IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD

RECHARGE

After each season Terrel likes to take at least one vacation in which he titles 'recharge.' This past season he chose Tulum, Mexico where swam with dolphins and spent time eating tacos and relaxing on the beach, which was made better with his fiance Tayler and closed on a new house. The year prior the two spent time in Turks and Caicos in which he described as 'a time to be had.' "Yeah after a season you want to spend time just trying to get your body and your mind right and the beach or spending time with family is a nice reset and you get a second wind to prepare for the upcoming season. It's a blessing I don't take a single moment for granted and try to enjoy every single day and being present with them."

HELPING HAND

The Each year, thousands of men, women and children in Western New York turn to the Buffalo City Mission for a second chance. They start by welcoming them with the basics: a good, nourishing meal, a clean bed in a safe shelter and any other physical needs people have when they come for help. They work to pull homelessness and poverty out of people's lives by the roots – addressing their long-term trauma through education and life skill classes, Christ-centered counseling and spiritual guidance so they can heal, inside and out.

This offseason Terrel has spent some time with them and gave his thoughts..."I had a great time, being able to use my platform and give back is always nice to do because you have a chance to smile on someones face."

"Seeing the less fortunate and listening to their stories is so impactful. Cause that's what it's about they want someone to hear them. Hearing their plans to move forward to continue too persevere push through and try to make change. It's something that I want to be a part of because that's just being a human being. Being there for people when they are in need and lending a helping hand, while at Baylor I did a bit of it in Waco but now I have a bit more free time on my hands so I try and get out when I can."

LEAD THE WAY

Bernard didn't just earn the respect of his teammates at Baylor because of his all-Big 12 caliber play. He also earned it through the hard work he put in to overcome injuries and through his ability to lead others.

He didn't show up at Baylor ready to lead as a freshman and made sure to observe the veterans ahead of him to see the right way to do things.

"I think it's something you learn," Bernard said to the Waco Tribune-Herald. "It helps to see other leaders and take things from them. So I think I've taken bits and pieces from players and coaches, and people outside of football. I kind of tried to implement that into my personality and try to get the best from people around me. I think that's what being a leader is all about."

"Terrel is a physical and a tough guy," Baylor head coach Dave Aranda said. "He feels a lot, and he's got a great heart, and I think things really matter to him. It's more than lip service with him."
