NEW HIGHMARK STADIUM

FIRST-AND-10

THE BUFFALO BILLS broke ground on the New Highmark Stadium on June 5, 2023. In front of a crowd of approximately 500 people, Bills Owner/CEO Terry Pegula was joined by team, league, county and state officials to commemorate the occasion.

"Ralph, we're moving across the street. We're going to build a stadium here, and we're going to tear down a stadium over there that's full of memories. So, we need to fill this stadium with more memories and continue our legacy. We should remember the past, but embrace the building of our future," Pegula remarked in his comments.

TERRY PEGULA OWNER/CEO

Terry Pegula rose from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry, and one of very few owners to operate franchises in multiple professional sports.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry realized a life-long dream on October 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. to become the second owners of the Buffalo Bills.

Pegula played a key role in negotiating a deal between New York State, Erie County, the NFL and the Bills on the New Highmark stadium, which officially broke ground in 2023. Pegula also was a instrumental contributor in the design of the new home of the Bills that is slated to open in 2026.

"We're going to build a stadium here, right? And we're going to tear down a stadium over there that's full of memories," Pegula said at the ground breaking ceremony. "So we need to fill this stadium with more memories and continue our legacy. We should remember the past, but embrace the building of our future."

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee, Fan Engagement and Major events committee and the DEI committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin.

Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy.

JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State and the Big 10 to form an NCAA conference.

On February 22, 2011, Terry and Kim purchased the NHL's Buffalo Sabres and their sports ownership extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks and the AHL Rochester Americans.

The Pegulas opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million dollar complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two hockey rinks, training facilities and a full-service Marriott Hotel.

The complex brought new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. Buffalo also hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships, and the 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York.

In addition to helping manage the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his family's business operations in Boca Raton, Florida.

Kim played a major role in helping negotiate the structure of a deal between New York State, Erie County, the National Football League and the Bills for the New Highmark stadium, which officially broke ground in 2023. She also was a key contributor in the design of the new stadium, which is slated to open in 2026.

After owning multiple professional sports teams in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities, including the development and operation LECOM Harborcenter in downtown Buffalo.

BRANDON BEANE

GENERAL MANAGER

Brandon Beane was named General Manager of the Bills on May 9, 2017. In his first seven seasons in Buffalo, Beane has helped build a roster and establish a culture that has produced six playoff appearances, including four consecutive AFC East division championships from 2020-2023.

"Our goal is sustained success." It was a phrase said in Beane's inaugural press conference in Buffalo in 2017 and several times afterwards. The results have followed. In addition to four consecutive division titles, the Bills joined the Chiefs as the only two teams in the NFL to win 10+ games and earn a playoff berth each year from 2019-23.

While earning a playoff berth in his first season in 2017, Beane also engineered several trades that resulted in the Bills selecting two future Pro Bowlers in QB Josh Allen (7th overall) and LB Tremaine Edmunds (16th overall) in the 2018 draft while maintaining all their 2019 draft capital. Along the way, he stabilized the team's salary cap status.

Allen has become the team's franchise quarterback, earned multiple Pro Bowl berths and was rewarded with a long-term extension in 2021.

In 2020, the Bills earned their first AFC East title and their first playoff win since 1995. Along the way, Beane earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from the Sporting News, PFWA and Pro Football Focus, becoming the first Bills executive to earn that honor since Bill Polian in 1991.

In 2021, Beane was named the NFL's Jack Horrigan Award winner by the PFWA which is given annually to the league or club official who bests assists the media in their coverage.

Beane joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers. He served as the Panthers assistant general manager from 2015-16 and played a vital role in constructing their draft boards from 2012-17. He also evaluated pro and college players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

Throughout Beane's time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships. In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager-holding the role for the final 10 games of the season (6-4 record).

While there, Beane also worked closely with Panthers defensive coordinator Sean McDermott from 2011-16.

"Brandon is a very competitive person," said Terry Pegula. "I know he likes to win, but I also know he hates to lose. He's not afraid to say what he's thinking and if he disagrees with something he will say so, even to the owner. I love it. We have a very good relationship with open discussions, debate and a lot of communication."

Beane began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department and moved on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with the Panthers organization before being named the team's director of football operations in 2008.

PERSONAL

Off the field, Beane has ingrained himself in the Western New York community. From 2020-23, the Beane family has funded the adoption of 168 animals through Bills Muttfia, a program they began in conjunction with the SPCA for every touchdown the Bills score at a home game.

In the 2020 offseason, Brandon helped raise nearly $100,000 for COVID-19 relief efforts with a draft day sweepstakes through the United Way. He also helped promote the Buffalo Strong initiative that benefited FeedMore WNY.

He and his wife have also made multiple visits to Oishei's Children Hospital in Buffalo during the holidays.

A native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) was a cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998.

Brandon and his wife, Hayley, have two sons, Tyson and Wes and reside in East Aurora, NY. They have two dogs, Bodie and Peanut. He enjoys golf, racquetball and basketball.

Sean McDermott was named head coach of the Bills on January 11, 2017. With six playoff appearances and four AFC East division titles under his belt in his first seven seasons, he methodically transformed the culture of a franchise that had not experienced a postseason berth the previous 17 years.

"Sean is a proud, Christian, determined man," said Bills owner Terry Pegula. "I remember before his interview for the head coaching job thinking about him being a two-time National Prep Wrestling Champ. I thought to myself, you wrestled, you're determined, you love what you're doing and you won. He comes to the Bills everyday and will never ask anyone, player or coach to do anything he wouldn't do."

McDermott is ranked first in team history in win percentage and ranked 2nd in wins behind Marv Levy (123). From 2020-23, the Bills captured four consecutive AFC East division titles for the first time since 1988-91. Buffalo and Kansas City are the only 2 teams in the NFL to win 10+ games and earn a playoff berth each year from 2019-23.

In 2024, McDermott was named to the NFL's Competition Committee, becoming the first Bills representative on that committee since Bill Polian (1990-93). "It's a great honor" McDermott said. "It certainly comes with a responsibility as well to grow the game and evolve the game, like many who have come before us have done so well over the years."

In 2020, the Bills won their first playoff game since 1995 as McDermott finished 2nd for the NFL's coach of the year. He was also a finalist for that honor in 2019 and 2022.

In 2017, McDermott became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff spot in his first season, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998).

McDermott was hired by the Bills after 6 seasons as the defensive coordinator in Carolina, where he led a top-10 defense 4 times and helped the Panthers earn 3 division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

In 2015, McDermott's defense helped lead the way to a 15-1 record and trip to Super Bowl 50. Four players – Thomas Davis, Luke Kuechly, Josh Norman and Kawann Short – earned Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. He was The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year in 2013.

He spent his first 12 NFL seasons with Philadelphia under Andy Reid, working his way up to defensive coordinator in 2009-10. In 2009, he was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly. A protege of the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles legendary defensive coordinator, McDermott served as defensive assistant/quality control coach (2001-02), assistant defensive backs coach (2003), secondary/safeties coach (2004-06), and linebackers coach (2007-08).

He joined the Eagles in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator before being promoted to assistant to the head coach under Reid in 1999. McDermott worked with several Pro Bowlers during his time in Philadelphia, including Hall of Fame safety Brian Dawkins.

PERSONAL

Off the field, McDermott and his family are active in the Western New York community, making multiple visits to Oishei's Children Hospital of Buffalo. They have participated in many different efforts to provide awareness for food allergies and skin cancer, including an annual food drive at Wegmans that helps food-insecure families with food allergies and special dietary needs. They also partner with Wegmans on skin cancer awareness initiatives.

A member of the LaSalle College High School Hall of Athletics, McDermott was a two-time All-Catholic League and a National Prep School Champion in 1992 and 1993 and went undefeated in 75 consecutive wrestling matches.

McDermott was an All-Atlantic 10 Conference safety at William & Mary in 1997 and graduated with a degree in finance. He was inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2023 and was honored with the school's Principled Achievement Award for Exemplary Leadership in 2024. He began his coaching career at W&M as a graduate assistant in 1998. McDermott and Steelers coach Mike Tomlin were teammates during their time at W&M.

Sean and his wife, Jamie, have three children. His father, Rich, was a football coach at West Chester University and Ursinus College and his brother, Tim, is the Chief Business Officer of the Philadelphia Union of the MLS. McDermott was born in Omaha, Nebraska on March 21, 1974.

A PAINFUL GROWTH SPURT

Growing up playing Pop Warner football, Anderson was a quarterback and linebacker. As a 5-9, 195 pound high school freshman, he played defensive line and linebacker. It wasn't until a major growth spurt before his sophomore season that he switched to offensive line. He sprouted from 5-9 to 6-5 that year. By the time he was a senior, he weighed 305 pounds. His athleticism playing linebacker is something he credits to now playing offensive line.

ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT

In high school, Anderson and his best friend, Dom Fierro, started their own moving company called "Sons For a Day." His aunt, Deedee, knew a local real estate agent and their office referred a lot of business to them.

"My father took a 10% cut because we used his truck, but I was able to save up enough money for my first XBox and my first tattoo (Pax Romana on my right arm). We once moved a painting that was worth $5 million."

CONTROL WHAT'S IN YOUR POWER

Joe Andreessen was ready to take the next step in college football. He arrived at the University at Buffalo in January with high expectations for himself and for a new program, after four years of playing football at Bryant University. Then, he started training with the Bulls as they prepared for spring practices. The Lancaster graduate had to make the transition from playing at the Football Championship Subdivision level to the Football Bowl Subdivision level. He had to learn a new defense. He had to study a new playbook. He had to enroll in a master's degree program. A question persistently nagged Andreessen, who was a second-team Associated Press FCS All-American at Bryant in 2022. 'Did I make the right choice?'

"It's like you're a freshman all over again," said Andreessen, a 6-foot-1, 234-pound linebacker. "When you're a freshman, I'm sure if you ask the freshmen when they come into college football, they're like, 'I don't know if I can do this,' so it was definitely one of those moments. Like, I don't know if I can do this. There was a lot of those moments, but that's what they preach here, you keep your head down and keep moving forward."

Andreessen found answers within himself and his family, and among his new teammates. He read books on the practice of stoicism, focusing on what is in an individual's control and how to live through perseverance and gaining wisdom through experience: "How to Think Like a Roman Emperor: The Stoic Philosophy of Marcus Aurelius," by Donald J. Robertson and "How to Be a Stoic," by Massimo Pigliucci, to name two. "It's controlling what's in your power," Andreessen said of his takeaway. "Not letting outside stuff that you can't control affect how you think."

PLAYING FOR MORE

When asked who his inspiration is, Tyler Bass is quick to answer his grandmother.

"My grandma was actually at practice with me every day," Bass told Georgia Southern. "She also was battling breast cancer at the time but she didn't miss a practice or a game, so that gives me a lot of strength."

His grandma has been involved in his football career from the start. When Bass decided to try out for the football team in ninth grade, she brought him to tryouts. Once he made it, she would take him to practice when he couldn't drive. She would also bring snacks and meals to make sure he was performing.

She was diagnosed with breast cancer when he was a senior in high school and had to go through chemotherapy for treatment. She has never missed a game of his, home or away, even through treatment. Her battle taught him not to be afraid of any challenge in front of him.

PLAYING FOR MORE

Benford grew up in Randallstown, Md., a suburb of Baltimore. During the spring 2021 season – the Wildcats season was moved from the fall because of the Covid-19 pandemic – Benford's mother, Christel, was hospitalized. Before a game against Stony Brook, Benford texted with his mom and thought she was doing well. Tragically, he found out after the game that she had suffered a medical setback and died. Loss has been a constant in Benford's life, which explains the heart tattoo on his right cheekbone. Half of it is colored in, the other half is not, signifying part of his heart being gone.

When asked how it could be that he didn't appear as a rookie to be afraid of any situation, Benford traced it back to those Maryland roots. "It's from where I grew up, the city," he said. "I'm going to be honest, when I was younger, I had confidence, but it was more so that I just wasn't afraid of anything. As I got older, I learned more about how to be more confident and continue to not be afraid."

"I continuously kept my confidence high. Regardless if you're first round, undrafted, sixth round, your confidence has to stay the same," Benford said. "My mindset (is) going to stay the same. I felt I could ball. I felt I could be the best. Regardless of the situation, my confidence always has me feeling that way." (Buffalo News, Jay Skurski, June 11, 2023)

RECHARGE

After each season Terrel likes to take at least one vacation in which he titles 'recharge.' This past season he chose Tulum, Mexico where swam with dolphins and spent time eating tacos and relaxing on the beach, which was made better with his fiance Tayler and closed on a new house. The year prior the two spent time in Turks and Caicos in which he described as 'a time to be had.' "Yeah after a season you want to spend time just trying to get your body and your mind right and the beach or spending time with family is a nice reset and you get a second wind to prepare for the upcoming season. It's a blessing I don't take a single moment for granted and try to enjoy every single day and being present with them."

HELPING HAND

The Each year, thousands of men, women and children in Western New York turn to the Buffalo City Mission for a second chance. They start by welcoming them with the basics: a good, nourishing meal, a clean bed in a safe shelter and any other physical needs people have when they come for help. They work to pull homelessness and poverty out of people's lives by the roots – addressing their long-term trauma through education and life skill classes, Christ-centered counseling and spiritual guidance so they can heal, inside and out.

This offseason Terrel has spent some time with them and gave his thoughts..."I had a great time, being able to use my platform and give back is always nice to do because you have a chance to smile on someones face."

"Seeing the less fortunate and listening to their stories is so impactful. Cause that's what it's about they want someone to hear them. Hearing their plans to move forward to continue too persevere push through and try to make change. It's something that I want to be a part of because that's just being a human being. Being there for people when they are in need and lending a helping hand, while at Baylor I did a bit of it in Waco but now I have a bit more free time on my hands so I try and get out when I can."

21st CENTURY RECRUITING

In Exhibit A of 21st century recruiting, [Morgan] Scalley – Utah's defensive coordinator and safeties coach – reached out to Bishop on Twitter.

There isn't exactly a Georgia-to-Utah pipeline for the Utes' program – last season, Bishop and receiver Munir McClain were the only Georgia natives on the roster and McClain was a transfer from former Pac-12 rival USC.

Utah recruiting assistants, who spend hours grinding on high school video to unearth players from outside their main focus area, presented Scalley with Bishop's highlights.

"They know who I'm looking for – tough, smart guys who are a little bit underrecruited but have the skill set and mindset to play in our program," Scalley said. "You could tell footworkwise and technique-wise, there was (work to be done), but when he drove and broke on the football, he showed a lot of lateral quickness and physicality. I just loved him as a football player."

Scalley messaged Bishop on Twitter.

"Any other year than Covid (2020), that's not normal because you can go out and see a player in-person," Scalley said. "With Cole, you have to go off what you saw on film and that can be tough sometimes because you then see them in-person and you're like, 'Oh, they're not as athletic as they looked on film.' Everyone was going through that and it's taking a leap of faith and trusting the (high school) coach that they're giving you the correct height and weight."

LOYALTY TO NORTHERN IOWA

When the Missouri Valley Conference postponed the 2020 season to the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it was a true shot to the gut of Spencer Brown. Everything had been building to his senior year. He had high hopes not just for himself individually, but also for his team. From his point of view, Northern Iowa had a real chance at a championship.

When the news broke, coaches from Power 5 schools started reaching out to Brown in hopes he was going to transfer in order to bolster his draft stocks. Brown quickly put that to bed because there was no way he was going to be a part of anything that wasn't at Northern Iowa.

"I am not going to let someone else reap the benefits of what UNI did for me," he wrote on his Twitter account. "I did not want to go somewhere and be under a system of guys that didn't like me from the start. I'd never do that."

"It's as simple as that," Brown said to The Athletic. "I can't imagine playing with a bunch of guys that aren't my guys here."

PERSONAL

Son of Kristin and DeWayne Carter Sr. His father, DeWayne Sr., played college football at Ohio State (1993-95). Graduated with a degree in psychology and a minor in education/theatre. #### MAKING AN IMPACT

"The way I model myself," Carter addresses the awards that have come his way as the result of his community service. "I truly believe that God put me here to be a servant and leader, to give people my time — to "donate" my time. I truly believe time is the biggest thing you can give someone. Especially with the younger generation. Especially with the Durham population. Round here, there's a lot of black kids and they just see that you're at Duke and you're excelling, that you're successful. That representation means the world. It's pretty cool and rewarding to know that I'm making an impact." (CFN, Oliver Hodgkinson, June 22, 2023)

A FOOTBALL FAMILY

His father, DeWayne Sr., was a star for the Buckeyes throughout the early nineties. His uncle and grandfather, both named Raymond, played college football for Notre Dame and Youngstown State, respectively. Another uncle, John Carter, played at Western Kentucky. In other words, Carter comes from an accomplished football family and grew up with one of the country's most storied programs on the other side of town. "It was never pushed on me," Carter said. "Which is funny to say because I wasn't allowed to play football until sixth grade." His father originally insisted that he couldn't play until ninth grade. "My mom told him: 'Listen, he's not gonna suck when he gets to high school, he needs at least a couple of years," Carter said. "So we got down to sixth grade. But after then, he became the coach of my first team, and then it kind of took off from there." It certainly did. Carter lettered all four years at Pickerington Central and led his team to the Division I state semifinals on three occasions.

HE HAS A CHIP ON HIS SHOULDER

Head Coach Trei Oliver, then in his first-year, recalled that when Codrington arrived he was undersized, built more like a "seventh grader" than a football player. He said that the team had many returning players, so getting playtime was not going to be an easy task for the freshman.

"It didn't take long at all to see that the young man was talented," Oliver said. "...he worked his butt off and he ended up getting in the rotation."

As a true freshman, Codrington saw the field as a kick returner and punt returner. He had a punt return average of 7.8 yards, and averaged 18.8 yards per kickoff return.

He finished the season with a number of accolades — All-MEAC Third Team as return specialist, the Phil Steele All-MEAC Team (Third Team), and finished among MEAC leaders in both punt returns and kickoff returns. Codrington said it was a "blessing" to receive the recognition, but he was more focused on a much bigger accomplishment.

"My goal was to become an All-American, so I kind of looked past that and set my goal higher going into my sophomore year," he said.

[Coach Oliver] said he's noticed that Codrington has gotten a lot bigger in the offseason.

"The way he's transformed his body is a testament to his work ethic and our strength staff," he said.

Oliver has taken notice that Codrington also has a better understanding of the game from his time spent in the film room. One thing that hasn't changed, he said, is his competitive spirit.

"He has a chip on the shoulder and he wants to show everybody that he's the best," Oliver said. (Jalon Hill, Q City Metro, August 17, 2022)

KEON COLEMAN was selected by the Bills in the second round in 2024. Coleman, who earned first-team All-ACC honors in 2023, became the second wide receiver from Florida State ever drafted by Buffalo (Kevin Knox in 1994).

"SHE DESERVES THE CREDIT"

Coleman is the son of a single mom, Ravin Savoy, who raised five children. Times were tough. The streets were tougher. She sought help from folks like Randy Livingston, his AAU basketball coach and longtime family friend, and Jonathan Fisher to help with her two daughters and to keep her three boys from finding trouble.

"He's had hardships that most kids would struggle with," said Fisher, a director at Hope for Opelousas, a non-profit focused on community development, outreach and support. "He made it because of his mom. She did everything to make sure he never got away. She used resources like us."

"It's been so many years of him against everybody else," said Savoy, through some tears. "It's always him against everybody else. No one believed in him. Even them from his home place." (Ross Dellenger, Yahoo.com, September 4, 2023)

We have St. Landry Parish (regional airport) and the RaceTrac (gas station) and Waffle House. People from Lafayette come up to us cause they know how we get down in that place. It got to point one day where I went behind the counter had the sleeve on and made my own sausage egg and cheese grit bowl with a pork chop with no fat."

Earned second-team all-state honors in basketball his junior year after averaging 26.0 points per game. Hobbies include golf and playing the guitar. Also competed in track and field. #### IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD

FOLLOWING BIG BROTHER

James Cook did not have to look for to see what it would take to not only make the NFL, but to be successful at that level given that he is the younger brother of Dalvin Cook.

The elder Cook is a three-time Pro Bowler and has shown James how to make it, but also showed him that he can do it by taking his own path.

"That is a motivational factor just knowing that you've got an older brother in the NFL," Cook said to Dawgs247. "And that's someplace you want to be someday. So that just kind of make me wanted to work extra hard knowing that I had an older brother in the league and is a baller. That played a factor, too."

One of his first decisions to carve his own path was when he decided not to follow his older brother's path and to decommit from Florida State and attend the University of Georgia.

While there he was able to make his own name and earn something that Dalvin was never able to, which was to win a National Championship.

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD "THAT KID ON THE OUTSIDE LOOKING IN"

"I know how it feels to be that kid on the outside looking in, to not be wanted, to not be with your real family, to have others look out for you and to live that double life where you go to school every day and act like things are normal but when you get home it's back to reality," he said. "Those were rough times for me."

Davis' youth was spent in San Francisco. His father and mother were both in and out of incarceration. He and his siblings bounced from the homes and residences of family members and acquaintances. By the time he was 8, he was part of California's foster care system. There was even a time when a godmother agreed to take two of Davis' siblings under her wing—but not Davis, because of a strained relationship with Davis' father. Davis found himself in a shelter where he vividly remembers the realization that he had nowhere to go. He was homeless.

"I don't think I'd be the man I am today without those experiences. It just made me look at the bigger picture of life," Davis said. "There's always a lot of people going through way worse things than me." (Chad Bishop, VUCommodores.com, September 2, 2021)

MAN OF THE YEAR X2

Walk into any event hosted by Dion Dawkins, and one can quickly feel like they know the Buffalo Bills' left tackle. Dawkins is intentional about making it that way, and his team has noticed. For a second year in a row, Dawkins has earned an important nod. Dawkins is again the Bills' Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. The league-wide award is, per the NFL, "the league's most prestigious honor and acknowledges NFL players who excel on the field and demonstrate a passion for creating a lasting positive impact beyond the game." Dawkins found out he was nominated at one of his community events: his Talent Shnow, which was a fundraiser for his foundation, Dion's Dreamers. His daughter, Dalilah, helped present the news to an emotional Dawkins. "Honored and extremely thankful," Dawkins posted on social media, "Being the person that I am and all the love I try to spread each and every day. This is something that can't be purchased and can't be faked. Honored to serve my community and the people I come across in life."

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD

I WANT IT

One of seven siblings, Douglas was raised by his grandmother in East Orange, a city in northern New Jersey with a poverty rate of 21 percent. He had no plans for the future following high school but ended up attending Nassau Community College at the urging of Bell and Nassau's coach, Curtis Guilliam. Nassau had no dorms, so he lived in an apartment eight miles from campus and took the bus to and from school and practice every day. He slept on the floor and, with very little money, often battled hunger.

"When you've got to walk to McDonald's in the snow, order five things, and you eat two of it at 12 o'clock, and you save the other dollar-menu [items] for later in the day, I think [those were some] of my craziest days," he said.

"I always think about it. Every time I eat, I always think I'm making up a meal that I missed in junior college or something like that. ... It definitely fuels me all the time, just thinking about what I went through, practicing on an empty stomach, going to school on an empty stomach. You can't even focus. So that definitely makes me want to play all-out all the time."

Guilliam helped make sure Douglas was taken care of the best he could, including by getting him a job at a summer camp so he had a little money in his pocket. "We would do what we would have to do to help the young men," Guilliam said. "It's kind of tough in certain situations, but guess what, that hunger makes him better. I'm a big believer of that. That hunger is what kept him driving and pushing to where he is at now." (ESPN, Tim McManus, May 11, 2017)

PERSONAL

Pronounced rah-sool. Douglas welcomed his first child, Jeremiah Lusar Douglas, with his girlfriend Ny-Asia Franklin in October of 2018. Is one of seven siblings. Has two cane corso's named Ghost and Roscoe.

MY FIRST BUFFALO WINTER

With a snow storm raging through Western New York prior the Bills Wild Card playoff game vs. Pittsburgh, David Edwards set out to go pick up his wife, Karoline, and newborn daughter, Margot, from the hospital. Those plans changed when white-out conditions forced Edwards to drive into and get stuck in a snowbank near Highmark Stadium. "I drove straight into a plowed snowbank on the left side of the road," Edwards told USA TODAY Sports "I was like, 'Holy, crap.""

In desperate need of help, Edwards called Bills vice president of security, Chris Clark, who connected him with Dennis Miller from Miller's Collision and Auto, Inc. Miller was quick to rescue Edwards. "Business as usual. Just trying to help out people. That's what we do," Miller told USA TODAY Sports.

"He was a huge lifesaver for us," Edwards said. After being rescued from the snowbank and running through his options, Edwards and Miller set-out for the hospital.

Miller's help did not end there as shortly after getting Edwards to the hospital, he returned with his payloader to help escort Edwards and his family back to their home. "Without the payloader, (they) never would have made it through there," Miller said. "With that precious cargo in the car, I had to make sure I had to get (them) home."

"Can't say how grateful or appreciative I am for him doing that for us," Edwards said.

A TOUCH OF PINK

Watch some old games of Mike Edwards playing at Kentucky and then Tampa Bay and you'll undoubtedly see Edwards wearing a pink mouthpiece. He did that to honor his aunt, Angie Evans, who died of breast cancer in 2013.

It was important for him to bring that tribute with him to the NFL. "It means a lot to me," he told Draftwire. "That was my mom's sister, and it hit us pretty hard. My family struggled with her passing. It was tough for us. I just always want to remember her and honor her memory. I wear pink gloves throughout the month of October as well."

(The Enquirer, Kyle Brown, February 1, 2021)

ALWAYS SMILING

"It makes me proud that I was able to push him and prepare him for some of the things he wanted to do going forward in life," Andre Parker, Edwards high school football coach, told WCPO. "Mike was a kid — it didn't matter how much you pushed him he was going to smile. It was like no matter how much you run us, how much we're lifting, I'm going to enjoy today, coach. He made it fun for me."

His father, Mike Edwards Jr., reflected on Edwards' football journey, recalling the Winton Woods practices and helping his son buy football equipment. Edwards, who still has his letterman jackets and Winton Woods T-shirts, committed to maintaining his academics after a rigorous practice schedule. "Great player, great athlete, hard worker," Winton Woods athletic director David Lumpkin said. "He's one of the guys you knew was going to the NFL."

(WCPO, Mike Dyer, February 8, 2024)

PERSONAL

Son of Terri and Mike Edwards Jr., he has two sisters. Other than playing in the NFL, his dream job is to be a CSI or FBI agent. Nickname is 'The Badger'. Graduated from Kentucky with a degree in family science. Attended Winton Woods (OH) High School, where he also played baseball, basketball and participated in track & field.

THE BLUEPRINT

Kaiir did not have to look far growing up for inspiration and examples of what is possible on the football field. Both Kaiir's father, Abram, and uncle, Matt, played in the NFL. Now that Kaiir has made it to the NFL, his dad hopes that he can accomplish everything those who came before him accomplished and then some. "This is his moment," Abram told the Buffalo media after Kaiir was drafted. "He took advantage of every opportunity and made the most of it. This isn't about me. This is him. As a father, this is what you always dream of, your son having more or better than what you set out to do...We always have a saying in the family. They call me 'The Blueprint,' but I see him and Matt and they took the plans and they enhanced it. You know what I mean? So they've taken it and did their thing with it and made it even better. And that's what you always want."

SOPHIA THE FIERCE

Kaiir Elam met Sophia (Benintende) in October 2022. On May 9, 2023, Sophia Benintende died. She was 9 years old. Born on Nov. 19, 2013, Sophia got her nickname, Sophia the Fierce, from her strength as she faced the unimaginable. In July 2021, Sophia was diagnosed with Ewing Sarcoma, a rare type of cancer that begins in the bones or soft tissue. A first-round pick, Elam grappled with the ups and downs of a rookie season. His friendship with Sophia grounded him. "At that time, I was struggling with trying to find myself coming here, dealing with expectations and trying to force (gratefulness)," he said. "She helped me out so much, mentally...We went out to dinner one night. And she started bursting out in tears out of nowhere, because she was just going through so much internally. But she never complained. You know? She was tough." (Buffalo News, Katherine Fitzgerald, May 15, 2023)

HOOP STAR

A three-sport star growing up, Epenesa played on the St. Louis Eagles AAU basketball team that featured Celtics star Jayson Tatum and former Iowa star Tyler Cook. "His athleticism is freaky," Cook told The Athletic. "When I was in eighth grade, I promise you A.J. was better than I was. I'm not going to lie about that at all. A freak athlete, man. People don't know how skilled of a basketball player he was, too. He could shoot it, put it on the deck. I talk to him about it every time I see him."

IT CAN ONLY BE JARED

According to a story by The Athletic, A.J. Epenesa's middle name, Jared, came from his father's best friend in college. Former DT Jared DeVries used to lend his car in college to Eppy Epenesa, so he could drive 50 miles to see his fiancee (now wife) Stephanie and their newborn daughter, Samantha. "Naming him after Jared has to do with my friendship with Jared, which will stick for life," Eppy said. "I'm glad I did that. It's a blessing just to have Jared as my friend."

PERSONAL

Full name: Andrew Jared Epenesa. Is the son of Stephanie and Espensa "Eppy" Epenesa. His father, a native of American Somoa, played DT at Iowa. Has a sister, Samantha, and two brothers, Eric, an outside linebacker at lowa, and lose. Majored in communications. Fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. ### DE | 57 AJ EPENESA

AIGA MEANS FAMILY IN SAMOA

Epenesa's twitter bio contains the flag of American Samoa. His Instagram account is @supersamoan94. The roots run much deeper. His father, Eppy, grew up in Pago Pago, Samoa and that lineage is ingrained in his life. Because of that, family is first for the Epenesas and A.J. is tattooed with birds, tortoise shells, fish, and leaves, all symbols of the Samoan culture. "I didn't have much exposure to Samoa growing up in Illinois," A.J. said. "But my dad tried his best to put his culture into our lives so that I can really embrace it and take pride in it, which I do."

GO BILLS!!

A.J. had the opportunity to bring joy to lifelong Bills fan Frank Bonfilio of Cincinnati surprising him with two tickets to the Sunday Night Football game against the Bengals. Frank is the starter of a Bills backer group in Northern Kentucky where there are about 200 members and he sets up game days and events for Bills fan in Northern Kentucky. "We know BillsMafia is everywhere and having their support is amazing, with so many people like Frank it just makes it that much more special to know we have people committed to us as we are to them." Epenesa said.

BROTHERLY LOVE, FERGUSON STYLE

Reid and Blake Ferguson took similar paths to the NFL growing up in Buford, GA. Both attended Buford HS and LSU. And both are now playing in the AFC East, as Blake was drafted by the Dolphins in 2020. Blake learned a great deal from his big brother over the years, but it was not a one-way street. "Perseverance is the best thing I learned from Blake," recalled Reid. "His battle with diabetes over the years put a lot of things in perspective for me. Things that seemed like big problems are nothing compared to what he went through."

FIGHT FOR HIS FAMILY

Ferguson's brother, Blake, was diagnosed as a Type 1 diabetic in 2011 at the age of 13. Since then, it has been a family mission to raise awareness and funds to fight diabetes. In fact, during the 2018 offseason, he joined his brother and the American Diabetes Association in a trip to Capitol Hill to meet with lawmakers to raise awareness. "The experience I had at Call to Congress with the American Diabetes Association was very eye-opening," Ferguson told the Buffalo News. "To be able to go to the Hill and continue the talks to get more funding for diabetes research was incredible."

SOCCER TEAM OWNER

In 2023, Reid and his brother, Blake, became minority owners of Swansea City AFC in Wales. "Sports ownership has always been a goal of mine and I love the game of soccer. It was an opportunity I could not pass up," said Ferguson.

FROM UNNOTICED TO NFL

If you want a guy to root for, a guy who has had to scratch and claw for everything he has ever received, the 24-year-old from Galloway, Ohio is your man.

Reggie Gilliam signed a two-year contract extension worth $5.3 million Sunday.

At Westland High School outside Columbus, the football team was terrible and even though he was the MVP and he made first-team all-conference, there were no college recruiters punching that address into their GPS.

"I won seven games my entire high school career, so, I was kind of like, college was a stretch," he said. "About the third game into my senior year, I got a DM from a recruiter in Toledo. He hit me up and was like, 'Hey, saw your film, had a really great game - we'd like you to come up for our walk-on day, and see the campus.' So I came up and fell in love with the campus, and was like, 'This is what I want to do.'"

All it takes is one, and Gilliam walked on to the team and eventually earned a scholarship in his third year. He played 40 games for the Rockets as a tight end, but he caught only 18 passes for 153 yards, so once again, he figured there was no way an NFL team would give him a look.

A SIGNAL CALLER IN THE TRENCHES

Tylan Grable played quarterback in high school. He commanded huddles and looked beyond the bars of a face mask, into eyes and scolded. When quarterbacks see too many opposing players in their faces, they scold linemen. "I did it quite a few times, thinking it was kind of easy," Grable says, with a laugh. "Now, doing the job that they were out there trying to do, I see it's not that easy." The former high school quarterback has gone to the trenches. He's made the transition from quarterback, to tight end and offensive tackle at Jacksonville State. "He's a man of many skills," JSU coach John Grass said. "He's played a little bit of everything. He was a basketball player and played on a really good basketball team. He played quarterback, and I think you still see that with him playing tackle."

JSU's coaching staff had to sell Grable on going from a guy with the ball in his hands to a guy with his hand on the ground. Then they asked him to go from run blocking as a tight end to pass blocking as a tackle. Grable didn't fight it. He just tried to do what offensive linemen can't ... wrap his arms around it. "My first reaction was, how?" he said. "I don't know how, but he kept telling me to just trust the process and listen to coach and listen to your teammates. They'll help you get through it, and then you can really be good. I said, I've got to give it a try. Whatever I can do for the team, I was ready." (The Anninston Star, Joe Medley, April 20, 2021)

CHASING M'S

Reminiscing on his journey, Damar Hamlin decided that he wanted to use his platform to give back to others and created The Chasing M's Foundation. His first program was a toy drive in 2020.

He raised money on GoFundMe to purchase and donate toys to Kelly and Nina's Daycare Center in his hometown of McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania.

"The idea popped in my head right after Clemson week," Hamlin told the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. "It sparked a thought in my head. But I actually couldn't do anything until after my eligibility was done as far as GoFundMe and all that. So it's been a solid week and a half of preparation for the toy drive. This was all able to happen off that short amount of time. That just goes to show the support that the town, the city, all of Pitt fans and the University of Pittsburgh, everyone that grew up watching me and knew my story personally and have been a part of it, that's just a testament to how much they support me."

The support Hamlin has received came in abundance in 2023 and has raised over 11 million dollars and still counting.

Thasing Millions

In addition to the Chasing M's Foundation, Hamlin also has a clothing brand named Chasing M's. Chasing M's stands for Chasing Millions and according to the brand's website, it is "for those who have a dream and pursue it... It is for those who want something more and can't settle to be average."

Hamlin has donated clothes from his brand to his area high school in Pittsburgh, Sto-Rox, and will continue to use it to grow his platform and increase the people that he can reach.

CPR AND AED TRAINING

On Jan. 2, 2023, Hamlin went into cardiac arrest during the Monday Night Football game at Paycor Stadium against the Cincinnati Bengals.

Emergency responders provided CPR on Hamlin and used an AED to revive him. Hamlin recovered at UC Medical Center and one week later, doctors released him back to Buffalo.

Instead of letting this moment define his career or even who he was a person, "This event was life-changing, but it's not the end of my story." Hamlin said regarding his blow to chest called commotio cordis.

So he decided to lead from the front and wanted to raise awareness on CPR which saved his life. Providing CPR on someone who is in cardiac arrest can triple their survival chance as it continues the flow of oxygen to the brain and other vital organs.

"I wake up every day and think about how I can impact the world in a positive way, that's what I care about if you take away everything else. To be able to save a life is a true superpower. Instead of people standing by not knowing what to do, I'm just trying to create more people who do know what to do. Growing up, I never really remember ever thinking about where an AED was, or ever thinking about CPR training. As we learned from my personal experience, it is very important and life-changing. This program (Chasing M's) is very important because it gives life-saving care to kids in their own communities and on the field."

STAYING GROUNDED

Former Eagles player Mack Hollins has a special way of training that many people may find gross.

The 29-year-old WR likes to roam around barefoot to keep up with flexibility and dexterity.

"I think I've been shoeless... for four or five years," Hollins said. "Sometimes I get kicked out of places where I have to put shoes on.

The life change came when Hollins met a group of men in Australia that were part of Melbourne Muscular Therapy -- a group that specializes in "holistic grounding exercises."

"It has been great for me.," Hollins said. "I think it's fun because everyone should be barefoot. You don't see people walking around in mittens."

"It's so funny that people look at me like that because shoes are definitely dirtier than feet," Hollins laughed. "Because I wash my feet all the time. When's the last time you washed the bottom of your shoe?"

A DREAM COME TRUE

Ja'Marcus Ingram had no scholarship offers coming out of high school in Dallas. He had to walk on to Utah State and pay his own way his first year of college.

After two years as a starter at Utah State and two years as a backup at Texas Tech, he finished his college career as a full-time starting cornerback last season at the University at Buffalo.

So when the Buffalo Bills offered him a contract after a twoday rookie minicamp tryout last month, Ingram said it was the culmination of a dream that he had kept alive against the odds over a long road.

"It's surreal; it's still kind of hard to wrap my mind around it," Ingram said after a recent Bills practice. "Right after the second rookie minicamp practice, it felt like I was about to go home because they huddled us up and said at 4 o'clock they would be transporting us to the airport. I was like, 'Dang, they're going to send us home. I'll be going back to Dallas.' But after the coaches huddled up, they walked over to me and whispered in my ear, 'Congratulations, we want to sign you.' It was a dream come true."

MY FIRST LOVE

"My love for the game probably came as I got better," said Taron. "In my first couple of years, I wasn't that good."

As the world witnessed, Taron's natural athletic ability and work ethic separated him from other kids.

"I was a basketball player. I ran track. I played a little bit of baseball. I loved competing, so when I got better, it got fun."

No. 7 comes from a family full of athletes, and he credits his dad, who made sure Taron always puts in the extra work.

"I just remember us practicing basketball when I was a kid and him just telling me how much hard work matters."

Taron credits a list of people from his father, his trainers, and his

"She was the one who put me in football. My dad wasn't the one who put me in football. She was like my son is going to play football type of thing."

His family motivation goes deeper than just the athletic accomplishments of his sister. Taron uses the loss of his mother at the age of 9 as his main desire to make his family proud. Trina Johnson passed away from breast cancer in 2005.

"The biggest thing she instilled in me was probably my faith. She's inspirational for sure. She introduced me to the game, and I'm thankful for it."

TARON JOHNSON

A CLOSE BOND

Due to the unfortunate passing of his mother, Trina, when Taron was 9, Taron and his father, Baron, formed a very close relationship that has helped make Taron the man he is today. Taron credits his father for showing him the meaning of hard work and that anything could be accomplished if he worked hard enough.

"If there is something he instilled in me at a very young age, it was my work ethic and learning from my mistakes. That's how I got here," Johnson told BuffaloBills.com.

LIKE A CARTOON CHARACTER

When Buffalo Bills tight end coach Rob Boras turns on the tape, he knows who he's guaranteed to see: rookie tight end Dalton Kincaid.

"The thing I love about Dalton is that when you hit pause at the end of the play, he's always in the camera," Boras said. "So, even if he doesn't have the ball, he's finishing by the ball."

Take Bills wide receiver Khalil Shakir's 81-yard touchdown earlier this season – a touchdown that featured some key blocks by Kincaid. The Bills had Kincaid mic'd up for the game, and he explained his play as only he could.

"I ran down, and just DOOT!" Kincaid says.

But what, exactly, does "doot" mean?

"I have no idea," Kincaid told The Buffalo News. "I don't even remember saying that, to be honest."

Conscientious of his catchphrases or not, Kincaid is constantly making noise on the field.

"It's one of his many sound effects," fullback Reggie Gilliam said. "He just makes random sounds in different moments. And it's like during the snap, so we're in the play and you just hear him making sound effects over there. ... I'm just like, 'Are you like a character? What are you?' It's like a cartoon character."

KNOX SOX

Since arriving in Buffalo in 2019, Knox has been a strong supporter of the P.U.N.T. Pediatric Cancer Collaborative. P.U.N.T. is a nonprofit organization founded by former NFL Pro Bowl Punter Brian Moorman that provides families in Western New York facing pediatric cancer with programs that offer financial, practical and emotional support.

"Being able to walk into the room and instantly get some smiles is unbelievable," Knox told WKBW. "It's a great feeling for myself but also knowing you can bring a little joy into someone's life who is literally at rock bottom was a really cool feeling."

In 2021 he launched a giveback initiative — Knox Sox — through P.U.N.T. and pledged to donate $1,000 for every touchdown and $100 for every catch he had throughout the season. The initiative funds custom non-slip socks for local pediatric cancer patients. As part of the campaign, Knox also partnered with For Bare Feet to sell socks with a percentage of the proceeds going directly to P.U.N.T.

"I feel like they've done just as much for me as I've done for them. They've given me a pretty awesome purpose" he said.

BUILT FOR THIS PATH

Cam Lewis isn't where he thought he'd be.

"To be quite frank with you, I didn't even think I was going to make it to the NFL," Lewis admitted. "NFL wasn't even on my radar going into my first two years. I think my junior year was when I really decided, OK, I'm going to at least go try and you know five years later I'm still here."

Lewis' pro path has been a challenging test in perseverance.

He signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2019, landing on the practice squad that entire season. The PS was where he started the 2020 campaign, but found his way up on the active roster for five games, two of which he started. A third go-around on the PS was where 2021 started, but once again Lewis worked his way up for seven games, starting one.

Then finally, in 2022, he cemented a spot on the 53-man roster, playing 13 games with one start. And this season, he's played in 14 games.

"A lot of ups and downs, but it's been good," Lewis said. "I feel like I wouldn't want it any other way. I feel like I was kind of built for this path that God put me on."

A path that has seen Lewis play every spot in the secondary on top of working his way into a core special teams player.

"Just trying to find ways to make the most of my opportunities and make plays," Lewis said. "Just trying to stay around because this league can spit you out real quick. You get here for a second and next minute you're gone, so just trying to find a way. I keep saying it, just trying to stick around and make the most of my opportunities."

- Recorded 6 punts inside the 20 vs NE (12/31/23) which is a new Bills single-game record and most of his career

TICKETS TO BROADWAY

During the offseason, Martin gifted his parents to tickets for the hit Broadway show "The Music Man". The show was set to take place on Mother's Day, but a schedule conflict ended up preventing Martin's parents from attending. With two $600 tickets freed up just days before the show, Martin decided to use the tickets to make someone else's Mother's Day. "So rather than resell them with it being on Mother's Day, we thought this is a perfect opportunity to help another family to go," Martin told 9News. "If not, the tickets would have gone to waste. It was more so my mom and dad's idea. Really my mom said, 'How 'bout for Mother's Day, your gift to me is to donate them."

Through his agency, Athlete's First, Martin connected with a single mother and daughter that he gifted the tickets to. "We got in touch with the daughter and she said it was something her mother really needed and could use right now," Martin said. "It had been a while since they've been able to do anything really, anything fun. It wound up being kind of a perfect little storm."

PERSONAL

Son of Tom and Debbie. In addition to football, played soccer in high school and earned all-state honors as a junior. Launched the Sam Martin Foundation in 2016 to help improve the lives of children with mental and physical conditions as well as animal welfare.

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD SUPER BOWL STITCHES & PIZZA PIES

Connor McGovern, just 4 years old at time, was running around the linoleum floors with friends, planted his foot in a dog's water bowl and wiped out. "I was a little kid, screwing around in the kitchen, hit the corner wall," McGovern said. "So, I split my head open, so I had to go the ER, and the game was on." That game was Super Bowl XXXVI, a showdown between the underdog New England Patriots and the St. Louis Rams. His family rushed him to the hospital - both to get him treated and to catch the end of the game. Growing up in Larksville, Pennsylvania, the McGovern family was split mainly into Eagles and Steelers fans. Connor wanted to be different. At Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, McGovern first made a proclamation. Then, Adam Vinatieri made a 48-yard field goal as time ran out. "I told my parents whoever won that game I'll be a fan of," McGovern said. "And that's how I became a Patriots fan." The Patriots went on to win 20-17. McGovern got about seven stitches in his head and healed up fine. ... When McGovern was in Dallas, he started learning how to cook and bake more often. "Over like the two years of COVID and everything, started perfecting it, tweaking things how I like it," McGovern said. "And then finally built up the confidence, and then every few weeks I'd have the O-line over down there and start making them (pizza and) got more and more comfortable with it."

PASS RUSH SUMMIT

The future Hall of Famer conducts his annual Von Miller Pass Rush Summit each summer in Nevada, a two-day event which attracts players from around the NFL. "To be able to walk and talk and go through moves and mindset with guys around the league I respect is huge for me," Miller told the Buffalo News. "I'm a pass rusher and this is a fraternity of brothers. I want all these guys to have success."

FUTURE GENERAL MANAGER

Miller has made it no secret he aspires to become an NFL general manager once his playing days are over. He uses as much time as possible to soak in knowledge from Bills general manager Brandon Beane, including a job shadow experience at the 2023 NFL Combine.

"He's just a great human being," Miller told the Buffalo News of Beane. "He opened the door. He watered my plant. He easily could have said, 'Man, you oughta be focused on football,' which I would have gladly did, but for him to water the plant for me is great. And I just feel extremely humbled and blessed to have this opportunity here at the combine."

"I can't just stay boxed in. I got to be able to plan and forecast: 'OK, when this doesn't work, what am I going to do next?' You got to be able to balance those two things."

"There are moments in life where you... have to be where your feet are," Miller said. "There are moments, too, where I gotta be here, but I still gotta be looking for what's next."

UNDRAFTED UNDERDOG

Quintin Morris is the undrafted underdog. For a year, the Buffalo Bills tight end's nameplate was spelled incorrectly, as "Quinton" for a year after Morris made the practice squad for the 2021 season.

"Being a practice squad guy, they're not really expecting me to come in here and make any impact," Morris said. "For me, it was just really showing the coaches, showing the team that I can be a guy you trust to go out there and perform."

The odds were against Morris to make a stacked Bills 53-man roster, but there's no quit in the Morris family, a lesson Quintin learned from his big brother Evan.

"He gave Quintin motivation because watching his brother overcome so many obstacles, he had no excuse. So he made it work," Quintin's father Eddie Morris said about his sons.

"It was very disheartening when Evan was born. He was born a preemie. He was unheard of. He was a pound and six ounces."

"He started out in the hospital the first six months of his life. ... They didn't expect him to make it, but here he is," Vanessa said.

Here is Evan, at 26 years old, highly functional and a Special Olympics star.

D-3 TO THE NFL

Nicholas Morrow was mostly aware of what he signed up for when he committed to play football at Division III Greenville University. Among the list of experiences included paying his own tuition, training at a small facility shared with the local elderly community, playing in front of sparse crowds, and partaking in up to 12-hour bus rides for road games.

There was one caveat, though, that caught Morrow off guard upon his arrival to Greenville's campus, located in rural central Illinois with an enrollment of less than 1,000 students. When Morrow first opened the door that led to his modest 200-something-square-foot dorm room, he made a quick observation.

"This is a two-person room, like, this is room for only two people ... and there were three beds," Morrow recalled. "That's the kind of living situation I was in. We were really crammed in. You only go to a program like that if you truly love the game."

During a recent phone interview with Morrow's college coach, Robbie Schomaker prefaced the conversation: "I think it's hard to really articulate how outlandish this whole story is in terms of where he came from, and where he is now."

Morrow credits his humble beginnings for playing a large factor in his ability to carve out an impressive six-year pro career with the Raiders, Bears, and Eagles. He is the only alumnus from Greenville to play in the NFL, and he is one of only a handful of Division III players in the league.

"I'm proud to have that part of my journey," Morrow said.
"Just grateful to go through those types of things."

COATS FOR KIDS

Oliver wanted to immediately make an impact in the Buffalo community after joining the Bills as the 9th overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft and he found a way to do that in partnership with Colvin Cleaners.

Oliver participated in the Coats for Kids campaign, meeting fans who donated coats, boots, hats and gloves during a collection event outside of the Bills stadium. It's a cause that is especially important given the climate in Western New York and one that immediately stuck out to Ed as an important way to give back to his new community.

"Buffalo's a place I'd heard has unbearable winters and I'd hate for a kid to have to walk outside in a blizzard or whatever kind of crazy weather we get up here," Oliver told WIVB TV during the coat drive.

The 2019 edition of the campaign was able to receive and distribute over 10,000 coats to people in need. "It just epitomizes the Bills Mafia and what the Bills Football Program is all about. It's all about family, it's all about one another, making sure one another's straight," Oliver said.

TURKEY DAY

Oliver comes alive on Thanksgiving day, having played in three games on the day through out his career he has recorded at least half a sack. In two of them, he's taken over games. Against the Detroit Lions in 2022, Oliver became the first player in team history to record a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery and safety in a single game. He then collected AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts, he joked that he wished it was Thanksgiving "every day," let alone just playing on the holiday once a year.

FIRST-AND-10

ED OLIVER agreed to terms on a four-year contract extension with the Bills in 2023, extending his stay in Buffalo through 2027 after originally being drafted by the team in the first round (9th overall) out of Houston in 2019. His 9.5 sacks of the 2023 season ranked third in the NFL of all interior defensive linemen.

SHOUTOUTS

- · Finished 2023 starting in 16 games with a career high in tackles with 51 (34 solo), 14 TFLs, 16 QB hits, 1 INT and tied a career high in passes defensed (3).
- · Raised his sack total to 9.5, the most by a Bills DT since Jordan Phillips in 2019 (9.5). Since being drafted in 2019, Oliver leads the Bills with 24.0 sacks.
- Intercepted a pass vs NE (12/31/23) for the first of his career, and first since his senior year of high school in 2015. Oliver also recorded a sack and became the first DT with an INT since 2019.
- Recorded two sacks at LAC (12/23/23).
- Collected half a sack of Patrick Mahomes at KC (12/10/23) and recorded a pass defensed.
- Recorded his sixth sack of season along with a TFL and a QB hit vs NYJ (11/19/23).
- · Took down Baker Mayfield for his fifth sack of the season vs TB (10/26/23). Tied personal season-high (5 in 2019).
- Had a career high 9 tackles vs JAX (10/8/23) and recorded a sack of Trevor Lawrence.
- Collected AFC Defensive Player of the Week against DET (11/24/22) after recording 6 tackles, 2 TFLs, forced a fumble and recovered his first fumble recovery of NFL career, and a sack ending in a safety the first in a Thanksgiving game since 2013 (Ndamukong Suh).

PERSONAL

Son of Dana and Ed Oliver Sr. Has an older brother. Marcus, who also played for Houston and now coaches at Pineville HS (LA). Has a daughter Ava Oliver. Majored in health while at Houston.

BROTHER MAN

Most recruiting experts were surprised when Ed decided to stay close to home and play his college ball at Houston. One of the main reasons for going to Houston was so Ed could play with his brother, Marcus, who played on the offensive line for the Cougars and has served as a mentor and best friend for Ed.

"He's the reason I love football the way I do now," Ed said to the Athletic. "Without him, I don't know what I'd be doing. Every time I kind of veered off, he was always right there with me, going, 'Nah, this way.' I'd veer off again, 'Nah, this way.' When I got the offer for my extension, he was the first person I called and we talked and cried and if it was good for him it was good for me. Words cant express how much I love Marcus, y'all just don't know."

THE HORSE WHISPERER

Growing up, Oliver's passions extended beyond the football field. In fact, one of his hobbies is horseback riding. He has been around horses most of his life and says that being around them helped him immensely in learning to conquer his fears.

"I can tell you, I got over a lot of fear with horses, too," he said. "A couple times I thought I was going to die, and I realized: 'Hey, you've just got to go through it. You'll be all right.' Real life, I thought sometimes, 'Man, this horse could kill me.' I'm overcoming fear just getting back up on the horse and riding it."

2 RINGS ONE NIGHT

After winning a Super Bowl ring, Taylor Rapp pulled out a ring of his own, proposing to his girlfriend Dani Johnson in front of the cheering fans of SoFi.

The proposal came after an emotional win for the Rams, who beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20. She nodded "Yes" and tried to hold back the tears as Rapp slipped the engagement ring on her finger.

"So we were actually going to go to Hawaii after the season was over and that's where I had planned on proposing. The thought of doing crossed my mind but only if we had won. And we did win so I was like I have to do it now, it made our vacation better, less stress on my end."

Rapp and Johnson have been dating since high school. She's been his biggest fan since he played football for Sehome High School in Bellingham, WA. He went on to star at the University of Washington before heading to the NFL in 2019. Johnson played volleyball at Southern Oregon University.

In March of 2021, Rapp marked Johnson's birthday with his intentions. Rapp posted a selfie to Instagram of himself and Johnson smiling for the camera, writing in the caption, "Happy birthday to the love of my life, the one person who holds me accountable and makes sure I stay true to myself no matter what." And on July 16, 2022 they became the Rapp's.

PERSONAL

Taylor is half Chinese and is one of four active Asian players in the NFL. Has an older brother, Austin, who inspired his love for football. Lives with his wife, Dani, and they have two golden retrievers, Maya and Ollie rescued from China and Korea.

BUFFALO CONNECTIONS

It always seems like you can find a Buffalo connection in most situations and that is no different with the Bills first-round draft pick Greg Rousseau.

Of course he's heard the typical, obvious stuff:

"I know there's Niagara Falls there, it pretty much borders Canada, I'm pretty sure there's Lake Erie so the same lake in Cleveland is over there," Rousseau said.

But his understanding of Western New York runs deeper than that.

"My mom had my older brother in Buffalo so my parents lived in Buffalo for I think five years, four years, so I'm very familiar with Buffalo."

The Bills drafted the Miami defensive end with the 30th overall pick in this year's draft as they continue to add youth to the position and someone who already has ties to the area.

"I know all about it, Jim Kelly, the whole nine yards, and they got the Miami connection for sure," Rousseau said in a zoom call with reporters after the first-round.

He laughed and said he'll get all the exact details from his parents but said he thinks they lived in Buffalo from the mid to late 90's when his mom was likely getting her nursing degree.

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD MEMORABLE RIDE TO FIRST NFL CAMP

Curtis Samuel arrived at his first Panthers training camp in 2017 just like many kids arrive at school. His mom, Nicole Samuel, drove him to training camp at Wofford College.

"We were just dropping him off so we could use the car," Nicole told WCNC Charlotte. "I'm like wow, this thing blew up."

Curtis joked that once he saw cameras were on campus, he tried to get Nicole to drop him off to the side and out of sight. But it was too late.

"My mom, she's always there for me," said Curtis. "She's been there for me through the whole way, Little League, high school and college. She's happy for me, and she just wanted to be a part of it."

"We love our mother so much," said Curtis. "We're so close to her ... The things she does for us is incredible. How I am, whatever my mother wants she gets. She's worked so hard throughout her whole life." (ESPN.com and WCNC.com)

ADAPTING TO DIFFERENT ENVIRONMENTS

When wide receiver Khalil Shakir moves around the offense, he doesn't miss a step. The Bills' fifth-round pick in 2022, he's comfortable with change.

"I think I'm just able to adapt," Shakir said. "I'm a military baby, so I moved around a lot. To be able to adapt to different environments – and different people as well – was just embedded in my blood at a young age.

"I feel like that's just carried on me my whole life. So whenever I come out onto the field, it's the same thing."

Shakir's father, Master Gunnery Sgt. Attiyyah Shakir, served 24 years in the Marines. Khalil was born in Virginia, then the family moved to Hawaii. They went from Hawaii to Japan, and Japan to California. With most of the extended family on the East Coast, plenty of other trips were sprinkled in along the way.

Even in new situations, Shakir would jump in right away.

"He's always been a leader," his dad said. "He's never been afraid to (try) much."

Shakir sees a connection now between the big moves and his comfort level when he's thrown into different situations on the football field. It crystalized at Boise State, when someone else asked about his upbringing.

"That's when I realized people always say when I'm in a different spot, I look comfortable in the environment," Shakir said. "I think that just comes without even realizing how much I did move around."

ELSIE ACADEMY

Dawuane and his wife, Aumari, have created something that will give back to the Jacksonville community for years to come with a private daycare and preschool.

"This is our little mascot, Elsie, so our logo is a little dove," Aumari said. "We have one of these in each classroom."

Elsie is a special word for the Smoot family, so much that when they opened their new school, they named it 'The Elsie Academy'.

"It's my grandmother's name," Aumari said. "When I found out she was diagnosed with breast cancer I decided to go ahead and name the school after her. Then, once I did research on the name, the name has a very strong meaning and it means 'pledge to God'. We're believers and I just felt like it was meant to be."

"As we keep growing in Jacksonville, we want to make sure that people understand and know that we are here for the community and that we want to push School Readiness and our VPK vouchers and knowing that this is not just an academy where you have to have a bunch of money," Dawuane said. "We're opening it up for under served communities, for inner city kids as well, too."

Smoot often works with area nonprofits Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida, Better Dads Society and the Jacksonville Arts and Music School, and participates in food distributions with local food banks and the annual "Shop with a Jaguar," providing children from areas of Jacksonville with a holiday shopping spree.

WHAT I ALWAYS WANTED

"Coming from Tallahassee, Mobile is not too far away," Solomon said in an interview session with Mobile-area reporters at Senior Bowl headquarters. "So it's something that I always heard of as a kid and growing up. I know that it was probably one of the biggest opportunities that anybody can get just from a college standpoint. Playing in this game is a huge opportunity for me. I understand how much it means to me and people that even that are not here, that would love to be here. I'm grateful for the opportunity and I plan to go out there give it my best every day."

Solomon's 16 sacks in 2023 were a Division I-era record at Troy, as were his 33 career sacks. That career mark was 3.5 better than Jibunor's 29.5, and also eclipsed the previous record total of 27.5 set by future Pro Football Hall of Famer DeMarcus Ware from 2001-04.

Solomon's 16 sacks broke the previous Troy Division I record of 15 set by another future NFL standout, Osi Umenyiora, in 2002. Solomon's four sacks vs. Louisiana-Monroe on Nov. 11 also tied another school record held by Umenyiora.

Solomon said of Ware. "He's a guy that knew what it takes to be successful. You can also tell he's a great person by how he treats his family. Him and Osi Umenyiora, they were great players in the league and are great people. I try to mimic the way they go about things. So hopefully I get that status one day." # IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD "FELL IN LOVE WITH THE POSITION"

"Baseball was my favorite sport growing up because that is what my brother played, and I was interested in collecting baseball cards and balls," Toohill told BVM Sports in 2021.

He eventually turned all of his attention to flag football. "My parents didn't want me to play Pop Warner until I was a little bit older, which I thought was a smart decision," Toohill said.

But when he entered the 8th grade, and his interest continued to deepen, his parents eventually allowed him to play Pop Warner. Because of his quickness and 5-foot-8 stature, his Pop Warner coaches played him as a running back. However, his position changed when Toohill began high school at Cathedral Catholic in San Diego. During his first two years, Toohill had a massive growth spurt in which he sprouted to 6-foot-1 and was eventually called up to be an outside linebacker.

"I fell in love with the position," Toohill said. (Garrett Whitton, BVM Sports, July 8, 2021)

CYRO

It's easy now to view O'Cyrus Torrence and his 6-5, 330 pound frame as being larger than life--but perhaps by a mother's intuition, Torrence's mom Demetrice, always knew he'd be an imposing figure. According to The Advocate, for as long as can be remembered she referred to O'Cyrus as 'Cyborg.' That nickname quickly gained traction and still sticks with him today, but has been shortened to just 'Cybo'. "Cybo has been with me since I was a kid; my mom used to call me 'Cyborg' from the Teen Titans because I was a big kid," Torrence told The Buffalo News at the Senior Bowl, referring to the popular Cartoon Network series. "It kind of stuck. My brothers cut it to Cybo."

PUUUURRRRFECT FIT

Despite making it to the NFL, Torrence is not someone who is about to forget about the things that are important to him, including: his cat. Arriving in Buffalo the day after being drafted by the Bills, Torrence was sporting a custom suit with photos of his cat, Cece, sewn into the lining. Torrence explained the design choice, "With the cat on the inside, I just sent the guy who made it like three different pictures of my cat. He made it all pretty: put it on the inside of the jacket and inside of the vest. It came out really good."

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD "HE WENT TO BED WITH A FOOTBALL"

In 1984, Steve Ulofoshio immigrated from a war-torn Nigeria to Alaska to build a better life. He earned an accounting degree from the University of Alaska-Anchorage while driving a taxi to pay tuition. Eventually, he launched "Consumer Care Network" — a company that provides in-home care for the elderly and people with disabilities — while establishing a successful real estate business as well.

And, after following her husband to Alaska, Joyce Ulofoshio earned a PhD in psychology — all while raising five boys and instilling an unwavering work ethic.

"We just put one foot in front of the other," Joyce said.
"Coming somewhere where you are looking for a better opportunity, it minimizes the struggles. You have to endure the hard work. You don't see that as struggles, because you know where you're coming from and appreciate the opportunity to make something better for yourself and your kids."

Speaking of, Steve and Joyce's second-oldest son had a speech impediment. And, to quote his kindergarten teacher, he was also afflicted with "ants in his pants." So, to sap his seemingly boundless energy they enrolled him in a local football league.

"I did not know what the journey would look like, but I knew he had a lot of passion. He had a lot of dreams," Joyce Ulofoshio said. "He went to bed with a football in his hand, so you could tell it was just everything to him. (Mike Vorel, Seattle Times, September 2, 2021)

PIVOTAL MOMENT

As a freshman in high school, Valdes-Scantling experienced something most NFL players do not. He was cut.

"I was devastated. I remember sitting against a wall in the hallway of my house crying. But my father and I talked it through," he recalled. "I dedicated myself to learning the art of playing wide receiver."

MVS contacted his coach, Rod Williams, to do just that and it blossomed from there. Williams is now the coach at Clearwater (FL) Central Catholic and MVS is the first one always ready to help him or his student athletes over the years. "You have to believe in yourself first" is a message he has delivered countless times.

"POWERHOUSE" IN VOLLEYBALL

Van Demark was a big part of the 2016 Wayne Valley State Championship volleyball team. Volleyball coach Jason Carcich called him "a dominant force" and a "powerhouse" on the court, saying he could jump and had "a huge reach." But in his sophomore year, when he first started playing volleyball, he was again described as a project. With the right effort and the right attitude, the kid could become a special athlete. "I'm not even a little surprise that he's having the success he's having right now," said Carcich. "He had a desire to get better, and he put in the time and effort to get better, even back then." (Jon Meredith, TAPintoWayne.net, May 8, 2022)

UNIQUE FIRST JOB

When Van Demark is asked what his first job was growing up, he has no recollection of it. In fact, it is because he worked as a baby model for Ralph Lauren, Polo, Toys"R"Us, among other brands. "My mom hired an agent for me and she said all the money went into a college fund."

HONORING THOSE NO LONGER HERE

Early morning of Jan. 15, Bulldog offensive lineman Devin Willock and recruiting staffer Chandler LeCroy were killed in a high-speed crash...Willock remains with Van Pran-Granger still today in different ways. He wore his No. 77 jersey for the Florida and Ball State games, a tribute that Georgia offensive lineman are doing to honor Willock's memory for each game this season.

Van Pran-Granger also has worn a necklace with Willock's initials against an outline of the state of New Jersey. He said he bought it from the jeweler Jacob Mark in his hometown of New Orleans.

Van Pran-Granger was one of two Georgia players who spoke at a celebration of life for Willock in Engelwood, N.J. on Jan. 27. "I think it's something I still live with knowing that Devin isn't here," Van Pran Granger said. "It's tough. It's honestly tough. That was a guy, we used to go and get food together and do different things like that. That was a guy that I came in with."

(Athens Banner-Herald, Marc Weiszer, November 8, 2023)

QUITE THE ARTIST

When Van Pran was in kindergarten or first grade, he said he picked up a pair of playing cards with a picture of a clown on it. He decided to sketch what he saw. He said his father, Sedrick Granger, called for his mother, Keon Van Pran-Wiltz, to come and watch. "He's showing her the card saying, 'This is amazing," Van Pran-Granger said. He said his parents had him tested for "talented art," in about the third grade and he began taking visual art classes.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME

While some play for the things that football brings Dorian is quite the opposite he plays simply because he loves the game and is living out his childhood dream.

"Dorian has never not had a smile on his face. He always makes me smile because he's having a good time out there. You love to coach guys that love to play the game because they are playing for the right reason and not anything external." -- Tulane Linebackers Coach Michael Mutz told si.com.

There are zero questions in regards to effort. Williams hustles on every and is typically one of the first players to the football.

Which showed as Dorian had a productive senior season with the Green Wave, totaling 131 tackles, 8.5 TFLs, two interceptions and two forced fumbles. Williams also blitzed well tallying 22 pressures and five sacks. In all he finished with 316 tackles, 27 for a loss, 9.5 sacks, and 14 passes defended.

BILLS MAFIA

Dorian had his first run in with Bills Mafia when he was a junior in 2021. Before the Bills played the New Orleans Saints, Dorian was out with his family when some fans were talking to him and recognized he was a linebacker at Tulane and they told him in a couple years he was going to get drafted and then later payed for his meal.

"You always hear about Bills Mafia and see all the stuff on social media but for it happen like that, these guys are for real. For me to get drafted here is a full circle moment, and I am just excited to be apart of the organization with the best fan base."
