THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

Following back-to-back games vs. division opponents, the Cardinals play their penultimate road game of the regular season as they travel to Kansas City to face the Chiefs.

For the second straight week rookie QB Carson Beck will go head-to-head with an MVP and Super Bowl-winning QB. After facing 2025 NFL MVP Matthew Stafford in his NFL debut last week, Beck will now take on Chiefs two-time MVP and three-time Super Bowl winner Patrick Mahomes. Beck will also be facing one of the NFL's top defenses for the second straight week. He went up against the Rams #6 overall ranked defense last week, and faces the Chiefs #8 ranked unit on Sunday.

Sunday's game will be the 15th all-time meeting between the Cardinals and Chiefs in a series that dates back to 1970. Making just their second regular season visit (2018) to Kansas City in the last 16 years (2011-26), the Cardinals go for their first-ever road win over the Chiefs (currently 0-5-1).

The matchup this week features two of the NFL's premier TEs in Trey McBride and Travis Kelce, the two players who own the NFL single-season records for receptions (McBride - 126 in 2025) and receiving yards (Kelce - 1,416 in 2020) by a TE. Both McBride (78 catches for 635 yards) and Kelce (35 catches for 512 yards) enter Sunday's game leading their respective teams in both receptions and receiving yards.

Last week vs. the Rams, Beck - himself a backup to the injured Gardner Minshew - made his NFL debut leading a depleted Arizona offense that was without its top three WRs (Michael Wilson, Kendrick Bourne & Jalen Brooks), its top two centers (Hjalte Froholdt & Jon Gaines II), top two left tackles (Paris Johson Jr. & Jayden Williams) and first round RB Jeremiyah Love. The injuries continued to plague Arizona on Sunday, as starting S Andrew Wingard and LB Jordan Burch went down and were placed on injured reserve. The Cardinals have now had seven players land on IR in the last four weeks.

The Chiefs are coming off a convincing 35-13 victory over the Falcons in Atlanta last week in a game that saw Mahomes throw for a season-high five TDs (which went to four different players).

After traveling to Kansas City in Week 11, the Cardinals will play five of their final six regular season games at home. The stretch begins when Arizona hosts the Washington Commanders at State Farm Stadium in Week 12.

The Chiefs will follow this week's game with a visit to Buffalo to take on the AFC East leading Bills at Highmark Stadium on Thanksgiving.

THIS WEEK'S OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

- The Cardinals make their first regular season visit to Kansas City since 2018 this week. S Budda Baker is the only player on the Cardinals current roster who was with the team the last time they played at Arrowhead Stadium.
- With matchups against Matthew Stafford (Week 10) and Patrick Mahomes (Week 11), Cardinals QB Carson Beck - who turns 25 on Thursday (11/19) - will become the first rookie QB in NFL history to have his first two career starts come vs. QBs who have won both a Super Bowl and NFL MVP honors.
- TE Trey McBride will celebrate his 27th birthday on Sunday (11/22). McBride (425) joins former Cowboys TE Jason Witten (429) as the only TEs in NFL history to have 400+ receptions prior to their 27th birthday.
- McBride enters Sunday's game ranked 2nd in the NFL in receptions (78) behind only Seahawks All-Pro WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba (79). McBride's 78 receptions in 2026 are the most in NFL history by a TE in his team's first 10 games of a season, surpassing the previous record of 77 by Zach Ertz (2018 w/ Phi).
- The last time Cardinals LB Josh Sweat faced the Chiefs was in Philadelphia's Super Bowl LIX victory over Kansas City to cap the 2024 season. In that contest Sweat posted a career-high 2.5 sacks of Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes.
- Cardinals OL Hjalte Froholdt missed last week's game vs. the Rams due to a concussion. Froholdt had appeared in 77 consecutive games dating back to his final season with Cleveland (2022) and had started all 60 possible games at center with the Cardinals since signing with the team as a free agent in 2023.
- With S Andrew Wingard and LB Jordan Burch landing on injured reserve this week, the Cardinals now have 16 players on injured lists (IR/PUP). That is tied with San Francisco for the most in the NFL.
- With Froholdt out last week, Arizona started its 6th different O-Line combination this season and its 4th in the last six games.
- On Sunday in Kansas City, WR Devin Duvernay will appear in his 100th career regular season game.
- Following this week's game at Kansas City, the Cardinals won't play on the road again until their Week 16 meeting with the Saints in New Orleans on December 27.

A PAIR OF ALL-WORLD TIGHT ENDS

This week's game between the Cardinals and Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium will feature two of the NFL's premier tight ends in Arizona's Trey McBride and Kansas City's Travis Kelce. They have combined for:

13 - Pro Bowl selections
5 - 1st-Team All-Pro Selections
9 - Seasons with 1,000+ Receiving Yards
5 - Seasons with 100+ Receptions
1,540 - Receptions
17,624 - Receiving Yards
106 - Touchdowns
48 - Games with 100+ Receiving Yards
22 - Games with 10+ Receptions

Sunday's game will mark the first time McBride and Kelce have gone against each other on the field. The last time the Cardinals and Chiefs met was in the 2022 regular season opener. McBride - then a rookie - was inactive that game before making his NFL debut the following week at Las Vegas.

RARE ACCOMPLISHMENTS EVEN AMONG THE GREATS

- McBride (126 in 2025) owns the NFL single-season record for receptions by a TE. Kelce (1,416 in 2020) owns the single-season record for receiving yards by a TE.
- McBride (2) and Kelce (3) are the only TEs in NFL history to have multiple seasons of 100+ receptions and 1,000+ receiving yards.
- McBride (2025) joined Kelce (2018, '20, '22) & Dallas Clark (2009) as the only TEs in NFL history w/ 100+ receptions, 1,000+ receiving yards & 10+ TDs in a single season.

AMONG THE BEST OF THE LAST TWO DECADES

Now in his 14th season in 2026, Kelce is a future Hall of Famer and one of the most prolific pass-catchers in leauge history. An 11-time Pro Bowl selection, he ranks 5th in NFL history in career receptions (1,115) and 17th all-time in career receiving yards (13,514).

Now in his 5th season, McBride is considered among the best young TEs in the game. The only TE in league history to have 100+ receptions in back-to-back seasons (2024-25), McBride enters Sunday's game ranked 2nd in the NFL with 78 receptions in 2026 (trails only SEA WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba - 79).

CARDS MAKE RARE VISIT TO KANSAS CITY

Despite the series between the teams dating back to 1970, the Cardinals have played just six regular season road games against the Chiefs.

This week, Arizona makes just its second regular season visit to Kansas City in the last 16 years (2018).

Including regular season and preseason, the Cardinals and Chiefs faced each other seven times in the previous 12 years (2014-25). Six of those matchups came in Arizona.

Kansas City has played the Cardinals in Arizona four times (2022 regular season; 2021, 2023 and 2025 preseason) since the teams last met in Kansas City (2018 regular season).

BY THE NUMBERS

2,934
On Sunday, the number of days it will have been since the Cardinals last played in Kansas City. That game took place on 11/11/18. The Chiefs have played the Cardinals in Arizona four times (2022 regular season; 2021, 2023 and 2025 preseason) since the teams last met in Kansas City

2
Tight ends in NFL history who have multiple seasons of 100+ receptions and 1,000+ receiving yards: AZ's Trey McBride (2) and KC's Travis Kelce (3).

1
Rookie QB in NFL history who has had his first two career starts come vs. QBs who have won both a Super Bowl and NFL MVP honors: Arizona's rookie QB Carson Beck in 2026. Beck made his NFL debut last week vs. Rams signal-caller Matthew Stafford and will face Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes on Sunday.

2.5
Sacks for LB Josh Sweat in his last game vs. the Chiefs (Philadelphia's Super Bowl LIX victory over Kansas City to cap the 2024 season). That represents his highest single-game in 140 career games played (regular season & postseason).

78
Receptions for McBride in 2026, which ranks 2nd in the NFL behind only Seahawks All-Pro WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba (79). It also represents the highest total in NFL history by a TE in his team's first 10 games of a season.

19
Players who saw action on offense for the Cardinals in Week 1 earlier this season. Of those, 8 (42.1%) are no longer on the team's active roster.

28
Different Cardinals players who have missed at least one game due to injury this season. Arizona has had 28 players miss a combined 137 games due to injury so far in 2026.

6
Different starting O-Line combinations for the Cardinals this season, including four in the last six games. Arizona has had nine different players start at least one game on the O-Line in 2026.

16
Cardinals players currently on injured lists (IR/PUP). That is tied with San Francisco for the most in the NFL.

38
Career games in which S Budda Baker has 10+ tackles. His 38 games with 10+ tackles are 16 more than any other DB in the NFL dating back to his rookie season in 2017.

13
Tackles for Baker the last time he faced the Chiefs (Week 1 of 2022).

1
Fumbles lost by the Cardinals in 2026. Arizona leads the league in fewest total fumbles (5) and fumbles lost (1) this season.

20
Scoring drives of 10+ plays for the Cardinals this season, tied for the most in the NFL. Arizona leads the league in both 10-play scoring drives (20) and total 10-play drives (24) in 2026.

770
Career rushing attempts for RB Tyler Allgeier without a fumble. That represents the longest active streak in the NFL.

77
Consecutive games played for Allgeier in a streak that dates back to his rookie season in 2022. That is the longest active streak among NFL RBs.

99
Career regular season games played for WR Devin Duvernay. He will appear in his 100th game this Sunday in Kansas City.

82
Total points for K Chad Ryland this season. That is tied for 7th in the NFL.

22
Made FGs for Ryland in 2026. That is tied for 4th in the NFL.

15.0
Sacks for LB Josh Sweat as a member of the Cardinals. Just five players in franchise history had more sacks in their first 27 games with the team. Sweat's most recent sack came when he took down Dallas QB Dak Prescott in OT in Week 8, the first OT sack of Sweat's career.

2.0
Sacks for both DL L.J. Collier and LB Zaven Collins over the last three games. Both players had a sack of Rams QB Matthew Stafford last week.

5
Home games for the Cardinals in their final six contests after they face the Chiefs on Sunday.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN WEEK 11

WITH A WIN THIS WEEK...

- Arizona would have its first-ever road victory against the Chiefs. The Cardinals are 0-5-1 all-time playing in Kansas City.
- The Cardinals would earn their 4th win of 2026, exceeding their win total from all of last season (3).

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH

TE Trey McBride
- With 2 receptions, McBride (427) would pass WR Larry Fitzgerald (426) for the most receptions in franchise history in a player's first five seasons.
- With 2 receptions, McBride (4 straight) would join Travis Kelce (9 straight from 2016-24), Jason Witten (4 straight from 2007-10), Jimmy Graham (4 straight from 2011-14) and Todd Christensen (4 straight from 1983-86) as the only TEs in NFL history with 80+ receptions in 4 consecutive seasons.
- With 5+ receptions, McBride would have 5+ catches in each of his last 17 road games. That would extend the longest such streak by a TE in NFL history.
- With 6 receptions, McBride (84) would pass Hall of Fame WR Larry Fitzgerald (83 in 2015) for the most receptions in franchise history through the first 11 games of a season.
- With 7 receptions, McBride (85) would pass Zach Ertz (84 in 2018) for the most receptions in NFL history by a TE in his team's first 11 games of a season.

S Budda Baker
- With 10+ tackles, Baker would have 10+ tackles for the 4th time this season and for the 39th time in his career. He would also have double-digit tackles in each of his last two games vs. the Chiefs (13 vs. KC in Week 1 of 2022).

K Chad Ryland
- With 3 FGs, Ryland (25) would join Neil Rackers (32 in 2005) and Zane Gonzalez (26 in 2019) as the only players in franchise history with 25+ made FGs through the first 11 games of a season. Ryland would also tie his FG output from all of last season (25 in 17 games).

LB Josh Sweat
- With 1.0 sack, Sweat would become just the sixth player in franchise history with 16.0+ sacks in their first 28 games with the team. He would also have 3.5 sacks in his last two games vs. the Chiefs (including postseason).

DL L.J. Collier
- With 1.0 sack, Collier would have a sack in back-to-back games for just the second time in his career (Games 11-12 in 2024 with Arizona). It would also give him 3.0 sacks in his last four games.

LB Zaven Collins
- With 1.0 sack, Collins would have 4.0 sacks in 2026. That would represent the second-highest single season total of his career (5.0 in 2024). It would also give Collins 3.0 sacks in his last four games.

A LOOK AT THE CARDINALS 2026 SEASON

INJURIES MOUNTING IN THE DESERT

When the Cardinals faced the Cowboys in Week 8, they were already missing numerous starters on the offensive line (Paris Johnson, Isaiah Adams, Jon Gaines II) and in the receiving corps (Jalen Brooks).

The injury issues have only continued to pile in up since then. Against Dallas, Arizona lost WR Kendrick Bourne, RB Jeremiyah Love and OL Jayden Williams to injury. The following week at Seattle, QB Gardner Minshew, WR Michael Wilson and OL Hjalte Froholdt suffered injuries. Wilson and Minshew were placed on injured reserve and will miss the remainder of the season.

Froholdt - who had started all 60 possible games at center since coming to Arizona in 2023 - saw that streak snapped last week vs. the Rams.

In the last four weeks, the Cardinals lost their top 3 WRs (Wilson, Bourne and Brooks), QB Gardner Minshew, RB Jeremiyah Love, S Andrew Wingard and LB Jordan Burch to IR.

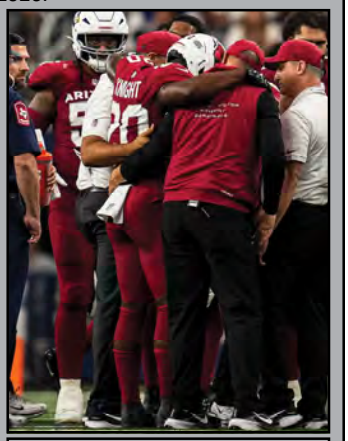

Arizona has now had 28 different players miss a combined 137 games due to injury in 2026.

INJURIES CONTINUE TO PILE UP

A breakdown of the Cardinals injuries in 2026:

Arizona Players Missing Games in 2026

Player	Gms
RB Trey Benson (IR)	10
OL Chase Bisontis (IR)	10
S Joey Blount (IR)	10
DL Zach Carter (IR)	10
RB James Conner (IR)	10
DL Kaleb Proctor (IR)	10
TE Tip Reiman (PUP)	10
TE Jameson Geers	8
CB Will Johnson (IR)	7
OL Paris Johnson Jr. (IR)	6
OL Isaiah Adams	5
TE Hunter Long	5
S Kitan Crawford	4
OL Jon Gaines II	4
RB Jeremiyah Love (IR)	4
WR Jalen Brooks (IR)	3
S Dadrion Taylor-Demerson	3
S Andrew Wingard (IR)	3
WR Kendrick Bourne (IR)	2
DL Walter Nolen III	2
CB Garrett Williams	2
OL Jayden Williams	2
TE Kenny Yeboah (PS-IR)	2
OL Hjalte Froholdt	1
RB Bam Knight	1
CB Max Melton	1
QB Gardner Minshew (IR)	1
WR Michael Wilson (IR)	1

Last week vs. the Rams, the Cardinals used their 10th different starting lineup combination on offense this season.

That is tied with the Jets, Patriots, Raiders and Packers for the most in the NFL.

So far in 2026, Arizona has had:

18 players on offense miss a combined 87 games due to injury
10 players on defense miss a combined 52 games due to injury

10 diferent starting combinations on offense (t-most in the NFL)
9 different starting combinations on defense (t-4th most in the NFL)
6 OL miss a combined 28 games
4 TEs miss a combined 26 games
4 RBs miss a combined 25 games
4 Safeties miss a combined 20 games
3 DL miss a combined 22 games
3 WRs miss a combined 6 games

OFFENSIVE FRONT TAKING BRUNT OF THE DAMAGE

The Cardinals offensive front - the O-Line and Tight End positions - have taken the biggest hit so far this season. A combined 10 players from those two groups have already missed 54 games due to injury.

Arizona has had 9 players start at least one game along the O-Line in 2026, with Hayden Conner making his first-ever start - either in college or the NFL - at center last week vs. the Rams. Only the Packers (11) and Patriots (10) have had more players start a game on the O-Line.

Through 10 weeks, the Arizona has seen:

9 different players start at least 1 game on the O-Line
6 different starting combinations on the O-Line (including 4 in the last 6 weeks)
3 different players start at LT
3 different players start at RG

BECK TAKES OVER STARTING ROLE

In the span of three weeks, rookie QB Carson Beck - selected by Arizona in the 3rd round (65th overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft - went from being the Cardinals emergency 3rd QB (Weeks 1-8) to the backup behind Gardner Minshew (Week 9) and to the starter in his NFL debut last week vs. the L.A. Rams.

After Minshew suffered a season-ending elbow injury in Week 9 at Seattle, Beck was tabbed to make his first career start last week vs. the Rams.

"He did everything we asked him to do," head coach Mike LaFleur said of Beck's performance. "There were opportunities for us as an offense to make plays and help him. All you ask these guys to do is do their job and I thought he did his job. I thought he was delivering the intermediates really well. I thought he looked sturdy back there."

"It was a super cool opportunity to go out there and have the chance to be a quarterback for this football team," Beck said of his debut. "For my first time being out there, I felt comfortable. I felt like the game came to me well early. Again, I'm just really, really excited about the opportunity that I was given. Obviously we didn't get the result we wanted, but we have more games ahead and we'll watch the film, look to get better and then move from there."

It was his first live action since he started for the Cardinals in the preseason opener against the Panthers in the Hall of Fame Game. He finished that contest having completed 15-of-19 pass attempts (78.9%) for 188 yards, a TD and a 125.4 passer rating.

A LOOK AT BECK AMONG THE 2026 ROOKIE QB CLASS

Beck - who was the 3rd of 10 QBs selected in the 2026 NFL Draft behind Las Vegas' Fernando Mendoza (1st overall) and the L.A. Rams Ty Simpson (13th overall) - is one of two rookie QBs on Arizona's active roster (Joey Aguilar).

Through 10 weeks in 2026, there have been:

- 7 rookie QBs who have taken at least one offensive snap
- 4 rookie QBs who have started at least one game
- 1 rookie QB (TB's Jalon Daniels - 1) who has won a game as a starter

BECK COLLEGE SNAPSHOT

During his six college seasons at Georgia (2020-24) and Miami (2025), Beck was a two-time National Champion (2021-22) and was named to the All-SEC 2nd Team (2023) and All-ACC 3rd Team (2025). He played 55 games (43 starts), completing 966-of-1,390 pass attempts (69.5%) for 11,725 yards and 88 TDs. He also rushed for 288 yards and seven TDs.

Beck finished his college career with a 37-6 record as a starter.

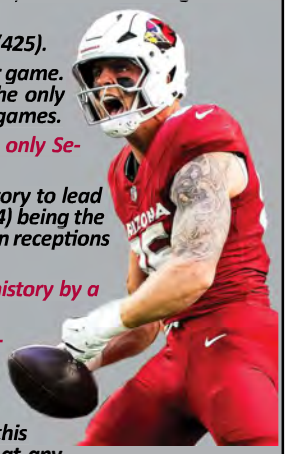

He led Georgia to a 24-3 record in 27 games as starting quarterback of Bulldogs, throwing for 7,912 yards and 58 TDs during that time.

In his lone season with Miami in 2025, Beck led the Hurricanes to an appearance in the National Championship Game. He completed 338-of-467 pass attempts (72.4%) for 3,813 yards and 30 TDs while also adding a pair of rushing TDs.

MCBRIDE WITH ANOTHER HISTORIC SEASON IN THE MAKING

HISTORY WITH NEARLY EVERY CATCH IN 2026

Following a record-shattering season in 2025, TE Trey McBride is having another historic campaign in 2026.

- NFL record for receptions by TE in 1st 5 seasons (425).
- Reached 400 career receptions in his 73rd career game. Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow Sr. (72 games) is the only TE in NFL history to reach 400 receptions in fewer games.
- Ranks 2nd in the NFL in receptions (78) behind only Seahawks All-Pro WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba (79).
- There have been just 4 different TEs in NFL history to lead the league in receptions, with Tony Gonzalez (2004) being the last to do so. McBride (126) finished 2nd in the NFL in receptions in 2025 behind only Rams WR Puka Nacua (129).
- His 78 receptions in 2026 are the most in NFL history by a TE in his team's first 10 games of a season.
- McBride's 78 catches are also the most in franchise history in the first 10 games of a season, surpassing the previous mark of 74 by Hall of Fame WR Larry Fitzgerald in 2016.
- Had 7+ receptions in each of the first 9 games this season. Prior to 2026, no player in NFL history - at any position - had 7+ receptions in more than 5 straight games to begin a season.
- McBride joins Jaxon Smith-Njigba as the only players in the NFL this season with 5+ receptions at least 10 games.
- With his 10-catch performance in Week 7 vs. Denver, McBride (10) joined Tony Gonzalez (15), Zach Ertz (12), Travis Kelce (12) and Jason Witten (11) as the only TEs in NFL history with at least 10 games of double-digit receptions.

MCBRIDE LEADS THE NFL IN RECEPTIONS

After establishing an NFL single-season record for receptions by a TE with 126 catches in 2025, Trey McBride is back at it this season. Through 10 weeks, McBride ranks 2nd in the NFL with 78 receptions in 2026.

BAKER OFF TO A CAREER START IN 2026

Already an 8-time Pro Bowler, S Budda Baker is having one of the most productive seasons of his career in 2026.

Through 10 games this season, Baker has:

68 tackles (31 solo)
3.5 sacks (career high)
5 QB hits (career high)
4 tackles for loss
1 INT
1 forced fumble
4 passes defensed

Baker is tied for the team lead in solo tackles (31), leads the Cardinals in sacks (3.5), ranks 2nd in total tackles (68) and ranks 3rd in tackles for loss (4), QB hits (5) and passes defensed (4).

Just three times in franchise history has a DB had more sacks in a season than Baker has in 2026.

BAKER'S PRODUCTIVE PERFORMANCES IN 2026: In Week 6 vs. the Rams, Baker finished with 6 tackles, 1.0 sack, 2 tackles for loss, 2 QB hits and a pass defensed. It was Baker's third outing this season with 5+ tackles and 1.0+ sack. Only Bears All-Pro DT Jeffery Simmons (4) has more such outings in 2026.

MACK IS THE CAPTAIN IN THE MIDDLE FOR AZ

Signed as a free agent by the Cardinals in 2024, LB Mack Wilson Sr. started all 16 games he played that season and totaled 75 tackles, 3.0 sacks, an INT, 5 passes defensed, 7 QB hits, 4 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery.

Beginning last season, when he was given the "green dot" as Arizona's "Mike" linebacker, Wilson has served as the heart of the Cardinals defense.

Named a team captain each of the last two seasons (2025-26), Wilson has made 18 starts as Arizona's "Mike" linebacker, totaling 136 tackles (66 solo), 7 tackles for loss, 8 passes defensed, an INT and 2 forced fumbles.

Through 10 games in 2026, Wilson leads the Cardinals with 72 tackles to go along with 5 tackles for loss, a pass defensed and a forced fumble.

Last week vs. the Rams, Wilson finished with a season-high 10 tackles. It was his second game with 10+ tackles as a member of the Cardinals and first since Week 3 at San Francisco last season (12).

In Week 8 at Dallas, Wilson finished with 8 tackles while tying his career high with 2 tackles for loss, one of which came on 4th down. It was his 3rd career outing with 2 tackles for loss and first since Week 13 of 2024 at Minnesota.

WINGARD DOING IT ALL IN DEBUT AZ SEASON

S Andrew Wingard - signed by the Cardinals as a free agent this offseason - filled up the stat sheet in his first 7 games (all starts) with Arizona this season before being placed on IR this week.

In those 7 games, Wingard has 53 tackles, three tackles for loss, an INT, 2 passes defensed and a forced fumble.

In Week 9 at Seattle, he finished with a career-best 12 tackles. He followed that up with a team-best 11 tackles last week vs. the Rams.

It marked the first time in his career Wingard has had double-digit tackles in consecutive games. It also gives him as many games with 10+ tackles this season (3) as he had in his first seven NFL seasons (2019-25) combined (3).

WINGARD SHINES IN CARDS DEBUT

Wingard made plays all over the field in the Cardinals Week 1 win over the Chargers in Los Angeles. He finished the contest with 4 tackles, 2 tackles for loss, a forced fumble and an INT.

He became the first Cardinals player to have both an INT and a forced fumble in a game since Budda Baker did so on 10/19/20 at Dallas.

ROBINSON LEADS THE D-LINE IN YEAR THREE

DL Darius Robinson's third NFL season has been - by far - his most productive one.

Through 10 games, the 2024 first round pick has totaled 26 tackles, 5 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and 6 QB hits.

His 2.0 sacks, 5 tackles for loss and 6 QB hits are all career highs. His 5 tackles for loss and 6 QB hits are also tied for the team lead.

Robinson's 6 QB hits are twice as many as he had in his first two NFL seasons combined (3 in 21 games).

In Week 8 at Dallas, Robinson finished with 5 tackles and a tackle for loss. It was his second outing this season with 5+ tackles and fifth of his career.

Robinson has as many sacks in the last seven games (2.0) as he had in his first 24 games.

SACK #15 IS SWEAT'S FIRST IN OVERTIME

LB Josh Sweat had one of his best outings of the season in the Cardinals Week 8 comeback win at Dallas.

Sweat finished the contest with a season-high 6 tackles to go along with 1.0 sack, a tackle for loss and a QB hit vs. the Cowboys.

His sack came at the best possible time, as he took down Cowboys QB Dak Prescott for a 7-yard loss on 3rd-n-8 in OT, forcing a Dallas punt. It was the first OT sack of his Sweat's career.

Sweat has 3.0 sacks in the last seven games and 15.0 sacks in 27 games played with Arizona. Just five players in franchise history had more sacks in their first 27 games with the Cardinals.

A ROOKIE AND A 40-YEAR OLD BACK UP BECK

Behind rookie QB Carson Beck on the Cardinals depth chart are 40-year old veteran QB Josh Johnson and 25-year old rookie QB Joey Aguilar.

CARDINALS BECOME JOHNSON'S 15TH TEAM

- The Cardinals are the 15th NFL team Johnson has been on in a career that dates back to 2008. That is the most by any player in league history.
- A 14-year NFL veteran, he has played in 50 career games (11 starts) and completed 242-of-412 passes for 2,669 yards and 14 TDs while also rushing for 481 yards and two TDs on 94 carries.
- Johnson has appeared in games with Washington, Baltimore, San Francisco, the N.Y. Jets, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Tampa Bay in his career.
- In Arzizona, reunites with Cardinals head coach Mike LaFleur after the pair previously worked together with San Francisco (2020) and the New York Jets (2021).
- Originally entered the league with Tampa Bay as a 5th-round selection (160th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft out of the University of San Diego.

Should Johnson appear in a game for the Cardinals this season, he would join Jim Thorpe as the only non-specialists to appear in a game for the Cardinals at age 40-or-older. Thorpe played his lone game with the Cardinals on 11/29/28 at the age of 41 years, 185 days old.

Johnson is currently the 6th oldest player - and 3rd oldest QB - in the NFL.

AGUILAR JOINS ROSTER FROM JACKSONVILLE

Aguilar entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with Jacksonville in 2026. The former University of Tennessee signal-caller signed to Arizona's active roster last week from the Jaguars practice squad.

He finished his college career at Tennessee in 2025 and completed 272-of-404 passes for 3,565 yards and 24 TDs to go along with 71 carries for 101 four TDs. Prior to Tennessee, he played at Appalachian State (2023-24) and Diablo Valley Community College (2021-22) in his collegiate career. In 38 FBS games, Aguilar completed 783-of-1,254 passes for 10,325 yards and 80 TDs while also rushing for 553 yards and nine TDs on 210 carries.

AZ'S HIGHLY-PRODUCTIVE TIGHT END GROUP

CAREER OUTING FOR ALLGEIER IN COMEBACK WIN

In the Cardinals Week 8 win over the Cowboys, RB Tyler Allgeier finished with 147 yards and a TD on 11 carries (13.4 avg.) to go along with 5 receptions for 44 yards and a TD on his way to being named NFC Offensive Player of the Week. In the win, Allgeier:

- Established a career high for rushing yards (147)
- Established a career high for scrimmage yards (191)
- Had his first career outing with both a rushing and receiving TD
- Had his two longest career runs (63 and 52 yards)

Allgeier became just the 4th player in franchise history to have 185+ scrimmage yards, 1+ rushing TD and 1+ TD reception in a game, joining Ottis Anderson (11/4/1979 vs. Min), Wayne Morris (11/6/1977 @ Min) and Ollie Matson (2x - 10/20/1957 @ Was and 11/21/54 vs. Was).

After putting up 7 total yards in the 1st half (4 rushing; 3 receiving), Allgeier totaled 184 yards (143 rushing; 41 receiving) and 2 TDs (1 rushing; 1 receiving) in the 2nd half against Dallas. In doing so, he became the first player in franchise history to have 180+ yards from scrimmage, a rushing TD and a receiving TD in the 2nd half of a game.

1st 43:25 of game action: 3 carries for 9 yards; 1 reception for 3 yards
Final 23:37 of game action: 8 carries for 138 yards, 1 TD; 4 receptions for 41 yards, 1 TD

LONG RUNS OF BACK-TO-BACK PLAYS

In the 3rd quarter, Allgeier started the Cardinals comeback with a career-long 63-yard run. On Arizona's next possession, his very next carry went for 52 yards. Those two runs - which came on back-to-back carries - were both longer than his any of his first 740 career NFL carries leading up to the 62-yard TD (previous long was 44 yards).

Allgeier became the first NFL player to gain 50+ yards on two straight carries within a game since Tampa Bay RB Doug Martin had TD runs of 67 and 70 yards on 11/4/12 at Las Vegas. Allgeier became the first Cardinals player to accomplish the feat since RB LeShon Johnson (TD runs of 56 and 70 yards) on 9/22/1996 at New Orleans.

Allgeier's 63-yard TD run is 4th-longest rushing TD in the NFL this season.

MORE ABOUT ALLGEIER

Allgeier was signed by the Cardinals as a free agent this offseason following four seasons (2022-25) with the Falcons.

In five NFL seasons (2022-26), Allgeier has appeared in 77 games (18 starts) and has 770 carries for 3,259 yards (4.2 avg.) and 20 TDs. He has also added 84 receptions for 644 yards (7.7 avg.) and three TDs.

- Since entering the league in 2022, he is one of just five active players without a fumble (min. 100 rush attempts). His 770 consecutive rush attempts without a fumble is the longest active streak in the NFL.
- Including last week's matchup vs. the Rams, he has appeared in 77 consecutive games dating back to his rookie season in 2022. That is the longest active streak among NFL RBs.
- Allgeier has appeared in 10 games (6 starts) with Arizona this season, rushing for 383 yards and 2 TDs on 94 carries (4.1 avg.) while also catching 23 passes for 128 yards and a TD.
- He was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team in 2022 after posting 1,035 yards and 3 TDs on the ground and 16 receptions for 139 yards and a score through the air. His 1,035 rushing yards were the most by a rookie in franchise history.

LAFLEUR WINS TWO AT SOFI STADIUM

The Cardinals 18-16 victory over the Rams in Week 6 gave first-year head coach Mike LaFleur his second career win. Each of his first two career wins as a head coach came at SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles (26-24 win @ LAC in Week 1) where LaFleur coached the last three seasons (2023-25) as the Rams offensive coordinator.

LaFleur became just the second full-time head coach in NFL history to have his first two career wins come on the road at the same stadium joining Brooklyn Dodgers HC Cliff Battles (1946-47 at Soldier Field).

MORE ABOUT THE WINS IN LOS ANGELES

• Under LaFleur, the Cardinals have as many wins at SoFi Stadium in 2026 (2) as the Rams and Chargers combined (2).

• Arizona (2026) joined Seattle (2022) as the only NFL teams to defeat both the Rams and Chargers at SoFi Stadium in the same season since the venue opened in 2020.

CARDINALS HAND RARE LOSS TO THE RAMS

Arizona defeated Los Angeles by scoring 18 points on 6 FGs. It marked the first time in the Sean McVay era (2017-26) that the Rams lost in a game in which they did not allow a TD.

The last two games the Rams lost in which they did not allow a TD both came against the Cardinals:

L, 18-16 on 10/18/26 vs. Arizona
L, 12-6 on 12/11/14 vs. Arizona (while Rams were in St. Louis)

ARIZONA REMAINS PERFECT AT AT&T STADIUM

With its thrilling win over the Cowboys in Week 8, Arizona now has won five in a row against the Cowboys. The Cardinals also improved to 9-1 in their last 10 games vs. the Cowboys. Dating back to 2020, the Cowboys have more losses to the Cardinals (5) than they have against their division rival Giants (3) and Commanders (4).

The Cardinals improved to 5-0 all-time at AT&T Stadium since the venue opened in 2009. Despite having played just five games at AT&T Stadium, only Dallas division rival Philadelphia (7) has more wins at the venue.

LAFLEUR BROTHERS LEAD COMEBACKS VS. COWBOYS & OTHER NOTES

• Including postseason, the Cardinals Week 8 win marked just the 3rd time Dallas lost a game it led by 14+ points in the 4th quarter. The Cowboys entered the contest 342-2-1 when leading by 14+ points in the 4th quarter. Prior to the loss against Arizona, the last time the Cowboys lost a game in which they led by 14+ points in the 4th quarter came on 11/13/22 at Green Bay.

• The Cardinals remain the only team in the NFL this season to win a game in which it trailed by 14+ points in the 4th quarter.

• The Cardinals handed the Cowboys their first-ever home loss in a game they led by 14+ points in the 4th quarter (including postseason). Dallas entered the game 202-0-1 in such games.

LONG SUNDAY DRIVES

MINSHEW & ALLGEIER SPARK DALLAS COMEBACK

The Cardinals Week 8 win over the Cowboys was sparked largely by two players who entered the game as backups - QB Gardner Minshew and RB Tyler Allgeier.

Seeing his first regular season action with the Cardinals, Minshew entered the game with the Cardinals trailing 17-3 with 1:35 remaining in the 3rd quarter.

At that point, Allgeier had 3 carries for 9 yards and 1 reception for 3 yards. Beginning with Minshew's first series:

• Minshew completed 17-of-23 pass attempts (73.9%) for 188 yards, 3 TDs, 0 INTs and a 137.3 passer rating

• Allgeier rushed 8 times for 138 yards (17.3 avg.) and a TD and caught 4 passes for 41 yards and a TD

The Cardinals began their final 4 possessions of regulation trailing:

17-3 with 1:35 remaining the in 3rd qtr (Allgeier 63-yard TD run)
24-10 with 14:20 remaining in the 4th qtr (Allgeier 5-yard TD catch)
27-17 with 3:54 remaining in the 4th qtr (Trey McBride 14-yard TD catch)
30-24 with 1:09 remaining in the 4th quarter (Michael Wilson 13-yard TD catch)

In the 4th quarter/OT alone:

- Minshew was 16-of-19 for 181 yards and 3 TDs (excludes 3 spikes)
- Wilson caught 5 passes for 77 yards and a TD and had a 17-yard run
- McBride caught 5 passes for 52 yards and a TD
- Allgeier had 4 catches for 41 yards and a TD along with 7 carries for 75 yards

SACKS COME FROM ALL OVER

Dallas entered its Week 8 game vs. the Cardinals tied for the NFL lead in fewest sacks allowed (7) in 2026. Against Arizona, four different Cardinals players – LB Josh Sweat (1.0), DL Andrew Billings (1.0), LB Zaven Collins (1.0) and DL L.J. Collier (1.0) combined for four sacks of Cowboys QB Dak Prescott.

Billings and Collier recorded their first sack of the season in Dallas. Arizona has had 11 different players record at least 1.0 sack in 2026. Only three teams have more players with at least 1.0 sack this season.

GILLIKIN REMAINS AMONG THE BEST IN AZ

In his first two seasons (2023-24) with the Cardinals, P Blake Gillikin posted the top two single-season punting averages in franchise history - 50.6 in 2023 and 49.7 in 2024.

Franchise Record – Punting Average (Season)

Rnk	Player (Year)	Avg.	Punts	Yards
1	Blake Gillikin (2023)	50.6	51	2,580
2	Blake Gillikin (2024)	49.7	38	1,887

4	Andy Lee (2018)	48.6	94	4,568
5	Andy Lee (2019)	47.8	61	2,913

Back from an injury that ended his 2025 season after five games, Gillikin remains among the NFL's top punters. Dating back to his first season in Arizona in 2023, Gillikin's 48.7 average is the 8th-highest in the NFL among active players during that span.

7	Matt Araiza (KC)	48.8	150	7,316
8	Blake Gillikin (AZ)	48.7	157	7,642

Gillikin has also been highly accurate during his time in Arizona. Among active players with at least 100 punts dating back to 2023, only Cameron Johnston (5) and Bryan Anger (6) have fewer touchbacks than Gillikin (8).

TRIPLING UP ON PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Following each of its first three victories this season, Arizona had one of its players named "NFC Player of the Week."

Week 8 @ DAL: RB Tyler Allgeier - Offensive POW
Week 6 @ LAR: K Chad Ryland - Special Teams POW
Week 1 @ LAC: WR Simi Fehoko - Special Teams POW

The Cardinals three Player of the Week selections are the most for the team in a single season since 2021 (7).

In Week 8, Allgeier earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week after he helped lead the Cardinals comeback victory over the Cowboys. He finished the game with 147 rushing yards and a TD on 11 carries to go along with five receptions for 44 yards and a TD. He established career highs for rushing yards (147) and scrimmage yards (191), had his first career outing with both a rushing and receiving TD and had the two longest runs (63 and 52 yards) of his career.

In Week 6, Ryland NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the first time in his career following his performance in the Cardinals victory over the Rams.

Ryland accounted for all 18 points in Arizona's 18-16 victory over the Rams in Week 6, connecting on all six FG attempts. His final FG of the day was a 43-yard game-winner as time expired in regulation.

Only once in franchise history did a player make more FGs in a game than Ryland did against the Rams (7 by Jim Bakken on 9/24/67 at Pittsburgh).

WR Simi Fehoko was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after blocking a punt in the Cardinals' 26-14 Week 1 win over the Chargers. It marked his first career selection and the Cardinals' first Special Teams Player of the Week honor since Blake Gillikin in Week 9 of 2024. Fehoko finished the Cardinals Week 1 win with the blocked punt and two tackles on special teams.

A SPECIAL PLAYMAKER ON SPECIAL TEAMS

WR Simi Fehoko has 7 tackles, a blocked punt, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble on special teams this season.

In Weeks 1-5, Fehoko became the only player since at least 2000 with 4+ special teams tackles, a blocked punt, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble through a team's first 5 games.

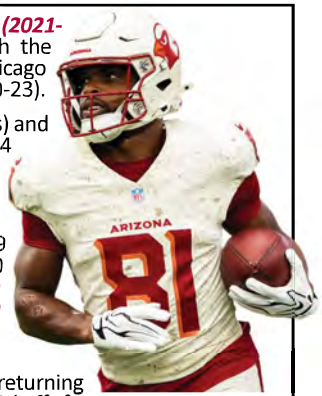

Fehoko's impact on special teams was immediate this season. Named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week following a pivotal blocked punt in Week 1 against the Chargers, Fehoko made another big play on special teams in Week 3 at San Francisco.

Trailing 23-13 late in the 3rd quarter, the Cardinals were forced to punt on 4th-n-10 from their own 24-yard line. Niners DB Siran Neal muffed the return and Fehoko recovered at the SF-28 yard line. Five plays later, the Cardinals scored on a Jacoby Brissett to Jeremiyah Love TD pass to cut the 49ers lead to 23-20.

ARIZONA'S ALL-PRO RETURN MAN

WR Devin Duvernay - a two-time Pro Bowler (2021-22) and 2021 1st-team All-Pro - signed with the Cardinals in free agency after playing with Chicago (2025), Jacksonville (2024) and Baltimore (2020-23).

Duvernay has played 99 career games (25 starts) and has returned 149 kickoffs for 3,791 yards (25.4 avg.) and two TDs while adding 1,363 punt return yards on 119 attempts (11.5 avg.).

With Chicago last season, Duvernay appeared in all 17 games and returned 40 kickoffs for 1,069 yards (26.7 avg.) and 21 punts for 231 yards (11.0 avg.). He ranked 5th in the NFL in kickoff return yards (1,069) and 4th in the NFL in total return yards (1,300) with the Bears in 2025.

MORE DUVERNAY CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has also appeared in six postseason games, returning nine punts for 129 yards (14.3 avg.) and eight kickoffs for 211 yards (26.4 avg.). He is the active leader in postseason punt return yards.
- One of two active players in the NFL to have multiple kickoff returns TDs, joining Jets RB Kene Nwangwu (5).

FITZGERALD ENTERS THE HALL OF FAME AND THE CARDINALS RING OF HONOR

ARIZONA INDUCTS FITZGERALD IN RING OF HONOR AND RETIRES HIS JERSEY #11

In a ceremony during halftime of the Cardinals Week 7 matchup vs. the Denver Broncos at State Farm Stadium, Hall of Fame WR Larry Fitzgerald was placed into the team's Ring of Honor and also had his jersey number (11) retired.

"In Arizona, you guys gave me something far more than a career," Fitzgerald said to the fans at State Farm Stadium. "You gave me a home. And that means so much to me. I started here. I wanted to finish here. And now my name gets to stay here. But I want you guys to know that name belongs to you all, too. I'll be a Cardinal forever. God bless you, Red Sea."

Fitzgerald became just the sixth player in franchise history to have his number retired and the 20th member of the Cardinals Ring of Honor.

FITZGERALD TAKES HIS PLACE IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

In August, Fitzgerald joined LB Luke Kuechly, QB Drew Brees, RB Roger Craig and K Adam Vinatieri in entering the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the induction ceremony that took place at Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium in Canton, OH.

Fitzgerald and the rest of the 2026 class were celebrated at the Hall of Fame Game between the Cardinals and Panthers, at the Gold Jacket Dinner and during the induction ceremony.

FITZGERALD'S HALL OF FAME INDUCTION SPEECH - CLOSING REMARKS

Fitzgerald's closing remarks in his Hall of Fame induction speech, addressing his sons: Devin, Apollo and Milos.

"If you were paying attention, you heard some fundamental themes in this speech. One, it's not hard to find people who will tell you what you want to hear. Make a conscious effort to surround yourself with people who will tell you what you 'need' to hear. The hard things. The uncomfortable things. Believe me, the people in that second group care about you far more than those in the first."

"Two, life is short. Time is precious. And not one of us knows how much we have. So many of the people I mentioned today are no longer with us. Some gone much too soon. Make your time count. Fill every 24 hours with the passions and pursuits that mean the most to you."

"And lastly, there's not much traffic on the extra mile in life, so be sure to bring others along with you."

Fitzgerald became the 16th individual who spent a significant portion of his NFL career as a member of the Cardinals organization inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Full list below:

NEW DIGNITY HEALTH ARIZONA CARDINALS PERFORMANCE CENTER COMING IN 2028

In February of 2026, the Cardinals broke ground at the organization's new Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Performance Center located in North Phoenix at Scottsdale Road and Loop 101.

The targeted opening for the world-class facility is 2028.

"For us, this project is a generational, Arizona-first investment anchored by a world-class performance center and team headquarters," Cardinals Owner Michael Bidwill said at the groundbreaking. "At its core is a focus on helping our players reach their full potential and maximizing team performance. But it will also undoubtedly strengthen the state's economy and create an iconic new landmark in Phoenix."

The 217-acre property positioned west of Scottsdale Road and north of the Loop 101 was purchased at auction from the Arizona State Land Department for $136 million in September by an affiliate of the team. The new performance center and business operations will anchor the mixed-use development site, occupying 30 acres and over 250,000 square feet. The footprint of the team's current facility is 14 acres and 156,000 square feet.

The new facility will feature three natural-grass outdoor practice fields and a fieldhouse with a full-size turf field indoors. Additional elements of the new, world-class performance center will include a greatly expanded and modern locker room and state-of-the-art team spaces for athletic training, sports medicine and strength and conditioning in addition to updated dining areas, meeting rooms, a player lounge and more.

Work is ongoing at the site. The foundation build up for the Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Performance Center and the three outdoor playing fields is complete. On August 26, workers began the first concrete pour for the new facility. As part of the process, workers temporary removed 275 native species trees and cacti that will be preserved and replanted when construction is completed. Some of those are over 300 years old.

In May of 2026, Dignity Health announced that it will open a first-of-its-kind, state-of-the-art medical campus at the site of the Cardinals new performance and business headquarters. Dignity Health became the first to join the project, unveiling plans for a premier medical campus. The multi-phase project will ultimately feature two buildings totaling up to 300,000 square feet across eight acres. Upon completion, the project is expected to create 700 medical and support positions and will be Dignity Health's largest outpatient campus. Phase one of construction for Dignity Health's medical campus is expected to begin in 2027, with an anticipated opening in 2028.

LAFLEUR WINS IN HEAD COACHING DEBUT

Led by first-year head coach Mike LaFleur, the Cardinals defeated the Chargers 26-14 in their regular season opener at Los Angeles in Week 1.

LaFleur became the first Cardinals full-time head coach to earn a win in his first game since Don Coryell in 1973.

LaFleur was one of six coaches who made their NFL head coaching debut in Week 1. That group had a combined 4-2 record. LaFleur (AZ) joined Klint Kubiak (LV), Jesse Minter (BAL) and Joe Brady (BUF) as the coaches who earned wins in their debut.

LAFLEUR TAKES OVER IN ARIZONA

On Sunday, February 1, the Cardinals announced Mike LaFleur as the team's new head coach.

The 39-year old LaFleur joined the Cardinals after spending the past three seasons (2023-25) as the offensive coordinator for the L.A. Rams.

In 2025, the Rams offense led the NFL in points per game (30.5), total net yards per game (394.6), passing yards per game (268.1), first downs per game (23.3), offensive TDs (63), passing TDs (46) and total points (518) on their way to an appearance in the NFC Championship game.

LaFleur's older brother, Matt, is the head coach of the Green Bay Packers making the pair just the fourth set of brothers ever to serve as NFL head coaches joining Jim and John Harbaugh, Jon and Jay Gruden and Al and Ted Nesser.

A Mount Pleasant, MI native, LaFleur joined the Cardinals with 12 years of NFL coaching experience, including five years as an offensive coordinator.

Highlights from LaFleur's tenure with the Rams:

• During LaFleur's three seasons with the Rams, they won 32 games, made three playoff appearances and earned one NFC West title. Last season they advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

• QB Matthew Stafford led the NFL in passing yards (4,707) and passing TDs (46), establishing career-highs in TD passes and passer rating (109.2). WR Puka Nacua led the NFL in receptions (129) and ranked 2nd in receiving yards (1,715) while WR Davante Adams led the NFL in touchdown receptions (14) despite playing in just 14 games. RB Kyren Williams ran for 1,252 yards and fellow RB Blake Corum added 746 rushing yards. That total was the fourth-most by a Rams teammate duo in franchise history.

• Stafford excelled under LaFleur the past three seasons, ranking 2nd in passing yards (12,434), 3rd in passing TDs (90) and 4th in completions (1,054) during that span. After leading the league in passing yards (4,707) and TD passes (46) in 2025, Stafford took home NFL MVP honors for the first time in his career.

• In 2025, the Rams offense set a franchise single-season record for TD passes (46), tied for the fewest sacks allowed (23) in the league and ranked 7th in the NFL in rushing (126.6 ypg).

• Under LaFleur's guidance in 2024, the Rams offense finished 10th in passing yards per game (227.5) and 15th in offensive yards per game (331.4) and first downs per game (20.1). The Rams also finished in the top-15 in scrimmage yards (5,861) and tied for the 7th-highest fourth-down conversion percentage (66.7%).

LAFLEUR AMONG COACHES UNDER 40

Mike LaFleur was hired as the Cardinals head coach on February 1 at age 38. He celebrated his 39th birthday one month later, and is one of five head coaches in the league younger than 40.

ARIZONA'S COORDINATORS

HACKETT LEADS THE OFFENSE

Nathaniel Hackett is in his 1st season as offensive coordinator in Arizona. He joined the Cardinals with 17 years of NFL coaching experience, including 10 years as an offensive coordinator with the N.Y. Jets (2023-24), Green Bay Packers (2019-21), Jacksonville Jaguars (2016-18) and Buffalo Bills (2013-14) and one season as the head coach of the Denver Broncos (2022).

• Since 2017, Hackett has been a part of five postseason runs, including three conference championship games (JAX – 2018 & GB 2020-21). During that span, Hackett's teams won 68 of 100 games (.680).

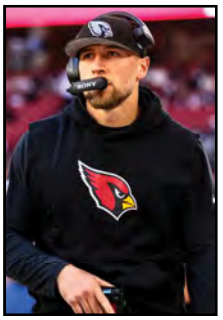

• During his time as an offensive coordinator, has led three top-10 offenses. He helped lead two top five scoring offenses during that time, including Jacksonville in 2017 (5th - 26.1 ppg) and Green Bay in 2020 (1st - 31.8 ppg).

• Had a three-year run (2019-21) in Green Bay when he helped QB Aaron Rodgers earn three consecutive Pro Bowl selections and back-to-back NFL MVP awards (2020-21). Rodgers had three straight 4,000-yard seasons and twice led the league in passer rating during that span (2020-21).

• Under Hackett, WR Davante Adams ranked second in the NFL in receptions (321), receiving yards (3,924) and receiving TDs (34) while posting two of the top-three single-season reception marks in franchise history (123 in 2021; 115 in 2020).

• During his three seasons as Green Bay's offensive coordinator, the Packers won three consecutive NFC North titles, ranked 5th in the NFL in scoring (27.2 ppg) and committed the fewest turnovers (37) in the league.

RALLIS IN CHARGE OF DEFENSE

Nick Rallis (RAW-liss) is in his 4th season as the Cardinals defensive coordinator in 2026. He was hired by Arizona in 2023 following two seasons (2021-22) as the LBs coach in Philadelphia.

• Cardinals S Budda Baker was selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter at safety each of the last three seasons (2023-25). It was Baker's 8th Pro Bowl selection following the 2025 season and his 7th consecutive selection as a starter. Baker leads all NFL DBs with 421 tackles over the last four seasons and has posted 100+ tackles each of the last two years (2024-25).

• Under Rallis in 2025, free agent LB Josh Sweat was named a Pro Bowl alternate after starting all 17 games and finishing with 30 tackles, 12.0 sacks, 17 QB hits, 13 tackles for loss, four forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and three passes defensed. His 12.0 sacks and four forced fumbles are both career highs and his four forced fumbles also tied for the most in the NFL.

• The two CBs drafted by AZ in 2025 - Will Johnson and Denzel Burke - were among the standouts for the defense last season. The duo combined for 29 games played (18 starts) with 84 tackles, 4 tackles for loss, 3 INTs, 21 passes defensed and a forced fumble. Johnson joined Tampa Bay's Jacob Parrish as the two CBs selected for the PFWA's All-Rookie Team. Burke and Johnson both finished among the five rookie defenders with 10+ passes defensed in 2025.

BIDWILL COACHING FELLOWSHIP

In February, the Cardinals announced the addition of Wendy Laurent to the coaching staff as the newest participant in the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship program.

BILL BIDWILL COACHING FELLOWSHIP: The Cardinals established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship prior to the 2015 season. Laurent is the seventh individual to participate in the program, which is designed to increase diversity and create additional opportunities for coaching experience at the highest level.

Four recent participants advanced from the fellowship to full-time assistant coach positions - three on the Cardinals coaching staff and one at the NCAA level - including Connor Senger, who currently servies as the Cardinals pass game specialist.

Laurent returned to Arizona as the Bidwill Fellow after participating in the Bill Walsh Coaching Fellowship as a member of the coaching staff during Cardinals training camp last year. Prior to joining the Cardinals, Laurent spent last season as the assistant TEs coach at Ohio State where he helped guide the Buckeyes to a 12-1 record and berth in the College Football Playoff Semifinals.

Long-time Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill, who passed away in 2019, was at the forefront of providing opportunities to individuals regardless of race or gender. In 2010, he was honored with the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity in the NFL. In 1978, Adele Harris became the first African American female executive in the NFL when she was hired as the Cardinals director of community relations. In 1981, Bidwill hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club. In 2004, the Cardinals became the first NFL team to have an African American general manager/head coach duo in Graves and Dennis Green.

Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill was honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the organization's 2019 "Paul J. Tagliabue Award," given to a league or team executive who demonstrates the integrity and leadership Tagliabue exhibited in career development opportunities for minority candidates and advocacy for diversity on the league and club level.

Laurent is one of seven members of the Cardinals current coaching staff who have taken part in a coaching fellowship with an NFL team.

Cardinals Coaches Who Have Participated in NFL Diversity Fellowships

Coach	Fellowship (Team, Years)
Chris Cook	Bill Walsh Coaching Fellowship (Atlanta, 2018-19; Cleveland, 2020)
Zac Etheridge	Bill Walsh Coaching Fellowship (Houston, 2022, LA Chargers, 2024)
Brent Jackson	Tony Dungy Diversity Fellowship (Indianapolis, 2022)
Matt Merritt	Bill Walsh Coaching Fellowship (Cincinnati, 2016, San Francisco, 2019)
Connor Senger	Bill Bidwill Fellowship (Arizona, 2022)
Rod Wilson	Bill Walsh Fellowship (Kansas City, 2015)

ARIZONA'S HOME GROWN TALENT

The Cardinals roster features two players who were prep stars in the state they now represent at the professional level.

Second-year CB Denzel Burke is an Arizona native who attended Brophy College Prep High School for two seasons (2017-18) before spending his final two seasons (2019-20) at Saguaro High School. He finished his high school career as a four-star prospect and was named the #1 game-changing CB and athlete in the state by the Arizona Republic. In 2024, he became the first Arizona native drafted by the Cardinals since CB Byron Murphy Jr. in 2019.

In his first season with Arizona in 2025, Burke led the Cardinals in both INTs (3) and passes defensed (11).

A member of the Cardinals from 2023-24, DL Roy Lopez returned to Arizona in free agency this offseason. A native of Tempe, Lopez attended Mesquite (Gilbert, AZ) High School before going on to attend the University of Arizona in 2020.

Lopez has been one of the Cardinals top defenders so far in 2026, tied for the lead with five tackles for loss.

LOPEZ'S FATHER IS AZ PREP COACHING LEGEND: Roy's father, Roy Lopez Sr., is a longtime prep football coach in Arizona, having served as the head coach at Tempe Marcos De Niza High School, Sunnyside High School, Tolleson High School and Mesa Desert Ridge High School. He currently serves as the defensive line coach at Hamilton High School. He was named the Arizona High School Coach of the Year by the Arizona Football Coaches Association in both 2007 and 2009.

PAT TILLMAN PRACTICE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Although former S Pat Tillman's #40 jersey is one no longer worn on Sundays, it can still be seen on the field at the team's training facility each week.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Cardinals are honoring a player each week as the Pat Tillman Practice Player of the Week in 2026. The player who earns the honor wears a #40 jersey the Friday of the week they were selected.

Pat Tillman Practice Player of the Week (2026)

Week	Player
1	RB Evan Hull
2	DL Damonic Williams
3	TE Shawn Bowman
4	LB Cameron Robertson
5	WR Reggie Virgil
6	LB Karson Sharar
7	OL Kingsley Eguakun
8	WR Harrison Wallace III
9	S Wydett Williams Jr.
10	LB Riley Wilson

The player also receives his name and photo on a wall outside the locker room that also features Tillman's former locker in a glass display.

Tillman was selected by the Cardinals in the 7th round (226th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft out of Arizona State. He defied odds to become a three-year starting safety and set a franchise single-season record with 224 tackles in 2000.

Following the 9/11 attacks, Tillman turned down a three-year contract and left the Cardinals prior to the 2002 season to enlist in the U.S. Army with his brother, Kevin. He was killed in action on April 22, 2004 in Afghanistan. He was inducted into the Cardinals Ring of Honor in 2006.

A ROSTER WITH INTERNATIONAL TIES

The Cardinals have four players and one coach who were born internationally.

One additional player - OL Valentin Senn - is on the practice as an International Practice Squad Exemption

OL Albert Reese IV	Edmonton, Alberta
OL Valentin Senn	Volders, Austria

ANOTHER CARDS PLAYER WITH INTERNATIONAL TIES

In addition to the players born outside of the United States, the Cardinals roster features a prominent player who has immediate family members with international ties.

WR MICHAEL WILSON

Father, Orville, was born and raised in Jamaica while his mom, Ngaire, was born and raised in New Zealand. His aunt, Maureen Jacobson, played soccer for the New Zealand World Cup team and was the first women's player inducted into the Wellington Football Hall of Fame.

CARDINALS 2026 NFL DRAFT CLASS HIGHLIGHTS

ARIZONA DRAFTS SEVEN PLAYERS IN 2026

The Arizona Cardinals selected seven players in the 2026 NFL Draft.

After using six of seven picks in the 2025 NFL Draft on defensive players, Arizona used five of its seven selections on offensive players in 2026.

The 2026 NFL Draft marked just the second time (2018) in the last 27 years (2000-26) the Cardinals selected at least one quarterback, running back, wide receiver and offensive lineman in the same draft.

Cardinals 2026 NFL Draft Class

7	217th	Jayden Williams	OL	Ole Miss

In his first four drafts (2023-26) as the Cards GM, Monti Ossenfort made 35 selections.

RB JEREMIYAH LOVE - ROUND 1 (3RD) - NOTRE DAME

Following three years (2023-25) at Notre Dame, Love had a breakout season as a junior at Notre Dame (2025). He started all 12 games for the Fighting Irish and rushed for 1,372 yards and 18 TDs on 199 carries (6.9 avg.) while adding 27 receptions for 280 yards and 3 TDs.

Love was finalist for the Heisman Trophy in 2025, was named the Doak Walker Award winner as the nation's top RB and earned unanimous first-team All-America honors.

He became the first player in Notre Dame's storied history to be named a Doak Walker Award winner.

LOVE COLLEGE STATISTICS

In 41 games (29 starts) at Notre Dame, Love rushed for 2,882 yards and 36 TDs on 433 carries (6.7 avg.) while adding 63 receptions for 594 yards and six TDs.

LOVE 2025 HONORS AT NOTRE DAME

- Unanimous 1st-team All-American
- Doak Walker Award winner (First player in Notre Dame's history)
- Disney Spirit Award winner (Most Inspirational Figure)
- Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award Semifinalist
- Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Pony Express Award finalist

LOVE AMONG THE NATION'S LEADERS IN 2025

On his way to taking home the Doak Walker Award in 2025, Love finished the season ranked:

3rd in the nation in total TDs (21)
t-3rd in the nation in rushing TDs (18)
4th in the nation in rushing average (6.89)
5th in the nation in rushing yards/game (114.3)

Love led the nation in both total TDs (40) and rushing TDs (35) between 2024-25.

His 2,497 rushing yards during that span ranked 3rd in the nation behind only Missouri's Ahmad Hardy (3,000) and Boise State's Ashton Jeanty (2,601).

A BIG-PLAY THREAT

The only player in Notre Dame history with multiple TD runs of 90+ yards (98, 94), Love proved to be a constant big-play threat during his time with the Fighting Irish.

His 42 TDs covered a total of 1,018 yards, an average of 24.2 yards per score.

Love's longest TD at Notre Dame came on a 98-yard run vs. Indiana in the 2024 CFP Playoff matchup. It remains the longest run in a CFP game since the playoff began in 2014.

OL CHASE BISONTIS - ROUND 2 (34TH) - TEXAS A&M

In three seasons (2023- 25) with the Aggies, Bisontis started all 36 games played. His 36 starts came at left guard (23), right tackle (12) and right guard (1).

After earning Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman honors at right tackle in 2023, Bisontis started all 23 games played at left guard over his final two college seasons.

SACKS DON'T COME VS. BISONTIS: According to ESPN Research, Bisontis did not allow a single sack in 2025 and ended his college career without a sack allowed in 18 straight games.

Was placed on season-ending IR.

QB CARSON BECK- ROUND 3 (65TH) - MIAMI (FL)

During his six college seasons at Georgia (2020-24) and Miami (2025), Beck was a two-time National Champion (2021-22) and was named to the All-SEC 2nd Team (2023) and All-ACC 3rd Team (2025). He played 55 games (43 starts), completing 966-of-1,390 pass attempts (69.5%) for 11,725 yards and 88 TDs. He also rushed for 288 yards and seven TDs.

Beck finished his college career with a 37-6 record as a starter.

He led Georgia to a 24-3 record in 27 games as starting quarterback of Bulldogs, throwing for 7,912 yards and 58 TDs during that time.

In his lone season with Miami in 2025, Beck led the Hurricanes to an appearance in the National Championship Game. He completed 338-of-467 pass attempts (72.4%) for 3,813 yards and 30 TDs while also adding a pair of rushing TDs.

DL KALEB PROCTOR - ROUND 4 (104TH) - SE LOUISIANA

In four seasons (2022-25) at SE Louisiana, Proctor appeared in 48 games (35 starts) and totaled 134 tackles, 26 tackles for loss, 16.0 sacks, 2 passes defensed and 2 forced fumbles.

In 2025, Proctor earned FCS 3rd team All-American honors and was named the Southland's Defensive Player of the Year after he posted a career-high 9.0 sacks and 13 tackles for loss. He became the first defensive player in school history to be named conference player of the year. Was placed on season-ending IR.

WR REGGIE VIRGIL - ROUND 5 (143RD) - TEXAS TECH

Virgil played four seasons at Miami (OH) (2022-24) and Texas Tech (2025), appearing in 50 games (26 starts) and totaling 100 receptions for 1,583 yards and 16 TDs. He also rushed for a pair of TDs.

VIRGIL THRIVES IN FINAL TWO SEASONS

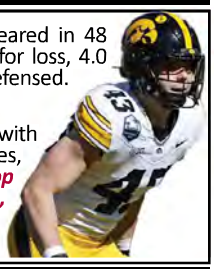

After beginning his college career primarily on special teams in his first two years at Miami (OH), Virgil was a starter in his final two seasons (2024-25) and totaled 98 catches for 1,521 yards and 15 TDs during that span.

VIRGIL'S COLLEGE NOTECARDS

- Earned All Conference honors his final two seasons: Honorable Mention All-Big 12 (2025) and 2nd-team All-MAC (2024).
- In his lone season at Texas Tech, he led the team with 57 receptions and was second on the team in both receiving yards (705) and receiving TDs (6).
- Closed his collegiate career by catching multiple passes in 23 consecutive games played dating back to his time at Miami (OH).

In his lone season as a starter in 2025, Sharar finished with 83 tackles, 12 tackles for a loss, 4.0 sacks, 6 QB pressures, a forced fumble and two passes defensed. One of the top special teams LBs in the country during his time at Iowa, he played 545 snaps on special teams during his college career.

OL JAYDEN WILLIAMS - ROUND 7 (217TH) - OLE MISS

During his five years (2021-25) with the Rebels, Williams appeared in 45 games (34 starts), including starts at left tackle (19) and right tackle (15).

As a senior in 2025, Williams started all 15 games and played over 1,000 offensive snaps at RT during Ole Miss' run to the College Football Playoff (CFP).

According to PFF.com, in 586 pass blocking snaps in 2025 Williams allowed just two sacks and two QB hits. His 586 pass-blocking snaps ranked 3nd among SEC tackles.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

Owner Michael Bidwill has been steering the Cardinals organization for nearly two decades. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Over the past few years, Bidwill has led a significant restructuring of both the football and business sides of the organization.

In the last three years alone, that transformation has seen the team open new business offices, break ground on the new Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Performance Center and launch the Arizona Cardinals Foundation in addition to hiring more than 100 new staff members, many in senior leadership positions.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

• On the whole, Bidwill's most substantial accomplishment in his time leading the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. The world-class venue has not only been critical for the franchise but has also resulted in over $6 billion in economic impact for the state of Arizona.

• On February 12, 2023 State Farm Stadium hosted its third Super Bowl when 115.1 million viewers watched Super Bowl LVII. State Farm Stadium also hosted Super Bowls XLII (following 2007 season) and XLIX (following 2014 season).

• In addition to his role in helping Arizona land three Super Bowls, Michael was also instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to State Farm Stadium; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX, the two events combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

• In 2025, Bidwill oversaw the launch of the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, which replaced what was previously known as Cardinals Charities. The foundation is specifically focused on supporting Arizona's special needs community. In February of 2026, the foundation hosted the first-ever Cardinals Climb: Hike for Special Needs, a community fundraising event dedicated to supporting the special needs community. The event was a resounding success, raising over $2 million dollars for Arizona's special needs community and making it one of the top fundraisers in the NFL.

• Bidwill created a highly-successful community initiative in the Civics Matters Arizona trips, which send hundreds of high school kids from across the state aboard the Cardinals team plane on an educational trip to Washington D.C. The fifth-annual Civics Matters Arizona trip, in partnership with the Close Up Foundation and Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs, took place in June of 2026 and saw 280 students visit the nation's capital.

• Bidwill has also spearheaded the Cardinals efforts surrounding youth football. In 2026, the team launched the Junior Cardinals Flag Football League in Calgary, Alberta which made the Cardinals the first team to launch a junior flag football league in Canada. In 2024, Arizona became the first NFL team to produce and broadcast weekly girls flag football through the Arizona Cardinals Girls Flag Football Game of the Week, an initiative that is in its third season in 2026. In December of 2025, the team hosted the inaugural Arizona Cardinals High School Honors event at State Farm Stadium to recognize the 2025 season of Arizona high school football.

• Under Michael's direction in 2025, the organization launched Cardinals Premier Travel, a first-of-its-kind, elevated travel experience to give all fans the opportunity to see the team play on the road in unmatched comfort and convenience. In its debut last November, nearly 290 fans attended the inaugural trip to Dallas where they saw the team's Monday Night victory over the Cowboys. This preseason, Cardinals Premier Travel provided an unprecedented experience as it took fans on a three-day trip to watch the team play in the Hall of Fame game and to be in attendance for WR Larry Fitzgerald's enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH.

• In January of 2018 Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee, which reviews the league's Personal Conduct Policy at least annually and recommends appropriate changes with advice from outside experts.

• Of the franchise's seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Michael's tenure leading the organization. Arizona has played in 10 postseason contests over the last 17 seasons (2007-23), after having appeared in just seven total playoff games prior.

• Arizona has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice since 2008 including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).

OSSENFORT IN YEAR FOUR WITH ARIZONA

Monti Ossenfort is in his 4th season with the Cardinals in 2026 after being hired as the team's General Manager in January of 2023. A look at some of Ossenfort's career highlights:

• Arizona's 2026 free agency period was Ossenfort's busiest one yet with 15 new players signed. The group included Pro Bowl OL Isaac Seumalo, WR Kendrick Bourne, All-Pro KR Devin Duvernay, RB Tyler Allgeier, QB Gardner Minshew, S Andrew Wingard and LB Jack Gibbens among others.

• Gibbens and Wingard have combined for 118 tackles, 4 tackles for loss, 3 QB hits, an INT, 3 passes defensed and a forced fumble.

• In his first four drafts (2023-26) as the Cardinals GM, Ossenfort made 35 total selections and executed seven trades. Of the 35 players drafted – which includes 19 on defense and 16 on offense – 26 remain with the team.

• Ossenfort's 2025 NFL Draft class featured six defensive players who combined for 83 games played, 2,650 defensive snaps, 841 special teams snaps, 197 tackles, 12 tackles for loss, 3 INTs, 29 passes defensed, 7 QB hits, 2 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery (returned for a TD), 3.5 sacks, 20 special teams tackles and a blocked PAT last season.

• The 2025 draft class was highlighted by CBs Will Johnson and Denzel Burke. The duo combined for 29 games played (18 starts) with 84 tackles, 4 tackles for loss, 3 INTs, 21 passes defensed and a forced fumble last season. Both finished among the five rookie defenders with 10+ passes defensed in 2025. Johnson joined Tampa Bay's Jacob Parrish as the two CBs selected for the PFWA's 2025 All-Rookie Team.

OSSENFORT MAKING TRADES IN 2026

Dating back to August, Ossenfort has orchestrated 4 trades:

11/6: Traded QB Jacoby Brissett and a 5th round pick in the 2027 NFL Draft to Baltimore in exchange for a 4th round pick in the 2027 NFL Draft and a 7th round pick in the 2028 NFL Draft.

10/12: Traded WR Marvin Harrison Jr. and a 6th round pick in the 2027 NFL Draft to Houston in exchange for a 2nd round pick and 7th round pick in the 2027 NFL Draft.

8/30: Traded a 6th round pick in the 2028 NFL Draft to Jacksonville in exchange for TE Hunter Long and a 7th round pick in the 2028 NFL Draft.

8/29: Traded RB Corey Kiner to New England in exchange for a 7th round pick in the 2028 NFL Draft.

MONTI EXTENDS THE CORE

In the span of 10 days prior to the start of the 2026 regular season, Ossenfort signed OL Hjalte Froholdt (8/25) to his second two-year extension and WR Michael Wilson (9/3) to a three-year extension. Last week, TE Elijah Higgins was signed to a three-year extension.

On 8/25, the Cardinals signed Froholdt to a two-year contract extension that keeps him under contract through the 2028 season.

Froholdt is in his fourth season with the Cardinals and this is the second extension he has signed with the team. He previously signed a two-year extension with the Cardinals in August of 2024 after originally joining the team a free agent in 2023.

The 30-year old Froholdt started all 51 regular season games at center in his first three seasons (2023-25) in Arizona and was a team captain in 2025.

On 9/3, the Cardinals signed Wilson to a three-year extension that keeps him with the team through the 2029 season.

Wilson is in his fourth year with the Cardinals after being selected in the third-round (84th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft from Stanford. He appeared in 46 games (38 starts) in his first three seasons (2023-25) and had 163 receptions for 2,119 yards and 14 TDs.

On 11/13, the Cardinals signed Higgins to a three-year extension that keeps him with the team through the 2029 season.

Higgins is in his fourth season with the Cardinals and has appeared in 55 games (24 starts) with 82 receptions for 798 yards and four TDs.

He also leads all Cardinals players in special teams snaps (690) dating back to 2023, tallying 19 tackles and a forced fumble in that time.

INAUGURAL "CARDINALS CLIMB" RAISES OVER $2 MILLION FOR ARIZONA SPECIAL NEEDS COMMUNITY

In February of 2026, the Arizona Cardinals Foundation hosted the first-ever Cardinals Climb: Hike for Special Needs, a community fundraising event dedicated to supporting the special needs community. The event was a resounding success, raising over $2 millions dollars for Arizona's special needs community and over 3,500 individuals participating across nearly 200 teams.

In May of 2026, it was announced that the 100 percent of the over $2 million raised will be distributed to 60 organizations across Arizona. Highlighting the list of recipients are the Foundation's four cornerstone beneficiaries: Barrow Neurological Foundation, SARRC (Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center), Special Olympics Arizona and Treasure House.

Also receiving funds are other organizations advancing new and innovative programs that support individuals of all ages living with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities. The aim is to expand services, promote inclusion, and create equal opportunities, helping drive a lasting impact for individuals and families navigating life with special needs.

The second-annual Cardinals Climb: Hike for Special Needs will take place on Saturday, February 20, 2027.

"The inaugural year of Cardinals Climb was a tremendous success and we know it will continue growing in the years ahead," said Cardinals Owner Michael Bidwill. "The energy and joy at State Farm Stadium were truly palpable, but the most rewarding aspect is the opportunity to support so many organizations making a meaningful difference in the special needs community."

ABOUT CARDINALS CLIMB: At Cardinals Climb, State Farm Stadium was transformed into an immersive climbing and hiking experience, bringing together fans, families, corporate teams, and community groups to "climb" for a cause. Cardinals players that attended the inaugural climb included TE Trey McBride, WR Michael Wilson, TE Elijah Higgins, DL Darius Robinson, LB Owen Pappoe, QB Kedon Slovis and OL Hayden Conner. Cardinals Legends and Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductees QB Kurt Warner and WR Larry Fitzgerald also made appearances as did General Manager Monti Ossenfort.

For Cardinals Climb, State Farm Stadium was re-imagined as a trail-inspired adventure for participants of all ages and abilities. A variety of routes, ranging from accessible paths to more challenging climbs, allowed participants to experience the stadium in a completely new way. All trails finished at the 50-yard line of State Farm Stadium and there was a special Cardinals Climb After Party presented by Seatgeek that took place on the Great Lawn featured performances from platinum-selling singer and songwriter Gavin DeGraw and the Grammy-award winning band Switchfoot.

THE ARIZONA CARDINALS FOUNDATION

In July of 2025, the Cardinals announced the launch of the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, marking a powerful new chapter in the team's legacy of charitable giving.

Replacing what fans and partners had previously known as Cardinals Charities, the Foundation is specifically focused on supporting Arizona's special needs community and serves as the central hub for all of the organization's charitable giving efforts.

"For decades, Cardinals Charities has made a meaningful difference across Arizona," said Cardinals Owner Michael Bidwill. "With the creation of the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, we're building on that legacy and taking our commitment to the next level. This focused approach allows us to deepen our impact and build relationships with organizations serving the special needs community, ensuring that our support can aid in their development of transformational programs that elevate the care and support available for individuals with special needs."

"An estimated 1 in 20 people in the U.S. lives with an IDD," said Bob Hamer, Executive Director of Arizona Cardinals Foundation. "As this community grows and ages, more support will be needed – and we aim to lead that effort. This mission is personal for so many people across our football operations, business front office, and fanbase and we're committed to making a lasting, sustainable impact for the IDD community throughout Arizona."

A centerpiece of the Foundation's launch was the announcement of four Cornerstone Beneficiaries, each of which received a three-year commitment from the Foundation to fund new and innovative programs that expand services, promote inclusion and create equal opportunities for those living with an IDD.

Those four partners are:

- SARRC (Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center)
- Barrow Neurological Foundation
- Special Olympics Arizona
- Treasure House

These partners were selected for their proven track records in the space and visionary ideas. Funding supports bold, innovative programs that bring long-term impact to individuals and families navigating life with special needs.

ARIZONA CARDINALS FOUNDATION
BENEFITING THOSE WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

In addition to these Cornerstone Charitable partners, the Foundation will open its grant application process this fall for other nonprofits in the special needs community. In order to be considered for funding, interested organizations are encouraged to complete the form at www.AZCardinals.com/foundation.

The Cardinals have two founding partners - Dignity Health and Desert Financial Credit Union - supporting the Arizona Cardinals Foundation and its mission. Their longstanding dedication to the Arizona community and shared commitment to improving lives make them invaluable partners in the launch of the Foundation. Dignity Health's leadership in providing world-class healthcare, combined with Desert Financial Credit Union's deep-rooted focus on community empowerment and financial well-being, helps amplify the Foundation's ability to deliver meaningful, lasting impact within the special needs community.

Funds raised from the 50/50 raffle at all Cardinals home games in 2025 benefitted the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, giving fans a direct way to contribute and participate in these efforts.

AT A GLANCE

• Selected by the Cardinals in the second round (55th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft; signed a four-year contract extension with Arizona on 4/3/25 that will keep him with the team through the 2029 season.

• Named to his second straight Pro Bowl in 2025, joining Hall of Famer Jackie Smith (5 straight, 1966-70) as the only TEs in franchise history named to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons.

• "Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" in 2024.

NFL HISTORY/RANKINGS

• His 425 receptions are the most by a TE in their first five seasons in NFL history.

• With 111 receptions in 2024 and 126 catches in 2025, became the first TE in NFL history to have back-to-back seasons with 100+ receptions.

• Dating back to the beginning of the 2023 season, leads all NFL TEs in receptions (396) and receiving yards (3,845).

• With 126 catches for 1,239 yards and 11 TDs in 2025, joined Travis Kelce (2018, '20, '22) & Dallas Clark (2009) as the only TEs in NFL history w/ 100+ receptions, 1,000+ receiving yards & 10+ TDs in a single season.

• His 126 receptions in 2025 are the most by a TE in a single season in NFL history (previous record Zach Ertz - 116 in 2018 w/ Philadelphia).

• Led all NFL TEs in both receptions (126) and receiving yards (1,239) in 2025 while also tying Dallas Goedert for the league lead in TD receptions by a TE (11).

• McBride is one of just five TEs in NFL history to have at least 10 career games with double-digit receptions.

• Had a streak of 16 straight games with 5+ receptions from 2024-25, the longest such streak by a TE in NFL history.

• In Week 9 of 2026, McBride had his 16th consecutive road game with 5+ receptions, the longest such streak by a TE in NFL history. McBride (2023-24) and Travis Kelce (2019-20) were tied for the previous record (10 games).

• In 2024, became the first TE in NFL history to have 12+ catches in consecutive games.

• Had three games with 120+ receiving yards in 2024. Only Travis Kelce (4 in 2020) and Tony Gonzalez (4 in 2005) had more such games in a single season in NFL history among TEs.

• Has nine 100-yard receiving performances in the last four seasons (2023-26), the most in the NFL among TEs in that span.

• In 2026, became the first player in NFL history to have 7+ catches in each of the first nine games of a season (streak was snapped last week vs. LAR).

FRANCHISE HISTORY

• McBride (2, 2024-25) joined WR Larry Fitzgerald (3, 2015-17) as the only players in Cardinals history with 100+ receptions & 1,000+ receiving yards in consecutive seasons.

• Has 10 games with 10+ catches in the past four seasons (2023-26). Prior to McBride, no TE in franchise history had ever had 10+ receptions in a single game.

• Set the franchise record for most receptions in a season by a TE in three consecutive years (81 in 2023, 111 in 2024, 126 in 2025).

• Also set the franchise single-season records receiving yards (1,239) and TD receptions (11) by a TE in 2025.

• His 126 catches in 2025 are the most in team history regardless of position ahead of DeAndre Hopkins' 115 in 2020.

• Has nine games with 100+ receiving yards over the last three-plus seasons (2023-26). Prior to 2023, no Cardinals TE had recorded a 100-yard game since 1989.

• McBride's 425 receptions are the 8th-most in franchise history.

AT A GLANCE

• Selected by the Cardinals in the second round (36th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft out of Washington, Baker signed contract extensions with AZ in August of 2020 and December of 2024. The most recent extension keeps him with the Cardinals through the 2027 season.

• An 8-time Pro Bowl selection, 4-time All-Pro honoree and 7-time team captain, Baker was honored with the 2025 Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award in the lead up to Super Bowl LX.

• Has been named NFC Defensive Player of the Month (Oct. 2020) and NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 6 in 2020).

NFL LEADER

• One of just 11 safeties in NFL history named to the Pro Bowl at least eight times. The other 10 are members of the Hall of Fame.

• The 2025 season was his second consecutive season with 100+ tackles and 6th of his career. Baker's 6 seasons with 100+ tackles lead all active NFL DBs and are tied for 6th among active NFL players.

•Baker (1,071) joins Vikings S Harrison Smith (1,190) and Patriots S Kevin Byard (1,006) as the only active DBs with 1,000+ tackles in their career. Baker surpassed 1,000 tackles in the '25 season finale at Los Angeles.

• Since entering the league in 2017, he leads all NFL DBs in total tackles (1,071) and solo tackles (695).

• Had seven games with 10+ tackles in 2024, only Pat Tillman (8 in 2000) and Eric Weddle (8 in 2008) had more such games in a season among NFL DBs since at least 2000.

CARDINALS HISTORY

• Earned his eighth Pro Bowl selection in 2025, joining CB Patrick Peterson (8) as the only players in team history to receive at least eight Pro Bowl selections in their first nine NFL seasons.

• Baker (3) joined Hall of Famer Larry Wilson (5 from 1966-70) and Adrian Wilson (4 from 2006-09) as the only players in team history to earn 3+ All-Pro selections (first or second team) at safety.

• In franchise history the only safeties to appear in more games with the Cardinals than Baker (148) are Adrian Wilson (181) and Larry Wilson (169).

• Established a new career high with 164 tackles in 2024, which marked the most tackles by a Cardinal - regardless of position - since at least 1991.

• Led the team with 111 tackles in 15 games in 2022, adding seven passes defensed, two INTs, two QB hits and a fumble recovery.

• In 2021, was named a team captain and earned Pro Bowl and second-team All-Pro honors after posting 98 tackles and establishing career-best marks in INTs (three) and passes defensed (seven).

• Named a team captain for the first time, earned first-team All-Pro honors and was selected to his third Pro Bowl (second consecutive at safety) in 2020, joining CB Patrick Peterson (4) as the only players in Cardinals history to earn at least three Pro Bowl selections before their 25th birthday.

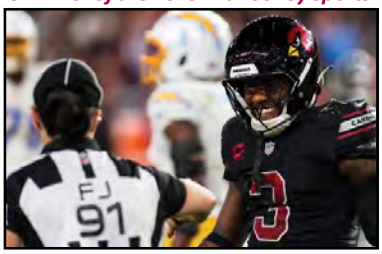

• Became the fourth player in Cardinals history to be voted "NFC Defensive Player" of the Month (October, 2020) with 31 tackles, 2.0 sacks, two INTs (90 return yards), three tackles for loss, three QB hits, two passes defensed and a forced fumble in three games.

• Earned his second Pro Bowl nod (first at safety) in 2019 becoming the first player in franchise history selected to the Pro Bowl as a special teamer and as a position player.

• Named first-team All-Pro and was voted to the Pro Bowl for his work on special teams as a rookie in 2017 after he led the Cardinals with 16 special teams tackles.

BAKER TAKES HOME 2025 SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

Pro Bowl S Budda Baker was named the winner of the 2025 Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award, presented each year to an NFL player who best demonstrates the qualities of on-field sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for the game and opponents, and integrity in competition.

The award was created in honor of the late founding owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Rooney, Sr.

The winner of the NFL Sportsmanship Award is determined by a vote of current NFL players. It marked the second time a Cardinals player was named the Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award winner after WR Larry Fitzgerald took home the honor in the award's inaugural season in 2014.

As the winner, Baker received a $25,000 donation from the NFL Foundation to a charity of his choice.

The other finalists in 2025 were LB Lavonte David (Tampa Bay), LB Demario Davis (New Orleans) and T Brian O'Neill (Minnesota) in the NFC, and DT DeForest Buckner (Indianapolis), DT Harrison Phillips (New York Jets), DT Zach Sieler (Miami) and LB Kyle Van Noy (Baltimore) in the AFC.

FITZ FACT: FINISHED WITH MORE CAREER TACKLES (41) THAN DROPPED PASSES (35)

QUARTERBACKS

Joey Aguilar – Originally signed by Jacksonville as an undrafted rookie free agent out of Tennessee before signing with Arizona on 11/10. Played 38 games (37 starts) at Tennessee (2025) and Appalachian State (2023-24), completing 783-of-1,254 passes for 10,325 yards and 80 TDs in his FBS collegiate career.

Carson Beck – Selected by the Cardinals in the third round (65th overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft. In six seasons at Georgia (2020-24) and Miami (2025), appeared in 55 games and finished his college career with a 37-6 record as a starter. Played penultimate game of his college career at State Farm Stadium and was named Offensive MVP after leading the Hurricanes to a 31-27 victory over Ole Miss. Started in his NFL debut vs. LAR last week.

Josh Johnson – On his 15th NFL team in 14 seasons. Joined the Cardinals on 11/10 from the Bengals practice squad. Is the third-oldest active quarterback in the NFL behind Aaron Rodgers (42) and Joe Flacco (41).

RUNNING BACKS

Tyler Allgeier – Acquired by AZ in free agency in 2026. In last week's matchup vs. LAR, played in his 77th consecutive game, the longest active streak among NFL RBs. Has rushed for 3,259 yards and 20 TDs on 770 carries (4.2 avg.) while adding 84 receptions for 644 yards and 3 TDs in his NFL career. In Week 8 @ Dal, set single-game career-highs in rushing yards (147), scrimmage yards (191) and receptions (five) and tied his career-high in total TDs (2) and recorded runs of 63-yards (TD) and 52-yards on consecutive plays, becoming the first NFL RB to have 50+ yard carries on back-to-back plays since Tampa Bay RB Doug Martin had TD runs of 67 and 70 yards on 11/4/12 at LV.

Evan Hull – Originally selected by Indy in the fifth round (176th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft. Claimed by AZ from Hou on 8/31/26. Has seen action in 12 NFL games and has 20 carries for 49 yards.

Bam Knight – In his second season with Arizona. Established career highs in games played (12) and starts (8), scrimmage yards (429), total TDs (5), rushing TDs (4), receptions (22) and receiving yards (160) in 2025. Rushed for 136 yards between games 6-8 including a season-high 80 yards @ LAR (10/18).

TIGHT ENDS

Elijah Higgins – Appeared in 55 games (24 starts) with 82 receptions for 798 yards and four TDs in his first three-plus seasons (2023-26) with the Cardinals. Set career-highs in receptions (7) and receiving yards (91) in Week 16 of 2025 vs. Atl. Before switching to TE in the NFL was a WR at Stanford alongside current teammates WR Michael Wilson and WR Simi Fehoko. Scored his first TD in 728 days in Week 4 @ NYG (10/4) and recorded a season-high 57 receiving yards in Week 5 vs. Det (10/11). Signed a 3-year contract extension on 11/13.

Hunter Long – Traded to Cardinals on 8/30/26. Has appeared in 51 games (nine starts) in his career and has 23 receptions for 175 yards. He played in nine games (three starts) with Jacksonville last season after previously playing with Miami (2021-22) and the Rams (2023-24). He entered the league with Miami as a third-round selection (81st overall) in the 2021 NFL Draft from Boston College.

Trey McBride – Named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl in 2025. His 425 career receptions are the most by a TE in their first five seasons in NFL history. Became the first TE in NFL history to have back-to-back seasons with 100+ receptions and joined Dallas Clark (2009) and Travis Kelce (2018, '20, '22) as the only TEs to have 100+ receptions, 1,000+ yards and 10+ TDs in a season. Owns the NFL single-season record for receptions by a TE with 126 in '25, which also set a new Cardinals single-season (previous was 115 by WR DeAndre Hopkins in 2020). Ranks 2nd in the NFL in receptions with 78. Became the first player in NFL history to have 7+ receptions in each of the first nine games of a season.

Teagan Quitoriano – Signed by AZ in free agency in 2026. Appeared in 46 career games (20 starts) and caught 12 passes for 169 yards and 4 TDs in first five seasons with Houston (2022-24), Atlanta (2025) and Arizona (2026). Caught two TDs in his Cardinals debut vs. Det (10/11), the first multi-score game of his pro or collegiate career and joined Anquan Boldin (9/7/03 @ Det) as the only players in franchise history to have 2 TDs in their first game with the team.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Devin Duvernay – Two-time Pro Bowler (2021-22) and 2021 1st-team All-Pro as a returner. Joined Cards as a free agent in 2026. In 99 career games (25 starts) has returned 149 kickoffs for 3,791 yards (25.4 avg.) and two TDs while adding 1,363 punt return yards on 119 attempts (11.5 avg.). One of three active players in the NFL to have multiple kickoff returns for TDs and his 11.5 punt return average ranks fifth in the NFL since entering the league in 2020 (min. 75 returns).

Simi Fehoko – In his second season with Arizona. Part of the same WR room at Stanford as Cardinals teammates Michael Wilson and Elijah Higgins. Entered the NFL as a a fifth-round pick (179th overall) of the Cowboys in the 2021 NFL Draft. Became the first player since 2000 to have 4+ special teams tackles, a blocked punt, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble in the first five games of a season.

Reggie Virgil – Selected by the Cardinals in the 5th round (143rd overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft out of Texas Tech. Started his collegiate career at Miami (OH), where he spent three seasons (2022-24). Made his NFL debut vs. Det (10/11) and made his first start @ Dal (11/1). Caught a season-long 25-yard pass @ Sea (11/8).

Harrison Wallace III – Signed by the Cardinals as a UDFA in 2026. Played 54 games (36 starts) in his college career and had 145 receptions for 2,155 yards and 10 TDs as well as 14 punt returns for 113 yards at Ole Miss (2025) and Penn State (2021-24). Part of two different CFP teams and played in a bowl game in each year of his collegiate career at Penn State as well as Ole Miss. Made his NFL debut @ Sea (11/8) and caught his first pass vs. LAR (11/15).

OFFENSIVE LINE

Isaiah Adams – From Ajax, Ontario. Selected by AZ in the third round (71st overall) in 2024 out of Illinois. Helped block for the Cardinals offense to run for 2,451 yards and 18 TDs on 463 carries (5.3 avg.) in 2024. Started 11 games on the O-Line in 2025.

Hayden Conner – Selected by the Cardinals in the sixth round (211th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft out of Texas. During the 2024 season, he was named to the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team and was a Wuerffel Trophy semifinalist for his support of animal shelters in the Austin area, as well as other volunteer efforts.

Kingsley Eguakun – Entered the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2024 with Detroit. Joined Arizona's practice squad on 10/2 and signed to the active roster on 10/28. Has seen action in eight NFL games and started two for the Lions last season.

Hjalte Froholdt – Started all 60 possible games at center since joining the Cardinals in 2023. Native of Denmark. Signed by AZ as a free agent in 2023, has since signed 2 contract extensions, the most recent coming on 8/25/26 (2 years). Is the only player on the Cardinals roster to have started 60 games over the last four seasons.

Josh Fryar – Played 54 games (30 starts) in five seasons (2020-24) at Ohio State. In Arizona, he reunited with Cardinals O-Line coach Justin Frye, who was his position coach with the Buckeyes the past three seasons (2022-24) and OL Paris Johnson Jr., who played on the same line at OSU from 2020-22. Has started each of the last two games at LT.

Jon Gaines II – In his 4th season in Arizona. Was a fourth-round pick in 2023 out of UCLA. Lined up as a FB on James Conner's 2-yard TD run in Week 2 of 2025 vs. Carolina. Made his fourth career start at RG in Week 6 vs. LAR (10/18).

Isaac Seumalo – 2024 Pro Bowl selection. Signed a three-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/11/26 as an unrestricted free agent. Has started 113-of-134 career regular games played with starts coming at LG (93), RG (19) and RT (one). Allowed just a 3.7% pressure rate in 2025 according to NGS, the lowest among all guards (min. 250 pass blocks). Has started all 99 games played over the last eight seasons (2019-26).

Elijah Wilkinson – Returned to Arizona in 2026 as a free agent following two seasons with Atlanta (2024-25). Spent the 2023 season with the Cardinals, where he started nine of 10 games played at LG. Has started 71-of-104 regular season games at RT (46), LG (18) and RG (7). Started all 17 games for the Falcons in 2025 and has started all 10 games at RT with Arizona so far in 2026.

Jayden Williams – Selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round (217th overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft out of Mississippi. During his five years (2021-25) with the Rebels, appeared in 45 games (34 starts), including starts at LT (19) and RT (15). Final college game came in the Fiesta Bowl at State Farm Stadium. Has played in 8 games this season and made first career start at LT in Week 5 vs. Det (10/11). Has started at LT in four games this season.

Jedrick Wills Jr. – Signed to the Cardinals active roster from the Bills practice squad on 10/6/26. Entered the NFL as a first round selection (10th overall) by Cleveland and has played in 64 career games including 57 starts at LT. PFWA All-Rookie pick in 2020.

SPECIALISTS

Blake Gillikin – After establishing a franchise record averaging 50.6 yards per punt in 2023, returned in 2024 and averaged 49.7 yards per punt. His 48.7 average is the 8th-highest in the NFL among active players since 2023. Has sveraged 50.0+ yards per punt in 23-of-41 games played in three-plus seasons (2023-26) with the Cardinals. Despite having missed 20 games during that span, only four punters in the NFL have had more such games over the last three-plus seasons.

Casey Kreiter – In his first season with the Cardinals following six years with the New York Giants (2020-25). A three-time team captain (AZ- 2026 and NYG- 2022, '24), was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2018 with the Broncos. Through Week 10 of 2026 has played in 159 consecutive games dating back to 2017. Played in all possible 101 regular season games with the Giants between 2020-25.

Chad Ryland – After signing with AZ in October of 2024, was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate that season. Since making his AZ debut in Week 5 of '24, he ranks 6th in the NFL in made FGs (75) and 9th in points scored (303). Went 6-for-6 on FGs in Week 6 @ LAR (10/18), becoming the first NFL player since 2024 to make 6+ FGs including a game-winner. Made his 2nd game-winning kick in three games @ Dal (11/1), joining just two other kickers with multiple game-winning FGs this season.

Recorded his first career INT in Week 10 vs. LAR, his first since 9/25/21 vs. Akron.

Josh Sweat – Signed a four-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/13/25 after spending his first seven seasons with the Eagles (2018-24). His 12.0 sacks, 13 tackles for loss, 17 QB hits and 4 forced fumbles led the team in 2025. Posted a career-high three games with 2.0 sacks with the Cardinals in '25. Has 3.0 sacks in his last seven games played. Is one of just 15 players in the NFL with 15.0+ sacks over the last two seasons (2025-26). Most recent sack came in Dallas in Week 8, taking down QB Dak Prescott in OT. It marked the first OT sack of Sweat's career.

Mack Wilson Sr. – Named a team captain for the first time in his career in 2025 and was named the Cardinals 'Mike' LB. Started the first eight games and totaled 60 tackles, three tackles for loss, six passes defensed, an INT and a forced fumble before an injury ended his season. Forced his sixth career fumble in Week 4 @ NYG (10/4) and has 6+ tackles in 9 of 10 games in '26. Posted a season-high 10 tackles including one for a loss vs. LAR in Week 10 which was his second career double-digit tackle performance and first since 9/21/25 @ SF.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Budda Baker – Arizona's 2017 second-round pick (36th overall) out of Washington is an eight-time Pro Bowler (2017, '19-25), 7-time team captain (2020-26) and earned 2020 first-team All-Pro honors and 2024 second-team All-Pro honors. He is one of just 11 safeties in NFL history with at least eight Pro Bowl selections. One of just three DBs in NFL history to have 60+ tackles 3+ sacks, 4+ TFLs an INT and a FF in the first nine games of a season joining Donovan Wilson and Rodney Harrison. Tied his season high with 11 tackles in Week 9 at Seattle, his 38th career game with 10+ tackles. Dating back to Baker's rookie season in 2017, no other NFL DB has more than 21 such outings.

Denzel Burke – Selected by the Cardinals in the fifth round (174th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft out of Ohio State. A native of Phoenix, he was a standout prep DB and WR who attended Brophy College Prep (Phoenix) before transferring to Saguaro (Scottsdale) High School. Has 4 INTs, 19 PDs and 1 FR in his first 27 career games. Has recorded a pass defense in three of his last four games and leads the Cardinals with 8 passes defensed in 2026.

Los Angeles Chargers	7	0	7	0	—	14

In the regular season debut of Cardinals head coach Mike LaFleur, the Cardinals opened the campaign at SoFi Stadium against the Chargers in a game few gave them a chance to win. But thanks to a strong performance in all three phases, Arizona came away with a decisive 12-point victory and LaFleur became the first Cardinals head coach to win his debut since Don Coryell in 1973. QB Jacoby Brissett was 27-37 passing for 277 yards and a TD with no turnovers. His top target again was all-pro TE Try McBride who caught 9 passes for 95 yards and a TD while new WR Kendrick Bourne had 8 catches for 75 yards. The defense held LA to 14 points and 268 total net yards while forcing two takeaways, 3.0 sacks and delivering a key goal-line stand. And special teams provided one of the game's key plays with a 4th quarter blocked punt by WR Simi Fehoko that led directly to an AZ touchdown.

On the game's first play, Brissett hit McBride downfield for 27-yard completion. Ten plays later, rookie RB Jeremiyah Love bounced it outside on 2nd-n-goal from the 5 and his TD run capped the 11-play, 70-yard opening drive. The Chargers answered with their own lengthy drive (8 plays, 77 yards) and RB Omarion Hampton's 9-yard scoring run tied the game at 7. The Cards again moved into scoring position on the ensuing possession but Chad Ryland's 54-yard FG try hit the right upright and they came away scoreless. However, the defense soon got it back when S Andrew Wingard's forced fumble by Hampton gave the AZ's offense the ball back at its own 34. The Cards would reach the LA9 before Ryland's 27-yard FG made it 10-7. The Chargers seemed poised to tie the game or go ahead on the next drive when they advanced to the AZ3 at the 2:00 warning and faced 4th-n-goal from there. LA went for it but DT Dante Stills came up the middle to sack Justin Herbert for a loss of 10 that turned it over on downs. Taking over at their own 13 with 1:55 to go and no timeouts, Brissett moved the Cardinals offense 61 yards in 8 plays and Ryland's 42-yard FG as the half expired made it 13-7 at intermission.

Herbert and the Chargers got the ball to start the 3rd quarter but AZ's defense forced the game's first punt. Soon thereafter, Brissett connected with WR Marvin Harrison, Jr. on a beautiful pass deep down the left sideline that covered 33 yards to the AZ45. That drive would end with another Ryland FG – this one from 34 yards – and Arizona led 16-7 midway through the 3rd. The ensuing LA drive was aided greatly by a 48-yard defensive pass interference penalty that took it to the AZ12 and Herbert's 8-yard TD pass to WR Ladd McConkey cut the Cardinals lead to 2 at 16-14 with 6:03 to play in the 3rd. Early in the 4th, the Chargers lined up at their own 19 to punt it back to the Cardinals when Fehoko knifed through the middle and blocked it. Arizona's offense took over at the LA3 and a play later, Brissett found McBride with a 3-yard TD pass in the near left corner of the end zone to put the Cards up 23-14 with 11:44 to play. On the next series, Herbert aired it out deep down the middle but Wingard came over from his safety position to pick it off at the AZ5. Up 9 with 9:39 remaining, the AZ defense did not allow the Chargers to threaten again and Ryland's 49-yard FG with 2:33 remaining provided the final points in the Cardinals victory.

WEEK 2

Seattle Seahawks 31, Arizona Cardinals 7

63,191 ■ State Farm Stadium ■ Sep 20, 2026

7

Seattle Seahawks	7	0	10	14	— 31
Arizona Cardinals	0	7	0	0	— 7

After a season-opening win over the Chargers in Los Angeles, the Cardinals returned home in week 2 to take on the defending Super Bowl Champion Seahawks. The divisional battle was tight in the first half and the teams were tied at 7 going into halftime. But after, that it was all Seattle as the visitors produced points on all 4 of their 2nd half possessions and scored 24 unanswered points en route to a 31-7 victory. Seahawks receiver Jaxon Smith-Njigba led the way with 9 catches for 155 yards and 3 TDs from QB Drew Lock, who was starting in place of an injured Sam Darnold. Meanwhile, the Seattle D limited Arizona to 151 total yards and 7 points. TE Trey McBride was again the focal point for the AZ offense, finishing with 8 receptions for 41 yards and a TD.

Seattle opened the scoring on its 2nd offensive snap of the game when Lock went deep to Smith-Njigba, connecting on an 82-yard TD pass. The Seahawks held that lead into the 2nd quarter but on the first play of it, Arizona faced a 4th-n-goal from the SEA2 and elected to go for it. The decision was validated when McBride caught a Jacoby Brissett pass in the near left corner of the end zone to tie the game. The next Seattle drive reached the AZ47 but LB Zaven Collins forced a turnover when he ripped the ball from RB Jadarian Price and recovered it himself. The Cards could not capitalize on the takeaway and the Seahawks looked like they would reclaim the lead when their next possession reached AZ's 1-yard line with 1:16 to go in the half; however, on 4th-n-goal from there, the AZ defense stuffed an Emanuel Wilson run for a 1-yard loss forcing a turnover on downs. That goal-line stand resulted in a 7-7 game at intermission.

The 2nd half began with an unlucky break for the Cardinals. On the opening kickoff, Arizona's special teams forced a fumble by Seahawks returner Rashid Shaheed; however, the ball bounced fortuitously to Seahawks LB Chazz Surratt who took it 35 yards to the AZ37. Four plays later, Lock's 3rd-n-goal pass found Smith-Njigba in the end zone for a 7-yard TD that put Seattle up 14-7. A minute later, Seahawks S Julian Love made a diving INT to set the offense up at the AZ42 and that led to a 33-yard Jason Myers FG that made it 17-7 with 6:47 to go in the 3rd. Seattle's next drive covered 80 yards in 10 plays and again ended with a Smith-Njigba TD catch, this one from 12 yards out on 3rd-n-6. With 11:25 to go and up 24-7, Seattle embarked on a 16-play, 70-yard drive that chewed 10:14 from the clock and TE AJ Barner's 1-yard sneak on 4th-n-goal from the 1 provided the final margin.

San Francisco 49ers	7	10	6	13	—	36

In week 3 at Levi's Stadium, the Cardinals (1-1) faced the 49ers (2-0). San Francsico jumped out to an early lead with TDs on its first two offensive possessions and led 23-6 one drive into the 3rd quarter. But Arizona would come back, closing to within 3 early in the 4th quarter on Jacoby Brissett scoring passes to WR Michael Wilson and rookie RB Jeremiyah Love, respectively. It was Love's best game to date as he finished with 90 rushing yards on 21 carries and Wilson led all receivers with 11 catches for 89 yards. While the Niners would proceed to score two fourth-quarter TDs, the Cards continued to battle and the game was not decided until San Francisco recovered an on-side kick attempt in the closing seconds to preserve its 36-30 victory.

The 49ers opened the scoring on their third offensive snap of the game; they faced a 3rd-n-12 at their own 18 when Brock Purdy tossed a short pass to WR Mike Evans who immediately pitched it to WR Deebo Samuel and Samuel took it 80 yards down the left sideline for a TD. That lead grew to 14 with a long, 10-play, 93-yard scoring drive on the next SF possession that Purdy ended with his 23-yard touchdown pass to Evans on the first play of the second quarter. Arizona got on the scoreboard with 3:03 to go before halftime when Chad Ryland's 26-yard FG capped a 14-play, 54-yard drive. The Cards offense got the ball back 90 seconds later following a 49ers punt, taking over at its own 17. Brissett moved the team 59 yards in 8 plays and Ryland's 41-yard FG made it 14-6 with 0:23 to go in the second quarter. Unfortunately, that was enough time for Purdy to move into position for a long FG try and Eddy Pineiro's 57-yarder as the half expired made it 17-6 at intermission.

The 49ers got the ball to open the third quarter and made it count. They moved 56 yards in 7 plays and Christian McCaffrey's 1-yard TD plunge made the score 23-6 after the PAT kick failed. Arizona needed an answer on the ensuing drive and found it as Brissett completed 5 of 5 passes for 36 yards and Love rushed 6 times for another 31; it ended with Wilson's 5-yard TD pass from Brissett that made it 23-13 with 3:02 left in the third. A couple minutes later, the Cards caught a break on special teams when their punt hit the leg of 49er Siran Neal and Simi Fehoko pounced on it at the SF28. Five plays later, Brissett found Love out of the backfield and the rookie's 1-yard TD catch made it a 3-point game with 13:06 to play. While the Niners then moved to the AZ11 in 6 plays, Arizona appeared to come up with a key 3rd down stop when Purdy's 3rd down pass was incomplete; however, officials threw a roughing the passer flag and two plays later, TE George Kittle caught a 10-yard TD pass. Down 29-20 with 8:42, the Cardinals would not go away. Brissett moved them 68 yards in 14 plays and called his own number on a QB sneak from the 1-yard line. That TD made it 29-27 with 2:51 remaining and AZ holding two timeouts. With 1:36 to go, SF had advanced to the AZ20 and the Cards were out of timeouts. With everyone expecting a run on 2nd-n-10 from there, Purdy found Kittle with a downfield and he took it into the end zone to make it a 9-point game with 91 seconds left. The Cards quickly moved to the SF31 with 0:39 remaining. Because they needed at two scores and a successful on-side kick recovery, they opted for a 49-yard FG try at that point. Ryland nailed it to make it 36-30 but AZ could not come up with the on-side kick attempt and the game ended one snap later.

Arizona Cardinals 24, New York Giants 36

Arizona Cardinals	14	3	7	0	—	24
New York Giants	3	16	8	9	—	36

In Week 4 at MetLife Stadium, the Cardinals faced the Giants in a game that featured 4 lead changes and even more momentum swings. Arizona scored touchdowns on each of its first two possessions and led 14-3 after one quarter. But the Giants led by 2 at intermission thanks to outscoring the Cardinals 16-3 in the second quarter. It continued to go back and forth in the second half and with the Giants up by 6, Arizona had the ball for 4 plays from the NYG 4 in the game's final 22 seconds. But after incompletions on the first 3 plays, the fourth down attempt was picked off and returned for a TD to seal the game. New York improved to 3-1 with the victory while the Cardinals dropped to 1-3.

Arizona's Devin Duvernay returned the game's opening kickoff 39 yards to the AZ42. On the subsequent 8-play, 58-yard drive, rookie RB Jeremiyah Love ran 4 times for 27 yards and Jacoby Brissett completed 3 of 4 passes for 31, the last of which was a pass he dropped perfectly into the arms of WR Marvin Harrison, Jr. for a 12-yard TD. The Giants answered with a 39-yard Dominic Zvada FG that made it 7-3. On the ensuing AZ drive, Brissette started it with a 20-yard completion to Wilson, Love ripped off two runs of 8 and fellow RB Tyler Allegeier ran for 7, 9 and then 22 yards into the end zone to give the Cards a 14-7 lead. Zavada's 50-yard FG on the first snap of the 2nd quarter then made it 14-6. On the second play of the next drive, a tipped Brissett pass was INT'd by CB Greg Newsome II turning it over to the NYG offense at its own 32 but AZ's defense forced a 3-n-out. After a series of traded punts and no first downs, QB Jameis Winston completed a 12-yard TD pass to WR Malachi Fields with 4:30 left in the first half and it was 14-12 AZ after the 2-point try failed. The 3rd play of the next AZ drive was a pass deflected at the line and it caromed straight to rookie LB Arvell Reese. The INT set the Giants up at the AZ26 and 2 snaps later, Winston went down the middle to WR Malike Nabers for a 25-yard TD. That score gave NYG its first lead of the game at 19-14 with 2:24 before halftime. Following an Arizona 3-n-out, NYG had it at the AZ48 but Winston's 3rd-n-4 pass was picked off by CB Denzel Burke. The takeaway gave AZ possession at its own 25 with just 24 ticks on the clock. But three Brissett completions quickly took it to the NYG42 and Chad Ryland's career-long 60-yard FG as the half expired made cut the Giants lead to 19-17.

The 2nd half began with a sack by LB Josh Sweat followed quickly by a Budda Baker INT that set AZ's offense up at the NYG37. That led to a 2-yard Brissett TD pass to TE Elijah Higgins that put the Cardinals back up, 24-19. The next series by the NYG offense again started with a Cardinals sack, this one by DL Darius Robinson, and the Giants soon faced 3rd-n-20 at their own 42. They converted it on a 40-yard completion but AZ ultimately forced them to settle for a 34-yard Zavada FG that appeared to cut the Cardinals lead to 2; however, a rare defensive holding call gave the Giants a fresh set of downs and took the FG off the board. Two plays later Winston's 11-yard TD pass to TE Theo Johnson and a 2-point conversion put the Giants up 27-24 late in the 3rd quarter. The next NYG drive saw the Giants reach the AZ43 but LB Mack Wilson punched the ball from RB Najee Harris and LB Zaven Collins recovered. With 6:00 to go, AZ took over at its own 3 and down 3. The Cards went 3-n-out when defensive pass interference was not called on a 3rd down pass to TE Trey McBride. However, the Cards did allow just a FG on the ensuing possession, this one from 52 yards out. Down 6 with 2:06 to play and one timeout, AZ took over at its own 33. Brissett moved the offense to the NYG22 with :27 left and on 3rd-n-6, a pass interference foul on a pass to Harrison gave AZ a 1st-n-goal the 1. Three incompletions led to a 4th-n-goal with :11 left but Brissett's pass to Wilson at the goal line was INT'd by CB Deonte Banks who took it for a 98-yard TD as time expired.

WEEK 5

Detroit Lions 45, Arizona Cardinals 21

60,968 ■ State Farm Stadium ■ Oct 11, 2026

21

Detroit Lions	0	24	14	7	—	45
Arizona Cardinals	7	0	7	7	—	21

In Week 5, the Cardinals (1-3) hosted the Lions (2-2) at State Farm Stadium. Arizona was up 7-0 after one quarter possessing momentum on both sides of the ball but Detroit scored then 31 unanswered points enroute to a 45-21 victory.

Early on, the Cardinals defense was dominant and limited the Lions to minus-9 yards on 9 offensive plays in the 1st quarter. Each of Detroit's first 3 drives was a 3-n-out and each featured a sack from a different Cardinals defender. Meanwhile, the Arizona offense was also impressive early, moving 73 yards in 14 plays on an opening drive that QB Jacoby Brissett ended it with a 2-yard TD pass to back-up TE Teagan Quitoriano. That initial momentum would soon slip away. Early in the 2nd quarter, the Lions picked up their first 1st down of the game by converting on 4th-n-3 at the AZ47 and three plays later a 1-yard TD run by RB Jahmyr Gibbs tied the game at 7. On their next drive, the Lions advanced to the AZ38 and went for it on 4th-n-1; after faking a handoff, QB Jared Goff found TE Sam LaPorta open downfield for a 38-yard touchdown. Following a Cards 3-n-out, Goff & Gibbs led the Lions 75 yards in 9 plays and ended the drive with another 4th down conversion, this one on a TD pass to WR Jameson Williams on 4th-n-goal from the 8. Jake Bates' 46-yard FG with 0:53 left in the 2nd quarter gave Detroit a 24-7 lead at intermission.

Arizona threatened on the opening drive of the 3rd quarter but came away with no points after Chad Ryland's 53-yard FG try was just wide to the right. Detroit took advantage of the short field as Goff found Williams for a 39-yard TD on 3rd-n-10 to put the Lions up 31-7 with 9:42 to go in the 3rd. Arizona cut into the lead on its next possession when Brissett again found Quitoriano for a TD, this one a 13-yarder that capped a 10-play, 72-yard drive. The Lions answered with a 74-yard drive and Goff's 1-yard sneak on 4th-n-goal put them up 38-14 with 1:05 to go in the 3rd. After a Gibbs 3-yard TD run made it 45-14 with 5 minutes to play, Arizona TE Trey McBride made an athletic and acrobatic grab at the side of the end zone for a 9-yard TD grab that provided the game's final points.

WEEK 6

Arizona Cardinals 18, Los Angeles Rams 16

Arizona Cardinals	3	6	3	6	—	18
Los Angeles Rams	3	6	0	7	—	16

After opening the regular season at SoFi Stadium in a win over the Chargers, the Cardinals were back in Week 6 to take on the Rams. And the visitors from the desert would again leave Tinseltown with a thrilling upset victory. Arizona's defense held LA's #1-ranked unit to just 16 points and 140 offensive yards below their season average; the effort included 3 sacks, 2 takeaways and a pair of 4th down stops. Part of that defensive success was due to Arizona keeping the Rams offense off the field with lengthy, ball-controlled possessions. Four Cardinals offensive drives were 10+ plays including two that consumed well over 8 minutes each. The game's biggest star was kicker Chad Ryland who accounted for all 18 points by going 6 for 6 on FGs, including a 43-yard game-winner as time expired. All-pro TE Trey McBride hauled in 7 passes and became the first TE in NFL history with 7+ receptions in each of the first 6 games of a season. Each team moved to 2-4 on the season with the game's outcome.

The game started with defense. After Arizona sent the Rams 3-n-out on the game's opening possession, LA safety Quentin Lake got the ball back when he picked off Jacoby Brissett on the drive's third play. That set the Rams up at the AZ 32 but they were limited to 6 yards in 6 plays including a 3rd down sack by LB Josh Sweat. It forced a 44-yard FG by new Rams kicker Blake Grupe – who was signed just days earlier – and LA led 3-0. Arizona's Devin Duvernay returned the ensuing kickoff 40 yards to the AZ47; significantly, Grupe injured his knee attempting the tackle and the Rams were forced to go the rest of the game without a placekicker. The Cards offense then moved 37 yards – 26 on a McBride catch and run – to set up Ryland's 34-yard game-tying FG. After another Rams 3-n-out, AZ's offense would move 68 yards in 10 plays. The biggest play was a 31-yard run to the 10 by back-up RB Bam Knight, who saw extended duty in the absence of injured rookie Jeremiyah Love; it set up Ryland's 30-yarder that put Arizona up 6-3 early in the 2nd quarter. The Rams then went 73 yards in 12 plays and Stafford put them back on top with a 15-yard TD pass to RB Blake Corum; without a kicker LA went for 2 after the TD but it was Arizona that nearly scored when Sweat sacked Stafford on the try forcing a fumble that DL L.J. Collied scooped and returned deep into LA territory before being chased own. Down 9-6, AZ would embark upon a 12-play, 64-yard drive just before the half and Ryland's 22-yard FG made it 9-9 at intermission.

The Cardinals got the ball to open the 2nd half and kept it for quite a while; they ran 15 plays and chewed 8:35 off the clock before Ryland's 4th field goal – this one a 38-yarder – made it 12-9. The subsequent Rams drive advanced in 8 plays to the AZ27 where they faced a 4th-n-1; they went for it but came away empty when AZ stuffed back-up TE Davis Allen for no gain on an inside hand-off. From there, the Cards put together a drive very similar to their previous one, going 64 yards in 14 plays and consuming 8:11; this one also ended in a Ryland FG and his 27-yarder made it 15-9 with 9:28 left to play. The Rams next possession reached the AZ19 before an errant snap lost 11 yards; on the next play, LB Cody Simon stripped TE Tyler Higbee forcing a fumble that was recovered by CB Denzel Burke. LA got the ball back a short time later and with 3:17 remaining went for it on 4th-n-8 at the AZ44; the Cards sniffed out a screen pass in the backfield and the Rams turned it over on downs with an incompletion. AZ took over at its own 45 with 3:17 left but could not pick up a first down. With 2:45 remaining and two timeouts, the Rams got the ball back at their own 14. Stafford would soon connect with WR Puka Nacua on a 43-yard catch-n-run to the AZ13 and with 0:47 left he tossed a 6-yard TD pass to TE Colby Parkinson. The game was knotted at 15 pending the PAT but the Rams broke the tie when punter Ethan Evans, pressed into service as the placekicker, put the try through the uprights. Following a touchback, the Cardinals took over at their own 35 with 0:47 remaining and no timeouts. On the drive's first play, WR Jalen Brooks made a diving catch of a Jacoby Brissett pass across the middle; the reception itself gained 21 yards and an unnecessary roughness penalty tacked on 15, taking the ball to the LA29. RB Tyler Allgeier ran twice as the Rams exhausted their two remaining timeouts after which Brissett ran to the left hash to set up the game-winning attempt. With a running clock, the AZ field goal unit calmly came onto the field and Ryland booted it through from 43 yards out as time expired.

WEEK 7

Denver Broncos 30, Arizona Cardinals 16

64,871 ■ State Farm Stadium ■ Oct 25, 2026

16

Denver Broncos	6	7	14	3	— 30
Arizona Cardinals	0	6	7	3	— 16

In Week 17 at State Farm Stadium, the Cardinals honored Hall of Fame WR Larry Fitzgerald by placing him in the team's Ring of Honor and retiring his jersey #11 when they hosted the 4-2 Broncos. It was a close game statistically as well as on the scoreboard as Denver led by 7 with 3:50 to play in the third quarter. However, the visitors took advantage of three huge plays that gained a combined 161 yards (62, 52 and 47) and those were the difference in the ballgame. On National Tight Ends Day, Arizona star – and Colorado native – Trey McBride caught 10 passes for 111 and a touchdown as he continued to lead the NFL in receptions.

A pair of first quarter Will Lutz FGs - 48 and 43 yarders - gave Denver a 6-0 lead. The Cardinals then moved 60 yards on a drive early in the second quarter; they picked up 26 yards on a defensive pass interference penalty before Bam Knight 29-yard run and a personal foul took it to the 8 to set up Chad Ryland's 30-yard FG. Arizona's next possession covered 65 yards in 14 plays and Ryland's 26-yard FG tied the game at 6-6 with 4:30 left in the first half. The third play of the next series had the Broncos facing 3rd-n-7 at their own 38; as Nix escaped pressure by running up the middle, AZ's downfield defenders had their backs turned allowing the QB to go 62 yards for a TD that made it 13-6 at halftime.

Arizona got the ball to open the 3rd quarter and quickly crossed into Denver territory. On 1st-n-10 from the DEN45, a McBride reception gained 16 yards before replay assist ruled it incomplete. On 3rd down from that spot, WR Jalen Brooks appeared to be the victim of pass interference on a throw deep down the right sideline but no flag appeared. The ensuing punt was deflected, after which Denver took over at its own 38. Three plays later, Nix hit RJ Harvey out of the backfield with a well-time screen pass that the RB took 52 yards for a TD. The Cards cut their deficit to 20-13 on the next series when Jacoby Brissett capped a 10-play, 68-yard drive with his 7-yard scoring pass to McBride. Another explosive play from the Broncos – this one a 47-yard catch-n-run by Marvin Mims, Jr. – took it to the 7 and set-up a 1-yard JK Dobbins TD run on the last play of the 3rd quarter. Down 27-13, the next Cardinals drive reached the DEN40 and they faced a 4th-m-13 from there. Too far for a FG try and too close for a punt they went for it but the pass play came up short. A 31-yard Lutz FG made it 30-13 with 8:39 to go. Ryland would answer with his 41-yard FG to make it 30-16. With just over 2:00 remaining, AZ had it at the 1 but they could not find the end zone and the game ended by that margin.

Denver improved to 5-2 with the win while Arizona fell to 2-5.

WEEK 8

Arizona Cardinals 33, Dallas Cowboys 30 (OT)

90,763 ■ AT&T Stadium ■ Nov 1, 2026

30

Arizona Cardinals	0	3	7	20	3	—	33
Dallas Cowboys	7	7	3	13	0	—	30

A week 8 showdown against the Cowboys turned into one of the most improbable and exhilarating come-from-behind performances in recent memory. The Cardinals trailed for more than 47 minutes of game action, including by 14 in the 4th quarter and by 10 with just over 2 minutes left. Arizona entered the game undermanned due to injuries and lost several more players during the contest. But the resilient, gutsy comeback was fueled largely by two players who were not starters: RB Tyler Allgeier, who was the team's only healthy back by game's end, and QB Gardner Minshew, who entered in relief of Jacoby Brissett late in the 3rd quarter. Allgeier established career bests in rushing (147) and scrimmage yards (191), scored TDs via rush and reception, and notched the two longest runs of his career (63 & 52). Minshew entered with 1:35 to go in the 3rd quarter and the Cards down 17-3 and engineered TDs on each of his 4 of drives in regulation and threw 3 TDs in the 4th quarter to send the game to OT.

The game's beginning saw Dallas go for it on 4th-n-inches from its own 32 on its first possession; however, Arizona LB Mack Wilson met RB Javonte Williams in the backfield for a 2-yard loss that turned it over at the DAL30. The Cards would advance to the 1 where they too would go for it on 4th-n-1. And like Dallas, they too would be turned away when Love was stopped short of the goal-line. The Cardinals defense would force a 3-n-out and after the punt AZ took over at its own 35. On 3rd-n-11 from the 34, a Brissett pass deflected off the hands of TE Elijah Higgins and into the air where LB Shemar James picked it and returned the INT 33 yards to the DAL5. On 2nd down from the 4, Williams took a handoff but was soon met by Cardinals safety Budda Baker whose hit forced a fumble. Unfortunately, the loose ball rolled into the end zone where back-up TE James Mitchell recovered it for a TD. The next Dallas possession covered 85 yards in 21 plays and Dak Prescott capped it with his 9-yard TD pass to WR Ryan Flournoy that made it 14-0. Brissett's 29-yard completion to Bourne on the first play of the next drive moved it to the DAL46 and was instrumental in setting up Chad Ryland's 37-yard FG that made it 14-3. With :20 left in the half, Knight absorbed a vicious hit at the end of a catch-n-run, forcing a fumble that the Cowboys recovered at the AZ 47 with 11 ticks on the clock. They ran one play before sending Brandon Aubrey out for a 61-yard FG attempt; it was wide right and the score at halftime remained 14-3.

Dallas got the ball to start the 2nd half and chewed 8:23 off the clock with a 15-play, 70-yard drive that ended with Aubrey's 31-yard FG that made it 17-3. The Cards next drive was derailed by back-to-back sacks and when they got the ball back with 1:35 left in the 3rd quarter, it was with Minshew in at QB. On the 2rd snap of the series, Allgeier broke off a 63-yard TD run that made it a one-score game at 17-10. The Cowboys increased their lead to 14 in the first minute of the 4th quarter when Prescott scrambled for a TD on 3rd-n-goal from the 5. On the next play from scrimmage, Allgeier raced 52 yards and later added 17 yards on a catch and run to the DAL3. He then found the end zone again with a 5-yard TD pass from Minshew that made it a 7-point game with 10:47 remaining. The Cowboys then moved 56 yards in 15 plays; Aubrey's 35-yarder would make it 27-17 with 3:54 remaining. But the Cardinals would not go away. Minshew completed 5 of 6 passes for 53 yards; 4 for 44 went to TE Trey McBride, including a 14-yard TD pass that made it a 3-point game with 2:11 remaining. The Cardinals attempted an on-side kick that Dallas recovered but the AZ defense held the Cowboys without a first down. After Aubrey's 41-yard FG, the Cards got the ball at their own 20, down 6 with 1:05 left and no timeouts. Excluding 3 spikes to kill the clock, Minshew completed all 5 passes he attempted on the drive, 2 went to Allgeier and another 3 to Wilson covering 21, 27 and then a 14-yarder crosser in the back of the end zone for a TD with :06 left. Those 6 points tied the game at 30 and it remained that way as Ryland's PAT try was just wide to the left sending the game to overtime. Dallas won the OT toss and elected to start on defense but both teams went 3-n-out on their initial possessions. On the 3rd drive of OT, the Cards faced a 3rd-n-1 at their own 41 when Wilson gained 17 yards on a sweep that took it to the DAL42. Four straight Allgeier runs set up a 42-yard FG try that Ryland stroked right down the middle for the game winner.

WEEK 9

Arizona Cardinals 3, Seattle Seahawks 17

Arizona Cardinals	3	0	0	0	— 3
Seattle Seahawks	0	14	3	0	— 17

A week after he entered the game late in the 3rd quarter and led the Cardinals to a 33-30 come-from-behind victory at Dallas, QB Gardner Minshew earned his first start with the team in a week 9 showdown against the 4-4 Seahawks in Seattle. Points would prove to be harder to come by in this one. Arizona's defense held the hosts to 17 total points, including just 3 in the 2nd half. But after scoring on their opening drive of the game, the Cardinals offense struggled to find its rhythm. Still, with just under 5 minutes to play the Cards had the ball at the SEA 2 and poised to make it a one-score game. They could not punch it into the end zone, though, and Seattle emerged with a 17-3victory. Arizona's Trey McBride finished with 7 receptions for 54 yards, tying the NFL tight end record for consecutive 7-catch games (11), which was also one shy of the NFL overall record.

Arizona deferred after winning the opening coin toss and its defense forced a 3-n-out from the Seahawks. That ensuing Seattle punt was downed at the 1 creating the longest of fields for the Cardinals. They soon faced a 3rd-n-4 at the 7 when Minshew lofted a pass down the left sideline and rookie WR Reggie Virgil made a toe-tapping catch that stood up despite a Seahawks challenge. The drive would ultimately reach the SEA10 and end with Chad Ryland's 28-yard FG that made it 3-0. It remained that way for the rest of the opening quarter but on the 2nd snap of the 2nd quarter, TE AJ Barner lined up under center and was pushed across the goal-line for a 1-yard TD. The Seahawks maintained that 7-3 lead until the closing minutes of the 2nd quarter when they embarked upon a 7-play, 81-yard drive; it ended with a 7-yard Drew Lock pass to Barner who made a diving, bobbling attempt that was ruled a TD catch and upheld after replay review. As such, Seattle led 14-3 at halftime.

The first Seahawks drive after intermission consumed more than half the 3rd quarter (11 plays, 58 yards) and ended with Jason Myers' 45-yard FG that made it 17-3. Each team would possess it just two more times the rest of the way. With about 5 minutes remaining, Minshew led the Cardinals inside the Seattle 5 and a TD would pull them to within 7. But AZ ultimately turned it over on downs when Minshew could not connect with McBride in the end zone on a 4th-n-goal pass from the 2. That gave Seattle possession at its own 1 with 4:35 remaining and the Seahawks were able to move the chains three times to secure the victory. The loss proved costly in more ways than one as AZ would lose WR Michael Wilson for the season with a neck injury as well as Minshew with an elbow injury.

WEEK 10

Los Angeles Rams 34, Arizona Cardinals 6

60,926 ■ State Farm Stadium ■ Nov 15, 2026

Los Angeles Rams	3	14	14	3	—	34
Arizona Cardinals	6	0	0	0	—	6

Arizona hosted the Rams in Arizona four weeks after defeating them at SoFi Stadium. For the Cardinals, much had changed in the interim. After trading Jacoby Brissett and a season-ending injury Gardner Mishew, rookie Carson Beck made his first career start at QB. The offense also started its #3 left tackle, #3 center and its top 3 receivers were all different from four weeks prior. But Beck led scoring drives on each of the first two possessions and AZ had a 6-3 lead late in the 2nd quarter. From there, however, it was all Rams starting in the final minutes of the first half and they scored 31 unanswered on their way to a 34-6 win. It upped their record to 6-4 while dropping Arizona to 3-7.

The Cardinals got the ball to open the game and on that possession, Beck completed 3 of 4 passes for 34 yards, the longest of which was a 21-yarder to WR Simi Fehoko. The drive ended with Chad Ryland's 49-yard FG that gave AZ an early 3-0 lead. The Rams answered on the ensuing series when Brandon McManus' 24-yard FG capped an 11-play, 50-yard drive and the game was tied at 3. The Cards reclaimed the lead thanks to another 49-yard Ryland FG that was set up by Beck's 31-yard completion to WR Devin Duverney. Early in the 2nd quarter, the Rams advanced to the AZ24 before LB Zaven Collins's sack of Matthew Stafford pushed them back 10 yards. On the next snap, fellow LB Cody Simon stepped in front of a Stafford pass for his first career INT. Arizona maintained its 6-3 late into the half but the Rams scored two TDs in the final 70 seconds before intermission. First, Stafford found TE Tyler Higbee in the back of the end zone on 3rd-n-goal from the 5 to cap a 10-play, 72-yard drive. The Cards got the ball back and advanced to the LA47 but Beck's pass attempt to a sliding Duvernay bounced from the receiver's hands and into the grasp of S Karmen Kinchens. He returned the INT 33 yards to the AZ32 and with :13 left WR Xavier Smith caught a short pass across the middle that he took 22 yards to the end zone to put LA up 17-6 at the half.

On the 3rd play of the second half, the Rams faced a 3rd-n-7 at their own 25 when WR Konata Mumpfield's 44-yard catch and run took it to the AZ31. That drive ended with Blake Corum's 1-yard TD run that made it 24-6. On the 3rd play of the ensuing AZ drive, the Cards had a 1st-n-10 at the LA46 when Beck's pass attempt to RB Tyler Allgeier was intercepted by Rams LB Wesley Bailey. That takeaway set LA up at the AZ48 and five plays later, Stafford hit TE Davis Allen with a 19-yard TD pass that made it 31-16. McManus' 43-yard FG quarter made it 34-6 one play into a 4th quarter in which the Rams would possess the ball for all but 6 plays including a 17-play drive that consumed the game's final 12:15.
