WEEK 1

Denver Broncos 10, Kansas City Chiefs 31

73,543 Arrowhead Stadium Sep 14, 2026

31

Denver Broncos	7	0	3	0	— 10
Kansas City Chiefs	7	7	10	7	— 31

The Broncos started the 2026 campaign in a tough road environment, facing the Kansas City Chiefs on Monday Night Football.
QB Bo Nix returned to the lineup after missing the AFC Championship game the previous season with an ankle injury while new offensive coordinator Davis Webb got his first shot calling plays in the regular season.
TE Evan Engram finished the contest with leading the team with four receptions for 43 yards (10.8 avg.) with one touchdown.
K Wil Lutz notched his name in the history books as well as he knocked home his 100th consecutive PAT, becoming just the third kicker since the NFL moved the extra point back in 2015 to reach that mark.
The game got off to a shakey start after Nix threw an interception on the third play of the contest, which would eventually set up a 15-yard touchdown run by Kansas City to take the 7-0 lead.
The Broncos would respond right back though, as Nix led a seven-play, 68-yard drive and completing all five pass attempts for 55 yards and ended with the 19-yard pass to Engram for the game-tying touchdown.
The game would become a defensive clinic the rest of the half, as both teams struggled to find footing until the Chiefs would open up the scoring again in the second quarter with a 13-yard touchdown pass.
Coming back from halftime, Kansas City would again find the end zone after a 60-yard run on their first drive after the break would make the score 21-7.
An interception by S Brandon Jones on the Chiefs next possession would help set the Broncos up at Kansas City's five-yard line, but the Denver offense would stall and have to settle for a field goal.
The Chiefs would settle in though after that, as a 28-yard field goal by Kansas City on their next drive then another touchdown in the fourth quarter would ice the game for the home team with the final score being 31-10.

Jacksonville Jaguars	0	10	3	0	— 13
Denver Broncos	0	3	3	14	— 20

The Denver Broncos notched their first win of the season in their home opener against the Jacksonville Jaguars in Week 2 by the score of 20-13.
WR Jaylen Waddle had his breakout performance with the Broncos in his first game in front of Broncos Country, finishing with eight receptions for 138 yards (17.3 avg.). His 138 yards were the second most by a Bronco in his home debut while his eight receptions were tied for second most.
QB Bo Nix also recorded a solid performance, completing 22-of-31 passes (71.0%) for 288 yards with one touchdown and one interception (97.2 rtg.). He also notched his ninth fourth-quarter comeback in the game and 11th game-winning drive, both marks leading the NFL since 2024.
DT Malcolm Roach and OLB Que Robinson also produced their first sacks of the season while CB Riley Moss registered his first interception of 2026. Moss also tallied three passes defensed on the day, marking his third career game with as many pass breakups.
Jacksonville took control of the game early on, as it would go 72 yards on eight plays to reach the end zone and take a 7-0 lead.
The Broncos would answer right back on their next possession, as Nix helped lead a drive 58 yards and set up a K Wil Lutz 20-yard field goal to make it a 7-3 score early in the second quarter.
The Jaguars would respond two drives later though, as an interception right before the two-minute warning would help Jacksonville go down the field for a 44-yard field goal to make it 10-3 as time expired before half.
Jacksonville added to their lead coming out of the break, but Denver would limit the damage as the Jaguars had the ball first-and-goal at the three-yard line but would have to settle for a field goal to make it 13-3.
The Broncos would again answer back with a field goal of their own from 45 yards out before the tides turned with Moss' interception on third down at the 36-yard line.
Nix would then lead Denver 64 yards down the field to tie the game after finding TE Nate Adkins for the seven-yard touchdown pass.
After a missed field goal by Jacksonville on the ensuing drive, the Broncos would take the lead after a three-yard rush from rookie RB Jonah Coleman, his first touchdown of his career, to make the score 20-13.
The Broncos would ice the game after getting the ball with just over 4:30 left, running the clock down to get their first win of 2026.

Los Angeles Rams	7	9	0	10	— 26
Denver Broncos	0	0	16	14	— 30

The Denver Broncos won their 10th consecutive non-conference game in Week 3 on Sunday Night Football after defeating the Los Angeles Rams 30-26.
S Talanoa Hufanga had a banner day, marking his first career multi-interception game and also recording his first pick-six as a Bronco. Hufanga also finished the game with one sack and five tackles, becoming the first player in team history to record at least one sack, one interception return TD and multiple picks in a single game.
As a defense, the Broncos brought the pressure and notched four sacks while limiting the explosive Rams offense to just 10 points in the second half.
QB Bo Nix recorded his first multi-touchdown game of the season, throwing for 17-of-34 for 186 yards with two touchdowns and one interception (73.9 rtg.) while also rushing for the game-winning score.
The Rams dominated the early part of the game, with their offense clicking and defense preventing Denver from getting on the board in the first half.
After punts by both team on their first possessions of the game, the Rams were able to find the end zone with an 11-play, 63-yard drive to take the 7-0 lead in the first quarter.
Denver responded with a longer drive of their own but ended after a missed field goal from 43 yards out to keep it a seven-point game. The Rams would then get field goals on their next three possessions to extent their lead to 16-0 as time in the first half ran out.
Both teams come out of the half with three-and-outs, but then the Broncos started to up the pressure as they would go 42 yards on 12 plays with Nix finding WR Pat Bryant in the end zone for the score. Denver would then go for two, converting on the opportunity when Nix found WR Jaylen Waddle in the back of the end zone to make it 16-8.
After another Los Angeles punt, Denver would tie the game after Nix found TE Nate Adkins for the eight-yard score and converted on the two-point conversion. Adkins became the first Broncos undrafted tight end in team history to record receiving touchdowns in back-to-back games.
On the Broncos' next drive, Nix would throw an interception to set up another Rams field goal to make it 19-16, but Los Angeles would lose the lead on their next drive as Hufanga would return an interception 66 yards for his second career pick-six and first as a Bronco.
Los Angeles would not back down though, as they would reach the end zone for the second time on their next possession to make it a 26-23 game with a little over three minutes remaining.
Denver would re-take the lead for good on their next drive, as Nix would help lead a 10-play, 65-yard drive and end it with a one-yard rushing touchdown to take the 30-26 advantage.
Hufanga would end the game with his second pick of the night as time expired, getting the Broncos to over .500 for the first time of the season.

WEEK 4

Denver Broncos 14, San Francisco 49ers 24

70,776 | Levi's Stadium | Oct 4, 2026

24

Denver Broncos	3	0	0	11	14
San Francisco 49ers	0	3	7	14	24

The Denver Broncos fell on the road for the second time this season as they started their two-game Californian road trip, losing to the San Francisco 49ers by the score of 24-14.
WR Jaylen Waddle scored his first touchdown as a Bronco in the game while also racking up five catches for 35 yards (7.0 avg.). RB RJ Harvey also caught 10 passes for 68 yards in the game (6.8 avg.), marking the first time a Broncos running back reached double-digit receptions in a game since Javonte Williams in 2022.
Defensively, the Broncos held the 49ers to just three points in the first half while holding San Francisco's high-powered offense to under 200 total passing yards in the game.
DL Zach Allen also blocked a field goal as time expired in the first half, marking the Broncos' first field goal block since the 2023 season. He would also finish the game with the most quarterback hits among players on either team with three.
Denver would get on the board first, as after both teams traded punts on their first possessions of the game, the Broncos would travel 55 yards on 13 plays to set up a K Wil Lutz 52-yard field goal to make it 3-0.
It would become a defensive struggle for the remainder of the half, as both teams would trade punts until the 49ers broke through in the second frame with a 74-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard field goal to tie the game at 3-3.
After another punt by the Broncos, the 49ers threatened to take the lead going into the break, but Allen's block as time expired sealed the tie going into halftime.
The defensive struggle continued into the second half as both teams were unable to gain any momentum early on, but a fumbled punt by WR Marvin Mims set San Francisco up on Denver's 28-yard line and led to the first touchdown of the game, making it 10-3.
Denver would respond, as they would travel down the field 63 yards on their next possession for a 40-yard field goal by Lutz to make it 10-6.
The 49ers would get it back quick though as they would make it 17-6 on their next drive with another touchdown.
QB Bo Nix would find Waddle on the next Broncos possession and then a direct snap to RB Tyler Badie would get Denver the two-point conversion to make it 17-14.
The 49ers would seal the game though as a five-play drive ended with another touchdown to make it 24-14. A missed 58-yard field goal by Denver would end the contest and the Broncos' 10-game non-conference winning streak.

WEEK 5

Denver Broncos 23, Los Angeles Chargers 17

69,293 | SoFi Stadium | Oct 11, 2026

23 — 17

Denver Broncos	7	3	0	13	23
Los Angeles Chargers	0	3	14	0	17

The Denver Broncos got back in the win column and also notched their first divisional win of the season after defeating the Los Angeles Chargers 23-17 in Week 5.
The Broncos defense showed out in a big way in the win, sacking the Chargers five times while also forcing three turnovers. It marked the first regular-season game in which Denver forced three takeaways and also recorded five sacks since 2019.
S Brandon Jones led the day with two takeaways, recovering a fumble that led to the first score of the day while also intercepting a pass that led to a field goal to help ice the game.
OLB Nik Bonitto also had a banner day, with a team-high three tackles for loss while also notching two sacks. With that performance, he became just the seventh player in team history to reach the 40 sack mark.
WR Courtland Sutton notched his first touchdown of the season while RB J.K. Dobbins also recorded his first rushing score of 2026.
Denver got on the board first, as S Talanoa Hufanga forced the fumble while Jones recovered it at the Chargers' 40-yard line. That set up a four-play drive that finished with Dobbin's two-yard rushing score to make it 7-0.
The game became a defensive slog for the rest of the first half, as both teams would continue to exchange punts. Both teams would manage to get a field goal each before the break as the score would be 10-3 at halftime.
The Chargers would open things up early in the second half as they would go 73 yards on their opening drive to tie the game up at 10-10, then a recovered fumble by QB Bo Nix would help set up another Chargers touchdown to make it 17-10 in the third quarter.
Denver's defense then finished strong, allowing just 19 net yards in the final quarter and helping the Broncos offense operate on short fields.
Forcing a turnover on downs, the Broncos capitalized and marched 41 yards down the field and tied the game when Nix found Sutton in the back of the end zone.
Denver then knocked in two field goals to make it 23-17 after a fumble and interception created short fields.
While the Chargers tried to get down the field for a last second pass, the defensive line created a final sack to clinch the game and give Denver its first divisional win of the season.

Seattle Seahawks 14, Denver Broncos 17 (OT)

Seattle Seahawks	3	0	0	11	0	—	14
Denver Broncos	0	14	0	0	3	—	17

The Denver Broncos picked up their third home win of the season after defeating the Seattle Seahawks 17-14 in overtime at Empower Field at Mile High.
K Wil Lutz delivered the game-winner, connecting on a 53-yard field goal with 4:53 remaining in overtime to seal the victory. Lutz finished the night perfect on his opportunities, converting the game-winning field goal and both of his extra-point attempts.
Denver's defense played a key role in the win, recording five sacks, two interceptions and nine passes defensed while holding Seattle to just one touchdown. CB Kris Abrams-Draine and CB Ja'Quan McMillian each recorded interceptions, with McMillian's coming in overtime to set up Denver's game-winning possession.
ILB Alex Singleton led the Broncos with 13 tackles (4 solo), while McMillian finished with five tackles, one sack, one interception and two passes defensed. OLB Que Robinson and OLB Jonah Elliss each added a sack, while DL Zach Allen, OLB Nik Bonitto, ILB Justin Strnad and DT Malcolm Roach contributed to Denver's five-sack effort.
Offensively, RB J.K. Dobbins and RB RJ Harvey accounted for both of Denver's touchdowns on the ground. Dobbins finished with 41 rushing yards on 17 carries, while Harvey recorded 25 yards on six attempts and added three receptions for 31 yards.
Seattle opened the scoring midway through the first quarter with a 55-yard field goal, but Denver responded with a 16-play, 74-yard drive that carried into the second quarter. QB Bo Nix helped move the Broncos down to the Seattle four-yard line before Dobbins punched it in for the touchdown to give Denver a 7-3 advantage.
The Broncos extended their lead later in the second quarter after traveling 79 yards on nine plays. Harvey capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown out of a direct snap, giving Denver a 14-3 lead with 5:15 remaining in the first half.
Denver's defense helped keep the 11-point advantage before halftime when Bonitto forced a fumble from WR Rashid Shaheed that was recovered by Strnad at the Denver 34-yard line. The Broncos entered halftime leading 14-3.
After neither team scored in the third quarter, Seattle began its comeback in the fourth. The Seahawks went 67 yards on 11 plays before RB George Holani scored on a one-yard run and a successful two-point conversion cut Denver's lead to 14-11 with 5:41 remaining.
Abrams-Draine provided a key turnover on Seattle's possession, intercepting QB Sam Darnold with 1:31 remaining. The Seahawks got the ball back however, and drove 38 yards in 54 seconds to set up a 34-yard field goal that tied the game at 14-14 with three seconds remaining to force overtime.
Seattle received the ball to begin overtime, but McMillian intercepted Darnold at the Seattle 43-yard line to give Denver an opportunity to win the game. The Broncos moved eight yards before Lutz connected on the 53-yard field goal to seal the 17-14 overtime victory.

The Denver Broncos moved to 5-2 in Week 7, defeating the Arizona Cardinals 30-16 on the road at State Farm Stadium.

Denver totaled 377 yards of offense and scored 24 points over the final three quarters to get the victory.

QB Bo Nix made an impact, completing 15-of-29 passes for 222 yards with one touchdown (88.6 rtg.) while adding a team-high 73 rushing yards and one touchdown on seven carries. Nix's 62-yard touchdown run was the longest by a quarterback in team history and he became just the fifth player in NFL history to record a 50+ yard passing and rushing touchdown in a game.

RB RJ Harvey provided several explosive plays for the offense, catching two passes for 54 yards (27.0 avg.), including a 52-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter. WR Marvin Mims Jr. added two receptions for 53 yards, including a 47-yard catch that helped set up a touchdown, while WR Jaylen Waddle led the Broncos with four receptions for 48 yards.

Denver also found success on the ground, finishing with 159 rushing yards and two touchdowns while averaging 6.1 yards per carry. RB Jonah Coleman recorded 54 yards on nine attempts (6.0 avg.), while RB J.K. Dobbins added 23 yards and one touchdown on six carries.

Defensively, the Broncos held Arizona to just one touchdown on five trips inside the redzone while recording three sacks and nine passes defensed. ILB Alex Singleton led the way with 19 tackles (12 solo), one sack and two quarterback hits, while DT Malcolm Roach and DE Sai'vion Jones also recorded sacks.

Denver opened the scoring on its first possession of the game, driving 29 yards before K Wil Lutz connected on a 48-yard field goal. After forcing another Arizona punt, the Broncos added a 43-yard field goal later in the opening quarter to take a 6-0 advantage.

The Cardinals responded with field goals on each of their next two possessions, including a 14-play, 65-yard drive that tied the game at 6-6 with 4:30 remaining in the first half. Denver quickly answered, as Nix broke free for a 62-yard touchdown run on the second play of the following possession to give the Broncos a 13-6 lead heading into halftime.

Denver extended its lead midway through the third quarter when Nix found Harvey for a 52-yard touchdown pass, finishing a three-play, 62-yard drive to make it 20-6. Arizona answered with its only touchdown of the game on the next possession, cutting Denver's advantage to 20-13.

The Broncos responded right back, going 76 yards on six plays before Dobbins took it in from one yard out on the final play of the third quarter. Mims provided the biggest play of the drive with a 47-yard reception that moved Denver to the Arizona six-yard line, helping the Broncos take a 27-13 lead entering the final frame.

Lutz added his third field goal of the afternoon early in the fourth quarter, connecting from 31 yards out following a 10-play, 53-yard drive to extend Denver's lead to 30-13. Arizona answered with a 41-yard field goal to make it 30-16, but the Broncos' defense kept the Cardinals out of the endzone on their final possession, turning them over on downs at the Denver five-yard line to seal the 30-16 victory.
