NEW HIGHMARK STADIUM

FIRST-AND-10

THE BUFFALO BILLS broke ground on the New Highmark Stadium on June 5, 2023. In front of a crowd of approximately 500 people, Bills Owner/CEO Terry Pegula was joined by team, league, county and state officials to commemorate the occasion.

"Ralph, we're moving across the street. We're going to build a stadium here, and we're going to tear down a stadium over there that's full of memories. So, we need to fill this stadium with more memories and continue our legacy. We should remember the past, but embrace the building of our future," Pegula remarked in his comments.

TERRY PEGULA
OWNER/CEO

Terry Pegula rose from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry, and one of very few owners to operate franchises in multiple professional sports.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry realized a life-long dream on October 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. to become the second owners of the Buffalo Bills.

Pegula played a key role in negotiating a deal between New York State, Erie County, the NFL and the Bills on the New Highmark stadium, which officially broke ground in 2023. Pegula also was an instrumental contributor in the design of the new home of the Bills that is slated to open in 2026.

"We're going to build a stadium here, right? And we're going to tear down a stadium over there that's full of memories," Pegula said at the ground breaking ceremony. "So we need to fill this stadium with more memories and continue our legacy. We should remember the past, but embrace the building of our future."

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee, Fan Engagement and Major events committee and the DEI committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin.

Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy.

JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention to sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State and the Big 10 to form an NCAA conference.

On February 22, 2011, Terry and Kim purchased the NHL's Buffalo Sabres and their sports ownership extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and the AHL Rochester Americans.

The Pegulas opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million dollar complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two hockey rinks, training facilities and a full-service Marriott Hotel.

The complex brought new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. Buffalo also hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships, and the 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York.

In addition to helping manage the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his family's business operations in Boca Raton, Florida.

PERSONAL

Born on March 27, 1951 in Carbondale, PA, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program.

He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Corp. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour and was a member of the 2021 and 2024 US Olympic squads.

She has served as a keynote speaker at the NFL's Annual Quarterback Coaching Summit, an event to build the coaching and personnel development pipeline and strengthen diversity across the league. She also regularly participated in the NFL's Women's Careers in Football Forum.

On October 8, 2014, Kim and her husband Terry realized a long-time dream when they became only the second owners of the Bills. The Pegulas purchased the Sabres in 2011 and their sports ownership extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and the AHL Rochester Americans.

Kim played a major role in helping negotiate the structure of a deal between New York State, Erie County, the National Football League and the Bills for the New Highmark stadium, which officially broke ground in 2023. She also was a key contributor in the design of the new stadium, which is slated to open in 2026.

After owning multiple professional sports teams in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities, including the development and operation LECOM Harborcenter in downtown Buffalo.

PSE helped bring new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. It has also hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships and the 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament.

Pegula and PSE entities have been honored with a number of awards including Business First's Most Influential People, NYS Emmy Awards for sports content, Buffalo Best Place To Work, the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL, and numerous individual staff recognitions.

Kim and Terry have encouraged the growth of sports in the community. In 2010, the Pegulas gave $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Penn State. The facility allowed their hockey program to become a NCAA Division I team and the Big 10 to form an NCAA conference.

Kim supported Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex allowing their athletic department to become a Division III program.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York.

Pegula served on the Board of Directors of Republic Services, Inc., an industry leader in U.S. recycling and non-hazardous solid waste.

PERSONAL

Born in Seoul, South Korea on June 7, 1969, Kim was adopted at the age of 5 by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr and moved to Fairport, NY, a suburb of Rochester.

She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources, Inc. in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour and was a member of the 2021 US Olympic squad.

On June 7, 2022, Kim suffered a sudden cardiac arrest which has affected her every day life and is currently undergoing long-term physical and occupational therapy. Her family asks for prayers for Kim to assist in her recovery which has been lengthy but steady.

PETE GUELLI
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Pete Guelli was named Chief Operating Officer of both the Buffalo Bills and Sabres on March 19, 2024.

In his role as COO, Guelli oversees the business operations of both teams.

As the Bills embark on their final season at Highmark Stadium in 2025, Guelli has spearheaded efforts to celebrate their soon to be former stadium, while leading all business-side efforts in preparation to host games and other events at the new Highmark Stadium beginning in 2026.

Guelli and his leadership team have also forged ahead with plans to strengthen the Bills fan base in Western New York, Southern Ontario in Canada and elsewhere. In 2025, the Bills officially joined the NFL's Global Markets Program and will continue with their strategies to fortify their fan base in Canada.

In 2024, Guelli also led efforts to have the Bills partner with Hallmark Media, the NFL, and Skydance Sports to produce a Bills-centric Hallmark movie entitled, "Holiday Touchdown: A Bills Love Story" that will debut in 2025.

"It was hard not to be impressed with the experience and overall business acumen of Pete Guelli," said Terry Pegula upon his hiring. "The New York market is the largest in our country and highly competitive and he did an outstanding job on all levels of their business operation."

"His work in helping turn around the Charlotte Hornets franchise in the NBA was remarkable. He is a proven leader with tremendous skills and experience in the sports business landscape. With the upcoming changes on the way in both team's venues, we are happy to have Pete to help lead our teams."

Guelli, 60, returned to Buffalo after a five-year tenure as the Chief Business Officer of the New York Giants. He joined the Giants in 2019 and was recruited to modernize the team's business model and operations.

During his tenure with the Giants, he restructured key business functions, established a business intelligence and analytics department, built out the team's digital capabilities, launched team branding initiatives, implemented a new customer service function, and extended the teams partnership with Ticketmaster.

Guelli also led efforts to sign Eli Manning to a comprehensive role within the organization. He is also currently serving on the NFL team presidents business optimization committee.

Prior to joining the Giants in 2019, Guelli served as the Chief Operating Officer of the Charlotte Hornets after originally joining the franchise as EVP, Chief Marketing and Sales officer in 2009.

In Charlotte, he led the transition of team ownership to Michael Jordan when Jordan became the first former player to become majority owner of an NBA team. He spearheaded the organizations transition from the Bobcats back to the historic Hornets brand in 2014.

He also led the efforts to secure a new television rights deal, oversaw the launch of the teams G League team, led the team's participation in the NBA Global Games in China, expanded the team's relationship with Live Nation, and managed the renovation of the Spectrum Center and directed a successful bid to host the NBA All-Star game in 2019.

Guelli also served as the President of the Hornets Foundation focused on community investment in Charlotte.

"It's a surreal moment," Guelli said upon his hiring. "I think from the minute I left, there was always a little bit of me that wanted to come back.

"You just never expect things are going to work out like this, but it's almost like a gravitational pull in some ways, when you come from the area and take a lot of pride in growing up there and representing your hometown teams."

Guelli is in his second tenure with the Bills as he served as the team's Senior Vice President of Business Ventures from 1998-2009. He was initially hired to oversee the team's expansion into the Rochester market including the movement of training camp from Fredonia College to St. John Fisher.

BRANDON BEANE
GENERAL MANAGER

Brandon Beane was named General Manager of the Bills on May 9, 2017. In his first 8 seasons in Buffalo, Beane has helped build a roster and establish a culture that has produced 7 playoff appearances, including 5 consecutive AFC East division championships from 2020-2024.

Along the way, he twice earned NFL Executive of Year honors following the 2020 and 2022 seasons.

"Our goal is sustained success." It was a phrase said in Beane's inaugural press conference in Buffalo in 2017 and several times afterwards. The results have followed. In addition to five consecutive division titles, the Bills joined the Chiefs as the only two teams in the NFL to win 10+ games and earn a playoff berth each year from 2019-24.

While earning a playoff berth in his first season in 2017, Beane also engineered several trades that resulted in the Bills selecting two future Pro Bowlers in QB Josh Allen (7th overall) and LB Tremaine Edmunds (16th overall) in the 2018 draft while maintaining all their 2019 draft capital. Along the way, he stabilized the team's salary cap status.

Allen has become the team's franchise quarterback, was named the NFL's MVP in 2024, earned multiple Pro Bowl berths and was rewarded with a long-term extension in both 2021 and 2025.

In 2020, the Bills earned their first AFC East title and their first playoff win since 1995. Along the way, Beane earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from the Sporting News, PFWA and Pro Football Focus, becoming the first Bills executive to earn that honor since Bill Polian in 1991.

In 2021, Beane was named the NFL's Jack Horrigan Award winner by the PFWA which is given annually to the league or club official who bests assists the media in their coverage.

In 2022, the Sporting News named Beane the NFL Executive of the Year for the 2nd time in three years.

Beane joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers. He served as the Panthers assistant general manager from 2015-16 and played a vital role in constructing their draft boards from 2012-17. He also evaluated pro and college players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

Throughout Beane's time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships. In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager—holding the role for the final 10 games of the season (6-4 record).

"Brandon is a very competitive person," said Terry Pegula. "I know he likes to win, but I also know he hates to lose. He's not afraid to say what he's thinking and if he disagrees with something he will say so, even to the owner. I love it. We have a very good relationship with open discussions, debate and a lot of communication."

Beane began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department and moved on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with the Panthers organization before being named the team's director of football operations in 2008.

PERSONAL

Off the field, Beane has ingrained himself in the Western New York community. From 2020-24, the Beane family has funded hundreds of animal adoptions through Bills Muttfia, a program they began in conjunction with the SPCA.

In the 2020 offseason, Brandon helped raise nearly $100,000 for COVID-19 relief efforts with a draft day sweepstakes through the United Way. He also helped promote the Buffalo Strong initiative that benefited FeedMore WNY.

He and his wife have also made multiple visits to Oishei's Children Hospital in Buffalo during the holidays.

A native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) was a cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998.

Brandon and his wife, Hayley, have two sons, Tyson, a scouting assistant with the New York Giants, and Wes, and reside in East Aurora, NY. They have two rescue dogs named Chipper and Daisy Mae. He enjoys golf, racquetball and basketball.

SEAN McDERMOTT
HEAD COACH

Sean McDermott was named head coach of the Bills on January 11, 2017. With 7 playoff appearances and 5 AFC East division titles under his belt in his first 8 seasons, he methodically transformed the culture of a franchise that had not experienced a postseason berth the previous 17 years.

With 86 wins in the regular season from 2017-24, McDermott ranks 2nd in NFL history behind only George Seifert (98) for most wins by a head coach in their first 8 seasons at the helm.

McDermott is ranked first in team history in win percentage and ranked 2nd in wins behind Marv Levy (123). From 2020-24, the Bills captured five consecutive AFC East division titles for the first time in team history. Buffalo and Kansas City are the only 2 teams in the NFL to win 10+ games and earn a playoff berth each year from 2019-24.

In 2024, McDermott was honored by the Maxwell Football Club with the Greasy Neale Award as the NFL's coach of the year.

"Sean is a proud, Christian, determined man," said Bills owner Terry Pegula. "I remember before his interview for the head coaching job thinking about him being a two-time National Prep Wrestling Champ. I thought to myself, you wrestled, you're determined, you love what you're doing and you won. He comes to the Bills everyday and will never ask anyone, player or coach to do anything he wouldn't do."

In 2024, McDermott was named to the NFL's Competition Committee, becoming the first Bills representative on that committee since Bill Polian (1990-93).

"It's a great honor" McDermott said. "It certainly comes with a responsibility as well to grow the game and evolve the game, like many who have come before us have done so well over the years."

In 2020, the Bills won their first playoff game since 1995 as McDermott finished 2nd for the NFL's coach of the year. He was also a finalist for that honor in 2019 and 2022.

In 2017, McDermott became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff spot in his first season, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998).

McDermott was hired by the Bills after six seasons as the defensive coordinator in Carolina, where he led a top-10 defense 4 times and helped the Panthers earn 3 division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

In 2015, McDermott's defense helped lead the way to a 15-1 record and trip to Super Bowl 50. Four players – Thomas Davis, Luke Kuechly, Josh Norman and Kawann Short – earned Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. He was The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year in 2013.

He spent his first 12 NFL seasons with Philadelphia under Andy Reid, working his way up to defensive coordinator in 2009-10. In 2009, he was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly.

OGA

Oga. It's a word used in Nigeria that means senior or boss.

"It's a good term, but [my mother] used it [another way]," Akharaiyi, who spent close to the first decade of his life in Nigeria, explained. "The way my mom used it was, when I did something bad, she's like, 'Oga, you think you run things?'

"I wasn't a bad kid. I'd just get under my mom's skin every now and then." These days, Akharaiyi has given his mom a break. He's instead raising the blood pressures of defensive coordinators. After battling through an early-season injury, the Mississippi State senior receiver has become the tremendous offensive playmaker head coach Jeff Lebby and staff thought he could be when they picked Akharaiyi up out of the transfer portal ahead of this year. Akharaiyi didn't even come to America and join his parents in the country until he was around eight or nine years old. Then, once he got to the U.S., he didn't care a thing about football. Now futbol though, that was another story. Akharaiyi played soccer back in Nigeria and enjoyed it, but essentially wanted nothing to do with American football despite his natural athleticism.

"I just didn't really like messing with football," Akharaiyi said. "I played a little bit in middle school, but I didn't really like it. And my parents weren't really big on sports. They put me in other extracurricular activities and math tutoring and things like that. It's all a crazy thing," Akharaiyi said. "It's just all a testament to a great support staff, my parents, my siblings and myself, and not giving up. This is what I want to do. I fell in love with this. I'm going to do whatever I can, and I'm going to do it until I can't anymore." (Joel Coleman, hailstate.com, Oct. 31, 2024)

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

He models his game after one of the greats, Darrelle Revis, who coined the term 'Revis Island' in his playing days. It wasn't a friendly place for visitors. And if Revis Island was an uncomfortable stay, Kaiir wants 'Elam Island' to be even worse for NFL receivers. "Darrelle Revis is definitely somebody who I modeled my game after," said Elam. "I feel like I'm a bigger him. But I want to be a lot better than him, though." (Trevor Hass, Boston Globe, April 26, 2022)

AN EMOTIONAL WIN

Josh Allen led the Bills to a 44-34 win over the Seattle Seahawks in 2020. The performance became even more meaningful after the game when Bills HC Sean McDermott told the media that Josh's grandmother, Patricia Allen, had passed away the day prior. In a post-game video released by the team, Allen emotionally tells his teammates "I love you guys. There's no place I'd rather be." Upon learning of the heartache Allen played through, Bills fans began making donations to Oishei Children's Hospital in $17 increments. Donations exploded over the week, eventually surpassing a million dollars.

PAINFUL GROWTH SPURT

Growing up playing Pop Warner football, Anderson was a quarterback and linebacker. As a 5-9, 195 pound high school freshman, he played defensive line and linebacker. It wasn't until a major growth spurt before his sophomore season that he switched to offensive line. He sprouted from 5-9 to 6-5 that year. By the time he was a senior, he weighed 305 pounds. His athleticism playing linebacker is something he credits to now playing offensive line.

ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT

In high school, Anderson and his best friend, Dom Fierro, started their own moving company called "Sons For a Day." His aunt, Deedee, knew a local real estate agent and their office referred a lot of business to them.

"My father took a 10% cut because we used his truck, but I was able to save up enough money for my first XBox and my first tattoo (Pax Romana on my right arm). We once moved a painting that was worth $5 million."

THE ROOKIE CARD

Over the past six months, Joe Andreessen has encountered a series of amazing moments on his unfathomable NFL journey. The suburban Buffalo kid navigated the fringes of college football, excelled in his lone season as a University at Buffalo transfer linebacker, got an undrafted rookie tryout with the Buffalo Bills, did enough to get signed as a training camp body and not only earned a spot on the 53-man roster, but also has played in real games for his favorite team.

The boyhood dream came into sharper focus and "Buffalo Joe" hardly could contain himself. At a desk in an upstairs bedroom of his parents' house in Depew, he rocked nervously in his chair and laughed at the thought of it all. His first football card.

Might sound trivial to some, but not to Andreessen. He has a massive collection of those 3×5 pictures that urge a youngster to daydream, to study the game and to mark an innocent time. Andreessen reminisced how he and his dad would visit flea markets to look at all the memorabilia, and perhaps come home with a prize or two.

Andreessen insisted neither the little kid in him nor the special-teams overachiever will take it for granted. "I'm just happy," Andreessen said, his smile still wide. "If you don't collect, I guess you don't know. Obviously, in the football collecting realm, the QBs hold the most value, and the offensive guys are below that – the specialty positions like wide receivers, running backs. So if you're not a first-round pick or notable draft pick, a lot of guys in the NFL don't get cards because their cards don't hold value ... That's why I even tweeted it out because I really wanted one, and kind of being in my position I wasn't sure if I was going to be able to get one. I'm just excited to be in this position."

PLAYING FOR MORE

When asked who his inspiration is, Tyler Bass is quick to answer his grandmother.

"My grandma was actually at practice with me every day," Bass told Georgia Southern. "She also was battling breast cancer at the time but she didn't miss a practice or a game, so that gives me a lot of strength."

His grandma has been involved in his football career from the start. When Bass decided to try out for the football team in ninth grade, she brought him to tryouts. Once he made it, she would take him to practice when he couldn't drive. She would also bring snacks and meals to make sure he was performing.

She was diagnosed with breast cancer when he was a senior in high school and had to go through chemotherapy for treatment. She has never missed a game of his, home or away, even through treatment. Her battle taught him not to be afraid of any challenge in front of him.

WHAT THEY DON'T SEE

The toughest aspect of the recovery process for Arkansas State senior center Jacob Bayer was watching his teammates.

Bayer suffered a knee injury, an anterior cruciate ligament tear, during spring practice in early April. After starting 36 games in his first three seasons of college football, two years at Lamar and last season at ASU, he had work to do before rejoining the Red Wolves on a full-time basis.

"I never would have thought something like that could happen," Bayer said Tuesday during ASU's weekly press conference. "Everybody kind of gets tired of practice, tired of fall camp, tired of lifting, and that whole time I'm thinking, 'I just want to be back. That's all I want to do, just be back with everybody.'"

Through hard work, ASU's All-Sun Belt Conference center made his path back to the football field shorter than expected. Bayer returned for the second game of the season, playing all 78 snaps against Tulsa a little more than five months after surgery. He also started against Michigan last weekend and played 52 snaps before the Red Wolves substituted for him in the fourth quarter.

ASU head coach Butch Jones said Bayer continues to play winning football. "I have so much respect for that individual and what he means from a toughness, a leadership standpoint. This program means everything to him," Jones said. "That's just who he is," Jones said, "I said it, we live in a SportsCenter society. Everybody turns on SportsCenter and all they see are the highlights. What they don't see is Jacob Bayer in the training room at 5:30 a.m., 6 a.m., coming in throughout the day for four and five appointments of rehab with the knee. They don't see him staying up here on his own in the month of May while everyone else is at home. All he's doing is coming in throughout the day and getting treatments and spending time with Eric (Ennis) in the training room. People don't see that. All they see is the highlights, they see him on the field, but we see all the sacrifices that he's made, not only for himself but for his teammates and the sacrifices his family has made for him to get to this point."

PLAYING FOR MORE

Benford grew up in Randallstown, Md., a suburb of Baltimore. During the spring 2021 season – the Wildcats season was moved from the fall because of the Covid-19 pandemic – Benford's mother, Christel, was hospitalized. Before a game against Stony Brook, Benford texted with his mom and thought she was doing well. Tragically, he found out after the game that she had suffered a medical setback and died. Loss has been a constant in Benford's life, which explains the heart tattoo on his right cheekbone. Half of it is colored in, the other half is not, signifying part of his heart being gone.

When asked how it could be that he didn't appear as a rookie to be afraid of any situation, Benford traced it back to those Maryland roots. "It's from where I grew up, the city," he said. "I'm going to be honest, when I was younger, I had confidence, but it was more so that I just wasn't afraid of anything. As I got older, I learned more about how to be more confident and continue to not be afraid. I continuously kept my confidence high. Regardless if you're first round, undrafted, sixth round, your confidence has to stay the same. My mindset (is) going to stay the same. I felt I could ball. I felt I could be the best. Regardless of the situation, my confidence always has me feeling that way."
(Buffalo News, Jay Skurski, June 11, 2023)

STYLISH SAFARI

(In March '25) Benford released his first children's book, Stylish Safari The Adventures of Being You. "I just wanted kids to have their own creativity," said Benford. "I'm always big on just being you, not trying to be somebody else, and whatever you like, you staying on it. It's not about what others like, it's what you feel."

RECHARGE

After each season Terrel likes to take at least one vacation in which he titles 'recharge.' This past season he chose Tulum, Mexico where swam with dolphins and spent time eating tacos and relaxing on the beach, which was made better with his fiance Tayler and closed on a new house. The year prior the two spent time in Turks and Caicos in which he described as 'a time to be had.' "Yeah after a season you want to spend time just trying to get your body and your mind right and the beach or spending time with family is a nice reset and you get a second wind to prepare for the upcoming season. It's a blessing I don't take a single moment for granted and try to enjoy every single day and being present with them."

HELPING HAND

The Each year, thousands of men, women and children in Western New York turn to the Buffalo City Mission for a second chance. They start by welcoming them with the basics: a good, nourishing meal, a clean bed in a safe shelter and any other physical needs people have when they come for help. They work to pull homelessness and poverty out of people's lives by the roots – addressing their long-term trauma through education and life skill classes, Christ-centered counseling and spiritual guidance so they can heal, inside and out.

This offseason Terrel has spent some time with them and gave his thoughts..."I had a great time, being able to use my platform and give back is always nice to do because you have a chance to smile on someones face."

"Seeing the less fortunate and listening to their stories is so impactful. Cause that's what it's about they want someone to hear them. Hearing their plans to move forward to continue too persevere push through and try to make change. It's something that I want to be a part of because that's just being a human being. Being there for people when they are in need and lending a helping hand, while at Baylor I did a bit of it in Waco but now I have a bit more free time on my hands so I try and get out when I can."

TERREL BERNARD

THE CAPTAIN

For the start of the 2024 season Terrel Bernard was selected by his peers as one of two captains of the Bills.

"It's an honor and one I don't take lightly, to be in a room with All-Pros, Hall of Famers and just NFL players in general, it means a lot. I just want to go out there everyday and compete and continue to lead by example continue to communicate properly." He echoed this to Tim Graham of the Athletic. "My focus is on finding ways to improve, not just me, but everybody in that building. It's time to take another step and excel from last year."

LEAD THE WAY

Bernard didn't just earn the respect of his teammates at Baylor because of his all-Big 12 caliber play. He also earned it through the hard work he put in to overcome injuries and through his ability to lead others.

He didn't show up at Baylor ready to lead as a freshman and made sure to observe the veterans ahead of him to see the right way to do things.

"I think it's something you learn," Bernard said to the Waco Tribune-Herald. "It helps to see other leaders and take things from them. So I think I've taken bits and pieces from players and coaches, and people outside of football. I kind of tried to implement that into my personality and try to get the best from people around me. I think that's what being a leader is all about."

"Terrel is a physical and a tough guy," Baylor head coach Dave Aranda said. "He feels a lot, and he's got a great heart, and I think things really matter to him. It's more than lip service with him."

21ST CENTURY RECRUITING

In Exhibit A of 21st century recruiting, [Morgan] Scalley – Utah's defensive coordinator and safeties coach – reached out to Bishop on Twitter.

There isn't exactly a Georgia-to-Utah pipeline for the Utes' program – last season, Bishop and receiver Munir McClain were the only Georgia natives on the roster and McClain was a transfer from former Pac-12 rival USC.

Utah recruiting assistants, who spend hours grinding on high school video to unearth players from outside their main focus area, presented Scalley with Bishop's highlights.

"They know who I'm looking for – tough, smart guys who are a little bit underrecruited but have the skill set and mindset to play in our program," Scalley said. "You could tell footwork-wise and technique-wise, there was (work to be done), but when he drove and broke on the football, he showed a lot of lateral quickness and physicality. I just loved him as a football player."

Scalley messaged Bishop on Twitter.

"Any other year than Covid (2020), that's not normal because you can go out and see a player in-person," Scalley said. "With Cole, you have to go off what you saw on film and that can be tough sometimes because you then see them in-person and you're like, 'Oh, they're not as athletic as they looked on film.' Everyone was going through that and it's taking a leap of faith and trusting the (high school) coach that they're giving you the correct height and weight." (The Buffalo News, Ryan O'Halloran, May 5, 2024)

FIRST-AND-10

JOEY BOSA signed a one-year contract with the Bills in 2025. A five-time Pro Bowl selection and the NFL's defensive rookie of the year in 2016, Bosa registered 72 sacks in 107 regular season games with the Chargers from 2016-24. He was the 3rd overall selection of San Diego in the 2016 draft after earning All-America honors at Ohio State in both 2014 and 2015.

- Set an NFL record for most sacks by a player in their first 20 games with 19.
- Posted 50th career sack in his 67th game, becoming the fastest Charger to reach 50 sacks in team history.
- Led the NFL with 7 strip sacks in 2021, which was the most by any player in a season since 2010.

GAME OF THRONES CAMEO

In the 2019 offseason, Bosa appeared as an extra in the final season of "Game of Thrones." He flew to Belfast, Northern Ireland. "It was a lot of work and time. It was freezing cold in Belfast in the middle of the night," he recalled.

TYPICAL BROTHERLY LOVE

Nick Bosa grew up with no choice but to tussle with his brother, who is 27 months older. Their backyard recreation invariably became competitive and physical, from the trampoline to the basketball hoop in the swimming pool. Games often ended with Nick returning to the house in tears. And on the rare occasions when Nick won, well, Joey was not the most gracious loser. "I was a total a—hole," Joey said. "I would just beat him up if I lost. It probably toughened him up, for sure."

Joey and Nick were three grades apart, so they spent only one season as teammates. That was in 2012 at St. Thomas Aquinas in Fort Lauderdale, Fl, when Joey was a senior and Nick was a 215-pound freshman, holding his own as the varsity nose tackle. (Ron Kroichick, SF Chronicle, Dec. 7, 2019)

LOYALTY TO NORTHERN IOWA

When the Missouri Valley Conference postponed the 2020 season to the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it was a true shot to the gut of Spencer Brown. Everything had been building to his senior year. He had high hopes not just for himself individually, but also for his team. From his point of view, Northern Iowa had a real chance at a championship.

When the news broke, coaches from Power 5 schools started reaching out to Brown in hopes he was going to transfer in order to bolster his draft stocks. Brown quickly put that to bed because there was no way he was going to be a part of anything that wasn't at Northern Iowa.

"I am not going to let someone else reap the benefits of what UNI did for me," he wrote on his Twitter account. "I did not want to go somewhere and be under a system of guys that didn't like me from the start. I'd never do that."

"It's as simple as that," Brown said to The Athletic. "I can't imagine playing with a bunch of guys that aren't my guys here."

AN ELWAY CONNECTION

Steve Buechele played baseball for three seasons at Stanford, where he roomed with baseball teammate and future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway.

Elway retired as a player the year Shane was born, so Shane never saw him play. Elway and Steve Buechele have maintained their friendship. Earlier this month, when the Rangers were in Denver to play the Rockies, Buechele reached out to Broncos GM Elway and arranged for Rangers manager Jeff Banister and the Rangers' coaches to spend time at the Broncos' complex. Elway's connection to Steve Buechele is the reason Shane wore No. 7 at Arlington Lamar. Last spring he wore No. 16 at Texas (because, of course, 1-plus-6 equals 7). He had on numerous occasions asked coach Charlie Strong about getting No. 7, but didn't find out Strong had granted his wish until he entered the locker room before his smashing Sunday night debut against Notre Dame.

To say Elway has mentored Shane in any way, however, would not be accurate. They have met only once, at the funeral of Steve Buechele's father in 2008. "Shane's always admired John, looked up to John," Steve Buechele said. "And I think he wanted to be like that, that kind of quarterback."

Apparently, most members of the Buechele family have a strong allegiance to the Broncos. "I definitely cheered for John when I was younger," said Garrett Buechele, 26, Shane's oldest sibling. "But I'm a Cowboys fan. They stuck with their Denver side and I'm a Cowboys guy."

(Trevor Hass, Boston Globe, April 26, 2022)

His last name is pronounced BOO-shell. Shane and his wife, Paige, have a daughter (Blaize) and two dogs (Penelope and Boujee). Son of Steve and Nancy Buechele. Has two brothers, Garrett and Tanner, and two sisters, Jordan and Amber. Father, Steve, spent 11 seasons in Major League Baseball and currently works for the Texas Rangers. Attended Lamar High School in Arlington, Texas.

HUNGRY FOR THE OPPORTUNITY

The main attraction of training camp is typically rooted in big-time connections from quarterbacks to their wideouts. Hundred's of "ooo's" from the bleachers filled with Ravens fans which end with either disappointment on an incompletion or cheers and clapping upon a successful offensive play. Recently, Deon Cain has been the player to draw the most cheering after winning a few reps against All-Pro cornerback Marlon Humphrey.

Cain thinks these reps against the Ravens' caliber of cornerbacks shows he belongs in this league.

"Most definitely," Cain said. "During my offseason I'm going against great corners all the time. Just coming out here working out with Marlon, Marcus Peters, Devontae Harris, Chris Westry, all of those guys. It's really giving me that confidence that once game time comes, I know it's going to be easier."

"I don't really pay attention to the media and stuff like that," Cain said. "When it's camp, I just try to lock it in. . . I mean, that's definitely a blessing to be categorized as that for sure, but I'm just out here to work and get better every day."

Cain knows the competition is fierce this season for a spot on the Ravens' roster. When asked what separates him from others in the room, he shared how determined he is to be great and that he'll do anything to be on the field.

"I'm hungry for this opportunity," Cain said. "I've been a little shaky throughout the beginning of my years and now I just kind of see how everything is playing out, [so I want to] come out here and become a total football player. I don't care if it's anything. I just want to be the best at whatever I do. I pretty much critique myself really hard all the time, like I'm never really satisfied with anything that goes on so my biggest thing is I want to stay humble and stay hungry throughout this whole process."

MAKING AN IMPACT

"The way I model myself," Carter addresses the awards that have come his way as the result of his community service. "I truly believe that God put me here to be a servant and leader, to give people my time — to "donate" my time. I truly believe time is the biggest thing you can give someone. Especially with the younger generation. Especially with the Durham population. Round here, there's a lot of black kids and they just see that you're at Duke and you're excelling, that you're successful. That representation means the world. It's pretty cool and rewarding to know that I'm making an impact."

(CFN, Oliver Hodgkinson, June 22, 2023)

A FOOTBALL FAMILY

His father, DeWayne Sr., was a star for the Buckeyes throughout the early nineties. His uncle and grandfather, both named Raymond, played college football for Notre Dame and Youngstown State, respectively. Another uncle, John Carter, played at Western Kentucky. In other words, Carter comes from an accomplished football family and grew up with one of the country's most storied programs on the other side of town. "It was never pushed on me," Carter said. "Which is funny to say because I wasn't allowed to play football until sixth grade." His father originally insisted that he couldn't play until ninth grade. "My mom told him: 'Listen, he's not gonna suck when he gets to high school, he needs at least a couple of years,'" Carter said. "So we got down to sixth grade. But after then, he became the coach of my first team, and then it kind of took off from there." It certainly did. Carter lettered all four years at Pickerington Central and led his team to the Division I state semifinals on three occasions.

HE HAS A CHIP ON HIS SHOULDER

Head Coach Trei Oliver, then in his first-year, recalled that when Codrington arrived he was undersized, built more like a "seventh grader" than a football player. He said that the team had many returning players, so getting playtime was not going to be an easy task for the freshman.

"It didn't take long at all to see that the young man was talented," Oliver said. "...he worked his butt off and he ended up getting in the rotation."

As a true freshman, Codrington saw the field as a kick returner and punt returner. He had a punt return average of 7.8 yards, and averaged 18.8 yards per kickoff return.

He finished the season with a number of accolades — All-MEAC Third Team as return specialist, the Phil Steele All-MEAC Team (Third Team), and finished among MEAC leaders in both punt returns and kickoff returns. Codrington said it was a "blessing" to receive the recognition, but he was more focused on a much bigger accomplishment.

"My goal was to become an All-American, so I kind of looked past that and set my goal higher going into my sophomore year," he said.

[Coach Oliver] said he's noticed that Codrington has gotten a lot bigger in the offseason.

"He has a chip on the shoulder and he wants to show everybody that he's the best," Oliver said.

KEON COLEMAN FAMILY FOUNDATION

"It's always been a thought," Coleman said. "Growing up, always wanted to be able to give back to whatever community I got drafted to and show love to them, show that appreciation to all the fans that come out and support me on Sunday and my teammates. The basis behind it is, I don't have a set cause for whatever individual thing is, but I like the Big Brother Big Sister programs, Boys and Girls programs, after school programs, so pretty much just a variety of different things in the community to help give back to the kids."

Coleman said that when he got drafted, his number one goal was to be able to give back to whichever community drafted him. "The Keon Coleman Family Foundation was established out of a deep sense of gratitude and a lifelong commitment to service. Its mission is to strengthen communities by empowering youth, providing resources, and creating opportunities for personal growth. Through mentorship, support programs, and positive role models, the foundation strives to inspire the next generation and help them become leaders in their communities," the website says.

From the mission statement on the website, Coleman believes that youth across the country have untapped potential and with the right encouragement, that can lead to growth. Coleman has also benefitted from having mentorship in his life and is passionate about providing those same opportunities for others through his foundation.

SHE DESERVES THE CREDIT

Coleman is the son of a single mom, Ravin Savoy, who raised five children. Times were tough. The streets were tougher. She sought help from folks like Randy Livingston, his AAU basketball coach and longtime family friend, and Jonathan Fisher to help with her two daughters and to keep her three boys from finding trouble.

"He's had hardships that most kids would struggle with," said Fisher, a director at Hope for Opelousas, a non-profit focused on community development, outreach and support. "He made it because of his mom. She did everything to make sure he never got away. She used resources like us."

"It's been so many years of him against everybody else," said Savoy, through some tears. "It's always him against everybody else. No one believed in him. Even them from his home place." (Ross Dellenger, Yahoo.com, September 4, 2023)

"Waffle House is a way of life in Opelousas. I know people in Atlanta take it serious but in Opelousas? We really like that. It's to a point where we an just walk in and the folks behind the counter just say 'hi' and get to cooking your usual order. We have St. Landry Parish (regional airport) and the RaceTrac (gas station) and Waffle House. People from Lafayette come up to us cause they know how we get down in that place. It got to point one day where I went behind the counter had the sleeve on and made my own sausage egg and cheese grit bowl with a pork chop with no fat."

NEVER GIVE UP

During the offseason James Cook had the opportunity to speak at a high school graduation in NYC. When asked about what it meant to him and how it came about, the man of 'many' words said "They reached out, you know, because they don't have a lot of money. Just did it out of the kindness of my heart to give back." Cook spoke to "30 or 40" kids during the graduation and it was in the middle of the school parking lot.

The message he wanted to relay to the kids who may be battling with their own demons, "Just never give up."

"I WANT TO FEEL LIKE A PHYSICAL CORNER"

Couch described blitzing as "really fun" because he's "not the strongest guy on the field, but I feel like I use my quickness and speed to my advantage to get around bigger guys that can't move as well as I can.

Couch, who is majoring in sports administration, explained that he plays bigger than he is because of his mindset.

"I feel like if I go out there and do what I gotta do, nobody can stop me. I'm just confident in myself and my ability and I work extremely hard. Every day I take coaching."

"I'm laid back, chill. I'm observant. I take coaching from everybody, whether it's safeties, linebackers. I watch the linebackers because I want to feel like a physical corner and I like to hit." (Susan Miller Degnan, Miami Herald, November 10, 2020)

HE HAS A CHIP ON HIS SHOULDER

Zach Davidson's journey to the NFL is something no one could've predicted, not even Davidson himself.

"I never would've told you five years ago, three years ago, that I'd be playing on an NFL roster, but I've had the aspirations, but it's definitely the dream of everyone who straps up on Friday, Saturday, Thursday to play at this level," Davidson told KSN.

He kicked his way to a starting punter position in high school and began his UCM career as a punter, but he and his dad knew he had more to offer.

"His dad was pretty emphatic that this kid is more than a punter, and boy was he right," UCM head coach Jim Svoboda told KSN. "Any time you average 20 yards a catch and are in the top 10 in the country as a tight end, you have legitimate skills."

Davidson went on to earn the starting tight end job in 2019 and began to recognize that he had the potential to take his talent to the NFL.

DOWLEY "WILL FOREVER BE MY BIG BROTHER"

"He looked right at me, and he pointed, and he said, 'Are you Patrick?'" Dowley told CBS News of their first meeting. "I said, 'Yes I am.' And he's like, "Man, you don't even know how long I've been waiting to meet you.'"

In 2007, Davis was 8 years old and living in San Francisco's Tenderloin district when he saw a flyer for the Big Brothers Big Sisters program. At times in his youth, Davis was homeless. He says his parents were in and out of his life and he was craving stability. So he signed up for a Big Brother.

"I just needed love, man," Davis said. "I needed consistency. I needed somebody who was going to be there to teach me right from wrong."

And that person was Dowley. "That will forever be my Big Brother," Davis said.

They spent countless Sundays together. From those early Pop Warner football games, through Dowley's wedding, Davis became like part of the family. (Steve Hartman, CBSNews.com, December 6, 2024)

MAN OF THE YEAR X3

In December of 2024, the NFL announced the candidates for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award, the highest honor the league can bestow. The award is based on both community service and on-field performance. Dawkins is the Bills' nominee for a third straight year. "It means consistency," Dawkins said. "I think that it means someone knows their true self and who they truly are. I think also it means that, to the core, that what's going on is not fake, for it to be the third time. It's always and will always be my biggest honor. I'm a real piece of this community now, and it's not for fake, like, this is really where I want to be. This is really where I'm at. Buffalo is where the Dawkins will be, and where eventually I will rest."

(Buffalo News, Katherine Fitzgerald, December 6, 2024)

PROTECTOR OF THE YEAR

Dion Dawkins is credited with launching the campaign that culminated in the NFL creating its Protector of the Year Award, given to the best offensive lineman.

Dawkins broached the subject publicly in January of 2025. He wondered out loud why offensive linemen can't be crowned in some fashion like quarterbacks win passing titles, running backs win rushing titles, edge rushers win sack titles. After all, the most dangerous pass rushers generate beaucoup votes for Defensive Player of the Year, yet the people who are paid to thwart them garner zero attention for Offensive Player of the Year.

"It's very cool that my domino piece makes noise when it falls," Dawkins said. "Just to be a regular kid from Jersey, go to Temple, be a second-round pick to Buffalo, to having a voice so big that it reaches all 32 teams and then some. This is a part of my legacy now, and I stand on it."

MY FIRST BUFFALO WINTER

With a snow storm raging through Western New York prior the Bills Wild Card playoff game vs. Pittsburgh, David Edwards set out to go pick up his wife, Karoline, and newborn daughter, Margot, from the hospital. Those plans changed when white-out conditions forced Edwards to drive into and get stuck in a snowbank near Highmark Stadium. "I drove straight into a plowed snowbank on the left side of the road," Edwards told USA TODAY Sports "I was like, 'Holy, crap.'"

In desperate need of help, Edwards called Bills vice president of security, Chris Clark, who connected him with Dennis Miller from Miller's Collision and Auto, Inc. Miller was quick to rescue Edwards. "Business as usual. Just trying to help out people. That's what we do," Miller told USA TODAY Sports.

"He was a huge lifesaver for us," Edwards said. After being rescued from the snowbank and running through his options, Edwards and Miller set-out for the hospital.

Miller's help did not end there as shortly after getting Edwards to the hospital, he returned with his payloader to help escort Edwards and his family back to their home. "Without the payloader, (they) never would have made it through there," Miller said. "With that precious cargo in the car, I had to make sure I had to get (them) home."

"Can't say how grateful or appreciative I am for him doing that for us," Edwards said.

FROM THE TROMBONE TO ALL-AMERICAN

Campbell University's football team has set new school passing records the past couple of seasons. Coaches will point to left tackle Mike Edwards as one of the biggest reasons why the Camels have been able to move the ball up and down the field with much more precision.

Now a graduate student in Buies Creek, he has been named a preseason All-American by Stats Perform, Phil Steele College Football and The Bluebloods.

Edwards first started out in the band, playing trombone. But someone invited him to try out for football in high school, and the rest is history. While playing at South View, he emerged as one of the top recruits in North Carolina.

In 2022, Edwards became the first Campbell offensive lineman to earn All-American recognition, being voted to the American Football Coaches Association second-team for FCS. (Eric Lusk, NC Football News, August 23, 2023)

HOOP STAR

A three-sport star growing up, Epenesa played on the St. Louis Eagles AAU basketball team that featured Celtics star Jayson Tatum and former Iowa star Tyler Cook. "His athleticism is freaky," Cook told The Athletic. "When I was in eighth grade, I promise you A.J. was better than I was. I'm not going to lie about that at all. A freak athlete, man. People don't know how skilled of a basketball player he was, too. He could shoot it, put it on the deck. I talk to him about it every time I see him."

IT CAN ONLY BE JARED

According to a story by The Athletic, A.J. Epenesa's middle name, Jared, came from his father's best friend in college. Former DT Jared DeVries used to lend his car in college to Eppy Epenesa, so he could drive 50 miles to see his fiancee (now wife) Stephanie and their newborn daughter, Samantha. "Naming him after Jared has to do with my friendship with Jared, which will stick for life," Eppy said. "I'm glad I did that. It's a blessing just to have Jared as my friend."

PERSONAL

Full name: Andrew Jared Epenesa. Is the son of Stephanie and Espensa "Eppy" Epenesa. His father, a native of American Somoa, played DT at Iowa. Has a sister, Samantha, and two brothers, Eric, an outside linebacker at Iowa, and Iose. Majored in communications. Fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. Played football, basketball and track in high school, scoring over 1,000 points in basketball and earned All-America honors as a discus thrower.

AJ EPENESA

AIGA MEANS FAMILY IN SAMOA

Epenesa's twitter bio contains the flag of American Samoa. His Instagram account is @supersamoan94. The roots run much deeper. His father, Eppy, grew up in Pago Pago, Samoa and that lineage is ingrained in his life. Because of that, family is first for the Epenesas and A.J. is tattooed with birds, tortoise shells, fish, and leaves, all symbols of the Samoan culture. "I didn't have much exposure to Samoa growing up in Illinois," A.J. said. "But my dad tried his best to put his culture into our lives so that I can really embrace it and take pride in it, which I do."

GO BILLS!!

A.J. had the opportunity to bring joy to lifelong Bills fan Frank Bonfilio of Cincinnati surprising him with two tickets to the Sunday Night Football game against the Bengals. Frank is the starter of a Bills backer group in Northern Kentucky where there are about 200 members and he sets up game days and events for Bills fan in Northern Kentucky. "We know BillsMafia is everywhere and having their support is amazing, with so many people like Frank it just makes it that much more special to know we have people committed to us as we are to them." Epenesa said.

THINGS TO KNOW

Rocks the mullet and the 'stache

Even if you weren't familiar with Feeney before, chances are you've seen a photo of him on social media. After all, he's been known to rock a pretty impressive mullet/mustache combo.

According to Feeney, he was inspired by Chargers kicker Michael Badgley's training camp mullet and aimed to grow his own hair out for the following season. He kept it, even though Badgley shed his.

And as far as the mustache?

"I think it was just something different," Feeney told Chargers team reporter Hayley Elwood in 2019. "It's tough for me to grow a beard, so I was like, 'I want something on there.' This little caterpillar? I think he's here to stay."

Asked if there was any Hollywood inspiration for the 'stache, Feeney pointed to the 1993 Western, Tombstone.

Windy City foodie

A self-identified deep-dish pizza fan, Feeney told Elwood that Lou Malnati's Pizzeria is his go-to spot for a good deep-dish.

He also gave a shout-out to Portillo's for "where to go to get the best [Italian] beef."

Fe-He-He-He-Heeney!

Boy Meets World came a little before Feeney's time, but he's plenty familiar with the classic sitcom nonetheless. After all, with a name like Feeney ... how could he not be?

"Growing up, that was a staple, for sure," he told Elwood. "All my friends had to give me a 'Feeny call' at one point or another."

Big man, big dog

Feeney and his girlfriend, Emily, have an English Mastiff named Mel.

Reid and Blake Ferguson took similar paths to the NFL growing up in Buford, GA. Both attended Buford HS and LSU. And both were rivals in the AFC East from 2020-24, as Blake was drafted by the Dolphins in 2020. Blake learned a great deal from his big brother over the years, but it was not a one-way street. "Perseverance is the best thing I learned from Blake," recalled Reid. "His battle with diabetes over the years put a lot of things in perspective for me. Things that seemed like big problems are nothing compared to what he went through."

FIGHT FOR HIS FAMILY

Ferguson's brother, Blake, was diagnosed as a Type 1 diabetic in 2011 at the age of 13. Since then, it has been a family mission to raise awareness and funds to fight diabetes. In fact, during the 2018 offseason, he joined his brother and the American Diabetes Association in a trip to Capitol Hill to meet with lawmakers to raise awareness. "The experience I had at Call to Congress with the American Diabetes Association was very eye-opening," Ferguson told the Buffalo News. "To be able to go to the Hill and continue the talks to get more funding for diabetes research was incredible."

SOCCER TEAM OWNER

In 2023, Reid and his brother, Blake, became minority owners of Swansea City AFC in Wales. "Sports ownership has always been a goal of mine and I love the game of soccer. It was an opportunity I could not pass up," said Ferguson.

In 2025, Ferguson also invested in a new professional soccer team in Buffalo. "As an adopted member of the Buffalo community, I could not be more excited to be a part of the Buffalo Pro Soccer project, bringing professional soccer to the Western New York area," Ferguson said.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE

Ferguson was the Bills nominee for the NFL's Salute to Service award in 2022 and 2023 due to his commitment to honoring active and retired military members. One of his initiatives is hosting an annual happy hour for military members, veterans and their families in the Buffalo area called "Thank a Vet BBQ."

"Sometimes it's easy to take for granted the freedom that we have on a day to day basis and I think my involvement centers around an appreciation of what they've given and what they've laid on the line."

Ferguson's grandfathers Jim Seale and Robert Ferguson as well as his great uncle Jerry Seale and great grandfather Howard Seale all served in the military.

FAMILY MATTERS

When he was around 10 years old, Darrick Forrest made a bet with his sister that he would one day make it to the NFL. He was skinny, and he was small, and no one in his family had made it to the pros, but he believed he would be the first.

So he put $50 on it.

On the afternoon of May 1, while he was surrounded by friends and family at Our Bar in his hometown of Columbus, Ohio, Forrest won that bet and got the call he had long waited to receive.

Darrick Forrest Sr. always believed his son would become an NFL player because he always did whatever he set out to do. He earned 11 varsity letters in basketball, track and football at Walnut Ridge High and was a captain on all of them, his father said.

"Most kids do it for their parents or they do it for such and such," said his father, Darrick Sr. "Darrick, he does it because he sees himself as a role model."

"I'm the first NFL player in my family," he said. "So I want this to trickle down, and I want my younger brothers to try to make this dream come true, too. They all play football because of me now.

"And I actually haven't collected my money yet, but my sister's definitely going to have to pay that."

FROM UNNOTICED TO THE NFL

If you want a guy to root for, a guy who has had to scratch and claw for everything he has ever received, the 24-year-old from Galloway, Ohio is your man.

At Westland High School outside Columbus, the football team was terrible and even though he was the MVP and he made first-team all-conference, there were no college recruiters punching that address into their GPS.

"I won seven games my entire high school career, so, I was kind of like, college was a stretch," he said. "About the third game into my senior year, I got a DM from a recruiter in Toledo. He hit me up and was like, 'Hey, saw your film, had a really great game - we'd like you to come up for our walk-on day, and see the campus.' So I came up and fell in love with the campus, and was like, 'This is what I want to do.'"

All it takes is one, and Gilliam walked on to the team and eventually earned a scholarship in his third year. He played 40 games for the Rockets as a tight end, but he caught only 18 passes for 153 yards, so once again, he figured there was no way an NFL team would give him a look. (Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, Sal Maiorana, August 8, 2022)

He learned the game from his father. Even if he doesn't quite run the same way. Gore, Jr. grew up watching his father play, wearing his father's jerseys.

"Being a son of an NFL player, you have to mature a lot faster than a normal kid," Gore, Jr. said. "The things I had to go through as a child, he probably didn't have, he didn't have the expectations I have."

A SIGNAL CALLER IN THE TRENCHES

Tylan Grable played quarterback in high school. He commanded huddles and looked beyond the bars of a face mask, into eyes and scolded. When quarterbacks see too many opposing players in their faces, they scold linemen. "I did it quite a few times, thinking it was kind of easy," Grable says, with a laugh. "Now, doing the job that they were out there trying to do, I see it's not that easy." The former high school quarterback has gone to the trenches. He's made the transition from quarterback, to tight end and offensive tackle at Jacksonville State. "He's a man of many skills," JSU coach John Grass said. "He's played a little bit of everything. He was a basketball player and played on a really good basketball team. He played quarterback, and I think you still see that with him playing tackle."

JSU's coaching staff had to sell Grable on going from a guy with the ball in his hands to a guy with his hand on the ground. Then they asked him to go from run blocking as a tight end to pass blocking as a tackle. Grable didn't fight it. He just tried to do what offensive linemen can't ... wrap his arms around it. "My first reaction was, how?" he said. "I don't know how, but he kept telling me to just trust the process and listen to coach and listen to your teammates. They'll help you get through it, and then you can really be good. I said, I've got to give it a try. Whatever I can do for the team, I was ready."

SOMETHING TO BE PROUD OF

The Peoria High School practice football fields sit tucked back off of Peoria's busy Knoxville Ave. and a block away from a section of North Street that has appropriately been renamed "Shaun Livingston Way."

The practice field was full of campers between the ages of six and 14 with music pumping through speakers set up on the track with a big Pittsburgh Steelers canopy one end and a Peoria High School canopy on the other. Kendrick Green, an offensive lineman for the Pittsburgh Steelers, was back in his hometown hosting his second annual Kendrick Green's Camp 53. "It's home," Green told Illini Inquirer. "This place will always be special to me. People do welcome me with open arms. That's why I love it here so much."

Green was back on the practice field that helped shape him into a three-star, highly-sought after recruit, a standout at the University of Illinois and a third-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers who started 15 games as a rookie last season. Green was also back in the city that molded him and a block away from a street sign that celebrated one of Peoria's favorite sons, Shaun Livingston, who inspired Green to want to host a camp in the first place. Livingston is an icon to Green's generation — and several generations — of Peoria athletes. He was a standout of Peoria High who was drafted No. 4 overall in the 2004 NBA Draft by the Los Angeles Clippers and often hosted camps in his hometown, many attended by Green.

"It's great. It's fulfilling," Green said. "It's stuff that people before me did and I just want to do it and maybe a kid out here one day might be in my position. I want them to do the same thing. Just trying to keep passing down tradition."

THE ULTIMATE HYPE MAN

Buffalo's newest cornerback decided to spend his draft night in Green Bay, WI with his friends and family. Throughout the night, TV cameras showed Hairston congratulating other prospects in the green room once they got drafted.

When asked about why the CB went out of his way to high-five and hug guys, he said it's just who he is.

"I'm a very happy and energetic person, and the fact that I'm in the green room right now is just so exciting for me," Hairston said. "The fact that I knew the majority of the guys that got picked, of course I had to show some love...we worked so hard for this opportunity, and to all hear our names called, 'Man, it's truly beautiful.'"

Once Hairston's name was called you saw his electric energy and smile flash across the TV as he celebrated with his loved ones. As the media spoke with Hairston, it wasn't just his personality that came across the screen but his confidence, too. (Maddy Glab, BuffaloBills.com, April 25, 2025)

During the 2022 season KJ Hamler was selected as the Denver Broncos Ed Block Courage Award winner. Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award honors players who exemplify commitments to the principles of sportsmanship and courage.

"It's been a tough journey, to be honest," Hamler told denverbroncos.com. "There was such much stuff I was dealing with and being piled up on top of each other. At one point, just dealing with the ACL and then some more things with family situations. The love of my life passed — my grandmother — so that was the toughest thing. That was on my back for a while. I wish I never did it by myself. I wish I would have asked for help, because it was at one point in my life—and I'm going to just be honest with you all because I'm more vulnerable and more confident in myself by just saying it — at one point, I didn't want to be here. God gave me the strength to just get out of that hole because he knew I was strong enough to get through it. I didn't feel like I was at the time. Just getting out of that hole was very hard, very tough. Just having all of these things going on and piling on top of each other, it was a hard process. Just to see where I am at from where I started and where I'm at now, it's been a big change. I'm proud of myself and I know my grandmother is proud."

CHASING M'S

Reminiscing on his journey, Damar Hamlin decided that he wanted to use his platform to give back to others and created The Chasing M's Foundation. His first program was a toy drive in 2020.

He raised money on GoFundMe to purchase and donate toys to Kelly and Nina's Daycare Center in his hometown of McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania.

"The idea popped in my head right after Clemson week," Hamlin told the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. "It sparked a thought in my head. But I actually couldn't do anything until after my eligibility was done as far as GoFundMe and all that. So it's been a solid week and a half of preparation for the toy drive. This was all able to happen off that short amount of time. That just goes to show the support that the town, the city, all of Pitt fans and the University of Pittsburgh, everyone that grew up watching me and knew my story personally and have been a part of it, that's just a testament to how much they support me."

The support Hamlin has received came in abundance in 2023 and has raised over 11 million dollars and still counting.

Chasing Millions

In addition to the Chasing M's Foundation, Hamlin also has a clothing brand named Chasing M's. Chasing M's stands for Chasing Millions and according to the brand's website, it is "for those who have a dream and pursue it... It is for those who want something more and can't settle to be average."

Hamlin has donated clothes from his brand to his area high school in Pittsburgh, Sto-Rox, and will continue to use it to grow his platform and increase the people that he can reach.

DAMAR HAMLIN

CPR AND AED TRAINING

On Jan. 2, 2023, Hamlin went into cardiac arrest during the Monday Night Football game at Paycor Stadium against the Cincinnati Bengals.

Emergency responders provided CPR on Hamlin and used an AED to revive him. Hamlin recovered at UC Medical Center and one week later, doctors released him back to Buffalo.

Instead of letting this moment define his career or even who he was a person, "This event was life-changing, but it's not the end of my story." Hamlin said regarding his blow to chest called commotio cordis.

So he decided to lead from the front and wanted to raise awareness on CPR which saved his life. Providing CPR on someone who is in cardiac arrest can triple their survival chance as it continues the flow of oxygen to the brain and other vital organs.

"I wake up every day and think about how I can impact the world in a positive way, that's what I care about if you take away everything else. To be able to save a life is a true superpower. Instead of people standing by not knowing what to do, I'm just trying to create more people who do know what to do. Growing up, I never really remember ever thinking about where an AED was, or ever thinking about CPR training. As we learned from my personal experience, it is very important and life-changing. This program (Chasing M's) is very important because it gives life-saving care to kids in their own communities and on the field."

"HE WAS LIKE STEPH CURRY"

Hancock grew up in suburban Atlanta with basketball as his first love.

He was such a gifted athlete that his parents always had him compete with kids a grade older. Hancock could dunk when he was in the eighth grade and stood only 5-foot-7.

"He was the bomb," his dad, Kenneth said. "Put it this way: He was like a Steph Curry. He could take it to the basket. He could drain the 3 on you. He had the step-back move, the reverse pivot."

He thought he'd pursue basketball as his main sport until Mel Tucker, then the Georgia defensive coordinator before being the Michigan State coach, visited him. He watched Hancock at a football practice and told Hancock's coaches that he believed he could be special on the gridiron. (Trevor Hass, The Columbus Dispatch, August 23, 2024)

TOOK A CHANCE AND RAN WITH IT

A week before signing day in 2019, Penn Hills grad Daequan Hardy took an official visit to Penn State. He left without a scholarship offer.

Hardy figured coach James Franklin and his staff had made up their minds. As signing day neared, Hardy silently committed to Buffalo.

He received a call soon after, however, from Nittany Lions cornerbacks coach Terry Smith — it was an offer to play football for Penn State after all, an opportunity that would change the course of Hardy's life and set him up for a potential NFL contract this spring.

"I was definitely kind of surprised at how late they offered me," Hardy said on Thursday in Atlanta ahead as he and the team prepare for Penn State's Peach Bowl game against Ole Miss on Saturday at noon.

"But I just took the chance and ran with it."

And sprint Hardy did — to the tune of a 4.32 40-yard dash — instantly defining him as one of Penn State's quickest players as a true freshman.

It took one season watching from the sidelines before Hardy became a staple of the defense in 2021, soon developing into a three-year starter at nickel corner. (Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Seth Engle, December 28, 2023)

SO WORK HARD

Pamela Blocton is all too familiar with the drive from Montgomery to Lawrence, Kan. It's a bear of a trip – 812 miles on six interstates across five state lines. She made that 13-hour journey multiple times over the past two years.

That's what a mother does. Her son, former Park Crossing High standout Marcus Harris, played football at Kansas. She flew up there for a few home games, but with her two younger sons playing football on Friday nights, finding convenient flight times was a challenge. It's one she no longer has to deal with, though. Harris entered the transfer portal last month and committed to Auburn football on May 21. Blocton's Saturday commute to home games will now be a quick, 50-mile ride east on I-85 to Jordan-Hare Stadium.

For her, it's a relief. For her son, it's "a dream come true." Harris grew up an Auburn fan. He always envisioned himself one day playing in the SEC. And after two years in the Big 12, he has earned that opportunity. "I always tell him, 'Hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard. So work hard,'" Blocton said. "He continued to grind and work hard, and then doors started opening for him."

Those doors weren't open for Harris coming out of high school. The 6-foot-2, 280-pound defensive lineman was a three-star recruit ranked No. 1,950 nationally in the 2019 class. Only two of the 23 offers he received came from Power 5 programs, and none came from the SEC. He still had that desire to play in the SEC. "I had no question, no doubt coming out of high school that he was an SEC player," said Angelo Wheeler, his coach at Park Crossing. "He's going to dominate the SEC. He's going to dominate. He's going to be a huge pickup for Auburn because he's so fundamentally sound."

"ON FIELD, I'M DEFINITELY LOOKING TO PUNISH"

Jackson Hawes doesn't mind being called a "throwback" player because of his tenacious blocking.

"I think the tight end position in recent years in the NFL has gone a little bit away from that in-line (blocking) tight end as teams are passing more," Hawes said. "I think the NFL is interesting because teams will start passing more. Defenses will adjust to that. They'll get back to the run. It's a big cycle."

He played at Yale from 2019-23. He thought he could be an undrafted player and or maybe a late-round pick. But decided to transfer to play in the ACC and try to improve his draft status. Hawes' brutally physical style of play doesn't seem to match with a congenial personality.

"Off the field, I'm pretty enthusiastic, Labrador retriever-type of guy," Hawes said. "On the field, I'm definitely looking to punish. I'm looking to put my face mask underneath guys chinstrap." (D. Orlando Ledbetter, Atlanta Journal Constitution, February 27, 2025)

A VIRTUAL PRO DAY PAVED THE WAY

After his senior season ended, Hoecht started training in Boston to prepare for the NFL Draft. But the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic in early March 2020 complicated his plans. A workout with the San Francisco 49ers that Hoecht was scheduled to attend was canceled at the last minute when the team's scouts stopped traveling as the pandemic worsened.

His pro day was also canceled, leading Hoecht to improvise and hold his own pro day, which he videoed and sent to scouts.

Hoecht, like so many others, had to adapt his training as a result of the pandemic. "You just kinda had to make do," he told The Herald. "There have been a lot of people who have struggled to make the transition to the virtual work, but I think that I was able to navigate that well."

At his virtual pro day, Hoecht posted gaudy numbers, especially considering his size. He ran the 40-yard dash in 4.65 seconds, ran the 20-yard short shuttle in 4.21 seconds and completed the three-cone drill in 7.05 seconds. Each of these times would have been among the very best among interior defensive line prospects at the 2020 NFL Combine. These times were not just hollow numbers, according to Brown coach James Perry.

"Not only was he a (sub-4.7) guy at 290 (pounds), but he really played fast on the field, and that's not always true," Perry said. (Peter Swope, Brown Daily Herald, March 11, 2021)

GHOSTLY

He's made a home in Los Angeles, but he grew up in Arlington, Texas – in a semi-haunted house, nonetheless.

His childhood home made him believe in ghosts, and he shared a story of bizarre things that would happen in his house.

"I do believe in ghosts. Okay, this makes sense. That makes sense because apparently, we lived in a semi-haunted house in my childhood at one point," he said, via the Rams' official site. "I kind of got weird vibes but as a child you don't really pay much attention to stuff. There was weird stuff happening in that house now that I think about it. My parents told me stories. [For example] I'd be in the living room and my mom just cleaned the room. She'll walk out the room, I'm still sitting there watching TV in the living room, and she'll walk right back by that room and the room would be completely messed up again. Like she didn't just clean it. The covers would be all messed up. Stuff like that." (Cameron DaSilva, theramswire.usatoday.com, July 20, 2021)

PUZZLE MASTER

Many people say football is a combination of athletic and mental ability. Hollins had the desire to challenge his mind and ultimately learned how to solve a Rubik's cube. When that wasn't enough, he learned how to complete a Rubik's cube really quickly.

Hollins sat down with @Overtime as they recorded him solving the Rubik's cube. He manged to solve it in under 60 seconds without even batting an eye.

PERSONAL

On the field Buffalo Bills cornerback Ja'Marcus Ingram reads plays, but off the field, he wrote a new children's book titled, "The Lil' Player That Could."

"It starts in my childhood," Ingram said.

The book highlights the obstacles that Ingram overcame to get to the NFL. When Ingram was nine-years-old he broke his ankle while playing football.

"That was devastating for me because it kind of made me timid, it kind of made me not play the game like I usually played," said Ingram.

Ingram is one of 10 children. Growing up in Texas he describes himself as "Bambi-like," skinny and small

His size took a toll on the confidence of his athletic abilities.

"A lot of those self-doubts came from looking in the mirror every day," said Ingram.

Through the help of his family, friends, and coaches, Ingram's confidence grew, along with his height. He didn't get a college scholarship, but instead walked on to the Utah State football team. Then he played two seasons at Texas Tech before one season at the University at Buffalo. In 2022 he went to Bills minicamp and made the team.

"My message is to dream beyond your reality," said Ingram. "I want to give [kids] motivation and inspiration to fulfill their dreams and purposes in life." (Michael Schwartz, WKBW, December 3, 2024)

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Jackson began playing football at the age of 7 for the West Pittsburgh Steelers in a youth league. As a freshman at Cornell High School, he played defensive back and wide receiver. After his school dropped its football program, Jackson played for nearby Quaker Valley High School through a cooperative program between the two schools.

Jackson eventually became the team's starting quarterback during his junior season of 2013 at Quaker Valley and led the school to its first playoff berth since 1999. He rushed for 1,111 yards and 9 TDs, while throwing for 975 yards and 13 TDs.

Meanwhile Jackson continued to star on Cornell's basketball team and averaged 28 points per game as a senior.

He scored a school-record 51 points in a win against Rochester.

Jackson said he knew he was having a significant game, but he didn't know how good it was until a timeout late in the game.

"I had no idea," Jackson told the Beaver County Times. "At that last timeout we came over and my teammates told me I had 49, and I couldn't believe it."

According to the Beaver County Times, Jackson became the 8th WPIAL athlete to land a major college football scholarship while finishing in the top 5 in scoring in basketball, joining NFL players Darrelle Revis, Terrelle Pryor and Bruce Gradkowski.

RESILIENCY

Raising four children as a single mother in Pittsburgh while working as a paralegal, Joy Faulkner has had a tremendous impact on her family, especially Dane. "She showed me what the definition of strong is," reflected Jackson. "She showed me what resiliency is. She always kept everything right for us. We knew she had a lot going on, but she made sure we always had a roof over our heads and food on the table for us. She cooked every night. And my favorite meal was shrimp alfredo. One day, I plan to do something really special for her."

YOU GOTTA BELIEVE

Jackson is quick to credit the lessons he learned from his coach, Ed Dawson, at Cornell High School. "He honestly taught me to believe in myself and he brought out my real true talent." recalled Jackson. "He made it a competition every single day of practice, especially against my cousin [Dorian Maynard] who I was living with along with my aunt at the time. Coach would always say, who is going to get the biggest piece of chicken tonight? I wouldn't be here without him." Maynard went on to play collegiately at Division III Muskingum University in Ohio.

A HERO TO LITTLE KIDS

As his notoriety has grown, so too has his platform to spread awareness for Alopecia. It's something he takes pride in, hoping one day to do for young kids what professional athletes like Ryan Shazier and Charlie Villanueva did for him.

"Most definitely. That's my mindset and always has been," he said. "There are a lot of young kids in this area with it. I know about four of them and I've talked to all of them and went to lunch with them. I really encourage people that have faced the same adversity that I have growing up."

He's done so much more than that.

"The way he is with kids in general. I'm not just talking about kids from Texarkana, but from around our area," Gibson said. "We have a broadcast system called "Texarkana Gameday" that sets up in the endzone like ESPN's College Gameday and they put it out in East Texas. With us going to state three years in a row, and our success, not only is our team out there a lot, but Landon is kind of the cover boy. He's become a celebrity in these parts.

"The coolest thing is how he reaches out to younger kids in general, not just those that have [Alopecia]. He goes to Little League practices, birthday parties. I'm telling you, everyone in this community hits him up, 'Landon, can you come here, can you come there.' I've never seen a kid at his age serve more than he has in that capacity. He's a hero to little kids. I think going to birthday parties and to games and celebrating things with them is a silent way to mask that difference and get kids to be more accepting of it because if they see it on him, it's not going to be as big a deal because of the way he uses his platform." (Texas Football, June 28, 2020)

SHINE FOR THEM

Jenkins' strong play comes at an ideal time for many of his family members to see him play in person for the first time. "It's going to be amazing. Like I said, the family is the biggest piece so just having my family watch me play in college for the first time, that'll be amazing," he said. "Just being close to home on a very big stage, it'll be a good opportunity for me."

"I just have a lot of uncles and nephews, nieces that were too young to come back then so now they're a little older, they can actually see me play," he said. "They've watched a couple games on TV, but it's a very different experience in person, so I'm looking to give them a show."

Jenkins said his dad, mom and brothers travel to Blacksburg to watch him play at home. Those close family members, and the extended family, will travel west on Interstate 10 for the 3:30 p.m. kickoff Saturday.

"The big family tree, they get to watch me play," Jenkins said.

Jenkins was asked if he grew up a Florida State fan. He actually was the odd one in the bunch, electing to wear the blue and orange of Florida and cheering for Percy Harvin and Tim Tebow. He visited the FSU campus "a little bit," but never had interest in attending the school because he "was truly like a Florida Gator fan."

"Those guys kind of attracted my eyes," he said. "That's kind of who I stuck with."

SHOUTOUTS

- Recovered a fumble in the end zone vs NE (12/22/24), marking the first Bills fumble recovery touchdown since 2020 (Jerry Hughes at Denver). He is the first Bill since Nickell Robey-Coleman in 2016 to record one INT return TD, one fumble return TD in a single season.

- Earned first career All-Pro honors (second team), playing in all 17 games in 2023 accumulating 98 (72 solo), one sack, two QB hits, eight passes defensed, three TFLs, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.
- Had a game sealing pass breakup on the final play of the game and recorded both a game-high and a new career high 15 total tackles vs NYG (10/15/23). 15 tackles were most by Bills DB in a game since Da'Norris Searcy had 16 vs CIN (10/13/13).

PERSONAL

Taron (TARE-un) is the son of Baron Johnson, who served in the Air Force. His mother, Trina, passed away from breast cancer in 2005. He studied criminal justice while at Weber State. Has a French bulldog named Deuce and lives with his wife Meghan, welcomed their baby boy Sevyn in 2024.

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD

MY FIRST LOVE

"My love for the game probably came as I got better," said Taron. "In my first couple of years, I wasn't that good."

As the world witnessed, Taron's natural athletic ability and work ethic separated him from other kids.

"I was a basketball player. I ran track. I played a little bit of baseball. I loved competing, so when I got better, it got fun."

No. 7 comes from a family full of athletes, and he credits his dad, who made sure Taron always puts in the extra work.

"I just remember us practicing basketball when I was a kid and him just telling me how much hard work matters."

Taron credits a list of people from his father, his trainers, and his coaches in helping the nickel corner reach the level Bills Mafia sees him at today. However, he says it was his mother who put everything in motion.

"She was the one who put me in football. My dad wasn't the one who put me in football. She was like my son is going to play football type of thing."

His family motivation goes deeper than just the athletic accomplishments of his sister. Taron uses the loss of his mother at the age of 9 as his main desire to make his family proud. Trina Johnson passed away from breast cancer in 2005.

"The biggest thing she instilled in me was probably my faith. She's inspirational for sure. She introduced me to the game, and I'm thankful for it." (wkbw.com, Briana Aldridge, Oct. 26, 2023)

CB | 7

TARON JOHNSON

A CLOSE BOND

Due to the unfortunate passing of his mother, Trina, when Taron was 9, Taron and his father, Baron, formed a very close relationship that has helped make Taron the man he is today. Taron credits his father for showing him the meaning of hard work and that anything could be accomplished if he worked hard enough.

"If there is something he instilled in me at a very young age, it was my work ethic and learning from my mistakes. That's how I got here," Johnson told BuffaloBills.com.

THE PICK 6

Taron Johnson knows that the play he is most remembered for in his Bills career is his 101-yard interception return for a touchdown against the Ravens in the AFC divisional round in 2021. "Taron Johnson," Josh Allen said to the media after the game. "That's a play that people are going to remember for a long time here in Buffalo, potentially a franchise-altering play." Despite the magnitude of that moment, Johnson hopes to be known for many more plays to come and is putting in the work to make sure that isn't his only legacy. "It's an honor. Just thankful for that opportunity that I had," Johnson said to the Buffalo News in July. "I mean, I don't just want to be known for that play. I want to make a lot of noise throughout my time in the NFL, but that was such a huge play. Honestly, I'll never forget it, and I'll never forget the feeling, either. Hopefully, more plays to make just like that, where there's a bigger play in a bigger game."

MOTIVATION

Taron Johnson has never needed to look very far to find the motivation he needed to push himself harder in his athletic pursuits. Johnson's older sister, Treana, earned All-American honors at BYU in track and field. Since she was three years older, Taron was always chasing after her accomplishments.

His family motivation goes deeper than just the athletic accomplishments of his sister. Taron uses the loss of his mother at the age of 9 as his main desire to make his family proud. Trina Johnson passed away from breast cancer in 2005.
"I feel like I play for her."

CORNHOLE CHAMP

In 2024, Jones and Blaine Rosier captured the American Cornhole League's celebrity NFL Superhole Tournament that was televised on ESPN. In the championship round, Jones' squad defeated the team of Bills teammate Dion Dawkins. Jones also hosts an annual Cornhole Classic in his hometown of Binghamton, NY. Cornhole is a staple in the Bills locker room around meetings and practice.

"It sparks conversation and it helps you get to know your teammates better," Jones said. "It's also another way to drive the competitive edge and I think makes this team better as a whole."

CREATING A LEGACY IN BINGHAMTON

Born and raised near Binghamton, Jones has not forgotten about his roots. In fact, he opened up a restaurant there in 2021 called the Legacy Lounge. LIKE A CARTOON CHARACTER

When Buffalo Bills tight end coach Rob Boras turns on the tape, he knows who he's guaranteed to see: rookie tight end Dalton Kincaid.

"The thing I love about Dalton is that when you hit pause at the end of the play, he's always in the camera," Boras said. "So, even if he doesn't have the ball, he's finishing by the ball."

Take Bills wide receiver Khalil Shakir's 81-yard touchdown earlier this season – a touchdown that featured some key blocks by Kincaid. The Bills had Kincaid mic'd up for the game, and he explained his play as only he could.

"I ran down, and just DOOT!" Kincaid says.

But what, exactly, does "doot" mean?

"I have no idea," Kincaid told The Buffalo News. "I don't even remember saying that, to be honest."

Conscientious of his catchphrases or not, Kincaid is constantly making noise on the field.

"It's one of his many sound effects," fullback Reggie Gilliam said. "He just makes random sounds in different moments. And it's like during the snap, so we're in the play and you just hear him making sound effects over there. ... I'm just like, 'Are you like a character? What are you?' It's like a cartoon character."(Buffalo News, Katherine Fitzgerald, January 13, 2024)

KNOX SOX

Since arriving in Buffalo in 2019, Knox has been a strong supporter of the P.U.N.T Pediatric Cancer Collaborative. P.U.N.T. is a nonprofit organization founded by former NFL Pro Bowl Punter Brian Moorman that provides families in Western New York facing pediatric cancer with programs that offer financial, practical and emotional support.

"Being able to walk into the room and instantly get some smiles is unbelievable," Knox told WKBW. "It's a great feeling for myself but also knowing you can bring a little joy into someone's life who is literally at rock bottom was a really cool feeling."

In 2021 he launched a giveback initiative — Knox Sox — through P.U.N.T. and pledged to donate $1,000 for every touchdown and $100 for every catch he had throughout the season. The initiative funds custom non-slip socks for local pediatric cancer patients. As part of the campaign, Knox also partnered with For Bare Feet to sell socks with a percentage of the proceeds going directly to P.U.N.T.

"I feel like they've done just as much for me as I've done for them. They've given me a pretty awesome purpose" he said.

PERSONAL

Name is pronounced kuh-lek-EE LAH-too. Younger brother of Laiatu Latu, who was the 15th overall pick in the 2024 NFL Draft. A two-way player at tight end and defensive end at Jesuit High School in Sacramento. California. Also played rugby for two seasons.

FOLLOWING IN HIS BROTHER'S FOOTSTEPS

Tight end Keleki Latu has always looked up to his older brother, Laiatu.

"He would always come in early in the mornings to work out (during high school), and it really pushed me to join with him," the younger Latu said. "Even though I wouldn't tell him, I would just do it on the side to follow his footsteps."

The Latu brothers grew up playing football and rugby together in Sacramento at Jesuit High. During Keleki's sophomore year, he realized his potential to play football in college and follow his brother's path.

"He was a really good role model for me," Keleki said. "He really made me want to pursue playing at the next level because he was getting a lot of offers at the time, and it made me stride to do the same."

Laiatu held offers from nearly two dozen schools, primarily from Power 5 programs and almost every school in the Pac-12. He ultimately chose Washington and played in 12 of 13 games as a true freshman in 2019. Laiatu was forced to medically retire following a neck injury ahead of the 2020 season with the Huskies.

"It was really a tough moment in his life and our lives," Keleki said. "I wished most that he could come back and play. I prayed every day. During his time off, I tried my best to do my best for him, so I could prove that I could be just like him." (Shannon Kelly, nevadasportsnet.com, November 2, 2023)

BUILT FOR THIS PATH

Cam Lewis isn't where he thought he'd be.

"To be quite frank with you, I didn't even think I was going to make it to the NFL," Lewis admitted. "NFL wasn't even on my radar going into my first two years. I think my junior year was when I really decided, OK, I'm going to at least go try and you know five years later I'm still here."

Lewis' pro path has been a challenging test in perseverance.

He signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2019, landing on the practice squad that entire season. The PS was where he started the 2020 campaign, but found his way up on the active roster for five games, two of which he started. A third go-around on the PS was where 2021 started, but once again Lewis worked his way up for seven games, starting one. Then finally, in 2022, he cemented a spot on the 53-man roster, playing 13 games with one start. And this season, he's played in 14 games.

"A lot of ups and downs, but it's been good," Lewis said. "I feel like I wouldn't want it any other way. I feel like I was kind of built for this path that God put me on."

A path that has seen Lewis play every spot in the secondary on top of working his way into a core special teams player.

"Just trying to find ways to make the most of my opportunities and make plays," Lewis said. "Just trying to stay around because this league can spit you out real quick. You get here for a second and next minute you're gone, so just trying to find a way. I keep saying it, just trying to stick around and make the most of my opportunities." (Spectrum News, Jon Scott, December 21, 2023)

LEADING HIS OWN WAY

Logue assumed the role of "vocal leader" for this group at Georgia, although speaking up and speaking out may not quite be his style.

"That's something I need to do and I try to do," Logue said. "Whether it's cheering my guys on, whether it's leading by example, actually striking guys, actually running to the football, actually knowing my assignments, executing my assignments, that plays a big role if people listen to you."

"Don't look at it as pressure," Logue said. "Look at it as you're getting prepared for it every week. Our practices are harder than our games and we make it that way because by the time Saturday gets here, you've seen every play."

Kirby Smart sums up Logue this way: "Zion is a guy that's been kind of a product of our environment—culture I might say...he's a great leader. He makes up for what he may or may not have in complete talent with effort, toughness, all the things we think are quality leadership things, and he continues to do that." (UGASports.com, Anthony Dasher, May, 17, 2023)

SHOUTOUTS

- Helped a UConn team that posted a 9-4 record in 2024, capped by winning the 2024 Wasabi Fenway Bowl over UNC. The UConn offensive line put together another strong season in 2024, leading a rushing attack that ran for 2590 yards the second highest total in school history. The team ranked 23rd in the nation in yards per game at 192.7 yards per game. MR. RELIABLE

Jim Mora has not coached a game with the UConn football team without having Chase Lundt as his starting offensive right tackle. "He has become very consistent as a football player," Mora said. "He is very dependable. You can count on him to work hard every day and have a great attitude. I can count on him in meetings. You're talking to people in meetings, and sometimes you're looking to people for affirmation that people understand what you say. Chase is the shake your head guy. I look at him, he shakes his head and I go, 'I guess I'm doing OK.' He's a great human being and I've been fortunate to spend this time with him."

"I can remember the first time I went to The Rent for my official visit in 2018," Lundt said. "There have been countless memories I've had there, beating Liberty there two years ago to all the other big wins we've had there. It's been awesome, especially this year with all the success we've had at home and how well the fans have turned out. You have seen buy-in from them and us being able to rely on them to bring energy during every game. It's definitely going to be heartfelt when I go out there for the last time. It will be nice with all the seniors we have. I'm definitely going to miss having more opportunities to play there. It's for sure going to be a great time."

"My biggest thing is that I believe in loyalty," Lundt said. "That ties in with this program for as long as I've been here. Regardless of who the coach was, we had a pretty tight-knit group on our offensive line, with Ryan Van Demark being here, with Matt Peart being here. The year I had with Matt, he was a great mentor for me, as well. Then recently Christian (Haynes), the guy I played next to for three years. You don't get that type of chemistry within the offensive line room like we have."

SUPER BOWL STICHES & PIZZA PIES

Connor McGovern, just 4 years old at time, was running around the linoleum floors with friends, planted his foot in a dog's water bowl and wiped out. "I was a little kid, screwing around in the kitchen, hit the corner wall," McGovern said. "So, I split my head open, so I had to go the ER, and the game was on." That game was Super Bowl XXXVI, a showdown between the underdog New England Patriots and the St. Louis Rams. His family rushed him to the hospital – both to get him treated and to catch the end of the game. Growing up in Larksville, Pennsylvania, the McGovern family was split mainly into Eagles and Steelers fans. Connor wanted to be different. At Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, McGovern first made a proclamation. Then, Adam Vinatieri made a 48-yard field goal as time ran out. "I told my parents whoever won that game I'll be a fan of," McGovern said. "And that's how I became a Patriots fan." The Patriots went on to win 20-17. McGovern got about seven stitches in his head and healed up fine. ... When McGovern was in Dallas, he started learning how to cook and bake more often. "Over like the two years of COVID and everything, started perfecting it, tweaking things how I like it," McGovern said. "And then finally built up the confidence, and then every few weeks I'd have the O-line over down there and start making them (pizza and) got more and more comfortable with it."

THE NFL'S QUIETEST SUPERSTAR

Bobby Babich knew the reaction before he asked the question about Matt Milano.

"So you guys know Matt, right? He's a man of many words," Babich recently said to a group of reporters. The Buffalo Bills' linebackers coach waited for the laughter to subside, then he underlined his sarcasm. "He's a man of many words."

As much as Milano scares ball carriers — he won't say boo. Oh, he plays loudly. In 15 games (in 2022) he amassed 99 tackles, 12 for losses, 1.5 sacks, seven quarterback hits, two fumble recoveries, three interceptions (one for a touchdown) and 11 pass breakups. But you never see him holding court at his locker stall or cracking wise in television commercials.

If ever there's an example of an underrated All-Pro, then it's Milano, perhaps the NFL's quietest superstar. To help fill the silence, The Athletic spoke with teammates about the best Bills player we don't know enough about.

Josh Allen: Outside of the facility, I'm not really sure what goes on with him. He kind of goes incognito. You never know what he's up to, so it's a really cool vibe. I wish I was like that. I'm not sure if he's Batman, a vigilante at night who just goes out and fights crime. He very well could be. He comes in bruised up sometimes and didn't even play that week, you know?

Dion Dawkins: I know he loves the water. He loves boats. He likes to fish. He likes to work out. He likes to eat clean. He likes techno music. He likes to play football. That's about it. He could be more of a superstar if he spoke, but I think Milano is at a place in his life that he's comfortable. He likes that altitude he's like flying at — stress-free, problem-free and winning. A lot.

"I WANT TO GIVE YOU THE WORLD"

The Jets drafted Elijah Moore due in large part to his big-play ability and his knack for making things happen when his number is called. New York's electric rookie did just that over the weekend. This time, however, the highlight came off the field in the form of a heartwarming surprise for the woman who raised him.

Moore presented his mother, Elisa, with a check representing his intention to pay off all of her debts. Video on Moore's social media accounts indicates that the check is worth $70,000. It was revealed during what appeared to be a birthday celebration for Elisa in Miami. "The things that I do will never make up for anything that you guys have done for me, particularly my mother," Moore said. "I just wanted to do something small for you... I wanted to add a little something, a little trip for my mom because she deserves the world. "I'm going to pay off all your debt. You don't got to worry about nothing... You're going to live how you want and we'll just keep going up because you deserve it, mom. I want to give you the world. I want to give everybody here the world because you guys are family."
(Tyler Calvaruso, USA Today, July 20, 2021)

ONE PERCENT BETTER

Explaining his mindset behind his work ethic during a 2023 interview, Moore detailed: "After every camp we used to come together and say 'One day better. One percent better.' I kind of move like that in everything I do. During a workout, when they say do 10, I do 12. When they say do 9, I do 10. Whatever it is. Every time I work out, it is intense like that. That is getting the most of of my workout. I'm not going out there just to say I worked out. I'm going out there to focus on something I feel like I was bad at and need to get better at. Get that one percent."

XBOX TO THE NFL

Ogunjobi joined his Steelers teammate Cam Heyward on his podcast, Not Just Football. The two talked about a plethora of different things including Ogunjobi's unique journey to the NFL. It's probably a story many have not heard before. He had no interest in playing football until his mother took away what any young kid loves to do: play video games. He told Heyward the awesome story. "The only reason I started playing football is because my mom took away my Xbox. That is the only reason I got into football. I was about 350 pounds, obese. I was playing Call of Duty, Gears of War, Madden... it's funny I was playing with the Steelers on the little franchise thing."

The defensive lineman's parents were not pleased with the direction in which his life was going, so they decided to step in and do something about it. They wanted him to get healthier. "I was just gaining a lot of weight. My mom and my dad came to me one day and were like, 'You know, you're killing yourself' and they took away my Xbox."

After getting off his Xbox and losing a substantial amount of weight, Ogunjobi went through his first season playing football and there were highs and lows, but the big thing that changed his outlook on the game was at the end of the season. He won something that led to him being hungry for more. "I go through that [junior varsity] season. Obviously, ups and downs my first time playing, but I think the huge point for me was the awards banquet. At the awards banquet, I thought my best friend at the time, Trey Grimes, was gonna get the award for most improved JV player and they gave it to me. That was the first time in my life I felt like I earned something."
(Steeler Nation, July 16, 2023)

PERSONAL

Last name is pronounced O-gunn-JO-bee. Attended Ragsdale High School in Jamestown, North Carolina. His parents, Larry and Mercy Ogunjobi, immigrated to the United States from Nigeria. Was a double-major at Charlotte in computer science & biology. Created the First of Many Foundation, which was inspired by his experience as a first-generation Nigerian American.

FIRST-AND-10

ED OLIVER agreed to terms on a four-year contract extension with the Bills in 2023, extending his stay in Buffalo through 2027 after originally being drafted by the team in the first round (9th overall) out of Houston in 2019. His 9.5 sacks of the 2023 season ranked third in the NFL of all interior defensive linemen.

SHOUTOUTS

- Collected four total tackles including a sack, a forced fumble and three TFLs in the win vs NYJ (12/29/24).
- Logged four total tackles including a sack and his second forced fumble this season in the win at DET (12/16/24) to go along with three QB hits.
- Finished 2023 starting in 16 games with a career high in tackles with 51 (34 solo), 14 TFLs, 16 QB hits, 1 INT and tied a career high in passes defensed (3).
- Raised his sack total to 9.5, the most by a Bills DT since Jordan Phillips in 2019 (9.5). Since being drafted in 2019, Oliver leads the Bills with 24.0 sacks.
- Intercepted a pass vs NE (12/31/23) for the first of his career, and first since his senior year of high school in 2015. Oliver also recorded a sack and became the first DT with an INT since 2019.
- Took down Baker Mayfield for his fifth sack of the season vs TB (10/26/23). Tied personal season-high (5 in 2019).
- Had a career high 9 tackles vs JAX (10/8/23) and recorded a sack of Trevor Lawrence.
- Collected AFC Defensive Player of the Week against DET (11/24/22) after recording 6 tackles, 2 TFLs, forced a fumble and recovered his first fumble recovery of NFL career, and a sack ending in a safety the first in a Thanksgiving game since 2013 (Ndamukong Suh).

COATS FOR KIDS

Oliver wanted to immediately make an impact in the Buffalo community after joining the Bills as the 9th overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft and he found a way to do that in partnership with Colvin Cleaners.

Oliver participated in the Coats for Kids campaign, meeting fans who donated coats, boots, hats and gloves during a collection event outside of the Bills stadium. It's a cause that is especially important given the climate in Western New York and one that immediately stuck out to Ed as an important way to give back to his new community.

"Buffalo's a place I'd heard has unbearable winters and I'd hate for a kid to have to walk outside in a blizzard or whatever kind of crazy weather we get up here," Oliver told WIVB TV during the coat drive.

The 2019 edition of the campaign was able to receive and distribute over 10,000 coats to people in need. "It just epitomizes the Bills Mafia and what the Bills Football Program is all about. It's all about family, it's all about one another, making sure one another's straight," Oliver said.

TURKEY DAY

Oliver comes alive on Thanksgiving day, having played in three games on the day through out his career he has recorded at least half a sack. In two of them, he's taken over games. Against the Detroit Lions in 2022, Oliver became the first player in team history to record a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery and safety in a single game. He then collected AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts, he joked that he wished it was Thanksgiving "every day," let alone just playing on the holiday once a year.

ED OLIVER

BROTHER MAN

Most recruiting experts were surprised when Ed decided to stay close to home and play his college ball at Houston. One of the main reasons for going to Houston was so Ed could play with his brother, Marcus, who played on the offensive line for the Cougars and has served as a mentor and best friend for Ed.

"He's the reason I love football the way I do now," Ed said to the Athletic. "Without him, I don't know what I'd be doing. Every time I kind of veered off, he was always right there with me, going, 'Nah, this way.' I'd veer off again, 'Nah, this way.' When I got the offer for my extension, he was the first person I called and we talked and cried and if it was good for him it was good for me. Words cant express how much I love Marcus, y'all just don't know."

THE HORSE WHISPERER

Growing up, Oliver's passions extended beyond the football field. In fact, one of his hobbies is horseback riding. He has been around horses most of his life and says that being around them helped him immensely in learning to conquer his fears.

"I can tell you, I got over a lot of fear with horses, too," he said. "A couple times I thought I was going to die, and I realized: 'Hey, you've just got to go through it. You'll be all right.' Real life, I thought sometimes, 'Man, this horse could kill me.' I'm overcoming fear just getting back up on the horse and riding it."

WHAT YOU KNOW ABOUT STEM

Wande Owens '23, a defensive back majoring in computer science, had his start in computer science in high school. Owens credits his decision to major in STEM to his passion for problem-solving. Yale students already regularly face restrictive schedules and burnout. Football players have an even more restrictive schedule due to practice, workouts, team meetings and other commitments that they have to meet.

"This season, we lift in Payne Whitney [Gymnasium] twice a week," Owens said. "Because of class, I lift at 6:00 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. We have meetings right after that in [Linsly-Chittenden Hall] from 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. and after that, I've got class. Practice usually starts at 3:15 p.m. and goes on to 5:45 p.m."

Despite having busy schedules, football players have managed to strike a cautious balance between athletics and academics by seeking support from different sources. Lee has sought the help of "friends and teammates who are also computer science majors," whom he describes as his "main support group." Owens shares Lee's approach, but has also sought help from older football players who have shown him "how they've managed their time" and "which sessions or TAs can help out." For these players, the lessons they learn from the field can be applied to the classroom too. Both Owens and Lee see a connection between their experiences in football and computer science.

"Anything can go wrong at any moment on the football field and with your work, in computer science specifically, one bug, one tiny error can take hours to figure out," Lee said. However, when faced with bugs in programming, Owens stated that the virtue of pushing through adversity, which football instilled in him, inspires him to "keep going, push through and [not] be afraid to reach out for help." (Po Eic Quah, yaledailynews.com, Nov. 16, 2022)

CANADIAN FOOTBALL AT A YOUNG AGE

The middle child of three, he excelled at multiple sports in school. As a soccer goalkeeper there was talk of trials in Europe. Basketball was a passion, too. But football kept pulling him back.

"One of the very first things I gave Josh as a baby was a football," said his father, Keith, who played cornerback at University of Windsor as a walk-on. "Football blanket, football pillowcase, a Nerf football. I was saying to myself, 'I hope he becomes a football player. So let me introduce him to it nice and early, condition him'. But you have to let your children be their own person, find their own passions. And Josh did that."

By Grade 9 it was clear that soccer and basketball were pastimes. Football was the passion. So father and son would fire up an old treadmill in the basement and work on drills with tennis balls, footballs and medicine balls. They'd take things outdoors too — but not because the weather was good. "There were days where I'd see it snowing and I'd say, 'You may end up in Buffalo, you may end up in Green Bay ... you're going to have snow days. Playoff games in a blizzard.' So out we'd go." (Joe Callaghan, Toronto Star, April 23, 2021)

WORE #1 AFTER TRANSFER TO MARYLAND

Once Kaden Prather transferred to Maryland, he knew he had to change numbers. He'd worn No. 3 for years at Northwest High School and West Virginia. But the Terps had filled that number with star quarterback Taulia Tagovailoa.

"You know they weren't giving that up," Prather said.

Prather's next option was No. 1. That figure has held an outsize importance in Maryland lore, particularly for wide receivers. D.J. Moore and Stefon Diggs starred in it. So did Rakim Jarrett, who was initially advised by coach Michael Locksley not to wear the number because of the pressure it would bring. Jarrett only assumed the mantle as a junior.

"You don't make that number. That number makes you, so it was definitely a little bit of pressure," he said — adding that Locksley or wide receivers coach Gunter Brewer didn't have any conversation with him about wearing No. 1. "... They know I'm a dawg, and I don't think they'd just give that number to anybody."

Prather has had a solid debut season with Maryland. He's second on the team in catches and yards and tied for the lead with five touchdowns. But he admitted before the Terps' regular-season finale against Rutgers that he's yet to hit some of his statistical goals.

"Whatever made me happy," he said when asked what the benchmarks were. "I really didn't have a number I was set on, but where I'm at right now, I'm not really pleased with that number. Some of that definitely came from me not coming up with a lot of catches, but whenever I get there, I know that's the number."

TWO RINGS ONE NIGHT

After winning a Super Bowl ring, Taylor Rapp pulled out a ring of his own, proposing to his girlfriend Dani Johnson in front of the cheering fans of SoFi.

The proposal came after an emotional win for the Rams, who beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20. She nodded "Yes" and tried to hold back the tears as Rapp slipped the engagement ring on her finger.

"So we were actually going to go to Hawaii after the season was over and that's where I had planned on proposing. The thought of doing crossed my mind but only if we had won. And we did win so I was like I have to do it now, it made our vacation better, less stress on my end."

Rapp and Johnson have been dating since high school. She's been his biggest fan since he played football for Sehome High School in Bellingham, WA. He went on to star at the University of Washington before heading to the NFL in 2019. Johnson played volleyball at Southern Oregon University.

In March of 2021, Rapp marked Johnson's birthday with his intentions. Rapp posted a selfie to Instagram of himself and Johnson smiling for the camera, writing in the caption, "Happy birthday to the love of my life, the one person who holds me accountable and makes sure I stay true to myself no matter what." And on July 16, 2022 they became the Rapp's.

BUCKEYES TURNED WOLVERINES

On National Signing Day, Brad Robbins didn't have a scholarship. He wasn't at a table putting on a hat, he wasn't on the phone with a coach ... He was sitting in AP U.S. Government class when he got the news.

It came as a text from his sister, Brooke Robbins: Hey, congrats on the scholarship to Michigan! That's really cool! Surprised, Brad stepped out of class to call his dad, who confirmed Brooke's message: A scholarship opened in the Michigan football program.

Brad was born to two Buckeyes, Eric and Kristi Robbins, with Ohio Stadium patently visible from the hospital. Just 10 miles away from that stadium stood the Robbins home in Westerville, Ohio. Both parents graduated from Ohio State, and they bled scarlet and gray. "It's religion down there," Brad told The Daily.

"I think I fully converted them into being Michigan fans for life just throughout the journey," Brad said. "I think they're fully converted, but we still gotta do some convincing on my brother's part." (Nicholas Stoll, The Michigan Daily, November 17, 2022)

BUFFALO CONNECTIONS

It always seems like you can find a Buffalo connection in most situations and that is no different with the Bills first-round draft pick Greg Rousseau.

Of course he's heard the typical, obvious stuff:

"I know there's Niagara Falls there, it pretty much borders Canada, I'm pretty sure there's Lake Erie so the same lake in Cleveland is over there," Rousseau said.

But his understanding of Western New York runs deeper than that.

"My mom had my older brother in Buffalo so my parents lived in Buffalo for I think five years, four years, so I'm very familiar with Buffalo."

The Bills drafted the Miami defensive end with the 30th overall pick in this year's draft as they continue to add youth to the position and someone who already has ties to the area.

"I know all about it, Jim Kelly, the whole nine yards, and they got the Miami connection for sure," Rousseau said in a zoom call with reporters after the first-round.

He laughed and said he'll get all the exact details from his parents but said he thinks they lived in Buffalo from the mid to late 90's when his mom was likely getting her nursing degree.

MEMORABLE RIDE TO FIRST NFL TRAINING CAMP

Curtis Samuel arrived at his first Panthers training camp in 2017 just like many kids arrive at school. His mom, Nicole Samuel, drove him to training camp at Wofford College.

"We were just dropping him off so we could use the car," Nicole told WCNC Charlotte. "I'm like wow, this thing blew up."

Curtis joked that once he saw cameras were on campus, he tried to get Nicole to drop him off to the side and out of sight. But it was too late.

"My mom, she's always there for me," said Curtis. "She's been there for me through the whole way, Little League, high school and college. She's happy for me, and she just wanted to be a part of it."

"We love our mother so much," said Curtis. "We're so close to her ... The things she does for us is incredible. How I am, whatever my mother wants she gets. She's worked so hard throughout her whole life." (ESPN.com and WCNC.com)

FIRST-AND-10

T.J. SANDERS was selected by the Bills in the second round in 2025 out of South Carolina. A 2024 All-SEC selection, Sanders is the first Gamecock drafted by the Bills since CB Stephon Gilmore in 2012.

SHOUTOUTS

- Spent all of his college career with South Carolina (2021-24), appearing in 39 games over four seasons with 16 career starts.
- In his final college season in 2024, appeared in all 13 games making nine starts. College Football Nation tabbed him as a first-team All-SEC performer and a third-team All-American while selecting him as the SEC's Interior Defender of the Year. Named to the second-team All-SEC squad by the AP and Phil Steele. Finished fifth on the squad and led the defensive lineman with 50 tackles including 7.0 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks. Also credited with six quarterback hurries and one pass breakup.
- In 2023, earned third-team All-SEC honors from College Football Network and was a fourth-team all-league performer according to Phil Steele. Played in all 12 games starting seven contests at defensive tackle. Recorded 43 tackles, most among the defensive linemen, with a team-leading 9.5 tackles for loss and a team-high 4.5 sacks.
- In 2022, appeared in 12 games and was credited with 16 tackles including 1.0 sack, a pass breakup and two quarterback hurries.
- As a true freshman defensive lineman in 2021 he saw action in two games.

HOOPER TURNED GAMECOCK

T.J. Sanders' team was already in commanding position, but the senior for the Marion High School Swamp Foxes was still breaking things down. Coming off the field in the midst of a blowout win to secure a region title, he was animated, talking a teammate through the finer points of a particular blocking scheme.

The 6-foot-5, now-300 pounder quickly went from a player who had to be coaxed from the basketball court to the football field to a future SEC player with the South Carolina Gamecocks.

And he also made another transition: From a player with minimal experience to one who could lead a team in just a second year. "He just became a total leader," Marion coach Randall State said, noting Sanders was in for an extra weightlifting session the day before the game. "He was always the leader on the basketball court. It took him a year to kind of settle in, coming back as a football player. He's always been a vocal guy, on and off the court, and he's smart with it."

That leadership on the basketball court translated to football, and some of the relationships did, too. Marion isn't the biggest school, and the best athletes are playing multiple sports most of the time.

On the sideline, Sanders showed some personality, chatting while also giving teammates a little grief, breaking into a dance as the band played. His squad was dominating a county rivalry with Mullins High in a game rescheduled to a Monday night.

On the field, he showed flashes of why the Gamecocks brought him into their class after just one year on the high school gridiron (Ben Breiner, The State, October 29, 2020)

ADAPTING TO NEW ENVIRONMENTS

When wide receiver Khalil Shakir moves around the offense, he doesn't miss a step. The Bills' fifth-round pick in 2022, he's comfortable with change.

"I think I'm just able to adapt," Shakir said. "I'm a military baby, so I moved around a lot. To be able to adapt to different environments – and different people as well – was just embedded in my blood at a young age.

"I feel like that's just carried on me my whole life. So whenever I come out onto the field, it's the same thing."

Shakir's father, Master Gunnery Sgt. Attiyyah Shakir, served 24 years in the Marines. Khalil was born in Virginia, then the family moved to Hawaii. They went from Hawaii to Japan, and Japan to California. With most of the extended family on the East Coast, plenty of other trips were sprinkled in along the way.

Even in new situations, Shakir would jump in right away.

"He's always been a leader," his dad said. "He's never been afraid to (try) much."

Shakir sees a connection now between the big moves and his comfort level when he's thrown into different situations on the football field. It crystalized at Boise State, when someone else asked about his upbringing.

"That's when I realized people always say when I'm in a different spot, I look comfortable in the environment," Shakir said. "I think that just comes without even realizing how much I did move around." (The Buffalo News, Katherine Fitzgerald, August 24, 2022)

"I focus on what I can control. My mindset, my energy, those are the things I try to be disciplined about," Shand said. "The people that look up to me are counting on me to have a positive mindset, so I try to come out every day with a great energy about me."

Shand has taken multiple steps to improve his mental strength in the game, and he has begun meditating each day. "I meditate daily to try and focus on my goals and keep myself centered," he explained. Shand's journey to Baton Rouge was not as conventional as most, though. Coming from Canada, he did not start playing tackle football until he was a junior in high school. He then prepped at The Loomis Chaffee School in Windsor, Conn., where he was ranked the number 11 player in Connecticut for the class of 2020. Shand was a four-sport athlete in high school, competing in the 2017 FIBA U16 Americas Championship Basketball Games for Team Canada against multiple future NBA stars.

"I didn't start playing football until later. My main sport was basketball, but I played football in the offseason," Shand said. "When I was in a football game in high school the guy in front of me on the depth chart didn't show up to the game, so I played in his place. I received my first college offer after that game." From there, Shand dedicated himself to football to work on his craft. He attributes his self-discipline and his family support as factors in reaching his goals. "I believe that writing down your goals so you see them every day is crucial," Shand said. "I put my goals on my mirror, in my car, anywhere I can so that they're in my face every single day."

"I'LL NEVER CUT IT"

If Shenault needs a reminder of the man he has been playing for over the past decade and a half, it is readily available every time he looks in the mirror, the ever growing locks he hasn't cut since his father, Laviska Shenault Sr., was killed in a vehicle-pedestrian accident that Shenault, his siblings and his mother all witnessed.

That hair, one of several identifying traits on Shenault along with a huge grin and a muscular frame has become a point of pride and a way of keeping his father's memory alive over the years since Laviska Sr.'s death.

Growing up, basketball was his favorite and best sport, but when the varsity coach at DeSoto High School informed Shenault that players on his team couldn't have dreadlocks, Shenault turned his attention to football and never looked back.

"It just meant more than playing a sport, even though basketball was my first sport that I loved," Shenault said. "My hair is a tribute to my father, and I think hair holds a lot of strength.... "I've never cut it. I'll never cut my hair. You'll never see Viska with a short haircut." (John Boyle, Seahawks.com, August 13, 2024)

RAISED RIGHT

As the 2016 Michigan State Spartans prepare to take the field this Saturday for the start of camp, there is no doubt that for the Spartans new names and players will emerge. For many that is what they love about college sports. Each year one group moves on, a new group comes in, and many will seize the opportunity to rise to the top.

One of those players hails from Rochester, MI. and is the son of two parents who served our great nation in the military and attended West Point. That pedigree on its own tells us that this young man deserves to be watched. A son of patriots tells us without a doubt that his pedigree is worth attention.

Matt Sokol is that young man. He came to MSU just over 220 pounds and what he lacked in experience and size, he made up for with work ethic. Sokol was a virtual Swiss Army Knife in high school. The young man had to play multiple positions to help his team, while not playing the position that he was projected at in college. His lack of experience at TE didn't deter the Spartan coaches who were mesmerized by Sokol's work ethic and character.

Brad Salem, the MSU QB coach and recruiting coordinator, told me on Sokol's signing day in 2014, "You can't help but love that kid. Everything about him on and off the field just screamed at us that he was a Michigan State guy. He is going to be special here."

I recently told someone that Sokol is the son every dad wants and the husband every mom wants for their daughter. Clearly impacted by being raised by two selfless patriots (Kim and Dave), honor runs deep in his veins. For Sokol talking about himself is difficult. It is uncomfortable. It isn't who he is. It is about others. For this youngster with who so much comes easy, vanity and pride are impossible and talking about himself in a positive ways is very difficult.

WHAT I ALWAYS WANTED

"Coming from Tallahassee, Mobile is not too far away," Solomon said in an interview session with Mobile-area reporters at Senior Bowl headquarters. "So it's something that I always heard of as a kid and growing up. I know that it was probably one of the biggest opportunities that anybody can get just from a college standpoint. Playing in this game is a huge opportunity for me. I understand how much it means to me and people that even that are not here, that would love to be here. I'm grateful for the opportunity and I plan to go out there give it my best every day."

Solomon's 16 sacks in 2023 were a Division I-era record at Troy, as were his 33 career sacks. That career mark was 3.5 better than Jibunor's 29.5, and also eclipsed the previous record total of 27.5 set by future Pro Football Hall of Famer DeMarcus Ware from 2001-04.

Solomon's 16 sacks broke the previous Troy Division I record of 15 set by another future NFL standout, Osi Umenyiora, in 2002. Solomon's four sacks vs. Louisiana-Monroe on Nov. 11 also tied another school record held by Umenyiora.

Solomon said of Ware. "He's a guy that knew what it takes to be successful. You can also tell he's a great person by how he treats his family. Him and Osi Umenyiora, they were great players in the league and are great people. I try to mimic the way they go about things. So hopefully I get that status one day."

CLEMSON FAMILY SPECIAL FOR SPECTORS

In the Spector family, there is one thing that brings everyone together above everything else. That is Clemson football because it has become the family way.

Baylon's father, Robbie, was a wide receiver for the Tigers from 1986-90. His brother, Brannon, is a wide receiver at Clemson and was Baylon's teammate from 2019-21. In addition, their sister, Blair, was a cheerleader at Clemson.

"It really is special," he told Clemson Athletics website. "Just to know that my dad is out here watching both of us and we get to be out here playing is really exciting and fun. I like that we have kept the Clemson program in the family. I'm glad I get to carry on the legacy and get to watch my brother play."

ALL IT TAKES IS ONE

DaLawn Parrish was baffled.

The Dr. Henry Wise High coach in Upper Marlboro, Md., knew he had a player in Dorian Strong, a decently sized defensive back who was a track standout, coming from a state-power football program that has produced numerous Division I college prospects and a few NFL players over the years. But no one would listen.

Never in Parrish's years had he had a player he vouched for who was that good fall on deaf ears.

"It was frustrating because you get so many conversations with various coaches, saying, 'Coach, if he can run this, we'll offer him. If he can do this ...' And he would do it," Parrish said. "He ran a 4.48 a couple times. Then they say, 'Yeah, Coach, he didn't have enough film.' Well, you knew that coming into it. Why'd you ask me that? It was almost like they came up with more and more excuses.

"And Virginia Tech was serious."

In Strong's case, favor fortunes the bold. The Hokies were the first to offer the unheralded recruit. Strong repaid Virginia Tech's belief in him with loyalty throughout the recruiting process, and the pairing started beautifully in his first year in Blacksburg.

Attended Grant Union High School in Sacramento, CA. Majored in American ethics at Washington. Drafted by the Boston Red Sox in the 18th round of the 2012 MLB Draft and played one season of rookie-level ball in the Gulf Coast League.

VERSATILE

The six-foot, 230-pounder who played his college ball for the Washington Huskies could just as easily be completing his 10th season as a pro in another sport, had he chosen to continue to pursue that route. Thompson was drafted by the Red Sox in the 18th round of the 2012 MLB Draft and played for their rookie-level team in the Gulf Coast League in the summer of 2012.

Thompson lettered in football, baseball and track and field at Grant Union High School in Sacramento, California. Even though he only played baseball in his senior year, the Red Sox were opting to take a chance that his versatile athletic skills would translate into making him a big-league prospect on the diamond. Even though he was committed to play football at Washington in the fall of 2012, Thompson decided to give pro baseball a shot and see what the outcome would be. Even with his struggles, the Red Sox wanted Thompson to come back. Working with then Washington head coach Steve Sarkisian, the club sought to map out a two-sport strategy for their protege. They saw potential in this multi-sport athlete who was still quite raw in terms of his baseball acumen.

"He was very coachable," Red Sox assistant hitting coach Victor Rodriguez remembered to MLB.com. "He wanted to get better, he wanted to learn. He put a good effort into everything he did. "He didn't play much baseball. He was a football player trying to compete at a professional level. Even guys who play their whole life have trouble when they become professional."

Nonetheless, his athletic versatility still shone on the football field. At Washington, Thompson would play safety, slot corner, linebacker, and running back. In 2014, he was awarded the Paul Hornung Award, which goes annually to the NCAA's most versatile football player.

"IT'S HOW I GOT TOUGH"

Torrence took The Buffalo News on a tour of his hometown, retracing his humble beginnings. "I'm appreciative of how I grew up," Torrence said in a wide-ranging series of interviews. "It's how I got tough."

Torrence takes a deep appreciation of where he's from. "Not saying it's harder to do this than it is coming from a big city, but it feels better being a diamond in the rough, if that makes sense," he said. "I had the right opportunities to get brushed off and shine and bring some light on this area – not just myself, but everybody around here."

The mobile home Torrence grew up in is now mostly empty, although his older brother sometimes stays there. The land has stayed in the family, however, and Torrence hopes to one day buy it and build a more permanent home on the property. He has four brothers and two sisters, all of whom still live in or near St. Helena Parish, as well as several other family members in the area.

On March 30, he'll return to his high school to conduct his first football camp. That's something that would have made his day as a kid, and now he gets to give back to those growing up in similar circumstances. Torrence has heard that several kids in his hometown now look forward to playing on the line of scrimmage because of him.

"HEAD WENT TO BED WITH A FOOTBALL"

In 1984, Steve Ulofoshio immigrated from a war-torn Nigeria to Alaska to build a better life. He earned an accounting degree from the University of Alaska-Anchorage while driving a taxi to pay tuition. Eventually, he launched "Consumer Care Network" — a company that provides in-home care for the elderly and people with disabilities — while establishing a successful real estate business as well.

And, after following her husband to Alaska, Joyce Ulofoshio earned a PhD in psychology — all while raising five boys and instilling an unwavering work ethic.

"We just put one foot in front of the other," Joyce said. "Coming somewhere where you are looking for a better opportunity, it minimizes the struggles. You have to endure the hard work. You don't see that as struggles, because you know where you're coming from and appreciate the opportunity to make something better for yourself and your kids."

Speaking of, Steve and Joyce's second-oldest son had a speech impediment. And, to quote his kindergarten teacher, he was also afflicted with "ants in his pants." So, to sap his seemingly boundless energy they enrolled him in a local football league.

"I did not know what the journey would look like, but I knew he had a lot of passion. He had a lot of dreams," Joyce Ulofoshio said. "He went to bed with a football in his hand, so you could tell it was just everything to him. (Mike Vorel, Seattle Times, September 2, 2021)

"POWERHOUSE" IN VOLLEYBALL

Van Demark was a big part of the 2016 Wayne Valley State Championship volleyball team. Volleyball coach Jason Carcich called him "a dominant force" and a "powerhouse" on the court, saying he could jump and had "a huge reach." But in his sophomore year, when he first started playing volleyball, he was again described as a project. With the right effort and the right attitude, the kid could become a special athlete. "I'm not even a little surprise that he's having the success he's having right now," said Carcich. "He had a desire to get better, and he put in the time and effort to get better, even back then." (Jon Meredith, TAPintoWayne.net, May 8, 2022)

When Van Demark is asked what his first job was growing up, he has no recollection of it. In fact, it is because he worked as a baby model for Ralph Lauren, Polo, Toys"R"Us, among other brands. "My mom hired an agent for me and she said all the money went into a college fund."

HONORING THOSE NO LONGER HERE

Early morning of Jan. 15, Bulldog offensive lineman Devin Willock and recruiting staffer Chandler LeCroy were killed in a high-speed crash...Willock remains with Van Pran-Granger still today in different ways. He wore his No. 77 jersey for the Florida and Ball State games, a tribute that Georgia offensive lineman are doing to honor Willock's memory for each game this season.

Van Pran-Granger also has worn a necklace with Willock's initials against an outline of the state of New Jersey. He said he bought it from the jeweler Jacob Mark in his hometown of New Orleans.

Van Pran-Granger was one of two Georgia players who spoke at a celebration of life for Willock in Engelwood, N.J. on Jan. 27. "I think it's something I still live with knowing that Devin isn't here," Van Pran Granger said. "It's tough. It's honestly tough. That was a guy, we used to go and get food together and do different things like that. That was a guy that I came in with."
(Athens Banner-Herald, Marc Weiszer, November 8, 2023)

QUITE THE ARTIST

When Van Pran was in kindergarten, he said he picked up a pair of playing cards with a picture of a clown on it. He decided to sketch what he saw. He said his father, Sedrick Granger, called for his mother, Keon Van Pran-Wiltz, to come and watch. "He's showing her the card saying, 'This is amazing," Van Pran-Granger said. He said his parents had him tested for "talented art," in about the third grade and he began taking visual art classes.

BREAKING FREE

It was dark, and finally quiet, when Jalen Virgil got back to his apartment late Sunday after his NFL debut in Tennessee earlier in the day. It finally let what happened all soak in. The Broncos lost, but Virgil won. The undrafted rookie receiver hauled in a 66-yard touchdown on his first target in the NFL, showcasing his game-breaking speed.

"When I finally got back to my apartment, I sat down and I put my phone down for a second because there was a lot of action going on on my phone," Virgil said. "I just sat there and thought about how amazing that play was and how amazing (my journey) has been."

Virgil's life has been in hyperdrive since the Broncos signed him in May (2022) as an undrafted free agent out of Appalachian State. He lasted with the team through the summer and into training camp. From there, he impressed coaches during practice and in preseason action, when he had nine catches for 180 yards across three games.

Virgil was inactive for the first seven games, biding his time as a scout team player. Earning a jersey against the Titans, Virgil broke free for a 66 yard touchdown. "When I saw the ball in the air, I just told myself, 'Man, just make sure you catch this ball,'" Virgil said. "It felt like it was in the air for so long. I knew I had a lot of open field in front of me, but I had to make sure I caught it before turning on the jets."

"All my emotions just poured out and it was just like, 'Damn, I'm here,'" Virgil said. "I felt passion, I felt a weight off my shoulders after finally getting in there. (The dance) went out the window."

ROLE MODEL

JM: Because you're so unique, I'm curious which defensive linemen you study and watch? There aren't a lot of guys that can match your size, but do you tend to watch bigger guys like Jordan Davis or T'Vondre Sweat? Or do you watch all defensive linemen regardless of size?

Deone Walker: My favorite defensive lineman ever is Calais Campbell. I love his game, I love watching his tape. We're around the same size, maybe I'm a little bigger than him. He's shown that you can be 6-foot-6, 6-foot-7 and still play the game at a high level. He's shown that he can use both his hands and his feet to defeat blocks. I do the same thing. It doesn't have to just be brute force all the time.

JM: I swear Calais Campbell is going into his 38th season this year (laughs). He's the definition of longevity. How would you describe your pass rush arsenal? How do you beat offensive linemen?

Deone Walker: Something like that for Campbell, right? (laughs). I play with a ton of finesse. A lot of offensive linemen last season thought I was a straight power guy. They think I'm a power rusher that can only use strength to beat them. A lot of my sacks were the result of finesse though. I have great hands and I'm quick off the ball.

(Justin Melo, The Draft Network, July 26, 2024)

COULDN'T WAIT TO PLAY

Walker's athletic journey began at a tender age; he was allowed to join a Little League team at just five years old, but waited two years to officially compete. "He would accompany his older nephew to practices, showing determination even when he wasn't eligible to play. He would cry when he had to leave but ultimately became the last player to leave the field," Walker Sr. recounted with pride. "From day one, he exhibited leadership, guiding the defense for every team he joined."

FROM MONO TO MANIA

"Fourteen has mono," Adam Gase said matter-of-factly, referring to Sam Darnold and his jersey number. Darnold's mononucleosis created a domino effect. It's not a stretch to say that if the Jets hadn't lost Darnold for a few weeks to the so-called "kissing disease," their current quarterback wouldn't be Mike White.

White was an emergency addition during the Jets' 2019 QB crisis, a former Dallas Cowboy who almost opted for the XFL over the Jets. Later that year, he nearly got poached from the Jets' practice squad. They stuck together -- White and the Jets -- through a lot of quarterback drama and now here they are. From mono to mania -- Mike White mania.

"It's crazy how things work out," White told ESPN. "There are so many stories like that with guys getting an unexpected shot. I just happen to be the story of the guy here. At the time, it was pretty tough. I knew I was an NFL quarterback -- I wasn't an XFL quarterback -- but (the XFL) was an opportunity to play and I knew I needed film. The only film I had was preseason from Dallas, and it wasn't the greatest film, to be honest."

White signed a practice squad contract. After much consideration, he decided "it felt right," and that he wouldn't be just a practice arm. "You've got to be prepared because when that time does come, you've got to be able to seize it," White said.

"This didn't come to him easy," said Brandon Copeland, a former undrafted free agent who knows what it's like to get cut several times. "[Guys like us], I don't want to say we cherish it more, but we can deal with the ebbs and flows because we've been at the bottom. He's been at the bottom. There's nothing for him to lose, so to speak, and I think that makes him extremely dangerous." (ESPN.com, Rich Cimini, December 2, 2022)

A DREAM COME TRUE

Success didn't happen overnight for Shreveport native and Buffalo Bills rookie player Tre'Davious White.

He worked hard to achieve a grade-point average of 4.3 and graduate as valedictorian of his high school class.

Tre'Davious grew up in the Cooper Road area, one of Shreveport's toughest neighborhoods. However, he found an outlet playing sports - on the football field and basketball court.

The Green Oaks football standout made giant moves on the football field and later shined as an All-American at LSU. His dream came true when he was drafted to play for the Buffalo Bills.

Tre'Davious grew up in the Cooper Road area of Shreveport.

He was the kid who made it out and was the first member of his immediate family to graduate from college.

When asked how he stayed focused, White said, "I wanted to find something to keep me out of the streets and keep me out of the way of harm. So I resorted in playing sports. Started off playing basketball and then it gradually went to football and then I was doing both." (Domonique Benn, KSLA, June 20, 2018)

PERSONAL

The son of David White and LaShawnita Ruffins. White and his partner, Ikea, have three sons, Tre'Davious Jr., Tristen and Truth. Graduated from LSU in December 2016 with a degree in sports administration. Played as a CB, QB and returner for Green Oaks High School in Shreveport, LA.

HOOP DREAMS

Wilkerson credits one of his high school coaches at Craigmont High School in Memphis, Tennessee, for a realization he could play football at the college level. "My coach in high school told me that I was going to be able to go to college playing football because I really stopped playing when I got to high school," Wilkerson said. "He was like, 'You can go to college,' and that's when I realized I needed to take it serious."

As committed as he was to football back then, Wilkerson was a two-sport athlete. "I played basketball actually. I'm from a basketball city so basketball is like pretty much the way to go," Wilkerson said. In high school, Wilkerson didn't favor one sport over the other. Wilkerson chose Southeast, in part, because he saw a former Redhawk being noticed by the NFL.

"I saw they had a great receiver getting scouted by [the] NFL, so I wanted to come through," Wilkerson said. "That was my goal coming in, to go to the NFL or have a shot at least." He said he never doubted if football was for him. "I just loved the game because everyone played it," Wilkerson said. "I played it growing up so I said, 'Why not continue playing?'"

The NFL may have been his motivation for college ball, but LeBron James is the reason Wilkerson wears number six. "I love LeBron James. That's kind of why I wear number six since he wears number six," Wilkerson said.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME

While some play for the things that football brings Dorian is quite the opposite he plays simply because he loves the game and is living out his childhood dream.

"Dorian has never not had a smile on his face. He always makes me smile because he's having a good time out there. You love to coach guys that love to play the game because they are playing for the right reason and not anything external." -- Tulane Linebackers Coach Michael Mutz told si.com.

There are zero questions in regards to effort. Williams hustles on every and is typically one of the first players to the football.

Which showed as Dorian had a productive senior season with the Green Wave, totaling 131 tackles, 8.5 TFLs, two interceptions and two forced fumbles. Williams also blitzed well tallying 22 pressures and five sacks. In all he finished with 316 tackles, 27 for a loss, 9.5 sacks, and 14 passes defended.

Dorian said this is his childhood dream and he is happy to reach it but now the real work starts.

BILLS MAFIA

Dorian had his first run in with Bills Mafia when he was a junior in 2021. Before the Bills played the New Orleans Saints, Dorian was out with his family when some fans were talking to him and recognized he was a linebacker at Tulane and they told him in a couple years he was going to get drafted and then later payed for his meal.

"You always hear about Bills Mafia and see all the stuff on social media but for it happen like that, these guys are for real. For me to get drafted here is a full circle moment, and I am just excited to be apart of the organization with the best fan base."
