MICHAEL J. BIDWILL

OWNER

NOTE CARDS

- After 13 seasons (2007-19) as team president, Bidwill became owner following the 2019 passing of his father, Bill. Michael continues a tradition of Bidwill ownership of the Cardinals that dates back to his grandfather, Hall of Famer Charles Bidwill in 1933.
- Since taking over as team president in 2007, Bidwill's leadership has transformed the Cardinals both on and off the field. Of the franchise's seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Michael's tenure leading the organization. Arizona has played in 10 postseason contests over the last 16 seasons (2007-22), after having appeared in just seven total playoff games prior.
- Arizona has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice since 2008 including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).
- With an 11-6 record in 2021, the Cardinals reached 11+ wins in a season for the sixth time in franchise history. Three of those six 11-win campaigns have come in Bidwill's 16 seasons leading the team: 13 in 2015, 11 in 2014, 11 in 2021. In 2015 Arizona established a franchise record with 13 wins during the regular season and earned the first postseason bye in team history.
- Among Bidwill's most substantial accomplishments with the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. The world-class venue has not only been critical for the franchise but has also resulted in over $5 billion in economic impact for the state of Arizona.
- On February 12, 2023 State Farm Stadium hosted its third Super Bowl when a record 115.1 million viewers watched Super Bowl LVII. State Farm Stadium also hosted Super Bowls XLII (following 2007 season) and XLIX (following 2014 season).
- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land three Super Bowls, Michael was also instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to State Farm Stadium; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX, the two events combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.
- Since State Farm Stadium opened in 2006 the Cardinals have sold out 162 games at the venue (every non-pandemic game played there).
- State Farm Stadium also served as a critical site during the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020. The venue hosted three blood drives at the beginning of the outbreak and in 2021 it became one of the first, and most successful, mass vaccination site in the nation. Between January and April, more than 800,000 COVID-19 vaccines were administered at State Farm Stadium, which accounted for nearly 20% of the total doses administered in Arizona during that period.
- Through Bidwill's leadership, the Cardinals took a lead role in a host of initiatives to assist those impacted by the pandemic. The team made a $1 million foundation donation to Arizona Coronavirus Relief Fund and also joined with State Farm to donate one million meals to local food banks. To support local businesses, the team donated $100,000 to non-profit Local First Arizona and also set up the Cards Carryout initiative to promote local restaurants in the state.
- He oversaw the team's appearance in the ground-breaking Amazon Original series All or Nothing: A Season with the Arizona Cardinals. Produced by NFL Films, the eight-episode series was awarded the Sports Emmy for Outstanding Serialized Sports Documentary in May of 2017.
- During the 2022 season, the Cardinals made their first-ever appearance on Hard Knocks, the highly-acclaimed sports reality franchise. Arizona was the second team to be featured on Hard Knocks In Season, which documented the second half of the Cardinals season in real time.
- Following a highly successful debut in 2022, in June of 2023 Bidwill helped spearhead the second-annual Civics Matters Arizona trip in partnership with the Close Up Foundation and Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs. This year's program sent 260 high school students from across the state on a trip to Washington D.C. for an interactive and educational experience that included meetings with elected officials, issue deliberations, and instructor-led visits to monuments, memorials, museums, and government institutions. The Cardinals once again supported this life-changing opportunity by providing their team plane to fly the group to and from Washington D.C.
- In January of 2018, Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee. The committee reviews the league's Personal Conduct Policy at least annually and recommends appropriate changes with advice from outside experts.
- In January of 2016, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame.

Michael Bidwill practiced law for six years as a federal prosecutor but in 1996 returned to the team for which he had once been a ball boy. He represents his family's third generation of franchise leadership, following in the footsteps of grandfather Charles - a Pro Football Hall of Famer who purchased the team in 1933 - and his dad Bill, who handled day-to-day operations for decades.

CARDINALS LEADERSHIP: After initially serving as Vice President/General Counsel, Michael took over as team president in 2007 and his leadership immediately transformed the franchise. Since '07, the Cardinals have posted five double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20 years), including a franchise-record 13 victories in 2015. Of the Cardinals' seven postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's tenure leading the franchise. In 2021, Arizona posted an 11-6 record on its way to its fifth postseason berth under Michael's leadership. It marked the third time (13 in 2015; 11 in 2014) during Bidwill's tenure that the Cardinals won 11+ games in a season. The franchise had won 11+ games in a season just three times prior and had not done so since 1975.

The Cardinals success under Bidwill has greatly elevated the team's popularity both locally and nationally. Michael oversaw the team's appearance in the groundbreaking Amazon Original series All or Nothing: A Season with the Arizona Cardinals, which chronicled the 2015 Cardinals season from the NFL Draft through the NFC Championship game. Produced by NFL Films, the eight-episode series was awarded the Sports Emmy for Outstanding Serialized Sports Documentary in May of 2017. In February of 2018, the Cardinals launched Cardinals Flight Plan, a first-of-its-kind documentary series available on Facebook Watch and YouTube that takes fans behind the scenes for an inside look at the team's offseason. The first five seasons of Flight Plan (2018-22) garnered over 19 million views between Facebook and YouTube. The sixth installment documented the Cardinals recent offseason that was highlighted by the hiring of general manager Monti Ossenfort and head coach Jonathan Gannon.

During the 2022 season, the Cardinals made their first-ever appearance on HBO's Hard Knocks, television's most acclaimed sports reality franchise which has earned 18 Emmy Awards.

IF YOU BUILD IT: Among Michael's most significant accomplishments with the Cardinals was leading the effort that led to the creation of State Farm Stadium which has resulted in an economic impact on the state of Arizona of over $5 billion. The venue has been an integral factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the franchise's success. Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 that impacted sporting venues around the world, the team had sold out all 144 games played since the opening of the iconic stadium that has welcomed millions of Cardinals fans. With fans back in attendance the last two seasons, Arizona sold out all 19 games (regular season and preseason) at the venue during that span.

State Farm Stadium has also given Arizona the opportunity to host three Super Bowls in a 15-year span, something that would not have been possible previously. After hosting Super Bowl XLII in 2008, the stadium staged Super Bowl XLIX in 2015 and Super Bowl LVII on February 12, 2023. Super Bowl XLIX and surrounding events delivered an economic impact of $720 million, the highest for any Super Bowl on record and the largest for any special event in the state of Arizona.

In addition to those Super Bowls, State Farm Stadium also hosted the second-ever College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championship Game in January of 2015 as well as the NCAA's Men's Basketball Final Four in April of 2017. The Final Four was the first since 1995 held west of Texas and capped an unprecedented run of major sporting events at the stadium. That grand slam (Super Bowl XLIX, 2015 Pro Bowl, CFP Championship, and Final Four) poured $1.3 billion into the Valley's economy according to a study completed by the Seidman Research Institute, W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University.

In the lead-up to Super Bowl LVII last February, State Farm Stadium underwent $200 million in improvements including parking infrastructure, a new outdoor dining and entertainment venue, state-of-the-art wi-fi, video boards, sound system upgrades and club-area enhancements.

Another project undertaken by Bidwill was the $15 million expansion and renovation of the Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Training Center in Tempe. A three-phase project over two-plus years, it added more than 92,000 square feet to the team's headquarters. Among the upgrades and expansions were a stand-alone 78,000 square foot indoor practice bubble, a new full-service kitchen and dining area, an expanded weight room and new player rehab and cardio area that more than doubled the size of the previous weight room, expanded and newly re-designed locker room for players and coaches, an updated athletic training room and doctor's examination room and additional meeting rooms.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO ARIZONA AND GREATER PHOENIX: In addition to his prominent role with the Cardinals, Bidwill has established himself as one of the most influential leaders in the greater Phoenix business community where he has been a strong advocate for economic growth and development.

Along with Arizona governor Katie Hobbs, he co-chairs the board of the Arizona Commerce Authority (ACA), the state's leading economic development organization that brings together Arizona's most prestigious public-private sector leaders. He served as Chairman of the Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders. From 2008-10, Bidwill served back-to-back terms as Chairman of the Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is also on the five-person Executive Committee of the Arizona Commerce Authority's Board of Directors which the ACA says "unites some of the state's most powerful, proactive officials with its globally recognized leaders of business."

In June of 2022, in partnership with then-Arizona Governor Doug Ducey and State Farm, Bidwill spearheaded the first-ever Civics Matters Arizona trip which sent 241 Arizona students mostly from Title I schools and 30 of their teachers on a once-in-a-lifetime trip to Washington, D.C. aboard the Cardinals team plane. Civics Matters Arizona returned in 2023 in a partnership with Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs and the Close Up Foundation. This year, Civics Matters Arizona impacted more than 1,500 high school students across the state, including the 260 selected by their teachers to travel to Washington, D.C. These students represented 30 schools, 20 school districts, 14 cities, and six counties across Arizona. The program engages students with their peers as well as their government and gives educators the tools and training to build positive dialogue in the classroom.

Under Bidwill's leadership, the Cardinals took a lead role in a number of initiatives to assist those in Arizona impacted during the COVID-19 outbreak. That March, the Cardinals made a $1 million founding donation to the Arizona Coronavirus Relief Fund and shortly thereafter, the team organized three major blood drives at State Farm Stadium to meet the dire need to replenish the Valley's dwindling blood supply. In early April of 2020, at the height of the outbreak when demand for assistance from food banks in Arizona more than doubled, the Cardinals joined State Farm to provide one million meals to five local food banks.

To assist local businesses during the crisis, the Cardinals made a $100,000 donation to Local First Arizona, Arizona's Coronavirus Micro Grant Fund and also helped promote local restaurants through the Cards Carryout initiative. Through the Cards Carryout program, Cardinals players and staff joined fans in helping promote independent, locally-owned restaurants hit hard by the coronavirus crisis while also recognizing those working on the front lines of the pandemic.

HONORS: In January of 2019, Michael received the Paul Tagliabue Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance for demonstrating integrity and leadership in the area of career development for minorities and advocating for diversity. In May of 2019, the Arizona Lodging and Tourism Association named Bidwill its Honoree of the Year for his efforts to unify the tourism industry by convening industry leadership throughout the state to advance economic development and increase visitation.

In September of 2018, Bidwill was chosen as the Grand Marshal of the Desert Financial Fiesta Bowl parade. In being selected for the honor, Bidwill joined a notable list of Grand Marshals, which includes Diamondbacks Hall of Fame pitcher Randy Johnson, former Cardinals QB and Hall of Famer Kurt Warner and former Suns/Diamondbacks owner Jerry Colangelo.

In November of 2017, Bidwill returned to St. Louis where he was honored at the prestigious Musial Awards after stepping up to fund the city's high school football awards when the previous sponsor pulled out. In January of 2016, Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey were inducted into the National Football Foundation (NFF) Hall of Fame for their roles in helping shape the economic future of the state. In March of 2016, Bidwill was chosen to serve as the Grand Marshal of the 33rd annual St. Patrick's Day parade, one of the most popular and longest running such events in Phoenix.

In May of 2015, Michael was presented with the esteemed Vision Award from the Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau, an honor bestowed just three times previously: Phoenix mayors Skip Rimsza and Phil Gordon plus former Suns and Diamondbacks owner Jerry Colangelo.

Bidwill received the 2014 Transformational Leader Award from the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry. In November of 2013, he received the West Valley Regional Advancement Award from Western Maricopa Coalition, which cited continued positive impact in that community. Bidwill was selected by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of its 25 Most Admired CEO's in 2010.

NFL LEADERSHIP: Within the National Football League, Bidwill's considerable influence is illustrated by his appointment to a number of notable league committees, including his inclusion on the prestigious Management Council Executive Committee. In 2021, the league announced that Bidwill would replace Bengals owner Mike Brown on the Management Council Executive Committee that deals with the NFLPA on labor issues.

Here is the full list of league committees on which Bidwill currently serves:

- Management Council Executive Committee
- Compensation Committee
- Stadium Security & Fan Behavior (Chairman)
- Business Ventures Committee
- Conduct Committee (Chairman)
- NFL Foundation
- Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee
- Social Justice Working Group
- Health & Safety Advisory Committee

BACKGROUND: Bidwill earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. In May of 2015 – 25 years after his own graduation from the school – Michael delivered the commencement address at Catholic University's School of Law and was also awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters.

A flying enthusiast and licensed pilot since he was a teenager, Bidwill regularly flies himself to road games as well as other team and league business. And in 2020, the Cardinals became the second NFL franchise with its own aircraft following the team's purchase of a Boeing 777-200ER wide body jet.

Michael is a board member emeritus for the Pat Tillman Foundation, which carries on the legacy of the former Cardinals safety killed in Afghanistan in 2004. Bidwill has also previously served as a member of the Air Force Chief of Staff Civic Leader Program whose membership "comprises respected community leaders (who) provide ideas and feedback to advise the secretary of the Air Force, the Air Force chief of staff and Air Force senior leaders."

MONTI OSSENFORT

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: Minnesota-Morris

HOMETOWN: Luverne, MN

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 22/1

DOB: February 24, 1978

NOTE CARDS

- After spending the last three seasons (2020-22) as the Director of Player Personnel for the Tennessee Titans, Ossenfort was hired as the Cardinals General Manager on January 16, 2023.
- During his 21 total seasons working in the NFL, Ossenfort's teams have earned a postseason berth 16 times.
- In his first two seasons (2020-21) with Tennessee, the Titans posted a 23-10 record and earned back-to-back AFC South titles.
- Prior to Tennessee, he had a 14-year run with the Patriots (2006-19) and worked his way up from Area Scout to Director of College Scouting. During those 14 seasons, New England won an NFL-high 199 games in the regular season, made 13 playoff appearances, played in 10 AFC Championship games and won three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI, LIII).

Monti Ossenfort was hired as the Cardinals General Manager on January 16, 2023 after spending the past three seasons (2020-22) as Director of Player Personnel with the Tennessee Titans.

The 45-year-old Ossenfort came to Arizona with 21 years of experience in the NFL (2002-22). That includes his three seasons in Tennessee and 15 years (2003; 2006-19) with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, Ossenfort helped the Patriots win four Super Bowl titles (XXXVIII, XLIX, LI, LIII) and advance to seven Super Bowls overall. In Ossenfort's 21 total NFL seasons, his teams have earned a postseason berth 16 times.

Ossenfort's tenure in Arizona comes after a highly successful three-year run in Tennessee. During that stretch, the Titans tied for fifth in the NFL in total wins (30), won a pair of AFC South titles and had two seasons of 11+ wins. His first season with Tennessee in 2020 saw the team win 11 games and earn its first AFC South title since 2008. The Titans followed that up with a 12-5 record and second straight AFC South crown in 2021. It marked the first time the franchise won back-to-back division titles since the 1970 merger.

Over the course of his 15 seasons with New England, Ossenfort served as the Director of College Scouting (2014-19), Assistant Director of College Scouting (2011-13), National Scout (2008-10), Area Scout (2006-07) and a Personnel Assistant (2003). In between his two tenures with the Patriots, Ossenfort worked with the Houston Texans as a pro and college scouting assistant in 2004 prior to being promoted to a college scout in 2005.

Ossenfort started his career in the NFL with the Minnesota Vikings as a training camp intern in 2001 and worked with the Texans during their inaugural season in 2002 as a pro personnel intern under general manager Charley Casserly.

His first full-time job in the NFL came with New England as a personnel assistant under head coach Bill Belichick in 2003, a year that concluded with a Patriots victory over Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

He returned to New England in 2006, beginning a 14-year run with the Patriots that saw him work his way up from Area Scout to Director of College Scouting. During those 14 seasons New England won an NFL-high 199 games during the regular season, made 13 playoff appearances, played in 10 AFC Championship games and won three Super Bowls.

Ossenfort was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at quarterback for the University of Minnesota-Morris, where he completed 411-of-923 pass attempts for 4,263 yards and 21 TDs. He continues to rank first in program history in pass attempts, fourth in completions and fifth in total passing yards.

He graduated from Minnesota-Morris in 2000 with a degree in Economics and Management. Ossenfort earned a master's degree in Business Administration and Sports Management from Ohio University in 2002.

A native of Luverne, MN, Ossenfort and his wife, Shannon, have three daughters, Emery, Finley and Landry.

JONATHAN GANNON

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: Louisville

HOMETOWN: Cleveland, OH

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 16/1

DOB: January 4, 1983

NOTECARDS

- Became an NFL head coach when he was hired by the Cardinals on February 14, 2023. Gannon came to Arizona after spending the past two seasons (2021-22) as the defensive coordinator with the Philadelphia Eagles where he helped them advance to Super Bowl LVII at State Farm Stadium.
- Gannon has 15 years of experience in the NFL with the Eagles (2021-22), Colts (2018-20), Vikings (2014-17), Titans (2012-13), Rams (2009-11) and Falcons (2007).
- Under Gannon, the Eagles boasted a top-10 defense in each of the past two seasons, ranking 2nd in total defense in 2022 (301.5 ypg) and 10th in the NFL in 2021 (328.8 ypg). This past season the Eagles also featured the NFL's top-ranked pass defense (179.8 ypg) and the league's 8th ranked scoring defense (20.2 ppg).
- Between 2021-22, the Eagles defense led the NFL with 99 sacks, ranked 3rd in total defense (315.1 ypg), 3rd in pass defense (200.4 ypg), 6th in tackles for loss (168), tied for 4th in total return TDs (7) and interception return TDs (4) and tied for 10th in interceptions (29).
- Since individual sacks became an official stat in 1982, Philadelphia became the first team ever to have four different players with 10.0+ sacks in a single season when they did so in 2022: Haason Reddick (16.0), Brandon Graham (11.0), Javon Hargrave (11.0) and Josh Sweat (11.0).
- Gannon coached with three teams (Eagles, Colts, Vikings) who combined for six playoff berths in the last eight seasons.

Jonathan Gannon was named Arizona's head coach on February 14, 2023 when he signed a five-year contract. The 40-year old Gannon joined the Cardinals after spending the past two seasons (2021-22) as the defensive coordinator with the Philadelphia Eagles. A Cleveland, OH native, Gannon has 15 years of experience in the NFL with the Eagles (2021-22), Colts (2018-20), Vikings (2014-17), Titans (2012-13), Rams (2009-11) and Falcons (2007).

PHILADELPHIA: Gannon spent the past two seasons (2021-22) as the defensive coordinator with the Philadelphia Eagles. Under Gannon, the Eagles boasted a top-10 defense in each season, ranking 2nd in total defense in 2022 (301.5 ypg) and 10th in the NFL in 2021 (328.8 ypg). This past season the Eagles also featured the NFL's top-ranked pass defense (179.8 ypg) and the league's 8th ranked scoring defense (20.2 ppg).

Philadelphia advanced to Super Bowl LVII at State Farm Stadium after beating San Francisco in the NFC Championship, won the NFC East in 2022 and finished the regular season as the #1 seed in the NFC with a 14-3 record. The Eagles qualified for the postseason in each year Gannon was the defensive coordinator.

In 2022, the Eagles easily led the NFL with a franchise single-season record 70 sacks in the regular season. No other team in the NFL had more than 55. Philadelphia's 70 sacks in 2022 were the most by any team in a single season since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71). Combined with their eight sacks in the postseason, the Eagles 78 total sacks in 2022 were the third-most in NFL history behind only the 1984 (82 sacks) and 1985 Chicago Bears (80 sacks). Philadelphia also tied for 4th in the NFL in both total takeaways (27) and INTs during the regular season.

In his two seasons as defensive coordinator with Philadelphia, four different Eagles players combined for five Pro Bowl selections: Darius Slay (2), Haason Reddick (1), Javon Hargrave (1) and Josh Sweat (1). Reddick, Hargrave and Sweat all earned their first career Pro Bowl selections playing in Gannon's defense. Reddick and CB James Bradberry were each named second-team All-Pro in 2022.

Under Gannon's tutelage, Reddick ranked 2nd in the NFL with a career-high 16.0 sacks in 2022. He also led the NFL with five strip-sacks and tied for the NFL lead with five forced fumbles.

At age 34, Graham had double-digit sacks for the first time in his career in 2022. He became the oldest player with 11.0+ sacks since Julius Peppers (37) and Terrell Suggs (35) in 2017. Last season, Hargrave's 11.0 sacks were the most by an Eagles DT since Andy Harmon (11.5) in 1993.

Another player who had a career year under Gannon in 2022 was LB T.J. Edwards, who finished the regular season with 159 tackles, 2.0 sacks, seven passes defended, 10 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 159 tackles were a career high, ranked 7th in the NFL in 2022 and also were the highest single-season total for an Eagles defender since Byron Evans (175) in 1992.

Following three seasons in New Orleans, S C.J. Gardner-Johnson established a career high and tied for the NFL lead with six INTs in his first season with the Eagles in 2022. Playing in Gannon's defense, Gardner-Johnson had more INTs in 2022 (6) than he had in his first three NFL seasons combined (5). Eagles CBs James Bradberry (3 INTs, 17 PD) and Darius Slay (3 INTs, 14 PD) finished the 2022 season as the only cornerback tandem in the NFL each with 14+ passes defended and 3+ interceptions. Bradberry's 17 passes defended ranked 3rd in the NFL last season.

Philadelphia (7 points allowed vs. NYG; 7 points allowed vs. SF) became the first team to allow seven points or fewer in multiple postseason games since the 2010 Baltimore Ravens (3 times). Prior to 2022, the last time Philadelphia gave up seven points or fewer in consecutive postseason games was during the 1948 and 1949 NFL Championships.

In his first season with the Eagles in 2021, Gannon directed the NFL's 10th-ranked defense (328.8 ypg). Philadelphia had the 2nd-most defensive TDs (5), allowed the 5th-fewest explosive plays (117) in the league and finished 9th in opponent rushing yards per game (107.9) and opponent three-and-out percentage (33.1%). Slay led the team with five takeaways and had an NFL-best three defensive TDs that season.

OTHER NFL EXPERIENCE: Gannon has 15 years of experience in the NFL. Prior to working with the Eagles, he was the defensive backs/cornerbacks coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-20) and the assistant defensive backs/quality control coach with the Minnesota Vikings (2014-17) after working as a defensive assistant with the Tennessee Titans (2012-13). He spent three seasons (2009-11) as a scout with the St. Louis Rams after beginning his NFL coaching career as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2007.

During his three seasons with Indianapolis (2018-20), Gannon oversaw a secondary that helped the Colts rank 6th in the NFL in INTs (45, tied), 9th in scoring defense (22.5 ppg) and 10th in total defense (339.5 ypg) and red zone defense (55.9%, tied) during that span.

In Gannon's final season with Indianapolis in 2020, the Colts defense had the 5th-most takeaways (25) in the NFL and ranked 7th in INTs (15, tied), 8th in total yards allowed per game (332.1) and 10th in points allowed per game (22.6, tied). CB Kenny Moore (79 tackles, 13 PD, 4 INTs and 2.0 sacks) was the only defensive back in the NFL in 2020 with at least four INTs and 2.0 sacks that season.

In 2019, the Colts had the 7th-most INTs (15) and 10th-most takeaways (23, tied) in the NFL. The previous year, Gannon assisted a defense that amassed the 9th-most INTs (15, tied) in the league and ranked 10th in takeaways (26, tied) and points allowed per game (21.5). Indianapolis forced at least one turnover in a league-best 15 games that season.

As an assistant with the Vikings for four seasons (2014-17), Gannon helped the Vikings defense rank 2nd in the NFL in redzone defense (48.6%), 3rd in total defense (319.9 ypg), scoring defense (18.8 ppg), passing defense (214.6 ypg) and third-down defense (35.1%). CB Xavier Rhodes (2016-17) and S Harrison Smith (2015-17) were selected to multiple Pro Bowls during Gannon's tenure in Minnesota.

Gannon got his start in the NFL with the Falcons as a defensive assistant under head coach Bobby Petrino who was his head coach while he was a student at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE: Gannon played collegiately as a safety at Louisville and appeared in nine games as a redshirt freshman in 2002 before suffering a career-ending hip injury in his first career start at Cincinnati. As a true freshman in 2001, he was named the Cardinals defensive scout team player of the year. Following the injury, he worked as a student assistant at Louisville for three seasons (2003-05) and one season as a graduate assistant (2006) under Petrino.

PERSONAL: Gannon attended Saint Ignatius (Cleveland, OH) High School where he was an All-State defensive back and a standout in basketball and track & field. As a senior in 2001, he helped lead the basketball team to the school's first state championship and starred in the long jump and 110-meter hurdles, helping Saint Ignatius to their first track & field state championship that same year. Gannon was inducted into the Saint Ignatius Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

He and his wife, Gina, have three children – Rocco, Lola and Angelo.

NOTECARDS

- Hired as Cardinals special teams coordinator in 2018 after working in the same capacity for three seasons (2015-17) with the Chicago Bears. Added the title of assistant head coach in 2019.
- Has 22 years of coaching experience, including 19 seasons coaching special teams in the NFL with Arizona (2018-22), Chicago (2015-17), Denver (2011-14), Carolina (2009-10) and San Francisco (2003-07).
- P Andy Lee finished in the top-five in the NFL in punting average three times over the past five seasons (2018-22), including leading the league with a 48.6-yard average in 2018. He owns the top-five single-season punting averages in franchise history and is tied for 3rd in the NFL with a 47.5-yard average in his five seasons with Rodgers.
- K Matt Prater had 137 points in 2021, the second-highest total in franchise history and tied for the fourth-highest total in the NFL. In just 30 games over two seasons (2021-22) under Rodgers, Prater connected on 12 FGs of 50+ yards, the second-most for any player in team history.
- Denver returned six kicks for TDs during Rodgers tenure with the Broncos (2011-14), tied for the second most in the NFL in that span. In 2012, Trindon Holliday became the first player in NFL history to record multiple return TDs in a playoff game when he scored on a 90-yard punt return and a 104-yard kickoff return in a 38-35 double-overtime loss to the Ravens.
- In Denver, Prater was named to the Pro Bowl in 2013 after setting franchise records in field goal percentage (96.2%; 25-of-26) and points scored (150). Prater's 64-yard field goal in 2013 was the longest in NFL history, until it was eclipsed by Justin Tucker (66 yards) in 2021. In 2014, Connor Barth's 93.8 field-goal percentage (15-of-16) was the second-highest in team history.

Jeff Rodgers is in his sixth season with the Cardinals and fifth as the team's assistant head coach/special teams coordinator. He came to Arizona in January, 2018 as the team's special teams coordinator and added the title of assistant head coach in 2019. Rodgers is in his 20th NFL season after previously coaching special teams with Chicago (2015-17), Denver (2011-14), Carolina (2009-10) and San Francisco (2003-07).

Long-time veterans who are among the most prolific in history at their respective positions, P Andy Lee and K Matt Prater continued to have success under Rodgers last season. Lee averaged 47.1 yards per punt, the fifth-best average in team history while Prater connected on five FGs from 50+ yards, giving him 12 in just two seasons with the Cardinals, the second-most in team history. In 2021, both Lee and Prater posted record-breaking seasons. Prater finished with 137 points, the second-highest total in franchise history and tied for the fourth-highest total in the NFL. He also converted on a team-record and career-high seven FGs of 50+ yards, including a franchise record 62-yarder in just his second game with the Cardinals. Lee finished 3rd in the NFL and established a franchise single-season record with a 49.0-yard punting average that year.

In 2020, the Cardinals special teams unit featured three players who all entered the NFL as undrafted rookies in 2018: LB Dennis Gardeck, WR Trent Sherfield and LB Zeke Turner. Gardeck has served as a special teams captain in each of the past three seasons (2020-22) and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate in both 2019 and 2022. Turner tied for the team lead with 15 special teams tackles in 2020 to go along with two blocked punts and a reception on a fake punt. Sherfield had a career-high 10 special teams tackles and two fumble recoveries that season.

K Zane Gonzalez set career highs and ranked 4th in the NFL in 2019 in both total points (127) and made FGs (31). His 31 FGs remain the third-most in a single in team history while his 127 points are tied for the fourth-best single-season total in franchise history. Lee finished 2nd in the NFL with a 47.8-yard punting average, the second consecutive season working with Rodgers that he finished in the top-two in the NFL in punting average.

In 2018, Arizona's special teams developed into one of the league's best. The Cardinals finished the season with the NFL's #5 ranked unit after finishing #30 in 2017. Lee led the NFL and established a then Cardinals single-season record (since broken) with a 48.6-yard punting average. Turner led the NFL with 13 solo special teams tackles while Gardeck led all NFL rookies with 388 special teams snaps. In the Cardinals season finale at Seattle, Gardeck had a deflected punt and recovered a Cameron Malveaux blocked punt in the end zone for a touchdown. It was Arizona's first blocked punt for a touchdown since 2008.

While working with Chicago, the Bears had three special teams TDs in 2017 (two punt return, one fake punt), tied with the Rams for the most in the NFL. Rookie PR Tarik Cohen averaged 9.4 yards per punt return in 2017 (9th in the NFL) and had a 61-yard return for a TD while KR Deonte Thompson ranked 2nd in the NFL in 2016 in kickoff return yards (804). P Pat O'Donnell allowed just 22 punt returns in 2016, tied for the third fewest in the NFL among punters who appeared in 16 games.

Prior to working in Chicago, Rodgers spent four seasons as the special teams coordinator with the Broncos. During his time in Denver, the Broncos ranked 10th in the NFL in gross punting average (45.6 yards per punt) and 11th in net punting average (39.6 yards per punt). Denver's six total kick return TDs (four punt/two kickoff) were tied for the second most in the NFL during Rodgers tenure.

Prater, who kicked with the Broncos under Rodgers, was named to the Pro Bowl following the 2013 season after setting franchise records in FG percentage (96.2%, 25-of-26) and points scored (150). His 64-yard field goal on December 8, 2013 is the secondlongest FG in NFL history. In 2014, K Connor Barth's 93.8 field goal percentage (15-of-16) was the second-highest season total in Broncos history.

In Rodgers' second season in Denver in 2012, the Broncos special teams allowed the 2nd-lowest punt return average (6.2 ypr) and the 7th-lowest kickoff return average (22.1 ypr) in the NFL. During the Divisional Playoffs that season, Trindon Holliday became the first player in NFL history to record a punt return TD (90 yards) and kickoff return TD (104 yards) in a postseason game. In 2011, Denver ranked 3rd in the NFL in punt return average (12.7 ypr) and one of just three teams in the league with multiple punt return TDs: Arizona (4), Denver (2), Chicago (2). P Britton Colquitt set single-season franchise records for gross (47.4) and net punting (40.2) averages and broke his own team record the following year with a 42.1-yard net average.

Rodgers began his coaching career at the University of Arizona in 2001, spending two seasons as a graduate assistant working with the secondary and linebackers under head coach John Mackovic. He entered the NFL coaching ranks with San Francisco in 2003 as a special teams quality control coach for two seasons before being elevated to assistant special teams coach (2005-07). During his five seasons with the 49ers, LS Brian Jennings (2004) and P Andy Lee (2007) both earned Pro Bowl selections. Lee set an NFL single-season record with 42 punts inside the 20-yard line (since broken) and ranked 2nd in the NFL with a 41.0 net punting average in 2007. After leaving the 49ers, Rodgers served as the special teams coordinator for one season at Kansas State in 2008.

Following Kansas State, Rodgers spent two seasons in Carolina, first as the Panthers special teams assistant (2009) before serving as special teams coordinator in 2010. He played linebacker at North Texas (1996-2000) where he earned a degree in Business, specializing in Entrepreneurship and Strategic Management. A St. Paul, MN native, Rodgers attended Westlake (Austin, TX) High School.

FORMER CARDINALS COACH DON CORYELL AMONG 2023 HALL OF FAME CLASS

Former Cardinals head coach Don Coryell was among the nine individuals selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2023.

Coryell served as the Cardinals head coach from 1973-77, compiling a 42-29-1 record with the team. His 42 wins as head coach rank as the third-highest total in franchise history and Coryell was the first coach in team history to lead the Cardinals to 10+ wins in three consecutive seasons. Coryell led the Cardinals to back-to-back division titles in 1974-75. After leading the Cardinals to a 10-4 record and an NFC Eastern Division title in 1974, Coryell was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year.

"Don Coryell was a leader, an innovator and truly deserving of enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame," said Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill. "His impact on the sport was profound, particularly in revolutionizing the passing game that is so prolific today. As head coach, he led one of the most successful and exciting periods of Cardinals football. Coach Coryell will always have a special place in our organization's history and now he will forever have a place in Canton among the game's all-time greats as well."

Under Coryell, the Cardinals became known as the "Cardiac Cards" for their thrilling brand of football. In 1975 the team won five games in the final minute and the next season, eight of the team's 10 wins were decided by seven points or fewer.

Known for his innovative "Air Coryell" passing attack which produced some of the top passing offenses in NFL history, Coryell spent 14 seasons as a head coach in the NFL with the Cardinals (1973-77) and Chargers (1978-86) and compiled a 111-83-1 record (.572) while earning five division titles.

In a coaching career that spanned 36 years, Coryell was the first coach ever to win more than 100 games at both the college and NFL level. A former defensive back at the University of Washington, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1999. Coryell passed away in 2010 at the age of 85.

The Hall of Fame Class of 2023 will be inducted on Saturday, August 5 at the Hall of Fame Enshrinement Ceremony in Canton, OH.

NOTECARDS

- Hired as the Cardinals offensive coordinator in 2023 after coaching the past three seasons (2020-22) with Cleveland, including last year as quarterbacks coach.
- With the Browns last season, QB Jacoby Brissett started 11 games and completed 236-of-369 passes for 2,608 yards, 12 TDs, six interceptions and an 88.9 quarterback rating. Brissett's 63.9 completion percentage and 88.9 passer rating were both career highs. QB Deshaun Watson started the final six games of the season and threw for 1,102 yards, seven TDs and five interceptions. Both QBs combined to run for 418 yards and three TDs in 2022.
- Prior to Cleveland, he spent six seasons (2014-19) coaching with Minnesota. As the Vikings wide receivers coach in 2019, WR Stefon Diggs set a then career-high with 1,130 receiving yards and finished 4th in the league that season with a 17.9-yard average on 63 receptions.
- Working with Kirk Cousins in 2018, the Vikings QB set a team record for completions (425), threw for the third-most passing yards (4,298), had the second-highest completion percentage (70.1) and recorded the fourth-highest passer rating (99.7) by a Viking in team history.

Drew Petzing is in his first season with the Cardinals and 10th in the NFL after being hired as Arizona's offensive coordinator on 2/21/23. He came to the Cardinals after spending the past three years (2020-22) with Cleveland, including last season as the quarterbacks coach with the Browns.

Prior to working with Cleveland's quarterbacks in 2022, Petzing coached Browns tight ends for two years (2020-21) after spending six seasons (2014-19) as an assistant with the Minnesota Vikings. He was the Vikings wide receivers coach in 2019 after working as the assistant quarterbacks coach (2018) and assistant wide receivers coach (2014-17) with Minnesota. Petzing and Cardinals head coach Jonathan Gannon coached together in Minnesota for four seasons (2014-17).

With the Browns last season, QB Jacoby Brissett started 11 games and completed 236-of-369 passes for 2,608 yards, 12 TDs, six INTs and an 88.9 QB rating. Brissett's 63.9 completion percentage and 88.9 passer rating were both career highs. QB Deshaun Watson started the final six games of the season and threw for 1,102 yards, seven TDs and five INTs. Both QBs combined to run for 418 yards and three TDs in 2022.

As Cleveland's tight ends coach for two seasons, Petzing's group helped the Browns become the only team in the league in 2021 to have at least three different tight ends each record at least three TDs as TE David Njoku led the team with four TDs. They also helped the Browns lead the NFL in rushing average (5.09-yard avg.) in 2021, the highest rushing average for the team since 1966.

In 2020, the Browns had three tight ends record multiple TDs, led by TE Austin Hooper who tied for second on the team with four TDs. Rookie TE Harrison Bryant led all rookie tight ends with three receiving TDs while Njoku had two TD receptions. Cleveland finished 3rd in the league in rushing (148.4 ypg) in 2020, the best average for the Browns since 1978.

During his tenure with Minnesota, Petzing helped the Vikings win two NFC North division titles (2015 & 2017) while also qualifying for the postseason as a Wild Card team in 2019. The 2017 Vikings went 13-3 and advanced to the NFC Championship.

As the Vikings wide receivers coach in 2019, WR Stefon Diggs set a then career-high with 1,130 receiving yards, his second consecutive 1,000-yard season. He finished 4th in the league that season with a 17.9-yard average on 63 receptions. Working with Kirk Cousins in 2018, the Vikings QB set a team record for completions (425), threw for the third-most passing yards (4,298), had the second-highest completion percentage (70.1) and recorded the fourth-highest passer rating (99.7) by a Viking in team history. He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for at least 4,000 yards, at least 30 passing TDs, 10 or fewer INTs and complete at least 70% of his passes in a season.

As assistant wide receivers coach, Petzing helped develop WR Adam Thielen, who began his career as an undrafted rookie free agent. In 2017, Thielen made his first Pro Bowl and was a second-team All-Pro selection after finishing 5th in the NFL (2nd in NFC) with a then career-high 1,276 receiving yards on 91 receptions. Diggs reached 200 career catches in 40 games, the fastest in team history to that milestone (record has since been eclipsed by Justin Jefferson). In addition to working with wide receivers in his first season in Minnesota, Petzing also helped coach Vikings running backs in 2014. As a rookie, RB Jerick McKinnon tied for 5th in the NFL with a 4.8-yard average (min 100 carries).

He served as a graduate assistant at Boston College for two years (2010-11) after working as a volunteer assistant coach at Harvard in 2009. Petzing then worked for one season (2012) as the outside linebackers coach at Yale before spending the 2013 season with the Browns as a football operations intern where he assisted the offense.

As a player, Petzing spent his first two years (2005-06) at Middlebury College as a defensive back before injuries cut short his playing career. A Wellesley, MA native, Petzing then served as a student assistant the next two years before graduating in 2009 with a degree in Economics and minors in Math and Philosophy.

He and his wife, Louisa, have a daughter, Emilia.

NOTE CARDS

- Hired as the Cardinals defensive coordinator in 2023 after spending the past two seasons (2021-22) as the linebackers coach with the Philadelphia Eagles.
- Helped Eagles LB T.J. Edwards to a career season in 2022 as he finished with 159 tackles, 2.0 sacks, seven passes defended, 10 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 159 tackles ranked 7th in the NFL in 2022 and represented the highest single-season total for an Eagles defender since Byron Evans (175) in 1992.
- With the Vikings, coached LB Eric Kendricks who was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro in 2019 after having a career-high and team-leading 110 tackles to go along with 12 passes defended, tied for the most among NFL linebackers.
- His older brother, Mike, played linebacker at Minnesota (2008-12) and is now a star in the WWE known as Madcap Moss.

Nick Rallis was hired as Arizona’s defensive coordinator on 2/21/23 after spending the past two seasons (2021-22) coaching linebackers with the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to working in Philadelphia, Rallis spent three seasons (2018-20) with the Minnesota Vikings as defensive quality control/assistant linebackers coach.

Working under current Cardinals head coach Jonathan Gannon the past two years in Philadelphia, Rallis helped the Eagles advance to Super Bowl LVII at State Farm Stadium after beating San Francisco in the NFC Championship, win the NFC East in 2022 and earn the #1 seed in the NFC with a 14-3 record. The Eagles made the postseason in each season Rallis coached with Philadelphia.

LB T.J. Edwards had a career-season with the Eagles in 2022 after finishing the regular season with 159 tackles, 2.0 sacks, seven passes defended, 10 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 159 tackles ranked 7th in the NFL in 2022 and represented the highest single-season total for an Eagles defender since Byron Evans (175) in 1992. LB Kyzir White, who signed with the Cardinals as a free agent in the 2023 offseason, had 110 tackles, the second-most on the team, to go along with 1.5 sacks, seven passes defended and five QB pressures last season.

The Eagles had a top-10 defense in each of the past two seasons Rallis coached there, ranking 2nd in total defense in 2022 (301.5

ypg) and 10th in the NFL in 2021 (328.8 ypg). This past season the Eagles also featured the NFL’s top-ranked pass defense (179.8 ypg) and the league’s 8th ranked scoring defense (20.2 ppg). Between 2021-22, the Eagles defense led the NFL with 99 sacks, ranked 3rd in total defense (315.1 ypg), 3rd in pass defense (200.4 ypg), 6th in tackles for loss (168), tied for 4th in total return TDs (7) and interception return TDs (4) and tied for 10th in INTs (29).

In 2022, the Eagles easily led the NFL with a franchise single-season record 70 sacks in the regular season. No other team in the NFL had more than 55. Philadelphia’s 70 sacks in 2022 were the most by any team in a single season since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71). Combined with their eight sacks in the postseason, the Eagles 78 total sacks in 2022 were the third-most in NFL history behind only the 1984 (82 sacks) and 1985 Chicago Bears (80 sacks). Philadelphia also tied for 4th in the NFL in both total takeaways (27) and INTs during the regular season.

Since individual sacks became an official stat in 1982, Philadelphia became the first team ever to have four different players with 10.0+ sacks in a single season when they did so in 2022: LB Haason Reddick (16.0), DE Brandon Graham (11.0), DT Javon Hargrave (11.0) and DE Josh Sweat (11.0).

In his first season with the Eagles in 2021, Rallis helped

Philadelphia to the NFL's 10th-ranked defense (328.8 ypg) in addition to having the 2nd-most defensive TDs (5) and allowing the 5th-fewest explosive plays (117) in the league while also finishing 9th in opponent rushing yards per game (107.9) and opponent three-and-out percentage (33.1%).

Under his guidance, LB Alex Singleton had a team-high 130 tackles and Edwards had 125 tackles in 2021. The duo finished as two of five NFL players to have 125+ tackles, one interception and one fumble recovery in the regular season.

He spent his first two seasons (2018-19) with the Vikings as a defensive quality control coach and added the title of assistant linebackers in 2020. With the Vikings, Rallis helped Eric Kendricks and Eric Wilson become the only pair of linebackers in the league in 2020 to have 100+ tackles and 3+ INTs that season.

In 2019, Kendricks was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro after having a career-high and team-leading 110 tackles to go along with 12 passes defended, tied for the most among NFL linebackers. Pro Football Focus named Kendricks as the league's highest-graded linebacker in 2019.

Rallis (RAW-liss) started his coaching career as a quality control coach at Wake Forest in 2017. He played at Edina (MN) High School and was the #8 recruit in the state of Minnesota as a senior according to Rivals.com prior to playing linebacker collegiately at the University of Minnesota (2012-16). As a Golden Gopher, Rallis appeared in 26 games, including starting three games as a senior. His older brother, Mike, also played linebacker at Minnesota (2008-12) and is now a star in the WWE known as Madcap Moss.

He graduated with a degree in Business Marketing from Minnesota and earned his master's in Sport and Exercise Science. Rallis and his wife, Devin, have a son, Kendrick.

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR/WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: Stanford

HOMETOWN: Chandler, AZ

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 6/1

DOB: July 25, 1991

NOTE CARDS

- Is in his first season with Arizona as Passing Game Coordinator/Wide Receivers coach after being appointed on 3/1/23.
- In May of 2023, was among 40 minority assistant coaches invited to attend the Coach Accelerator program at the NFL meetings in Minneapolis. The goal of the program is to increase exposure between owners, executives, and diverse coaching talent, providing ample opportunity to develop and build upon their relationships.
- During his three-year (2020-22) tenure coaching receivers with the Commanders, guided WR Terry McLaurin to three consecutive 1,000+ yard receiving seasons and his first Pro Bowl selection in 2022.
- Assisted in the development of first-round rookie WR Jahan Dotson last season; Dotson's seven TD receptions in 2022 tied for the most among NFL rookies.
- A Chandler, AZ native, Terrell attended Hamilton (Chandler, AZ) High School and received All-State honors as both a wide receiver and punt returner.
- Played four seasons (2009-12) at Stanford and led the team in receiving yards in 2012 when the Cardinals were 12-2 and won both the Pac-12 championship and the Rose Bowl.

Drew Terrell is in his sixth season in the NFL and first with the Cardinals as passing game coordinator/wide receivers. He came to Arizona after coaching wide receivers in Washington the past three years (2020-22).

During his three seasons in Washington, Terrell helped guide the development of standout WR Terry McLaurin – one of just eight players in the NFL with 1,000+ receiving yards in each of the last three seasons. In 2022, McLaurin set single-season career highs in receiving yards (1,191) and scrimmage yards (1,220) while joining Gary Clark (1989-91), Art Monk (1984-86) and Henry Ellard (1994-96) as the only players in franchise history with three consecutive seasons of 1,000+ receiving yards. His performance in 2022 earned McLaurin his first Pro Bowl.

Working with Terrell for the first time in 2020, McLaurin established a career high with 87 receptions while becoming the first Commanders players with a 1,000-yard receiving season (1,118) since 2016.

Terrell also worked with Washington rookie WR Jahan Dotson last season. The Commanders first-round pick in the 2022 NFL Draft, Dotson finished his debut season with 35 receptions for 523 yards and a team-high seven TD receptions. His seven TD catches tied Green Bay's Christian Watson for the most among NFL rookies last season and was just one shy of tying Washington's franchise rookie record (8).

Prior to the Commanders, Terrell was an offensive quality control coach in Carolina for two seasons (2018-19). In 2018, the Panthers had 5,972 offensive yards, the second highest total in franchise history. He joined the Panthers following three seasons (2015-17) as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan. In his first two years, Terrell worked with wide receivers and returners and tutored cornerbacks and returners in his final season. While with the Wolverines, Terrell worked with two receivers who were selected in the 2017 NFL Draft—Amara Darboh by Seattle in the third round and Jehu Chesson by Kansas City in the fourth round.

In his final season at Michigan in 2017, Terrell helped coach future professionals CB David Long and CB Lavert Hill who were named by Pro Football Focus as one of the top cornerback duos in the country with Long posting the nation's lowest passer rating when targeted at 17.6.

Terrell began his coaching career in 2014 as an offensive graduate assistant working with wide receivers at Virginia Tech. While with the Hokies, he assisted in the development of wideouts Cam Phillips and Isaiah Ford, who finished their collegiate careers ranked first and second respectively for the most receptions in school history.

Terrell played four seasons as a wide receiver and punt returner at Stanford (2009-12), earning honorable mention All-Pac 12 honors as a returner three times (2010-12). He posted a breakout season as a senior, leading the team with 33 receptions for 463 yards and four TDs while adding 291 return yards. Stanford finished the 2012 season with a 12-2 record and won both the Pac-12 Championship and the Rose Bowl. He graduated from Stanford with a degree in Political Science.

A Chandler, AZ native, Terrell (tuh-RELL) attended Stanford following a decorated career at Hamilton (Chandler, AZ) High School. An All-State selection as both a wide receiver and punt returner as a senior in 2008, he was rated as the top wide receiver recruit in the state of Arizona and the 10th rated overall prospect by Rivals.com. Terrell helped the Huskies win three regional championships and two 5A Division I state titles.

OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Boise State

HOMETOWN: Sacramento, CA

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 5/1

DOB: February 13, 1983

Klayton Adams is in his first season with the Cardinals after being hired as the team's offensive line coach on 3/1/23. He came to Arizona after spending the previous four seasons (2019-22) with the Indianapolis Colts.

Adams coached tight ends the past two seasons (2021-22) with Indianapolis after working as the assistant offensive line coach for two years (2019-20). Prior to starting his NFL coaching career, Adams spent 14 seasons working at the collegiate level. Before coming to Arizona, he was hired as Stanford's offensive line coach and run game coordinator in December of 2022.

He coached a Colts offense that ranked 2nd in rushing yards per game (194.4 avg) and 9th in points per game (26.5 avg) in 2021. His tight end group combined for 64 receptions for 724 yards and seven TDs, supplementing a Colts rushing attack that featured RB Jonathan Taylor who put together one of the best single-season performances in team history. Taylor led the NFL in scrimmage yards (2,171), rushing yards (1,811), rushing TDs (18) and 100-yard rushing games (10), tied for the league lead in total TDs (20) and ranked 2nd in total points (120) by a non-kicker. He set franchise single-season records for rushing yards and rushing TDs and became the third player ever with a rushing TD in at least 11 consecutive games within a single season. Taylor also became the youngest player in NFL history with at least 2,000 scrimmage yards (2,171) and 20 scrimmage TDs (20) in a single season.

In 2020, Adams assisted a Colts offensive line that tied for the second-fewest sacks allowed in the NFL (21). Taylor became just the fifth rookie in franchise history to have 1,000 rushing yards (1,169 yards) as he finished 3rd in the NFL in rushing that season. It was the first time since 2003-05 that the team had back-to-back seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher. G Quenton Nelson (first-team) and C Ryan Kelly (second-team) each earned All-Pro honors and were selected to the Pro Bowl. It was the second consecutive season Nelson and Kelly each made the Pro Bowl.

The Colts tied for the 9th-fewest sacks allowed in the NFL (32) and finished 7th in rushing (133.1 ypg) in 2019. The Colts 4.52 yards per carry average was the fifth-highest single-season total in franchise history. Nelson and Kelly earned their first Pro Bowl selections, marking the first time since 2006 that two Colts offensive linemen made the Pro Bowl. RB Marlon Mack had 1,091 rushing yards, the 11th-best total in the NFL that season.

Prior to working in Indianapolis, Adams spent six seasons at Colorado where he was the team's co-offensive coordinator/offensive line coach in 2018 after spending two seasons (2016-17) as the Buffaloes offensive line coach and three years (2013-15) coaching running backs/tight ends. He helped RB Phillip Lindsay become the first player in school history to have 1,000+ rushing yards in back-to-back seasons (1,474 in 2017 & 1,189 yards in 2016). In 2016, the Buffaloes offensive line posted its highest average per rush (4.1) in 10 seasons. As running backs coach in 2015, Colorado had six players rush for 200+ yards for the 4th time in program history and in 2014 four different players rushed for 300+ yards for the first time in school history.

Adams went to Colorado after coaching tight ends for two seasons (2011-12) at San Jose State and spending two seasons

(2009-10) at Sacramento State. San Jose State TE Ryan Otten earned honorable mention All-American honors under Adams direction in 2012. At Sacramento State, Adams started as the team's offensive tackles/tight ends coach in 2009 prior to being promoted to offensive line coach in 2010.

He spent two seasons at Western Washington (2007-08) as run game coordinator/offensive line coach after starting his coaching career at his alma mater, Boise State, in 2005 as a student assistant and then as an offensive graduate assistant in 2006. The 2006 Broncos went 13-0 and defeated Oklahoma in overtime in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl at State Farm Stadium.

Adams played center at Boise State where he was a part of two WAC Championship teams (2003-04) that combined for a 24-2 record and finished in the top-15 each season. He earned second-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 2004. Adams graduated from Boise State with a bachelor's degree in Mass Communications with an emphasis in Journalism. He and his wife, Stefani, have three daughters, Mya, Emmy and Harper.

Ronald Booker is in his third season with the Cardinals and first as a defensive quality control coach after working the past two years (2021-22) as a defensive assistant. He spent two years with Arizona as a Bill Walsh Coaching Fellow (2020-21) prior to being hired full-time in August, 2021.

He joined the Cardinals after spending two seasons as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh where he worked with the team's wide receivers. During his time with the Panthers, Booker helped tutor freshman All-American Jordan Addison as well as All-ACC performer Maurice Ffrench. In 2019, Ffrench had 96 catches, eclipsing Pitt's single-season receptions record previously held by Larry Fitzgerald (92 catches in 13 games in 2003).

Prior to his tenure at Pitt, Booker spent five seasons (2014-18) at his alma mater, Rhodes College, where he served as a safeties coach, defensive backs coach, wide receivers coach, special teams coordinator and strength and conditioning director. He also led the football program's social media and video initiatives. Under Booker's tutelage, WR Josh Lucas established single-season program records for receptions (76) and receiving yards (1,199) in 2017.

A standout defensive back and special teams ace, Booker was a key member of the Lynx's 2013 Southern Athletic Association (SAA) championship team. He was also part of the 2009 TSSAA Class 6A state championship football team at White Station (Memphis, TN) High School.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Commerce and Business from Rhodes in 2014.

While working with the Broncos, Cook assisted Denver's offensive line and helped T Garrett Bolles get named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2021. He was part of the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship for three consecutive training camps with the Atlanta Falcons (2018-19) and the Cleveland Browns (2020).

Prior to his time in Denver, Cook spent two years at the University of Akron (2019-20) as tight ends coach while also working as the director of player development and engagement. Cook coached at his alma mater, the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga, for two seasons (2017-18) as the tight ends and offensive tackles coach and added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2018. While with the Mocs, he guided TE Bailey Lenior to All-Southern Conference honors in 2017.

In 2016, Cook worked as the offensive quality control coordinator and assistant offensive line coach at East Carolina. Prior his time with the Pirates, he spent one season (2015) as the defensive line coach at Independence (Charlotte, NC) High School and helped the Patriots reach the second round of the NCHSAA playoffs. Cook entered the coaching ranks as the defensive line coach at Weddington (Matthews, NC) High School where he coached DT Darius Kilgo who went on to be selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Broncos.

He was a two-year starter at center at UT-Chattanooga (2001-03) and was an All-American selection in 2002. Cook was named the team's offensive MVP in 2002 and was selected as a team captain in 2003. Following his college career, Cook played three seasons in the Arena Football League with the Kansas City Brigade (2007-09).

A native of Wingate, NC, Cook graduated from UT-Chattanooga with a bachelor's degree in Communications. He and his wife, Mandisa, have a son, Mayor and daughter, Paige.

AUTRY DENSON RUNNING BACKS

COLLEGE: Notre Dame

HOMETOWN: Davie, FL

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 5/1

DOB: December 8, 1976

A former running back who played collegiately at Notre Dame and holds the school record for rushing yards (4,318) and ranks second in both rushing TDs (43) and all-purpose yards (5,327), Autry Denson joined the Cardinals on 3/1/23 as the team's running backs coach. He came to Arizona with 12 years of collegiate coaching experience, including spending the past four seasons (2019-22) as the head coach at Charleston Southern University.

Denson coached running backs at his alma mater, Notre Dame, for four seasons (2015-18) prior to taking the job at Charleston Southern. Denson also was a two-time participant of the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship (Indianapolis 2012-13).

As head coach at Charleston Southern, Denson had a 6-6 record in his first season (2019) and had 12 players on the Big South All-Conference team that season, including All-American S Cody Cline. After a shortened season in 2020 due to COVID, the Buccaneers finished the next two seasons with a combined 6-14 record.

As a Notre Dame assistant, Denson helped the Fighting Irish to an undefeated regular season in 2018 and a spot in the College Football Playoff semifinals at the Cotton Bowl. Notre Dame ran for 2,695 yards that year, paced by RB Dexter Williams' team-leading 995 rushing yards and 12 TDs. In 2017, the Irish ran for 3,503 yards as a team, the 7th best rushing offense (269.3 ypg) in the FBS. RB Josh Adams had 1,430 rushing yards and RB Brandon Wimbush had 14 TDs that season. As a team, Notre Dame ran for 1,471 yards and 10 TDs in 2016, gaining an average of 5.3 yards per carry.

In his first year with the Fighting Irish in 2015, the team had a 6.5-yard rushing average as Denson tutored RB C.J. Prosise who ran for 1,032 yards. Prosise, who was drafted by Seattle in the third-round of the 2016 NFL Draft, eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards faster than any Irish running back in school history outside of All-American Reggie Brooks (1992). Adams rushed for a freshman school record 835 yards in 2015, including a freshman program single-game record 168 yards at Stanford. Notre Dame averaged 207.6 rushing yards per game that season.

Denson returned to Notre Dame as an assistant in 2015 after coaching running backs at Miami (OH) University (2014) and Bethune-Cookman (2011-13). While at Bethune-Cookman, Denson helped the Wildcats to a 10-3 record and berth in the FCS playoffs in 2013. In 2012, RB Isidore Jackson ran for 1,069 yards, becoming the first Wildcat to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards since 1997. His running back group that season ran for 2,928 yards and 28 TDs, helping Bethune-Cookman lead the conference and rank 10th nationally in rushing (244.4 ypg). The previous year, the Wildcats ran for 2,058 yards and finished 5th in the FCS in rushing offense (259.3 ypg). Denson started his coaching career as the head coach at Pope John Paul II High School (Boca Raton, FL) in 2010.

He was selected by Tampa Bay in the seventh-round of 1999 NFL Draft and spent time with the Buccaneers (1999), Dolphins (1999-2000), Bears (2001), Colts (2002) and Lions (2002) prior to playing the 2004 season with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL. Denson appeared in 34 career NFL games (one start) and had 212 rushing yards and 133 receiving yards while also returning 45 kickoffs for 1,067 yards (23.7-yard avg.) and collecting 12 special teams tackles. While in the CFL in 2004, he finished 8th in the league with 772 rushing yards and nine TDs.

Denson finished his record-setting Notre Dame playing career with MVP honors at the 1999 Gator Bowl and was a two-time team MVP (1997-98). A three-year starter, he had 100+ rushing yards in 21 games in his four years with the Irish, had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons and was an All-American selection as a senior in 1998.

Away from the field, Denson formed a youth program called POISE (Perseverance, Opportunity, Intelligence, Sacrifice, and Effort) that worked with teenage athletes throughout Broward County (FL) in education, on the field, and in Bible study. He was also the inaugural commissioner of the Run for Your Goal Youth (RFYG) Flag Football League which provided a safe place for the youth of South Florida to learn the game of football. Denson and his family formed the Denson Family Legacy Foundation with the mission of allowing our faith of God to be the foundation of our family. For more information, visit www.densonfamilylegacy.com

Denson and his wife, Elaine, have four children: Ashley, Autry, Elijah and Asia along with twin grandchildren, Ace and Aubrey.

BILL BIDWILL FELLOWSHIP

COLLEGE: University of Louisiana

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 1/1

HOMETOWN: Edgard, LA

DOB: November 16, 1989

Blaine Gautier is in his first season with the Cardinals as the Bill Bidwill Fellowship coach after joining Arizona's staff on 3/16/23.

Gautier is the sixth individual to participate in the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship which was established prior to the 2015 season and designed to increase diversity and create additional opportunities for coaching experience at the highest level. The three most recent participants advanced from the fellowship to full-time assistant coach positions – two on the Cardinals coaching staff and one at the NCAA level.

He came to the Cardinals from Baylor University where he was the associate director of player personnel with the Bears last season. Gautier spent the 2022 offseason as an offensive analyst at Michigan State after coaching wide receivers at McNeese State for two years (2020-21).

Following the postponement of his first season at McNeese State until the spring of 2021 due to COVID-19, Gautier coached all-conference WR Josh Matthews who led the team and ranked 2nd in the Southland Conference in both receptions (32) and receiving yards (458) while also ranking 4th in the league with four TD receptions. Matthews had 36 receptions for 463 yards and three TDs in the fall of 2021 while WR Pierce Mason led the Cowboys with five TD receptions that season.

Prior to working at McNeese State, Gautier started his coaching career at LSU as an offensive analyst for five seasons (2015-19). He assisted the running backs while at LSU and was a part of the 2019 National Championship team that went 15-0.

Gautier played quarterback collegiately at the University of Louisiana (2009-12) and threw for 4,159 yards and 32 TDs while rushing for 883 yards and 12 TDs. After a record-setting junior season in 2011, he ranks second in the school's single-season record book for passing yards (2,958), passing TDs (23), passing efficiency (153.6), total offense (3,444 yards) and total touchdowns (26). Gautier set a single-game school record with 492 yards of total offense vs. San Diego State in the New Orleans Bowl while his 470 passing yards in that game rank 2nd in program history. He earned second-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors in 2011 along with first-team All-Louisiana and Louisiana Offensive Player of the Year accolades from the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

As a senior at Lutchter (LA) High School, Gautier earned first-team All-State honors after throwing for 2,743 yards and 30 TDs, becoming the first-ever recipient of the Warrick Dunn Player of the Year Award. He also earned All-State honors as a junior after throwing for 2,785 yards and 31 TDs while leading the school to a Class 3A state title.

Gautier (GO-chay) earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Louisiana in Sports Management in 2012.

CARDINALS HIRE GAUTIER FOR BILL BIDWILL COACHING FELLOWSHIP

In March, the Cardinals announced the addition of Blaine Gautier (GO-chay) to the coaching staff as the newest participant in the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship program.

ABOUT THE BILL BIDWILL COACHING FELLOWSHIP: The Cardinals established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship prior to the 2015 season.

Long-time Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill, who passed away in 2019, was at the forefront of providing opportunities to individuals regardless of race or gender. In 2010, he was honored with the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity in the NFL. In 1978, Adele Harris became the first African American female executive in the NFL when she was hired as the Cardinals director of community relations. In 1981, Bidwill hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club. In 2004, the Cardinals became the first NFL team to have an African American general manager/head coach duo in Graves and Dennis Green.

Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill was honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the organization's 2019 "Paul J. Tagliabue Award," given to a league or team executive who demonstrates the integrity and leadership Tagliabue exhibited in career development opportunities for minority candidates and advocacy for diversity on the league and club level.

DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Northwestern State

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/1

HOMETOWN: Breaux Bridge, LA

DOB: May 6, 1974

Derrick LeBlanc (pronounced luh-BLON with a silent “c”) joined the Cardinals as defensive line coach on 3/1/23 after spending last season with the Miami Dolphins as the assistant defensive line coach.

He has 22 years of coaching experience, including 21 years at the collegiate level primarily with the defensive line. Prior to coaching in Miami, LeBlanc spent one season (2020) at the University of Arkansas following three seasons (2017-19) at the University of Kentucky. LeBlanc got his first coaching experience in the NFL with the Chicago Bears in 2004 as part of the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship.

With Miami last season, LeBlanc assisted a defensive line that helped the Dolphins finish 4th in rushing defense (103.0 ypg), the team’s best ranking since 2011 (3rd). LeBlanc helped DTs Christian Wilkins and Zach Sieler to record breaking seasons. Wilkins totaled 98 tackles, the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 1994 and the highest total in team history. He also tied for 8th among defensive linemen with a career high 16 tackles for loss. Sieler established a career high with 70 tackles, putting him and Wilkins in the top five in the NFL among defensive tackles.

In 2020, LeBlanc served as defensive line coach at Arkansas where DT Jonathan Marshall became the Razorbacks only selection in the 2021 NFL Draft. During his tenure as Kentucky’s defensive line coach (2017-19), the Wildcats went to three consecutive bowl games. LeBlanc coached a defensive line that produced two 2021 NFL Draft picks in Quinton Bohanna and Phil Hoskins. In 2018, Kentucky had their best finish in 41 years with 10 wins and the Wildcats ranked 4th (337.9 ypg) in the SEC. Kentucky held six opponents under 100 rushing yards for the first time since 1949.

Prior to Kentucky, LeBlanc spent one season as defensive line coach at North Texas (2016) for a defense that allowed 8.6 points per game less than they did the previous year. He spent the 2015 season as the defensive coordinator/defensive line coach at Pearl River Community College following two seasons (2013-14) as the defensive line coach at Southern Mississippi where he coached future pros DT Khyri Thornton and DT Rakeem Nunez-Roches. Thornton was named second-team All-Conference USA in 2013 and was drafted by Green Bay Packers in the third-round of 2014 NFL Draft. Nunez-Roches was a first-team All-Conference USA selection in 2014 and was drafted by Kansas City in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

LeBlanc served as defensive line coach at Wyoming in 2012 where he mentored future NFL DT Mike Purcell, who earned first-team All-Mountain West Conference honors. He was an assistant strength & conditioning coordinator at LSU (2008-11) where the team won the SEC Championship in his final season and appeared in the BCS National Championship game.

He coached the defensive line at Missouri State (2006-07) and Arkansas Tech (2005) after spending four seasons (2001-04) at Henderson State (2001-04) where he also served as the team’s strength and conditioning coordinator.

LeBlanc began his coaching career as an offensive line/defensive line coach at Breaux Bridge (LA) High School in his hometown and started collegiately as a graduate assistant at LSU in 2000. He played four seasons (1992-96) as both an offensive and defensive lineman at Northwestern State where he earned Southland Conference All-Academic team honors as a junior and senior. LeBlanc graduated from Northwestern State with a degree in Business Administration and also earned a master’s degree in Sports Administration from LSU.

He and his wife, Niema, have two sons, Dayton and Derrick, and a daughter, Kennedy.

SENIOR RECONDITIONING COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: Pittsburgh

HOMETOWN: South Park, PA

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 13/10

DOB: September 29, 1957

Buddy Morris is in his 10th season with the Cardinals and first as Senior Reconditioning Coordinator. He originally joined the Cardinals strength and conditioning staff in 2014 after previously working in the league with the Cleveland Browns (2002-04). Morris has 20 years of experience at the collegiate level in addition to his 12 years in the NFL.

The 2021 NFL Strength Coach of the Year, Morris has an extensive background in strength and conditioning dating back to his first job at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, where he began his career in 1980 in the first of his three stints with the Panthers. He worked at Pittsburgh from 1980-89 and aided in the development of future Pro Football Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Rickey Jackson, Chris Doleman and Russ Grimm. During that period, Morris worked with 13 first round NFL draft picks and 15 first-team All-Americans.

After working as the wellness director for the Horizon Hospital System in Sharon, PA (1989-97), Morris returned to Pittsburgh from 1997-2001. During his second tenure at Pitt, the Panthers made three bowl appearances: the 1997 Liberty Bowl, the 2000 Insight.com Bowl and the 2001 Tangerine Bowl. Morris also developed the moniker for the Panthers strength and conditioning program, "The Pitt Iron Works." In 2009, Muscle & Fitness Magazine named Morris' gym one of the 10 toughest in America.

Morris then joined Butch Davis and the Cleveland Browns for three seasons before working at the University of Buffalo in 2006 as its Director of Sports Performance. After one season in Buffalo, he went back for his third stint at Pittsburgh under head coach Dave Wannstedt from 2007-10. The Panthers made the 2008 Sun Bowl and the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl during that period.

Following his third stop at Pitt, Morris and his family opened a private gym in Buffalo called the New York Sports Center where he worked with athletes at all levels through personal training, group fitness classes and injury rehabilitation.

Morris worked with Roger Kingdom, a 1984 and 1988 Olympic gold medalist in 110-meter hurdles and also helped develop Pro Football Hall of Fame RB Curtis Martin and Pro Bowl G Ruben Brown while they were at Pittsburgh.

A native of South Park, PA, he graduated from Pittsburgh in 1980 after lettering for four years (1977-80) in track and field. Morris is married to Monica and has two daughters, Kara and Claire, and two stepsons, Fred and Troy. Morris welcomed a grandson Cameron James Balawjder in August of 2021.

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Clemson

HOMETOWN: Santee, SC

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 1/1

DOB: April 27, 1985

Peagler joined the Cardinals as assistant defensive line coach on 3/1/23 following 12 years coaching at the collegiate level, including last year as the tight ends coach at the University of Florida.

Peagler went to Florida after coaching running backs for two seasons (2020-21) at Michigan State and was selected as the 2021 FootballScoop Running Backs Coach of the Year for his work with MSU RB Kenneth Walker III, who was drafted by Seattle in the second round of the 2022 NFL Draft. Walker III rushed for 1,636 yards and 18 TDs on 263 carries in 2021 and became the first Spartan to win the Doak Walker award, honoring the top running back in college football. Michigan State finished the 2021 regular season with a 10-2 record and played in the program's third New Year's Six Bowl game.

Prior to Michigan State, Peagler worked as the offensive director of quality control at Colorado in 2019 following his second stint at the University of Louisiana in 2018 where he was the director of player personnel/quality control coordinator. He helped the Ragin Cajuns recruit the #1 class in the Sun Belt Conference leading to a division title and berth in the Auto Nation Cure Bowl.

He spent the 2017 season as a graduate assistant at Georgia and helped the Bulldogs offensive line during their run to the College Football Playoff National Championship. Georgia won a school record 13 games, the SEC Championship and the Rose Bowl in addition to signing the nation's consensus top recruiting class. Peagler helped coach Patriots T Isaiah Wynn, who earned first-team All-SEC honors and was drafted by New England in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

Peagler worked with the offensive line as a quality control coach at Minnesota in 2016 after serving as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Olive Branch (MS) High School in 2015 and the run game coordinator/recruiting coordinator at Coffeyville Community College in 2014. Under his watch at Coffeyville, the Ravens went from scoring 27.8 points per game the previous season to 48.2 points per game (578 points in 12 games) and rushed for 2,671 yards and 22 TDs that season.

He initially joined Louisiana's staff in 2011 as an offensive quality control assistant and then worked as an offensive graduate assistant from 2012-13. Louisiana won the New Orleans Bowl all three seasons Peagler was there.

A native of Santee, SC, Peagler began his coaching career as tight ends coach at Valdosta State (2010) after working as a student assistant at Clemson from 2006-09. He graduated from Clemson in 2010 with a degree in Sport Management. Peagler attended Holly Hill (SC) Academy where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: UTEP

HOMETOWN: El Paso, TX

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 6/1

DOB: December 25, 1981

Rob Rodriguez is in his sixth NFL season and first with the Cardinals after joining Arizona's staff as the outside linebackers coach on 3/1/23.

Rodriguez came to the Cardinals after spending the past three seasons (2020-2022) at Arizona State as defensive line coach. In 2021, the Sun Devils featured one of the conference's best defenses, tying for 1st in the Pac-12 in average yards allowed per play (5.0) and rushing average allowed (3.7) while also finishing 2nd in the conference in total defense (325.7 ypg), sacks (27), tackles for loss (75) and 3rd in rushing yards allowed per game (131.5) and tied for 3rd in total takeaways (20).

Prior to coaching at ASU, he spent five seasons (2015-19) as the assistant defensive line coach with the Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings defense achieved significant success during Rodriguez's tenure with the team. In 2019, they were tied for 5th in the NFL in points per game (18.9) and sacks (48) and 13th in rushing defense (108.0 ypg). DE Danielle Hunter finished 4th in the NFL with 14.5 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year.

In 2018, Minnesota finished 4th in the league in total defense (309.7 ypg) and in scoring defense (21.3 ppg), the third consecutive season the Vikings finished top-five in the league in each category. The team also led the NFL in third-down defense (30.5%) for the 2nd straight season. Hunter had a team-high 14.5 sacks and was named second-team All-Pro while making his first Pro Bowl. The Vikings defense had 50 sacks in 2018, tied for the third-most in team history.

The previous year (2017), DE Everson Griffen and DT Linval Joseph were selected to the Pro Bowl for the second-straight year while Griffen was also named second-team All-Pro. Griffen started the year with a sack in each of the team's first eight games, tied for the longest streak to start a season in NFL history. Minnesota led the league in total defense (275.9 ypg) and scoring defense (15.8 ppg) and held opponents to a 25.2% conversion rate on third-down, the best mark in the NFL since 1991. The Vikings surrendered just 20 runs of 10+ yards, tops in the NFL and tied with the 49ers (1995) for the fewest in the league since 1991.

The Vikings tied for 4th in the league with 41 sacks in 2016 with 34 of those coming from the defensive line, the second-most as a unit in the league. They finished 3rd in the league in total defense (314.9 ypg) while Griffen and Joseph were both selected to the Pro Bowl as Joseph had 100 tackles on the season. Hunter had a team-leading 12.5 sacks, tied for the 3rd most in the NFL, while the Vikings defensive line scored two touchdowns and a safety.

ALL STAFF

In 2015, the Vikings ranked 5th in the NFL in points per game (19.3) and the defensive line accounted for 30 of the team's 43 sacks. Griffen led Minnesota with 10.5 sacks (4th in NFC) and was selected to his first Pro Bowl. Hunter's 6.0 sacks ranked 2nd in the NFL for sacks by a rookie and were the 5th most by a rookie in team history, helping him be named to the All-Rookie team by the PFWA.

Rodriguez went to Minnesota after spending seven seasons (2008-14) at his alma mater, UTEP, where he worked with Miners linebackers and helped coach special teams. During the 2013 season, the Miners special teams unit was led by Autrey Golden who averaged 27.6-yards per kickoff return (10th nationally) and tied for 2nd nationally in kickoff return TDs (2). In 2011, LB Isaiah Carter finished with 54 tackles and was named All-Conference USA honorable mention for the second-consecutive season.

He played linebacker collegiately at UTEP (2001-04) before spending time with the Carolina Panthers and Tennessee Titans in 2005 and playing with the Cologne Centurions in NFL Europe (2006) and the Calgary Stampeders of the CFL (2006-07).

Rodriguez ranks 5th in UTEP school history with 443 career tackles, including 33 tackles for loss. He led the Western Athletic Conference in tackles in three of his four seasons and was named the WAC Defensive Player as a senior in 2004 after collecting 121 tackles and 16 tackles for loss.

An El Paso, TX native, Rodriguez and his wife, Holly, have two sons, Caleb and Jesse.

CARDINALS MOURN PASSING OF FORMER OFFENSIVE LINEMAN CONRAD DOBLER

On February 13, the Cardinals announced the passing of former Pro Bowl guard Conrad Dobler in Pueblo, CO at the age of 72.

Dobler was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the fifth round (110th overall) of the 1972 NFL Draft out of Wyoming and played 10 seasons (1972-81) in the NFL with the Cardinals (1972-77), Saints (1978-79) and Bills (1980-81).

One of the top offensive guards in the game during his time with the Cardinals, Dobler started 77 of 80 games played and earned three consecutive Pro Bowl selections from 1975-77. Playing alongside fellow Pro Bowl lineman Dan Dierdorf, the duo led one of the NFL's top offensive lines, allowing an NFL-low eight sacks in 1975. Between 1975-77, the Cardinals offensive line allowed an NFL-low 40 total sacks and both Dobler and Dierdorf were named to the Pro Bowl each season.

Playing for head coach Don Coryell, who was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame last week, Dobler was a key member of the Cardinals teams that posted three consecutive seasons of 10+ wins from 1974-76, including NFC East Division titles in 1974 and '75.

"Our hearts go out to the family, friends and former teammates of Conrad Dobler," said Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill. "He was the kind of tough, physical and fierce player that you love to line up with as a teammate and hate to line up against as an opponent. On the field, Conrad was a big reason for the success of the Cardiac Cards of the 1970s. Away from it, he brought authentic joy and caring to everyone who had the privilege of being his friend and that is what I will remember most."

In addition to five siblings, Dobler is survived by his six children - Mark (Dina) Dobler, Erin (Chad) Lewin, Franco (Molly) Olivier, Abbey (Casey) Palma, Holli (Jarrod) Williams and Stephen (Haylie) Dobler - as well as 12 grandchildren.

CONNOR SENGER

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

COLLEGE: UW-Oshkosh

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2

HOMETOWN: West Allis, WI

DOB: December 15, 1994

Connor Senger is in his second season with the Cardinals and first as an offensive quality control coach after being promoted in 2023. He originally joined Arizona's staff on 3/30/22 as part of the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship assisting with Cardinals quarterbacks.

The Cardinals established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship prior to the 2015 season. It was designed to increase diversity and create additional opportunities to gain coaching experience at the highest level. Senger was the program's fifth participant and followed Jordan Hogan (2020-21), Don Shumpert (2019), Terry Allen (2017-18) and Levon Kirkland (2015-16).

Senger came to the Cardinals after working as an offensive quality control coordinator for two seasons (2020-21) at North Dakota State, including in 2021 when the Bison won the FCS National Championship. While at NDSU, Senger assisted with opponent breakdowns while helping to run quarterback meetings and overall quarterback development. He also worked with the Bison special teams units, assisted with the play calling process and contributed to recruiting.

Prior to coming to the Cardinals, Senger was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Central Washington where he was hired in February, 2022.

Senger served as the quarterbacks coach at Carroll University in Wisconsin in 2018 and worked as the running backs coach for Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2019. The Warhawks were the Division III national runner-up during Senger's one year at the school.

A former collegiate quarterback at the University of Wisconsin (2013-14), Senger played his final two seasons at Wisconsin-Oshkosh before beginning his coaching career at the school as the team's quarterbacks coach in 2017. He was a part of two conference championships at UW-Oshkosh as both a player and a coach and helped quarterback Brett Kasper win the 2017 Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III in 2017.

While at Wisconsin, Senger was named the team's Offensive Scout Team Player of the Year in each of his two seasons at the school. Prior to walking on at Wisconsin, Senger was a three-year captain at Pius XI (Milwaukee, WI) High School and threw for 4,564 passing yards and 37 TDs while also running for 2,190 yards with 39 TDs in his career. He earned his bachelor's degree from UW-Oshkosh in Political Science.

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: Northern Colorado

HOMETOWN: Aurora, CO

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 1/1

DOB: September 11, 1988

Sam Sewell is in his first season with the Cardinals after being hired as assistant special teams coach on 3/1/23. He came to Arizona from Eastern Michigan where he coached running backs the past five years (2018-22) and added the title of special teams coordinator in 2022. Sewell has 13 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, including eight years coaching special teams.

In his first season as special teams coordinator at EMU, K Jesus Gomez was named the Mid-American Conference Kicker of the Year after connecting on 14-of-17 FGs and scoring 89 points. KR Jaylon Jackson was named the conference's Specialist of the Year and earned first-team All-MAC honors after returning 23 kickoffs for 571 yards (24.8-yard avg.) and one TD and P Mitchell Tomasek led the conference with a 44.3-yard punting average. Sewell also helped RB Samson Evans rush for 1,166 yards and 15 TDs and earn second-team All-MAC honors in 2022.

In 2021, the Eagles offense averaged 31.0 points per game and converted 42.4 percent (67-of-158) of its third down attempts, finishing as one of the top units in the conference. Evans ranked 4th in the conference with rushing 13 TDs, the seventh-most in a single-season in school history. He also had three passing TDs and tallied 19 receptions for 107 yards. In 2020, Sewell helped the Eagles offense amass 2,438 total yards (406.3 ypg), the 4th best finish in school history. EMU also added 23 TDs, the 2nd best mark in program history, and averaged 22.3 first downs per game (134 total) which ranked 6th in program history.

In his first season with the Eagles in 2019, EMU had 5,271 total yards and scored 49 TDs, the most in program history, earning a trip to the Quick Lane Bowl in Detroit. Their 285 first downs, 379 points scored and 5,271 yards of total offense were the 2nd most in school history. RB Shaq Vann finished his career ranked 6th in school history with 24 career TDs and 7th all-time with 2,577 rushing yards.

Prior to Eastern Michigan, Sewell spent two seasons (2017-18) as the running backs coach at Indiana State. Following an 0-11 record in his first season, the Sycamores completed the biggest turnaround in college football after going 7-4 in 2018 and finishing ranked #22 in the FCS. RB Ja'Quan Keys earned first-team All-MVFC honors in 2018 after rushing for a league-best 13 TDs and led the team by rushing for 135.4 yards per game.

Sewell spent seven seasons coaching in Division II with stops at Colorado State-Pueblo (2010-12, 2015-16) and McKendree University (2013-14). In his first stint at Colorado State-Pueblo, Sewell coached tight ends/special teams (2010-12) before returning to the program in 2015 as running backs coach/co-special teams coordinator. During his first stint at CSU-Pueblo, the ThunderWolves won two consecutive RMAC Championships and combined for a 23-2 record. In 2015, the ThunderWolves ranked 6th nationally in rushing (291.0 ypg). Brothers Cameron and Bernard McDondle combined for 3,674 rushing yards, establishing a new NCAA record for rushing yards by two RBs on the same team. Cameron finished third for the Harlon Hill Trophy, given to the top player in Division II, after finishing 2nd nationally in rushing yards, rushing yards per game and rushing TDs. Bernard led Division II in rushing yards per carry that season. The pair helped CSU-Pueblo become just the 4th team in NCAA Division II history to produce both a 2,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season.

While at McKendree, Sewell served as running backs coach and special teams coordinator. Sewell helped improve the special teams unit in nearly every statistical category, which included the Bearcats finishing second in the nation in punt return average. He also served as the recruiting coordinator for the 2013 class.

Sewell was a two-year starter at the University of Northern Colorado (2006-10) and appeared in 31 games at tight end and on special teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in Recreation Tourism & Hospitality in 2010.

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: Wisconsin-La Crosse

HOMETOWN: Oconomowoc, WI

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 3/1

DOB: August 6, 1991

Sam Siefkes is in his first season with the Cardinals as linebackers coach after joining the team on 3/1/23. He came to Arizona after spending the last two seasons (2021-22) with the Minnesota Vikings where he was the assistant linebackers coach in 2022 following one season (2021) as a defensive quality control coach.

Last season with the Vikings, LBs Eric Kendricks (137) and Jordan Hicks (128) had a combined 265 tackles and 4.0 sacks, 10 tackles for loss, six QB hits, an INT, 16 passes defended, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Both players ranked in the top-20 in the league last season in tackles while Hicks was 2nd among NFL linebackers with 10 passes defended. Kendricks led Minnesota in tackles for the 7th time and his 280 total tackles in two seasons (2021-22) working with Siefkes were the ninth-best total in the NFL during that span.

In 2021, Siefkes helped oversee a linebacker unit led by Kendricks, who finished the season with career-highs in tackles (143) and sacks (5.0) while also adding two INTs, four passes defended, eight tackles for loss, five QB hits and a fumble recovery. He also mentored LB Nick Vigil, who started 12 games and finished the season with 85 tackles and a pick-six.

Prior to his time in Minnesota, Siefkes was the defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at Wofford College (2018-20). His final season at Wofford in 2020 was postponed due to COVID-19. In 2019, he led the nation's 20th ranked defense that helped guide the program to its 3rd straight Southern Conference Championship and 4th straight appearance in the FCS Playoffs. The defense ranked 1st in the conference in total defense and rushing defense and 2nd in scoring defense.

In his first season at Wofford in 2018, the Terriers led the conference in total defense, scoring defense, passing defense, and rushing defense. Nationally, they ranked 8th in scoring defense and 12th in total defense. Wofford had a 9-4 overall record, won the Southern Conference Championship and advanced to the second round of the FCS Playoffs.

Siefkes spent two seasons (2016-17) as the defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at UW-Platteville. His defense allowed just 18.9 points per game in 2017 and had three shutouts. The Pioneers finished the 2016 season with an 8-3 record and advanced to the playoffs. In 2015, Siefkes worked as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Wisconsin, helping with the defensive line. With the Badgers, he coached alongside former defensive coordinator and current Baylor head coach Dave Aranda. Wisconsin led the nation in scoring defense (13.7 ppg) and ranked 2nd nationally in total defense (268.5 ypg) that season. They defeated USC in the Holiday Bowl, the Badgers second consecutive bowl game victory.

He was a quality control coach at Florida International in 2014 and before that coached at his alma mater, Wisconsin-La Crosse (2012-13) as a student assistant. While at Wisconsin-La Crosse he helped with defensive backs, linebackers and specialists. Siefkes (SEEF-kiss) played defensive back for one season (2011) at Wisconsin-La Crosse before injuries ended his playing career. He then worked (2012-13) as a student assistant with the Eagles. Siefkes also served as a strength and conditioning intern at the Air Force Academy in the summer of 2013.

He received a bachelor's degree in Exercise and Sports Science from Wisconsin-La Crosse and a master's in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis from the University of Wisconsin. Siefkes and his wife, Carrissa, were married in July, 2020.

CORNERBACKS

COLLEGE: William & Mary

HOMETOWN: King George, VA

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 1/1

DOB: October 3, 1990

Ryan Smith is in his first season with the Cardinals, and his first season in the NFL, after he was hired to coach cornerbacks on 3/1/23. He came to Arizona from Northwestern University where he spent the 2022 season in the same role with the Wildcats.

Prior to working at Northwestern, Smith spent two seasons (2020-21) at Virginia Tech coaching cornerbacks and added the title of defensive pass game coordinator in 2021. Smith was one of two ACC staff members named to the 24/7Sports.com College Football Rising Stars list in 2020.

In his first season at Virginia Tech in 2020, Smith mentored future Titans first-round pick CB Caleb Farley while also tutoring freshman All-American CB Dorian Strong. In 2021, he helped CB Jermaine Walker to All-ACC second-team honors after finishing with a league-best four INTs to go along with 45 tackles, five passes defended and a TD.

Smith coached safeties and was the pro scout liaison at James Madison in 2019, helping the Dukes finish 1st in the FCS in total defense (264.7 ypg), 3rd in scoring defense (14.9 ppg) and 2nd in third-down percentage (29.0%) on the way to an appearance in the FCS National Championship Game. James Madison tied for 7th in the FCS with 17 INTs, 11 of which came from Smith's safeties. Under his tutelage, safeties Adam Smith and D'Angelo Amos both earned first-team all-conference honors. Smith led the team with six INTs and was a third-team All-American selection while Amos had two INTs and three blocked kicks.

Prior to his time at James Madison, Smith spent two seasons (2017-18) coaching the secondary at Elon University where he had multiple players earn All-Conference honors. Defensive backs Greg Liggs Jr. (2nd) and Tyler Campbell (3rd) were all-conference selections in 2018. Liggs Jr. and DB Connor Christiansen tied for 3rd in the conference that season after each had four INTs. In 2017, DB Chris Blair earned third-team All-CAA accolades.

Smith went to Elon after spending two seasons (2015-16) at Penn State as a defensive graduate assistant where he was part of a 2016 team that won the Big Ten Championship and played in the Rose Bowl, finishing with an 11-3 record. The Nittany Lions had 10 INTs and broke up 60 passes in 2015. He helped develop four future NFL defensive backs in Marcus Allen, Troy Apke, Trevor Williams and Jordan Lucas. Smith started his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Texas-San Antonio in 2014.

He played cornerback collegiately at William & Mary (2010-13) and helped the Tribe to the 2009 FCS semifinals. As a senior, Smith started all 12 games and finished the season with 47 tackles, two tackles for loss, a sack, 10 passes defended and an interception. He played 22 games at William & Mary and was a two-time CAA Academic All-Conference selection (2012-13).

A native of King George, VA, Smith graduated from William & Mary in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in Process Management and received his master's degree in Educational Leadership from Penn State. He and his wife, Kristina, have a daughter, Leila Michele.

TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: Mesa State

HOMETOWN: Denver, CO

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 12/1

DOB: May 27, 1978

Ben Steele is in his 16th season coaching and 10th in the NFL after joining Arizona's staff on 3/1/23 as tight ends coach. He came to the Cardinals from Denver after working as the Broncos assistant offensive line coach in 2022.

Prior to coaching in Denver, Steele spent one season (2021) as the assistant offensive line coach with the Minnesota Vikings following two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons where he was an offensive assistant (2019) and tight ends coach (2020). Steele entered the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and worked for three seasons (2014-16) as offensive quality control coach before coaching tight ends for two years (2017-18).

During his time in Minnesota, Steele helped mentor an offensive line that paved the way for RB Dalvin Cook and WR Justin Jefferson to produce 1,000-yard rushing and receiving seasons and QB Kirk Cousins to throw for over 4,000 yards and 33 TDs. All three were named to the Pro Bowl in 2021, as was Vikings RT Brian O'Neill, who earned his first career Pro Bowl selection that season. Behind an offensive line that allowed the fifth-fewest sacks in the NFL (30), the Vikings offense was one of just three (Dallas, Cincinnati) to feature a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher.

During his tenure in Atlanta, Steele coached TE Austin Hooper to his second Pro Bowl after catching 75 passes for 787 yards and six TDs in 2019. TE Hayden Hurst had a career-high 56 receptions for 571 yards (10.2-yard avg.) and six TDs in 2020.

In 2021 the Falcons were 6th in the NFL passing attempts, 2nd in passing yards and 3rd in total TDs while the team ranked 4th in passing attempts and 5th in passing yards in 2020. Steele entered the NFL with the Buccaneers where he spent five seasons (2014-18), including his final two years overseeing tight ends. While coaching tight ends in 2018, he helped TEs Cameron Brate and O.J. Howard combine for 64 receptions, 865 receiving yards and 11 TDs.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Steele spent six seasons at the collegiate level. He worked at the University of California-Davis as the tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator (2013) and was an offensive assistant at the University of California from 2011-12. Steele spent two years at the University of Colorado as an operations & recruiting assistant (2009) and as a graduate assistant (2010). He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Mesa State, as an offensive assistant in 2008.

Steele played tight end in the NFL after entering the league as an undrafted rookie free agent with San Francisco in 2001. Following a stint with the Frankfurt Galaxy NFL Europe in 2002, he spent time with the Vikings during training camp in 2003 and 2004 before appearing in 17 career regular season games and one postseason contest with Green Bay (2004-05) where he had four receptions for 42 yards and a fumble recovery.

He played two seasons collegiately at Fort Lewis College (1997-98) before finishing his career at Mesa State University (1999-2000). As a senior at Mesa State, Steele received All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference honors.

A native of Denver, CO, Steele graduated from Mesa State with a bachelor's degree in Communications with an emphasis in Broadcasting. He and his wife, Rachel, have two daughters, Cora and Elise and two sons, Creed and Luke.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: Southeastern Louisiana

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 1/1

HOMETOWN: Poway, CA

DOB: March 14, 1990

Patrick Toney is in his first season with Arizona and first in the NFL after being hired to coach defensive backs on 3/1/23.

Toney came to the Cardinals after working at the collegiate level the past 11 years, including in 2022 at the University of Florida where he was the Gators co-defensive coordinator/safeties coach. He went to Florida after four seasons (2018-21) at the University of Louisiana where he served as the defensive coordinator for his final two seasons in addition to coaching safeties and outside linebackers.

During his two seasons (2020-21) as the defensive coordinator at Louisiana, the Ragin Cajuns went 23-2 and won two Sun Belt Championships, giving up the fewest points (501) and yards per play (5.02) in the conference while forcing the most takeaways (46). The team's 16 INTs in 2020 tied for the most in the conference and the 3rd most in the nation.

In 2021, Louisiana finished 1st in the Sun Belt Conference in scoring defense (18.3 ppg) and tied for 9th nationally. The year before, they ranked 4th in the conference and 31st in the country in scoring defense (22.0 ppg) while also ranking 4th in the league and 33rd nationally in total defense (355.4 ypg). He coached four players who earned all-conference honors in 2020 (Zi'Yon Hill & Bralen Trahan-2nd team; Eric Garror & Lorenzo McCaskill-3rd team) and also S Percy Butler who was selected by Washington in the fourth-round of the 2022 NFL Draft. In 2019, Louisiana led the conference in scoring defense (19.7 ppg) and pass defense (197.7 ypg).

Prior to working at Louisiana, Toney coached safeties for two seasons (2016-17) at the University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA), helping the Roadrunners defense finish 7th in the country in 2017 after allowing 287.8 yards per game. They were 8th in scoring defense (17.0 ppg), 2nd in first downs allowed (166) and 19th in pass efficiency (112.2). In 2016, UTSA appeared in the school's first-ever bowl game (Gildan New Mexico Bowl). S Michael Egwuagu earned 2nd team All-Conference USA honors in 2016.

Toney was the secondary coach at Sam Houston State in 2015, helping the Bearkats to an 11-4 record while making it to the semifinals of the FCS playoffs. The defense forced 24 turnovers, including 17 interceptions that season. He started his college coaching career at his alma mater, Southeastern Louisiana, in 2012 as a defensive assistant/secondary coach for two seasons before being promoted to safeties coach/special teams coordinator in 2014. During his tenure at Southeastern Louisiana, the Lions ranked 1st in the FCS in pass efficiency defense, 2nd in interceptions, 5th redzone defense, 7th in total defense and 8th in scoring defense. He also coached two future Cardinals in CB Robert Alford and S Harlan Miller. Coaching special teams, the Lions topped the nation in kickoff return average and were 6th in blocked kicks.

He spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator at La Costa Canyon (CA) High School (2010-11) after working as the wide receivers coach at Palomar Community College in 2009 and as the defensive line coach at Fallbrook (CA) High School in 2008.

A native of Poway, CA, Toney graduated from Southeastern Louisiana in 2012 with a degree in General Studies. He and his wife, Courtney, live in Chandler, AZ.

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 5/5

DOB: March 18, 1989

NOTECARDS

- In his fourth season coaching with the Cardinals, Whipple originally joined the staff as an offensive quality control coach in 2019 and was elevated to assistant wide receivers coach in 2020. Promoted to co-pass game coordinator in 2022.
- Has coached WR DeAndre Hopkins who in 2020 was selected to his fifth career Pro Bowl and received second-team All-Pro honors after having a franchise record 115 receptions (2nd in the NFL) for 1,407 yards (3rd in the NFL) and six TDs. He also tied for second in the league with seven 100-yard receiving games that season.
- During the team's Week 6 victory at Cleveland in 2021, Whipple called plays in collaboration with the offensive coaching staff due to head coach Kliff Kingsbury missing the game because of COVID-19.
- Prior to joining the Cardinals in 2019, Whipple spent seven years coaching at the collegiate level. He coached the final five seasons (2014-18) at the University of Massachusetts where he served as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2018.
- His dad, Mark, is currently the offensive coordinator at the University of Nebraska after working in the same role at the University of Pittsburgh the past three years. Mark previously served two stints as the head coach at UMass and also worked in the NFL as an offensive assistant coach with Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Cleveland.

Spencer Whipple begins his first season as pass game specialist in 2023 and his fifth year with the team after originally joining Arizona's coaching staff in 2019. He served as co-pass game coordinator in 2022 after working as assistant wide receivers coach for two seasons (2020-21) following one year (2019) as offensive quality control coach.

Whipple worked with All-Pro WR DeAndre Hopkins in each of the past three seasons (2020-22). In his first season with Arizona in 2020, Hopkins was selected to his fifth career Pro Bowl and received second-team All-Pro honors after having a franchise record 115 receptions (2nd in the NFL) for 1,407 yards (3rd in the NFL) and six TDs. He also tied for second in the league with seven 100-yard receiving games in 2020. Last season in only nine games played due to injury, Hopkins led the team in receiving yards (717) and was second in receptions (64) after finishing with eight TDs in only 10 games in 2021.

In 2021, Arizona's offense had 4,276 net passing yards and 2,076 rushing yards, marking just the second time in franchise history (1984) that the Cardinals had 4,000+ net passing yards and 2,000+ rushing yards in a season. The Cardinals had 6,352 total net yards, the second highest total in franchise history (2015) and finished with the 10th ranked passing offense in the league (251.5 ypg). During the team's Week 6 victory at Cleveland in 2021, Whipple called plays in collaboration with the offensive coaching staff due to head coach Kliff Kingsbury missing the game because of COVID-19.

Arizona's 6,153 total net yards in 2020 were the 3rd most in team history while its 410 points were the 5th most in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Cardinals in 2019, Whipple spent seven years coaching at the collegiate level. He coached for five seasons (2014-18) at the University of Massachusetts where he served as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2018. Whipple joined the UMass staff in 2014 as tight ends coach before working three seasons (2015-17) as passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach.

In 2018, UMass WR Andy Isabella was a Biletnikoff Award finalist after leading the FBS in the regular season with 1,698 receiving yards. He finished second in the nation with 102 receptions and 5th in the country with 13 TD receptions. Isabella was a consensus first-team All-American and finished with the most receiving yards in school history (3,526). In 2017, Minutemen wide receivers had the third-most total receptions (272) and receiving yards (3,570) in school history.

Whipple also tutored WR Tajae Sharpe, who was drafted by the Titans in the fifth round of the 2016 NFL Draft. In 2015, Sharpe set a single-season reception record (111) to go along with a school career record for total receptions (277). He was a two-time first-team All-MAC selection at UMass.

Prior to working at UMass, Whipple served as a defensive graduate assistant and video assistant at the University of Pittsburgh from 2012-13. He played collegiately for three seasons (2009-11) at the University of Miami (FL) as the team's holder and backup quarterback. During his senior season in 2011, Whipple received the Mariutto Family Scholar-Athlete award. He began his college career as a walk-on at the University of Pittsburgh (2007) and spent one season at UMass (2008).

His father, Mark, was the offensive coordinator at the University of Nebraska in 2022 after working in the same position for three seasons (2019-21) at the University of Pittsburgh. He previously served two stints as the head coach at UMass and also worked in the NFL as an offensive assistant coach with Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Cleveland. In addition, Mark was an assistant coach with the Arizona Wranglers of the USFL in 1984.

Whipple earned a bachelor's degree in Sociology from the University of Miami in 2012.

ISRAEL WOOLFORK
QUARTERBACKS

COLLEGE: Grand Valley State

HOMETOWN: Livonia, MI

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/1

DOB: November 13, 1990

Israel Woolfork is in his first season with Arizona after being hired to coach quarterbacks on 3/1/23.

He came to the Cardinals from Cleveland where he assisted Browns quarterbacks last season under Drew Petzing, now Arizona's offensive coordinator. Woolfork spent the 2022 season with Cleveland as the recipient of the team's Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship.

The Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship was created by the Browns as an opportunity for rising minority coaches with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. The fellowship was named after Willis, who along with Browns teammate Marion Motley, were two of the first African-American professional football players in the modern era. Willis played with the Browns from 1946-53 and was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977. Woolfork started with the Browns in the 2021 offseason as part of the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship and worked with Cleveland's tight ends.

Woolfork began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Miami (OH) University from 2013-14. He then coached running backs (2015-17) and wide receivers (2018-21) with the RedHawks prior to joining the Browns. RBs Alonzo Smith and Kenny Young broke multiple school records under Woolfork's tutelage. Smith finished his career ranked 8th all-time with 2,613 rushing yards and Young was 10th in school history with 3,259 all-purpose yards, 13th with 1,989 rushing yards and was one of only two players in school history with 1,900+ rushing yards and at least 100 receptions in his career.

Miami WR Jack Sorensen earned All-Mid-American Conference honors in both 2018 (third-team) and 2020 (second-team) while working with Woolfork. He was named the Offensive Player of the Game in the MAC Championship in 2019 after catching eight passes for 123 yards and a TD.

Woolfork played wide receiver at Grand Valley State University (2008-12). A three-year starter, he was a team captain as a senior in addition to earning all-conference honors. As a sophomore, Woolfork helped lead the Lakers to the D-II National Championship.

He graduated from Grand Valley State with a degree in Sports Leadership in 2013.

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: Springfield (MA) College

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 26/1

HOMETOWN: Hauppauge, NY

Dave Sears is in his first season with the Cardinals and 27th in the NFL after being hired as Arizona's Assistant General Manager in January, 2023.

Sears came to Arizona after spending the past 16 seasons with Detroit, including the previous four years (2019-22) as the Lions director of college scouting. He joined the Lions in May, 2007 as a regional scout and spent 10 years in that role until he was elevated to assistant director of college in 2017 where he spent the following two seasons (2017-18).

In his current role with the Cardinals, his duties include evaluating the top college prospects nationally as well as the organization and implementation of the draft process. Sears oversees the pro personnel department which includes player acquisition, evaluation and assisting with player contract negotiations.

Detroit's 2022 NFL Draft class made an immediate impact for the Lions last season. The group combined to lead all NFL rookies in sacks (18.5), tackles for loss (24), QB pressures (87) and QB hurries (55) while finishing second in interceptions (six).

Before working with the Lions, Sears spent seven seasons (2000-06) as a scout with the Houston Texans where he worked with Cardinals GM Monti Ossenfort for three seasons (2002; 2004-05).

Prior to his time in Houston, Sears worked three seasons (1997-99) with the Washington Commanders scouting department. He started with Washington as an intern in January, 1997 and was hired as a scouting administrator before being promoted as the Commanders BLESTO scout in May, 1998. Sears also spent time as an intern with the Springfield Falcons in the American Hockey League.

Sears earned a bachelor's degree in Sports Management from Springfield (MA) College and was a four-year linebacker on the football team. He attended Hauppauge (NY) High School and lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. Sears has a daughter, Delaine.

ALLYSON WACHTEL NAMED SECOND RECIPIENT OF ADELE HARRIS SCHOLARSHIP

In August of 2022, the Arizona Cardinals announced that Allyson Wachtel was selected as the 2022 recipient of the "Adele Harris Scholarship."

A graduate of Corona del Sol (Tempe, AZ) High School, Wachtel starred on the school's soccer team where she served as a team captain for two seasons, was named a three-time 6A Central first-team all-region selection and was selected Tempe All-City Athlete three times (2019, 2020, 2022). Wachtel was also a member of the National Honor Society and participated in DECA and Best Buddies, serving as secretary for both clubs. She will play soccer at Colorado Mesa University beginning this fall where she will major in Public Accounting and plans on pursuing a master's degree in Sports Management.

ABOUT THE ADELE HARRIS SCHOLARSHIP: In May 2021, the Cardinals introduced the "Adele Harris Scholarship" to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Harris becoming the first African American female to hold a front office position in the NFL. The $10,000 scholarship is awarded annually to assist a graduating high school student in the state of Arizona who is pursuing a career in sports. Katelyn Claw of Monument Valley (Kayenta, AZ) High School was the inaugural recipient of the award last year.

Harris spent 26 years in a variety of public and community relations roles within the Cardinals organization before retiring in 2001. A Chicago native, she was raised in St. Louis and joined the team in 1971 as a PR assistant. She left the club to pursue a degree in business management and returned in 1978 as a publicity assistant.

By 1980, Harris became Director of Community Relations and was instrumental in the team's civic efforts when it relocated to Arizona in 1988. She played a key role in the formation of Cardinals Charities, which was launched in 1990 as a vehicle to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women and minorities in Arizona. Adele passed away in 2007 at the age of 65.
