ARIZONA CARDINALS (3-3-1)

VS.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS (6-1)

Mercedes-Benz Superdome | October 27, 2019 | 10:00 AM

THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

Looking for their fourth consecutive victory, the Cardinals are back on the road this week as they head to New Orleans for a matchup against the Saints.

It will be the first of two games in a five-day span for Arizona, who follow up Sunday's game with a showdown against the San Francisco 49ers on Thursday Night Football on Halloween night.

Sunday's contest in New Orleans represents the 30th all-time regular season meeting between the Cardinals and Saints, and Arizona holds the slight 15-14 advantage in the series. This week's game marks the fourth matchup between the Cardinals and Saints in the last seven seasons.

The Cardinals won eight of the first 10 games between the teams but recently the series has been relatively even. Over the last 23 seasons (1996-2018) neither team has won more than two consecutive games. The home team has won eight of the last 10 games and Arizona travels to New Orleans this week looking for its first road win in the series since 1996.

With Saints QB Drew Brees returning to practice for New Orleans this week after missing the last five games, Sunday's game could feature two of the most prolific players in NFL history at their respective positions in Brees and Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald. Brees ranks #1 in NFL history in career completions and passing yards, #2 in NFL history in pass attempts and #3 in league annals in TD passes and passer rating. Fitzgerald ranks #2 in NFL history in both receptions and receiving yards and #6 all-time in TD receptions. Fitzgerald (2016) and Brees (2006) are also among the six active players who have been named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year.

Whether it is Brees or Teddy Bridgewater under center for the Saints, they will face one of the league's top defenses when it comes to pressuring the QB. The LB duo of Chandler Jones and Terrell Suggs has combined for 13.5 sacks, 8 strip-sacks and 14 QB hits so far this season and anchor an Arizona pass rush that ranks third in the NFL with 22 sacks on the year.

Extra possessions could be tough to come by in Sunday's matchup, which features two of the NFL's best at protecting the football. Arizona (4 turnovers) and New Orleans (5 turnovers) rank #1 and #2 in the league, respectively, in fewest turnovers this season. Incredibly, the teams have just eight INTs and one fumble lost between them despite a combined 906 offensive plays to this point. Arizona enters Sunday's game having not committed a turnover in its last three games. New Orleans is turnover-free in its last two contests.

Arizona returns to State Farm Stadium next week for its only home game in a six-week (or 48-day) span between Weeks 7 and 13. The Cardinals will welcome the undefeated division-rival 49ers in that matchup.

THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

- This week's game marks the 30th all-time meeting between the Cardinals and Saints and the fourth matchup in the last seven seasons.
- Both the Saints and Cardinals enter the game undefeated in the month of October. Arizona has won three in a row while the Saints are riding a five-game winning streak.
- The Cardinals and Saints have performed similarly on offense so far this season. Arizona has scored 161 points on 33 scoring drives, has scored 15 offensive TDs and has averaged 356.0 yards per game in 2019. New Orleans has 164 points on 30 scoring drives, has scored 15 offensive TDs and has averaged 358.0 yards per game.
- The Cardinals leading rushers this season are RB David Johnson (300 yds), RB Chase Edmonds (287) and QB Kyler Murray (266). Arizona is the only NFL team this season with three different 250+ yard rushers.
- Through seven games, Cardinals RBs David Johnson (615 scrimmage yards, 5 TDs) and Chase Edmonds (387 scrimmage yards, 5 TDs) have combined for 1,002 scrimmage yards and 10 total TDs. Edmonds finished last week's game with career highs in total scrimmage yards (150), rushing yards (126) and TDs (3).
- Against the Giants last week, the Cards defense amassed a season-high eight sacks, three forced fumbles (two lost), and 12 total QB hits. It marked just the second time in the last 32 seasons the Cards posted at least eight sacks in a game. The other was vs. Green Bay on 12/27/15 (9 sacks).
- After setting a career high with 4.0 sacks last week in New York, Jones now has 49.5 sacks in 55 games with the Cardinals. Since being acquired by Arizona in 2016, Jones has six more sacks than any other player in the NFL and he has already reached the top-5 on the AZ career sacks list.

THE LIFE OF MR. B

William V. (Bill) Bidwill passed away on October 2 at the age of 88.

"Our dad passed away the same way he lived his life: peacefully, with grace, dignity and surrounded by family and loved ones," said Cardinals Chairman and President Michael Bidwill. "Above all else, we will remember him as a man devoted to the three central pillars of his life – his immense faith, his love for his family and his life-long passion for the Cardinals and the sport of football."

Born on July 31, 1931 in Chicago, he is the son of Charles and Violet Bidwill. His father purchased the Chicago Cardinals of the NFL in 1932, starting Bill's life-long association with the team which spanned eight decades and started as a ball boy when he was a child. A two-sport athlete playing football and baseball at Georgetown Prep outside of Washington, DC, Bidwill received the school's highest honor, the Insignis Medal, in 1990 and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017.

After earning his undergraduate degree from Georgetown University, Bidwill proudly served in the United States Navy before taking on a full-time role with the team in 1960. That same year he married Nancy, his wife of more than 56 years until her passing in 2016 and had five children: daughter Nicole and sons Bill Jr., Michael, Patrick and Timothy. While well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, "Mr. B" was recognized often for his contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

In 2017, he was enshrined in the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame which honors those who have made significant contributions to state's athletics community. In 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. At its December 2010 commencement exercises, Northern Arizona University awarded Bidwill an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

In addition to his five children, 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild, Bidwill is survived by his brother Charles (Stormy).

A LEADER IN DIVERSITY

Bidwill was at the forefront of diversity in hiring practices, which was evidenced by the hiring of the NFL's first African American female executive (Adele Harris), first African American contract negotiator (Bob Wallace) and first African American head coach/GM tandem (Dennis Green and Rod Graves). In 2015, the team established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship to increase diversity and provide opportunities to gain NFL coaching experience.

"He didn't care about the color of your skin, race or gender if he felt like you could do the job to the best of your ability to help us become better than you were the right person for it," Larry Fitzgerald said.

At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL.

ANOTHER SIGNIFICANT WIN IN CINCINNATI

Arizona's Week 5 victory in Cincinnati was the first game following the passing of team owner Bill Bidwill the previous Wednesday (10/2). Bill's father, Charles, purchased the team in 1932 and the first season the Cardinals played under Bidwill ownership was in 1933.

The first victory for the Cards during that 1933 season – which came on October 8th – was a 3-0 win in Cincinnati against the Reds.

On Tuesday (10/8/19) – exactly 86 years after that 1933 victory over the Reds – funeral services were held to honor the life of Bill Bidwill.

"It has been an emotional week," Chairman and President Michael Bidwill said after the victory over the Bengals. "The coaches and players all told me they were going to win it for (Bill Bidwill). It is great to get the win."

AN UNHERALDED COMMUNITY CHAMPION

Bidwill's devotion to the Cardinals and the game of football was matched by his passion for giving back to the community and supporting charitable causes, though he never sought recognition for his consistent and generous donations.

"He valued love, and loyalty and life. All of that came together to manifest itself in his giving," former Cardinals Pro Bowl fullback Ron Wolfley said. "The way that he would give millions and millions of dollars and nobody knew what he was giving so much of the time. He didn't sound the trumpet to let people know what he was doing."

Fitzgerald was inspired by Bidwill's work in the community without seeking the spotlight.

"The thing I really cherished about him was his selflessness and commitment to the community," WR Larry Fitzgerald said. "It was something he was passionate about and he wanted zero fanfare, and I always respected that about him."

STATEMENTS REGARDING THE PASSING OF ARIZONA CARDINALS OWNER BILL BIDWILL

CARDINALS WIDE RECEIVER LARRY FITZGERALD:

"The NFL family lost a pioneer today. Bill Bidwill loved the Arizona Cardinals and the great State of Arizona. He paved the way for so many by being on the forefront of giving minorities the opportunity to thrive as coaches and executives in the NFL. He was also a man of quiet generosity giving of his time and resources to make lives better."

NFL COMMISSIONER ROGER GOODELL: "Bill Bidwill was part of the NFL family his entire life, starting from his days as a ball boy through his time as an owner. Although never one to seek the spotlight, Bill had an incredible sense of humor and he made extraordinary contributions to the NFL. Bill's vision brought the Cardinals, the NFL and multiple Super Bowls to Arizona. He was a leader in embracing diversity and employed the first African American female executive, and the first African American general manager and head coach tandem."

PATRIOTS CHAIRMAN AND CEO ROBERT KRAFT: "Bill Bidwill was one of the first owners to reach out to me and welcome me into the league when I bought the Patriots in 1994. He was one of the longest-tenured owners in the league and I always appreciated his historical perspective and his love of the game. When it came to the game of football and the NFL, we were mostly like-minded and aligned. The only thing more important to him than his beloved Cardinals was his family and I know how proud he was of his children."

COWBOYS OWNER, PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER JERRY JONES:

"I always viewed Bill as a man who, through his father and his literally growing up with the NFL, was an extension of the founding fathers of the NFL. His leadership and influence contributed greatly to bridging the gap between what the earliest years of our professional game looked like and the growth and massive popularity of what it has become. He had a unique perspective of where the game began and where he thought it needed to go. I enjoyed him as a competitor and a colleague, and regardless of the circumstance, he had a unique gift of humor that not everyone knew about."

GIANTS PRESIDENT AND CEO JOHN MARA: "Bill Bidwill was one of the most important owners in the history of the National Football League. He was a kind and decent man who loved his team and the League. He leaves behind a wonderful family. Bill was someone I greatly admired and respected. I was proud to call him a friend."

BEARS CHAIRMAN GEORGE H. MCCASKEY: "One of our family's proudest associations in the NFL is with the Bidwill family. It goes back three generations, and at the heart of it is Bill Bidwill. His sacrifices on behalf of our great game are not properly documented, nor properly appreciated. He was a gracious man, a raconteur, and a great friend."

FALCONS OWNER AND CHAIRMAN ARTHUR BLANK: "Bill was a quiet, yet influential man who had a profound impact on our league. Today we not only remember a good man, we remember a proud veteran of the U.S. Navy and a champion for diversity across our league."

CHIEFS CHAIRMAN AND CEO CLARK HUNT: "As one of the longest tenured owners in professional football, Bill built and cared for his franchise with the utmost passion and integrity. He always put the best interests of the league first and his philanthropy made a lasting impact in communities throughout Arizona."

LIONS OWNER AND CHAIRMAN MARTHA FIRESTONE FORD:

"The Lions and Cardinals have always shared a proud bond as two of the NFL's original franchises, and the Bidwill Family holds a treasured place in the history of professional football. His more than 80 years of life as part of the Cardinals organization will be remembered through a legacy marked by countless contributions to our great game."

COLTS OWNER AND CEO JIM IRSAY: "Rest in peace, Bill Bidwill, legendary owner of the Cardinals. Bill was involved with our league since 1932, and was a leader on the initiative of minority front-office hiring."

ARIZONA GOV. DOUG DUCEY: "A dad. A husband. A giant of the NFL and an Arizona icon – Bill Bidwill never forgot he was part of our community, and he showed it throughout his long and remarkable life. Bill was passionate about many things, but especially his faith, family and the Cardinals football team he loved so much."

CARDS-SAINTS CONNECTIONS

Saints Connections

Cardinals Head Coach Kliff Kingsbury spent the 2004 season as a QB on the Saints practice squad.

Cardinals Pass Game Coordinator/QBs coach Tom Clements was the Saints QBs coach from 1997-99 under then-head coach Mike Ditka.

Cardinals S Chris Banjo played 39 games for the Saints from 2016-18 before being released in final roster cuts in 2019. He played all 32 regular season games and four postseason contests in his final two seasons with New Orleans (2017-18).

Cardinals OL Justin Murray spent time on the New Orleans practice squad during the 2017 season.

Cardinals Connections

Saints WR Ted Ginn Jr. played for the Cardinals in 2014, appearing in all 16 regular season games and the team's postseason contest that season.

Saints Director of Player Engagement Fred McAfee played seven games for the Cardinals in 1994.

Louisiana Connections

Cardinals CB Patrick Peterson played at LSU from 2008-10 and won both the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender and the Thorpe Award as the nation's top DB following the 2010 season.

Peterson continues to have strong ties to his alma mater and the New Orleans area. In 2015, Peterson made a $1 million commitment to LSU to help the school renovate the Football Operations Center. In honor of the donation, the new weight room at the center was named the Peterson-Roberts Weight Room. When devastating floods ravaged Baton Rouge, LA in 2016, Peterson and his former LSU and Cardinals teammate Tyrann Mathieu stepped up to help. They purchased school supplies and clothing for 700 children, including 100 kids from the Boys & Girls Club of Baton Rouge. In addition, Peterson helped raise more than $40,000 for the Baton Rouge Area Foundation through a fantasy football charity tournament.

Cardinals Defensive Coordinator Vance Joseph is a native of Marrero, LA and attended Archbishop Shaw High School, which is located about nine miles from the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. His brother, Mickey, is currently the wide receivers coach at LSU.

Cardinals Offensive Assistant Jerry Sullivan had two coaching stints at LSU, most recently serving as a consultant, Senior Offensive Assistant and Pass Game Coordinator from 2017-18. Sullivan worked with Saints LBs coach Mike Nolan in 1986 during his first stop at LSU.

Arizona Connections

Saints DB J.T. Gray played at Coolidge (AZ) High School and was selected to Arizona's Division IV Section II first-team.

Saints DE Cameron Jordan is from Chandler, AZ and was an All-State player at Chandler High School.

Saints T Andrus Peat graduated from Corona del Sol High School in Tempe where he was an All-American in football and played for the state champion basketball team as a senior. His father, Todd Peat, played in the NFL for six years, including three seasons with the Cardinals from 1987-89.

High School Connections

Cardinals Asst. Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator Jeff Rodgers and Saints QB Drew Brees attended Westlake (Austin, TX) High School together. In 1996, Brees was the school's starting QB and Rodgers was the starting center.

College/Pro Connections

Cardinals Saints LBs coach Mike Nolan was the Head Coach of the 49ers from 2005-08, during which time Cardinals Asst. Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator Jeff Rodgers (2003-07), Defensive Coordinator Vance Joseph (2005-10), LBs coach Bill Davis (2005-06) and Offensive Assistant Jerry Sullivan (2005-10) all worked on his staff.

Saints LBs coach Mike Nolan was the Ravens Defensive Coordinator during Cardinals LB Terrell Suggs' first two years in the league.

Saints G Larry Warford and Cardinals DL Corey Peters played together at Kentucky in 2009.

Cardinals LB Jordan Hicks (2010-14) was teammates with Saints DT Malcom Brown (2012-14) at Texas.

Cardinals OL Justin Pugh (2013-17) played for the Giants with Saints CB Eli Apple (2016-18) and LB Ray-Ray Armstrong (2017).

Saints DT Malcom Brown (2015-18) played for the Patriots with Cardinals LB Chandler Jones (2012-15) and LB Cassius Marsh Sr. (2017).

Cardinals WR Christian Kirk (2015-17) played with Saints OL Erik McCoy (2016-18) at Texas A&M.

Saints Secondary Coach Aaron Glenn played for the Jets with Cardinals Defensive Coordinator Vance Joseph in 1995.

Saints RB Dwayne Washington (2013-15) played at Washington with Cardinals LB Ezekiel Turner (2015-17), S Budda Baker (2014-16) and TE Darrell Daniels (2013-16).

Cardinals CB Tramaine Brock Sr. played for the Vikings with Saints RB Lataivus Murray and C Nick Easton in 2017.

Cardinals DL Clinton McDonald and Saints OG Patrick Omoreh played for the Buccaneers in 2014.

CARDS VS. SAINTS - SERIES BREAKDOWN

This week's game represents the 30th all-time regular season meeting between the Cardinals and Saints in a series that dates back to 1967. Arizona holds a 15-14 advantage in the series. New Orleans won the lone postseason meeting between the two teams (2009 Divisional Round).

Sunday's game marks the fourth matchup between the Cardinals and Saints in the last seven seasons.

The Cardinals won eight of the first 10 games between the two teams but recently the series has been relatively even. Over the last 23 seasons (1996-2018) neither team has won more than two consecutive games. During that span, New Orleans holds a slight 6-5 advantage.

Home field advantage played a big role in the series in recent years. The home team has won eight of the last 10 games and Arizona travels to New Orleans this week looking for its first road win in the series since 1996.

Kliff Kingsbury was hired by the Cardinals on January 11, 2019, coming to Arizona after spending the previous six seasons (2013-18) as the head coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech. While with the Red Raiders, Kingsbury served as the play-caller for one of the college football's most explosive and productive offenses. Tech featured a passing attack that ranked in the top-10 in the country in all six seasons during his tenure, ranked in the top-20 nationally for total offense in all six seasons and finished in the top-25 in scoring five times. A former star QB at Texas Tech, Kingsbury was drafted by the Patriots in the sixth round of the 2003 NFL Draft and also spent time with the Saints and Jets during his playing career.

Named the 14th head coach in franchise history on January 18, 2006, Sean Payton has led the Saints to seven playoff appearances, five NFC South titles, three NFC Championship berths and a Super Bowl XLIV title. He has posted a 124-75 record during his tenure, including a 6-1 mark in 2019. The 2006 AP Coach of the Year, Payton is in his 22nd season as an NFL coach that includes time with the Eagles (1997-98), Giants (1999-02) and Cowboys (2003-05). The Saints have had one of the league's top-10 offenses in each season since his arrival, including the 2011 season when the team put up an NFL-record 7,474 net yards. New Orleans has led the league in total offense six times during Payton's tenure. Defensively, the Saints have ranked in the top-five twice during that span (2010 and 2013).

BY THE NUMBERS

8

Different decades in which Bill Bidwill - who passed away on October 2nd at the age of 88 - was affiliated with the Cardinals. Beginning as a ball boy, he served the franchise in countless fashions - public address announcer, ticket promotions, scouting, advertising, public relations and contract negotiator - in his time with the Cardinals.

49.5

Sacks for LB Chandler Jones in 55 career games with the Cardinals. Since being acquired by Arizona in a trade with New England in 2016, Jones has 6.0 more sacks than any other player in the NFL.

8.5

Sacks for Jones in 2019. That is the highest total in franchise history through the first seven games of a season.

15

Forced fumbles for the Cardinals this season. That total leads the NFL in 2019. Arizona has forced multiple fumbles in a game five times this season, including three games with at least three forced fumbles.

10

Strip-sacks for the Cardinals defense in 2019. That total leads the NFL. Arizona had three strip-sacks of Giants QB Daniel Jones last week.

8

Sacks for the Cardinals defense last week in New York. It marked just the second time in the last 32 seasons the Cardinals posted at least eight sacks in a game. The other was against Green Bay on 12/27/15 (9 sacks).

22

Sacks for the Cardinals in 2019. Only Carolina (27) and New England (26) have more sacks than Arizona this season.

3

Rushing TDs for RB Chase Edmonds last week in New York, all of which covered at least 20 yards. Edmonds became just the sixth player in NFL history - and first Cards player - with at least three rushing TDs of 20+ yards in a game.

1,002

Total scrimmage yards for RBs David Johnson (615) and Chase Edmonds (387) this season. The duo have also accounted for 10 TDs so far in 2019.

4

Giveaways for the Cardinals this season, the lowest total in the NFL. The 2019 season marks the first time in franchise history that Arizona committed four or fewer turnovers through the first seven games of a season.

254

Consecutive plays the Cardinals offense has run without committing a turnover. The streak covers over 15 full quarters stretching back to the first quarter of the Week 4 matchup vs. Seattle.

1,339

Career receptions for WR Larry Fitzgerald, who passed Hall of Fame TE Tony Gonzalez (1,325) for second place on the NFL's all-time receptions list in Week 4 vs. Seattle. Fitzgerald also ranks #2 all-time in receiving yards (16,618) and #6 all-time in TD receptions (118).

137.5

Career sacks for LB Terrell Suggs, which is tied with Hall of Fame defenders John Randle and Richard Dent for ninth place on the NFL's all-time sacks list.

37

Career forced fumbles for Suggs, which is the most among active players. Suggs has four forced fumbles this season, including two in the last two games.

70

Tackles for LB Jordan Hicks through seven games. Hicks ranks second in the NFL in tackles in 2019 and is the first Cardinals player since Ronald McKinnon in 2000 (76) with 70+ tackles through the first seven games of a season.

48

Career TDs (33 rushing, 14 receiving, 1 KOR) for RB David Johnson, which is the most in franchise history through a player's first five seasons. Johnson missed 15 games in 2017 and is just six games into his fifth season.

1

Receiving TDs Johnson needs to join Thurman Thomas, Marcus Allen, Chuck Foreman and Abner Haynes as the only players in NFL history with 30+ rushing TDs and 15+ receiving TDs in their first five seasons.

67

Points for K Zane Gonzalez in 2019 (18 FG, 13 PAT). The former ASU standout is tied for the NFL lead in FGs made (18) and ranks second in the NFL in points in 2019 behind only Baltimore K Justin Tucker (68).

5

Successful fourth down conversions for the Cardinals on five total attempts. Arizona is the only team in the NFL with a 100% conversion rate on fourth down this season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN WEEK 8 ...

WITH A WIN THIS WEEK...

- The Cardinals would have four wins in 2019, exceeding their win total from the entire 2018 season (3).
- Arizona would earn its first win at New Orleans since 1996, snapping a four games winless streak on the road against the Saints.

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- With a reception, Fitzgerald would have at least one catch in 235 consecutive games, the second-longest reception streak in NFL history (Jerry Rice - 274).
- With a TD reception, Fitzgerald would have 119 career TD catches.

RB David Johnson

- With a receiving TD, Johnson would become just the fifth player in NFL history with 30+ rushing TDs and 15+ receiving TDs in their first five NFL seasons.
- With two TDs (of any kind), Johnson would have 50 career TDs. That would tie Hall of Famer Ollie Matson for sixth place on the franchise all-time list for career TDs.

RB Chase Edmonds

- With a TD, Edmonds would have at least one TD in each of the last four games. It would also give him six total TDs over that four-game stretch.
- With 100 yards rushing, Edmonds would become the first AZ player to rush for 100+ yards in consecutive games since David Johnson (3 straight) in 2016.

QB Kyler Murray

- With 48 rushing yards, Murray would break the franchise record for rushing yards by a rookie QB, a mark currently held by Bud Schwenk (313 in 1942).
- With two TD passes, Murray would have four games with multiple TD passes in 2019. That would tie Jake Plummer (1997) and M.C. Reynolds (1958) for the most such performances by a rookie in franchise history.

LB Terrell Suggs

- With a sack, Suggs would tie Demarcus Ware (138.5) for 8th place on the NFL's all-time sacks list.

LB Chandler Jones

- With a sack, Jones would tie Curtis Greer (50.5) for fourth place on the franchise all-time sacks list.
- With 1.5 sacks, Jones would become the first Cardinals player with 10.0+ sacks in four consecutive seasons. He would reach 10.0 sacks in a season in fewer games (8) than any other player in franchise history.

KINGSBURY HAS CARDS ON A ROLL

With the victory over the Giants in New Jersey last week, the Cardinals improved to 3-3-1 under head coach Kliff Kingsbury. Arizona has as many wins this month as it had in all of 2018.

Among the eight first-year head coaches in 2019, only Kingsbury and Green Bay's Matt LaFleur have their team at .500 or better. LaFleur (6) and Kingsbury (3) have more combined wins (9) than the other six first-year head coaches combined (7).

First-Year Head Coaches in 2019

Coach	Team	Record
Matt LaFleur	Green Bay	6-1
Kliff Kingsbury	Arizona	3-3-1
Vic Fangio	Denver	2-5
Freddie Kitchens	Cleveland	2-4
Bruce Arians	Tampa Bay	2-4
Adam Gase	NY Jets	1-5
Brian Flores	Miami	0-6
Zac Taylor	Cincinnati	0-7

LONG TRIPS NO PROBLEM FOR THESE CARDS

With victories over the Giants (Week 7) and Cincinnati (Week 5), the Cardinals won consecutive east coast games with a 10:00 AM kickoff (AZ time) for the first time since moving to Arizona in 1988.

DRAMATIC IMPROVEMENT OF THE OFFENSE

The Cardinals offense through seven games in 2019 compared to the first seven games in 2018 shows the unit's dramatic improvement this season.

Statistic	2019	2018	+/-
Total Points	161	92	+69

Notes on the Offensive Comparison - 2019 vs. 2018

- In five games this season (vs. Det; @ Bal; vs. Sea; @ Cin; vs. Atl), Arizona has posted more total net yards than in any single game in 2018.
- The Cardinals had more rushing yards in Week 5 at Cincinnati (266) than they had total yards in any of the first seven games last season.
- The Cardinals have 18 FGs through seven games in 2019. Arizona had 12 FGs all of last season.
- Arizona has rushed for 100+ yards six times in seven games this season. The Cardinals had just two games with 100+ rushing yards in 2018.
- The Cardinals single-game high for passing yards last season was 252. Rookie QB Kyler Murray already has four performances that top that total (253, 308, 340 and 349 yards) in 2019.
- The Cards piled up a season-high 514 total yards in the victory over the Bengals in Week 5 (266 yards rushing and 248 net yards passing). It was just the second time in the last 11 seasons Arizona posted 500+ yards in a game. Prior to the win over the Bengals, the last time Arizona had 500+ total yards and 250+ rushing yards in a game was on 11/20/60 at Washington.

AZ UP TO 33 SCORING DRIVES IN 2019

The Cardinals scored five times against the Giants last week (3 TD, 2 FG) upping their season total to 33 scoring drives in 2019. Arizona's 33 scoring drives this season are tied for fourth in the NFL.

The Cardinals had 39 total scoring drives in 2018.

Arizona Scoring Up Significantly in 2019

Last Sunday's matchup against the Giants marked the fourth time this season Arizona had at least five scoring drives in a game. The Cardinals had six such games in the previous two seasons (2017-18) combined.

With 26, 34 and 27 points in the last three games, the Cardinals have scored 25+ points in three consecutive contests for the first time since the final three games of the 2016 season.

RECORD DAY NEAR HIS OLD STOMPING GROUNDS

Filling in for injured Pro Bowl RB David Johnson, second-year RB Chase Edmonds finished last week's game with career highs in total scrimmage yards (150), rushing yards (126) and TDs (3).

He rushed for 126 yards and three TDs on 27 carries and added four receptions for 24 yards in a record-breaking performance.

Edmonds' three rushing TDs covered 20, 20 and 22 yards. He became the first player in franchise history – and just the sixth player in NFL history – with at least three rushing TDs of 20+ yards in a game.

NFL History - Most Rushing TDs of 20+ Yards (Game)

Player (Team)	TDs	Opponent
Chase Edmonds (AZ)	3	10/20/19 @ NY Giants
Doug Martin (TB)	3	11/4/12 @ Oakland
Adrian Peterson (Min)	3	10/14/07 @ Chicago
Clinton Portis (Den)	3	12/7/03 vs. Kansas City
Mercury Morris (Mia)	3	9/30/73 vs. New England
Ernie Caddel (Det)	3	9/20/35 vs. Philadelphia

Edmonds had two 20-yard rushing TDs in the first quarter in the victory over New York. Prior to Edmonds, the last Cardinals player to have two rushing TDs in the first quarter of a game was Earl Ferrell on 10/22/1989 vs. Atlanta.

Edmonds became the first player in Cardinals history with multiple rushing TDs of 20+ yards in the first quarter of a game.

Combined with his 37-yard rushing TD at Cincinnati in Week 5 and his two-yard rushing TD in Week 6 vs. Atlanta, Edmonds now has at least one TD in three consecutive games for the first time in his career. In fact, Edmonds has over twice as many TDs in the last three games (5) than he had in his first 20 career games combined (2).

FIRST 100-YARD GAME SINCE HIS DAYS AT FORDHAM

Last week's game was Edmonds' first career outing with 100+ rushing yards. His previous career high was 68, which he established in Week 5 in Cincinnati (10/6) earlier this season.

Prior to the win over the Giants, Edmonds last rushed for 100+ yards in a game during the final outing of his college career at Fordham. In that contest, Edmonds ran for 185 yards on 28 carries against Bucknell on 11/18/17.

That game was held at Jack Coffey Field in The Bronx, just 18 miles from MetLife Stadium. Jack Coffey Field has a capacity of 7,000 while the attendance at MetLife Stadium on Sunday was 73,577.

A DAVID-CHASE PRODUCTION

With 150 total scrimmage yards and three TDs last Sunday against New York, RB Chase Edmonds continued the significant production the Cardinals have received from the RB position this season.

Edmonds and fellow RB David Johnson have combined to post 100+ yards from scrimmage in a game five times this season – including in each of the last four contests.

Through seven games, Johnson (615 scrimmage yards, 5 TDs) and Edmonds (387 scrimmage yards, 5 TDs) have combined for 1,002 scrimmage yards and 10 total TDs.

Johnson and Edmonds Production in 2019

Player	Rush Yds	Rush TD	Rec Yds	Rec TD
David Johnson	300	2	315	3
Chase Edmonds	287	4	100	1
Totals	587	6	415	4

RUSH YARDS – AND RUSHING TDs – CONTINUE TO PILE UP

Arizona has rushed for 100+ yards in each of the last five games – and in six of seven games this season. The Cardinals current streak of 100-yard rushing games marks just the second time in the last 15 seasons (Games 1-5 in 2015) Arizona has rushed for 100+ yards in at least five consecutive games.

The Cardinals leading rushers this season are RB David Johnson (300 yds), RB Chase Edmonds (287) and QB Kyler Murray (266). Arizona is the only NFL team this season with three different 250+ yard rushers.

Arizona's 892 rushing yards in 2019 are the most through the first seven games of a season since the team had 912 in 2002.

THREE STRAIGHT WITHOUT A TURNOVER

Last Sunday's win over the Giants marked the fourth game this season – and third in a row – in which the Cardinals did not commit a turnover. Through seven games, Arizona has committed just four turnovers and has yet to lose a fumble.

Arizona's four turnovers in 2019 are the fewest in the NFL.

NFL Leaders – Fewest Giveaways (2019)

Rnk	Team	GA	INT	Fum
1	Arizona	4	4	0
2t	New Orleans	5	4	1
2t	Tennessee	5	4	1
4t	Chicago	6	4	2
4t	Indianapolis	6	3	3

The 2019 season marks the first time in franchise history that the Cardinals had four turnovers or fewer through the first seven games of a season. The 2019 season also marks the first time in franchise history the Cardinals did not lose a fumble in the first seven games of a season. Arizona is the only team in the NFL that has yet to lose a fumble this season.

GIVEAWAY NOTES - OVER 15 QUARTERS WITHOUT A TURNOVER

• Dating back to the first quarter of the Week 4 contest vs. Seattle, the Cardinals offense has run 245 consecutive plays without a turnover.

• Dating back to Week 4 vs. Seattle, rookie QB Kyler Murray has attempted 115 consecutive passes without throwing an INT. He has also run the ball 49 times this season without a fumble.

• In his last four games, Murray has 1,118 total yards (938 passing; 180 rushing), five TDs and one turnover in 157 combined pass/rush attempts.

THE RETURN OF #21 WAS A HIT

CB Patrick Peterson made his presence felt in his first game of the season. Returning to the lineup last Sunday in New York, Peterson totaled seven tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

Late in the fourth quarter, Peterson rushed on a CB blitz on fourth down and took down Giants QB Daniel Jones for a 10-yard loss. He also forced a Jones fumble on the play that was recovered by Cards LB Haason Reddick at the NY 20-yard line. Arizona kicked a 25-yard FG on the ensuing drive for a six-point lead (27-21).

The sack was the fourth of his career. The forced fumble was the second of his career – and first since 12/5/15 at St. Louis.

A CAREER YEAR CONTINUES FOR #58

LB Jordan Hicks - signed as a free agent in the off-season after four seasons with the Eagles - has 70 tackles, three tackles for loss, a half-sack, four QB hits, an INT, three passes defended and two forced fumbles through seven games.

Against the Giants last week, he recorded seven tackles, an INT and a pass defended.

Through seven games, Hicks ranks second in the NFL with 70 tackles. He is the first Cardinals defender with 70+ tackles through the first seven games of a season since LB Ronald McKinnon (74) in 2000.

SUGGS WITH 35 STRIP SACKS

With his strip-sack of QB Daniel Jones last week, Suggs now has 35 career strip-sacks. That is the most among active players.

BACK AMONG THE SACKS LEADERS

Facing Giants rookie QB Daniel Jones for the first time, the Cardinals defense amassed a season-high eight sacks, three forced fumbles (two lost), and 12 total QB hits last week. It marked just the second time in the last 32 seasons the Cardinals posted at least eight sacks in a game. The other was against Green Bay on 12/27/15 (9 sacks).

Arizona has now recorded 22 sacks on the year. That is the third-highest total in the NFL in 2019. Opponents have lost 156 yards on those 22 sacks, which is the second-highest total in the NFL.

PUTTING AZ IN THE TOP-5

In Jones' first three seasons with AZ, the team ranked in the top-5 in sacks twice (5th - 2018; 1st - 2016). The team never ranked in the top-5 in the 10 seasons prior to his arrival.

LEADING THE NFL IN SACKS SINCE 2016

After collecting a career-high 4.0 sacks last week against the Giants, LB Chandler Jones now has 8.5 sacks this season (third in the NFL).

Since being acquired by the Cardinals in a trade with New England prior to the 2016 season, Jones' 49.5 sacks lead the NFL. He has 6.0 more sacks than any other player in the league during that stretch.

New England	55	36.0	38	64	10	2	8

FLYING UP THE FRANCHISE SACKS LIST

With his four-sack performance against the Giants last week, Jones (49.5) passed Ken Harvey (47.5) and moved into fifth place on the franchise all-time sacks list.

Jones' 49.5 sacks have come in just 55 games with the Cardinals, 24 fewer games than any other player in the top-five. His next sack will tie Curtis Greer (50.5 sacks in 94 games) for fourth place in team history.

Franchise Career Leaders – Sacks

Rnk	Player (Years)	Sacks	Gms

BIG GAME IN THE BIG APPLE

In Week 7, Jones had five tackles, a career-high 4.0 sacks, three tackles for loss, four QB hits, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery against the Giants at MetLife Stadium.

Nearly Exceeds Career Season High in College

While playing at Syracuse University, Jones posted 10.0 career sacks and his most in a single season was 4.5 as a senior in 2011. He nearly equaled that total last week.

Jones became just the fifth NFL player with at least 4.0 sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in a game since 2000.

Players with 4.0+ Sacks, FF & FR in a Game (2000-2019)

2013	Justin Houston (KC)	9/19 @ Philadelphia	4.5	1	2
2003	Simeon Rice (TB)	10/12 @ Washington	4.0	1	1

Jones joined Curtis Greer (4.5 in 1983) and Bertrand Berry (4.0 in 2004) as the only players in Cardinals history to record at least 4.0 sacks in a game.

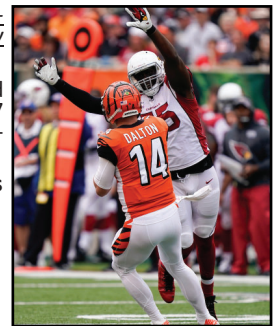

RECORD 8.5 SACKS THROUGH 7 GAMES

Jones has 8.5 sacks this season, which represents the highest total in franchise history through the first seven games of a season.

Jones set the previous mark when he totaled 8.0 sacks in the first seven games of the 2017 season, the year he led the NFL with a career-high 17.0 sacks.

SUGGS AGAINST THE NFL

Suggs has recorded at least a partial sack against 30 of the 32 NFL franchises in his career. After playing Baltimore, his former team of 16 seasons, in Week 2, the only two teams Suggs has played without recording a sack are the Ravens and Eagles.

Suggs has more sacks against the Browns (19.0) than he does against any other team.

#1 LEADS ARIZONA TO THIRD STRAIGHT WIN

Rookie QB Kyler Murray led the Cardinals to their third consecutive win last Sunday in New York. He became the first rookie QB to win at least three consecutive games for Arizona since Neil Lomax won four straight in 1981 (Games 11-14).

PLAYER OF THE WEEK IN WEEK 6

Murray had the best game of his young career in the Cardinals victory over the Falcons in Week 6. He completed 27-of-37 pass attempts (72.9%) for 340 yards, 3 TDs, 0 INTs and a 128.2 passer rating. His completion percentage, TD total and passer rating were all career highs.

Murray was named "NFC Offensive Player of the Week" and "Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week" for his performance. He became just the second Cardinals rookie ever to be chosen as "NFC Offensive Player of the Week" and the first since RB Ronald Moore in 1993 (Weeks 14 & 17).

Murray became the ninth rookie in Cardinals history to be selected as NFC Player of the Week and the first since David Johnson (Special Teams, Week 2) in 2015.

UNFLAPPABLE IN CRUNCH TIME

In the Cardinals first two wins of the season, Arizona's opponents came from behind with a game-tying TD in the fourth quarter: Cincinnati tied it 23-23 with 2:00 remaining in regulation and Atlanta tied it 27-27 early in the fourth.

Following each of those TDs, Murray responded with a game-winning scoring drive for the Cardinals. According to ProFootballReference.com, Murray is the first rookie QB in franchise history to lead a game-winning scoring drive in consecutive games.

Week 5 @ Cincinnati

GW Drive: 6 plays, 62 yards, 2:00 - FG

Murray: 1-of-1 for 24 yards, 1 rush for 24 yards

Week 6 vs. Atlanta

GW Drive: 5 plays, 45 yards, 2:00 - TD

Murray: 2-of-3 for 22 yards, 14-yard GW TD pass to RB David Johnson

Leading 18-point Comeback vs. Detroit in Week 1

During his NFL debut in Week 1 vs. Detroit, Murray led the Cardinals to an 18-point fourth quarter comeback to tie the Lions. He sparked the comeback with his performance in the fourth quarter and OT, when he completed 20-of-29 pass attempts (68.9%) for 238 yards, 2 TDs, 0 INTs.

MURRAY MAKING A RUN FOR IT

In the Cardinals Week 5 victory over Cincinnati, Murray rushed for a career-high 93 yards. It represents the third-highest single-game rushing total by a QB in franchise history.

It was the highest total for a Cardinals QB since 1958. Despite having appeared in just seven games, Murray already owns two of the top six single-game rushing totals by a QB in franchise history.

300-YARD OUTINGS FOR MURRAY

After throwing for 340 yards against the Falcons in Week 6, Murray became the first rookie QB in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards in a win.

Prior to 2019, a rookie QB had thrown for 300+ yards in a game for the Cardinals just five times – and Arizona lost all five of those games. Murray is 1-1-1 when throwing for 300+ yards.

Murray is the first rookie in franchise history with at least three 300-yard performances. The only other rookie in franchise history with multiple 300-yard outings was Jake Plummer (2, 1997).

MURRAY THROWS FOR 300+ IN 1st TWO GAMES

Playing his first-ever game in the Cardinals season-opener vs. Detroit, rookie Murray threw for 308 yards. In doing so, he became just the fifth rookie in NFL history to throw for 300+ yards in a season-opener. He is the first Cardinals rookie in history to throw for 300+ yards in his first career game.

In Week 2 at Baltimore, Murray exceeded that total, throwing for 349 yards against the Ravens. He joined Cam Newton (2011) as the only QBs in NFL history to throw for 300+ yards in each of their two career games.

A RECORD NUMBER OF COMPLETIONS

Through the first seven games, Murray has completed 167 of his 259 pass attempts (64.5%).

With 167 completions so far in 2019, Murray has established a new NFL record for completions in a player's first seven career games.

RELYING HEAVILY ON THE ROOKIE

Murray's statistics in 2019 bear out just how much the Cardinals have relied on their rookie signal-caller so far this season. He has:

259 pass attempts (6th in the NFL)
167 completions (7th in the NFL)
1,768 passing yards (11th in the NFL)
49 rush attempts (2nd among starting QBs)
266 rushing yards (2nd among starting QBs)
2 rushing TDs (8th among starting QBs)

Murray (259 pass attempts; 49 rushes) is the only QB in the NFL this season with 250+ pass attempts and at least 40 rushing attempts.

QUICKLY CLIMBING THE RECORD BOOKS

Despite being just seven games into his inaugural NFL campaign, Murray's 1,768 passing yards represent the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a rookie.

He now needs just 780 yards to establish a new franchise rookie record for passing yards.

#1'S RECORD-BREAKING DEBUT

When Arizona hosted Detroit in Week 1, Murray became the first Cardinals rookie QB to start a season opener since Lamar McHan in 1954.

That wasn't the only history Murray made in that contest. Below are a few more highlights:

- Led the Cardinals to an 18-point fourth quarter comeback to tie the Lions, completing 29-of-54 pass attempts for 308 yards and 2 TDs.
- Became the first player in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards in his first career game.
- Joined Jake Plummer (1997) as the only players in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards and multiple TDs in a game during their rookie season.
- Sparked the comeback with his performance in the fourth quarter and OT, when he completed 20-of-29 pass attempts (68.9%) for 238 yards, 2 TDs, 0 INTs.

Murray is one of eight active QBs who were selected #1 overall in the NFL Draft. He is the only one of the eight not to lose in their NFL debut. Below is a look at the stat lines in their debut for all eight active QBs taken with the #1 overall:

CARDS TAKE MURRAY #1 OVERALL

Holding the #1 overall selection in the NFL Draft for just the fifth time in franchise history - and first time since 1958 - the Cardinals took Murray with the top pick this past April.

A STAR IS BORN AT OKLAHOMA

After starting his college career at Texas A&M in 2015, Murray played two seasons at Oklahoma (2017-18). In his first season with the Sooners in 2017, Murray backed up Heisman Trophy winner and 2018 #1 overall pick Baker Mayfield.

Murray took over in 2018, starting 13 of 14 games and completing 260-of-377 pass attempts (69.0%) for 4,361 yards, 42 TDs and just seven INTs while also rushing for 1,001 yards and 12 TDs on 140 carries (7.2 avg.).

Below is a look at what Murray accomplished with the Sooners in 2018:

- Became the first FBS player ever to average at least 300 passing yards (311.5) and at least 60 rushing yards (71.5) per game for a full season.
- Joined Clemson's Deshaun Watson (2015) as the only FBS players to ever record at least 4,000 passing yards and at least 1,000 rushing yards in a season.
- Led the nation in total yards (school-record 5,362), points responsible for (324), yards/completion (16.8) and yards/pass attempt (single-season FBS record of 11.6).
- Only player in school history to throw for 300 yards and rush for 100 in a game and did so three times.
- Threw at least two TD passes in all but one game and threw at least three TD passes in 10 of 14 contests.
- Set school and Big 12 records with at least three TD passes in eight straight games.

Murray's Honors in 2018

- Heisman Trophy (7th Sooner to win the award)
- Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Year Award and Manning Award recipient
- Associated Press Player of the Year
- Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award finalist
- 1st-team All-American (AP and FWA)
- Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year 1st-team All-Big 12
- Most Outstanding Player of Big 12 Championship
- 5-time Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week (tied league record)

CARDINALS ADD A HEISMAN WINNER

The winner of the 2018 Heisman Trophy, Kyler Murray became just the third Heisman recipient ever drafted by the Cardinals.

When Murray took the field with Arizona in the season opener against Detroit in Week 1, he became the fifth Heisman Trophy winner to play for the Cardinals, joining Sam Bradford, Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart and John David Crow.

48 TOUCHDOWNS IN 56 CAREER GAMES

RB David Johnson scored his fourth and fifth TDs of the season in Week 6 against the Falcons, a one-yard TD run in the second quarter and a game-winning 14-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter.

Johnson has 48 TDs (33 rushing, 14 receiving, 1 KOR) in 56 career games. His 48 TDs rank seventh on the franchise all-time list for career TDs.

JOHNSON GOING OVER 100

During his record-shattering 2016 campaign, Johnson became the first player in NFL history to post 100+ scrimmage yards in each of the first 15 games of a season.

Before an injury limited him to just three plays in last week's game against the Giants, Johnson had posted 100+ scrimmage yards in three consecutive games. He has four total outings with 100+ scrimmage yards in 2019.

Despite missing most of last week's game, Johnson's four outings with 100+ scrimmage yards are tied for second the NFL.

A Look at Fitzgerald's Reception Streak

-Fitzgerald has at least one catch in 240 of 241 career games played. His streak began in Week 9 of his rookie season in 2004 at Miami. That is seven weeks after Rice's 274-game streak - the longest in NFL history - ended.

-Fitzgerald has at least one reception in all 42 different stadiums he has played in during his NFL career.

THRILLING THE HOME FANS

Fitzgerald has been thrilling fans at State Farm Stadium since the venue opened in 2006. He has played 106 career regular season games in 13-plus seasons at State Farm Stadium.

In those contests, he has totaled 622 receptions. In NFL history, only WR Jerry Rice had more receptions in a single stadium. Fitzgerald needs 25 receptions over the final four home games in 2019 to pass Rice for most catches in a single venue.

He has more career receptions than 26 of the 27 receivers in the HOF: Swann (336), Hayes (371), Pihos (373), Lavelli (386), Hirsch (387), Fears (400), Warfield (427), McDonald (495), Mitchell (521), Stallworth (537), Alworth (542), Biletnikoff (589), Berry (631), Maynard (633), Taylor (649), Irvin (750), Joiner (750), Lofton (764), Largent (819), Monk (940), Reed (951), Moss (982), Owens (1,078), Brown (1,094), Carter (1,101) and Harrison (1,102).

He has more career receiving yards than 26 of the 27 receivers in the HOF: Fears (5,397), Swann (5,462), Pihos (5,619), Lavelli (6,488), Hirsch (7,029), Hayes (7,414), Mitchell (7,954), McDonald (8,410), Warfield (8,565), Stallworth (8,723), Biletnikoff (8,974), Taylor (9,110), Berry (9,275), Alworth (10,266), Maynard (11,834), Irvin (11,904), Joiner (12,146), Monk (12,721), Largent (13,089), Reed (13,198), Carter (13,899), Lofton (14,004), Brown (14,934), Harrison (14,580), Moss (15,292) and Owens (15,934).

A Career Full of Accomplishments:

- Franchise career leader in receptions (1,339), receiving yards (16,718), receiving TDs (118), total TDs (118) and 100-yard receiving games (49). His nine 1,000-yard seasons are also a franchise record.
- Led the NFL with 107 receptions in 2016, marking the second time in his career (103 in 2005; tied with Steve Smith) he had done so. He became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in receptions at least 11 years apart. Prior to Fitzgerald, the longest span between leading the league in receptions was six by Jerry Rice (1990, 1996).
- Fitzgerald (11) joins Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (13) as the only wide receivers in NFL history to be named to the Pro Bowl at least 11 times.
- Fitzgerald had more receptions in his first 200 career games (1,116) than any player in NFL history.
- One of just seven players in NFL history to record at least 1,400 receiving yards in a season four times in their career: Jerry Rice (6), Julio Jones (5), Randy Moss (4), Marvin Harrison (4), Antonio Brown (4) and Andre Johnson (4).
- At 28 years, 74 days old, he became the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 70 career receiving TDs behind only Randy Moss (26 years, 269 days old) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (28 years, one day old).
- At 32 years, 97 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 1,000 career receptions.
- At 31 years, 102 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 900 career receptions.
- At 30 years, 57 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 800 career receptions.
- At 30 years, 85 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 11,000 receiving yards.
- In 2010, he became the first player in NFL history to record 90+ receptions five times in their first seven seasons.
- During the 2008 postseason, he broke virtually every major playoff receiving record, establishing new single-season marks for receptions (30), receiving yards (546) and TDs (7). His four 100-yard receiving games in the postseason established a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100 yards receiving.
- His 10 TD receptions in nine career postseason games are an NFL record for a player in their first nine career playoff contests.
- With a then franchise-record 103 receptions during the 2005 season, he became the youngest player in NFL history to record a 100-catch campaign when he reached the mark at 22 years, 123 days old.
- Led the NFL in receiving TDs in both the 2008 (12) and 2009 (13) seasons. In addition to his 10 receiving TDs in 2007, he became the first player in franchise history to record at least 10 TDs in three consecutive seasons.
- At 29 years, 44 days old, joined Randy Moss (28 years, 314 days) as the only players in NFL history to reach 10,000 career receiving yards before the age of 30.
- One of just five players in NFL history to record 15,000+ receiving yards and 100+ TD receptions in their career.

21 HAS 23 INTERCEPTIONS

The Cardinals selected CB Patrick Peterson with the fifth pick in the 2011 NFL Draft, and in his first eight seasons, he earned eight Pro Bowl selections and was named first-team All-Pro three times. Considered one of the game's best shutdown corners, he has proven to be one of the most unique talents in NFL history.

Since his rookie season in 2011, only four players have more INTs than Peterson.

DEFENSIVE DRAFT PICKS START FOR THE CARDS

Four rookie draft picks – DL Zach Allen (one game), CB Byron Murphy Jr. (seven), S Deionte Thompson (two) and S Jalen Thompson (two) – have all started for the Cardinals on defense this season.

CB BYRON MURPHY JR.

The first pick in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft out of Washington, Murphy started all 20 games he played during his final two seasons (2017-18) with the Huskies. He earned first-team All-America and All-Pac-12 honors with four INTs and 17 passes defended as a senior.

This season, Murphy has 34 tackles, a tackle for loss and five passes defended, which leads all NFL rookies.

DL ZACH ALLEN

Allen was drafted by the Cardinals in the third round (65th overall) out of Boston College, where he was the ACC's highest-rated edge defender last season according to ProFootballFocus.com. He played four seasons (2015-18) for the Eagles, appearing in 50 games and totaling 199 tackles, 40.5 tackles for loss, 18.5 sacks, 16 passes defended, two INTs and two blocked kicks.

S DEIONTE THOMPSON

Arizona's fifth-round pick (139th overall) in the 2019 NFL Draft, Thompson has played all seven games this season, starting against the Ravens (Week 2) and Falcons (Week 6). He played 43 games (17 starts) and had 113 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, three INTs and 10 passes defended at Alabama. He was a consensus first-team All-American as a senior in 2018.

S JALEN THOMPSON

Selected in the fifth round of the 2019 NFL Supplemental Draft, Thompson made his first-career start and registered a career-high eight tackles in Week 5 against the Bengals. He had 191 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss, six INTs, 23 passes defended, two forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries in 39 games (all starts) in three seasons (2016-18) at Washington State.

CARDS JOIN NFL TO CELEBRATE 100TH SEASON

The NFL is celebrating its 100th season in 2019. As the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence, the Cardinals hold a unique place in league history.

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 as the Morgan Athletic Club, predating the formation of the NFL by over 20 years. By the time the NFL was founded in 1920 as the American Professional Football Association (APFA), the team was known as the Racine Cardinals when it became one of the 14 charter members of the upstart league after paying a $100 franchise fee. Today, the Cardinals and Chicago Bears represent the only two charter members of the NFL still in existence.

In 1932, Hall of Fame owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., then a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals. After divesting himself of his Bears' holdings, that began a period of family ownership that continues to this day.

In 2019, the Cardinals have joined the NFL in celebrating 100 years of play with a year-long series of "NFL 100" events, initiatives and programs celebrating fans, players and communities.

The historic and unprecedented celebration is a salute to the millions of fans who love the game; highlighting the unifying nature of football and its positive impact in communities; bringing together generations of past, present and future players; and looking ahead to the NFL's next 100 years.

CARDS A MEMBER OF NFL'S TWO OLDEST RIVALRIES

Having met twice during the NFL's inaugural season in 1920, the Cardinals and Bears represent the oldest rivalry in league history. The Cardinals and Packers – who joined the league in 1921 – are the NFL's second-oldest rivalry. The Packers were formed in 1919 by Earl (Curly) Lambeau and George Calhoun but did not gain entry into the APFA until 1921.

1920 Racine Cardinals

- The Cards and Bears have faced each other 90 times during the regular season, dating back to 1920.
- The first-ever meeting between the Cardinals and Bears – then known as the Racine Cardinals and Decatur Staleys – occurred at Normal Park in Chicago on November 28th, 1920, exactly 72 days after the league was conceived as the APFA during a meeting in Canton, OH. In that game, the Cardinals defeated the Staleys 7-6 at Normal Park.
- The first meeting between the Cardinals and Packers (a 3-3 tie) occurred on November 20, 1921 at Normal Park in Chicago. The following week (November 27, 1921), the Packers and Bears met for the first time.

FRIENDSHIP OF THE HALL OF FAME OWNERS

Cardinals Hall of Fame owner Charles Bidwill and Bears Hall of Fame owner George Halas had a friendship that endured even as their team's were cross-town rivals during their shared time in Chicago.

At one point during the Great Depression, that friendship helped save Halas' ownership of the Bears.

In 1931, Halas' co-owner Edward "Dutch" Sternaman proposed being bought out of his stake in the Bears for $38,000, which was to be paid in installments. After suffering $18,000 in losses during the 1932 season, Halas was $15,000 short when the final payment was due in 1933. Defaulting on the payment meant ownership would revert to Sternaman.

"It was a case of finding $15,000 in a hurry, or losing everything I'd worked for since moving the Staleys from Decatur to Chicago in 1921," Halas wrote in 1967 in a history of the Bears published in the Chicago Tribune. "From this desperate situation, I was rescued by the joint efforts of my mother and my good friend Charley Bidwill. Mother bought $5,000 worth of stock from her savings. Bidwill purchased $5,000 in stock and also arranged a bank loan for the remaining $5,000 needed. But it was a mighty close call. As I remember, I finally got all the money together at 11:10 a.m. on the day the final note came due. Forfeit time was 12 o'clock noon."

A HISTORY OF BEING THE FIRST

In addition to being the oldest professional football team in the country, the Cardinals also have a long history of serving as a pioneer in the sport – both on and off the playing field.

DIVERSITY

1st Female Owner in NFL History: Following the 1947 death of Cardinals owner and Pro Football Hall of Fame Charles Bidwill, his wife Violet oversaw operations of the franchise for the next 15 years. As such, she became the first female to serve as principal owner in NFL history and is believed to be the first female owner in American pro sports.

Violet Bidwill

1st African American Female Executive in NFL History:

Adele Harris spent 26 seasons with the franchise before retiring in 2001. She holds the distinction of being the first African American female to hold a front office position with an NFL team. Harris first worked as a secretary for the St. Louis Football Cardinals from 1971-74. She left the club to pursue a degree in business management and returned to the team in 1978 as a publicity assistant. By 1980, Harris became the team's director of community relations, and was instrumental in the team's civic efforts when it relocated to Arizona in 1988. Harris passed away in November of 2007.

1st African American to Handle Contract Negotiations for NFL Team: In 1981, the team hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club.

1st African American Head Coach/General Manager Tandem: In 2004, the Cardinals hired Dennis Green as the team's head coach. Joining General Manager Rod Graves, they became the first African American general manager/head coach pairing. Hired by Arizona in 1997 as Assistant to the President, Graves spent 16 seasons with the organization, including the last six years at the team's GM.

1st Female Coach in NFL History: In 2015, the Cardinals hired Jen Welter as a coaching intern for training camp and the preseason to work with inside linebackers, making her the first female coach of any kind in NFL history.

INTERNATIONAL PLAY

1st NFL Game Outside of North America: The most popular sport in the United States played before an international audience for the first time ever when the Cardinals and San Diego Chargers met for a preseason matchup at Korakuen Stadium in Tokyo, Japan. On August 16, 1976 the Cardinals defeated the Chargers 20-10 before an estimated crowd of 38,000.

1st NFL Game in Europe: On August 6, 1983 the Cardinals faced the Minnesota Vikings in a preseason matchup at Wembley Stadium in London. The Vikings defeated the Cardinals 28-10 in front of 32,847 fans at the landmark event.

1st NFL Regular Season Game Played Outside United States: On October 2, 2005 the Cardinals earned a 17-point come-from-behind victory over the San Francisco 49ers in a game played in front of a then-record crowd of 103,467 at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca. It was the first NFL regular season game ever played outside of the US.

FOOTBALL FIRSTS

1st Night Game in NFL History:

On November 6, 1929 the Providence Steamrollers became the first team to host a game at night using floodlights in a matchup against the Cardinals. That night contest also featured the first use of a football painted white during an actual game. With fan attendance crucial to generate revenue, the game was played in the evening rather than during the workday. The minor league baseball field of Kinsley Park was adorned with floodlights and the Cards earned a 16-0 victory over the Steamrollers.

NFL's 1st Night Game - 11/6/29

1st Out of Town Training Camp: Prior to the 1929 season, the Cardinals conducted what is believed to be the NFL's first extended out-of-town training camp when the team spent the summer at Waterworks Park in Coldwater, Michigan.

1st Indoor NFL Game: With the country struggling through the Great Depression in late 1930, the Chicago Cardinals challenged the cross-town Bears to play a game to raise money for the governor's fund for unemployment relief. To battle the freezing temperatures the teams agreed to play at Chicago Stadium, then the largest indoor arena in the world. On December 15, 1930 the Bears earned a 9-7 victory in front of 10,000 fans. Six inches of dirt were hauled in and rolled for a playing surface, forcing the teams to use a white ball to increase visibility for both the players and fans. In addition to raising thousands of dollars for charity, it was a precursor to the 1932 championship when the Bears played for the NFL title in the same venue against the Portsmouth Spartans.

1st Retractable Grass Field in NFL History: When the Cardinals opened their new stadium in 2006, the venue broke the mold in terms of design and architecture. Among its most unique features is a fully retractable grass playing surface that resides outside the stadium for 300+ days a year and rolls in when needed. The first of its kind in NFL history, the stadium's grass playing surface has consistently ranked #1 in surveys of the league's players.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

The 2019 season is the 13th since Michael Bidwill took over as team President in 2007. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

- Leading the list of Bidwill's accomplishments with the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. Since it opened in 2006, the team has sold out all 140 games (preseason and postseason included) played at the venue, which has also hosted a pair of Super Bowls.

- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII and XLIX, he led the effort to land Super Bowl LVII (2023) in the spring of 2018. Michael was instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to Arizona; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX and the 2015 Pro Bowl combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

- Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's 12 years as team president. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests since Bidwill took over in 2007.

- AZ has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice during Bidwill's time as president (2008, 2015), including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).

- Arizona's 50 wins between 2013-17 were the most in any five-year span in franchise history.

- In January of 2016, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame.

- In January of 2018, Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee.

- In January of 2019, Michael received the Paul Tagliabue Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance for demonstrating integrity and leadership in the area of career development for minorities and advocating for diversity.

SUPER BOWL COMING BACK TO AZ

Valley Will Host 4th Super Bowl When Game Returns in 2023

The biggest event in American sports is returning to Arizona as State Farm Stadium was selected to host Super Bowl LVII that will cap the 2022 NFL season.

Super Bowl LVII will be the fourth Super Bowl played in Arizona and the third in 15 years at State Farm Stadium. The Valley last hosted Super Bowl XLIX following the 2014 season. With Super Bowl LVII being held at State Farm Stadium, Arizona will join South Florida, New Orleans, Los Angeles and Tampa Bay as the only sites selected to host the Super Bowl at least four times.

140 GAMES AND 140 SELLOUTS

In Week 6 the Cardinals hosted the Atlanta Falcons at State Farm Stadium.

After selling out the contest against Atlanta, the Cardinals have sold out all 140 games played at State Farm Stadium since the world-class venue opened in 2006.

There were only 12 total games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

Below is a look at the results at State Farm Stadium compared to 18 seasons at Sun Devil Stadium.

IT GETS LOUD IN THERE

Having a sellout crowd on hand every game has given Arizona one of the NFL's most distinct home field advantages.

Dating back to the inaugural year at State Farm Stadium in 2006, Cards opponents have accumulated 173 accepted false start penalties in the regular season. That is the most for any home team in the NFL during that span.

"It was the most fun I've had playing football, and I had a lot of fun in college," Palmer said of his time with the Cardinals. "I had some fun playing for the Bengals, but it's the most fun I've had playing the game. I met some unbelievable (people). It's not just the coaches and the players. It's everybody that's affiliated with this organization."

THE KINGSBURY ERA BEGINS IN ARIZONA

TAKING THE REINS

On January 8, 2019 the Cardinals announced the hiring of Kliff Kingsbury as the team's head coach.

The 40-year old Kingsbury spent the past six seasons (2013-18) as the head coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech, and was hired as USC's offensive coordinator in December. The New Braunfels, TX native is an 11-year coaching veteran who has also worked at Texas A&M (2012) and at the University of Houston (2008-11) where he began his coaching career.

Recognized as one of the profession's brightest and most-innovative offensive minds, Kingsbury has tutored six future NFL QBs, including first-round selections Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield and Johnny Manziel as well as Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. Under Kingsbury's guidance, Mahomes (2016) and Keenum (2009, '11) both led the nation in passing.

Highlights from Kingsbury's Coaching Career

- While at Texas Tech, Kingsbury served as the play-caller for one of college football's most explosive and productive offenses. The Red Raiders featured a passing attack that ranked in the top-10 in the country in all six seasons of his tenure, ranked in the top-20 nationally for total offense in all six seasons and finished in the top-25 in scoring five times.
- Under Kingsbury, Texas Tech averaged at least 30 points per game, 470 total yards per game and 300 passing yards per game in all six seasons. The Red Raiders averaged more than 500 yards of offense in four seasons and over 450 passing yards twice. They also averaged at least 140 rushing yards per game four times in six seasons under Kingsbury and averaged more than 40 points per game twice.
- At both Houston (2011) and Texas Tech (2016) Kingsbury's offenses led the nation in total offense and passing offense.
- Dating back to his first offensive coordinator job at Houston in 2011, a Kingsbury-led offense never finished outside the top-20 in the nation in total offense and never finished outside the top-15 in passing offense.
- In 2016, Texas Tech led the nation in total offense (566.6 ypg) and passing offense (463.0 ypg) while finishing #5 in scoring (43.7 ppg). It was the sixth consecutive season a Kingsbury-led unit finished in the top-10 in total offense dating back to his time at both Houston and Texas A&M.
- In 2015, the Red Raiders finished #2 in the nation in total offense (579.5 ypg), #2 in scoring offense (45.1 ppg) and had the nation's second ranked passing offense (388.2 ypg). The 45.1 points per game average established a school single-season record and Texas Tech was one of just two schools in the nation to score at least 25 points in every game. The Red Raiders featured a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in school history.
- With Kingsbury serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2011, Houston led the nation in total offense (599.1 ypg), passing offense (450.1 ypg) and scoring (49.3 ppg) as quarterback Case Keenum finished his collegiate career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history.

Kingsbury spent the 2012 season at Texas A&M as offensive coordinator/QBs coach working under current University of Arizona head coach Kevin Sumlin. Texas A&M finished third nationally in total offense (558.5 ypg) with an attack that finished 13th nationally in rushing (242.1 ypg) and 14th in passing (316.5 ypg). The Aggies beat #1 Alabama on the road and #11 Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl.

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston under Sumlin as the offensive quality control coach (2008-09) prior to being elevated to QBs coach (2010) and then co-offensive coordinator in 2011.

Kingsbury played QB at Texas Tech (1999-2002) where he set 39 school records, 16 Big 12 marks and 17 NCAA records during his collegiate career while throwing for 12,423 yards and 95 TDs. As a senior in 2012, he was awarded the Sammy Baugh Trophy as the nation's top college QB and was also named the Associated Press Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year while finishing ninth in Heisman Trophy voting.

He was drafted in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by New England in 2003 and spent his rookie season on the Patriots injured reserve list before spending the 2004 season on the Saints practice squad. Kingsbury played in one game with the Jets in 2005 and attended training camp with the Bills in 2006. He also played with the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe in 2006 before playing with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 2007.

In 2018, Kingsbury was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame. He played high school football under his father, Tim, at New Braunfels (TX) High School where he threw for more than 3,000 yards and 34 TDs as a senior.

RUNNING HIGH-POWERED OFFENSES

During his time at the college level, Kingsbury's offenses averaged 40.3 points/game.

During his six seasons at Texas Tech (2013-18), the Red Raiders averaged 37.8 points/game.

Offensive Points/Game Under Kingsbury (2011-18)

Not Slowing Down Against Ranked Opponents

Under Kingsbury, the Tech Tech offenses averaged 502 yards/game in 24 contests against ranked opponents from 2013-18. The Red Raiders posted 600+ yards of offense in six of those games.

COACHING QUARTERBACKS

After joining the coaching ranks with the University of Houston in 2008, Kliff Kingsbury mentored six future NFL QBs during his coaching tenure: Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield, Johnny Manziel, Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. Mahomes, Mayfield and Manziel were all selected in the 1st round of the NFL Draft.

^1st Freshman ever to win Heisman Trophy

*Total led the nation

Mahomes (Texas Tech)

Under Kingsbury's tutelage, Mahomes spent two full seasons (2015-16) as the starter at Texas Tech. In those two years the Red Raiders finished #2 (2015) and #1 (2016) in the nation in total offense while Mahomes threw for a combined 9,705 yards and 77 TDs in 25 starts.

As a sophomore in 2015, Mahomes became the youngest QB in NCAA history to amass 5,000 yards of total offense. He eclipsed the 5,000-yard mark again in 2016, becoming just the third quarterback ever to record 5,000+ yards of total offense in back-to-back seasons.

Keenum (Univ. of Houston)

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston where he was a quality control coach from 2008-09 before being promoted to QBs coach in 2010 and co-offensive coordinator in 2011. The Cougars led the nation in total offense, passing offense and scoring in 2011, while Keenum completed his record-setting career by placing seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting and winning the Sammy Baugh Award.

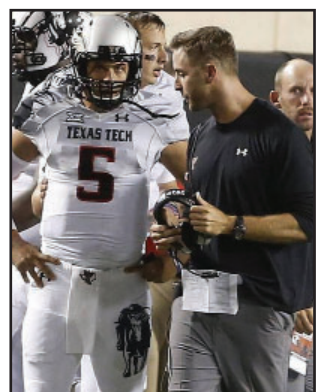

With Kingsbury calling plays, the Cougars averaged 599.1 total yards per game, including 450.1 through the air, while scoring over 49 points per game. Keenum wrapped up his career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history. In his one season with Kingsbury as his QBs coach, Keenum completed 428-of-604 passes for 5,631 yards and 48 TDs, all of which led the NCAA FBS.

Manziel (Texas A&M)

Prior to taking over at Texas Tech, Kingsbury spent one season (2012) as the offensive coordinator at Texas A&M. In his lone season with the Aggies, Kingsbury played a crucial role in Manziel becoming the first freshman ever to win the Heisman Trophy.

Webb and Shimonek (Texas Tech)

Two other Kingsbury quarterbacks have also moved on to the league in recent years as Webb was selected by the New York Giants in the third round of the 2017 draft while Shimonek signed an undrafted free agent agreement with the Los Angeles Chargers in 2018.

TOM CLEMENTS - PASS GAME COORDINATOR/QBS

Now in his first season as the Cardinals Pass Game Coordinator/QBs coach, veteran assistant Tom Clements (CLEM-ents) is a 24-year coaching veteran who has spent 20 seasons as an assistant coach in the NFL, including five seasons as an offensive coordinator.

- Named Cardinals pass game coordinator/QBs coach on 1/22/19.
- Coached for 11 seasons with the Packers (2006-16). In his 11 seasons with Green Bay, the Packers finished top-10 in the NFL in total offense nine times, made the postseason nine times and won Super Bowl XLV following the 2010 season.
- During his tenure with the Packers, Clements helped with the development of QB Aaron Rodgers who was selected to six Pro Bowls and earned NFL MVP honors in 2011 and 2014.
- In three seasons as offensive coordinator with Green Bay (2012-14), the Packers ranked #3 in the NFL in scoring (27.8 ppg), #5 in total offense (381.9 ypg), #3 in giveaways (54) and #5 in first downs (1,048).
- The Packers finished top-10 in the NFL in scoring in each season Clements worked as offensive coordinator, including in 2014 when the Packers led the NFL with 486 points.
- Also coached QB Brett Favre, who in 2007 was selected to the Pro Bowl after throwing for more than 4,000 yards for the fifth time in his career and led the Packers to the NFC Championship game.
- Has coached 13 different offensive players to a total of 21 Pro Bowls and tutored five quarterbacks who had 13 total 3,000-yard passing seasons, including eight 4,000-yard campaigns.

Prior to joining Green Bay, Clements spent two seasons (2004-05) as the offensive coordinator in Buffalo. He spent the previous seven years as a QBs coach with Pittsburgh, Kansas City and New Orleans. Clements helped Elvis Grbac (Chiefs in 2000) and Kordell Stewart (Steelers in 2001) earn Pro Bowl selections while Tommy Maddox (Pittsburgh) was named NFL Comeback Player of the Year in 2002.

Clements got his start in coaching at his alma mater, Notre Dame, spending four seasons (1992-95) working under Lou Holtz. He played 12 years in the Canadian Football League as a QB and was a seven-time divisional All-Star, 1987 CFL MVP, 1975 CFL Rookie of the Year and two-time Gray Cup Champion with Ottawa (1976) and Winnipeg (1984), earning the Outstanding Offensive Player award in each game.

JEFF RODGERS - ASST. HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS

Jeff Rodgers is in his second season with Arizona and first as the team's assistant head coach/special teams coordinator.

He came to Cardinals in January, 2018 as the team's special teams coordinator and added the title of assistant head coach in 2019.

- Hired as Cardinals special teams coordinator in 2018 after working in the same capacity for three seasons (2015-17) with the Chicago Bears.
- Has 18 years of coaching experience, including 15 seasons coaching special teams in the NFL with Arizona, Chicago (2015-17), Denver (2011-14), Carolina (2009-10) and San Francisco (2003-07).

• Helped the Cardinals rank 5th in the NFL in special teams last season after the team finished 30th in 2017. P Andy Lee led the NFL and set a franchise single-season record with a 48.6-yard punting average and rookie LB Zeke Turner led the NFL with 13 solo special teams tackles in 2018.

• The Broncos returned six kicks for TDs during Rodgers tenure in Denver (2011-14), tied for the second most in the NFL in that span. In 2012, Trindon Holliday became the first player in NFL history to record multiple return TDs in a playoff game when he scored on a 90-yard punt return and a 104-yard kickoff return in a 38-35 double-overtime loss to the Ravens.

• Under Rodgers tutelage, Broncos K Matt Prater was named to the Pro Bowl in 2013 after setting franchise records in field goal percentage (96.2%; 25-of-26) and points scored (150). Prater's 64-yard field goal in 2013 is the longest in NFL history. In 2014, K Connor Barth's 93.8 field-goal percentage (15-of-16) was the second-highest in team history.

Rodgers began his coaching career at the University of Arizona in 2001, spending two seasons as a graduate assistant working with the secondary and LBs under head coach John Mackovic. He entered the NFL coaching ranks with San Francisco in 2003 as a special teams quality control coach for two seasons.

VANCE JOSEPH - DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Vance Joseph was hired as Arizona's Defensive Coordinator this offseason and joined the Cardinals after two years (2017-18) as head coach of the Denver Broncos.

He is a 20-year coaching veteran, including 14 seasons in the NFL with San Francisco (2005-10), Houston (2011-13), Cincinnati (2014-15), Miami (2016) and Denver (2017-18).

- Hired as Cardinals defensive coordinator on 1/11/19.
- Joseph has 12 years of coaching experience on the defensive side of the ball in the NFL, including as defensive coordinator with Miami in 2016.

• In Joseph's initial season with the Broncos in 2017, Denver had the NFL's #3 ranked defense and joined Minnesota as the only teams in the NFL that season to rank in the top-five in both run defense and pass defense. The Broncos ranked #5 in run defense in '17 after finishing the previous year ranked #28 in that category.

• In 2018, the Broncos defense ranked in the top-10 in the NFL in INTs (17), takeaways (28) and sacks (44). Rookie LB Bradley Chubb – Denver's first-round selection in the 2018 NFL Draft – led all NFL rookies with 12.0 sacks last season. Pro Bowl LB Von Miller had 14.5 sacks, tied for fourth in the NFL last season. Denver was one of three teams (Seattle, Kansas City) to have two players record double digit sacks in 2018.

• In a stretch from 2011-16, which spanned jobs in Houston, Cincinnati and Miami, Joseph's teams made the postseason five times in six seasons.

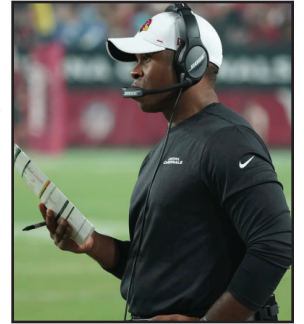

• Joseph's teams have ranked in the top-10 in INTs in four of the past five seasons.

• Four different DBs earned a combined five Pro Bowl selections – Johnathan Joseph (2), Reggie Nelson (1), Adam Jones (1) and Walt Harris (1) – during Joseph's time coaching defensive backs in Cincinnati, Houston and San Francisco.

Prior to his tenure in Miami, Joseph coached DBs for two seasons (2014-15) with Cincinnati, helping the Bengals to back-to-back postseason appearances. During his two seasons with Cincinnati, the Bengals led the NFL with 41 INTs. Cincinnati was the only team to post more INTs than TDs allowed (36) during that two-year stretch while holding opposing QBs to the lowest combined passer rating (77.4) in the NFL.

Prior to beginning his coaching career as a grad assistant at the University of Colorado in 2000, Joseph appeared in 30 games for the Buffaloes (1990-94), playing QB, RB and on special teams, and was a member of the Buffaloes 1990 National Championship team. He served as a backup to All-American QBs Darian Hagan and Kordell Stewart and completed 34-of-61 passes for 454 yards and four TDs to go along with 50 carries for 237 yards and one TD in his college career.

He converted to CB in the NFL and signed with the Jets as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995. As a rookie, Joseph played in 13 games and had 21 tackles (17 solo), two INTs and five passes defended. He played in four games with the Colts in 1996 before spending the preseason with Denver in 1997.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

FITZ AND GARTH TEAM UP

Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald recently partnered with country music artist and friend Garth Brooks to donate electronics to 32 schools in the Phoenix and Minneapolis metro areas to increase digital literacy.

In September (9/12), Fitzgerald and Brooks (via video call) visited Academia Del Pueblo, a low-income K-8 charter school in Phoenix, to announce their donation.

The visit was known by few, including principal Frank Lomeli, who said "place just absolutely erupted" when Fitzgerald was introduced.

"Technology bridges all gaps," Fitzgerald said in an interview with The Arizona Republic. "It doesn't matter what school you go to. A young person can sit down and learn about anything that they desire to learn about."

The donations include multiple devices from the Microsoft Store, which partnered with Brooks' Teammates for Kids Foundation and Fitzgerald's The First Down Fund.

Digital literacy is described as the ability to understand and use digital tools "in communicative, collaborative ways" by the American Library Association.

In March (3/23), Fitzgerald joined Brooks on stage during his performance at State Farm Stadium to present him a Cardinals jersey.

"Arizona, let me tell you, you might have the greatest human being I've ever met in Larry Fitzgerald," Brooks told the crowd of 77,653.

DAVID'S LOCKER OPENS AT RYAN'S HOUSE

In September (9/10), Cardinals RB David Johnson and his wife, Meghan, presented a gift young patients at Ryan's House in Phoenix on behalf of their non-profit Johnson Family's Mission 31 Foundation.

"This is really why I play football, just to be able to give back to the community and give back to people in need," said Johnson.

The organization donated its fourth "David's Locker," a mobile cart containing Nintendo Switches, iPads, noise-cancelling headphones and video games to serve as a welcome diversion for patients during treatment.

"If something ever happened to our kids, we would want the same support so this just means the world to us," said Meghan.

The Johnson Family's Mission 31 Foundation provides opportunities, encouragement and resources to seriously ill children and their families by offering daily support and life changing experiences.

"It's going to give our kids an opportunity to use technology that they may or may not have at home and here in a setting where they feel supported and can do all kinds of fun things," said Tracy Leonard-Warner with Ryan's House.

Through their family foundation, created in 2017, the Johnsons are inspired to make a positive impact on children's lives. Before professional football, David planned on a career in teaching and coaching.

Meghan's dream was to work as a nurse at a children's oncology unit. They both are involved in volunteering at children's hospitals in the Valley and enjoy combining their passions into one cause through their foundation work.

COREY'S BOOK CLUB

Cardinals DL Corey Peters hosts a bi-weekly book club at South Pointe High School through his Peters Educational Enrichment Project (PEEP).

In 2015, Peters established PEEP, which works to supplement the educational system and improve learning environments by providing programs, seminars, motivational speaking and football camps for students of all ages.

A NIGHT OUT WITH THE ARIZONA CARDINALS

Earlier this month (10/7), Cardinals DL Zach Allen, LB Dennis Gardeck, DL Corey Peters and LB Joe Walker showed off their culinary skills during "A Night Out with the Arizona Cardinals" at Sakana Sushi & Grill in Phoenix, an annual event that honors cancer survivors.

Gardeck and his teammates were the featured attraction, but hardly the stars of the evening.

That distinction was reserved for the invited guests, survivors of breast cancer and other forms of cancer.

CARDS "FEED THE FAMILIES"

On Wednesday, Oct. 16, Cardinals RB David Johnson, LBs Dennis Gardeck and Joe Walker, Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders visited the Ronald McDonald House in Phoenix for a "Feed the Families" event hosted by the Arizona Cardinals Women's Club. The group from the Cardinals provided the families with dinner, drinks and dessert.

The Ronald McDonald House Charities of Phoenix provides a welcoming "home away from home" for children and their families who travel to Phoenix to receive treatment for serious, often life-threatening illnesses and injuries. They help lessen the burden by ensuring families have the stability they need to support their children by providing an atmosphere of comfort, hope and courage while also supporting programs that directly benefit children and their families in the community.

SAGUARO CARDINALS RETURN

In September (9/23), the Cardinals hosted an NFL Fantennial pep rally featuring RB D.J. Foster, WR Christian Kirk, CB Byron Murphy, Nicole Bidwill, team mascot Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders at Saguaro High School.

The three players addressed the students at the pep rally highlighting Saguaro athletics and took part in a Q&A session while also signing autographs and taking pictures.

The Saguaro High School football team also attended the Cardinals Week 4 home game (9/29) against the Seahawks as guests of the team. Foster, Kirk and Murphy all attended Saguaro High School and won a collective six state championships with the Sabercats from 2008-15.

"NFL100" is a year-long celebration to commemorate the centennial season of the National Football League and bring generations of football fans, players, communities and all 32 clubs together for a unique line-up of programming and activities.

JONES GIVES BACK

In September LB Chandler Jones donated Nike cleats to the football team at his high school alma mater, Union-Endicott in upstate New York.

"I think they're more excited because they're getting a gift from Chandler Jones," said Tom Baleno, the U-E Football Coach, via Spectrum News. "He's top-notch, he's mastered his craft in the NFL, and just to have - it could be anything - a gift from him is what's really special."

Jones, a 2008 graduate of U-E, went on to star at Syracuse before the Patriots selected him with the 21st overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft.

"I think it's fantastic that he inspires us to be the best version of ourselves," Baleno said. "He's a great role model. I think he really embodies what U-E football is. And us as a community, we're very proud of him."
