BROTHERLY LOVE

Reid and Blake Ferguson took similar paths to the NFL growing up in Buford, GA. Both attended Buford HS and LSU. And both were rivals in the AFC East from 2020-24, as Blake was drafted by the Dolphins in 2020. Blake learned a great deal from his big brother over the years, but it was not a one-way street. "Perseverance is the best thing I learned from Blake," recalled Reid. "His battle with diabetes over the years put a lot of things in perspective for me. Things that seemed like big problems are nothing compared to what he went through."

FIGHT FOR HIS FAMILY

Ferguson's brother, Blake, was diagnosed as a Type 1 diabetic in 2011 at the age of 13. Since then, it has been a family mission to raise awareness and funds to fight diabetes. In fact, during the 2018 offseason, he joined his brother and the American Diabetes Association in a trip to Capitol Hill to meet with lawmakers to raise awareness. "The experience I had at Call to Congress with the American Diabetes Association was very eye-opening," Ferguson told the Buffalo News. "To be able to go to the Hill and continue the talks to get more funding for diabetes research was incredible."

SOCCER TEAM OWNER

In 2023, Reid and his brother, Blake, became minority owners of Swansea City AFC in Wales. "Sports ownership has always been a goal of mine and I love the game of soccer. It was an opportunity I could not pass up," said Ferguson.

In 2025, Ferguson also invested in a new professional soccer team in Buffalo. "As an adopted member of the Buffalo community, I could not be more excited to be a part of the Buffalo Pro Soccer project, bringing professional soccer to the Western New York area," Ferguson said.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE

Ferguson was the Bills nominee for the NFL's Salute to Service award in 2022 and 2023 due to his commitment to honoring active and retired military members. One of his initiatives is hosting an annual happy hour for military members, veterans and their families in the Buffalo area called "Thank a Vet BBQ."

"Sometimes it's easy to take for granted the freedom that we have on a day to day basis and I think my involvement centers around an appreciation of what they've given and what they've laid on the line."

Ferguson's grandfathers Jim Seale and Robert Ferguson as well as his great uncle Jerry Seale and great grandfather Howard Seale all served in the military.
