LEADING THE CHARGE

AT

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2026 | 1 PM | METLIFE STADIUM

TOP BILLING

- The Buffalo Bills head to MetLife Stadium to face the New York Jets for the first time this season.
- Buffalo leads the all-time series against the Jets, 73-58 (.557), their best winning percentage against an AFC East opponent. The Bills hold a five-game win streak against the Jets dating back to 2023.
- The two teams last played in the 2025 regular-season finale at Highmark Stadium. The Bills totaled 470 total yards of offense and held the Jets to just 122 yards in a commanding 35-8 win.
- Since 2020, the Bills hold a 10-2 record (.833) against the Jets. Their +164 point differential against the Jets is the highest point differential by any team against a single opponent in that span.
- The Bills have held the Jets without a TD on their opening drive in the last 25 meetings, the longest active streak in the NFL.

FAMILIAR FACES

- Jets DT Harrison Phillips was a 3rd round pick of the Bills in 2018.
- Bills RB Ty Johnson was a member of the Jets from 2020-22 and played in 44 games.
- Bills WR Greg Dortch entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Jets in 2019.
- Jets offensive coordinator Frank Reich was drafted by the Bills in the 3rd round of the 1985 NFL Draft. He spent the first 10 seasons of his career in Buffalo and was a member of all four Super Bowl teams (1991-94).
- Bills defensive coordinator Jim Leonhard played safety for the Jets from 2009-11.
- Bills quarterbacks coach Bo Hardegree (2019-20), secondary coach Joe Danna (2015-16) and outside linebackers coach Bobby April III (2013-14) previously coached for the Jets.

AHEAD OF THE HERD

James Cook III (5,073) became the fourth RB in Bills history to surpass 5,000 career rushing yards. He has recorded at least one rushing touchdown in each of his last seven games, tied with Christian McCaffrey for the longest streak this season and one game shy of his franchise-record eight-game streak from 2024-25. His 2,435 rushing yards since the start of last season lead the NFL.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

5th — Josh Allen (5,006) is the fifth QB in NFL history to surpass 5,000 career rushing yards, joining Lamar Jackson, Michael Vick, Cam Newton, and Russell Wilson.

19 — Tyler Bass improved to 19-of-19 on field goals in 2026, marking the best start to a season by a Bills kicker in team history, surpassing Steve Christie's mark of 17 (1994). He also extended his franchise-record streak to 24 consecutive FGs made.

'93 — The Bills are 7-1, marking the team's best start since 1993. They've scored 256 points through Joe Brady's first 8 games as an NFL head coach, the third highest mark in the Super Bowl era (Mike Martz, 330 in 2000 & Sean McVay, 263 in 2017).

HIGHMARK STADIUM

FIRST-AND-10

THE BUFFALO BILLS broke ground on Highmark Stadium on June 5, 2023. In front of a crowd of approximately 500 people, Bills Owner/CEO Terry Pegula was joined by team, league, county and state officials to commemorate the occasion.

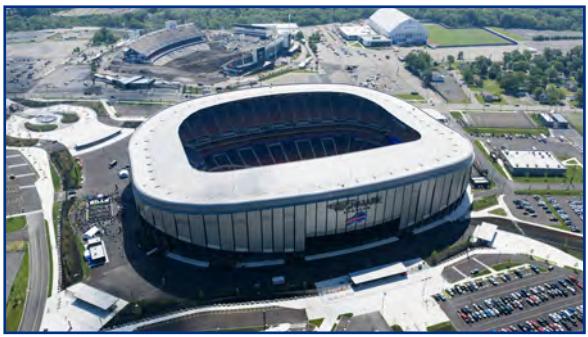

"Ralph, we're moving across the street. We're going to build a stadium here, and we're going to tear down a stadium over there that's full of memories. So, we need to fill this stadium with more memories and continue our legacy. We should remember the past, but embrace the building of our future," Pegula remarked in his comments.

SHOUTOUTS

- The Buffalo Bills officially opened Highmark Stadium at a ceremonial Ribbon Cutting on Tuesday, June 23, 2026.
- The state-of-the-art open-air stadium sits on a 242-acre site and covers approximately 1.6 million square feet. The public-private partnership between the Buffalo Bills, New York State and Erie County is the largest construction project in Western New York history.
- The joint venture team of Gilbane | Turner, in association with 34 Group and ARC Building Partners, provided construction management services for Highmark Stadium. The full project team included Legends Project Development and Populous as the designer.
- The stadium's capacity is 60,108 seats, plus standing room. Premium areas include suites, loge seats, clubs, and other premium seating options. Highmark Stadium features state-of-the-art video and scoreboards, an industry-leading sound system, administrative and event staff offices, broadcast facilities, locker rooms, food service kitchens and concessions, and best-in-class sports lighting.
- The canopy that surrounds the stadium covers approximately 64% of the seats. The canopy is designed to mitigate wind factors and works in concert with the exterior façade to prevent swirling winds from reaching the playing field level. Radiant heating is in place to make fans more comfortable.
- Highmark Stadium boasts a Kentucky bluegrass field, cultivated at Tuckahoe Turf Farms in New Jersey. Beneath the surface lies an intricate system of heating coils that keeps the field from freezing. State-of-the-art ventilation, sub-air technology, and artificial grow lights work together to support healthy grass growth and preserve exceptional field conditions year-round.
- The Buffalo Bills Public Art Program at Highmark Stadium is presented by Victory Live. This program brought together more than 45 artists and art teams, and thousands of community members, to create a permanent, site-specific art collection throughout the new venue.

TERRY PEGULA

OWNER/CEO

Terry Pegula rose from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry, and one of very few owners to operate franchises in multiple professional sports.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry realized a life-long dream on October 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. to become the second owners of the Buffalo Bills.

Pegula played a key role in negotiating a deal between New York State, Erie County, the NFL and the Bills on the New Highmark stadium, which officially broke ground in 2023 and opened in 2026. Pegula also was an instrumental contributor in the design of the new home of the Bills.

"We're going to build a stadium here, right? And we're going to tear down a stadium over there that's full of memories," Pegula said at the ground breaking ceremony. "So we need to fill this stadium with more memories and continue our legacy. We should remember the past, but embrace the building of our future."

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee, Fan Engagement and Major events committee and the DEI committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin.

Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy.

JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention to sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State and the Big 10 to form an NCAA conference.

On February 22, 2011, Terry and Kim purchased the NHL's Buffalo Sabres and their sports ownership extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and the AHL Rochester Americans.

The Pegulas opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million dollar complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two hockey rinks, training facilities and a full-service Marriott Hotel.

The complex brought new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. Buffalo also hosted the 2016 and 2026 NHL Drafts, 2018 World Junior Championships, and the 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York.

In addition to helping manage the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his family's business operations in Boca Raton, Florida.

PERSONAL

Born on March 27, 1951 in Carbondale, PA, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour and was a member of the 2021 and 2024 US Olympic squads.

KIM PEGULA
OWNER

Kim Pegula is the owner of both the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres.

She became the first female president of both an NHL and NFL team.

Kim has served on the NFL's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee. She has also been a member of both the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee and the NHL's Executive Inclusion Council.

She has served as a keynote speaker at the NFL's Annual Quarterback Coaching Summit, an event to build the coaching and personnel development pipeline and strengthen diversity across the league. She also regularly participated in the NFL's Women's Careers in Football Forum.

On October 8, 2014, Kim and her husband Terry realized a long-time dream when they became only the second owners of the Bills. The Pegulas purchased the Sabres in 2011 and their sports ownership extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and the AHL Rochester Americans.

Kim played a major role in helping negotiate the structure of a deal between New York State, Erie County, the National Football League and the Bills for the New Highmark stadium, which officially broke ground in 2023. She also was a key contributor in the design of the new stadium, which opened in 2026.

After owning multiple professional sports teams in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities, including the development and operation LECOM Harborcenter in downtown Buffalo.

PSE helped bring new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. It has also hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships and the 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament.

Pegula and PSE entities have been honored with a number of awards including Business First's Most Influential People, NYS Emmy Awards for sports content, Buffalo Best Place To Work, the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL, and numerous individual staff recognitions.

Kim and Terry have encouraged the growth of sports in the community. In 2010, the Pegulas gave $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Penn State. The facility allowed their hockey program to become a NCAA Division I team and the Big 10 to form an NCAA conference.

Kim supported Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex allowing their athletic department to become a Division III program.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York.

Pegula served on the Board of Directors of Republic Services, Inc., an industry leader in U.S. recycling and non-hazardous solid waste.

PERSONAL

Born in Seoul, South Korea on June 7, 1969, Kim was adopted at the age of 5 by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr and moved to Fairport, NY, a suburb of Rochester.

She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources, Inc. in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour and was a member of the 2021 US Olympic squad.

On June 7, 2022, Kim suffered a sudden cardiac arrest which has affected her every day life and is currently undergoing long-term physical and occupational therapy. Her family asks for prayers for Kim to assist in her recovery which has been lengthy but steady.

PETE GUELLI

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Pete Guelli was named President of Business Operations for both the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres in 2026. He was originally named Chief Operating Officer of both teams on March 19, 2024.

In these roles, Guelli works collectively with owner Terry Pegula, his family and the Pegula family office, along with the general managers of both teams — Brandon Beane (Bills) and Jarmo Kekäläinen (Sabres).

"Pete is a great fit for us," said Pegula. "His combined NBA and NFL experience was important and allows him to work across all of our teams. He also works closely with the family office so we can leverage all the resources we have to make the teams as successful as possible. It's a lot of responsibility, and I needed someone with his insight whom I could trust in this role."

"His new leadership role has streamlined my communication with the teams and created great alignment within the organizations. Brandon, Jarmo and Pete work collaboratively together. I expected it would work well and it has."

In his first two seasons with the Bills, Guelli quickly modernized and streamlined several business initiatives, helping elevate the organization into one of the NFL's most powerful brands despite competing in one of the league's smallest markets.

As the Bills embark on a new chapter with the opening of a new Highmark Stadium in 2026, Guelli and his leadership team oversaw efforts that exceeded sales goals of personal seat licenses, suites and corporate sponsorships.

The Bills have also advanced initiatives to strengthen their fan base across Western New York, Southern Ontario in Canada, and beyond. In 2025, the Bills officially joined the NFL's Global Markets Program and continue to execute strategies designed to grow and fortify their footprint in Canada.

Guelli also led efforts to partner with Hallmark Media and Skydance Sports to produce a Bills-centric Hallmark movie entitled Holiday Touchdown: A Bills Love Story, which debuted in 2025.

Guelli returned to Buffalo following a five-year tenure as Chief Business Officer of the New York Giants. He joined the Giants in 2019, where he was recruited to modernize the team's business model and operations.

During his tenure, Guelli restructured key business functions, established a business intelligence and analytics department, expanded the team's digital capabilities, launched branding initiatives, implemented a new customer service function, and extended the team's partnership with Ticketmaster.

He also led efforts to sign Eli Manning to a comprehensive role within the organization and currently serves on the NFL's team presidents' business optimization committee.

Prior to joining the Giants, Guelli served as Chief Operating Officer of the Charlotte Hornets, after initially joining the franchise as Executive Vice President, Chief Marketing and Sales Officer in 2009.

In Charlotte, he led the transition of team ownership to Michael Jordan, when Jordan became the first former player to serve as the majority owner of an NBA franchise. Guelli spearheaded the organization's transition from the Bobcats back to the historic Hornets brand in 2014.

He also led efforts to secure a new television rights deal, oversaw the launch of the team's G League affiliate, guided the Hornets' participation in the NBA Global Games in China, expanded the organization's partnership with Live Nation, managed renovations to Spectrum Center, and directed a successful bid to host the 2019 NBA All-Star Game.

Guelli also served as President of the Hornets Foundation, focused on community investment initiatives in Charlotte.

This marks Guelli's second tenure with the Bills, having previously served as Senior Vice President of Business Ventures from 1998–2009. He was initially hired to oversee the team's expansion into the Rochester market, including relocating training camp from SUNY Fredonia to St. John Fisher College.

PERSONAL

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Guelli is a graduate of Aquinas Institute and SUNY Brockport. He and his wife, Patty, have two sons — Gunner and Grayson — and reside in Orchard Park.

BRANDON BEANE

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

Brandon Beane was named general manager of the Bills on May 9, 2017, and was promoted to his current position of president of football operations and general manager in 2026. In his first nine seasons in Buffalo, Beane has helped build a roster and establish a culture that has produced 8 playoff appearances, including five consecutive AFC East division championships from 2020–24.

Beane has won more games than any general manager in team history, and the Bills are the only team in the NFL to win 10+ games and earn a playoff berth in every season from 2019–25. Along the way, he twice earned NFL Executive of the Year honors following the 2020 and 2022 seasons.

"Our goal is sustained success." It was a phrase spoken at Beane's inaugural press conference in 2017 and repeated many times since. The results have followed, driven by a successful draft process that has often required selecting from the lower part of the first round.

While earning a playoff berth in his first season in 2017, Beane also engineered several trades that resulted in the Bills selecting two future Pro Bowlers — Josh Allen (7th overall) and Tremaine Edmunds (16th overall) — in the 2018 NFL Draft.

Allen has since become the team's franchise quarterback, was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 2024, earned multiple Pro Bowl selections, and was rewarded with long-term contract extensions in both 2021 and 2025.

In 2020, the Bills earned their first AFC East division title and their first playoff win since 1995. That season, Beane was named NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News, the Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA), and Pro Football Focus, becoming the first Bills executive to receive the honor since Bill Polian in 1991.

In 2021, Beane was named the PFWA's Jack Horrigan Award winner, an honor presented annually to the league or club official who best assists the media in its coverage. In 2022, Sporting News again named Beane NFL Executive of the Year, marking the second time in three seasons he received the award.

Beane joined the Bills after a 19-year tenure with the Carolina Panthers. He served as the Panthers' assistant general manager from 2015–16 and played a vital role in constructing the club's draft boards from 2012–17. He also evaluated professional and collegiate players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

During Beane's time in Carolina, the Panthers captured five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships. In 2012, he was named the Panthers' interim general manager, holding the role for the final 10 games and posting a 6–4 record.

"Brandon is a very competitive person," said Terry Pegula. "I know he likes to win, but I also know he hates to lose. He's not afraid to say what he's thinking, and if he disagrees with something, he will say so — even to the owner. I love it. We have a very good relationship built on open discussions, debate and constant communication."

Beane began his career in the Panthers' communications department in 1998 and later filled various football operations and personnel roles within the organization before being named director of football operations in 2008.

PERSONAL

Off the field, Beane has ingrained himself in the Western New York community. Since 2020, the Beane family has funded hundreds of animal adoptions through Bills Muttfia, a program launched in conjunction with the SPCA. They are also very active in many local pet charites, including the SPCA of Erie County, the Cleft Rescue Unit in Rochester, Rosebud Rescue in West Falls, and the Buffalo Guinea Pig Mafia Rescue.

During the 2020 offseason, Beane helped raise nearly $100,000 for COVID-19 relief efforts through a draft-day sweepstakes benefiting United Way. He also helped promote the Buffalo Strong initiative, which supported FeedMore WNY.

Beane and his wife have also made multiple holiday visits to Oishei Children's Hospital.

A native of Stanly County, NC, Beane (born July 27, 1976) graduated cum laude in communications studies from UNC Wilmington in 1998. He and his wife, Hayley, have two sons — Tyson, a scouting assistant with the New York Giants, and Wes — and reside in East Aurora, N.Y. The family has three rescue dogs, Chipper, Daisy Mae and Tilly. Beane enjoys golf, racquetball and basketball.

JOE BRADY
HEAD COACH

Joe Brady was named the 21st head coach in Buffalo Bills history on Jan. 27, 2026, after originally joining the organization in 2022. In four seasons with the Bills prior to his promotion, Brady played an integral role in sustaining one of the NFL's most consistent offenses and helping guide the team to multiple division titles and postseason appearances.

Brady first joined Buffalo as the team's quarterbacks coach and was promoted to interim offensive coordinator during the 2023 season. Under his direction, the Bills stabilized offensively and finished the regular season 6–1 while capturing the AFC East division title. ### FORGING HIS OWN PATH TO THE NFL

Despite playing at a smaller Division II institution, Alford's faith never wavered. He kept a steadfast mindset throughout the entire process.

"Going to a D-II, obviously you just have to work hard," he said. "It's a small school so you want to standout no matter what and just going to a Division II school, it made me play with a chip on my shoulder. It made want to be better. Better than the Power 5, better than the D-IAA, those types of guys. It just helped me play physical, play fast and it's just a mindset thing."

Alford earned a scholarship two months into his freshman campaign. In the next three seasons, he became one of Tusculum's most storied players in school history.

"What impressed me the most about him was how much he wanted to learn," [Tusculum head coach Jerry] Odom said. "On the defensive side of the ball, we were in a lot of different coverages, and he really wanted to learn everything about it, and I think that was the first thing that really stood out to me about him."

Following an unparalleled tenure for the Pioneers, Alford spoke with a few different NFL teams but then the COVID-19 pandemic happened which put a pause on everything.

"All my pro days and stuff got canceled," Alford said. "But I did have the opportunity to go ahead and sign to Winnipeg [Blue Bombers] and that's what I did."

Alford's Canadian campaign would forge a lane to what he had been working for his entire life – a shot to play in the NFL. (Ashton Edmunds, AtlantaFalcons.com, September 27, 2022)

AN EMOTIONAL WIN

Josh Allen led the Bills to a 44-34 win over the Seattle Seahawks in 2020. The performance became even more meaningful after the game when Bills HC Sean McDermott told the media that Josh's grandmother, Patricia Allen, had passed away the day prior. In a post-game video released by the team, Allen emotionally tells his teammates "I love you guys. There's no place I'd rather be." Upon learning of the heartache Allen played through, Bills fans began making donations to Oishei Children's Hospital in $17 increments. Donations exploded over the week, eventually surpassing a million dollars.

FROM AN EARLY AGE

A multi-sport athlete as a kid, young Kyle ditched baseball in the eighth grade to focus on football. He popped up on the radar of Tony Tabor, then the head coach at Desert Mountain High School.

"He was kind of one of those kids that you pinch yourself when you meet him," Tabor says. "Like, 'What's wrong here?' He worked hard in the weight room, he was a leader, his parents didn't bother us to play him."

Kyle would go on to throw for more than 8,000 yards and 86 touchdowns at Desert Mountain High School, where one of his favorite targets was current Baltimore Ravens tight end Mark Andrews. Even early on, he showed flashes of the fire that would carry him to the NFL.

"We were playing Mesa Mountain View in the first game of the season," Tabor recalls. "Kyle threw an interception. Most kids who throw an interception make an effort to kind of get in the way [of the defender], but not really tackle. Kyle was so mad he just went and blasted that kid. I remember pulling him aside and saying, 'Son, that's a great play. Don't ever do it again.' "
(Yahoo! Sports, Jay Busbee, October 24, 2019)

PAINFUL GROWTH SPURT

Growing up playing Pop Warner football, Anderson was a quarterback and linebacker. As a 5-9, 195 pound high school freshman, he played defensive line and linebacker. It wasn't until a major growth spurt before his sophomore season that he switched to offensive line. He sprouted from 5-9 to 6-5 that year. By the time he was a senior, he weighed 305 pounds. His athleticism playing linebacker is something he credits to now playing offensive line.

ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT

In high school, Anderson and his best friend, Dom Fierro, started their own moving company called "Sons For a Day." His aunt, Deedee, knew a local real estate agent and their office referred a lot of business to them.

"My father took a 10% cut because we used his truck, but I was able to save up enough money for my first XBox and my first tattoo (Pax Romana on my right arm). We once moved a painting that was worth $5 million."

THE ROOKIE CARD

Over the past six months, Joe Andreessen has encountered a series of amazing moments on his unfathomable NFL journey. The suburban Buffalo kid navigated the fringes of college football, excelled in his lone season as a University at Buffalo transfer linebacker, got an undrafted rookie tryout with the Buffalo Bills, did enough to get signed as a training camp body and not only earned a spot on the 53-man roster, but also has played in real games for his favorite team.

The boyhood dream came into sharper focus and "Buffalo Joe" hardly could contain himself. At a desk in an upstairs bedroom of his parents' house in Depew, he rocked nervously in his chair and laughed at the thought of it all. His first football card.

Might sound trivial to some, but not to Andreessen. He has a massive collection of those 3×5 pictures that urge a youngster to daydream, to study the game and to mark an innocent time. Andreessen reminisced how he and his dad would visit flea markets to look at all the memorabilia, and perhaps come home with a prize or two.

Andreessen insisted neither the little kid in him nor the special-teams overachiever will take it for granted. "I'm just happy," Andreessen said, his smile still wide. "If you don't collect, I guess you don't know. Obviously, in the football collecting realm, the QBs hold the most value, and the offensive guys are below that – the specialty positions like wide receivers, running backs. So if you're not a first-round pick or notable draft pick, a lot of guys in the NFL don't get cards because their cards don't hold value ... That's why I even tweeted it out because I really wanted one, and kind of being in my position I wasn't sure if I was going to be able to get one. I'm just excited to be in this position."

PLAYING FOR MORE

When asked who his inspiration is, Tyler Bass is quick to answer his grandmother.

"My grandma was actually at practice with me every day," Bass told Georgia Southern. "She also was battling breast cancer at the time but she didn't miss a practice or a game, so that gives me a lot of strength."

His grandma has been involved in his football career from the start. When Bass decided to try out for the football team in ninth grade, she brought him to tryouts. Once he made it, she would take him to practice when he couldn't drive. She would also bring snacks and meals to make sure he was performing.

She was diagnosed with breast cancer when he was a senior in high school and had to go through chemotherapy for treatment. She has never missed a game of his, home or away, even through treatment. Her battle taught him not to be afraid of any challenge in front of him.

HOCKEY MADE HIM A BETTER FOOTBALL PLAYER

Bell's first love was hockey. The Bronx native started playing when he was 5 and didn't stop until turning his full attention to football at 15, skating as a forward for the New York City Cyclones and the Riverbank State Park youth program.

"Nobody plays hockey in the Bronx," said Bell, who also played lacrosse and basketball. "None of my friends played. They all played basketball and football. They saw me going to hockey games in the morning and were like, 'Bro, what are you doing?' I fell in love with it, and sooner or later, they're coming to my games, watching and supporting."

He explained how playing hockey helped make him a better football player.

"A lot of things: balance, strength, stability, just being able to move your body in certain ways because when you're on the ice, you're not grounded and moving weight faster," Bell said. "Just being able to move your body and lean and do certain things helps me when I'm running routes or have the ball in my hands. Being able to bounce off hits, contact balance and being able to stay up." (Tim Graham, The Athletic, May 9, 2026)

PLAYING FOR MORE

Benford grew up in Randallstown, Md., a suburb of Baltimore. During the spring 2021 season – the Wildcats season was moved from the fall because of the Covid-19 pandemic – Benford's mother, Christel, was hospitalized. Before a game against Stony Brook, Benford texted with his mom and thought she was doing well. Tragically, he found out after the game that she had suffered a medical setback and died. Loss has been a constant in Benford's life, which explains the heart tattoo on his right cheekbone. Half of it is colored in, the other half is not, signifying part of his heart being gone.

When asked how it could be that he didn't appear as a rookie to be afraid of any situation, Benford traced it back to those Maryland roots. "It's from where I grew up, the city," he said. "I'm going to be honest, when I was younger, I had confidence, but it was more so that I just wasn't afraid of anything. As I got older, I learned more about how to be more confident and continue to not be afraid. I continuously kept my confidence high. Regardless if you're first round, undrafted, sixth round, your confidence has to stay the same. My mindset (is) going to stay the same. I felt I could ball. I felt I could be the best. Regardless of the situation, my confidence always has me feeling that way."
(Buffalo News, Jay Skurski, June 11, 2023)

STYLISH SAFARI

(In March '25) Benford released his first children's book, Stylish Safari The Adventures of Being You. "I just wanted kids to have their own creativity," said Benford. "I'm always big on just being you, not trying to be somebody else, and whatever you like, you staying on it. It's not about what others like, it's what you feel."

In 2025, he chose Tulum, Mexico where swam with dolphins and spent time eating tacos and relaxing on the beach, which was made better with his fiance Tayler and closed on a new house. The year prior the two spent time in Turks and Caicos in which he described as 'a time to be had.' "Yeah after a season you want to spend time just trying to get your body and your mind right and the beach or spending time with family is a nice reset and you get a second wind to prepare for the upcoming season. It's a blessing I don't take a single moment for granted and try to enjoy every single day and being present with them."

HELPING HAND

Each year, thousands of men, women and children in Western New York turn to the Buffalo City Mission for a second chance. They start by welcoming them with the basics: a good, nourishing meal, a clean bed in a safe shelter and any other physical needs people have when they come for help. They work to pull homelessness and poverty out of people's lives by the roots – addressing their long-term trauma through education and life skill classes, Christ-centered counseling and spiritual guidance so they can heal, inside and out. Last offseason Terrel spent some time with them and gave his thoughts..."I had a great time, being able to use my platform and give back is always nice to do because you have a chance to smile on someones face." Seeing the less fortunate and listening to their stories is so impactful. Cause that's what it's about they want someone to hear them. Hearing their plans to move forward to continue too persevere push through and try to make change. It's something that I want to be a part of because that's just being a human being. Being there for people when they are in need and lending a helping hand, while at Baylor I did a bit of it in Waco but now I have a bit more free time on my hands so I try and get out when I can."

21ST CENTURY RECRUITING

In Exhibit A of 21st century recruiting, [Morgan] Scalley – Utah's defensive coordinator and safeties coach – reached out to Bishop on Twitter.

There isn't exactly a Georgia-to-Utah pipeline for the Utes' program – last season, Bishop and receiver Munir McClain were the only Georgia natives on the roster and McClain was a transfer from former Pac-12 rival USC.

Utah recruiting assistants, who spend hours grinding on high school video to unearth players from outside their main focus area, presented Scalley with Bishop's highlights.

"They know who I'm looking for – tough, smart guys who are a little bit underrecruited but have the skill set and mindset to play in our program," Scalley said. "You could tell footwork-wise and technique-wise, there was (work to be done), but when he drove and broke on the football, he showed a lot of lateral quickness and physicality. I just loved him as a football player."

Scalley messaged Bishop on Twitter.

"Any other year than Covid (2020), that's not normal because you can go out and see a player in-person," Scalley said. "With Cole, you have to go off what you saw on film and that can be tough sometimes because you then see them in-person and you're like, 'Oh, they're not as athletic as they looked on film.' Everyone was going through that and it's taking a leap of faith and trusting the (high school) coach that they're giving you the correct height and weight." (The Buffalo News, Ryan O'Halloran, May 5, 2024)

BRINGING THE JUICE

Former Boston College offensive lineman Jude Bowry is heading from Bill O'Brien's program to the Bills. Buffalo selected Bowry — a 6-foot-5-inch, 314-pound tackle also capable of playing guard — with the 102nd overall pick in Saturday's fourth round of the NFL Draft.

"I was bawling my eyes out," Bowry said. "I was so emotional when I got the call, when he said they were going to turn the pick in. It's a surreal moment."

Bowry's energy in his introductory Zoom matched what he brought for BC throughout his college career, as he thanked each reporter by name and smiled frequently.

"He's a very positive guy and a great person, and he comes from an awesome family," O'Brien said. "He loves football and he wants to be great, and he approaches it that way every day."

Bowry spoke about that positivity at the Eagles' pro day in March, where he participated in offensive line drills alongside teammate Logan Taylor and other locals.

"Negativity is not going to help you get through a lot of things," Bowry said. "I'd rather see the positive side and continue to be positive about everything and be happy all the time. I want to see people happy. That's how you get the best results."

While Bowry is upbeat by nature, he has also endured plenty of pain. He is continuing to honor his late brother, Jevon Stephenson, who died at age 33 in 2024.

Bowry said that growing up with "basically a single mom" led him to turn to his brothers for inspiration and guidance. He tried to apply their lessons and put his own spin on what they suggested.

"I know he would be proud, for sure," Bowry said. "It stinks, him not being here, but I know he's here in spirit."

LOYALTY TO NORTHERN IOWA

When the Missouri Valley Conference postponed the 2020 season to the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it was a true shot to the gut of Spencer Brown. Everything had been building to his senior year. He had high hopes not just for himself individually, but also for his team. From his point of view, Northern Iowa had a real chance at a championship.

When the news broke, coaches from Power 5 schools started reaching out to Brown in hopes he was going to transfer in order to bolster his draft stocks. Brown quickly put that to bed because there was no way he was going to be a part of anything that wasn't at Northern Iowa.

"I am not going to let someone else reap the benefits of what UNI did for me," he wrote on his Twitter account. "I did not want to go somewhere and be under a system of guys that didn't like me from the start. I'd never do that."

"It's as simple as that," Brown said to The Athletic. "I can't imagine playing with a bunch of guys that aren't my guys here."

MAKING AN IMPACT

"The way I model myself," Carter addresses the awards that have come his way as the result of his community service. "I truly believe that God put me here to be a servant and leader, to give people my time — to "donate" my time. I truly believe time is the biggest thing you can give someone. Especially with the younger generation. Especially with the Durham population. Round here, there's a lot of black kids and they just see that you're at Duke and you're excelling, that you're successful. That representation means the world. It's pretty cool and rewarding to know that I'm making an impact."

(CFN, Oliver Hodgkinson, June 22, 2023)

A FOOTBALL FAMILY

His father, DeWayne Sr., was a star for the Buckeyes throughout the early nineties. His uncle and grandfather, both named Raymond, played college football for Notre Dame and Youngstown State, respectively. Another uncle, John Carter, played at Western Kentucky. In other words, Carter comes from an accomplished football family and grew up with one of the country's most storied programs on the other side of town. "It was never pushed on me," Carter said. "Which is funny to say because I wasn't allowed to play football until sixth grade." His father originally insisted that he couldn't play until ninth grade. "My mom told him: 'Listen, he's not gonna suck when he gets to high school, he needs at least a couple of years,'" Carter said. "So we got down to sixth grade. But after then, he became the coach of my first team, and then it kind of took off from there." It certainly did. Carter lettered all four years at Pickerington Central and led his team to the Division I state semifinals on three occasions.

COMMENDABLE RECOGNITION

Bradley Chubb has been nominated for the 2025 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award for his work on and off the gridiron, the team announced Thursday.

"Bradley Chubb embodies everything that Walter Payton and this award stand for – greatness on and off the field and leaving a legacy far greater than oneself," said Dolphins Head Coach Mike McDaniel. "Bradley is a talented player and an exemplary teammate, but most importantly, he is a selfless leader".

Before he played a snap in the NFL, Chubb's focus on serving others was "paramount," the Dolphins said.

In 2017, Chubb and his brother Brandon established the Chubb Foundation, with the mission to "activate human potential" through pillars of youth mentorship, financial literacy, entrepreneurship and physical education. Through Chubb's efforts, his foundation now spans across Georgia, Florida and North Carolina.

"Every time I walk into a Boys & Girls Club or talk to a group of kids, I see myself at their age -- full of potential. That's what this work is about-impacting young people to activate their potential," Chubb said. "The Chubb Foundation is more than programs or events. It's about people, purpose, and planting seeds of belief that will grow for generations." (Hunter Geisel, CBS News, December 4, 2025).

KEON COLEMAN FAMILY FOUNDATION

"It's always been a thought," Coleman said. "Growing up, always wanted to be able to give back to whatever community I got drafted to and show love to them, show that appreciation to all the fans that come out and support me on Sunday and my teammates. The basis behind it is, I don't have a set cause for whatever individual thing is, but I like the Big Brother Big Sister programs, Boys and Girls programs, after school programs, so pretty much just a variety of different things in the community to help give back to the kids." Coleman said that when he got drafted, his number one goal was to be able to give back to whichever community drafted him. "The Keon Coleman Family Foundation was established out of a deep sense of gratitude and a lifelong commitment to service. Its mission is to strengthen communities by empowering youth, providing resources, and creating opportunities for personal growth. Through mentorship, support programs, and positive role models, the foundation strives to inspire the next generation and help them become leaders in their communities," the website says. From the mission statement on the website, Coleman believes that youth across the country have untapped potential and with the right encouragement, that can lead to growth. Coleman has also benefitted from having mentorship in his life and is passionate about providing those same opportunities for others through his foundation. (Dorian Alerte, buffalobills.com, Nov. 21, 2024)

NEVER GIVE UP

During the offseason James Cook III had the opportunity to speak at a high school graduation in NYC. When asked about what it meant to him and how it came about, the man of 'many' words said "They reached out, you know, because they don't have a lot of money. Just did it out of the kindness of my heart to give back." Cook spoke to "30 or 40" kids during the graduation and it was in the middle of the school parking lot.

The message he wanted to relay to the kids who may be battling with their own demons, "Just never give up."

FROM WALKING ON TO SUPER BOWL LVI

Following the completion of his senior football season at Reed High School earlier that fall, Austin Corbett drafted an email to Wolf Pack assistant football coach Ken Wilson. "I was just looking for an opportunity and that's what I told him," Corbett said of the email he sent to Wilson.

Though overlooked, Corbett felt he could play for the Wolf Pack. "I said, 'I just need a chance somewhere. I knew (Wilson) a little from growing up in the area and growing up with his kids. It's a scary thing to do. You're putting yourself out there and the odds are probably pretty low. I just told him as a walk-on I'd represent the community and the local kids right," Corbett explained.

The email worked. Corbett was invited by the Wolf Pack coaching staff to join the team as a walk-on that fall. Corbett redshirted his freshman season, then started 49 of 50 games for the Wolf Pack over the next four seasons. Flash forward to the 2021 season and Corbett was celebrating with his young family, on the field amid the confetti of SoFi Stadium, after the Rams NFC Championship win that was an experience that brought the entire decade-long journey that began with an email to an assistant coach in the middle of a coaching transition (who, as fate would have it, is now the Wolf Pack's head coach) into a clear and unforgettable focus for him. It was a full circle moment, reminding him of how far he had traveled. (John Trent, Nevada Today, February 11, 2022)

"I WANT TO FEEL LIKE A PHYSICAL CORNER"

Couch described blitzing as "really fun" because he's "not the strongest guy on the field, but I feel like I use my quickness and speed to my advantage to get around bigger guys that can't move as well as I can.

Couch, who is majoring in sports administration, explained that he plays bigger than he is because of his mindset.

"I feel like if I go out there and do what I gotta do, nobody can stop me. I'm just confident in myself and my ability and I work extremely hard. Every day I take coaching."

"I'm laid back, chill. I'm observant. I take coaching from everybody, whether it's safeties, linebackers. I watch the linebackers because I want to feel like a physical corner and I like to hit." (Susan Miller Degnan, Miami Herald, November 10, 2020)

"He told me one day, 'Mom, that's going to be me one day,' and I said, 'Yeah and I'm going to be a proud mama,' and it's a dream that's came true. And I said, 'When you hit the field, remember, someone is looking at you, so do your best,'" added Debbie Cushenberry.

So, what kind of kid was he? "Humble, quiet, very intelligent, didn't have to do no homework with him. He had his homework done," Debbie Cushenberry answered. "One of the best, man. You couldn't ask for a better kid, man," Lloyd Cushenberry II noted.

Is he kind of a gentle giant? "Yeah, yeah. That sums it up right there. He's a great kid, man. Staying humble all the way through and just, enjoying the ride, and having nothing but fun," Lloyd Cushenberry II pointed out. "He loves the game and he takes it seriously. So, if he sees something not going right, he's going to correct it. They all connect together. They're all humble guys, willing to work with each other, listen to each other. ### DANNA: "I WELCOME CHALLENGES"

February of 2019 is when everything changed.

Danna transferred to the school he always dreamed of playing for: The University of Michigan. The team he grew up watching with his father. Michigan had just lost Rashan Gary and Chase Winovich to the NFL and needed another contributor alongside young upshots Josh Uche, Kwity Paye and Aidan Hutchinson.

Enter Danna, who earned First-Team All-MAC honors at Central Michigan during his senior season in 2018 and could have declared for the draft himself. But he wanted another year to hone his craft, a decision he's glad he made. "The Michigan strength and conditioning program, the playbook, the dynamics of playing in the Big Ten... that's as close to the NFL as you're going to get," Danna told PFF.

Despite enjoying a great season at Michigan, the fourth-year edge rusher was not invited to the NFL scouting combine. Because of the pandemic, he also didn't get to display his talents at a pro day. "I welcome challenges. I welcome adversity. You just have to maximize every opportunity to show everybody you're athletic, that you can ball." (Brad Spielberger, PFF.com, March 6, 2024)

DOWLEY "WILL FOREVER BE MY BIG BROTHER"

"He looked right at me, and he pointed, and he said, 'Are you Patrick?'" Dowley told CBS News of their first meeting. "I said, 'Yes I am.' And he's like, "Man, you don't even know how long I've been waiting to meet you.'"

In 2007, Davis was 8 years old and living in San Francisco's Tenderloin district when he saw a flyer for the Big Brothers Big Sisters program. At times in his youth, Davis was homeless. He says his parents were in and out of his life and he was craving stability. So he signed up for a Big Brother.

"I just needed love, man," Davis said. "I needed consistency. I needed somebody who was going to be there to teach me right from wrong."

And that person was Dowley. "That will forever be my Big Brother," Davis said. (Steve Hartman, CBSNews.com, December 6, 2024)

MAN OF THE YEAR X4

For the fourth straight season, left tackle Dion Dawkins has been named the Buffalo Bills Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee. The award is widely regarded as one of the most prestigious honors in the NFL, presented to players who demonstrate excellence both on the field and in the community."Being available for people that don't have people that are available for them on a consistent basis is my adrenaline," Dawkins said on Thursday."There's still so much work to be done, and this is a beautiful honor. But believe it, I don't do it for the recognition, you know, even if it wasn't there, I would still be there, but I'm thankful to have it."(WKBW, Matt Bove, December 4, 2025)

PROTECTOR OF THE YEAR

Dion Dawkins is credited with launching the campaign that culminated in the NFL creating its Protector of the Year Award, given to the best offensive lineman.

Dawkins broached the subject publicly in January of 2025. He wondered out loud why offensive linemen can't be crowned in some fashion like quarterbacks win passing titles, running backs win rushing titles, edge rushers win sack titles. After all, the most dangerous pass rushers generate beaucoup votes for Defensive Player of the Year, yet the people who are paid to thwart them garner zero attention for Offensive Player of the Year.

"It's very cool that my domino piece makes noise when it falls," Dawkins said. "Just to be a regular kid from Jersey, go to Temple, be a second-round pick to Buffalo, to having a voice so big that it reaches all 32 teams and then some. This is a part of my legacy now, and I stand on it."

"YOU GOTTA BE ABLE TO COACH YOURSELF"

In fourth grade, Doman was primarily a soccer player when his football team announced that they needed a kicker. He tried the position, fell in love with it and then threw himself into it. He crossed state lines for camps and went to every coach he could find, looking to gain any knowledge that they could impart on him.

But after camps, trainings and teaching Doman all of the techniques they could, each of the coaches he went to gave him a similar message.

"Their main thing was, learn and be able to have a base of knowledge to coach yourself," Doman said. "Because in high school there's not a lot of kicking coaches. So you gotta be able to coach yourself."

Emulating the strict outlines his father Thomas — a colonel in the US Marine Corps — set forth, Doman learned how to act as his own coach. He kicked for hours on empty fields. He analyzed his own film. He focused on athleticism in ways not expected of specialists. And he made routines for himself. (Charlie Pappalardo, The Michigan Daily, September 22, 2023)

ALWAYS READY

When asked to describe Dortch, head coach Jonathan Gannon said, "'G' has got this look in his eye that he's just ready to fight. He's ready to go all the time, that he's about ball. I don't know what a gamer is, but he's a gamer. In stretch lines today, if you walked by and shook his hand, you'd see the look in his eye that he's ready to buckle up and play football. I appreciate that about him."

Gannon concluded, "In my opinion, he's elevated his game and he's yet to hit his ceiling. He's going to have a big year, guys."

Said Dortch, "I love to hear that from the guy who runs everything." When asked whether Dortch just seems to be one of those guys that makes things happen whenever he's on the field, Petzing said, "That's why he's continued to earn more of a role on this offense and on this team both on special teams and in the offense. We're looking for guys when their number's called to make plays and he's been able to do that a number of times and we want to continue to give him those opportunities." Noting what he's been through, Dortch also emphasized how much he learned from the other receivers on his previous teams.

"It's been a storm," he acknowledged, "but I wouldn't change anything. When I say I've been through the storm, I've really been through a lot, but I've embraced and been a sponge and really just soaked up everything that I've learned from all the different teams and guys that I've been on and that's literally helped me be where I am today and the person and player I am today. All of those guys have helped. I've picked up little things from each one of those guys. I feel that's my perspective. I was positive."

(Howard Balzer, CardsWire, August 7, 2024)

"EVERYTHING I DO IS 110%"

"I just try to take everything day by day," Elarms-Orr said during his rookie training camp in 2026. "I feel like once you start to put too many expectations on things and start to see too much in the future, you really start to kind of lose track of the present moment. So, I'm just trying to take things day by day, continually working. Everything I do is 110%, whether it's on the field, in the classroom, whatever."

Elarms-Orr is humble and welcomes feedback from other inside linebackers. However, it is not a one-way street for the rookie.

"But I feel like I'm bringing a lot to the table, too, and showing them how I do things," he said.

Elarms-Orr cites his effort and tenacity as two traits that he is displaying to his teammates.

"I'm focusing on myself," Elarms-Orr said. "I'm focused on me. At the end of the day, I'm focused on me and elevating me as a player and focused on making the guys around me better, as well." (Katherine Fitzgerald, Buffalo News, July 31, 2026).

GRILLS MAFIA

An avid backyard grill artist, Ferguson has transformed his love of grilling into charity while connecting with Bills Mafia. By owning a local BBQ company named Que42, Reid is able to merge his love for grilling and with several charitable endeavors in Western New York, especially the Western New York Food Bank and Veterans One Stop Center of WNY. More information can be found on X at @SnapFlow69 and @GrillsMafia. In 2023, Ferguson's grilling expertise was featured on an episode of GMA3, a lifestyle and entertainment show on ABC.

REID FERGUSON

BROTHERLY LOVE

Reid and Blake Ferguson took similar paths to the NFL growing up in Buford, GA. Both attended Buford HS and LSU. And both were rivals in the AFC East from 2020-24, as Blake was drafted by the Dolphins in 2020. Blake learned a great deal from his big brother over the years, but it was not a one-way street. "Perseverance is the best thing I learned from Blake," recalled Reid. "His battle with diabetes over the years put a lot of things in perspective for me. Things that seemed like big problems are nothing compared to what he went through."

FIGHT FOR HIS FAMILY

Ferguson's brother, Blake, was diagnosed as a Type 1 diabetic in 2011 at the age of 13. Since then, it has been a family mission to raise awareness and funds to fight diabetes. In fact, during the 2018 offseason, he joined his brother and the American Diabetes Association in a trip to Capitol Hill to meet with lawmakers to raise awareness. "The experience I had at Call to Congress with the American Diabetes Association was very eye-opening," Ferguson told the Buffalo News. "To be able to go to the Hill and continue the talks to get more funding for diabetes research was incredible."

SOCCER TEAM OWNER

In 2023, Reid and his brother, Blake, became minority owners of Swansea City AFC in Wales. "Sports ownership has always been a goal of mine and I love the game of soccer. It was an opportunity I could not pass up," said Ferguson.

In 2025, Ferguson also invested in a new professional soccer team in Buffalo. "As an adopted member of the Buffalo community, I could not be more excited to be a part of the Buffalo Pro Soccer project, bringing professional soccer to the Western New York area," Ferguson said.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE

Ferguson was the Bills nominee for the NFL's Salute to Service award in 2022 and 2023 due to his commitment to honoring active and retired military members. One of his initiatives is hosting an annual happy hour for military members, veterans and their families in the Buffalo area called "Thank a Vet BBQ."

"Sometimes it's easy to take for granted the freedom that we have on a day to day basis and I think my involvement centers around an appreciation of what they've given and what they've laid on the line."

Ferguson's grandfathers Jim Seale and Robert Ferguson as well as his great uncle Jerry Seale and great grandfather Howard Seale all served in the military.

FROM A MEME TO THE RECORD BOOK

The first thing Sam Franklin Jr.'s father told his son on Sunday wasn't "congratulations!" or "way to go!" or "that was unbelievable!" It was a bit more ... fatherly.

You didn't get tackled by a quarterback this time!

"That was the biggest reaction," Franklin said on Monday of the postgame phone conversation he had with his dad, chuckling at the memory. "That was the first thing he said. 'You didn't let the same thing happen twice. You're getting better.' So that was good."

To know what the Franklins were laughing about Sunday evening, you need to be acquainted with two plays: The first came in the first preseason game of the season, against the Jets, when the 2020 undrafted free agent picked off reserve New York QB Tim Boyle but got tackled by Boyle on the return.

And the second made history. On third-and-goal from the 5 on the first possession of Sunday's game, Minnesota quarterback Kirk Cousins threw a late pass across his body to the far sideline intended for KJ Osborn. Franklin jumped the route, intercepted the pass at the goal line and took off. He scampered 99 yards, eclipsing 20.6 miles an hour in his wake (the fastest speed by any Panther recorded in a game so far this year, per ESPN). He slowed down around the 30-yard line to get a big block from rookie DB D'Shawn Jamison — who leveled Kirk Cousins — and then he was home free.

That 99-yard interception return for a touchdown was the longest return of the season in the NFL, and the longest in Panthers history. Julius Peppers held the previous record with a 97-yard non-scoring interception return in 2004.

EAGER TO IMPROVE

"He's done everything we thought he would do, he's the type of player we thought he would be," Chris Petersen says (Washington Huskies coach). "We thought he would be one of the better players in the Pac-12 and be a difference maker. And so, he's done what we thought he would do."

Jaimie Bryant, former Husky and the best man at Gaines' wedding, said Greg is always determined to improve himself.

"Always, even when it comes to small things," Bryant says. "Like, we went skeet-shooting up north a little bit and he had just got a new shotgun from his dad. He had never shot with it and I had never shot with it. I outperformed him a bit, and then the next week we did it again and he outshot me by a lot.

"He's always willing to improve in anything."

He also has a passion for cliff-diving, so much so that he and friends annually jump off the Montlake Bridge, which is next to Husky Stadium and about 46 feet above the water.
(Jim Caple, The Seattle Times, November 15, 2017)

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD

A SIGNAL CALLER IN THE TRENCHES

Tylan Grable played quarterback in high school. He commanded huddles and looked beyond the bars of a face mask, into eyes and scolded. When quarterbacks see too many opposing players in their faces, they scold linemen. "I did it quite a few times, thinking it was kind of easy," Grable says, with a laugh. "Now, doing the job that they were out there trying to do, I see it's not that easy." The former high school quarterback has gone to the trenches. He's made the transition from quarterback, to tight end and offensive tackle at Jacksonville State. "He's a man of many skills," JSU coach John Grass said. "He's played a little bit of everything. He was a basketball player and played on a really good basketball team. He played quarterback, and I think you still see that with him playing tackle."

JSU's coaching staff had to sell Grable on going from a guy with the ball in his hands to a guy with his hand on the ground. Then they asked him to go from run blocking as a tight end to pass blocking as a tackle. Grable didn't fight it. He just tried to do what offensive linemen can't ... wrap his arms around it. "My first reaction was, how?" he said. "I don't know how, but he kept telling me to just trust the process and listen to coach and listen to your teammates. They'll help you get through it, and then you can really be good. I said, I've got to give it a try. Whatever I can do for the team, I was ready."

THE ULTIMATE HYPE MAN

Buffalo's newest cornerback decided to spend his draft night in Green Bay, WI with his friends and family. Throughout the night, TV cameras showed Hairston congratulating other prospects in the green room once they got drafted.

When asked about why the CB went out of his way to high-five and hug guys, he said it's just who he is.

"I'm a very happy and energetic person, and the fact that I'm in the green room right now is just so exciting for me," Hairston said. "The fact that I knew the majority of the guys that got picked, of course I had to show some love...we worked so hard for this opportunity, and to all hear our names called, 'Man, it's truly beautiful.'"

Once Hairston's name was called you saw his electric energy and smile flash across the TV as he celebrated with his loved ones. As the media spoke with Hairston, it wasn't just his personality that came across the screen but his confidence, too. (Maddy Glab, BuffaloBills.com, April 25, 2025)

CHASING M'S

Reminiscing on his journey, Damar Hamlin decided that he wanted to use his platform to give back to others and created The Chasing M's Foundation. His first program was a toy drive in 2020.

He raised money on GoFundMe to purchase and donate toys to Kelly and Nina's Daycare Center in his hometown of McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania.

"The idea popped in my head right after Clemson week," Hamlin told the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. "It sparked a thought in my head. But I actually couldn't do anything until after my eligibility was done as far as GoFundMe and all that. So it's been a solid week and a half of preparation for the toy drive. This was all able to happen off that short amount of time. That just goes to show the support that the town, the city, all of Pitt fans and the University of Pittsburgh, everyone that grew up watching me and knew my story personally and have been a part of it, that's just a testament to how much they support me."

The support Hamlin has received came in abundance in 2023 and has raised over 11 million dollars and still counting.

Chasing Millions

In addition to the Chasing M's Foundation, Hamlin also has a clothing brand named Chasing M's. Chasing M's stands for Chasing Millions and according to the brand's website, it is "for those who have a dream and pursue it... It is for those who want something more and can't settle to be average."

Hamlin has donated clothes from his brand to his area high school in Pittsburgh, Sto-Rox, and will continue to use it to grow his platform and increase the people that he can reach.

CPR AND AED TRAINING

On Jan. 2, 2023, Hamlin went into cardiac arrest during the Monday Night Football game at Paycor Stadium against the Cincinnati Bengals.

Emergency responders provided CPR on Hamlin and used an AED to revive him. Hamlin recovered at UC Medical Center and one week later, doctors released him back to Buffalo.

Instead of letting this moment define his career or even who he was a person, "This event was life-changing, but it's not the end of my story." Hamlin said regarding his blow to chest called commotio cordis.

So he decided to lead from the front and wanted to raise awareness on CPR which saved his life. Providing CPR on someone who is in cardiac arrest can triple their survival chance as it continues the flow of oxygen to the brain and other vital organs.

"I wake up every day and think about how I can impact the world in a positive way, that's what I care about if you take away everything else. To be able to save a life is a true superpower. Instead of people standing by not knowing what to do, I'm just trying to create more people who do know what to do. Growing up, I never really remember ever thinking about where an AED was, or ever thinking about CPR training. As we learned from my personal experience, it is very important and life-changing. This program (Chasing M's) is very important because it gives life-saving care to kids in their own communities and on the field."

GOOD LESSONS LEARNED AT HOME

Growing up, Hawes saw a hard work ethic modeled by his parents. His dad is an orthopedic trauma surgeon. His mom, Lucy, has her law degree from the University of Utah and practiced natural resource law before working in litigation.

"Whether I may have been thinking about it constantly or not, I think that they set the bar high and just they're very successful," Hawes said of his parents. "And I think that they always really emphasized to me that you don't necessarily need to have a career where you're making a ton of money, but as long as you're working hard and you're really enjoying what you're doing, and you're bringing enjoyment to other people, I think that those three things are something that really stuck ... And so, it got me where I am today, and this is what I'm supposed to be doing."

Through their own careers and through the way they raised their four kids, the Haweses taught Jackson and his siblings to be bold, adventurous and sure of themselves, no matter what they were doing. (Katherine Fitzgerald, Buffalo News, Oct 5, 2025)

A VIRTUAL PRO DAY PAVED THE WAY

After his senior season ended, Hoecht started training in Boston to prepare for the NFL Draft. But the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic in early March 2020 complicated his plans. A workout with the San Francisco 49ers that Hoecht was scheduled to attend was canceled at the last minute when the team's scouts stopped traveling as the pandemic worsened.

His pro day was also canceled, leading Hoecht to improvise and hold his own pro day, which he videoed and sent to scouts.

Hoecht, like so many others, had to adapt his training as a result of the pandemic. "You just kinda had to make do," he told The Herald. "There have been a lot of people who have struggled to make the transition to the virtual work, but I think that I was able to navigate that well."

At his virtual pro day, Hoecht posted gaudy numbers, especially considering his size. He ran the 40-yard dash in 4.65 seconds, ran the 20-yard short shuttle in 4.21 seconds and completed the three-cone drill in 7.05 seconds. Each of these times would have been among the very best among interior defensive line prospects at the 2020 NFL Combine. These times were not just hollow numbers, according to Brown coach James Perry.

"Not only was he a (sub-4.7) guy at 290 (pounds), but he really played fast on the field, and that's not always true," Perry said. (Peter Swope, Brown Daily Herald, March 11, 2021)

PERSONAL

Last name pronounced HOYT. Is the son of Lynne and Brian Hoecht. Born in Oakville, Ontario, moved to Ohio at the age of 3. Moved back to Canada prior to high school and attended South Carleton HS near Ottawa and then North Toronto Collegiate Institute before finishing the final two years of high school at Oakwood High School in Dayton, OH. Competed in both football and basketball. Graduated from Brown with a concentration in business, entrepreneurship and organizations.

"A DREAM COME TRUE"

When Davison Igbinosun was growing up, he always envisioned playing alongside his brother, Desmond, in college. On Saturday, the two will be on opposing sidelines when Ohio State travels to take on Rutgers.

A Union, New Jersey native, Igbinosun was once committed to following in his brother's footsteps at Rutgers, calling it "all I knew." Having grown up less than 30 miles from the university, Igbinosun attended several Rutgers games, and the path to playing for the program was clear to him at one point.

However, as Igbinosun saw his recruitment take off, the allure of playing in the SEC ultimately led him to sign with Ole Miss ahead of last season. After just one season there, Igbinosun entered the transfer portal and landed at Ohio State, where he's started every game for the top-ranked team in the country.

While he's already been tested this season in pivotal wins at Notre Dame and against Penn State, Saturday will be another big one for a different reason.

"It's definitely exciting. It's a dream come true," Igbinosun said on Wednesday of playing against his brother. "I expect a big turnout of family members."

A talented player in his own right, Davison credits Desmond for helping him to become the player he is today.

"He's helped me the most out of anybody. I would credit my skills to him if I'm being honest," Davison said. (Dillon Davis, Delaware Gazette, November 2, 2023)

A HERO TO LITTLE KIDS

As his notoriety has grown, so too has his platform to spread awareness for Alopecia. It's something he takes pride in, hoping one day to do for young kids what professional athletes like Ryan Shazier and Charlie Villanueva did for him.

"Most definitely. That's my mindset and always has been," he said. "There are a lot of young kids in this area with it. I know about four of them and I've talked to all of them and went to lunch with them. I really encourage people that have faced the same adversity that I have growing up."

He's done so much more than that.

"The way he is with kids in general. I'm not just talking about kids from Texarkana, but from around our area," Gibson said. "We have a broadcast system called "Texarkana Gameday" that sets up in the endzone like ESPN's College Gameday and they put it out in East Texas. With us going to state three years in a row, and our success, not only is our team out there a lot, but Landon is kind of the cover boy. He's become a celebrity in these parts.

"The coolest thing is how he reaches out to younger kids in general, not just those that have [Alopecia]. He goes to Little League practices, birthday parties. I'm telling you, everyone in this community hits him up, 'Landon, can you come here, can you come there.' I've never seen a kid at his age serve more than he has in that capacity. He's a hero to little kids. I think going to birthday parties and to games and celebrating things with them is a silent way to mask that difference and get kids to be more accepting of it because if they see it on him, it's not going to be as big a deal because of the way he uses his platform." (Texas Football, June 28, 2020)

BROTHERLY BOND

The Kilgore brothers [Gerald & Jalon] played together for three years, playing in the same offense for two of them. Jalon Kilgore only played defense as a freshman at Baldwin County, but played wide receiver the next two seasons after transferring to Putnam.

The two played together since they got into football. Their parents tried to keep them in the same age group in each league despite the one-year difference.

"I feel that they really helped," Kilgore said. "Once we got on the football field together, the chemistry clicked instantly. There would be things we both see on the field. The coach would call the play, but we'd see something different on the field and then we'll just flip it. And it always worked."

[Shaun] Pope coached at Putnam County from 2018 until his retirement in 2022. What made the Kilgore brothers special to him, outside of their football talent, was their character as young men. Pope said they were known as leaders in their schools, as well in the community with various service projects.

"They were always there," Pope said. "They're always willing to help others. In the classroom, you walk by, and they're sitting in the front row.

"Just guys that you knew were gonna represent your program very well." (Jeremiah Holloway, The State, April 25, 2023)

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD

LIKE A CARTOON CHARACTER

When Buffalo Bills tight end coach Rob Boras turns on the tape, he knows who he's guaranteed to see: rookie tight end Dalton Kincaid.

"The thing I love about Dalton is that when you hit pause at the end of the play, he's always in the camera," Boras said. "So, even if he doesn't have the ball, he's finishing by the ball."

Take Bills wide receiver Khalil Shakir's 81-yard touchdown earlier this season – a touchdown that featured some key blocks by Kincaid. The Bills had Kincaid mic'd up for the game, and he explained his play as only he could.

"I ran down, and just DOOT!" Kincaid says.

But what, exactly, does "doot" mean?

"I have no idea," Kincaid told The Buffalo News. "I don't even remember saying that, to be honest."

Conscientious of his catchphrases or not, Kincaid is constantly making noise on the field.

"It's one of his many sound effects," fullback Reggie Gilliam said. "He just makes random sounds in different moments. And it's like during the snap, so we're in the play and you just hear him making sound effects over there. ... I'm just like, 'Are you like a character? What are you?' It's like a cartoon character."(Buffalo News, Katherine Fitzgerald, January 13, 2024)

KNOX SOX

Since arriving in Buffalo in 2019, Knox has been a strong supporter of the P.U.N.T Pediatric Cancer Collaborative. P.U.N.T. is a nonprofit organization founded by former NFL Pro Bowl Punter Brian Moorman that provides families in Western New York facing pediatric cancer with programs that offer financial, practical and emotional support.

"Being able to walk into the room and instantly get some smiles is unbelievable," Knox told WKBW. "It's a great feeling for myself but also knowing you can bring a little joy into someone's life who is literally at rock bottom was a really cool feeling."

In 2021 he launched a giveback initiative — Knox Sox — through P.U.N.T. and pledged to donate $1,000 for every touchdown and $100 for every catch he had throughout the season. The initiative funds custom non-slip socks for local pediatric cancer patients. As part of the campaign, Knox also partnered with For Bare Feet to sell socks with a percentage of the proceeds going directly to P.U.N.T.

"I feel like they've done just as much for me as I've done for them. They've given me a pretty awesome purpose" he said.

FOLLOWING IN HIS BROTHER'S FOOTSTEPS

Tight end Keleki Latu has always looked up to his older brother, Laiatu.

"He would always come in early in the mornings to work out (during high school), and it really pushed me to join with him," the younger Latu said. "Even though I wouldn't tell him, I would just do it on the side to follow his footsteps."

The Latu brothers grew up playing football and rugby together in Sacramento at Jesuit High. During Keleki's sophomore year, he realized his potential to play football in college and follow his brother's path.

"He was a really good role model for me," Keleki said. "He really made me want to pursue playing at the next level because he was getting a lot of offers at the time, and it made me stride to do the same."

Laiatu held offers from nearly two dozen schools, primarily from Power 5 programs and almost every school in the Pac-12. He ultimately chose Washington and played in 12 of 13 games as a true freshman in 2019. Laiatu was forced to medically retire following a neck injury ahead of the 2020 season with the Huskies.

"It was really a tough moment in his life and our lives," Keleki said. "I wished most that he could come back and play. I prayed every day. During his time off, I tried my best to do my best for him, so I could prove that I could be just like him." (Shannon Kelly, nevadasportsnet.com, November 2, 2023)

"AS LONG AS NO. 17'S OUT THERE, I'M OUT THERE"

(Signing McGovern has) been one of the best moves made by Bills general Manager Brandon Beane at free agency. After one season spent at guard, McGovern shifted over to replace Mitch Morse at center, and has been the glue of the best offensive line the Bills have had in quarterback Josh Allen's career.

"I love Connor," Allen said. "I feel like I say this about a lot of my teammates, but he's one of my favorite humans on this planet. The stuff that he's battled through throughout the last couple of years. He's toughed out a lot things that nobody even really knows, and got so much respect for him as a football player and as a person. He's just one of the good ones."

McGovern has been taped up and braced up more than once this season, but said he'll be in the lineup as long as Allen is taking the snaps.

"As long as No. 17's out there, I'm out there," McGovern said. "I'd rather die than take me off the field. That's how I've always played the game. We have a great group of guys around me and I want to play for them."

"He is as tough as it gets. I feel like every game, it looks after the game like he can't even move," Joe Brady said of McGovern. "But he doesn't blink, and he's ready to go to practice the next day. He embraces the grittiness and the toughness that it takes to be the offensive lineman. He's an elite communicator, really does a great job just communicating to the guys to the left and right of him, and making sure Josh and everything were in the right play call. (Buffalo News, Jay Skurski, December 26, 2025)

DESERVING NOMINATION

As the son of the Hall of Famer Walter Payton, Jarrett Payton carries forth his father's legacy as not only one of the greatest football players of all time, but one of the greatest people. So when Payton visited Halas Hall to surprise Moore and let him know he was named the Bears' winner of this year's award, he shared that sentiment.

"I think he truly understands that what he does in the community is the rent that he's paying while he's on this Earth," Payton said. "He's been blessed, so his gift is to be able to give it back and pay it forward, and that's what I see him doing."

In 2025, Moore and his Moore 2 Life foundation partnered with the Boys & Girls Club of Lake County to host a back-to-school shopping spree. Ahead of Thanksgiving, he also worked with One Family Illinois to serve meals to more than 150 families. As part of My Cause My Cleats initiative, he continued his longtime support of the Susan G. Komen organization, a cause close to his heart due to his grandmother's battle with breast cancer. (Gabby Hajduk, ChicagoBears.com, December 4, 2025)

FIRST-AND-10

ED OLIVER agreed to terms on a four-year contract extension with the Bills in 2023, extending his stay in Buffalo through 2027 after originally being drafted by the team in the first round (9th overall) out of Houston in 2019. His 9.5 sacks of the 2023 season ranked third in the NFL of all interior defensive linemen.

SHOUTOUTS

- Against BAL (9/7/25) he finished with a career-high six solo tackles, three TFLs, a sack and a forced fumble. Oliver's pivotal- forced fumble in the fourth quarter led to a Bills touchdown.
- The Bills are 22-1 (.956) all-time when Ed Oliver has 1.0+ sacks in a game. Which is the best team record when a player 1.0+ sacks in a game - since 1982.
- Logged four total tackles including a sack and his second forced fumble this season in the win at DET (12/16/24) to go along with three QB hits.
- Finished 2023 starting in 16 games with a career high in tackles with 51 (34 solo), 14 TFLs, 16 QB hits, 1 INT and tied a career high in passes defensed (3).
- Raised his sack total to 9.5, the most by a Bills DT since Jordan Phillips in 2019 (9.5). Since being drafted in 2019, Oliver leads the Bills with 24.0 sacks.
- Intercepted a pass vs NE (12/31/23) for the first of his career, and first since his senior year of high school in 2015. Oliver also recorded a sack and became the first DT with an INT since 2019.
- Took down Baker Mayfield for his fifth sack of the season vs TB (10/26/23). Tied personal season-high (5 in 2019). Had a career high 9 tackles vs JAX (10/8/23) and recorded a sack of Trevor Lawrence.
- Collected AFC Defensive Player of the Week against DET (11/24/22) after recording 6 tackles, 2 TFLs, forced a fumble and recovered his first fumble recovery of NFL career, and a sack ending in a safety the first in a Thanksgiving game since 2013 (Ndamukong Suh).

COATS FOR KIDS

Oliver wanted to immediately make an impact in the Buffalo community after joining the Bills as the 9th overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft and he found a way to do that in partnership with Colvin Cleaners.

Oliver participated in the Coats for Kids campaign, meeting fans who donated coats, boots, hats and gloves during a collection event outside of the Bills stadium. It's a cause that is especially important given the climate in Western New York and one that immediately stuck out to Ed as an important way to give back to his new community.

"Buffalo's a place I'd heard has unbearable winters and I'd hate for a kid to have to walk outside in a blizzard or whatever kind of crazy weather we get up here," Oliver told WIVB TV during the coat drive.

The 2019 edition of the campaign was able to receive and distribute over 10,000 coats to people in need. "It just epitomizes the Bills Mafia and what the Bills Football Program is all about. It's all about family, it's all about one another, making sure one another's straight," Oliver said.

TURKEY DAY

Oliver comes alive on Thanksgiving day, having played in three games on the day through out his career he has recorded at least half a sack. In two of them, he's taken over games. Against the Detroit Lions in 2022, Oliver became the first player in team history to record a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery and safety in a single game. He then collected AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts, he joked that he wished it was Thanksgiving "every day," let alone just playing on the holiday once a year.

PERSONAL

Son of Dana and Ed Oliver Sr. Has an older brother, Marcus, who also played for Houston and now coaches at Pineville HS (LA). Majored in health while at Houston.

SMASHING CHAIRS

Folding chairs, beware. Ar'maj Reed-Adams is back at Texas A&M for another season.

The Aggies' veteran offensive lineman garnered a reputation as a leader amongst his teammates last year with his chair-smashing antics. Now he wants to leave his mark as one of the top guards in the country, smashing open running lanes for Texas A&M ball carriers.

Reed-Adams garnered attention last season for smashing a fold-out chair with opponents' logos on it before games. He explained the origins of the "team morale" ritual Wednesday. His motivation came from Tommy Moffitt, the Aggies' director of strength and conditioning, who during the week of the Florida game last year dressed up a padded dummy in a Gators blue jersey and used it as motivation. "He just (got) to hitting the pad and screaming 'F 'em' and 'We've got to win' and 'We've got to change this around,'"

Reed-Adams recalled, thinking back to the week of preparation before the team's first road game. "Just feeling in the locker room that we needed that, I brought out the chair just to keep that energy going. So I just brought it out, and people took pictures, and it went viral. We kept with it, and we started adding stickers (of opponents' logos), and it became something the team was looking forward to."

BUFFALO CONNECTIONS

It always seems like you can find a Buffalo connection in most situations and that is no different with the Bills first-round draft pick Greg Rousseau.

Of course he's heard the typical, obvious stuff:

"I know there's Niagara Falls there, it pretty much borders Canada, I'm pretty sure there's Lake Erie so the same lake in Cleveland is over there," Rousseau said.

But his understanding of Western New York runs deeper than that.

"My mom had my older brother in Buffalo so my parents lived in Buffalo for I think five years, four years, so I'm very familiar with Buffalo."

The Bills drafted the Miami defensive end with the 30th overall pick in this year's draft as they continue to add youth to the position and someone who already has ties to the area.

"I know all about it, Jim Kelly, the whole nine yards, and they got the Miami connection for sure," Rousseau said in a zoom call with reporters after the first-round.

He laughed and said he'll get all the exact details from his parents but said he thinks they lived in Buffalo from the mid to late 90's when his mom was likely getting her nursing degree.

PERSONAL

Full name is Tanaeri J. Sanders. Majored in criminology and criminal justice. Attended Marion (S.C.) High School, where he also played basketball. The son of Leticia Williams, he has two brothers and a sister. Hobbies include anime and soccer video games.

HOOPER TURNED GAMECOCK

T.J. Sanders' team was already in commanding position, but the senior for the Marion High School Swamp Foxes was still breaking things down. Coming off the field in the midst of a blowout win to secure a region title, he was animated, talking a teammate through the finer points of a particular blocking scheme.

The 6-foot-5, now-300 pounder quickly went from a player who had to be coaxed from the basketball court to the football field to a future SEC player with the South Carolina Gamecocks.

And he also made another transition: From a player with minimal experience to one who could lead a team in just a second year. "He just became a total leader," Marion coach Randall State said, noting Sanders was in for an extra weightlifting session the day before the game. "He was always the leader on the basketball court. It took him a year to kind of settle in, coming back as a football player. He's always been a vocal guy, on and off the court, and he's smart with it."

That leadership on the basketball court translated to football, and some of the relationships did, too. Marion isn't the biggest school, and the best athletes are playing multiple sports most of the time.

On the sideline, Sanders showed some personality, chatting while also giving teammates a little grief, breaking into a dance as the band played. His squad was dominating a county rivalry with Mullins High in a game rescheduled to a Monday night.

On the field, he showed flashes of why the Gamecocks brought him into their class after just one year on the high school gridiron (Ben Breiner, The State, October 29, 2020)

ADAPTING TO NEW ENVIRONMENTS

When wide receiver Khalil Shakir moves around the offense, he doesn't miss a step. The Bills' fifth-round pick in 2022, he's comfortable with change.

"I think I'm just able to adapt," Shakir said. "I'm a military baby, so I moved around a lot. To be able to adapt to different environments – and different people as well – was just embedded in my blood at a young age.

"I feel like that's just carried on me my whole life. So whenever I come out onto the field, it's the same thing."

Shakir's father, Master Gunnery Sgt. Attiyyah Shakir, served 24 years in the Marines. Khalil was born in Virginia, then the family moved to Hawaii. They went from Hawaii to Japan, and Japan to California. With most of the extended family on the East Coast, plenty of other trips were sprinkled in along the way.

Even in new situations, Shakir would jump in right away.

"He's always been a leader," his dad said. "He's never been afraid to (try) much."

Shakir sees a connection now between the big moves and his comfort level when he's thrown into different situations on the football field. It crystalized at Boise State, when someone else asked about his upbringing.

"That's when I realized people always say when I'm in a different spot, I look comfortable in the environment," Shakir said. "I think that just comes without even realizing how much I did move around." (The Buffalo News, Katherine Fitzgerald, August 24, 2022)

WHAT I ALWAYS WANTED

"Coming from Tallahassee, Mobile is not too far away," Solomon said in an interview session with Mobile-area reporters at Senior Bowl headquarters. "So it's something that I always heard of as a kid and growing up. I know that it was probably one of the biggest opportunities that anybody can get just from a college standpoint. Playing in this game is a huge opportunity for me. I understand how much it means to me and people that even that are not here, that would love to be here. I'm grateful for the opportunity and I plan to go out there give it my best every day."

Solomon's 16 sacks in 2023 were a Division I-era record at Troy, as were his 33 career sacks. That career mark was 3.5 better than Jibunor's 29.5, and also eclipsed the previous record total of 27.5 set by future Pro Football Hall of Famer DeMarcus Ware from 2001-04.

Solomon's 16 sacks broke the previous Troy Division I record of 15 set by another future NFL standout, Osi Umenyiora, in 2002. Solomon's four sacks vs. Louisiana-Monroe on Nov. 11 also tied another school record held by Umenyiora.

Solomon said of Ware. "He's a guy that knew what it takes to be successful. You can also tell he's a great person by how he treats his family. Him and Osi Umenyiora, they were great players in the league and are great people. I try to mimic the way they go about things. So hopefully I get that status one day."

"IT'S HOW I GOT TOUGH"

Torrence took The Buffalo News on a tour of his hometown, retracing his humble beginnings. "I'm appreciative of how I grew up," Torrence said in a wide-ranging series of interviews. "It's how I got tough."

Torrence takes a deep appreciation of where he's from. "Not saying it's harder to do this than it is coming from a big city, but it feels better being a diamond in the rough, if that makes sense," he said. "I had the right opportunities to get brushed off and shine and bring some light on this area – not just myself, but everybody around here."

The mobile home Torrence grew up in is now mostly empty, although his older brother sometimes stays there. The land has stayed in the family, however, and Torrence hopes to one day buy it and build a more permanent home on the property. He has four brothers and two sisters, all of whom still live in or near St. Helena Parish, as well as several other family members in the area.

On March 30, he'll return to his high school to conduct his first football camp. That's something that would have made his day as a kid, and now he gets to give back to those growing up in similar circumstances. Torrence has heard that several kids in his hometown now look forward to playing on the line of scrimmage because of him.

HUMBLE, KIND, THOUGHTFUL AND DETERMINED

Nearly 70 family members, friends, coaches and former teammates were gathered around Walker outside his home in Lexington, Kentucky, when the Bills traded up to select the game-wrecking big man from the University of Kentucky.

A grin flashed across his face when his name was announced on stage at the NFL draft in Green Bay, Wisconsin. His eyes welled with tears. Then, for a moment, he couldn't breathe. Sanquanetta Walker wrapped her arms around her son's neck and squeezed.

"The emotions were high," Walker, 21, recalled following a recent practice at One Bills Drive. "My mom almost choked me when she heard my name picked. Everybody was happy."

They were also relieved for Deone. He wasn't frustrated or angry while waiting through Rounds 1, 2 or 3. He wasn't resentful that he slipped to the 109th overall pick, less than one year after he was labeled a future first-rounder and possible top 10 selection. Through the praise and criticism, he stayed the same — humble, kind, thoughtful and determined.

They saw the dedication, resilience and humility he carried throughout his football journey – even in the fall when he played through pain, discomfort and stiffness as a junior at Kentucky. He didn't complain. He refused to sit out more games, even though doing so would have explained to NFL teams why he wasn't blowing up opponents' game plans as he did as a sophomore. When medical tests at the scouting combine in March revealed the cause – a fracture between two vertebrae, he didn't view the diagnosis as an excuse or a reason to lose hope.

"HE WAS GOING TO GET YOU THROUGH IT"

Hurricane Ida was approaching New Orleans, and the Tulane football team had to evacuate. The team spent the first month of the 2021 season living in a hotel in Birmingham, Alabama.

Mike Mutz was the Green Wave linebackers coach at the time. He remembers. Even if he doesn't want to.

"I really try to blot that out of my memory, to be honest with you," said Mutz. "It was almost a month. And so, you know, it was a unique lifestyle for the start of that season."

Nick Anderson, a linebacker on that team, remembers it, too. It was a messy start to an ugly season. Tulane finished 2-10.

"Everything that could (go) wrong that season went wrong," Anderson said.

When everything was in chaos, Tulane turned to linebacker and junior captain Dorian Williams.

"If a storm's coming, you want to hang onto something tight," Mutz said. "Well, when something bad happened, you always hung onto Dorian, because he was going to get you through it." (Katherine Fitzgerald, Buffalo News)
