OWNERSHIP & ADMINISTRATION

BRYAN GLAZER
OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer enters his 32nd year with the Buccaneers, working tirelessly to support the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the club and has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League. Over the three decades, he has also evolved into one of Tampa Bay's top community leaders through his dedicated commitment to a variety of philanthropic endeavors.

The Glazer family's signing of six-time Super Bowl champion Tom Brady, along with the acquisition of other high-profile free agents during the 2020 offseason, set the stage for the franchise's historic run to its second world championship. The Buccaneers finished the regular season with an 11-5 record and posted a franchise-record eight-game winning streak which culminated with an appearance and eventual victory in Super Bowl LV.

On February 7, 2020, the Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 31-9 at Raymond James Stadium, earning the distinction as the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. Under the Glazer family's leadership, the Buccaneers have totaled eight division titles, two conference championships, and are 1-of-16 NFL franchises to win multiple Super Bowls. In the time since the family's purchase of the team in 1995, only four other ownership groups have claimed multiple Super Bowl victories. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the team advanced to the postseason just three times from 1976-94.

On January 26, 2003, in just their eighth year of ownership, the Glazer family was on hand in San Diego, California for the franchise's first world championship as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. In addition to the 1999 NFC Central Division title, Tampa Bay has also won the NFC South in 2005, 2007, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

His dedication to the Bay area was also highlighted by his leadership in the construction of Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in 2001, Super Bowl XLIII in 2009, and Super Bowl LV in 2020. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to Tampa Bay, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. During the 2017 offseason, Glazer once again played a major part in positioning Tampa Bay as the top option to host Super Bowl LV in 2021, when it was decided that Los Angeles would not be able to meet the criteria for hosting the game due to stadium construction delays. Tampa Bay has hosted three Super Bowls since the family's purchase of the team and Glazer remains committed to pursuing future Super Bowls for the area. Glazer also serves on the NFL's Media Owned and Operated Committee, and in August of 2024, he joined the Board of Directors for the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Prior to the 2022 season, Glazer played a pivotal role in the decision to name Todd Bowles as the team's new head coach following the retirement of Bruce Arians. Bowles went on to lead the Buccaneers to three consecutive NFC South division titles in his first three seasons as head coach, becoming the first head coach in franchise history to accomplish that feat.

In 2025, Glazer led a comprehensive 50th season campaign that celebrated the franchise's legacy while connecting generations of fans and alumni. The season-long initiative featured the 10-part docuseries Raise the Flags on Amazon Prime Video, along with merchandise and uniform launches, extensive community activations and events, and a full-day celebration during the team's home opener.

Glazer's innovative approach to business and penchant for thinking outside the box has resulted in many new developments for the club, including the creation of the Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' corporate partners with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

Glazer has also distinguished himself as one of Tampa Bay's top philanthropists and, in the spring of 2016, was honored with induction into the Tampa Bay Business Hall of Fame in recognition of his business achievements and community leadership in and around the region.

In 2010, the Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa thanks in large part to a $5 million donation from the Glazer Family Foundation. Glazer is on the Board of Directors for the award-winning museum which has served the children of Tampa Bay through educational programming. Glazer is also a member of the Moffitt Cancer Center National Board of Advisors and has served as chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball.

He also serves as a Board Member for the Glazer Vision Foundation which has performed more than 200,000 free eye screenings and provided more than 20,000 free prescription eyeglasses to children in need.

Glazer has also played a large role in the redevelopment of West Tampa through a $4 million donation that led to the construction of the Shanna and Bryan Glazer JCC. The Center, which opened in December of 2016, has provided a wide array of community programming and serves as a key anchor for the area.

The Glazer family has also offered support and resources during challenging times in the Tampa Bay region. In the days following Hurricane Helene in September of 2024, the Glazer family donated $1 million to support local relief efforts. After the area suffered additional devastation from the effects of Hurricane Milton just two weeks later, the family created the Glazer Family Small Business Fund which, to date, has made an additional $1.6 million available to hundreds of small businesses in the Tampa Bay and West Central Florida areas. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Glazer family provided 5 million meals through a donation to Feeding Tampa Bay, which was the largest single donation of meals to the program at the time. The family also pledged $100,000 to the One Tampa: Relief Now, Rise Together Fund and another $100,000 to the City of St. Petersburgh's Fighting Chance Fund.

In 2024, Shanna and Bryan Glazer donated $2 million to Berkeley Preparatory School's endowment for teachers in an effort to ensure the adequate compensation necessary to attract and retain high-quality teachers who foster a more effective learning environment.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title during his tenure.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989. He resides in Tampa with his wife, Shanna, and their two children.

JOEL GLAZER
OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Owner/Co-Chairman Joel Glazer is entering his 32nd season overseeing the day-to-day operations of the franchise, along with other members of the Glazer family.

After working alongside his father Malcolm to successfully acquire the Tampa Bay Buccaneers franchise in 1995, Glazer worked tirelessly in conjunction with his brother, Bryan, to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. The Glazers set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort.

Since assuming his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have made 12 playoff appearances, including a stretch from 1999-2002 in which Tampa Bay was the only team in the league to appear in the postseason all four years. Under the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers have won eight division titles, two NFC Championships and two Super Bowls.

Prior to the 2020 season, Glazer helped engineer the boldest free agent signing in franchise history with the acquisition of six-time Super Bowl champion quarterback Tom Brady. The signing, along with the addition of a number of other key players, immediately transformed the Buccaneers into title contenders and set the stage for the team's historic victory in Super Bowl LV. When the Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 31-9 on February 7, 2021, at Raymond James Stadium, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team had won a Super Bowl on its home field. Previous to that, the franchise's other signature historical moment occurred at the conclusion of the 2002 season when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took the NFC South in 2005, 2007, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

On January 8, 2019, the Glazer family hired two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Bruce Arians as the team's head coach. During three memorable seasons at the helm in Tampa Bay, Arians finished his time with the Buccaneers as the franchise leader in winning percentage (.633) by a head coach, surpassing Tony Dungy. After Arians transitioned into a front office role, Glazer was then part of the decision-making process that elevated Todd Bowles from defensive coordinator to head coach ahead of the 2022 NFL season. In each of Bowles' first three seasons at the helm, the Buccaneers captured the NFC South title.

Beyond his responsibilities with the Buccaneers, Glazer remains highly active in league affairs and represents the franchise at NFL meetings. He currently serves as Chairman of the NFL International Committee and is also a member of the Finance Committee, Media Committee, NFL Management Council Executive Committee, and Legalized Sports Betting Committee. Glazer additionally played an instrumental role in Tampa's successful bids to host Super Bowl XXXV in 2001, Super Bowl XLIII in 2009 and Super Bowl LV in 2021.

Over their more than three decades of ownership, the Glazer family has maintained a deep commitment to the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which focuses on improving opportunities and resources for the underserved across the region. The Foundation has left an indelible impact on the Tampa Bay area through lead gifts that have supported the construction of the Glazer Children's Museum in downtown Tampa in 2010 and the Glazer Family Playground at the St. Petersburg Pier in 2020. In February of 2026, the Foundation's multimillion-dollar donation to the AdventHealth Tampa Foundation resulted in the naming of the Glazer Center for Medical Education, which provides critical training resources for AdventHealth's graduate medical education programs. In recognition of its far-reaching philanthropic impact, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation its Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soirée in 2011.

During times of crisis, the Glazer family has also regularly stepped up to assist the Tampa Bay community. At the outset of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Glazer family provided five million meals through a donation to Feeding Tampa Bay. In 2024, they donated a total of $2 million for local hurricane relief efforts and created the Glazer Family Small Business Fund, which provided financial grants to hundreds of local businesses in the Tampa Bay and West Central Florida areas.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), one Champions League title (2008), five League Cups (2006, 2009, 2010, 2017 and 2023), two FA Cups (2016, 2024), and one Europa League Championship (2017) during his tenure. His work with the club led to his naming as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by The Telegraph.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York, native is married to Angela, and the couple has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER
OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Entering his 32nd season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026, Owner and Co-Chairman Edward Glazer plays an active role in the organization's strategic direction and day-to-day business operations. Glazer has been instrumental in shaping the organization's fan-first philosophy and has led numerous initiatives that have significantly enhanced the Buccaneers' brand, fan experience and business operations.

Glazer is known throughout the organization for his relentless focus on the fan experience. Working closely with team leadership, he is actively involved in evaluating and enhancing every aspect of game day, from membership programs and premium hospitality experiences to stadium operations, fan events and special initiatives. That commitment has helped establish the Buccaneers as the NFL's benchmark for fan engagement, with the franchise earning a record 12 consecutive No. 1 rankings in overall customer satisfaction in the league's annual Voice of the Fan survey.

Glazer is also deeply committed to documenting, preserving and celebrating the Buccaneers' rich history, which dates to the franchise's inaugural season of 1976. In 2025, he spearheaded the club's season-long 50th Anniversary celebration, highlighted by the return of the team's original 1976 uniforms, a Legends Tailgate featuring more than 140 former Buccaneers players and staff members, and the production of an exclusive OPUS book chronicling the franchise's storied 50-year history.

As the driving force behind Raise the Flags: 50 Years of Buccaneers Football, Glazer conceived, developed and executive produced a 10-part documentary series chronicling the franchise's first five decades. Featuring more than 100 interviews and drawing from hundreds of hours of archival footage, the series premiered on Amazon Prime Video and NFL Network, earned an Emmy Award nomination, and has been widely recognized as the most comprehensive visual history ever produced by an NFL team.

Along with his siblings, Glazer played a pivotal role in the 2020 signing of legendary quarterback Tom Brady, one of the most impactful free-agent acquisitions in NFL history. That move, along with other key roster decisions, helped lead the franchise to victory in Super Bowl LV, making the Buccaneers the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl on its home field. The Glazer family has delivered two Super Bowl titles, two NFC Championships, eight division titles and 12 playoff appearances since acquiring the team.

Glazer also played a central role in the $160 million renovation of Raymond James Stadium, modernizing the facility with state-of-the-art video displays, premium seating clubs, a full-service sports bar and restaurant named Bar 76, and a flagship retail store. These enhancements transformed the venue into one of the NFL's premier game-day environments. During the Glazer family's ownership, Raymond James Stadium has hosted three Super Bowls, the College Football Playoff National Championship, numerous major international soccer matches, and hundreds of premier concerts and entertainment events. The Glazer family also constructed a state-of-the-art, climate-controlled indoor practice facility with seating for over 3,000 fans at the team's Advent Health Training Center headquarters.

Beyond football, Glazer and his family have made a lasting impact on the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation. Their philanthropic efforts include the Glazer Children's Museum, recognized as one of the leading children's museums in the country; the Glazer Family Playground at the St. Petersburg Pier; and the Glazer Center for Medical Education at AdventHealth Tampa, which provides advanced, hands-on training for future healthcare professionals.

The Foundation has also contributed millions of dollars to disaster relief and community recovery efforts throughout the region. Following the devastating hurricanes that impacted Florida in 2024, the family established the Glazer Family Small Business Fund, which continues to support hundreds of local businesses throughout Tampa Bay and West Central Florida. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the family also donated more than five million meals through Feeding Tampa Bay.

Through the Edward and Shari Glazer Charitable Trust, Ed and his wife, Shari, support a wide range of charitable, educational and humanitarian causes, with a focus on medical research, education, entrepreneurship and helping children and families in need. Among the organizations and initiatives supported by the Trust are the Elton John AIDS Foundation, Museum of Contemporary Art, Braille Institute, Crohn's & Colitis Foundation, Breast Cancer Research Foundation, Children's Hospital Los Angeles, National Pediatric Cancer Foundation, Nicklaus Children's Healthcare Foundation, the Arthritis Foundation, and Realize the Dream-an initiative dedicated to advancing the principles and vision of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

They also founded the B.F.F. Bear Program, which has donated more than 100,000 teddy bears to children receiving care in pediatric hospitals.

In 2026, Glazer was appointed by President Donald J. Trump to serve on the Board of Trustees of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. The Museum serves as the nation's official memorial to the Holocaust and is dedicated to advancing education, remembrance and the prevention of genocide worldwide.

Outside of the NFL, Glazer serves on the board of Manchester United, one of the world's most iconic and globally recognized sports organizations. He is also the founder and CEO of US Auto Trust, a luxury and exotic automotive retail group, and US Property Trust, a nationwide real estate investment and holdings company.

A proud graduate of Ithaca College, he and Shari supported the construction of the Edward and Shari Glazer Arena, a centerpiece of the college's athletics and events complex.

DARCIE GLAZER KASSEWITZ

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS OWNER / CHAIRMAN, TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS FOUNDATION / CHAIRMAN, GLAZER VISION FOUNDATION / CHAIRMAN, GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Darcie Glazer Kassewitz is a driving force behind the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' commitment to innovation, fan engagement and community impact. Overseeing the day-to-day operations of this work, she has helped establish the Buccaneers as nationally recognized leaders in expanding opportunities for women in football and creating pathways for coaches seeking to break into the NFL.

Empowering Women in Sports

Since 2015, Kassewitz has led efforts to deepen the Buccaneers' connection with their fans. She launched Women of Red, a program built around the fan experience for women that was described as "the tipping point for a genuine connection to fans," drawing thousands and providing access to players, alumni and executives.

In 2025, Kassewitz expanded the team's programming for women and girls with the creation off "She is Football," an annual campaign celebrating female fans and raising funds to keep girls in sports. The inaugural She Is Football Weekend sold out, drawing thousands to a women's career summit, girls flag football tournament, 5K run/walk, and a marketplace of female-owned businesses.

These initiatives are part of a broader portfolio designed to expand access, visibility and pathways for women and girls in football. The She is Football Career Summit and 5K together engage more than 5,000 participants annually in support of girls in sports, while the She is Football Market & Festival features over 175 vendors.

The Girls Flag Football Preseason Classic, the largest event of its kind in the country, welcomes more than 130 teams and 3,000 athletes each year, and year-round programs such as the City of Tampa Girls Flag Football League and flag football clinics have collectively reached more than 500,000 students since inception.

These efforts are further supported by the She is Football Scholarship – the first academic scholarship created by an NFL team for girls who play football – and league-leading initiatives, including the NFL's first Training Camp day dedicated to women and a Coach of the Week platform recognizing girls flag football coaches.

Creating Pathways for Coaches

In 2024, Kassewitz launched the Tampa Bay Buccaneers National Coaching Academy to create new entry points for coaches pursuing their first NFL opportunity. Held at the Buccaneers' AdventHealth Training Center, the program pairs an intensive curriculum with full participation in the team's rookie minicamp. From thousands of global applicants, 25 finalists received full scholarships; five advanced into training camp and preseason to work alongside the team's coaches and scouts.

Youth, Education and Community Impact

In times of crisis, the Glazers have been a steadfast supporter of the region. During the Covid-19 pandemic, the family provided 5 million meals through Feeding Tampa Bay – the largest such donation at the time – and gave millions toward relief following Hurricanes Helene and Milton.

Kassewitz spearheaded the Glazer Family Small Business Fund, a grant program that has provided $1.6 million to support more than 300 small businesses across Tampa Bay and West Central Florida. In 2018, she helped establish the Glazer Family Player Matching Fund to support Buccaneers players' charitable giving and the organizations they champion. In 2024, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation partnered with Hillsborough County Public Schools to install 135 shade covers and covered courts at every elementary school in the district. Through the Krewe Student Athletes program, more than 24,000 students have attended Buccaneers home games to celebrate their commitment and leadership.

Civic and Cultural Contributions

The Glazer family's commitment to children and families is reflected in two Tampa Bay landmarks: the Glazer Children's Museum – opened in 2010 and ranked among the top 10 museums in the country – and the Glazer Family Playground at the St. Petersburg Pier, a 26-acre waterfront destination that has drawn more than 2.5 million visitors a year since opening in 2020.

Health and Vision Care

As Chair of the Glazer Vision Foundation, Kassewitz has expanded access to eye care for underserved children. Its Mobile Vision Clinic has provided more than 200,000 free eye screenings and distributed over 25,000 pairs of prescription eyeglasses. In 2025, the Foundation opened "Let's See!", an interactive bilingual exhibit at the Glazer Children's Museum exploring the science of sight and the importance of vision health.

Through the Glazer Family Foundation, her work also extends to affordable housing, food insecurity and education equity. This includes a multi-million-dollar partnership with AdventHealth to improve healthcare across Tampa Bay, highlighted by the Glazer Center for Medical Education, a dedicated facility that trains resident physicians across multiple specialties and strengthens the region's long-term healthcare workforce.

Building the Franchise

Kassewitz has shaped many of the signature spaces enjoyed by Buccaneers fans and players. She led the interior design of the AdventHealth Training Center, featuring exhibits that tell the story of the franchise – among them "The Moment of Victory," an original sculpture commemorating the team's first championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. She was also instrumental in planning the Buccaneers' 100,000-square-foot indoor practice facility, which opened in 2018 with seating for more than 3,000 fans. Across nearly three decades of Glazer family stewardship, the Buccaneers have earned 12 playoff appearances, eight division titles, two NFC Championships and two Super Bowl titles (XXXVII in 2002 and LV in 2020).

Boards and Affiliations

Kassewitz serves on the NFL's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee and its Future of Football Committee, and on the Board of Trustees of the Women's Sports Foundation – founded by Billie Jean King in 1974, which has invested more than $100 million to expand opportunities for girls and women in sports. She has served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation and sits on the board of Manchester United, which under Glazer family ownership has won five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013) and qualified for the Champions League 16 times, including winning the title in 2008.

Kassewitz graduated cum laude from American University in 1990 with a Bachelor of Science in psychology and earned her Juris Doctor from Suffolk University Law School in 1993. She and her husband, Joel, reside in Tampa.

OWNER

REMEMBERING MALCOLM GLAZER

AS OWNER OF THE BUCCANEERS, HE REINVENTED A FRANCHISE AND REINVIGORATED A COMMUNITY.

The path that brought Malcolm Glazer to purchase the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995 originated in his father's watch-parts business in Rochester, N.Y., where the younger Glazer started working when he was 15. It is no surprise then, that upon taking over the Buccaneers, he wanted to know exactly what made the organization tick.

Malcolm Glazer passed away on May 28, 2014 at the age of 85. During his nearly two decades as owner and president of the Buccaneers, virtually every facet of the team was closely examined and, where necessary, rebuilt. The result was a stunning turnaround for what had been one of the NFL's long-struggling franchises.

Glazer inherited a team with a .300 winning percentage during its first 19 years of existence, one with just two division titles, a single playoff win and, of course, no championship trophies. In just two years, with a new coach on the sideline and bold new uniforms on the players, a 16-year playoff drought was over. The team would move into a gorgeous new stadium the following year, and win a division title and advance to the conference championship game the year after that. By January 2003, Glazer was triumphantly holding the Lombardi Trophy over his head, grinning from ear to ear while surrounded by a team that had just defeated the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Positive changes continued without interruption. The Buccaneers moved into a new state-of-the-art training facility and headquarters in 2006, the most advanced NFL home in the league. They won three division titles in a seven-year span. In 1997, they started a string of consecutive game sellouts at Raymond James Stadium that would last a dozen years, an unprecedented run in franchise history. Glazer also landed Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa, the third and fourth to be played in the city. Through it all, community outreach and customer service became central organizational goals.

But Glazer's desire to understand the Buccaneers' inner gears – and have them work with maximum efficiency – went beyond new buildings and organizational charts. He was keenly interested in the people of the organization as well. He took great pleasure in greeting each player in the locker room with a handshake before and after games. He fostered a family atmosphere at team headquarters, according to a source no less credible than Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks. Brooks was one of many long-time Buccaneers who considered Mr. Glazer not just the team's owner but a personal friend.

"I'm proud to say – and I'm glad – that he's the only owner I ever played for," said Brooks, who was a first-round draft pick in 1995, the same year Glazer arrived.

Despite the team's decade-and-a-half of struggles, Glazer immediately realized that a passionate fan base existed. The area's obsession with the Buccaneers was ready to be rekindled if the team could show an unwavering commitment to winning.

Glazer and his family did exactly that, and they did it by being pioneers in the industry, creating innovative solutions for issues at all levels of the organization. They also did it by aggressively pursuing the right people to lead the team, and then providing them with the assets they needed to succeed.

And while Glazer restored the community's belief in its team, he also reached out to those who needed help within that community. This was of such importance to him that in 1999 he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has since donated millions and reached countless thousands in need. A new stadium and a striking new team facility now grace the region's skyline, but a third building in downtown Tampa is just as much a part of Malcolm Glazer's legacy: The Glazer Children's Museum, which opened its doors in 2010.

Malcolm Glazer left behind his wife, Linda, in addition to six children and 14 grandchildren. His children will continue to own and operate the franchise as they have throughout the family's ownership. They will do so by following the blueprint of a visionary man and a caring leader, a man who gave the franchise a new era of enormous success by caring about how the little details worked.

BRIAN FORD
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Brian A. Ford, Jr. enters his 20th year with the organization after joining the Buccaneers in 2006, and in his role, oversees all aspects of the organization's day-to-day business operations and community involvement. He works directly with team ownership to ensure that Buccaneers fans, season pass members and corporate sponsors receive a first-in-class experience. Under Ford's leadership, the Buccaneers have consistently earned top marks among NFL teams for customer service experience, ranking No. 1 in the league's annual Voice of the Fan report in 12 consecutive seasons dating back to 2013.

Ford took an active role in leading the organization's 50th season celebration, including the facilitation of a 10-part original docuseries Raise The Flags: 50 Years of Buccaneers Football that streams on Amazon Prime for which Ford was honored by being named the Executive Producer.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ford was part of the team that opened Raymond James Stadium as the district manager with Fine Host Corporation in 1998. He remained in that capacity until 2006, when he began his career with the Buccaneers.

Ford believes that one of the most important aspects of his role is supporting and advancing philanthropic initiatives within the community. He is an active participant throughout the Tampa Bay area, serving on the boards of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tampa Bay, the American Cancer Society CEOs Against Cancer – Florida Chapter, the National Pediatric Cancer Foundation, the Tampa Bay Area Chiefs of Police Foundation, the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, and the Dedman School of Hospitality Florida State University Director Council. In early 2026, he was appointed to the Florida State University Herbert Wertheim College of Business Board of Governors and to the board of The James Museum of Western & Wildlife Art.

In addition, he was also appointed as a member of the Board of Directors for the 2022 Special Olympics USA Games which was hosted in Orlando, Florida in June of 2022. Ford has also been a driving force and participant in the team's annual Cut and Color for a Cure event supporting cancer research. In 2026, the organization hosted its 12th annual event and surpassed the $1 million milestone in total funds raised for the National Pediatric Cancer Foundation since the initiative began.

He also created the 'Buccaneers Best Krewe' game ball program, a monthly initiative that recognizes individuals for their outstanding efforts in Hillsborough and Pasco counties, including members of CENTCOM, MacDill Police, Hillsborough County Public Schools, the Pasco County School District, the Tampa Police Department, the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office and the St. Petersburg Police Department. Honorees, nominated by their peers, receive custom game balls recognizing their individual accomplishment.

Ford is also active at MacDill Air Force Base and takes great pride in his role as a member of the Honorary Commander 927th Air Refueling Wing, which allows businessmen and women from the local community an opportunity for an up close and personal experience of the policies, programs and overall mission capability of the United States Air Force. He was named the Buccaneers Salute to Service Nominee in both 2024 and 2025 for his extensive work honoring service men and women over his nearly two decades in Tampa Bay. He was 1-of-32 honorees across the league each year to earn this recognition, which acknowledges the exceptional efforts by members of the NFL community to recognize and support U.S. service members, veterans and their families. Ford was also awarded the CENTCOM 'Iron Mike' award from U.S. Army General Michael "Erik" Kurilla – one of few civic leaders to receive the honor – and was granted a USSOCOM Medal from SOCOM Commander General Bryan Fenton for his outstanding support to the Special Operations Forces community.

The native of Miramar, Florida, graduated from Florida State University in 1989 with a B.S. in business administration. In 2018, Ford was named the Alumnus of the Year from Florida State's Dedman School of Hospitality. In August of 2025, Ford received the Cecil B. Day Ethics Award from the Dedman College, which is given each year to a highly successful industry leader in hospitality who is recognized for their ethical leadership. He is an avid runner and triathlete, who has run a marathon each of the past 22 years and completed the local classic St. Anthony Olympic triathlon every year since 2004, in addition to finishing several 70.3 Half Ironman events over that same period.

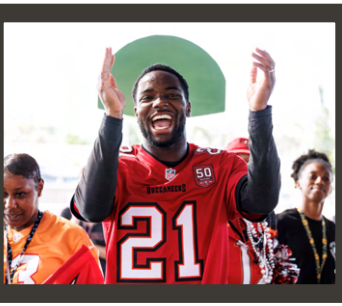

He married his middle school sweetheart, Judy, in 1989 and the couple lives in Tampa and has two sons, Brian III and Brandon. Judy is also a graduate of Florida State University's College of Education. Both sons also graduated from and earned their master's degrees at FSU. Brandon graduated from Law School in 2024 and followed in his father's footsteps, marrying his high school sweetheart, Elizabeth Moore in 2025.

JASON LICHT
GENERAL MANAGER

Jason Licht was named the fifth general manager in franchise history on January 21, 2014, and enters his 13th season at the helm, making him the fifth-longest tenured traditional general manager in the NFL. Licht owns more than two decades of scouting and player personnel experience with six organizations. In 30 NFL seasons, including one as a coach, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed 258 wins, 14 playoff appearances, 12 division championships, five conference championships and two Super Bowl titles.

Since Licht took over the general manager role in Tampa Bay in 2014, the Buccaneers lead the NFL in most snaps played (146,010) and most games started (2,106) by a team's own first through fifth round draft picks during that span, exhibiting his sustained success through the NFL Draft over his tenure. Since 2019, 39-of-43 (90.7%) of Licht's first through sixth round draft picks were on an NFL roster last season – the fifth-highest percentage of any NFL team during that span. Per Pro Football Reference approximate value metrics, Licht's selections have combined for the fourth-highest average approximate value (10.3) among all teams since 2020. During that same span, the team's 65 total wins are tied for the sixth-most in the league.

Licht utilized the 2026 offseason to solidify the roster with proven talent on both sides of the ball, adding linebacker Alex Anzalone, running back Kenneth Gainwell, special teams ace Miles Killebrew, outside linebacker Al-Quadin Muhammad and defensive lineman A'Shawn Robinson. Collectively that free agency group brings 483 games of NFL experience to Tampa Bay's roster entering the 2026 season. Licht and his team also re-signed tight end Cade Otton – one of the league's most durable and reliable players at the position. Since entering the league in 2022, Otton leads all tight ends in offensive snaps played (3,530) and ranks second in routes run (1,885) behind only Kansas City's Travis Kelce.

With their performances in 2025, Licht's top two picks from the 2020 NFL Draft – Tristan Wirfs and Antoine Winfield Jr. – each earned Pro Bowl selections. For Wirfs, it was his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl nod, tying him with Dallas Cowboys wide receiver CeeDee Lamb for the most among members of the 2020 class. Winfield's Pro Bowl bid was the second of his career, leaving Licht as 1-of-3 general managers to have selected two-or-more players with multiple Pro Bowl honors in the 2020 Draft alongside Eric DeCosta of the Baltimore Ravens and Jerry Jones of the Dallas Cowboys.

Tampa Bay's 2025 draft class was headlined by its first-round wide receiver, Emeka Egbuka, who earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month honors in his first month in the league and was later named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team – 1-of-13 All-Rookie selections throughout Licht's tenure. Egbuka finished his rookie campaign second among his class in receiving yards (938), second in yards after catch (335), tied for second in receiving touchdowns (six) and fourth in receptions (63). Across the entire league, Egbuka finished fifth in yards per reception (14.9 – min. 50 receptions) and tied for fifth in receptions of 20+ yards (20). Joining Egbuka on the 2025 PFWA All-Rookie team was third-round defensive back, Jacob Parrish, who became 1-of-5 defensive backs since 2010 to record 65+ tackles, multiple interceptions and multiple sacks in their debut season. Licht and the Buccaneers also received valuable contributions from fifth-round defensive lineman Elijah Roberts and seventh-round wide receiver Tez Johnson. Johnson was the 26th wide receiver selected in the 2025 NFL Draft but finished tied for fifth in receiving touchdowns (five) and led all rookie receivers in passer rating when targeted (123.5) among players with 35+ targets. Egbuka and Johnson became just the second set of drafted teammates since 2000 to each record 300+ receiving yards and five-or-more receiving touchdowns since 2000, joining Rob Gronkowski and Aaron Hernandez (2010 New England Patriots).

The 2025 offseason saw key re-signings from Licht and his staff in guard Ben Bredeson, linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Chris Godwin. With the re-signings of Bredeson and Godwin, Tampa Bay returned all 11 primary offensive starters from its 2024 roster. Bredeson – originally acquired by Licht as a free agent in 2024 – started all 17 games in his first season with the Buccaneers helping contribute to the NFL's third-ranked offense (399.6 total yards per game).

Following his extension during the 2024 offseason, Baker Mayfield became the first quarterback in franchise history with multiple Pro Bowl selections and he was accompanied in Orlando by a trio of former Licht draft picks in Mike Evans, Vita Vea and Tristan Wirfs. Wirfs also earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors, becoming the first player in league history to receive that distinction as both a right tackle and a left tackle. Evans surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the 11th consecutive season, matching Jerry Rice's record for the most consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in league annals.

Tampa Bay's 2024 draft class was one of Licht's most impactful from the start, producing four total starters: center Graham Barton, running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith. Barton became 1-of-3 rookie centers since 2000 to start 16+ games for a team that finished top five in rushing yards per game. Irving, a fourth-round pick, led the 2024 rookie class in yards from scrimmage (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight), earning a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie team – the 11th All-Rookie selection of Licht's tenure. Jalen McMillan tied for second among all rookies in receiving touchdowns (eight), which were highlighted a streak of five consecutive games with 50+ receiving yards and a receiving touchdown – the second-longest such streak in league history by a rookie, trailing only Randy Moss. Fellow third-round selection Tykee Smith was 1-of-4 players across the NFL in 2024 with three-plus forced fumbles, five-plus passes defensed and multiple interceptions, accompanied by a trio of Pro Bowl veterans.

In 2024, Licht locked in key 2023 free agent acquisition, quarterback Baker Mayfield, to a long-term contract extension following a season in which Mayfield was named to his first Pro Bowl and earned the PFWA Most Improved Player award. He was 1-of-2 players with 28+ passing touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions in 2023, leading the Buccaneers to an NFC South division title and a spot in the NFC Divisional Round. Mayfield joined Tom Brady as the only players in team history to throw for 4,000+ yards, 25+ touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions in a single season and capped off his first year with the Buccaneers by recording back-to-back postseason games with 300+ passing yards and three touchdowns. In addition to stabilizing the quarterback position, Licht re-signed franchise cornerstones linebacker Lavonte David, wide receiver Mike Evans and safety Antoine Winfield Jr., while bringing back fourth-round success story in safety Jordan Whitehead, who Licht originally drafted in 2018 and who became a starter on Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

With their performances during the 2023 season, Licht's 2014 and 2020 first-round draft picks – Evans and Wirfs – each earned Pro Bowl selections in 2023, in addition to 2020 second-round selection, Winfield Jr., earning AP first-team All-Pro accolades and Evans earning second-team All-Pro recognition. Evans notched his 10th consecutive season with 1,000 yards receiving and tied for the league lead in touchdown receptions (13). Winfield Jr. held a share of the league lead in both forced fumbles (six) and fumble recoveries (four), and became the first player since data became available in 1999 with 100+ tackles, three-plus interceptions, three-plus forced fumbles, three-plus fumble recoveries and 3.0+ sacks in a single season.

Throughout the 2023 offseason, Licht was tasked with navigating a complicated salary cap situation and finding a successor to Tom Brady following the quarterback's retirement, all while retooling a roster in search of its third consecutive NFC South division title. Through a series of extensions for inside linebacker Lavonte David, cornerback Jamel Dean and outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, plus value free agent signings in quarterback Baker Mayfield, running back Chase Edmonds, defensive lineman Greg Gaines and kicker Chase McLaughlin, Licht was able to successfully address team needs while abiding by league cap restrictions. McLaughlin was named first-team All-Pro by Pro Football Focus after setting a new single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (93.5%), converting 29-of-31 field goal opportunities in 2023.

The team's 2023 draft class produced seven players who played at least 13 games for Tampa Bay during their rookie season, providing the most total snaps by a 2023 NFL rookie class (5,560). First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

Tampa Bay's 2022 season saw the Buccaneers earn their second consecutive NFC South division title, marking the first time in franchise history that the organization garnered back-to-back division championships. The 2022 campaign signaled the final season of Tom Brady's career, concluding a three-year span with Tampa Bay that saw him lead the Buccaneers to 32 regular season wins, five postseason wins, two division titles and one Super Bowl Championship after he was signed by Licht as a free agent during the 2020 offseason. Brady finished his time in Tampa Bay as the organization's all-time leader in passer rating (98.1) and completion percentage (66.7%), while ranking second in passing touchdowns (108), pass completions (1,376) and yards per attempt (7.10), and third in pass attempts (2,062) and passing yards (14,643). The 2022 season also saw 2020 draftee Tristan Wirfs named to his second Pro Bowl, while garnering second-team All-Pro honors.

Licht navigated the 2022 offseason swiftly despite the retirement announcement of two offensive mainstays in tight end Rob Gronkowski and guard Ali Marpet. The first move came in March when the Buccaneers announced a trade with the New England Patriots for guard Shaq Mason. Following the trade came several re-signings of foundational pieces Licht either drafted or acquired through free agency. Pro Bowl center Ryan Jensen was the first to re-sign with the team, followed by cornerback Carlton Davis III and running back Leonard Fournette. Licht also secured one of the league's best wide receivers when he reached a multi-year extension with his 2017 third-round pick Chris Godwin.

In 2021, quarterback Tom Brady helped lead the Buccaneers to a 13-4 record while recording the best statistical season of his 22-year career, leading the league in both yards (5,316) and touchdowns (43). Brady was protected by three Pro Bowlers in center Ryan Jensen, guard Ali Marpet, and tackle Tristan Wirfs. The trio combined for 3,369 snaps and only allowed five sacks. Adding to the No. 1-ranked passing offense, Mike Evans set a career-high in touchdown catches (14), finishing second in the NFL. Evans' historic year was highlighted by an eighth consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season and his fourth Pro Bowl selection.

Defensively, Licht constructed a unit with Pro Bowlers at every level, with Shaquil Barrett receiving his second selection as a Buccaneer and Vita Vea, Devin White, and Antoine Winfield Jr. all receiving their first honor. In his third season, White led the team in total tackles (128) and tied for 10th in the NFL in solo tackles (87). Winfield Jr. led the league in fumble recoveries with three. Before wrapping up the regular season, Licht signed Vea to a contract extension, rewarding the nose tackle who bolstered the Buccaneers run defense to a top-three finish in three consecutive seasons from 2019-21.

During the 2021 offseason, Licht led the effort to retain all 22 starters from the Buccaneers' Super Bowl LV championship team, the first reigning champion to accomplish this feat in the salary cap era. This led to a franchise-record 13 regular-season wins and two home playoff games, including a Divisional Round appearance. Nine of those 22 starters were named to the Pro Bowl, tying a franchise record.

In 2020, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, at Raymond James Stadium in Super Bowl LV. Twelve of Tampa Bay's 22 starters in the Super Bowl were drafted by Licht, including all five members of the team's starting defensive backfield. All but two of the players on the team's championship roster were acquired by Licht. Brady, the game's most valuable player, was the most notable of many key acquisitions Licht made last offseason, propelling the Buccaneers to the second championship in franchise history.

In the 2020 regular season, Brady helped guide the team to an 11-5 record, while setting the franchise single-season record for touchdown passes, with 40. Brady also oversaw an offense that established franchise records for points scored (492) and total touchdowns (59).

Of the team's 14 postseason touchdowns, nine were scored by players acquired by Licht during the 2019 offseason, including all four touchdowns scored in Super Bowl LV. On the defensive side of the ball, outside linebackers Shaquil Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul formed one of the league's most dominant pass-rushing duos, combining for the second-most sacks (45.5) by any NFL teammates from 2019-20.

Entering the 2020 season, Licht was able to make significant changes to the roster, despite offseason challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. Licht spearheaded the Buccaneers' first-ever virtual draft by selecting seven players, including offensive tackle Tristan Wirfs at No. 13 overall. Wirfs was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2020 alongside second-round pick Antoine Winfield Jr. The Buccaneers were the only team in the NFL to have multiple draft picks selected to the All-Rookie Team in consecutive seasons from 2019-20. Licht was able to keep the defensive front seven together by placing the franchise tag on outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett and re-signing defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh and outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul. Pierre-Paul went on to earn a Pro Bowl selection in 2020. The most significant change came in March after signing six-time Super Bowl-winning quarterback Tom Brady in free agency and conducting a trade with New England to bring five-time Pro Bowl tight end Rob Gronkowski out of retirement. The 2020 season saw Evans – Licht's first ever draft selection as general manager – become the first player in NFL history to record 1,000+ receiving yards in each of their first seven seasons.

In 2019, Evans' fellow receiver Chris Godwin posted his first career 1,000-yard season and earned AP's second-team All-Pro honors. That season, the duo became the first pair of receiver teammates voted to the Pro Bowl since Arizona's Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin in 2009.

On the defensive side of the ball in 2019, outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett was named second team All-Pro and earned a Pro Bowl selection after setting a franchise record for single-season sacks with 19.5. Linebacker Devin White – the fifth overall pick in the 2019 NFL draft – was named Defensive Rookie of the Month in both November and December, in addition to making the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting. Rookie cornerback Jamel Dean recorded 17 passes defensed, tied for the fourth-most in the NFL, while second-year cornerback Carlton Davis recorded 19 passes defensed, the second-most in the NFL.

During the 2019 offseason, Licht made a handful of changes to the team's defense, most notably adding free agent defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh, a five-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection. Suh – alongside 2018 first-round draft pick Vita Vea – helped anchor a Buccaneers defensive line that held opponents to the fewest rushing yards per game in 2019 (73.8 rush yards allowed per game). Licht also brought in outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett while spending the team's first five draft picks on the defensive side of the ball, including linebacker Devin White, selected with the fifth overall pick.

In 2019 offseason, Licht signed left tackle Donovan Smith to a contract extension, after having done the same with left guard Ali Marpet during the 2018 season. Marpet (61st overall) and Smith (34th overall) entered the league as second-round picks in the 2015 NFL Draft and went on to start 101 and 124 games, respectively for the Buccaneers in their careers.

In 2018, Mike Evans ranked third in the NFL in receiving yards and set a franchise single season record (1,524) one the way to earning his second career Pro Bowl selection. Prior to the 2018 season, Evans was rewarded with a contract extension.

In the 2018 offseason, Licht transformed the team's defensive line with the addition of Jason Pierre-Paul, Carl Nassib and Vita Vea. Pierre-Paul went on to lead the team in sacks with 12.5 – then the most by any Buccaneers player since 2005 (Simeon Rice, 14.0). Acquired through waivers from Cleveland, Nassib finished the season ranked second on the team in sacks, with 6.5. Five players from Licht's 2018 draft class were primary starters during the team's 2020 Super Bowl LV Championship season, including Vea (first round), cornerback Carlton Davis III (second round), running back Ronald Jones II (second round), guad Alex Cappa (third round) and safety Jordan Whitehead (fourth round).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Licht selected three players who stepped into starting roles as rookies. The Buccaneers first-round pick, tight end O.J. Howard, started all 14 games he played in, tying for the team lead with six touchdown receptions – tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie. The Buccaneers also got contributions from wide receiver Chris Godwin, who capped off his rookie season by earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in Week 17 before becoming a full-time starter in 2018 and having putting forth his breakout season in 2019.

The Buccaneers finished the 2016 season at 9-7. Mike Evans earned his first career Pro Bowl selection after finishing the year with 96 catches for 1,321 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 12 touchdown catches tied his own franchise record (set in 2014) and were tied for the second-most in the NFL in 2016. His 96 catches were then the second-most in Buccaneers history and the sixth-most in the league that season, while his 1,321 yards were then the third-most ever by a Buccaneers player and ranked fourth in the NFL.

Another major contributor to the team's offense in 2016 was tight end Cameron Brate, who originally joined the team as a college free agent out of Harvard in 2014. Brate became an integral part of the Buccaneers offense over the course of his career, finishing with 273 receptions for 2,857 yards and 33 touchdowns in 126 games played for Tampa Bay. His 33 career touchdown receptions stand as the fourth-most in franchise history.

In 2015, Licht drafted quarterback Jameis Winston with the No. 1 overall pick. During Winston's five seasons with the team, he set franchise records for pass attempts (2,548), completions (1,563), passing yards (19,737) and passing touchdowns (121).

Licht joined the Buccaneers in 2014, on the heels of two seasons with Arizona as the vice president of player personnel, working under general manager Steve Keim, who earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from both Pro Football Talk and Sporting News. Licht's first draft pick with Tampa Bay, wide receiver Mike Evans, was selected seventh overall in the 2014 NFL Draft and went on to have a stellar rookie season, finishing with 68 receptions for 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns and being named to the PFWA, NFL.com, ESPN.com and SI.com All-Rookie Teams.

Licht first worked for the Cardinals in 2008 as a personnel executive, before leaving to spend three seasons as director of pro personnel with New England. He returned to Arizona in 2012 as director of player personnel before being promoted to the vice president position.

In addition, Licht's career has intersected with some of the NFL's greatest head coaches, including Don Shula, Jimmy Johnson, Bill Belichick and Andy Reid. In all, Licht has worked alongside seven head coaches who have led a team to a Super Bowl (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Bruce Arians, Pete Carroll, Lovie Smith, Ken Whisenhunt) and seven who have won AP Coach of the Year honors in their careers (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Smith, Arians and Dom Capers).

While with Arizona, Licht worked directly with the head coach and general manager on player acquisition and contract negotiations, as well as leading the club's scouting efforts as he oversaw both the college and pro scouting departments. The 2013 season saw the Cardinals improve to 10-6 from a 5-11 campaign the previous year.

In 2008 Arizona won the NFC West and advanced to the Super Bowl. Licht then spent three seasons (2009-11) as director of pro personnel with the New England Patriots, where he was responsible for monitoring every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining depth on New England's roster. The Patriots were AFC East champions in each of those three seasons and advanced to the Super Bowl following the 2011 campaign.

Licht spent five years with the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-07), first serving as the club's assistant director of player personnel before being promoted to vice president of player personnel for his final two seasons. The team won three NFC East titles during that span and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Licht enjoyed his first stint in New England, serving as a scout and assistant director of player personnel from 1999-2002, a stretch that included a victory in Super Bowl XXXVI. He was part of a front office that drafted core pieces of the team that won three Super Bowls in four seasons, such as Damien Woody, Kevin Faulk, Tom Brady, Richard Seymour, Matt Light, and Deion Branch.

Licht began his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins in 1995, where he worked as a scouting department assistant before spending the 1996 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach. In 1997, he worked for National Football Scouting, a college football scouting service, before joining the Carolina Panthers' scouting staff in 1998.

Licht played linebacker and guard at the University of Nebraska from 1989-91 before transferring to Nebraska-Wesleyan, where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He and his wife, Blair, have three children: Charlie, Zoe and Theo.

TODD BOWLES
HEAD COACH

Todd Bowles enters his fifth season as head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following his three seasons as the team's defensive coordinator from 2019–21.

Through four seasons as head coach, Bowles has amassed 35 regular season wins, which are the fourth-most in franchise history trailing only Buccaneers Ring of Honor members Jon Gruden (57), Tony Dungy (54) and John McKay (44). Bowles became the first coach in franchise history to begin his stint with three consecutive playoff appearances and three consecutive division titles when he did so from 2022–24. His three division titles are tied alongside Gruden as the most by a head coach in team history. Bowles also became just the seventh head coach in the Super Bowl era to win their division each of their first three seasons leading a team.

In his seven total seasons with Tampa Bay, Bowles has coached eight different Buccaneers to Pro Bowl selections as either defensive coordinator or head coach: Shaquil Barrett (2019, 2021), Mike Evans (2023, 2024), Baker Mayfield (2023, 2024), Jason Pierre-Paul (2020), Vita Vea (2021, 2024), Devin White (2021), Antoine Winfield Jr. (2021, 2025) and Tristan Wirfs (2022, 2023, 2024, 2025).

During that span from 2019–25, Bowles' units have set the standard for rush defense, leading the league in both fewest rushing yards per game allowed (94.5) and fewest rush yards per attempt allowed (4.0), while limiting opponents to the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (tied, 84). He has led an opportunistic defense that ranks first in quarterback pressures (1,487), first in opponent fumble recoveries (77), first in strip sacks (50), second in quarterback hits (732), tied for second in forced fumbles (110), third in sacks (318), fourth in tackles for loss (603), fifth in takeaways (168) and tied for sixth in defensive touchdowns (14) in that span.

In 2025, Bowles coached the Buccaneers to an 8–9 record and a second-place finish in the NFC South division, falling on the short end of a tiebreaker that would've secured the Buccaneers their fourth consecutive division title. In a season that was plagued by injuries from the start, Bowles led Tampa Bay to a 6–2 record heading into its Week 9 Bye Week, but the hot start ultimately proved not enough to overcome the 104 total games missed by starters in 2025. Still, Bowles coached players from both sides of the ball to Pro Bowl selections in Winfield Jr. and Wirfs, as well as guiding a pair of 2025 PFWA All-Rookie Team selections in wide receiver Emeka Egbuka and cornerback Jacob Parrish. He also watched as Lavonte David tied Pro Football Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks for the franchise's all-time tackles record (1,714), a player Bowles has mentored as both his defensive coordinator and head coach for half of David's storied 14-year NFL career.

The 2024 Buccaneers finished 10–7, marking consecutive seasons with an increased win total over the year prior. From 2023–24, both offensive coordinators hired by Bowles went on to become NFL head coaches in Dave Canales and Liam Coen, but despite the shuffling on the offensive side of the ball, Bowles remained the constant who solidified Tampa Bay as an annual playoff team – the only NFC team to clinch a playoff berth in all five seasons from 2020–24. In 2024, Tampa Bay ranked sixth in the NFL in point differential (+117) and fifth in average yardage differential per game (+57.8).

Tampa Bay's offense was among the most formidable in the NFL in 2024, establishing franchise records in completion percentage (71.5%), passer rating (106.8), rushing yards (2,536), yards per rush (5.3) and third-down conversion rate (50.9%). The Buccaneers became the first team in NFL history to complete at least 70% of their passes and average at least five yards per rush in the same season, and were the only team in the NFL in 2024 to rank in the top five in points per game (29.5), passing yards per game (250.4) and rushing yards per game (149.2). Tampa Bay led the NFL in third-down conversion rate and yards after contact per rush (3.78), while ranking second in pass completion rate, passing touchdowns (41), passing first downs per game (23.2) and quarterback pressure rate allowed (25.6%).

Bowles' defense in 2024 hit its stride following the team's bye and ranked as the second-best in the NFL in Weeks 12–18, limiting opponents to 273.9 yards per game during that span and helping vault the Buccaneers to a 6–1 record to finish the season. Tampa Bay held opponents to just 26 total second-half points and just two second-half opponent offensive touchdowns over the final seven weeks of the season – each the fewest in the NFL. Meanwhile, the team out-scored its opponents by 104 points and out-gained the opposition by 180.1 yards per game from Weeks 12–18.

In 2023, Bowles guided the NFL's eighth-youngest roster to an appearance in the NFC Divisional round, earning his first career playoff win as a head coach in a commanding 32–9 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the Super Wild Card Round. He inspired a 5–1 finish in the final six weeks of the regular season to secure Tampa Bay's spot in the playoffs.

A former defensive back himself, Bowles oversaw a breakout season for safety Antoine Winfield Jr. in 2023, earning him first-team All-Pro recognition from the Associated Press and Pro Football Focus. Since data is available dating back to 1999, Winfield Jr. is the lone player with 100+ tackles, three-or-more interceptions, three-or-more forced fumbles, three-or-more fumble recoveries and 3.0+ sacks in a single season. The defense as a whole finished top five in run defense for the fourth time in five seasons under Bowles and ranked seventh in scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 19.1 points per game in 2023.

On the offensive side of the ball, then newly-signed quarterback Baker Mayfield had the best season of his NFL career, earning the 2023 Pro Football Writers of America Most Improved Player award and Pro Bowl honors after setting career highs in completions (364), completion percentage (63.4%), passing yards (4,044) and passing touchdowns (28). Mike Evans earned his fifth career Pro Bowl nod and continued his run as the NFL's most consistent receiver, recording his 10th consecutive season with 1,000+ receiving yards – the longest-such streak to begin a career and the second-longest streak overall in NFL history. Despite shifting from right tackle to left tackle, Tristan Wirfs earned his third Pro Bowl selection in just his fourth year in the NFL becoming just the second offensive lineman in franchise history with three consecutive Pro Bowl trips.

In 2022, Bowles led the Buccaneers to the NFC South title in his first year as the head coach in Tampa Bay, joining Jon Gruden as the only coaches in franchise history to accomplish that feat in year one. He was the play caller for a defense that finished top 10 in the NFL in total yards per game (324.3 opponent yards/game), yards per play (5.14 avg.), pass defense (203.5 passing yards allowed/game), net yards per attempt (6.1), sacks (45.0) and tackles for loss (89), while limiting opponents to the fifth-fewest first downs per game (18.5) and the sixth-lowest third down conversion percentage (36.9 percent).

On the other side of the ball, Tristan Wirfs made his second Pro Bowl as part of an offensive line unit that led the league in fewest sacks allowed/pass attempt (2.8%). In addition, Tampa Bay ranked second in the NFL in passing offense (279.8 yards/game) and boasted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Mike Evans and Chris Godwin. Godwin finished eighth in the NFL with his 104 receptions – the second-most in a single season in Buccaneers franchise history.

In his three seasons as defensive coordinator from 2019-2021, he transformed the unit into one of the most productive defenses in the NFL. Tampa Bay ranked third in the league in takeaways (82) and third in sacks (142), joining the Pittsburgh Steelers as the only teams to place in the top five of both categories. In addition to the sacks and takeaways under Bowles' guidance as defensive coordinator, the Buccaneers ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (82.5), first in rushing yards per attempt (3.72), first in quarterback hits (352), first in defensive fumble recoveries (37), first in passes defensed (241), second in strip sacks (26), third in tackles for loss (262), fourth in forced fumbles (52), tied for fourth in defensive touchdowns (nine), fifth in fewest yards per play allowed (5.13), fifth in passing yards per attempt allowed (6.78), sixth in red zone defense efficiency (54.7%), seventh in lowest third-down conversion rate allowed (37.6%), ninth in total defense (334.1 yards allowed per game) and ninth in goal-to-go efficiency (68.6%).

From 2020-21, the Buccaneers allowed the sixth-fewest points per game (21.5) and the fifth-fewest yards per game (329.4). In six postseason contests during that span, Tampa Bay tallied 16 takeaways – seven more than any other team. Bowles was the architect behind a historic defensive performance that catapulted the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl LV victory. His unit held the explosive Kansas City Chiefs' offense to nine points and without a touchdown for the first time in 54 games with Patrick Mahomes as the starting quarterback.

In 2021 alone, Bowles led a defense that finished first in the NFL in quarterback hits (123), third in rush defense (92.5 ypg), fifth in fewest points per game allowed (20.8), tied for fifth in takeaways (29), seventh in sacks (47.0), seventh in fewest yards per play allowed (5.16), eighth in tackles for loss (81), tied for eighth in interceptions (17) and tied for eighth in forced fumbles (16). Four Buccaneers defensive players earned Pro Bowl honors in 2021: outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, nose tackle Vita Vea, linebacker Devin White and safety Antoine Winfield Jr. – the most in a single season on the defensive side of the ball since 2002.

In Tampa Bay's championship season in 2020, Bowles directed a defense that led the NFL in quarterback hits (142), tackles for loss (107) and takeaways (34), while tying for the league lead in sacks (58.0) between the regular season and postseason combined. During the regular season alone, the Buccaneers' defense ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (80.6), tied for second in quarterback hits (116), tied for second in tackles for loss (91), tied for fourth in sacks (48.0), sixth in total yards allowed per game (327.1) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2). Additionally, the Buccaneers defense allowed the fifth-fewest first downs (19.9) and tallied the seventh-most sacks per pass attempt (7.78%).

In just his first two seasons, Bowles helped elevate a Buccaneers defense that ranked 27th in the NFL in yards per game allowed prior to his arrival to a team that finished sixth in that category in 2020. In the Super Bowl, Tampa Bay held the Kansas City Chiefs to just nine points – keeping a team that ranked sixth during the regular season in touchdowns out of the end zone. The nine points given up by the Buccaneers tied for the 10th-fewest in Super Bowl history.

Bowles helped mentor Winfield Jr. into PFWA All-Rookie team honors in 2020 and coached outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul to his third career Pro Bowl selection.

In his first season in Tampa Bay in 2019, Bowles quickly put an emphasis on stopping the run as he transformed the Buccaneers from the 24th-ranked run defense in 2018 (123.9 rush yards allowed per game) to the top run defense in the NFL in 2019, holding opponents to just 73.8 rushing yards per game and just 3.26 average yards per rush. The 1,181 rushing yards allowed by Tampa Bay in 2019 were the 11th-fewest all-time in a 16-game season. The front seven showed a knack for getting into the opposing backfield, tying for fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss.

The Buccaneers also led the NFL with 96 passes defensed in 2019, tied for the league lead with six defensive touchdowns, ranked third with 21 forced fumbles and finished fifth with 28 takeaways.

In the secondary, Bowles guided a group of predominantly first and second-year players to a notable second-half turnaround in which the defense reduced its passing yards allowed per game from 293.5 in Games 1-8 to 246.8 in Games 9-16, while lowering its total yards allowed per game mark from 371.6 to 316.3 in that same span. The 316.3 total yards allowed per game was the sixth-best mark of any defense over its final eight games of the season.

Bowles' 2019 defense featured three players who took home end-of-season honors, led by Pro Bowl and AP second-team All-Pro outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett. Barrett set a team record with his league-leading 19.5 sacks in 2019, breaking Pro Football Hall of Famer Warren Sapp's team record of 16.5 set in 2000. The defense also featured two AP All-Rookie Team members: Sean Murphy-Bunting and Devin White. White led all rookies with 7.0 tackles per game and Sean Murphy-Bunting tied for the most interceptions by a rookie with three.

Bowles joined the Buccaneers after spending the previous four seasons as the head coach of the New York Jets (2015-18). Under Bowles, the Jets posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.00 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowing only 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for the eighth-least in that timeframe. Bowles' Jets defense also allowed opposing offenses to convert only 36.0 percent of third downs, the fourth-lowest mark in the league. Opposing passers completed just 60.6 percent of their passes against the Jets under Bowles, the third-lowest mark in the NFL.

Four different defensive players earned Pro Bowl berths under Bowles in New York, with cornerback Darrelle Revis and defensive lineman Muhammad Wilkerson being selected in 2015, defensive lineman Leonard Williams being nominated in 2016 and safety Jamal Adams voted to the game in 2018. The 2018 season also saw Jets return specialist Andre Roberts earn Pro Bowl distinction, along with being named first-team AP All-Pro as a kick returner.

Prior to serving as the head coach of the Jets, Bowles spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2013-14), including winning Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Pro Football Writers of America and the Associated Press in 2014. During Bowles' time in Arizona, the Cardinals' defense allowed the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (14), the fifth-fewest points per game (19.5) and the fifth-fewest rushing yards per game (96.6). Bowles' defenses in Arizona also showed a knack for taking the ball away, recording the fifth-most interceptions in the NFL (38) and the most defensive touchdowns in the league, with nine.

While Bowles led the Cardinals' defense, he saw cornerback Patrick Peterson earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2013 and earn Pro Bowl honors both years (2013-14). Defensive end John Abraham (2013), cornerback Antonio Cromartie (2014) and defensive end Calais Campbell (2014) each also earned Pro Bowl selections.

Bowles spent one year with the Philadelphia Eagles (2012), serving as the team's secondary coach before being named interim defensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season. Philadelphia finished ninth in passing yards allowed (216.9 per game) that season.

Before joining the Eagles, Bowles worked as the assistant head coach/secondary coach for the Miami Dolphins for four seasons (2008-11). In the 2011 season, he was named interim head coach for the final three games of the year, going 2-1. Under Bowles' tutelage, Miami's secondary held opposing quarterbacks to a 58.1 completion percentage over that span, the seventh-lowest mark in the NFL.

Prior to his time in Miami, Bowles worked as the defensive backs coach for the Dallas Cowboys (2005-07), coaching three different players to the Pro Bowl (safety Ken Hamlin, cornerback Terence Newman and safety Roy Williams).

His NFL coaching career began in 2000 as the defensive backs coach of the New York Jets, coaching a unit that allowed just 18.3 passing yards per game, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. Following his season in New York, Bowles spent four years with the Cleveland Browns, working as the team's defensive nickel package coach (2001-03) and secondary coach (2004). In 2001, the team set a franchise record with 33 interceptions and in 2004, the Browns allowed the fifth-fewest passing yards in the NFL (181.3 per game).

Before coaching in the NFL, Bowles spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Morehouse College (1997) and two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Grambling State (1998-99).

Bowles played collegiately at Temple and, despite going undrafted in the 1986 NFL Draft, played eight years in the NFL, with the Washington Redskins (1986-90; 1992-93) and the San Francisco 49ers (1991). He was a starter on the 1987 Redskins team that won Super Bowl XXII. Following his retirement as a player, Bowles spent two seasons (1995-96) with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department.

A native of New Jersey, Bowles and his wife, Taneka, have three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson. Todd Jr. currently serves as a defensive assistant on the Buccaneers coaching staff, while Troy plays his collegiate football career at Michigan. The Bowles family is actively involved in the Tampa Bay community supporting organizations including Autism Speaks, The Spring of Tampa Bay, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Tampa Bay, and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation. In 2024, Bowles was appointed to the NFL's Competition Committee, becoming 1-of-4 active head coaches on the panel.

KEVIN CARBERRY
RUN GAME COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

Kevin Carberry enters his third season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and second as run game coordinator/offensive line coach in 2026, following one season as offensive line coach (2024).

Leading the run game in 2025, Carberry's unit overcame seven games missed by starting running back Bucky Irving and 32 games missed by the original five starting offensive linemen to oversee 1-of-2 running back trios across the league to each amass 300+ rushing yards in Irving (588), Sean Tucker (320) and Rachaad White (572). Despite using eight different starting lineup combinations in 2025, Tampa Bay's run game specifically excelled on third downs, ranking third in third down conversion percentage (63.9%), tied for second in third down rushing yards (398) and tied for third in yards per rush attempt on third down (5.5). Carberry coached left tackle Tristan Wirfs to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl nod in a season in which Wirfs finished as the NFL's only offensive lineman to rank inside the top five in each offensive (second – 92.7), run blocking (fifth – 91.6) and pass blocking grades (fifth – 84.9) per Pro Football Focus. Despite not playing a single game with its original starting five offensive linemen in place, Carberry and the Buccaneers still surpassed the 100-yard rushing mark in 11-of-17 games in 2025.

Dating back to Carberry's arrival in 2024, Tampa Bay's 25 100-yard rushing performances are the sixth-most in the NFL. The Buccaneers also rank inside the top 10 in third down rushing conversion rate (first – 64.1%), overall third down conversion rate (second – 45.9%), yards per rush attempt (fifth – 4.7), total yards per game (sixth – 360.0), points scored per game (sixth – 25.9), rushing first downs (sixth – 252), total first downs per game (sixth – 21.4), rushing yards per game (seventh – 131.9), passing yards per game (seventh – 228.1), yards per play (eighth – 5.7),

In his first season in Tampa Bay, Carberry coached a unit that paved the way for the NFL's only offense that ranked top five in each yards per rush average (third – 5.3), passing yards per game (third – 250.4), total yards per game (third – 399.6), rushing yards per game (149.2 – fourth) and points scored per game (fourth – 29.5). Under Carberry's instruction, Wirfs collected his then fourth Pro Bowl selection – the most selections by an offensive lineman in franchise history. According to Pro Football Focus, Wirfs finished first in the league with a 93.7 pass block grade and zero sacks allowed on his way to earning Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors, becoming the first player in NFL history to earn this recognition at both left tackle and right tackle. Rookie center Graham Barton finished tied for fourth among all centers in fewest sacks allowed (2.0). The Buccaneers run game finished the 2024 season setting franchise records in yards per rush (5.3), total rush yards (2,536) and rushing first downs (137).

Carberry joined the Buccaneers after spending the 2023 season with the New Orleans Saints as the team's assistant offensive line coach. The Saints, led by Pro Bowl center Erik McCoy, tied for the fifth-fewest quarterback hits allowed in the NFL in 2023 (76), while limiting opponents to the eighth-fewest sacks (35).

Prior to his season in New Orleans, Carberry spent two seasons as the offensive line coach for the Los Angeles Rams during which he helped guide the Rams to a Super Bowl LVI victory to cap off the 2021 season. That season, Carberry's unit limited opposing defenses to the fourth-fewest quarterback hits (74) and tied for the sixth-fewest sacks allowed (31), in addition to ranking seventh in fewest sacks allowed per pass attempt (4.9%). In the 2021 playoffs, the Rams averaged 388.5 yards per game on the way to their Super Bowl title.

Carberry made his NFL coaching debut as an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys in 2014. That season, he assisted an offensive unit that helped propel running back DeMarco Murray to a league-leading 1,845 rushing yards, in addition to winning the NFC East division title. Following his stint in Dallas (2014-15), Carberry joined Bill Callahan in Washington, where he spent two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach. In Washington in 2016, the team limited opponents to the fourth-fewest sacks (23) and boasted the NFL's third-ranked offense that season, averaging 403.4 yards per game. Brandon Scherff and Trent Williams each earned Pro Bowl trips under Carberry's tutelage.

In the collegiate ranks, Carberry has held coaching roles at Stanford (2018-20), Stephen F. Austin (2012-13) and Kansas (2009-11). As the offensive line coach at Stanford, Carberry coached four players to All-Pac-12 honors. The Cardinal finished 9-4 in 2018, winning the Sun Bowl. During the shortened 2020 season, Stanford went 4-2, ranking third in the Pac-12 with 420.0 yards of offense per game. He began his coaching career as a varsity assistant at his alma mater, St. Rita High School (Chicago), coaching them to an Illinois state title in 2006. He later coached two seasons at St. Ignatius College Prep (Chicago) while also playing in the AFL for the New York Dragons (2007) and Philadelphia Soul (2008), winning a 2008 Arena Bowl Championship in his lone year in Philadelphia.

Carberry competed in his first NFL training camp with the Cleveland Browns in 2005 before spending the season on the Detroit Lions practice squad. He later spent the 2006 training camp with the Carolina Panthers prior to landing with the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe in the spring of 2006.

Carberry is a native of Oak Lawn, Illinois, and was a four-year player at Ohio University (2002-05), earning All-MAC honors as a senior. He later earned his Master's of Sport Administration degree from the University of Kansas. He and his wife, Emily, have one son, Frank, and one daughter, Elizabeth.

GEORGE EDWARDS
PASS GAME COORDINATOR

Edwards begins his fourth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and his second season as pass game coordinator in 2026, following two seasons as outside linebackers coach. The 2026 season marks Edwards' 29th season of NFL coaching experience and his 37th overall.

The 2025 season marked Edwards' first in charge of Tampa Bay's pass game, and he contributed to a Pro Bowl campaign for safety Antoine Winfield Jr. and a PFWA All-Rookie Team selection for the team's third-round draft pick, cornerback Jacob Parrish. In addition, cornerback Jamel Dean led all qualified players (min. 35 defensive targets) in holding opponents to the league's lowest passer rating when targeted (41.3) and the second-lowest completion percentage when targeted (43.1%) among all qualified cornerbacks. As a whole, Tampa Bay's defense finished the 2025 season ranked tied for third in quarterback pressures (251) and tied for seventh in takeaways (23). Nine different players recorded an interception in 2025 – tied for the sixth-most in the NFL.

In 2024, Edwards' final season as outside linebackers coach, he aided the continued development of outside linebacker Yaya Diaby, who totaled 92 tackles (25 for loss), 83 quarterback pressures, 28 quarterback hits, 12.0 sacks, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles over his first two career seasons. His 25 tackles for loss rank second among all members of the 2023 draft class through two seasons, in addition to ranking sixth in pressures, tied for sixth in sacks and eighth in quarterback hits. Diaby also earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week in Week 18 after he became the second player in franchise history to record four-or-more quarterback hits and tackles for loss in a single game. The outside linebackers group finished with 12.0 sacks, 23 tackles for loss, and four forced fumbles in 2024, assisting a fourth-ranked rush defense that allowed just 97.8 yards per game.

In his first year with the Buccaneers, Edwards mentored rookie third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby to a team-high 7.5 sacks in 2023. Edwards' unit utilized a committee approach that proved effective as six different players at the outside linebacker position recorded a sack, including four with 3.0+ sacks. His position group totaled 22.0 sacks and six forced fumbles in 2023, while contributing to a defense that finished fifth in the NFL in rush defense by limiting opponents to just 95.3 rushing yards per contest.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Edwards spent the previous three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2020–22) as the club's senior defensive assistant, helping guide a defensive unit that ranked second in interceptions (52), fourth in opponent completion percentage (61.9), sixth in opponent passer rating (86.5) and eighth in sacks (126) over that span. He worked most closely with the team's linebackers, mentoring Cowboys linebacker Micah Parsons to two Pro Bowl selections, two Associated Press first-team All-Pro recognitions and 2021 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Edwards spent six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Minnesota Vikings (2014–19). After inheriting a defense that ranked 31st overall in total defense in 2013, Edwards propelled the Vikings into a consistent top five defense. From 2014–19, the Vikings ranked first in lowest opponent third-down conversion percentage (35.2%), second in fewest yards per play allowed (5.12), third in total defense (321.8 yards allowed per game), third in pass defense (214.7 yards per game) and third in sacks (260.0). Edwards' 2017 defense led the NFL in both total defense (275.9) and fewest points per game allowed (15.8), sparking the Vikings run to an NFC Championship game berth. It was Minnesota's first No. 1 defense since the 1993 season.

Previously, Edwards held roles as the linebackers coach for the Miami Dolphins (2005–09, 2012–13), defensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2010–11), linebackers coach for the Cleveland Browns (2004), assistant defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Washington (2002–03), and linebackers coach for the Cowboys (1998–2001). Edwards has also held assistant positions at the collegiate level, including at the University of Georgia (1997), Duke University (1996), Appalachian State University (1992–95) and the University of Florida (1990–91).

A four-year letterman at Duke University, Edwards was a two-time special teams captain and earned 1989 All-ACC honorable mention recognition at linebacker. Edwards is a native of Siler City, North Carolina. He and his wife, Jami, have one son, Bryan.

LARRY FOOTE
RUN GAME COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Larry Foote enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers in 2026, and his second as run game coordinator/outside linebackers coach, after spending the prior three seasons as pass game coordinator/inside linebackers coach. He originally came to Tampa Bay as the team's outside linebackers coach from 2019–21.

In 2025, Foote led a rush defense that finished fifth in fewest opponent rush yards per game (99.1) and tied for seventh in takeaways (23). Meanwhile, in his return to managing the outside linebackers room, Foote coached Yaya Diaby to the NFL's sixth-highest pressure rate (16.3%) among all players with 350+ pass-rush snaps. He was 1-of-6 players in 2025 with 65+ quarterback pressures, 12+ tackles for loss and a pressure rate of 16.0%-or-better alongside Will Anderson Jr., Nik Bonitto, Myles Garrett, Aidan Hutchinson, and Micah Parsons. He led the team in pressures (68), quarterback hits (19), tackles for loss (13) and sacks (7.0), becoming 1-of-7 players since tackles for loss became regularly tracked in 2008 with 12-or-more in each of their first three career seasons, joining Lavonte David, Maxx Crosby, Aaron Donald, Khalil Mack, Micah Parsons and J.J. Watt. Foote also coached rotational outside linebacker Anthony Nelson to the first NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors of his career, when he earned the recognition for his Week 8 performance. That week, Nelson became the first player since 2007 with 2.0 sacks, a forced fumble and an interception return touchdown in a single game.

In his third season with the inside linebackers group, Foote guided 34-year-old veteran Lavonte David in becoming the lone player in 2024 with 100+ tackles, 5.0 sacks, and three or more forced fumbles. David led the team with 122 tackles, recording his 11th season with 100+ tackles, the third-most since tackles became regularly tracked in 1994. The Buccaneers rush defense limited teams to 97.8 yards per game, the fourth lowest in the NFL.

Foote played a vital role in Tampa Bay's defensive turnaround during the second half of the season as the Buccaneers ranked as the second-best overall defense in the NFL from Weeks 12–18, limiting opponents to 273.9 yards per game during that span and helping vault the Buccaneers to a 6-1 record to finish the season. Tampa Bay held opponents to just 26 total second-half points and just two second-half opponent offensive touchdowns over the final seven weeks of the season – each the fewest in the NFL.

In 2023, David was the lone NFL player with 100+ tackles, 15+ tackles for loss and 3.0+ sacks and he collected his tenth 100-tackle season, leading the Buccaneers in total tackles (133), solo tackles (86) and tackles for loss (17). His 17 tackles for loss tied for seventh in the NFL in 2023 and first among non-edge rushers. In two seasons with Foote as his position coach (2022-23), David ranks tied for 10th in solo tackles (166) and 11th in total tackles (258) among all players, while generating the second-most tackles for loss (27) among inside linebackers during that span. As a unit, the Buccaneers 2023 defense ranked seventh in scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 19.1 points per game in 2023.

In his first season as pass game coordinator in 2022, Tampa Bay's pass defense (203.6 opponent passing yards/game) finished ninth in the NFL, posting the team's first season with a top 10 pass defense since 2010. The Buccaneers limited opponents to just 6.65 yards per pass attempt, which was the sixth-best mark in the league.

Additionally, during Foote's first season working with the inside linebackers in 2022, both David and Devin White surpassed the 100-tackle mark, finishing tied for the team lead with 124 tackles each. David led the team with 10 tackles for loss, while White led the team with 16 quarterback hits and three fumble recoveries. White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for September and later tacked on NFC Defensive Player of the Week accolades for his multi-sack performance in Week 10.

In 2021, outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett earned a Pro Bowl selection for the second time after recording 10.0 sacks and becoming one of four players in Buccaneers history with multiple 10.0-sack seasons – both of which came under Foote for Barrett.

In Barrett's three seasons with Foote as his position coach from 2019–21, Barrett ranked second in the NFL in strip sacks (11), fourth in sacks (37.5), fourth in tackles for loss (41), tied for fourth in forced fumbles (11) and fifth in quarterback hits (75), joining 2021 Defensive Player of the Year T.J. Watt as the only two players to rank in the top five in each of those five categories during that span.

Over his first two seasons after taking over in Tampa from 2020-21, Foote's starting outside linebacker tandem of Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul ranked second among all pass-rushing duos in sacks with 45.5. During the 2020 regular season alone, the pairing combined for 112 tackles (18 tackles for loss), 30 quarterback hits, 17.5 sacks, nine passes defensed, six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. Pierre-Paul earned his first Pro Bowl nod as a member of the Buccaneers in the 2020 season.

During the 2020 regular season, the Buccaneers' defense ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (80.6), tied for second in quarterback hits (116), tied for second in tackles for loss (91), tied for fourth in sacks (48.0), sixth in total yards allowed per game (327.1) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2).

Foote's outside linebackers unit continued to thrive during Tampa Bay's four-game playoff run to a Super Bowl LV victory, including a 5.0-sack performance in the NFC Championship Game victory over Green Bay. In that game, Barrett tied the single-game playoff franchise record with 3.0 sacks, while Pierre-Paul's 2.0 sacks tied for the third-most in team history. Barrett stands tied for third all-time in career playoff sacks by a Buccaneers player with his 4.0 from 2020, while Pierre-Paul is tied for fifth with 2.0.

In Foote's first season in charge of the Buccaneers outside linebacker corps, the position group combined for 35 of the team's 47 sacks. Those 47 takedowns were then the second-most by a Tampa Bay unit since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Barrett secured his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2019 after registering 19.5 sacks to surpass Warren Sapp (16.5 in 2000) for the single-season franchise record. While Barrett led the league in sacks in his first season under Foote's guidance, Jason Pierre-Paul tacked on 8.5 sacks in just 10 games played.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Foote spent the previous four seasons coaching with the Arizona Cardinals (2015-18), first working as the team's inside linebackers coach (2015-17) before being elevated to linebackers coach in 2018. Foote helped oversee the conversion of Deone Bucannon from a college safety to a linebacker, with Bucannon leading the team in tackles in 2015, while adding three sacks and three forced fumbles. The Cardinals defense finished in the top 10 of the NFL in yards allowed for three straight seasons (2015-17) while Foote was a part of the staff.

Before beginning his coaching career, Foote spent 13 years playing in the NFL (2002-14), including 11 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-08, 2010-13). During his time with the Steelers, Foote was a part of two Super Bowl Championships (XL, XLIII). Foote spent his first seven seasons in Pittsburgh, before playing for his hometown Detroit Lions for one season (2009). He then returned to the Steelers for four seasons before finishing his career with the Cardinals in 2014. In his 13 seasons, Foote played in 187 games, with 912 tackles, 25 sacks, 10 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries and four interceptions. He also played in 17 postseason games.

A Detroit native, Foote played collegiately at Michigan, earning All-American honors as a senior.

ZAC ROBINSON
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Zac Robinson enters his first season as offensive coordinator with the Buccaneers in 2026.

Robinson has enjoyed a quick rise through the coaching ranks since beginning his career with the Los Angeles Rams, ascending from assistant quarterbacks coach (2019, 2021) and assistant wide receivers coach (2020) to quarterbacks coach/pass game coordinator (2022-23). He earned his first offensive coordinator opportunity with the Atlanta Falcons in 2024 where he remained for two seasons before joining Tampa Bay.

Over his two seasons as offensive coordinator in Atlanta, Robinson's unit ranked among the top 10 in a number of key offensive categories, including: yards per game (351.4 – ninth), yards per play (5.6 – 10th), rushing yards per game (128.1 – eighth), yards per rush (4.5 – ninth), passing yards per game (223.3 – ninth), pass yards per attempt (6.9 – ninth), fewest sacks per pass attempt (5.3% – third) and first downs per game (20.3 – 10th).

Robinson coached a group that finished fifth in the NFL in explosive plays (135) in 2024 and eighth (247) over the last two seasons combined. His team did so behind an offensive line unit that surrendered the fourth-fewest sacks in 2025 (26), and the fifth-fewest over the last two years (58). He coached guard Chris Lindstrom and running back Bijan Robinson each to back-to-back Pro Bowl selections from 2024-25.

In his final season with the Rams in 2023, Robinson helped construct a passing attack that earned both wide receiver Puka Nacua and quarterback Matthew Stafford trips to the Pro Bowl that season, while Nacua reset the then-NFL records for most receptions (105) and receiving yards (1,486) by a rookie in league history. In his first season as pass game coordinator in 2022, Robinson was instrumental in overcoming an adversity-filled season for the Rams that saw the team start four different quarterbacks due to injury. The season is best remembered for Robinson's preparation of current Buccaneers quarterback Baker Mayfield for a game-winning drive against the Las Vegas Raiders after signing with the team just two days prior. He also served as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach in 2021 when the Rams went on to win Super Bowl LVI.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Robinson was drafted by the New England Patriots in the seventh round (No. 240 overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft, later spending time with the Seattle Seahawks, Detroit Lions and Cincinnati Bengals. He played collegiately at Oklahoma State (2005-09), where he was a three-year starter, amassing 8,317 passing yards and 88 total touchdowns, including 66 through the air.

The Littleton, Colorado, native, attended Chatfield Senior High School where he competed in both football and track. He and his wife, Mia, have two children: Madi and Cooper.

DANNY SMITH
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Danny Smith enters his first season as special teams coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026.

Smith brings more than three decades of NFL coaching experience to Tampa Bay, including 29 as a special teams coordinator. He joins the Buccaneers following his 13 years as special teams coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers under Mike Tomlin (2013-25).

Smith's units were among the league's best in blocked kicks during his time in Pittsburgh, ranking tied for eighth since 2013, with 21. Over his final nine seasons in Pittsburgh, the Steelers tied for the league lead with 17 blocked kicks. Under Smith's tutelage, Miles Killebrew earned consecutive Pro Bowl trips as a special teamer from 2023-24 and led all active players in career blocked punts (four) at the time of Smith's departure. Conversely, the Steelers were 1-of-2 teams to not allow a blocked punt over the past nine seasons.

In 2025, Smith's kickoff unit limited opposing teams to the fifth-worst starting field position following kickoffs (their own 29.0-yard line), while having the second-lowest touchback rate in the league (8.2%).

Smith has also developed a number of wide receivers into key special teams performers, including Antonio Brown, who became the first player ever to record 1,000 yards receiving and 1,000 yards returning in the same season when he did so in 2013, earning a Pro Bowl selection. In 2019, Smith mentored Diontae Johnson to a league-best 12.4 yards per punt return during his rookie campaign. This past season, Ben Skowronek finished fourth in the NFL in special teams tackles (21) on his way to a Pro Bowl selection.

During his time in Pittsburgh, Smith coached kicker Chris Boswell to a pair of Pro Bowl selections and an Associated Press first-team All-Pro honor. In their 11 years together (2015-25), Boswell ranked second in the NFL in field goals made (299), second in field goal percentage from 50+ yards (82.5%, which trailed only current Buccaneers kicker Chase McLaughlin's 84.3% during that span) and fourth in overall field goal percentage (87.7%, min. 200 attempts). Over Smith's full tenure in Pittsburgh dating back to 2013, the Steelers enjoyed the league's second-highest field goal percentage (88.0%), ranked fourth in total field goals made (388), and tied for fifth in the NFL with 18 game-winning field goals.

Smith has enjoyed several other stints leading special teams units for the Philadelphia Eagles (1995-98, where he also served as defensive backs coach), the Buffalo Bills (2001-03) and the now-Washington Commanders (2004-2012). In addition, Smith spent two seasons as the Detroit Lions' tight ends coach (1999-2000).

A Pittsburgh native, he attended Central Catholic High School, where he later coached from 1977-78, helping mentor future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Smith went on to play defensive back at Edinboro State from 1972-76 and later served as a graduate assistant for the Fighting Scots. He was inducted into the Edinboro University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007. He and his wife, Elaine, have three children: Erin, Courtney and Jason.

T.J. YATES
PASS GAME COORDINATOR

T.J. Yates enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 as pass game coordinator.

He joined Tampa Bay after spending the five seasons with the Atlanta Falcons, most recently as passing game coordinator in 2025 after serving as quarterbacks coach (2024), wide receivers coach (2022-23) and passing game specialist (2021).

In 2025, Atlanta's offense finished among the NFL's top 10 in interception rate (1.5% – seventh), sack rate (4.8% – fifth), red zone efficiency (62.0% – ninth) and goal-to-go efficiency (88.5% – second), while developing a quarterback in his first full season as a starter and navigating injuries at the position. Yates' work as quarterbacks coach in 2024 resulted in Atlanta's offense ranking sixth in the NFL in yards per game (369.8) and fifth in passing yards per game (239.3). As wide receivers coach in 2022-23, Yates oversaw the development of Drake London, who set a franchise record for the most receptions by a rookie (72) in 2022.

Prior to Atlanta, Yates previously worked two seasons with the Houston Texans as assistant quarterbacks coach (2020) and offensive assistant (2019), helping the club capture the AFC South title and advance to the Divisional Round in 2019.

Prior to entering coaching, Yates spent seven seasons in the NFL as a quarterback with the Houston Texans (2011-13, 2015, 2017), Atlanta Falcons (2014), Miami Dolphins (2016) and Buffalo Bills (2017). He was originally selected by Houston in the fifth round (152nd overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft. A Marietta, Georgia, native, Yates played collegiately at the University of North Carolina, where he was a four-year starter.

Yates and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Carter and Bear, and a daughter, MJ.

TIM ATKINS
SAFETIES

Tim Atkins begins his eighth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026, and his first as safeties coach, following the previous four seasons as assistant secondary coach and the prior three as the team's defensive quality control coach.

Working primarily with the safeties over the past four years, Atkins has overseen multiple Pro Bowl selections from Antoine Winfield Jr. (2021, 2025), in addition to his 2023 first-team All-Pro campaign. In 2025, Winfield Jr. earned the fifth-lowest opponent passer rating when targeted (78.1) among all safeties with 35+ defensive targets, while amassing 93 tackles (four for loss), eight passes defensed, two interceptions, 1.0 sack, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Under Atkins' guidance, Winfield Jr. is one of just two players since 2022 with 350+ tackles, 25+ passes defensed and 10.0+ sacks. Fellow safety Tykee Smith enjoyed a breakout season in 2025, leading all safeties in passes defensed (13), while standing as the league's lone player with 100+ tackles, 10+ passes defensed and three-or-more takeaways.

Since 2022, Buccaneers safeties lead the league in sacks (16.5), while ranking second in the NFL in tackles for loss (41), forced fumbles (12) and fumble recoveries (nine). Across his Buccaneers tenure (2019-25), Atkins has contributed to a Tampa Bay defense that ranks in the top 10 in rushing yards per game allowed (94.5 – first), yards per rush allowed (4.0 – first), sacks (318 – third), turnovers forced (169, fifth), third-down conversion rate allowed (38.3% – ninth) and red zone efficiency (55.6% – ninth).

In a season in which 10 different players started a game in Tampa Bay's secondary in 2024, Atkins helped steady a unit that limited its opponents to the second-fewest points per game (17.0), second-fewest yards per game (273.9), third-fewest yards per pass attempt (5.9) and the sixth-lowest opponent passer rating (87.2) in the NFL from Weeks 12-18 following the team's Bye Week. In addition, Buccaneers defensive backs combined to tie for the fourth-most forced fumbles (six) and fourth-most fumble recoveries (four) in the NFL in 2024.

In 2023, Atkins was a member of a secondary staff that oversaw a first-team All-Pro season from safety Antoine Winfield Jr., in which he amassed 122 tackles (six for loss), 12 passes defensed, eight quarterback hits, 6.0 sacks, six forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and three interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense finished the year ranked seventh in scoring defense (19.1), while allowing the sixth-fewest opponent touchdowns (34).

During Atkins' first season as the assistant secondary coach for the Buccaneers in 2022, Tampa Bay finished sixth in the NFL in fewest passing yards allowed per attempt (6.65) and 10th in fewest total passing yards allowed (3,461). The 2022 opponent total marked the fewest passing yards allowed by the Buccaneers since the 2010 season when they allowed 3,216 yards. In addition, the Buccaneers defense combined for a total of 58 passes defensed, 10 interceptions, and held opponent quarterbacks to a 63.9 completion percentage. Antoine Winfield Jr. tied for second in the NFL among safeties in both sacks (4.0) and tackles for loss (seven).

In Atkins' final season in charge of quality control efforts for the Buccaneers in 2021, Tampa Bay finished third in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed per game (92.5), seventh in fewest yards per play allowed (5.16), fifth in goal-to-go efficiency (62.1 percent) and 10th in red zone efficiency (52.5 percent). In addition, the Buccaneers led the NFL in quarterback hits (123), ranked tied for fifth in takeaways (29), seventh in sacks (47.0), eighth in tackles for loss (81) and tied for eighth in forced fumbles (16).

During Tampa Bay's 2020 title season, Atkins contributed to a defense that led the league in rush defense (80.6 rush yards allowed per game) for the second-consecutive season, while also ranking sixth in total yards allowed per game (327.1) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2). Additionally, the Buccaneers defense allowed the fifth-fewest first downs (19.9) and tallied the seventh-most sacks per pass attempt (7.78%).

In his first year in Tampa Bay, Atkins led quality control efforts for a defense that finished first against the run and fifth in takeaways. In addition, Tampa Bay's defense made a noticeable second-half turnaround as it lowered its yards per game allowed average from 371.6 yards per game through the first eight games to 316.3 over the final eight games, which ranked eighth in the NFL from Weeks 9-17.

Atkins followed Buccaneers Head Coach Todd Bowles to Tampa Bay, who he worked under for three seasons (2016-18) as defensive quality control coach for the New York Jets. Prior to his time with the Jets, Atkins charted games for the Cleveland Browns for two seasons (2014-15) and served as a Buffalo Bills defensive assistant from 2011-12. That followed a one-season stint with the UFL's Florida Tuskers (2010). Atkins broke into the NFL as a defensive assistant for the Miami Dolphins from 2006-08 before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at Florida Atlantic University (2008-09). He also coached on the collegiate level for Whittier College as wide receivers coach (2005) and safeties coach (2004).

CORY BICHEY
ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Cory Bichey begins his seventh season as assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026. He was a member of the coaching staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV victory in his first season with the team.

Bichey joined the team following two years (2018–2019) at Mississippi State. He began his time with the Bulldogs football program as the assistant strength and conditioning coach under current Buccaneers Head Strength & Conditioning Coach Anthony Piroli in 2018, before being elevated to head strength and conditioning coach for Mississippi State football in 2019, following Piroli's departure to Tampa Bay. Previously, Bichey worked on the strength and conditioning staff at Arkansas from 2013–17, after spending a year as a graduate assistant for Cincinnati (2012–13).

Bichey graduated from Indiana State University with a bachelor's degree in exercise science and minor in strength and conditioning (2012). He was a four-year letterwinner as an offensive lineman for Indiana State from 2008–12.

MIKE CALDWELL
INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Caldwell enters the second season of his second stint with Tampa Bay in 2026, marking his fifth total season as inside linebackers coach for the Buccaneers.

In his return to Tampa Bay in 2025, Caldwell coached veteran linebacker Lavonte David to yet another 100-tackle season on the way to tying Pro Football Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks for the franchise's all-time tackles record (1,714). In addition to his team-high 114 tackles (eight for loss), David added 3.5 sacks, three passes defensed, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and one interception. Dating back to at least 2000, David joined London Fletcher (2012) as the only players 35-or-older to record a season with 100+ tackles, three-plus sacks and three-plus takeaways. David's counterpart, SirVocea Dennis, also eclipsed 100 tackles in 2025, setting career highs in tackles (100), tackles for loss (10), quarterback hits (seven), passes defensed (five), sacks (3.0) and interceptions (one). David and Dennis were 1-of-2 duos across the league in 2025 in which both inside linebackers notched 100+ tackles and three-or-more sacks.

Prior to returning to Tampa Bay, Caldwell most recently worked as the run game coordinator/linebackers coach for the Las Vegas Raiders in 2024, following a two-year stint with the Jacksonville Jaguars as defensive coordinator (2022-23). In 2022, the Jaguars defense finished first in the NFL in passes defensed (95) and tied for fourth in takeaways (27) under Caldwell's guidance.

Prior to Jacksonville, Caldwell spent the previous three seasons with the Buccaneers (2019-21) as inside linebackers coach, where he coached Lavonte David to second-team All-Pro recognition and Devin White to both Pro Bowl and second-team All-Pro honors during that span. During his three seasons in this role, Caldwell instructed a linebacker group that played a key part in the NFL's top rush defense over that span, allowing only 82.5 rushing yards per game and 3.72 yards per carry. In 2020, Caldwell coached David and White to a Super Bowl LV title, finishing the season with an 11-5 record and leading the league in rush defense (80.6 rush yards allowed per game) for the second consecutive season. David averaged 112.3 tackles per season with Caldwell as his position coach and contributed 27 tackles for loss, 16 passes defensed, eight forced fumbles, 4.5 sacks, four fumble recoveries and two interceptions in that timeframe.

Before his first stint with the Buccaneers, he held defensive roles with the New York Jets (2015-18), Arizona Cardinals (2013-14) and Philadelphia Eagles (2008-2012). Caldwell began his coaching career as a training camp intern for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2007 before holding multiple roles on their staff from 2008-12.

An 11-year NFL veteran, Caldwell played with the Cleveland Browns (1993-95), Baltimore Ravens (1996), Arizona Cardinals (1997), Philadelphia Eagles (1998-2001), Chicago Bears (2002) and Carolina Panthers (2003).

He and his wife, Sue, have three children – two daughters, Sydnei and Saniah, and a son, Simeon. His daughters both played collegiate basketball at the University of Pennsylvania, while his son is a freshman safety at The Ohio State University.

SARAH EVANS
SENIOR MANAGER OF COACHING OPERATIONS

Sarah Evans enters her fourth season as senior manager of coaching operations for the Buccaneers in 2025 and her 10th year with the organization overall.

In her current role, Evans works directly with head coach Todd Bowles on all aspects of day-to-day operations, facilitating structure, communication, and strategy within the coaching department.

Evans joined Tampa Bay as an events and entertainment intern in 2016 before being promoted full-time and spending seven years in the community impact department (2016-19, 2020-22), elevating to Senior Player Relations Manager. During her time in the community impact department, Evans collaborated with players, coaches, and staff on a variety of projects. She joined forces with the Social Justice Player Board on the creation of a first-of-its kind Youth Leadership Program that brought staff and players together to mentor Tampa Bay youth. She served as liaison for all player community programs and appearances. She also focused on the implementation of gender equality initiatives that foster the development of girls and women in football, including the Girls in Football Scholarship, the Women's Summit for Careers in Football, and Women of Red. Throughout her execution of the league's 'My Cause, My Cleats' program, she worked with artists and players to create over 250 pairs of custom cleats that supported charitable causes.

In addition to her experience with the Buccaneers organization, Evans has also held roles with Florida State Basketball, the Miami Marlins, the Miami Dolphins, and Roc Nation.

A native of Miami, Evans is a graduate of Florida State University, where she earned a Bachelor's degree in sport management.

JOEY FITZGERALD
DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Joey Fitzgerald enters his fifth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 as defensive quality control coach.

In 2025, Fitzgerald ran quality control efforts for a defense that finished tied for third in total pressures (251), fifth in fewest opponent rushing yards per game (99.1) and tied for seventh in takeaways (23). Tampa Bay's rush defense has now finished top five in 3-of-4 seasons since Fitzgerald's arrival in 2022. Working closely with the defensive line, Fitzgerald aided in the development of the team's fifth-round selection, Elijah Roberts, who ended up starting nine games for the Buccaneers due to injuries, contributing 21 quarterback pressures, 14 tackles (two for loss), five quarterback hits, three passes defensed, 2.0 sacks and one fumble recovery. Roberts was 1-of-4 rookies to record five-or-more quarterback hits, three-or-more passes defensed and 2.0+ sacks in 2025, joining Cleveland's AP Defensive Rookie of the Year Carson Schwesinger, Cincinnati's Demetrius Knight and Atlanta's James Pearce Jr., leaving Robers as the only member of this group selected outside the top 50 in the 2025 NFL Draft. Roberts, Schwesinger and Atlanta's Jalon Walker were the lone three rookies with 2.0+ sacks and 20+ quarterback pressures on fewer than 300 pass-rushing snaps, per NextGen Stats.

Fitzgerald assisted a top five rush defense for the second year in a row in 2024, as Tampa Bay limited its opponents to the fourth-fewest rushing yards per game (97.8). He handled quality control efforts for a defense that regrouped over its Bye Week to finish second in opponent yards per game (273.9), second in defensive third down conversion percentage (30.1%) and second in points allowed per game (17.0) from Weeks 12-18, propelling the Buccaneers to a 6-1 record over the final seven weeks.

Alongside then Defensive Line Coach Kacy Rodgers, Fitzgerald oversaw a Pro Bowl campaign for nose tackle Vita Vea, in which Vea set career highs in sacks (7.0), tackles for loss (10) and quarterback pressures (47), and matched his career high in quarterback hits (13). Despite missing six games due to injury, second-year defensive lineman Calijah Kancey also took strides forward under Fitzgerald's mentorship, finishing with a team-high and career-best 7.5 sacks in 2024, in addition to also establishing career marks in quarterback hits (17), quarterback pressures (37) and tackles for loss (11). Kancey and Vea finished as 1-of-3 interior defensive tackle duos with 5.0+ sacks each in 2024. With defensive lineman Logan Hall finishing tied for third on the team with a career high 5.5 sacks, all three primary defensive line starters finished with career highs in sacks under Fitzgerald's leadership in 2024.

In 2023, the Buccaneers defense finished fifth in the NFL in rush defense (95.3), seventh in scoring defense (19.1) and tied for seventh in sacks (48.0). Fitzgerald assisted Rodgers in overseeing the development of rookie defensive lineman Calijah Kancey, who finished the season with 26 tackles (10 for loss), 12 quarterback hits and 4.0 sacks. Kancey's 10 tackles for loss tied for second among all rookies, trailing only teammate Yaya Diaby.

In Fitzgerald's first season in 2022, Tampa Bay finished tied for fifth in fewest opponent first downs per game (18.5), sixth in lowest third-down conversion rate (36.9%), tied for seventh in sacks (45.0), ninth in fewest passing yards allowed per game (203.6), tied for ninth in fewest total yards allowed per game (324.3) and 10th in fewest yards allowed per play (5.14).

Most recently, Fitzgerald worked as the quarterbacks coach at Northwestern State (2021) following a two-year stint as wide receivers coach at the University of Louisiana Monroe (2019-20). The Fort Lauderdale native previously served as recruiting specialist at the University of Florida in 2018 – a program that went 10-3 on its way to a Peach Bowl victory that season.

He has also previously held offensive roles at Southeastern Louisiana (2017), University of Virginia's College at Wise (2016) and Eastern Kentucky (2015).

While in graduate school, Fitzgerald began his coaching career as a defensive intern and graduate assistant at Florida Atlantic from 2009-12, working with the defensive backs and linebackers, prior to spending two years at Mississippi State (2013-14) as a graduate assistant and offensive quality control coach. Fitzgerald played quarterback at Hampden-Sydney College from 2005-08, during which his team claimed the 2007 Old Dominion Athletic Conference Championship.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Fitzgerald graduated from Hampden-Sydney College with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He later earned a master's degree in education from Florida Atlantic in 2012 and a master's degree in teaching from Mississippi State in 2014. He and his wife, Lori, have two sons, Jaxon and Brady, and one daughter, Riley.

RASHAD JOHNSON
CORNERBACKS

Rashad Johnson enters his fifth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 and his first as cornerbacks coach. Johnson originally joined the team as a Bill Walsh Coaching Fellow during the 2022 offseason. He was then hired full-time as a defensive assistant following the conclusion of training camp that year before later being promoted to assistant secondary coach in 2023.

Johnson has primarily worked with the cornerbacks over his four seasons in Tampa Bay and took over the lead role with the team's nickel cornerbacks in 2023. During that span, Johnson has played a key role in the development of Christian Izien, Zyon McCollum, Jacob Parrish and Tykee Smith.

In 2025, Parrish, the team's third-round selection, played in all 17 games for the Buccaneers as both a nickel and outside cornerback, becoming just the fourth rookie defensive back since 2010 to record 75+ tackles, multiple interceptions and multiple sacks. While assisting with the outside cornerbacks, Jamel Dean owned the league's lowest opponent passer rating when targeted in 2025 (41.3) and the second-lowest completion percentage when targeted (43.1%) among all cornerbacks with 35+ targets last season.

Under Johnson's mentorship in 2024, defensive backs Christian Izien and Tykee Smith solidified the nickel corner position, combining for 125 tackles (eight for loss), 10 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three interceptions. In just his rookie season, Smith played 13 games and was 1-of-4 players across the NFL to record three-or-more forced fumbles, five-or-more passes defensed and two-plus interceptions, joining Jessie Bates III, Zaire Franklin and Fred Warner. Smith was the first rookie to record those marks in a season since 2018. Outside corner Zyon McCollum established career highs in games started (17), defensive snaps (1,007), passes defensed (17) and interceptions (two). His 17 passes defensed tied for the third-most in the NFL, earning him a second contract in Tampa Bay.

In 2023, Johnson worked primarily with the cornerbacks, while taking the lead on the nickel corner position and mentoring undrafted defensive back Christian Izien to a share of the team lead with two interceptions in 2023. Izien became just the fourth undrafted player since 1967 with an interception in each of his first two career games. Izien was 1-of-3 undrafted players over from 2023-25 with 150+ tackles, three-or-more interceptions and three-or-more forced fumbles. Cornerback Zyon McCollum also started a career high nine games in 2023 under Johnson's coaching, ranking second on the team with nine passes defensed.

Johnson broke into coaching as a Bill Walsh Coaching Fellow with the Buccaneers during the 2022 offseason and was hired full-time as a defensive assistant following the conclusion of training camp. He contributed to a 2022 Tampa Bay defense that finished ninth in the NFL in pass defense, limiting opponents to 203.6 passing yards per game, and sixth in the league in fewest passing yards allowed per attempt (6.65). It marked the team's first season with a top 10 pass defense since 2010.

After entering the league as a third-round selection by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2009 NFL Draft, Johnson enjoyed an eight-year playing career as a defensive back for the Cardinals (2009-15) and Tennessee Titans (2016). He played in 114 career games, tallying 340 tackles, 15 interceptions, four fumble recoveries, three defensive touchdowns and two forced fumbles.

Johnson played collegiately at Alabama (2004-08), earning back-to-back first-team All-SEC honors in his final two seasons, in addition to an All-America selection his senior year. He later returned to his alma mater in 2018 as a sideline analyst for the Alabama radio network, while also serving as the director of player development (2018-20).

He is a native of Sulligent, Alabama, and resides in Tampa with his wife, Chelsea, and three kids: Hunter, Taylor and Jordan. He lives his life with a heart to inspire others through faith to become the best versions of themselves.

JEFF KASTL
ASSISTANT TIGHT ENDS

Jeff Kastl enters his fifth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 and his second as the assistant tight ends coach.

In his first season working with the tight ends, Kastl contributed to Cade Otton's 59-catch season, which matched his career high and ranked second on the Buccaneers in 2025. In addition, Otton finished with 572 receiving yards on the year, which also ranked second on the team. Among all tight ends in 2025, Otton finished second in offensive snaps played (941), fourth in routes run (510) and 10th in yards after catch (309).

In his final season as the season leading offensive quality control efforts in 2024, Kastl assisted one of the NFL's most efficient offenses. Tampa Bay's offense established a number of single-season franchise records, including: completion percentage (71.5%), passer rating (106.8), yards per rush (5.3), rushing yards (2,536) and third-down conversion rate (50.9%). Kastl contributed to a complete overhaul of the team's rushing attack, improving the NFL's 32nd-ranked rush offense in 2022 and 2023 to a ground game that finished third in yards per rush and fourth in rush yards per game in 2024. The Buccaneers became the first team in NFL history to complete 70% of their passes and average over 5.0 yards per carry throughout an entire season, in addition to becoming just the second team in league history with 40+ passing touchdowns and 5.0+ yards per rush in a single season. Tampa Bay's 2024 offense was 1-of-3 across the league to throw for 4,000+ yards and rush for 2,000+ yards this season, alongside the Baltimore Ravens and Detroit Lions.

Easing the transition with a new offensive coordinator and a new quarterback in 2023, Kastl assisted a staff that guided Baker Mayfield to career highs in completions (364), completion percentage (64.3%), passing yards (4,044) and passing touchdowns (28). Mayfield finished top 10 in the league in passing yards, passing touchdowns and touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.8). As a group, Tampa Bay's offense ranked second in 2023 in fourth-down conversion percentage (66.7%) and 10th in third-down conversion percentage (41.5%).

In Kastl's first season in charge of offense quality control efforts for the Buccaneers in 2022, Tampa Bay led the league with the fewest number of sacks allowed (22.0), ranked third in lowest interception rate per pass attempt (1.3 percent), seventh in fourth down conversion rate (55.6 percent) and tied ninth for fewest fumbles (17). Additionally, the Buccaneers offense led the league in total receptions (499), ranked second in passing yards per game (269.8), and third in total passing first downs (240).

Kastl comes to Tampa Bay as offensive quality control coach following two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Indiana State University (2020-21). He previously spent four seasons at the University of Texas-San Antonio where he began his career as the wide receivers coach in 2016, prior to adding pass game coordinator duties in 2018, and later being promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2019. His receivers broke 10 school records during his three seasons mentoring the position group.

A former University of Michigan quarterback (2002-06), Kastl spent four seasons coaching in the Power Five conferences, working as an offensive assistant at LSU (2015), defensive analyst at his alma mater (2013-14), and as a graduate assistant at Auburn in 2012. Following a pair of Big Ten titles during his playing career at Michigan (2002-06), Kastl began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan (2007-08) before spending three years at Ashland University (2009-11).

A native of Clinton Township, Michigan, Kastl graduated from the University of Michigan with a bachelor's degree in sports management and communications, as well as a master's degree in sports management. He and his wife, Kate, have three daughters, Maeve, Hannah and Murphy.

BRYAN McCLENDON
WIDE RECEIVERS

Bryan McClendon begins his third season as wide receivers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026.

McClendon guided the Buccaneers receiving corps through an injury-riddled 2025 season in which Tampa Bay's three leading receivers from the season prior missed a combined 30 games. Embracing the team's next-man-up mantra, McClendon coached rookie Emeka Egbuka to a standout rookie season in which he finished second among all rookie receivers in receptions (63), receiving yards (938) and receiving touchdowns (six), earning both September Offensive Rookie of the Month and PFWA All-Rookie team honors. Fellow rookie receiver Tez Johnson – a seventh-round selection in the 2025 NFL Draft – added 28 receptions for 322 yards and five touchdowns. His five touchdown receptions marked the second-most by a rookie seventh-round pick since the 1970 NFL merger, trailing only Marques Colston. Despite the injuries, the collective wide receiver unit finished tied for fifth in the NFL in touchdown receptions (19), ninth in receiving yards (2,635) and ninth in receptions (211).

In his first year with the Buccaneers in 2024, McClendon led a wide receiver unit that combined to finish second in the league in receiving touchdowns (28) and tied for fifth in receiving first downs (144), while contributing to an offense that ranked third in passing yards per game (250.4) and third in total yards per game (399.6). Despite missing three games, Buccaneers wide receiver Mike Evans tied for fourth in the NFL with 11 receiving touchdowns and recorded 74 receptions for 1,004 yards. Following his 2024 Pro-Bowl campaign, Evans is now tied with Jerry Rice for most consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in NFL history (11). Buccaneers wideout Chris Godwin led the NFL in Weeks 1-7 in receptions (50) and receiving first downs (33), and ranked second in receiving yards (576) and tied for third in receiving touchdowns (five) prior to suffering a season-ending injury. Under McClendon's guidance, wide receiver Jalen McMillan finished the season tied for second among all rookies with eight receiving touchdowns – the third-most by a rookie in franchise history. He recorded five consecutive games with 50+ receiving yards and a receiving touchdown – the second-longest such streak by a rookie in NFL history, trailing only Randy Moss, who accomplished this in seven consecutive games. McClendon helped the receiver unit overcome the injuries to its top two receivers, Mike Evans and Chris Godwin, with seven different receivers playing 200-or-more snaps.

McClendon joined Tampa Bay with 17 years of coaching experience, all at the collegiate level. He comes to the Buccaneers from his second stint at the University of Georgia, where he won a national championship in 2022 while serving as the team's pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach (2022-23).

During his most recent time with the Bulldogs, McClendon oversaw an offense that ranked second among Power Five schools in yards per game (498.9), third in points per game (40.6), fourth in yards per carry (5.4), sixth in passer rating (165.0), seventh in passing yards per game (300.4), and 10th in rushing yards per game (198.5).

Before his return to Georgia, McClendon was the pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach at the University of Oregon (2020-21), where he also served as the team's interim head coach during the 2021 season. Prior to joining Oregon, McClendon coached at the University of South Carolina (2016-19), working as the team's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

McClendon started his coaching career at Georgia, where he held multiple titles, including graduate assistant (2007-08), running backs coach (2009-14), assistant head coach, wide receivers coach and pass game coordinator (2015) and interim head coach (2015). In 2014, McClendon was named National Recruiter of the Year by 247Sports following his recruitment of both Nick Chubb and Sony Michel in the same class.

He played collegiately for the Bulldogs (2002-05), appearing in 46 games as a wide receiver and bringing in 56 receptions for 830 yards and six touchdowns. During his time at Georgia, McClendon was a part of two SEC championship teams and played in four bowl games. His father, Willie McClendon, also played collegiately at Georgia, earning 1978 SEC Player of the Year honors and later going on to play four seasons for the Chicago Bears (1979-82).

McClendon and his wife, Amber, have three children: Bryan, Brooke and Brayden.

ANDREW MITCHELL
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Andrew Mitchell enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 as assistant offensive line coach.

He brings 13 years of coaching experience to Tampa Bay, most recently serving as the offensive line coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma State, in 2025. Prior to his time in Stillwater, Mitchell spent three seasons in the same role at New Mexico State (2022-24), adding an assistant head coach title in 2024, and one season at TCU as an offensive analyst (2021).

From 2019-20, Mitchell was the head coach at Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, following two seasons as offensive coordinator (2017-18) during which his team led all junior colleges in scoring, averaging over 50 points per game. He began his career as a graduate assistant at both Houston (2013) and North Carolina (2014-15) prior to spending one season as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach at TCU.

After starting his collegiate playing career at Snow College (2006-07) – earning All-America honors and a start in the NJCAA national title game – Mitchell transferred to Oklahoma State, becoming a teammate of Buccaneers Offensive Coordinator Zac Robinson (2008-09). He then spent time professionally with the Cincinnati Bengals, Seattle Seahawks and Jacksonville Jaguars.

Mitchell and his wife, Kaitlin, have three children: Drew, Russell and Jace.

JUSTIN PEELLE
TIGHT ENDS

Justin Peelle (pronounced 'peel') enters his third season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 as tight ends coach.

In second season leading Tampa Bay's tight end unit, Peelle played a key role in Cade Otton's career-high-tying 59-catch season, which ranked second on the Buccaneers in 2025. In addition, Otton also finished second on the team with his 572 receiving yards on the year. Peelle has now had at least one of his tight ends go over 500 yards receiving in 10-of-11 seasons as a lead NFL position coach, including each of his first two seasons with the Buccaneers.

In his two seasons under Peelle (2024-25), Otton has been a consistent presence on the field for the Buccaneers, amassing 1,756 offensive snaps – the second-most by a tight end during that span, trailing only Trey McBride (1,854). Among all tight ends in 2025, Otton finished second in offensive snaps played (941), fourth in routes run (510) and 10th in yards after catch (309).

In Peelle's first season with the Buccaneers, Tampa Bay's tight end group was led by Cade Otton, who totaled 59 receptions – the fifth-most by a tight end in a single season in franchise history – and established career highs in receptions, yards (600), yards per reception (10.2) and receiving first downs (31). He also matched his career high in receiving touchdowns (four). From Weeks 7-9, Otton became the first tight end in franchise history with eight-or-more receptions in three consecutive games, while tying the second-longest streak of games by a tight end with 8+ receptions and 75+ receiving yards in NFL history. During that span – following injuries to the team's top two pass catchers – Otton led the team in receptions (25) and receiving yards (258). He recorded a career-high eight receptions for a career-high 100 yards in Week 7 vs. Baltimore. In Weeks 16-18, tight ends Payne Durham and rookie Devin Culp stepped up and totaled 169 yards on 14 catches, stepping in after Otton suffered an injury that kept him out the final three weeks of the regular season.

Peelle came to Tampa Bay with 11 years of prior NFL coaching experience. He most recently served as tight ends coach for the Atlanta Falcons (2021-23), where he coached Kyle Pitts to a Falcons single-season rookie receiving yards record (1,026 yards) and a Pro Bowl selection in his first season. Pitts' 2021 season paired him with Pro Football Hall of Famer Mike Ditka (1,067 in 1961) as the only rookie tight ends to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in NFL history.

In 2023, Peelle's unit collectively led the league in receiving yards by a tight ends group (1,380), while ranking fifth in receptions (114) and tying for ninth as a group in touchdown receptions (seven).

Prior to his time in Atlanta, Peelle spent the previous six seasons as tight ends coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (2015-20) after beginning his NFL coaching career as an assistant tight ends coach with the Eagles from 2013-14. In Philadelphia, Peelle played a vital role in the development of three-time Pro Bowl tight end Zach Ertz. Peelle guided Ertz through his first eight NFL seasons, highlighted by a Super Bowl LII championship, in which Ertz hauled in the game-winning touchdown. In 2018, Ertz claimed the NFL record for single-season receptions by a tight end (116), a record that still stands to this day.

Coaching one of the NFL's best tight end duos from 2018-20 – Ertz and Dallas Goedert – Peele's unit in Philadelphia led the league in both receptions (417) and receiving yards (4,388) during that span, in addition to ranking third in touchdown receptions (31).

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Peelle enjoyed a 10-year NFL career of his own, appearing in 151 career games. He entered the league as a fourth-round selection (No. 103 overall) by the San Diego Chargers in the 2002 NFL Draft, where he played for four seasons (2002-05) before going on to play for the Miami Dolphins (2006-07), Falcons (2008-10) and San Francisco 49ers (2011).

Peelle played collegiately at Oregon (1998-2001), earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior. He and his wife, Sara, have two sons, Morris and Thompson, and one daughter, Ada.

SKIP PEETE RUNNING BACKS

Peete begins his fourth season as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026.

The Buccaneers utilized a committee approach to the run game in 2025 due to injuries, with three different running backs tallying 300-or-more rush yards and four-plus touchdowns from scrimmage on the season. The Buccaneers are 1-of-3 teams over the past decade (2016-25) to have three different running backs reach 300 rushing yards and four touchdowns from scrimmage each in the same season, joining only the 2025 New York Giants and the 2019 Arizona Cardinals.

Over his first two NFL seasons, with Peete as his position coach (2024-25), Bucky Irving is 1-of-4 running backs with 1,500+ rushing yards, 600+ receiving yards and 12+ scrimmage touchdowns while averaging 4.5+ yards per rush attempt, alongside only De'Von Achane, Jahmyr Gibbs and Bijan Robinson.

In 2024, under Peete's guidance, the Buccaneers rush offense improved from a league-worst 3.4 yards per rush to a third-best 5.3 yards per rush, setting franchise records in both yards per attempt as well as total rushing yards (2,536). Tampa Bay's offense rushed for 100+ yards in 14-of-17 (82.4%) of games in 2024, after doing so in 9-of-34 (26.5%) games over the previous two seasons, averaging 149.2 yards per game – the fourth-highest mark in the NFL. Rookie running back Bucky Irving led the NFL rookie class in scrimmage yards (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight), on his way to a 2024 PFWA All-Rookie Team selection. Irving led the league in missed tackle percentage (37.1%) and finished fifth with 76 missed tackles, according to NextGen Stats. With Peete as his position coach, Irving recorded 5.4 yards per rush, which is a franchise record and the third-highest mark in NFL history among rookies with 200+ rush attempts in a single season, trailing only Adrian Peterson (5.6 in 2007) and Clinton Portis (5.5 in 2002). Irving became 1-of-7 running backs to record 1,500-or-more scrimmage yards, 1,000-or-more rushing yards, 5.0-or-more yards per rush and 8-or-more rushing touchdowns in their rookie season.

The Buccaneers running back room of Irving, Rachaad White and Sean Tucker, combined to finish in the top five among all teams in yards after catch (first – 1,149), catch percentage (first – 88.4%), scrimmage yards (second – 2,937), receiving touchdowns (second – 7), receiving yards (second – 894), receptions (second – 107), yards per touch (second – 5.8), first downs (third – 144), touches (third – 508), receiving first downs (third – 40), yards per rush (third – 5.1), rushing yards (2,043) and scrimmage touchdowns (fifth – 20). White put forth his second consecutive season with 1,000+ yards from scrimmage, making Irving and White 1-of-2 duos in the league in 2024 with 1,000 yards from scrimmage each, alongside Jahmyr Gibbs and David Montgomery of the Detroit Lions. Tucker earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week in Week 6, following his breakout game at New Orleans, where he recorded 192 scrimmage yards, 136 rushing yards on 14 carries, 56 receiving yards on three receptions and two touchdowns.

In his first year with the Buccaneers in 2023, Peete coached second-year running back Rachaad White to a breakout season in which he recorded the fourth-most scrimmage yards among running backs (1,539) and tied for the seventh-most among all players, contributing 990 yards rushing and 549 yards receiving. White was 1-of-6 players to finish the season with 1,500+ scrimmage yards and nine-or-more touchdowns, joining Breece Hall, Tyreek Hill, CeeDee Lamb, Christian McCaffrey and Amon-Ra St. Brown. Among all running backs, White not only finished fourth in scrimmage yards, but also ranked first in catch percentage (91.4%), second in yards after catch (611), third in receiving yards and fourth in receptions (64). He also tied for the fourth-most 100-yard scrimmage games among running backs in 2023.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Peete spent the previous three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2020-22) as the team's running backs coach, leading a rushing attack that ranked fifth in yards after contact per rush (3.31), ninth in rushing touchdowns (53), 10th in rushing yards (6,205) and 11th in rushing yards per game (124.1).

In the 2022 campaign, the Cowboys ranked second in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (24) and eighth in rushing yards (2,298), while converting 63.9% of the team's third-down rush attempts –the fourth-highest rate in the league. The Cowboys were one of two teams whose running backs did not commit a fumble during the 2022 regular season, despite recording the sixth-most carries in the league.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Peete served as the running backs coach for the Los Angeles Rams (2016-19), coaching Todd Gurley to two Pro Bowl selections, two first-team All-Pro selections and 2017 Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year honors. During his four seasons with Peete as his position coach, Gurley ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (48) and second in rushing yards (4,298).

In his two seasons as the running backs coach for the Chicago Bears (2013-14), Peete's top back, Matt Forte, led the NFL in scrimmage yards (3,779) and ranked fourth in rushing yards (2,377). Forte also set a record in 2014 for the most receptions by a running back in a single season (102).

Peete broke into the NFL coaching ranks as the running backs coach for the Oakland Raiders (1998-2006) before beginning his first stint in the same position with the Cowboys (2007-12). He also held collegiate positions as the running backs coach at UCLA (1996-97), wide receivers coach at Rutgers University (1995), wide receivers coach at Michigan State University (1993-94), running backs coach at the University of Pittsburgh (1991-92) and wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh (1988-90).

Peete is a native of Phoenix, Arizona. He and his wife, Rebeca, have twins, Gisele and Reeco. He is the son of Willie Peete, who spent three seasons with the Buccaneers as the team's running backs coach (1992-94). His brother, Rodney, played 16 seasons in the NFL at quarterback for the Detroit Lions, Dallas Cowboys, Philadelphia Eagles, Washington, Oakland Raiders and Carolina Panthers.

LUKE SMITH
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Luke Smith begins his first season as assistant special teams coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026.

Before his arrival to Tampa Bay, Smith previously served as quality control coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2025. In his year with the Steelers, Smith contributed to Pittsburgh's playoff berth and AFC North division title.

Prior to his time with the Steelers, he spent nine years at Duquesne University, beginning as a defensive assistant (2016-17) before being promoted to wide receivers coach (2018-24). During his time with the Dukes, the team won four Northeast Conference Championships (2016, 2018, 2023, 2024) and made two NCAA FCS Playoff appearances (2018, 2023).

Smith coached 10 Duquesne receivers to all-conference honors, including six who earned first-team recognition. Cyrus Holder, the NEC's leader in receiving yards in 2020-21 under Smith's guidance, earned an undrafted rookie free agent contract with the Chicago Bears in 2022. Smith also coached Duquesne's all-time leading receiver, Nehari Crawford, to an NEC-high 1,048 receiving yards and 71 receptions in 2018. Over his six seasons leading the wide receiver room, Smith had a wide receiver finish top three in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns in five of those six years.

Luke and his wife, Molly, currently reside in Tampa.

BLAINE STEWART
OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Blaine Stewart enters his second season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026.

In his first season running quality control operations for Tampa Bay in 2025, Stewart contributed to an offense that ranked top 10 in plays of 20+ yards (64 – t-10th), third down conversion percentage on run plays (63.9% – third) and overall third down conversion percentage (41.2% – 10th). Stewart also contributed to the development of rookie wide receivers Emeka Egbuka and Tez Johnson. Egbuka finished second among all rookies in receiving yards (938), receiving touchdowns (six) and yards after catch (335), while Johnson finished with the second-most receiving touchdowns by a rookie seventh round pick since the 1970 NFL merger.

Stewart brought seven years of prior coaching experience to Tampa Bay, including five at the NFL level. Most recently Stewart spent two seasons as tight ends coach at West Virginia University (2023-24), coaching Kole Taylor – who signed with the Cincinnati Bengals during the 2025 offseason as an undrafted free agent – to All-Big 12 honors in each of his two seasons working with Stewart. Taylor was the Mountaineers leading receiver in 2023, before tallying the second-most single season receptions by a tight end in program history in 2024 (43). West Virgina boasted a top 10 Power Four rush offense in each of Stewart's two seasons with the program, including a No. 1 Power Four finish in 2023.

During his first stint in the NFL, Stewart spent five seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers, beginning his career as a coaching assistant (2018-19) before being promoted to assistant wide receivers coach (2020-22). Over that span, the Steelers earned a pair of playoff berths, including a 2020 AFC North division title, and three different Steelers wide receivers were named to the Pro Bowl: Antonio Brown (2018), JuJu Smith-Schuster (2018) and Diontae Johnson (2021). Stewart also coached Chase Claypool to the rookie lead in receiving touchdowns in 2020 (nine), while finishing fourth in both receptions (62) and receiving yards (873) in a stacked wide receiver class.

In 2020, Stewart was the West quarterbacks coach in the East West Shrine Bowl, alongside another member of the current Buccaneers coaching staff in Inside Linebackers Coach Mike Caldwell. He served as the West quarterbacks coach again in 2026, guiding Iowa's Mark Gronowski to Offensive MVP honors.

A native of Morgantown, West Virginia, Stewart played collegiately at James Madison (2013-15) and the University of Charleston (2016-17). He won the CAA Conference Championship with JMU in 2015 and was twice named CAA Academic All-Conference (2014, 2015), in addition to earning the CAA Commissioner's Academic Award in 2013. Stewart received his bachelor's degree from James Madison and his master's degree from Charleston. He is the son of late West Virginia head football coach Bill Stewart, who led the Mountaineers to a 28-12 (.700) three-year record from 2008-10.

CHAD WADE
HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Chad Wade begins his 13th season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 and his first as Head Strength and Conditioning coach following 12 years as an assistant. He was a member of the coaching staff for the Buccaneers Super Bowl LV Championship season in 2020.

He and Buccaneers Ring of Honor member and former defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin are now tied for the most seasons on Tampa Bay's coaching staff in franchise history, at 13.

Wade joined the team following 18 years (1996-2013) at the University of Nebraska. During that time Wade served as the assistant strength coach and strength coach for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as helped coordinate workouts for the football team.

Wade graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University with a bachelor's degree in sports management and minor in psychology (1996). He also was a member of the football team for two years (1992-94). Wade earned the designation of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association in 2013. Wade is married to Amber and the couple has three children, Burgess, William and Jet.

DEANDRE WARD SR.
ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

DeAndre Ward Sr. enters his fifth season as assistant strength & conditioning coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026.

Ward joined Tampa Bay after spending two seasons as assistant strength & conditioning coach at Mississippi State from 2020–21. He began his coaching career as assistant strength & conditioning coach for the Cincinnati Bearcats from 2018–19.

Beginning his career as a walk-on in 2013 at Mississippi State, Ward later earned a full scholarship to play linebacker for the Bulldogs, spending four seasons in Starkville (2013–16), and recording 79 tackles (five for loss), 1.5 sacks and one interception, which he returned for a touchdown. Ward played in a bowl game every season of his collegiate career and was part of the 2014 Mississippi State team that reached the No. 1 overall ranking in the country.

He and his wife, Meagan, have two sons, JR and Daylin, and a daughter, Vonne.

MARCUS WEST
DEFENSIVE LINE

Marcus West enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 as defensive line coach.

West joins the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after four years with the Buffalo Bills (2022–25), most recently serving as their defensive line coach following two seasons as the assistant defensive line coach. He was promoted following the 2023 season in which the Bills tallied 54 sacks, which were fourth-most in the NFL that season. West also contributed to a Bills defense that ranked first in the AFC in 2022 with 17.8 points per game allowed and ranked second in the NFL with 286 total points allowed.

Prior to his four seasons with the Bills, West spent time at the collegiate level, serving as the assistant head coach/co-defensive coordinator/defensive line coach at Charlotte from 2019–21. In his first season at Charlotte, the defense set school records in sacks (36) and tackles for loss (86) and finished the season with a school-record seven wins. West helped coach All-American defensive end Alex Highsmith, who ranked in the nation's top five with a school record 14.0 sacks and 21.5 tackles for loss. West had previous stints at Wartburg (2008), Chattanooga (2009–15), Austin Peay (2016–17) and Minnesota (2018).

He played collegiately at Memphis (2002–05) before spending time professionally with the Indianapolis Colts in 2006 and the Amsterdam Admirals (NFL Europe) and Hamilton Tiger-Cats (Canadian Football League) in 2007.

West is married to Nikki West, the associate head coach of the North Carolina State women's basketball team.

CHANDLER WHITMER QUARTERBACKS

Chandler Whitmer enters his first season as quarterbacks coach with the Buccaneers in 2026.

Whitmer joined Tampa Bay fresh off a College Football Playoff National Championship with the undefeated, 16-0, Indiana Hoosiers where he served as the team's quarterbacks coach and co-offensive coordinator. Under Whitmer's guidance, Indiana quarterback Fernando Mendoza won the program's first-ever Heisman Trophy in 2025, finishing the season as the nation's leader in touchdown passes (41) and passer rating (182.9), in addition to throwing for 3,535 yards and finishing fourth in the country in completion percentage (72.0%) and fourth in yards per pass attempt (9.3).

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Yale (2018), Ohio State (2019) and Clemson (2020) before entering the professional ranks as an offensive quality control coach for the Los Angeles Chargers (2021-23) and the pass game specialist for the Atlanta Falcons (2024). In addition to working with Mendoza, Whitmer has also helped develop the likes of Justin Herbert, Trevor Lawrence, Justin Fields and Michael Penix Jr. He contributed to three College Football Playoff appearances with Indiana, Ohio State and Clemson.

Whitmer played quarterback at Illinois (2010), Butler (Ks.) Community College (2011) and Connecticut (2012-14). He was a named NJCAA All-America honorable mention in 2011 with Butler C.C. before logging 24 starts with the UConn Huskies.

KEN ZAMPESE
SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/PASS GAME SPECIALIST

Ken Zampese enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2026 as senior offensive assistant/pass game specialist.

Zampese brings more than 35 years of coaching experience to Tampa Bay, including over 25 seasons in the NFL. He joined the Buccaneers after spending the 2024-25 seasons with the Atlanta Falcons as senior offensive assistant. During Zampese's time with Atlanta, the Falcons posted top 10 marks offensively in yards per game (351.4 – ninth), yards per play (5.6 – 10th), rushing yards per game (128.1 – eighth), yards per rush (4.5 – ninth), passing yards per game (223.3 – ninth) and net yards per pass attempt (6.9 – ninth).

Prior to his time in Atlanta, Zampese spent four seasons with the now Washington Commanders, serving as quarterbacks coach from 2020-22 before transitioning to senior offensive assistant/game management in 2023.

Zampese also served as quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns in 2018, helping guide No. 1 overall pick Baker Mayfield to a standout rookie season in which he set a then NFL rookie record with 27 touchdown passes in just 13 games, while leading all rookies in passing yards (3,725), passing touchdowns, completion percentage (63.7%) and passer rating (93.7).

From 2016-17, Zampese was offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals, overseeing a unit that averaged 318.7 yards of offense per game. He also previously spent 13 seasons with Cincinnati (2003-15) as quarterbacks coach, working closely with Jon Kitna, Carson Palmer and Andy Dalton.

Earlier in his NFL career, Zampese spent time with the St. Louis Rams (2000-02), Green Bay Packers (1999) and Philadelphia Eagles (1998). With St. Louis, he served as wide receivers coach in 2001 before adding passing game coordinator responsibilities in 2002.

Before his time in the NFL, Zampese worked nine seasons in the collegiate ranks for Miami (Ohio), Northern Arizona, USC and his alma mater, San Diego.

Zampese played wide receiver and kick returner at San Diego from 1985-88, earning the team's Special Teams Player of the Year award as a senior.

MIKE GREENBERG
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Greenberg enters his 17th season with the Buccaneers and fourth as Assistant General Manager. Prior to his promotion, Greenberg spent two seasons as the vice president of football administration after eight seasons as director of football administration and two seasons as the coordinator of football administration. He originally joined the club as player personnel assistant in 2010.

Greenberg works directly with General Manager Jason Licht on all aspects of the salary cap, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as the club's financial and strategic planning. He oversees football administration, video, athletic training, equipment, groundskeeping and player development departments, in addition to managing budgeting for all football departments.

In 2026, Greenberg executed the contracts of a deep free agent class, including retaining the team's versatile and reliable tight end, Cade Otton, in addition to leading the negotiations with linebacker Alex Anzalone and defensive lineman A'Shawn Robinson.

During the 2025 offseason, the Buccaneers once again placed an emphasis on retaining their own. Greenberg took the lead in the contract negotiations that led to a new three-year deal for guard Ben Bredeson and new deals for linebacker Lavonte David and edge rusher Anthony Nelson, while also aiding in the re-signing of wide receiver Chris Godwin. David's contract was the sixth he has signed with Tampa Bay, all with Greenberg, as David completed his entire 14-year career with the Buccaneers. In 2025, David tied Derrick Brooks for the second-most seasons played in franchise history (15) in addition to tying the franchise's all-time regular season tackles record (1,714). Nelson's contract marked this second re-signing with Tampa Bay since originally being drafted to the Buccaneers in 2019. Greenberg also executed contract extensions for right tackle Luke Goedeke and cornerback Zyon McCollum.

Working in tandem with Vice President of Football Research Jacqueline Davidson, Greenberg and his staff pieced together yet another noteworthy free agency haul in 2024, re-signing four of the NFL's top free agents in linebacker Lavonte David, wide receiver Mike Evans, quarterback Baker Mayfield and safety Antoine Winfield Jr. After managing to keep the team's core in place following its run to the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, Greenberg also helped add value free agents, including offensive lineman Ben Bredeson and wide receiver Sterling Shepard. The 2024 offseason also saw Greenberg extend Pro Bowl and All-Pro left tackle Tristan Wirfs, as well as re-sign veteran kicker Chase McLaughlin.

Greenberg received critical acclaim for his work this offseason, helping the Buccaneers navigate a challenging salary cap situation while re-signing key members of the team and retooling the club's roster through a series of value signings. Despite financial restraints, Greenberg orchestrated the extension of outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, plus the re-signing of cornerback Jamel Dean and linebacker Lavonte David, two of the NFL's top available free agents heading into the 2023 offseason. In addition, Greenberg advised on negotiations in the signings of free agent quarterback Baker Mayfield and kicker Chase McLaughlin.

In the 2022 Greenberg played a key role in negotiating contracts to re-sign cornerback Carlton Davis III, Pro Bowl receiver Chris Godwin, and Pro Bowl center Ryan Jensen.

The 2021 offseason resulted in the Buccaneers becoming the first team in the Super Bowl era to return all 22 starters after winning the Super Bowl. Greenberg played a crucial part in re-signing outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, linebacker Lavonte David, tight end Rob Gronkowski, defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh, running back Leonard Fournette, while also extending Super Bowl LV MVP Tom Brady. Offensive lineman Donovan Smith also signed his second contract extension with the team in March.

In addition, Greenberg was able to negotiate a contract extension with nose tackle Vita Vea in Week 18 of the 2021 season.

During the 2020 offseason, Greenberg was vital in negotiating quarterback Tom Brady's two-year contract. He also oversaw the re-signings of former Pro Bowlers Jason Pierre-Paul and Ndamukong Suh, two key veteran presences on the Buccaneers defense. Greenberg was named a 2020 Tampa Bay Business Journal 40 under 40 honoree, in addition to also being listed on The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40: The rising stars shaping the direction of the NFL."

In his role as Director of Football Administration, Greenberg oversaw long-term contract extensions for linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Mike Evans, each of whom have earned Pro Bowl honors during their time with Tampa Bay. Greenberg also worked on extensions for offensive linemen Ali Marpet and Donovan Smith.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Greenberg worked with the New York Jets as a football administration intern in 2008 and 2009. He also spent time working as a law clerk for the National Football League's Management Council and as a summer associate at Jaspan Schlesinger LLP.

Greenberg graduated with honors from Cornell University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in policy analysis and management, and earned a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law on a full academic scholarship in 2010. He also was the research editor for the Hofstra Law Review. Greenberg is licensed to practice law in New York.

Prior to enrolling at Cornell, Greenberg spent one year at Binghamton University (2003), where he was a member of the Bearcats soccer program that advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament that year and finished top 25 in the nation. Greenberg was also named to the America East All-Academic team. In 2023, the 2003 men's soccer team was inducted into the Binghamton Hall of Fame.

In 2017, Greenberg was inducted into the John F. Kennedy (Bellmore, New York) High School Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Ilana, have three sons, Hank, Harry, and Gus. They reside in Tampa.

ROB McCARTNEY
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Rob McCartney enters his 16th season with the Buccaneers and second as assistant general manager, playing an integral role in shaping the club's roster and personnel strategy. He works closely with Buccaneers General Manager Jason Licht regarding the NFL Draft, free agency and all other personnel decisions, while overseeing the day-to-day operations of the college and pro scouting departments.

McCartney was promoted to his current role in 2025 after spending the previous three seasons as director of player personnel where he helped align the organization's scouting processes and roster-building approach across both the college and pro scouting departments. Previously, he served as director of pro scouting from 2015-21 and oversaw the Buccaneers pro personnel staff and advance reports, along with the evaluation of opponents, pro leagues, free agents, and trade prospects.

Throughout his tenure, McCartney has played a central role in shaping the Buccaneers, helping construct and sustain a roster that produced five consecutive playoff berths (2020-24), four consecutive NFC South division titles (2021-24) and a Super Bowl LV championship.

The 2026 offseason saw McCartney play a key part in assembling a seasoned free agent class that added a combined 483 NFL games worth of experience to Tampa Bay's roster. The group included linebacker Alex Anzalone, special teams specialist Miles Killebrew, outside linebacker Al-Quadin Muhammad and defensive lineman A'Shawn Robinson.

McCartney was likewise instrumental in shaping Tampa Bay's 2025 draft class, which wasted no time making its presence felt. Two of its members earned PFWA All-Rookie honors: first-round wide receiver Emeka Egbuka and third-round defensive back Jacob Parrish. Despite a season hampered by injuries across the roster, Egbuka emerged as the centerpiece of the Buccaneers' passing game, pacing the team with 63 catches, 938 receiving yards, and six touchdown receptions. Within his draft class, he ranked second in receiving yards and yards after the catch (335), tied for second in touchdown grabs, and fourth in total receptions. Parrish, meanwhile, made an equally impressive mark on defense, recording 68 tackles – seven of which went for a loss – along with seven pass breakups, two interceptions, two sacks, and a fumble recovery.

The Buccaneers, with McCartney's guidance, used the 2025 offseason to retain key franchise cornerstones on both sides of the ball in Lavonte David and Chris Godwin, in addition to re-signing guard Ben Bredeson.

From 2023-24, 40 of the 50 different players to have started a game for Tampa Bay were homegrown players that were either drafted or originally signed as undrafted free agents by the Buccaneers. In addition, 39-of-43 players drafted by the Buccaneers in rounds one through six since 2019 were on an NFL roster in 2025 – the fifth-highest percentage of any team during that span.

McCartney also helped deliver four starters in the 2024 draft class in center Graham Barton, running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith. Irving – Tampa Bay's 2024 fourth-round pick – earned a PFWA All-Rookie selection after leading the rookie class in yards from scrimmage (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight). He was the first running back drafted in the fourth round or later to lead a draft class in scrimmage yards since 2000. Irving and Barton also helped catapult the Buccaneers rushing attack from 32nd in the NFL in 2022 and 2023 to fourth in 2024, averaging 149.2 yards per game and a franchise-record 5.3 yards per rush. Meanwhile, Irving and McMillan became the first rookie running back/wide receiver duo with eight-plus scrimmage touchdowns each since Reggie Bush and Marques Colston in 2006.

Tampa Bay's 2024 offseason focused primarily on retaining four of the NFL's top free agents on the market – Lavonte David, Mike Evans, Baker Mayfield and Antoine Winfield Jr. – but McCartney played an instrumental role in maximizing the remaining salary cap space to sign a number of outside free agents, including guard Ben Bredeson.

In 2023, McCartney contributed to a series of value signings as Tampa Bay navigated challenging salary cap restraints. He assisted in the team's acquisitions of free agent quarterback Baker Mayfield and kicker Chase McLaughlin. Over his first two seasons with the team, Mayfield earned consecutive Pro Bowl selections – becoming the first player in franchise history to accomplish that feat – and the 2023 PFWA Most Improved Player award, while ranking first in passing touchdowns (69), second in passing yards (8,544) and seventh in passer rating (100.7) across the NFL from 2023-24. Meanwhile, McLaughlin reset the single season franchise record for field goal percentage in each of his first two seasons, converting on 93.5% of his attempts in 2023 (29-of-31) and 93.8% of his attempts in 2024 (30-of-32) to rank second in the NFL in field goal percentage across that span.

Additionally in 2023, the Buccaneers relied heavily on their draft class to reach the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, during which it provided the most total snaps by a rookie class in the NFL that season (5,560). Seven members of the eight-person class played in at least 13 games for Tampa Bay as the collective group combined for 106 games played and 48 games started. First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby have combined for 153 pressures, 46 tackles for loss, 57 quarterback hits and 23.5 sacks over their first two seasons. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

During the 2020 offseason, McCartney was involved in bringing in quarterback Tom Brady and tight end Rob Gronkowski. Other veteran players to join the Buccaneers during the 2020 season were running back Leonard Fournette and kicker Ryan Succop. Despite a global pandemic, Tom Brady would lead the team to an 11-5 record and a Super Bowl victory. Brown, Fournette and Gronkowski would each go on to score touchdowns in Super Bowl LV, while Succop set a regular season franchise record for the most points in a single season (136).

During the 2019 offseason, he was instrumental in the signings of outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett and defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh. Barrett went on to have a Pro Bowl year, setting the franchise sack record with an NFL-best 19.5, while Suh started all 16 games for Tampa Bay, helping the team register the No. 1 rush defense in the NFL. The pair continued their success into the 2020 season, starting all 20 games, including four playoff games. Barrett and Suh helped the Buccaneers finish as the No. 1 rush defense for the second consecutive season.

In 2018, McCartney contributed to the signing of free agent center Ryan Jensen and the acquisition of outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul from the New York Giants. Jensen went on to start 65 games for the Buccaneers and was an integral part of the club's Super Bowl LV Championship team. He earned his first career Pro Bowl nod in 2021. In three seasons with the Buccaneers, Pierre-Paul averaged 0.73 sacks per game – eighth-most in the NFL during that stretch. Pierre-Paul earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2020 after posting a team-high 9.5 sacks and a career-best four forced fumbles.

McCartney spent the 2014 season as a national scout, following two seasons as a pro scout, a title he earned after being elevated from a pro personnel assistant.

While working as a national scout, McCartney was responsible for scouting top college prospects east of the Mississippi River, contributing to the selections of Jameis Winston, Donovan Smith, Ali Marpet and Kwon Alexander in 2015. Alexander, Winston and Marpet each went on to earn Pro Bowl selections with Tampa Bay.

McCartney came to Tampa Bay after working as a player personnel intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers organization from 2009-10 and as a summer intern in the player personnel department from 2006-08.

In 2021, McCartney was named to the Tampa Bay Business Journal's 40 under 40 list, celebrating individuals under the age of 40 who have achieved notable success, demonstrated exceptional leadership, and made significant contributions in their respective fields.

His father, Bob McCartney, has spent 52 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was recognized by the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2024 with an Award of Excellence for his contributions as a long-time film/video director.

McCartney graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2009 with a Bachelor of Science degree in sport and entertainment management. Rob and his wife Kristi reside in Tampa, along with their three daughters, Madison, Charlotte and Zoe.

MIKE BIEHL
VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Mike Biehl enters his 13th season with Tampa Bay and second as vice president of player personnel after being promoted from director of player personnel (2022-24). Biehl began his time with the Buccaneers as director of college scouting – a role he held from 2014-21.

In his current role, Biehl directs both the college and pro personnel departments, in addition to overseeing the evaluation process for all draft-eligible players. He holds an essential role in the team's player acquisition strategy and contributes to key decisions in both the NFL Draft and free agency. Biehl's ability as a talent evaluator has been vital to putting the Buccaneers among the league's best in terms of success through the NFL Draft. Since 2019, 39-of-43 (90.7%) of Tampa Bay's first through sixth round draft picks were on an NFL roster last season – the fifth-highest percentage of any NFL team during that span.

During the 2026 offseason, Biehl contributed to a veteran free agency haul that collectively brought 483 games of NFL experience to the Buccaneers roster with the additions of linebacker Alex Anzalone, special teams ace Miles Killebrew, outside linebacker Al-Quadin Muhammad and defensive lineman A'Shawn Robinson. Additionally, Tampa Bay brought back tight end Cade Otton, who leads his position group across the league in offensive snaps played (3,530) since entering the NFL in 2022.

He played an essential role in the Buccaneers' 2025 draft class, which provided immediate impact in the form of two PFWA All-Rookie selections, first-round wide receiver Emeka Egbuka and third-round defensive back Jacob Parrish. Egbuka quickly became the focal point of Tampa Bay's offense in 2025 in an injury-filled year, finishing his debut season with 63 receptions for 938 yards and six receiving touchdowns – all of which led the team. Among members of his class, Egbuka ranked second in receiving yards (938), second in yards after catch (335), tied for second in receiving touchdowns (six) and fourth in receptions (63). Meanwhile Parrish racked up 68 tackles (seven for loss), seven passes defensed, two interceptions, 2.0 sacks and one fumble recovery.

In the team's 2025 free agency efforts, Biehl aided in the key re-signings of guard Ben Bredeson, linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Chris Godwin.

The 2024 class continued Tampa Bay's run of success in the NFL Draft, producing four starters in center Graham Barton, running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith. The Buccaneers were one of only three teams in 2024 to have three-or-more players drafted in the third round or later play 500+ snaps in their rookie campaign. Irving, the team's fourth-round selection, earned a PFWA selection after leading the rookie class in yards from scrimmage (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight). Irving and Barton helped revamp the team's rush offense, which finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (149.2) and third in yards per rush attempt (5.3).

On the path to an appearance in the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, the Buccaneers relied heavily on their draft class, which provided the most total snaps by a rookie class in the NFL that season (5,560). Seven members of the eight-person class played in at least 13 games for Tampa Bay as the collective group combined for 106 games played and 48 games started. First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

Tampa Bay selected eight players in the 2022 NFL Draft and saw immediate contributions from the entire class, ranking seventh in the NFL with 3,689 snaps by rookies in the 2022 season. Of those 3,689 snaps, the Buccaneers saw their rookies log 1,977 of them on offense, good for the fourth-most in the NFL. Fourth-round tight end Cade Otton was Tampa Bay's most prolific rookie contributor on offense in 2022, leading all rookie tight ends with 42 receptions and ranking third among rookie tight ends with 391 receiving yards. Since entering the league in 2022, Otton ranks second among all tight ends in offensive snaps played (2,589), in addition to ranking second in his tight end class in touchdown receptions (10), third in receptions (148) and fourth in receiving yards (1,446). Tampa Bay's 2022 third-rounder, Rachaad White, leads all members of his running back class in receptions (165) and receiving touchdowns (11), while ranking second in receiving yards (1,232) and third in scrimmage yards (3,316) through three seasons. White became 1-of-9 players in NFL history with 10+ rushing touchdowns and 10+ receiving touchdowns through their first three career seasons.

In 2021, Tampa Bay selected outside linebacker Joe Tryon-Shoyinka in the first round and center Robert Hainsey in the third round, who each became primary starters in just their second NFL season (2022). The pairing combined to appear in 126 games over their first four seasons, starting a total of 80.

In 2020, the NFL conducted its first ever virtual draft, with the Buccaneers selecting a total of seven players. Five out of six players saw playing time in at least ten games, led by first and second-round picks Tristan Wirfs and Antoine Winfield Jr. Despite no offseason or preseason games, both rookies started all 16 regular season games and every playoff game they appeared in.

Wirfs and Winfield Jr. turned out to be key contributors en route to the Buccaneers second Super Bowl victory. Wirfs played every offensive snap, only allowing one sack. Winfield Jr. had similar success, starting his rookie campaign by winning NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month and finishing third on the team with 94 tackles, 3.0 sacks, two forced fumbles, and an interception. Both were named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. Since 2020, Wirfs and Winfield Jr. have been two of the NFL's most productive players at their respective positions with Wirfs earning four Pro Bowl selections and two AP first-team All-Pro nods in his four seasons and Winfield Jr. earning one Pro Bowl trip and one first-team All-Pro selection.

The 2019 NFL Draft produced a total of eight draft picks, with five players seeing starts in Todd Bowles' defense. Devin White, picked fifth overall, started all 13 games he played, recording 91 tackles, recovering four fumbles, and capping his first season with consecutive NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month honors for November and December. Cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, picked in the second-round, led the team with three interceptions, tying for the most among NFL rookies. Both White and Murphy-Bunting earned spots on the PWFA's All-Rookie team. Third-round pick Jamel Dean finished the season with 17 passes defensed, tying for fourth in the NFL.

In his second season, White was named a team captain and led Tampa Bay with 140 tackles – fifth-most in the NFL – while adding 9.0 sacks. White earned second-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice. Both White and Murphy-Bunting were key contributors during Tampa Bay's postseason run, with White tallying 38 tackles, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, while Murphy-Bunting recorded three interceptions in his first three career playoffs games, becoming just the fourth player to do so in the Super Bowl era. White later garnered his first Pro Bowl selection for his efforts during the 2021 season.

With the 12th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Buccaneers selected defensive tackle Vita Vea, who helped anchor the Buccaneers' top-ranked run defense during the 2019 and 2020 seasons. The team has finished top five in rush defense in four of Vea's six seasons in Tampa Bay, helping land Vea his first Pro Bowl selection in 2021. Fourth-round pick Jordan Whitehead, chosen 117th overall, started 55-of-59 career games for Tampa Bay in his first four seasons, tallying 292 tackles and five interceptions. After two productive seasons with the New York Jets, Whitehead re-signed with the Buccaneers prior to the 2024 season as a key free agent acquisition.

Ronald Jones II – a second-round pick in the 2018 Draft – recorded 1,000 yards from scrimmage and six rushing touchdowns in nine starts in 2019 and followed that up with an even more impressive 2020. Jones rushed for 978 yards on 192 carries (5.1 avg.) with seven touchdowns. His 5.1 yards per carry established a new franchise record and ranked eighth in the NFL among qualified rushers.

Fellow 2018 second-round pick Carlton Davis III started 75 career games over six seasons for Tampa Bay, including starting all nine of the team's playoff games between 2020-23. Over his six years for the Buccaneers, Davis III ranked fifth in the NFL in passes defensed (73), adding 13 takeaways.

The 2017 NFL Draft saw Biehl, working with General Manager Jason Licht, select six players, with three stepping into starting roles as rookies. The Buccaneers' first-round pick, tight end O.J. Howard, started all 14 games he played in, tying for the team lead with six touchdown receptions – tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie.

In the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft, the Buccaneers selected wide receiver Chris Godwin. Over seven seasons with Tampa Bay, Godwin has totaled 6,690 receiving yards – the second-most in team history – and 34 touchdowns, which rank tied for second in franchise history. Since becoming a full-time starter in 2019, Godwin ranks 10th in the NFL in receiving yards per game (73.9 avg.) among players with at least 50 games played during that span. The 2019 season saw him rank third in the NFL with 1,333 receiving yards and fourth in the NFL in receiving touchdowns with nine, earning Pro Bowl and second-team AP All-Pro honors. During the 2022 offseason, Godwin signed a contract extension after he led the team in receiving yards (1,103) and receptions (98) in 2021. Coming off an ACL injury at the end of the 2021 campaign, Godwin recorded 104 receptions for 1,023 yards during the 2022 season. His 104 receptions in 2022 were the second-most in a single season in franchise history. He earned his third consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season in 2023, finishing with 83 receptions for 1,024 yards.

Biehl also assisted Licht in the 2015 NFL Draft, where the team held the first overall pick which was used to select quarterback Jameis Winston, who earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and a PFWA All-Rookie Team selection, while setting nearly every rookie passing record in Buccaneers history. The 2015 draft also saw Tampa Bay select tackle Donovan Smith (34th overall), guard Ali Marpet (61st overall) and linebacker Kwon Alexander (124th overall), all of whom earned a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside Winston. Alexander was selected to the 2017 Pro Bowl. Both Marpet and Smith signed contract extensions, with Marpet named first-team All-Pro by Pro Football Focus in 2020 in addition to being named to the PFWA All-NFC Team, before later earning a Pro Bowl selection in 2021.

Biehl came to the Buccaneers with 16 seasons of NFL experience, including 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2001-13). Biehl worked as the club's assistant director of college scouting for six seasons (2008-13), after being promoted from college scout (2001-07), where he scouted the Midwest region of the country. Over that span, the Chargers had the eighth-most wins in the NFL, won five AFC West division championships and made six playoff appearances.

Prior to his time with the Chargers, Biehl spent three seasons (1998-2000) working in the Buffalo Bills' personnel department, during which time the Bills had the NFL's sixth-best record and qualified for the playoffs twice.

A native of Paxton, Illinois, Biehl attended Illinois State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's in sports management.

Mike and his wife, Kim, have two children: son Nathan, and daughter Kendall.

JACQUELINE DAVIDSON
VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL RESEARCH

Jacqueline Davidson enters her seventh season with the Buccaneers and fourth as the Vice President of Football Research after being promoted from Senior Director of Football Research.

Davidson is responsible for supporting the front office and coaching staff in roster and strategy decisions through research and development. She also works alongside General Manager Jason Licht and Assistant General Manager Mike Greenberg on player contracts and salary cap decisions.

In 2026, handled the negotiations with a number of key free agency acquisitions, including the team's primary offensive signing in running back Kenneth Gainwell who was coming off of a career year in 2025. Playing for the Pittsburgh Steelers, Gainwell was 1-of-5 running backs in 2025 to record at least 500 rushing yards and 450 receiving yards, joining De'Von Achane, Jahmyr Gibbs, Christian McCaffrey and Bijan Robinson. Davidson also executed the offseason deals with special teams ace Miles Killebrew and outside linebacker Al-Quadin Muhammad. Killebrew's 91 special teams tackles since entering the league in 2016 are the second-most in the NFL during that span, earning him a pair of Pro Bowl selections and an Associated Press first-team All-Pro selection – all on special teams. Davidson's negotiation with Muhammad also came following a career year for the veteran pass rusher after he finished as 1-of-12 players in the NFL in 2025 with 11.0-or-more sacks. Muhammad was the only player across the league to post a double-digit sack total (11.0) without starting a single game on the year.

Over the 2025 offseason, Davidson conducted the negotiations that led to the re-signing of Chris Godwin, one of the NFL's top free agent wide receiver targets of the offseason. Godwin, who was coming off three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons entering 2024, led the NFL in Weeks 1-7 in receptions (50) and receiving first downs (33), and ranked second in receiving yards (576) and tied for third in receiving touchdowns (five) prior to suffering a season-ending injury. Davidson also secured a deal with free agent outside linebacker Haason Reddick to enhance the team's pass rush. Reddick joined Tampa Bay on the heels of four double-digit sack seasons over the prior five seasons. In addition, Davidson aided in the negotiations to sign guard Ben Bredeson, linebacker Lavonte David and punter Riley Dixon.

In 2024, Davidson led the contract negotiations that resulted in the re-signings of Pro Bowl quarterback Baker Mayfield and All-Pro safety Antoine Winfield Jr., retaining players on both sides of the ball that helped lead Tampa Bay to the 2023 NFC Divisional Round. Davidson also administered the re-signing of kicker Chase McLaughlin, who set a single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (93.5%) in his first year in Tampa Bay, earning first-team All-Pro recognition from Pro Football Focus. The Buccaneers also brought back two more of the NFL's top 2024 free agents in linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Mike Evans. Davidson and the Tampa Bay front office didn't stop there, as the team also sealed a deal to return a former starting safety from its Super Bowl LV championship team in Jordan Whitehead reuniting one of the league's top safety duos.

During the 2023 offseason, Davidson contributed to the re-signings of key contributors in cornerback Jamel Dean, outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, and linebacker Lavonte David. Dean, Nelson, and David ranked second, third, and fourth, respectively, in total snaps by Buccaneers defenders during the 2022 season. In addition, Dean and David were rated as the fifth- and sixth-best free agents available, respectively, heading into the 2023 offseason, per Pro Football Focus.

Davidson was instrumental in re-signing a pair of key starters in 2022 in cornerback Carlton Davis III and wide receiver Chris Godwin, in addition to retaining center Ryan Jensen. Prior to the 2022 offseason, Davidson assisted with securing an extension for Buccaneers Pro Bowl nose tackle Vita Vea leading into the team's Week 18 game.

Following Super Bowl LV, Davidson played a vital role in helping the Buccaneers bring back all 22 starters, including a total of six free agent re-signings and two contract extensions. This marked the first time in the salary cap era that a defending Super Bowl champ has returned all 22 starters.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Davidson spent 11 seasons working in football administration with the New York Jets, spending eight-plus years as the Manager, Football Administration from 2007-15 before being elevated to Director, Football Administration (2015-18).

In her role as Director, Football Administration, Davidson served as the Jets' lead negotiator of player contracts and managed the team's salary cap and player budgets. She was also tasked with adhering to the regulations of the NFL's collective-bargaining agreement and predicting future trends relating to the league's salary cap.

Davidson entered the league as a legal intern with the National Football League's Management Council in 2004, while pursuing her law degree. She also worked as a staff attorney for the United States District Court in Alabama and a judicial law clerk for Judge Virginia Emerson Hopkins prior to earning her position with the Jets in 2007.

After graduating from Davidson College in 2002 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics, Davidson earned a Juris Doctor from Cornell University School of Law in 2005. Born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, she is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

SHELTON QUARLES
VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

After spending 10 seasons (1997-2006) establishing himself as one of the best linebackers in Buccaneers history, Quarles joined Tampa Bay's front office. In 2025, Quarles enters his first year as senior director of football operations, a promotion he received after spending 10 years as director of football operations. Previously, Quarles spent two seasons as director of pro scouting, a title he earned after two years as coordinator of pro scouting and four years as a pro scout for Tampa Bay. In addition to the Super Bowl title he won as a player, Quarles tacked on another as a key member of the team's support staff during its Super Bowl LV championship season.

In his current role, Quarles works directly with the head coach and general manager in organizing day-to-day operations of the team, while assisting with roster management and contract negotiations, advising the pro personnel department on advance scouting and overseeing all player travel and transportation.

While operating as director of pro scouting, Quarles was in charge of handling the team's pro personnel staff and evaluating players. Working as the coordinator of pro scouting, Quarles was responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of the Buccaneers opponents as well as organizing player workouts. During his time as a pro scout, Quarles' responsibilities included the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participated in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. In 2010, Quarles helped the Buccaneers to a 10-6 record, finding multiple players via free agency and waivers that made significant contributions to the team.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank seventh and 11th, respectively, in team history. He also ranks fourth in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the third-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and is the first and one of only three players in team history to record a touchdown and a safety (also Rondé Barber and Lavonte David) during their career. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown (matched in 2020 by Ronald Jones' 98-yard touchdown run). He also earned numerous awards during his playing career, including the NFL Unsung Hero Award in 2002, the Buccaneers Man of the Year Award in 2004 and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2006.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. The IMPACT Foundation has raised over $500,000 and impacted the lives of over 3,000 at-risk single-parent families in the Tampa Bay Area.

Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation's signature program is the Home Blitz, formerly known as Mothers' Day Miracles. At-risk single-parent families are nominated for the Home Blitz program and once selected, they receive a complete home makeover. This makeover, valued at over $40,000 for each family, includes furniture, home décor, interior design services, lawn care, supplies, food and more. Each family is sent away on an all-expense paid vacation as their home is being transformed.

Quarles and his IMPACT Foundation host several fundraising events throughout the year. Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night gives guests a chance to have their order taken, drinks poured, dinner served and dessert delivered by Quarles and some of Tampa's well-known celebrities and sports figures. Quarles also hosts the Transitions Championship Celebrity Pro-Am, which benefits his IMPACT Foundation. For more information on Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation, please visit www.sheltonquarles.org.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors through the Buccaneers organization. In the 2011 offseason, along with former Buccaneers Mike Alstott, the late Lee Roy Selmon and Doug Williams, Quarles signed autographs at a local mall to help raise funds and awareness for the earthquake victims in Haiti. Together, the group helped raise over $125,000 for the Red Cross. In 2007, he walked the runway for the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon Quarles' retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named him as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority, a position in which he served from September 2007 to September 2009. As chairman, Quarles led a seven-county, 15-member board that had a stated goal of building a transportation master plan to tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area. He stepped down from this responsibility in order to dedicate his full time and attention to the Buccaneers. Quarles also served on the Board of Directors for Tampa General Hospital (2009-2016) and also sits on the Celebration of Literacy Committee as an Honorary Host Committee member for Celebration of Reading. He was named the Trailblazer of Our Children's Future by the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office and won the Tower of Achievement Award for outstanding leadership and contributions by the USF Area Community Civic Associations.

An avid golfer, in the spring of 2009, Quarles was part of the winning foursome in the Transitions Championship Pro-Am at Innisbrook.

Quarles has three children: daughter, Gabriela Nicole, and sons, Shelton Eugene Jr. and Carlos Antonio. He currently resides in Tampa.

SHANE SCANNELL
DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Shane Scannell enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers and his second as Director of Player Personnel, after being promoted from director of pro scouting.

Scannell spent two seasons as director of pro scouting (2023-24), following two seasons as assistant director of pro scouting (2021-22) and five seasons as a pro scout (2016-20). He began his career with Tampa Bay in 2015 as a scouting assistant.

Following his promotion in 2025, Scannell has taken on a larger, more wide-ranging role as he becomes increasingly involved with roster management as well as college scouting, while still overseeing the pro scouting department.

Since coming to Tampa Bay, Scannell has held a key role in a player personnel department that has acquired a number of impactful free agents over the years including Alex Anzalone, Shaquil Barrett, Tom Brady, Ben Bredeson, Antonio Brown, Leonard Fournette, Kenneth Gainwell, Rob Gronkowski, Ryan Jensen, Chase McLaughlin, Al-Quadin Muhammad, Jason Pierre-Paul and Ndamukong Suh. These acquisitions helped propel Tampa Bay to five consecutive playoff appearances (2020-24), four consecutive NFC South division titles (2021-24) and a Super Bowl LV championship.

In Scannell's first year assisting with the college scouting process, the Buccaneers drafted two players who earned selections to the 2025 PFWA All-Rookie team in first-round wide receiver Emeka Egbuka and third-round cornerback Jacob Parrish.

Scannell played football collegiately at Wesleyan University and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology. A native of Mahwah, New Jersey, he played high school football at Don Bosco. He and his wife, Haley, currently reside in Tampa.

ZACHARY BEISTLINE
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RESEARCH

Zachary Beistline enters his second season with the Buccaneers as Director of Football Research.

In his role, Beistline assists Vice President of Football Research Jacqueline Davidson in supporting the front office and coaching staff in strategy decisions, with a focus on game management.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Beistline spent 12 seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He began his career in Jacksonville as football operations intern (2012), before spending 10 seasons as football database analyst (2013-22) and his final two seasons as the team's director of game management.

The Shelby Township, Michigan, native earned his Bachelor's degree in kinesiology and exercise science from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2012. He and his wife, Mare't, reside in Tampa with their three daughters, Everest, Lyla and Eden.

BYRON KIEFER
SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Byron Kiefer enters his 22nd season overall with the Buccaneers and third as a senior personnel executive.

In his role, Kiefer is responsible for coordinating and compiling evaluations of all draft-eligible players and helping to oversee the scouting staff. Prior to his promotion during the 2024 offseason, Kiefer most recently spent two seasons as assistant director of college scouting and the previous four as a senior national scout for Tampa Bay during which he scouted prospects east of the Mississippi river.

Kiefer contributed to Tampa Bay's 2025 draft class, which saw first-round wide receiver Emeka Egbuka and third-round cornerback Jacob Parrish each earn PFWA All-Rookie selections. Egbuka finished second among his class in receiving yards (938), second in yards after catch (335), tied for second in receiving touchdowns (six) and fourth in receptions (63). He and seventh-round selection Tez Johnson became just the second set of drafted teammates since 2000 to each record 300+ receiving yards and five-or-more receiving touchdowns since 2000, joining Rob Gronkowski and Aaron Hernandez (2010 New England Patriots). Defensively, Parrish joined a group of four other defensive backs since 2010 to amass 65+ tackles and generate multiple interceptions and multiple sacks during their rookie campaign.

In 2024, Kiefer provided valuable insight to a draft that produced four starters in center Graham Barton, running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith. Irving earned PFWA All-Rookie honors after leading the draft class in yards from scrimmage (1,514), rushing yards (1,122), and rushing touchdowns (eight), while Irving and Barton combined to help lead the Buccaneers rise from the NFL's 32nd-ranked rush offense in 2023 to the fourth-best in 2024 (149.2 rush yards per game). Smith was the only rookie in 2024 to record multiple interceptions and multiple forced fumbles.

Over the years, Kiefer has played a key role in the scouting efforts of a number of successful draft picks for Tampa Bay, including the acquisitions of outside linebacker Yaya Diaby and defensive lineman Calijah Kancey in the 2023 NFL Draft. The duo combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks during their rookie campaign. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Previously, Kiefer contributed to the selections of three starting members of the secondary for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team – Carlton Davis III, Jamel Dean and Jordan Whitehead. In 2017, Kiefer was a big advocate for future Pro Bowl wide receiver Chris Godwin, who has put forth four 1,000-yard seasons for Tampa Bay.

In his nine seasons working as an area scout, Kiefer handled the Southeast region of the country. Kiefer began his career with the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 2005. In this role, he assisted in daily transactions and coordinated player tryouts. He also assisted in scouting other pro leagues, including NFL Europa, CFL and AFL. He then served as the team's National Football Scouting representative, in which his focus was scouting players in the Southeast as well as working with the NFL combine, where he helped the NFL select invitees to the annual event.

Since joining the staff, Kiefer has been a part of six NFC South division championships and Super Bowl LV.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kiefer volunteered in the University of South Florida football office during the 2003 season, assisting with football operations and recruiting. He also worked as a trade support associate at Raymond James Financial from 2003-05.

Kiefer graduated from Mercer University in 2002, where he was a letterman pitcher on the baseball team. Kiefer and his wife, Mirela, have two sons, Tyson and Nolin. They reside in St. Petersburg, Florida.

TONY HARDIE
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Tony Hardie enters his 16th season with the Buccaneers and his second season as director of college scouting.

Hardie was promoted in consecutive seasons, rising from national scout (2022-23) to assistant director of college scouting (2024) and then to director in 2025.

In his first season as director of college scouting, Hardie provided vital contributions to a 2025 draft class that was highlighted by two PFWA All-Rookie selections in first-round wide receiver Emeka Egbuka and third-round cornerback Jacob Parrish, both of which made an immediate impact for Tampa Bay in their rookie campaigns.

He played a key role in Tampa Bay's highly touted 2024 NFL Draft class, which produced four starters in center Graham Barton, PFWA All-Rookie running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith.

Hardie began with the Buccaneers working as the team's combine scout covering the Southeast region for National Football Scouting, before covering the Mountain West, Mid-Atlantic, Midwest and Southwest regions of the United States as an area scout.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hardie worked on the football staffs at Northwestern University (2010-11) and at the University of Chicago (2007-09).

Hardie served as the director of defensive quality control and defensive quality control/player personnel assistant with the Wildcats and was the cornerback coach and video coordinator on the Chicago staff.

Hardie graduated from Notre Dame with a Bachelor of Business in finance in 2007. He, and his wife, Allie, reside in Tampa with their son, Leo.

SEAN CONLEY
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Sean Conley enters his ninth season with the Buccaneers and his third as an Assistant Pro Scouting Director after being promoted during the 2024 offseason. Conley began his career with the Buccaneers as a Scouting Assistant for three seasons (2018-21) before spending three years as Pro Scout (2021-24).

Conley helps with advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts, and evaluating free agents and college prospects.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Conley spent four years at Northwestern as Defensive Quality Control Assistant & Recruiting Assistant.

Conley received his bachelor's degree from Illinois Wesleyan University in 2014 and was named captain of the football team his senior year. The Bolingbrook, Illinois native currently resides in Tampa with his wife Brittany, sons, Miles and Carter, and daughter, Quinn.

DONOVAN COTTON
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Donovan Cotton enters his 13th season with the Buccaneers and his third as assistant director of pro scouting, while also serving as a national cross-checker for the college scouting department.

In Cotton's role, he assists in the advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluates players from all professional leagues, organizes player workouts and evaluates free agents. In addition to his pro scouting responsibilities, Cotton contributes to the evaluation of college prospects nationally to assist in draft preparations.

Previously, he spent nine seasons as an area scout after beginning his career in Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant in 2014.

From 2015-23 seasons, Cotton was responsible for scouting colleges in the Southwest portion of the country. As a scouting assistant, Cotton assisted in player evaluations, organizing and executing free agent workouts and helping in draft preparations.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Cotton worked as a player personnel scouting intern for the Seattle Seahawks in 2013, tracking depth charts, completing player reports and monitoring the waiver wire, among other duties. He got his start in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers in 2011, working as a training camp scouting intern.

Cotton played football collegiately at Norfolk State and graduated with a Bachelor of Business Entrepreneurship in 2011. Donovan and his wife Frankie reside in Tampa, along with their daughter Sienna and son Quincy.

SHANNON HOGUE
PRO SCOUT

Shannon Hogue enters her sixth season with the Buccaneers and her third as a pro scout. In her current role, she helps with advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts, and evaluating free agents and college prospects.

Prior to being promoted during the 2024 offseason, Hogue spent two seasons as a scouting analyst (2022-24) following one season as a scouting assistant (2021). During this time, she was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Hogue spent four months as the director of on-campus recruiting at the University of Wyoming in 2021.

While obtaining her Master's degree in Sport Administration from the University of Louisville, Hogue served as both a football recruiting graduate assistant (2018-21) and a women's basketball graduate assistant (2019). A native of Los Angeles, Hogue earned her Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology from California State University-Fullerton. She currently resides in Tampa.

ANDY SPEYER
SENIOR NATIONAL SCOUT

Andy Speyer enters his 13th season with the Buccaneers working as a senior national scout, a promotion he received during the 2026 offseason. In his role, Speyer is responsible for scouting college prospects west of the Mississippi River.

Speyer joined Tampa Bay after 12 seasons working with the Philadelphia Eagles' player personnel department, including 11 as a college scout, covering the Southwest, Midwest and Northeast regions at various points during that time. While with Philadelphia, Speyer was a member of an organization that won six division titles and one conference championship. Speyer got his start with the Eagles as a training camp intern in 2001 and worked as a pro personnel intern in 2002.

A native of Spring, Texas, Speyer played collegiately at Ricks College (Rexburg, Idaho), before serving a two-year LDS mission in Pocatello, Idaho. Speyer returned to Ricks for one semester before transferring to the University of Utah and earning his undergraduate degree in business management. He also earned an MBA and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

Speyer and his wife, Lynette, have two sons, Braden and Kahler, and a daughter, Hailey.

JEREMIAH BOGAN
COLLEGE SCOUT

Jeremiah Bogan enters his third season with the Buccaneers and his second as a college scout. In his current role, he is responsible for scouting the Southwest region.

Prior to being promoted in 2025, Bogan spent his first season in Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant (2024). During this time, he was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Bogan most recently spent time as the Director of Player Personnel at the University of Connecticut, following one season as a national scout for the East/West Shrine Bowl. He previously held various scouting and recruiting roles at Louisiana State University, Optimum Scouting, Liberty University, University of Pittsburgh, Georgia Tech and UNLV.

The Duncan, South Carolina native played football collegiately at both the University of North Greenville, where he earned a degree in sport management, and Limestone University, where he received his Master of Business Administration. He currently resides in Tampa.

EMMETT CLIFFORD
COLLEGE SCOUT

Emmett Clifford enters his fifth season with the Buccaneers and his third as a college scout. In his current role, he is responsible for scouting the Midwest region, following one season scouting the Northeast region.

Prior to being promoted during the 2024 offseason, Clifford spent his first two seasons in Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant (2022-24). During this time, he was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Clifford spent two seasons as an external film analyst with the Cleveland Browns (2020-22).

The Glenview, Illinois native graduated from the College of the Holy Cross where he was a four-year member of the Crusaders football program (2016-19). As a quarterback at Loyola Academy (Wilmette, Illinois), Clifford led his team to a 14-0 record and the Illinois Class 8A State Championship as a senior, earning the Chicago Catholic League Most Valuable Player award in a season in which he set school records for passing yards and passing touchdowns. He currently resides in Chicago.

KOREY FINNIE
COLLEGE SCOUT

Korey Finnie enters his fifth season with the Buccaneers and his second as a college scout following one season as the team's NFS scout. In his current role, he is responsible for scouting the Northeast region.

Prior to being promoted over the 2025 offseason, Finnie's responsibilities as NFS scout included evaluating players, gathering information and building reports on behalf of National Football Scouting and the Buccaneers. Finnie spent his first two seasons in Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant (2022-24). During this time, he was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Finnie served as a coaching assistant at his alma mater, Tulane University, for two seasons (2020-22). He also spent two seasons as an equipment manager at Tulane from 2018-20. The New Orleans native earned his Bachelor's degree in psychology and education from Tulane in 2020.

BRIAN MCLAUGHLIN
COLLEGE SCOUT

Brian McLaughlin enters his 13th season with the Buccaneers and his fifth as a college scout. Prior to becoming a college scout, he spent four seasons as an NFS/Combine Scout (2018-2021) after being elevated from scouting assistant (2016-17). McLaughlin started in Tampa Bay as a team operations assistant the prior two years (2014-15).

In his current role, he is responsible for scouting the Mid-Atlantic region, spanning colleges and universities across Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina and Tennessee. He also crosschecks various colleges in other parts of the country each fall.

McLaughlin has been the area scout for recent Buccaneers draft picks DeMonte Capehart (2026), Emeka Egbuka (2025), Graham Barton (2024) and Yaya Diaby (2023), as well as undrafted players Kameron Johnson, Ryan Miller and Markees Watts.

During the 2026 NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis, McLaughlin received the 'Best at Gathering Character Information' BART Award at the ITL Combine Seminar, voted on by active NFL scouts.

Throughout his tenure with the Buccaneers, McLaughlin has covered colleges in the Southeast, Midwest, Mid-Atlantic and Northeast areas of the country. He has evaluated players, interviewed college sources, gathered information and built reports on each of the players in his respective areas. He also assisted with the NFL Combine, Reese's Senior Bowl, East-West Shrine Bowl and other college all-star games.

As a scouting assistant, McLaughlin was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

A Buccaneers team operations intern during the 2012 season, McLaughlin spent the 2013 season as the Assistant Director of Football Operations and Recruiting Coordinator at Florida International University. He also served as the Player Personnel Coordinator for the Jacksonville Sharks of the Arena Football League in 2014, before returning to Tampa Bay. McLaughlin also held internships with the Indianapolis Colts (2011) and Cleveland Browns (2010).

A native of Norwalk, Ohio, McLaughlin graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Cincinnati with a degree in sports administration and received the program's 'Most Outstanding Student' award. He currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Tina.

CESAR RIVERA

Cesar Rivera enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers and his fifth as a college scout. In his current role, Rivera scouts and evaluates college players in the Southeast region, after spending one year scouting the Southwest region and two years scouting the Northeast area.

Rivera originally started with the Buccaneers as the team operations intern in 2015, served as the team operations assistant in 2016, and then spent time as the team operations coordinator in 2017. Following the 2017 season, Rivera moved into the scouting coordinator role, where he assisted with departmental operations, administrative duties for the general manager, and college and pro scouting duties.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent time in Arena Football League as the football operations and personnel intern with the Tampa Bay Storm, working under Buccaneers legends Derrick Brooks and Jeff Gooch.

Rivera played football at Plymouth State University (2007) and SUNY Cortland (2009). The Port Jefferson Station, New York, native received his bachelor's degree from Southern Connecticut State University in 2013 and his M.B.A. from Saint Leo University in 2015. Rivera and his wife, Courtney, reside in Tampa with their son, Lew.

ZACH SMITH
COLLEGE SCOUT

Zach Smith enters his ninth season with the Buccaneers and his third as a college scout. Previously, Smith served two seasons as the team's NFS scout, following four seasons as a scouting assistant.

In his current role, Smith is responsible for scouting the West region. Previously as the NFS scout, Smith covered colleges in the southeast region and evaluated players, gathered information and built reports on behalf of National Football Scouting and the Buccaneers. He also assisted with the NFL Combine, the Reese's Senior Bowl, and other college all-star games. As a scouting assistant, Smith was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, including assigned school visits and pro scouting advance trips, as well as database management and assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Smith interned with the University of Arizona, spending two seasons as a football recruiting intern before being elevated to head football recruiting and player personnel intern. Smith also held internships with the Chargers as an equipment intern and scouting intern.

A native of San Diego, California, Smith graduated from the University of Arizona with a degree in journalism and a minor in sociology. He currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Tori.

JORDAN MORROW
NFS SCOUT

Jordan Morrow enters his third season with the Buccaneers and his second as the team's NFS scout following one season as a scouting assistant. In his current role, he is responsible for evaluating players, gathering information and building reports on behalf of National Football Scouting and the Buccaneers.

Prior to being promoted this offseason, Morrow's responsibilities as a scouting assistant included college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Before joining the Buccaneers, the Louisville, Kentucky native spent two seasons as a graduate assistant in the recruiting office at the University of Kentucky from 2022-23. He played football collegiately and graduated with a degree in sports communication with a minor in coaching from Kentucky in 2022. He currently resides in Tampa.

BOBBY SLATER
VICE PRESIDENT OF SPORTS MEDICINE AND PERFORMANCE

Bobby Slater enters his 13th season with the Buccaneers and his third as Vice President of Sports Medicine and Performance.

In his role, Slater serves as the team's head athletic trainer, in addition to overseeing all departments influencing health and wellness of players, including strength and conditioning, performance science and nutrition, to ensure best practices for player training and recovery.

Slater joined Tampa Bay in 2013 after 15 years with the Chicago Bears, finishing his time there as the team's assistant head athletic trainer/director of rehabilitation. Slater began his career with Chicago in 1999 as an assistant athletic trainer, before being promoted to director of rehabilitation in 2002. He held that position for 10 years before adding assistant head athletic trainer to his title in 2012.

Slater began his career in the NFL with the Bears as a training camp intern in 1994, serving in the same capacity with the Miami Dolphins in 1995 and again with Chicago in 1998.

Before joining the Bears full-time, Slater worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1997-99 at Mississippi State University. He was also an athletic trainer at Lee Memorial Hospital (1997) and A. Kagan Orthopedics in Ft. Myers, Florida (1995-97).

Slater received a Bachelor of Science degree from Florida Southern College and a Master of Science degree from Mississippi State. Slater and his wife, Bridget, have three daughters – Savannah, Natalee, and Brooke – and a son, Ryan.

DAVE HAMILTON
VICE PRESIDENT OF PERFORMANCE SCIENCE

Dave Hamilton enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers and his second as vice president after being promoted from director of performance science (2019-24).

Hamilton is tasked with engineering a comprehensive sports science framework that optimizes athlete health and performance through close integration of physical preparation, medical treatment and nutrition. Operating with dual responsibilities, he actively bridges sports science and practical application by working as part of the strength and conditioning staff in the weight room to ensure data-driven insights seamlessly translate onto the floor. This collaborative environment is designed to drive sustained success and peak performance for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Hamilton is also responsible for developing the systems and processes that facilitate communication and actionable knowledge across all performance departments. He was a key member of the support staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

Prior to his time in Tampa Bay, Hamilton served as the assistant athletic director for applied health and performance science at Penn State University from 2016-19, where he established and led a department optimizing performance for 800 collegiate athletes.

Hamilton previously spent over three years as the director of performance science for USA Field Hockey (2013-16). During his tenure, he earned the Doc Councilman Award from the United States Olympic Committee for his innovative approach to programming and training with both men's and women's USA Olympic teams.

As the head of strength and conditioning for Great Britain and England's women's field hockey teams from 2009-13, Hamilton led physical preparation for two Bronze-medal campaigns at the 2010 World Cup and the 2012 Olympic Games in London.

He received his bachelor's degree in sports science from DeMontfort University in England and earned his master's degree in exercise science from Edith Cowen University in Australia.

Dave and his wife Kelly have four daughters, Alya, Amber, Kooper, and Kenzie.

ADAM PINKOSKI
DIRECTOR OF DATA SCIENCE & INNOVATION

Adam Pinkoski enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers and his first as Director of Data Science and Innovation.

In his current role, Pinkoski leads the organization's data science and innovation initiatives, applying advanced analytics to enhance decision-making across player health, performance and football operations. He oversees the entire data lifecycle, from data collection through model development, deployment and maintenance to deliver scalable analytical tools across football operations.

Prior to being promoted during the 2026 offseason, Pinkoski spent his first three years in Tampa Bay as the club's Assistant Director of Performance Science. In his previous role, Pinkoski worked to cultivate a sports science program that emphasized athlete health and performance, assisting with athletic activity monitoring systems and analyzing the data collected on and off the field using a variety of performance technologies. He also evaluated medical trends and ongoing health and wellness data to further develop best practices within the coaching staff and performance team.

Before joining Tampa Bay, Pinkoski worked in the biotech sector, specializing in the development of electromyography and other physiological measurements for performance and health applications.

Pinkoski is an award-winning instructor in Exercise Sciences at the undergraduate and graduate level, specializing in cadaver anatomy and health assessment. He was the youngest recipient of the Last Lecture Award in the University of Alberta's history.

Adam holds a PhD in Epidemiology from the University of Alberta, specializing in injury prevention. He also graduated from Loughborough University receiving his Masters of Science in Musculoskeletal Sport Science and Health, and the University of Alberta with a Bachelor of Kinesiology. Adam is an active author in peer-reviewed research with publications focused on professional athletic populations, injury prevention and knowledge translation across high performance environments.

A native of Edmonton, Alberta, Pinkoski currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Jenny.

JESSICA PASTUF
DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

Jessica Pastuf enters her seventh season with the Buccaneers and her fourth as the Director of Performance Nutrition.

In this role, Pastuf is responsible for educating and guiding players on how to improve their performance and recovery through optimal nutrition and fueling choices. She works with other members of the Performance Team to design strategies and implement measures dedicated to player hydration, nutrition, recovery, body composition and injury prevention. She was a member of the support staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

Pastuf works with the club's High-Performance Chef to cultivate menus to achieve players' individual nutrition needs. As the team's Director of Nutrition, she oversees the Performance Nutrition Staff, which includes the Performance Dietitian and two Performance Nutrition interns.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Pastuf worked as a member of the Utah Jazz's High-Performance Nutrition team from 2019-2020. Before joining the Jazz, she was a Sports Nutrition intern with the University of Utah's athletic department.

Pastuf graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Dietetics and Clinical Nutrition Services from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro before receiving a Master of Science in Sports Nutrition from the University of Utah. In addition, Pastuf is a Board Certified Specialist in Sports dietetics (CSSD), as well as a Registered Dietician (RD).

A native of Syracuse, New York, Pastuf currently resides in Tampa.

DUKE PRESTON
VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Duke Preston enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers and sixth as the vice president of player engagement. After joining the Buccaneers prior to the 2015 season, Preston spent his first six seasons with the organization as the director of player engagement.

As vice president of player engagement, Preston seeks to engage, transform and empower players to realize their maximum potential as men and professional football players. As such, the foundational approach of Player Engagement is to address the hearts and minds of Buccaneers players by creating authentic and impactful relationships by which the organization is able to fully supply them with tools for success. Preston leads the facilitation of programming aimed at character and leadership development, career development, financial education, continued education and mental health & wellness. He was a member of the support staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

Preston came to Tampa Bay from the University of Notre Dame, where he worked as the football team's Director of Player Development (2014- 2015), following time spent as Director of Student-Athlete Welfare & Development (2013-2014). Prior to joining Notre Dame, Preston worked as an Area Director/Program Spokesman for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (2010-2013).

Preston – a former offensive lineman – played collegiately at the University of Illinois, before being drafted in the fourth round (122nd overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. In a five-year NFL career, Preston played in 59 games with 20 starts, spending time with the Bills, the Green Bay Packers and the Dallas Cowboys. While at Illinois, Preston earned a bachelor's degree in speech communication and began work on a master's degree in educational policy studies. Following his playing career, Preston earned a master's degree in Christian education from the Dallas Theological Seminary. Preston is also a loving husband to his wife, Kavanagh, and a dedicated father to their five children.

SPENCER DILLE
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY

Spencer Dille enters his 15th season with the Buccaneers and fifth as senior director of football technology.

Dille is responsible for the development and maintenance of all football-related software and technology. He works closely with the front office, scouting department, trainers and coaching staff in the implementation of the latest technology and football-related applications. Additionally, Dille serves as a liaison between the information technology department and football operations, helping to troubleshoot a variety of technological issues on a continual basis.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Dille was responsible for developing the technology game plan behind the Buccaneers virtual draft. He played a key role setting up General Manager Jason Licht and Head Coach Bruce Arians' home offices to make selections for the 2020 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent seven years (2004-11) with COMANCO Environmental Corporation, managing and developing their operational technology. From 2011-12, he worked with Kobie Marketing, developing their loyalty management software platform. Dille received both his Bachelors of Computer Engineering and Masters of Computer Science degrees from the University of Minnesota.

Dille resides in Tampa with his wife, Deborah, their three children, Amelia, Erik and Josephine.

BRAD BERLIN
EQUIPMENT DIRECTOR

Brad Berlin enters his 11th season with Tampa Bay, directing all of the team's equipment operations and logistics since joining the team in 2016. He was a key member of the support staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

Berlin came to the Buccaneers after spending the prior two seasons as the Director of Equipment Operations for the University of Michigan (2014-15), overseeing equipment operations for all 31 athletic teams and directing seven full-time equipment managers.

Prior to joining the Wolverines, Berlin spent 13 years with the Washington Commanders (2001-13), serving as the head equipment manager for the team, overseeing all aspects of the equipment and locker rooms at the practice facility and FedEx Field.

Before entering the NFL, Berlin spent nine years working at the collegiate level, beginning his career as the head equipment manager with Utah State (1992-93). He worked as the head equipment manager at Colorado State (1994-98) and Missouri in the same capacity (1998-99), before becoming the assistant athletic director for equipment at Louisville (2000).

A native of Marshall, Missouri, Berlin earned a bachelor's degree in educational studies and sports management from Missouri in 1989 and later earned a master's of education degree in sports management from Missouri in 1993. He and his wife, Molly, have three children – daughters Hannah and Miranda and son Brady – and two granddaughters, Aubrey Jo and Hallie Rose.

BRETT GREENE
SENIOR VIDEO DIRECTOR

Brett Greene enters his 10th season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, working as the team's senior video director. He was promoted from video director to senior video director during the 2025 offseason.

In his current role, Greene is responsible for overseeing the video department and maximizing the football technologies used by coaches, players and football personnel on a day-to-day basis. He is also in charge of purchasing and maintaining video and digital equipment.

From 2024-25, Greene oversaw the installation of fiber and power infrastructure to the practice fields to support in-practice video review and IP-based remote PTZ Camera operations. This upgrade supports video capture of practices through a system of seven outdoor and four indoor cameras, enhancing coverage and workflow for the video staff. Greene also collaborated with IT staff to provide full WI-FI coverage across all practice fields.

Greene helped play a key role during the NFL's first ever virtual draft. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic the Buccaneers had to recreate draft rooms outside of AdventHealth Training Center. Greene was stationed with Head Coach Bruce Arians to help troubleshoot any technical issues and make sure all three days ran smoothly.

Greene came to Tampa Bay from the University of Georgia, where he worked as the Director of Video Operations from 2011-16. With the Bulldogs, Greene oversaw all video software and equipment at the Butts-Mehre football facility, in addition to supervising the filming and editing of the team's practices and games. In 2015, Greene was part of the Georgia video department that earned the Ultimate SAVVY Award and the SAVVY Award in the College Sports Video Association Recruiting category.

Prior to his time at Georgia, Greene spent nine seasons (2002-10) in the video department of the Jacksonville Jaguars, working under head coaches Tom Coughlin and Jack Del Rio, while also working with former Buccaneers Head Coach Dirk Koetter, who served as the Jaguars' offensive coordinator from 2007-11.

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Brett and his wife Meghan have two sons, Connor and Hudson, and a daughter, Emmie.

MATT TAYLOR
VIDEO DIRECTOR

Matt Taylor enters his 10th season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and his second as the team's video director, following eight seasons as assistant video director. In his current role, Taylor works with Senior Video Director Brett Greene to maximize the football technologies used by coaches, players and football personnel on a day-to-day-basis.

Taylor joined the Buccaneers after spending two seasons with XOS Digital, working as a Technical Support Representative. Prior to that, he worked in the video department of the Miami Dolphins, first as an intern (2003), before being elevated to video assistant (2005–08), assistant video director (2009–13) and interim video director (2014).

In addition to his time in Miami, Taylor has worked in the video departments of the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe, the Chicago Bears, the Buffalo Bills and the Buffalo Destroyers of the Arena Football League.

A native of Albion, New York, Matt and his wife, Lindsay, have two sons, Wesley and Clayton and a daughter, Josie.

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Selected by the Buccaneers as a first-round pick (19th overall) in the 2025 NFL Draft.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES:

- 2025 PFWA All-Rookie Team selection.
- 2025 Sporting News Rookie of the Year.
- 2025 Offensive Rookie of the Month (September).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started 13-of-17 career games for the Buccaneers, bringing in 63 receptions for 938 yards and six receiving touchdowns. Has also logged two carries for nine yards.
- Finished the 2025 campaign ranking fourth in team history in receiving yards by a rookie (938), fifth in team history in receptions by a rookie (63) and tied for fifth in team history in touchdown receptions by a rookie (6).
- Among all rookies in 2025, Egbuka ranked second in receiving yards, tied for second in touchdown receptions, and fourth in receptions. Led all rookies in yards per reception (14.9).
- Became the first player in NFL history to record 25+ receptions, 400+ receiving yards and 5+ touchdown receptions in a player's first five career games.

2025 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Made his NFL debut in the Week 1 victory in Atlanta, playing 54-of-58 offensive snaps and bringing in four receptions for 67 yards and two receiving touchdowns – including the go-ahead score with 59 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.
- Egbuka became the first player in the NFL to record multiple receiving touchdowns in his NFL debut since Jahan Dotson did so in 2022. He became just the second Buccaneer to ever accomplish the feat, joining TE Alex Smith in 2005.
- Egbuka became the second player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to record a game-winning touchdown reception with under a minute remaining in regulation or overtime in their first career game, joining Jacksonville's Ernest Wilford on Sept. 12, 2004.
- With his first score in Week 1, Egbuka became the first Tampa Bay rookie since Mike Williams in 2010 to score the team's first touchdown of a season.
- In Week 1, generated a 143.8 passer rating when targeted – good for the third-best mark in the NFC (min. 4 targets).
- In the Week 2 win at Houston, played 74-of-80 offensive snaps and brought in four receptions for 29 yards and one touchdown.
- Egbuka's touchdown reception in Week 2 was his third of the season. His three touchdown receptions through two career games were the most in franchise history.

- Through two weeks, Egbuka was tied for the NFL lead in receiving touchdowns, and had a 123.7 passer rating when targeted.
- Started at wide receiver and played 46-of-72 offensive snaps in the Week 3 win over the New York Jets, leading Tampa Bay with six receptions and 85 receiving yards, both representing season highs.
- Through Week 3, Egbuka had totaled 14 receptions for 181 yards and three receiving touchdowns, making him 1-of-2 players in the NFL to reach those figures at that point (also, Chicago's Rome Odunze at 15 receptions, 213 yards, four receiving touchdowns).
- Egbuka became the fifth player since 1990 to reach those marks (14-181-3) in their first three career games played, joining Malik Nabers in 2024, Terry McLaurin in 2019, Roy Williams in 2004 and Randy Moss in 1998.
- Through Week 3, Egbuka had generated a 133.1 passer rating when targeted – the second-highest mark among any wide receiver with at least 10 targets at that point.
- Per Pro Football Focus, Egbuka was Tampa Bay's highest-graded offensive starter in the Week 3 win, producing an 84.3 overall grade.
- In Week 4 vs. Philadelphia, started at wide receiver and played 64-of-72 offensive snaps, bringing in four receptions for 101 yards and one touchdown. It marked his first career 100-yard performance.
- Through four games, Egbuka logged 18 receptions for 282 yards and four touchdown grabs. His 282 receiving yards marked the most ever by a Buccaneers rookie in their first four games, surpassing the previous mark set by Michael Clayton (240 in 2004). Egbuka also established a new Buccaneers rookie record for touchdown receptions through a player's first four career games, surpassing the previous mark set by Mike Williams (three in 2010).
- With his performance in Week 4, Egbuka became just the fourth rookie since the 1970 merger to record 14+ receptions, 280+ receiving yards and four-or-more receiving touchdowns in their first four career games played, and the first to do so since Detroit's Roy Williams in 2004.
- Through four weeks, Egbuka's 128.0 passer rating when targeted ranked second in the NFL among wide receivers with at least 25 targets, trailing only Detroit's Amon-Ra St. Brown (133.2).
- Egbuka's four touchdown receptions through Week 4 were tied for the third-most in the NFL.
- Returned to his hometown Seattle-area in the Week 5 win over the Seahawks, starting at wide receiver and playing 52-of-61 offensive snaps. Finished with a then-career-best 163 receiving yards on seven receptions with one touchdown.
- Egbuka's touchdown grab in Week 5 was his fifth of the season, tying him for the eighth-most by any player in their first five career games since the 1970 merger, and establishing a new Buccaneers record.
- Generated a perfect 158.3 passer rating when targeted in Week 5, making him one of just two wide receivers in the NFL at the time to post a perfect passer rating on seven-or-more targets in a single game in the 2025 season.

- With back-to-back 100-yard performances across Weeks 4-5, Egbuka became the sixth rookie wide receiver since 2020 to record such a feat, joining Ja'Marr Chase, Justin Jefferson, Puka Nacua, Amon-Ra St. Brown and Brian Thomas Jr.
- Became 1-of-3 players since 1985 with 400+ receiving yards and five-or-more receiving touchdowns in their first five career games, joining Ja'Marr Chase (2021), Terry McLaurin (2019) and Randy Moss (1998).
- Became the first player in NFL history to amass 25+ receptions, 400+ receiving yards and five-or-more touchdowns in their first five career games.
- Became the third rookie in franchise history to surpass 150 receiving yards in a game, joining Mark Carrier in 1987 and Mike Evans in 2014. Joined Evans as the only rookies in Buccaneers history to surpass 100 receiving yards in consecutive games.
- Through Week 5, Egbuka ranked tied for second in the NFL in receiving touchdowns (5), fourth in receiving yards (445), and fourth in yards per reception (17.8).
- Among all players with 25+ targets through Week 5, Egbuka's 145.3 passer rating when targeted led the NFL.
- Started at wide receiver in the Week 6 win over the 49ers, playing 28-of-53 offensive snaps and bringing in two receptions for 24 yards before leaving with injury.
- In Week 7 at Detroit, played 52-of-69 offensive snaps, bringing in four receptions for 58 yards.

- Through Week 7, Egbuka led all rookie receivers in receiving yards (527), receptions (31) and receiving touchdowns (five).
- Started at wide receiver in the Week 8 win at New Orleans, playing 51-of-58 offensive snaps and hauling in three receptions for 35 yards.

RUNNING BACK
HT: 5-10 WT: 195
ACQ: D4, 2024

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Selected by the Buccaneers as a fourth-round pick (125th overall) in the 2024 NFL Draft.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES:

- 1x NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 13, 2024).
- 2024 PFWA All-Rookie Team.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has appeared in 27 career games for the Buccaneers, making 12 starts and totaling 380 carries for 1,710 rushing yards (4.5 avg.) and 9 rushing touchdowns. Also added 77 receptions for 669 yards and three receiving touchdowns.
- Has played in one postseason contest, logging 17 carries for 77 yards and adding two receptions for six yards and one touchdown.
- Irving led all rookies in scrimmage yards (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (8) during the 2024 season.
- In 2024, Irving became the first Tampa Bay rusher to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards in a season since Doug Martin did so in 2015.
- Irving's 5.4 yards per carry in 2024 was the third-highest mark in NFL history among rookies with at least 200 rushing attempts in a season, trailing only Adrian Peterson (5.6 in 2007) and Clinton Portis (5.5 in 2002). His 5.4 yards per carry established a new Buccaneers single-season record for any qualified rusher.
- Per Next Gen Stats, Irving forced the highest missed tackle rate among ball carriers with at least 150 touches (35.8%) during the 2024 season.

2025 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started at running back in the Week 1 victory in Atlanta, playing 44-of-58 offensive snaps and contributing 37 rushing yards on 14 carries, in addition to adding four receptions for eight yards and one receiving touchdown – his first career regular season receiving score.
- In the Week 2 win at Houston, started at running back and played 57-of-80 offensive snaps. Finished with 121 yards from scrimmage by way of 71 rushing yards on 17 carries (4.2 avg.) and 50 receiving yards on six receptions.
- Week 2 marked Irving's sixth game with 100+ yards from scrimmage, most among all 2024 draft selections at the time.
- Started at running back and played 53-of-72 offensive snaps in the Week 3 win over the New York Jets, totaling 99 scrimmage yards in the form of 66 rushing yards on 25 carries and 33 receiving yards on four catches.
- In Week 4 vs. Philadelphia, started at running back and played 44-of-72 offensive snaps. He finished with a team-high 165 yards from scrimmage by way of a team-high 102 receiving yards on five catches with one score and 63 rushing yards on 15 attempts (4.2 avg.).

- Irving's 165 scrimmage yards in Week 4 represented his then-third-highest total of his career, trailing only Week 13 of the 2024 season at Carolina (185) and Week 17 of the 2024 season vs. Carolina (190).
- In Week 4, Irving became the first player in franchise history to record 100+ receiving yards and 50+ rushing yards in the same game.
- Generated a perfect 158.3 passer rating when targeted in Week 4, bringing in all five of his targets for 102 yards and a score. His 102 receiving yards established a then-career high.
- Was inactive for Weeks 5-12.
- Returned from injury in Week 13, contributing a team-high 81 yards from scrimmage by way of 17 carries for 61 yards with one score and two catches for 20 yards. His rushing touchdown marked his first of the season, and his third overall scrimmage touchdown on the year.
- With his 81 scrimmage yards in Week 13, Irving eclipsed the 2,000 scrimmage yards milestone in the 22nd game of his career. In doing so, he became the third player in franchise history with 2,000+ scrimmage yards in their first 25 career games (Warrick Dunn, Doug Martin). The only other running backs drafted since 2018 with 2,000+ scrimmage yards in their first 22 career games played are Saquon Barkley, Jahmyr Gibbs, Josh Jacobs and Jonathan Taylor.

- Started at running back in Week 14 vs. New Orleans, producing a team-high 81 yards from scrimmage, carrying the ball 15 times for 55 yards and bringing in two catches for 26 yards and a touchdown. Irving's catch-and-run touchdown marked his third receiving score of the season. He also recorded a then-season-long 32-yard carry on the day.
- Irving's touchdown grab in Week 14 was his 12th scrimmage touchdown of his career, coming in his first 23 career games played. The only Buccaneers running back with more touchdowns from scrimmage through their first 23 career games played was Doug Martin with 13.
- Among players with 20+ targets through Week 14, Irving had produced a 147.7 passer rating when targeted – the third-highest mark in the NFL behind Buffalo's Dalton Kincaid (155.9) and Green Bay's Tucker Kraft (148.6). The 147.7 mark led all running backs, regardless of target volume.
- In Week 15 vs. Atlanta, contributed 71 yards from scrimmage in the form of 16 carries for 60 rushing yards and one catch for 11 yards.
- Started at running back in Week 16 at Carolina, playing 40-of-64 offensive snaps and carrying the ball 19 times for a team-leading 71 rushing yards.
- Per Pro Football Focus, Irving was Tampa Bay's second-highest graded player in Week 16, earning an 83.0 overall grade.
- Started at running back in Week 17 at Miami, playing 36-of-67 offensive snaps. Contributed 33 yards from scrimmage with 19 rushing yards and 14 receiving yards.
- In the Week 18 win over Carolina, started at running back and played 42-of-67 offensive snaps, contributing 98 yards from scrimmage in the form of a career-high 26 carries for 85 yards and one catch for 13 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Appeared in 39 career games between the University of Minnesota (2021) and the University of Oregon (2022-23), totaling 475 carries for 2,937 yards (6.2 avg.) and 20 rushing touchdowns while adding 95 receptions for 785 yards and five receiving touchdowns.
- He received second-team All-Pac-12 honors in 2023 after starting all 14 games and posting career highs in carries (186), rushing yards (1,180), rushing touchdowns (11), receptions (56) and receiving yards (413). He led all FBS running backs in receptions.
- As a sophomore in 2022, started 12-of-13 games and logged 156 carries for 1,058 yards and five rushing touchdowns, adding 31 receptions for 299 yards. He subsequently received honorable mention All-Pac-12 recognition for his play.
- Was named the 2022 Holiday Bowl Game MVP after recording 13 carries for 149 yards and two rushing touchdowns.
- As a freshman at the University of Minnesota in 2021, he logged 133 carries for 699 yards and four touchdowns. He finished the season leading the Gophers in all-purpose yards.

COMMUNITY:

- Partnered with quarterback Baker Mayfield to help donate $10,000 to After-School All-Stars Tampa Bay through the Giving Bowl.
- Mentored young athletes at the 2025 Girls Flag Football Preseason Classic in Tampa Bay.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Hillcrest High School (Chicago, Ill.), where he lettered in football and basketball.
- Earned All-State honors and was named the Conference Player of the Year as a high school senior in 2019.
- As a junior in 2018, led his team to a 12-1 record and the conference title game.
- Has two siblings (one brother, one sister).
- Was given the nickname 'Bucky' by his late father, Marcellus.
- Full name is Mar'Keise Irving.

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

X Signed by Tampa Bay as a free agent on May 10, 2024.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

X Has appeared in 22 career games for the Buccaneers, logging four receptions for 64 yards and one touchdown, adding four carries for 24 yards.

X Also serves as a primary punt and kick returner, having recorded 27 career punt returns for an average of 11.2 yards per return and 27 career kick returns for an average of 25.4 yards per return.

X Recorded an 11.2 yards per punt return average in 2025, the fourth-highest mark in club history and highest by a Buccaneers returner since Clifton Smith in 2008 (14.1). Also produced a 25.4 yards per kick return average in 2025, the sixth-best mark in team history.

2025 HIGHLIGHTS:

X Appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense in the Week 1 victory in Atlanta, playing 12 special teams snaps and one snap on offense. Recorded one punt return for 54 yards.

X Johnson's 54-yard punt return in Week 1 marked Tampa Bay's longest punt return since Bobby Rainey returned one 58 yards on Oct. 11, 2015 vs. Jacksonville.

X In the Week 2 win at Houston, appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense, playing nine special teams snaps and seven offensive snaps. Finished with one punt return for six yards and two kick returns for 42 yards (21.0 avg.).

X Appeared primarily on special teams in the Week 3 win over the New York Jets, playing nine special teams snaps and recording two punt returns for -1 yard.

X In Week 4 vs. Philadelphia, appeared on six offensive snaps and 23 special teams snaps. He returned six punts for a total of 100 punt return yards (16.7 avg.) on the day, including a return long of 46 yards. Johnson's 46-yard return was his second punt return of 40+ yards on the year, tied at the time for the second-most by a returner in Buccaneers history and trailing only Karl Williams in 2002 (three).

X Johnson's 16.7 punt return average in Week 4 marked the highest in a single game by a Tampa Bay returner (min. five returns) since Karl Williams' 20.0 average on Oct. 13, 2002 vs. Cleveland.

X Through four weeks, Johnson's 15.9 average yards per punt return was the highest mark in the NFL (min. 10 punt returns).

X Appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense in the Week 5 win at Seattle, logging seven offensive snaps and 16 special teams snaps. Produced one carry for two yards. As a returner, fielded just one punt for a fair catch.

X Enjoyed a breakout game offensively in the Week 6 win over the 49ers, entering the game with zero career receptions and playing 26-of-53 offensive snaps to finish with four receptions for a team-leading 64 yards and one touchdown catch.

X In Week 6, Johnson's first career catch came on a 34-yard touchdown pass from Baker Mayfield.

X Per Pro Football Focus, Johnson was Tampa Bay's second-highest graded offensive player in the Week 6 win over San Francisco, earning an 83.7 overall offensive grade.

- In Week 7 at Detroit, appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense, tallying 16 special teams snaps and 15 offensive snaps. Recorded three punt returns for 34 yards (11.3 avg.) and four kick returns for 95 yards (23.8 avg.).
- Appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense in the Week 8 win at New Orleans, playing eight special teams snaps and six offensive snaps. Logged one punt return for eight yards.
- In Week 10 vs. New England, appeared on 16 special teams snaps and nine offensive snaps. He finished with one carry for 11 yards offensively, while contributing two punt returns for 12 yards and two kick returns for 48 yards.
- Played primarily on special teams in Week 11 at Buffalo, logging 14 snaps. Also appeared on six offensive snaps. Finished with five kick returns for a 27.2 average.
- In Week 12 at the Los Angeles Rams, appeared primarily on special teams, playing 14 special teams snaps and recording one punt return for 15 yards. Also played on eight offensive snaps.
- Appeared predominantly on special teams in the Week 13 win over Arizona, logging 10 special teams snaps and six offensive snaps. Recorded two punt returns for an average of 11.5 yards per return, and two kick returns for an average of 23.0 yards per return. Also contributed one special teams tackle.
- In Week 14 vs. New Orleans, logged eight special teams snaps and six offensive snaps. Recorded two punt returns for zero yards and two kick returns for an average of 19.5 yards. Was targeted once, offensively.
- Played exclusively on special teams in Week 15 vs. Atlanta, recording 16 special teams snaps. Had one kick return for 30 yards and one punt return for zero yards.
- In Week 16 at Carolina, recorded three kick returns for 101 yards, averaging 33.7 yards per return. He produced Tampa Bay's two longest kick returns of the season with a 37-yarder and a 44-yarder. His performance marked the eighth time since 2000 that a Buccaneers player has had two kick returns of 35+ yards in a single game, and the first time since Eric Page did it in Week 12 of the 2013 season.
- Johnson's average of 33.7 yards per kick return in Week 16 was the sixth-highest ever by a Tampa Bay returner in a game with at least three returns, and the highest since Michael Spurlock in Week 17 of the 2011 season against New Orleans (36.0).
- In Week 17 at Miami, returned two punts for 27 yards (13.5 avg.) and three kickoffs for 75 yards (25.0 avg.).
- Appeared exclusively on special teams in the Week 18 win over Carolina, logging 11 snaps. Recorded one fair caught punt.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 37 career games over four seasons at Barton College, tallying 151 receptions for 2,316 yards and 19 touchdowns, as well as adding 22 carries for 125 yards, plus two touchdown passes.
- As a returner in college, recorded over 1,000 return yards and brought two kicks back for touchdowns.
- Earned All-Conference honors in his final two seasons after posting a combined 95 receptions for 1,445 receiving yards and 12 receiving touchdowns.

X Became the first-ever Barton College football player to sign with an NFL team.

X Attended Northern Nash High School (Rocky Mount, N.C.), where he played quarterback.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started 120-of-123 games between the Cleveland Browns, Carolina Panthers, Los Angeles Rams and Tampa Bay Buccaneers, completing 2,500-of-3,938 (63.5%) passes for 28,525 yards, 197 touchdowns and 101 interceptions, good for a passer rating of 91.2. Also added 366 rushing attempts for 1,583 yards and 11 rushing touchdowns, plus one reception for 17 yards.
- Has started five career playoff games, completing 107-of-166 passes (64.5%) for 1,338 yards, 12 touchdowns and three interceptions, good for a passer rating of 105.9. Mayfield ranks first in NFL history in postseason passer rating (min. 150 attempts).
- Is the only quarterback in Buccaneers franchise history to be selected to multiple Pro Bowls.
- Produced a career-high 382 rushing yards in 2025, while leading all quarterbacks in yards per rush attempt (6.9 avg.) that season.
- In 2024, for the second season in a row, Mayfield established career highs in completions (407), passing yards (4,500), passing touchdowns (41) and completion percentage (71.4%). He also set a new career high in passer rating (106.8).
- Established new Buccaneers single-season franchise records in completion percentage (71.4%) and passer rating (106.8) in 2024.
- In 2024, became the fourth player in NFL history to record a season with 4,000+ passing yards, 40+ touchdowns and a 70% or higher completion rate, joining Drew Brees (2011), Joe Burrow (2024) and Aaron Rodgers (2020).

- During his first season with the Buccaneers in 2023, was voted a team captain and established then-career highs in completions (364), passing yards (4,044), passing touchdowns (28) and completion percentage (64.3%).
- Was 1-of-2 players in the NFL in 2023 to throw for 28-or-more touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions.
- Became the first visiting quarterback in the history of Lambeau Field to earn a perfect 158.3 passer rating (12/17/23).
- In 2020, led the Cleveland Browns to their first playoff appearance since 2002 and their first playoff victory in 26 years.
- In 2018, led all rookies in passing yards (3,725), passing touchdowns (27), completion percentage (63.8) and passer rating (93.7).
- Set the then-NFL rookie record with 27 passing touchdowns in 2018.
- Became the third player in NFL history to record at least 3,500 passing yards and 20-or-more touchdowns in each of their first three seasons, joining Peyton Manning (1998-2000) and Andrew Luck (2012-14).
- Owns the second-longest streak of consecutive games with a passing touchdown to begin a career, having done so in his first 17 career games. He trails only Kurt Warner (23; 1999-2000).

2025 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Was named a team captain for the 2025 season.
- Started at quarterback in the Week 1 victory in Atlanta, completing 17-of-32 passes for 167 yards and three passing touchdowns compared to zero interceptions to earn a 99.3 passer rating. Also added 39 rushing yards on five carries. Threw the go-ahead touchdown to Emeka Egbuka with 59 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.
- Week 1 marked Mayfield's 11th game with three-or-more passing touchdowns since joining the Buccaneers prior to the 2023 season – the second-most in the NFL over that span at the time, and trailing only Cincinnati's Joe Burrow.
- Mayfield was the only NFC quarterback to throw for three-or-more touchdowns in Week 1.
- In the Week 2 win at Houston, Mayfield completed 25-of-38 passes (65.8%) for 215 yards and two touchdowns compared to zero interceptions to earn a 98.0 passer rating. In the game, Mayfield eclipsed 25,000 career passing yards.
- Week 2 marked the second consecutive game in which Mayfield orchestrated a game-winning drive in the final moments, leading the Buccaneers on an 11-play, 80-yard drive in 2 minutes and 4 seconds which resulted in a game-winning touchdown run from Rachaad White with six seconds remaining.
- With his game-winning drive in Week 2, Mayfield became the first quarterback since Brett Favre in 1999 to lead game-winning touchdown drives with under 2 minutes and 30 seconds left in regulation in back-to-back games.
- Through 2 weeks, Mayfield ranked tied for third in the NFL with five passing touchdowns.
- In the Week 3 win over the New York Jets, Mayfield completed 19-of-29 passes (65.6%) for 233 yards and one touchdown pass, compared to zero interceptions, to generate a 101.7 passer rating, adding four carries for 44 yards.

- Through Week 3, Mayfield had thrown for six touchdowns with zero interceptions, making him 1-of-3 players (also, Baltimore's Lamar Jackson and Buffalo's Josh Allen) to have at least five passing touchdowns without a single interception.
- Mayfield was 1-of-2 quarterbacks to record a 98.0-or-higher passer rating in each of the first three weeks of the season (also, Indianapolis' Daniel Jones).
- Week 3 marked Mayfield's eighth straight game with a passer rating of 93.0-or-higher, the longest such streak in the NFL at the time, with the next-highest streak being three such games.
- During Tampa Bay's last possession in Week 3, Mayfield completed two passes for 47 yards and generated a 93.8 passer rating while leading Tampa Bay into scoring position. At the time, Mayfield led the NFL in passer rating (101.6), passing yards (571), and was tied for the league lead in passing touchdowns (five) with under two minutes remaining in regulation (min. 50 pass attempts) since he joined the Buccaneers.
- In Week 4 vs. Philadelphia, completed 22-of-40 passes for 289 yards and two passing touchdowns compared to one interception to earn an 84.0 passer rating. With his 289 passing yards, Mayfield surpassed Steve DeBerg (9,439) for the eighth-most passing yards in franchise history.
- Week 4 marked the first time since Week 13 of the 2024 season that Mayfield generated a passer rating below 93.0, snapping the longest-such streak (eight games) in the NFL.
- Mayfield's two passing touchdowns in Week 4 came on a 77-yard completion to WR Emeka Egbuka and a 72-yard completion to RB Bucky Irving, marking the first time in Mayfield's career that he's thrown multiple touchdown passes of 70-or-more yards in a single game.
- Week 4 also represented just the second time in franchise history that a

Buccaneers quarterback had multiple 70+ yard touchdown passes, joining Ryan Fitzpatrick on Sept. 16, 2018 vs. Philadelphia. Prior to Mayfield doing so in Week 4, Fitzpatrick was the last player in the NFL to record such a performance.

- Through Week 4, Mayfield was tied for third in the NFL in passing touchdowns (eight) and tied for fourth in touchdown-to-interception ratio (8:1).
- Had a career performance in the Week 5 win at Seattle, completing 29-of-33 passes (87.9%) for 379 yards and two touchdowns, with zero interceptions, earning a 134.7 passer rating. His 87.9 completion percentage was the then-highest mark by any quarterback in the 2025 season, and was the second highest of his career behind only his 90.5 completion percentage (19-of-21) on 9/19/21 vs. Houston as a member of the Cleveland Browns.
- In Week 5, Mayfield became the first quarterback in NFL history with 375+ passing yards and fewer than five incompletions in a regular season game, per CBS Sports.
- With his performance in Week 5, Mayfield became one of four players since the 1970 merger with 375+ passing yards and a completion percentage above 85.0% in the same game, joining Tom Brady (10/18/09), Lamar Jackson (10/11/21) and Justin Herbert (9/24/23).
- Mayfield's 87.9% completion rate in Week 5 was the then-highest single-game mark in franchise history (min. 30 attempts).
- Mayfield averaged 11.48 yards per attempt in the Week 5 victory against the Seahawks – the second-best mark in his career at the time, trailing only his 13.6 average on 12/17/23 at Green Bay.

- In leading the Buccaneers to their fourth comeback win and fourth victory with a last-minute score, Mayfield went 10-for-11 for 143 passing yards and two touchdowns while Tampa Bay was trailing in Week 5, generating a perfect 158.3 passer rating.
- Per Pro Football Focus, Mayfield's 92.2 overall offensive grade was the highest among all quarterbacks in Week 5.
- Through Week 5, Mayfield ranked tied for third in passing touchdowns (10), tied for fourth in touchdown-to-interception ratio (10.0), fourth in passing yards (1,283) and ninth in passer rating (104.4).
- In the Week 6 win over the 49ers, Mayfield completed 17-of-23 passes (73.9%) for 256 yards and two touchdown passes compared to zero interceptions for a 139.0 passer rating.
- In Week 6, Mayfield also recorded a 15-yard scramble on a third-and-14 in the third quarter, generating 27 yards after contact as he avoided a sack in the backfield. Per Next Gen Stats, Mayfield had just a 3.7% chance of picking up the first down via run at the onset of the play. The Buccaneers scored two plays later.
- Between Weeks 5-6, Mayfield completed 82.1% of his passes – the highest mark among any quarterback over that span. His 137.7 passer rating over that stretch also led all quarterbacks.
- Across Weeks 5-6, Mayfield posted consecutive performances of averaging at least 11.0 yards per attempt - the first such span by any quarterback in 2025.
- With his performances in Weeks 5-6, Mayfield became just the ninth quarterback in NFL history to complete at least 82% of his passes while averaging at least 11 yards per attempt across multiple games within a single season, joining Jared Goff (2024, twice), Brock Purdy (2023), Ryan Tannehill (2015), Alex Smith (2012), Peyton Manning (2008), Kurt Warner (1999), Rob Johnson (1997) and Ken Anderson (1974).
- Through Week 6, Mayfield ranked tied for third in the NFL in touchdown passes (12), tied for fourth in touchdown-to-interception ratio (12.0), fourth in passing yards (1,539) and sixth in passer rating (108.5).
- In Week 7 at Detroit, completed 28-of-50 passes for 228 yards and one touchdown with one interception.
- Through Week 7, Mayfield ranked sixth in the NFL in passing yards (1,767) and tied for sixth in passing touchdowns (13).
- In the Week 8 win at New Orleans, completed 15-of-24 passes for 152 yards, earning an 80.6 passer rating and his 25th regular season win as starting quarterback of the Buccaneers, which broke a tie with Josh Freeman and Vinny Testaverde for the sixth-most in franchise history.
- In Week 10 vs. New England, completed 28-of-43 passes (65.1%) for 273 yards and three touchdowns with zero interceptions to earn a 106.1 passer rating. It was Mayfield's second game with three-or-more passing touchdowns of the season and his 12th since the start of the 2023 - tied for the most in the NFL at the time over that span.
- Through 10 Weeks, with 16 passing touchdowns compared to two interceptions on the season, Mayfield's 8.0 TD/INT ratio ranked fourth in the NFL.
- Mayfield's 99.2 passer rating through Week 10 was the fourth-best mark by a Buccaneers quarterback through Week 10 of a season in franchise history (minimum six starts), trailing Ryan

Fitzpatrick in 2018 (107.3), Tom Brady in 2021 (106.1) and himself in 2024 (103.6).

- In Week 11 at Buffalo, completed 16-of-28 passes for 173 yards and one touchdown. He added a rushing touchdown and averaged 7.8 yards per rush, taking five carries for 39 yards.
- In Week 12 at the Los Angeles Rams, completed 9-of-19 passes for 41 yards and one touchdown with two interceptions before leaving with injury.
- In the Week 13 win over Arizona, Mayfield completed 18-of-28 passes (64.3%) for 194 yards and one touchdown with zero interceptions to earn a 96.4 passer rating on the day. It marked Mayfield's seventh game of the year in which he recorded a passer rating of 96.0 or higher, tied for the sixth-most such performances by a quarterback through 13 Weeks.
- Through Week 13, Mayfield owned a 3.8 touchdown-to-interception ratio on the season. Among passers with at least 250 attempts at the time, it was the fifth-best mark in the NFL.
- In Week 14 vs. New Orleans, Mayfield completed 14-of-30 passes for 122 yards and one touchdown pass. It marked his 20th consecutive home start with a touchdown pass, the then-longest active streak in the NFL and longest such streak in Buccaneers' history.
- In Week 14, Mayfield produced a team-high 7.0 yards per carry, running six times for 42 yards – his second-highest total in a game this season. Mayfield ran for three first downs on the day, including two on third down. Through Week 14, Mayfield's 208 rushing yards and 9.0 yards per carry on third downs led all quarterbacks (min. 15 rushes). His 17 first downs when running the ball on third down were the second-highest total by a quarterback at the time, trailing only Buffalo's Josh Allen.
- In Week 15 vs. Atlanta, completed 19-of-34 passes (55.9%) for 277 yards and two touchdowns compared to one interception to earn a 90.0 passer rating. It marked Mayfield's third-highest yardage output in a game in 2025 at the time. It was his eighth game in 2025 with a passer rating of 90.0-or-higher – tied for the ninth-most in the NFL at the time.
- In Week 16 at Carolina, completed 18-of-26 passes (69.2%) for 145 yards and one touchdown with one interception for a 79.8 passer rating. His 69.2% completion rate was his third-highest mark in a game this year.
- Mayfield added a season-high 45 yards on the ground across four carries in Week 16, averaging 12.3 yards per rush – his highest in a single game this season. Through Week 16, Mayfield's 7.0 yards per carry led all quarterbacks with at least 40 rushing attempts.
- In Week 17 at Miami, completed 33-of-44 passes (75.0%) for 346 yards and two touchdowns, earning a 93.6 passer rating. His 75.0% completion percentage and 346 passing yards each marked his second-highest outputs in a game in 2025, while his 33 completions were his most in a game in 2025 and the second-most of his career.
- With his two passing touchdowns in Week 17, Mayfield recorded his fifth season with 25+ passing touchdowns since entering the league in 2018, tied for the fourth-most in the NFL over that span and trailing only Patrick Mahomes (seven), Josh Allen (six) and Aaron Rodgers (six).
- In the Week 18 win over Carolina, completed 16-of-22 passes (72.7%) for 203 yards and one touchdown with one interception to produce a 97.3 passer rating. He added four carries for 31 rushing yards on the night.

- With his 31 rushing yards in Week 18, Mayfield increased his season total to a career-high 382 rushing yards.

COLLEGE:

- Appeared in 48 career games between Texas Tech (2013) and the University of Oklahoma (2015-17), completing 1,026-of-1,497 passes (68.5%) for 14,607 yards and 131 touchdowns. Also added 404 carries for 1,083 yards and 21 rushing touchdowns.
- Walked on at Texas Tech in 2013 as a true freshman and was named Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year.

X Pro Football Focus First-Team All-Pro (2023)

X 1x NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 8, 2025).

X Has appeared in 98 career games between the Los Angeles Chargers, San Francisco 49ers, Indianapolis Colts, Jacksonville Jaguars, New York Jets, Cleveland Browns and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his career, has converted 158-of-186 (84.9%) field goal tries and 207-of-212 (97.6%) extra point attempts for a total of 681 kicking points.

X Has appeared in three career playoff games, converting 6-of-7 (85.7%) field goal tries and 7-of-7 (100%) extra points for a total of 25 kicking points.

X McLaughlin's 90.1% field goal success rate (91-of-101) as a member of the Buccaneers is the best mark in franchise history (min. 50 attempts).

X Has successfully converted 43-of-51 (84.3%) attempts from 50-or-more yards, the highest success rate in NFL history among players with at least 40 attempts.

X Has established a new Buccaneers single-season franchise record for field goal percentage on two occasions, most recently in 2024 when he went 30-for-32 (93.8%). Previously accomplished the feat in 2023 (93.5% – 29-of-31).

X In Week 4 of the 2025 season, McLaughlin kicked a 65-yard field goal, establishing a record for the then-longest outdoor made field goal in NFL history, and tying for the second-longest made field goal ever at the time.

X During the 2025 season, set an NFL record for the most consecutive made field goals from 50+ yards without a miss in a single season, with 11 such kicks.

X Set a Buccaneers franchise record for consecutive regular season field goals made between 10/26/23–10/21/24 when he converted 30 straight field goals without a miss.

X Scored 144 total points in the 2024 season (54 extra points, 30 field goals), establishing a Buccaneers single-season franchise record.

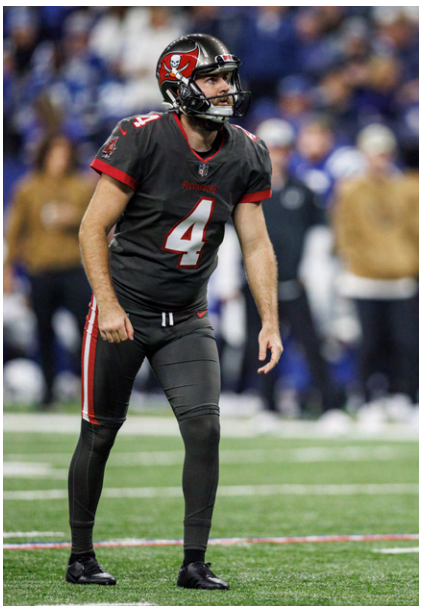

2025 HIGHLIGHTS:

X In the Week 1 victory in Atlanta, McLaughlin went 1-for-2 on field goal tries, successfully converting from 48 yards out. He also went 2-for-3 on extra point attempts for a total of five kicking points.

X Went 0-for-1 on field goal tries in the Week 2 win at Houston, hitting the right upright on his lone attempt of the night. Went 2-for-2 on point after tries to finish with two kicking points.

- In the Week 3 win over the New York Jets, McLaughlin went 5-of-6 on field goal tries on the day, including a walk-off, game-winning 36-yard field goal as time expired. In total, he converted from 28, 33, 36, 54 and 55 yards out.
- In Week 3, McLaughlin joined Martín Gramática (Dec. 29, 2002 at Chicago – Week 17) as the only players in Buccaneers franchise history to record five-or-more field goals in a single game.
- Week 3 marked the second time in McLaughlin's career that he's recorded at least five field goals in a game, joining Dec. 17, 2022. It also represented his fourth career game with two makes from at least 50 yards out.
- In Week 4 vs. Philadelphia, McLaughlin went 3-for-3 on field goal tries on the day, converting from 42, 58, and 65 yards out. McLaughlin's 65-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter established a new Buccaneers franchise record for the longest made field goal, and was tied for the second-longest made field goal in NFL history. It marked the longest outdoor field goal make in NFL history.
- With his performance in Week 4, McLaughlin became just the fourth player in NFL history to ever have multiple field goal makes of 58+ yards in the same game, and only the second player ever to accomplish the feat outdoors.
- In the Week 5 win at Seattle, McLaughlin converted 3-of-3 field goal attempts, including the 39-yard game-winner.
- Through Week 5, McLaughlin ranked second in the NFL in kicking points (47) and tied for third in made field goals (12).
- In the Week 6 victory over the 49ers, McLaughlin went 1-for-2 on field goal tries, converting from 45 yards out. Also went 3-for-3 on PATs for a total of six kicking points.
- Went 1-for-1 on field goal tries in Week 7 at Detroit, converting from 53 yards out.
- In the Week 8 win at New Orleans, was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after going 3-for-3 on field goal tries, converting all three from 50+ yards out (52, 54, 55). Also added two extra points for a total of 11 kicking points.
- With his three makes of 50+ yards in Week 8, McLaughlin became the second kicker in the 2025 season to record such a performance in a single game.
- Through 8 Weeks, McLaughlin was 8-for-8 on field goal tries of 50+ yards, and his eight such makes were the most in the NFL at the time.
- In Week 10 vs. New England, converted on his lone field goal try of the day, connecting successfully from 36 yards out. Also added two extra points for a total of five kicking points on the day.
- Went 2-of-2 on field goal attempts in Week 11 at Buffalo, converting from 23 and 24 yards out.
- Through 11 Weeks, was tied for fourth in the NFL with 80 kicking points and with 20 made field goals.
- In Week 12 at the Los Angeles Rams, went 1-for-1 on his lone point after attempt. Did not attempt any field goals.
- Went 2-for-2 on field goal tries in the Week 13 win over Arizona, connecting successfully from 25 yards and 57 yards out. He added two extra points for a total of eight kicking points.
- Through Week 13, McLaughlin was a perfect 9-for-9 on field goal tries from 50+ yards away, and his nine such makes are the most in the NFL. As of Week 13, McLaughlin was the fourth kicker since 2000 – and the first since Dallas' Brandon Aubrey in 2023 – to have at least nine attempts of 50+ yards in a season and record a 100% success rate.

- Went 2-for-2 on field goal tries in Week 14, converting successfully from 37 and 41 yards out. Through 14 Weeks, McLaughlin was 24-of-28 (85.7%) on field goal attempts, with his 24 makes ranking sixth in the league.
- In Week 15 vs. Atlanta, went 2-for-2 on field goal attempts, successfully converting from 49 and 52 yards out. His 52-yard make was his 10th made field goal from 50+ yards in 2025, most in the NFL at the time.
- With his performance in Week 15, McLaughlin joined Brandon Aubrey (2023) as the only kickers in the last nine seasons to attempt 10-or-more field goals from 50+ yards and not record a miss.
- In Week 16 at Carolina, went 2-for-2 on field goal tries on the day, connecting from 23 and 50 yards out. With his 50-yard field goal, he established an NFL record for the most consecutive made field goals from 50+ yards out without a miss in a single season, converting his 11th straight such kick.
- Went 1-for-2 on field goal tries in Week 17 at Miami, converting from 33 yards out. Also added two PAT's on the day for a total of five kicking points.
- In the Week 18 win over the Carolina Panthers, went 3-for-4 on field goal tries on the day, converting from 29, 36 and 48 yards out. It marked McLaughlin's fifth game this season with three-or-more made field goal attempts.
- With his 10 total kicking points in Week 18, McLaughlin surpassed Ryan Succop (384) for the eighth-most points scored in franchise history.

ACQ: D3B, 2024

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Selected by the Buccaneers as a third-round pick (92nd overall) in the 2024 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started 14-of-17 career games for the Buccaneers, bringing in 49 receptions for 639 yards and eight receiving touchdowns. Also added five carries for 44 rushing yards.
- Has started his lone postseason contest, totaling two receptions for 41 yards.
- Ranked second among all rookies in 2024 with eight receiving touchdowns. His eight TD catches were the third-most by a rookie in franchise history, trailing only Mike Evans (12 in 2014) and Mike Williams (11 in 2010).
- In 2024, McMillan brought in at least one touchdown catch in the final five games (Weeks 14-18), tied for the second-longest such streak by a rookie in NFL history (trailing only Randy Moss, 7, in 1998).
- Was 1-of-2 players to record a receiving touchdown in five-or-more straight games in 2024, joining the NFL's triple-crown winner in Cincinnati's Ja'Marr Chase.

2025 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Returned from injury to make his 2025 debut in Week 15 vs. Atlanta, starting at wide receiver and playing 32-of-69 offensive snaps. Finished with two catches for 38 yards.
- Started at wide receiver in Week 16 at Carolina, playing 34-of-64 offensive snaps and recording two receptions for 15 yards. Also had one carry for one yard.
- In Week 17 at Miami, played 35-of-67 offensive snaps and produced a then-career-best performance, bringing in a career-high 114 receiving yards on a career-best seven receptions.
- Week 17 marked the first 100-yard receiving game of McMillan's career, with his previous high being 75 yards receiving on Dec. 15, 2024 at the Los Angeles Chargers. McMillan's 33-yard catch in the second quarter matched his career long.
- Played 37-of-67 offensive snaps in the Week 18 win over Carolina, bringing in one catch for 11 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Appeared in 38 career games for the University of Washington (2020-23), bringing in 164 receptions for 2,143 yards and 17 receiving touchdowns.
- Dating back to 1996, he ranked among University of Washington program leaders in receptions (fifth), receiving yards (sixth), and receiving touchdowns (seventh) at the time that he was drafted.
- As a redshirt junior in 2023, was limited due to injury but still appeared in nine games, bringing in 45 receptions for 559 yards and five receiving touchdowns.

- McMillan led all players in the 2024 College Football Playoff National Championship game in receptions, with six, and scored the game's lone receiving touchdown.
- Enjoyed his most productive collegiate season as a redshirt sophomore in 2022, when he received All-Pac-12 honorable mention recognition after playing 13 games and posting career highs in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,098) and receiving touchdowns (nine). He led the Huskies in both receptions and receiving touchdowns.
- As a redshirt freshman in 2021, appeared in 10 games and finished with 39 receptions for 470 yards and three receiving touchdowns.
- During his true freshman campaign in 2020, he saw action in three games and brought in one reception for 16 yards.

COMMUNITY:

- Hosted a holiday toy drive in Fresno, California, to support local children and inspire his hometown community.

PERSONAL:

- Attended San Joaquin Memorial High School (Fresno, Calif.), where he played football, baseball, and track and field.
- Was rated as the No. 38 overall prospect and No. 8 wide receiver in the country coming out of high school, as well as the No. 6 recruit in the state of California.
- Was recruited by several schools to be a dual sport athlete, having been recruited for both football and baseball.
- Qualified for the Junior Olympics in track and field in the eighth grade.

X Appeared in a reserve capacity on offense in Week 7 at Detroit, playing seven offensive snaps and contributing one carry for four yards and one catch for two yards.

X In the Week 8 win at New Orleans, carried the ball 12 times for 42 yards, adding one rushing touchdown. His rushing score marked his second of the season and the fourth of his career.

X Played 22-of-69 offensive snaps in Week 10 vs. New England, carrying the ball nine times for a then-season-high 53 rushing yards (5.9 avg.).

X In Week 10, Tucker became the first running back to eclipse 50 rushing yards against the Patriots in the 2025 season. Coming into the game, the Patriots were the only team in the NFL to not allow a running back to surpass 50 yards on the ground against them.

X Played 31-of-70 offensive snaps in Week 11 at Buffalo, leading the way offensively for Tampa Bay by producing 140 total yards from scrimmage, the second-most in any single game of his career, behind only his 192-yard outburst at New Orleans (10/13/24).

- Tucker had 106 rushing yards on 19 carries (5.6 avg.) in Week 11, adding two rushing touchdowns. His 106 rushing yards were his second-most in any single game of his career (136 at New Orleans, 10/13/24). Through the air, Tucker finished with two receptions for 34 yards, including a 28-yard touchdown reception.
- Week 11 marked Tucker's first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns, and his first career game with three scores total.
- Tucker's three-touchdown game in Week 11 was the 10th such occurrence by a running back in Buccaneers history, and the first since Leonard Fournette on Nov. 28, 2021 vs. Indianapolis.
- With his performance in Week 11, Tucker became the fourth running back in 2025 with 125+ scrimmage yards and 3+ scrimmage TDs in a single game, joining Jonathan Taylor, Jahmyr Gibbs and Ashton Jeanty.
- In Week 12 at the Los Angeles Rams, played 26-of-70 offensive snaps and recorded 12 carries for 42 yards. Also brought in one catch for four yards.
- Played 9-of-61 offensive snaps in the Week 13 win over Arizona, recording two carries. Also appeared on five special teams snaps.

- Played eight offensive snaps in Week 15 vs. Atlanta, carrying the ball four times for seven yards and one touchdown. His touchdown run increased his career-best season total to six. Also appeared on five special teams snaps, returning two kicks for an average of 21.0 yards.
- In Week 16 at Carolina, played five offensive snaps, recording four carries for three yards and one touchdown. His touchdown run was his seventh of the season, extending his career-best and team-leading total. Also played 11 special teams snaps, recording two kick returns for 36 yards.
- Played on four offensive snaps in Week 17 at Miami, carrying the ball twice for eight yards. Also appeared on 12 special teams snaps.
- In the Week 18 win over Carolina, played on five offensive snaps and recorded four carries. Also logged seven special teams snaps, returning three kicks for a 19.0 average.

COLLEGE:

- Appeared in 33 games across three seasons (2020-2022) at Syracuse University, logging 589 rushes for 3,182 yards (5.4 avg.) and 27 touchdowns. Also added 64 receptions for 622 yards and four touchdowns.
- Started all 12 games as a junior (2022), rushing 206 times for 1,060 yards (5.1 avg.) and 11 touchdowns and added 36 receptions for 254 yards and two touchdowns. His 1,060 yards rushing were the 12th-highest total in program history and his 36 receptions are the third-highest single-season total by a running back in program history. First running back in school history to have over 1,000 rushing yards and 250 receiving yards in back-to-back seasons.
- Started all 12 games as a sophomore (2021), recording 246 carries for 1,496

rushing yards and 12 touchdowns, also added 20 receptions for 255 yards and two touchdowns. His 1,496 rushing yards were sixth in the nation and broke Joe Morris' 42-year-old Syracuse single-season rushing record (1,372 yards).

- Also set the school record for quickest player to rush for 1,000 yards in school history (eight games). Set the program record for most 100-yard games in a season (nine) and most consecutive 100 yards games (seven).
- Finished fourth in the nation in yards per game (124.7), fifth in the nation in all-purpose yards (145.9 yards per game), and fourth nationally in yards from scrimmage (1,751) which also ranked third in school history. Became the first player in program history to rush for 100+ yards and have over 100 yards receiving in a single game (UAlbany 9/18).
- Was named one of 15 semifinalists for The Maxwell Award, presented annually to the nation's most outstanding college football player and was named First Team All-ACC, earning most votes out of anyone on All-ACC team. Also ran on the Orange track and field team during the indoor season, finishing with a 6.90 second career best mark.
- Appeared in nine games with seven starts as a freshman (2020), totaling 137 carries for 626 yards and four touchdowns, also added eight receptions for 113 yards. Became starting running back four games into the season following a rash of injuries and opt-outs at the position. Ran for the third-most yards in a single season by a Syracuse freshman (626), which was also the fourth-most in the FBS by a true freshman that season. His three 100+ yard games were the second-most in a single season by a Syracuse freshman ever.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Calvert Hall High School (Towson, Md.).
- Played on both sides of the ball as a running back and cornerback and rushed for 1,204 yards and 14 touchdowns as a senior.
- Sprinter for the Calvert Hall indoor and outdoor track teams, winning the MIAA indoor title in the 55-meter dash two years in a row, as well as the 100-meter and 200-meter sprints as a junior.

2025 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Was named a team captain for the 2025 season.
- Started at safety and played 74-of-76 defensive snaps in the Week 1 victory in Atlanta, recording four tackles and one pass defensed. Forced a pass breakup near the Atlanta goal line with 16 seconds remaining to preserve a Tampa Bay victory.
- In the Week 2 win at Houston, started at safety and played all 49 defensive snaps, totaling four tackles. According to Next Gen Stats, Winfield allowed just one reception on two targets for a total of two yards, generating a 56.3 passer rating when targeted in Week 2.
- Started at safety and played all 69 defensive snaps in the Week 3 win over the New York Jets, recording three tackles (two for loss), two quarterback hits and a strip sack of Jets QB Tyrod Taylor.
- Winfield Jr.'s strip sack in Week 3 marked the seventh of his career – the second-most by any safety since the year 2000 at the time.
- Started at safety and played 56-of-57 defensive snaps in Week 4 vs. Philadelphia, recording four tackles (one for loss).
- In the Week 5 win at Seattle, started at safety and played 59-of-61 defensive snaps, contributing three tackles and one pass defensed. Recorded one interception that was negated by a penalty.
- Started at safety in the Week 6 win over the 49ers, playing all 69 defensive snaps and finishing with a team-high nine tackles.
- In Week 7 at Detroit, started at safety and played 67-of-68 defensive snaps, tallying eight tackles.
- Started at safety and played all 72 defensive snaps in the Week 8 win at New Orleans, totaling six tackles, one pass defensed, one fumble recovery and one interception.
- Winfield Jr.'s fumble recovery in Week 8 was the 10th of his career, making him just the 12th defensive back since 2000 with at least 10+ career forced fumbles and 10+ career fumble recoveries.

- Winfield Jr.'s two takeaways in Week 8 were tied for the most in a single game by any player through Week 8 of the 2025 season. It marked the first time a Buccaneers player recorded multiple takeaways in a game since he also recorded the feat on 12/24/23 vs. Jacksonville.
- Started at safety and played all 61 defensive snaps in Week 10 vs. New England, tallying one tackle (that went for loss) and one pass defensed.
- In Week 11 at Buffalo, started at safety and played all 56 defensive snaps, totaling six tackles and one pass defensed.
- Winfield Jr.'s three straight games with a pass defensed from Weeks 8-11 was tied for the longest such stretch of his career (also, Weeks 11-13, 2021).
- Per Pro Football Focus, Winfield Jr. was Tampa Bay's highest-graded defensive player in Week 11, earning a 72.7 overall grade.
- Started at safety and played all 56 defensive snaps in Week 12 at the Los Angeles Rams. Finished with a team-lead-tying eight tackles.
- In the Week 13 win over Arizona, started at safety and contributed seven tackles, one quarterback hit, one pass defensed and one interception. The interception was his second of the season and the ninth of his career.
- Started at safety and played all 58 defensive snaps in Week 14 vs. New Orleans, producing five tackles and one pass defensed.
- In Week 15 vs. Atlanta, started at safety and played all 71 defensive snaps, pacing the Tampa Bay defense with 13 tackles – his most in a game this season and most since Week 11 of the 2023 season at San Francisco (16).
- Started at safety in Week 16 at Carolina, playing all 54 defensive snaps and tallying two tackles.
- In Week 17 at Miami, started at safety and played all 55 defensive snaps, logging seven tackles.

HISTORY

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

PRE-1974

TAMPA STADIUM DEDICATED (11/4/67) – Tennessee defeats the University of Tampa, 38-0 in the first contest played in the facility. The 46,700-seat stadium costs $4.1 million to build.

FIRST PRESEASON GAME (8/10/68) – Washington defeats Atlanta 16-14 before a crowd of 42,000 in first NFL action at new stadium.

EXPANSION COMMITTEE FORMED (11/68) – Suncoast Pro Football Committee is formed with the purpose of securing an NFL franchise for Tampa Bay. The group functions until 1972 when the Tampa Chamber of Commerce formally appoints the West Coast NFL Task Force headed by Tampa businessman J. Leonard Levy.

TAMPA BAY AWARDED FRANCHISE (4/24) – Tampa Bay is awarded the league's 27th franchise. As part of the award, Tampa Stadium will be enlarged to 72,000 seats.

MCCLOSKEY SELECTED AS OWNER (10/30) – Philadelphia construction executive Tom McCloskey is awarded the new Tampa Bay franchise, but soon declines ownership.

CULVERHOUSE AWARDED OWNERSHIP (12/5) – Hugh F. Culverhouse, a Jacksonville attorney and real estate investor who had previously declined ownership of the Seattle franchise due to geographic reasons, is awarded the Tampa Bay franchise.

TEAM NICKNAME ANNOUNCED (2/15) – After reviewing over 400 name possibilities, an advisory board announces the team's new nickname will be the Buccaneers.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL LOGO AND COLORS (4/15) – The team unveils a logo designed by Tampa Tribune artist Lamar Sparkman consisting of Florida orange, white and red.

STADIUM LEASE APPROVED (4/21) – The Tampa Sports Authority unanimously approves a 30-year lease agreement with the Buccaneers for use of Tampa Stadium. Three days later, the Tampa City Council votes 6-1 to approve the lease and expansion to 72,000 seats.

STADIUM EXPANSION BEGINS (7/9) – Ground is broken for the expansion of Tampa Stadium, financed by the sale of $13 million in bonds by the Tampa Sports Authority.

MCKAY NAMED COACH (10/31) – John McKay leaves the University of Southern California where he had coached four national championship teams, signing a five-year contract to coach the Buccaneers.

BUCS PLACED IN DIVISION (11/4) – Tampa Bay is placed in the AFC West with the understanding that it will switch to the NFC Central the following season.

BUCS WIN FIRST OVERALL SELECTION (12/27) – In a drawing held prior to the Pittsburgh vs. Baltimore playoff game, Bucs owner Hugh Culverhouse is awarded the first pick in the following year's NFL college draft while Seattle receives the initial pick in the veteran allocation draft.

WARNER BUYS LARGE SHARE OF TEAM (2/15) – Cincinnati businessman Marvin L. Warner, president of Warner National Corp. and a longtime friend of Hugh Culverhouse, buys a large share of the team.

VETERAN ALLOCATION DRAFT (3/30) – The Buccaneers stock their roster by adding 39 players through the NFL's veteran allocation draft.

FIRST TRADE ANNOUNCED (4/2) – The Bucs make the first trade in franchise history, acquiring former Heisman Trophy winner QB Steve Spurrier from the San Francisco 49ers for two players and a second-round draft choice.

SELMON DRAFTED (4/8) – Tampa Bay takes Lee Roy Selmon with the first selection in the NFL college draft.

INAUGURAL SEASON BEGINS (7/31) – In the team's first-ever preseason action, the Bucs lose 26-3 at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams at the L.A. Coliseum. PK Paul Rajecki's 18-yard FG goes down as the first points in team history.

FIRST PRESEASON VICTORY (8/14) – The Buccaneers win their first preseason game, defeating the Atlanta Falcons 17-3 at the Jacksonville Gator Bowl.

REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/12) – Tampa Bay loses its first regular season game 20-0 at Houston.

GREEN SCORES FIRST REGULAR SEASON POINTS (9/26) – In a 14-9 loss to the Buffalo Bills, K Dave Green connects on a 39-yard FG, posting the franchise's first regular season points.

FIRST REGULAR SEASON VICTORY (12/11) – The Bucs tie an NFL record with three interceptions returned for TDs and end 26 games of frustration with their first regular season victory, a 33-14 win at New Orleans. Over 8,000 fans greet the team when it returns to One Buccaneer Place.

BACK-TO-BACK WINS (12/18) – Tampa Bay wins its second game in a row and first at home, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 17-7.

TAMPA HOSTS PRO BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Stadium is the site of the 1978 Pro Bowl.

DUBOSE RUNS FOR 100 YARDS (10/15) – RB Jimmy DuBose becomes the first Buc to rush for 100 yards in a game (109 yards on 24 carries) as the Bucs lose on the road to the Giants 17-14.

BUCS REACH .500 (10/22) – Tampa Bay defeats Chicago 33-19 to up its record to 4-4, but injuries ultimately cripple the team during the second half of the season.

CULVERHOUSE BUYS CONTROLLING INTEREST (1/3) – Hugh Culverhouse purchases Marvin Warner's minority interest, thereby gaining control of the team.

PEAR BECOMES FIRST PRO BOWL BUC (1/29) – DT Dave Pear becomes the first Buccaneer to play and start in the Pro Bowl.

BUCS JUMP OUT TO HOTTEST START OF SEASON (9/30) – The Buccaneers lay claim to the best record in the league by beating the Bears 17-13 at Chicago and running their record to 5-0, the best start in team history and a franchise record for consecutive victories that would not be matched until 1997.

BELL REACHES 1,000-YARD MARK (11/25) – RB Ricky Bell becomes the first rusher in team history to reach 1,000 yards after compiling 101 yards on the ground in a 23-22 loss to the Minnesota Vikings. Bell eventually finishes the season with 1,263 rushing yards.

BUCS CLINCH FIRST-EVER NFC CENTRAL TITLE (12/16) – The Bucs defeat the Kansas City Chiefs 3-0 in a torrential downpour in Tampa to win the NFC Central Division and earn the first-ever playoff berth in team history. Neil O'Donoghue drills a 19-yard field goal for the game's only points as RB Ricky Bell gains 137 yards on the ground.

SELMON NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (12/20) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes first player in team history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Selmon recorded 117 tackles, two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and 11 sacks during the 1979 regular season.

TAMPA BAY WINS FIRST PLAYOFF GAME (12/29) – Led by RB Ricky Bell's 142-yard, two-touchdown performance, the Bucs defeat the Philadelphia Eagles 24-17 in their first-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS FINISH ONE GAME SHORT OF THE SUPER BOWL (1/6) – The team's first playoff season comes to an end as the Bucs lose 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams in the NFC Championship Game played in Tampa Stadium.

MCKAY GIVEN CONTRACT EXTENSION (1/7) – Head Coach John McKay is given a five-year contract extension. It is also announced that he will become the team's president upon his retirement from coaching.

SELMON BECOMES SECOND PRO BOWLER (1/29) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the team's second player to see Pro Bowl action.

TAMPA BAY MAKES PRIME TIME DEBUT (9/11) – The Buccaneers avenge the previous January's NFC Championship Game defeat (9-0) with a 10-9 victory over the Los Angeles Rams in Tampa Bay's first-ever appearance on ABC's prime time football series (Thursday night game).

BUCS RUN WILD IN WIN OVER GIANTS (11/2) – Tampa Bay running backs account for a team record 244 rushing yards (later surpassed) en route to a 30-13 victory over the N.Y. Giants.

TAMPA BAY DEFEATS ATLANTA, MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE (12/6) – The Buccaneers, led by QB Doug Williams' season-best 336 passing yards, pull out a 24-23 victory over the Atlanta Falcons. The win is Tampa Bay's third in a row and places the team in sole possession of first place in the NFC Central.

BUCS CLINCH SECOND NFC TITLE IN THREE YEARS (12/20) – Tampa Bay wins an exciting showdown in Detroit, besting the Lions 20-17 and securing the NFC Central Division title. WR Kevin House reels in an 84-yard touchdown strike from QB Doug Williams and DT David Logan returns a fumble recovery 21 yards for another Buc score.

BUCS ELIMINATED FROM PLAYOFFS (1/2) – Dallas Cowboys defeat the Bucs 38-0 at Texas Stadium.

PLAYERS STRIKE ANNOUNCED (9/20) – The NFL Players Association announces the beginning of the union's strike.

LABOR PEACE REACHED (11/16) – After a 57-day strike, the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players Association announce a settlement.

TAMPA BAY WINS FIRST MONDAY NIGHT GAME AT HOME (11/29) – After starting off 0-3, Tampa Bay defeats the cross-state rival Miami Dolphins 23-17, marking the first Monday Night victory at Tampa Stadium.

BUCS REACH PLAYOFFS FOR THIRD TIME IN FOUR YEARS (1/2) – QB Doug Williams leads a fierce rally from a 17-point halftime deficit as K Bill Capece's 33-yard field goal in overtime secures the Buccaneer victory. The team wins five of its last six games, securing each victory in the final minute.

DALLAS ENDS TAMPA BAY'S PLAYOFF HOPES (1/9) – The Dallas Cowboys defeat Tampa Bay 30-17 in the first round of playoffs.

WILDER SETS SINGLE-GAME RECORDS (11/6) – RB James Wilder sets team marks for combined yards (239) and rushing yards (219) in a game, helping the Bucs break into the win column for the first time.

TAMPA HOSTS SUPER BOWL XVIII (1/22) – The Los Angeles Raiders defeat the Washington Redskins 38-9 in front of a crowd of 72,920 as Tampa hosts its first Super Bowl.

WILDER RUNS FOR 172 YARDS IN WIN OVER PACKERS (9/30) – RB James Wilder carries the ball a record 43 times for 172 yards in leading Tampa Bay to a 30-27 overtime victory over the Green Bay Packers. Wilder eventually goes on to record the best rushing season in Bucs history, compiling 1,544 yards and 13 touchdowns on an NFL record 407 carries.

MCKAY ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION (11/5) – Head Coach John McKay announces his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The announcement comes one day after a 27-24 loss at Minnesota with the Bucs owning a 4-6 record.

MCKAY'S FINAL GAME (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the N.Y. Jets 41-21 in John McKay's final game as a head coach. He finishes an overall 171-128-9, including a 44-88-1 mark as the Bucs' head coach.

BENNETT NAMED HEAD COACH (1/23) – Hugh Culverhouse names former Atlanta Falcons head coach Leeman Bennett as John McKay's replacement.

SELMON PLAYS IN FINAL PRO BOWL (1/27) – DE Lee Roy Selmon plays in his sixth and final Pro Bowl. A herniated disk, which eventually required surgery, is discovered in his back at the game. The injury later forces Selmon to retire after missing the entire 1985 season.

BUCS RECORD FIRST SHUTOUT SINCE '79 (11/10) – Tampa Bay defeats the St. Louis Cardinals 16-0, marking the team's first shutout since 1979 (vs. Kansas City), and snapping a nine-game losing streak.

SELMON'S JERSEY RETIRED (9/7) – In halftime ceremonies at the season-opener versus San Francisco, six-time Pro Bowler DE Lee Roy Selmon's jersey is retired. Selmon's number 63 becomes the first and only jersey in team history to be retired.

BENNETT FIRED (12/29) – Leeman Bennett is relieved of his position after compiling a 4-28 record as the Bucs' head coach.

TAMPA BAY AWARDED SUPER BOWL XXV (5/20) – Tampa is awarded the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl to be played on January 27, 1991.

BUCS OPEN SEASON WITH ROUT OF ATLANTA (9/13) – QB Steve DeBerg establishes a franchise record with five touchdown passes and the Bucs set marks for most points (48) and largest margin of victory (38) in a 48-10 besting of Atlanta.

STRIKE INTERRUPTS SEASON (10/1) – The NFL Players Association calls for its second work stoppage in six seasons. After a 24-day strike in which replacement players were used in three games, the NFL and Players Union come to an agreement.

TESTAVERDE PASSES FOR 469 YARDS (10/16) – QB Vinny Testaverde passes for the second-highest single-game yardage in franchise history (469) at Indianapolis.

BUCS DEFEAT EVENTUAL AFC CHAMPION BUFFALO (12/4) – Tampa Bay's win over the eventual AFC Champion Buffalo Bills is the first 10-5 score in NFL history.

TAMPA BAY DEFEATS CHICAGO FOR FIRST TIME IN 13 TRIES (10/8) – The Bucs score 28 first half points (second most in team history) to end 12 games of frustration against the Bears before the largest crowd ever at a Bucs game (72,077).

BUCS COMPLETE SEASON SWEEP OF BEARS (11/19) – K Donald Igwebuike's last-second 28-yard field goal completes the first-ever season sweep of Chicago. The win marks the Bucs' first at Soldier Field in 10 years (9/30/79).

WR MARK CARRIER FINISHES PRO BOWL SEASON (12/24) – With six catches for 101 yards versus Pittsburgh, WR Mark Carrier caps off a Pro Bowl season in which he set club records of 86 receptions and 1,422 receiving yards.

WILLIAMSON FIRED (12/27) – Richard Williamson is relieved as head coach after compiling a 4-15 record.

WYCHE NAMED HEAD COACH (1/10) – Former Cincinnati Bengals Head Coach Sam Wyche is named as Richard Williamson's replacement. Wyche becomes the fifth head coach in Tampa Bay history.

WILLIAMS INDUCTED INTO KREWE OF HONOR (9/6) – QB Doug Williams becomes the third player inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

COBB RECORDS FIFTH-BEST RUSHING SEASON (12/27) – The Bucs defeat the Phoenix Cardinals 7-3 as RB Reggie Cobb caps off the fifth-best rushing performance in team history (1,171 yards).

BUCS SIGN NICKERSON AS AN UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (3/18) – Former Pittsburgh Steelers LB Hardy Nickerson signs a three-year contract to become the Buccaneers' first free agent acquisition under the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement.

NICKERSON EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (12/29) – After compiling a team record 214 tackles, Nickerson is voted as the NFC's starting linebacker in the Pro Bowl and later becomes only the second Buccaneer to be named AP All-Pro.

CULVERHOUSE DIES (8/25) – Hugh Culverhouse dies of lung cancer at the age of 75. The team is placed under control of a three-man trust headed by Culverhouse's law partner Steven Story, along with Jack Donlan and Fred Cone.

MCKAY NAMED GENERAL MANAGER (11/8) – Vice-President/Football Operations Rich McKay is promoted to General Manager.

RHETT RUSHES FOR 192 YARDS (12/4) – RB Errict Rhett records the second-best single-game rushing total in team history when he rambles for 192 yards on 40 carries (third-most in team annals) in a 26-21 victory over the Washington Redskins. Rhett eventually becomes the first Buc rookie to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,011).

BUCS SELL OUT SEASON FINALE (12/24) – The Buccaneers are defeated by the Packers 34-19 in front of the first sellout at Tampa Stadium in two years (11/15/92).

BUCCANEERS SOLD TO MALCOLM GLAZER (1/16) – Steven Story announces that, pending NFL approval, the Buccaneers have been sold to Palm Beach investor Malcolm Glazer for the highest price ever paid for a sports franchise.

NFL APPROVES SALE OF TEAM (3/13) – NFL owners unanimously approve Malcolm Glazer's purchase of the Buccaneers one day after the NFL Finance Committee gave its unanimous approval at the Owner's Meetings in Phoenix, AZ.

BUCS SIGN DRAFT PICKS IN RECORD FASHION (5/10) – With the signing of second-round selection S Melvin Johnson, Tampa Bay becomes the quickest team in NFL history to sign all its draft picks.

SALE OF THE TEAM IS FINALIZED (6/30) – Malcolm Glazer officially becomes the team's new owner after the sale of the team is finalized in Charlotte, NC. Bryan and Joel Glazer are named executive vice-presidents.

SELMON INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (7/29) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the first Buccaneer inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame. Selmon is introduced by his brother and former Buc teammate Dewey.

BUCS MOVE INTO SOLE POSSESSION OF FIRST PLACE (10/15) – K Michael Husted's 51-yard game-winning FG propels Tampa Bay past Minnesota and into sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division. The victory marks the first time since the final day of the 1981 season that the team has been alone in first place.

GRUBER MARKS RECORD START (11/26) – LT Paul Gruber makes his 118th career start, thus surpassing DE Lee Roy Selmon's team record of 117.

RHETT SURPASSES 1,000-YARD MARK (12/3) – RB Errict Rhett goes over 1,000 yards for the second consecutive year to become only the 12th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in his first two league seasons.

WYCHE IS FIRED (12/27) – The team announces that Sam Wyche will not return as head coach in 1996. Wyche leaves his post with a 23-41 record.

DUNGY NAMED HEAD COACH (1/22) – Minnesota Defensive Coordinator Tony Dungy is named as the Buccaneers' sixth head coach.

NICKERSON RE-SIGNS WITH TEAM (2/22) – LB Hardy Nickerson, the Buccaneers' Most Valuable Player in 1993 and '95, agrees to a four-year deal to remain with the team.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT TAX PASSES (9/3) – Hillsborough County voters pass the Community Investment Tax by a 53-47% margin. The tax will fund the construction of a new stadium and practice facility as well as various other community projects.

DUNGY WINS FIRST GAME (10/8) – Tony Dungy earns his first victory as Buccaneer head coach with a 24-13 victory over his former team, the Minnesota Vikings.

BUCS DEFEAT CHARGERS FOR FIRST CALIFORNIA WIN SINCE '80 (11/17) – Tampa Bay edges the San Diego Chargers 25-17 to earn its first victory in California since 1980 (24-23 vs. San Francisco).

GRUBER RE-SIGNS (2/13) – LT Paul Gruber, the team's designated franchise player and cornerstone of the Buc offensive line for the past eight years, signs a three-year deal to remain in Tampa.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) – The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo, consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are Buccaneer red, pewter, black and orange.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) – The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Tampa Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) – The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) – C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) – DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) – After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) – By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) – The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's team playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) – As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) – After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) – Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

MCKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) – Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) – For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including pre-season) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sells out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) – Raymond James Stadium, already known as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) – The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Dunn (115).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) – Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dilfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to WR Jacquez Green and WR Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) – Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/7) – A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips.

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) – Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) – Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) – Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) – Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dilfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdome. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) – Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) – Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) – Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous best home record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) – The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs. An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM-ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) – Four Buccaneers – FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp – earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) – DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon won the trophy in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 12.5 sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) – Tampa Bay rallies from a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) – The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players – FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a QB Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER MCDANIEL (3/1) – The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) – The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only WR Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and WR Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) – Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears to just 165 total yards, including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) – The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) – DT Warren Sapp breaks DE Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two – giving him 13.5 for the year – as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) – Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FG prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED (12/10) – S Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18) – RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

BUCS HOST THIRD SUPER BOWL (1/28) – Baltimore defeats the N.Y. Giants, 34-7 as Tampa Bay plays host to Super Bowl XXXV at Raymond James Stadium.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) – Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) – Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

JOHN MCKAY DIES (6/10) – John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

BUCS SECOND GAME POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS (9/16) – Due to the terrorist attacks on America on September 11, the NFL postpones all of its games on September 16 and 17, including the Bucs' home contest against Philadelphia. The games are rescheduled for the first weekend in January, with the rest of the playoff schedule, including the Super Bowl, moving back one week. Due to an already-scheduled bye in Week Three, the Bucs have a bizarre, 21-day layoff between the first and second games of the season.

ALSTOTT LEADS ANOTHER HOME POUNDING OF THE VIKINGS (10/28) – Almost exactly one year after demolishing Minnesota, 41-13, in Raymond James Stadium on 10/29/00, the Bucs prove it was no fluke with a 41-14 decision over the Vikings on 10/28/01. FB Mike Alstott leads the runaway victory with 129 rushing yards, tying a team and personal record with three rushing touchdowns.

FIRST MNF ROAD VICTORY GIVES BUCS ANOTHER PRIME-TIME WIN OVER RAMS (11/26) – For the second time in two years, the Buccaneers defeat the St. Louis Rams on Monday Night Football, following up a 38-35 thriller in Tampa in 2000 with a 24-17 victory at St. Louis in 2001. The win, which stands as the first road win for the Bucs on Monday Night Football in team history, gives the Bucs a measure of revenge in the stadium that saw their run to the 1999 Super Bowl come to an end.

BUCS RECORD THIRD STRAIGHT ROAD WIN (12/2) – During yet another December surge, the Buccaneers defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 16-13 in overtime, when S John Lynch forces and recovers a fumble at the Bengals' three-yard line early in the extra period, setting up K Martin Gramatica's game-winning field goal. Following wins at Detroit and St. Louis, the victory over Cincinnati gives Tampa Bay three consecutive road wins for the first time in franchise history.

BUCS TIE SINGLE-GAME SCORING RECORD IN CRUCIAL WIN OVER NEW ORLEANS (12/23) – In a contest that would basically eliminate the loser from playoff contention and nearly guarantee the winner a postseason spot, the Buccaneers explode for 48 points in a blowout win over New Orleans. Taking a 30-0 halftime lead, the Bucs cruise to the 48-21 win, tying the team record for points scored in a single game (also against Atlanta, 9/13/97).

DUNGY DISMISSED (1/14) – The team announces that Head Coach Tony Dungy has been relieved of his coaching duties after six seasons. Dungy posted a 54-42 record at the helm and led the Buccaneers to the playoffs in four of his six campaigns.

GRUDEN INTRODUCED (2/20) – New Head Coach Jon Gruden is introduced at a press conference at a downtown hotel after becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Gruden, 38, spent four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

TAMPA BAY STARTS TRAINING CAMP AT DISNEY (7/29) – The Buccaneers begin their first season under new Head Coach Jon Gruden at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. For the first time, Tampa Bay will conduct training camp at Disney after training at the University of Tampa since 1987. The Buccaneers are the first NFL team to conduct training camp at Disney's sports complex.

GRUDEN MAKES BUCCANEERS DEBUT (9/8) – Jon Gruden, the Buccaneers seventh head coach, makes his regular season debut at Raymond James Stadium in a 26-20 overtime loss to the New Orleans Saints. Tampa Bay trails 20-10 late in the fourth quarter when they post a frantic 10-point comeback to send the game into overtime. The Bucs are forced to punt deep in their own territory on their third possession of overtime. P Tom Tupa lines up to punt, but senses pressure and is forced to pull the ball down and attempt a pass. Saints LB James Allen intercepts the pass in the end zone, giving New Orleans the victory

TAMPA BAY DEFENSE STIFLES ANOTHER ROAD OPPONENT (10/6) – For the third straight road contest, the Bucs defense does not allow a touchdown and posts an interception return for a score in a club-record fourth straight game en route to a 20-6 win over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome. The defense ties a then season-high with four interceptions–all in the second half–and adds four sacks against the Falcons. LB Derrick Brooks becomes the first linebacker in NFL history with three interception returns for touchdowns in a single season.

RICE SETS NFL RECORD (12/1) – In a Week 13 contest at New Orleans, DE Simeon Rice sets an NFL single-season record by recording his fifth consecutive multi-sack game. His three-sack performance against the Saints highlights a five-game streak that began at Carolina on October 27, during which he totaled 11 sacks, 29 tackles, four forced fumbles and one pass defensed.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM FIRST NFC SOUTH TITLE (12/22) – Tampa Bay and New Orleans enter their Week 16 contests with the Bucs holding a one-game advantage in the NFC South. New Orleans suffers a 20-13 loss at Cincinnati on Sunday, thereby giving the first NFC South Division title to Tampa Bay before the Buccaneers take the field the following night against Pittsburgh. The division title is the fourth in Buccaneers history.

GRAMATICA LEADS BUCS TO FRANCHISE-BEST 12TH VICTORY (12/29) – Tampa Bay closes out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win against the Chicago Bears in Champaign, IL. K Martin Gramatica kicks a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Bucs defense registers four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout. The win also marks the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers and is the first Tampa Bay victory in 22 tries when the thermometer reads below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay finishes 6-2 on the road; the most wins away from home in franchise history, and secures the No. 2 seed in the NFC playoffs.

BROOKS NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/8) – LB Derrick Brooks, the Bucs all-time leader in tackles, garners NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. As part of the league's top-ranked defense in 2002, Brooks led the team with 170 tackles and tied for fourth in the NFC with five interceptions. Brooks was also selected to a club-record sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (as was DT Warren Sapp). His four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He later adds another touchdown on an interception return in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/12) – Tampa Bay qualifies for the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history by defeating San Francisco 31-6 at Raymond James Stadium in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest. Tampa Bay races to a 28-6 halftime lead, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the first half. The Bucs force five 49er turnovers and keep San Francisco out of the end zone for the first time in 50 games (including postseason).

BUCS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/19) – Tampa Bay clinches its first NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs defense forces three Eagle turnovers en route to securing the club's first postseason road win in franshise history. CB Ronde Barber paces an outstanding defensive effort and secures the victory with a club-record 92-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

BUCS WIN SUPER BOWL XXXVII (1/26) – The Bucs defeat the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego behind a suffocating defense, setting Super Bowl records with five interceptions and three interception returns for touchdowns. It is the first NFL Championship in club history. At the age of 39, Jon Gruden becomes the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl. S Dexter Jackson is named the game's MVP as the Bucs' top-ranked defense stifles the Raiders and the league's number one ranked offense. Tampa Bay limits Oakland to just 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history, and finishes the game surrendering just 269 total yards and 11 first downs. RB Michael Pittman runs for a season-high 125 yards and WR Keenan McCardell scores two touchdowns. LB Derrick Brooks seals the victory with a late fourth quarter interception return for a touchdown and CB Dwight Smith sets a Super Bowl record by returning a pair of second-half interceptions for touchdowns.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (1/28) – Following their 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers parade through downtown Tampa where more than 150,000 fans line the streets and crowd office buildings to celebrate the city's first major professional sports championship.

BUCS SIGN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR MONTE KIFFIN TO A NEW CONTRACT (1/30) – Tampa Bay signs Monte Kiffin, architect of the NFL's top-ranked defense, to a new, three-year contract. Kiffin, a head coaching candidate, is rewarded for designing the first defense since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense allowed just 196 points in 2002, the fifth-fewest in a single season in NFL history during a 16-game schedule.

SEVEN BUCS APPEAR ON PRO BOWL ROSTER (2/2) – Tampa Bay has seven players on the roster for the 2003 Pro Bowl in Hawaii; FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Brad Johnson, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. A total of six Buccaneers, all but Sapp due to an injury, see game action in the 45-20 AFC victory.

BUCS DEFEAT THE JETS IN THE 2003 AMERICAN BOWL IN TOKYO, JAPAN (8/2) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers opened the preseason with a 30-14 victory over the N.Y. Jets in the 2003 American Bowl in their first-ever international appearance at the Tokyo Dome. Tampa Bay, which played in the final game of the 2002 season in its victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, joined the Jets in the first game of the 2003 preseason in Tokyo, Japan. Tampa Bay also conducted a pair of practices at the Tokyo Dome in preparation for the exhibition contest.

BUCS DEFEAT EAGLES IN 2003 REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/8) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers open up the regular season with a convincing 17-0 victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. WR Joe Jurevicius caught a pair of second half touchdowns, including a spectacular fourth quarter scoring reception in which he deflected the ball over an Eagles defender, spun to his left and dove to haul in the improbable touchdown catch. Tampa Bay's defense limited the Eagles to just 245 total yards as Philadelphia suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998.

BUCS POST SECOND SHUTOUT OF THE SEASON (10/26) – Tampa Bay forces three turnovers and limits Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Bucs post their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons (2002 and 2003).

BUCS RECORD-SETTING SACK STREAK ENDS AT 69 (11/16) – Tampa Bay, which had recorded at least one sack in an NFL-record 69 consecutive games, is held sackless by the Green Bay Packers. It was the first time the Bucs defense had failed to register at least one sack since October 3, 1999 at Minnesota. During that 69-game streak, the Bucs defense also became the first unit to register at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 consecutive games since 1963.

ATLANTA FALCONS NAME RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER (12/15) – The Atlanta Falcons name Rich McKay President and General Manager. McKay spent the previous 12 seasons with Tampa Bay (1992-2003), including the past nine years (1995-2003) as the club's general manager. Under McKay, the Bucs made five playoff appearances, won two division titles and captured the club's first Super Bowl championship in 27 seasons with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

FOUR BUCS SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL (12/18) – Tampa Bay has four players selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl: LB Derrick Brooks, WR Keenan McCardell, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. Brooks and Sapp are named to the Pro Bowl for the seventh consecutive time, eclipsing Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's club record of six total appearances and consecutive appearances at the annual All-Star game.

ALLEN NAMED THIRD GENERAL MANAGER IN CLUB HISTORY (1/9) – The Bucs name Bruce Allen the third general manager in club history. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS NAME DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE (2/12) – The Bucs reclaim one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team. Williams, who spent the last six seasons (1998-2003) as head coach of his alma mater at Grambling State University, compiled a 52-18 record and led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles (2000-2002). A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

BUCS UNVEIL PLANS FOR NEW TRAINING FACILITY (3/17) – The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 136,320 square foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

BUCS ACQUIRE WR JOEY GALLOWAY (3/19) – The Bucs acquire WR Joey Galloway from the Dallas Cowboys for WR Keyshawn Johnson.

HURRICANE CHARLEY FORCES BUCS TO RESCHEDULE PRESEASON GAME (8/14) – Because of the threat of Hurricane Charley, the Buccaneers reschedule their August 14 preseason contest against the Cincinnati Bengals for Monday, August 16. The Bucs organize a program to collect monetary donations at the contest that will be directed to appropriate Hurricane Charley relief efforts.

DERRICK BROOKS AND THE BUCS COLLABORATE TO HELP HURRICANE IVAN VICTIMS (9/18) – Derrick Brooks Charities and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers organize a program to collect monetary donations prior to the game between Tampa Bay and Seattle at Raymond James Stadium on September 19. In addition, Derrick Brooks Charities donates $1000 for each tackle Derrick makes against the Seahawks. All funds collected are directed to appropriate Hurricane Ivan relief efforts in Brooks' hometown of Pensacola, Florida.

BROWN RECORDS 100TH CAREER TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION AGAINST FORMER TEAM (9/26) – In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, Buccaneers WR Tim Brown returns to Oakland to haul in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter.

BUCS EARN LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY SINCE 2000 SEASON (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the San Francisco 49ers 35-3 at Raymond James Stadium to post its largest margin of victory since the 2000 season. The Bucs defense limits the 49ers to 26 total yards and two first downs in the first half and finishes the contest surrendering just 197 total yards, while forcing five sacks and two turnovers. The offense is equally impressive, racking up 352 yards as RB Michael Pittman rushes for 106 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns.

CLAYTON SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORD (11/28) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton hauls in eight receptions for 77 yards in the Week 11 contest at Carolina to move into first place all-time in team history for most receiving yards by a rookie in a season. Through 11 contests in 2004, Clayton posts 60 receptions for 828 yards, surpassing WR Lawrence Dawsey's 818 yards as a rookie in 1991.

RICE RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK AS BUCS POST NINTH SHUTOUT IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (12/5) – Tampa Bay records the ninth shutout in franchise history with a 27-0 victory over the Atlanta Falcons at Raymond James Stadium. Buccaneers DE Simeon Rice records the 100th and 101st sacks of his career, becoming just the 22nd player in league history and only the second active player to reach the 100-sack plateau. The Buccaneers defense records five sacks and forces five turnovers, intercepting QB Michael Vick twice and forcing two fumbles by the Falcons signal caller.

TWO BUCS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/22) – The NFL announces that two Buccaneers, LB Derrick Brooks and CB Ronde Barber, have been selected to the 2005 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Brooks, who was selected for the eighth time to the Pro Bowl, becomes the franchise's all-time leader in Pro Bowl appearances, breaking a tie with former teammate DT Warren Sapp. Brooks' eight consecutive Pro Bowl appearances (1997-04) also establish a new team record. Barber is named to his second career Pro Bowl after making his first appearance in 2001.

BUCS CLAYTON SETS ROOKIE TOUCHDOWN RECORD (12/26) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton catches a career-high two touchdowns against the Carolina Panthers at Raymond James Stadium, moving him into first place for most touchdown receptions by a rookie in franchise history. His six touchdown receptions on the season surpass the previous rookie record of five touchdown catches by WR Kevin House in 1980.

BUCS SELECT CARNELL "CADILLAC" WILLIAMS WITH FIFTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/23) – The Buccaneers draft Auburn RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams with their first selection (fifth overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft. The selection of Williams marks the fourth time in team history that Tampa Bay has drafted a running back in the first round and the first time since 1997 (Warrick Dunn – 12th overall).

WILLIAMS SETS NFL RECORD FOR MOST RUSHING YARDS IN FIRST THREE GAMES (9/25) – In his first three games, Bucs rookie RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams totals an NFL-record 434 rushing yards, becoming the first running back to begin his career with three consecutive 100-yard performances. Following his record-breaking performance, Williams' shoes and gloves are displayed at the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BARBER MATCHES OWN CLUB RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (12/4) – CB Ronde Barber records a career-high tying three interceptions against the New Orleans Saints in Baton Rouge, LA to tie his own club record. His previous three interception performance also came against the Saints in 2001. Barber goes on to finish the season with five picks to lead the Buccaneers and tie for seventh in the NFC.

BARBER BECOMES MEMBER OF EXCLUSIVE 20/20 CLUB (12/11) – CB Ronde Barber records the 20th sack of his career at Carolina to join the 20 sack/20 interception club. He becomes the first cornerback in NFL history and just the seventh player all time to accomplish the feat.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/21) – The NFL announces that three Buccaneers, CB Ronde Barber, P Josh Bidwell and LB Derrick Brooks, have been selected to the 2006 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It marks Brooks' ninth consecutive selection to the all-star game, a team record for total and most consecutive appearances. Barber will make his third career appearance and second consecutive while Bidwell will play in his first career Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS NOTCH 100TH OVERALL WIN UNDER GLAZER LEADERSHIP (12/24) – In one of the most thrilling games in team history, the Buccaneers notch their 100th overall win since being purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. The contest, against the division rival Atlanta Falcons, features four separate occasions in which the score is tied and five lead changes. The epic battle is prolonged when Bucs running back Cadillac Williams scores from six yards out on a fourth down run with 31 seconds remaining in regulation that forces overtime. In the extra period, the Buccaneers block a potential game-winning Atlanta field goal before successfully connecting on a 41-yard attempt of their own with only 54 seconds remaining in overtime. The milestone win emphasizes a reversal of fortunes for the Buccaneers, who prior to being purchased by Mr. Glazer, won just 87 games in 19 seasons.

BUCS CLAIM SECOND NFC SOUTH CROWN IN FOUR YEARS (1/1) – Tampa Bay defeats the New Orleans Saints 27-13 in the final game of the regular season to earn its second NFC South division title in four seasons. Tampa Bay and the rival Carolina Panthers finish the regular season with identical 11-5 records, but the Buccaneers claim the NFC South by virtue of a better divisional record. The division title is the fifth in Buccaneers history.

GALLOWAY SETS NEW FRANCHISE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/1) – WR Joey Galloway records two touchdown receptions in the season finale against the New Orleans Saints, giving him 10 on the season to establish a new franchise record. Galloway's 10 touchdown receptions best the previous high of nine, held by WR Kevin House (1981), WR Bruce Hill (1988) and WR Mark Carrier (1989).

WILLIAMS SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECORD FOR RUSHING YARDS IN A SEASON (1/1) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams finishes the season with 1,178 rushing yards to set a Buccaneers rookie record. His impressive rookie performance includes a team-record six 100-yard rushing games and three of the top 10 single-game rushing performances in team history.

BUCCANEERS DEFENSE FINISHES THE SEASON AS THE TOP-RANKED UNIT IN THE NFL (1/1) – Tampa Bay's defense finishes the season ranked No. 1 in total defense for the third time (1979, 2002 and 2005) in team history. The 2005 season also marks the ninth consecutive year (1997-2005) the Buccaneers ranked in the Top 10 in total defense, the longest active streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak since 1970.

WILLIAMS NAMED NFL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR (2/2) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams beats out LB Shawne Merriman of the San Diego Chargers, LB Lofa Tatupu of the Seattle Seahawks, LB Odell Thurman of the Cincinnati Bengals and LB Demarcus Ware of the Dallas Cowboys for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year honors. Williams is selected by fans on NFL.com with more than one million votes cast during the regular season and playoffs for NFL Rookie of the Week and Rookie of the Year honors.

BROOKS NAMED 2006 PRO BOWL PLAYER OF THE GAME (2/12) – Making his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, LB Derrick Brooks earns Player of the Game honors after returning an interception 59 yards for a touchdown to catapult the NFC to a 23-17 victory over the AFC in the 2006 Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS PLAYERS AND COACHES BEGIN WORK AT NEW HEADQUARTERS (8/21) – Arriving immediately after the conclusion of training camp in Central Florida, Buccaneers players and coaches move into the team's new 136,320-square-foot headquarters. Unmatched in grandeur by any other professional sports headquarters, the new base of operations spans more than 33 acres and provides the team with unparalleled resources of the highest quality. Some of those include a 7,900-square-foot weight room, technically advanced meeting rooms, three practice fields, a grand auditorium, high-tech coaches' studios with instant access to game film, a video-editing suite and a state-of-the-art training and rehabilitation area.

BARBER RETURNS TWO INTERCEPTIONS FOR TOUCHDOWNS IN SAME GAME (10/22) – Facing a Philadelphia Eagles team he had tormented in the past, CB Ronde Barber propels the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a 23-21 victory by twice picking off QB Donovan McNabb, returning each interception for a touchdown. Barber's two TD returns mark the first time in franchise history that a player accomplishes such a feat in a regular season game. His two scores also make Barber the first player in team history to score two defensive touchdowns of any kind in a regular season game.

BRYANT KICKS HIS WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS (10/22) – With the Buccaneers trailing the Philadelphia Eagles 21-20 with only four seconds remaining in the game, K Matt Bryant produces a last-second miracle, kicking a 62-yard field goal to give the Bucs a 23-21 victory. Bryant's kick is the second-longest walk-off field goal in NFL history and the third-longest overall field goal in league annals. The previous long for the Buccaneers franchise was 57 yards by Michael Husted (12/19/93).

BROOKS MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE IN TEAM HISTORY FOR GAMES PLAYED (11/5) – In front of a home crowd and against the New Orleans Saints, perennial Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks plays in his 184th career game, moving into first place in Buccaneers' history for games played. The veteran defender shows no signs of slowing down as he finishes the contest with a team-leading and season-high 15 tackles, including two for a loss. Brooks finishes the season with 192 consecutive games played and 176 straight starts to lead all active Bucs players in both categories. He also ranks first in team history with 189 total starts.

ROOKIE QB GRADKOWSKI MAKES HISTORY WITH INTERCEPTION-FREE STREAK (11/5) – After a game against the New Orleans Saints in which he completes 18 of 31 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns, Tampa Bay Buccaneers rookie QB Bruce Gradkowski runs his mark of pass attempts to 186 with only one interception. That number stands as a record for most attempts in NFL history by a quarterback before throwing a second interception. A week prior, against the New York Giants, Gradkowski became just the third quarterback in league history to throw only one interception in his first 150 pass attempts.

BARBER MOVES INTO TIE FOR MOST INTERCEPTIONS IN TEAM HISTORY (11/13) – With his third interception of the season, this time against Carolina Panthers QB Jake Delhomme, CB Ronde Barber notches his 31st career interception. That total places him in a tie for most interceptions by a Buccaneers player in team history with CB Donnie Abraham, who played for Tampa Bay from 1996-2001. Barber's historic pick comes in front of a Monday Night Football audience with 1:09 remaining in the second quarter of the contest.

BUCCANEERS PLAY IN THANKSGIVING GAME FOR FIRST TIME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (11/23) – For the first time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, the Buccaneers participate in one of the NFL's nationally televised Thanksgiving Day games, squaring off against the Dallas Cowboys. The contest is the third game in an 11-day stretch for the Buccaneers, marking only the fourth time since 1978 that a team has played three games in 11 days, with two of the contests on the road.

BUCCANEERS WELCOME BACK PAST PLAYERS FOR TEAM'S FIRST ALUMNI WEEKEND (12/8) – Approximately 120 former players representing a little over three decades of Buccaneers football are honored when the franchise holds its first Alumni Weekend. During the three-day celebration, former Bucs players who have given the franchise at least one full season of service watch practice, tour the team's new facility, participate in a golf event and attend a dinner party and gala at Raymond James Stadium. The weekend's activities culminate in a halftime tribute during a game against Atlanta in which the players take the field and are recognized by Buccaneers fans.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/19) – For the third consecutive season and fourth overall, CB Ronde Barber earns Pro Bowl honors after leading the Buccaneers with three interceptions and 20 passes defensed to go along with his 108 tackles. Barber is later joined by Bucs TE/LS Dave Moore, who is selected as a "need player" by the NFC, and LB Derrick Brooks, who initially was chosen as first alternate at the outside linebacker position. For Moore, the selection represents the first of his career and first for a Bucs tight end since Jimmie Giles was selected in 1985. Moore is the first Buccaneers player to be chosen to the Pro Bowl as a long-snapper and just the third special teams performer to earn the invitation. Brooks is added to the NFC's roster when Chicago LB Lance Briggs pulls out of the game. His selection marks his 10th consecutive and 10th overall Pro Bowl selection – both team records.

GLAZER FAMILY REACHES 100TH REGULAR SEASON WIN (12/24) – A 22-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the penultimate game of the season marks the 100th regular season victory for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since it was purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. Under the ownership of Mr. Glazer and his family, the club has posted a .521 winning percentage and captured its first Super Bowl championship. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting a .300 winning percentage.

GALLOWAY REACHES 1,000 YARDS FOR SECOND STRAIGHT SEASON (12/31) – For only the second time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, a Buccaneers receiver gains at least 1,000 receiving yards in two straight seasons when Joey Galloway reaches that mark against the Seattle Seahawks. Galloway finishes the season with a team-high 1,057 yards after logging 1,287 yards in 2005, also a club-high. Prior to Galloway's two consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, only Keyshawn Johnson achieved that feat, posting 1,266 yards in 2001 and 1,088 yards the following year.

BUCS UNVEIL THE LARGEST FLYING NON-US FLAG IN THE NATION (9/6) – The Buccaneers raise their new team flag, which measures over 4,000 square feet, at One Buccaneer Place following the afternoon practice. Buccaneers players and staff watch the flag ascend the 147.5-ft. pole on the west side of the team's headquarters as the team readies for its season-opening game in Seattle. At 80'x50' the flag is the largest flying non-US flag in the nation.

GALLOWAY SURPASSES 10,000 RECEIVING YARDS (10/21) – With his 46-yard receiving performance at Detroit, WR Joey Galloway surpasses 10,000 career receiving yards. He becomes the eighth active player and just the 28th player in NFL history to reach the 10,000-yard plateau.

GARCIA SETS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS RECORD (10/21) – Facing his former team, QB Jeff Garcia completes a single-game team-record 18 consecutive completions against the Detroit Lions. Garcia has one of his best outings of the season, completing 37-of-45 passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns against the Lions.

GARCIA'S CONSECUTIVE ATTEMPTS WITHOUT AN INTERCEPTION STREAK ENDS AT 197 (10/28) – QB Jeff Garcia begins his career as a Buccaneer by attempting 197 consecutive passes without throwing an interception, besting the previous team record by Brad Johnson, who went 187 consecutive attempts without a pick from 2001-2002. Dating back to the 2006 season, Garcia went 217 attempts without an interception in the regular season, the sixth-longest streak since 2001.

BARBER BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME INTERCEPTION LEADER (11/25) – CB Ronde Barber intercepts his 32nd career pass to move into first place on the team's career interception list. Barber's record-setting pick comes off QB Jason Campbell late in the fourth quarter to help Tampa Bay preserve a 19-13 victory over the Washington Redskins.

CARTER RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK (11/25) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, DE Kevin Carter posts the 100th sack of his career, dropping QB Jason Campbell in a win against the Redskins. Carter becomes the 24th player in NFL history to reach the 100-sack plateau.

BUCS EARN THIRD NFC SOUTH TITLE IN SIX SEASONS (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the Atlanta Falcons 37-3 in Week 15 to earn its third NFC South division title in six seasons. Tampa Bay moves to 5-0 in its division for the first time since 1979 while clinching the sixth division title in team history and fourth since the Glazer family took over in 1995.

BUCS POST FIRST-EVER KICKOFF RETURN FOR A TOUCHDOWN (12/16) – It took 1,865 kickoff returns, but WR Micheal Spurlock records the first kickoff return for a touchdown in team history on his 90-yard return against the Atlanta Falcons. He is one of 140 players to have returned a kickoff for the Buccaneers. The historic return helps propel the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

GRAHAM SETS TEAM RECORD WITH SCORE IN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/16) – RB Earnest Graham, who began the year as a backup running back, scores a touchdown in his sixth consecutive game to set a new team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown. Graham's touchdown is his team-leading 10th of the year as he finishes the game against Atlanta with 22 carries for 79 yards and one touchdown.

GALLOWAY POSTS THIRD CONSECUTIVE 1,000-YARD SEASON (12/23) – With a 29-yard reception in the second quarter at San Francisco, WR Joey Galloway becomes the first player in team history to record three consecutive and three overall 1,000-yard receiving seasons while also marking the first time in his 13-year career Galloway accomplished the feat. It goes down as the sixth 1,000-yard campaign of his career.

BROOKS BECOMES TEAM'S ALL-TIME LEADER IN PLAYOFF APPEARANCES, STARTS (1/6) – With his start in the NFC Wild Card matchup against the New York Giants, LB Derrick Brooks becomes the Bucs all-time leader in playoff games played (11) and started (11). Brooks, who already holds the franchise record for most career regular season games and starts, surpasses former teammates FB Mike Alstott and LB Shelton Quarles, who each played in 10 career postseason contests.

ALSTOTT ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT (1/24) – Arguably the most popular player in team history, FB Mike Alstott retires after a 12-year career. A second-round selection (35th overall) in the 1996 draft, Alstott ends his career as the club record holder in touchdowns (71), rushing touchdowns (58) and Pro Bowl appearances by an offensive player (six). His 432 points ranks third in Buccaneer history and he is the only non-kicker in club annals to surpass the 400-point plateau. During his career, Alstott amassed 1,359 rushing attempts for 5,088 yards (both second in team history) and caught 305 passes (third in team history) for 2,284 yards. Alstott played in 158 career regular season games as a Buccaneer, seventh-most in team history, with 137 starts, fifth-most in team history, and 10 playoff games (tied for second in team history) with seven starts, including starting at fullback in the Buccaneers' 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

GARCIA EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (1/24) – QB Jeff Garcia is added to the NFC squad for the 2008 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, becoming the lone selection in the annual all-star event for the Buccaneers. Garcia, the NFC's first alternate at quarterback, replaces Green Bay Packers QB Brett Favre. His appearance is the fourth of his career and first as a Buccaneer. It marks just the third time in Buccaneers history that a quarterback has been named to the Pro Bowl, joining Trent Dilfer (1997) and Brad Johnson (2002). Garcia finished the season as the NFL's seventh-rated passer (94.6) and ranked second in the league with a team-record 1.2 interception percentage.

BUCS SELECT AQIB TALIB IN NFL DRAFT (4/26) – The Buccaneers select Kansas CB Aqib Talib with their first selection (20th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft. Talib becomes the highest cornerback ever selected by Tampa Bay and just the second defensive back the Buccaneers have ever drafted in the first round.

ROOKIE SMITH SETS TEAM RETURN RECORD (11/2) – Buccaneers rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith sets a franchise record for the most return yards by an individual in a single game. Smith racks up 259 total return yards at Kansas City, including a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. He becomes only the second player in team history to return a kickoff for a touchdown and the only player in team history to return a kickoff and punt for a touchdown as a Buccaneer.

GRUDEN BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH (11/2) – With the Buccaneers 30-27 overtime victory at Kansas City, Jon Gruden becomes the all-time winningest coach in Buccaneers history. The victory is his 57th career win as Buccaneers head coach, surpassing Tony Dungy for the most wins ever in franchise history.

FOUR BUCCANEERS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/16) – LB Derrick Brooks and rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith are selected to the NFL's annual all-star game in Hawaii. It marks Brooks' 11th selection, tops in team history and tied for second in NFL history for most Pro Bowl selections by a linebacker. Despite serving on the Buccaneers practice squad until Week 8 of the season, the undrafted Smith becomes the first kick returner in franchise history to be selected to the Pro Bowl and just the second rookie in team history, joining RB Warrick Dunn in 1997. In addition, Smith is only the third undrafted rookie free agent since 1970 to make the Pro Bowl. Named first alternates, CB Ronde Barber and G Davin Joseph, are later added to the Pro Bowl roster to round out the Buccaneers selections. It marks Barber's fifth career selection, moving him into a tie for fifth place in team history. Joseph's selection is the first of his career and marks the first time a Buccaneers offensive lineman is selected since 2000.

ANTONIO BRYANT NAMED COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/15) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, WR Antonio Bryant is named the 2008 Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News. Bryant finishes the season setting career highs and leading the team with 83 receptions for 1,248 yards and seven touchdowns.

BUCCANEERS DISMISS GRUDEN, ALLEN (1/16) – The Buccaneers dismiss head coach Jon Gruden and general manager Bruce Allen. Gruden coached the Buccaneers for seven seasons, compiling a 57-55 record during the regular season and 3-2 in the playoffs. Gruden led the Buccaneers to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII and three NFC South Division titles. He leaves as the Buccaneers all-time winningest coach.

MORRIS AND DOMINIK INTRODUCED AS HEAD COACH AND GENERAL MANAGER (1/17) – The Buccaneers announce Raheem Morris as head coach and Mark Dominik as general manager in a press conference at One Buccaneer Place. Morris, who spent six of the previous seven seasons as a defensive assistant with the Buccaneers, is the youngest head coach in the NFL at the time of his hiring and the eighth head coach in team history. Dominik is the fourth general manager in club history after spending the previous 14 seasons in the Buccaneers personnel department in various capacities.

QB JOSH FREEMAN DRAFTED IN THE FIRST ROUND (4/25) – The Buccaneers select Kansas State QB Josh Freeman with their first selection (17th overall) in the 2009 NFL Draft. Freeman becomes the highest quarterback selected by Tampa Bay in the first round since Trent Dilfer was drafted sixth overall in the 1994 NFL Draft.

TALIB TIES FRANCHISE RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (10/4) – CB Aqib Talib picks off QB Jason Campbell three times at Washington to tie CB Ronde Barber's club record, which he accomplished twice. Talib finishes the season with five interceptions to tie for the team lead and establish a career high.

BUCS PARTICIPATE IN NFL INTERNATIONAL SERIES (10/25) – In just their second international appearance, and first during the regular season, Tampa Bay falls to the New England Patriots by a score of 35-7 as part of the NFL's International Series in London. A raucous crowd of 84,254, the largest to watch the Bucs all season, fill historic Wembley Stadium to take in the game.

BUCCANEERS WEAR THROWBACK UNIFORMS, SELMON ENTERS RING OF HONOR (11/8) – For the first time, Tampa Bay wears its 1976 Florida orange throwback uniforms in a comeback victory over the Packers. At halftime, Buccaneers legend and Pro Football Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the first inductee into the team's Ring of Honor as the organization also recognizes the Buccaneers 1979 playoff team, with several members of the team in attendance.

MORRIS, FREEMAN EARN FIRST VICTORY IN COMEBACK WIN OVER GREEN BAY (11/8) – Making his first career start, QB Josh Freeman rallies the Buccaneers from an 11-point, fourth-quarter deficit against the Packers to give Head Coach Raheem Morris his first career victory. Freeman becomes the second youngest quarterback to win his first career start since 1970. Defensively, Tampa Bay records six sacks and three interceptions in a game for the first time since 1990.

WINSLOW SETS NEW SINGLE-SEASON CATCH MARK BY A TIGHT END (12/20) – TE Kellen Winslow records six receptions for 93 yards in a comeback win at Seattle to surpass TE Jackie Harris for most receptions in a single season by a tight end in team history. Harris registered 62 receptions in 1995 before Winslow established the new record, finishing the 2009 season with 77 catches.

BUCS SHOCK SAINTS IN NEW ORLEANS (12/27) – Trailing 17-0 in the second quarter at New Orleans, Tampa Bay scores 20 unanswered points against the eventual Super Bowl champions to win in overtime on K Connor Barth's 47-yard field goal. The 17-point comeback ties for the second-largest comeback in team history and it also marks the first time in NFL history that a team that was 10 or more games below .500 defeated a team that was 10 or more games above .500. The defense limits New Orleans to 17 points, tied for the fewest by the Saints in a single game on the season.

WINSLOW SURPASSES GILES FOR MOST RECEIVING YARDS BY A TIGHT END (12/27) – With his team-high 76 receiving yards at New Orleans, TE Kellen Winslow moves past TE Jimmie Giles (786 in 1981) for the most receiving yards for a tight end in a single season in team history. Winslow finishes the season with 884 receiving yards.

FREEMAN ESTABLISHES NEW ROOKIE RECORD FOR SINGLE SEASON PASSING YARDS (12/27) – Rookie QB Josh Freeman throws for 271 yards in the comeback win against the Saints, moving him past QB Bruce Gradkowski (1,661 passing yards in 2006) for most passing yards in a single season by a rookie in team history. Freeman goes on to throw for 1,855 yards on the season.

SIMEON RICE INDUCTED INTO BUCCANEERS RING OF HONOR (5/19) – A key figure in Tampa Bay's Super Bowl XXXVII championship run, Rice became the 16th inductee into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor. In his six seasons with the Buccaneers, Rice started all 87 games and amassed 69.5 sacks.

ANTOINE WINFIELD JR. AND TRISTAN WIRFS EARN SELECTIONS TO 2025 PRO BOWL GAMES (12/23) – It marked the fifth-consecutive Pro Bowl selection for Wirfs and the second for Winfield Jr. Wirfs joined Mike Alstott as the only Tampa Bay offensive players to ever make five-or-more consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl in team history.

LAVONTE DAVID TIES DERRICK BROOKS AS FRANCHISE'S ALL-TIME TACKLES LEADER (1/3) – In a Week 18 win over the Carolina Panthers, David recorded six tackles to bring his career total to 1,714, tying Pro Football Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks for the most by a Buccaneers player in franchise history, per StatsPass records.

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER GENE DECKERHOFF RETIRES (1/3) – Deckerhoff, the longest and most-distinguished broadcaster in franchise history, called it a career following the conclusion of the team's 2025 season. He served as the radio voice of the Buccaneers for 37 seasons, ranking as the third-longest play-by-play tenure for an NFL club at the time of his retirement. Deckerhoff's unmistakable voice called more than 750 Buccaneers games chronicling three-quarters of all Tampa Bay games in franchise history, including both Super Bowl championships.

LAVONTE DAVID ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT FOLLOWING HISTORIC 14-YEAR CAREER (3/24) – David stepped away after a 14-year career that included a Super Bowl LV title, 12 years as a team captain and a share of the team's all-time career tackles record. At the time of his retirement, David stood alongside only Hall of Famers Ray Lewis, Junior Seau, Jason Taylor and Brian Urlacher as the only players since at least 1982 with 35+ takeaways and 40+ sacks over their careers.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and families in crisis.

BUCCANEERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA – In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charle Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

TEXAS STADIUM (64,848)

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS – For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dextor Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from mid-field when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA – In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lions RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies–RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards–the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

1997 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY – The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6
TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA – Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added

57 yards rushing.

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

TAMPA BAY 27, EAGLES 10
VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defensed, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team post-season history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club playoff history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO – Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at the time (age 39) to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

2005 NFC WILD CARD GAME

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA – Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near midfield with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

2007 NFC WILD CARD GAME

N.Y. GIANTS 24, TAMPA BAY 14
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,621)

TAMPA – Playing host to the New York Giants in an NFC Wild Card matchup, the Buccaneers 2007 season came to an end as the Giants advanced with a 24-14 victory. Tampa Bay started fast, taking a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a RB Earnest Graham one-yard touchdown run as the Buccaneers gained 78 first-quarter yards compared to the Giants minus-two yards. New York evened the score with 10:02 left in the first half as QB Eli Manning found RB Brandon Jacobs on a five-yard scoring pass. The Giants took the lead on their next possession as Jacobs scored on an eight-yard run, giving New York a 14-7 lead at halftime. Following a Buccaneers fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, the Giants tacked on a 25-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. Tampa Bay drove into Giants territory on its next possession, but QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted in the end zone. Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. LB Derrick Brooks played in his 11th postseason game, becoming the all-time leader in postseason games played in franchise history.

TAMPA BAY 31, WASHINGTON 23
FEDEXFIELD (NO ATTENDANCE)

LANDOVER, MD. – In Tampa Bay's most prolific postseason offensive performance to date, the Buccaneers defeated the Washington Football Team, 31-23, while setting franchise postseason records for both single-game net yards (507), and single-game net passing yards (365). Pro Bowl wide receiver Mike Evans racked up 119 yards receiving on six receptions to help the Buccaneers advance to the NFC Divisional Round. Quarterback Tom Brady threw a pair of touchdown passes in the opening half – finding Antonio Brown and Chris Godwin – to give the Buccaneers an 18-7 lead going into the break. Washington quarterback Taylor Heinicke, who was starting just the second game of his NFL career, found both his rhythm and the end zone in the second half, scoring on a 8-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter to bring the score to 18-16 in favor of the Buccaneers. Tampa Bay responded by scoring the next 11 points via a Ryan Succop 38-yard field goal and a three-yard touchdown run from Leonard Fournette to push the lead up to 28-16. Washington came back with a long touchdown drive of its own – finished off by an 11-yard touchdown pass from Heinicke to Steven Sims Jr. – to once again make it a one-possesion game with 4:20 remaining in the contest. Succop hit his fourth field goal of the game with 2:49 remaining to give Tampa Bay a 31-23 lead that it wouldn't surrender. Succop's four made field goals in the game marked the most in a single game in Buccaneers' playoff history. Meanwhile, Fournette's 132 scrimmage yards at Washington stand as the third-most by a Tampa Bay player in a playoff game.

TAMPA BAY 30, NEW ORLEANS 20
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME (3,750)

NEW ORLEANS – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers came out on top in their first ever postseason meeting with the division-rival New Orleans Saints, prevailing by a 30-20 score. Turnovers proved to be the difference as the Buccaneers defense picked off Saints quarterback Drew Brees three times and recovered a Jared Cook fumble, while Tampa Bay's offense put forth a turnover-free performance, giving the Buccaneers a 4-0 advantage in the turnover battle. Saints wide receiver and return specialist Deonte Harris returned the game's first punt 54 yards to set up kicker Will Lutz for his first of two first-quarter field goals that gave New Orleans an early 6-0 lead. Tampa Bay responded with 10-straight points on a Ryan Succop field goal followed by a three-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Mike Evans. The Saints' lone possesion between the Buccaneers' back-to-back scores was halted by an interception from cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, who returned it 36 yards to the Saints' 3-yard line, setting Tampa Bay up with great field position leading into Evans' touchdown catch. Trailing for the first time, New Orleans pulled out a trick play with a direct snap to running back Alvin Kamara, who handed it off to Emmanuel Sanders on a reverse. Sanders then pitched it back to quarterback Jameis Winston, who began the play lined up on the outside prior to throwing a 56-yard touchdown strike to Tre'Quan Smith, re-gaining the lead for New Orleans. A 37-yard field goal from Succop knotted the score at 13 going into halftime. Smith hauled in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Drew Brees to begin the second half, but Tampa would score the game's final 17 points, aided by three second-half takeaways, to leave New Orleans with a win. Buccaneers running back Leonard Fournette accumulated 107 scrimmage yards in the contest, including a 6-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter. Meanwhile, Brady finished with 199 passing yards and three total touchdowns, with zero interceptions.

2020 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

TAMPA BAY 31, GREEN BAY 26
LAMBEAU FIELD (7,772)

TAMPA – On the shoulders of a combined five-sack day by edge rushers Shaquil Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers won the franchise's second NFC Championship, defeating the Green Bay Packers, 31-26. Tampa Bay executed a nine-play, 66-yard drive to begin the game – capped off by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Mike Evans – scoring the only points in the first quarter. The Packers got to work quickly to open the second quarter as Aaron Rodgers found Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a 50-yard touchdown strike to briefly tie the game before Tampa Bay responded with a 20-yard touchdown run from Leonard Fournette. Then with just 28 second remaining in the opening half, the Packers – trailing 14-10 – had the ball with a chance to climb within a point or potentially take the lead, however a timely, game-changing interception from Sean Murphy-Bunting gave the Buccaneers the ball back with enough time for Brady to deliver a 39-yard touchdown pass to Scotty Miller with just one second remaining, giving Tampa Bay a 21-10 edge at halftime. The momentum carried over into the second half for Tampa Bay as Jordan Whitehead got things going with a forced fumble that was scooped up by Devin White, leading to another Buccaneers touchdown – an eight-yard reception by Cameron Brate – extending the lead to 28-10 with 13:54 remaining in the third quarter. From that point on, Green Bay outscored Tampa Bay 17-3, but the Buccaneers were able to overcome interceptions on three consecutive drives and hold on to win by a 31-26 score. Chris Godwin's fifth reception of the game sealed the win for Tampa Bay and lifted the Buccaneers to the organization's second Super Bowl appearance. Godwin's 110 receiving yards in the game marked the second-most in a playoff game in franchise history. Barrett's 3.0 sacks tied for the most in a postseason game in team history, while Pierre-Paul's two sacks tied for the third-most in a single playoff game. As a team, the Buccaneers 5.0 sacks at Green Bay tied for the most in team postseason history.

SUPER BOWL LV

TAMPA BAY 31, KANSAS CITY 9
FEBRUARY 7, 2021
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (24,835)

TAMPA – In a dominating performance at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, to claim the Lombardi Trophy, becoming the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. The Tampa Bay defense became just the fifth in Super Bowl history not to allow a touchdown. Trailing 3-0 in the first quarter, Tom Brady found Rob Gronkowski for an 8-yard touchdown pass to give Tampa Bay a lead which it would never surrender. The Buccaneers were stopped on the goal line on their next posession, but followed it up with three consecutive touchdown drives. Gronkowski hauled in a 17-yard pass from Brady to score his second touchdown of the game, putting his name next to Jerry Rice as the only players in NFL history with two-or-more touchdown receptions in multiple Super Bowls. With 1:01 remaining in the opening half, the Buccaneers took advantage of a penalty-aided drive that resulted resulted in a 1-yard touchdown reception for Antonio Brown with just six seconds before halftime, giving Tampa Bay a 21-6 advantage at the break. The Chiefs were able to get a field goal on their first drive of the second half, but that would mark the final points of the ballgame for Kansas City. The Buccaneers immediately responded with a Leonard Fournette 27-yard touchdown run followed by a 52-yard Ryan Succop field goal to push the lead to 31-9. The second half continued to be dominated by the Buccaneers defense, which consistently put pressure on Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes. Tampa Bay's defense recorded a pair of second-half interceptions - one from Devin White and one from Antoine Winfield Jr. Winfield became just the seventh rookie in NFL history with an interception in the Super Bowl. Collectively, the Buccaneers defense racked up nine quarterback hits in the game, which were tied for the fourth-most in a Super Bowl since QB hits became regularly tracked in 2006. Shaquil Barrett had four quarterback hits alone, tying for the second-most by an individual player in that span. Brady won Super Bowl MVP honors for the fifth time in his career, throwing for 201 yards and three touchdowns to earn a 125.8 passer rating. He moved to 7-3 in his career in Super Bowls – the most wins ever by any player in league history. The Super Bowl victory was the eighth consecutive win for the Buccaneers dating back to the regular season, the longest winning streak in team history.

2021 NFC WILD CARD GAME

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,077)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers kicked off their 2021-22 NFL Playoffs with a dominating performance on both sides of the ball vs. the Philadelphia Eagles in the Super Wild Card Round, racing out to a 31-0 lead through three quarters. In the absence of the team's two primary running backs Leonard Fournette and Ronald Jones II, it was fellow running backs Giovani Bernard and Ke'Shawn Vaughn finding the endzone in the opening quarter to give Tampa Bay a 14-0 advantage. Meanwhile, the Buccaneers defense delivered a first-half shutout to take a 17-0 lead into halftime after safety Mike Edwards intercepted a pass in the endzone with 43 seconds remaining to preserve the lead heading into the break. In the second half, Tampa Bay picked up right where it left off, capitalizing on a pair of third quarter turnovers and turning them into 14 points on the other end. The first was a muffed punt by the Eagles that led to a 2-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Rob Gronkowski. On the very next Eagles' possession, quarterback Jalen Hurts was picked off by Buccaneers outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, which led to another Tom Brady touchdown — a 36-yard pass to Mike Evans. Evans led the team with a single-game franchise playoff record nine receptions for 117 yards and a touchdown. Philadelphia scored the game's final 15 points in the fourth quarter, but came up short as Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Divisional Round. It marked the fifth consecutive playoff win for Tampa Bay, the team's longest in franchise history. Tampa Bay became one of just three teams in NFL history to have five consecutive playoff games scoring 30-or-more points joining the New Orleans Saints (1/16/10-1/14/12) and Kansas City Chiefs (1/12/19-2/2/20). The 16-point winning margin marked the fifth-largest in team history, while Tom Brady's 115.2 passer rating in the game ranked as the second-best mark in a postseason game in franchise history.

2021 NFC DIVISIONAL ROUND

LOS ANGELES 30, TAMPA BAY 27
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,597)

TAMPA – The Buccaneers mounted a thrilling 24-point comeback effort to knot the score at 27 with just 42 seconds remaining in regulation, but ultimately Tampa Bay fell 30-27 to the Los Angeles Rams in the 2021 NFC Divisional Round. The Rams leaned on their stars to open up a 20-3 lead at halftime and a 27-3 lead late in the third quarter as quarterback Matthew Stafford threw a pair of first-half touchdown passes, including a 70-yard completion to wide receiver Cooper Kupp, before later running it in for a third touchdown in the third quarter. Kupp led all players with 102 first-half receiving yards and 183 total for the game. Late in the third quarter, Tampa Bay began to find itself, scoring on a 31-yard field goal from Ryan Succop and a 1-yard touchdown run by Leonard Fournette to cut the deficit to 27-13 heading into the final frame. Three second half fumble recoveries allowed the Buccaneers to continue to climb back into the game and the four total fumble recoveries by Tampa Bay set a new single-game franchise playoff record. With 3:20 remaining in the game, wide receiver Mike Evans beat Rams All-Pro cornerback Jalen Ramsey down the sideline and hauled in a 55-yard touchdown strike from quarterback Tom Brady to bring the Buccaneers back into a one-possession ballgame. On the second Rams play following the Evans touchdown, defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh forced the ball loose from Los Angeles running back Cam Akers, and the fumble was scooped up by linebacker Lavonte David to give Tampa Bay a chance to tie with 2:25 remaining in the game. The Buccaneers took full advantage, finishing off a seven-play, 30-yard drive with a 9-yard Fournette touchdown run with 42 seconds left on the clock. However, the Stafford-Kupp duo struck again, connecting for two completions totaling 64 yards to put Los Angeles in field goal range. Rams kicker Matt Gay connected on a game-winning 30-yard field goal which ended the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2021-22 season. Mike Evans' 119 receiving yards in the game tied his own franchise single-game playoff record.

2022 NFC WILD CARD GAME

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (69,145)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2022 season came to an end after falling to the Dallas Cowboys 31-14 in the Super Wild Card Round, but not before marking the second instance in franchise history in which the team made the playoffs in three consecutive seasons, joining 1999-2002 when Tampa Bay earned four straight playoff berths. The Buccaneers fell into a 24-0 deficit that they were unable to overcome despite putting forth the second-most total yards of offense (386) and second-most net passing yards (334) in franchise playoff history. In his NFL record 48th career playoff game, quarterback Tom Brady threw for 351 yards and two touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2022 NFL season, Brady finished his career as the NFL's all-time leader in playoff wins (35), playoff passing yards (13,400) and playoff touchdown passes (88). He also finished his career as Tampa Bay's all-time leader in playoff wins by a quarterback (five), playoff passing yards (2,012) and playoff passing touchdowns (15). Three different Tampa Bay receivers finished with 70-or-more yards in the game: Chris Godwin (10-85), Julio Jones (7-74, TD) and Mike Evans (6-74). Godwin finished the 2022 season with 114 receptions including playoffs, surpassing Keyshawn Johnson (109 in 2001) for the most in a single season in team history. Franchise cornerstone Lavonte David led the defense with a career playoff-high 14 tackles. Since StatsPass data is available (1994), David's 14 tackles were tied for the second-most by a Buccaneers player in a playoff game in franchise history. In a comeback attempt, Tampa Bay got inside Dallas' 35-yard line on each of their final four drives of the game, scoring a pair of touchdowns from Julio Jones and Cameron Brate.

2023 NFC WILD CARD ROUND

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (63,397)

TAMPA – After winning six of their final seven games to finish the regular season and clinch both a playoff berth and Tampa Bay's third consecutive NFC South division title, the Buccaneers used that momentum to put forth a dominant performance on both sides of the ball in a 32-9 win over the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2023 NFC Wild Card game. It marked the first career playoff win for Head Coach Todd Bowles. In his first playoff game as a member of the Buccaneers, quarterback Baker Mayfield threw for 337 yards and three touchdowns, with no interceptions, earning a playoff career-best 119.8 passer rating and becoming the first player in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards with three-or-more passing touchdowns in a postseason contest. His three touchdowns passes tied for the most in Tampa Bay's team playoff history. All three of Mayfield's touchdown passes came on passes of 20+ yards. Rookie Trey Palmer and veteran David Moore hauled in 56-yard and 44-yard touchdown receptions, respectively, establishing the longest and third-longest postseason touchdown catches in team history. The touchdowns marked the first for both Palmer and Moore in their playoff careers. Tight end Cade Otton also set a new record for the most receptions by a tight end in a playoff game, finishing with a career-best eight catches for 89 yards. The defense held strong all game long, shutting out the Eagles in three of the four quarters. Tampa Bay's +23 margin of victory on the night marked the clubs' third-largest point differential in a postseason game. Tampa Bay held Philadelphia to 0-for-9 on third down conversion attempts, marking the fourth time in NFL postseason history that a team has held an opponent to a third-down conversion percentage of zero. Tampa Bay outgained Philadelphia 426-276 (+150), posting the largest yardage differential in a playoff game in club history. The Eagles collected a season-low 13 first downs and were held to a season-low 42 rushing yards. It marked the second-fewest rushing yards Tampa Bay has allowed in a playoff game in franchise history, trailing only Super Bowl XXVII when they limited the Oakland Raiders to 19 rushing yards.Additionally, Tampa Bay forced a safety, the first postseason safety in club history.

DETROIT 31, TAMPA BAY 23
FORD FIELD (66,201)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers went toe-to-toe with the Detroit Lions in the 2023 NFC Divisional Round. The two teams exchanged scores throughout the first three quarters, leading to a 17-17 score heading into the fourth quarter. However, Detroit struck twice with a pair of touchdowns to open the final frame and it proved to much to overcome as the Buccaneers eventually fell by a 31-23 score. As an offense, Tampa Bay recorded 408 net yards, the third-most in franchise history, in addition to finishing with the second-highest yards per play average (6.8) and highest rush average (5.9) for a single postseason game in team history. Mike Evans established a new single-game franchise playoff record with 147 receiving yards on eight receptions, which included a 16-yard touchdown catch in the fourth to cut the deficit to one score. For the second time in as many playoff games, Mayfield threw for 300+ yards and three touchdowns, and maintained a 106.5 career postseason passer rating with Tampa Bay for his career through the 2023 season, which then stood as the highest in franchise history. Lavonte David put forth a standout performance defensively, finishing with 13 tackles (two for loss), one quarterback hit and 1.0 sack. With his performance, David improved his total to 71 career postseason tackles – the second-most in club postseason history. His 2.0 career postseason sacks are tied for seventh-most in club postseason history, while his six career postseason tackles for loss are tied for second-most in franchise history. Despite the loss, 2023 marked the fourth consecutive playoff trip for Tampa Bay, tying for the longest-such streak in franchise history.

2024 NFC WILD CARD ROUND

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (64,614)

TAMPA – Making their fifth consecutive playoff appearance, the Buccaneers' 2024 season ended in the NFC Wild Card round with a 23-20 loss to the Washington Commanders. Tampa Bay held a 17-13 lead late in the third quarter but a turnover in the fourth quarter deep in Bucs territory gave Washington a short field, which they converted into a touchdown to take a 20-17 lead. The Bucs answered with a game-tying field goal, but Washington used the final 4:41 to drive down the field and hit the winning field goal as time expired. Quarterback Baker Mayfield was efficient, completing 15-of-18 (83.3%) passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns to earn a 146.5 passer rating, the highest passer rating in a postseason contest in franchise history. Rookie running back Bucky Irving recorded 12 carries for 77 rushing yards (4.5 avg) and a touchdown catch, establishing a new single-game high for rushing yards by a rookie in franchise playoff history. Wide receiver Mike Evans brought in a team-leading seven receptions for 92 yards and one receiving touchdown, his sixth career postseason touchdown, tying for the second-most touchdowns in franchise playoff history through the conclusion of the 2024 season. Linebacker Lavonte David finished with a team-high-tying eight tackles and 1.0 sack. His sack increased his career postseason total to 3.0 – the fifth-most in franchise history. Following his performance, David ranked second in franchise history in postseason tackles (79), trailing only Derrick Brooks (93). Tight end Cade Otton brought in two catches for 32 yards, bringing his total playoff receiving yards to 244, establishing a new record for a tight end in franchise history.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL XXXVII RING

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48–21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a sea-going pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL LV RING

The Buccaneers' Super Bowl LV rings tell the story of the team's unforgettable 2020 season by incorporating the most relevant accomplishments into the design details. Containing 15 carats of white diamonds and 14 karat yellow and white gold, the top of the ring features 319 diamonds. On the top are two Lombardi Trophies – representing the franchise's two Super Bowl Championships – and the team's signature flag logo, carved from a red stone. The 319 diamonds represent the 31-9 final score in Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV victory.

The ring's signature feature is the innovative twist-off top, the first for any Super Bowl ring. On the bottom of the removal top, laser-etched in gold, is the word "HISTORIC" alongside a description of the team's accomplishment as the first to win the Super Bowl on its home field.

When removed, the top reveals the handcrafted replica of Raymond James Stadium. On the gold field is a single diamond, placed by the tunnel where Buccaneers players entered during Super Bowl LV. Around the top of the stadium on each of the four sides are displays of the four game scores from Tampa Bay's postseason run – victories against the Washington Football Team, New Orleans Saints, Green Bay Packers and Kansas City Chiefs.

RING OF HONOR

LEE ROY SELMON

Upon establishing the Ring of Honor in 2009, there was no question as to who the Buccaneers would choose to recognize with the inaugural induction. Lee Roy Selmon, referred to by some as the original Buccaneer, served as the franchise's cornerstone for nearly a decade, earning numerous accolades on the field and becoming one of the Bay area's most beloved figures off of it. On November 9, 2009, Selmon's name and number were added as permanent fixtures on the wall at Raymond James Stadium, as the man known for being Tampa Bay's shining bright spot in during its difficult fledgling years was recognized with the team's highest distinction.

Selmon joined the Buccaneers as a first-round draft choice – and the team's first-ever draft selection – in 1976 out of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Selmon was a member of eight All-America teams and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season. But as decorated as his collegiate career may have been, Selmon was an even greater professional player, easily the most outstanding to date in team history. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), he anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneers player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career forced fumbles (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equaled only by his incredible generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Following his retirement, Selmon remained highly visible, occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority and taking on responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. He held that spot until 2004 and was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

In a heartbreaking turn for the entire Bay area, Selmon passed away on September 4, 2011, surrounded by family and friends, two days after suffering a stroke at the age of 56.

Selmon was born in Eufaula, Oklahoma and was the youngest of nine children, including his brother, Dewey, who played for the Buccaneers from 1976-80, and Lucious, who coached for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Selmon is survived by his wife, Claybra, and the couple's three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JOHN McKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001, at the age of 77, from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes. With his passing, the Buccaneers family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

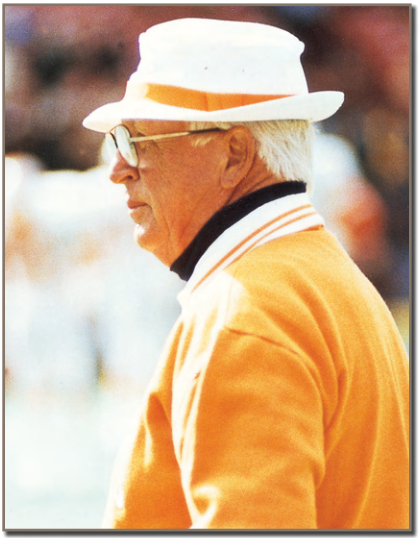

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the first Hall of Famer in Buccaneers history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons, from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans' head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettsville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (formerly Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: John, Rich, Michele, and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

JIMMIE GILES

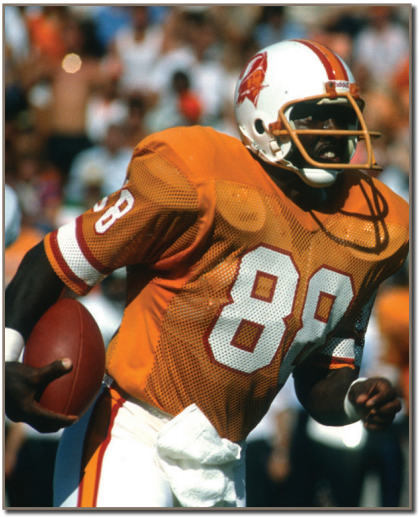

The third inductee into the Buccaneers' Ring of Honor and first offensive addition, Jimmie Giles was instated on December 4, 2011, during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player, earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985, while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season, he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985, and, to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the Pro Bowl more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdown receptions during his time in Buccaneers orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to ranks highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdown receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

PAUL GRUBER

In June 2012, the Buccaneers announced the name of the man who would be the fourth member of the team's Ring of Honor: Paul Gruber.

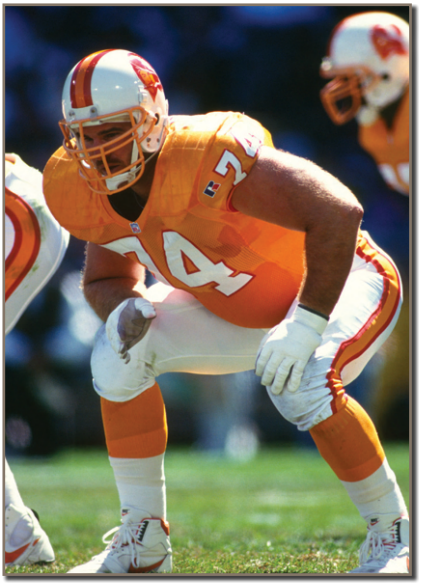

Gruber joined Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon, Head Coach John McKay and TE Jimmie Giles in receiving the highest honor the franchise can bestow, as he was inducted during Tampa Bay's Week 6 matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gruber was a fixture at left tackle for the Buccaneers, spending his entire 12-year career with the team and starting in all of the 183 games that he played.

Gruber is one of the most decorated players in team history, having been named a two-time team MVP (Tampa Sports Club, 1992; local media, 1994), the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner (1995), first-team All-Pro (USA Today, 1996), two-time second-team All-Pro (College and Pro Football Newsweekly, 1990; Associated Press, 1992), two-time All-NFC selection (United Press International, 1989; Football News, 1990) and a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

Born in the small town of Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Gruber was recruited to the University of Wisconsin as a tight end. Then-head coach, Ron McBride, convinced Gruber to transition to the offensive line after the latter first was placed on the defensive line. His coach's suggestion proved to be the right one, as Gruber's talent for the offensive line led to him being selected by the Buccaneers in the first round (4th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Gruber opened his NFL career with a remarkable string of 4,850 consecutive snaps (1988-92). He also played the entire 1989 campaign without a single holding penalty, and was instrumental in helping the 1999 Buccaneers win a division title, which was the team's first in 18 years.

Although a broken leg in the 1999 regular-season finale prevented him from playing with his teammates in that playoff game he had helped earn, Gruber's maturity and leadership remained unmatched.

His reputation both on the team and with the local media was one of a quiet, hardworking leader. He became a dependable force to be reckoned with on the field, and a calming presence in the locker room, even during some of Tampa Bay's down seasons.

Today, Gruber resides in Colorado with his wife, Brenda, and the couple's three children: Blake, Chase, and Ashlyn.

WARREN SAPP

2013 marked a momentous year for Warren Sapp, one of the greatest players in Buccaneers history.

On February 2, he was selected as a first-ballot inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three months later, on May 2, Tampa Bay announced that not only would Sapp be the club's 2012 Ring of Honor pick, but that the team would also officially retire his iconic No. 99 jersey.

Warren Sapp was selected as a first-ballot Hall of Famer in 2013, joining Lee Roy Selmon and becoming the second Buccaneers representative to achieve that honor.

Sapp was drafted by the Buccaneers in the first round (12th overall) of the 1995 NFL Draft. He played nine years with Tampa Bay, appearing in 140 games and starting 130, while also starting each of his nine postseason contests. He continued his playing career playing four seasons with the Oakland Raiders, and retired having played 198 career games with 188 starts, recording career totals of 695 tackles, 96.5 sacks, four interceptions with one touchdown, 26 passes defensed, 20 forced fumbles and 12 fumble recoveries.

An integral cog in one of the league's top defenses of the late 1990s and early 2000s, Sapp helped lead the 2002 Buccaneers to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. He earned numerous other accolades, including seven Pro Bowl nods, four first-team All-Pro nominations, two second-team All-Pro nominations, NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors, and was twice named to the NFL All-Decade Team.

Sapp's 96.5 sacks stands as the second-most by an interior lineman in league history and he is often credited for having helped revolutionize the defensive tackle position. He set Tampa Bay's single-season record with his 16.5 sacks in 2000, the third-highest total ever recorded by a defensive tackle. In each of his last seven seasons with the Buccaneers, the team's defense ranked in the league's Top 10.

Prior to drafting Sapp, the Buccaneers had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons. By his third year, Tampa Bay was appearing in the postseason and, over the next seven years, the team never had a losing record, made the playoffs six times and won Super Bowl XXXVII.

Sapp's career was headlined by his incredible passion, overwhelming talent and legendary personality. He led the Tampa Bay defense with intense devotion and leadership, and his fervor was evident to everyone who watched him play.

Sapp played three seasons at the University of Miami, foregoing his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. As a Hurricane, he recorded 176 tackles, 19.5 sacks, five passes defensed, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He won the Lombardi Trophy for the nation's top lineman/linebacker and was a finalist for the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman.

DERRICK BROOKS

Derrick Brooks, a first-ballot Class of 2014 selection to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joined the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2014.

Drafted as a first-round pick (28th overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft, Brooks entered the league alongside Warren Sapp, the first-rounder the Buccaneers had selected 12th overall. The two players would both go on to dominate at their respective positions, combining their prowess to turn the Tampa 2 into one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history.

Brooks spent 14 seasons with Tampa Bay, redefining the linebacker position on his way to becoming one of the most decorated Buccaneers of all time, and one of the most respected players across the NFL.

He played in 224 games with 221 starts, both marks standing as second-most in team history, and recorded a franchise-record 2,198 tackles, along with 25 interceptions, 13.5 sacks, 135 passes defensed, 25 forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries. Brooks' seven defensive touchdowns rank second in team history, behind only defensive back Rondé Barber, and he is the only non-defensive back to crack the Top 5 in the team's career interception list.

Brooks proved to be exceptional both on and off the field, earning some of the NFL's most revered awards for his play and his volunteerism.

Brooks earned accolade after accolade during his playing years, being selected as an All-Pro by the Associated Press nine times and totaling franchise-best 11 Pro Bowl berths. In 2002, he was named AP Defensive Player of the Year.

He is also responsible for one of the standout plays in Buccaneer history: a 44-yard interception returned for a touchdown that sealed Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

However, beyond Brooks' impact on the field, he was - and continues to be - a difference maker in the Bay Area community. Among his many philanthropic honors, Brooks was co-recipient of the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year and received both the 2003 Bart Starr Award and the 2004 Byron "Whizzer" White Award, some of the most revered honors in the league.

Always a strong proponent of education, Brooks dedicated himself both during his career and following his retirement to filling the needs of students, which began with his The Brooks Bunch program, which served as a cornerstone of his community involved and led the way for the formation of Derrick Brooks Charities, Inc.

Brooks also helped found the Brooks-DeBartolo Collegiate High School; a Hillsborough County sponsored charter high school that currently enrolls over 400 students and serves as the only traditional charter high school in the Bay Area.

A standout player at Florida State University, Brooks was a four-year letterwinner and first-team All-American and All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection. His career statistics include 274 tackles, five interceptions, 8.5 sacks, 13 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In addition to his selection to the Ring of Honor, Brooks was also inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2014, the third Buccaneers player to be enshrined in Canton.

MIKE ALSTOTT

Mike Alstott was selected as one of two inductees into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former quarterback Doug Williams.

Alstott came to Tampa Bay as a second-round selection (35th overall) out of Purdue in the 1996 NFL Draft and quickly rose to acclaim as one of the league's most powerful, punishing rushers, running with a hard-nosed style that earned him the nickname 'A-Train.'

A six-time Pro Bowl selection - a franchise record for an offensive player - and four-time Associated Press All-Pro honoree, Alstott is the Buccaneers' all-time leader in touchdowns (71) and rushing touchdowns (58). He ranks second in franchise annals with 5,088 rushing yards, second in yards from scrimmage (7,372), fourth in receptions (305), and seventh in games played (158).

Alsott's bruising running style and not-to-be-denied goal-line carries made him a legend in the Bay Area and throughout the league.

In eight of his 11 seasons, Alstott led or tied the team lead in rushing touchdowns, recording a career-best 10 in 2001 and twice rushing for three touchdowns in a single game (vs. Minnesota, 10/28/2001; at Cincinnati, 12/27/1998). He recorded seven 100-yard rushing games during his career.

In addition to the accolades he earned during the regular season, Alstott also holds a decorated place in Buccaneers postseason lore. He was a member of six playoff teams and played in 10 postseason contests, both tied for second-most in franchise history behind only Derrick Brooks, and the most ever by an offensive player.

Alstott was part of five Buccaneer playoff victories, tied for a franchise best, while his 341 rushing yards are also the most in club history. Alstott's seven postseason touchdowns, all rushing, are five more than any other player in team history. Four of those scores came en route to the Super Bowl XXXVII title in San Diego following the 2002 season. Alstott also ranks third in postseason receptions (21) and fourth in postseason receiving yards (161).

During his career, Alstott was an active community supporter and his dedication to civic duty only increased since his retirement. During the 2007 offseason, Alstott and his wife Nicole formed the Mike Alstott Family Foundation, with the goal of assisting and uplifting the minds, hearts and spirits of families and children on their way to realizing their full potential through various events, assistance programs and celebrations.

Since the formation of his foundation, Alstott and his family have been involved in organizing and helping carry out numerous outreach events, including frequent programs with All-Children's Hospital; partnering with Big Brothers and Big Sisters; raising funds for the Angelus House, a home for children with disabilities; and special events catered to serving the area's foster children

DOUG WILLIAMS

Doug Williams was selected as one of two inductees into the Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former fullback Mike Alstott.

Williams joined the Buccaneers as the team's first-round draft choice (17th overall) in the 1978 NFL Draft out of Grambling State and was immediately saddled with the hopes of a struggling franchise searching for a long-term solution at the quarterback position.

Taking over the reins of a team that had won two games combined in its first two NFL seasons, Williams' rookie year led to 10 starts and four wins. He would then start every game over the next four seasons and, in his sophomore season, he engineered one of the most unforeseen success stories of the era when he led the Buccaneers to the 1979 NFC Central Division crown and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Williams also took the Buccaneers to a division title in 1981 and led his team to a record above .500 in three of his final four seasons (1979, 1981-82) as Tampa Bay's quarterback. In comparison, from 1976-96, without Williams under center, the franchise did not register another winning season.

Leading Tampa Bay to its first three playoff appearances - including all the way to the NFC Championship Game in 1979 - Williams made an indelible mark on the Buccaneers franchise.

In that four-year stretch from 1979-82, Williams started all of the team's 57 regular season games and three playoff contests. Among his peers during that span, Williams ranked seventh in passing yards (11,369), 10th in touchdown passes (66), and seventh in lowest interception rate (3.8 percent). He also topped all quarterbacks during that period with 856 rushing yards and tied for the most rushing touchdowns with 12.

Williams later played in the USFL (1984-85) before joining the Washington Redskins in 1987, where he won Super Bowl XXII Most Valuable Player honors after leading them to a victory over Denver. The Buccaneers would not reach the playoffs again for a decade and a half, until after the team had been purchased by Malcolm Glazer.

Following his playing career, Williams entered the coaching profession and went on to serve two stints as head coach of his college alma mater (1998-2003, 2011-13), winning four conference championships.

Williams has also served as a personnel executive in NFL front offices, first with the Buccaneers from 2004-10 and currently with the Redskins after being hired in 2014.

Williams is also a member of the Washington Redskins Ring of Fame and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. As a collegiate player at Grambling, Williams posted a 36-7 record as the starting quarterback and finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1977.

JOHN LYNCH

As one of the most feared safeties of his generation and one of the most impactful figures in Buccaneers history, it was only a matter of time before John Lynch was enshrined in the team's Ring of Honor. Indeed, the elite defender was granted the honor in 2016, and wasformally inducted in a halftime ceremony on November 3, 2016 as Tampa Bay faces the Atlanta Falcons on Thursday Night Football.

Lynch came to the Buccaneers as third-round selection (82nd overall) in the 1993 NFL Draft and, upon arriving in Tampa Bay, he joined a team in the midst of some mighty struggles. Despite four consecutive losing seasons to start his career, Lynch, along with teammates and fellow Ring of Honor members Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, helped form the foundation that would turn the franchise around.

Lynch dedicated himself to his craft, and his hard work paid off. The defensive back played 15 seasons in the NFL, starting 191 of 224 games for Tampa Bay (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). He finished his career with 1,277 tackles, 100 passes defensed, 26 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles, 13.0 sacks and eight fumble recoveries. He also started all 1 postseason contests in which he appeared, tallying 71 tackles, 12 passes defensed and two interceptions.

A captain on the Buccaneers' Super Bowl Championship team in 2002, Lynch's name is still prominent in the team's record book. He ranks fifth in games played (164), sixth in games started (132), fifth in tackles (973) and sixth in interceptions (23). He was selected to five Pro Bowls as a Buccaneer and four as a Bronco, and his nine total appearances in the all-star game are tied for second-most in league history amongst career safeties.

Renowned for his hard-hitting style and fearless demeanor, Lynch set the standard for the safety play in Tampa Bay.

Beyond simply his raw numbers, Lynch was consistently recognized as one of the most cerebral players on the field at any given time. Monte Kiffin nicknamed Lynch "The Closer," after noting the defensive back's penchant for late-game heroics – including an interception that sparked a comeback in the 1999 NFC Divisional Playoff Game against Washington and the pick that sealed Tampa Bay's 38-35 win over St. Louis in a 2000 Monday Night Football contest.

In fact, of his 26 career interceptions, 14 were secured in the fourth quarter and 11 of the 14 came when his team was either up or down by seven points or less. Lynch's talent for securing takeaways at such crucial moments ensured that 21 of his 26 picks helped his team win games.

Lynch made an impact off the field as well. He and his wife Linda formed the John Lynch Foundation in 2000, with a mission to develop quality young leaders through its community initiatives, including the Star of the Month, Lynch Family Legacy Scholarships, Salute the Stars and Lynch's Holiday Party. During his career, Lynch received numerous accolades for his work outside the game, being named a three-time Buccaneers Man of the Year, earning the Byron "Whizzer" White Award in 2006 and the Bart Starr award in 2005, being selected by teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 2001 and twice finishing as a finalist for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award, along with numerous other achievements.

Lynch currently serves as the general manager of the San Francisco 49ers, helping guide the team to an NFC Championship in 2019 and 2023. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2021.

MALCOLM GLAZER

Malcolm Glazer, who passed away on May 28, 2014, at the age of 85, purchased the team in 1995 for a then-record $192 million and immediately began one of the most impressive organizational transformations in professional sports. Two years after Glazer's purchase, the Buccaneers broke a 16-year postseason drought in 1997 and would go on to make the playoffs three of the next four seasons.

Determined to turn his team into a Super Bowl champion, Glazer made a bold move that changed the course of the franchise prior to the 2002 season. In a transaction that sent shockwaves throughout the NFL, he hired Jon Gruden away from the Oakland Raiders in exchange for two first-round draft picks, two second-round draft picks and $8 million in cash. Less than 12 months later, in January 2003, he delivered the fans of Tampa Bay their first major professional world championship with a resounding victory over the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. During his tenure as owner and president from 1995-2013, the Buccaneers earned seven playoff berths, played in two NFC Championship Games and won their first Super Bowl.

During his tenure as owner and president from 1995-2013, the Buccaneers earned seven playoff berths, played in two NFC Championship Games and won their first Super Bowl.

With his first Super Bowl in hand, Glazer set his sights on continued success and that drive led to another significant improvement. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 136,200 square-foot state-of-the-art training center. The new facility, considered the largest free-standing training structure of its kind in professional sports at the time, opened to rave reviews in August of 2006, following training camp.

Known among his league peers for years as a pioneering thinker, Glazer infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL and that still rings true today. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization provided the foundation for continued success, on and off the field.

Glazer also left an equally deep and lasting impact as an advocate for the Tampa Bay community. In 1999, he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has donated millions and reached out to countless thousands in need. He also was a driving force in the negotiations that secured Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa. In 2010, Glazer added to his community-driven legacy with the opening of the Glazer Children's Museum in downtown Tampa.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazer Family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

JON GRUDEN

Gruden, who served as the team's head coach from 2002-08, guided the Buccaneers to a 12-4 record in his first season, including a first-place finish in the NFC South en route to delivering a Super Bowl victory.

After taking over the Buccaneers, Gruden turned over more than half the roster with new players. Twenty-seven members of the Super Bowl XXXVII team, including five starters on offense, were not on the roster for the team's final game of the previous season. Tampa Bay's 12 regular season wins during that 2002 campaign stand as the most in a single season in franchise history. During his seven years in Tampa Bay, Gruden amassed 57 wins – the most in franchise history — while his teams made it to the postseason three times (2002, 2005 and 2007). In 2007, he led the Buccaneers to their third NFC South title in six years, becoming the only coach in team history with three division titles.

At the time of his Super Bowl XXXVII victory over his former team, Gruden was the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. He was also the first non-rookie head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl win in his first season with that team.

At the time of his Super Bowl XXXVII victory over his former team, Gruden was the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl.

Following Tampa Bay's Super Bowl victory in January, 2003, Gruden, along with quarterback Brad Johnson, was the first non-player ever invited by Disney to star in their popular post-Super Bowl "What's Next" commercial. His off-the-field popularity continued to grow, marked the success of his 2003 book "Do You Love Football?! Winning with Heart, Passion, and Not Much Sleep." Gruden was the recipient of the 2002 Coach of the Year honor at the ESPY awards and was recognized as Professional Coach of the Year at the 37th Victor Awards in 2003.

Prior to his arrival in Tampa, Gruden steered the Raiders to a 38-26 regular season mark in his four seasons (1998-2001) with the club, including postseason appearances in 2000 and 2001. He led Oakland to division titles in each of his final two seasons (2000-01). He also held various coaching and assistant positions with the Philadelphia Eagles, Green Bay Packers, University of Pittsburgh, San Francisco 49ers, University of Pacific, Southeast Missouri State and University of Tennessee after his 1985 graduation from the University of Dayton where he served as the quarterback of the football team and earned a degree in communications.

After his career with the Buccaneers, Gruden moved into the broadcast booth in 2009 as ESPN's game analyst on Monday Night Football where he has served for the past eight seasons. His father, Jim, served as a professional football regional scout, running backs coach and director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His brother, Jay, is currently the head coach of the Washington Redskins. He and his wife, Cindy, continue living in Tampa and remain involved in a variety of Tampa-based charitable causes.

TONY DUNGY

Dungy, a 2016 Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinee, amassed a 54-42 regular season record as head coach of the Buccaneers, posting a franchise-best .563 winning percentage and four playoff appearances.

In 1996, the Glazer Family provided Dungy his first head coaching opportunity on any level after spending the previous 15 seasons as an NFL assistant. In his first season leading the team, Dungy's even-tempered approach and strong leadership guided the team to a 6-10 season which included five wins in the team's last seven games. It would prove to be the only losing campaign in his six seasons as head coach.

By the end of his second season, the transformation was clearly underway as Dungy led Tampa Bay to its first winning record since 1982, earning a playoff berth and delivering Tampa Bay's first playoff victory in 18 years. Prior to the 1997 turnaround, the Buccaneers had lost double-digit games in 13 of the previous 14 seasons. In contrast, Tampa Bay earned four postseason berths in a five-year span under Dungy from 1997-2001, one of only two NFL teams to accomplish that feat, and never posted a season record below .500. The four playoff appearances in Dungy's six seasons (1996-2001) tied for the third-most in the NFL during that span.

Tampa Bay earned four postseason berths in a five-year span under Dungy from 1997-2001, one of the only two NFL teams to accomplish that feat, and never posted a season below .500.

When Dungy brought his defensive expertise to Tampa Bay, he inherited the league's 27th-ranked defense. In his first season, the Buccaneers improved to No. 11 overall. In each of the next five seasons, that unit ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense and points allowed.

Collectively, over Dungy's six-year tenure, the Buccaneers led the NFL on a per game basis in points allowed (17.0), total net yards allowed (286.7) and passing yards allowed (184.1), while allowing the fewest yards per passing attempt (6.14).Dungy's legacy extends beyond statistics and records. Two of his stalwart defensive players, Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, became fellow Hall of Fame inductees, while perennial Pro Bowlers John Lynch (2018 finalist), Ronde Barber (2018 semifinalist) and Simeon Rice (2018 semifinalist) remain on the ballot.

Among Dungy's assistant coaches during his Tampa Bay tenure were future NFL head coaches Jim Caldwell, Herman Edwards, Rod Marinelli, Lovie Smith and Mike Tomlin. On February 4, 2007, while head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, Dungy faced off against Smith's Chicago Bears as the two became the first African-American coaches to reach the Super Bowl. Dungy emerged victorious. Two years later, Tomlin followed in his footsteps when he led the Steelers to a Super Bowl XLII victory.

Beyond the football field, Dungy's impact can be felt by the work he does through the Dungy Family Foundation. Based in Tampa, the charity assists organizations in all the NFL cities where Dungy played or coached – Pittsburgh, Minneapolis, Tampa and Indianapolis – by providing opportunities to those in need through educational, emotional and/or financial support. He also serves as the NFL spokesman for All Pro Dad and is active in Big Brothers Big Sisters and Prison Crusade Ministry, among other philanthropic endeavors.

Since retiring from coaching, Dungy has served as a studio analyst for NBC's Football Night in America and Sunday Night Football since 2009. He has authored numerous books that have earned the distinction of New York Times Best Sellers.

Dungy and his wife, Lauren, are the parents of 10 children and still reside in Tampa.

RONDE BARBER

Barber entered the National Football League as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' third-round selection (66th overall) in the 1997 NFL Draft, and, over the course of his career, developed into one of the most decorated players in franchise history. He played in 241 games with 232 starts for Tampa Bay – both club records – while also recording a streak of 215 consecutive starts, tied for sixth-longest in NFL history. His 200 consecutive starts at cornerback is the most for that position in league history, and his 240 consecutive games played ranks second among defensive players since 1970.

During his career, Barber racked up 1,428 tackles – second in franchise history, behind only linebacker Derrick Brooks – 28.0 sacks, 47 interceptions, eight interception return touchdowns, 243 passes defensed, 15 forced fumbles, 11 fumble recoveries, and six additional touchdowns on fumble returns and blocked/deflected punts. In 2001, Barber led the NFL in interceptions, picking off 10 passes, a Buccaneers single-season record.

Barber is the only player in the history of the NFL to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions.

Barber also played in 10 playoff games with nine starts, recording 50 tackles, one sack, two interceptions, one interception return touchdown, 11 passes defensed and one fumble recovery. He made one of the most memorable plays in Buccaneers history with his 92-yard interception returned for a touchdown against the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2002 NFC Championship Game, sending the Buccaneers to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance and an eventual victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Barber is the only player in the history of the NFL to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions. His 28.0 sacks are second-most all-time among defensive backs, and the most all-time by a cornerback. He tops the Buccaneers' record book with his nine interceptions returned for touchdowns (including postseason), and his 14 total regular-season return touchdowns put him fourth in NFL history.

Barber's on-the-field numbers earned him a myriad of accolades throughout the years, including five Pro Bowl selections, five AP All-Pro team appointments, and nine Player of the Week awards. Barber was also named to the NFL's 2000s All-Decade Team.

Known for his leadership as much as his play, Barber was selected as a team captain for nine consecutive seasons (2004-12), named Buccaneers Man of the Year in 2006 and voted the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner in 2011. Barber reached the pinnacle after being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2023.

MONTE KIFFIN

Kiffin ranks as the longest-tenured coach in Buccaneers franchise history, having spent 13 seasons with the organization from 1996-2008 under head coaches and fellow Ring of Honor members Tony Dungy (1996-2001) and Jon Gruden (2002-08).

Buccaneers Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer said: "Monte Kiffin's contributions to building and sustaining one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history were crucial to our franchise's most successful era. Monte worked closely with Tony Dungy and Jon Gruden using his signature defense that became the team's identity and was a key part of winning the Super Bowl. He was an outstanding coach, teacher and leader who consistently got the best out of his players and we eagerly anticipate welcoming him into our Ring of Honor this upcoming season."

Kiffin joined Dungy's coaching staff as defensive coordinator in 1996 and immediately began the process of overhauling the Buccaneers' defense. Kiffin's unit improved from 27th overall the year prior to his arrival to 11th following that first season.

During Kiffin's 13 seasons leading Tampa Bay's defense, the unit ranked in the top 10 in yards allowed 11 times and in points allowed 12 times.

Working alongside Dungy, he helped create and implement the 'Tampa 2' defensive scheme that eventually propelled the Buccaneers to their victory in Super Bowl XXXVII. During Kiffin's 13 seasons leading Tampa Bay's defense, the unit ranked in the top 10 in yards allowed 11 times and in points allowed 12 times. During that same 13-year span, the defense led the league in points allowed per game (17.5), ranked second in takeaways (293) and yards allowed per game (286.8), third in interceptions (249) and 10th in total sacks (503).

Kiffin's units are among the most accomplished in team history. In 1999, the Buccaneers' defense, led by eventual AP Defensive Player of the Year Warren Sapp, held opponents to a franchise record low of only 228 first downs on the way to an appearance in the NFC Championship Game. In 2000, Tampa Bay's 55 sacks established another team record.

In 2002, Kiffin was named the Assistant Coach of the Year by both Football Digest and the Pro Football Writers Association after his defensive unit became the first since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in points allowed (196), yards allowed per game (252.8) and interceptions (31). The 196 points allowed remains the fewest in a single season in team history and the fifth-fewest allowed in a 16-game season in NFL history.

Under Kiffin's leadership, eight different Buccaneers defensive players made a combined 36 Pro Bowl appearances, while six also earned All-Pro team recognition. In addition to Sapp, Derrick Brooks also earned AP Defensive Player of the Year, following the 2002 season.

BRUCE ARIANS

In March of 2022, Arians concluded a 46-year coaching career, including his last nine leading NFL franchises. With the Buccaneers from 2019-2021, Arians amassed a 31-18 (.633) regular season record and a 5-1 (.833) postseason record, including a victory in Super Bowl LV following the 2020 season. In 2021, he directed Tampa Bay to its first NFC South division title since 2007 and victory in the Wild Card Round. The Buccaneers' 36 combined regular season and postseason victories over the last three seasons are the fourth-most in the NFL.

Buccaneers Owner/Co-Chairman Joel Glazer said: "When Bruce arrived in Tampa Bay three years ago, he spoke about establishing a winning culture and adding another Super Bowl championship for our community. He delivered on both of those promises, and our family is deeply appreciative for all that he has accomplished during his time as our head coach. As impressive as his coaching accomplishments have been, his legacy will live on through the doors of opportunity that he has opened for minority coaches and women in football. We support Bruce's decision to transition from the sidelines and look forward to continuing to lean on his vast football knowledge and experience well into the future. On behalf of all Buccaneers fans, I would like to thank Bruce for all that he has done for this franchise and our community."

Arians is Tampa Bay's all time leader in regular season and postseason win percentage.

Arians is a two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, winning the award following the 2012 season with the Indianapolis Colts and the 2014 season with the Arizona Cardinals. Including his 9-3 record as interim head coach of Indianapolis in 2012, Arians' .635 winning percentage (89-51-1) ranks eighth among coaches who have coached at least 100 games in the Super Bowl era.

Arians is Tampa Bay's all-time leader in regular season and postseason winning percentage, while his .619 regular season winning percentage as head coach of the Arizona Cardinals is the best in that franchise's history. He joins Bill Parcells, Andy Reid and Marty Schottenheimer as the only coaches during the Super Bowl era to hold that distinction for two organizations.

Buccaneers General Manager Jason Licht said: "I consider Bruce a dear friend and loved working side-by-side with him in a head coach-general manager capacity," Licht said. "I am really proud of what we have been able to accomplish. Bruce established a culture here that set the foundation for a Super Bowl championship. In my opinion, he is a Hall of Fame coach, so it is difficult for our football team to lose that type of leader. However, I am excited to have him continuing his contributions to our franchise in his new capacity."

During Arians' tenure, Tampa Bay led the NFL in points scored (29.8 per game), passing yards (300.0 per game), passing touchdowns (118), completions (1,284), and passing first downs (755), ranked third in total yards (396.2 per game), fourth in first downs (22.9 per game), and seventh in sacks allowed (92).

SIMEON RICE

Rice – one of the most prolific pass rushers in NFL history, and a key figure in the team's Super Bowl XXXVII championship run – will become the 16th inductee into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor at Raymond James Stadium in 2025. Rice becomes the fifth defensive player, and eighth overall member, from Tampa Bay's 2002 Super Bowl-winning team to receive this distinction, joining fellow legends Rondé Barber, Derrick Brooks, John Lynch, and Warren Sapp.

Buccaneers Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer said: "During his Hall of Fame-worthy 12-year career, Simeon Rice established himself as one of the most dominant pass rushers in NFL history and is immensely deserving of his place as the 16th member in the Buccaneers Ring of Honor. Simeon arrived in Tampa prior to the 2001 season and immediately elevated our defense into one of the greatest of all-time. He left an indelible mark on our franchise, and we look forward to honoring and celebrating his great career this upcoming season."

Rice led the Buccaneers in sacks in each of his first five seasons with the club.

In six seasons with the Buccaneers (2001–2006), Rice started all 87 games he played and totaled 69.5 sacks, the third-most in team history behind Pro Football Hall of Famers Lee Roy Selmon and Warren Sapp. He led the Buccaneers in sacks in each of his first five seasons with the club, joining Selmon (1976–81) and Gerald McCoy (2013–17) as the only Buccaneers to do so in at least five straight years. To date, Rice owns five of the top ten sack-producing seasons in franchise history, including three of the top five.

Over an eight-season stretch from 1998 to 2005, Rice amassed a league-best 101.5 sacks, outpacing Pro Football Hall of Fame contemporaries such as Michael Strahan and Jason Taylor. From 2001 to 2005, Rice recorded at least 11.0 sacks in each season, becoming one of only five players in NFL history at the time to post double-digit sacks in five consecutive years for the same team. His eight career seasons with 10.0 or more sacks are tied for the seventh-most in league history, ranking just behind a group of Pro Football Hall of Famers in Bruce Smith, Reggie White, Julius Peppers, Kevin Greene, John Randle, and Claude Humphrey.

A cornerstone of Tampa Bay's Super Bowl XXXVII championship team, Rice joined an already formidable defense in 2001 and elevated it to new heights during the team's historic 2002 campaign.

That season, he led the team with 15.5 sacks in the regular season and added a team-high 4.0 more in the postseason – including 2.0 sacks of league MVP Rich Gannon in the Buccaneers' dominant 48–21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in the Super Bowl.

Originally selected as the No. 3 overall pick in the 1996 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, Rice concluded his career having started 161-of-174 games played between the Cardinals (1996-2000), Buccaneers (2001-06), Denver Broncos (2007) and Indianapolis Colts (2007). He finished with 122.0 career sacks, ranking among the top 20 in league history at the time of his retirement. Rice also added 472 career tackles, 59 passes defensed, 34 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and five interceptions. In seven career postseason contests – all starts – he tallied 23 tackles, 7.0 sacks, three forced fumbles, two passes defensed, and one fumble recovery.

A three-time Pro Bowler, Rice was also a first-team All-Pro and two-time second-team All-Pro selection. He was named the 1996 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year after posting 12.5 sacks – tied for the second-most by a rookie in NFL history at the time, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famer Reggie White.

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the NFL.

The stadium, which opened to rave reviews for the 1998 season, just underwent a multi-phase renovation. The first stage of this project was completed in 2014 and encompassed a complete redesign of the main level concession locations. The second phase was completed for the Buccaneers' 2016 season and was highlighted by the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the lower bowl, giving the stadium a total video display area in excess of 30,000 square feet – at the time, the third-largest in the NFL. Also included was a new, comprehensive sound system and concessions upgrades, in addition to the renovation of all luxury suites. The third phase of renovations, which was completed in time for the team's 2017 season, included a completely redesigned West Stadium Club, a new, 10,000 square-foot team retail store, expansion of the highly successful Hall of Fame Club, and an expansive new home team locker room. The most recent phase of renovations included a complete renovation of the East Stadium Club along with the opening of a new premium sports bar and restaurant named Bar 76 in the East Club atrium entrance.

Some of the stadium's most recognizable features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s vessel and arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew which is responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy one of the most unique views in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccanee Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Pirate Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

· Ship Length	103'
· Ship Weight	43 tons
· Ship Height	78'
· Bow Detail	9'x7'
· Ship Width	32'
· Swords	16' each

The Pirate Ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER

The Buccaneers make their home at AdventHealth Training Center, a training facility and team operations center that opened in 2006 and is located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium.

The 136,320-square-foot complex is complete with every amenity and advancement necessary to operate on the highest level, and is a combination of function, style and space. No effort was spared in its creation, from the towering steel-and-glass football entrance to the meticulously kept practice fields.

AHTC, as it is commonly called, houses both all team, coaching and front office areas, as well as the team's business operations center.

Below is a closer look at some of the headquarters' features that players utilize on a daily basis.

LOCKER ROOM

The locker room at AdventHealth Training Center covers 6,600 square feet and is an open design that gives a spacious feel. The lockers are four feet across and oak paneled, with drawers, shelves and hooks for storage of all equipment, though some players keep their areas more organized than others! The locker room also includes a large shower and restroom area, complete with a steam room and sauna.

INDOOR FACILITY

In addition to the main facility, the new state-of-the-art indoor practice facility was completed prior to the 2017 season. The 100,000-square-foot facility features a full-sized FieldTurf playing surface, has an indoor clearance of 96 feet and seating for up to 3,500 guests.

The space is used frequently for walkthroughs, practices, select training camp viewing sessions and several other major events hosted at AdventHealth Training Center over the course of the year. The facility provides players and coaching staff members with the luxury of escaping Florida's extremely hot and humid conditions and avoid missed practices due to inclement weather.

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER

TRAINING ROOM

The Buccaneers' training room, under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Bobby Slater, offers a complete center to cater to the health and well-being of the team.

The training room includes a main space filled with taping tables and related equipment, an expansive rehab area, and a large physician's room, allowing the club's attending physician the ability to see a player privately.

Furthermore, players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room, which contains three large tubs: one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill, giving injured players the best chance to fully recover.

WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at AHTC is contained in its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway.

There are 60-70 different types of machines and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

The weight room is outfitted with an impressive sound system and the wall that faces the practice fields is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and inviting.

TEAM AUDITORIUM AND POSITION ROOMS

Each day, players and coaches take part in a team meeting, where the head coach addresses the entire group. This takes place in the spacious team auditorium, which is comprised of a large stage surrounded by stadium-style seating, each large chair complete with a desktop to allow players to take notes. From the stage, coaches can roll game or practice film on a large projection screen to discuss with the team highlights or areas that need improvement. The rich wood paneling behind the stage features a giant carved Buccaneers logo.

When it comes time to go over details position-by-position, coaches and players can break out into their own individual position meeting rooms.

Each meeting room looks like a plush, state-of-the-art classroom, with the expected desks and whiteboards, but also a command station for the coaches, with a video and computer system that allows the coaching staff or players to access a vast array of video cutups from practice sessions, Buccaneers games or opponent games. This system includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Brett Greene's crew. Every practice is shot by several 8K Solutions cameras located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

AdventHealth Training Center consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a comfortable media studio for press conferences and workroom for local press.

What is AHTC's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

SUPER BOWL LV

In a dominating performance at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, to claim the Lombardi Trophy, becoming the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. The Tampa Bay defense became just the fifth in Super Bowl history not to allow a touchdown. Trailing 3-0 in the first quarter, Tom Brady found Rob Gronkowski for an 8-yard touchdown pass to give Tampa Bay a lead which it would never surrender. The Buccaneers were stopped on the goal line on their next posession, but followed it up with three consecutive touchdown drives. Gronkowski hauled in a 17-yard pass from Brady to score his second touchdown of the game, putting his name next to Jerry Rice as the only players in NFL history with two-or-more touchdown receptions in multiple Super Bowls.

With 1:01 remaining in the opening half, the Buccaneers took advantage of a penalty-aided drive that resulted resulted in a 1-yard touchdown reception for Antonio Brown with just six seconds before halftime, giving Tampa Bay a 21-6 advantage at the break. The Chiefs were able to get a field goal on their first drive of the second half, but that would mark the final points of the ballgame for Kansas City. The Buccaneers immediately responded with a Leonard Fournette 27-yard touchdown run followed by a 52-yard Ryan Succop field goal to push the lead to 31-9. The second half continued to be dominated by the Buccaneers defense, which consistently put pressure on put pressure on Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes.

Tampa Bay's defense recorded a pair of second-half interceptions - one from Devin White and one from Antoine Winfield Jr. Winfield became just the seventh rookie in NFL history with an interception in the Super Bowl. Collectively, the Buccaneers defense racked up nine quarterback hits in the game, which were tied for the fourth-most in a Super Bowl since QB hits became regularly tracked in 2006. Shaquil Barrett had four quarterback hits alone, tying for the second-most by an individual player in that span. Brady won Super Bowl MVP honors for the fifth time in his career, throwing for 201 yards and three touchdowns to earn a 125.8 passer rating. He moved to 7-3 in his career in Super Bowls – the most wins ever by any player in league history. The Super Bowl victory was the eighth consecutive win for the Buccaneers dating back to the regular season, the longest winning streak in team history.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defensed, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth quarter, Arizona scored 16 unanswered points, including WR Larry Fitzgerald's 64-yard touchdown reception to take a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining in the game. The Steelers marched 78 yards to score on WR Santonio Holmes' six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it then the most watched Super Bowl ever.

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defensed against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

RAYMOND JAMES: THE STORY BEHIND THE STADIUM NAME

Raymond James Stadium is not named for a public figure or local sports legend, but rather for a thriving financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg – Raymond James Financial. Raymond James has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and is the official wealth management provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (RJF), Raymond James Financial, Inc. is a leading diversified financial services company providing private client group, capital markets, asset management, banking and other services to individuals, corporations and municipalities.

To this day, people interacting with Raymond James for the first time assume that there was a founding father named Ray James somewhere in the firm's past. However, the firm's name comes from the 1962 merger of two financial services companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments – and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

The same integrity Bob James demonstrated back in 1964 is what the firm continues to strive for today. Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a complete and holistic understanding of each client's needs and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

CARING FOR OUR COMMUNITIES

"Giving back to the communities in which we live and work" is a phrase that has been part of the Raymond James mission from the beginning, and it's that commitment to putting others first – from clients to neighbors – that has been an integral part of the firm's culture– since its founding.

Now, more than six decades later, Raymond James and its associates are proud to continue the legacy – started by Raymond James founder Bob James, continued by his son and long-time Chair and CEO Tom James, and carried out by current Chair, Paul Reilly and CEO, Paul Shoukry – by investing time, money and talents into the communities they serve. It's so much more than tradition – it's part of who they are.

Together, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up to build, strengthen and grow our communities. One way we do this is through the Kicking for Kids program.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 24th year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children across the Tampa Bay area through Kicking for Kids.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes $2,500 to designated Tampa Bay-area children's hospitals.

Since the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program began in 2000, it has raised more than $805,000 for local children's hospitals.

SUPPORTING THE COMMUNITIES WHERE WE LIVE AND WORK

Raymond James gives back to the communities where we live and work by investing in and volunteering with organizations focused on health and human services, education and financial empowerment, and culture and the arts.

READY FOR SCHOOL

As a financial services firm, our work centers on helping people optimize their opportunities and achieve their goals. That philosophy inspired Ready for School, our signature giving program designed to remove barriers and create opportunities for every child to thrive. In 2025, we launched Ready for School with the mission to invest time, resources and expertise into helping students achieve their unique goals inside the classroom, outside the classroom and beyond. In 2026, we expanded the program through a national partnership with Boys & Girls Clubs of America. Through our local and national relationships, Raymond James has committed $18 million to Ready for School organizations through 2028.

Boys & Girls Clubs of America is a natural partner because we share a commitment to helping young people succeed academically, socially, and emotionally inside the classroom, outside of it, and beyond. With Boys & Girls Club's proven national platform and deep local involvement, we can scale impact while staying rooted in the communities we serve. We'll support academic programs like Project Learn and Summer Brain Gain, professional development for Club staff, and strengthening local Clubs in key markets. As the exclusive Presenting Partner of Youth of the Year, we're also elevating youth voice and leadership, celebrating young people whose stories remind us what's possible when potential is recognized.

A well-educated community is a resilient community – more economically stable, civically engaged and socially connected. Education strengthens the workforce, reduces inequality and fuels innovation. It's a long-term investment with exponential returns, and it's one we're proud to make.

BUCCANEERS PRESEASON TELEVISION

RONDÉ BARBER

WFLA

WFLA, News Channel 8 is Your Official Bucs Station and serves as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' home for preseason football. In 2026, News Channel 8 will produce and broadcast all three of Tampa Bay's preseason games. Week 1 is away against the New York Jets, Week 2 is at home versus the Kansas City Chiefs, and Week 3 the Buccaneers head to Jacksonville to face the Jaguars. In addition, News Channel 8 sports anchors Aileen Hnatiuk and Jeff Dubrof will host "Bucs Bonus," a weekly podcast sharing inside access to the biggest storylines on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Episodes can be found wherever you get your podcasts.

Emmy-Award winning broadcaster Chris Myers will enter his 24th season in the preseason broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man. A versatile member of FOX Sports programming, Myers has handled play-by-play and sideline duties for the NFL on FOX, as well as serving as host of FOX's NASCAR pre-race show and as a sideline reporter during the Major League Baseball postseason. He also hosts his own national radio show called The Drive on FOX Sports Radio and recently hosted the Chris Myers Interview on FOX Sports Net.

During an 11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with several programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers was born in Florida and began his career at age 16 in Miami, when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard. Myers will be the play-by-play announcer for both away games.

For the Buccaneers' only home preseason game, Super Bowl winning coach and Buccaneers Ring of Honor inductee, Jon Gruden, joins Rondé Barber in the booth. Gruden led Tampa Bay to its first Super Bowl title and later went on to join ESPN's Monday Night Football after retiring from coaching. The Buccaneers preseason game against the Kansas City Chiefs will be his first time in the booth since 2018.

And as always, Buccaneers legend and Hall of Famer Rondé Barber will be in the booth offering expert analysis and insight like only he can do, providing Bucs fans with astute analysis gleaned from a storied, 16-year NFL career with Tampa Bay. One of the most respected players in team history, Barber retired following the 2012 season and soon after signed with FOX Sports. 2026 marks Barber's 14th-year in the broadcast booth.

Barber, a five-time Pro Bowler, five-time AP All-Pro selection, and 2023 Hall of Fame inductee, entered the league as a third-round (66th overall) pick by the Buccaneers in the 1997 NFL Draft. He holds numerous team and league records, including a streak of 200 consecutive starts at cornerback, the most for that position in NFL history. Barber was a key component of the Tampa Bay defense that ruled the league in the late 1990s and early 2000s, helping bring the Bay Area a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Jeff Dubrof, who serves as a sports anchor and reporter for News Channel 8, will serve as the sideline analyst for the broadcasts. He is a San Antonio, Texas native and a graduate from the University of Southern California. Prior to his time in Tampa, he worked in Des Moines, Iowa where he covered Iowa and Iowa State athletics where he was the primary beat reporter for both football programs.

BUCCANEERS RADIO NETWORK

TONY CASTRICONE

iHeart Media's 98ROCK 97.9 FM will serve as the flagship station for the Buccaneers Radio Network. 98ROCK 97.9 FM will broadcast all Buccaneers games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area.

In June, the Buccaneers announced Tony Castricone will take over play-by-play duties, succeeding the legendary Gene Deckerhoff. Castricone joins the Buccaneers Radio Network with more than two decades of experience, most recently spending nine seasons as the Director of Broadcasting and the radio voice of the University of Washington football and men's basketball. In addition to calling all preseason, regular season, and postseason games, Castricone can be seen across various team-produced programming, digital content, and fan engagement initiatives throughout the year.

Dave Moore, former Tampa Bay Buccaneers tight end, enters his 20th season as color analyst with the Buccaneers Radio Network.

Moore spent 13 of his 15 seasons in the NFL with the Buccaneers. The seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) started his first season with the Dolphins in 1992 before joining the Buccaneers. Following a stint in Buffalo during the 2002 campaign, Moore returned to the Bay area and finished his NFL career with 207 receptions for 2,028 receiving yards and 28 touchdowns. He also made a Pro Bowl appearance in 2006.

Buccaneers fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers Radio Network. Castricone's descriptions of the action -- including pre-game, halftime and post-game -- are simulcast on radio stations throughout the state.

SANTIAGO GRAMATICA

As an extension of the Buccaneers Radio Network, WTMP 96.1 will serve as a Spanish audio alternative for all Buccaneers games, and for the third year, the broadcast simulcasted all preseason matchups with WFLA.

Buccaneers Legend Martín Gramática – the team's franchise record-holder for both points scored and field goals made – has given fans detailed insight for Buccaneers games as the color analyst since 2018. Prior to joining the radio network, Gramática played nine season as an NFL kicker, six of which were with Tampa. The Buccaneers recently nominated him for the NFL's 2023 Salute to Service Award for his impact with Veterans and housing initiatives. A mission curated by his family's foundation, The Gramática Family Foundation.

Similar to his brother, Santiago Gramática, was regarded as one of one of the premier kickers in the country, playing four seasons locally at the University of South Florida from 2001-04. Gramática was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award, an award honoring the top placekickers in the U.S., and finished his career as the third-highest scorer in school history. He is entering his sixth season and second as the play-by-play for the Buccaneers.

2026 CHEERLEADERS & STUNT TEAM

Since 1976, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders have served as ambassadors for one of the most distinguished franchises in the NFL, captivating Tampa Bay's avid fans, performing to worldwide acclaim, and cheering on the team to two Super Bowl titles.

The 46 athletes that comprise the dynamic squad are chosen from hundreds of candidates each year. On top of being talented performers, Buccaneers Cheerleaders represent a variety of professional fields including education, healthcare, real estate, dance, public policy and more. They are committed to supporting the Buccaneers on game days at Raymond James Stadium, as well as at community events and corporate appearances throughout the year.

In addition to their work in the West Central Florida region, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders serve as ambassadors for the organization all over the United States and beyond, traveling to locations in Asia, Europe, and Australia to entertain and connect with the best fans in the NFL.

In its second season, the Stunt Team features both co-ed and all-girl stunt groups, to elevate the game day experience with high-flying skills, elite partner stunting, and jaw-dropping athleticism. This exciting addition brings an electrifying new energy to the sidelines and showcases the team's continued evolution as a model of premier entertainment team in the NFL.

ANNA PARRISH

CHEERLEADING & MASCOT SENIOR MANAGER

Anna Parrish enters her sixth season directing the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders as the team's Cheerleading & Mascot Manager. Parrish spent four seasons cheering with the Buccaneers, serving as a team captain in 2020. She has represented the organization in the Tampa Bay community, on a national stage and as a participant in the 2019 NFL International Series in London, along with military appreciation events abroad.

Parrish also has professional dance experience working with Rob Base, ZZ Top, Flo-Rida and New Kidz on the Block. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Parrish danced for Universal Studios Orlando Resort and Busch Gardens.

Parrish previously enjoyed an active career in the fitness industry, opening and operating boutique fitness facilities, where she also served as an experienced instructor.
