PITTSBURGH STEELERS VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS

State Farm Stadium | December 8, 2019 | 2:25 PM

THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

The Cardinals host the Pittsburgh Steelers at State Farm Stadium on Sunday in a matchup against their former NFL American Division and NFL Century Division foe.

Sunday's game marks the Steelers third-ever regular season visit to State Farm Stadium and first since 2011.

The series between the teams dates back to 1933, the first year the Cardinals played under the ownership of Hall of Famer Charles Bidwill. That was also the year the Steelers franchise joined the NFL as the Pittsburgh Pirates under the ownership of Hall of Famer Art Rooney.

The first league game the Cardinals played under Charles Bidwill - which took place on 9/27/33 - was a matchup against the NFL's new Pittsburgh franchise. Over 86 years later the team's meet for the 60th time in regular season.

Sunday's game features a matchup between a pair of rookie QBs who took significantly divergent routes to the NFL: Arizona's Kyler Murray and Pittsburgh's Devlin Hodges. The 2018 Heisman Trophy winner out of the University of Oklahoma, Murray was the #1 overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft. Hodges was signed by Pittsburgh as a rookie free agent out of Samford after making an impression at a rookie tryout camp.

Both signal-callers will have to be aware of their surroundings on Sunday, as the game features some of the NFL's best "strip-sack" artists on defense. Among the seven defenders in the NFL with at least four "strip sacks" in 2019, four will be on the field at State Farm Stadium on Sunday: AZ LBs Chandler Jones (5) and Terrell Suggs (4) and PIT LB T.J. Watt (5) and DE Bud Dupree (4). Suggs is a defender the Steelers know well, having faced him for 16 seasons while he was a member of their AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens.

THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

- In 29 career regular season games against the Steelers, LB Terrell Suggs has 15.0 sacks, 21 tackles for loss, 2 INTs, 9 passes defended, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries.
- The Steelers, Jets and Ravens are the only NFL teams that WR Larry Fitzgerald does not have a TD reception against during the regular season (had two TDs catches vs. Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII).
- Pittsburgh's helmets feature a 'DD' decal honoring the late Darryl Drake, their WRs coach who passed away suddenly during training camp earlier this year. Drake was the Cardinals WRs coach from 2013-17 and WR Larry Fitzgerald delivered a eulogy at a service honoring Drake shortly after his passing.

A RICH NFL TRADITION

Both the Cardinals and Steelers have a rich history in the NFL, one that has seen them play together as one team (1944 as Card-Pitt due to the manpower shortage during World War II) and an epic clash as opponents in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Cardinals are the NFL's oldest continuously run professional football franchise and the Steelers are the fifth-oldest. The patriarchs of both football families - Charles Bidwill and Art Rooney - are enshrined in the Hall of Fame. Currently both families have third generation leadership with Art Rooney II and Michael Bidwill following in the footsteps of their fathers Dan and Bill.

Over the years, the two families have enjoyed a strong professional and personal relationship. Because of the unique history between the teams, Cardinals Chairman & President Michael Bidwill wanted the Rooneys and the Steelers to be part of the historic opening of State Farm Stadium in 2006. The two teams met in the preseason in the first-ever game at the Cards new stadium.

A LOOK BACK AT A GRANDFATHER'S GREAT ADVICE

With the NFL celebrating its 100th season in 2019, Michael Bidwill sat down with AZCentral.com prior to the season to discuss the Cardinals long and colorful history. In one story, Bidwill recalled how his grandfather, Charles, was so confident of the NFL's future success that he advised one of his close friends to purchase a team.

"He thought it was going to be a good business," Bidwill said of his grandfather. "So much so that he told his buddy Art Rooney 'You ought to get yourself one of these franchises. It's going to be a good business someday.'"

THE LIFE OF MR. B

William V. (Bill) Bidwill passed away on October 2 at the age of 88.

"Our dad passed away the same way he lived his life: peacefully, with grace, dignity and surrounded by family and loved ones," said Cardinals Chairman and President Michael Bidwill. "Above all else, we will remember him as a man devoted to the three central pillars of his life – his immense faith, his love for his family and his life-long passion for the Cardinals and the sport of football."

Born on July 31, 1931 in Chicago, he is the son of Charles and Violet Bidwill. His father purchased the Chicago Cardinals of the NFL in 1932, starting Bill's life-long association with the team which spanned eight decades and started as a ball boy when he was a child. A two-sport athlete playing football and baseball at Georgetown Prep outside of Washington, DC, Bidwill received the school's highest honor, the Insignis Medal, in 1990 and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017.

After earning his undergraduate degree from Georgetown University, Bidwill proudly served in the United States Navy before taking on a full-time role with the team in 1960. That same year he married Nancy, his wife of more than 56 years until her passing in 2016 and had five children: daughter Nicole and sons Bill Jr., Michael, Patrick and Timothy. While well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, "Mr. B" was recognized often for his contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

In 2017, he was enshrined in the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame which honors those who have made significant contributions to state's athletics community. In 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. At its December 2010 commencement exercises, Northern Arizona University awarded Bidwill an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

In addition to his five children, 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild, Bidwill is survived by his brother Charles (Stormy).

A LEADER IN DIVERSITY

Bidwill was at the forefront of diversity in hiring practices, which was evidenced by the hiring of the NFL's first African American female executive (Adele Harris), first African American contract negotiator (Bob Wallace) and first African American head coach/GM tandem (Dennis Green and Rod Graves). In 2015, the team established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship to increase diversity and provide opportunities to gain NFL coaching experience.

"He didn't care about the color of your skin, race or gender if he felt like you could do the job to the best of your ability to help us become better than you were the right person for it," Larry Fitzgerald said.

At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL.

ANOTHER SIGNIFICANT WIN IN CINCINNATI

Arizona's Week 5 victory in Cincinnati was the first game following the passing of team owner Bill Bidwill the previous Wednesday (10/2). Bill's father, Charles, purchased the team in 1932 and the first season the Cardinals played under Bidwill ownership was in 1933.

The first victory for the Cards during that 1933 season – which came on October 8th – was a 3-0 win in Cincinnati against the Reds.

On Tuesday (10/8/19) – exactly 86 years after that 1933 victory over the Reds – funeral services were held to honor the life of Bill Bidwill.

"It has been an emotional week," Chairman and President Michael Bidwill said after the victory over the Bengals. "The coaches and players all told me they were going to win it for (Bill Bidwill). It is great to get the win."

AN UNHERALDED COMMUNITY CHAMPION

Bidwill's devotion to the Cardinals and the game of football was matched by his passion for giving back to the community and supporting charitable causes, though he never sought recognition for his consistent and generous donations.

"He valued love, and loyalty and life. All of that came together to manifest itself in his giving," former Cardinals Pro Bowl fullback Ron Wolfley said. "The way that he would give millions and millions of dollars and nobody knew what he was giving so much of the time. He didn't sound the trumpet to let people know what he was doing."

Fitzgerald was inspired by Bidwill's work in the community without seeking the spotlight.

"The thing I really cherished about him was his selflessness and commitment to the community," WR Larry Fitzgerald said. "It was something he was passionate about and he wanted zero fanfare, and I always respected that about him."

STATEMENTS REGARDING THE PASSING OF ARIZONA CARDINALS OWNER BILL BIDWILL

CARDINALS WIDE RECEIVER LARRY FITZGERALD:

"The NFL family lost a pioneer today. Bill Bidwill loved the Arizona Cardinals and the great State of Arizona. He paved the way for so many by being on the forefront of giving minorities the opportunity to thrive as coaches and executives in the NFL. He was also a man of quiet generosity giving of his time and resources to make lives better."

NFL COMMISSIONER ROGER GOODELL: "Bill Bidwill was part of the NFL family his entire life, starting from his days as a ball boy through his time as an owner. Although never one to seek the spotlight, Bill had an incredible sense of humor and he made extraordinary contributions to the NFL. Bill's vision brought the Cardinals, the NFL and multiple Super Bowls to Arizona. He was a leader in embracing diversity and employed the first African American female executive, and the first African American general manager and head coach tandem."

PATRIOTS CHAIRMAN AND CEO ROBERT KRAFT: "Bill Bidwill was one of the first owners to reach out to me and welcome me into the league when I bought the Patriots in 1994. He was one of the longest-tenured owners in the league and I always appreciated his historical perspective and his love of the game. When it came to the game of football and the NFL, we were mostly like-minded and aligned. The only thing more important to him than his beloved Cardinals was his family and I know how proud he was of his children."

COWBOYS OWNER, PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER JERRY JONES:

"I always viewed Bill as a man who, through his father and his literally growing up with the NFL, was an extension of the founding fathers of the NFL. His leadership and influence contributed greatly to bridging the gap between what the earliest years of our professional game looked like and the growth and massive popularity of what it has become. He had a unique perspective of where the game began and where he thought it needed to go. I enjoyed him as a competitor and a colleague, and regardless of the circumstance, he had a unique gift of humor that not everyone knew about."

GIANTS PRESIDENT AND CEO JOHN MARA: "Bill Bidwill was one of the most important owners in the history of the National Football League. He was a kind and decent man who loved his team and the League. He leaves behind a wonderful family. Bill was someone I greatly admired and respected. I was proud to call him a friend."

BEARS CHAIRMAN GEORGE H. McCASKEY: "One of our family's proudest associations in the NFL is with the Bidwill family. It goes back three generations, and at the heart of it is Bill Bidwill. His sacrifices on behalf of our great game are not properly documented, nor properly appreciated. He was a gracious man, a raconteur, and a great friend."

BUCCANEERS OWNER AND CO-CHAIRMAN BRYAN GLAZER: "Bill Bidwill's life mirrored the growth and success of the Cardinals and the entire National Football League. We have tremendous respect and admiration for the lineage of the Bidwill family ownership dating back to 1932. We send our condolences to his children Nicole, Bill Jr., Michael, Patrick, Timothy, and the Arizona Cardinals and all of Bill's family and friends."

CHIEFS CHAIRMAN AND CEO CLARK HUNT: "As one of the longest tenured owners in professional football, Bill built and cared for his franchise with the utmost passion and integrity. He always put the best interests of the league first and his philanthropy made a lasting impact in communities throughout Arizona."

LIONS OWNER AND CHAIRMAN MARTHA FIRESTONE FORD:

"The Lions and Cardinals have always shared a proud bond as two of the NFL's original franchises, and the Bidwill Family holds a treasured place in the history of professional football. His more than 80 years of life as part of the Cardinals organization will be remembered through a legacy marked by countless contributions to our great game."

COLTS OWNER AND CEO JIM IRSAY: "Rest in peace, Bill Bidwill, legendary owner of the Cardinals. Bill was involved with our league since 1932, and was a leader on the initiative of minority front office hiring."

ARIZONA GOV. DOUG DUCEY: "A dad. A husband. A giant of the NFL and an Arizona icon – Bill Bidwill never forgot he was part of our community, and he showed it throughout his long and remarkable life. Bill was passionate about many things, but especially his faith, family and the Cardinals football team he loved so much."

CARDINALS WEAR CUSTOM GEAR FOR "MY CAUSE, MY CLEATS"

As part of the NFL's My Cause My Cleats campaign, hundreds of players across the league will showcase a wide range of causes and charitable organizations important to them with custom cleats in Week 14.

For the third consecutive season, the NFL will celebrate "Unboxing Day," a league-wide unveiling of the players' custom cleats. Players will unbox their cleats in hospital visits, classrooms, locker rooms and on stadium fields on Tuesday (12/3). Throughout the week, players will share images of their cleats and the stories behind them on social media using the hashtag #mycausemycleats.

Among the Cardinals participating in My Cause My Cleats this season are the 24 players listed below.

AN EPIC SUPER BOWL CLASH

The only postseason matchup between the Cardinals and Steelers took place in Super Bowl XLIII at Raymond James Stadium following the 2008 season. The Steelers earned a 27-23 victory in one of the most memorable title games in NFL history.

Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, the Cardinals made - at the time - the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, taking a 23-20 lead following a 64-yard TD pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes' tip-toe TD reception and the game's deciding score.

Nearly 11 years later, Fitzgerald - who totaled seven receptions for 127 yards and two TDs in Super Bowl XLIII - will be the only player in Sunday's game who also appeared in that title clash.

SUGGS FACES A FAMILIAR FOE

LB Terrell Suggs - in his first season with the Cardinals after 16 years in Baltimore - will face a few former AFC North rivals in the next two weeks, beginning this Sunday when the Cardinals host the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Suggs has faced Pittsburgh 29 times during the regular season and has 15.0 sacks to show for it. The only team he has more sacks against is Cleveland (19.0) - AZ's opponent in Week 15.

Suggs Most Sacks Opponent - Regular Season

Rnk	Opponent	Sacks	Gms
1	Cleveland	19.0	29
2	Pittsburgh	15.0	29
3	Cincinnati	12.5	29
4	Miami	8.5	9
5	Houston	8.0	8

Sunday's contest will mark Suggs' 30th career regular season game against Pittsburgh. In NFL history, the only defensive player to face the Steelers more times than Suggs is former Browns/Falcons LB Clay Matthews (31).

The 37-year coaching veteran spent the first 21 seasons of his career at the college level before three NFL stints with the Bears (2004-12), Cardinals (2013-17) and Steelers (2018-19).

The news of his death was met by an outpouring of support throughout the football community, including Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald, who delivered a eulogy during a service for his former position coach.

"I'm heartbroken for anyone who had the privilege to know Darryl. As a man, a coach, a husband and a father, he was as good as they come," said Fitzgerald. "He was my position coach for five years, and he's been one of the greatest mentors and friends in my life since we met."

A SEASON TOGETHER

With a rivalry that dates back to 1933, the Cardinals and Steelers have a long history of squaring off against each other. But it is the season they spent together that makes the history of this series so unique.

During the height of World War II the NFL went to great lengths to ensure the league's survival as over 600 players were drafted into service. Other sports such as the Indianapolis 500 (to save gas) and the US Open (to save the rubber used in making golf balls) were temporarily suspended.

Because of the man-power shortage due to the war the Cardinals and Steelers merged for the 1944 season to form Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field. Kiesling, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1966, played for the Cardinals from 1929-33 and, as an offensive guard, helped block for Ernie Nevers' NFL record six TDs and 40 points vs. the Chicago Bears on November 28, 1929.

The team held training camp in Waukesha, WI and went on to an 0-10 record in the regular season. After dropping their opener against Philadelphia, the team's fortunes took another hit when starting QB Coley McDonough was drafted into the Army two days prior to the matchup against Green Bay.

It was the second straight season that the Steelers merged with another team. In 1933, the Steelers and the Philadelphia Eagles combined to form the Steagles.

BY THE NUMBERS

8

Different decades in which Bill Bidwill - who passed away on October 2nd at the age of 88 - was affiliated with the Cardinals. Beginning as a ball boy, he served the franchise in countless fashions - public address announcer, ticket promotions, scouting, advertising, public relations and contract negotiator - in his time with the Cardinals.

1933

The first NFL season the Cardinals played under Bidwill ownership after Hall of Fame owner Charles Bidwill purchased the team. It is also the year the Steelers franchise joined the NFL as the Pittsburgh Pirates under the ownership of Hall of Famer Art Rooney.

142

Consecutive sellouts at State Farm Stadium. The Cardinals have sold out every game - preseason and postseason included - since the venue opened in 2006. The first-ever game played at State Farm Stadium was a preseason matchup between the Cardinals and Steelers on 9/12/06.

3

NFL teams WR Larry Fitzgerald does not have a TD reception against during the regular season: Pittsburgh, the NY Jets and Baltimore. Fitzgerald had two TD catches vs. Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII.

13.0

Sacks for LB Chandler Jones this season. That ranks third in the NFL in 2019 and is tied for the most in franchise history through the first 12 games of a season.

1

Players in NFL history who have had 13.0+ sacks in more consecutive seasons than Jones, who has had 13.0+ sacks in each of the last three years (2017-19). That player is Hall of Famer Reggie White, who had two separate streaks of four consecutive years with 13.0+ sacks.

7

NFL defenders who have at least four "strip-sacks" in 2019. Four of those eight will be on the field at State Farm Stadium on Sunday when the Cardinals host the Steelers: AZ LBs Chandler Jones (5) and Terrell Suggs (4), PIT LB T.J. Watt (5) and DE Bud Dupree (4).

54.0

Sacks for Jones in 60 career games with the Cardinals. Since being acquired by Arizona in a trade with New England in 2016, Jones has 5.0 more sacks than any other player in the NFL. Rams DT Aaron Donald ranks second with 49.0.

2,866

Passing yards for QB Kyler Murray in 2019. That is a new franchise record for passing yards by a rookie.

14

TD passes for Murray this season. He needs just two more TDs to surpass Jake Plummer's franchise record for TD passes by a rookie (15 in 1997).

4

Rushing TDs for Murray in 2019, the most in franchise history for a rookie QB.

9

Turnovers for the Cardinals this season. That is tied for the third-lowest total in the NFL in 2019 and is the fewest in franchise history through the first 12 games of a season.

138.0

Career sacks for LB Terrell Suggs, who sits alone in ninth place on the NFL's all-time sacks list. Suggs enters Sunday's game against Pittsburgh with 15.0 sacks in 29 career games against the Steelers.

76

Different QBs Suggs has sacked in his career. He has never sacked Steelers QB Devlin Hodges, who he will face on Sunday. With a sack of Hodges, Suggs would tie Hall of Famer Reggie White (77) and Julius Peppers (77) for the most QBs sacked in a career.

116

Tackles for LB Jordan Hicks through 12 games. Hicks ranks second in the NFL in tackles in 2019 behind only Packers LB Blake Martinez.

10

Career INTs for Hicks, who has three picks for the Cardinals this season. Dating back to Hicks' rookie season in 2015, only Carolina's Luke Kuechly (11) has more INTs among ILBs.

99

Points for K Zane Gonzalez in 2019 (26 FG, 20 PAT). The former ASU standout ranks second in the NFL in FGs made (26) and is fourth in the NFL in total points in 2019.

48.1

Punting average for Andy Lee in 2019. That ranks second in the NFL and is slightly lower than his average in 2018 (48.6) when he led the NFL and established a new franchise single-season record.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN WEEK 14 ...

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- With a reception, Fitzgerald would have at least one catch in 240 consecutive games, the second-longest reception streak in NFL history (Jerry Rice - 274).
- With a TD reception, it would leave the Jets and Ravens as the only NFL franchises Fitzgerald does not have a TD reception against during the regular season.
- With 72 receiving yards, Fitzgerald would reach 17,000 receiving yards for his career.

LB Chandler Jones

- With a sack, Jones would have 14.0 sacks in 2019. That would tie for fifth on the franchise single-season sacks list. It would also tie his own franchise record for sacks through the first 13 games of a season, a mark he set in 2017 when he went on to lead the NFL with 17.0 sacks.
- With a sack, Jones would have 3.0 sacks in three career games vs. Pittsburgh.

QB Kyler Murray

- With two TD passes, Murray would establish a new franchise record for TD passes by a rookie. The current record of 15 was set by Jake Plummer in 1997.
- With 56 rushing yards, Murray would establish a new franchise record for rushing yards by a QB. The current record of 501 was set by Hall of Famer Charley Trippi in 1951.
- With 300 passing yards, Murray (5) would join Andrew Luck (6 in 2012) as the only players in NFL history with at least five 300-yard outings during their rookie season.

LB Terrell Suggs

- With a sack, Suggs (139.0) would pass DeMarcus Ware (138.5) for 8th place on the NFL's all-time sacks list.
- A sack of Steelers QB Devlin Hodges would make him the 77th different QB Suggs has sacked in his career. Suggs would tie Hall of Famer Reggie White (77) and Julius Peppers (77) for the most QBs sacked in a career.
- With a sack, Suggs would have 16.0 sacks in 30 career games vs. Pittsburgh.

RB David Johnson

- With a receiving TD, Johnson would become just the fifth player in NFL history with 30+ rushing TDs and 15+ receiving TDs in their first five NFL seasons.

LB Jordan Hicks

- With an INT, Hicks would become just the fifth Cardinals LB with at least four INTs in a season, joining Karlos Dansby (4 in 2013), Ronald McKinnon (5 in 1998), E.J. Junior (5 in 1985) and Leo Sanford (5 in 1956).

A TRUE DUAL THREAT AT QUARTERBACK

In addition to his franchise rookie record 2,866 passing yards this season, Murray's 446 rushing yards this year are the most for a rookie QB in franchise history. It also places him in elite company this season.

Murray and Baltimore's Lamar Jackson are the only QBs in the NFL that lead their team in rushing yards.

Murray joins Cam Newton (2011), Deshaun Watson (2017-18) and Robert Griffin III (2012) as the only players in NFL history with 2,500+ passing yards and 400+ rushing yards in their first 12 career games.

Despite being in his first season, Murray has been the key to the Cardinals significantly improved offense in 2019. His statistics this season bear out just how much the Cardinals have relied on their rookie signal-caller this season. He has:

427 pass attempts (8th in the NFL)

273 completions (7th in the NFL)

2,866 passing yards (14th in the NFL)

71 rush attempts (3rd among starting QBs)

Dating back to his final season in New England in 2015, Jones has at least 11.0 sacks in each of the last five seasons.

APPLYING A GREAT AMOUNT OF FORCE

In addition to being among the league leaders with 13.0 sacks, Jones is also tied for second in the NFL with a career-high five forced fumbles in 2019.

Notes on the Offensive Comparison - 2019 vs. 2018

- The Cardinals have 26 FGs through 12 games in 2019. That is over twice as many FGs as the team had all of last season (12).
- The Cardinals single-game high for passing yards last season was 252. Rookie QB Kyler Murray already has five performances that top that total (253, 308, 324, 340 and 349 yards) in 2019.
- Arizona had just one 100-yard receiving performance in 2018. Arizona has four 100-yard receiving performances in 2019, including two each by WRs Larry Fitzgerald and Christian Kirk.
- The Cards piled up a season-high 514 total yards in the victory over the Bengals in Week 5 (266 yards rushing and 248 net yards passing). It was just the second time in the last 11 seasons Arizona posted 500+ yards in a game. Prior to the win over the Bengals, the last time Arizona had 500+ total yards and 250+ rushing yards in a game was on 11/20/60 at Washington.

BIG PLAY BIRDS

After finishing the 2018 season with an NFL-low 61 "big plays" (runs of 10+ yards; pass plays of 20+ yards), the Cardinals already have 78 "big plays" in 2019.

Arizona is one of 11 teams in the NFL this season with 40+ "big play" runs and 30+ "big play" receptions.

BIG-PLAY RECEIVERS IN THE SECOND ROUND

In his senior year at Mayfield (OH) High School, Isabella made waves nationally in track, when his 60-meter time (6.72) was the fastest in the country. That speed provides Isabella with big-play potential, which has been on display with catch-and-runs that covered 88 and 55 yards.

Isabella is one of four rookies in the NFL this season that have multiple receptions of 50+ yards. All four were selected in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft - and were all taken in a span of 14 picks.

EXPANDING HIS RESUME WITH FIRST CAREER COMPLETION

Entering Week 9 at Tampa Bay, Lee had attempted two passes in his NFL career - one during the regular season and one in the postseason. His last pass attempt was in 2014 and he had never completed a pass.

That all changed at Raymond James Stadium when Lee connected with WR Pharoah Cooper for a 26-yard completion on a fake punt midway through the fourth quarter.

LB Jordan Hicks - signed as a free agent in the offseason after four seasons with the Eagles - has recorded 116 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 3 INTs, 8 tackles for loss, 6 QB hits, 6 passes defended and 2 forced fumbles in 2019.

ALREADY A CAREER HIGH IN FORCED FUMBLES

In his first four NFL seasons - spanning 43 games - Hicks had one career forced fumble. That came in his second-ever game in the NFL. Through 12 games with Arizona, Hicks already has a single-season career-high two forced fumbles in 2019.

AWARD-WINNING CARDINALS

The Cardinals have had two players win NFC Player of the Week and one player named NFC Player of the Month so far this season.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE MONTH (OCTOBER) - K ZANE GONZALEZ

Gonzalez was named "NFC Special Teams Player of the Month" for his performance in October (Weeks 5-8). During Arizona's three-game winning streak (Weeks 5-7) in October, Gonzalez made 8-of-9 field goals and all nine PATs in games the Cardinals won by a combined 10 points. In Arizona's Week 5 victory at Cincinnati, Gonzalez tied his single-game career high with four field goals, including a 31-yarder as time expired to give Arizona a 26-23 win. It was Gonzalez's second career game-winning field goal.

Gonzalez is the first Cardinals Player of the Month selection since 2017 when linebacker Chandler Jones won the defensive award in December. He becomes the first "Special Teams Player of the Month" since Justin Bethel was honored in December of 2014.

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (WEEK 6) - QB KYLER MURRAY

Murray had the best game of his young career in the Cardinals victory over the Falcons in Week 6. He completed 27-of-37 pass attempts (72.9%) for 340 yards, 3 TDs, 0 INTs and a 128.2 passer rating. His completion percentage, TD total and passer rating were all career highs.

Murray became just the second Cardinals rookie ever to be chosen as "NFC Offensive Player of the Week" and the first since RB Ronald Moore in 1993 (Weeks 14 & 17).

Murray became the ninth rookie in team history to be selected as NFC Player of the Week and the first since David Johnson (Special Teams, Week 2) in 2015.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (WEEK 7) - LB CHANDLER JONES

Jones was named the "NFC Defensive Player of the Week" for his performance in Arizona's 27-21 victory over the Giants, when he totaled a career-high 4.0 sacks, three tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. He became just the fifth NFL player since 2000 with 4.0 sacks, a forced fumble and fumble recovery in a game.

It was Jones' third career "Defensive Player of the Week" selection and his second with the Cardinals after winning the award last year in a Week 5 victory over the 49ers.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

PETERSON HOSTS THANKSGIVING GIVEAWAY

For the third year in a row, CB Patrick Peterson partnered with United Food Bank of Arizona to host a "Thanksgiving Giveaway."

Peterson and his teammates distributed 221 Thanksgiving meals to local families in need at the Eisenhower Center for Innovation in Mesa, AZ in November.

In addition to providing Thanksgiving meals, Peterson met, mingled and posed for photos with fans.

Peterson's first "Thanksgiving Giveaway" in partnership with the United Food Bank of Arizona also provided Thanksgiving meals to 221 Arizona families at Fees Prep Elementary School in Tempe.

PETERS JOINS TURKEY TROT

Cardinals DL Corey Peters addressed students at South Pointe Elementary School to kickoff their annual Turkey Trot last Tuesday (11/26).

He and his foundation, Peters Educational Enrichment Project, partnered with The Society of St. Vincent de Paul of Arizona to provide 24 pre-selected South Pointe families with a care package of food and hygiene products.

CARDS HOST "KINGPIN CHALLENGE"

The Cardinals and Cardinals Charities hosted the 12th annual bowling themed "Kingpin Challenge" in early November (11/4).

Attended by Cardinals players and coaches, "Kingpin Challenge" is the team's major fall fundraising event with proceeds benefitting Cardinals Charities.

A portion of this year's proceeds benefited Hyundai's "Hope on Wheels" program which is committed to funding pediatric cancer research and raising awareness for childhood cancer. In addition to bowling, the event included a cocktail hour and a silent auction. It also featured appearances by team mascot Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders.

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities supports programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in the state of Arizona.

FITZ AND GARTH TEAM UP

Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald partnered with country music artist and friend Garth Brooks to donate electronics to 32 schools in the Phoenix and Minneapolis metro areas to increase digital literacy.

In September (9/12), Fitzgerald and Brooks (via video call) visited Academia Del Pueblo, a low-income K-8 charter school in Phoenix, to announce their donation.

The visit was known by few, including principal Frank Lomeli, who said "place just absolutely erupted" when Fitzgerald was introduced.

"Technology bridges all gaps," Fitzgerald said in an interview with the Arizona Republic. "It doesn't matter what school you go to. A young person can sit down and learn about anything that they desire to learn about."

The donations include multiple devices from the Microsoft Store, which partnered with Brooks' Teammates for Kids Foundation and Fitzgerald's The First Down Fund. Digital literacy is described as the ability to understand and use digital tools "in communicative, collaborative ways" by the American Library Association.

CARDS HOST PRO VS. G.I. JOE PROGRAM

For the ninth consecutive year, several Cardinals players joined Cardinals Cheerleaders and team mascot Big Red in the Pro vs. G.I Joe program at the Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Training Center on Tuesday (12/3).

In conjunction with the Joint Forces Initiative, the Pro vs. G.I Joe program had players and military personnel, home and abroad, playing video games and communicating through a webcam on Xbox Live.

The Joint Forces Initiative is a private, non-profit organization that provides America's heroes the opportunity to play real-time video games, online and in-person, with professional athletes and celebrities.

CARDINALS SERVE THANKSGIVING DINNER

Last week (11/25), the Cardinals hosted its 18th annual "Feed the Hungry" event at the Phoenix Rescue Mission.

Team Chairman and President Michael Bidwill, Nicole Bidwill and a number of players including DL Zach Allen, LS Aaron Brewer, LB Dennis Gardeck and OL Justin Murray joined team employees, members from the Arizona Cardinals Women's Club, Cardinals Cheerleaders and team mascot Big Red to serve a Thanksgiving meal to the less fortunate.

"This is the 18th year that we've done this, and I do it every year because it's the beginning of the holiday season. I feel like we all get more out of it than we give," said Michael Bidwill. "Some of the people here are down on their luck, and this is a wonderful place, the Phoenix Rescue Mission."

"It's incredibly humbling to have an opportunity to come out here and serve meals. It's a good way to give back in a season when giving back is really important," said Gardeck.

CARDINALS VISIT PCH

Last Tuesday (11/26), a group from the Arizona Cardinals including RB Kenyan Drake, WR Andy Isabella, TE Maxx Williams, LB Dennis Gardeck, RB D.J. Foster, LS Aaron Brewer and LB Joe Walker joined members of the Cardinals Women's Club, team mascot Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders at Phoenix Children's Hospital for a birthday party in the Child Life Zone.

Each month, the Child Life Zone at PCH holds a party for all patients who have a birthday that month.

The Arizona Cardinals Women's Club sponsored the November birthday party, included games with the kids as well as pizza and cake.

CARDS "FEED THE FAMILIES"

In October (10/16), Cardinals RB David Johnson, LBs Dennis Gardeck and Joe Walker, Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders visited the Ronald McDonald House in Phoenix for a "Feed the Families" event hosted by the Arizona Cardinals Women's Club. The group from the Cardinals provided the families with dinner, drinks and dessert.

The Ronald McDonald House Charities of Phoenix provides a welcoming "home away from home" for children and their families who travel to Phoenix to receive treatment for serious, often life-threatening illnesses and injuries. They help lessen the burden by ensuring families have the stability they need to support their children by providing an atmosphere of comfort, hope and courage while also supporting programs that directly benefit children and their families in the community.

Prior to Fitzgerald, the longest span between leading the league in receptions was six by Jerry Rice (1990, 1996).
- Fitzgerald (11) joins Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (13) as the only wide receivers in NFL history to be named to the Pro Bowl at least 11 times.
- Fitzgerald had more receptions in his first 200 career games (1,116) than any player in NFL history.
- One of just seven players in NFL history to record at least 1,400 receiving yards in a season four times in their career: Jerry Rice (6), Julio Jones (5), Randy Moss (4), Marvin Harrison (4), Antonio Brown (4) and Andre Johnson (4).
- At 28 years, 74 days old, he became the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 70 career receiving TDs behind only Randy Moss (26 years, 269 days old) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (28 years, one day old).

- During the 2008 postseason, he broke virtually every major playoff receiving record, establishing new single-season marks for receptions (30), receiving yards (546) and TDs (7). His four 100-yard receiving games in the postseason established a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100 yards receiving.

The third-year safety delivered perhaps the best four-game stretch of his young career in Weeks 8-11, totaling 52 tackles, four tackles for loss, five passes defended and a fumble recovery during that span.

On TNF against the 49ers, Baker had 13 tackles, two for loss and a career-high three passes defended. He followed up that performance with 11 more tackles, two passes defended (one was intercepted by LB Jordan Hicks) and a fumble recovery against the Buccaneers in Week 10.

He book-ended those outings by tying a single-game career high with 14 tackles – including one for loss – against the Saints in Week 8 and matching that stat line against the 49ers in Week 11.

CARDS JOIN NFL TO CELEBRATE 100TH SEASON

The NFL is celebrating its 100th season in 2019. As the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence, the Cardinals hold a unique place in league history.

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 as the Morgan Athletic Club, predating the formation of the NFL by over 20 years. By the time the NFL was founded in 1920 as the American Professional Football Association (APFA), the team was known as the Racine Cardinals when it became one of the 14 charter members of the upstart league after paying a $100 franchise fee. Today, the Cardinals and Chicago Bears represent the only two charter members of the NFL still in existence.

In 1932, Hall of Fame owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., then a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals. After divesting himself of his Bears' holdings, that began a period of family ownership that continues to this day.

In 2019, the Cardinals have joined the NFL in celebrating 100 years of play with a year-long series of "NFL 100" events, initiatives and programs celebrating fans, players and communities.

The historic and unprecedented celebration is a salute to the millions of fans who love the game; highlighting the unifying nature of football and its positive impact in communities; bringing together generations of past, present and future players; and looking ahead to the NFL's next 100 years.

CARDS A MEMBER OF NFL'S TWO OLDEST RIVALRIES

Having met twice during the NFL's inaugural season in 1920, the Cardinals and Bears represent the oldest rivalry in league history. The Cardinals and Packers – who joined the league in 1921 – are the NFL's second-oldest rivalry. The Packers were formed in 1919 by Earl (Curly) Lambeau and George Calhoun but did not gain entry into the APFA until 1921.

1920 Racine Cardinals

- The Cards and Bears have faced each other 90 times during the regular season, dating back to 1920.
- The first-ever meeting between the Cardinals and Bears – then known as the Racine Cardinals and Decatur Staleys – occurred at Normal Park in Chicago on November 28th, 1920, exactly 72 days after the league was conceived as the APFA during a meeting in Canton, OH. In that game, the Cardinals defeated the Staleys 7-6 at Normal Park.
- The first meeting between the Cardinals and Packers (a 3-3 tie) occurred on November 20, 1921 at Normal Park in Chicago. The following week (November 27, 1921), the Packers and Bears met for the first time.

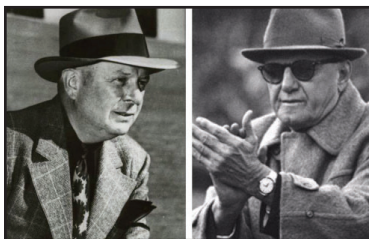

FRIENDSHIP OF THE HALL OF FAME OWNERS

Cardinals Hall of Fame owner Charles Bidwill and Bears Hall of Fame owner George Halas had a friendship that endured even as their team's were cross-town rivals during their shared time in Chicago.

At one point during the Great Depression, that friendship helped save Halas' ownership of the Bears.

In 1931, Halas' co-owner Edward "Dutch" Sternaman proposed being bought out of his stake in the Bears for $38,000, which was to be paid in installments. After suffering $18,000 in losses during the 1932 season, Halas was $15,000 short when the final payment was due in 1933. Defaulting on the payment meant ownership would revert to Sternaman.

"It was a case of finding $15,000 in a hurry, or losing everything I'd worked for since moving the Staleys from Decatur to Chicago in 1921," Halas wrote in 1967 in a history of the Bears published in the Chicago Tribune. "From this desperate situation, I was rescued by the joint efforts of my mother and my good friend Charley Bidwill. Mother bought $5,000 worth of stock from her savings. Bidwill purchased $5,000 in stock and also arranged a bank loan for the remaining $5,000 needed. But it was a mighty close call. As I remember, I finally got all the money together at 11:10 a.m. on the day the final note came due. Forfeit time was 12 o'clock noon."

A HISTORY OF BEING THE FIRST

In addition to being the oldest professional football team in the country, the Cardinals also have a long history of serving as a pioneer in the sport – both on and off the playing field.

DIVERSITY

1st Female Owner in NFL History: Following the 1947 death of Cardinals owner and Pro Football Hall of Fame Charles Bidwill, his wife Violet oversaw operations of the franchise for the next 15 years. As such, she became the first female to serve as principal owner in NFL history and is believed to be the first female owner in American pro sports.

Violet Bidwill

1st African American Female Executive in NFL History:

Adele Harris spent 26 seasons with the franchise before retiring in 2001. She holds the distinction of being the first African American female to hold a front office position with an NFL team. Harris first worked as a secretary for the St. Louis Football Cardinals from 1971-74. She left the club to pursue a degree in business management and returned to the team in 1978 as a publicity assistant. By 1980, Harris became the team's director of community relations, and was instrumental in the team's civic efforts when it relocated to Arizona in 1988. Harris passed away in November of 2007.

1st African American to Handle Contract Negotiations for NFL Team: In 1981, the team hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club.

1st African American Head Coach/General Manager Tandem: In 2004, the Cardinals hired Dennis Green as the team's head coach. Joining General Manager Rod Graves, they became the first African American general manager/head coach pairing. Hired by Arizona in 1997 as Assistant to the President, Graves spent 16 seasons with the organization, including the last six years at the team's GM.

1st Female Coach in NFL History: In 2015, the Cardinals hired Jen Welter as a coaching intern for training camp and the preseason to work with inside linebackers, making her the first female coach of any kind in NFL history.

INTERNATIONAL PLAY

1st NFL Game Outside of North America: The most popular sport in the United States played before an international audience for the first time ever when the Cardinals and San Diego Chargers met for a preseason matchup at Korakuen Stadium in Tokyo, Japan. On August 16, 1976 the Cardinals defeated the Chargers 20-10 before an estimated crowd of 38,000.

1st NFL Game in Europe: On August 6, 1983 the Cardinals faced the Minnesota Vikings in a preseason matchup at Wembley Stadium in London. The Vikings defeated the Cardinals 28-10 in front of 32,847 fans at the landmark event.

1st NFL Regular Season Game Played Outside United States: On October 2, 2005 the Cardinals earned a 17-point come-from-behind victory over the San Francisco 49ers in a game played in front of a then-record crowd of 103,467 at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca. It was the first NFL regular season game ever played outside of the US.

FOOTBALL FIRSTS

1st Night Game in NFL History:

On November 6, 1929 the Providence Steamrollers became the first team to host a game at night using floodlights in a matchup against the Cardinals. That night contest also featured the first use of a football painted white during an actual game. With fan attendance crucial to generate revenue, the game was played in the evening rather than during the workday. The minor league baseball field of Kinsley Park was adorned with floodlights and the Cards earned a 16-0 victory over the Steamrollers.

NFL's 1st Night Game - 11/6/29

1st Out of Town Training Camp: Prior to the 1929 season, the Cardinals conducted what is believed to be the NFL's first extended out-of-town training camp when the team spent the summer at Waterworks Park in Coldwater, Michigan.

1st Indoor NFL Game: With the country struggling through the Great Depression in late 1930, the Chicago Cardinals challenged the cross-town Bears to play a game to raise money for the governor's fund for unemployment relief. To battle the freezing temperatures the teams agreed to play at Chicago Stadium, then the largest indoor arena in the world. On December 15, 1930 the Bears earned a 9-7 victory in front of 10,000 fans. Six inches of dirt were hauled in and rolled for a playing surface, forcing the teams to use a white ball to increase visibility for both the players and fans. In addition to raising thousands of dollars for charity, it was a precursor to the 1932 championship when the Bears played for the NFL title in the same venue against the Portsmouth Spartans.

1st Retractable Grass Field in NFL History: When the Cardinals opened their new stadium in 2006, the venue broke the mold in terms of design and architecture. Among its most unique features is a fully retractable grass playing surface that resides outside the stadium for 300+ days a year and rolls in when needed. The first of its kind in NFL history, the stadium's grass playing surface has consistently ranked #1 in surveys of the league's players.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

The 2019 season is the 13th since Michael Bidwill took over as team President in 2007. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

- Leading the list of Bidwill's accomplishments with the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. Since it opened in 2006, the team has sold out all 142 games (preseason and postseason included) played at the venue, which has also hosted a pair of Super Bowls.

- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII and XLIX, he led the effort to land Super Bowl LVII (2023) in the spring of 2018. Michael was instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to Arizona; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX and the 2015 Pro Bowl combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

- Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's 12 years as team president. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests since Bidwill took over in 2007.

- AZ has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice during Bidwill's time as president (2008, 2015), including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).

- Arizona's 50 wins between 2013-17 were the most in any five-year span in franchise history.

- In January of 2016, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame.

- In January of 2018, Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee.

- In January of 2019, Michael received the Paul Tagliabue Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance for demonstrating integrity and leadership in the area of career development for minorities and advocating for diversity.

There were only 12 total games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

Below is a look at the results at State Farm Stadium compared to 18 seasons at Sun Devil Stadium.

Having a sellout crowd on hand every game has given Arizona one of the NFL's most distinct home field advantages.

Dating back to the inaugural year at State Farm Stadium in 2006, Cards opponents have accumulated 177 accepted false start penalties in the regular season. That is the most for any home team in the NFL during that span.

"It was the most fun I've had playing football, and I had a lot of fun in college," Palmer said of his time with the Cardinals. "I had some fun playing for the Bengals, but it's the most fun I've had playing the game. I met some unbelievable (people). It's not just the coaches and the players. It's everybody that's affiliated with this organization."

THE KINGSBURY ERA BEGINS IN ARIZONA

TAKING THE REINS

On January 8, 2019 the Cardinals announced the hiring of Kliff Kingsbury as the team's head coach.

The 40-year old Kingsbury spent the past six seasons (2013-18) as the head coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech, and was hired as USC's offensive coordinator in December. The New Braunfels, TX native is an 11-year coaching veteran who has also worked at Texas A&M (2012) and at the University of Houston (2008-11) where he began his coaching career.

Recognized as one of the profession's brightest and most-innovative offensive minds, Kingsbury has tutored six future NFL QBs, including first-round selections Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield and Johnny Manziel as well as Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. Under Kingsbury's guidance, Mahomes (2016) and Keenum (2009, '11) both led the nation in passing.

Highlights from Kingsbury's Coaching Career

- While at Texas Tech, Kingsbury served as the play-caller for one of college football's most explosive and productive offenses. The Red Raiders featured a passing attack that ranked in the top-10 in the country in all six seasons of his tenure, ranked in the top-20 nationally for total offense in all six seasons and finished in the top-25 in scoring five times.
- Under Kingsbury, Texas Tech averaged at least 30 points per game, 470 total yards per game and 300 passing yards per game in all six seasons. The Red Raiders averaged more than 500 yards of offense in four seasons and over 450 passing yards twice. They also averaged at least 140 rushing yards per game four times in six seasons under Kingsbury and averaged more than 40 points per game twice.
- At both Houston (2011) and Texas Tech (2016) Kingsbury's offenses led the nation in total offense and passing offense.
- Dating back to his first offensive coordinator job at Houston in 2011, a Kingsbury-led offense never finished outside the top-20 in the nation in total offense and never finished outside the top-15 in passing offense.
- In 2016, Texas Tech led the nation in total offense (566.6 ypg) and passing offense (463.0 ypg) while finishing #5 in scoring (43.7 ppg). It was the sixth consecutive season a Kingsbury-led unit finished in the top-10 in total offense dating back to his time at both Houston and Texas A&M.
- In 2015, the Red Raiders finished #2 in the nation in total offense (579.5 ypg), #2 in scoring offense (45.1 ppg) and had the nation's second ranked passing offense (388.2 ypg). The 45.1 points per game average established a school single-season record and Texas Tech was one of just two schools in the nation to score at least 25 points in every game. The Red Raiders featured a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in school history.
- With Kingsbury serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2011, Houston led the nation in total offense (599.1 ypg), passing offense (450.1 ypg) and scoring (49.3 ppg) as quarterback Case Keenum finished his collegiate career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history.

Kingsbury spent the 2012 season at Texas A&M as offensive coordinator/QBs coach working under current University of Arizona head coach Kevin Sumlin. Texas A&M finished third nationally in total offense (558.5 ypg) with an attack that finished 13th nationally in rushing (242.1 ypg) and 14th in passing (316.5 ypg). The Aggies beat #1 Alabama on the road and #11 Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl.

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston under Sumlin as the offensive quality control coach (2008-09) prior to being elevated to QBs coach (2010) and then co-offensive coordinator in 2011.

Kingsbury played QB at Texas Tech (1999-2002) where he set 39 school records, 16 Big 12 marks and 17 NCAA records during his collegiate career while throwing for 12,423 yards and 95 TDs. As a senior in 2012, he was awarded the Sammy Baugh Trophy as the nation's top college QB and was also named the Associated Press Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year while finishing ninth in Heisman Trophy voting.

He was drafted in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by New England in 2003 and spent his rookie season on the Patriots injured reserve list before spending the 2004 season on the Saints practice squad. Kingsbury played in one game with the Jets in 2005 and attended training camp with the Bills in 2006. He also played with the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe in 2006 before playing with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 2007.

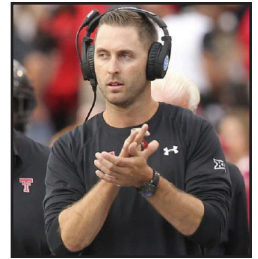

In 2018, Kingsbury was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame. He played high school football under his father, Tim, at New Braunfels (TX) High School where he threw for more than 3,000 yards and 34 TDs as a senior.

HIGH POWERED OFFENSES

During his eight seasons as an offense coordinator/head coach at the college level (2011 w/Houston through 2018 w/Texas Tech), Kingsbury's offenses averaged 40.3 points/game. During his six seasons at Texas Tech (2013-18), the Red Raiders averaged 37.8 points/game.

After joining the coaching ranks with the University of Houston in 2008, Kliff Kingsbury mentored six future NFL QBs during his coaching tenure: Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield, Johnny Manziel, Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. ^1st Freshman ever to win Heisman Trophy

Mahomes (Texas Tech)

Under Kingsbury's tutelage, Mahomes spent two full seasons (2015-16) as the starter at Texas Tech. In those two years the Red Raiders finished #2 (2015) and #1 (2016) in the nation in total offense while Mahomes threw for a combined 9,705 yards and 77 TDs in 25 starts.

As a sophomore in 2015, Mahomes became the youngest QB in NCAA history to amass 5,000 yards of total offense. He eclipsed the 5,000-yard mark again in 2016, becoming just the third quarterback ever to record 5,000+ yards of total offense in back-to-back seasons.

Keenum (Univ. of Houston)

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston where he was a quality control coach from 2008-09 before being promoted to QBs coach in 2010 and co-offensive coordinator in 2011. The Cougars led the nation in total offense, passing offense and scoring in 2011, while Keenum completed his record-setting career by placing seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting and winning the Sammy Baugh Award.

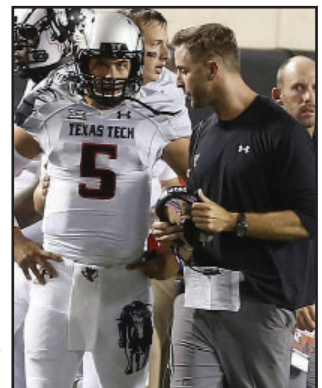

With Kingsbury calling plays, the Cougars averaged 599.1 total yards per game, including 450.1 through the air, while scoring over 49 points per game. Keenum wrapped up his career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history. In his one season with Kingsbury as his QBs coach, Keenum completed 428-of-604 passes for 5,631 yards and 48 TDs, all of which led the NCAA FBS.

Manziel (Texas A&M)

Prior to taking over at Texas Tech, Kingsbury spent one season (2012) as the offensive coordinator at Texas A&M. In his lone season with the Aggies, Kingsbury played a crucial role in Manziel becoming the first freshman ever to win the Heisman Trophy.

Webb and Shimonek (Texas Tech)

Two other Kingsbury quarterbacks have also moved on to the league in recent years as Webb was selected by the New York Giants in the third round of the 2017 draft while Shimonek signed an undrafted free agent agreement with the Los Angeles Chargers in 2018.
