FEELING A DRAFT

The Buccaneers, led by General Manager Jason Licht and Head Coach Bruce Arians, have eight selections in this year's NFL Draft and hold the No. 32 overall pick. If Tampa Bay picks at No. 32, it will mark the second time drafting a player in that slot in team history (1982 - Booker Reese, Round 2, Pick 32). Tampa also held the No. 32 overall pick in the 2003 NFL Draft, but had previously traded the pick to acquire former head coach Jon Gruden.

GENERAL MANAGER JASON LICH ON DRAFT NIGHT:

"[Tristan] is a great athlete, but just as importantly, he is a great guy. He is a hard worker. He is very smart - just a top-notch character guy, in addition to being a great player ... As Bruce [Arians] says, 'No risk it, no biscuit.' We had to give up a little capital to go get him, but in this case, we thought because of the player and the position - but especially the player - that it was worth it."

DRAFT DAY GUIDE: HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Zoom Video Call Instructions:

- Beginning on Thursday, April 29 and continuing through Saturday, May 1, the NFL will host the 2021 NFL Draft. In order to assist with media availability, the Buccaneers Communications staff has set up a Virtual Media Workroom, where all availabilities for General Manager Jason Licht, Head Coach Bruce Arians and draft selections will be hosted.
- Due to fluid timing on availabilities, media are encouraged to be logged in to the Virtual Media Workroom prior to the Buccaneers making their first draft selection of each day. An announcement will be made in the Workroom to let media know before an availability begins. Similar to previous sessions, once the availability begins, media will need to follow the instructions for asking questions, which are below.
- Media are encouraged to follow the Buccaneers Communications Twitter account (@BuccaneersComms) for alerts and updates on the timing of availabilities. All availabilities will be conducted via the Zoom videoconferencing platform. A link will be emailed to media.
- For media wishing to ask a question:
 - First, click both the 'participants' and 'chat' features at the bottom of your screen.
 - When asking a question, please click the symbol of the hand to digitally raise your hand.
 - When selected, your name will be announced by the host and your microphone will be unmuted. Following the question being asked, your microphone will be muted again and your digital hand will be lowered.
