FIRST-AND-10

DA'MARI SCOTT joins the Bills after a brief stint with the Cleveland Browns. He originally joined the league as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in May 2018, joining the practice squad before being promoted to the active roster.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

ALL FOR FOOTBALL

Da'Mari Scott is no stranger to commitment. Though he grew up in Muskegon, Michigan, he moved to California with his sister so that he could attend a school that excelled in academics and football. He had to wake up early every morning in order to make it to school on time, but it was worth it. "I just saw a kid that was so focused on football," said Kevin Pearson, who coached Scott at Cathedral. "That was his priority."

After a hot start at Fresno State, Scott's career started to fluctuate. After the 2014 season, he decided to transfer to be closer to his mother, who was back home in Michigan. Days after leaving the program, his mother, Donna, unexpectedly passed away. After time to grieve, he decided to rejoin the program. Fresno saw a new Scott in the years to come; one who earned an academic award, became an offensive force on the team, and embraced a leadership role. After going undrafted, he's looking to prove himself again. "I don't want to ever get complacent or settle," said Scott. "I never want to tell myself 'I made it.'"

PERSONAL

Da'Mari is the son of the late Donna Covington and Darreco Scott. He has three siblings- Dakiya, Dominique and Darreco. While at Fresno State, Scott was a pre-business major.
