IN THE COMMUNITY

HABITAT HILLSBOROUGH HOME DEDICATION DAY

In December, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Habitat for Humanity of Hillsborough saw the work of their community partnership, "Holiday Home Build with the Bucs", come to fruition as they handed over the keys to the four families that will inhabit the homes that they have worked on over the course of the last month. In the last month, Buccaneers players and staff have put in volunteer hours at the homes, installing windows and doors and priming the houses.

Prior to the project's start, over 90% of the Buccaneers roster donated funds towards the construction of a home for a family in need, with the Buccaneers organization matching their contributions to fund the construction of two Habitat homes in the Temple Terrace community. Since then, thanks to donations from the Buccaneers fanbase, coined "The Krewe", as well as comedians Bert Kreischer and Tom Segura, the impact has doubled and now the build of four homes along Overlook Drive has been funded.

The project was part of the player-led Buccaneers Youth Leadership Program, with 25 students apiece from Young Middle Magnet School and Webb Middle School volunteering at the homes as well. The Buccaneers Youth Leadership Program is part of the team's Social Justice Initiative, a player-led program created in 2018 with a $1,000,000 commitment by the Glazer family to break down barriers to racial and social equality.

NICK SIRIANNI

Nick Sirianni finished his third season as head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles with a combined 34-17 record, earning a playoff berth in each of his first three seasons as head coach.

The Eagles finished the regular season with an 11-6 record, claiming the NFC's No. 5 seed.

Sirianni directed a record-breaking 2022 campaign that resulted in an NFC East crown, conference title and appearance in Super Bowl LVII.

NICK SIRIANNI AT A GLANCE

- In navigating Philadelphia to its fourth all-time trip to the Super Bowl in 2022, Sirianni established himself as the youngest head coach in Eagles history to reach the game's biggest stage. He also steered the team to the most regular-season victories (14) in franchise history. As a result of that success, Sirianni became the fourth NFL head coach to produce a 14-win campaign within their first two career years at the helm. He is the only head coach to accomplish that feat after taking over a team that produced a losing record the year before their arrival.
- Under Sirianni's guidance in 2022, Philadelphia cemented a number of other single-season team records, including points (477), total touchdowns (59), scrimmage touchdowns (57), rushing touchdowns (32, tied for fourth in NFL history), total first downs (385), third-down conversion rate (45.9 pct.), fourth-down conversions (22), red zone touchdown efficiency (67.8 pct.) as well as defensive sacks (70, tied for third in NFL history). The Eagles also finished among the top three teams in total offense (third, 389.1 ypg) and defense (second, 301.5 ypg) for the first time since the 1970 merger.
- Following the 2022 season, two of Sirianni's top lieutenants branched out to head coaching positions - defensive coordinator Jonathan Gannon (Cardinals) and offensive coordinator Shane Steichen (Colts), who was voted a finalist for the AP NFL Assistant Coach of the Year award.
- Prior to arriving in Philadelphia, Sirianni spent three years as the Indianapolis Colts' offensive coordinator (2018-20), following a five-year stint with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers (2013-17). He began his NFL coaching career with the Kansas City Chiefs (2009-12), serving as wide receivers coach (2012) and offensive quality control coach (2009-11).
- Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Sirianni spent five years at the collegiate level as wide receivers coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (2006-08) and as defensive backs coach at Mount Union (2004-05), his alma mater, where he helped the Purple Raiders capture a national title during the 2005 season.
- A native of Jamestown, NY, Sirianni was a three-year starter at wide receiver at Mount Union (Alliance, OH), winning three NCAA Division III National Championships (2000-02) and earning All-Ohio Athletic Conference honors as a senior after catching a career-high 13 touchdowns. He also played one year in the Atlantic Indoor Football League with the Canton Legends while coaching in 2005.
- Sirianni and his wife, Brett, have two sons, Jacob and Miles, and one daughter, Taylor.
