ARIZONA CARDINALS NOTE CARDS

3 TD receptions for TE Trey McBride in his last four games. With a TD reception this week, it would mark his third game in a row vs. Seattle that he caught a TD pass.

2 Game winning kicks made by K Chad Ryland in the last three games. He is 1-of-3 kickers in the NFL to have multiple game winners this season (Browns K Andre Szmyt and Broncos K Wil Lutz). He's also one of just nine active kickers since 2020 to have 2+ game-winning kicks in multiple seasons.

20 Games played for S Budda Baker vs. the Seahawks after he plays on Sunday. The Bellevue, WA native will be playing in his 10th career game at Lumen Field which is located just 10 miles from his hometown.

15.0 Sacks for LB Josh Sweat as a member of the Cardinals. Just four players in franchise history had more sacks in their first 25 games with the team. Sweat's most recent sack came when he took down Dallas QB Dak Prescott in OT last week, the first OT sack of his career.

MILESTONE WATCH

WITH A WIN...

- The Cardinals would have their 4th win of the season, surpassing their win total from all of 2025 (3).
- The Cardinals would earn their 4th road win of 2026. It would mark the first time since 2021 (team record 8 road wins) Arizona won 4+ road games in a single season.

TE TREY McBRIDE

- With 1 TD catch, McBride would have at least one TD catch in each of his last three games vs. the Seahawks.
- With 3 catches, he would pass WR Larry Fitzgerald (68 in 2016) for the most receptions in franchise history in the first nine games of a season.
- With 5+ receptions, McBride would have 5+ catches in each of his last 16 road games. That would extend the longest such streak by a TE in NFL history. Previously, Travis Kelce (10 games in 2019-20) and McBride (10 games in 2023-24) were tied for the longest streak.
- With 6 receptions, McBride (419) would pass WR Bobby Joe Conrad (418) for 8th place on the franchise all-time list for career receptions
- With 7+ catches, he would have 7+ catches for the 11th consecutive game. He would join WR Antonio Brown (14) and WR Cooper Kupp (11) as the only players in NFL history to have a streak of at least 11 games with 7+ receptions.
- With 9 receptions, McBride would tie Zach Ertz (75 in 2018 w/ Philly) for the most receptions by a TE in a team's first nine games in NFL history.

QB GARDNER MINSHEW

- With 2+ TD passes, Minshew would join Raiders QB Kirk Cousins as the only players in the NFL this season to have multiple TD passes in their first two games with a new team.
- With 3 TD passes, Minshew would have 3+ TD passes in back-to-back games for just the second time in his career (had streak of 3 straight games with 3 TD passes in 2019-20). He would also become the first player in franchise history with 3+ TD passes in each of his first two games with the team.

WR MICHAEL WILSON

- With 100+ receiving yards and 1+ TD, Wilson would have back-to-back games with at least 100 yards and a score for the first time in his career. It would be his 9th TD in the last 14 games and 5th TD in six games vs. NFC opponents. He would also reach 100 yards in a game for the fifth time in his career.

S BUDDA BAKER

- With 1.0 sack, Baker would have 4.5 sacks in 2026, extending his career high in a single season. He would also become the first DB in franchise history with 4.5+ sacks through the first 9 games of a season.
- With an INT, he would become become the first player in Cardinals history with 1,000+ tackles, 10+ INTs and 10.0+ sacks in his career.

RB TYLER ALLGEIER

- With a rushing TD, Allgeier would have at least 1 rushing TD in consecutive games for the third time in his career (Games 4-5 and Games 9-10 in 2025 w/ the Falcons).
- With 100+ rushing yards, Allgeier would have 100 yards in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

LB JOSH SWEAT

- With 1.0 sack, Sweat would become just the sixth player in franchise history with 16.0+ sacks in their first 26 games with the team. He would also have 4.0 sacks in his last six games.

K CHAD RYLAND

- With 3 made field goals, Ryland would join Neil Rackers (16 in 2005) and Phil Dawson (14 in 2017) as the only Cardinals kickers to have 14+ made field goals in a four game span. It would also be his fifth game this season with 3+ made field goals, a new single-season career-high.

BIRDS' EYE VIEW

Last week in Dallas, RB Tyler Allgeier recorded 191 scrimmage yards (147 rushing and 44 receiving) and two TDs (one rushing, one receiving) including a career-long 63-yard rushing touchdown en route to being named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week.

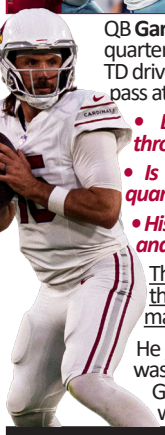

He is the third Cardinals player this season to be recognized as a player of the week, joining K Chad Ryland (Week 6) and WR Simi Fehoko (Week 1).

Below are additional milestones from his performance...

- Established single-game career-highs in rushing yards (147), scrimmage yards (191) and receptions (5) and tied his career-high in total TDs (2).
- Is the 1st player in franchise history to have 180+ yards from scrimmage, a rushing TD and a receiving TD in the 2nd half of a game.
- Recorded career-long runs of 63 and 52 yards on consecutive carries, becoming the first NFL player to do so since Bucs RB Doug Martin in 2012 and the first Cardinal since RB LeShon Johnson in 1996.
- His 63-yard TD run is the 2nd-longest in the NFL this season and the longest by a Cardinals player since RB Kenyan Drake's 69-yard score on 10/19/20 at Dal.

The Cardinals defense allowed just 34 total yards on the Cowboys final 24 offensive plays last week. On their final three drives, the Cardinals defense held the Cowboys to 9 plays for minus-9 net yards and 3 points. Arizona became the first team to hold Dallas under 40 yards of offense in the fourth quarter/overtime in a game since Philadelphia held them to 22 yards on 11/5/2000.

QB Gardner Minshew entered last week's game with just 1:35 remaining in the 3rd quarter, with Arizona trailing 17-3, and promptly led the Cardinals on 4 consecutive TD drives - and scores on 5 of his 6 total drives in the game. He completed 17-of-23 pass attempts (73.9%) for 188 yards, 3 TDs, 0 INTs and a 137.3 passer rating.

- Became the first Cardinals QB since Jim Hardy (11/13/49) to throw 3+ TD passes with no INTs in a win in which he did not start.
- Is just the third Cardinals QB to throw 3+ TD passes in the fourth quarter of a win and first since Boomer Esiason (11/24/96 vs. Phi).
- His 3 TD passes tied a career high, marking his sixth career game with 3+ TDs and first as a non-starter.

This week, he will make his first career start against an NFC West opponent in the state where he concluded his collegiate career at Washington State. It will mark his first game in Washington since Nov. 23, 2018 (2,907 days).

He joined the Cougars and HC Mike Leach as a graduate transfer in 2018 and was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner after leading the nation with 468 completions while throwing for 4,779 yards and 38 TDs.

LONE STAR STATEMENT

The Cardinals' 33-30 comeback victory at Dallas marked the 29th overtime win in franchise history, trailing only Denver (30) for the most in NFL history. Arizona is 13-5-2 in its last 20 overtime games dating back to 2007.

The Cardinals also improved to 9-1 in their last 10 games vs. the Cowboys and are now 5-0 at AT&T Stadium. Dating back to 2020, the Cowboys have more losses to the Cardinals (5) than they have against their division rival Giants (3) and Commanders (4).

A COMEBACK FOR THE AGES

- Including postseason, Sunday marked just the third time Dallas lost a game in which it led by 14+ points in the 4th quarter. The Cowboys entered the game 342-2-1 in such situations, with their previous loss coming on 11/13/22 at Green Bay when LaFleur's brother Matt, rallied the Packers for a 31-28 OT win.
- The Cardinals handed the Cowboys their first-ever home loss in a game they led by 14+ points in the 4th quarter (including postseason). Dallas entered the game 202-0-1 in such games.
