer, chickens and goats on their family farm.

Murphy even went so far as to practice wrestling with a 400-lb steer calf just for fun while dreaming of being a rodeo clown.

GIVING BACK

Murphy made it a point during his time with the Redskins to give back to the D.C. community. He was a frequent participant in the Fuel Up to Play 60 program and visited children in the Ronald McDonald House on multiple occasions. He also helped provide school supplies and clothes to kids in the Richmond area during a Back to School shopping event.

SIRAN NEAL arrives in Buffalo after spending four seasons at Jacksonville State (2013-17). A back-to-back firstteam All-Ohio Valley selection in 2016-17, Neal was the 154th selection of the fifth round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

WHATEVER IT TAKES

Back during his high school playing days with the Eufaula High Yellow Jackets, Neal was an All-State wide receiver in both 2012 and 2011, when he totaled 76 receptions and 21 touchdowns.

Upon arriving at Jacksonville State, the Gamecocks coaches switched Neal over to the defensive side of the ball and put him at linebacker. The switch paid off when in 2016 he made 80 tackles, 11.5 for loss, an interception and four pass break-ups to become an All-Conference selection.

Despite how well he performed at the linebacker position, Gamecock coaches again asked him to switch positions in 2017 and moved him back to the safety position.

Adept at finding ways to help the team win, Neal embraced the change telling the Gadsden Times, "I love it. It's something different for me, but I'll get the job done. They put me out there so I have to perform my task."

Once again Neal's position change was seamless and he again was a first-team All-Conference selection in 2017.

PERSONAL

The son of Glenn Neal and Rhonda Walker, Siran has six brothers and one sister. He also has twin daughters, Londyn and Lauryn Neal. He earned his degree in criminal justice.

The Peterman family is extremely tight-knit and grounded in their faith. Nathan's father, Chuck, started the Creekside Christian Church out of their Florida home on Mother's Day in 2002.

HARRISON PHILLIPS leaves Stanford (2014-17) after leading the Cardinal with 103 tackles as a team captain in his senior year. A first-team All-Pac-12 selection in 2017, Phillips was the 96th overall selection in the third round by the Bills in 2018.

WRESTLING CHAMPION

In addition to his dominant play on the gridiron while in high school at Millard West in Nebraska, Phillips was also a force to be reckoned with in wrestling.

A three-time state champion, Phillips lettered in wrestling for four years and he worked his way up from wrestling at 189 pounds as a freshman to winning the Class A 285-pound state title as a senior. His experiences as a wrestler have helped in his growth as a football player.

"All the football coaches loved that I was a wrestler. It means you're good with your hips and good with your hands," he told the Lincoln Journal Star when he was in high school. "You have to be able to shoot, and that's like firing off the line. You have to be quick and agile."

Phillips also was a four-time track and field varsity letterwinner in high school and finished second in the state in discus.

PERSONAL

The son of Paul and Tammie Rose Phillips, Harrison also has a sister, Delanie, who played soccer at Nebraska-Kearney. Harrison was a double major in sociology and science, technology and society with a minor in education while at Stanford.

99 DT HARRISON PHILLIPS

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

COMMITTED TO THE COMMUNITY

Phillips not only played football and had a double major while at Stanford, but he also made sure to spend a considerable amount of time in the community.

Phillips was one of 11 FBS players named to the 2017 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team for his community work. He is a board member of The Playmakers Organization, which is committed to mentoring at-risk minority youth. He was involved in the program both in California and back home in Nebraska.

KING OF THE BOARDS

Phillips was willing to do anything to earn a scholarship to play football and despite dominating on the Nebraska high school scene, he wasn't getting the offers he thought he deserved.

The Phillips family took a calculated risk and sent Harrison off to a Stanford football camp for one last shot at his dream. At the camp, Harrison won the one-on-one battle known as "King of the Boards" against much bigger opponents and finally earned his scholarship. The risk paid off big time.

A NEW HOME

Jordan Phillips' journey to the NFL is one that came with its own sets of trials and tribulations. The youngest of three siblings in a single parent household, Phillips lost his mother, Sherry, to a car accident when he was only 2 years old. Jordan then went to live with his grandparents, Willie and Irene Alford. Though his grandparents were able to care for him, tragedy struck again when Irene had a stroke and fell into a coma. Though Willie, who was well into his 70s at the time, did his best to provide a great life for Jordan while caring for his wife, Phillips began to struggle in school and miss football practices.

The summer before Jordan's freshman year, Willie approached Shelley and Kody Kinder, the parents of Jordan's friend, Kanyon, for help. Soon after, Jordan moved in with the Kinders, who provided the aid and support he needed to flourish. With that, Phillips began to excel in both school and football.

PERSONAL

Phillips is the youngest of three siblings. He has a son named Malik Vonn. While at Oklahoma, Jordan majored in criminology.

If it wasn't for his love of football, Poyer believes he could be playing baseball in the MLB today. Drafted in the 42nd round of the 2009 MLB Draft by the Marlins following a stellar high school career, Poyer instead chose to play football and pursue baseball at Oregon State. Poyer chose to quit baseball to focus on football while with the Beavers, but the passion never went away. Poyer recently took part in batting practice with the Buffalo Bisons and threw out the first pitch on May 7th before their game against the Rochester Red Wings.

Recruited to Virginia Tech as a top defensive line prospect (rated the 6th best defensive end recruit by Rivals), Teller knew he was destined to play in the trenches, but could not have foreseen the transition that awaited him.

Despite being a highly touted defensive line prospect, when Virginia Tech experienced injury concerns along their offense line during Teller's freshman year, he volunteered to make the switch if it would help the team.

"I noticed that I think four or five offensive linemen were injured and their backs were against the wall..." Teller told TheKeyPlay.com. "So one day after practice I said 'I'm willing to move to offensive line, I played offensive line in high school, and I'm not afraid to make the change."

LOGAN THOMAS joined the Bills in 2016 following time with the Arizona Cardinals, Miami Dolphins, New York Giants, and Detroit Lions. Thomas was drafted by the Cardinals in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft out of Virginia Tech.

POSITION CHANGE

The position change of Logan Thomas has been well documented as he has made the move from quarterback to tight end. Thomas has stated that this position change has been the biggest obstacle he's faced in his career. After a standout collegiate career playing quarterback at Virginia Tech, Thomas managed to complete one pass in the NFL, an 81yard touchdown against the Denver Broncos while he was with the Arizona Cardinals before switching over to tight

"I had to learn a completely different set of ideals, a completely different verbiage, but it's going very smoothly. Thankfully going from quarterback to tight end is a lot easier than going from tight end to quarterback," Thomas said.

After making the conversion, Thomas caught the first touchdown pass of his career in the third quarter of the team's Week 7 matchup with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, a 22-yard-pass from former Bills quarterback Tyrod Taylor.

PERSONAL

Logan is the son of Kim Tarazona. Thomas studied Human Development and graduated from Virginia Tech. He lives with his wife, Brandie and their four children.

FIRST-AND-10

KYLE WILLIAMS enters his 13th season with the Bills after being drafted by the Bills with the first pick of the fifth round in the 2006 NFL Draft out of LSU. The veteran defensive tackle ranks as the franchises' all-time leader amongst defensive tackles in sacks and has appeared in more games than any other defensive tackle in team history.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BLOOD, SWEAT, TEARS

Entering his 12th season in 2017, Kyle Williams had never had the opportunity to play in a playoff game. That changed last season as the Bills earned the franchise's first playoff berth since 1999.

After even tallying his first career rushing score to help beat the Dolphins 22-16, Williams brought two of his sons into the locker room to celebrate the moment.

With his sons by his side, Williams broke down the team by saying, "Not us, right? Not us. Not us. Let's tank it, man. Let's just be done with it. They don't know anything about heart. They don't know anything about work. Huh? That's who we are. These boys are gonna enjoy it with their dad. They knew what was coming and they wanted to come celebrate with us."

PERSONAL

In May 2005, Kyle married the former Jill Myers. The couple has gone on to have five kids--two daughters, Kate and Anna Claire, and three sons, Harrison Reed, Gray and Bennett. Kyle majored in History/Communication Studies while at LSU.

HITTING THE LINKS

One of Kyle's hidden talents is that he is a scratch golfer. Capable of hitting 300-yard drives and shooting even par, Kyle told Sports Illustrated's MMQB that he has ambitions of one day qualifying for the U.S. Mid-Amateur golf championship.

Williams traditionally will sneak in a round of golf at Oak Hill Country Club in Pittsford, NY prior to the start of Bills training camp. The home of the 2013 PGA Championship, Williams even shot as low as 75 on the course in 2015.

In Week 17 of 2017 with the Bills on the Miami Dolphins goal line, the team called on an unlikely source to get the ball in the end zone. Williams lined up at fullback and took the rock one yard for the score and his first career touchdown. The play had only been practiced once in the week leading up to the game.

With Pro Bowl RB LeSean McCoy having a well publicized chase of 12,000 rushing yards, Williams joked post-game that he was beginning a chase of his own.

One of the most accomplished front office executives in NFL history, Bill Polian helped build multiple successful franchises during his 24 years as a general manager. In all, his teams made 17 playoff trips, eight conference championship games and five Super Bowl appearances, including winning Super Bowl XLI with the Indianapolis Colts.

Widely praised as both a top talent evaluator and influential executive, Polian is the first sixtime recipient of the NFL Executive of the Year award from The Sporting News and during his time in Buffalo he redesigned the franchise from a last place team in 1985 to the forefront of the league with appearances in Super Bowl XXV, Super Bowl XXVI, Super Bowl XXVII and Super Bowl XXVIII. Working alongside Owner Ralph C. Wilson, Jr.

and Head Coach Marv Levy, Polian's eye for talent and negotiating prowess brought a bevy of outstanding players to Buffalo. In fact, of the 47 Bills at the first two Super Bowls, 45 came to Buffalo during Polian's tenure.

His acquisitions included the 1986 signing of QB Jim Kelly from the USFL and the 1987 trade for LB Cornelius Bennett. Additional draft picks Polian made in Buffalo included DE Bruce Smith, OT Will Wolford, RB Thurman Thomas and WR Andre Reed. He built a team that would reverse the Bills record from 8-40 from 1984-86 to a 58-22 mark from 1988-92. During his time in Buffalo, 13 Bills drafted or obtained by Polian made a total of 49 Pro Bowl appearances. In all, Polian brought in five players who would end up in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith and Thurman Thomas), as well as Head Coach Marv Levy.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Responsible for putting together the only NFL team to go to four consecutive Super Bowls
- Brought six future Hall of Famers to Buffalo (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith, Thurman Thomas and Head Coach Mary Levy)

Andre Reed ended his 16-year career as the most accomplished wide receiver to ever play for the Buffalo Bills. The 6-2, 190-pound Kutztown product led the Bills in receiving from 1986 to 1992 and then again in 1994, 1996 and 1997 on his way to racking up the Bills' career receiving records for receptions (941) and receiving yards (13,095).

After being selected by Buffalo with the team's first choice in the fourth round of the 1985 NFL Draft, Reed emerged as one of the elite wideouts in the league during the 1989 season when he caught 88 passes for 1,312 yards and nine touchdowns.

Reed would go on to provide a dynamic presence on all four of the Bills' AFC Championship teams—leading the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns during the four-year run.

A seven-time Pro Bowler, Reed recorded a franchise record 36 100-yard receiving games (regular season) as a Bill. Reed also ranks as the franchise leader in games played with 221 and is tied with Bruce Smith as the franchise's all-time leaders in years of service with 15 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to seven straight Pro Bowls spanning from 1988 to 1994
- Bills franchise leader in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns
- Named to the Bills 50th Season All-Time Team in 2009

The impact Ralph Wilson, Jr. had on professional football culminated in 2009 with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

For starters, he was the only original AFL owner to keep his team in its originating city. The role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee and his passion for the game as one who has always had the league's best interests at heart before his own team has led many to refer to him as the NFL's "voice of reason."

Under his direction as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships in 1964 and 1965 and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). Later, his Bills would become the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships (1990-93) and appear in four straight Super Bowls. He was honored with numerous awards, including the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, Mr. Wilson received the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City. At the turn of the century, The Buffalo News named Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Widely regarded as one of the most dominant defensive players ever to play in the National Football League, Bruce Smith began his tenure with the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Over the next 19 seasons, Smith would amass more sacks (200) than any other player in NFL history. In Buffalo, Smith anchored the defense for 15 years, which ranks first (along with WR Andre Reed) for the most seasons played in a Bills uniform. In 10 of those years, Buffalo reached the postseason.

Taken with the first overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Smith started 13 games his rookie year and collected 48 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Those numbers jumped to 63 and 15.0, respectively, in 1986.

Perhaps his finest year came in 1990, when he posted 101 tackles, 19.0 sacks and 14 QB pressures while the team won its first of four consecutive AFC Championships. Smith was named to the Pro Bowl 11 times in his career and was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996.

Known for his ability to get to the opposing quarterback, Smith racked up sacks against 74 different quarterbacks and against every team but three: San Diego, Buffalo, and Baltimore. He ranks first in NFL history with 13 seasons of 10 or more sacks and second on the all-time postseason sack list with 14.5. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team in both the 1980's and 1990's. Smith was the AFC Defensive Player of the Week eight times during his Bills tenure, and Defensive Player of the Month six times. Extremely durable, Smith ranks 16th on the all-time games played list with 279.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NFL's all-time sack leader with 200.
- Bills' all-time sack leader with 171.
- Selected to 11 Pro Bowls.
- NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996

Thurman Thomas developed into one of the NFL's most versatile and dangerous offensive players in his 13 years in the league. He was also known as one of the team's most emotional leaders for the Buffalo Bills – a team that won more games (103) than any AFC team in the 1990s.

His ability to catch the ball as well as run with it was a key ingredient to the Bills' "No Huddle" offensive attack. The team improved to 13-3 in 1990 as Thomas led the NFL in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 1,297 yards and scored 11 touchdowns while catching 49 passes for 532 yards and two touchdowns. With the versatile back leading the way, the Bills marched through the playoffs to the first of their unprecedented four straight Super Bowl berths.

In 1991, Thomas amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards, just the 11th player ever to do so. His league-leading yardage output included 1,407 yards on the ground and an additional 631 yards on a career-high 62 receptions. He scored 12 touchdowns. He reached the 2,000-yard total again the following season which marked a record fourth straight season of leading the NFL in yards from Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was selected first- or second-team All-Pro and All-AFC five times, and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. Thomas retired as the NFL's ninth ranked rusher with 12,074 yards and added another 4,458 yards on 472 catches. He scored 65 rushing and 23 receiving touchdowns in his 13-season career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First NFL player to lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-92)
- Third back in history to record 400 receptions and 10,000 rushing yards
- Five-time Pro Bowl selection and 1991 NFL Most Valuable Player

In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the Juice loose." The "Juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-American and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, DeLamielleure played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season, DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980. He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills' respected front wall.

Eight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to six straight Pro Bowls from 1976-1981

James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with the Green Bay Packers, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats. In 1991, at the age of 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- When he retired in 1993, his total of 14,004 yards was No. 1 all-time
- Selected to eight Pro Bowls (1979, 1981-86, 1992), named All-Pro four times and All-NFC three times
- First player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and 26 times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses. In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times.

In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

In 1986, when Marv Levy was chosen to direct the fortunes of the Buffalo Bills, he brought with him more than 30 years of coaching experience. In 1987, his first full season with the Bills, the team returned to respectability with a 7-8 record and were in the playoff hunt throughout most of the season.

The following season the team posted a 12-4 record and won their first of six AFC Eastern Division titles. With his high-powered "no-huddle" offense, Levy went on to set a new standard for NFL coaches as he led his AFC championship team to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

From 1988 through 1997, the Bills were first in the AFC in winning percentage and second only to the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL. Levy, the winningest coach in Bills' history, recorded a 112-70 regular season record and was 11-8 in the playoffs during his 11 seasons with the Bills. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and AFC Coach of the Year in 1988, 1993 and 1995.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was NFL Coach of the Year in 1988, AFC Coach of the year in 1988, 1993 and 1995
- Led the Bills to the playoffs eight times, including four Super Bowls
- Won six AFC East Division titles

Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw's ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw's speed, strength, and natural ability made him "the driving force of the offensive unit" according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith.

Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position followed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone.

A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a firsteam All-AFL selection five times (1962-66) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969. He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football's All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Bills to back-to-back AFL titles in 1964 and 1965
- Named All-AFL five times (1962-1966)
- First player to spend entire career in the AFL to be elected to the Hall of Fame

O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American from the University of Southern California and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner, was one of history's most heralded rookies when the Buffalo Bills selected him with the first overall pick in the 1969 draft.

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his career

O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game season.

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972-76. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

• Won four NFL rushing titles (1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976)

• Became the first back to ever rush for more than 2,000 yards in 1973 with 2003 yards.

 Named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975, and also named to both All-Pro and All-AFC squads from 1972-76.

BUFFALO BILLS WALL OF FAME

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

Ralph C. Wilson Jr. Statue

The Buffalo Bills announced in March 2015 that the organization would commission a statue to be made of Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. The statue is displayed outside of New Era Field in Founder's Plaza. Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. passed away at the age of 95. Mr. Wilson was the sole owner of the Bills franchise for 54 seasons after purchasing the team on October 28, 1959. Under his leadership, the Bills won two American Football League Championships in 1964 and 1965 and appeared in an unprecedented four consecutive Super Bowls in the 1990s. Mr. Wilson along with former Bills Head Coach Marv Levy, former General Manager Bill Polian plus eight of his players have earned football's highest honor by being inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

The construction of the statue was a collaborative effort between Terry and Kim Pegula and Mary Wilson. Founder's Plaza, the current location of the statue, is located northwest of The Bills Store at New Era Field.

Mr. Wilson's statue is the first statue in history to be displayed on the grounds of New Era Field. The life-size statue is based on a photo taken of Mr. Wilson with Thurman Thomas along the sidelines on October 21, 1990 during Buffalo's 30-27 victory over the New York Jets.

THURMAN RB THOMAS

13 YEARS

MAY 16, 1966

HOUSTON, TEXAS

WILLOWRIDGE HS

OKLAHOMA STATE

ACQUIRED 1988

Drafted by the Bills in the second round (40th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

· Is one of only three players in franchise history to have his number retired. Thomas' #34 joins Jim Kelly's #12 (retired in 2001) and Bruce Smith's #78 (retired in 2016).

 Wore #34 at all three levels of his playing career and subsequently had his jersey retired at Willowridge High School, Oklahoma State and now with the Buffalo Bills.

 Was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

 Inducted onto the Bills Wall of Fame in 2005 and ranks as the franchise's all-time leader in both rushing yards (11,938) and rushing touchdowns (65).

 Named the NFL Most Valuable Player in 1991. Garnered the MVP honors after leading the NFL with 2,038 scrimmage yards.

 Is still the only player in NFL history to lead the league in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-1993).

THURMAN THOMAS will have his jersey become just the third number in team history to be retired this season when the Bills take on the Patriots on Monday Night Football. Thomas officially retired as a Buffalo Bill on February 27, 2001, finishing his career as one of the most prolific running backs in NFL history. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, three-time first-team All-Pro, and former NFL MVP, Thomas spent 12 seasons with the Bills (1988-99) before playing the final season of his career with the Miami Dolphins in 2000.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

REMEMBER THE NAME

A Heisman trophy candidate and Big Eight conference player of the year in 1987 as a senior, Thomas left Oklahoma State as one of the most heralded players in the nation. Despite his numerous plaudits and transcendent abilities on the field, Thomas' draft stock took a hit due to a knee injury he suffered during his junior year.

> The Bills ended up being the beneficiary of Thomas' slide, nabbing the dynamic running back with the 40th overall selection.

The memory of 39 players being selected before Thomas was one that ended up providing him motivation throughout his career. Thomas even went so far as saving a VHS tape of the 1988 NFL Draft and watching it back to ensure he would always remember the feeling.

PERSONAL

Thurman and his wife, Patti, have four children, Olivia, Angel, Annika, and Thurman III. The Thomas family resides in Buffalo, NY.

PUTTING THE COMMUNITY FIRST

The Buffalo Bills organization is committed to improving the quality of life in Western New York through community outreach and charitable investment with a focus in the areas of health & safety, youth football and military appreciation. With the platform that the Bills players and coaches are given, they've always made it a point to make an impact in the Western New York community and that is no different during the 2017 season and 2018 offseason.

2018 SEASON

POLICE RIDE-ALONG

This year, on the 11th anniversary of Sept. 11, the Buffalo Bills paid special visits to the Buffalo Police and Buffalo Fire Departments. Lorenzo Alexander, Micah Hyde, Dion Dawkins and Reid Ferguson, spent time with local police officers. The group participated in police ride-alongs, where they were able to get to know members of the Buffalo Police Department's Neighborhood Engagement Team. Kicking off at the Belle Center, the Bills were met by Mayor Byron Brown for a short presentation before the ride-alongs began. As they made their way around town, the Bills stopped at local youth football practices where they shared words of advice with the aspiring athletes.

FIREHOUSE VISIT

In commemoration of September 11, a day that changed our nation's history forever, Bills players made a trip to a local firehouse to spend time with a group of Western New York's heroes. Bills veteran linebacker Jerry Hughes, tight end Jason Croom, running back Taiwan Jones, punter Corey Bojorquez and guard Vlad Ducasse, joined more than 20 firefighters at Buffalo Fire Department Engine 31 for an evening of remembrance and celebration. To show their gratitude, the Bills served the firefighters dinner, took the time to get to know them and listened to their stories.

TOYOTA ROOKIE CLUB

For Bills newcomers Josh Allen, Harrison Phillips, Tremaine Edmunds, and each of the members of the Toyota Rookie Club, it wasn't long ago that they were dreaming of what it would be like to play football at the professional level. Though they all come from diverse backgrounds, they are unified in their love for the game, the lessons it's taught them and the opportunities it's afforded them. Recently, the Toyota Rookie Club set out to share the gift of football and impart these lessons by hosting an NFL Flag Football clinic for 150 boys and girls at New Era Field.

The evening brought the rookies' lives full circle and as they helped lead the local youth football and NFL Flag players in a series of drills, they reminisced on their own youth football experiences, how those experiences shaped their lives and discussed the importance of their job as role models.

As Allen and Phillips explained, NFL Flag gives kids the best of two worlds. Not only do they get to interact with professional athletes, they get to learn the fundamentals of the sport and other valuable takeaways.

"I did not actually [get to interact with any professional athletes when I was growing up]," explained Allen. "If I was in these kids' positions [when I was younger], obviously I would really enjoy it. I grew up loving football, so getting to come out here to express my love for football to some of the younger generations, is really cool. I did play flag football [though]. I played in one of our neighboring towns, probably when I was six or seven years old. That's kind of when I started, so this brings back some memories for sure.

Phillips, Buffalo's 2018 third-round pick, knows firsthand the profound impact meeting a professional athlete at an early age can have.

"Danny Woodhead [former NFL athlete] was someone I met when I was in sixth grade and I'll never forget that time," he said. "This really puts everything in perspective that there's 150-200 kids out here that we can make a lasting impact on."

Tremaine Edmunds, who offers a unique perspective because his father was an NFL athlete, also weighed in.

"I think [flag football is] big because I remember these days when I was out here playing like this," said Edmunds. "Just to see guys that made it, it's an inspiration for these kids out here. [To have] someone they can look up to [is great] ... [and with] my drill, I am trying to incorporate teamwork...it's about cheering on the people that are in [the game]. We've got chants going on the sidelines, jumping up and down – having fun out here. That's what it's all about."

BACK TO SCHOOL

Thanks to Bills safety Micah Hyde, there were no back-to-school blues for children at the Boys & Girls Club center at Buffalo United Charter School.

Hyde and his IMagINe for Youth Foundation hosted a backpack giveaway at the local school on Tuesday, Aug. 28. The backpacks, which were filled with items donated by Eaton Office Supply, were given to 150 kids so that they had the tools they needed to start the school year off right.

"I think providing these backpacks not only helps these kids get the tools they need for the school year, but also helps take some stress of the parents' shoulders," explained Hyde. "We're going to be in Buffalo for a while and will continue to keep giving back to our community."

John Miller also provided school supplies for those in need. When asked what motivates him to do so, Miller, who recently hosted a backpack giveaway at the local Northwest Buffalo Community Center, reflected on his own experiences.

"I was fortunate enough to have 100 bookbags to have a bookbag giveaway at the Northwest Buffalo Community Center," said Miller. "It was a good opportunity just to give back to the kids [and] give back to the community because when I was growing up I didn't have that opportunity. I know that some of those kids come up in different types of situations and don't really have a lot of financial support, so it's always good to give back to the community and especially the youth."

During his visit, Miller had the chance to bond with the youngsters, while helping them prepare for the 2018 school year.

CRUCIAL CATCH

To honor those affected by cancer, the Buffalo Bills took part in several events during the NFL's crucial catch week. On Monday night, the team hosted 30 breast cancer survivors from ECMC Foundation and American Cancer Society for a night celebrating survivorship. Logan Thomas, Lorenzo Alexander and their families served dinner for the survivors. At the event, it was announced that the American Cancer Society and Buffalo Bills through the NFL Crucial Catch program awarded a $100,000 grant to ECMC to help reduce breast cancer disparities by providing access to breast cancer screening, follow-up of abnormal mammograms, and timely access to specialty care if needed. On Tuesday night, the Buffalo Bills hosted a family fun night at their facility, where several players enjoyed a night of games and fun with children and families from Oishei Children's Hospital.

PLAY 60 KICKOFF

Following the team's big win in Minnesota, a group of Bills players used their day off to give back to local youth. Joining 600 kids in the ADPRO Sports Training Center, the Bills, in partnership with the Independent Health Foundation and the Buffalo Niagara American Heart Association, helped kick off this year's Play 60 Challenge and Fitness for Kids Challenge for students in kindergarten through fifth grade.

In celebration of the programs, which will launch in 50 schools throughout the area on Oct. 1, Bills players spent time with the children as they participated in a fun fitness class hosted by the YMCA, heard a performance from local artist Kevin McCarthy and participated in a health-themed guiz show with the Quizmaster Dennis George.

For Bills veteran linebacker Lorenzo Alexander, who is an advocate in the community and a devoted family man, the event was another way for him to positively influence the younger generation.

"I came last year, and sometimes we actually go out to the schools too," he explained. "It's always fun...We had about 16 guys come out and being able to dance and hang out with the kids and teach them about health and playing 60 minutes a day, is really cool. Most of us are dads and it's another way to impact the next generation."

ROOKIES IN THE CITY

Bills first-round draft picks cornerback Tremaine Edmunds and quarterback Josh Allen joined the rest of the 2018 Bills rookie class in visiting Buffalo Public School No. 99 Stanley Makowski Early Childhood Center to read and engage with local children. Working with the youngsters proved inspiring and the Bills newcomers were very pleased with how the event turned out.

"It was a really cool experience to see their faces light up," explained Allen.

The rookies' faces lit up later that day too as they received a tour of the New Era Headquarters in downtown Buffalo. The guys got to try on a variety of caps and visit the design room. All in all, the rookies had a productive day in Western New York, getting to know more about their new home.

NFL FLAG TOURNAMENT

Bills rookies joined team veterans at the ADPRO Sports Training Center last Saturday, June 2, for a NFL Flag tournament. A few of the players who helped coach and cheer on the young athletes, ages five through 17, include quarterback Josh Allen, defensive tackle Harrison Phillips and linebacker Lorenzo Alexander. NFL Flag is a leading flag football program, which promotes high safety standards, education and support. The program believes that football can impart profound lessons and provide youth with skills that help them grow and reach their full potential. The Bills players were excited to help teach the local youth through a fun day of flag football.

2018 OFFSEASON

Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott and his wife Jamie found time to visit the Women & Children's Hospital of Buffalo this offseason. They introduced themselves to dozens of families and made longlasting memories. "It was awesome," said Coach McDermott. "It's funny, I get more out of this than I give. But just great to see the looks on the children's faces and to shed some joy on an adverse situation for some families."

COACHES DAYS OUT

Several Buffalo Bills coaches served a special Valentine's Day lunch at the Buffalo City Mission. "For us to be doing this, to be in the community and to see the joy in their faces when they see us serving them, that fills my heart with joy," stated defensive coordinator Leslie Frazier. "Just to be able to serve and see the response we get from them."

Saturday, June 2, Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott, offensive coordinator Brian Daboll, defensive coordinator Leslie Frazier and many other members of the Buffalo Bills coaching staff, lent a helping hand to the community through Habitat for Humanity Buffalo. Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization that helps place families in affordable housing in the Western New York Community and around the world. Housing insecurity is something that touches about half of adults at some point in their life and the Bills were grateful they could make a difference on such a pressing issue.
