THE ULTIMATE HYPE MAN

Buffalo's newest cornerback decided to spend his draft night in Green Bay, WI with his friends and family. Throughout the night, TV cameras showed Hairston congratulating other prospects in the green room once they got drafted.

When asked about why the CB went out of his way to high-five and hug guys, he said it's just who he is.

"I'm a very happy and energetic person, and the fact that I'm in the green room right now is just so exciting for me," Hairston said. "The fact that I knew the majority of the guys that got picked, of course I had to show some love...we worked so hard for this opportunity, and to all hear our names called, 'Man, it's truly beautiful.'"

Once Hairston's name was called you saw his electric energy and smile flash across the TV as he celebrated with his loved ones. As the media spoke with Hairston, it wasn't just his personality that came across the screen but his confidence, too. (Maddy Glab, BuffaloBills.com, April 25, 2025)
