KANSAS CITY CHIEFS VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS

State Farm Stadium | August 20, 2021 | 5:00 PM

THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

The Cardinals welcome the defending AFC Champion Kansas City Chiefs to State Farm Stadium on Friday for a matchup that will air nationally on ESPN. Following this game Arizona is next in front of its home fans in Week 2 of the regular season vs. Minnesota on Sept. 19.

Highlighting Friday's game will be the reunion of Cardinals head coach Kliff Kingsbury and Chiefs All-Pro QB Patrick Mahomes. Before he was a first-round draft pick, NFL MVP and Super Bowl MVP, Mahomes played three seasons at Texas Tech during Kingsbury's time as head coach. In 2016, Texas Tech led the nation in total offense and Mahomes led the nation in passing yards.

While the Cardinals and Chiefs have met just 13 times during the regular season, they have had twice as many matchups (26) during preseason. The vast majority of those occurred when both teams were based in Missouri. Between 1968 and 1987, meetings (both preseason and regular season) between the Cardinals and Chiefs were known as the Missouri Governor's Cup. The two teams squared off during the preseason in all 20 years during that span and they also met five times during the regular season.

Following this week's game the Cardinals make their first road trip of the season when they travel to New Orleans for the preseason finale against the Saints.

ENO & THE ROOKIES SHINE VS. DALLAS

The Cardinals opened preseason play with a 19-16 victory over the Dallas Cowboys last Friday. With many of Arizona's starters not in action, it was a host of younger players who made an impression - in particular second-year RB Eno Benjamin and numerous players from of the 2021 draft class.

BENJAMIN STANDS OUT IN 1ST GAME WITH CARDS

A 7th round selection (222nd overall) in the 2020 NFL Draft out of Arizona State, Benjamin played in his first game as a Cardinal last week. Following a rookie campaign that featured a cancelled preseason and in which he was inactive in all 16 regular season games - it was Benjamin's first game action since Nov. 30, 2019 with the Sun Devils.

Following a strong showing early in training camp, the second-year back had a big game in the midst of his fight for a roster spot. Benjamin rushed for 50 yards and a TD on just five carries while also totaling 84 yards on three kickoff returns.

ARIZONA'S DRAFT CLASS HAS IMPRESSIVE SHOWING

The Cardinals top five picks in the 2021 NFL Draft - LB Zaven Collins (1st Rnd, 16th overall), WR Rondale Moore (2nd Rnd, 49th overall), CB Marco Wilson (4th Rnd, 136th overall), LB Victor Dimukeje (6th Rnd, 210th overall) and CB Tay Gowan (6th Rnd, 223rd overall) - all put together strong performances.

COLLINS: Started in his NFL debut and finished with two tackles, a tackle for loss and a QB hit. Took down Cowboys RB Tony Pollard in the backfield for a two-yard loss on the game's second play.

MOORE: Did a little of everything in his 23 offensive snaps. Had three receptions for 23 yards while also rushing twice for 16 yards.

WILSON: Played 35 snaps and finished with three forced incompletions (including two passes defended) on six targets.

DIMUKEJE: Accounted for the Cardinals only takeaway with a fumble recovery early in the second quarter.

GOWAN: After missing the 2020 college season, returned to the field and posted a tackle and a pass defended in 34 snaps.

Friday's primetime matchup on ESPN will be the 27th all-time preseason meeting between the Cardinals and Chiefs dating back to 1968. The only NFL teams the Cardinals have faced more in the preseason than Kansas City are Chicago (29x) and Denver (28x). The Cardinals are 10-15-1 in the preseason vs. Kansas City.

The vast majority of those contests occurred when both teams were based in Missouri. Between 1968 and 1987, meetings (both preseason and regular season) between the Cardinals and Chiefs were known as the Missouri Governor's Cup. The two teams squared off during the preseason in all 20 years during that span and they also met five times during the regular season.

A COACH FACES HIS FORMER PUPIL

When he was hired as the Cardinals head coach in 2019, Kliff Kingsbury was recognized as one of the profession's brightest and most-innovative offensive minds while working with quarterbacks during his 11 years (2008-18) at the college level.

Among the six future NFL QBs Kingsbury mentored in that time was prized pupil Patrick Mahomes. The future first-round pick, NFL MVP and Super Bowl MVP, Mahomes played three seasons (2014-16) at Texas Tech while Kingsbury served as head coach.

Mahomes was the starter at Tech for two full seasons (2015-16) and in that time the Red Raiders finished #2 (2015) and #1 (2016) in the nation in total offense while he threw for a combined 9,705 yards and 77 TDs in 25 starts.

As a sophomore in 2015, Mahomes became the youngest QB in NCAA history to amass 5,000 yards of total offense. He eclipsed the 5,000-yard mark again in 2016, becoming just the third quarterback ever to record 5,000+ yards of total offense in back-to-back seasons. Mahomes led the nation with 5,052 passing yards in '16.

MATHIEU MAKES HIS AZ RETURN

For the first time since 2017, All-Pro S Tyrann Mathieu will be on the field at State Farm Stadium when the Cardinals host the Chiefs on Friday night.

Drafted by Arizona in the third round (69th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft, Mathieu spent five seasons (2013-17) with the Cardinals. In 66 games (57 starts) with Arizona, he totaled 308 tackles, 11 INTs, 41 passes defended, 28 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks, 4 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

Mathieu had his best season with Arizona in 2015 when he earned 1st-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors after totaling 89 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 5 INTs, a career-high 17 passes defended and a forced fumble.

Has was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month (October of '13), NFC Defensive Player of the Month (November of '15) and NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 3 of '15) during his time in Arizona.

WELCOMING BACK THE RED SEA IN 2021

Following a 2020 campaign in which the majority of NFL teams played in mostly empty stadiums due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Cardinals welcomed fans back to State Farm Stadium as the team opened its 16th season at the venue last week in the preseason opener vs. Dallas.

Of Arizona's 16 regular season games last season, just five were played with the general public in attendance. Those five contests saw a total of just 39,894 fans on hand. Last Friday, a total of 59,954 fans were in attendance as the Cardinals earned a 19-16 victory over the Cowboys.

Once State Farm Stadium opened in 2006 the Cardinals sold out every pre-pandemic game played there.

PLAYING A CRUCIAL ROLE DURING THE PANDEMIC

Since the start of the pandemic, State Farm Stadium has served a number of important functions as the site of numerous blood drives, PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) drives, testing drives and as one of the nation's first - and most successful - vaccination sites.

Early in the pandemic, blood donations and PPE hit critically low levels and State Farm Stadium served as the site of numerous blood drives and a pair of PPE drives to help ailing patients and first responders.

In 2021, State Farm Stadium was also host to one of the first - and most successful - vaccination sites in the nation. Between January and April, more than 800,000 COVID-19 vaccines were administered at State Farm Stadium, which accounted for nearly 20% of the total doses administered in Arizona during that period.

The site was so successful that President Joe Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris participated in a virtual tour on February 8 and the administration called the operation "an incredible model." Biden told Arizona Department of Health Services Director Dr. Cara Christ during the tour; "I got a call during the Super Bowl from the commissioner of football (Roger Goodell) offering us, the federal government, the 30 major stadiums. They're going to be coming to you to look at how you did it because you're doing such a great job."

THE NEW FACES IN 2020

Among the new faces in Arizona this season are 3 additions to Kliff Kingsbury's coaching staff, 29 veterans acquired during the free agent period, 7 draft picks and 2 rookie free agents.

In addition to the new hires, two existing coaches received promotions in the offseason:

ADDING AN ALL-PRO ON THE O-LINE

Arizona acquired C Rodney Hudson and a 7th-round selection in the 2021 NFL Draft from Las Vegas in exchange for the Cardinals 3rd-round selection. Hudson is a 10-year NFL veteran who played the past six seasons (2015-20) with the Raiders where he started at center in all 92 games he appeared in.

Recent Success: All three of Hudson's Pro Bowl selections (2016-17, 2019) have come in the last 5 seasons. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned 2nd-team All-Pro honors in 2019.

A Reliable Player: In the last eight seasons, Hudson played 124 of a possible 128 games - missing just one game in the last five years. Hudson has played at least 800 snaps each of the last eight seasons, including six years playing 1,000+ snaps.

Keeping His QBs Clean: According to Pro Football Focus, Hudson ranks first among all NFL centers with a 93.6 pass-blocking grade dating back to 2015. The site credits him with just three sacks allowed in 3,445 pass-blocking snaps and a 1.2% pressure rate over the last six seasons.

DEBUT OF THE 17-GAME REGULAR SEASON

For the first time ever, the NFL will have a 17-game regular season beginning in 2021. Teams have played a 16-game regular season since 1978. The league had a 14-game regular season between 1961-77.

To accommodate the 17th game, teams will go from a four-game preseason to a three-game slate. With Arizona having an extra road game during the regular season, two of its three preseason matchups will be held at State Farm Stadium.

HOW THE EXTRA MATCHUP IS DECIDED

The additional game is an interconference matchup between AFC and NFC divisions two years removed from their last meeting, going against the team that finished in the same spot in their respective divisions. The site of a team's 17th game will rotate each year, with the AFC getting a 9th home game in 2021. That will give Arizona a 9th road game this season.

For the Cardinals - who finished 3rd in the NFC West in 2020 - the extra game means a trip to Cleveland to face the Browns, who finished 3rd in the AFC North last season. That game will take place in Week 6.

CARDINALS SCHEDULE NOTES IN 2021

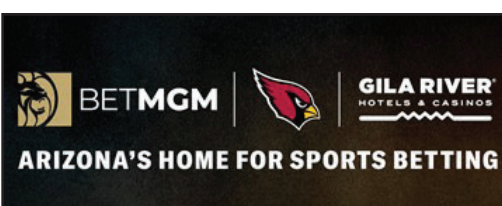

Below is a look at Arizona's scheduled opponents for the 2021 season and how they finished in 2020.

- The Cardinals join the Ravens and Seahawks as the only three teams that start the season with three of their first four games on the road.
- The Cardinals take on the AFC South (Houston, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Tennessee) and the NFC North (Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Minnesota).
- In addition to facing the AFC South and NFC North, Arizona will host Carolina, who finished the 2020 season in 3rd place in the NFC South. The Cardinals will travel to play the Cowboys, who finished 3rd in the NFC East in 2020.
- The Cards have eight games against teams that finished the 2020 season with at least 10 wins and seven games vs. teams that had 11+ wins.

CARDS PARTNER WITH BETMGM & GILA RIVER

Last week, BetMGM announced partnership with Gila River Hotels & Casinos and the Arizona Cardinals for retail and online sports betting, establishing its first relationships in the state of Arizona.

BetMGM will bring its industry leading platform online once legalized sports betting launches in Arizona. The company also plans to open retail sportsbooks at the three Arizona Gila River properties and at State Farm Stadium.

"This is a tremendous opportunity to build upon our long-standing relationship with Gila River and launch a new one with BetMGM," said Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill. "They are best-in-class partners whose excellence and expertise in this emerging space will provide a new and innovative way to engage and interact with our fans."

Gila River Hotels & Casinos operates three Arizona locations, all owned by the Gila River Indian Community: Wild Horse Pass, Lone Butte, and Vee Quiva. All three will feature custom built BetMGM Sportsbooks, set to open near football season, reflective of its sports-centric brand.

"Arizona sports fans are extremely passionate and we're confident they'll enjoy the BetMGM experience," said BetMGM CEO Adam Greenblatt. "Gila River Hotels & Casinos and the Arizona Cardinals represent the state's premier casino destinations and sports franchise, making them the ideal partners for us."

#99 COMES OUT OF RETIREMENT

DLJJ. Watt has been wearing the #99 jersey since his college days at the University of Wisconsin. When the Cardinals acquired him in free agency, a number change seemed inevitable since the digits were retired by the Cardinals in tribute to Marshall Goldberg, a star on the 1947 championship team.

However, #99 was unretired for Watt after he received permission to wear it from Goldberg's daughter, Ellen Goldberg Tullos. Watt was prepared to select a new number after learning of Goldberg's impressive legacy, but then read an article saying Tullos would be fine with him taking over #99. Watt gave her a call to confirm and indeed had her blessing.

Remembering Marshall Goldberg

- Goldberg played eight seasons (1939-43, '46-48) for the Cardinals after a being selected in the 1939 NFL Draft.

- Was a member of the 1947 NFL Championship team, and his late INT in the title game vs. the Eagles sealed the victory.

- A six-time All-Pro defensive back, Goldberg also played halfback/fullback and was a return specialist. During the 1941 season Goldberg rushed for 427 yards and 3 TDs and had 313 receiving yards on offense. He also led the NFL with 7 INTs, 12 kick-off returns, 290 kickoff return yards and 1,236 all-purpose yards.

- Goldberg's playing career was interrupted by his service during World War II. He joined the Navy in 1943 and spent two years in the South Pacific rising to the rank of lieutenant. In preparation for his service Goldberg underwent rigorous Scout and Ranger training in a unit that was a forerunner of the Navy Seals. Two months after the bombing of Hiroshima, Goldberg walked the remains of the city to help assess the damage.

YOUNG GUYS IN THE MIDDLE

In the middle of the Cardinals defense is a pair of young linebackers that the team selected in the first round of the last two NFL Drafts: 22-year old rookie LB Zaven Collins and 23-year old second-year LB Isaiah Simmons.

Collins was taken 16th overall in the 2021 NFL Draft out of Tulsa and Simmons was taken 8th overall in 2020 out of Clemson. It marked just the second time in team history (1985-86) the Cardinals selected a LB in the first round of back-to-back drafts.

COLLINS AND SIMMONS - THE COLLEGE NUMBERS

Simmons was the 2019 Butkus Award Winner and Collins was the recipient of the Lombardi Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Chuck Bednarik Award in 2020. Both were unanimous 1st-team All-American selections in their final college season.

Statistic	Simmons	Collins
Games	44	32
Tackles	236	236
Tackles for Loss	28	29
Sacks	10.0	7.5
Interceptions	4	5
Passes Defensed	19	8
Forced Fumbles	5	3
Fumble Recoveries	1	3

RARE ATHLETIC TALENTS

Both Simmons and Collins possess a rare combination of size and speed for the linebacker position.

Collins: At 6-4, 260, he clocked a 4.67 40-yard dash time at his pro day. In 2020, despite playing just eight games, he recorded 4 INTs with TD returns of 38 and 96 yards.

Simmons: At the 2020 NFL Combine, Simmons ran a 4.39 40-yard dash, tied for the 7th-best total among all prospects at any position.

SIMMONS EARNS ALL-ROOKIE HONORS IN 2020.

Simmons earned PFWA All-Rookie honors for the Cardinals last season after posting 47 tackles, four tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, an INT, two passes defensed, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in 16 games (seven starts).

PLAY OF THE YEAR IN 2020

One of the enduring moments of the 2020 NFL season was the Cardinals "Hail Murray" victory over the Buffalo Bills in Week 10. In that contest, Arizona earned 32-30 win over the Bills on a game-winning TD pass from QB Kyler Murray to WR DeAndre Hopkins, in which the Cardinals Pro Bowl receiver outjumped three Bills defenders to come down with the ball.

The "Hail Murray" was named the "Best Play" at the 2021 ESPYS, held in July in New York City.

The "Hail Murray" was also named the 2020 Bridgestone Clutch Play of the Year at NFL Honors in February.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Cardinals victory over the Bills marked just the second time in 60 years that a game featured multiple go-ahead passing TDs in the final 0:40 seconds of regulation. Bills WR Stefon Diggs had a 21-yard TD catch with 0:34 remaining that gave the Bills a 30-26 lead. Four plays later Hopkins brought down a 43-yard TD on a pass from Murray with just 0:02 remaining.

HOPKINS TRADE NAMED TRANSACTION OF THE YEAR

The "Hail Murray" would have never happened if the Cardinals hadn't acquired Hopkins last offseason. The trade that brought the All-Pro wideout to Arizona received the Alpha Award for "Best Sports Transaction of the Year" from the MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference at the group's annual gathering in April.

A portion of the proceeds from the cereal will benefit the nonprofit organization S.M.O.O.T.H. - which was launched by Hopkins' mom, Sabrina Greenlee, to help survivors of domestic violence.

The cereal boxes feature a rendering of Hopkins' "Hail Murray" TD catch that defeated the Buffalo Bills last season. The box also features a color-in panel that can be illustrated and submitted via social media for chance to win signed merchandise.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

The 2021 season marks the 15th since owner Michael Bidwill began leading the organization. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

- Michael continues a tradition of Bidwill ownership of the Cardinals that dates back to his grandfather, Hall of Famer Charles Bidwill, in 1933.
- Of the franchise's seven all-time postseason wins, five have come with Michael leading the organization. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests over the last 14 seasons, after having appeared in just seven total playoff games prior.
- Arizona has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice since 2008 including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).
- Among Bidwill's most substantial accomplishments with the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. The world-class venue has proved a critical turning point for the franchise, an economic engine for the state of Arizona, and most recently, a crucial resource in the battle against the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Since State Farm Stadium opened in 2006 it has hosted two Super Bowls (with a third – Super Bowl LVII – set to cap the 2022 season) and the Cardinals sold out every pre-pandemic game played there.
- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII, XLIX and LVII Michael was also instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to State Farm Stadium; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX, the two events combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.
- State Farm Stadium served as a critical site since the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020. The venue hosted three blood drives at the beginning of the outbreak and in 2021 it became one of the first - and most successful - mass vaccination site in the nation.
- In January of 2018, Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee. The committee reviews the league's Personal Conduct Policy at least annually and recommends appropriate changes with advice from outside experts.

CARDS HONOR ADELE HARRIS WITH SCHOLARSHIP

In May, the Cardinals announced the creation of the "Adele Harris Scholarship" to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Harris becoming the first African American female to hold a front office position in the NFL.

Harris spent 26 years in a variety of public and community relations roles within the Cardinals organization before retiring in 2001. A Chicago native, she was raised in St. Louis and joined the Cardinals in 1971 as an assistant in the PR department. She left the club to pursue a degree in business management and returned in 1978 as a publicity assistant.

By 1980, Harris became Director of Community Relations and was instrumental in the team's civic efforts when it relocated to Arizona in 1988. She played a key role in the formation of Cardinals Charities, which was launched in 1990 as a vehicle to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women and minorities in Arizona. Adele passed away in 2007 at the age of 65.

The $10,000 "Adele Harris Scholarship" will be awarded annually to assist a graduating high school student in the state of Arizona who is pursuing a career in sports.

"This scholarship serves two main purposes," said Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill. "It recognizes the valuable role that Adele played within our organization for more than a quarter of a century and also connects her to future generations who aspire to follow in her footsteps. We are grateful for the opportunity to do both of those things."

SUPER BOWL COMING BACK TO AZ

Valley Will Host 4th Super Bowl When Game Returns in 2023

In June, the National Football League and the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee announced that Super Bowl LVII will be played at State Farm Stadium on Sunday, February 12, 2023.

"The selection of the date for Super Bowl LVII means we are getting closer to the event all of Arizona is anticipating," said David Rousseau, Chairman of the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee. "The exposure and economic impact it brings to our region is unmatched and so is the level of community support required to execute such a massive undertaking."

Arizona was selected to host Super Bowl LVII in May of 2018, marking the fourth time that a Super Bowl was awarded to the state. It is the third time the nation's most popular sporting event will be played at State Farm Stadium and first since Super Bowl XLIX following the 2014 season.

Arizona joins South Florida, New Orleans, Los Angeles and Tampa Bay as the only sites selected to host the Super Bowl at least four times.

Past Super Bowls in Arizona

Super Bowl	Site	Date	Result
XLIX (49)	State Farm Stadium	Feb. 1, 2015	Patriots 28, Seahawks 24
XLII (42)	State Farm Stadium	Feb. 3, 2008	Giants 17, Patriots 14

ECONOMIC IMPACT: The last time the game was staged in Arizona, it produced a record economic impact for the state. A 2015 study by the Seidman Research Institute, W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University determined that Super Bowl XLIX, the 2015 Pro Bowl and related events produced a gross economic impact of $719.4 million for the region. That was the largest economic impact of any special event ever held in Arizona. In addition to the games played in Glendale, more than 1 million people visited Verizon Super Bowl Central in downtown Phoenix and more than 500,000 people enjoyed events in downtown Scottsdale.

In a span of just over 26 months in 2015-17, State Farm Stadium hosted a Pro Bowl, Super Bowl, College Football National Championship Game and the NCAA Men's Final Four.

It was an unprecedented stretch for a stadium that generated $1.3 billion in economic impact for the state during that 26-month span.

KEIM HAS BUILT SOME OF THE BEST

After 14 seasons working within the Cardinals personnel department, Steve Keim was elevated to GM on January 8, 2013. The teams put together by Keim have been some of the most successful in franchise history.

- In 2014, the Cardinals tied the franchise record for wins in a season (11) before setting a new mark in 2015 when Arizona won 13 games and earned its first-ever postseason bye.

- During Keim's tenure, Arizona has established franchise records for wins in a season (13 in 2015), points in a season (489 in 2015), led the NFL in total offense for the first time in team history (#1 in 2015) and led the NFL in sacks for the second time ever (48.0 in 2016).

- Arizona has featured a top-10 defense four times and a top-10 offense three times dating back to Keim's first season as GM. The Cardinals had a top-10 defense in three consecutive seasons (2015-17) for the first time since the 1970 merger. In 2020, Arizona offense ranked #6 overall after posting 6,153 total yards, the third-most in franchise history.

- Selected QB Kyler Murray with the #1 overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft. Murray was named the 2019 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and followed up in 2020 by becoming the youngest QB in franchise history (23) to earn a Pro Bowl nod.

- Among the trades negotiated by Keim during his tenure as GM are the acquisition of QB Carson Palmer from Oakland in 2013, acquiring LB Chandler Jones from New England in 2016, the trade that landed WR DeAndre Hopkins from Houston in 2020 and the trade with Las Vegas to acquire OL Rodney Hudson in 2021.

- The 2021 free agency period was one of Keim's busiest as GM. The players the Cardinals acquired have a combined 20 Pro Bowl selections and 11 All-Pro nods. Arizona brought in six different Pro Bowlers in the offseason: DL J.J. Watt, WR A.J. Green, OL Rodney Hudson, K Matt Prater, CB Malcolm Butler and RB James Conner.

- Named Sporting News 2014 NFL Executive of the Year and earned back-to-back NFL Executive of the Year honors from the editors of Pro Football Talk (2013-14).

EDMONDS READY FOR BIGGER ROLE

Entering his fourth NFL season in 2021, RB Chase Edmonds is poised to take on a much bigger role in the Cardinals offense.

The former Fordham All-American is coming off the most productive year of his career in 2020 - one that saw him establish career highs for scrimmage yards (850), rushing attempts (97), rushing yards (448), receptions (53), receiving yards (402), receiving TDs (4) and total TDs (5).

Edmonds 2020 Highlights:

- Averaged 4.6 yards per carry on a career-high 97 rushing attempts.
- Had more scrimmage yards (850) than he had in his first two seasons combined (719).
- His 448 receiving yards nearly doubled the total from his first two seasons combined (208).
- Had 4 receiving TDs in 2020, after posting one TD reception in his first two seasons combined. The only RBs in franchise history with more receiving TDs in a single season were Larry Centers (7 in 1996) and Charley Trippi (6 in 1949).

MAKING A HABIT OF LONG TOUCHDOWN RUNS

Edmonds has 157 rushing attempts over the last two seasons (2109-20) and has averaged 4.8 yards per carry. One of the main reasons for his high rushing average was his penchant for long TD runs. Edmonds has five TD runs of 20+ yards in that span.

Among all NFL players, only Titans RB Derrick Henry (7) had more TD runs of 20+ yards over the last two seasons (2019-20) than Edmonds.

AN AUSTRIAN IN ARIZONA

Bernhard Seikovits (BURN-hard / SIKE-oh-vitts) is a 23-year-old tight end from Austria who was allocated to the Cardinals in May as part of the NFL's International Player Pathway Program (IPP).

A Vienna native, he was a captain for the men's national team. Seikovits previously won two European Championships as a quarterback for the U19 national team. He played youth football for the Vienna Vikings until he was selected for the Austrian U19 national team at the age of 16.

The IPP was instituted in 2017 and provides international athletes with the opportunity to compete at the NFL level, improve their skills and ultimately earn a spot on an NFL roster.

Participating teams will carry these players on their roster until the end of training camp. The players are then eligible for an international player practice squad exemption, granting each team an extra practice squad member.

The IPP program currently has 14 international players on 11 clubs, hailing from eight different countries. To support the IPP program's continued growth, players will be allowed to wear a decal of their home country's flag on their helmets (in addition to the US flag) during the 2021 preseason.

A CAREER WORTHY OF HIS IDOL

As a youngster in Wisconsin, Watt idolized Hall of Famer Reggie White and the Green Bay Packers.

Watt's parents kept a framed photo of White near a collection of his high school and college awards in the basement of his childhood home.

Once he made it to the NFL, Watt set the trajectory for a career that looks quite similar to the man he looked up to.

Watt and White are the only players in NFL history to record 100+ sacks and be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year before turning 32 and then switching teams.

GAME-AFTER-GAME JONES GETS A SACK

Jones has 61.0 sacks as a member of the Cardinals, leaving him just 6.0 sacks shy of becoming the franchise all-time leader. That is despite the All-Pro having played just 69 games with Arizona.

Jones has been remarkably consistent since joining the Cardinals in 2016. He has at least one sack in 43 of 69 games with the team. Over the last five seasons (2016-20) - and despite Jones missing 11 games in 2020 due to injury - no player in the NFL has more games with at least one sack.

NEARLY UNSTOPPABLE IN ARIZONA

The 2020 season - in which he missed the final 11 games due to a biceps injury - proved an injury is the only thing that can slow down Jones.

In just 69 games with the Cardinals, the All-Pro has recorded 61.0 sacks. He enters the 2021 season needing just 6.0 sacks to pass Freddie Joe Nunn as the franchise all-time leader.

Jones' success in Arizona is nothing new. Since he arrived in the NFL in 2012, he has had six seasons with double-digit sacks.

He was the only player in the NFL with 10.0+ sacks in the five-year span between 2015-19, and since entering the NFL in 2012, Jones leads the NFL in sacks (97.0) and forced fumbles (27).

CAPTAIN BAKER - CARDINALS HEART & SOUL

"The guy is a human eraser. He makes a ton of tackles, he brings energy, he brings juice, he's physical. He's our leader and our heart and soul on defense." - GM Steve Keim

S Budda Baker had a breakout season in 2019 and after signing a four-year extension prior to the start of the 2020 campaign, he delivered quite an encore performance in a career year.

After being named a team captain for the first time, he finished the 2020 season with 118 tackles, 2.0 sacks, 7 tackles for loss, 2 INTs, 6 passes defended and a forced fumble on his way to 1st-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors.

IN RARIFIED AIR AMONG CARDS PRO BOWLERS

Baker was selected to his third Pro Bowl (second straight at safety) in 2020, joining CB Patrick Peterson (4) as the only players in Cardinals history to earn at least three Pro Bowl selections before their 25th birthday.

Baker is also the only player in franchise history selected to the Pro Bowl as a special teamer and as a position player: 2017 (special teams), 2019-20 (safety).

SETTING THE STANDARD AT DEFENSIVE BACK

Baker's 118 tackles in 2020 matched a team high (LB Jordan Hicks) and tied for first among NFL DBs (Buffalo S Jordan Poyer). It marked the second consecutive season Baker led or tied for the league lead for tackles among NFL DBs.

Over the last two seasons (2019-20), Baker leads all NFL DBs in total (265) and solo (175) tackles - and leads by a wide margin.

ANOTHER NUMBER CHANGE FOR BAKER

Baker played his two first NFL seasons (2017-18) wearing jersey #36. Then from 2019-20 he wore #32. Baker switched numbers again prior to the 2021 season and will now wear #3.

FIRST 50 GAMES, 0 INTS - LAST 11 GAMES, 2 INTS

After going without an INT in his first 50 career games, Baker had an INT in back-to-back games in Weeks 6-7 last season. He had his first career INT vs. the Cowboys on Monday Night Football in Week 6 and had another in Week 7 vs. Seattle.

BUDDA'S CAREER THROUGH 61 GAMES

In his first four NFL seasons, Baker has started 51-of-61 games played and has posted 442 tackles (332 solo), 25 tackles for loss, 5.5 sacks, 2 INTs, 11 QB hits, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 20 passes defended.

AWARDS PILED UP IN 2020

All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors weren't the only awards Baker earned in 2020. He was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October and also earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in Week 6.

Defensive Player of the Month (October): Became just the fourth player in franchise history to earn NFC Player of the Month honors. He finished the month of October with 31 tackles, 2.0 sacks, 2 INTs (90 return yards), 3 TFL, 3 QB hits, 2 PD and a FF in three games played - all Arizona victories. Baker became the first NFL player in seven seasons (2014-20) to record at least 30 tackles, 2.0, 2 INTs and a FF in a single calendar month.

Defensive Player of the Week (Week 6): Recorded 7 tackles, a sack, his first career INT, 1 TFL, 2 QB hits, 1 PD and 1 FF in a victory over the Cowboys. He became the first Cardinals player since 2003 (Renaldo Hill on 11/2 vs. Cincinnati) to record a sack, an INT and a forced fumble in the same game.

A STAR AS SOON AS HE STEPPED ON THE FIELD

In his first career NFL start - in Week 11 of the 2017 season at Houston - Baker recorded 12 tackles, a sack, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Became the first NFL rookie in 20 years and the first Cardinals player ever to register 10+ tackles, a sack and two forced fumbles in a game.

ALFORD PLAYS AN AGGRESSIVE STYLE

The Cardinals signed CB Robert Alford to a three-year contract as a free agent in February of 2019 following six seasons in Atlanta. However, season-ending injuries during training camp kept him out of action the last two seasons.

Now back in the lineup, the Cardinals are counting on a player whose aggressive style of play made him an extraordinarily productive presence in the defensive secondary.

In his first six NFL seasons, Alford recorded 291 tackles (243 solo), 10 INTs and 85 passes defended in 88 games (76 starts). In that six-year stretch prior to the injuries that kept him out of the lineup in Arizona, only CB Darius Slay (91) had more passes defended than Alford (85).

5	CB Janoris Jenkins	76
6	CB Stephon Gilmore	75
7	CB Joe Haden	72

Among the people most excited for Alford's return to the lineup is All-Pro S Budda Baker. "He's a guy who is a big talker, a guy who loves the game, a guy who, last year, had a season-ending injury and would still go to meetings, still goes to practice and watch practice and help young guys out, even help older guys out and seeing things. Now that's he's on the field I know he's excited and looks like the great Robert Alford, a fresh Robert Alford and I'm excited to see him play."

SCORING FROM THE CORNER

Alford has returned three INTs for TDs in his NFL career (two regular season and one postseason).

BUTLER CONTINUES REMARKABLE CAREER

Two-time Pro Bowl CB Malcolm Butler - a former undrafted free agent out of West Alabama - is now in his eighth NFL season and first with the Cardinals after signing with the team as a free agent in March.

Butler came to Arizona after spending the last three seasons (2018-20) with Tennessee.

In his first seven NFL seasons, Butler appeared in 100 regular season games (84 starts) with 17 INTs, 390 tackles, 84 passes defended, five forced fumbles, and two fumble recoveries. Has also played in 12 playoff games and has 42 tackles, 10 passes defended and two INTs.

BUTLER GETS HIS HANDS ON THE BALL

Since becoming a full-time starter in 2015, Butler is one of just five NFL players with at least 75 passes defended and 15 INTs.

RETURNING TO THE PLACE HE BECAME A SUPER BOWL HERO

As a rookie in 2014, was responsible for one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl history in the Patriots 28-24 victory vs. Seattle in Super Bowl XLIX at State Farm Stadium. He sealed the Patriots victory by intercepting Russell Wilson's pass intended for Ricardo Lockette in the New England end zone with 26 seconds left to play.

18 YEARS IN, STILL AMONG THE NFL'S BEST

Now in his 18th NFL season - and fifth with the Cardinals - P Andy Lee is remains one of the league's most productive punters.

Lee has finished in the top-10 in punting average in 14 of his 17 NFL seasons. That includes ranking 7th (2017), 1st (2018) and 2nd (2019) in punting average in his first three seasons with the Cardinals.

For his career, Lee has appeared in 264 games with 1,348 punts for 62,747 yards (46.5-yard avg.) and 446 punts landed inside the 20-yard line.

AZ UNDRAFTED SACK RECORD FOR #45

Despite limited snaps on defense, LB Dennis Gardeck - named a team captain prior to the season - had a breakout season as a passer rusher in 2020.

Gardeck - a standout on special teams who signed with Arizona as a rookie free agent out of Sioux Falls in 2018 - totaled 7.0 sacks in 2020. That is the most in franchise history by a player who entered the league undrafted.

MAKING GOOD USE OF LIMITED ACTION

After never playing a snap on defense in his first 34 career games, Gardeck totaled 7.0 sacks in his last 11 games before a knee injury suffered in Week 15 ended his season. He had 5.0 sacks in his final three games played in 2020.

Gardeck finished the 2020 season with nine tackles, 7.0 sacks, seven tackles for loss and a fumble recovery - all while playing just 93 defensive snaps.

He recorded his 7.0 sacks in four games (2 @ NYJ; 1 vs. LAR; 2 @ NYG; 2 vs. PHI) in which he played a combined 45 plays on defense.

ENTERING 2021 SEASON WITH A SACK STREAK

Gardeck had at least one sack in each of his final three games played in 2020. That includes 2.0 sacks in his final two games - @ NYG (Week 14) and vs. Phi (Week 15).

He became the first Cardinals player with 2.0+ sacks in back-to-back games since Chandler Jones had 2.0 each in Games 9-10 in 2018.

GARDECK HAS BEEN A SUCCESS STORY

Gardeck's expanded role on defense in 2020 was not his first taste of success in the NFL. A special teams standout in his first two seasons, Gardeck was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2019 after posting a team-high 10 tackles and a fumble recovery. In 44 career games, he has 27 special teams tackles, three punt deflections, a fumble recovery on a fake punt and a TD on a blocked punt.
