WEEK 10

LOS ANGELES RAMS VS ARIZONA CARDINALS

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2026

MILESTONE WATCH

WITH A WIN...

- The Cardinals would sweep the season series with the Rams for the first time since 2014.
- Arizona would improve to 3-0 vs. the two Los Angeles based teams in 2026.
- The Cardinals would earn their 4th win of the season, surpassing their win total from all of last season (3).

TE TREY McBRIDE

- With 2 receptions, McBride (75) would pass WR Larry Fitzgerald (74 in 2016) for the most receptions in franchise history through the first 10 games of a season.
- With 2 receptions, McBride would become the 5th tight end in NFL history with at least 75 receptions in four consecutive seasons, joining Travis Kelce (10 from 2016-25), Jason Witten (6 from 2007-12), Todd Christensen (4 from 1983-86) and Jimmy Graham (4 from 2011-2014).
- With 5 catches, McBride would pass Zach Ertz (77 in 2018) for the most receptions in NFL history by a TE in his team's first 10 games of a season.
- With 5+ receptions, McBride would have 5+ catches in a game for the 47th time in his career. That would pass Jimmy Graham (46) for the most such outings by a TE in his first 5 seasons in NFL history.
- With 7 catches, McBride (427) would pass WR Larry Fitzgerald (426) for the most receptions in franchise history in a player's 1st 5 seasons.
- With 7+ catches, McBride would have 7+ catches for the 12th consecutive game. He would join WR Antonio Brown (14) as the only players in NFL history to have a streak of at least 12 games with 7+ receptions. He would also have at least seven receptions in all 10 games this season, extending his record for the most such games to start a season.

QB CARSON BECK

- With a win on Sunday, Beck would become the first Cardinals rookie since Tim Van Galder in 1972 to win his NFL debut as the team's starting QB.

S BUDDA BAKER

- With 10+ tackles, Baker would have 10+ tackles for the second consecutive game, for the 4th time this season and for the 39th time in his career.
- With an INT, he would become become the first player in Cardinals history with 1,000+ tackles, 10+ INTs and 10.0+ sacks in his career.

S ANDREW WINGARD

- With 10+ tackles, Wingard would have double-digit tackles in back-to-back games for the first time in his career. It would also give him as many games with 10+ tackles in 7 games played this season (3) as he had in his first seven NFL seasons (2019-25) combined (3).

LB JOSH SWEAT

- With 1.0 sack, Sweat would become just the sixth player in franchise history with 16.0+ sacks in their first 27 games with the team. He would also have 3.0 sacks in his last three games vs. the Rams.

RB TYLER ALLGEIER

- With 100+ rushing yards, Allgeier would have his fifth career game eclipsing the century mark on the ground and his second in the last three games. He would also have more 100-yard rushing performances in the last three games (2) than he had in his final three seasons (2023-25) in Atlanta combined (1).

CB DENZEL BURKE

- With 1+ pass defensed, Burke would join Dominque Rodgers-Cromartie (24 in 2008-09), Patrick Peterson (17 in 2011-12) and Byron Murphy (13 in 2019-20) as the only players in franchise history to have a pass breakup in at least 13 games through their first two seasons.

K CHAD RYLAND

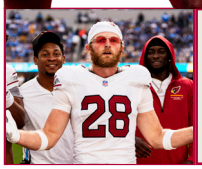

- With 2 FGs, Ryland (8) would join Neil Rackers (8 vs. Seattle in 2005) as the only players in franchise history with 8+ FGs against a single team in a single season.

BIRDS' EYE VIEW

TE Trey McBride's historic season continued last Sunday after he caught seven passes for 54 yards at Seattle. Below is a snapshot of where he ranks among players at the midseason mark and notable records he's already set thus far...

- Set the NFL record for receptions by TE in 1st 5 seasons (420)
- Reached 400 career receptions in his 73rd career game. Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow Sr. (72 games) is the only TE in NFL history to reach 400 receptions in fewer games.
- Leads the NFL in receptions with 73. Looks to become the 5th TE and first since Tony Gonzalez (102 in 2004) to lead the NFL in receptions. His 126 receptions last season were the 2nd-most.
- Has 7+ receptions in all 9 games this season. Prior to 2026, no player in NFL history - at any position - had 7+ receptions in more than 5 straight games to begin a season.
- His 73 receptions in 2026 are the most in franchise history in the first 9 games of a season, surpassing the previous mark of 68 by Hall of Fame WR Larry Fitzgerald in 2016.

In six games played this season, S Andrew Wingard has 42 tackles, three tackles for loss, an interception, a pass defensed and a forced fumble. He also has two double-digit tackle performances (12 @ Sea and 10 @ SF), becoming the first Cardinals defensive back since at least 1982 to have two 10+ tackle outings in his first six games with the franchise.

Rookie QB Carson Beck is set to make his NFL debut as the Cardinals starter on Sunday against the Rams. He and Raiders No. 1 overall pick Fernando Mendoza are the only rookie QBs starting in the NFL this week.

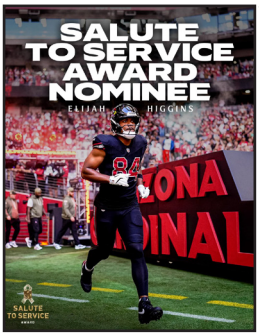

Beck's last game action came when he started for the Cardinals in the preseason opener against the Panthers in the Hall of Fame Game.

- In his first NFL game, he completed 15-of-19 passes (78.9%) for 188 yards, one TD and a 125.4 passer rating.
- He also led three consecutive scoring drives in the first half, completing 11-of-14 passes for 148 yards and a TD during that stretch.

While Beck will make his NFL debut in front of Cardinals fans at State Farm Stadium, it won't be his first game at the venue.

- In the 2026 Fiesta Bowl, the penultimate game of his collegiate career, Beck led Miami (FL) to a 31-27 victory over Ole Miss to earn a spot in the National Championship.
- He was named the Offensive MVP after completing 23-of-37 passes (62.1%) for 268 yards and two TDs and added a three-yard rushing score in the victory.

SALUTE TO SERVICE

TE Elijah Higgins was named the Cardinals 2026 Salute to Service Award nominee last Thursday. The annual award recognizes NFL players, coaches, staff and alumni who demonstrate an exceptional commitment to supporting U.S. service members, veterans and their families. Higgins is one of 32 nominees and fans can vote at NFL.com/SaluteFanVote through November 30.

Higgins' connection to the military is personal as his father, George, served 28 years in the Air Force, retiring as a senior master sergeant after working as an electronic countermeasures avionics technician and recruiter and completing three deployments to Afghanistan.

Higgins has also supported the military community firsthand. During the 2025 offseason, he joined Vikings RB Aaron Jones on the NFL's annual USO Tour, visiting military bases, getting a behind-the-scenes look at military equipment, participating in a call with Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth and meeting with service members.
