ARIZONA CARDINALS NOTE CARDS

263 Career regular season games played by Hall of Fame WR Larry Fitzgerald, all with Arizona. He is the only WR in NFL history to appear in at least 250 career games with a single team. In league history, only 8 players (including 2 offensive players) appeared in more games with a single team.

116 Combined targets for TE Trey McBride (62) and WR Michael Wilson (54) this season. The players rank #1 and #2 in the NFL in targets without a drop in 2026 according to Pro Football Focus.

0 Sacks allowed by the Cardinals offensive line last week in Los Angeles. It was the first game this season Arizona did not allow a sack. The Cardinals O-Line also paved the way for a season-high 120 rushing yards vs. the Rams.

44 Tackles for LB Mack Wilson Sr. in 2026, a team-high. Wilson is one of just nine players in the NFL this season with 6+ tackles in all six games.

MILESTONE WATCH

WITH A WIN...

- The Cardinals would improve to 3-4 in 2026 under 1st-year head coach Mike LaFleur, matching their win total from all of last season.

TE TREY McBRIDE

- With 4 receptions, McBride – who will be playing in his 73rd career game – can surpass Travis Kelce (78 games) as the second-fastest tight end in NFL history to reach 400 career receptions, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow Sr. (72 games).
- With 7 receptions, he can become the fifth player in NFL history with at least 7+ catches in 9 consecutive games, joining Antonio Brown (14 consecutive games in 2014-15), Cooper Kupp (11 in 2021), Stefon Diggs (9 in 2020-21) and Puka Nacua (9 in 2024-25).
- With 7+ catches, McBride would become the first TE in NFL history to have a streak of at least 9 straight games with 7+ receptions. He is currently tied with Travis Kelce (8 straight in 2020) for the longest such streak in NFL history.
- With 9 receptions, McBride (58) would pass Zach Ertz (57 in 2028 w/ Philadelphia) for the most receptions by a TE in a team's first seven games in NFL history.
- With 9 catches, McBride (58) would pass WR DeAndre Hopkins (57 in 2020) for the most receptions in franchise history in the first seven games of a season.
- With 10+ receptions, McBride would become the fifth TE in NFL history with at least 10 receptions in 10 career games, joining Pro Football Hall of Famer Tony Gonzalez (15 games), Zach Ertz (12), Travis Kelce (12) and Jason Witten (11).

QB JACOBY BRISSETT

- With 2 TD passes, Brissett would have 34 TD passes with the Cardinals. That would tie Charley Johnson (34 from 1962-63) for the most in franchise history in a player's first 19 starts with the team.
- With 2 TD passes, he would have multiple TD passes in four of his last five games. It was also give him multiple TD passes in 14 of 19 starts with Arizona (he had 2+ TD passes in 14 of 87 games played before coming to Cardinals).

S BUDDA BAKER

- With 1.0 sack, Baker would have 4.5 sacks in 2026, extending his career high for a single season. He would join Hall of Fame DB Ronde Barber (4.5 in 2000) as the only DBs in NFL history with 4.5 sacks in his team's first seven games.
- With 1.0 sack, Baker would become the first NFL DB to have at least 1.0 sack in three straight games since S P.J. Locke had 3 straight with Denver in 2023.
- With an INT, he would become become the first player in Cardinals history with 1,000+ tackles, 10+ INTs and 10.0+ sacks in their career.

LB JOSH SWEAT

- With 1.0+ sacks, Sweat (15.0) would join Bertrand Berry (20.5), Chandler Jones (20.0), Simeon Rice (16.5), Al Baker (16.0) and David Galloway (15.0) as the only players in franchise history with 15.0+ sacks in their first 24 games with the Cardinals.

LB MACK WILSON SR.

- With 6+ tackles, Wilson Sr. would join Budda Baker (all 17 in 2024), Jordan Hicks (11 in 2019), De'Vondre Campbell (8 in 2020) and Tommy Bennett (8 in 1999) as the only players in franchise history (dating back to 1987 when tackles became an official stat) to have 6+ stops in their first 7 games of a season.

WR KENDRICK BOURNE

- With 5+ receptions, Bourne would extend his streak of games with at least five catches to three, the longest streak of his career. It would also be tied for the 7th-longest active streak in the NFL.

K CHAD RYLAND

- With three made field goals, Ryland would tie Jim Bakken (twice) and Phil Dawson (nine in 2017) for the second-most FGs by a Cardinals kicker in a two game span behind only Neil Rackers (10 in 2005).

#11 FOREVER

After becoming just the eighth wide receiver ever selected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2026, Larry Fitzgerald will enter the Cardinals Ring of Honor and have his jersey #11 retired in a special ceremony taking place at halftime of this week's game.

Fitzgerald will be just the sixth player in franchise history to have his number retired - joining S Larry Wilson (8), S Pat Tillman (40), T Stan Maudlin (77), TE J.V. Cain (88) and HB/DB Marshall Goldberg (99) – and the 20th member of the Cardinals Ring of Honor.

Fitzgerald not only established virtually every single Cardinals franchise receiving record, he made them nearly untouchable...

- He has nearly 850 more catches (1,432) than any other player in team history ahead of Anquan Boldin (586).
- His 17,492 career receiving yards are more than twice as many as any other player in franchise history (closest is Roy Green with 8,496).
- Fitzgerald had 55 more TD catches than the next closest player in franchise history (Roy Green with 66).

BIRDS' EYE VIEW

In honor of National Tight End Day on Sunday, TE Trey McBride has many reasons to celebrate. He will be playing on the holiday for just the third time in his five-year career (bye week in 2025 and Thursday Night Football in 2022) and is coming off of a 9-reception, 124-yard performance at Miami in his last appearance in 2024.

Since McBride became a full-time starter in 2023, a look at where he ranks among NFL tight ends...

RECEPTIONS BY TE (2023-26)
TREY McBRIDE	367
TRAVIS KELCE	286
JAKE FERGUSON	229
GEORGE KITTLE	226
EVAN ENGRAM	223

REC. YDS BY TE (2023-26)
TREY McBRIDE	3,571
GEORGE KITTLE	3,091
TRAVIS KELCE	2,957
SAM LaPORTA	2,420
KYLE PITTS SR.	2,366

His 396 receptions and counting through his first five seasons are the most by a TE in NFL history ahead of Jimmy Graham (386).

Last week, the Cardinals defense allowed just 286 yards to the Rams who entered the contest with the #1 ranked offense in the NFL (424.4 ypg). It was the Rams lowest output of the season and was nearly 140 yards fewer than their season average heading into the game.Los Angeles entered Week 6 having put up 400+ yards in four straight games. Arizona's opponents have now had 7 drives end on downs this season, the most in the NFL.

K Chad Ryland had a historic performance against the Rams after accounting for all 18 of the Cardinals points in last Sunday's victory, converting all six field goal attempts including a 43-yard game-winner as time expired in regulation.

Both his 6 FGs and 18 points established new career-highs. Below are some of his notable accomplishments and awards since Sunday...

- Named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week and is the 9th kicker in team history to win the award and first since Matt Prater (Week 3 of '23). He is the 2nd Arizona player to be honored this season (Simi Fehoko - Week 1).
- Honored as the Nickelodeon Valuable Player (NVP) and joined Marvin Harrison Jr. (Week 2 of '24) and Kyler Murray (Week 1 of '21) as the only Cardinals players to receive the award since it's inception in 2021.
- One of three kickers in franchise history to have 6+ FGs in a game, joining Jim Bakken (twice) and Neil Rackers.
- His 6 FGs are the most by any NFL player in a game this season and he became the 1st kicker to make 6 FGs in a game since Ka'imi Fairbairn in 2025.