ARIZONA CARDINALS VS. SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS

Levi's Stadium | September 13, 2020 | 1:25 PM

THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

Week 1 is here.

Following the most unique, unpredictable and unprecedented offseason ever, the league's 101st season begins. For the Cardinals it commences with a Sunday visit to Levi's Stadium to face the defending NFC Champion 49ers.

Sunday's game in Santa Clara marks the 58th all-time meeting between the Cardinals and 49ers and the sixth time they've met in a season-opener. Arizona is 3-2 in Week 1 matchups against San Francisco and 4-2 at Levi's Stadium. They face a division-rival that won both games last season to snap the Cardinals eight-game winning streak in the series.

Returning for his 17th season with the Cardinals is WR Larry Fitzgerald, who this week will face the 49ers for the 33rd time. The other 24 offensive players on the Cardinals roster have played a combined 40 games against San Francisco during their time in Arizona.

Joining Fitzgerald is DeAndre Hopkins - the All-Pro wideout who was acquired by Arizona in a trade this offseason. After seven historic seasons in Houston - Hopkins now combines with Fitzgerald to form a WR duo that has accumulated 15 Pro Bowl selections, 2,010 career receptions, 25,685 receiving yards and 174 TD catches.

After going #1 and #2 overall in the 2019 NFL Draft, Cards QB Kyler Murray and San Francisco DE Nick Bosa face each other for the third time after taking home NFL Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year honors last season. It was just the fourth time since rookie of the year awards began in 1967 that the players taken #1 and #2 overall took home the awards.

Back for his fifth season in Arizona, All-Pro LB Chandler Jones resumes his record-setting run with the Cardinals. He begins the season this week just seven sacks shy of becoming the franchise all-time sacks leader. During his time in Arizona, Jones has started off fast, with at least one sack in all four season-openers with the team.

Sunday will also mark the Cardinals debut of veteran LBs Devon Kennard and DeVondre Campbell and DL Jordan Phillips - Arizona's first three signings during the offseason free agency period.

Set to make his NFL debut this week at Levi's Stadium is the headliner of the Cardinals 2020 draft class - 2019 Butkus Award winner and 8th overall pick LB Isaiah Simmons.

Whatever course the 2020 season takes - and if the last six months have taught us anything, it's to expect the unexpected - the journey begins now.

CARDS vs. NINERS ALL-TIME SERIES

The Cardinals and 49ers meet for the 58th time in a series that dates back to 1951. This game will mark the 37th meeting between the two teams since division realignment in 2002.

In the 19 seasons they have been division rivals (2002-20), the 49ers hold a 19-17 advantage in the series. Arizona had taken eight in a row in the series between the two teams before San Francisco won both games in 2019 - in a pair of close contests that came down to the final possession in each.

The 2020 season marks the sixth time the Cardinals and Niners have faced off in a season-opener - and the first time since 2009. They squared off in Week 1 for the first time in 1957 and then in four consecutive seasons from 2006-09. Arizona is 3-2 against San Francisco in season-openers.

Arizona enters Sunday's game with a 4-2 record all-time at Levi's Stadium. Their four-game winning streak at the venue was snapped last season.

Kliff Kingsbury became an NFL head coach for the first time when he was hired by the Cardinals on January 11, 2019, coming to Arizona after six seasons (2013-18) as the head coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech. In Kingsbury's first season with the Cardinals, the offense went from #32 overall in scoring in 2018 to #16 in 2019 and went from #32 overall in scoring drives in 2018 to number #9. Known for his work with QBs in the college ranks, Kingsbury helped guide first-year signal-caller Kyler Murray, the #1 overall pick in the 2019 draft, to AP NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors last season. While at Texas Tech, Kingsbury served as the play-caller for one of college football's most explosive offenses that ranked in the top-20 in total offense all six seasons. A former star QB at Texas Tech, Kingsbury was drafted by the Patriots in the sixth round of the 2003 NFL Draft and also spent time with the Saints and Jets during his playing career.

Hired as the 20th head coach in 49ers history on February 6, 2017, Kyle Shanahan begins his fourth season at the helm in San Francisco. The Niners are coming off a 13-3 season in 2019 that saw the team earn its first NFC West title since 2012 on the way to an NFC title and a spot in Super Bowl LIV. Now in his 17th season in the NFL coaching ranks, Shanahan previously spent nine seasons as an offensive coordinator with Atlanta (2015-16), Cleveland (2014), Washington (2010-13) and Houston (2008-09). After playing collegiately at Duke and the University of Texas, Shanahan coached at the college level with UCLA in 2003.

KEEPING UP WITH THE CARDINALS

Last year the Cardinals launched a new media site on NFL Online Media Guide (www.NFLOMG.com).

The all-encompassing media resource will take on special importance in following the Cardinals in 2020. Due to safety precautions put in place during the ongoing COVID-19 outbreak, hard copies of the game release, game books, transcripts and other team produced materials will not be passed out during the week or on game day at State Farm Stadium.

The Cardinals OMG site will be updated continuously and will include the following and more:

- Traditional media guide information
- Player bios that will feature career and seasons stats updated in real-time.
- Official league statistics from NFL GSIS
- Tweet-ready charts and stat grids that update in real time
- Customizable in-game reports
- Final game books and statistics
- Records and milestones tracked live
- Postgame quotes

- Arizona's 24.5% roster turnover is the second-lowest of GM Steve Keim's tenure (20.8% in 2016) and is less than half the turnover the team saw between 2018-19 (52.8%).

ZOOMING IN ON ARIZONA

Among the many safety precautions taken at the outset of the COVID-19 pandemic earliest this year were changes in the way athletes and the media interact.

On March 23 - with both players and most media working from home - Cardinals newly acquired LB Devon Kennard became the first NFL player ever to hold a press conference conducted entirely via Zoom.

Over the next 142 days, Arizona held over 50 press conference with players and staff before Kennard returned to speak with media over Zoom on the first day of training camp.

His was the first of 66 virtual press availabilities over the three weeks of training camp.

STAY INFORMED OF MEDIA SCHEDULE

All media availability with Cardinals players and coaches this season will be conducted virtually via Zoom.

Members of the media are strongly encouraged to follow the Cardinals Media Relations Twitter account (@AZCardinalsMR) to receive up-to-the-minute info on times and participants for player and coach Zoom media availability both during the week and on game days.

EXTRAORDINARY DUO

With the acquisition of WR DeAndre Hopkins this offseason, the Cardinals receiving corps now includes the only wideout to earn 1st-Team All-Pro honors each of the last three seasons (Hopkins) and the receiver who currently ranks second in NFL history in both receptions and receiving yards (Larry Fitzgerald).

Between the two All-Pros, Fitzgerald and Hopkins have combined for:

Statistic	Total
Total Seasons Played	23
Pro Bowls	15
1 st -Team All-Pro Selections	4
Games Played	360
Seasons of 1,000+ Receiving Yards	14
Seasons of 10+ TD Receptions	8

Receiving Yards	25,685

In their combined 23 NFL seasons (368 possible games), Fitzgerald and Hopkins have missed a total of eight contests. Neither player has ever posted of a season of fewer than 50 receptions or fewer than 700 receiving yards.

GREAT THINGS ACCOMPLISHED AT A YOUNGE AGE

In Week 11 of the 2019 season at Baltimore, Hopkins (27 years, 5 months, 12 days) became the second-youngest player in NFL history to reach 600 career receptions - behind only Larry Fitzgerald.

DeAndre Hopkins	27 years, 5 months, 12 days	2013-19

Three weeks prior (Week 8 vs. Oakland), Hopkins (27 years, 4 months, 22 days) became the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 8,000 career receiving yards behind only Fitzgerald and Hall of Famer Randy Moss.

POTENTIAL MILESTONES IN 2020

- With 13.0 sacks in 2020, would join Hall of Famer Reggie White as the only players in NFL history with 13.0+ sacks in four consecutive seasons.

CARDINALS TAKE PART IN PUSH FOR JUSTICE

Throughout the 2020 season, Cardinals players and coaches will join the rest of the NFL in honoring and memorializing victims of systemic racism and showing their support for Social Justice efforts by displaying names or phrases as decals on the back of their helmets and patches on their caps.

The season-long effort highlights the actions being taken to reach solutions, engages fans to act, and gives players and coaches a platform on gameday to share their voice and efforts to inspire change. Together, the NFL is joining its players and coaches in building awareness, educating fans, and paying homage to those who deserve to have their legacies live on.

The NFL will partner with players to tell the stories of the victims or phrase that they have chosen to honor on their helmets. Fans will be able to learn more about these stories and how to get involved at nfl.com/inspirechange.

Among the Cardinals players taking part in the campaign in 2020:

CARDINALS SPEAKING UP

Throughout the offseason, numerous Cardinals players spoke up about their own experiences and the importance of coming together to make meaningful change a reality in the United States.

DL Corey Peters - 8/28/20

DL Corey Peters spoke about how important it is that everyone engage in the conversations and understand other viewpoints:

"One thing we want to do is be sensitive to one another, have compassion for one another and you know, we can disagree with certain things peacefully and all work towards the same goal of not only winning but make this a better country for everybody."

OL D.J. Humphries - 8/28/20

OL D.J. Humphries spoke about his children being a major motivator in trying to help bring about change:

"I know how to accept what the world has for you. I know how to maneuver in this world. But for my children, that's not what I want. I want my children to grow up in a fair world and grow up in a world where what the Constitution says is how it really is."

Head Coach Kliff Kingsbury - 8/27/2020

Kingsbury talked about what the Cardinals players and coaches have been discussing and learning from each other during recent events across the country:

"I had a great conversation with my dad over the summer, and his perspective on things that was really valuable as we get closer to the season – the anthem, discussions and things of that nature."

"My dad was a longtime football coach but also a Marine. He served in Vietnam, received a Purple Heart. Talking to him, there were two words that really stood out. One was respect, and the second thing was understanding. Respect viewpoints people have on this topic. They're very personal and very passionate. And respect their right to express themselves."

"You've got to understand, at its core, what this is really about. It's always been about drawing attention to the social injustice that continues to take place. We saw it again this week with Jacob Blake. It's about increasing awareness that racism exists, police brutality against people of color continues to happen, and let's not confuse it with something else and make the narrative different."

"My biggest takeaway from talking to my dad is that kneeling doesn't reflect a lack of patriotism or respect for the military in any way, just like standing during the anthem doesn't mean you're OK with racism or social injustice. It's important to respect and understand that. These are important issues that need to be addressed, and important conversations that need to be had. I'm grateful that I've been able to be around a great group of guys that have enlightened me – hearing their stories and their struggles. Those conversations will continue throughout the year. I just hope we can all continue to push in the right direction."

QB Kyler Murray - 6/17/20

Following the death of George Floyd and the resulting protests around the country, Murray spoke the change he saw happening in real time:

"There is a lot of hate in this world, but at the same time, what's happening and what we're seeing right now, it's huge. I don't condone rioting and stuff like that, but the peaceful protests, I think they're great, they're amazing. Whether it takes years, I feel like we're getting there. At least we're making a step towards it."

EXTENDING BUDDA

On August 25, the Cardinals signed S Budda Baker to a four-year contract extension that keeps the Pro Bowl defender under contract with Arizona through the 2024 season. His contract was set to expire at the end of this season.

Head coach Kliff Kingsbury has called Baker "just a stud human overall," and the kind of player the Cardinals want in the organization. "He's one of those guys with the unique ability to never stop moving his feet through contact. He's fearless, and he's a great leader. Our entire defense feeds off his energy and the way he approaches the game."

Baker was selected to two Pro Bowls in his first three seasons with the Cardinals after the team moved up nine spots in the second-round of the 2017 NFL Draft to select him #36 overall. The former Washington Husky standout became the first player in franchise history selected to the Pro Bowl as a special teamer (2017) and as a position player (2019).

"The bottom line is you can't find a player who plays with more intensity and passion," GM Steve Keim said of Baker after the deal was announced. "I can promise you there's very few of those guys across the National Football League. When you talk to guys like (Steelers head coach) Mike Tomlin and other coaches across the league prior to the game, the one name that comes up quite a bit is Budda Baker: 'That guy's different.'"

During his first three NFL seasons, Baker appeared in 46 games (36 starts) and had 324 tackles, 18 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, 14 passes defended, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries.

COLLECTING TALENT FROM STATE #48

The Cardinals Week 1 roster includes six players who played either high school or college football in the state of Arizona. That includes 2020 seventh round pick RB Eno Benjamin - who had a record-breaking career at Arizona State. Benjamin (222nd overall) was selected in nearly the same spot as the last ASU player drafted before him: S Pat Tillman (7th round, 226th overall) in 1998.

The selection of Benjamin in 2020 marked the third consecutive year that the Cards drafted a player who played high school or college football in Arizona. In 2018 the team drafted WR Christian Kirk and in 2019 it was CB Byron Murphy Jr.

Arizona Products on the Cardinals Roster

A LOCAL KID RETURNS TO AZ, FOLLOWS IN FATHER'S CARDINALS FOOTSTEPS

One of the Cardinals top signings of the 2020 free agency period was LB Devon Kennard. HE is the son of former Cardinals offensive lineman Derek Kennard Sr., who also played for the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in addition to the Saints and Cowboys, helping Dallas win Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, AZ.

Following his playing career, Derek returned to Arizona to raise his family. Devon grew up in Phoenix and starred at Desert Vista High School before attending USC.

When Devon takes the field on Sunday in San Francisco, the Kennards will become the third father-son duo to play for the Cardinals, joining the Butlers (Kevin and Drew) and the Metcalfs (Terry and Eric).

WOLFLEY HEADING TO WVU HALL OF FAME

Last week it was announced that former Cardinals Pro Bowl FB - and current team radio color analyst Ron Wolfley was named to the West Virginia University Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2020.

Prior to being selected by the Cardinals in the fourth round (104th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft, Wolfley played four seasons at WVU where he rushed for 1,296 yards and 10 TDs. He helped the team accumulate a 35-13 record and earn four bowl game berths.

Wolfley played 10 seasons in the NFL, including seven (1985-91) with the Cardinals where he earned four consecutive Pro Bowl selections (1986-89).

LEKI FOTU - ROUND 4a (114TH) - UTAH

- Name pronounced LECK-ee / FOH-too
- Fotu was a star rugby player growing up. He played on the USA Rugby Boys High School All-American team and also trained with the London Wasps' rugby team in 2013. He returned for his senior year, earned All-State honors and a scholarship to Utah.
- As a senior in 2019, Fotu was a team captain who earned 2nd-Team All-America honors and was named 1st-team All-Pac-12.

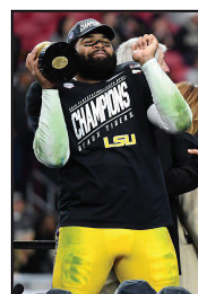

ISAIAH SIMMONS - ROUND 1 (8TH) - CLEMSON

- Simmons was the first linebacker selected in the 2020 draft.
- A major reason Simmons chose to wear jersey #48 with the Cardinals was that Arizona is the 48th state.
- In 2019, became the first FBS player since Buffalo's Khalil Mack (2013) to record at least 100 tackles, 16 tackles for loss, 8.0 sacks and multiple INTs in a season.
- Posted a team-high 107 tackles (16.0 for loss), 8.0 sacks, 10 passes defended, three INTs, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in 15 games (all starts) last season.
- The 2019 Butkus Award Winner (nation's top LB), Simmons was named unanimous 1st-Team All-American and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year. Initially recruited as a safety, it took Simmons just two seasons to become the top linebacker in college football.
- At the 2020 NFL Combine, Simmons ran a 4.39 40-yard dash, tied for the seventh-best total at any position.
- A versatile talent, Simmons lined up at five different positions for Clemson in 2019 and played at least 100 snaps at safety, inside linebacker, outside linebacker and slot cornerback.
- Was a two-time state champion in the long jump in high school and also participated on the track team at Clemson during his redshirt freshman season. "Oh my gosh, I'm telling you, the kid could have been an Olympian," Clemson track coach Chris Bostwick said of Simmons. "He had that kind of ability."

- Played the best game of his college career at State Farm Stadium. In LSU's Fiesta Bowl win over UCF in January of 2019, he earned Fiesta Bowl Defensive MVP honors after totaling five tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks.
- A two-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Lawrence graduated from LSU with a degree in Sports Administration and had a grade point average over 3.0.

ENO BENJAMIN - ROUND 7 (222ND) - ASU

- First ASU player drafted by the Cardinals since the team took S Pat Tillman (7th round, 226th overall) in 1998.
- A star at ASU, Benjamin was the "Most Hated Man in Tucson." He has a clothing line that includes a T-shirt emblazoned with "Tucson's Most Hated."

- Broke the ASU single-season rushing record (1,642 yards in 2018) and single-game rushing record (312 yards vs Oregon in 2018).
- Like 2019 Offensive Rookie of the Year Kyler Murray, Benjamin was a record-breaking high school player in the state of Texas. Their hometowns were just 12.5 miles apart and both earned All-American honors during their prep careers.

JOSH JONES - ROUND 3 (72ND) - HOUSTON

- Drafted by Arizona at #72 overall, ProFootballFocus.com had him listed as the 14th-best player in the 2020 NFL Draft.
- In four seasons at Houston (2016-19), started all 45 games he appeared in at left tackle.
- Wasn't the most highly-recruited football prospect coming out of George Bush High School, mainly because until his senior year his focus was basketball. As a sophomore, he played alongside current Phoenix Suns standout Kelly Oubre, Jr.
- Jones did get some attention as a football recruit in high school. He was recruited by then-Texas Tech head coach Kliff Kingsbury as well as Sean Kugler, then the head coach at UTEP.
- As a senior at Houston last season, Jones allowed just one sack, no QB hits, and three hurries. Pro Football Focus gave him a 93.2 grade for the year, the highest grade ever given to a collegiate offensive tackle.

CARDINALS COVID-19 RELIEF EFFORTS (TEAM INITIATIVES)

Since the COVID-19 pandemic hit the country earlier this year the effects of the outbreak have reached every corner of the U.S. and has had a devastating impact on citizens and businesses across the nation. The Cardinals organization – along with the players and staff – immediately mobilized to donate time, money and other resources throughout Arizona to assist the individuals, businesses, schools, frontline health care personnel and other organizations that have been so greatly affected by the crisis.

$1 MILLION FOUNDING CONTRIBUTION TO THE AZ CORONAVIRUS RELIEF FUND

On March 24, the Cardinals made a $1 million founding contribution to the AZ Coronavirus Relief Fund. As part of the Arizona Together initiative launched earlier that day by Governor Doug Ducey, the fund was set up established to provide financial support to organizations working to mitigate the impacts of COVID-19 in Arizona. Initially, it focused on the following immediate needs:

- Funding of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) for frontline medical personnel.
- Non-profit organizations that support the most vulnerable Arizonans through food banks, homeless shelters, domestic violence facilities, and other services.
- Providing disadvantaged students with the technology necessary to transition to online learning.

“Like so many in our community, this unprecedented crisis has us asking what we can do to help and what might have the greatest impact,” said Cardinals Owner Michael Bidwill said of the donation. “We are grateful for the creation of this relief fund, and proud to support its critically important mission and hope that others throughout the community can join this effort in whatever way that they are able. As a team, we will continue to work on additional ways to make a difference and know that as a community we will get through this challenging time together.”

To assist local businesses during the crisis, the Cardinals made a $100,000 donation to Local First Arizona, Arizona’s Coronavirus Micro Grant Fund

MILLION MEALS DONATION TO LOCAL FOOD BANKS

In early April, the Cardinals and State Farm partnered on an historic initiative to address a pressing local need arising from the COVID-19 pandemic. The number of people seeking assistance from local food banks more than doubled as a result of the unparalleled crisis. Unfortunately, the number of donations to them decreased just as dramatically.

As part of their on-going commitment to improve the local community, State Farm and the Cardinals helped tackle the issue by donating over a million 1,000,000 meals that were distributed to five non-profit organizations throughout the Valley. The five groups involved in the “Million Meal” donation were:

- St. Mary’s Food Bank
- St. Vincent DePaul
- United Food Bank
- Phoenix Rescue Mission
- Midwest Food Bank

ORGANIZATION LAUNCHES “CARDINALS CARRY-OUT” INITIATIVE TO ASSIST INDEPENDENT, LOCALLY OWNED RESTAURANTS

On April 13 the team launched “Cardinals Carry-out” - an unprecedented initiative with a dual purpose: assist independent, locally-owned restaurants hit hard by the coronavirus crisis and recognize those working on the front lines of the pandemic in the medical community, law enforcement and emergency services.

Cardinals players and fans nominated their favorite establishments for inclusion on the team’s interactive statewide map and supported them with take-out business.

In the spirit of the NFL Draft, the team selected establishments from the map each day and purchased meals which were delivered to nurses, doctors, first responders and others who work daily to combat the impact of COVID-19.

When it was launched, the first 47 establishments on the map reflected the favorites of Cardinals players and staff as well as those near area hospitals suggested by Local First Arizona. Within the first week, over 800 restaurants throughout the state have been added based on recommendations from fans.

“It’s great that a major sports team would put together such a thing that is community driven and helps restaurants navigate these tough times...we’re kind of in survival mode but we’re going to make it out,” said Chris Hove, owner of Perfect Pear Bistro in Chandler which was recommended by defensive lineman Zach Allen.

HOSTING CRITICAL BLOOD DRIVES, DRIVE-THROUGH TESTING AND PPE DRIVES AT STATE FARM STADIUM

One area hit particularly hard by the COVID-19 crisis was the local blood donation community, where the supply reached critically low levels during a crucial time in March. In a seven-day span between March 19 and March 26, nearly 200 blood drives in Arizona were cancelled, resulting in the loss of more than 5,000 blood donations for hospital patients.

To assist in meeting this direly pressing need, the Cardinals partnered with Dignity Health and Cigna to host a major one-day blood drive at State Farm Stadium. In conjunction with Scottsdale-based Vitalant (pronounced “vye-TAL-ent” and formerly known as United Blood Services) the event took place at State Farm Stadium on March 31. All donation slots for the drive were filled within hours of the event being announced.

The outpouring of support from the community resulted in two additional blood drives being scheduled at State Farm Stadium. On back-to-backs on April 7-8, in conjunction with the American Red Cross, the Cardinals partnered with Anheuser-Busch to host blood drives at State Farm Stadium and all donation slots were again filled.

On April 15, the Cardinals and Project C.U.R.E hosted a Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) drive at State Farm Stadium. The event was to help collect equipment for use by those in the local healthcare community, including eye protection, face shields, surgical masks, N95 masks, gloves, shoe covers and hand sanitizer.

In May, the Cardinals and Dignity Health partnered to participate in the state’s drive-through COVID-19 testing blitz by hosting events open to the public at State Farm Stadium.

CARDINALS COVID-19 RELIEF EFFORTS (PLAYER INITIATIVES)

KLIFF KINGSBURY – $50,000 DONATION TO THE NAVAJO RELIEF FUND (NRF)

The Native American population in Arizona was hit particularly hard by the COVID-19 outbreak and the Cardinals head coach was among the many who stepped up to help. In April, Kingsbury donated $50,000 to the Navajo Relief Fund to assist one of the communities that was most affected – the Navajo Nation. The NRF was established to help with the shortage of healthy food, safe drinking water, healthcare and supply stores in remote reservation communities. During the pandemic, the fund served as urgent need in making available food, water and other basic supplies.

DEANDRE HOPKINS – $150,000 DONATION TO THE ARIZONA CORONAVIRUS RELIEF FUND; #THEREALHEROES PROJECT

It didn't take long for the All-Pro wideout to make a significant impact in Arizona. On March 27, 2020 - just a week after being acquired by the Cardinals — Hopkins announced a $150,000 donation to the AZ Coronavirus Relief Fund, which was established to provide financial support to multiple organizations trying to deal with the impact of COVID-19. Money raised by Arizona Relief Fund goes to purchasing Personal Protective Equipment for medical personnel working with the coronavirus patients; supporting non-profits that aid the most vulnerable such as food banks, homeless shelters and domestic violence facilities; and providing technology for disadvantaged students needed for online learning.

Hopkins was among the sports stars who participated in a national project to recognize and celebrate health care workers for their efforts on the front lines of the coronavirus pandemic. "The Real Heroes Project" was a collaboration involving Hopkins and athletes from a combined 14 leagues. Others include New Orleans Saints QB Drew Brees, New York Yankees All-Star outfielder Aaron Judge, U.S. women's soccer stars Carli Lloyd and Alex Morgan, and Hockey Hall of Famer Wayne Gretzky. In the PSA – which was released on National Nurses Day - Hopkins recognized local nurse Tracy Thomas, an RN at Dignity Health St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center. She was selected in recognition of the incredible work she has done leading the COVID-19 Response

CHANDLER JONES – DONATED 150,000 MEALS TO FOOD BANKS IN ARIZONA AND NEW YORK

In late March, the Cardinals All-Pro LB donated over 150,000 meals to food banks in both Arizona and his hometown of Endicott, NY to assist with families affected by the Coronavirus outbreak. Jones provided meals to St. Mary's Food Bank and Midwest Food Bank of Arizona while also donating to Mother Teresa's Cupboard through the Catholic Charities of Broome County in New York.

JORDAN HICKS – $100,000 TO IMPACT CHURCH COVID-19 RELIEF EFFORTS; ANIMAL ADOPTION INITIATIVE

Following a career year on the field in his first season with Arizona, Hicks joined his wife, Ivana, to announce in April that they would match and donate up to $100,000 to their church in Scottsdale – Impact Church – to assist single mothers during the pandemic. Those efforts included providing meals and helping cover rent and mortgage payments. Hicks' donation also helped facilitate a COVID-19 drive-through testing initiative at the church that saw over 500 people receive free tests.

Hicks and his wife also organized an animal adoption campaign in Austin that saw 260 animals adopted in under a week. The couple partnered with Austin (TX) Pets Alive to provide new pet owners with a care package that included a crate, pet food, treats, a leash and a toy.

KYLER MURRAY – $25,000 DONATION TO GENYOUth FOR ITS COVID-19 EMERGENCY SCHOOL NUTRITION FUND

With schools across the country closed because of the coronavirus, the reigning NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year stepped up in April to help children who counted on school meals to be fed on a daily basis. He donated $25,000 to GENYOUth for its COVID-19 Emergency School Nutrition Fund, which was established to provide resources that allowed school meal programs to continue despite school closures.

ISAIAH SIMMONS – DONATED 60,000 MEALS TO HARVEST COMPASSION CENTERS IN ARIZONA

Within a week of becoming the #8 overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft, the former Clemson star was already reaching out to help people in Arizona struggling as a result of the pandemic. Simmons teamed up with the Cardinals and Bose to donate 60,000 meals to the Harvest Compassion Center for its facilities in Phoenix, Maryvale and Chandler. Harvest Compassion Center is a food and clothing bank dedicated to providing a hope-filled environment to the underserved in the greater Phoenix area. HCC locations offer free food, hygiene, baby, home and clothing items to the many Arizonans living below the poverty line.

LARRY FITZGERALD – DELIVERING MEALS TO HEALTHCARE WORKERS AND FRONTLINE STAFF

One of the most prolific WRs in NFL history, Fitzgerald long ago set the standard for making an impact in the community – and those efforts continued during the COVID-19 outbreak. In late April, he teamed with Steak 44, Ocean 44 and Dominick's to deliver meals to healthcare workers all over the Valley. In addition to helping those who have gone above-and-beyond to serve the community during the pandemic, it also served as a very personal cause for Fitzgerald, who's late mother, Carol, was a nurse.

COREY PETERS – STARTED VIRTUAL BOOK CLUB FOR ARIZONA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

A passionate advocate for reading, the Cardinals starting DT set up an in-person book club a few years ago. When the pandemic hit, forcing the closure of schools and the enforcement of social distancing, Peters saw an opportunity to make the book club virtual. So in May, he launched the virtual book club "The Corey Peterson Playbook" to help provide an educational outlet for all Arizona high school students during the COVID-19 crisis.

PATRICK PETERSON – DONATED TO ARIZONA FIRST RESPONDERS ON MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND

With Memorial Day occurring in the middle of the pandemic, the Cardinals All-Pro helped keep the spirit of the holiday when he teamed with Pit Boss Grills to donate grill products and gift cards to Arizona first responders. Peterson had his followers on social media nominate a first responder of their choice and he selected three winners on Memorial Day who each received a new top-of-the-line grill, grilling products and a gift card from Bashas supermarket.

DEVON KENNARD – DELIVERED MEALS TO FOUR VALLEY FIRE DEPARTMENTS; VIRTUAL HOSPITAL VISITS

In May, Arizona native – and Cardinals 2020 free agent signing – Kennard gave back to his hometown when he teamed with Salad and Go to provide dinner for firefighters at four different fire stations in the Ahwatukee area.

Every year Cardinals players and staff make numerous visits to Phoenix Children's Hospital to lift the spirits of the children and their families in pediatric units. Due to COVID-19 and the resulting safety restrictions, those visits have taken a new form. In late August, Kennard became the first Cardinals player to take the controls of a telepresence robot in order to spend time with children at PCH. While Kennard was at training camp at State Farm Stadium, he was able to drive the robot through the halls of PCH and interact with children through a video monitor.

KINGSBURY'S RECORD-BREAKING RUN GAME

When Arizona hired Kingsbury in 2019, much of the talk surrounding the hire involved the former Texas-Tech head coach implementing a pass-heavy "Air-Raid" system in the desert.

Although the passing offense made significant strides in 2019, it was the rushing attack that showed the biggest improvement last season.

After finishing #32 in the NFL in both rushing yards and rushing average in 2018, the Cardinals finished the 2019 season having averaged over 5.0 yards per rush attempt as a team for the first time in franchise history. Arizona averaged a franchise-record 5.03 yards per rush attempt last season (1,990 yards & 18 TDs on 396 attempts).

TDS AT A RECORD PACE FOR DRAKE

Opposing defenses had a hard time keeping Drake out of the end zone in the final three games of the 2019 season - as the former Alabama star rushed for seven TDs in the final three contests.

Drake had eight TDs on 123 carries in eight games with Arizona after totaling nine rushing TDs in 333 carries over three seasons with the Dolphins.

Prior to the Cardinals win over Cleveland in Week 15, Drake had never rushed for multiple TDs in a game. Against the Browns - and then the Seahawks the following week - Drake scored a combined six rushing TDs, including a career-high four vs. Cleveland.

The only player in franchise history to have more TDs in any three-game span than Drake had the final three weeks (7) of 2019 was Hall of Famer Ernie Nevers in 1929.

CARDINALS SEE AN UP-AND-COMER IN EDMONDS

Drafted by the Cardinals in the fourth round (134th overall) in the 2018 NFL Draft out of Fordham - RB Chase Edmonds enters his third NFL season in 2020.

Much like fellow 2018 draftee WR Christian Kirk, the Cardinals see big things ahead.

"We all feel like he's a starting running back in this league, and he does, too," head coach Kliff Kingsbury said of Edmonds. "When he had his opportunities, he shined, and he continues to shine. He can catch it, run it, block, play special teams, and he's really bright football-wise. He's everything you want."

EDMONDS SHINES NEAR HIS OLD STOMPING GROUNDS

Filling in for injured David Johnson, Edmonds saw the most extensive action of his career in the Cardinals Week 7 victory over the Giants last season. He took advantage, finishing with with career highs in total scrimmage yards (150), rushing yards (126) and TDs (3).

He rushed for 126 yards and three TDs on 27 carries and added four receptions for 24 yards. Edmonds' three rushing TDs covered 20, 20 and 22 yards. He became the first player in franchise history - and just the sixth player in NFL history - with at least three rushing TDs of 20+ yards in a game.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

The 2020 season is the 14th since owner Michael Bidwill began leading the organization. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

- Leading the list of Bidwill's accomplishments with the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. Since it opened in 2006, the team sold out all 144 games (preseason and postseason included) played at the world-class venue that has been awarded three Super Bowls.

- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII and XLIX, he led the effort to land Super Bowl LVII (2023) in the spring of 2018. Michael was instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to Arizona; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX and the 2015 Pro Bowl combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

- By the time it hosts Super Bowl LVII, State Farm Stadium will have undergone $100 million in improvements including parking infrastructure, state-of-the-art wifi, video boards, sound system upgrades and club-area enhancements since it staged Super Bowl XLIX.

- Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come with Bidwill's leading the team. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests over the last 13 seasons, after playing just seven prior to his tenure as team president.

- AZ has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice since 2008, including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).

- In January of 2018, Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee.

- In January of 2019, Michael received the Paul Tagliabue Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance for demonstrating integrity and leadership in the area of career development for minorities and advocating for diversity.

KEIM HAS BUILT SOME OF THE BEST

Steve Keim was promoted to GM on January 8, 2013 after 14 seasons in the Cardinals organization. The team has experienced unprecedented success during his tenure as GM.

The teams put together by Keim have been some of the most successful in franchise history.

- In 2014, the Cardinals tied the franchise record for wins in a season (11) before setting a new mark in 2015 when Arizona won 13 games and earned its first-ever postseason bye.

- During Keim's tenure, Arizona has established franchise records for wins in a season (13 in 2015), points in a season (489 in 2015), led the NFL in total offense for the first time in team history (#1 in 2015) and led the NFL in sacks for the second time ever (48.0 in 2016).

- Selected QB Kyler Murray with the #1 overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft. Murray was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year following a record-setting season.

- Among the trades negotiated by Keim during his tenure as GM are the acquisition of QB Carson Palmer from Oakland in 2013, acquiring LB Chandler Jones from New England in 2016 and the trade that landed WR DeAndre Hopkins from Houston in 2020. During the 2019 season, Keim also orchestrated a trade with Miami for RB Kenyan Drake.

- Arizona has featured a top-10 defense four times and a top-10 offense twice dating back to Keim's first season as GM. The Cardinals had a top-10 defense in three consecutive seasons (2015-17) for the first time since the 1970 merger.

Below is a look at the results in 14 seasons at State Farm Stadium compared to 18 seasons at Sun Devil Stadium.
