AMONG THE NFL'S BEST ON THE ROAD

One of the NFL's best road teams over the last few seasons, Week 15 will see the Cardinals trying to win where they never have.

The Cardinals - who own an 11-3 record on the road over the last two seasons (2021-22) - have never won at Denver during the regular season.

However, over the last few seasons the Cardinals have won nearly everywhere else. Dating back to 2021, only the Eagles (.800) have a better winning percentage on the road than the Cardinals (.786).

NFL Leaders - Road Winning Percentage (2021-22)

After averaging 40.8 rushing yards per contest over his first six games played this season, RB James Conner has nearly doubled that over the last four games - averaging 79.0 yards per game.

The TDs totals are way up as well. Conner had one total TD in his first six games played, compared to five TDs in the last four games.

Conner has posted his two best rushing yardage totals of the season in the last two games.

In Week 12 vs. the Chargers, he rushed for 120 yards on 25 carries (4.8 avg.). It was his first 100-yard outing as a member of the Cardinals and his first since 2020 as a member of the Steelers. Against the Patriots last week, Conner rushed for 85 yards on just 15 carries, averaging 5.7 yards per attempt.

After posting 80+ rushing yards just once in his first 23 games with the Cardinals, Conner has 85+ rushing yards in each of the last two contests.
