CLEVELAND BROWNS VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS

State Farm Stadium | December 15, 2019 | 2:05 PM

THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

Playing their final home game of the 2019 campaign, the Cardinals host the Cleveland Browns at State Farm Stadium on Sunday. Following this week's game, Arizona will wrap up the regular season with road contests against the Seahawks (Week 16) and Rams (Week 17).

A sellout this week would mark the 144th consecutive at State Farm Stadium (regular season and postseason included) which opened in 2006.

The Cardinals and Browns are squaring off for the 51st time in a series that dates back to 1950. Cleveland holds a 33-14-3 advantage all-time, but Arizona has won three in a row - and four of the last five - against the Browns.

This week, Cleveland is making just its third-ever visit to State Farm Stadium, and first since 2011. The Browns have not won on the road in the series since 1988, the Cardinals first season in Arizona after relocating from St. Louis.

After going head-to-head 40 times between 1950-69 as rivals in the NFL East and then NFL Century divisions, the teams have played each other just 10 times since 1970, with Arizona holding a 6-4 advantage in that span. The last meeting came in 2015 when the Cardinals earned a 34-20 win at Cleveland.

Although the Cardinals and Browns are infrequent opponents, there is plenty that connects the players and staffs of the franchises. On the field, this week's game features the first-ever head-to-head matchup between the last two Heisman Trophy winners and two most-recent #1 overall picks in QBs Kyler Murray and Baker Mayfield. Teammates at the University of Oklahoma from 2016-17, Murray and Mayfield became the first QBs from the same school ever to be drafted #1 overall in consecutive years.

Making his return to State Farm Stadium this week is Browns head coach Fredrick Kitchens, who served as an assistant in Arizona for 11 years through the head coaching tenures of Ken Whisenhunt and Bruce Arians. On Kitchens' staff in Cleveland are six coaches who either coached or played for the Cardinals.

A player many with the Browns know well is Cardinals LB Terrell Suggs, who spent 16 seasons in the AFC North with the Ravens. This marks the 16th time in 17 NFL seasons that Suggs will have faced the Browns at least once. The only exception was in 2015, when Suggs spent the majority of the year on IR. Suggs has been making life difficult for Cleveland QBs for nearly two decades, having piled up 19.0 sacks in 29 career games against the Browns. He has sacked 14 different Browns QBs in his career - including one sack of Mayfield last year in what was the young QB's second-ever NFL start.

CARDINALS TO HOST TOY DRIVE ON SUNDAY

The Cardinals are hosting a toy drive presented by Desert Financial prior to Sunday's game at State Farm Stadium to benefit Helping Hands of Freedom and the Firefighter Angel Foundation of Prescott.

Volunteers from Desert Financial and Helping Hands of Freedom will team with Cardinals Cheerleaders to collect new unwrapped toys and donations outside of each stadium entrance.

THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

- The two QBs who will face off at State Farm Stadium on Sunday - AZ's Kyler Murray and CLE's Baker Mayfield - were both Heisman Trophy winners at the University of Oklahoma who were taken #1 overall in the NFL Draft.
- Browns head coach Fredrick Kitchens spent more seasons with the Cardinals (11) than any other assistant coach in franchise history.
- Kyler Murray owns the franchise rookie records for passing yards (3,060), TD passes (16), completions (293) and attempts (457). His 448 rushing yards and four rushing TDs are also franchise rookie records for a QB.
- LB Chandler Jones will face the Browns for just the second time in his career. Cleveland joins Baltimore and Houston as the only teams Jones does not have at least a half sack against during his career.
- Jones has 14.0 sacks and six forced fumbles this season. His 14.0 sacks are just one off the NFL lead and his six forced fumbles are tied for the lead.
- In 29 career games against Cleveland, LB Terrell Suggs has totaled 116 tackles, 19.0 sacks, 23 tackles for loss, 23 QB hits, an INT (returned for a TD), nine forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.
- LB Dennis Gardeck had a fumble recovery on a fake punt last week. In addition to that recovery, the 2nd-year special teams standout has 16 tackles, three punt deflections and has recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a TD since signing with AZ as a rookie free agent out of Sioux Falls in 2018.

THE LIFE OF MR. B

William V. (Bill) Bidwill passed away on October 2 at the age of 88.

"Our dad passed away the same way he lived his life: peacefully, with grace, dignity and surrounded by family and loved ones," said Cardinals Chairman and President Michael Bidwill. "Above all else, we will remember him as a man devoted to the three central pillars of his life – his immense faith, his love for his family and his life-long passion for the Cardinals and the sport of football."

Born on July 31, 1931 in Chicago, he is the son of Charles and Violet Bidwill. His father purchased the Chicago Cardinals of the NFL in 1932, starting Bill's life-long association with the team which spanned eight decades and started as a ball boy when he was a child. A two-sport athlete playing football and baseball at Georgetown Prep outside of Washington, DC, Bidwill received the school's highest honor, the Insignis Medal, in 1990 and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017.

After earning his undergraduate degree from Georgetown University, Bidwill proudly served in the United States Navy before taking on a full-time role with the team in 1960. That same year he married Nancy, his wife of more than 56 years until her passing in 2016 and had five children: daughter Nicole and sons Bill Jr., Michael, Patrick and Timothy. While well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, "Mr. B" was recognized often for his contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

In 2017, he was enshrined in the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame which honors those who have made significant contributions to state's athletics community. In 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. At its December 2010 commencement exercises, Northern Arizona University awarded Bidwill an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

In addition to his five children, 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild, Bidwill is survived by his brother Charles (Stormy).

A LEADER IN DIVERSITY

Bidwill was at the forefront of diversity in hiring practices, which was evidenced by the hiring of the NFL's first African American female executive (Adele Harris), first African American contract negotiator (Bob Wallace) and first African American head coach/GM tandem (Dennis Green and Rod Graves). In 2015, the team established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship to increase diversity and provide opportunities to gain NFL coaching experience.

"He didn't care about the color of your skin, race or gender if he felt like you could do the job to the best of your ability to help us become better than you were the right person for it," Larry Fitzgerald said.

At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL.

ANOTHER SIGNIFICANT WIN IN CINCINNATI

Arizona's Week 5 victory in Cincinnati was the first game following the passing of team owner Bill Bidwill the previous Wednesday (10/2). Bill's father, Charles, purchased the team in 1932 and the first season the Cardinals played under Bidwill ownership was in 1933.

The first victory for the Cards during that 1933 season – which came on October 8th – was a 3-0 win in Cincinnati against the Reds.

On Tuesday (10/8/19) – exactly 86 years after that 1933 victory over the Reds – funeral services were held to honor the life of Bill Bidwill.

"It has been an emotional week," Chairman and President Michael Bidwill said after the victory over the Bengals. "The coaches and players all told me they were going to win it for (Bill Bidwill). It is great to get the win."

AN UNHERALDED COMMUNITY CHAMPION

Bidwill's devotion to the Cardinals and the game of football was matched by his passion for giving back to the community and supporting charitable causes, though he never sought recognition for his consistent and generous donations.

"He valued love, and loyalty and life. All of that came together to manifest itself in his giving," former Cardinals Pro Bowl fullback Ron Wolfley said. "The way that he would give millions and millions of dollars and nobody knew what he was giving so much of the time. He didn't sound the trumpet to let people know what he was doing."

Fitzgerald was inspired by Bidwill's work in the community without seeking the spotlight.

"The thing I really cherished about him was his selflessness and commitment to the community," WR Larry Fitzgerald said. "It was something he was passionate about and he wanted zero fanfare, and I always respected that about him."

STATEMENTS REGARDING THE PASSING OF ARIZONA CARDINALS OWNER BILL BIDWILL

CARDINALS WIDE RECEIVER LARRY FITZGERALD:

"The NFL family lost a pioneer today. Bill Bidwill loved the Arizona Cardinals and the great State of Arizona. He paved the way for so many by being on the forefront of giving minorities the opportunity to thrive as coaches and executives in the NFL. He was also a man of quiet generosity giving of his time and resources to make lives better."

NFL COMMISSIONER ROGER GOODELL: "Bill Bidwill was part of the NFL family his entire life, starting from his days as a ball boy through his time as an owner. Although never one to seek the spotlight, Bill had an incredible sense of humor and he made extraordinary contributions to the NFL. Bill's vision brought the Cardinals, the NFL and multiple Super Bowls to Arizona. He was a leader in embracing diversity and employed the first African American female executive, and the first African American general manager and head coach tandem."

PATRIOTS CHAIRMAN AND CEO ROBERT KRAFT: "Bill Bidwill was one of the first owners to reach out to me and welcome me into the league when I bought the Patriots in 1994. He was one of the longest-tenured owners in the league and I always appreciated his historical perspective and his love of the game. When it came to the game of football and the NFL, we were mostly like-minded and aligned. The only thing more important to him than his beloved Cardinals was his family and I know how proud he was of his children."

COWBOYS OWNER, PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER JERRY JONES:

"I always viewed Bill as a man who, through his father and his literally growing up with the NFL, was an extension of the founding fathers of the NFL. His leadership and influence contributed greatly to bridging the gap between what the earliest years of our professional game looked like and the growth and massive popularity of what it has become. He had a unique perspective of where the game began and where he thought it needed to go. I enjoyed him as a competitor and a colleague, and regardless of the circumstance, he had a unique gift of humor that not everyone knew about."

GIANTS PRESIDENT AND CEO JOHN MARA: "Bill Bidwill was one of the most important owners in the history of the National Football League. He was a kind and decent man who loved his team and the League. He leaves behind a wonderful family. Bill was someone I greatly admired and respected. I was proud to call him a friend."

BEARS CHAIRMAN GEORGE H. McCASKEY: "One of our family's proudest associations in the NFL is with the Bidwill family. It goes back three generations, and at the heart of it is Bill Bidwill. His sacrifices on behalf of our great game are not properly documented, nor properly appreciated. He was a gracious man, a raconteur, and a great friend."

BUCCANEERS OWNER AND CO-CHAIRMAN BRYAN GLAZER: "Bill Bidwill's life mirrored the growth and success of the Cardinals and the entire National Football League. We have tremendous respect and admiration for the lineage of the Bidwill family ownership dating back to 1932. We send our condolences to his children Nicole, Bill Jr., Michael, Patrick, Timothy, and the Arizona Cardinals and all of Bill's family and friends."

CHIEFS CHAIRMAN AND CEO CLARK HUNT: "As one of the longest tenured owners in professional football, Bill built and cared for his franchise with the utmost passion and integrity. He always put the best interests of the league first and his philanthropy made a lasting impact in communities throughout Arizona."

LIONS OWNER AND CHAIRMAN MARTHA FIRESTONE FORD:

"The Lions and Cardinals have always shared a proud bond as two of the NFL's original franchises, and the Bidwill Family holds a treasured place in the history of professional football. His more than 80 years of life as part of the Cardinals organization will be remembered through a legacy marked by countless contributions to our great game."

COLTS OWNER AND CEO JIM IRSAY: "Rest in peace, Bill Bidwill, legendary owner of the Cardinals. Bill was involved with our league since 1932, and was a leader on the initiative of minority front office hiring."

ARIZONA GOV. DOUG DUCEY: "A dad. A husband. A giant of the NFL and an Arizona icon – Bill Bidwill never forgot he was part of our community, and he showed it throughout his long and remarkable life. Bill was passionate about many things, but especially his faith, family and the Cardinals football team he loved so much."

BY THE NUMBERS

8

Different decades in which Bill Bidwill - who passed away on October 2nd at the age of 88 - was affiliated with the Cardinals. Beginning as a ball boy, he served the franchise in countless fashions - public address announcer, ticket promotions, scouting, advertising, public relations and contract negotiator - in his time with the Cardinals.

11

Seasons that Browns head coach Freddie Kitchens spent as an assistant with Arizona (2007-17). Kitchens spent more seasons with the Cardinals than any other assistant coach in franchise history.

19.0

Sacks for LB Terrell Suggs in 29 career games against Cleveland. Suggs has more sacks against the Browns than any other player in NFL history.

5

Players from the University of Oklahoma that have won the Heisman Trophy. The last two to earn the honor - Arizona QB Kyler Murray (2018) and Cleveland QB Baker Mayfield (2017) - face off this week. Murray and Mayfield were teammates with the Sooners from 2016-17.

143

Consecutive sellouts at State Farm Stadium. A sellout of this week's game vs. the Browns would be #144. With a sellout of this week's home finale against Cleveland, Arizona would have sold out every game (preseason and postseason included) in 14 years at State Farm Stadium.

14.0

Sacks for LB Chandler Jones in 2019, which is one off the NFL lead. Only Tampa Bay's Shaquil Barrett (15.0) has more.

6

Forced fumbles for Jones this season, a new career high. Jones is tied with Tampa Bay's Shaquil Barrett for the NFL lead in both forced fumbles (6) and "strip-sacks" (6) this season.

25

Forced fumbles for Jones in his career. Since he entered the NFL in 2012, Jones' 25 forced fumbles are the most in the NFL.

55.0

Sacks for Jones in 61 career games with the Cardinals. Since being acquired by Arizona in a trade with New England in 2016, Jones has 4.5 more sacks than any other player in the NFL. Rams DT Aaron Donald ranks second with 50.5.

15

Career TD receptions for RB David Johnson. With his TD catch last week vs. Pittsburgh he became just the fifth player in NFL history with 30+ rushing TDs and 15+ receiving TDs in their first five seasons.

3,060

Passing yards for QB Kyler Murray in 2019. That is a new franchise record for passing yards by a rookie.

16

TD passes for Murray this season. With two TD passes last week against Pittsburgh, Murray surpassed Jake Plummer (15 in 1997) for most TD passes by a rookie in franchise history.

7

Games in which Murray has thrown multiple TDs this season. Only four rookies in NFL history had more games with multiple TD passes. The NFL record is nine, set by Cleveland's Baker Mayfield in 2018.

100

Career receptions for WR Christian Kirk, who reached the milestone last week vs. Pittsburgh while playing in his 22nd career game. The only player in Cards history who reached 100 catches in fewer games was Anquan Boldin (16).

121

Tackles for LB Jordan Hicks in 2019, extending his career high. Hicks ranks third in the NFL in tackles in 2019 behind only Seahawks LB Bobby Wagner and Packers LB Blake Martinez.

10

Career INTs for Hicks, who has three picks for the Cardinals this season. Dating back to Hicks' rookie season in 2015, only Carolina's Luke Kuechly (11) has more INTs among ILBs.

104

Points for K Zane Gonzalez in 2019 (27 FG, 23 PAT). The former ASU standout ranks third in the NFL in FGs (27) and is fifth in the NFL in total points in '19.

17

Consecutive FG attempts Gonzalez has made dating back to Week 5 at Cincinnati. That is the longest active streak in the NFL.

48.5

Punting average for Andy Lee in 2019. That ranks second in the NFL and is slightly lower than his average in 2018 (48.6) when he led the NFL and established a new franchise single-season record.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN WEEK 15 ...

WITH A WIN THIS WEEK...

- The Cardinals would have four consecutive wins against Cleveland and five wins in the last six meetings.
- QB Kyler Murray (4) would tie the franchise record for wins by a rookie QB.

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- With a reception, Fitzgerald would have at least one catch in 241 consecutive games, the second-longest reception streak in NFL history (Jerry Rice - 274).
- With 52 receiving yards, Fitzgerald would reach 17,000 receiving yards for his career.
- With 12 receptions, Fitzgerald would pass Jerry Rice (646 at Candlestick Park) for the most receptions in NFL history in a single stadium.

LB Chandler Jones

- With a sack, Jones would have 15.0 sacks in 2019. That would rank fourth on the franchise single-season sacks list. It would also tie his own franchise record for sacks through the first 14 games of a season, a mark he set in 2017 when he went on to lead the NFL with 17.0 sacks.
- With a sack, it would leave the Ravens and Texans as the only teams Jones doesn't have at least a partial sack against during his career.

QB Kyler Murray

- With 54 rushing yards, Murray would establish a new franchise record for rushing yards by a QB. The current record of 501 was set by Hall of Famer Charley Trippi in 1951.
- With 300 passing yards, Murray (5) would join Andrew Luck (6 in 2012) as the only players in NFL history with at least five 300-yard outings during their rookie season.

LB Terrell Suggs

- With a sack, Suggs (139.0) would pass DeMarcus Ware (138.5) for eighth place on the NFL's all-time sacks list.
- With a sack, Suggs would have 20.0 sacks in 30 career games vs. Cleveland.

RB David Johnson

- With a TD (of any kind), Johnson would reach 50 career TDs in fewer games (61) than any other player in franchise history.

LB Jordan Hicks

- With an INT, Hicks would become just the fifth Cardinals LB with at least four INTs in a season, joining Karlos Dansby (4 in 2013), Ronald McKinnon (5 in 1998), E.J. Junior (5 in 1985) and Leo Sanford (5 in 1956).

NOTES ON MURRAY'S 300-YARD OUTINGS

• Playing his first-ever game in the Cardinals season-opener vs. Detroit, Murray threw for 308 yards. In doing so, he became just the fifth rookie in NFL history to throw for 300+ yards in a season-opener. He is the first Cardinals rookie in history to throw for 300+ yards in his first career game.

• In Week 2 at Baltimore, Murray exceeded that total, throwing for 349 yards against the Ravens. He joined Cam Newton (2011) as the only QBs in NFL history to throw for 300+ yards in each of their two career games.

A TRUE DUAL THREAT AT QUARTERBACK

In addition to his franchise rookie record 3,060 passing yards this season, Murray's 448 rushing yards are the most for a rookie QB in franchise history. It also places him in elite company this season.

Murray and Baltimore's Lamar Jackson are the only QBs in the NFL that lead their team in rushing yards.

Murray joins Cam Newton (2011) and Deshaun Watson (2017-18) as the only players in NFL history with 3,000+ passing yards and 400+ rushing yards in their first 13 career games.

Despite being in his first season, Murray has been the key to the Cardinals significantly improved offense in 2019. His statistics this season bear out just how much the Cardinals have relied on their rookie signal-caller this season. He has:

457 pass attempts (7th in the NFL)

293 completions (8th in the NFL)

3,060 passing yards (15th in the NFL)

77 rush attempts (3rd among starting QBs)

448 rushing yards (2nd among starting QBs)

4 rushing TDs (4th among starting QBs)

With 52 more rushing yards this season, Murray would become the first player in Cardinals history to throw for 3,000+ yards and run for 500+ yards in a single season.

CARDS TAKE MURRAY #1 OVERALL

Holding the #1 overall selection in the NFL Draft for just the fifth time in franchise history - and first time since 1958 - the Cardinals took Murray with the top pick this past April.

A STAR IS BORN AT OKLAHOMA

After starting his college career at Texas A&M in 2015, Murray played two seasons at Oklahoma (2017-18). In his first season with the Sooners in 2017, Murray backed up Heisman Trophy winner and 2018 #1 overall pick Baker Mayfield.

Murray took over in 2018, starting 13 of 14 games and completing 260-of-377 pass attempts (69.0%) for 4,361 yards, 42 TDs and just seven INTs while also rushing for 1,001 yards and 12 TDs on 140 carries (7.2 avg.).

Below is a look at what Murray accomplished with the Sooners in 2018:

• Became the first FBS player ever to average at least 300 passing yards (311.5) and at least 60 rushing yards (71.5) per game for a full season.

• Joined Clemson's Deshaun Watson (2015) as the only FBS players to ever record at least 4,000 passing yards and at least 1,000 rushing yards in a season.

• Led the nation in total yards (school-record 5,362), points responsible for (324), yards/completion (16.8) and yards/pass attempt (single-season FBS record of 11.6).

• Only player in school history to throw for 300 yards and rush for 100 in a game and did so three times.

• Threw at least two TD passes in all but one game and threw at least three TD passes in 10 of 14 contests.

• Set school and Big 12 records with at least three TD passes in eight straight games.

Murray's Honors in 2018

- Heisman Trophy (7th Sooner to win the award)
- Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Year Award and Manning Award recipient
- Associated Press Player of the Year
- Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award finalist
- 1st-team All-American (AP and FWAA)
- Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year 1st-team All-Big 12
- Most Outstanding Player of Big 12 Championship
- 5-time Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week (tied league record)

CARDINALS ADD A HEISMAN WINNER

The winner of the 2018 Heisman Trophy, Kyler Murray became just the third Heisman recipient ever drafted by the Cardinals.

When Murray took the field with Arizona in the season opener against Detroit in Week 1, he became the fifth Heisman Trophy winner to play for the Cardinals, joining Sam Bradford, Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart and John David Crow.

CHANDLER JONES AT A GLANCE

- In '19 was not listed among the Top-100 players in the league by NFL Network.

NFL'S TOP SACK ARTIST

Jones has 55.0 sacks in 61 games with Arizona. Since the Cardinals acquired Jones prior to the 2016 season, his 55.0 sacks lead the NFL. He has 4.5 sacks more than the player in second place - Rams DT Aaron Donald (50.5).

APPLYING A GREAT AMOUNT OF FORCE

In addition to ranking second in the NFL with 13.0 sacks, Jones is also tied for the NFL lead with a career-high six forced fumbles in 2019.

Now in his third season with Arizona and 16th season in the NFL, Lee ranks second in the league with a 48.5 average in 2019.

EXPANDING HIS RESUME WITH FIRST CAREER COMPLETION

Entering Week 9 at Tampa Bay, Lee had attempted two passes in his NFL career - one during the regular season and one in the postseason. His last pass attempt was in 2014 and he had never completed a pass.

That all changed at Raymond James Stadium when Lee connected with WR Pharoah Cooper for a 26-yard completion on a fake punt midway through the fourth quarter.

A CAREER YEAR CONTINUES FOR #58

LB Jordan Hicks - signed as a free agent in the offseason after four seasons with the Eagles - has recorded 121 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 3 INTs, 8 tackles for loss, 6 QB hits, 6 passes defended and 2 forced fumbles in 2019.

Hicks reached 100 tackles in a season for the first time in his career. His 121 tackles in 2019 rank third in the NFL.

ANOTHER GAME, ANOTHER INTERCEPTION FOR HICKS

ALREADY A CAREER HIGH IN FORCED FUMBLES

In his first four NFL seasons - spanning 43 games - Hicks had one career forced fumble. That came in his second-ever game in the NFL. Through 13 games with Arizona, Hicks already has a single-season career-high two forced fumbles in 2019.

A SIGNIFICANTLY IMPROVED OFFENSE

THRILLING THE HOME FANS

Fitzgerald has been thrilling fans at State Farm Stadium since the venue opened in 2006. He has played 109 career regular season games in 13-plus seasons at State Farm Stadium after playing his first two NFL seasons (2004-05) at Sun Devil Stadium.

In those contests, he has totaled 635 receptions. In NFL history, only WR Jerry Rice had more receptions in a single stadium. Fitzgerald needs 12 receptions in this Sunday's 2019 home finale to pass Rice for the most catches in a single venue.

CARDS JOIN NFL TO CELEBRATE 100TH SEASON

The NFL is celebrating its 100th season in 2019. As the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence, the Cardinals hold a unique place in league history.

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 as the Morgan Athletic Club, predating the formation of the NFL by over 20 years. By the time the NFL was founded in 1920 as the American Professional Football Association (APFA), the team was known as the Racine Cardinals when it became one of the 14 charter members of the upstart league after paying a $100 franchise fee. Today, the Cardinals and Chicago Bears represent the only two charter members of the NFL still in existence.

In 1932, Hall of Fame owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., then a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals. After divesting himself of his Bears' holdings, that began a period of family ownership that continues to this day.

In 2019, the Cardinals have joined the NFL in celebrating 100 years of play with a year-long series of "NFL 100" events, initiatives and programs celebrating fans, players and communities.

The historic and unprecedented celebration is a salute to the millions of fans who love the game; highlighting the unifying nature of football and its positive impact in communities; bringing together generations of past, present and future players; and looking ahead to the NFL's next 100 years.

CARDS A MEMBER OF NFL'S TWO OLDEST RIVALRIES

Having met twice during the NFL's inaugural season in 1920, the Cardinals and Bears represent the oldest rivalry in league history. The Cardinals and Packers – who joined the league in 1921 – are the NFL's second-oldest rivalry. The Packers were formed in 1919 by Earl (Curly) Lambeau and George Calhoun but did not gain entry into the APFA until 1921.

1920 Racine Cardinals

- The Cards and Bears have faced each other 90 times during the regular season, dating back to 1920.
- The first-ever meeting between the Cardinals and Bears – then known as the Racine Cardinals and Decatur Staleys – occurred at Normal Park in Chicago on November 28th, 1920, exactly 72 days after the league was conceived as the APFA during a meeting in Canton, OH. In that game, the Cardinals defeated the Staleys 7-6 at Normal Park.
- The first meeting between the Cardinals and Packers (a 3-3 tie) occurred on November 20, 1921 at Normal Park in Chicago. The following week (November 27, 1921), the Packers and Bears met for the first time.

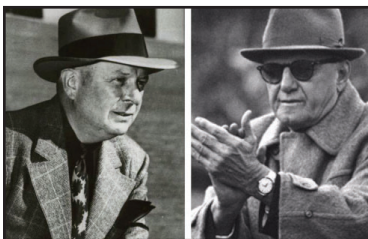

FRIENDSHIP OF THE HALL OF FAME OWNERS

Cardinals Hall of Fame owner Charles Bidwill and Bears Hall of Fame owner George Halas had a friendship that endured even as their team's were cross-town rivals during their shared time in Chicago.

At one point during the Great Depression, that friendship helped save Halas' ownership of the Bears.

In 1931, Halas' co-owner Edward "Dutch" Sternaman proposed being bought out of his stake in the Bears for $38,000, which was to be paid in installments. After suffering $18,000 in losses during the 1932 season, Halas was $15,000 short when the final payment was due in 1933. Defaulting on the payment meant ownership would revert to Sternaman.

"It was a case of finding $15,000 in a hurry, or losing everything I'd worked for since moving the Staleys from Decatur to Chicago in 1921," Halas wrote in 1967 in a history of the Bears published in the Chicago Tribune. "From this desperate situation, I was rescued by the joint efforts of my mother and my good friend Charley Bidwill. Mother bought $5,000 worth of stock from her savings. Bidwill purchased $5,000 in stock and also arranged a bank loan for the remaining $5,000 needed. But it was a mighty close call. As I remember, I finally got all the money together at 11:10 a.m. on the day the final note came due. Forfeit time was 12 o'clock noon."

A HISTORY OF BEING THE FIRST

In addition to being the oldest professional football team in the country, the Cardinals also have a long history of serving as a pioneer in the sport – both on and off the playing field.

DIVERSITY

1st Female Owner in NFL History: Following the 1947 death of Cardinals owner and Pro Football Hall of Fame Charles Bidwill, his wife Violet oversaw operations of the franchise for the next 15 years. As such, she became the first female to serve as principal owner in NFL history and is believed to be the first female owner in American pro sports.

Violet Bidwill

1st African American Female Executive in NFL History:

Adele Harris spent 26 seasons with the franchise before retiring in 2001. She holds the distinction of being the first African American female to hold a front office position with an NFL team. Harris first worked as a secretary for the St. Louis Football Cardinals from 1971-74. She left the club to pursue a degree in business management and returned to the team in 1978 as a publicity assistant. By 1980, Harris became the team's director of community relations, and was instrumental in the team's civic efforts when it relocated to Arizona in 1988. Harris passed away in November of 2007.

1st African American to Handle Contract Negotiations for NFL Team: In 1981, the team hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club.

1st African American Head Coach/General Manager Tandem: In 2004, the Cardinals hired Dennis Green as the team's head coach. Joining General Manager Rod Graves, they became the first African American general manager/head coach pairing. Hired by Arizona in 1997 as Assistant to the President, Graves spent 16 seasons with the organization, including the last six years at the team's GM.

1st Female Coach in NFL History: In 2015, the Cardinals hired Jen Welter as a coaching intern for training camp and the preseason to work with inside linebackers, making her the first female coach of any kind in NFL history.

INTERNATIONAL PLAY

1st NFL Game Outside of North America: The most popular sport in the United States played before an international audience for the first time ever when the Cardinals and San Diego Chargers met for a preseason matchup at Korakuen Stadium in Tokyo, Japan. On August 16, 1976 the Cardinals defeated the Chargers 20-10 before an estimated crowd of 38,000.

1st NFL Game in Europe: On August 6, 1983 the Cardinals faced the Minnesota Vikings in a preseason matchup at Wembley Stadium in London. The Vikings defeated the Cardinals 28-10 in front of 32,847 fans at the landmark event.

1st NFL Regular Season Game Played Outside United States: On October 2, 2005 the Cardinals earned a 17-point come-from-behind victory over the San Francisco 49ers in a game played in front of a then-record crowd of 103,467 at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca. It was the first NFL regular season game ever played outside of the US.

FOOTBALL FIRSTS

1st Night Game in NFL History:

On November 6, 1929 the Providence Steamrollers became the first team to host a game at night using floodlights in a matchup against the Cardinals. That night contest also featured the first use of a football painted white during an actual game. With fan attendance crucial to generate revenue, the game was played in the evening rather than during the workday. The minor league baseball field of Kinsley Park was adorned with floodlights and the Cards earned a 16-0 victory over the Steamrollers.

NFL's 1st Night Game - 11/6/29

1st Out of Town Training Camp: Prior to the 1929 season, the Cardinals conducted what is believed to be the NFL's first extended out-of-town training camp when the team spent the summer at Waterworks Park in Coldwater, Michigan.

1st Indoor NFL Game: With the country struggling through the Great Depression in late 1930, the Chicago Cardinals challenged the cross-town Bears to play a game to raise money for the governor's fund for unemployment relief. To battle the freezing temperatures the teams agreed to play at Chicago Stadium, then the largest indoor arena in the world. On December 15, 1930 the Bears earned a 9-7 victory in front of 10,000 fans. Six inches of dirt were hauled in and rolled for a playing surface, forcing the teams to use a white ball to increase visibility for both the players and fans. In addition to raising thousands of dollars for charity, it was a precursor to the 1932 championship when the Bears played for the NFL title in the same venue against the Portsmouth Spartans.

1st Retractable Grass Field in NFL History: When the Cardinals opened their new stadium in 2006, the venue broke the mold in terms of design and architecture. Among its most unique features is a fully retractable grass playing surface that resides outside the stadium for 300+ days a year and rolls in when needed. The first of its kind in NFL history, the stadium's grass playing surface has consistently ranked #1 in surveys of the league's players.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

The 2019 season is the 13th since Michael Bidwill took over as team President in 2007. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

- Leading the list of Bidwill's accomplishments with the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. Since it opened in 2006, the team has sold out all 143 games (preseason and postseason included) played at the venue, which has also hosted a pair of Super Bowls.

- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII and XLIX, he led the effort to land Super Bowl LVII (2023) in the spring of 2018. Michael was instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to Arizona; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX and the 2015 Pro Bowl combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

- Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's 12 years as team president. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests since Bidwill took over in 2007.

- AZ has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice during Bidwill's time as president (2008, 2015), including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).

- Arizona's 50 wins between 2013-17 were the most in any five-year span in franchise history.

- In January of 2016, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame.

- In January of 2018, Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee.

- In January of 2019, Michael received the Paul Tagliabue Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance for demonstrating integrity and leadership in the area of career development for minorities and advocating for diversity.

THE KINGSBURY ERA BEGINS IN ARIZONA

TAKING THE REINS

On January 8, 2019 the Cardinals announced the hiring of Kliff Kingsbury as the team's head coach.

The 40-year old Kingsbury spent the past six seasons (2013-18) as the head coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech, and was hired as USC's offensive coordinator in December. The New Braunfels, TX native is an 11-year coaching veteran who has also worked at Texas A&M (2012) and at the University of Houston (2008-11) where he began his coaching career.

Recognized as one of the profession's brightest and most-innovative offensive minds, Kingsbury has tutored six future NFL QBs, including first-round selections Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield and Johnny Manziel as well as Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. Under Kingsbury's guidance, Mahomes (2016) and Keenum (2009, '11) both led the nation in passing.

Highlights from Kingsbury's Coaching Career

- While at Texas Tech, Kingsbury served as the play-caller for one of college football's most explosive and productive offenses. The Red Raiders featured a passing attack that ranked in the top-10 in the country in all six seasons of his tenure, ranked in the top-20 nationally for total offense in all six seasons and finished in the top-25 in scoring five times.
- Under Kingsbury, Texas Tech averaged at least 30 points per game, 470 total yards per game and 300 passing yards per game in all six seasons. The Red Raiders averaged more than 500 yards of offense in four seasons and over 450 passing yards twice. They also averaged at least 140 rushing yards per game four times in six seasons under Kingsbury and averaged more than 40 points per game twice.
- At both Houston (2011) and Texas Tech (2016) Kingsbury's offenses led the nation in total offense and passing offense.
- Dating back to his first offensive coordinator job at Houston in 2011, a Kingsbury-led offense never finished outside the top-20 in the nation in total offense and never finished outside the top-15 in passing offense.
- In 2016, Texas Tech led the nation in total offense (566.6 ypg) and passing offense (463.0 ypg) while finishing #5 in scoring (43.7 ppg). It was the sixth consecutive season a Kingsbury-led unit finished in the top-10 in total offense dating back to his time at both Houston and Texas A&M.
- In 2015, the Red Raiders finished #2 in the nation in total offense (579.5 ypg), #2 in scoring offense (45.1 ppg) and had the nation's second ranked passing offense (388.2 ypg). The 45.1 points per game average established a school single-season record and Texas Tech was one of just two schools in the nation to score at least 25 points in every game. The Red Raiders featured a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in school history.
- With Kingsbury serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2011, Houston led the nation in total offense (599.1 ypg), passing offense (450.1 ypg) and scoring (49.3 ppg) as quarterback Case Keenum finished his collegiate career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history.

Kingsbury spent the 2012 season at Texas A&M as offensive coordinator/QBs coach working under current University of Arizona head coach Kevin Sumlin. Texas A&M finished third nationally in total offense (558.5 ypg) with an attack that finished 13th nationally in rushing (242.1 ypg) and 14th in passing (316.5 ypg). The Aggies beat #1 Alabama on the road and #11 Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl.

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston under Sumlin as the offensive quality control coach (2008-09) prior to being elevated to QBs coach (2010) and then co-offensive coordinator in 2011.

Kingsbury played QB at Texas Tech (1999-2002) where he set 39 school records, 16 Big 12 marks and 17 NCAA records during his collegiate career while throwing for 12,423 yards and 95 TDs. As a senior in 2012, he was awarded the Sammy Baugh Trophy as the nation's top college QB and was also named the Associated Press Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year while finishing ninth in Heisman Trophy voting.

He was drafted in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by New England in 2003 and spent his rookie season on the Patriots injured reserve list before spending the 2004 season on the Saints practice squad. Kingsbury played in one game with the Jets in 2005 and attended training camp with the Bills in 2006. He also played with the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe in 2006 before playing with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 2007.

In 2018, Kingsbury was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame. He played high school football under his father, Tim, at New Braunfels (TX) High School where he threw for more than 3,000 yards and 34 TDs as a senior.
