TICKETS TO BROADWAY

During the offseason, Martin gifted his parents to tickets for the hit Broadway show "The Music Man". The show was set to take place on Mother's Day, but a schedule conflict ended up preventing Martin's parents from attending. With two $600 tickets freed up just days before the show, Martin decided to use the tickets to make someone else's Mother's Day. "So rather than resell them with it being on Mother's Day, we thought this is a perfect opportunity to help another family to go," Martin told 9News. "If not, the tickets would have gone to waste. It was more so my mom and dad's idea. Really my mom said, 'How 'bout for Mother's Day, your gift to me is to donate them.'"

Through his agency, Athlete's First, Martin connected with a single mother and daughter that he gifted the tickets to. "We got in touch with the daughter and she said it was something her mother really needed and could use right now," Martin said. "It had been a while since they've been able to do anything really, anything fun. It wound up being kind of a perfect little storm."
