2022-present: (Buffalo Bills)

- In 2023, oversaw an offensive line that allowed the fewest sacks (24) in the NFL and paved the way for RB James Cook to lead all running backs in yards before contact (2.03). The starting offensive line also became the first Bills offensive line since 1989 to all start every game of a season.
- During his first season back in Buffalo in 2022, the Bills offensive line helped the team rank second in the NFL in both total offense (397.6 YPG) and points per game (28.4) en route to tallying a 13-3 record and an AFC East division title.

2017-20: (Los Angeles Rams)

- Spent four seasons working for the Rams (2017-20). Joined the team as the Rams' offensive line coach in 2017 and was promoted to offensive line coach/running game coordinator in 2018. Kromer helped lead the Rams to an NFC Championship and Super Bowl LIII appearance.
- In 2018, Kromer led an offensive front that kept the same five starters for all 16 regular season games, helping a rushing attack that finished in the top-three in touchdowns (2nd), rushing first downs (t-2nd) and rush YPG (3rd).

2015-16: (Buffalo Bills)

- While with the Bills in 2015 and 2016, Kromer led a line that paved the way for the league's top rushing attack. The Bills led the NFL in rushing in 2015 with 152.0 yards per game and led the league again in 2016 with 164.4 rushing yards per game.

2013-14: (Chicago Bears)

- Kromer served as the offensive coordinator for the Bears from 2013-14. In addition to his coordinator title, he was also the offensive line coach in 2013.

2008-12: (New Orleans Saints)

- Spent five years with the New Orleans Saints where he worked with the offensive line and running backs in addition to serving as the interim head coach of the Saints for the first six games of the 2012 regular season. During his time in New Orleans, the Saints were tied for the fewest sacks allowed in the NFL with 96.
- Kromer was the team's offensive line coach during the 2009 season when the Saints won Super Bowl XLIV. The Saints offensive line only allowed 20 sacks during the season, which led the NFC.

2005-07: (Tampa Bay Buccaneers)

- Spent three years in Tampa Bay from 2005-2007 working as the Buccaneers senior assistant/offensive line coach the final two seasons after joining the club as a senior assistant in 2005 with a focus on the offensive line.

2001-04: (Oakland Raiders)

- Started as assistant offensive line coach in 2001 before being promoted to the offensive line coach in 2002.
- During Kromer's tenure in Oakland, the Raiders won the AFC West in both 2001 & 2002, going on to win the AFC in 2002 and appear in Super Bowl XXXVII.
