On Friday, May 10, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers will team up with technology leader and corporate partner, Jabil to strengthen the community through a collaborative “Day of Service” supported by United Way Suncoast. Owner/President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation and Glazer Family Foundation Darcie Glazer Kassewitz and Jabil Vice President Kristine Oureilidis will join more than 150 Buccaneers business staff, Buccaneers Cheerleaders, and more than 150 Jabil staff to revive and refresh the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast – Pinellas Park.

The community day will include refurbishing the existing computer lab and designing an all-new Jabil Innovation Room, complete with a smart board, computers and workspaces to assist students with their schoolwork. Additionally, the Buccaneers Teen Room will feature new electronics, games, furniture and murals while the Youth Education Center will also receive new furniture, educational games and a reading corner. Volunteers will overhaul the gym with fresh paint, new décor and physical education equipment and also construct a brand-new outdoor playground.

At 2:30 p.m., the volunteers will welcome local students to the club for the reveal of the community
